The Ascension

Three great festivals of the Church Year fall, this year, in June; the Ascension, Whitsunday and Trinity.

The fortieth day after the Resurrection has arrived. Our Lord meets His chosen and leads them out beyond Bethany to the Mount of Olivet. For the last time the Master and His disciples walk along those familiar paths. He gives them final instructions concerning the things which pertain to the kingdom of God.

When He assembles them upon the mount, and overflowing with love for those whom He had chosen out of the world and for all who should believe on Him through them, He raised those precious hands in Divine blessing. Then the Son of Man and the Son of God rises by His own power up into the vault of heaven. Awe-struck, dumb with amazement, even the impulsive Peter finds no words to say. With outstretched hands in benediction upon the world that had rejected Him, a cloud receives Him out of their sight; and still they gaze entranced in heart felt worship and lofty contemplation. Then angels sent back by the Triumphant King, announce to them that He who had promised to be with them to the end of the world and had bade them wait at Jerusalem for the promised gift of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, would Himself come again in like manner, that it with clouds and the angelic hosts.

And then the disciples, no longer doubting, but full of joy, knowing Christ no more after the flesh, but after the Spirit, returned to Jerusalem with the gentle and holy Mary to wait for the coming of the Paraclete.

Shall those who profess and call themselves Christians, on such a day, the day of our Lord's exaltation, fail to render Him His due worship? When angels, fall down and worship Him, shall we be unmindful of our holy obligation and privilege to adore Him, on this great festival, which the Church appoints in commemoration of His return to His throne of Glory?

Whitsun Day

Ten days after the feast of the Ascension comes Whitsun-day.

In this feast of the Holy Spirit, which is the birthday of the church, the culmination of our Lord's Incarnation is attained. He ascended that the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity might come and abide in His Church, uniting its members one with another, and all to the Great Head that we might be led into all knowledge, truth and holiness forever. For ten days after the Ascension the little company of believers, with the Holy Mother, waited in that upper room, in obedience to their Lord's command, spending the hours in prayer and supplication for the Promised Comforter. "And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting." And then the cloven tongues, the supernatural utterances vouchsafed to all, the amazement of the beholders. St. Peter's sermon, the conviction of the hearers, the Baptism of the three thousand, all followed in quick succession. "The Spirit of the Lord filleth the world, and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice."

The Apostles are "endued with power from on high." What a contrast the betrayal, the cowardly denial and the forsaking of our Lord present when placed side by side with the intrepid conduct of the newly inspired Apostles! From that time they went forth, endued with supernatural power, to convert the world and through them we have been brought from darkness and error into the true light.

Loving, persuasive and tender is the ministry of the Spirit.

"His that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each thought, that calms
each fear,
And speaks of heaven."

Sunday next after Whitsunday occurs the feast of the Holy Trinity.

Holy Trinity

On Trinity Sunday culminates the doctrinal half of the Church Year. The remainder of the year from now to Advent, the Church lays chief emphasis on the practical side of life. "Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God," are the opening words of the Epistle for the First Sunday after Trinity.

Hitherto the emphasis from Advent on has been on the "fundamentals of the faith,"—the Incarnation, the Resurrection, the Ascension, the coming of the Holy Spirit. On Trinity Sunday the Church's services mount up to the throne of the Godhead. In the word "Trinity," she simply sums up what is revealed concerning God—that in substance He is one, but in Person, three.

The reception of truth must be gradual. The Church leads us step by step from Advent to Trinity Sunday. In Advent is heralded the coming of the Son of God and we are taught to prepare for Him, "to make His ways straight;" at Christmas the heavenly host proclaims from the starry firmament the 'good tidings of great joy;" on Epiphany, the wise men came from afar, and the Christ is manifested to the Gentiles; through Lent we enter into our Saviour's Temptation; in Gethsemane we witness the Agony; on Good Friday we follow our Saviour to the Cross and see the Son of God suffer and die for us; on the glorious Feast of Easter we see Him rise triumphant from the grave; then for forty days after the Resurrection we follow Him as He teaches His disciples "things pertaining to the Kingdom of God;" then on Holy Thursday we are with the Apostles and behold His glorious Ascension into Heaven, there to sit on the right hand of the Father; while on Witsunday we are taught that the Comforter, even the Spirit of Truth, has come to guide us into all Truth and to dwell in the Church and in our hearts forever!

Thus does the Church prepare us, step by step, for the glorious culmination of her teaching, enabling us to grasp by faith the mystery of the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

.....
Memorial Pew.

Poor Children's Outing Fund

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on the third Sunday morning in June. This is one of the most worthy charities to which the people of Christ Church are privileged to give. For about $2.50 one poor child can be taken from the hot street or alley into the country for a week where it can enjoy pure, fresh air and receive good, wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom, for several years past, to secure from various organizations for the poor, the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portions of the city—in small dirty courts and narrow streets and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called "homes" the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements are made for a week's outing in the country, and in some cases for a longer time. Occasionally a poor, over-worked mother is also sent with her children.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are asked to give and what a wonderful privilege it affords to persons, who are blessed with comfortable homes and can get away for a rest and recuperation during the hot summer months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in crowded courts and narrow streets and alleys.

The following letter received last summer from Comly B. Shoemaker, Esq., President of the Bedford Street Mission, which does splendid work for the poor in one of the most miserable parts of the city, shows how greatly appreciated was the contribution to the poor Children's Outing given last year by the people of this Church:

The following letter was received last June from the President of the Bedford Street Mission, Philadelphia:
June 30, 1915.

Rev. Chas. Henry Arndt:
My dear Mr. Arndt:—

I am this morning in receipt of your very kind letter and wish to thank you most kindly and most sincerely, not only for the liberal contribution which your church through your kind interest has sent us, but also for the very kind interest you have taken in visiting among the families of our district. Miss Boyd was recently speaking of your having asked her for additional names and of your having been around in different directions. The manner in which you go into things is most encouraging and I sincerely wish others might be willing to do likewise.

Great sport! Won't you please send us again?

Again thanking you, I beg to remain,

Very sincerely,

Comly B. Shoemaker.

Notice to All Societies

The Parish House is equipped with a full assortment of dishes to be used on occasions when refreshments or suppers may be served in the Parish House. From time to time these dishes have been used and have not been properly returned to their places. Many have been broken and not replaced.

The Rector has appointed Mrs. Thos. J. Reed and Mrs. Chas. Cotton, a committee to have sole charge of all articles in the kitchen. No person or Parish Society will be permitted to use the kitchen or the dishes without permission from this committee. There will be no exception to this rule.

The following number received the Holy Communion in Christ Church on Easter Day: At the 6.30 service 147 persons. At the 7.30 service 119. At the Mid-day service 138, making a total of 404. This is a large proportion of the Communicants on the list of the Parish. But the question is asked where were the remaining 248? Many were ill. To some of these the Rector administered the Sacrament in their homes. Others were out of town. It is hoped that they did not neglect their Easter Communion. But there were others, who were neither ill nor away!! Where were they? See St. Luke 14:18.

At the Easter Evening Carol Service a beautiful banner was presented to the Sunday School by the Women's Afternoon Bible Class. The banner is mounted on a staff, on the top of which is a cross.

The honor of carrying this banner into the Church at the Sunday School Christmas and Easter Service will be awarded each year to the boy who stand highest in his general average in the School.

Services on Ascension Day

The services in Christ Church on Ascension Day will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M. Morning Prayer and Sermon at eleven o'clock. The offering at both services will be for Church work among the colored people of Philadelphia.

Services During the Summer

During the Rector's summer vacation the services at Christ Church will be in charge of the Rev. Henry B. Bryan, Dean of the Cathedral in the Diocese of Easton, Maryland. Dean Bryan formerly lived in Germantown and has many friends here who will be glad to welcome his return.

The Services in Christ Church during the summer will be at the usual hours, viz: Holy Communion, every Sunday morning at 7.30; also on the First Sunday in the month at 11.00 o'clock.

Morning prayer and sermon at 11.00.

Evening prayer, short address, at 7.45.

The Evening Prayer on Friday afternoons will be discontinued during July and August.

Dean Bryan will be ready at all times to respond to any calls for his services, if word is left at the Rectory.

The Summer Sunday School

The Sunday School will continue its session every Sunday morning, as usual, during the summer months. On account of the absence of some of the teachers the lesson will be taught from the desk. The session will be only one hour in length and the service will be hearty and interesting.

Our Sunday School room is wonderfully well ventilated, with five large windows, eight feet high, in the Primary room and twenty windows in the upper room. There is no cooler place in Germantown on a summer Sunday morning than Christ Church Sunday School. Come and see!

Confirmation

On Maundy Thursday evening the Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, D. D., Bishop of Pennsylvania administered the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation in Christ Church. After the confirmation the Bishop conducted a most helpful service, preparatory for the Easter Communion.

At this service a majority of the communicants of Christ Church were present. The following persons received the "Laying on of Hands."

Germantown, Phila., April 24, 1916.

We, the undersigned duly appointed to act as Judges of an election held this day for five (5) Vestrymen of the Corporation known as "The Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Penna." hereby certify that such an election was held this day between the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock P. M. according to notice duly given; that we attended thereat; that we received and counted all the votes at said election duly offered, and that the following named persons were duly elected:

For Three Year Term

J. M. Woodroffe
O. N. Middleton
R. H. Morris
Geo. T. Morgan

For two Years being Unexpired Term of Keith Rodney

U. G. Rowley

Signed:

F. M. Brigham
Arthur W. Hood

Judges of Election.

At the meeting of Vestry held on Easter Tuesday evening Mr. Francis B. Falkner was re-elected Secretary and Mr. J. I. Morrison was re-elected Accounting Warden. The Rector appointed Mr. James M. Woodroffe, Rector's Warden. The organization of the Vestry for 1916-1917 stands as follows:

Officers and Committees

Rector's Warden—J. M. Woodroffe
Accounting Warden—J. I. Morrison
Secretary—F. B. Falkner

Deputies to Diocesan Convention andDelegates to Convention of Germantown

Messrs. Potter, Woodroffe, Morris
Alternate Delegates to Convocation of Germantown

Messrs. Johnson, Falkner, Morgan.
Committees

Choir—Messrs. Rowley, Woodroffe, Morris.

Property—Messrs. Baine, Falkner, Middleton.

Finance—Messrs. Woodroffe, Johnson, Bains.

Sunday School—Messrs. Morgan, Middleton, Morris.

Lay Work—Messrs. Potter, Morris, Bains.

Every Member Canvas—Messrs. Cheston, Falkner, Morrison.

Missionary—Messrs. Morgan, Rowley, Cheston.

Subscribe Through the Envelopes

Now is the time for all persons who do not subscribe through the envelope system to begin their subscription. About one half of the members of the Parish are contributors to the expenses of the parish and to missions through the Envelopes System. Every attendant at the Services of Christ Church should sign a pledge card and receive a package of envelopes. Every member of every household—children and adults—should be an envelope subscriber. Everyone should be interested enough to do his or her share in the support of the work. There should be no shirkers. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule or may be had from the verger. Now is the time to begin!

Prayer Books and Hymnals for Strangers

A number of Prayer Books and Hymnals will be found in the pew near the west and south entrances. These books are intended for the use of visitors and strangers, who are invited to take them and use them. Regular attendants at the services should provide their own Prayer Books and Hymnals and bring them to each service, taking them home with them when they return.

Memorial Vases

Two beautiful brass vases for the altar were presented to Christ Church on Easter Day in loving memory of Mrs. Sarah A. Cooley, who entered into Life Eternal February 4th, 1916.

Boy's Brigade

The Boy's Brigade will go into camp on July 1st, for a week or ten days. The place of encampment has not yet been definitely determined. The camp will be in charge of Major Clark of the Germantown Battalion.

The Mother's Meeting

On May the second the Mother's Meeting held their last session of the season. As we look back on the past winter we feel that it has been a successful one.

Our offering to the Church at Easter was $50.00. Six outfits for infants has been sent to the House of St. Michaels and All Angels—each outfit consisting of dresses, flannel petticoat and wrapper, shirts, etc. We have made and sold thirty-seven aprons, eighteen dozen towels, ten roller towels, eight rag rugs, five and a half yards of rag carpet, besides much partly worn clothing. The balance in our treasury is $25.78.

Our usual Christmas dinner was given in January, twenty-four sitting down to the table. A special feature of this occasion was the gift, by the members of the Meeting to each of the two Directresses, of a beautiful chocolate pot, cups and saucers. The generosity of the women was much appreciated by the recipients.

On the first Tuesday of each month, ice cream and cake was very kindly provided by a friend of the Mothers, and on this day we tried to have some one from outside to talk to us on various subjects. One of the subjects was the Bishop's Brick Fund. Nine boxes were taken out and $7.20 was returned for the Fund.

Our last festivity of the year was a Moving Picture Party. As many as could attended a presentation of "The Prince and the Pauper," and after the entertainment we all returned to the Rectory where refreshments were served.

We said "good-bye" to one another with the feeling that the past winter had been pleasant and profitable, and with the sincere hope that we would meet again in the fall.

I cannot close this article without mentioning our loss, in the death of Mrs. Kate Brooks, the oldest member of our Meeting. A faithful, efficient worker for forty years—always cheerful and bright, her loss is one which we feel most deeply.

H. M. F. A.

Daughters of the King

The Daughters of the King have held their usual meeting during the year. We hold two meetings a month, one of which is for business,—the other a devotional meeting.

A number of hospital and Parish calls have been made, delicacies and flowers have been sent or taken to the sick and suffering, and various gifts of necessities have been sent to those in need.

Next winter we expect to take up a systematic arrangement of calling on the sick and strangers and in this way we hope to accomplish more than can be done in a desultory way.

Men's Bible Class

Wanted—Men for the Bible Class! This may sound like an advertisement; be it so. The Bible Class needs more men. You need the Bible Class. The Parish needs a Bible Class. You should not hold to the idea that Sunday School is for children only. A Bible Class should be one of the most important features of the Parish. One Sunday School in Germantown has over six hundred members, another raised their attendance to forty in one week. The success of a class does not depend entirely on those who are in it but also on those who are not in it.

We appeal to every man of the Parish to help this movement. You can help if you will be present. It is said that numbers do not count in some things; but in this case it will count through the influence it will exert over others. We have a capable teacher who is in a position, due to his connections at the Seminary, to give interesting instruction on the Bible. He has been taken away from us on several occasions to teach another class which has been a drawback to our progress. The other class did not need him as much as our class, but we are told that arrangements have been made whereby he will be with us permanently.

Remember 9.45 o'clock every Sunday morning.

In His name for His sake.

C. R. R.

Service and Meeting of Sunday School Teachers

A service and meeting of unusual importance to Sunday School Teachers and all interested in the religious instruction of the young will be held at Christ Church, under the auspices of the Germantown Department of the National Board of Religious Education on the even of Ascension Day, May 31.

There will be evening Prayer in the Church at five o'clock and an address by the Rev. John Mockridge, D. D., Rector of St. James' Church, Philadelphia. Immediately after this service supper will be served in the Parish House to all attending. A business meeting will be held in the Parish House at 7.45 followed by addresses by Mr. W. E. Gardner of New York, General Secretary of the Board of Religious Education and others.

An invitation is extended to all members of the Parish to attend the service at five o'clock and the evening meeting. All who wish to take supper in the Parish at 6.30 are requested to notify Mr. Edward Bains, 104 Harvey Street, Germantown.

Supper tickets are twenty-five cents each.

A Teachers' Training Class

It is with great satisfaction that the announcement is made that a Teachers' Training Class will be organized in Christ Church next fall under the competent leadership of a very able and efficient Bible Scholar, with wide experience as a teacher of teachers. The need of such a class has been realized for a long time in this Parish but it has been a problem to secure a person qualified for the position of leader. Now that such a person has been secured the opportunity should be improved by all who wish to receive instruction in the Bible and to be prepared for teachers.

The class will be organized in October. In the meantime all persons who wish thorough and systematic instruction in the Bible and be fitted to teach are invited to give their names to the Rector.

Definite arrangements as to dates of meetings, etc., will be announced in the next issue of the Chimes.

Names of Scholars Promoted

The following are the names of scholars promoted in the Sunday School. Their names were read out at the Sunday School Service held in the Church on Easter Evening.

Each scholar was presented with a diploma, certifying that he or she had passed a satisfactory examination:

Easter Offering

The Easter offering amounted to about $1250.00. Several conscientious persons, who were absent on Easter Day, have since sent their offering to the Warden. It is not yet too late for others who have not contributed to do the same.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPE SYSTEM

The result of the operation of the "Duplex Envelope System" is very gratifying. The total Parish offerings for all purposes show a material increase over the old method, indicating the benefit derived from systematic weekly offering. The missionary offerings, while showing a marked increase over those during the same period of last year, call for more general and larger contributions in order that the Parish may meet its apportionment for General and Diocesan Missions of $2400.00.

A majority of the pledges have been faithfully and regularly paid. There are, however, a number of cases where payments have been made for a few weeks or months and then discontinued, and without notice of revocation having been given. It may be well to note that the wording of the original pledge cards reads, "This pledge, being purely voluntary, may be recalled at any time, by giving notice." Until such notice is given, the Accounting Warden has no option but to consider the pledge as in force, and the payments thereon in arrears, but to be paid at some later date. While the amount in aggregate is not large, yet it can be readily understood that, as a separate account is kept for each pledge just as much detail is involved in keeping record of the pledge for smaller as for larger accounts. It is, therefore, desirable that prompt attention should be given in any cases of arrears, or, if circumstances should arise making it necessary to recall the pledge, that due notice should be given.

It is hoped that everyone will do all he can to render the Envelope System fruitful of good, both to himself and to the Parish.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Christ Church Chapter is still continuing the study of "Early Church History" on the third Monday evening of each month under the leadership of Mr. Gurley. The only difficulty seems to be in the fact that every man in the Parish apparently, is fully conversant with the subject as no one outside the Brotherhood Chapter has accepted the invitation to attend the studies. Men! "Come early and often" will be a good slogan to follow and you will always find the latch-string out.

On the second Sunday morning of each month the Chapter holds its Corporate Communion service at 7.30. The Brotherhood hopes gradually to work up a Men's Service from this, whereby the men who are now faithful in their Communions will be able to arouse the careless to more regular attendance and the Parish as well as the men themselves be greatly helped. A hearty invitation is extended to all the male Communicants of the Parish to meet with the Chapter at this early Communion on the Second Sunday morning of each month.

C. H. J.

Junior Auxiliary

The Junior Auxiliary has discontinued its meetings until October.

With the assistance of the orchestra of the Henry School an enjoyable evening was spent on May 10th. A play entitled "Troubles at Satterlee's" was given by a number of the Auxiliary while music and recitations completed the entertainment. The proceeds will be devoted to some worthy Missionary cause which will be announced at the fall meeting.

G. H. B.

Church Periodical Club

The Church Periodical Club held its annual meeting on Tuesday, May the second in the Parish House of St. James Church, 22nd and Walnut Sts. Bishop Rhinelander presided. This was the first public meeting the club had ever held. The clergy and their wives, the presidents of the Woman's Auxiliary of every parish were invited as well as the subscribing members.

Under the new arrangement with the Business Managers and the various committees, the work has increased amazingly. Christ Church today is sending out 115 magazines regularly, with 67 contributors; 469 books, 369 odd papers and magazines, 2003 Christmas and Easter cards, 203 picture cards and calendars, many toys and games and last but far from least, 2 Traveling Libraries as memorials—the last one is being sent by the Daughters of the King in memory of four of the members now in Paradise.

This is most encouraging, but what are these figures in comparison to the numbers of periodicals that are tossed aside by people in our own Parish, without a thought of the happiness they might bring. All who have papers or magazines to spare are requested to communicate with the Secretary.

Mrs. Topliffe Johnson,
Locust Ave., Gtn.

Junior Brotherhood

The Junior Brotherhood Chapter held a Corporate Communion last Sunday morning at which there were present six members. The following Monday night 12 members attended the special meeting when it was decided to enter a team in the Field Day events of Chestnut Hill held yesterday. As this issue will have gone to press before any results of that day's events can be related it is impossible to describe accurately the honors which the team has gathered from this occasion.

We would like to say, however, to those who seem to be afraid that the Chapter is being neglected—that we have twelve able-bodied members, three more coming in and are having more interest shown in the work and success of the Chapter by the boys themselves than at any time previous in the history of the Chapter.

We have held meetings regularly with the exception of the last one when we gave way to the Junior Auxiliary and helped support their play. The present Chapter has every promise of a very healthy growth for the coming year.

Athletic Association

The Athletic Association has two large events in prospect for the near future. First of all on Tuesday next, May 30th, will be held a Field Day. The program will begin promptly at 2.15 P. M. and will contain races and games for all who come, young and old. Obstacle—3 legged—and relay races will be among those on the program. At four o'clock an eight coples tennis match will be started and also at that time will be staged a play ground ball game between a girl's and a boy's team. At 5.30 P. M. will be a tug-of-war to finish off the day.

There is nothing to say now about the refreshments but those who come will find some pleasant surprises. So much for the Field Day.

On Friday, June 16th, the Big Lawn Party will take place. Among other things, there will be a fortune telling booth, a cake and candy booth and various fancy articles for sale. Refreshments will be in and around the grounds. Watch the bulletin boards for further accounts. Tickets including refreshments, will be 15 cts. apiece. They go on sale on Thursday, June 2nd. The grounds only hold a certain number of people so get in line early for your tickets.

All members of the Association are urged to attend a general meeting of the Association on Monday night, June 12th.

Woman's Auxiliary Board of Missions of Christ Church met in the Parish House on Thursday May the 4th at 10.30. This being the last meeting of the season, no special speaker was asked to address the meeting. The entire time being spent in planning how was the best way to distribute the money collected and especially how to interest the women in the Parish more deeply next year in the missionary spirit of the church. Thus the meeting closed with the earnest hope and prayer that each woman in the parish would remember that she was a baptized member of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

The American Church

"It is interesting to note that the men who took the most prominent part in the political and military affairs attending the founding of our country were for the most part Episcopalians. Some of the statesmen of our Church were as follows:

George Washington, first President, leader of Revolution.

George Mason, author of Virginia Rights Bill 1776.

James Madison, Father of the U. S. Constitution.

Alexander Hamilton, great Federalist.

Richard Henry Lee, who proposed in Congress the resolution of Independence.

Robert Livingston, who in 1764 organized opposition to Stamp Act.

C. C. Pickney, who cried "Millions for defence; but not one cent for tribute."

John Morton, whose vote committed Pennsylvania to the Revolution.

Caesar Rodney, whose vote committed Delaware to the Revolution.

Robert Morris, the financier of the Revolution.

There were many more Episcopalians among the framers of the Constitution and the signers of the Declaration of Independence than members of all other religious bodies combined. This is shown as follows:

Of the framers of the Constitution of the United States:

Twenty-five were Episcopalians; five were Congregationalists; five were Presbyterians; two were Roman Catholics; one was a Quaker; one was a Methodist.

Of the fifty-six signers of the Declaration of Independence there were:

Thirty-four Episcopalians; thirteen Congregationalists; five Presbyterians; two Quakers; one Romanist; one Baptist."

Girls' Friendly Society

The "G. F. S." Society have closed their meetings for the summer after a rather successful winter's work. We all attended the Annual service at Holy Trinity Church. The sight of so many is most inspiring, the different branches met in the Parish House on 20th Street and marched to the church, carrying banners, the church was almost filled and I know that everyone who attended must feel what a wonderful society was represented. Bishop Rhinelander preached the sermon, again reminding us what our Christian life meant. We expect to enjoy some picnics this summer and we should be very glad indeed to have other girls in the church join us.

P. M.

TELEPHONES

The following Generals of the Revolution were Episcopalians:

Washington, Muhlenburg, Nelson, Howard, Smallwood, Sullivan, Cobb, Morgan, Lewis, Briarly, Ross, Cadwalader, Wayne, Sumpter, Moultrie, Gwynedd Jones, Walton, Alexander Hamilton and John Laurens, commander and leader of the storming of Yorktown.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

Rector Emeritus, REV. JOHN B. FALKNER, D. D.

LAY ASSISTANT

Mr. Richard H. Gurley

Parish Visitor, MRS. LAURA H. DAYTON

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS } 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY } AT HOME SATURDAY EVENINGS
 } 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. }

Consecrated Service

Vacations are over. The activities of the parish, which were suspended for the summer, are now resumed. Another year with all its wonderful opportunities is open before us. It beckons us onward. What a privilege it is to accept the opportunities which God offers us—to say "Lord here am I. Use me!"

The Rector wishes that he might see every member kneeling before the altar, there to dedicate themselves anew, to offer themselves, their souls and bodies, a reasonable, holy and living sacrifice unto God; no idlers, no shirkers—all workers—workers together with God. Let us pray that God, the Holy Ghost may come with power into each life—that the indifferent may be aroused from their lethargy, that the fallen may be lifted up, that the weak may be made strong, that the faithful may be given patience, courage and trust; that all may be filled with the love of Christ which constraineth to a service unrelpit, consecrated and holy.

Rector's Office Hours

Attention is called to the Rector's Office Hours at the top of this page. If persons, wishing to see him, will kindly confine themselves as far as possible to these hours, he will be greatly obliged. In cases of sickness, death or other importance, the Rector may be seen at any time. He will be at home at the Rectory on Saturday evenings and will always be glad to receive callers at that time.

The Rector desires to direct attention of every member of the Parish to the imperative need of extending the Envelope System of Giving to every attendant at the services of Christ Church. A healthy Parish is one in which every one is interested in its work and welfare, and every one helps in its support, according to their ability. No honorable person wishes another to pay his obligation. A Christian man or woman esteems it a privilege to give as much as possible to the cause of Christ and His Church. Many faithful and conscientious persons in this parish recognize this Christian duty and privilege and do give liberally, not alone to the support of the Parish, but also to its many philanthropies. But there is a large number of persons who are not sharing in this privilege, or, if they are, it is sporadically and not in a regular, systematic way.

The income is, therefore, uncertain and variable. The Parish is required, not only to meet its current expenses but also is expected to give a minimum amount to certain stated objects outside the Parish, such as "the Missionary Apportionment," Germantown Convocation," Episcopal and Convention Fund," "Sustentation Fund." It is also privileged to give, on stated Sundays in the year, offerings to the "Aged and Infirm Clergy," "Episcopal Hospital," the "Poor of the Parish," the "Support of the Sunday School," and to other worthy objects. These charities depend entirely for their support upon the offerings made by attendants at the services of the Church.

The Rector's Automobile

While the Rector was away on his summer vacation a number of friends in the Parish very kindly purchased for him an automobile. Now an automobile is something that the Rector has needed very much in his Parish work but he had never dared to hope that he would ever possess one. He was careful not to intimate that he wanted one but his friends must have read his mind and great was his delight, when he returned from his vacation, to be informed that a machine had been ordered for him.

This is only one more of many acts of thoughtfulness and consideration that the parishioners of Christ Church are continually meeting out to him. He cannot find words to express his appreciation. He certainly can never repay them for all their kindness. He has not been shown the list of names of these kind friends who have made this gift possible. He wishes that he knew every contributor that he might thank each one personally. Since he is not allowed to see the list he begs that each one who so kindly contributed will accept his profound thanks for their thoughtfulness and generosity and believe that he deeply appreciates this great kindness in presenting him a gift that will be of so much service in his Parish work.

During the Rector's summer vacation the services in Christ Church were in charge of the Rev. Henry B. Bryan, formerly Dean of the Cathedral in the diocese of Easton. Dean Bryan is a strong and illuminating preacher and his sermons during the summer were most helpful. His Sunday evening addresses on Panama, in which district he served for a time as Archdeacon, were very interesting. The Rector desires to express to Dean Bryan his own appreciation and also the appreciation of the members of Christ Church, not alone for his able sermons and addresses but especially for the spiritual ministrations he rendered to the sick in the Parish and to those whose homes were visited with sorrow during the past summer.

Friday Afternoon Service for Prayer and Intercessions

The service of Evening Prayer has been resumed on every Friday afternoons at five o'clock. During the coming winter, in addition to the Evening Prayer, special intercessions for Peace among the nations, for the sick and those in affliction in the Parish, for those who have fallen away from their religion, and for any special needs which persons in the Parish may wish to present to the Throne of Grace.

Any one who desires special prayer for themselves, for their children or for friends are invited to make their requests known to the Rector.

It is hoped that more people in the Parish will avail themselves of this short evening service on Friday afternoons.

The Church Pension Fund

It is well known that the Church is endeavoring to raise, by a general and systematic effort in all the dioceses, five million dollars as a Permanent Fund, the interest of which shall be used to pension the aged and Infirm clergy of the Church.

No object appeals more strongly to every fair minded man and woman than this Fund for the care of those in old age who have given their years in an unselfish service of the church.

Within less than a year three million dollars have been pledged toward this Fund.

It is confidently expected that the remaining two million will be pledged before March 1st, 1917, the date set for the conclusion of the campaign. It must be evident, however, that in the collection of the $3,000,000 a large percentage of those most able to give large sums have been approached.

In securing $2,000,000, each individual member of every parish must be given an opportunity to contribute.

A committee, therefore, in every parish is requested to interest every member in raising the remaining $2,000,000.

This amount is to be raised both by cash contributions and by pledges, payment of which may extend over one, two, three, four or five years.

A committee appointed by the Rector will present this worthy object to the parishioners of Christ Church and ask for their pledges sometime during the early winter.

Every one will want to assist in some way in making possible a Pension Fund for the Aged and Infirm Clergy of the Church. The definite plan to be pursued will be announced in the next issue of the Chimes.

The spirit of sacrifice and devotion actuating the contribution to the $5,000,000 Reserve Fund is indicated by the following note, recently received by Bishop Lawrence:

"I am a member of the Curtis Home and have been for a number of years, and I do not receive a regular income, unless the $1 per month, which the trustees allow each one of us can be called such. Therefore, I am afraid the small amount I can afford to send to the Pension Fund will be like a drop in the bucket, but I do feel as if I would like to help in so laudable a cause, and will send 30 cents. I wish it might be more and I hope it may be acceptable to the Lord and to you."

Bishop Lawrence in replying said:

"You will permit me to say that your gift is one of the most gratifying that we have received on account of the sacrifice and interest that it represents. It is also one of the most helpful in raising $5,000,000, for I am sure that the story of your gift will induce many Churchmen and Churchwomen to give thousands of dollars in the desire to reach the same level of interest that you have shown."

All Saint's Day

November 1st—Services, Holy Communion 7.30 and 11.00 a. m.

Lord, where Thou art our Holy Dead must be,
Unpierced, as yet, the Sacramental mist;
But we are nearest them and nearest Thee
At solemn Eucharist.

O Lord, we crave for those gone Home to Thee,
For those who made the earthly home so fair;
How little we may know, how little see,
Only—that Thou art there.

Dear hands unclasped from ours are clasping Thee;
Thou holdest us for ever in Thy Heart;
So close the One Communion—are we
In very truth, apart?

Lord, where Thou art our happy Dead must be;
And if with Thee, what then their boundless bliss!
Till faith be sight; and Hope, reality;
Love's Anchorage is this.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish. Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

.....
Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

A New Course of Lessons for the Sunday School

There has been introduced this Fall into our Sunday School a new series of Bible Lesson Studies. It is called the Christian Nurture Course and is adapted to all ages of children from three years old up to the age of men and women.

The course is published under the direction of the General Board of Religious Education and is the most comprehensive and complete system of religious instruction that has been set forth by our Church.

It sets forth a thorough and systematic instruction of the Bible and the Teachings of the Church and is based upon the modern and best approved methods of education.

Our Sunday School is divided into four grades: The First Department, or Primary School, is composed of two grades, viz: the lower grade consisting of little folks, from four to six years of age, and the upper grade composed of children from six to ten. The Junior Department (hitherto known as the Intermediate School) is composed of children from ten to fourteen years of age. The Senior Department consists of scholars from fourteen to eighteen years old. the Graduate Department from eighteen years of age upward.

Each Department is separated from the other, has its special course of lessons and an independent corps of teachers. The scholar is expected to progress from one department of the school to the other.

A very important feature of this new course of study is the Parents' Home Co-operative System, whereby the parents of each scholar are given an opportunity to assist their children in the preparation of their Bible Lessons and thus establish a co-operation between teachers and parents. This important part of the system will appeal to all conscientious parents who wish their children to have a definite and an intelligent understanding of the Bible and the Teachings of the Church.

It is hoped all parents of scholars in our School will co-operate with the teachers of their children and thus help to make the religious instruction of the children both thorough and effective.

This feature will also prove interesting and instructive to the parents themselves.

There have been several meetings of the Teachers held this fall and the new course has been fully discussed. All who have had an opportunity to examine into the subject recognize the superior merits of the new course and have enthusiastically entered into its support.

It will take some little time, of course, for the new system to be generally and thoroughly established throughout all Departments of the School, but with the hearty co-operation of the teachers and the parents of the children this may shortly be accomplished.

Parents who send their children to Christ Church Sunday School may be assured that they will receive a systematic and thorough course of instruction in the Bible and teachings of the Church by a conscientious and efficient corps of teachers.

Persons in the Parish who wish to assist in the Sunday School will be cordially welcomed and are invited to give their names to the Rector.

The Sunday School meets in the Parish House every Sunday morning at 9.45. The Men's Bible Class at ten o'clock.

The Women's Bible Class, taught by Mrs. Henry R. Baremore, has resumed its sessions and meets in the Parish House Sunday afternoons at three o'clock.

A Combined Sunday School Service to be Held in Christ Church

The Sunday Schools of St. Peter's Church, St. Michael's Church, Church of the Epiphany, St. Thomas' Church and Christ Church will hold a united Sunday School Service in Christ Church on the First Sunday in Advent, December 3rd, at three in the afternoon.

The Sunday School will march in procession from their churches and assemble in its own Parish House. From here they will proceed into the Church. It is expected that the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhineland-er, will be present on this occasion and give an address.

At a similar service held in Christ Church last Advent it was estimated that more than a thousand scholars of the combined schools were present.

Parents and friends of the Sunday School are cordially invited to be present at the service to be held on the first Sunday in Advent.

A Private Kindergarten

A First Grade and Private Kindergarten, under the charge of Miss Louise Dietz, has been opened in Christ Church Parish House. Miss Dietz is a college graduate with ten years experience in Kindergarten work.

The sessions are held every morning, except Saturday, from nine to one o'clock. Private instructions are given in the afternoons. Miss Dietz will be pleased to meet parents, who wish to enroll children in the Kindergarten or for private instruction, any morning, except Saturday, at nine o'clock in the Parish House.

Envelope Subscribers

Subscriptions through the envelope system, who have been away during the summer, are very generally paying the amounts that they have omitted giving during their absence. It is very gratifying to the Warden to receive these arrears as he depends upon them to meet his financial obligations.

It is hoped that all subscribers who may be in arrears will kindly make them up at their earliest convenience.

Subscribers to the Chimes

The following list of names of persons who have sent in their subscriptions to date for the Christ Church Chimes. Many of them have also given an extra contribution to help pay for the publication. About twice as many names will be needed to pay for the publication for the year. It is hoped that persons who have not yet subscribed for the Chimes will do so at once. Money may be sent to Mr. Richard H. Gurley, 257 Harvey Street or to the Rector.

The General Convention of the Church

The great triennial event in the American Church, the meeting of its General Convention, convened in the city of St. Louis on Wednesday, October 11th, and will probably continue in session for some three weeks. The place of meeting is chosen in honor of the approach of the fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of the Bishop of the Diocese of Missions, Dr. Samuel Sylvester Tuttle, who is also Presiding Bishop of the American Church. He is 79 years of age, yet four of his brethren of the Episcopate are still older. None, however, has been a Bishop as long as he—for 50 years—and no other member of either house of General Convention has sat in so large a number of sessions of that body.

The General Convention of the American Church is composed, like the American Congress, of an upper and lower house, the House of Bishop and the House of Deputies. The former body is composed of the Bishops of this Church, from all the dioceses and missionary districts of this country and from our foreign districts and from our island possessions and Alaska. They are a body of men second to none in this country in influence and ability.

The lower house, or House of Deputies, is composed of four clerical and four lay deputies representing each of the sixty-eight dioceses of the Church, while the twenty-three domestic missionary districts are each represented by one clerical and one lay delegate, each of whom has a quarter vote wherever the vote is called by "dioceses and orders"; and each of the nine foreign districts is entitled to one clerical and one lay delegate, who do not vote when the vote is taken by dioceses and orders.

While in precisely its present form General Convention is peculiar to the American Church, in principle it has abundant precedent extending through all the ages of Christian history. The House of Bishops is the counterpart of the Upper House of Convocation in England. The body of clerical deputies represents the Lower House of Convocation, while the body of lay deputies continues the function of the British Parliament insofar as it has ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and goes back to earlier centuries in England in that, where Parliament no longer consists of representatives who are Churchmen, the House of Deputies does. The House of Deputies in General Convention, and the American Congress, divide between them the functions of the British House of Commons.

The House of Deputies include among the clerical members many clergymen distinguished as theologians as sociologists, and as educators.

Among the lay members of the lower house could be mentioned some of the most prominent jurists, scholars and men of affairs in the country.

The General Convention of the American Church is one of the most notable gatherings of men of ability and prominence in the land.

May the Holy Spirit guide and lead them in all their deliberations during the coming week.

Let every member of our parish pray the Prayer set forth in our Prayer Book:

Almighty and everlasting God, who by thy Holy Spirit didst preside in the Councils of the blessed Apostles, and hast promised, through thy Son Jesus Christ, to be with thy Church to the end of the world; We beseech thee to be present with the Council of thy Church assembled in thy Name and Presence. Save them from all error, ignorance, pride, and prejudice; and of thy great mercy vouchsafe, we beseech thee, so to direct, sanctify, and govern them in their present work, by the mighty power of the Holy Ghost, that the comfortable Gospel of Christ may be truly preached, truly received, and truly followed, in all places, to the breaking down the kingdom of sin, Satan, and death; till at length the whole of thy dispersed sheep, being gathered into one fold, shall become partakers of everlasting life; through the merits and death of Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Amen.

Women's Auxiliary Meeting in Christ Church

The all day meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Germantown and Chestnut Hill, more properly known as "Bishop's Day," will be held at Christ Church, Wednesday, November the 15. Celebration of the Holy Communion and sermon by the Bishop at 10.30.

Intercessions at 12.

Luncheon served in the Parish House 1 to 2.

Afternoon Conference from 2.30 to 4.30
Address: "Missions at the Convention" by Rev. James B. Halsey, St. Timothy's

Roxborough, (one of the delegates to the Convention.)

Question Box in charge of the Bishop. All questions must be in the hands of Mrs. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview Ave., not later than November the 10th as they have then to be forwarded to the Bishop.

This is the first time our Parish has had the privilege of holding this all day meeting and it is hoped it will be made a memorable occasion. This can be readily accomplished by the united effort and interest of the women of the Parish. All women in the Parish are cordially invited to attend the service and conference. Keep this date before you, Wednesday, November 15, 1916.

Daughters of the King Convention

The Triennial Convention of the Daughters of the King meets in St. Louis, at the same time as the General Convention of the Church.

Mrs. Arndt, who is a member of the National Council of the Order, is attending the Convention as the representative of Christ Church Chapter.

On Monday, November 6th, a reception will be tendered to Mrs. Berger, the Diocesan delegate to the Convention and to Mrs. Arndt, the National Treasurer of the Order in the Church of the Redemption, 56th and Market streets. At this meeting reports of the Convention will be made.

The New Bible Class

The Men's Bible Class of this Church desires through the columns of the Chimes to issue an invitation to all male members of this Parish to unite with the class and help in every way possible to extend what now promises to be a successful work.

This is more than an invitation—it is an exhortation—based on the ground that work so necessary to the welfare of the religious life of the Parish deserves the earnest co-operation of every man who has or has had any relations with the religious activity here. It is not enough to stand off and say that prospects are promising and all seems well. What the class wants is for each man to join himself and then go out and get another man. With work done in this spirit, the present building would not hold the crowd which would come.

Sunday, Oct. 1st, we had 56 men present. There are besides these, over one hundred and fifty men in this neighborhood who may in all fairness be considered eligible for membership in this class. But these men are not going to make the class a present of their attendance. They must be sought after. And one man or two men cannot cover the list. It is by the universal interest and co-operation of the men who are recognized in the community as definitely and openly a part of Christ Church—it is by means of their openly evidenced and earnest co-operation that this class will obtain a position of strength and permanence second to that of no other Bible Class in this city.

The opportunity truly, at this time, is great. Let every loyal male parishioner realize that it is his opportunity and make the most of it.

The Bible Class here is pursuing a course of study on the general topic—"The Bible Library—A study of the Books." The class meets every Sunday morning at 9.45 A. M. in the gymnasium of the Parish Building. All men are cordially welcome. It will pay you to pay us a visit.

A Class in Art and Nature Study for Young People

Miss Mabel P. Taylor has resumed, in the Parish House, the classes in Art Real Manual Training and Nature Study,—Method of J. Liberty Ladd, Ph. D.

This work embodies sense training in its widest meaning.

Education should provide adequate training for the chief instruments of the mind, the brain, the eye and the hand. The hands are obviously the main instruments of expression; they are also chiefly instrumental in developing the brain. Real manual training should result in the fundamental skill underlying all occupations, and in the facility of expression which renders the hands intelligent agents of the mind.

This class in Art, Manual Training and Nature Study is a great opportunity afforded to boys and girls in this vicinity, and parents of children are invited to communicate on the subject with Miss Mabel P. Taylor, 7 West Tulpehoeken St. The class meets on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of each week in Christ Church Parish House.

Church Periodical Club

The winter season is close upon us and as you make your arrangements of current reading matter, to while away the hours before your cheerful fire and in your cozy, snug libraries do not forget the lovers of books that are in far-away places where reading matter is scarce and money scarcer. With each subscription you take send word to the librarian of Christ Church Periodical Club for an address to which you may pass along your magazine after you have finished reading it to some one else, less fortunate than you.

Will not the members of Christ Church, who are willing to send their papers and magazines to persons who are deserving and will appreciate them, please communicate with the undersigned, who will gladly furnish addresses where the magazines may be sent.

Mrs. Topliffe Johnson,

Boys' Brigade

The Boys' Brigade desires to call the especial attention of the members of this Parish to two matters.

First—that the local Brigade is an organization primarily for the boys of this Parish that it has survived when other organizations have perished by the wayside—that, though small in numbers each boy is in it for the success of the organization—the right spirit existing in every member and being worthy of every encouragement from the adults of the parish.

Second—Because of the indifference to the work of this organization in the past—the boys have been compelled to get along and meet expenses as best they could. The present indebtedness of the organization is the result of this fact. The extermination of this debt will add new life, interest and vigor to the work of the Brigade this Winter.

Now, how can we help them? On Friday, November 17th, next the boys will be in charge of a supper to be given under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brigade. This supper the cost of which will be fifty cents a plate, will be something novel here. All material for it, food, table supplies, etc., will be supplied free of cost to the Brigade. Their expenses will be exactly $5.00. All above this from the sale of the tickets will be profit for the Brigade. With a fair support from the adults of this Parish—the Brigade will be enabled to pay all arrears and have a substantial sum for the deserved development of their work here.

Let's set aside the date (Nov. 17th) and when the tickets are offered for sale by the boys of the Brigade—substantially pledge our interest and encouragement in a way that will enable this work to develop, as it should and thus encourage the leader of it as he should be encouraged.

We all know that the boy of today is the man of tomorrow." Your help in this work will make the boy a man worth while. Such men will be of unquestionable value to the interest of Christ Church, both spiritual and material in the coming years.

If you want to see the why and wherefore of this argument come around to the Parish House any Monday night at 8.00 o'clock and watch the Brigade at their work.

The Mothers' Meeting

The Mothers' Meeting resumed its session on Tuesday, October 10th. It was pleasant to welcome some new members. Some of the old members, who were not present, were very much missed.

These meetings are intended for busy women whose time is engaged during the week. They get away from their work for a part of an afternoon each week and enjoy a pleasant two hours' together. New members will be cordially welcomed. Tuesday afternoon in the Parish House at half past two.

Girls' Friendly Society

The Girls' Friendly Society has begun its weekly meetings and winters' work.

The meetings are held every Tuesday evening in the Parish House at eight o'clock. All girls in the Parish are invited to join the G. F. S. and to share in the pleasant evenings held each week. Miss Phylis Morgan is the Branch Secretary of the Society in Christ Church.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Three "red letter days" stand out before the men of this Parish who are interested in, or have a desire to learn of, the single duty and privilege which confronts any and every man who has joined forces with the Church militant.

The first of these days is October 26th when a meeting of the Local Assembly of the Brotherhood will be held in St. Andrew's Church, 8th and Spruce St., at 8 P. M. This is for the purpose of hearing from prominent men who attended the Annual Convention of the Brotherhood at Cleveand, October 4th-8th.

On December 2nd—afternoon and evening—the Annual meeting of the Local Assembly will be held in St. Matthew's Church. This is a meeting at which the work in our own Diocese is discussed and reported on and more will be said of it in a later issue of the Chimes.

First Sunday in Advent, December 3rd, there will be held in practically every Church in this Diocese a Corporate Communion of the men of each Parish at the early celebration, 7.30 A. M. This is not an occasion when an attempt is made to get all the male communicants out to make a big show. This is a time when every man who knows from personal experience the blessings which come through this Sacrament desires to be present when a number of other men are communing, because he knows that in union there is strength and the good he receives by himself will be greatly multiplied when he partakes with other men imbued with the same purpose.

Wednesday, Oct. 25th is the day set for the first meeting of the Junior Brotherhood this Fall. Let every member of last year mark this day on his calendar and make it a point to be present. The meeting will be at 8.00 P. M. sharp in the Parish House.

Plans will then be made for the party which the chapter is to give the second Friday in November. Those who had a part in the very delightful party the Brotherhood gave last Spring will not need to be urged to be present Wednesday night, the 25th, the meeting at which the final arrangements for the party will be made.

Advent

The name itself comes from the Latin Adventus, which means "coming," and was quite appropriate for that season which marked the time of the coming of our Lord in human flesh. It was but natural that one of the prominent thoughts of the season should be of the second coming, and this has now become conventional. It is in this way that the Dies Irae, one of the greatest hymns of the Church, has come to be particularly associated with this season.

The custom of dating the beginning of the ecclesiastical year from the first of Advent is at least 1200 years old, for it is so noted in a Gallican Lectionary of the eighth century.

To Churchmen there is one pertinent call of the Advent season. In the present days of religious indifference it is too easy to view Christmastide as a time of mere secular rejoicing, a time of emulation in gifts, and the contracting of extravagant and unwarrantable bills. Advent reminds the Churchman that the dominant note of Christmas is the commemoration of the Incarnation of our Blessed Lord, that the function of the feast is primarily spiritual, and that this fact is of such great importance that four whole weeks are given to the children of the Church to prepare themselves properly for its due celebration.

Advent is the beginning of the Christian Year. Such is the beauty and symmetry of the Christian Year, that all the events of our Lord's life and all the doctrines necessary for the soul's salvation are, in it, yearly presented to the heart and the minds of her children by our Spiritual Mother, the Church. As the season of Advent recurs, the teachings concerning our Lord's appearing come with new power. We daily pray, "Thy kingdom come," in the Lord's Prayer and express our belief in His Second Coming, in our Creeds, and when the Holy Eucharist is offered, the priest says: "and did institute, and in His Holy Gospel commanded us to continue, a perpetual memory of that His Precious Death and Sacrifice, until His coming again" and thus we are constantly reminded of that glorious day; yet, the church in an special way, emphasizes at this season the Second Advent of our Lord.

It is in accord with our Lord's own words: "Watch, therefore, for ye know not when the Master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning; lest coming suddenly, He find you sleeping."

To meditate upon this subject during this season of Advent, to use it, as the Apostles used this hope, as an incentive to purity of mind and heart, to brotherly love and deeds of kindness and charity, will prepare us to receive our Lord when we present ourselves before His Altar on the morning of Christmas Day, the Day of His Nativity.

Christmas Giving and Buying

It not unfrequently happens that the spirit of the world seizes upon Christian festivals and perverts them from their original purposes and to some extent makes them evils rather than the unmingled blessings they were intended to be. Holy days have too often become mere holidays and anything but holy to many of those observing them. Christmas has suffered especially through the exaggerated development of the originally harmless custom of exchanging gifts at that season, which has now reached the point where the custom has become a burden to many, giving pleasure neither to the giver nor the recipient, and, because of the tendency of the great majority of shoppers to put off their purchases until the last day or hours, Christmas has become for the shopkeepers and their employes the most dreaded season of the year. It is certainly lamentable that the observance of the anniversary of the coming of God's Son to earth, as a pledge of God's good will to men should bring anything but peace and joy to any of His children, and as the Episcopal Church in this country has had more influence than any other religious body in preserving the festival of Christmas and bringing about its general observance, (not any of the denominations, a generation ago, held religious observance of Christmas) the Church should take the lead in all proper efforts to make Christmas a religious festival, a happy time for all and a hard time for none. Two movements deserve the support of Church people, that represented by the Society for Preventing Useless Giving at Christmas, and the "Shop Early" movement. The latter movement accomplished a great deal last Christmas in lightening the labors of thousands of sales people, and should accomplish even more this year, not only in the great cities, but in the smaller towns as well. To endeavor to bear one another's burdens is to fulfill the law of Christ.

An Organized Historic Church—The Divine Plan

The religion of Christ is essentially and primarily a brotherhood, a Church. The Mohammedans venerate a Book, a Bible, the Koran. The Buddhists believe in a method. But Christians are primarily and essentially members of a family, united in Christ, in a visible kingdom, a Church; and the Christian Bible is not a fetich, to be worshipped for itself—but chiefly valuable as the charter and constitution of the Church. "The Church to teach, the Bible to prove"—that is the rule of faith.

Thus Christianity is a social system, the family of God, and this corresponds with the law of nature, with the revealed method of Christ, and with the principle of the Incarnation.

(1) It is a law of nature that man is a member of a community. He realizes his individuality only by and through his relation to society. The isolated individual is not moral. It is only when he comes into relation with others—in a family, a community, a city, a nation, that he becomes a moral being. Even the Christian's God is a social God—Three Persons in One God—; and St. Paul tells (Ephes. 4:13) that the "perfect man" is to be realized, not by the individual, but by the whole Church. This is a truth most important for our time.

(2) The method of Christ in the Gospels is to create first of all a new and distinctive society in the world, to be the nucleus of His Kingdom. We can see the beginnings of its organized form, as when we read (Luke 6:13), "He called unto Him disciples, and of them He chose twelve, whom He also named Apostles." Thus Christ approved of the distinction between Clergy and Laity in the Church. So He declares the building of His Church (Matt. 16:17), and its permanence; and describes it in His parables. It was to be like a net cast into the sea, and like a field sown with tares and wheat, containing both good and bad in this world. This Church idea is the theme of St. Paul's great Epistles to the Ephesians and the Epistles of Timothy and Titus are full of it; and the First Epistle to the Corinthians (1 Cor. 5:12), takes for granted the distinction between "those within" and "those without" the Church, just as St. Paul said (1 Cor. 12:12; Gal. 3:27), to be baptized "into Christ" is to be baptized "into the Body," i. e., the Church. The testimony of all early Christian writers is practically unanimous in favor of this conception of Christianity as primarily a Church, and not as the worship of a book, or the observance of a method, or a summary of doctrine. That kind of individualism, which says that the Church exists only as a union of believers, as if it could be constituted by individuals coming together and uniting themselves into a society, does grave injustice to the New Testament. The Church originated not in the will of man, but in the will of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Church has a reality of its own, independent of the individual members, for

(3) The principle of the Incarnation is that Christianity is not merely a moral standard, it is not a mere revelation of truth. It is both of these, but it is more. It is the bringing in of new life, the communication of power, "I came," He said, "that ye might have life; and that ye might have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). That is the justification of the Church, the Sacraments, the Ministry, aye, of the architecture, the music, the liturgical beauty and richness of the historical services of the Church. They all contribute to the fulness of the life in Christ.—Bishop Gailor.

Thy Peace

"Lord of the living and the dead,
In whom our loved ones still abide;
'Neath us thine arms of comfort spread
And draw us closer to Thy side.
And while we lean upon Thy breast,
Enlarge our hope, increase our faith;
And whisper of that perfect rest—
That endless life that follows death.

"Who in the Cross of Jesus trust,
But fall asleep, they cannot die;
And while we mourn above their dust
They dwell with Thee, dear Lord, on high!
In Thine own presence grant them rest,
And, from the radiance of Thy throne,
Shine on them, Lord, and make them blest;
For Thou hast claimed them for Thine own."

The reason why the sermon does not benefit some people is that they are planning for Mondays work during sermon time.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

Men's Special Meeting

The attention of the men of the Parish is called to the Service for men to be held in this church on the evening of December 3rd next at 7.45 P. M. The speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Ralph B. Pomeroy, of Princeton, N. J.

There will be a special program of music and the old familiar hymns will be sung.

As our guests upon this occasion we will have the local lodge of the Order of Artisans. Let every man turn out and make this service a success not only from a standpoint of numbers but of spiritual benefit to all present.

A Combined Sunday School Service to be Held in Christ Church

The Sunday Schools of St. Peter's Church, St. Michael's Church, Church of the Epiphany, St. Thomas' Church and Christ Church will hold a united Sunday School Service in Christ Church on the Second Sunday in Advent, December 10th at three in the afternoon.

The Sunday Schools will march in procession from their churches and assemble in Christ Church Parish House. From here they will proceed into the Church. The Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhinelander, will be present on this occasion and give an address.

At a similar service held in Christ Church last Advent it was estimated that more than a thousand scholars of the combined schools were present.

Parents and friends of the Sunday Schools are cordially invited to be present at the service to be held on the second Sunday in Advent.

The offering at this service will be for the Children's Ward of the Episcopal Hospital. A free bed for a child can be perpetually endowed for $5000. What a wonderful opportunity this united Sunday School Service to be held in Christ Church on the Second Sunday in Advent will be for some generous hearted lover of children to offer to endow a bed—perhaps in memory of some child or some mother in Paradise!

This united service will then not have been held in vain. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit may be with us and bless this service!

Charity is never lost. It may be of little service to those it is betowed upon, yet it ever does a work of beauty and grace upon the heart of the giver.

The Cradle Roll

Miss Huston has been compelled to resign her charge of the Cradle Roll, owing to her absence at College. She has done faithful work and the "babies" will miss her.

The Rector has appointed in her place Miss Manser who will be pleased to include the names of all baptized infants on the Cradle Roll.

If parents have not their babies enrolled in this very interesting department of the Sunday School they are invited to communicate with the Secretary, Miss Manser, 33 East Tulpehocken Street.

Provide your Own Prayer Books and Hymnals

Prayer Books and Hymnals are provided for strangers who attend the services of Christ Church and may be found at both entrances. Regular attendants at the service should provide themselves with their own Prayer Books. Every member of the church should possess a private set of Prayer Book and Hymnal, which should be brought to the Church and taken home after each service. Cloth covered books may be purchased at any book store for twenty-five cents and these may be left in the members pews.

Attention! Sunday School Scholars and Bible Classes!

Every teacher, officer and scholars in our Sunday School and members of all the Bible Classes be sure to be present in the Parish House promptly at 2.30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, December 10th, ready to march into the Church to attend the combined service of the Sunday Scholars of St. Peter's Church, St. Michael's Church, Church of the Epiphany, St. Barnabas Church and Christ Church. We expect three hundred strong from our own Sunday School!

The Bishop of the Diocese the Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhinelander will be present to welcome you and will give an address.

The members of the Schools will be seated first and parents and friends will be accommodated later—if there is room. Remember the date and hour of service: Sunday afternoon, December 10th. Assemble at 2.30. Service at 3.00.

Men's Communion Service Sunday December 3rd

This day will be particularly a Man's day throughout the country. In nearly every parish the men will come together for corporate communion at the early service and likewise an effort will be made for a men's service in the evening.

This project which is gaining year by year in strength, had its inception within the ranks of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew as the Sunday nearest to St. Andrew's Day was set apart for the Corporate Communion of the men of the organization. Today, however, it is backed by Men's Clubs, Bible Classes and the various Men's organizations in the different parishes and includes every male communicant of our church.

What are the men of this Parish going to do about it? It may cost an hour or so of sleep but isn't the cause worth the effort and the effect greater than the cost? Think of the inspiration that would come to every man kneeling before the altar on that day—not alone, but with fifty, seventy-five, one hundred fellow parishioners present with him and knowing that in spirit, he is surrounded by thousands of men of other parishes, united in the same service and with one purpose dominating their presence.

"And so we come; oh, draw us to Thy feet,

Most patient Saviour, who canst love us still!

And by this Food, so awful and so sweet,

Deliver us from every touch of ill;

In Thine own service make us glad and free,

And grant us never more to part with Thee."

C. H. J.

The Rev. Ralph B. Pomeroy to be at Christ Church

It will be good news to the parishioners of Christ Church, and all who had the privilege of hearing the Rev. Mr. Pomeroy of Princeton, N. J. who conducted a Mission in Christ Church, last Advent, to learn that he will be present and preach at the Great Service for Men to be held in this Church on the First Sunday Evening in Advent, December 3rd. While everybody is cordially invited it is intended that this service shall be especially for men! We want the Church filled with men! Let every man in the Parish be present and bring at least one other man. Remember the date! A Men's Service on Sunday evening, December 3rd at 7.45 o'clock!

Confirmation

Instruction on Confirmation will begin early in January. The date of the meetings will be announced in the next issue of the Chimes. The Rector will be pleased to receive the names of persons who are expecting to be confirmed or who wish information on the subject.

Christ Church Kalendar for 1917

A limited number of Kalendars for 1917, on which appear in appropriate colors the church's seasons, the Holy Days, etc., will be issued the first week in December and may be purchased from the vergers at thirty cents apiece.

Men's Bible Class

The Men's Bible Class of Christ Church is proud of its record. It is less than three months old and it already has a membership of over 70. But it believes that much greater results can be achieved. To accomplish them it asks the earnest assistance of all men in the Parish and particularly those who have not already become members of its organization.

Numerous religious services and social entertainments have been planned by its officers. One of the most important of the former will be a union service of the Sunday Schools of the five Germantown Episcopal Churches, on Dec. 11, 1916, at 3 P. M., at Christ Church. Bishop Rhinelander will be present and address the combined schools. This will be a notable event in the work of the Men's Bible Class in this Church and as the service is to be held in Christ Church, all men of the Class are urged to make a special effort to be present.

Among other services planned is one on Sunday evening Dec. 3rd, 1916, when members of the Order of Artisans have been invited to attend the evening service. A special program has been arranged. And on Sunday, Dec. 17th the class will have charge of the meeting at the Germantown Boys Club on West Penn Street.

The Second Social Evening of the Class was held on Thursday, November 16th. After a most instructive address by the Hon. Robert Bright, Pres. of the Democratic Club, of Philadelphia, an entertainment which had been provided by the committee in charge, was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. At the close of the entertainment refreshments were served.

The officers of the Class are confident that the activities of this new organization will prove both interesting and instructive and therefore urge all men not already connected with a Bible Class to attend its Sunday morning sessions at 9.45 in the Parish House and thus satisfy themselves of the good work which is being done and the benefits to be derived from it.

The Bishop's Day

Christ Church had the honor of holding the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliaries of Germantown and Chestnut Hill on Wednesday, November 15th. This annual meeting has come to be known as the "Bishop's Day," and it is well named, as Bishop Rhinelander sets apart this occasion to be with the members of the Auxiliaries during the day and conduct all the services and meetings. A large congregation of the delegates from the various parishes was present at the morning service held in the Church at ten o'clock, when the Bishop preached and celebrated the Holy Communion, one hundred and eighty persons communicating.

At noon was held an hour of General and special Intercession.

A luncheon was served at one o'clock to 250 representatives. At two a Conference was held in the Parish House, when an address was given by one of the delegates to the late General Convention held in St. Louis, the Rev. J. B. Halsey, Rector of St. Timothy's Church, Roxborough, on the subject "Convention and Missions." At this Conference the Bishop was kept busy answering "questions" which had been written out and deposited at the door by the delegates. This feature was interesting and enlightening.

The Conference adjourned at four o'clock after voting the cordial thanks of the meeting to the members of Christ Church Branch of the Women's Auxiliary.

The attendance at this annual meeting was unusually large and the ladies of Christ Church Auxiliary wish to express their appreciation to the members of the Auxiliaries of the Parishes of Germantown and Chestnut Hill for their splendid co-operation, to which, together with the inspiring addresses and presence of the Bishop of the Diocese the success of the meeting is due.

Don't forget that all books, magazines, religious or secular, should be passed on—and addresses will gladly be forwarded if the Parish Librarian is notified.

Guild Choir

The Guild Choir took charge of the service on All Saints Day. Also the funeral service for Mrs. Hearst, one of the oldest members of the Mother's Meeting. All members of the Congregation who are willing to volunteer to sing at the occasional Services, such as funerals, week day services in Lent, etc., when the regular Church Choir are not on duty, are invited to join the Guild Choir. For further information apply to Mrs. Topliffe Johnson, 430 Locust Avenue or to the Rector.

Woman's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary held a most spirited meeting Thursday, November 9th. It had as its speaker Miss Elizabeth Robinson, one of the Women Workers sent out by the United Offering, who is working among the mountain whites of South Carolina. Such work cannot but appeal to us all and Miss Robinson left the meeting feeling she had not appealed in vain.

Come to the next meeting the first Thursday in December at 10.30 and see what new life and methods have sprung up in our midst to help the workers we are sending out to do our work in the missionary field.

Church Pension Fund

The object of this Fund is to provide Pensions for the aged clergy when by reason of age or infirmity they can no longer continue in the work of the church.

The plan is a form of insurance, the premium to be paid by the Parish. The amount of the payment is so calculated as to insure a pension for the clergy at the age of 68 or in case of disability resulting from accident or illness at an earlier age. March 1917 has been fixed as the date when this plan will be put into operation.

The first premiums will be paid in by the Parishes and the first pensions paid out to the retiring clergy on the same date March, 1917.

It must at once be plain to the most casual reader that some provision must be made to start the wheels of the great machine moving.

The committee having charge of this Fund have come to the conclusion that a reserve Fund of Five Million Dollars would be required to put the plan into working order.

A committee of our own Diocese have decided that Pennsylvania should pledge one million dollars of this Five Millions required. This committee has already $700,000 and they confidently call on the parishes to raise the balance $300,000.

This system of service annuities is in no sense a charity. It is simply an act of justice which should have been done many years ago.

The best financial men in the country and the ablest insurance actuaries have approved of this plan, one good feature of which is that the widows of the clergy and the minor children will be taken care of.

The Rector has appointed a Committee to put into operation a plan to raise our share of the reserve Fund. This Committee will bring this matter before the Congregation at an early date.

The Church Pension Fund is an assured success, the purpose of this Fund will be accomplished when the first annuities to the aged and infirm clergy are paid out in March 1917. It only remains now for us to do our part in the good work.

Envelopes Subscribers

Several new names have been added to the Envelope Subscribers during the past month. It is encouraging to note that more and more the people in Christ Church are recognizing the advantages of systematic giving through the envelopes.

A large number of the children in the families of the parish have their individual package of envelopes. This is as it should be. Every child should be taught the duty and privilege of giving to the cause of religion by a regular, systematic method.

The Warden will be glad to furnish envelopes to any—adults or children—who wish to give through this system. They may begin at any time. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule or may be had from the Verger.

An Old Member of the Mothers' Meeting Dies

Mrs John Hurst for many years a member of the Mothers' Meeting and of the Women's Afternoon Bible Class was called to her rest in Paradise on November 16th after a long and painful illness. She was born in England and was confirmed in the Established Church in her early childhood. Since her removal to this country, many years ago, she has been a faithful and devoted member of Christ Church.

She was a hard working woman, making her living with her own hands, but by hard labor and frugality she had saved up a little sum of money, a part of which she gave a short time before her death, "to my dear parish of Church Church, where I have been comforted and blessed for so many years." According to her request this money will be spent for a light to be erected at the steps which lead from the street to the south entrance of the church.

She leaves no children but a faithful husband, whose tottering footsteps will be guided by this memorial light into the sanctuary where they both have worshipped side by side for many years until their old age.

The funeral was held in Christ Church on Saturday afternoon at half past two.

Junior Brotherhood

The Junior Brotherhood held its first meeting for the present year on the fourth Wednesday of October. Nine members were present and plans were adopted for the work of the Brotherhood for the year. The meetings have been changed from the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month to the last Wednesday. This was done owing to the fact that the members are very much occupied with the school work and seem to feel that one meeting night a month would receive from them more consistent support than would two.

Among other plans the Brotherhood is to give a party the third week in January similar to the one given last spring, which all remember with pleasure.

The November meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 29th, at 8 P. M. All members are requested to be present at this meeting.

Improvement in the Sunday School

A much needed improvement has been made in our Sunday School room. A sliding partition extending across the upper room has been installed separating the Junior Department from the main school. The Junior Department has increased so greatly in numbers that it has made this improvement a necessity. The cost of the partition $250.00 has been largely defrayed by the members of the school.

Thanksgiving Day Services

The services on Thanksgiving Day, which occurs this year on St. Andrews' Day, will be Holy Communion at 7.30 A. M. Morning Prayer and Special Thanksgiving Service with sermon at 11 o'clock. The offering on Thanksgiving Day will be, as usual, for that magnificent institution, in which all churchmen take pride, the Episcopal Hospital.

Clothing Needed

Persons in the Parish who have partly worn clothing, outer or under garments for men, women or children, are asked to send the same to the Parish House. These garments are sometimes given away free in extreme cases, but more often they are sold at a nominal price to worthy and deserving persons, thus preserving their self-respect. The proceeds of the sales are devoted to the work of the Mothers' Meeting.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild resumed its regular monthly meetings on Monday afternoon, October 16th and discussed plans for the winter's work. It was decided to make new white, and new red mats for the alms plates. Two new credence cloths, for the side altar, are also being made. Several new hand towels have been provided for the vestry room.

The November meeting was held on the 13th and arrangements were made for the Thanksgiving day service.

The Altar Committees for December are as follows:

Dec. 1st-8th—Misses Dean, M. Falkner, H. Falkner.

Dec. 8th-15th—Mrs. Cotton, Misses Quay, N. Manser.

Dec. 15th-22nd—Misses Chase, Alexander, Woodroffe.

Dec. 22nd-29th—Misses Cooley, Gerhard, Mogridge, E. Manser.

Mrs. Louise Seymour Houghton's Bible Class

It will be good news to the ladies of Christ Church, who had the privilege of attending the Instructions in the Bible as conducted by Mrs. Louise Seymour Houghton, to be informed that she expects to return to Germantown in December and will (D. V.) resume her teaching immediately after the holidays.

It is safe to say that there are few women in the American Church who are as well qualified to teach the Bible as is Mrs. Houghton. She has made the Bible a close and constant study of a life time and has taught and lectured on the Bible in some of the highest institutions of learning in this country. The women of Christ Church are highly privileged to have Mrs. Houghton again with them and an invitation is extended to women outside of the Parish to join this class. The first meeting will be announced in the next issue of the Chimes.

In this connection we would state that Charles Scribner's Sons have just announced another valuable publication by Mrs. Houghton, entitled "Selections From the Old Testament." "It is a part of the function of this book to bring to the student so much of the results of recent discovery and study as the limit of space permits." It is especially adapted for young students but it will be found equally interesting and instructive to those of older years.

Subscription to the Chimes

Since the last issue of the Chimes the following persons have been added to the list of subscribers and contributors. This makes a total number of seventy-eight. At least seventy-five more subscriptions are needed to guarantee the publication of the Chimes to next June. Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to the Business Manager, Mrr. R. H. Gurley, 257 Harvey street or to the Rector. Subscription price 50 cents; through the mail 60 cents.

Rev. John B. Falkner Seriously Ill

As the "Chimes" goes to press it announces the sad news that the Rev. John B. Falkner, D. D., Rector Emeritus of Christ Church, lies seriously ill at his home in West Philadelphia.

The physicians give no hope for his recovery. The Commendatory Prayer for the Soul at the point of Departure was said at the services in Christ Church on Sunday, December 10th.

The prayers of many friends ascend to the Throne of Grace imploring the "Father of Mercies and God of all comfort so to fit and prepare him against the hour of death, that after his departure hence in peace and in Thy favor, his soul may be received into Thine everlasting Kingdom; through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ—Thine only Son, our Lord and Saviour."

The Christmas Message

Jesus Christ came to earth for only one purpose, and one purpose only. He came to be the world's Saviour—to save men from their sins!

In no other way, by no other means, in no other name can men be saved—saved from their misery, saved from their torments of conscience, saved from their sins.

He came to give, what the heart craves and the world so sorely needs, the gift and blessing of peace. His "peace, good will to men," means more than His attitude toward men; its realization is this peace to men of good will, revealing our attitude toward Him and toward one another. He came to win men to His will and to make us "kindly affectionate one toward another." He would make each nation neighbor to all nations and each man brother to all men. To those who have not kept His law how far off we seem from the ideal which our Lord came to establish. In these troublous times the vision is beclouded and the ideal seems abandoned. But the end is not yet, for men will come to see that nations cannot live by strife and that even victories have their loss of peace. The world will have to return to the "peace to men of good will" as the only basis on which the world can live its life and keep to its aims. The ultimate victory will not be of arms, for there will be no victory and no lasting peace until the warring world acknowledges what Julian the Apostate confessed, "Thou hast conquered, O Galilean!" If all the nations would carry out the spirit of Christmas what untold misery and suffering it would save! We know not how far God is now teaching the world "the things which belong to its peace." Out of this fearful holocaust of war will come, what would have saved this blood-experience, a new interpretation of the law of peace of nations, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." This will come and come only when men are conquered, not by men, but by Christ. War may have its conquests, which are not victories for peace but simply for mastery. Its effects only deepen hates and estrangements and the hoped-for day of revenge. If the world ever needed the Christmas spirit, it needs it as it never needed it before to put an end to this bitter strife.—If the world ever needed to learn the lesson of Christmas, the lesson of the Incarnation, it is now, at this present stage of the world's agony, and sin.

If the world ever needed to look unto Jesus and to Jesus only, as its Teacher and its Guide, it is now amid the destruction and chaos into which other teachers and guides have led it.

"I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me!" Oh, Lord, Jesus, draw the world unto Thee at this time when Thou didst come in the likeness of men to save the world from sin and death! Let men everywhere seek after Thee and find Thee. As at this time, long ago, angels welcomed Thee to earth with songs of peace and gladness, so may Thy children, kneeling at Thy altars on the anniversary of Thy Blessed Nativity, truly receive Thee into their hearts, live Thee in their lives. May bitterness and wrath and anger, and clamor and evil-speaking, be put away from men everywhere, with all malice. And may they be kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God, for Christ's sake hath forgiven them!

The Clergy Pension Fund

An effort is being made throughout the church to realize by March 1st, 1917, the sum of $5,000,000 to provide for the pensioning of the Clergy of the church at the age of 68, or earlier if they have been disabled. The interest that has been manifested among the laity throughout the country has been amazing.

It is recognized by all that this long delayed step should be taken at once. The heartless treatment to which the old clergy have been subjected by the Church in the past has long been a reproach which the laity have determined shall no longer disgrace her name. The matter was taken up a year ago by certain prominent justice loving churchmen and a Committee formed to bring about a different state of affairs. Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts was chosen by these laymen as the Chairman of their Committee. His diocese relieved him for one year from his duties in Massachusetts to devote his entire time to this important work. A splendid start was made.

Bishop Lawrence began his campaign for the Reserve Fund in February, 1916. Before the start was made a sum had been pledged sufficient to cover the overhead charges of the entire campaign. On July 1, 1916 the trustees had received contributions in cash and valid pledges amounting to $3,000,000.

In collecting this $3,000,000 a large percentage of the Church people of large resources have been approached.

Where is the remaining $2,000,000 to be obtained?

The remaining $2,000,000 can come only from the gifts of every man and woman who appreciates the necessity of relieving the Church from the moral stain due to its past neglect of elemental justice in dealing with its servants and who also rejoice to aid in setting free the energy of the Church so that it may work at its highest power for the Gospel and the world.

This is the supreme task that now confronts the church.

The Plan

The following is a report of the Committee in charge.

"The plan of the Church to pension its retired clergy is unique in several respects:

1. Every clergyman, for whom the annual assessments have been paid, is to be assured a minimum sum—the amount above the minimum to be definitely related to the assessments paid by a parish.

2. To devise the method of providing the necessary annuities, the services have been enlisted of the most eminent actuaries in the world. The plan is scientifically sound, and will not disintegrate.

3. This is the first pension scheme to be placed under governmental supervision. The trustees of this Fund have voluntarily subjected themselves to the oversight of the Insurance Department of New York State."

On a Business Basis

"These unique aspects of the Church Pension Fund are as important as they are unusual, for several reasons:

1. They put the whole enterprise upon a business basis.

2. The aged clergyman's pension becomes, not a charity, but a deferred salary.

3. The benefits come automatically and as a matter of right. No board of trustees sits in judgment upon what a retired minister or his wife should receive.

4. The Insurance Department of New York will see to it that the calculations of the Fund are scientific; in other words, that it will fulfill its promises."

Not Sympathy But Justice

What are the reasons for establishing such a comprehensive plan?

1. Not Sentiment Alone. Of course, everyone sympathizes with the clergyman who has given strong and faithful service to the Church, and who finds himself without support in his old age, but sympathy is not the inciting factor in this undertaking.

2. Not Increase of Efficiency Alone. All experience shows that a reliable pension system greatly increases the efficiency of the service to which it attaches, and the vitalizing and energizing of the human agencies which the Church uses to carry its message to men is of very great importance, but even the increase of efficiency of the ministry is not the supreme motive.

3. The Supreme Motive is Justice. The supreme motive is that the Church shall do right as well as preach righteousness. Men will not continue to listen to the Church if the Church herself fails to practice morality."

Social justice has taken a firm hold upon men.

A vital element in social justice is the recognition of the fact that when a man has spent his fruitful years in the service of any organization, he has a right to receive adequate and honorable support from that organization when his fruitful years are over."

A Moral Claim

"His labor has helped build up the property of the organization; he has a moral claim upon that property for a decent livelihood in old age.

This moral claim is universally recognized. Railroads, factories, banks, colleges, governments, enforce this moral claim against themselves by creating and maintaining pension systems.

Not one of these industrial pension systems is in any way a charity. Employers and the employed would indignantly reject charity as a return to a lower stage of society, as a return to a period of undeveloped moral sensibility. Justice, not alms, rules."

The Church's Conscience

"The Church has inspired this nobler social conscience.

But how does the Church practice what she preaches?

The Church preaches righteousness to all men. In actual business relations she deals with only one set of men—the clergy.

The Church throws aside her aged clergy when they are no longer useful.

The Relief Societies have nobly helped many cases of suffering, but no great organization can now rely upon charity as a substitute for justice.

The Church cannot continue to fall so far short of her highest ideals. She must either catch up to the justice she has inspired, or the men she has so inspired will refuse to acknowledge her authority to teach. Where the Church can practice righteousness, she must.

Every consideration pressing upon an industrial corporation to do justice to its employees presses with ten-fold force on the Church to deal justly and honorably with its life-long servants."

The Diocese of Pennsylvania has agreed to raise $1,000,000.00 of the $5,000,000.00 needed. Over $700,000.00 has been already given or pledged by certain prominent laymen of the Diocese. This leaves $300,000 to be raised by the parishes before March 1st, 1917. Local Committees have been appointed in the various parishes to present this matter and to solicit offerings from every member. Some parishes in the Diocese are pledging to give as much as $50,000.00 each. Our parish ought to give, at least, $2000.00

No doubt this amount will be readily raised through the generosity of our members.

The plan of the Committee is to have an offering taken in the Church on Septuagesima Sunday, February 4th, 1917, and also to solicit the yearly pledges to the fund, these pledges to extend over a period of not more than five years.

By this plan many who cannot give a large sum at one time will be enabled to give five, ten, twenty or twenty-five dollars yearly for a term of years. The General Committee strongly urges the local Committees to solicit pledges as well as to receive cash contributions.

The Rector has appointed the following parochial Committee to take charge of the raising of our contribution and to solicit pledges: George T. Morgan, U. G. Rowley, R. H. Morris, Dr. William N. Johnson, J. Rogers Holcomb, Jonas Westling, Arthur W. Hood.

The Rector bespeaks for them, on behalf of the congregation, a cordial and a generous response.

Special Speakers on Diocesan Missions

The rector has arranged to have special speakers come to Christ Church on an average of once a month, during the coming year, to address the congregation on the home missionary work that is being carried on in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. It is believed that the character and extent of the missionary work done by our church throughout our own Diocese is not generally known by the members of our Parish. It is a very great and a very important work. In its scope it includes work among the colored people, the Italians, the Jews, the immigrants which pour into our city, the support of the Galilee and the "Inasmuch" Mission, both of which are doing such good work in uplifting fallen men, the work among Seamen, the support of missions in the rural districts of the diocese, the extension of church and social service work throughout the rapidly growing portions of our city; missionary work in the jails and penitentiaries, in hospitals and homes for the aged and for the poor and for the young. It extends its support to the Deaf Mutes and to the Blind and reaches out as far as the Mount Alto Sanitarium for the support and relief of cases of tuberculosis. Through innumerable other channels, also, the church in this Diocese is endeavoring to do its Master's work by ministering to those who are in need, sorrow, sickness or distress.

To meet the expenses of this great missionary work which the church is doing within this Diocese, a budget is prepared each year and a definite amount is asked by the Diocesan Board of Missions. At the last Diocesan Convention the Board submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese be requested to contribute during the coming year for the Missionary work of the Diocese the aggregate sum of not less than $37,600.00

This amount, $37,600.00 is, therefore apportioned among the eight "Convocations" of the Diocese. As our share, the "Convocation of Germantown" is assessed for Diocesan Missions $5,440.00 This amount is in turn, distributed pro rata among the various parishes in the Germantown Convocation. The amount which our parish of Christ Church is privileged to give toward this great Diocesan work, (including the Sustentation Fund) is $278.36.

The Rector's object in inviting speakers to address our congregation, from time to time, on the various aspects of this Diocesan missionary work, is to give our people an intelligent understanding of the great work that is being done by our Church in the missionary fields of this diocese. He believes that when the people of Christ Church understand the scope of the work, its importance, its needs and its opportunities, no appeal for financial support will be made to them in vain.

The Rev. Henry L. Philips, Archdeacon of the work among the colored people of the diocese, will speak on that department of Diocesan missions on Sunday morning, December 17th. The offering at this service will be for work among colored people.

- 2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

The Offering on Christmas Day

Members of the Parish and all friends of the Sunday School will be given an opportunity on Christmas Day to give an offering for the support of the Sunday School. This fall an important and much needed improvement has been made in the Sunday School. A sliding partition has been placed between the Junior Department, (which has grown so large in number that it has necessitated this partition) and the Main School. This has entailed an expense of $275.00. The larger part of this expense has been met by the Sunday School, the Vestry paying the remainder. A new system of Bible Instruction ("the Christian Nurture Course") has recently been introduced into the School, the materials for which have cost about $100.00.

Funds are needed for the usual Christmas Entertainment of the School.

To meet all these expenses the School asks for $150.00 from the congregation on Christmas Day. There can be no doubt but that the members of the church will gladly contribute this amount for so important a work. Christmas is essentially a day for the children as well as adults and no better cause could appeal to all persons in Christ Church than a liberal offering to the religious instruction of the children in the Parish committed to our care.

Will persons who may unavoidably be absent from the services on Christmas Day (and there should be no one absent who isn't unavoidably kept away) please give their offering before or after Christmas, or send their offering to the Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview Ave?

Services on Christmas Day

The services on Christmas Day will be as follows: Holy Communion, 6.30, 7.30 a. m. Holy Communion with sermon at 11.00 o'clock. The offering on Christmas Day is asked for the support of the Sunday School.

Sunday School Christmas Carol Service

The Sunday School Christmas Carol Service will be held in the church on Sunday afternoon, December 24th, at half past three o'clock.

The carols to be sung by the schools at this service are unusually sweet and will be enjoyed by the "old folks"—who are cordially invited to be present with the school.

An address will be given by the Rev. Philip J. Steinmetz, Jr., Head Master of the Episcopal Academy, Philadelphia. Mr. Steinmetz was formerly a member of Christ Church Sunday School and his friends in Christ Church will be glad to welcome him at the service of the Sunday Schools.

The Sunday School Christmas Entertainment

The usual Christmas Entertainment for the Sunday School will be held on Holy Innocents' Day, Thursday, December 28th.

The Primary Department of the school will hold its entertainment in the Parish house in the afternoon at three o'clock. The Junior and upper schools' entertainment will be held on the same day in the evening at 7.45.

Of course Santa Claus will be on hand as usual and distribute the presents to the "good boys and girls," both old and young.

New Year's Eve Midnight Service

A solemn midnight service will be held in Christ Church on New Year's Eve, beginning at eleven o'clock.

Evening Prayer with a short address will be held at the usual hour 7.45 on that Sunday. Between the close of Evening Prayer and the beginning of the Midnight Service the church will be open for meditation and private prayer.

A New Year's Resolution

A good way for the members of the congregation, who do not contribute regularly to the expenses of the parish through the Envelope System, to begin the New Year would be to resolve to sign a pledge card for every member of the family, father, mother, and each of the children, and present it on the alms basin of Christ Church on the first Sunday in the New Year.

Over one half of the communicants of the parish are giving regularly, systematically and conscientiously through the envelopes. "Upon the first day of the week let everyone of you lay by in store, as God hath prospered him." 1 Cor. 26:2.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive." Acts 20:35.

The time to begin is now!

Church Kalendar for 1917

A limited number of Christ Church Kalendars for 1917, setting forth the seasons of the church year and the Holy Days, with their appropriate colors, lessons, etc. are in the hands of the vergers and may be purchased from him at thirty cents a piece.

Confirmation Classes Now Forming

The Rector asks that persons who are contemplating Confirmation should give their names to him. He will be glad to give them literature on the subject and welcome them to the church.

The first meeting for instruction to candidates will be held in the Parish House on Friday, January 27th, at four o'clock in the afternoon for minors, and at eight o'clock in the evening for adults.

Up or Down?

We do not know who said it, but it was well said. "People who are down on missions are usually those who are not up on missions." There is a world of truth in this simple statement which lies at the bottom of all the modern movement toward missionary education. Again and again it has been demonstrated that opposition to missions, as such, has its foundation only in ignorance. How many times have we heard of persons who had "no use for missions," yet after a trip through foreign lands, with seeing eyes and an open mind, have become enthusiastic advocates of that which they once condemned?

Subscriptions to the Chimes

Since the last issue of the Chimes the following persons have subscribed:

Mrs. James H. Ritter, Mrs. Harkins, Mrs. H. R. Baremore, Mrs. J. E. Graeff, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, Mrs. G. S. Wertsner, Ms. A. E. Wilcox, Mrs. A. W. Meley, Mrs. C. Armstrong, Mrs. T. P. Robinson, Mrs. W. H. Wells, Mrs. G. G. Whitby, Miss S. A. King, Mrs. H. C. Thompson.

Seventy more subscriptions are needed to guarantee the publication of the Chimes to next June.

Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to the Business Manager, Mr. R. H. Gurley, 257 Harvey Street or to the Rector.

Subscription price 50 cents; through the mail 60 cents.

Christmas Greens

Contributions are solicited to pay for the purchase of Christmas greens to decorate the church.

The young men of the parish hang the greens and do all the work, without cost to the church.

The Altar Guild provide for the altars and arrange the decorations.

Contributions may be given to Mr. R. H. Morris.

Gymnasium Notice

The Christ Church Club managing as it does the athletic activities in the Parish House announces that during the winter, the gymnasium will be open in the evenings from 8 until 9.45, for basketball, volley ball or any other form of indoor athletic activity.

Members are requested, however, to observe the following rules:

The room is to be used by the boys on Monday and Friday nights; by the girls on Thursday nights and Saturday afternoons; by the older boys and men on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Please come on the nights assigned and avoid confusion. Twenty-five cents a month will be the fee required by all members using the room. This is merely to cover the expenses of light and heat for the room. The club feels that all those, except the ones who live on the principle of getting something for nothing will be willing to pay this sum for the use of the room.

Men's Bible Class

WANTED: As members of the Men's Bible Class of Christ Church all men of this Church and of the vicinity not already members of a similar class.

"Nothing succeeds like success" is a good motto. It is very appropriate to our Class. It is succeeding because it has been a success from the start. Every man likes to be connected with a successful business, a successful club, or any successful enterprise. What better could you do than to be connected with a live, successful Bible Class? Join now and by your efforts aid in increasing its usefulness. Don't wait until the eleventh hour, when all the work is finished, because you will miss that feeling of satisfaction which everyone has when he knows that his efforts have contributed to the success of a good work.

Come to one of the Sunday morning lessons at 9.45 at the Parish House and you will not only feel repaid by the interesting discussion of the Bible, but you will be surprised at the extent of the activities of the Class.

Did you know that we had an Employment Bureau? It is in charge of Mr. Frederick Lennig, who will be glad to hear from you if you know of anyone out of employment or any positions open. We have already placed several persons in good paying positions through the effort of those in charge of that work.

The next Social evening will be on Thursday Dec. 21st. We will not announce what the entertainment for that evening will be, but you will enjoy it if you come.

The President of the Class appreciates the splendid attendance of the members at the union service of Sunday School's held on Dec. 10th. We had the largest number of any class of the five schools. 65 men being present.

Do not forget the meeting next Sunday morning at 9.45.

Basket Ball for Girls

The girls of the Parish have organized a basket ball team.

Owing to a vacancy in the Inter Church and Association Basket Ball League we were invited to join, making the twelfth team in the League.

All the games are played in the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium, and are officially referred according to "Spaulding's Basket Ball Guide for Girls."

Practice games are played every Thursday night in our Parish Building, and a cordial invitation is extended to all girls to come out and share in the fun and good sport.

If you know nothing about the game, that's a good reason why you should come and learn.

Special Notice of the Junior Brotherhood

Attention of the members of the Junior Brotherhood is called to a change in the program for the year. Hitherto the Brotherhood has stressed the social end of their activity and the result has been that while the members have had more or less of a good time, the real object of the Brotherhood has not been advanced nor have the members benefited in any lasting manner.

At the last meeting it was felt that there was reason for a more definite purpose in the activity of the chapter and the object of the meetings hereafter will be to present for discussion questions and problems which are a component part of the daily experience of every red-blooded, active boy in the adolescent period.

Bible study will be taken up, since the Bible is the best text book in which to find the answer to these problems and the effort will be made to bring each member to look on his Bible as a guide book, not for Sunday conduct only, but for every-day experience.

Above all things, these meetings will not be a pious assembly of "goody goodies" but a meeting for the straight, simple discussion of questions which bother every growing boy if he is worth his salt.

These meetings will be every second and fourth Wednesday of the month, beginning at 7.45 sharp and closing at 8.30 sharp, when all will adjourn to the gymnasium for an hour's healthy exercise.

The Junior Brotherhood extends an invitation to boys over 16 years of age to unite with the present members in the plan outlined here and come to the next meeting which will be in the Parish House, Wednesday night, Dec. 27th, at 7.45 sharp.

The Boys' Brigade

The Brigade wishes to thank, through the Chimes, those who so kindly helped to make their recent supper such a success, financially and otherwise.

On account of the difference in the ages of the boys, the Commanding Officer decided to have those under 16 years of age on Friday night and those over 16 years of age on Monday night. This divided the Company into what might be termed the Juniors and Seniors.

The Seniors are fortunate in having as their instructor, Sergeant W. S. Cranmer in active service of the United States Marines. He has served four years, in the United States service and renewed his enlistment October last. Those who have had the pleasure of being under his instruction claim him to be an ideal man as well as a soldier and also one who may be looked upon in time of need to lead them through their difficulty in the best possible manner.

The largest difficulty confronting the leader of this Brigade is the lack of funds. The Spirit of patriotism, spreading throughout the entire country, has made a large demand for military supplies, and consequently, the prices have advanced, since the Government cannot meet these demands. We are greatly in need of financial assistance from the members of the congregation. Members of neighboring churches assist the Brigades in purchasing necessary equipment and we respectfully ask some generous members of Christ Church to do the same.

Our Brigade is not asking for anything without doing their share of work, but they would like to be supported in their plans. Our equipment was purchased Jan. 1913; and after three years' use, is either worn out or too small for the present members who have grown with the organization. It therefore necessitates the purchasing of at least 25 new uniforms, costing about $250.00 (Two hundred and fifty dollars). Part of this is to be paid by the boys and a scheme as to how to obtain the remainder would be greatly appreciated by the Company.

So with a little financial assistance from the church as a whole, the Commanding Officer, as well as the Instructor, promise to produce a Company of boys who will be a pride to the older men and to the Church as well as to the Country.

H. N. F.
Commanding Officer.

The Germantown Neighborhood Conference of the Girls' Friendly Society was held at St. Mark's, Frankford on November 14th. Our branch was well represented. It was a very interesting conference. We had reports from the Central Council Meeting and the Senior Members Club.

These Conferences are very helpful to all the branches. We all meet together and discuss our difficulties and our successes, it makes us feel how large our society really is and what strength there is in numbers.

We are getting ready for Christmas. We are sending stockings to the children at Blockley and a box of toys and books to Mr. Thurber for his boys' school in Virginia.

About four times a year we have suppers on our regular meeting nights. Three girls are appointed cooks and serve the supper and the rest of us are the guests. These certainly are gay times and we all look forward to them.

There are girls in the Parish who should belong to the Friendly and we would be very glad to have them join us. We meet in the Parish House on Tuesday nights.

The New Course of Sunday School Lessons

The new course of lessons for Sunday Schools, called the Christian Nurture Course, set forth under the direction of the General Board of Religious Education, has been adopted in the Primary and the Junior Departments of Christ Church Sunday School. The teachers in these departments of the School have entered enthusiastically into the course and the lessons are proving exceedingly satisfactory. The Primary Department is divided into two divisions; the lower grade for children from four to six years of age, the upper grade for children from six to eleven. Each division is provided with tables made to order for each class, clustered around which the children, with their teachers, prepare their note book and illustrate them with pictures.

The Junior Department which is now separated from the main school by a sliding partition, recently built is divided into separate classes, each provided with tables, note books and necessary equipment.

The new course has not yet been taken up by the main school, but, no doubt, will be adopted, as the teachers in this department more fully acquaint themselves with the merit of this course.

Mrs. Lindsay's Class, Miss Orme's Class and Miss Rowland's Class in the main school have entered into this new course of study.

A Precious Legacy

Persons who have not had the advantage of the beautiful service of our Church in their earlier years often become in their latter years, when this privilege is enjoyed by them, the most enthusiastic admirers of our service and the most devoted and loyal members of the Church. They are able from their experience to contrast the barrenness and emptiness of other forms with the richness and fulness of the grand historic liturgy of the Church. The following extract from the memoirs of Prof. Austin Phelps, the scholarly Congregational preacher, is a case at point:

"The Liturgy of the Episcopal Church has become very precious to me. The depth of its meaning it seems to me nobody can fathom who has not experienced some great sorrow. We have lost much in parting with the prayers of Old Mother Church, and what have we gained in their places? I do not feel in extemporaneous prayer the deep undertone of devotion which rings out from the old collects of the Church like the sounds of ancient bells. I longed for and prayed for, and, worst of all, waited for, some sublime and revolutionary change of heart; and when that was, as a fact of a child's experience, I have not the remotest idea. If I had been trained in the Episcopal Church, I should at the time have been confirmed and entered upon a consciously religious life, and grown up into Christian living of the Episcopal type."

THE KINDERGARTEN—

The First Grade and Kindergarten under the supervision of Miss Louise Dietz in the Christ Church Parrish House, is progressing very nicely. The young students are being taught the new and up to date system. The school room is a large sunny room, well adapted for the little folks. The class is limited in numbers but we still have room for a few children.

Christmas is a day of joy, but joy should not be allowed to die out of our lives next morning. It should stay with us ever after. We should sing the Christmas songs all the new year. We should carry the peace of God in our hearts continually hereafter. We should learn from this time to find the beauty and the good in all things and to show the world that we believe what we say we believe—that since God loves us and Jesus Christ is our friend, "all's well with the world."

A Bible Question Answered

The question was asked in our Men's Bible Class, who are studying the books of the Old Testament:

"What did Noah and the others live on after they came out of the ark?"

Teacher: "I will look that up for the next lesson."

Voice from the rear: "Why, that's easy. They lived on the land, of course."

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS { 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY } AT HOME SATURDAY EVENINGS

Entered Into Life

On December 13th the Rev. John B. Falkner, D. D., for twenty-five years Rector of this Parish, passed from this life into the life Eternal, at the age of 84 years.

Although he had been feeble for some time he was ill only a few days before his death and the end was a peaceful transition into the rest in Paradise.

Dr. Falkner became Rector of Christ Church Parish, March, 1874 and served as Rector until Easter, 1899, when, failing health compelled him to resign. The Vestry accepted his resignation with deep regret and elected him Rector Emeritus.

Four years after Dr. Falkner came to this Parish, the Church was destroyed by a hurricane blowing down the tall tower which surmounted the building. The congregation, which at that time was small, loyally rallied to the support after efforts of their Rector and by heroic sacrifices built the present substantial Church in 1878-79.

The new building was paid for in full and consecrated by Bishop Stevens in 1880.

During Dr. Falkner's long rectorship he endeared himself deeply into the affections of all by his unselfish and devoted service to his people—especially to the poor and to those in sorrow and need, to whom his heart went out in deepest sympathy and love. Of late years his visits to his old parish have been few, owing to his feeble health but the love and affection of all who knew him remained constant to the last.

The Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhinelander, D. D., officiated at the funeral, which was held in Christ Church on December 16th, and was largely attended by vested clergy of the Diocese and many friends from the parish and city.

His body was laid to rest in West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

"May his soul rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon him!"

Not Changed But Glorified

Not changed but glorified! Oh beautiful language

For those who weep,
Mourning the loss of some dear face departed,

Fallen asleep.
Hushed into silence, never more to comfort
The hearts of men,
Gone, like the sunshine of another country,
Beyond our ken.

Oh dearest dead, we saw the white soul shining

Behind the face,
Bright with the beauty and celestial glory
Of an immortal grace.

What wonder that we stumble, faint and weeping,

And sick with fears,
Since thou has left us—all alone with sorrow,

And blind with tears?

Can it be possible no words shall welcome
Our coming feet?

How will it look, that face that we have cherished

When next we meet?

Will it be changed, so glorified and saintly,
That we shall know it not?

Will there be nothing that will say, "I love thee,

And I have not forgot?"

Oh faithless heart, the same loved face transfigured

Shall meet thee there,

Less sad, less wistful, in immortal beauty
Divinely fair.

The mortal veil washed pure with many weepings,

Is rent away,

And the great soul that sat within its prison
Hath found the day.

In the clear morning of that other country
In Paradise,

With the same face that we have loved and cherished

He shall arise!

Let us be patient, we who mourn, with weeping,

Some vanished face,

The Lord has taken, but to add more beauty

And a divine grace.

And we shall find once more, beyond earth's sorrow,

Beyond these skies,

In the fair city of the "sure foundations,"
Those heavenly eyes,

With the same welcome shining through their sweetness,

That met us here;

Eyes, from whose beauty God has banished
weeping

And wiped away the tear.

Think of us, dearest one, while o'er life's waters

We seek the land,

Missing thy voice, thy touch, and the true helping

Of thy pure hand.

Till, through the storm and tempest, safely anchored

Just on the other side,

We find thy dear face looking through death's shadows,

Not changed, but glorified.

Septuagesima

Septuagesima Sunday occurs this year on the first Sunday in February. Septuagesima is the Latin word for "seventy"—seventy days before the Great Feast, the feast of the Resurrection. Next Sunday will be Sexagesima, in round numbers, sixty days before Easter, then Quinquagesima, fifty days. Then comes Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the solemn season of Lent. On Septuagesima Sunday the Church enters the penumbra of her Lenten Eclipse, and all her services are shadowed with the sombre hue of her approaching season of repentance and fasting and prayer. This season is a preparation for Lent. Thus, we have turned our back upon the dear old Christmas and the gladsome days of Epiphany-tide; and setting our faces towards the more sober, but still more glorious light of Easter, we begin to number the days of preparation, which, if duly observed, will fit us to keep the Paschal as the Apostle commands, "not with the old leaven but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

Seventy! It is a symbolical number. "The days of our age are three score years and ten," says the Apostle. It is the ways of the world to reckon advancing time by addition; but the Church now gives us Seventy days, and gently hints to us how life is fast passing away as she bids us daily to subtract one, that so "we may number our days and apply our hearts unto wisdom."

In these Seventy days, we thus see a striking emblem of our three score and ten years, a model of a completed Christian life, which passes through lights and shadows, through tears and trials to the joyful Resurrection. While we persevere through Lent, following each day our Saviour, keeping close to His Side, listening to His wonderful Words, passing with Him through the shadows of those Forty Days, growing more and more desirous of the sunrise of Easter, and rejoicing to find the appointed days diminish as That Great Day draws near, we learn also to pass the few and evil days of our sojourning in this world, feeling every day that we have one day less to live, keeping the glories of the Resurrection always in view and singing with the Psalmist, "when I awake up after Thy likeness, I shall be satisfied."

Lapsed Communicants

What Constitutes a Communicant?
From the prevalent neglect of the Holy Sacrament in certain quarters, one has been led to say: "A communicant is a person who does not commune."

That is certainly a hard saying, yet it contains too much truth.

The prayer book contains four forms of address to a congregation of communicants. One is for a right preparation, another is for a right understanding and the third is for a right reception of the Sacrament.

There is another, and that is for those who neglect the table of the Lord, who become careless, and who are recalled to duty. The words, addressed by the prayer book to those who have become thoughtless are loving and patient. Perhaps the reader may find the exhortation just such a one as if it was written for him, and addressed to him personally.

"Ye know how grievous and unkind a thing it is, when a man hath prepared a rich feast, decked his table with all kind of provision, so that there lacketh nothing but the guests to sit down; and yet they who are called (without any cause) most unthankfully refuse to come. Which of you in such a case would not be moved? Who would not think a great injury and wrong done unto him?"

"It is an easy matter for a man to say, I will not communicate, because I am otherwise hindered with worldly business. But such excuses are not so easily accepted and allowed before God. If any man say, I am a grievous sinner, and therefore am afraid to come: wherefore, then do ye not repent and amend? When God calleth you, are ye not ashamed to say ye will not come? When ye should return to God, will ye excuse yourselves and say ye are not ready?"

A man will go to Church and thank God for all that he possesses—life, health, opportunity, property—and then think it strange when he is asked to give only one-tenth of what has been made to carry on God's work in the world.

Take notice that those persons who are continually wanting "to be noticed" never grow spiritually. They cannot, because they put themselves first, and the humble, obedient life, next.

The Unconfirmed

The Bishop of the Diocese has appointed Maundy Thursday evening, April 5th, the date for the Ministration of the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The Rector will begin on Friday evening, January 26th a course of Instruction on Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church. These Friday evening lectures will be for adults. On Sunday afternoon, January 28th at four o'clock he will begin a course of Instructions for minors. Both of these courses will continue every Friday evening and Sunday afternoon until the Bishop's Visitation.

The Rector is anxious that this opportunity shall be availed of by everyone in the congregation and that everyone, who has been spared by God to reach "Years of discretion" shall be confirmed.

There are some in our congregation whose life is one of practical Religion and devoted Churchmanship, with two exceptions—They hold back from performing the duties of Confirmation and Holy Communion.

Most of you have been baptized but you have not been confirmed. You have been putting it off from year to year. The end is fast coming on and you have "not yet" taken your stand for Jesus Christ. By your neglect you are depriving yourselves the blessing that comes with the performance of a clear Christian duty. It may be, too, that your refusal causes others to stand aloof. Can you still refuse to be Blessed and to become a Blessing to others?

On this subject of Confirmation, the Rector commends the following words of the Rt. Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, late Bishop of Mississippi.

They are strong words and God grant that they may touch the hearts and stir the wills of all who have been putting off, from year to year, their Christian duty of Confirmation.

"The great mass of people in Christian lands are baptized in infancy. It has been the purpose of the Christian Church, from the first, to take into her arms the children, following herein the Master's example. She learned her lessons at His blessed feet, and forbids them not, because she accepts His words, that "of such is the kingdom of heaven." She is a training-school to teach His love and faith, to watch over and educate and train, by precept upon precept, the children whom He has committed to her charge.

Therefore, she makes them Christians to begin with. All Christian duties, all Christian obligations are upon them by election, because by God's good pleasure, and the sovereign council of His own will, they have been born into a Christian land, and so elected for Christian duty and a Christian life.

These baptized children are members of Christ's Church, in the full, unlimited meaning of the term. They are the Church's most sacred charge. Above all, she is bound to guard and watch for them. As the State guards, sacredly, the rights of its infants as it recognizes their full citizenship, and protects them most zealously by courts and judges, just because they are helpless, although it does not yet demand all a citizen's duties, nor admit them to exercise all a citizen's privileges; so the Church guards the rights of her minor members, and brings them to full growth in the Christian life, guards them the more sacredly because they are so helpless.

Her plan is, when they have come to the years of discretion, when they know good and evil, when they have learned where they stand, and what is the issue of their choice, to gather them about her, with the dew of youth and hope yet fresh upon them, with the world on which they soon must enter lying yet untried before them; to gather them about her and ask them now once more, as once the act was done in love and faith by others for them, to renew it for themselves; to confirm His grace and goodness here, at the dawning, before the toiling and the fighting begin.

It is thus that Confirmation—or the laying on of hands—becomes the central fact in his Christian history.

But we must speak to many a baptized man and woman as if they were not baptized. The vows of their baptism hang loosely about them. A pious father or mother brought the child to the font, and the heart swelled as the sacred dew of the consecrated water glistened on the little face, and the soul went out in one great sob of prayer that he might indeed be God's child forever.

But the world came, and the world's work, and the world's pleasures. The vows were not assumed in their time. The burden was refused, under the foolish thought that refusing responsibility annihilates it. Youth passed, and the baptized child became a baptized man, living unworthy of his baptism, trying to forget it, trying to deny it, as far as he could, to wipe off his soul the consecration of his God.

He is a deserter, a traitor to the holy cause. As far as he can, he has gone over to the enemy. He repudiates his Christian name, and denies his father's faith and his father's God. The freshness and purity of a Christian youth has changed into a cold, hard, worldly, or sensual manhood. The child of God is trying to turn himself into a child of the devil.

To such a one, as to an unbeliever, or worse than an unbeliever, the old preaching comes: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." To him belong the first principles yet: repentance from dead works, faith, the doctrine of baptism (which he has forgotten or denied), of the laying on of hands, of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternal judgment. These, the foundations, he has not yet laid. The only one he has laid he has striven to tear up again. He is to look to his steps as a man wandered far from the road, and as a man bound, under eternal penalties, too, to know the road, and where the road leads him, as well as others.

We meet them by scores, in all our congregations, these baptized men who make a mock of their baptism, deny their God, refuse their Christianity. These are the saddening souls over whom pastors weep and angels weep; over whom only the lost spirits rejoice; the souls that know the way, and will not take it; the souls that faith and love and prayer gave to Christ, and which now insist on repudiating the covenant, and giving themselves to ruin; the sad, pitiful, mournful souls, who refuse their princely state, and sit eating husks among the swine, when they should sit at the King's table as the heirs of heaven.

We cannot say to these, "Arise and be baptized!" Better were it for them, perhaps, if we could. But they have left that behind. Baptism has been a brand upon them, and not a blessing, all these years.

We can say, "Arise and be confirmed!" Turn to the Lord, with penitence and faith and humble prayer, and renew the broken covenant. Recall the meaning of baptism and its solemn vows. Gather up the fragments of a meaningless life, of broken resolutions, failing purposes, decisions that decided nothing, and let the man begin his youth again, and come with childish heart to God, and ask the Father to take back a son that has disgraced and shamed His name.

Alas! that is the strange place that confirmation has come to occupy too much in these evil days. It is not the festival of obedience and faithful sons, going forth in the Father's name, and with His blessing, but the hour of welcome, glad, indeed, but saddening, to stained, exhausted, soiled and tattered prodigals. It is not the bright, joyful re-enlistment of freshness, youth and hope, but the broken and sorrowful return of a heart that has strayed far away, and comes back worn out, disappointed and ashamed.

And yet confirmation, or as the Bible calls it, "the laying on of hands," remains God's free gift, the assurance of renewed acceptance and renewed help. The wanderer can return if he will, the sinner can repent of his sin, the baptized sinner as the unbaptized. Fallen from the heights of grace, he can climb again, and the step before him now is the step to the chancel-rail, "Do ye here renew the solemn vow and promise which ye made, or which was made in your name, at your baptism?" "I do." And then the assuring words, the words by which alone any sinner or any backslider can hope,—"Our help is in the name of the Lord." So a new life may build itself, by God's mercy, on the failures and the ruins of the old; and let a man remember that "now is the day of salvation."

When Will this Incessant Begging for Money Cease?

We heard a man ask the other day, "When will this incessant begging for money (he meant for Church purposes) cease? It is call upon call, now for this and now for that, and I am sick and weary of it." More ask the question than those who like our frank friend put it into words. The answer is as easy as the question. It will never cease. It is a part of the law of the situation. While there remains a heathen on earth, an unfaithful Christian, a sick man, soul-sick or body-sick, an orphan child, a cripple, an outcast, a wretched creature anywhere with any wretchedness, the demands will still be made, and they will still be answered worse or better. When all men on earth are blessed, when the sunlight of heaven gilds the hills and valleys of the world and wraps the blue seas in eternal calm then may men rest from their working and their giving—not before.

Bear in mind, my friend, that your happiness or your misery is very much of your own making. You cannot create spiritual sunlight any more than you can create the morning star; but you can put your soul where Christ is shining. Keep a clear conscience. Keep a good stock of God's promises within reach. Keep a nightingale of hope in your soul that can sing away the dark hours when they do come. Keep a good, robust faith that can draw honey out of rocks and oil out of the flinty rock. Never spend a day without trying to do something good; and then, keeping step with your Master, march on towards heaven, over any road, however rough, and against any head-winds that blow.—Canadian Churchman.

It is an almost impossible task to produce parish life with people who are indifferent to every enterprise which you may suggest.

He who tells one lie, becomes an awful liar, for he is forced to invent twenty more to cover up that one.

Church Pension Fund

By this time everybody in Christ Church knows that the Episcopal Church is endeavoring to realize by March 1st, 1917, the sum of five million dollars as a permanent Fund, the interest of which is to be devoted to pension the aged and infirm Clergy of the church.

It is a movement inaugurated by the justice loving laymen of the church, who maintain that the church which preaches justice and righteousness, should practice justice and righteousness toward its Aged and Infirm or Disabled Clergy.

It is the result of a determination on the part of the Vestry to right an injustice of many years.

It is an undertaking to carry out, as a matter of right and justice, the Church's bounden duty to its servants.

It is the biggest single enterprise of the Church.

It is the first pension or annuity organization to begin on a sound actuarial basis.

It holds a position of unique pre-eminence in pension undertakings. It does this because of the thoroughness of its methods, its inherent stability, and the well rounded distribution of its benefits.

To inaugurate and maintain the fund in this position it is necessary to have $5,000,000.

Pennsylvania has undertaken to give a Million. It needs nearly $300,000 to complete the amount.

The National Committee needs something more than $1,000,000 to complete its larger task.

All this must be had by March 1, 1917

When we say the Church is doing the biggest thing in its history we mean that every member is doing it.

Therefore we (you and I) have gone on record as the builders of a great institution.

Are we going to complete our contract?

To this question the Vestry and members of Christ Church, Germantown say, emphatically, Yes! We propose to do our share. Therefore, an opportunity will be given to every member of this parish and to all who wish to contribute, either by contributions or pledges or both at, An Offering to be Taken for The Church Pension Fund, Sunday morning, February 4th.

Between now and the above-named Sunday, pledge cards will be found in the vestibules of the church. All are asked to take these pledge cards, sign them and place them on the alms basin on the first Sunday in February.

These cards afford an opportunity for pledges to be made for annual payments extending over a period of one to five years.

What will Christ Church give as its share toward this $5,000,000 Fund?

Let every one answer for himself on Sunday morning, February 4th.

A strong purpose creates its own means of accomplishment. "If a god wishes to ride," says Emerson, "every chip and stone will bud and shoot out winged feet for it to ride." To believe and go forward is the key to success and to happiness. Doubt and distrust are the negative and corrosive forces. The enthusiasm for a high purpose calls into being the agencies by means of which it may be accomplished. Great powers attend on great thoughts and, above all and beyond all, among the creative forces, is the power of a great faith.

God's Love

God never casts off any one. His love never fails. God never fails in His promises. His word is, "The mountains may depart, and the hills be removed; but my loving kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall my covenant of peace be removed, saith, Jehovah, that hath mercy on thee." This covenant of peace never has been broken with any one who trusted in God. But there are two parties to every covenant. God's promises are conditioned on our obedience. If we fail in our part, it is we who break the covenant. Then when the blessings promised do not come, we cannot say God has forsaken us. The truth is, we have forsaken God, and the blessings of His love have been withdrawn because we have rejected them.—Selected.

Men's Bible Class

For the Social meeting held on December 21, 1916, the Committee was fortunate in securing as the speaker, Mr. William Meehan, who is in charge of the District Fisheries. His address on "Fish" contained much new and novel information, while his "fish stories" were very unusual and amusing. His address was one of the most interesting that has been delivered before the Class.

Following his remarks we were treated to some clever sketch work and several good musical numbers, at the conclusion of which the Committee provided substantial refreshments.

The contest between the Red and the Blue Teams for securing the greater number of new members resulted in a victory for the Red Team. That Team therefore, will be entertained by the Blues at the Class Dinner on January 17.

With the beginning of the New Year the campaign for new members takes another form. Five men will be selected to act as captains of five teams. Each captain will have under him two lieutenants and four assistants. This will afford an opportunity for a larger number of men participating in the contest, and it is expected will produce even greater results than the contest which has just ended. The names of the captains will be announced later.

It is the earnest desire of the officers of the Class to have an average attendance of 100 every Sunday morning. The fact that the membership is steadily increasing is the best indication possible that the Sunday morning lessons are both interesting and instructive. Again, we urge the men of the Parish to take advantage of this hour of Bible study feeling sure that if you come to our Class once you will want to come again. Make a special effort to come next Sunday morning at 9.45 sharp.

Fifty-five more subscriptions are required to guarantee the publication of the Chimes to next June. Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to Mr. R. H. Gurley, 257 Harvey street, or to the Rector. Subscribe now.

An Event in the Parish

The annual banquet of the Men's Bible Class took place, Wednesday night, January 17th, in the Parish House. It was an event. Warden McKenty's speech will not be forgotten. He had the truth—the truth which he had learned not from books, but from the lives of men. His message to men as to the necessity of reality in the personal life was given in terms which were plain, simple and straight from the shoulder and he held his audience in closest attention for over an hour. It was a privilege to hear him. The other speakers reinforced the argument of Mr. McKenty's speech and every man present was impressed with the fact that membership in and efforts for the success of a Bible Class was activities, worthy of the sincere interest of every virile man.

Other features of the program were the singing of a quartet of perfective ministers—students from the Divinity School in West Philadelphia; the musical programs rendered by a capable and very obliging orchestra and by Mr. Hugh Prendergast who is a real comedian.

The Class desires to mention to the men who were not there that they missed something worth while. Ask the man who was there. There were, by actual count, 103 of them. The question now is not, "Will you join our class?" but, "In justice to the best for yourself—can you afford to miss the benefit this class would be to you?" Come over Sunday at 9.45 a. m. "It will pay you to pay us a visit."

Sunday School Teachers' Supper

At the next monthly meeting of Christ Church Sunday School Teachers on Tuesday evening, February 6th, a supper will be served in the Parish House, after which an interesting "symposium" will be held on "Sunday School Methods and Needs."

All Sunday School Teachers and officers are expected to be present.

The Sunday School Christmas Carol Service was held in the church on Christmas eve. The carols selected by the committee were unusually beautiful this year and were heartily sung by the school. The Primary Department especially distinguished themselves. The attendance at this service, however, was not quite equal to that of last year.

At the Entertainment in the Parish House there was a very large attendance. Of course Santa Claus was present on this occasion and distributed presents to all the good boys and girls.

It was especially gratifying to note the large number of parents present on this occasion.

The parents of the Sunday School scholars and all members of the Parish are cordially invited to visit Christ Church Sunday School at the Sunday morning sessions. The school and Bible classes meet at 9.45.

Sunday School Monthly Church Service

On the first Sunday in each month the Sunday School assembles in the church for a half hour before the usual session in the Parish House. The object of this monthly Church Service is to familiarize the scholars of the school with the service of the Church and to teach them the use of the Prayer Book. This is a very necessary part of the instruction of the young and parents should co-operate with the authorities of the school in this important matter.

Parents are invited to attend this service with their children.

Beginning on the first Sunday in February the Church bell will be rung at 9.40 a. m. for the Morning Prayer, which will follow at 9.45 sharp.

The service at eleven o'clock, on the first Sunday of each month will be the Celebration of the Holy Communion, with sermon.

Additional Envelope Subscribers

During the past month several persons have applied for envelopes and have pledged themselves to give a weekly subscription to the church.

It is very encouraging to note that the worshippers in Christ Church are more and more beginning to realize their personal responsibility of helping, according to their ability, to support the work. And this steady, gradual increase in the number of envelope subscribers is being brought about by no special effort on the part of the Vestry or Rector. It is simply a healthy, growing sentiment among the people of the Parish that every one, child and adult alike, should do his or her share by a systematic and conscientious giving and should consider it, not only a duty, but a privilege to help on, in every way possible, the spread of the Kingdom of God upon earth. It is the way the Bible tells us to do. "Let every one of you (individually) lay by him in store on the first day of the week (systematically) as God hath prospered him (proportionately) I Cor. 26, 2.

"If thou hast much give plentifully; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little; for so gathereth thou thyself a good reward in the day of necessity."

"He that soweth little shall reap little; and he that soweth plentifully shall reap plentifully. Let every man do according as he is disposed in his own heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver." 2 Cor. IX. 6, 7.

Attention is again called to the fact that a fee of 25 cents per month is expected from all using the gymnasium in the Parish House for athletic purposes. This money is to cover the running expenses of the room. Some have already paid and all are expected to. The treasurer of the Association will consider it a favor if you will come forward with the sum instead of waiting to be asked each month.

Junior Brotherhood

On account of the near approach of mid-year examinations which calamity will visit both the Director of the Chap-Brotherhood, the meeting of the Junior Brotherhood, the meeting of the Junior Brotherhood, scheduled for Wednesday night, Jan. 24th, will be postponed until the 2d Wednesday of February, the 14th.

Tuesday, January 23rd

The attention of all interested in Athletics is called to a meeting to be held in the Parish House on Tuesday evening, January 23d at 8 o'clock sharp. A definite plan to include a basketball, volleyball, tennis and baseball team will be set before those present for consideration. This coming Spring and Summer should see a decided activity in the athletic affairs of the Parish. We have the grounds, the equipment and the people wanting to play—what we need is the start.

If you are interested in any of these sports above mentioned be sure to come to the meeting, Tuesday night, January 23d in the Parish House.

Members of the Athletic Association are notified hereby that their membership tickets run out, Feb. 1st and may be renewed after that date.

R. H. G.

The Sunday Evening Service

The attendance at the service on Sunday evening is exceedingly small. It ought to be twice or three times as large in number. The members of Christ Church ought to make it their duty to be present at this service. It is believed that they will do so if the service is made more hearty in character with canticles sung to simple music so that the congregation can join in the singing if the hymns are familiar to all.

This will be hereafter the character of the Evening Prayer—a short service, simple music, familiar hymns, hearty congregational singing and a short, quiet talk by the Rector on some vital subject bearing upon the practical every day life of busy men and women.

It is certain that the evening service will be helpful to all who attend. The Rector asks that the members of the Parish will co-operate in the endeavor to increase the attendance at the Sunday Evening Service by being present themselves and by bringing others to the service.

The service begins at 7.45 and will be one hour in length.

Mother's Meeting

There were big "goings on" in the Parish House on Tuesday afternoon, January 9th. The members of the Mothers' Meeting were treated to their usual Christmas dinner.

It was a dinner fit to be set before forty queens, and no queen ever enjoyed a dinner more than these mothers.

After a short talk by the Rector, the members were treated to selections by home talent. Mrs. Buckby, eighty-five years old, gave an exhibition of the "highland fling dance of the debutants of seventy years ago. It 'brought down' the house and also the dancer. She finally recovered sufficiently to speak several pieces, learned in her childhood. Mrs. Case also read a very amusing selection. After these selections of local talent, a professional entertainer made the meeting a merry gathering.

It was great, big good time all round and everyone present had a very pleasant afternoon.

As "tokens of respect and affection" the Mothers presented to Mrs. Arndt and Mrs. Rowley, who have charge of the meeting, two very pretty cereal bowls. These presents were highly appreciated by the recipients.

The Directresses were assisted at the dinner by a number of ladies of the Parish. The happy occasion ended by a hearty vote of thanks extended by the Mothers to the ladies who provided the dinner and to all who generously contributed to make it such a great success.

There was only one note of sadness. Touching allusions were made to the long, faithful friend of the Mothers, the Rev. Dr. Falkner, whom every Mother dearly loved. He had been their friend, for many years, had helped them in their hours of need and had strengthened and comforted them in time of trouble and sorrow. His memory will be always blessed in the hearts of the poor of the Parish.

Allusions were also made to three Mothers, members of the meeting, who have died during the past year, Mrs. McKay, Mrs. Hurst and Mrs. Brooks. These were among the oldest and most faithful members and they are greatly missed at the weekly meetings of the Mothers.

Women's Auxiliary

An interesting monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary was held in the Parish House on the first Thursday in January. Funds were raised toward the payment of a Deaconess for work among colored people at S. Barnabas Mission, Germantown and contributions were made for the Women's Aid of the Germantown Convocation.

The next monthly meeting of the Auxiliary will be held the first Thursday morning in February, (the 8th) at 10.30 o'clock.

Plans will be made at this meeting for the work during Lent.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

Every woman in the Parish is cordially invited and urged to become a member of the Women Auxiliary, to the Board of Missions.

Come to the meeting Thursday morning, February 1st, at 10.30 o'clock in the Parish House and enlist your interest in the greatest work of the Church—Missions!

Church Periodical Club

Do the people of Christ Church know how much good they can do, if they will agree to send their magazines and periodicals to persons in the far away parts of the country, who do not have an abundance of reading matter nor money to purchase it? If, after reading your magazine or periodical you will send it to some person who will appreciate it, you can get an address of an appreciative recipient if you will apply to The Secretary of the Periodical Club, Mrs. Topliff Johnson, 430 Locust Ave., Germantown. Do it now.

The Boys' Brigade still has room in its ranks for a few live, energetic boys. Come in and get ready for the big camp expedition this summer.

The Greek word for private, peculiar to myself, unrelated to the thought or interest of anybody else, is our word for idiot.

Those lives which have thrown themselves into the furrow, committed themselves to the great forces of God, make the world happy and they are happy. That is the secret of all great lives. Are you looking for soft places, for prizes and benefits for yourselves? Give it up. Are you looking for some one to help and bless with your lives? Then you have turned your faces not only manward, but Godward.

Some persons say they can live as correct lives outside of the Church as in it. Do they realize that they are living on an inheritance of morality and respectability handed down from previous generations? There is a great deal of this left-over piety in the world bequeathed by godly ancestors, earned by father or grandfather, and easily squandered.—Bishop Babcock.

The Christian Year in Rhyme

At the beginning of the Christian Year it would be well for the parents in the Parish to require their children to commit to memory the following rhyme, of the Christian Year: Advent tells us Christ is near, Christmas tells us Christ is here, In Epiphany we trace All the Glory of His Grace. Those three Sundays before Lent Will prepare us to repent; That in Lent we may begin Earnestly to mourn for sin. Holy Week and Easter then Tell who Died and Rose again. On that happy Easter Day! 'Christ is risen, indeed,' we say Yes, and Christ ascended too, 'To prepare a place for you.' So we give Him special praise, After those 'Great Forty Days.' Then He sent the Holy Ghost, On the Day of Pentecost, With us ever to abide, Well may we keep Whitsuntide. Last of all, we humbly sing Glory to Our God and King, Glory to the One in Three, On the Feast of Trinity.

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

LAY ASSISTANT

Mr. Richard H. Gurley

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS { 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY } AT HOME SATURDAY EVENINGS
{ 8.00 to 8.00 P. M. " " }

To Every Member of Christ Church
My Dear Friends:

The Holy Season of Lent has come once more, when the Church bids us consecrate the time to religious retirement, self-denial, and spiritual improvement. It is possible—and alas! is too often the case—to allow these 'forty days and forty nights' to pass away without securing any particular blessing. But far otherwise let it be this year with each one of us. Let this Holy Season be characterized by the earnest desire to mould our minds and hearts to the Christ-like pattern; let us try to love Him more sincerely and obey Him more implicitly than ever before; let us try to overcome, by the grace of God, those sins of selfishness, indifference, and worldliness that daily confront our immortal souls. Lent is our penitential season; there should, therefore, be no "parties," no theaters, no feasting, but a conscientious withdrawal from the world and from all its attractions and amusements; and, instead, the time devoted to public worship, private prayer, the study of God's Holy Word, to abstinence and fasting, and to increased activity in deeds of mercy and love for our dear Master's sake. The list of services is intended to assist you in this religious work, and is arranged to meet, as far as possible, your different needs and circumstances. I earnestly hope that you will attend as many of these services as you possibly can, and, especially, as many of you as are Communicants, will gladly remember the Holy Feast of the Altar for the strengthening and refreshment of your immortal souls. All the days of Lent should have a character different from all other days, and Good Friday especially should remind you of your Saviour's tender love and death at Calvary. And when these solemn days have passed away and glorious Easter dawns once more, let your Offering express to a loving Heavenly Father your appreciation of His many mercies and goodness.

Affectionately your friend and Rector,
Charles Henry Arndt.

The Purpose of Lent—Fasting and Prayer

Lent is the season of self-denial that has been observed from the early Christian era as a following of the example of Christ's fasting forty days in the desert. It is a season of special devotion. It is a season of special prayer, fasting and charitable deeds.

Prayer is the fellowship of God. Lent is the call of the Church to her children to bring prayer into the life of the generation; to lead the generation to prayer that brings contrition, to contrition that can see no hope save through our Redeemer, to hope that lives in the faith of the crucified, risen Christ.

The theory of fasting is based on two principles: First, the great spiritual importance of the body and, second, the danger which threatens the spiritual life through the body. Hence the motive of fasting is respect and reverence for the body, not disregard or neglect of it, and the object of fasting is spiritual efficiency, that is, the bringing of the body to a condition of ready submission to, and effective service of, spiritual and religious ideals and duties. Lent is the call of the Church to all to curb the appetite and crucify the flesh till Good Friday is seen in its divine necessity, the holy Sacrifice for the healing of a stricken race, and Easter shines forth, the victory of Christ over sin and the grave.

Charity, which not only embraces almsgiving, but also tolerance, should be emphasized during the forty days. The virtue which, as the Apostle St. Peter tells us, "shall cover the multitude of sins" needs to be brought into constant practical use at this period when, with the aid of Christ, the true believer is trying to rise to a higher spiritual altitude. Without charity to his neighbor it is folly for the follower of Jesus of Nazareth to expect charity to be extended to himself.

Lent is the call of the Church to all to exercise that charity which St. Paul says is greater than faith or hope.

Confirmation

Confirmation—the word itself tells its place in each Christian life. It ratifies and confirms the views already taken in Baptism. Deliberately, once more, the enlisted soldier of Christ repeats, before the Church and the world the oath he has already sworn, or that was taken in his name in his infancy by loved ones who would make the tender life develop as the life of a "child of God." Now, he pledges himself to stand by the promises made, to be true to them in evil report and good and so confirms them to his own soul and conscience before God and man.

Confirmation "is a land-mark in the Christian life, a solemn hour, to which memory turns to the latest day; a new and conscious enlistment; a revival of all the old faiths and pledges; the coming to the full stature of a Christian man or woman; the coming of age in Christ's Kingdom; the band which binds youth, in the midst of its temptations, to the altar of God, that it may stand bound in manhood and in age."

Not only does man confirm, but God confirms His grace to that soul. In the appointed way, one seeks the appointed blessing, and coming sincerely, he finds it. "The spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true bodliness and holy fear"—all the manifold gifts of full Christian manhood await him as he bows to receive them, assured by this sign and seal—"the laying on of hands."

Confirmation is doubly worthy of the name it bears. Man confirms and God confirms. Man confirms his baptismal vows, his penitence and faith, his trust and promises. God confirms his mercy and love, and the pledge of his unfailing word to guard and succor and strengthen that soul with the indwelling of his eternal Spirit.

Who would not seek this two-fold confirmation—the fixing of human resolution and determination and the reception of "God's help" in keeping them—the daily growth in Christian grace by the presence and guidance of the promised Spirit in our hearts—the blessing at the chancel rail confirming the blessing at the font.

Do We Believe in Prayer?

Somebody asked us if we believe in prayer. They might ask if we believe in breathing. A Christian without prayer would be worse than a bird without wings. Prayer? Thank God for prayer, for the hundreds of promises which encourage prayer, the answers to prayers recorded in the Bible and for the experiences of the saints of God, which prove that God answers prayer. The first thing we remember in our life is prayer. In the earliest childhood prayer in child-like faith was enjoyed, and through the many years of a Christian life prayer has been the refuge and the delight. All along as the years come and go, nearing home, prayer has become a greater reality, a greater joy, and a greater power in our life. To think that we should stop praying and casting ourselves with all our need upon Himself, is impossible to realize. To cultivate a constant spirit and attitude of prayer ought to be the aim of every child of God. As we move about, work or rest, the heart may be in His presence.

And we believe in the prayer of intercession. Praying one for another and for all the Saints is a blessed privilege. It is one of the joys of our Christian life, to pray for our beloved ones by name and we are conscious that hundreds of God's people mention us before the throne of Grace.

And may we pray for our beloved ones who are with Jesus in Paradise? Certainly! It is comforting to learn that at the last General Convention of our Church, provision was made, in the new revision of our Prayer Book, for prayers for the departed. We all, who have lost loved ones for whom we prayed whilst they were with us on earth, cannot cease our prayers for them, now that they are no longer with us in the flesh. They are still close to us when we are in Communion with Jesus. Why should we not pray for them? Our hearts cannot help going out to them and for them in prayer. And they!—surely they, who loved us here, and prayed for us, love us still and are praying for us now, that they are in the fuller presence of Jesus.

tify to its wonderful helpfulness and inspiration.

The Lenten Sunday Evening Service

The attention of the men of the Parish is called to the series of Sunday evening services which will be held during the Lenten season. Special speakers have been secured and one has but to look over the list of those who are to speak to realize that we are peculiarly fortunate in securing these men to speak at these services.

At the 1st service, the speaker will be the Rev. Geo. B. Bartlett, Dean of the Divinity School in West Philadelphia. Dean Bartlett has been instrumental in securing the new site for the school, an event in the history of this our "School of the Prophets" of great significance. The Dean is a man whose vigorous personality is expressed clearly in his address and the men here ought not to miss this opportunity to hear him. When we remember that our Rector is a graduate of this School class of 1892, and his assistant at present a student there, it brings us closer

The Vestry Letter

The Vestry will soon issue a letter to the members of the Congregation, setting forth the financial condition and the needs of the Parish. It is earnestly desired that not only the customary deficit in the current expenses should be fully met at this coming Easter but that an extraordinary effort be made to greatly reduce the debt on the Parish House. This debt can be very soon wiped entirely out, if our people, one and all, will determine, even at the greatest personal sacrifice, to do it. Surely the same spirit of self-sacrifice which the people of Church Church have always shown in the past, will not be lacking during this coming Lent and Easter Day! Let every one make a heroic effort to cancel the Parish House debt of $3500 on Easter Day.

Our fourth Sunday evening, March 18th, gives us the pleasure of a visit from one of our neighbors—the Rev. Mr. Moore, Rector of Calvary Church, Germantown. Mr. Moore is one of the most practical and forcible preachers in Germantown. This is the first opportunity that the people of Christ Church have had to hear Mr. Moore and we are sure that he will receive a cordial welcome.

The Rev. Dr. Yerkes of the Church of the Transfiguration of West Philadelphia will be our fifth and the last of our special Lenten Service speakers. Dr. Yerkes is a Professor in the old Testament Department of the Divinity School and a recognized authority on the laws, customs and languages of ancient peoples. Because of this he is all the more alive and forceful in his present day work. A man of scholarship and rare intellectual ability his message will convey to every hearer a lesson of practical and present benefit.

We could not improve upon our selection of speakers and also as we are going to use the old familiar hymns and put into the service all we can of earnest spiritual effort, well, Mr. Man, we don't ask you—"Are you coming to these services?"—we ask you "Can you afford to miss anyone of them?"

Get a printed program from any member of the Men's Bible Class under whose auspices these services are to be held and by attendance upon these services, make your Lenten season of real and lasting benefit to your life and to the lives of all with whom you associate, "that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in Heaven."

Singers Wanted for the Lenten Choir

All persons who are willing to volunteer to help in the singing at the daily services during Lent are asked to give their names to Mrs. Topliffe Johnson or to the Rector. Daily evening Prayer will be held every afternoon, except Wednesday, at 4.45. If persons will select certain afternoons in the week and agree to be present on these days their services will be greatly appreciated. It is hoped that enough persons will volunteer that we may have a good sized choir at every afternoon service. Please send your names in at once.

Daily Lenten Prayers

The Rector asks that members of the Parish will include in their daily prayers the following:

A Prayer for the Parish

O Almighty and merciful God, who doth govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of thy servants and grant unto our Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful (especially) visit and relieve the sick, (especially) turn and soften the wicked (especially) arouse the careless and indifferent (especially) recover the fallen (especially) restore the penitent (especially) remove all hindrances to the advancement to Thy truth; and bring all to be of one heart and mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church, to the honor and glory of Thy Blessed Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for Missionaries

Almighty and most merciful God, we humbly beseech Thee, for the merits of Thy dear Son, to pour out Thy Holy Spirit upon all our missionaries at home and abroad, and to crown their labors with success in the gathering of souls into Thy Kingdom, to the honor and praise of Thy glorious Name, who art Father, Son and Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

For Our Nation

O Almighty God, we beseech thee to bless our country at this time. Give abundant grace to all who bear office throughout this land, that in all things we may be governed righteously and in thy fear; and grant to us not only such outward prosperity as is according to thy will, but above all things, such virtue and true religion that thy holy name may be ever glorified in the midst of us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Peace of the World

O God who art the author of peace and lover of concord, direct the course of this world in accordance with thy will, take away whatsoever hinders the nations from unity and concord, prosper all counsels which make for the restoration of a rightful and abiding peace, and do thou, O God, who makest wars to cease, bring again in thine own time the blessing of peace to all nations; for the sake of him who is the Prince of Peace, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

For the Overruling of the Present Distress to the advancement of God's Kingdom

O Almighty God, who canst bring good out of evil and makest even the wrath of man to turn to thy praise; we beseech thee so to order and dispose the issues of this conflict that the people of the world may be united in a firmer fellowship for the promotion of thy glory and the good of all mankind. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Mid-Day Prayer

Blessed Saviour, who at this hour didst hang upon the Cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms, grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved, through Thy mercies and merits who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Lenten Reading

The Rector recommends the following devotional reading for Lent:

"The Conquest of Trouble and the Peace of God." By Bishop Brent, price 50 cents.
"Life's Journey." By Bishop Montgomery. With Introduction by the Bishop of London. Price ninety cents.

"The Wondrous Passion." By Rev. F. W. Drake, with Introduction by the Bishop of London, price ninety cents.

"The Faith of the Cross." By Bishop Rhinelander, price $1.20.

"The Sacred Way." By Rev. Jesse Brett, price $1.20.

"Considerations for Lent." By Vernon Staley, price sixty cents.

"Studies in the Passion of Jesus Christ." by Rev. Charles Henry Robinson, price ninety cents and twenty five cents.

"The More Abundant Life," by Phillips Brooks, price $1.25.

"The Way"—A Book for Boys, by Geo. Wharton Pepper, price fifty cents.

"Turning Point of English Church History," by Ed. L. Cult, D. D., price $1.25.

"Turning Points of General Church History," same author, price $1.25.

"The Layman's History of Church of England," (elementary) G. R. Balleine, price fifty cents.

"History of the Book of Common Prayer," Proctor, price $2.95.

"Geibel's Life of Christ."

The following books will also be found profitable reading:

"History of the American Episcopal Church," by Rev. S. D. McConnell, D. D.

"The Oxford Movement," by Dean Church.

"The Episcopal Church in America," by Dean Hodges.

"A Spiritual Pilgrimage," by Rev. A. J. Campbell, (late pastor of the London Temple.)

Envelope Subscribers

The new term of the Envelope Subscriptions begins at Easter time. The list of subscribers through the envelope system has increased over last year, but there still are a number of people in the Parish who are not subscribers. Every attendant of Christ Church should give regularly and systematically to the support of the work of the Parish. Every one should be willing to do his or her share—even if the weekly amount is small. It is the willing co-operation on the part of every one that is wanted.

So let every person in the parish, every member of every family, children and adult, be a subscriber and do his or her part. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule or may be had from the Verger. Please mark on the card the amount you are willing to give, weekly or monthly, sign your name and address and place it on the alms basin at any service or send it to the Rector.

A package of envelopes will then be sent to you for your offerings.

It is hoped that now at this Lenten Season, every one will make a resolve to be a regular subscriber.

Subscriptions should be made both to missions and to the Parish support.

Confirmation Instruction

Instruction on Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church are being delivered every Friday evening at eight o'clock for adults and every Sunday afternoon at four o'clock for minors, in the Parish House.

All persons, confirmed and not confirmed are cordially invited to these Instructions.

The Rector will be pleased to meet after any service or by special appointment any one who wishes to confer with him on the subject of Confirmation. He requests that all who are contemplating confirmation should give their names to him at once.

The Church Pension Fund

An offering was taken on Septuagesima Sunday, at which time many of our people contributed to this object, and we would urge that all do something, however small the contribution may be, keeping in mind that a small yearly pledge, which will not inconvenience the giver, will be of more benefit to the Fund than would a single larger contribution.

To put forth an argument in defence of being provident, or to attempt to convince the general public of the correctness of the principle upon which is based insurance or pensions, would seem in this age to be entirely superfluous. Yet strange as it may seem, the Church, the leader of thought, is not so far advanced in these practices of right and justice as many wholly business or political organizations. But this is probably just what might have been expected of the Church and its ministers. They have gone on during the years and the centuries, giving and spending their lives for the cause to which they were called, without a forethought of themselves, and only when age or infirmities overtook them were they brought to the stern reality that the physical life needs, demands and must have certain care and attention. And all too often it was then too late to retrace steps taken while about their Father's business, had they even thought of doing so, and their age or infirmities became a double handicap, preventing their continuing their active ministry and denying to them the ability to care for their physical needs.

The Church has, however late, awakened, not so much to the claims of its servants, but to imperative necessity of being right, of being just, of being an example of how the good and faithful servant should be treated, rather than to leave such acts of equity and justice to those who claim no especial spiritual light to guide them in their acts toward their fellow man.

The Church Pension Fund is now well on its way toward a sure foundation, and the time has almost arrived when the corner stone, the $5,000,000 pledged fund to meet the needs of those already, or who will be in the next few years, incapacitated, being almost entirely subscribed.

But there are still many who as yet have had no part in this corner stone laying.

Surely everyone, who feels that the Church, if nothing more to them, is the influence which makes for all that is good, all that is comfortable, and all that is safe in our communities, will want to have some part in this undertaking.

An urgent appeal is made to all who have not yet contributed or pledged an offering to this worthy object. Contributions and pledges may be sent before March 1st to the Rector or to the Parish treasurer of the fund, Mr. U. G. Rowley, 6368 Sherman St., Germantown. U. G. R.

The Altar Guild

The monthly meetings of the Altar Guild continue as usual. With the Christmas season over, we are now looking forward to Lent when all the committees will be busy looking after the daily services.

Plans will be made at the next meeting for the annual supper, which will be held very shortly.

The Guild regrets the resignation of Margaret F. Falkner, owing to her marriage on January 27th to Mr. Harry Reichner.

Mrs. Charles Cotton has full charge of the linens.

The Altar Committees for March are as follows:

March 2-9: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Quay, N. Manser.

March 9-16: Misses Chase, Alexander, Woodroffe.

March 16-23: Misses Cooley, E. Maneer, Mogridge, Gerhard.

March 23-30: Misses Dean, Falkner. G. F. D.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The longing of every thoughtful Christian woman to be of some use in the world, outside of her own immediate circle of family and friends, has been most satisfactorily met by the church in her various activities for women.

Sunday School

New classes are being formed in the Primary Department. Two trained teachers have volunteered to help in the work. The absolute pre-requisite to success when using the Christian Nurture Course of lessons is that the Teacher must prepare very much more thoroughly than was considered essential under the old system. With small classes and competent teachers thoroughly prepared and imbued with a passion for the work no wonder that the Primary Department is asking for more room. A change will have to be made and a larger room provided for the Primary and Beginner's Classes.

The Junior Department is now entirely in shape under the new system of teaching. Perhaps it is a little early to talk of results but one thing is sure and can be seen at once by the most casual observer. The classes using the new system show the most attention to the work. In fact they are so busy all the time that they have little leisure for mischief.

Several new classes are being formed in the Senior Department. Here we need three or four more teachers who will be prepared to take up this most important part of the School work.

How to keep the boys and girls in the school during the 'teen age is the question now before all Superintendents. Many scholars from our Senior Department have graduated into the Bible Classes. We are not complaining on this score, we know they are being well cared for. We have fine quarters for our Senior Department with plenty of room for four or five more classes. If we had the earnest devoted teachers the boys and girls can be found, but there must be steady persistent thoughtful work on the part of the teachers or scholars will be on the absent list. The 'teen age scholars are free now and they know it. They are no longer under the Law and Order supervision of the Home and the teaching in the Sunday School must be attractive or they won't come.

First Class Teachers willing to give time and thought to this work are needed.

The organization which most fully realizes these dreams and offers the broadest outlet is perhaps the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

The work has been thoroughly systematized and for convenience has been divided into five departments, viz:

The Diocesan, The Domestic, The Colored, The Indian, called "the Indian Hope," and The Foreign. The Diocesan is divided into the various Conventions. Ours is the Convocation of Germantown. The Church Periodical Club is also a part of the Woman's Auxiliary. Here is an intensely interesting and world-wide opportunity offered to every woman in the Church. We can give of our means, which is the very least and smallest thing that we can do. We can work for Missions and we can pray for them. The last is really the most important, for if we pray we must also work and give or our prayers are as naught.

Will not every woman in our Parish resolve now to identify herself with this Missionary Society, the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions and do what she can.

During Lent the Auxiliary will meet in the Parish House every Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

A cordial invitation is extended to every woman in the Parish to attend these meetings.

Girls Friendly

The Girls Friendly are now commencing their Lenten work which will take the same form as that of last year and for many years, making Layingettes. In addition to this they will make bandages and other supplies under the instruction and guidance of the Visiting Nurses Association.

A change will be made in the management of the Friendly this year. Miss Morgan will not be able to give so much of her time as in former years. Mrs. Aull, Mrs. Bland and Mrs. Robinson have consented to take charge of the Society for two or three meetings each month.

P. M.

We wait for volunteers. Please signify your willingness to the Rector or Superintendent.

Consult the List of Services

On another page will be found in full the list of Special services for the Forty Days of Lent. Consult this list carefully. Select certain services from this list and make a firm resolution that, God willing, you will be regular and faithful in your attendance. Be in earnest! Let nothing, but God's will, swerve you from your determination!

The Lenten Fast

How forcibly did the early Christians feel themselves called, once at least each year, in an especial manner to chasten their souls by prayer and fasting, that they might thus be compelled to realize the nature of His earthly existence. Who was truly "a Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief!" But if this was necessary for them, how much more so is it for us! Educated from the earliest dawn of reason, to hear the story of redeeming love, and the fearful manner in which our salvation was wrought out, these themes become to us subjects too well known to excite attention. It is indispensable, therefore, that the mind should be directed and fixed upon them. And how admirably is this done by the appointed service of the Church. Week after week, we are led in her prayers and lessons to contemplate these solemn mysteries until when Holy Week arrives, the recital is each day repeated. We witness the bitter agony of the Son of God, in the Garden of Gethsemane. We stand by the Patient Sufferer's side when arraigned in the Hall of Pilate. We follow Him to Calvary as He painfully toils along amidst the scoff and jeers of an infuriated mob. We gather round the Cross, and hear that last expiring cry, which shrouded the Heavens in darkness, and startled even the sleeping dead in their tombs. Hard, indeed, must be that heart—yes, utterly "past feeling"—which amid scenes like these, is not awakened to gratitude and devotion. He can be no true follower of the Lord whose spirit does not "burn within him" as he thus contemplates the mighty price at which his redemption was purchased, or whose resolution is not strengthened, to live for that Master who died a death of shame for him.

A Prayer for a Friend Out of Sight

O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, in Whose embrace all creatures live, in whatsoever world or condition they be; I beseech Thee for him whose name and dwelling place and every need Thou knowest. Lord, vouchsafe him light and rest, peace and refreshment, joy and consolation, in Paradise, in the companionship of saints, in the presence of Christ, in the ample folds of Thy great love.

Grant that his life (so troubled here) may unfold itself in Thy sight, and find a sweet employment in the spacious fields of eternity. If he hath ever been hurt or maimed by any unhappy word or deed of mine, I pray Thee of Thy great pity to heal and restore him, that he may serve Thee without hindrance.

Tell him, O gracious Lord, if it may be, how much I love him and miss him and long to see him again; and if there be ways in which he may come, vouchsafe him to me as a guide and guard, and grant me a sense of his nearness, in such degree as Thy laws permit.

If in aught I can minister to his peace, be pleased of Thy love to let this be; and mercifully keep me from every act which may deprive me of the sight of him as soon as our trial-time is over, or mar the fulness of our joy when the end of the days hath come.

Pardon, O gracious Lord and Father, whatsoever is amiss in this my prayer, and let Thy will be done; for my will is blind and erring, but Thine is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

An Easter Greeting

With a heart full of love for every member of Christ Church my earnest prayer goes up to God that this happy Eastertide may bring to each soul the truest and highest Easter joy.

My prayer is for every soul, but more especially my heart's deepest sympathy and love and prayer go out at this time on behalf of those who are in trouble, those who are in sickness, and those who are on beds of pain; and to those to whom I have ministered during the past year, in sorrow and at the hour of death.

May this Easter bring to your hearts the hope and joy which come through the triumph over death of our Risen Lord, and may the peace, which He alone can give, comfort and sustain you in your trials and in your sorrows and through the valley of the shadow of death!

Affectionately your friend and rector
Charles Henry Arndt.

The Events of Holy Week

The period of our Lord's ministry extended over three years, each day of which was full to overflowing with deeds of kindness and love and power. Four Evangelists seek to tell the story of that life. They select here and there significant events, but they were examples only, for if the things which Jesus did were told every one, St. John says, "that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written." When, however, they narrate the events of the last week of our Saviour's earthly life, they dwell in minutest detail upon each step of that suffering way until the spirit and power of those few days are indelibly engraved upon every heart.

Its events touch the sympathetic chord in every human heart. The story of Gethsemane and Calvary has caused the most passionate devotion for nearly nineteen centuries. It is a theme of universal interest because it tells of the greatest degree in which love can be manifested—"that a man lay down his life for his friends." The sufferings and death of Christ tell the sweetest story of devotion human ear ever heard: "Jesus died for me, to manifest His love." "He died to take away the sin of the world."

At the early Communion on each morning during the week (except Good Friday and Saturday) an account of His Passion will be recited at the altar.

At each afternoon service there will be read the Sacred Events of the day. As we shall read each day with increasing interest the story of His suffering our hearts will respond more and more to that love. Just as naturally as affection prompts us to keep in mind and follow hour by hour some dear one on a journey, so we follow day by day the Events of Holy Week—those days of gathering gloom about "the Man of sorrows," as He draws nearer and nearer to Calvary. Upon its varied scenes the devout Christian concentrates his thought and affection, and when at last in the twilight of Good Friday he stands—yea, kneels—at the foot of that Cross whereon our Saviour died, gazing in wonder and amazement upon that awful tragedy, he is ready with a heart melted to tenderness to offer and present to his dear Redeemer his own life—soul and body—"to be a reasonable, holy and living sacrifice" to Him and His service.

Easter Communion

Every one, of course—every one, who considers himself a Christian and who is physically able to do so, will, of course attend Divine Service on Easter Day! It would be worse than foolish even to suggest that any Christian will remain away from His Father's House on Easter Day. Even if there were no rubric in the Prayer Book which says, "Every Parishioner shall communicate at least three times in the year, of which Easter shall be one," every Christian soul, who rejoices in the hope of the Resurrection, would want to avail himself of this privilege and be with Jesus on that great Day, joining in the triumphal song "Christ is Risen from the Dead and become the first fruits of them that slept!"

Every member of the Church will devote these last solemn days of Lent in preparation for the Easter Communion.

Easter

"Christ is risen!" Such is the shout which encircles the earth, as this morning's sun wakes up the world! Today ten thousand temples are crowded; ten thousand voices sing, "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, therefore let us keep the feast!" The Font and Altar are decorated with flowers, emblems of the Resurrection, and of our faith in the promises—Isaiah xxxli. 19, and Hosea xiv. 5. These flowers, after the solemnities of the day, are sent to the sick, and others who have not been permitted, by Providence, to visit the temple. Surely, if ever it is right to use such demonstrations of joy as the disciples did of old, when they plucked down branches of the trees, and threw their robes in the way, it is on this festival, which Prophecy itself has proclaimed to us, in the words, "This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it."

Year after year, as this glorious strain begins, we find ourselves wishing it may not be over too soon, and then, as it dies away, regretting that a year must pass ere we hear it again. Let us reflect that possibly we shall hear it, and sing it to the glory of the risen Redeemer, never again on earth.

Gospel of the Resurrection

The earthly life of Jesus Christ had utterly failed to establish a faith that could survive His death. He had spoken, it is true, as never man had spoken before. He had gone about doing good. He had performed many mighty works, so the records tell us. The blind had been led to see, the deaf to hear, the lepers had been cleansed, the dead had been raised, and to the poor the Gospel had been preached. He had swayed the hearts of the common people so that they could not be shaken off. They had been willing—yea, clamored—to make Him their King. Then, too, those twelve intimate friends, who had been with him from the beginning, gave themselves entirely to Him. They had no other stay upon whom to lean. "Lord, to whom shall we go, for Thou hast the words of eternal life."

Yet all this went for nothing under the crush of the cross. The crowd who had followed Him whithersoever He went had seen Him hanged on the tree, reviled as a malefactor, powerless to save Himself under the taunt: "If Thou be the Son of God come down from the cross and we will believe."

The friends lay hidden in despair. They had trusted; they could trust no more. Every hope was blotted out, all was gone. They lay dumb, stunned, dead. Such was the end of our Lord's earthly career. So far as the effect of that life was concerned the upper chamber where the eleven crouched was the end. There was nothing more to come of it, nothing more to be said or done. They could but go home to die.

The impulse, therefore, which constitutes Christianity is not to be found within the four points of our Lord's recorded life on earth. So far as that went, and if that were all, there would be no such thing as Christianity at all. Christianity dates itself from one event—and one event only—the Resurrection. There is no other origin for it. In that lies its creative force. It is the Gospel of the Resurrection. The cross and passion which had wiped out the meaning of the earthly career and had buried it in a darkness that could be felt, now became, through the illumination of the Resurrection, the seat and center of the glory in which all the light was focused.

We may preach Christ our Peace and our Joy only because His death has been taken up into the risen life and transmuted by its splendor, so that we may be changed from Glory to Glory in the face of Jesus Christ. The cross has power to save only as the cross of the Risen Lord.

The Resurrection, then, is Christianity. From it our religion dates itself. In it lies our whole germinal Gospel. It presented itself to the disciples as the one fact in which the universe arrived at self interpretation. It was no accidental and detached event that had come merely to relieve their sorrow, or to assure them of their Master's safe survival after death. In it the divided pieces of the puzzle of existence fell together—everything suddenly became coherent, intelligible, satisfying. Thus only in the light of the Resurrection did Calvary become a crucifix. Easter, and Easter alone, transformed the death of shame into the symbol of Divine love.

Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.—Selected.

His Gift of Love to the Dead—An Easter Suggestion

A kind friend has sent to the Rector the following touching account of a gift of love to the dead. It is an example worthy of imitation. It is an appropriate Easter suggestion. The account is as follows: "An old man came to the home of a certain clergyman the other day and laid down $150.00 'to help out some needy family.' Then he told this story:

"Years ago, when all of my folks were living, I couldn't afford to give presents. Things are different now, but most of my folks have gone. I went shopping, just as if my folks were alive. I picked out a shawl for an aunt of mine. She's dead and so I didn't buy it, but I put down the amount of money I would have spent. Then I went and got some things for my dead brother and for my father and mother and for a few old friends of mine. I didn't really get them, you know, but I priced the things I thought they would like. When I added up all the money I would have spent it came to almost $150, so I added a little to it, and here it is."

Has any one heard of a finer, more beautiful way of showing a man's love for his dead? The things he had wanted to do it was too late to do now. He might, it is true, have spent money on stone to make more artificial and melancholy the quiet hillside where "his folks" rest. He found a better way to spend his affection, to remember in fancy those he could no longer reach and then to see that his loving memory of them went to make others happier. He made his love for his dead a power to gladden the living. He laid tribute on grief and made it a blessing. It is not a sad story. But is an experience which will bring comfort to any sad life—the comfort which comes to the sad and sorrowful in remembering the dead by a gift of love to the living. It is an example worthy of imitation at this Easter Season.

The flowers on the Altar on Easter Day will be in memory of loved ones in Paradise. All persons in the Parish who wish to remember their dear departed, are invited to send either contributions in money or flowers for that purpose. If money is sent to the President of the Altar Guild, Mrs. Henry E. Baremore, 6439 Jefferson Street, appropriate flowers will be purchased and placed on the altar as memorials.

Lilies and blooming plants are requested to be sent to the Parish House, not later than Saturday noon before Easter. Names should accompany each plant and donation.

Three Hour Service on Good Friday

A Three Hour Meditation on the Seven words from the Cross will be held in Christ Church on Good Friday, from 12 Noon to 3 P. M.. The Meditation will be by the Rev. Henry B. Bryan, who was at Christ Church during the past summer.

It is hoped that as many who can will be present during the entire three hours. Those who come in late or are required to leave before the service is over are requested to do so during the singing of the hymns.

The offering at all services on Good Friday will be for Christian work among the Jews.

The Pension Fund

A duty well done, an act of justice well performed, and the sizing up to one's ideals bring a satisfaction and a gratification which far outweigh any effort or sacrifice necessary to attain the results.

The Church Pension Fund is a success. Its institution and operation is assured. Our aged and infirm clergy, and those of their loved ones dependent upon them, may now confidently regard the proverbial "wolf" as having been relegated to the dark ages.

The church has realized and met heroically its full responsibility in the matter, and to all who have been interested in the movement, it must be cheering indeed to know that the $5,000,000 was raised. Yes, in two senses, it was raised and raised beyond the $5,000,000.

Christ Church, by its committee, thought it ought to share in this laudable endeavor to the extent of $2,000; at first thought a large sum, but we feel sure that our people will be more than pleased to learn that the committee has received cash and pledges amounting to $1,980.00, and there are still some who desire to be numbered among the contributors who have not yet forwarded their intended pledges.

And in this undertaking our people have been generous, indeed; in fact, in some instances, where the resources of the donor was limited in the extreme the response to this call has been more than generous.

Your committee desires through The Chimes to thank all those who have contributed to, all those who were interested in, and all those who gave their sympathy to such a worthy cause, and to say that if any have deferred or have been prevented from contributing, desire to do so, donations may still be sent to the Rector or to the Treasurer of the Fund, Mr. U. G. Rowley, 6358 Sherman Street, Germantown.

A Letter from the Accounting Warden

To the Congregation:

The expenses of the Parish for salaries of Clergy, Choir and Sexton, fuel, lights, repairs, etc., are essential in order that each person may worship each Sunday.

If he or she decides not to come the services are had for such as do come.

It is plain therefore that each should contribute to the expenses an agreed weekly sum according as he or she is able to do.

The facts are that 252 persons, including a number of children, contribute for sittings and through envelopes $5405.73 and the remaining ones, approximately 400 who attend our church contribute only $685.91 by cash in the plate offerings, because they only contribute when they attend the service.

I am sure this is not because the latter desire others to support the church for their convenience but that they have been thoughtless in the matter.

Will not each man and woman and child in Christ Church therefore take an envelope and consistently pay a weekly sum, however small and thus be one of those who contribute weekly to the services of the church.

These envelopes will be furnished next Easter Sunday and may be had on application to the Rector, Mr. Gurly, the Accounting Warden or Mr. Richard H. Morris.

Very respectfully,

J. I. Morrison

Accounting Warden.

A Statement from the Vestry

Lent, 1917.

To the Congregation of Christ Church:

The Vestry submits to you the usual letter submitted at this time of the year showing the state of the Finances of the Church.

The report herewith appended embraces a period of a full year ending May 31st, 1917.

Our actual expenses for Parish purposes from June 1st, 1916 to February 16th, 1917 were $6193.86

Estimated expenses from February 16th, 1917 to May 31st, 1917 2850.00

Expenses $9043.86

Our actual receipts from June 1st 1916 to Feb. 16th, 1917 $6210.95

Estimated receipts from February 16th, 1917 to May 31st, 1917 1429.91

Receipts $7640.86

Expenses $9043.86
 Receipts $7640.86

Showing a Deficit of $1403.00

Which the Vestry asks you to contribute as an Easter Offering.

May we not hope that the Offertory on Easter will reach the entire sum for which we ask so that the new Fiscal Year may be started free from current indebtedness.

It is also a great pleasure to announce that during the past year the mortgage debt has been reduced $600, so that our Mortgage indebtedness is now $3100. The monthly envelopes for this purpose have been generally used by the congregation and the result so earnestly desired will soon be accomplished if each one does his or her share by making these monthly payments, which can hardly be a burden on any one of our Congregation.

For your information, the Vestry herewith gives a detailed statement of the Expenditures and Income of the Parish for the term above named:

EXPENDITURES

Salaries	$4212.00
Choir	1734.90
Taxes and Insurance	466.10
Fuel and Lights	568.76
Repairs and Improvements ..	521.48

Miscellaneous	646.86
Convocation of Germantown	325.00
Episcopal and Convention Funds,	285.95
Sustentation Fund	35.96

$9043.86

INCOME

Pew Rents	$2271.00
Envelope Offerings .	3134.73
Plate Offerings	685.97
Jeffries Fund	1450.16
Miscellaneous	99.00

Deficit $1403.00

Let each member of our Beloved Church aid, as God enables, and by self denial and in the spirit of generosity and love faithfully do his or her share to make our Easter Offering memorable in the history of our Parish.

Faithfully yours,

The Vestry of Christ Church.

The Rooster Has Lost His Head

Poor Rooster! He has roosted on the top of Christ Church steeple, has weathered the cold and storms of winter and the heat of summer for almost two score and ten years. How many interesting sights he has witnessed from his lofty pinnacle through these many years—and now he has been decapitated. One of the severe storms of the past month has taken away, not only his head, but also his body. He ought to be taken down and what is left of him, reverently buried. He deserves and has earned his rest.

He should be displaced by a more fitting symbol for a Church steeple, namely a cross. This, indeed, would be going back to the olden days of Christ Church, when the former church building, which was destroyed by its lofty steeple blowing down, was surmounted by a dignified cross over six feet in height. The present tower should have on it a cross, the symbol of the faith. This would be a fitting memorial to some faithful parishioner. Who would like to give it?

When Will this Incessant Begging for Money Cease?

We heard a man ask the other day, "When will this incessant begging for money (he meant for Church purposes) cease? It is call upon call, now for this and now for that, and I am sick and weary of it." More ask the question than those who like our frank friend put it into words. The answer is as easy as the question. It will never cease. It is a part of the law of the situation. While there remains a heathen on earth, an unfaithful Christian, a sick man, soul-sick or body-sick, an orphan child, a cripple, an outcast, a wretched creature anywhere with any wretchedness, the demands will still be made, and they will still be answered worse or better. When all men on earth are blessed, when the sunlight of heaven gilds the hills and valleys of the world and wraps the blue seas in eternal calm then may men rest from their working and their giving—not before.

The Prayer of "General Thanksgiving"

Among the list of changes in the Prayer Book adopted tentatively by the recent General Convention of the Church was the insertion, after the prayer known as the "General Thanksgiving," (the prayer next to the last in the Office of both Morning and Evening Prayer) of the following rubric in these words: "The General Thanksgiving may be said by the congregation with the minister."

In former years this custom was all but universally followed in the worship of our Church but of late years the congregation has ceased to join with the minister in repeating this beautiful and impressive prayer.

This rubric, which now specifically states that this prayer "may be said by the Congregation with the minister (formerly there was no special rubric on this prayer) will tend to make the worship at morning and evening Prayer more congregational in character and is therefore, in the judgment of the Rector, to be strongly commended.

The Rector invites the Congregation, hereafter, to join with the minister in repeating the General Thanksgiving, as it occurs in the Service of Morning and Evening Prayer.

Easter Day Services

The services on Easter Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion, 6.30, 7.30 A. M.

Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and Sermon, 11.00 A. M.

Church School Easter Carol service, 7.30 P. M.

The Young Women's Bible Class

The members of the Young Women's Bible Class are learning the art of basketry and have formed a class for that purpose. It is their intention to add to this the study of other handicrafts, productive of useful articles, and to dispose of the products of their work through the medium of an exchange which they propose to organize. A portion of the moneys thus derived, after the expenses have been met, will be devoted to charitable objects.

E. C.

Men's Bible Class

We would like the members of Christ Church to know we are going to hold a rummage sale about the last week in March for the benefit of the Men's Class and if any member or their friends have any clothing, neckties, shoes for men, women and children or anything they will donate to us, we will be pleased to call for same, if they will let Mr. Chas. H. Jackson, 6358 Jefferson St., Phone 1579W know when and where.

Our orchestra is a big addition to our class and it helps with the singing.

Our attendance of members average 60 each Sunday.

We extend a special invitation to the men of the Parish to attend this Class and we would be pleased to see the father, of the son, who is a member, be present also. We know he will get a lasting benefit.

9.45 A. M. is the time we start our class.

Let every man of the Parish, young and old give the Class this day March 25th, and help us to have 150 men out on that morning. We know you will enjoy it.

R. M. J.

Our Church School

The Officers and Teachers of our Church School are making a determined effort to increase the attendance and thus make good use of the splendid facilities we have for the accommodation of a large school.

Each teacher has been supplied with a list of names and a canvas will be made which we think will result in a satisfactory improvement in the attendance.

We have already had an attendance on one Sunday of 378.

In this connection the Officers of the school solicit the help of all the Congregation of Christ Church.

Several Teachers' Meetings have been held lately and Departmental Classes of Teachers for the study of the lesson are being held every week.

At all of these meetings there is a display of earnestness which shows great devotion to the work on the part of all who are interested in the food cause.

It is always pleasant to look forward to the bright spots in the near future. These just now are the Easter Services, the May Day Festival and the Picnic at Burholme Park in June.

The scholars are working hard and sacrificing to fill their Lenten mite boxes, so that on Easter there may be a generous offering for Missions.

Teachers Wanted for Our Growing Church School

Our Sunday School, (to be known hereafter as our Church School,) is entering upon a campaign which we hope will result in making it one of the strongest in numbers and enthusiasm in Germantown. We need more teachers. We do not want anybody who may desire to come in and teach, but we want teachers really qualified for the work. Our present corps is faithful and efficient, but too small. There are many men and women in the Parish who are well qualified to do this work. We wish to urge upon them our present need and ask their co-operation in this plan to build up the source of our future church membership—our church school. Now is your chance to help.

After Lent, What?

A real resurrection unto Christ will make and leave some definite traces upon life.

Rejoice, O my soul! Thou hast been cast down by the sorrows and dark things of this world. Thy Lord has risen. His presence by grace, in the Sacraments, is given to thee. Thou shalt rise. Rise now in thought and heart and hope, where He is—the living one who was dead and is alive for evermore. Have hope. Take courage. Have joy.—Knox Little.

The people of Christ Church owe a debt of gratitude to the clergy who accepted the Rector's invitation to preach on Sunday evenings in Lent. These clergy are all very busy men and their coming to Christ Church on Sunday evenings was added labor to their busy day, which the Rector and people of Christ Church highly appreciate.

The congregation on each Sunday was unusually large, the largest number being present on Sunday evening, March 11th, when the Rev. Henry C. Stone, Founder of the Stonemen's Fellowship, preached. Every available seat in the church was occupied. The members of the Men's Bible Class have done good service in their work to increase the attendance. What an inspiration it would be if, at every service, the church was full to overflowing—an inspiration to preacher and people! It can be if the people of Christ Church will it.

Members of the Junior Brotherhood are asked to meet Mr. Gurley in the Parish House at 8 o'clock on Friday night, March 30th next. Will the members please advise the Directors at once as to whether or not they can be present?

Only a few have paid the fee expected from those using the gymnasium at nights. Remember, electricity and coal cost money and it is only fair to expect this small fee from those who enjoy the use of the room.

The Altar Guild

The Altar Guild held a regular monthly meeting on March 12th. Arrangements were made for the services on Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday. The members of the Guild will be present on March 31st and on April 7th, to decorate the Altars.

The letters for the Easter flowers will be sent out next week. It is hoped that they will be answered promptly, so that we may know how many flowers or how much money we may count on.

It is hoped to hold the Guild supper very soon after Easter.

There are two vacancies on the Guild that we hope will soon be filled.

The Altar Committees for April are as follows:

March 30-April 16—Mrs. Cotton, Misses Quay, N. Manser.

April 6-13—Misses Chase, Alexander, Woodroffe.

April 13-20—Misses Cooley, Mogridge E. Manser, Gerhard.

April 20-27—Misses Dean, Falkner.
G. F. D.

The Athletic Association

During the past week letters have been sent out to members of the Parish requesting their co-operation in the matter of memberships in the Church Athletic Association. The Association takes this opportunity to explain in greater detail than the letter permitted the purpose of this solicitation. During last summer the grounds adjoining the Parish House were put in thorough repair and in them were fitted up two tennis courts and a volley ball court. This was made possible by the generous subscription to memberships by many in the Parish. Also, through the generosity of Colonel Potter's Bible Class, apparatus was placed in the grounds which provided plenty of fun and real enjoyment for the children.

Now the Association wishes to call attention to these facts—i. e., that there are many children (and adults also) who will use this playground as a means of diversion and entertainment throughout the summer months—that it answers the question of how to obtain the necessary relaxation and exercise for many whose business will prevent their leaving the city for the summer—that it will help to organize and make permanent a spirit of fellowship, especially among the younger members of the Parish and that it will demonstrate to many that the Church stands for complete development of humankind, providing as it does in this way for their physical as well as for their spiritual health.

The grounds will not need extensive repair this spring. However, as it is the Association's plan to inaugurate a regular playground program, equipment and supplies will have to be purchased. For this reason we ask a generous response to the invitations to membership sent out.

We would further say, with all the emphasis we can, that the grounds will be open for use to members only and that membership, with no exceptions, will be confined to the membership of either Christ Church or one of its organizations. The reason for this rule—which is a departure from the custom of former years, is simply that the grounds will only accommodate a limited number, that we feel that number is obtainable among our church membership and that the privileges of the grounds should be first extended to them.

The membership will cost $2.00 for the year. In the next issue of the Chimes will be given the details of our spring Tennis Tournament from the entries in which will be selected a team to represent Christ Church in the local Church Tennis League.

Election of Vestrymen

An election for Vestrymen of this Parish will be held in the Church on Easter Monday, April 9th, between the hours of five and six P. M.

The term of the following members of the Vestry expires this year:

Sheldon Potter
W. R. Pugh
W. N. Johnson
F. B. Falkner, M. D.

Four (4) Vestrymen are to be elected for a term of three (3) years and one (1) for a term of one (1) year. The latter to serve for the unexpired term of A. R. Chesten.

The following extract is from the By-Laws of Christ Church. By-Law, Article 1, Section 8:

Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestryman one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the Secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the Southeast vestibule of the Church at least two Sundays prior to the holding of such election, and no person not so nominated shall be a candidate.

Charter of Incorporation—Article 6

The Vestry of said Church shall consist of twelve men, to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereat. Said election shall be by ballot and shall be held on Easter Monday in each and every year between such hours and upon such notice as the by-laws of said Church may provide and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of the Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of at least two years next preceding any such election, annual subscriptions of not less than ten dollars each, or the like sum in annual rental of pew or sitting for the same period. Said Vestrymen shall be elected to serve for the following terms: at the election next to be held after the adoption hereof four thereof shall be elected to serve until Easter Monday of the year 1915, and thereafter until their successors have been elected; four thereof shall be elected to serve until Easter Monday of the year 1916, and thereafter until their successors have been elected; and four thereof shall be elected to serve until Easter Monday of the year 1917, and thereafter until their successors have been elected; and at each annual election thereafter four Vestrymen shall be elected to serve until the third Easter Monday thereafter and until their successors have been elected. The vote of a plurality of the qualified electors voting at any such election shall be requisite for the election of any Vestrymen. The said Vestrymen shall have power to fill any vacancy occurring therein until the next annual election, when such vacancy shall be filled by the election of a Vestryman to serve for and during the unexpired term.

Our Easter Offering

Our Easter Offering on Easter Day should be a true expression of our love and loyalty to Jesus Christ. As He suffered and sacrificed and died for us, and rose again, that we through Him, might have Life Eternal, so should we present on Easter Day such an offering as will mean something in His sight—will mean a real love and devotion, a genuine spirit of self-sacrifice for Him, whom we call our Lord and Saviour.

Far back in Old Testament times, the faithful were commanded to appear before the Lord for sacrificial worship three times a year, and they were not to appear empty. One of these occasions was the "Feast of Unleavened Bread"—which corresponds to our Easter Day. "Three times in a year shall all appear before the Lord thy God in the place which He shall choose; in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles, and they shall not appear before the Lord empty. Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which He hath given thee." (Deut. 16:16.)

If this was the custom in Old Testament times how more abundantly and gladly should the Christian pour out his heart to God in thanksgiving on Easter Day.

Whilst I am very anxious that the full amount asked for by the Vestry shall be realized this Easter, I am even more anxious that this offering shall come abundantly from all, from every man, woman and child, and that it shall be an expression of deep, true Christian devotion according as God hath blessed each one of us.

We Live by Faith, Not Light

The more we study this old world, the more convinced we become that our first impressions of natural phenomena are more likely to be wrong than right. Nature is constantly warning us not to judge by appearances. The earth seems flat. Shall we then deny that it is round? The sun seems to go round our planet. Wrong again; our planet goes round the sun. Fall and winter seem to be the beginning of all things. Suppose this had been the first winter you had ever known, what would have been your creed about the possibility of a springtime?

We do not believe that these old leafless trees are dead because we have already come through and seen many a May morning resurrection on the other side. But in the death of the body we are passing through our first winter. Wait till the springtime. 'Judge' not by appearance; judge righteous judgment.

"We believe it moreover because it is probable in the light of human nature. Are not our aspirations a prophecy of their fulfillment? Our hearts tell us that we were made to be satisfied, and this life never satisfies us. Every creature, except the human creature, seems to meet the full limit of its growth here. Compare our fevered longings with the stolid contentment of the ox, and the difference is that he is at home here, and we are not.

"The one unsatisfied being on the earth is man; because he belongs to another world. 'Foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man hath not where to lay His head.' Is this to be so always? Then my dog is more blessed than I; for his capacities are filled, and I know that mine are not. No! An immortality where these poor broken ideals may be completed!

A solemn murmur of the soul
Tells of the world to be,
As travellers hear the billows roll
Before they reach the sea."

LAY ASSISTANT
Mr. Richard H. Gurley

The Rector's Notes

The Easter Communion

Four hundred and thirty persons received at the Holy Communion on Easter Day. This is a larger number than at any preceding Easter. A number of Communicants were out of the city on that day and there were others ill or too feeble to attend. The Rector visited some of these at their homes and administered the Sacrament to them privately. In looking over the list of names of communicants, there were some, however, who were absent on Easter Day for neither of these reasons. These are they who weigh most heavily on the Rector's heart—the indifferent ones, those who have strayed away from the sacred associations of their church, and become worldly and Godless.

May something come into their lives—we hope that it may not be sorrow—to touch their hearts and bring them back to God and their Church! ..

The Ascension

of God." He instructed them concerning His Church which He came to found upon Earth. "Ye shall receive power, after the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, and in Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

The fortieth day after His Resurrection has arrived, He assembles His Apostles upon the Mount of Olivet. Even those closest in thought and sympathy with Him could have had but faint realization that He was going away, in order that the Comforter might come to illuminate their dull understanding, and lead them into all truth. "It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go away I will send Him unto you." Until the Holy Spirit should come more fully, they were unable to comprehend spiritual mysteries. Overflowing with love for His disciples and for all who should believe on Him through them, He raised those pierced hands in Divine blessing. Then the Son of Man and the Son of God rises by His own power into Heaven.

Awe-struck, dumb with amazement, even the impulsive Peter finds no words to say. They silently gaze upon the fast receding form and see His loving face and His pierced hands outstretched in benediction upon the world that had rejected Him. "A cloud receives Him out of their sight;" and still they gaze entranced in heart-felt worship and lofty contemplation. Then angels, sent back by the Triumphant King, announce to them that He who had promised to be with them to the end of the world and had bade them wait at Jerusalem "until they should be endured with power from on high," would Himself come again to judge both the quick and the dead.

And then the disciples, no longer doubting, but full of joy, knowing Christ, no more after the flesh, but after the Spirit, returned to Jerusalem to wait for the descent of the Paraclet. (Holy Spirit.)

We learn from the Psalms the glorious words of welcome which rang through the courts of Heaven, as the triumphal substance of our Lord and His angelic host swept through the starry firmament.

"Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

"Who is the King of glory; it is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

"Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

"Who is the King of glory; even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory."

"Sing praises to God, sing praises unto our King; God reigneth over the heathen; God sitteth upon the throne of His holiness."

One special thought is voiced in our meditation upon the Ascension. It is the solemn truth, that as He went, so will He return. That day is not revealed, yet many devout hearts, who are in touch with the secrets of Heaven seem already to hear the gathering together of the angelic hosts, the reading of the roll-call of the great army of heaven, the preparations for the sound of the last trumpet, and they believe that not very far distant is the time when the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the heavens.

Whitsunday

The Promise is fulfilled! the Comforter is come!

"When the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."

The Apostles, before so weak, so timid, so full of fear are now made bold and intrepid and strong, "are endued with power from on high" and go out fearlessly in His power and His might to preach the Gospel to the ends of the world, to suffer and to die for their risen and ascended Lord. The coming of the Holy Ghost was the seal from the Most High, which certified all the whole Gospel to be from God.

In this blessed feast of Whitsunday, the feast of the Holy Spirit, which is the birthday of the Church, the culmination of our Lord's Incarnation is attained. He ascended that the Spirit of love, of truth, the spirit of God might abide with His Church forever, uniting its members one with another and all to the great Heart of Jesus, that through the guidance of the Holy Spirit we might be led unto all knowledge, truth and holiness, that all who call upon His Holy Name, might be made strong, like the Apostles, willing to sacrifice and to suffer and to die for the Lord Jesus. The Holy Spirit has come to abide in His Church forever. He is present in the Sacraments, at Baptism, at Confirmation, at the Holy Communion. In studying the Epistles we are told that by His influence love is shed abroad in our hearts; through Him we abound in hope, and are full of joy and peace. We learn that we are sealed with this Spirit of Promise, even unto the day of redemption. Only by His aid can we pray aright, through His grace we have communion with the departed saints. It is the Spirit who imparts to us the Christ Life, for it by His power that we receive Jesus Christ in the Sacrament of His Body and Blood. All this is summed up in the Preface to the Trisagion, appointed to be said on Whitsunday at the Holy Communion, "whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error, into the clear light and true knowledge of Thee, and of Thy Son Jesus Christ."

The Holy Spirit must not be thought of as merely a force, or love, proceeding from God. The Holy Spirit is God, abiding in the world. He dwells within each pure and contrite heart, and our bodies are His temples.

"And His the gentle voice we hear,

Soft as the breath of even,

That checks each thought, that calms each fear,

And speaks of heaven."

Loving, persuasive and tender is the ministry of the Spirit, yet in stern and awful warning stands the most terrible threat that can be found in Holy Writ, for him who rejects His voice, and the threat falls from the tender lips of our Saviour: "Whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come."

Trinity Sunday

The doctrinal half of the Church Year culminates at Trinity Sunday. This first half lays stress on doctrine; from now on until Advent Season the emphasis is upon life—the practical outcome of Christian doctrine, Christian living. First comes faith; hence from Advent to Trinity the emphasis is placed upon doctrine. Then comes works; hence the teachings set forth each Sunday from now on to the end of the Church's year, relates to Christian life. "Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God" are the words that are found in the Epistle appointed to be read on the first Sunday after Trinity.

The reception of truth must be gradual. Hence the Church leads us step by step from Advent to Trinity Sunday. In Advent is heralded the miraculous Birth of the wondrous child; at Christmas the heavenly host proclaims from the starry firmament "the good tidings of great joy;" on Epiphany Jesus is manifested to the Gentile world; through Lent we enter into our Saviour's Temptations; in Gethsemane we witness His agony; on Good Friday we see our Saviour die for us, and are forced to cry with the centurion, "Truly this was the Son of God". On the glorious feast of Easter we see Him rise triumphant over death; then on Holy Thursday we behold His glorious Ascension into Heaven there to sit at the right hand of the Father; while on Whit-sunday we are taught that the Comforter, even the Spirit of Truth, has come to dwell in His Church and in our hearts forever.

Thus does the Church prepare us for the culmination of her teaching, enabling us to grasp by faith the mystery of the doctrine of the Trinity.

"Along the Church's central space
The sacred weeks with unfelt pace,
Have borne us on from grace to grace."

The Trinity in Unity is the highest mystery that is revealed to us.

Can we learn anything in regard to this mystery by analogy? Each individual consists of soul, body and spirit, but one man. Our mental nature possesses intellect, affections, and will. In nature there are three great divisions,

"Earth's triple frame, land, air and sea
Upraise their canticle to Thee."

The tree with its root, trunk and branches; the oneness under three forms, water, ice and steam; the three notes blending into a perfect chord; the three dimensions that make a solid body, length, breadth and thickness; the three kingdoms that make up our planet, the vegetable, animal and mineral; the division of time into past, present and future. These and many more analogies come as suggestions of the great truth of Trinity in Unity.

But argument and reason are of little weight before the powerful and convincing knowledge which comes through faith. Now our finite minds cannot understand the infinite. Now we walk by faith and not by sight. "We know in whom we believe." "Now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face; now, I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known."

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish. Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

.....
Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

At the annual election of Vestrymen held in Christ Church on Easter Monday the following were re-elected vestrymen to serve for a term of three years: Sheldon Potter, William N. Johnson, M. D., William R. Pugh, Frances B. Falkner, and Jonas Westling to serve one year the unexpired term of A. R. Cheston resigned. At the first meeting of the vestry, held Tuesday evening, April 10th, the Rector re-appointed Mr. James M. Woodroffe, Rector's Warden. The Vestry re-elected Mr. J. I. Morrison, Accounting Warden and Mr. Frances B. Falkner, Secretary. Messrs. Sheldon Potter, James M. Woodroffe and R. H. Morris were elected delegates to the Diocesan Convention.

Flag Presented

At the Church School Easter Service held on Easter Evening in Christ Church a handsome silk flag was presented to the Church by the Men's Bible Class. The presentation address was made by the President of the Class Mr. Rowland Jones and was received by the Rector. Address to the members of the School was made by Rev. N. T. Groton, Rector St. Thomas'

Church, Whitmarsh. As a token of appreciation of the faithful service of the Secretary, Charles C. Cotton, a gold cross was presented by members of the School.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild has been very busy during the past month attending to the Lenten services. We spent the entire day, on the seventh, decorating for Easter and had luncheon in the Parish House.

We were very glad to welcome Miss Dorothy Gill and Mrs. Wm. Lindsay as new members of the Guild.

Four new Purificators have been added to the Altar linens.

The Altar Committees for May are as follows:

May 4-11—Misses Chase, Alexander, Woodroffe.

May 11-18—Misses Cooley, E. Manser, Mogridge, Gerhard, Wismer.

May 18-25—Misses Dean, Falkner, Gill, Mrs. Lindsay.

May 25-31—Mrs. Cotton, Misses Quay, N. Manser.

Services on Ascension Day

The Services on Ascension Day, Thursday, May 17, will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M., Holy Communion and Sermon, 11.00 A. M. The offering on Ascension Day will be for Diocesan Fund for Religious Education.

The Easter Offering

The offering on Easter Day amounted to $1,112.00. This is an excellent showing and considering that over $2000.00 was given and pledged by our people a few weeks before Easter to the Clergy Pension Fund, shows how generously the people of Christ Church respond to every worthy cause. The response was general and came from almost every one in the Parish. There were some who gave most generously. There were others who, out of their abundance, gave comparatively a mere pittance. There were only a few who gave nothing. Two hundred and fifty dollars is still needed to make up the full amount asked for. Will not this small amount be made up in full?

Give Through the Envelope System

Now is the time for every one to begin to subscribe to the support of the Church and to Missions, through the envelope system. Every member of every family in the Parish, man, woman and child, should consider it a duty and a privilege to contribute to the work of the Church through the envelope system. Pledge cards will be found in the racks in each vestibule of the Church.

Please fill out both sides of card. It may be sent to the Rector, or placed on the alms basin at any service.

At the foot of this card, enter the amount you wish to give.

A package of duplex envelopes, dated for each Sunday in the year, and having the number by which your account will be kept, will then be sent you.

Enclose the amount of your weekly offerings for parish support and for Church extension in their respective pockets in the duplex envelope of the proper date and put it in the alms basin. Please keep both offerings paid up evenly to the same date. This will save confusion both for yourself and the treasurer.

The amount of your offerings will be treated confidentially. It is understood that you are at liberty to increase, decrease or cancel the subscriptions at any time upon notice to the Rector.

Christ Church Athletic Association

In response to the invitation to join the Church Athletic Association and contribute as a membership fee the sum of two dollars, there have been ten responses. The expense of fitting up the grounds for use will cost alone $25. It is to be hoped that there will be an increase in the number of those responding, so that the Association will be enabled to place the grounds adjoining the Parish House in proper repair for the constant usage they will have all this summer. Membership fees may be sent or given to Mr. Cotton or Mr. Gurley.

May 23rd

A play entitled the "Conquest of Man" interpreted by an unusually fine caste will be given in the Parish House Wednesday evening, May 23rd, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Men's Bible Class.

This is an occasion to spend an enjoyable evening for a very small outlay. Come and bring your friends.

Tickets may be had from any member of the Bible Class or at the office. Price 25 cents.

Honorable Mention

The Christ Church Boys' Brigade, owing to the fact that five of its membership, including three of its officers, have enlisted for service in the Marine Reserve Corps and its leader is studying for a commission in the Regular Army, will suspend its activities until further notice.

The Parish is certainly proud of the showing this organization has made. By means of hard work the brigade has kept active when circumstances would have warranted its falling by the wayside and now it suspends only that its best trained members may enlist in the larger service of their country. Those who have already enlisted are Messrs. Robinson, Thomas, Simpson, Carter, and Smalley. Christ Church has a right to be proud of them and especially of their leader, Howard Feist,—to whose indefatigable efforts and interest the Brigade has been able to more than "do its bit" in contributing of its membership five recruits for active service in the time of need. Through the "Chimes," a copy of which will be sent to each of these boys, we want to say that we will follow with interest their experiences—an interest only equalled by our pride in them in that they have measured up to their country's call.

The younger boys of the Brigade will be kept together by the organization of a Junior Service Club—the details of which are being worked out now and will be announced later. Let every boy in the Parish who wants to do real helpful service for his country watch for that announcement.

R. H. G.

Red Cross Society

The Tulpehocken Auxiliary No. 24, which is the name under which we are formed, is an association formed to assist in the Red Cross work. Meetings are held in the Christ Church Parish House, every Wednesday from 2 to 5.30 and on Tuesday evening from 8 to 10. Of course at present our own church people comprise a large proportion of the members, but it is not primarily a church affair, and we are glad to welcome anyone from any church or locality. We are working for the people at large, our own soldiers or those of our allies who may need it. At the first meeting, Mrs. Melick, who is head of the Red Cross work in Philadelphia, gave a very interesting address, explaining the work and methods and she said: "If we (Americans) are to succeed the women must stand behind the men and do all they can." If every woman will take her few or many stitches and gather her one or many dollars; the stitches will become many hospital garments and bandages and the pile of money will be large. Already we have a membership of 90 and have sent a check for $86.00 to headquarters. It is not absolutely necessary to pay. Any one is welcome to work, whether they are members or not. $1.00 makes you a member of the Red Cross for a year and you are enrolled as a garment employee in this work for that time.

Mrs. J. I. Morrison, Chairman.

Miss L. E. Wurts, Vice Chairman.

Mrs. Sheldon Potter, Secretary.

Mrs. H. E. Fitzgerald, Treasurer.

Young Women's Bible Class

The Young Women's Bible Class extends a cordial welcome to all girls of sixteen years or over to meet with them on Sunday morning at 9.45 o'clock. We also meet every Thursday evening to take up various subjects of interest for both girls and young women.

The Basketry Class gives an excellent opportunity for those who would care to make mats, baskets or trays. Connected with this class is raffia work which gives the opportunity for making interesting things, such as baskets, and sandwich trays.

Other opportunities are given to those who may desire to crochet, to knit, or to sew.

It is the desire of the class to have a women's exchange in the Fall. At that time we will solicit orders for the following Christmas. Many articles of interest will be made and orders for articles can be made any time through members of the class.

Come next Sunday at 9.45 to this Bible Class and you will like the spirit and good fellowship that prevails.

A. A. L., Secretary.

The Woman's Auxiliary

At the April meeting we had a very interesting talk from Deaconess Carroll, who is working among the Italians in the Diocese. She described the lives and condition of these people most vividly. We were glad to be able to vote a small amount of money to her work. One of our number has agreed to assist her one afternoon each week.

Our Lenten work is almost finished and will be sent to St. Michael's and All Angels Home for colored crippled children at an early date. The dresses for the little girls are very pretty and all the sewing has been very neatly done, so that we may feel that our time has been well spent.

The United Offering has been gathered in and sent to Mrs. North. There is a gradual increase in the amount, but the contributors are only a very small part of the women of the Parish.

The little Blue Box is a most wonderful help. It is astonishing how much can be accumulated in six months by putting small sums from time to time in the box. In this way it does not interfere with our giving to other worthy causes.

There will be but one more meeting for this year. The first Thursday in May. How fine it would be if every woman in the Parish would come to the Woman's Auxiliary and help in the good work.

Memorial Altar Book

A handsome Altar Service Book was presented to Christ Church by Mrs. Richard P. Mogridge, in memory of her sister. The inscription reads "To the Glory of God and in loving memory of Emma Linton Murphy. Easter-Day, 1917."

PRESENT ARMS!

Military Service at Christ Church

The Military Service which the Men's Bible Class has planned for Sunday evening, May 19th, will, we believe be unique—not only in the history of our own Parish, but also in the history of church affairs generally in this city. Credit for the idea must be given to one of the members of our Men's Bible Class, Mr. Frank Wilcox, and if our plans carry out we will have a service that night that no one present will ever forget.

As to the program, we can give only a part of it here. Military hymns will be used throughout the service. The speaker will be the Rev. Dr. C. C. Pierce, Rector of St. Matthews Church and formerly a chaplain in the U. S. Army. Among those present will be the members of Ellis Post No. 6 G. A. R. and of Ellis Post No. 9 Sons of Veterans. The music will be rendered by their bands in conjunction with the church choir and organ. There will be present also a detachment of sailors and marines from League Island.

The two front sections of the church will be reserved for our guests. The left transept will be reserved for our Red Cross organization and their friends. The right transept, for the members of the Bible Class and their families. The two sections back of the transverse aisle will be used to seat all other members of the Parish and visitors who may be present. Special attention is called to this seating arrangement so as to avoid confusion at the service. All entitled to seats in the "Red Cross Section" or Bible Class Section will please enter the church through the door on Tulpehocken street.

The church will be decorated with flags, both with our own and with those of visiting organizations. The general management of the service will be in the care of a special committee of ten men appointed from our class. We are glad to announce that this service is only one of many unusual events which our class has in prospect both in the religious and social life of our Parish. We expect a large congregation on that evening. Will you be one of them? That's fine—you will be very welcome.

The Roll of Honor

The list below is the names of the young men in our parish who have enlisted and are serving in some department of the Government Military Service. There are other men in the parish who have enrolled in the service, but have not, as yet been called. Their names will be added to this Roll of Honor as soon as they are called into service. There may be others from this parish whose names are not known. The Rector requests that he be advised at once of every man who enlists from our Parish. He wishes to keep in personal touch with them during their absence.

This Roll of Honor will be posted in the south entrance of the Church, so that Parishioners may pray daily for every man who is enlisted in his country's service. At every celebration of the Holy Communion, until the end of the war, the name of each man will be mentioned and prayers will ascend to the Throne of Grace that God may protect and keep them and, if it be His will, bring them back well and strong to their friends and to their Church Home.

Our Duty, As Churchmen in this Hour of Our National Need

Since the last issue of the Chimes a terrible crisis has come to our country:—After long patience and with a solemn sense of responsibility, our government has been forced into the World War.

We abhor war. It gives vent to the lowest passions and instincts of men. War is God's curse. It is the result of man's transgression of God's law. It is the result of sin. We have prayed that it might be averted. We have hoped that God's wrath might be turned from us; that the hearts of men might be turned unto Him. But it could not be. The sin has been too great and "without blood there can be no remission of sin." Our Saviour, who suffered and died, as the result of sin, and that the world through His death might be saved, said: "Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man (and that group of men) by whom the offence cometh!"

Since God's visitation upon sin has come, and has come upon our own land, as American citizens, members of the Church of God, what is our duty in this crisis of the world's life and in this hour of our National need?

We are Christians as well as citizens. As Christians, as well as citizens upon us, therefore, rests a double responsibility. We owe it to our country to maintain intact and to transmit unimpaired to others our heritage of freedom and democracy. Above all and beyond all, we must be loyal to our divine Lord, who suffered for us and gave His life that the world might be redeemed, and whose loving purpose embraces every man and every nation.

Since, in spite of every effort, war has come, we are grateful that the ends to which our country is committed are such as all Christian men and women can approve.

To vindicate the principles of righteousness and the inviolability of faith as between nation and nation; to safeguard the right of all peoples, great and small alike; to live their life in freedom and peace; to resist and overcome the force that would prevent the union of the nations in a commonwealth of free peoples, conscious of unity in the pursuit of ideal ends—these are the ends for which every one of us may lay down our all, even life itself.

We have entered this war without haste or passion, not for private or national gain, with no hatred nor bitterness against those with whom we contend.

No man can foresee the issue of the struggle. It calls for all the strength and heroism of which the nation is capable. What now is the mission of the Church in this hour of crisis and danger. It is to bring all that is done or planned in the nation's name to the test of the mind of Christ.

We believe that the love of all men which Christ enjoins, demands that we defend with all the power given to us the sacred rights of humanity. And to this end all Christians are at one in loyalty to our country, and in steadfast and wholehearted devotion to her service.

What Are Our Special Duties?

As members of the Church of Christ, the hour lays upon us special duties:

To purge our own hearts clean of arrogance and selfishness;

To steady and inspire the nation;
To keep ever before the eyes of ourselves and of our allies the ends for which we fight;

To hold our own nation true to its professed aims of justice, liberty and brotherhood;

To testify to our fellow-Christians in every land, most of all to those from whom for the time we are estranged, our consciousness of unbroken unity in Christ;

To unite in the fellowship of service multitudes who love their enemies and are ready to join with them in rebuilding the waste places as soon as peace shall come;

To be diligent in works of relief and mercy, not forgetting those ministries to the spirit to which, as Christians, we are especially committed;

To keep alive the spirit of prayer, that in these times of strain and sorrow men may be sustained by the consciousness of the presence and power of God;

To hearten those who go to the front, and to comfort their loved ones at home;

To care for the welfare of our young men in the army and navy, that they may be fortified in character and made strong to resist temptation;

To be vigilant against every attempt to arouse the spirit of vengeance and unjust suspicion toward those of foreign birth or sympathies;

To protect the rights of conscience against every attempt to invade them;

To maintain our Christian institutions and activities unimpaired, the observance of the Lord's Day and the study of the Holy Scriptures, that the soul of our nation may be nourished and renewed through the worship and service of Almighty God;

To guard the gains of education, and of social progress and economic freedom, won at so great a cost, and to make full use of the occasion to set them still further forward, even by and through the war;

To keep the open mind and the forward look, that the lessons learned in war may not be forgotten when comes that just and sacred peace for which we pray;

Above all, to call men everywhere to new obedience to the will of our Father God, who in Christ has given Himself in supreme self-sacrifice for the redemption of the world, and who invites us to share with Him His ministry of reconciliation.

To such service we as Churchmen would unite with our fellow-Christians of every name. In this spirit we would dedicate ourselves and all that we have to the nation's cause. With this hope we would join hands with all men of good-will of every land and race, to rebuild on this war-ridden and desolated earth the common-wealth of mankind, and to make of the kingdoms of the world the Kingdom of the Christ.

Church Open All Day For Private Prayer and Intercession

The Church is open every day from eight o'clock in the morning to five in the afternoon for Prayer and Intercession. A poster has been placed in the front of the church which reads as follows:

Christian Patriots!

A Call to Prayer!

This church is open to all for Meditation and Intercession. Come in and Pray for Our Country and those in authority.
Our Enlisted men and the Allies.
The sick, the wounded and the dying.
Those who bear relief and comfort.
The needy and all who mourn.
The forgiveness of our enemies.
A just and an enduring peace.

"They who wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

Mr. Gurley Volunteers.

On Saturday, May 10th the Pennsylvania Ambulance Corps No. 10, in which Mr. R. H. Gurley, who has been the Rector's lay assistant for the past two years, is enlisted, sailed from New York to points unknown. Since then news has been received that the unit had arrived safely at Liverpool and a personal cablegram from Mr. Gurley informs us that he is well.

While all regret Mr. Gurley's absence from the parish we heartily congratulate him on his patriotic and heroic spirit which prompted him to volunteer in his country's service. His presence, especially from among the young people in the Parish, will be greatly missed. The Men's Bible Class, numbering over a hundred men, which he organized and successfully conducted, is continuing its Sunday morning meetings and, as a testimonial to Mr. Gurley's faithfulness and zeal, the members have pledged their continued loyalty to the class and to keep up its high standard, until his return to the country, which all hope will be in a not distant future.

The best wishes of his many friends in the parish go out to Mr. Gurley in his service to his country and earnest prayers ascend to the Throne of Grace that he may be kept from all harm and that God may bless him and grant that he may be returned to continue his studies for the Sacred Ministry and to his service in the cause of Christ and His Church.

A Prayer for the Enlisted

For all the men who are serving in their country's cause the following prayer is recommended to be used daily by members of the parish:

O God the strength of all those who put their trust in Thee, bless, we pray Thee, all soldiers and sailors of these United States, and especially our brethren, the members of this Congregation now in military service, and grant them protection from all harm, deliverance from all temptation and if it be Thy will a safe return; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Sick and Wounded

O Father of mercies and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need; Look down from heaven, we humbly beseech Thee, behold, visit, and relieve Thy servants, the sick and the wounded, for whom our prayers are desired. Look upon them with the eyes of Thy mercy; comfort them with a sense of Thy goodness; preserve them from the temptations of the enemy; give them patience under their affliction; and, in Thy good time, restore them to health, and enable them to lead the residue of their life in Thy fear, and to Thy glory. Or else give them grace so to take Thy visitation that, after this painful life ended, they may dwell with Thee in life everlasting; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

.....
Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Last Issue of the Chimes

This will be the last issue of the Chimes until the fall. The large number of subscribers to the Chimes during the past year and the many expressions of appreciation would seem to indicate that the paper is widely read and its value to the parish is recognized. Notwithstanding the increased cost of paper, etc., the Chimes has been regularly issued each month, at the former low price of annual subscription. This has been done, however, at a financial loss to those who are responsible for its publication.

If the publication of the Chimes is to be continued next year it will be necessary to receive, in addition to subscriptions, special contributions to help meet the increased cost. Whether or not the Chimes will be continued to be published will, therefore, depend upon the financial response of its friends.

The Rector will be pleased to receive word from any who may be willing to co-operate in helping to defray the expense of the continued publication of the Chimes.

Summer Services

The services on Sunday during the summer months will be at the usual hours, viz. Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M. Morning Service and Sermon at 11 o'clock. Evening Prayer, with short address, at 7.45. The name of the clergyman who will have charge of the parish during the Rector's vacation will be announced later. Any calls for the services of the Clergy will receive prompt attention if word is left at the Rectory.

A Two Weeks' Mission

A Two Weeks' Mission will be held in this parish either during the coming Advent Season or in Epiphany. Further information will be announced from the chancel as soon as more definite arrangements are made.

Poor Childrens Outing Fund

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on Sunday morning, June 17. This is one of the most worthy charities to which the people of Christ Church are privileged to give. For about $2.50 one poor child can be taken from the hot street or alley into the country for a week where it can enjoy pure, fresh air and receive good, wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom, for several years past, to secure from various organizations for the poor, the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portions of the city—in small dirty courts and narrow streets and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called "homes" the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements are made for a week's outing in the country, and in some cases for a longer time. Occasionally a poor, over-worked mother is also sent with her children.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are asked to give and what a wonderful privilege it affords to persons who are blessed with comfortable homes and can get away for rest and recuperation during the hot months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in crowded courts and narrow streets and alleys.

The following letter received last summer from Comly B. Shoemaker, Esq., President of the Bedford Street Mission, which does splendid work for the poor in one of the most miserable parts of the city, shows how greatly appreciated was the contribution to the poor Children's Outing given last year by the people of this Church:

Rev. Chas. Henry Arndt:

My Dear Mr. Arndt:—I am this morning in receipt of your very kind letter and wish to thank you most kindly and most sincerely, not only for the liberal contribution which your church through your kind interest has sent us, but also for the very kind interest you have taken in visiting among the families of our district. Miss Boyd was recently speaking of your having asked her for additional names and of your having been around in different directions. The manner in which you go into things is most encouraging, and I sincerely wish others might be willing to do likewise.

Again thanking you, I beg to remain,

Very sincerely,

Comly B. Shoemaker.

A Plea for Church Subscribers

At the present time emphasis is being laid upon the need and the duty of every person to do something in the cause of humanity, and the people everywhere are being stirred up with a feeling that they must do their share.

But how much more should that old appeal, to do something for God and humanity, be responded to by those who have pledged themselves to His Church?

The Vestry observes that of those who constitute the listed membership of Christ Church, almost one-third cannot be identified as giving any systematic, regular or tangible support to the work of the church.

That Christ Church has a work to do, is probably more true today than ever, but to do this work, to be a real uplifting power in this community, we must first get the real interest of our own people. There must be that feeling of interest in each member which compels service of some kind.

It is the thought of the Vestry that such general interest can be quickened through every member becoming a regular subscriber to the church's work through the Envelope System.

Most of our members are already showing their interest in this manner, but there are still those who have deferred doing so.

It is not the size of the subscription which the Vestry seek, but merely some regular contribution, as a means of strengthening the attachment between the church and all that it means, and its members.

With the purpose in view of having as nearly as possible, all our members users of the Envelopes, this appeal is made, and it is hoped that each member who may not now enjoy the privilege of participating in every part of the church's activities and taking part in the support of the same, will take advantage of the opportunity now and apply for a set of envelopes.

U. G. R.

The sweetest word in our language is Love. The greatest word in our language is God. The word expressing the shortest time is Now. The three make our greatest duty.

A Vacuum Cleaner Needed

We wonder how many realize the necessity for a "Vacuum Cleaner" in our Church and Parish House? Not only as a help for our faithful sexton, but also from a point of health. This was most forcibly brought to the attention of one of our members on the evening of the Stonemen's visit, it being a disagreeable night, the dirt and mud carried up the aisles of the church was most convincing, especially as one woman said, I wonder how many of these germs we will breathe and sit on next Sunday after the sweeping, and the dust flying. Now if we could have a modern method of cleaning, all this would be done away with, and we could banish germs from the minds of parishioners during service.

A fund was started that night, which has not been pushed on account of the demands for our money and help in our National crisis, but we now feel that this should have our consideration from a health point, and any contributions (no matter how small) may be sent to Miss Ellen Chase, 45 East Washington Lane. We want all to feel that they have been instrumental in making their church cleaner and the work lighter.

Churchmen's Dinner — October 10th

Here is something which should be of interest to every man of this Parish. While it may seem unnecessary to speak so far in advance of such a matter, yet the old adage "take time by the forelock" applies in this case as this dinner will be worthy of both anticipation and participation.

The Annual Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held in Philadelphia from the 10th to the 14th of October and this dinner will precede the opening of the Convention. This means the dinner will be attended by men from all parts of the country. Eighteen Bishops have signified their intention of being present and many prominent clergy and laymen will honor the dinner with their presence.

The Academy of Music has been selected as the place for holding the dinner and will accommodate about 1200. As nearly half of this number have already stated their willingness to attend, it will be seen that this notice is not too far ahead. The toast-master will be George Wharton Pepper, and the speakers the Rt. Rev. Charles D. Williams, D. D., Bishop of Michigan and John Stewart Bryan, of Richmond, Va. The time will be 6.30 P. M., and the cost $1.50 per plate.

A good representation from this Parish is desired and any man wishing to subscribe or desiring further information may apply to Chas. H. Jackson.

The Red Cross

Since we have had twelve sewing machines the work on the various garments progresses satisfactorily, with no time wasted waiting for machine work to be done. The work is finished, inspected, mistakes corrected, returned to headquarters; new supplies of cut out garments received; and so the good work goes steadily on, with an increasing number of completed articles to our credit. Sewing machines have been lent us and we have purchased one new machine and rented another.

Beside this sewing plans are being completed for serving refreshments to soldiers and sailors who may be passing through Philadelphia in large bodies during the summer and later on. Mrs. G. W. C. Drexel, head of the Commissary Department of the Red Cross in Philadelphia and vicinity, has asked the Auxiliaries to assist in this work. The Red Cross workers of Summit and the Second Presbyterian churches, Epiphany and Christ Episcopal Churches have agreed to combine and furnish a group of one hundred women and as many supplies as possible for feeding one body of men. The men will probably come in bodies of from one to two thousand. Gifts of bread, butter, ham, beans and other ingredients for soup, preserves and jelly, chocolate and tobacco are asked for. As the men will come in such large numbers great quantities of food will be required.

Mr. Arndt or any member of the Red Cross will be glad to receive the names of persons willing to assist in preparing or serving food, or of those desiring to give any supplies for the purpose, or to answer any questions in regard to the plan.

A. M. M.

The evening class of the Tulpehocken Unit of the Red Cross meets every Tuesday evening in the Parish House at 7.30 o'clock. The class was formed for those who could not attend the Wednesday afternoon meetings on account of being engaged during the day, and wanted to help with the work for the comfort and relief of our soldiers. There has been an average attendance of twenty-five at the evening meeting, and we feel there must be many others who would avail themselves of this opportunity to do their bit if they realized the necessity of the need now, (and certainly more so in the future) for the garments and bedding that are being made if we are to send our men out of their country.

We can feel proud of the work this class is doing, and will be glad to welcome any others (from any parish) who want to help in this cause. We are making our sample box of Surgical Dressings and hope to soon have our class established under the direction of Miss Helen Newland, of the First Presbyterian Church. This requires most careful work and accuracy.

E. W. C.

Men's Class

Wanted another R. H. Gurley to keep up the good work in the Parish which he was responsible for. When I say that I do not mean that the Men's Class is not holding its own, but there is a lack of interest among the young people in the Parish, whom Mr. Gurley kept interested. The attendance at the Men's Class has dropped off a little, due to men going to war and the beginning of the vacation season. We have present on Sunday morning an average of 40 members and the men are giving Mr. S. V. Wilcox their support.

The lessons are appreciated by all who attend and a good word is being passed from one to the other for Mr. Wilcox.

The Men's Class will start on Sunday at 10 A. M., instead of 9.45 A. M., for the summer months and it is hoped that every member will be on time.

A special invitation is extended to all men of the Parish to attend this class.

Mr. Gurley will appreciate a letter from every member of the Parish. His address will be Richard H. Gurley, United States Army Base Hospital No. 10, France. Do not place any prefix before the name.

R. M. J.

Christ Church Club

At a recent meeting the name of the Christ Church Athletic Association was changed to Christ Church Club. Regular monthly meetings will be held throughout the Summer on the first Friday of each month.

The meetings we would like largely attended, in order to have a good business meeting, and close our evening with a social time.

The play grounds have been renovated at a cost of about $20.00 and are now being used and enjoyed by all of our early bird participants.

After discussing the rise in prices of almost everything, we decided not to raise our dues at this time, and expected a grand rush of applicants for membership, before such raise could take effect. This rush has yet to materialize, but is expected at any time now.

However the management wants to thank the faithful ones who have already given their support, also to thank in advance the ones who will support us in the near future.

Our Dues are $2.00 a year payable in advance to Mr. Chas. J. Cotton, 58 W. Johnson Street.

Decoration Day our main spring opening event, was enjoyed by all, participating in one game or another especially Tennis; and we will continue to hold big events every Saturday Afternoon throughout the summer.

Of course we all feel and miss the absence of Mr. Gurley, especially in this club, as he was always on the job to work and interest all of our members at all times. Now it is the desire of our Rector Mr. Arndt to have the best management and discipline on our grounds this summer, and in order to do this we need the support of every member; the grounds are to be in charge of a responsible person each day; and a schedule will be arranged with the co-operation of our members, and Mr. Potters Bible Class stating what days said persons will take charge of our grounds and smaller children.

Therefore if you have any feeling or regard for Mr. Gurley, it is his desire to have this club and play grounds progress and succeed during his absence; and if you want to do your "bit" for him and the Church come around and co-operate with us.

Chas. J. Cotton, President.

Church School

We have not yet reached the 300 mark but 293 and 295 on two Sundays in April was getting very near. We hope to pass the goal aimed at this year before we commence the summer school on July 2. Our Summer school sessions will be unusually interesting with good talks from noted speakers and illustrated lectures on Missions in foreign lands.

The annual picnic will be held June 28. This Picnic is always a popular outing. The Committee thought that we could not do better than avail ourselves of the facilities offered by Burnholme Park and go there again this year. Scholars, Teachers and their friends are all invited to come. We know that we can promise them a happy day.

The Christian Nurture series of lessons now used in nearly all the classes gives unqualified satisfaction.

The attention and interest of the scholars is remarkable. The time for teaching all too short to get through the varied subjects presented.

Of course we have still some vacancies for teachers and substitutes are always welcome.

G. T. M.

Prayer Books and Hymnals for Strangers

A number of Prayer Books and Hymnals will be found in the pews at the west and south entrances. These books are intended for the use of visitors and strangers, who are invited to take them and use them. Regular attendants at the services should provide their own Prayer Books and Hymnals and bring them to each service, taking them home with them when they return.

Pension Fund

Five million dollars seemed an almost unheard of sum for the Episcopal Church to get together as a reserve fund to be used in putting into execution the Pension plan for retired clergy. Pennsylvania came bravely to the front with an offer to take care of one fifth of this large amount. The committee appointed by the Bishop pledged $700,000 and then asked the parishes to do the rest. Christ Church started out with a proposition to raise one thousand dollars, but at the first meeting of the committee appointed by the Rector it was readily seen that $2000 should be our goal. The committee has now to report that to date $1,993.99 has been secured in cash or pledges. Never did a committee on such an errand bent find such willingness to assist on the part of all who were approached. It was a pleasure, not a task, and the committee takes this opportunity to thank the members of Christ Church for their prompt and generous response. As to the Five Million Dollar Fund, when last heard from it was beyond the seven million dollar mark, and the Diocese of Pennsylvania was far in excess of the one million they set out to collect. A worthy cause, well sustained.

G. T. M.

The spirit of loving service should fill the heart of every Christian. Those to whom we give kindness and love will return the same with fidelity and service rendered in like spirit. Love invites its own response; service inspires to service; and the memory of a kindness done may prove to us a welcome shelter and defense in time of need.

As George MacDonald, in one of his essays, says: "It may be thou dost not love thy neighbor; it may be thou thinkest only how to get from him, how to gain by him. How lonely, then, must thou be! how shut up in thy poverty-stricken room, with the bare walls of selfishness and the hard couch of thy unsatisfaction."

The Mothers' Meeting

The Mothers' Meeting has spent a useful and pleasant winter. Our meetings have had the usual attendance, and the work has gone on regularly and well.

We have made and sold many towels, aprons and rugs, and although we have been obliged to raise our prices on these articles, on account of the increased cost of all materials, our sales have not fallen off.

We had our annual Christmas dinner, an account of which appeared in a previous number of the "Chimes" and in the spring a rummage sale was held which was very successful.

During Lent we worked for the Indians and we expect to send to the Crow Creek Agency in South Dakota a box containing six night shirts, six night gowns and hospital supplies.

The Bishop Brick Fund was not forgotten. To that we are sending $6.50.

All our bills are paid. We have given $25.00 to the Easter Offering, $25.00 to the Red Cross, and we have a balance in the treasury of $27.21.

Our meetings have been discontinued for several weeks, but we are looking forward to an afternoon together, before we separate for the summer.

We feel that our winter has proved a successful one, but next winter we hope to increase our membership, and with an increased attendance we will be able to accomplish more work.

Two Ideas of the Church

There is a difference between the Episcopal church and some other Christian bodies. The mode of worship, the methods of work, the ways of thinking and doing—all are different. The difference is not only great but it is radical. It goes to the very root of matters. It is to be traced to what the idea of the Church of Christ actually is. Out of this real root difference grows all the rest.

What is the church? Let us define, and call one definition "The Church Idea," and the other "The Sectarian Idea."

The Church Idea

1. It is a Divine institution with a human mission.
2. It is an organism for dispensing Christianity.
3. It is the Kingdom of Heaven seeking men on earth.

The Sectarian Idea

1. It is a human institution with a divine mission.

2. It is an organization for the attainment of Christianity.

3. It is a society on earth seeking the kingdom of Heaven.

These are two entirely distinct and totally opposite conceptions of the nature and the purpose of the Church. Very naturally, the idea held, influences every doctrine and practice of the Church and determines its government. Hence the difference.

Let us emphasize the three points in each definition. "The Church Idea" recognizes that the Church is a Divine Institution, founded by Christ Himself, organized, officered and sent forth by Him, under the influence and guidance of the Divine Spirit, to do His work. It is the visible manifestation to the world of Christ; the Church is "His Body." It claims that no man has the right to make any other church, and rend the Body of Christ, because he wants to emphasize certain doctrines or practices. The Episcopal Church claims that it is far better to let men hold their views—to look at the great truths from whichever side they please—but be loyal to the great Body that Christ sent forth into the world. "The Church Idea" believes in Christian unity.

The Church Idea also claims that the Church is an organism of living men, and Christ founded His Church on living men, not on any particular doctrines they believed. It is an organism with a life of its own, having the power of vitality within itself, communicated to it by its Head, preserved in it by the Holy Spirit, so that the promise remains true to-day: "The gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

These living men wrote the Bible, and in the course of time gathered its several books together and established the "Canon of Scripture," that future generations might know what the Apostles did. It is the written story of the Gospel and its conquests in the first Christian century, as human lips told it and enforced it. The Episcopal Church which holds "The Church Idea," honors the Bible as much as any Christian body. Its utterances settle her question of belief and practice, but she does not say "The Bible and the Bible only," for the Church of Christ is an organism, dependent upon an order of living men; and before they had any Bible in the form of the "New Testament," they went forth and accomplished the noblest conquests over the heathen world. And every Bible might be burned, and yet the Church of Christ would live, and men would tell brother men "the faith once delivered to the saints."

The Episcopal Church also claims the Church is a Kingdom—the Kingdom of God on earth, and partaking of a Kingdom with its King, and its governors appointed by the King, and by their successors, every officer holding his authority by virtue of a delegated authority, and every act of the duly appointed officers reaching down through all time to every citizen of that Kingdom. The hands of Jesus were lifted up over the apostles, and they received their commission: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature and baptize them." The apostles laid their hands on their successors, and so on until they rest on Christians to-day — practically the hands of Jesus stretching down through the ages, and pouring the water upon the head of the last baptized child, and giving the bread and the wine to the person who to-day kneels before the altar. This is apostolic succession. And that Kingdom should be one—united—not "divided against itself," as has been the case since men have undertaken "to make churches," to perpetuate opinions, and to teach doctrines.

This is the idea of the Church we find recorded in the Bible, as it tells us what Jesus and the apostles did. "The very first act of Christ's ministry," as an able writer puts it, "was to gather a few persons around him and form a society—the twelve disciples. At first they were only disciples—learners. He kept them near Him; He taught them by word and example. His parables He explained privately to them only. He trained them for their work by sending them out two and two, to preach and heal. There were evidently three ranks among these; Himself, the Head; the twelve next, and the third the seventy. Just before his Ascension Christ raised the twelve to the first rank, saying, "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you."

The first act of the apostles after this was to choose one to take the place of Judas, showing thereby that the society, or organization was to be kept up. At that time the disciples in Jerusalem had increased to one hundred and twenty. Acts 1. 15. The organization was complete, but it had not received the breath of life. On the Day of Pentecost the Holy Spirit was breathed into this organism, and it became active and aggressive. This was the baptism, the new birth, of the Church.

Soon after this we find the Church choosing deacons, and the apostles ordaining them by laying on of hands. Next we read of elders, or presbyters, or priests, evidently differing in office from apostles and deacons. The apostles go forth to the cities of the world, preaching and ordaining elders in every city. Thus the living society is enlarged and has in it all the germs for continuance. It shows that Christ's first and great method for saving souls was not to write a book or propound a philosophy which might have been done by some prophet, but was to found a Church, in living connection with Himself, its Head."

Which "idea" is the better one depends on the fact whether Christ organized a Church or not. If you were called upon to make a choice, would you not prefer to belong to the Church that Christ established and officered and sent out into the world to do His work and has perpetuated to this day—a Church that traces its history through all the Christian centuries—than to some man-made church that can date back its existence only to a time when it broke away from the grand, old, historic Church of Christ, in the heat of debate over some doctrine or practice, and lives now to perpetuate its opinion? Prejudice aside, is their any comparison between the Church of Christ and the church of an opinion—between a living organism and a human society? According to the laws of nature, there must be more real vitality, a fuller, richer life in a Divine Body, than in a human society—in the Kingdom of God seeking men, than in a lot of men seeking the Kingdom of God.

Such a conception of the Church of God is grand, inspiring, helpful. It is calculated to secure the devotion and allegiance of men as something worthy of their love. It makes Churchmen who act from principle as well as from choice. It rises far above that belittling, selfish, self-pleasing idea that we go to church where and when we like the minister, and work and worship when things suit us, and feel no sense of duty or obligation when other conditions exist. This is the "Church Idea," which is held by that branch of the Church Catholic, known in America as the Episcopal Church, tracing its lineage back to Apostolic Church.

Daily Bible Reading

"I am sorry for the men who do not read the Bible every day; I wonder why they deprive themselves of the strength and of the pleasure. It is one of the most singular books in the world, for every time you open it, some old text that you have read a score of times suddenly beams with a new meaning. There is no other book that I know of, of which this is true; there is no other book that yields its meaning so personally, that seems to fit itself so intimately to the very spirit that is seeking its guidance."—Woodrow Wilson.

Shadows

No life can be great without the equipment of sorrow.

There is a depth of sweetness, an abiding light, in a heart that has known suffering and borne it nobly that prosperity and long contentment cannot have.

It is sometimes bitterly said that God is the invention of the ruling classes, of the rich and favored and fat. But the contrary is the case, for belief in God is fed from the springs of trouble. Worship, said Carlyle, lies at the bottom of sorrow.

The beauty of the rose depends upon the muck and the dead leaves sacrificed at its roots.

Out of the battlefields of Europe is springing a strange new birth of faith.

Out of the havoc of tyranny will come a strong, irresistible movement for liberty. The only thing that can compensate humanity for the present orgy of mad dynasties is a revolution that will democratize the people and establish the United States of Europe.

Sorrow comes to every one. And well for the soul that understands that the beauty and richness of life lie in its shadows.

When the day comes that your soul is of age, when you have arrived at last at wisdom, then you will be thankful for every rebuff fate gave you, for with the stripes of destiny you are healed.

Disappointment, disillusion, betrayal, pain, failure—every one of them is but a part of that rich earth the great Gardener has been digging in about your soul, that some day the lilies of majesty may bloom in you.

"The shadows!" exclaimed Auguste Rodin, as he gazed upon the Venus de Milo in the Louvre, that incomparable masterpiece of human achievement, "The divine play of shadows on antique marbles! One might say that shadows love masterpieces. They hang upon them, they make for them adornment. I find only among the Gothics and with Rembrandt such orchestras of shadows. They surround beauty with mystery. They pour peace upon us."

No man could have amassed enough treasure of feeling to transform the world by his life and words, no man could have pushed humanity up to divine kinship, except "a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief."

He Was So Young to Die! And Yet—!

The following beautiful little poem was written by a girl of sixteen on the occasion of the death of her younger brother:

"He was so young to die! If he had lived Great honour had been his; but now—!"
So spake our hearts in those first days of grief
When we had learnt that he was called to God.
So young! Yet what is age, or youth, or death.
In God's great changeless Mind where Time is not?
He calls each one of us when we have come As near perfection as on earth we may.
That boy, in his self-sacrifice for us, Had reached life's climax, and in reaching it Touched Heaven's very Gates—unlocked them—passed—
To watch o'er those he loves and plead for them
With that Great God who leaves none comfortless."

Man is more eternal and universal than his time and condition. The breath of the Eternal, the genius that is divine, is in him. These make him free of the world into which he was born and in which he most intimately lives. Rooted in the condition of his birth, in deep sympathy with the life about him, yet he looks out upon the broader life and rises to it * * * There is an instinct in each one of us that reaches out toward something greater than our humanity. We feel that we are made for God. We know that there is a divinity within us and that divinity is ever reaching upward to the divine. We may resist the feeling within us, may stifle our inborn conviction, and in so doing, starve and crowd into a corner the highest, holiest force of our life. Doing that, we never rise above the flat and level plain of human life. We are of the earth earthly. We live in a world without a sky.

"On the other hand, that upper reach of the soul may point us to our goal. We may listen to the still, small voice within. The movement of our being will be Godward. Keep the windows of your soul open toward heaven.—Gladstone.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS { 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY }
6.00 to 8.00 P. M. " } AT HOME SATURDAY EVENINGS

Our Solemn Responsibility

The various societies of the Parish have resumed their activities and are now in the midst of their winters work.

Never have we take up our Christian work together under circumstances and conditions more sobering and more serious than at this present moment.

The whole world is "goaning and travailing in pain together." Every one is sobered in thought. Every one realizes the seriousness and the solemnity of the hour.

At such a time as this every heart aches for the untold millions who are suffering. Every soul yearns to be of some help, of some service to mankind.

When we contemplate the sublime heroism the awful sacrifices that are going on day by day on countless battle fields, in millions of Christian homes among all classes of people subordinating, as they are "individual comfort to the one great aim of national achievement, filled with self-surrender, unswerving and undoubting obedience to the inner voice, the same unshakable conviction of fighting for the best that is in them," are not our consciences pricked in self conviction for every idle moment, every selfish act and selfish thought. We are being taught to-day by the terrible sacrifice and suffering that man's dignity and freedom consist in the unconditional surrender to duty and that the aim of society is, not the largest possible gratification of the individual instinct for happiness, but the highest possible expression, in individual activity, of mankind's striving for perfection.

Societies Are Meeting

The various societies of the parish are re-assembling after the summer vacations and are entering upon the winter's work. The next issue of the "Chimes" will include brief reports of the month's work. All members of the various parochial societies should re-enlist at once and attend the meetings. New comers into the parish are cordially invited to identify themselves with the work and will be welcomed to membership into any of the societies of the parish.

Further information will be gladly given to enquirers by the officers of the societies or by the Rector.

Strangers and Occasional Attendants

The Rector is pleased to see the large number of strangers who attend the services of Christ Church. They are always welcome and the ushers are always glad to show them to seats.

It is disappointing however, to the Rector that these strangers, who come occasionally and some frequently, continue to remain "strangers." He is anxious to meet them and invite them to identify themselves with the Parish. The Parish needs the co-operation and assistance of every one, and every one needs a "Church Home." No one can afford to be an "outsider," without a Church, which he can call his own.

There are many who are going through life, "ramblers," "floaters," "homeless." This is all wrong—wrong to the Church and wrong to themselves. The Rector hopes that all in this community, who are not established in any Church will make themselves known to him at once and he will be pleased to meet them and welcome them to Christ Church as their Church Home. Do not delay any longer. Do it now!

Assistant to the Rector

The Rector is pleased to welcome to Christ Church the Rev. J. L. Ware, who will assist him in the parish work during the coming winter. Mr. Ware is a senior in the Divinity School of Philadelphia and is a son of the Rev. James P. Ware of Drifton, Pennsylvania. He was ordained to the Diaconate last spring and expects to be advanced to the Priesthood at his graduation in June. Mr. Ware's special work will be among the young men and boys and he will be glad to be of assistance to all young people, whom, he hopes, to be able to interest in the work of the parish.

The Rector will be pleased to introduce Mr. Ware personally to the members of the parish after Sunday morning or evening service.

Special Prayer for Our Enlisted Men

At the Early Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 on Sunday morning special prayers are said for our country and on behalf of the men enlisted in military service—especially for the young men who have gone forth from Christ Church parish. Also, on every Friday afternoon, Evening Prayer is said in the Church at five o'clock, with special petition and intercessions for our nation and its rulers and for men enlisted in the army and navy, for physicians and nurses in hospitals and for all who are serving in their country's cause.

Relatives and friends of "our boys" from this parish, and all who have their country's interest at heart, are invited to attend these services and join in united prayer that God may bless the men and women who are enlisted in any service of our country and especially the members of this parish, that they may be granted protection from all harm, deliverance from all temptation and if it be His will a safe return, through the merits and intercession of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Book of Prayers and Hymns for Enlisted Men

The Rector has purchased a number of Books of Special Prayers and Hymns for private use, which he will be glad to present to the friends of the enlisted men from this Parish to be given or sent to them. This little book is very compact and can easily be carried in the pocket. All applications for these books will be promptly met, if request is made to the Rector.

We are glad to note that the more reputable drug stores in Germantown have agreed to close their places of business the greater part of Sunday. It is hoped that it will not be long before all Drug Stores in Germantown will be included in this list.

To help bring this about residents of this vicinity should not make purchases at Drug Stores on Sunday, except in cases of necessity.

The Need of Workers

The various societies of the Parish are resuming their winter's work. What a splendid opportunity is afforded to every earnest man and woman in this Parish to make his or her life "tell!"

Workers are needed in every department in our Church School—among the boys, among the young men among the girls, among the poor. There are so many shirkers, some jerkers, but not enough workers. It is workers that are needed—men and women, willing and anxious to assume responsibilities for God and resolved to give their best for Him.

The Rector cordially invites all persons who desire to engage in an unselfish and devoted service, to confer with him. They will not apply in vain.

Tell the Rector

Frequently the Rector accidentally hears of cases of long-standing illness in the Parish which should have been brought immediately to his attention. As it is impossible for him to know of these cases without being told of them, the attention of the congregation is called to the rubric at the beginning of the Order for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads "When any person is sick notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the Parish."

Parishioners should also notify the Rector when they change their addresses.

The "Chimes" has been published for fifteen consecutive years, and like many other good things in life, it has been taken for granted and regularly accepted; but it has not, of late years, been appreciated to the extent of being adequately supported. During the past three years the cost of publication has almost doubled. The price of subscription has remained the same. The result has been that each year there has been a deficit. Last year the amount was $26.00. This deficit was borne by the Rector.

If the publication of the Chimes is to be continued during this year the cost should be met by every one subscribing and also, by generous contributions from those who are willing to give.

It is desired that every one in the Parish should have a copy of the "Chimes" each month. An extra supply is provided for strangers who worship with us and they are cordially invited to take copies from the table in the vestibules. Members of the Parish should be willing to help by subscribing or by sending donations toward the expense of publication. The discontinuance of the "Chimes" would be considered by many a grave mistake, if not a misfortune.

Therefore it is hoped that there will be a prompt and generous response in subscriptions and contributions on the part of all our parishioners.

The price of subscription will remain the same; fifty cents a year, or sixty cents if sent by mail. Contributions, above the price of subscription, will be welcomed in any amount.

Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to the Rev. J. L. Ware, care of Christ Church Parish House, Germantown.

Mr. Gurley

Frequent letters from Mr. Gurley, who is in the Military Service "somewhere in France" bring word that he is in good health. The censor is so strict that Mr. Gurley can give but little "news" of the wonderful experiences which he is having, but some day he will have some very interesting accounts to give to his friends.

In the meantime his many friends in Christ Church will be glad to hear from him that he is well, and our prayers will be for him that he may be kept from all harm and, if it be God's will, will be granted a safe return. Mr.

A Reception to be Given to the Rector and Mrs. Arndt

A Reception will be given to the Rector and Mrs. Arndt in the Parish House on Thursday evening, October 25th at eight o'clock, to which all parishioners and attendants at Christ Church are cordially invited.

The occasion is the twenty fifth anniversary of the Rev. Mr. Arndt's association with the Parish, as Curate and Rector.

Mr. Arndt was called to Christ Church as the Assistant to the Rector, the Rev. John B. Falkner, D. D., after his graduation from the Philadelphia Divinity School, June 1892.

The following year he was made Associate Rector of the Parish. Upon the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Falkner, Mr. Arndt was unanimously called as Rector.

With the exception of one year spent abroad, on leave of absence, at the American Church in Nice, France, Mr. Arndt has been at Christ Church for twenty-five years.

This Reception is tendered by the Vestry as a slight token of the respect and affection in which the Rev. and Mrs. Arndt are held by the parishioners of Christ Church.

A cordial invitation is extended to all parishioners and attendants at Christ Church to this Reception to be held in the Parish House, Thursday evening, October 25th, at eight o'clock.

Church Calendar for 1918

A limited supply of Christ Church Calendars for 1918 has been ordered and may be had after November 1st. At the top of the Calendar is a picture of Christ Church, a list of services, hours, etc.

The Church Seasons appear in their appropriate "colors" and the Saints' Days and Festivals of the Church are similarly marked. On the back are selected lessons for each Sunday and Holy Day in the Church Year.

These Calendars may be purchased from the Verger. They cost thirty cents apiece.

Sailors and Marines to be Entertained in Christ Church Parish House

A committee has been formed to be known as the Patriotic Committee of Christ Church, for the purpose of helping those who are giving up so much for us. Friday evening, October 26th has been set aside to entertain fifty sailors and marines. The Committee are planning to do something each month, which will of course necessitate a certain amount of expense. While it is always necessary to have a committee to arrange for these things we want every member of the Parish to consider themselves part it, and do what they can to help this work along by giving what they are able to, no matter how small.

We feel sure if they have read or heard the reports the Christian Association, St. Andrew's Brotherhood and various other Societies make they must realize the necessity of this work.

We have a number from this Parish who are away from home and friends who would appreciate the same privileges we want to give these men. We do not want to confine it to caring for them by entertaining alone; we want to reach them in other ways and also show them that good clean, healthy, amusement means. The aim of this committee is also to keep in touch with our own boys, by writing, etc., and to show them they are still with us, in memory and in our prayers. Won't every one help us carry on this good work?

Contributions for this patriotic work are solicited and may be sent to Miss Chase, 45 E. Washington Lane, or to the Rector.

Women's Bible Class

The Women's Bible Class, which meets in the Parish House every Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, has resumed its sessions. An invitation is extended to all women to attend the meetings. The class is taught by Mrs. Henry R. Baremore.

Persons in Arrears

A few subscribers through the envelope system have neglected to make up their arrears and the Accounting Warden would greatly appreciate it if all persons in arrears will enclose the amounts due as soon as possible.

A large majority have paid in full and the few in arrears will, no doubt, do the same when their attention has been called to it.

A "Mission" to be Held in Christ Church

A Mission will be held in Christ Church, beginning the second Sunday in Lent, February 24th and continuing until the Fourth Sunday in Lent, Mar. 10th. A "Mission" is a series of religious services and instructions, organized to quicken the religious life of Christians and to arouse the interest of persons indifferent to religion. Such will be the motive and purpose of the Mission to be held in this parish. The Missioner will be the Rev. Harvey Officer, member of the Order of the Holy Cross. Father Officer preached in Christ Church on Sunday morning, September 9th and all who heard him at that service were impressed by the strong, forceful sermon and the deep spirituality of the preacher. From this sermon can be presaged the spiritual feast that is in store for those who are privileged to attend the two weeks' Mission to be held in Christ Church during Lent.

Let every member begin now to anticipate this coming Mission, to let it be known far and wide, to prepare our hearts to receive the blessings and to pray that the Holy Spirit will be with us and with all who have a part in it.

Remember the date of the Mission, February 24th to March 10th, 1918.

Red Cross Society

Two Branches of the Red Cross Society hold meetings in Christ Church Parish House. One Branch meets every Wednesday at 10.30 and continues its session until five o'clock in the afternoon. The other meets every Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The officers elected for the ensuing year are:

Miss Wurts, President

Miss Sykes, Vice President

Mrs. H. C. Thompson and Miss Woodroffe, Secretaries

Mrs. H. E. Fitzgerald, Treasurer

Miss Ella Chase is in charge of the Evening Class and Miss Helen Newland has charge of the Surgical Dressing Department.

All women in this vicinity are invited to join one of these Branches of the Red Cross.

After a short summer vacation the evening Branch of the Red Cross resumed its meetings on September 2nd. This class meets in the Parish House on Tuesday evenings and we feel that it should include every member of this Parish and Community who do not attend the morning or afternoon meetings or belong elsewhere. There is work for all, if not Surgical Dressings, sewing. The needs of our boys are great, and not only our own but those who are with us in this dreadful but just war. There are many among us who have not been called to make any sacrifice, but why should we be willing to accept the sacrifice of mothers who have not only given one boy (in many instances her only child) but several. It is our safety that is being assured by these boys and their mother's sacrifice. If we cannot send any one to bear our share in this war we should at least feel that anything we can do to help make their sufferings less in time of need is one of the greatest pleasures and privileges that could be granted us. Not to be willing to do our part as women puts us in the same class as "slackers" and we certainly, as patriotic women, are not willing to allow anyone to say we are such. As we cannot be soldiers, marines or sailors let us do our best to help those who are doing for us.

We are very proud of our evening class and the work they turn out, and are positive if those who have not taken up this great work already if they would drop in and see how interested and earnest the workers are they would joyfully give up at least one evening each week and join these faithful workers who feel it is a great privilege and not a sacrifice to do their bit.

Services on All Saints' Day

The Services on All Saints' Day, Thursday, November 1st, will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M. Holy Communion and Sermon, 11.00 A. M. At the latter service the names of parishioners who have entered into Life Eternal since last All Saints' Day will be read from the Chancel and prayers will be said at the altar. The offering will be for the poor of the Parish. Persons who wish to place flowers on the altar in memory to friends in Paradise are invited to send the flowers to the Parish House on the previous day, October 31st.

After the service these flowers will be taken to the sick in the Parish.

It is the teaching of the world of God and of our Lord and Saviour, and it has in every age been the belief of the Church, that heavenly beings are employed by God to minister to, to watch over, defend, and comfort His servants. Seen or unseen, they are about us. The soldier in the trenches, the sailor amidst the perils of the deep, the priest waging battle as a "Knight of God" with human sin and misery—all have about them the ministering spirit sent forth by the God of men and angels to aid and protect His own. May we not pray as Elisha prayed, "Lord, open the young man's eyes," and is it not conceivable that to those who are looking death in the face day by day, and to whom the unseen world is a great reality, there may be vouchsafed in answer to that prayer a consciousness of the presence of the chariots of Israel and the horsemen thereof?—Church Life.

The Religious Tramp

The religious tramp, is a phenomenon of a serious nature for the churches. He is not a foe to religion. He is indeed a believer, in a way, although he asserts with a pseudo-liberality, that "one church is as good as another." He travels around to the "special services" which one church after another serves up to secure a crowd. The churches often do not go behind the returns. There are crowds and there are crowds. The church tramp is a Christian who refuses to assume any responsibilities. He does not want to work regularly. Just now in many communities, the churches are actively competing for the presence of the church tramp. With concerts and secular lectures and moving pictures of doubtful religious value, they seek to bring the floaters to their places of worship. Their success is as transient as is the interest of the people who come. The cure for church tramps is a serious attitude on the part of the church. Smaller audiences may follow such an attitude, but they will be audiences yielding a more permanent harvest to religion. The serious-minded pastor may not be known just now as a crowd-getter, but he will be known in the end as a church-builder. Meanwhile, the honest doubter outside the church is not offended by the flippancy in the face of problems which to him are of life and death importance. When the church makes her appeal to truth-seekers and not to the sensation-seekers, she will be a stronger church.—The Christian Century.

Some additional names have been added to the list of subscribers through the Envelope System during the past month. This is encouraging and is an indication of the growing interest among the attendants at the services and a recognition of the principal that every one should be a regular, systematic, conscientious supporter of the work of the parish. The Envelope System of giving should be extended until it includes every member, child and adult, of every family in the Parish. St. Paul lays down the rule: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." I Cor. 16:2. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule.

Sunday School Monthly Church Service

On the first Sunday in the month the Sunday School assembles in the Church at 9.45. This monthly Church service familiarizes the young people with the use of the Prayer Book and impresses them with the spirit of reverence and worship. Parents of the children are invited to attend this service at 9.45 on the first Sunday of each month. Parents are cordially invited to visit the Sunday School.

A Vacuum Cleaner Needed—Who Will Give?

In the last issue of the Chimes an appeal was made for help to purchase a Vacuum Cleaner for our good sexton. We know how many and great have been the demands made upon everybody at this trying time so concluded to wait until Fall to take up the question again. We have secured an excellent Cleaner at a very moderate price, and feel sure all the members of the congregation who have attended services must notice the improvement in the appearance of the carpet and pews, and will be willing to help pay for the comfort of knowing there must be fewer of those dreadful bug-bears of modern times "Germs," in our church. Wont everybody try and give a little. No matter how small, it will be thankfully received, as it will go to make up the amount necessary to pay for the Cleaner. Contributions may be given or sent to Miss Chase, 45 East Washington Lane.

A Good Example

Dr. H., pastor of a Presbyterian church, was a next-door neighbor of the writer. On Sunday as he was going into his home after the usual Sunday morning service, he was asked in a neighborly way how he had preached that day, and what was his theme. He stated that he had preached about as usual, and that his theme was "Bequests." When asked just what he meant by preaching on "Bequests", he stated that it had been his rule for a long time to preach at least one sermon every year upon the obligation of Christian people to remember the Lord's work in their last will and testament.

This up-to-date pastor stated further that when he knew members of his church who ought to make bequests for religious causes he sought opportunity to speak to them personally upon the subject. He said furthermore that they would usually do so. Not only this, but not infrequently he wrote wills himself for those who needed such help. Christian Intelligencer.

In each issue of the "Chimes" there has appeared for the past sixteen years this notice:

"The following are forms of bequests to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

..... Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

It is hoped that this form has suggested to many persons in this Parish the duty and propriety of including in their last will and testament a bequest to Christ Church, Germantown. May the Holy Spirit open the hearts of our parishioners to remember their Mother Church.

"Come and See' the Men's Bible Class

These words were spoken by a man who had found something worth while. They were spoken to a man who, as we would say today, was a member of the church, who went to the services on Sunday, who gave of his means to support the church and was, to all outward appearances, living a high moral life.

The man who spoke these words had formerly been just about the same but one day there came into his life an influence which changed the whole course of it and not only his life but the lives of other men with whom he came in contact.

I have been asked to write a few words about the Men's Bible Class. This would mean something concerning the past, as a rule, and as we are just now living very much in the future, I wish to write something for the men of the Parish to think over and then, if it seems worth while, apply it to the Bible class for themselves.

Do you believe in preparedness? It took our country three years to answer that question and much time, labor and opportunity was wasted. One million, five hundred thousand young men, under thirty one years of age, have been chosen for military service by our government. The best the land could give have been taken and what preparation are we who are left making to fulfill the duties they gave up for this greater service? The industrial organizations are "speeding up" and producing, without these men, more than they did before. But what about the Church? What are we, who call ourselves Christians, doing to keep the "home fires burning?" Are we "speeding up" the work they laid down? Are we making any effort to "produce" our portion and then with our "second wind" as it were, going right ahead and doing the work of those members of the church who have answered the call of their country?

Every man who has been baptised is enlisted in the army of the King of Kings. He has promised to be His faithful soldiers and servant until his life's end and just as there is no excuse today for the registered man not hearing the call, so there is no excuse for any man in the church not living up to his obligation. It may be unconsciously that men evade this call to service but just as surely every man will be called upon to give an account of his stewardship.

Some day these men are coming back. What are they going to find? Depleted ranks and disbanded organizations or will they find that the boys have accepted the added responsibility, the older men have seen the vision and the spread of Christ's Kingdom has not only been kept at the mark attained when they left but, inspired and strengthened by their example and the larger call to service, we have pressed on to heights before unattainable.

The Bible Class, the Sunday School, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and other organizations are waiting for volunteers. Nathaniel said, "Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said, "Come and see."

How Not To Do It

Once upon a time a young man was baptized in All Saints' church, Twelfth and Fitzwater streets, Philadelphia. For many months he took a deep interest in the work of the Church, and then moved to another part of the city to be nearer his place of employment. He attached himself to another church because it was close to his home. After years of consistent Christian living, he committed a crime of which he was found guilty and for which he was condemned to several years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. While serving his "bit," the elders of his church paid him a visit; and, after telling him how scandalized they were by his fall from grace, demanded he resign his membership and sever his relations with that special communion of saints without delay. He did, and lo! the sheep became a goat.

On the other hand: an inmate of the Eastern Penitentiary, also in Philadelphia, recently said: "I had heard of the Episcopal Church, but had never cared for it till I went to prison."

What a noble work the City Mission of Philadelphia is doing among these people for Christ and His Church!

An Early Portrait of Christ

Portraits of Christ and the apostles which are believed to have been made at a time not far removed from New Testament days have been discovered on an old chalice now in American hands. The chalice can be dated with certainty in the second half of the first century A. D., says Dr. Gustavus A. Eisen, who has made a preliminary report upon it in the "American Journal of Archaeology." It was found by Arabs digging a well in Antioch on the Orontes, Syria. At the depth of many meters they came upon underground chambers which contained the treasure. It is probable that the old chalice, or communion cup, some of whose worn figures bear witness to the imprint of the kisses of early Christians, is a relic of a cathedral erected in Antioch by Constantine the Great after his removal of the capital of his empire to Constantinople.

The chalice is made in three parts. There is an inner bowl of plain silver, crudely made, with a heavy outer casting of beautiful sculptured work in which, woven in with a design of vine leaves and grapes, are the portraits of Christ and the disciples. The whole is supported on a short, slender stem and narrow foot disk turned out on a lathe from a solid block of silver. On the lower part of the bowl of the chalice is a cluster of lotus leaves. The sculptured work is Greek, that of an artist. Dr. Eisen believes, and the individuality shown in the faces makes it probable, that they were taken from life or from portraits; the wax portraits of the period were excellent. "Such individuality cannot be the result of accident," says Dr. Eisen, "and it is the first time that it has been shown in early Christian art."—The Living Church.

Teachers' Training Class

Teachers in our Sunday School and all persons who wish to qualify themselves as teachers will be glad to learn that they will have an opportunity to attend a Teachers' Training Class which will be begun on Thursday evening, November 1st, and will meet Thursday evening of each week until the middle of December.

The Class will be taught by Mrs. Louis Seymour Houghton. There are few women who are as well fitted to understand such work as Mrs. Houghton. An author of a number of books on Religious subjects, a close student of the Bible for many years, a lecturer before some of the most prominent educational institutions in the country, a woman of singular charm of personality and with unusual didactic ability.

Mrs. Houghton possesses qualifications, rarely combined in one individual, which enables her to bring the Bible to her hearers, as a Book, living, throbbing with God's message to each and every heart.

All who attend these classes will appreciate the privilege of studying the Bible under the instruction of such a teacher.

Not only the teachers in the Sunday School, but all are invited to attend this course which will begin in the Parish House on Thursday evening November 1st.

Provide your Own Prayer Books and Hymnals

Prayer Books and Hymnals are provided for strangers who attend the services of Christ Church and may be found at both entrances. Regular attendants at the services should provide themselves with their own Prayer Books. Every member of the church should possess a private set of Prayer Book and Hymnal, which should be brought to the Church and taken home after each service. Cloth covered books may be purchased at any book store for twenty-five cents and these may be left in the members pews.

Give Through the Envelope System

It is earnestly desired to extend the use of the envelope system to every attendant at the services of Christ Church. By this method everyone is given an opportunity to share in the support of the Parish and its work. Children, as well as adult members of the family, are invited to give through this system, thus inculcating in the young the Christian principle of systematic and conscientious giving. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibules of the church. Everyone is urged to take one of these cards and to sign it for any amount each may feel able to give, on one side as a weekly offering to support the missionary work of the Church and on the other side as an offering to the support of the Parish.

Place this card on the plate on Sunday or send it to the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview Ave., Gtn. A package of envelopes will then be sent to you.

By this method the Church finances do not suffer from the enforced absence of the members on account of sickness or inclement weather.

This method will appeal to every one as the most practical and business-like in meeting the expenses of a Parish.

It is the method also which will appeal to conscientious people who wish to do their share in the furtherance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

It is hoped that the system will be extended until every one in the Parish will be a contributor through the envelope system.

The pledge, being wholly voluntary may be withdrawn at any time by notifying the Rector.

Advent

"Advent Sunday" is the beginning of the Christian year. "Thus it happens" says Bishop Coxé "that in the Kingdom of Heaven, we live in advance of the world; we are a whole month on our way before the civil year begins. In this way our Holy Mother, the Church, teaches us to be ever on the alert, looking for and hastening unto the coming of the Day of God.

The Christian year, beginning with the Season of Advent, is so arranged as to bring before us the leading events in our Lord's life and the leading principles of Christian faith and conduct. This aim is carried out by means of special collects, Epistles and Gospels, by special Lessons, and in certain cases by special selections of psalms.

The season of Advent, so called from the Latin Adventus, a coming, is intended to prepare our minds for the celebration of the coming of our Lord, both on that first Christmas Day and also on that great last Day when we shall appear before the judgment seat of God. It is impossible for us, as Christians, to enter into the joy of Christmas unless we realize the object for which Christ came into the world—viz: to save not merely from the guilt and consequences but from the power of sin.

Thus, this season of Advent, in its Lessons, Epistles and Gospels, strongly mingles the most joyous with the most appalling thoughts; for while it strikes the keynote of our Christmas rejoicings, it dwells on this first Advent with special reference to its bearings on that which is yet future, when "He shall come again to judge both the quick and the dead."

How helpful to the soul this annual "awakening," and setting forward towards Christ's appearing and towards immortality!

Christ tells us: "Watch, therefore, for ye know not when the Master of the House cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning; lest coming suddenly He find you sleeping."

The Christian year, which, as we have said, begins with Advent, is divided, for practical and doctrinal purposes, into two parts. In the first or festal part of the year—that is from Advent to Trinity—the Epistles and Gospels are selected for their appropriateness to the teachings of the doctrine of the day or season; in the second, or non-festal part of the year—that is, from Trinity to Advent—they follow a certain regularity, setting forth the practical life, which should flow out of these doctrines or teachings.

By this method of the Christian year the Church brings before her people the leading events in our Lord's life and the leading principles of Christian faith and conduct. Nothing essential is lost; nothing is added. It is a well rounded teaching of the Christian faith and life.

The teachings of the various seasons of the Church year may be epitomized as follows:

Advent. The Church year commences with the season of Advent which begins four Sundays before Christmas Day. During this period the Church warns mankind of the coming of Christ, the Son of God. This season is penitential in character. The color for Advent is purple.

Christmas. The Advent season is followed by Christmas Day, and the Christmas season, which commemorate the birth of Christ. Color is white.

Epiphany. Then comes the season of the Epiphanytide, when the wise men, led by the star, came to see the infant Christ. Our Lord is here manifested before the Gentile world as the Son of the Living God. Color is green.

Lent. This season lasts for forty days and is a period of abstinence and prayer. Consistent church members do not attend any places of amusement during this season and practice special self-denial in the way of food, pleasure, etc. Color is purple.

Good Friday. This day commemorates the crucifixion of Christ. It is a solemn fast day in the Church. Color black.

Easter. On this day and during this Eastertide the Church emphasizes the resurrection of Christ from the dead. Color is white.

The Ascension. Forty days after the resurrection is celebrated the feast of the Ascension and the Ascention-tide when Christ ascended into heaven. Color is white.

The Feast of Whitsunday. Ten days after the Ascension occurs the feast of Whitsunday, or Pentecost, when the Holy Ghost came down upon the assembled Christian band in the upper chamber. Color is red.

Trinity. Then follows Trinity Sunday which closes the doctrinal part of the year and brings before the people the idea of the ever blessed Trinity. Color is white.

Trinity Season. On the Sundays following and continuing up to Advent the practical duties of the Christian life are emphasized. Like Aaron's rod, the rod and staff of our Creed must now blossom and bear fruit in Christian life and service; so we pray the life-giving Spirit that we, who are by nature dead in sin, may become plants of grace in the garden of God. The color of Trinity season is, therefore, green.

Saints' Days and other holy days, intersperse the Church year to commemorate the blessed Apostles and martyrs of the Church. The color for martyrdom is red.

No real progress in any department of our lives has been made by intermittent efforts. All true growth is steady and consistent if it is a healthy growth. Let us not deceive ourselves, then, into thinking that we can make any real progress morally or spiritually unless we are constant and faithful, in season and out of season, in the worship and service of Almighty God, and in our use of the Sacraments of His Church.

Special Speakers on Diocesan Missions

The rector has arranged to have special speakers come to Christ Church on an average of once a month, during the coming year, to address the congregation on the home missionary work that is being carried on in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. It is believed that the character and extent of the missionary work done by our church throughout our own Diocese is not generally known by the members of our Parish. It is a very great and a very important work. In its scope it includes work among the colored people, the Italians, the Jews, the immigrants which pour into our city, the support of the Galilee and the "Inasmuch" Mission, both of which are doing such good work in uplifting fallen men, the work among the Seamen, the support of missions in the rural districts of the diocese, the extension of church and social service work throughout the rapidly growing portions of our city; missionary work in the jails and penitentiaries, in hospitals and homes for the aged and for the poor and for the young. It extends its support to the Deaf Mutes and to the Blind and reaches out as far as the Mount Alto Sanitarium for the support and relief of cases of tuberculosis. Through innumerable other channels, also, the church in this Diocese is endeavoring to do its Master's work by ministering to those who are in need, sorrow, sickness or distress.

To meet the expenses of this great missionary work which the church is doing within its Diocese, a budget is prepared each year and a definite amount is asked by the Diocesan Board of Missions. At the last Diocesan Convention the Board submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese be requested to contribute during the coming year for the Missionary work of the Diocese the aggregate sum of not less than $37,600.00.

This amount, $37,600.00 is, therefore apportioned among the eight "Convocations" of the Diocese. As our share, the "Convocation of Germantown" is assessed for Diocesan Missions $5,440.00. This amount is in turn, distributed pro rata among the various parishes in the Germantown Convocation. The amount which our parish of Christ Church is privileged to give toward this great Diocesan work, (including the Sustentation Fund) is $396.97.

The Rector's object in inviting speakers to address our congregation, from time to time, on the various aspects of this Diocesan missionary work, is to give our people an intelligent understanding of the great work that is being done by our Church in the missionary fields of this diocese. He believes that when the people of Christ Church understand the scope of the work, its importance, its needs and its opportunities, no appeal for financial support will be made to them in vain.

The following have kindly accepted the Rector's invitation to speak on the special work mentioned. Each speaker is an expert on the subject treated. An offering will be taken at each service for the object presented.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of _____ dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

"Remember the Mission"

To be held in Christ Church

A Mission will be held in Christ Church, beginning the second Sunday in Lent, February 24th, and continuing until the Fourth Sunday in Lent, March 10th. A "Mission" is a series of religious services and instructions, organized to quicken the religious life of Christians and to arouse the interest of persons indifferent to religion. Such will be the motive and purpose of the Mission to be held in this parish. The Missioner will be the Rev. Harvey Officer, member of the Order of the Holy Cross. Father Officer preached in Christ Church on Sunday morning, September 9th, and all who heard him at that service were impressed by the strong, forceful sermon and the deep spirituality of the preacher. From this sermon can be presaged the spiritual feast that is in store for those who are privileged to attend the two weeks' Mission to be held in Christ Church during Lent.

Remember the date of the Mission, February 24th to March 10th, 1918.

Attention! Scholars of our Church School and Bible Classes!

Every teacher, officer and scholar of our schools and members of all Bible Classes are requested to be present at 2:30 o'clock, on Sunday afternoon, November 25th, ready to march into the Church to attend the combined service of the Church Schools of the Parishes of St. Peter's, St. Michael's, Church of the Epiphany, St. Barnabas' and Christ Church!

Every scholar, teacher and officer of all departments of the School should be present!

The members of the Schools will be seated first and parents and friends will be accommodated later.

Let us have three hundred strong from Christ Church School.

Remember the date and hour! Sunday afternoon, November 25th. Assemble at 2:30. Service at 3:00.

A Change of Publisher

With this issue a change will be made in the publication of the CHIMES. This paper will hereafter be published by the Church Press Co., of West Haven, Conn. The CHIMES will be issued on the third Sunday of each month and all copy intended for publication must be in hand, at the latest, ten days before that date.

Our Advertisers

The readers of the CHIMES will notice an increase in the number of advertisements in the CHIMES. This is due to the indefatigable efforts of Miss Isabelle Chapman, who has charge of this department of the CHIMES.

The advertisers have been "selected" as representatives of the best firms in their respective line of business. Every advertiser in the CHIMES can be depended upon as the most reliable in this community. They are "selected men."

The readers of the CHIMES are referred to them when they want "the best."

Subscribe for the Chimes

It is only by the support of the members of the parish through their subscriptions and donations that the CHIMES will be able to be published during the coming year.

In addition to subscriptions the CHIMES is indebted to several generous friends for donations. These friends have the thanks of the CHIMES for their generous support.

All subscriptions and contributions should be sent at once to Rev. J. L. Ware, Christ Church Parish House, Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

Services on Thanksgiving Day

The services on Thanksgiving Day will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M., Morning Service and Sermon, 11.00. The offering at both services will be for the Episcopal Hospital.

The Rector's Twenty-fifth Anniversary

On Thursday evening, October 25th, a reception was tendered to the Rector and Mrs. Arndt in the Parish House, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Rev. Mr. Arndt's association with the Parish as Curate and Rector.

The reception was very largely attended by members of the Parish and a delightful evening was enjoyed by all.

An added pleasure was the presence of the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhinelander.

During the reception, Mr. James M. Woodroffe, the Rector's Warden, presented to the Rector a purse of gold "as a slight token of esteem and affection from some of his friends in the Parish."

The Rector accepted the gift with deep feeling of appreciation.

A beautiful address was made by the Bishop to the Rector and to the members of the Parish.

A New Floor for the Gymnasium

From the wear and tear of the gymnasium, which is used for so many occasions by the parish societies, the floor has recently become unsafe so that it has been found necessary to replace it by an entirely new floor.

The expense will be considerable and some of the societies of the parish will contribute to help meet it. Contributions from other members of the parish will be very welcome and may be sent to the Warden or to the Rector.

War and Missions

Don't Forget to Give for Missions.

Many are no doubt concerned lest our missionary work should suffer because of the condition of the world to-day. They feel, too, that on account of the large sums that have been contributed for Belgian Relief, Red Cross work, and other kindred objects, and because of the great demands that will come upon the finances of the people when we are actively engaged in the war, it will be difficult, if not impossible, to make any advance or even to keep up our present standard of missionary activity. Viewed in the light of history this fear has no foundation whatever. It is interesting to note that five of the great British missionary societies were founded during the time when the Empire was at war. From 1792 to 1804, when these societies were founded, the Empire was just recovering from its war with the United States and entering upon the wars with France under Napoleon. Later we find that during the Crimean War not only the British societies but also the missionary societies of the continent maintained their standard of offerings and in many cases made increases. The same was true of the Boer war.

We might expect that on account of the gigantic operations of the present war and its immense call upon money and men, never before even approximated, that all the resources of the nations engaged would be marshalled for offense and defense, and that all missionary endeavor would suffer accordingly. As a matter of fact, the thirty-five missionary societies in Great Britain show individually and collectively a substantial increase in the contributions received for missions in the year 1916 over the year before the war.

When we come to this country we find that the missionary societies of North America and Canada show a substantial increase in the year 1916. The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions records the largest receipts in the history of the society.

When we come to our own Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society we find that in 1915, facing a possible deficit of $400,000, we secured $432,000, with the inauguration of the Emergency Fund, paying off every obligation of the society and closing free from debt for the first time since 1916. In addition to that the year of 1916 closed not only with all bills paid, but with a surplus of $31,000 in the treasury for advance work, and with a record of having given $50,000 in addition, from undesignated legacies, for equipment in the continental domestic missionary field. When we think of the organization of the Church in the years 1907 to 1910 to secure $1,000,000 as a men's thank offering, and that only about three-quarters of this amount was secured, and then think of the success of the Church Pension Fund during the years of war, starting out to raise $5,000,000 and exceeding it by a million and a half dollars, we feel sure that the great suffering of humanity in the world to-day has touched men's hearts as never before.

It is interesting to note that the missionary societies in the United States maintained a splendid record during the years of the Civil War. From 1861 to 1865 gifts from living donors recorded by six missionary societies jumped from $816,000 in 1862 to $1,575,000 in 1865. The record of those years shows a steady increase which reached a maximum in 1865, the year Lee surrendered.

We need not be faint-hearted nor fear for our work even with our country engaged in this great conflict. But we should bear in mind that when the war is over the Church must be prepared for the greatest opportunity that ever faced Christianity. Men are thinking seriously about the deep things of life. The veneer has been struck off and we have come down to the real human being. If we would profit by what history teaches us, we will see that God's work is not neglected, in a time when our most whole-hearted support is needed. We will not let our faith grow dim nor our courage flag. Don't forget to do your part for Missions!

Men's Bible Class

The class is making progress. While there is still room for more advancement, and it will be made, it is a good sign to note the forward march.

Many of our Parish have not, as yet, paid us a visit. The class loses by their action but they lose far more because they who come to the class and social meetings receive far more than they give. Try it out for yourself.

On Sunday, November 4th, the class began a membership campaign and we hope by the time it closes, on January 27th, to have a great increase in attendance. It should also stimulate the activity of the Parish and we hope to show that the men are able to do more than past records show.

The class is also working in conjunction with the Patriotic Committee and showing the "jolly tars" from League Island that they have friends who take an interest in them.

On the 2nd or 9th of December the class hopes to present to the Parish a Service Flag bearing a star for every enlisted man from our Parish. It is going to be a big night with a great service and you can help by turning in the name of any enlisted man from the Parish entitled to a star.

On December 16th the class will be in charge of the Pleasant Hour Service at the Germantown Boys' Club. Mr. Stanley V. Wilcox, one of our old guard and now Lay Assistant at Gloria Dei (Old Swedes) Church, will make the address to the boys.

The Annual Banquet will, very likely, be held on Lincoln's Birthday, February 12th. At this time every man who has secured five new members during the contest will be the guest of the class.

At the annual meeting on October 18, the following officers were elected: President, Chas. H. Jackson; Vice President, James Rayner; Secretary, Claude R. Reckard; Treasurer, D. Frank Wilcox. The Executive Committee is composed of the above officers and the following: Rowland M. Jones, Frederick Lennig, Edward Moore, Dr. J. C. Courtney, Samuel N. Baxter and J. T. McKeown. C. J.

Lest We Forget

The Rector has made frequent appeals from the Chancel for names of the men of this Parish who have been called to active service in the cause of Liberty.

Judging by the number of replies received only a very few men have answered their Country's call and the reason for this apparent indifference on the part of relatives and friends is unexplainable. Parents and friends of our enlisted men will want to have the name of the hero appear on the Roll of Honor which will hang in the vestibule of the Church and have a star shine out for him on the Service Flag.

While these two objects are, in away, sufficient reasons for securing these names, the most important reasons are given below in order that every one who is interested in any man in service may consider them and then fulfill their obligation.

1st. That the Rector may know definitely what men of his Parish are in service and keep in touch with them.

2nd. That their friends may correspond with them and make them know that some one thinks of them.

3rd. That the personal wants of the men may be looked after and that they may be supplied with good reading matter.

4th. That the men may be remembered at the Holy Communion and prayers said for their spiritual and physical welfare.

5th. That the names may be given the National Office of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and so, through the Camp Secretary, have personal efforts made upon every man to keep him on the right path.

Surely no one will need another reminder and any who have not so far aided in this good work will do so at once.

President of the Bible Class.

Parish Visitor

The Rector is pleased to announce that there has been added to the working force of the Parish Miss Wurts, who he has appointed Parish Visitor. Miss Wurts' special duties will be in the women's work in the Parish.

A Service for the Combined Church Schools to be held in Christ Church

The Church Schools of St. Peter's, St. Michael's, Church of the Epiphany, St. Thomas' and Christ Church will hold an united Service in Christ Church on the last Sunday of this month, November 25th, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

The schools will march in procession from their churches and assemble in our Parish House, at two-thirty o'clock. From here they will proceed into the church.

The choir will consist of members of the choirs from each of the five parishes. The address will be given by the Rev. Frederick Seymour, Rector of St. Philip's Church, West Philadelphia.

The offering at this service is asked to purchase a Liberty Bond for the Children's Ward of the Episcopal Hospital.

This is the third successive year that this combined service has been held and steadily grown in favor. Last year it was estimated that over a thousand members of the schools were present in Christ Church.

Parents and friends of the schools are cordially invited to be present.

Remember the date, Sunday, November 25, at three o'clock.

The Mothers' Meeting

The Mothers' Meeting has opened for the winter's work with a good attendance and an enthusiastic spirit. We hope to accomplish our usual work and shall be glad of orders for aprons, towels and rugs.

We began our season with the treat which we usually hold in the spring, but which was unavoidably postponed. On Tuesday, Oct. 22, we all enjoyed seeing Douglas Fairbanks in "Down to Earth," and then adjourned to the Rectory where ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

We have a membership of twenty-one, but before the end of the winter we hope it will be largely increased.

H. M. F. A.

The Patriotic Committee

The Patriotic Committee of Christ Church has planned to give a series of entertainments for the Sailors and Marines who are located in our city.

These men are strangers here and many miles from their homes, and it is for the purpose of giving them a touch of home and surrounding them with good influences as well as keeping them from temptations of a large city, that these entertainments are given.

To do this it is necessary to have funds to carry it on, so if you have not contributed to this fund, but will, the committee will thank you in advance.

We feel sure if you could have been present at the entertainment and supper given Oct. 26th to sixty-eight sailors, and seen the appreciation shown by these men you would know the urgent necessity of continuing the work thus begun.

Contributions may be sent to the Chair-lady, Miss E. W. Chase, 45 E. Washington Lane, Chairwoman Patriotic Committee of Christ Church.

The St. Andrew's Brotherhood

The strength of the Brotherhoods has been spent in nourishing that lusty infant, the Bible Class. In their sphere of service among men they have labored nobly, and achieved results. The time now comes for the Brotherhoods to extend their interests and influences by prayer and action. Hence a reorganization has become necessary. Many of our Juniors are ready for the Senior Brotherhood, or have been called to the service of humanity under the stars and stripes. But those who remain hope to prove their steadfastness to their vows of service and prayer by their faithful carrying out of the plans for glowing meetings, earnest services and work on the firing line in reclaiming lost souls.

The Senior Brotherhood met to begin its work on Nov. 9. The meeting of the Junior Brotherhood will be held on Nov. 20 at 8.00 P. M. in the Parish House. All young men are cordially invited to hear the plans for the coming year.

Give Through the Envelope System

It is earnestly desired to extend the use of the envelope system to every attendant at the services of Christ Church. By this method everyone is given an opportunity to share in the support of the Parish and its work. Children, as well as adult members of the family, are invited to give through this system, thus inculcating in the young the Christian principle of systematic and conscientious giving. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibules of the church. Everyone is urged to take one of these cards and to sign it for any amount each may feel able to give, on one side as a weekly offering to support the missionary work of the Church and on the other side as an offering to the support of the Parish.

Place this card on the plate on Sunday or send it to the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview Ave., Gtn. A package of envelopes will then be sent to you.

By this method the Church finances do not suffer from the enforced absence of the members on account of sickness or inclement weather.

This method will appeal to every one as the most practical and business-like in meeting the expenses of a Parish.

It is the method also which will appeal to conscientious people who wish to do their share in the furtherance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

It is hoped that the system will be extended until every one in the Parish will be a contributor through the envelope system.

The pledge, being wholly voluntary, may be withdrawn at any time by notifying the Rector.

Do not forget to attend the afternoon service held in Christ Church Friday afternoons at five o'clock.

Prayers for our country in time of war and special intercessions on behalf of the men enlisted from this Parish are said at this service.

Women's Missionary Society

The Women's Auxiliary met on Thursday morning, November 1st, with a large attendance. We missed, however, several faithful ones.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. J. I. Morrison; Vice President, Mrs. Henry R. Barenmore; Secretary, Mrs. Frank Wells; Treasurer, Mrs. Edwin F. Kamberly. It was learned with great regret that our former faithful Secretary, Mrs. Topliffe Johnson, will not be in Germantown during the coming winter. She will be greatly missed but we are glad that her absence is to be only temporary and we shall hope to see her back again very soon.

The United Offering presented in October was most encouraging in amount. It will be arranged to have special speakers at the meetings to be held monthly during the winter, and it is hoped that these meetings will be largely attended by the women in the Parish. Every woman should identify herself with the Women's Auxiliary, the Missionary Society of the Church. All will be cordially welcomed. The next regular meeting will be held in the Parish House on Thursday morning, December 6th, at half past ten o'clock.

Church Calendar for 1918

A limited supply of Christ Church Calendars for 1918 has been ordered and may be had after November 1st. At the top of the Calendar is a picture of Christ Church, a list of services, hours, etc.

The Church Seasons appear in their appropriate "colors" and the Saints' Days and Festivals of the Church are similarly marked. On the back are selected lessons for each Sunday and Holy Day in the Church Year.

Christmas Giving In War-Time.

It is not too early to say a word as to Christmas giving. We must give this year on a more liberal scale than ever before—but not to each other.

Let us all make this Christmas a real Christmas by getting the true spirit of Christmas—the spirit of Christ, Who gave Himself.

Let our Christmas giving be for beneficent purposes, and let it be greater and larger, and more self-sacrificing than ever before.

Every American citizen, who is worthy of the name, has been generously and unselfishly giving, for the past nine months, in response to the appeal of patriotism. This is right and as it should be.

Why not now, on Christmas Day, turn our attention, our sympathies, and our generosity toward the Church? Practically all our Church Funds need money for absolutely necessary purposes. General, Diocesan, and local charities—our own parish support, the replenishing of our poor fund—be these the recipients of our Christmas gifts this year.

What nobler Christmas gift could there be than a generous offering from each member of the Parish on Christmas Day toward the payment of our annual Parish apportionment of $300.00 to the Fund to care for the Aged and Infirm Clergy of the Church. "While we have time, let us do good unto all men; and especially unto them that are of the household of faith." Gal. vi:6.

But we are not to forget each other at this Christmas time. A Christmas letter from friend to friend will be a most acceptable and personal remembrance. A book that is worth reading, a subscription to a good magazine, a Christmas card, selected as a reminder of the true Christmas story is better, now, than an ostentatious present. Let the gift be in the spirit rather than in the present.

Teach children, too, this true Christmas giving. Let them enjoy the blessed privilege of giving and giving up.

Let old and young try at this Christmas which comes in the midst of the sadness and the suffering of the world to bring Christmas back to the olden plan as a holy day and restore to it something of the original beauty of unselfishness, and love. Let us this Christmas by our restraint, no less than by our deeds, assist in giving a true color to the day that stands for the way of peace, to a world that even yet has not learned that there is no other way to that goal than the way of the Prince of Peace.

Christmas Communion

On Christmas Day every Churchman will wish to come to the House of God and there, as did the wise men of old, kneel before the Saviour in love and adoration. Christmas without Christ?—no Christian man or woman will cherish the thought! The very word "Christmas" means meeting with Christ. Christmas is not a worldly holiday but a Christian festival. It is the feast when the Christ—Mass, the mass of the Incarnate Word, is kept with joy. Surely on that day we will not forget Him! Wise men ever bring gold and frankincense and myrrh to Bethlehem—offerings of their earthly substance, offerings of worship and adoration, offerings of lowly penitence and love for Him in His humiliation for our sakes. On this happy Christmas Day there will be gifts for our loved ones, offerings for our spiritual mother, the Church, and offerings of "ourselves, our souls and bodies" in the Holy Communion for the building up of ourselves more and more into the spiritual likeness of Him Who was given to us to be our Pattern and our Guide.

That every communicant may kneel before Him on the day of His Nativity and offer unto Him "their hearts deepest devotions." Holy Communion will be celebrated in this Church at 6.30, 7.30 and 11.00 o'clock. Every one, who is physically able, will want to come to, at least, one of these Services. The happiest Christmas is the one that is filled with Christ and His love.

Love—the Spirit of Christmas

What else should be in our thoughts at this most holy time, than the love of Christ. Of all the news that could be brought to us what so good as this, that unto us is born, as at this time, "a Saviour which is Christ the Lord?" God's love toward man, man's love toward God—this is the Christmas message Love, Love, Love! "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son." "If God so loved us, we ought to love one another."

If this Spirit of Christmas were to prevail, the barbarous methods of competitive trade, the soulless administration of trusts and the evils of the department store bargain counters, etc., would have to give way to the spirit of "live and let live."

If this Spirit of Christmas were to prevail, all the wrongs of humanity would be done away with; war would be no more; if all men would at all times be possessed of the true Christmas spirit, greed and lust and envy would find no room to dwell where love abides.

Happiness eludes every searcher for it, but comes quickly and abundantly to the one who seeks to bestow it upon someone else. The searcher for happiness may get wealth, and power, and fame, but none of these advantages will avail anything in getting happiness. Even from friends it cannot be obtained, for happiness comes from what is given out rather than from what is gathered in. Loving, unselfish service, the persistent, enthusiastic effort day by day to bring sweetness, light, comfort, and goodness into the lives of others, will surely bring happiness into the life of any man, woman, or child. No sorrow of heart, no doubt of the future, no restlessness or aimlessness of the present, no loneliness or bitterness of soul, but will yield and be resolved into joy and peace and purpose as soon as the days are filled with labors of love—as soon as the eagerness to get happiness is replaced by an eagerness to give it to others.

Three Holy Days after Christmas

Three days following Christmas are dedicated to three sacred events: First, on December 26th, is commemorated The Martyrdom of St. Stephen. This day has been commemorated since the fourth century. In the Greek Church the Festival is a day later than it is in ours. In addition to the reasons given above for its position in the Calendar, it has been said that "Christ was born on earth in order that Stephen might be born in heaven." Thus this, the anniversary of his martyrdom, is also, in a higher sense, the anniversary of his birth.

On December 27th occurs The Feast of St. John the Evangelist. Then we remember the fisherman John, the son of Zebedee and Salome, the brother of James, the partner in the earthly business of Simon and Andrew; and we see what grace made him. We remember how he was called and obeyed the call; how he abode with Christ after the tenth hour on that memorable day; how he became a fisher of men; how he was styled a son of thunder; how he was admitted to be the beloved disciple; how he leaned on that bosom; how he stood by the cross; how he made it his business to house the Virgin-mother; how he grew and expanded and was perfected, waxed riper, and more and more reflected the image of his Master, received and diffused light; how he suffered for the truth; had heaven opened to him at Patmos, and tarried to such an old age that men thought he would live on till Christ came, all the time doing his Lord's work, ordering the Church after his Lord's mind, teaching, reclaiming, ruling, refuting error, declaring the truth by word and writing to the end.

On December 28th is celebrated the Martyrdom of the Innocents, which was anciently commemorated at the Epiphany; the date of its first observance as a separate festival is not known. The Innocents have always been regarded by the Church as martyrs, they having, though unwittingly, shed their blood for Christ. (See St. Matt. 2:16-17.)

Honor Roll of Enlisted Men

The Honor Roll of enlisted men from this parish has been revised and is hung in the Tulpehocken St. vestibule of the Church. The list includes 40 names,—thirty-nine men and one woman, who is serving as a nurse in France.

At the Celebration of the Holy Communion on Sundays and on Friday afternoon at five o'clock, special prayers are said on behalf of all enlisted in the service of our country and especially for the members from this congregation.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

Services on Christmas Day

The services on Christmas Day will be as follows: Holy Communion, 6.30 and 7.30 A. M.; Shortened Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and Sermon, 11.00 o'clock.

The offering at all services on Christmas Day will be toward our parish apportionment for the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund. Our annual apportionment is $300.00.

Music for Christmas Day

Processional 49, "Oh come, All Ye Faithful."
Venite and Glorias (Alcock)
Te Deum (West in B flat)
Communion Service (Woodward in D)
Anthem, "It came upon the Midnight Clear" (Sullivan)
Hymn 51, "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."
Retrocessional 60, "Angels from the Realms of Glory."

Church School Christmas Service

All departments of our Church School will hold their Christmas Service in the Church on Sunday afternoon, December 23rd, at half past three o'clock. All departments of the School will assemble in the Parish House and march into the Church.

The Schools are now practicing their Christmas carols which will be sung at this service. The address will be delivered by the Rev. J. L. Ware.

All members of the Congregation, and especially the parents and friends of the scholars are cordially invited to the service.

The Christmas Entertainment will take place in the Parish House on Thursday evening, December 27th at eight o'clock.

The Primary Department will hold their Christmas Entertainment on the afternoon of the same day. "Mrs. Wiggs' Sunday School" will be produced with rare talent selected from the little ones of the School. Of course Santa Claus will be present to distribute Christmas gifts to his many young friends in Christ Church.

Additional Contributions and Subscribers to the "Chimes"

Since our last issue the following persons have sent in their subscriptions and contributions for the CHIMES.

Miss M. M. Nixon, Miss Margaret Bryan, Mrs. Jno. C. Krohn, Mrs. Dr. Johnson, Mrs. Crowder, Mrs. Shinn, Mrs. Heyer, Miss Cave, Mrs. Sally Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Thacher, Mrs. Rowland Jones, Mrs. Longstreth, Mrs. Arthur Bruce, Miss Alexander, Miss Sarah J. Lapp, Mr. J. I. Morrison, Mrs. Alexander H. Jones.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild resumed its regular monthly meetings on Monday, November 12th.

The Guild is very grateful to the Vestry for attending to its request, so promptly, to have the door to the Organ Room changed from the side Altar.

We are very glad to welcome Miss Catherine L. Westling to membership in the Guild.

The dates on which the Altar committees will serve during the coming month are as follows:

Dec. 21-28: Misses Cooley, E. Manser, Mogridge, Gerhard, Wiser.

months did? If you get into the real life of the Men's Bible Class you certainly will do this. It's worth while men. Are you on? C. H. J.

Seven Queries

Here are seven queries submitted to certain members of the Parish. Let every one answer each query for himself.

1. Persons who attend Church when they "feel like it."

Query: "If all Church members were just like me, What kind of a Church would our Church be?"

2. Persons who are habitually late to service.

Query: "If all Church members were just like me, What kind of a Church would our Church be?"

3. Persons who come to the Holy Communion,—the Blessed Sacrament which our Lord commanded His followers: "Do this in memory of Me"—persons who come to this Holy Sacrament "once in a while."

Query: "If all Church members were just like me, what kind of a Church would our Church be?"

4. Persons, when they do come to Church, come to find fault and criticize and make themselves about as disagreeable as it is possible for a human to be:

Query: "If all Church members were just like me, What kind of a Church would our Church be?"

5. Persons who do not give systematically and conscientiously to the support of the Church and let others shoulder the responsibility, putting on the plate a miserly pittance once in a while.

Query: "What kind of a Church would our Church be, If every member were just like me?"

6. Persons who refuse to take any active part in the work of the Church, who are "pew warmers only" and are cold as ice when asked to "show their faith by their work."

Query: "If all Church members were just like me, What kind of a Church would our Church be?"

7. Persons not interested enough in their religion or their Church even to invite others to come with them, who never speak to or welcome strangers in the Church, whose religion is confined to self alone.

Query: "If all Church members were just like me, What kind of a Church would our Church be?"

Now let everybody join in the chorus: "If all Church members were just like me,

What kind of a Church would our Church be?"

What kind of a Church would our Church be?"

If all Church members were just like me."

Amen!

Hamlet's Soliloquy on Free Pews

A pledge card, with blanks filled out for amount of weekly offerings toward the support of the work of the Church, but with the following written on the back, was handed in a certain church:

"To pledge or not to pledge—that is the question.

Whether 'tis nobler in a man to take The Gospel free and let another foot the bill,

Or sign a pledge and pay toward the Church expenses!

To give, to pay,—ay, there's the rub—to pay,

When on the free pew plan a man may have

A sitting free, and take the Gospel, too, As though he paid and none be ought the wiser,

Save the Church Finance Committee, who—

Most honorable men—can keep a secret! "To err is human," and human, too, to buy

At cheapest rate. I'll take the Gospel so!

For others do the same—a common rule!

I'm wise! I'll wait, not work. I'll pray, not pay,

And let the other fellow foot the bills— And so with me the Gospel's free; you see?

If we could read the secret history of our enemies, we should find in each man's life sorrow and suffering enough to disarm all hostility.—Longfellow.

Red Cross

The Tulpehocken Auxiliary, No. 21, of the American Red Cross which meets every Tuesday evening and all day Wednesday in our Parish House, has been doing its "bit" for the care of the soldiers.

With an attendance of about 40 at the evening gathering and another 40 during the day on Wednesday, we have turned in during the month of October

480 Surgical dressings

120 Oakum pads

75 Muslin bandages

24 Towels

10 Surgical shirts

10 Pajama suits

A number of knitted garments have also been made and 31 Christmas packages were donated through the Auxiliary to the boys in France. In spite of these things we cannot feel that we are doing our "best" until we have secured the help of every woman in the Parish and neighborhood who is not already actively engaged elsewhere in this most necessary war work. We have the equipment for twice our present attendance and shall welcome recruits.

May we also specially plead for donations to our wool fund. Our boys are still in greater need of sweaters, and pathetic cases are presented to us at each of our meetings.

Jeannette L. Wurts, Chairman.

Good Work of the Parish Patriotic Committee

The good work being done through the generosity of the members of our congregation who have contributed money for the monthly entertainment given in our Parish House to the soldiers and sailors temporarily stationed in our city may be judged from the letter received from the young men by the Parish Patriotic Committee, expressing their appreciation and gratitude.

The following letter is a sample, written by the father of one of these young men, a thousand miles from home, who was one of the sixty-eight marines entertained at supper in our Parish House on October 25th.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 3rd, 1917
My Dear

I received your letter today and am glad to hear my son has met such friendly and noble hearted people. I also had a letter from him written Oct. 27th in which he tells us about the fine time he enjoyed at your supper and entertainment, and also of the invitation by two ladies for Sunday. I am sure my son fully appreciates your kindness and generosity. Edwin is the third oldest boys of five sons, all enlisted in the navy. The other two, in drafting age, did not get in on the first call but will surely be on the second, and if this terrible war is to keep up for a long time, as it probably will, the two youngest might have to go also. They are all I have but am proud to have that much to give to my adopted country and for the great cause our nation is fighting. None of them will ask for an excuse blank to fill out. From the bottom of my heart I thank you for all the kindness you have shown for my son and the rest of the soldiers. I also thank you for your kind offer of assistance. Edwin thinks he will leave Philadelphia in two weeks and then they do not know where they go. I am satisfied to know that they have met people who have willingly led them on the right way.

Mrs. — is not living, she died a year ago and was saved from the worry about the boys and the war.

Sincerely yours,

These suppers and entertainments will be continued to be given in our Parish House to these enlisted young men, far away from their homes, each month throughout the winter.

Contributions to help defray the expenses are solicited and may be sent to Miss Ella Chase, Chairman of the Committee, 45 East Washington Lane.

Rooms Wanted

A woman and daughter from the city wish to rent a suite of rooms at moderate price, for light housekeeping, in vicinity of Christ Church. Enquire of Rev. J. L. Ware, Christ Church Parish House.

The Fellowship of Prayer

Prayer is conscious fellowship with God—not merely communion with God, but co-operation with God. In the neglect of this truth lies the origin of most of our difficulties about prayer. Co-operation, not compulsion, is the secret of our true prayer. Often our first idea about prayer is that it means our strenuous effort to alter and change the direction of the Divine will. We see what we need. We would impress that need upon the mind of God, and the intensity of our prayer is in proportion to our determination to bend God's will. But prayer calls us not to compel God, but to co-operate with Him, calls us into fellowship of will with Him. The proper understanding then of the relation of the divine will to the will of man is the first condition of true and fruitful prayer.

Prayer Written by Mr. Ebert Gladstone

Merciful Jesus, Who didst weep by the grave of Lazarus, and Who knowest all human sorrows, be present with Thy sorrowing servants now. Bind up the wounds of their stricken hearts. Let the sunshine of Thy love break through the cloud of their affliction, and a heavenly hope bring light in their darkness. Thou hast loosened one link which bound them to earth; may it now bind them to heaven. Thou hast taken from them for a little while him whom they love. Oh, may it to be united again forever. Yet even now are they one in Thee. Death cannot sever from Thee. And we believe in the Communion of Saints. In Thee do we all live forevermore. Oh, beget in Thy servants a lively hope of the "inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away." Fit us by Thy grace for the mansions of our Father's house, where there can be partings no more. Bring us to our only true home. Take us to Thyself, to dwell forever with all Thy saints, and to reign with Thee, O Jesus, our Saviour and our King, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit, One God, world without end. Amen.

Theodore Roosevelt's Message

To the Soldiers and Sailors of the United States.

In reply to a request for a message that might be printed in the special copies of the New Testament designed for soldiers and sailors, Mr. Roosevelt sent the following:

"The teachings of the New Testament are foreshadowed in Micah's verse: 'What more doth the Lord require of thee than to do justice, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?'"

"DO JUSTICE and therefore fight valiantly against the armies of Germany and Turkey, for these nations in this crisis stand for the reign of Moloch and Beelzebub on this earth.

"LOVE MERCY; treat prisoners well; succor the wounded; treat every woman as if she was your sister; care for the little children, and be tender with the old and helpless.

"WALK HUMBLY; you will do so if you study the life and teachings of the Savior.

"May the God of Justice and Mercy have you in His keeping."

Remember the Mission!

Begins Sunday, February 24th

LET EVERYBODY

PRAY FOR IT!

PREPARE FOR IT!

COME TO IT!

It is of the utmost importance that everybody shall do everything in his or her power to make the Mission to be held in Christ Church beginning Sunday, February 24th, and extending to Sunday, March 10th, a great SPIRITUAL SUCCESS. It will be a wonderful opportunity for the people of Christ Church and of this vicinity to hear the Word of God preached in a plain, simple and convinc- ing way; to receive clear, definite and positive instruction on the Teachings of Christ and His Church; to have frequent privilege of drawing near to God through the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.

LET EVERYBODY PRAY FOR THE COMING MISSION! LET EVERYBODY PREPARE FOR IT! LET EVERYBODY COME TO IT!

The Missioner.

The Mission will be conducted by the Rev. Harvey Officer, a member of the Order of the Holy Cross—a society for Priests and laymen whose objects are "the cultivation of the spiritual life of its members and the practice of good works, especially in the conducting of Missions, Conferences and Retreats." The Order has charge of St. Andrew's School for Mountain boys at Sewanee, Tenn., and Kent School for Boys at Kent, Conn.

Father Officer is a strong, forceful preacher, whose sermons are not, in the least, sensational, but deeply religious and spiritual. In the spirit of St. Paul, he preaches "Jesus Christ and Him crucified."

The Success of the Mission.

The success of the coming Mission in Christ Church will not be measured by the large attendance. There will be a large attendance, no doubt. Every one will want to hear Father Officer. Every one will want to sit under his clear and elucidating "instructions."

There will, no doubt, be very large congregations. Every one will want to come. But the success of the Mission will not consist in the big attendance.

It is not "bigness" of the crowds but the intensity of the deep religious impression which will mark the success of this Mission; the realization of the nearness of God to every living soul; the power of the Cross of Jesus Christ to raise men and women from death unto life; the abiding Presence of the Holy Spirit in His Church on earth;—these the eternal verities of life, will mark the Mission as a success. For these are what the souls of men and women yearn for, and these only are the things in life that will satisfy.

How Can This Success Be Obtained?

How can this spiritual success—the only success which the Mission seeks to accomplish—be obtained?

By Prayer! By Prayer!

"Pray for one another. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much!"

"Pray without ceasing!"

"I say unto you what things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them and ye shall have them."

"Men ought always to pray and not to faint!"

Let every one Pray for the Mission!

Pray for the Missioner! Pray for yourself! Pray for your friends—parents for your children, children for your parents!

Pray for your Parish—your Rector, your Sunday School, its Officers, Teachers and Scholars!

Pray for the faithful members! Pray for the indifferent, the lukewarm, the wayward, the wicked, those who have stayed away from God's House and His Sacraments!

Pray for those especially in this vicinity, who never enter God's House and are starving their souls!

Pray for the sinful everywhere; the sick, the sorrowing, the dying!

Pray for our Nation, those in authority, for all in the Service of our Country, at home and abroad!

Pray for the wounded, and those who are passing away. Pray for our dear dead!

Pray for souls, everywhere—living and the dead!

"I exhort you," says St. Paul, "that first of all, supplication, prayer, intercessions and giving of themselves be made for all men. For kings and all that are in authority; For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, Who will have all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth."

I will, therefore, that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting."

Prayers of Preparation.For the Mission.

To be held in this Parish from Sunday, February 24th, to Sunday, March 10th.

THE REV. HARVEY OFFICER

Missioner

V—O Lord raise up, we pray Thee, Thy power and come among us!

R—And with great might succor us!

We beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts; that as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an Angel, so by his cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, Jesus Christ, Thou Great Shepherd of the sheep, Who seekest those who are gone astray, bindest up those that are broken and healest those that are sick, bless, we humbly beseech Thee, the labors of Thy servant, who comes to minister among us; and grant that by Thy grace we may be raised to newness of life and that we may persevere unto the end:

V—O Saviour of the world, Who by Thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us:

R—Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech Thee, O Lord. Amen.

For the Parish.

Almighty and Everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people; and grant unto this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; protect and guide the children; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; rouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth, and bring all to be of one heart and one mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church, prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handiwork; to the honor and glory of Thy Blessed Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Septuagesima.

Septuagesima Season—or the three weeks before Lent—commences on Septuagesima Sunday, February 20th. This season is intended to remind us of the near approach of Lent and to prepare our minds for that solemn, holy Fast.

We now turn from the Cradle at Bethlehem to the Wilderness, to Gethsement and the Cross.

The Lessons, the Epistles, the Gospels read each Sunday foreshadows the coming of our Lord's Fastings. His sufferings, and His Death; all to be ended and triumphed over in His glorious Resurrection.

From now on every Churchman will prepare to observe the coming Holy Season of Lent in more seriousness of life, in genuine fastings, in devout readings, in meditations, in more frequent prayer.

Septuagesima—seventy days before Easter! The Holy Feast draws near! Let every one begin now to prepare to make this coming Lent the most serious, the most heart-searching, the most spiritually helpful, the most spiritually triumphant of our lives! Septuagesima reminds us to prepare.

"When the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed and doeth that which is lawful and right he shall save his soul alive."

To the people of Christ Church,
Germantown, Pa.

It is already known to you that your rector has asked me to preach a Mission in your parish, February 24 to March 10, inclusive. You will see at once that this work lays a burden of responsibility upon me. I am writing to you in the hope that I may count upon your cooperation in this work.

A mission is a manysided effort to bring the Living Word of God to the minds and hearts of men. All truth belongs to God, but often we think and live as if large parts of our thinking and acting life had no relation at all to the Father of our spirits. Again, the will of man is the central expression of himself, and yet often he delays a lifetime to make any real decision for God. The Mission is an opportunity for us to think afresh what our religion means, and to decide, and to help others to decide, what we should do in response to the love of God.

I ask of you now two things: first, that you will pray for the Mission, not so much by using any set form of words, as by really speaking to God about it day by day; and second, that you will let your friends know that this special work is being prepared for in your parish. In these ways we shall find ourselves drawn nearer to God and to each other, and ready to do what He asks of us when the days of the Mission arrive.

Faithfully yours,

HARVEY OFFICER, O. H. S.

The Bishop Will Be Here.

The Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhinelander, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, will visit this Parish (D. V.) on Maundy Thursday evening, March 28th, to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation.

The Bishop has kindly consented to hold on that same evening a Communicants' Preparatory Service for the Easter Communion.

Confirmation Instruction.

The Rector will begin a course of Instruction on Confirmation and the Use of the Prayer Book on Friday evening at eight o'clock, February 1st, and on Sunday afternoon, February 3rd, at four o'clock.

The Friday night Instructions are intended for adults, and those on Sunday afternoons for minors.

All persons, Confirmed or unconfirmed, are invited to either of these Instructions.

Persons Contemplating Confirmation.

Persons who are contemplating Confirmation are asked to give their names to the Rector as soon as possible. He will be glad to meet any who wish to confer with him on the subject of Confirmation, after service on Sunday or by appointment. He will be pleased to loan books from his library and to recommend a course of reading on the History and Teaching of the Church to any who may be interested.

The Lenten Services.

A schedule of the Services during Lent will be published in the next issue of the CHIMES. Ash Wednesday comes this year on February 13th.

Let every body begin now to look forward and to prepare for this Holy Season of Lent.

The Brotherhood.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is preparing to make a determined drive on the behalf of the coming Mission—for the Brotherhood this word is now written MISSION.—“I have placed before you an open door, and no man can shut it.” That is the MISSION, and to a man the Brotherhood is striving to show the open door of opportunity to all members of this parish who will listen. But the parish is large, and the men are too few, and we need help. First, when (not if) you pray for the success of the MISSION, pray too for the means that are being used to plow up the ground preparatory to the sowing of the seed. Then, and only then, come and help us. We need men who will give some of their time, and some of themselves. We need energy, and kindness and the spirit that is not afraid to break the routine of a well ordered life in a good cause, the spirit of men, who feel the obligation that is unescapable to a Christian in this age to bring some one else to share in the privileges which he has himself obtained by inheritance from the lives of the faithful Churchmen who have gone before.

We are working. Will you help?

The Men's Bible Class.

Why is a men's Bible class, not just the Men's Bible Class of Christ Church, but any Bible class in any church at any time? This is the question that has occupied the minds of our own class for two weeks, definitely asked, and willingly and ably answered. The wealth and depth of the various answers cannot be even indicated in a brief summary like this, for the results embrace faith, worship, patriotism, and the Sunday School, but on one point all agree. The Bible class exists to show forth Christ for men to follow, usually by two methods, finding God thru the Bible, and seeking Him thru helping others. There is the active and the passive side of its work, for not only do we sit quietly on Sunday listening to a lesson, but on Monday and Tuesday we are spreading the Gospel, by simple sociability and friendliness, and interest in the other man.

All men in this vicinity invited. You can help us if you will. We can help you. Why don't you come and see?

Mothers' Meeting.

On Tuesday, January 15, the members of the Mothers' Meeting were entertained at dinner. The weather was very inclement, so that greatly to our regret, a number of familiar faces were absent. In spite of the weather, however, we had fifteen guests.

On account of the high prices of living our dinner was more simple than usual, but what we lacked in luxuries we made up in good cheer.

One of the most delightful events of the afternoon was the presentation of two beautiful centerpieces to Mrs. Rowley and Mrs. Arndt by the members of the meeting. The embroidering of the centerpieces was done by the mother of one of the members, which greatly enhanced their value.

The Altar Guild.

The Altar Guild held a regular monthly meeting on Monday, January 14th.

Arrangements were made to overcome anything that might have arisen to perplex the serving committees while the Church services are being held in the Parish House.

We are hoping to contribute whatever Altar linens we can spare, for the use of our Army Chaplains in their splendid work, both in the Training Camps here, and at the Front.

The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

Jan. 25-31: Misses Dean, Falkner, Westling, Gill.

Feb. 1-8: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Quay, N. Manser.

Feb. 8-15: Misses Chase, Alexander, Woodroffe.

Feb. 15-22: Misses Cooley, Mogridge, E. Manser, Gerhard, Wismer.

To Non-Givers.

Four years ago the “duplex envelopes system” of giving was introduced into the Parish. By this system each contributor is afforded an opportunity of giving weekly an offering toward parish work and toward the work of missions. The increase in the offering to missions has been most encouraging. Our people are awakening to the privilege of giving by a systematic, weekly offering. A large number of the people of Christ Church, however, have not as yet availed themselves of this envelope system of giving. The current expenses of the Parish amount, in round numbers, to $7000.00 per annum. Our assessment for Missions, Convocation, Episcopal and Convention Funds amount to, in round numbers $2200.00, making a total of $9200.00 a year, fixed charges. If every member of the Parish would give 30 cents a week, or a little over four cents a day, the total, in addition to the amount received in pew rents, would be ample to meet all expenses and assessments of the Parish. Will not everyone, who has not as yet, subscribed a weekly offering through the envelope system please do so at once and thus share in bearing the expenses of the Parish? We have not many “shirkers” in Christ Church. A large majority of the people are giving their share and some more than their share; but there are some—and, as a rule, they are the ones most exacting in their demands and the most ready to criticize others—who are evading their plain Christian duty and are letting others pay the expenses, while they do the “talking.” Let every one who attends the services of Christ Church begin now, to do his or her duty. The envelope system of giving affords every one such an opportunity. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule or may be had from the Verger. “Be merciful after thy power. If thou hast much, give plenteously; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little; for so gathereth thou thyself a good reward in the day of necessity.”

Searching the Scriptures

A divine injunction bids us search the Scriptures, and the search is one which is sure of reward. Partly because of the religious revival now gradually gaining momentum in our country, partly because of the desire to put the religion of the Bible on a sound basis of knowledge, the Bible is being read and studied today as never before, and the treasure therein, concealed for twenty-six hundreds of years, are now being revealed. Men are discovering that the Bible is alive and timeless, that the message of the Prophets of Israel is vital today. The Men's Bible Class is sharing in this divine revelation, and in the strength of its message is working out, each man for himself, a new religion—his own relation to God, and thru God to his fellow-men. Every man in Christ Church Parish ought to pay it a visit. Any group of men with the vision of the service they can render is sure to be worth while, and the Men's Bible Class is no exception. Since the beginning it has never been content merely to mark time—and in its present spirit it never will.

Mrs. Harry C. Thompson

There are two sources from which the revenue of the church is derived. First: Pew rents; second, the envelope system. All who desire to do so are invited to rent pews or sittings. Those who prefer to contribute through the Envelope system are invited to take a pledge card, to be found in the vestibule, and pledge the amount they desire to give weekly. Place the card on the plate on any Sunday and a package of envelopes will be forwarded to the subscriber. For further information, the Warden, Mr. William R. Pugh, may be seen after any service or may be addressed at 117 West Upsal street, Germantown.

Pledge cards for weekly contributions may be found in the vestibule of the Church or may be had on application to the Warden or the Rector. Sign the pledge card, place it on the alms plate at any service and a package of envelopes will be sent to you to use each week.

The pledge, being voluntary, may be withdrawn at any time by notifying the first Warden or the Rector.

When A Man's Alone.

By E. A. GUEST in the North American.
Strange thoughts come to the man alone;
'Tis then, if ever, he talks with God,
And views himself as a single clod
In the soil of life where the souls are grown;

'Tis then he questions the why and where;

The start and end of his years and days,
And what is blame and what is praise,
And what is ugly and what is fair.

When a man has drawn from the busy throng,

To the sweet retreat of the silent hours,
Low voices whisper of higher powers.

He catches the strain of some far-off song,

And the sham fades out and his eyes can see,

Not the man he is in the day's hot strife,
And the greed and grind of a selfish life,
But the soul of the man he is to be.

He feels the throbbing of life divine,

And catches a glimpse of the greater plan;

He questions the purposes and work of man;

In the hours of silence his mind grows fine;

He seeks to learn what is kept unknown;

He turns from self and its garb of clay
And dwells on the soul and the higher way.

Strange thoughts come when a man's alone.

Renters of Pews.

Whilst Christ Church is essentially a "free church," in that every one is cordially welcome, and the number of pews marked "vacant" is sufficient to accommodate all strangers and occasional attendants, the Vestry desire to encourage all persons who attend the services of the church to contribute in some systematic way toward the maintenance of the church and its philanthropies. Besides the expenses of running the Parish, the church has many assessments made upon it for the support of hospitals, missions, works of charity, both within and without the Diocese, both at home and abroad. These opportunities for doing good should be shared in by the many, and not be borne by the few and therefore, to the end that every one may enjoy the privilege of doing his or her share in supporting and extending this work for Christ and His Kingdom on earth, that this Parish is endeavoring to do, the Vestry invite every one to become a regular and systematic contributor to the support of the Parish and its work.

"He is not far from any one of us." A thing may be so near to us that it is never seen. It is possible to be more familiar with the Black Forest, thousands of miles away from our home, than we are with the wood that runs wild at our very door; and it may be because God is not far from any one of us that He is so ignored. When the Lord speaks to us in an occasional earthquake our awe is awakened, and we turn to Him in trembling fear. But He speaks to us every day in the gentle voice that would "check each fault and calm each fear", and the Voice is so near and constant that we do not hear it. And again He would make known to us the nearness of His Presence in inward promptings of dissatisfaction, in movements of disquietude, in disturbing shadows which He throws upon the soul. Many a shadow falls upon our secret life, and we interpret it to mean that we are not well, or that we are overworked, or that we are in need of a change, when all the time it is "the shadow of the Almighty", and we do not recognize His Presence.—Selected.

If you are a member of the Church try to get in touch with what the Church is doing and your own interest will be increased. Keep out of touch and your interest will wane.

God is the home where our welcome is certain, and surpasses all our expectations. He is our rest where alone we can lie down without fear and sleep sweetly. He in His inaccessible splendor is the beautiful night wherein no man works, but where the weary laborer reposes from his toil in everlasting bliss.

Peace.

"May the Spirit of the Almighty Father so dwell in the minds of man that this war shall teach the nations the necessity for universal peace, and may the Peace of the Eternal so enter into the hearts of men that the Way may be prepared for the coming of the Prince of Peace and the cessation of all strife."

"Be A Good Boy. Good Bye."
(Dedicated to our boys who are away from home.)

How oft in my dreams I go back to the day

When I stood at our old wooden gate,
And started to school in full battle array,
Well armed with a primer and slate.
And as the latch fell I thought myself free,

And gloried, I fear, on the sly,
Till I heard a kind voice that whispered to me:

"Be a good boy: good-bye."

"Be a good boy: good-bye." It seems
They have followed me all these years;

They have given a form to my youthful dreams,

And scattered my foolish fears.
They have stayed my feet on many a brink,

Unseen by a blinded eye;
For just in time I would pause and think:

"Be a good boy: good-bye."

O brother of mine, in the battle of life,
Just starting, or nearing its close,
This motto aloft in the midst of the strife

Will conquer wherever it goes.
Mistakes you will make, for each of us errs,

But brother, just honestly try
To accomplish your best in whatever occurs,

"Be a good boy: good-bye."

The Rector's Notes

THE RECORD'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

Laus Deo!

The first words that the Rector would record in this issue of the CHIMES are words of praise and thanksgiving to God for this wonderful blessing vouchsafed to the two weeks' Mission, which has just closed in this parish. It was truly wonderful! God's Holy Spirit was with us, with the Missioner in his marvelous words of truth and life, and with the great throngs of people who came to hear them. We believe that it was in answer to the earnest prayers of the faithful people in Christ Church who, for many months passed, have been asking God to direct us in His ways and to send His Holy Spirit to touch the hearts and stir up our wills to higher and holier purposes. We thank God for the faithful band of workers in this parish, who have been praying and laboring to prepare the way for the success of the Mission!

We thank God for the thousands of eager hearers who came to God's House and were stirred by the retelling, in strong and simple words, "the old, old story of Jesus and His love!"

We thank God for the children who faithfully attended the Children's Daily Mission and were instructed in the way of Christ and His Church!

We thank God for the hundreds of resolutions placed upon the altar, pledging service anew to Him!

We thank God that many were moved by His Holy Spirit to kneel each day before the altar; and "we" most heartily thank Thee that Thou vouchsafed to feed us, who duly received those holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of Thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ!

For these, and all His mercies, God's Holy Name be praised!

And now, that God has so signally blessed us in this wonderful Mission, let each one earnestly pray the words of the Easter collect.

Almighty God, who through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; We humbly beseech thee that, as by thy special grace preventing us thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

On behalf of the people of Christ Church, and on his own behalf, the Rector wishes to express to the Rev. Harvey Officer, O. H. C., the deep appreciation, which is felt by all who had the privilege of attending the Mission held in this parish, of his untiring and unselfish services, his illuminating and edifying instructions to the children of the parish, his wonderfully helpful and soul stirring sermons, and above all, the comfort and inspiration which, by God's grace, his words brought to our many hearts.

The good of this Mission can not be estimated. It reaches into eternity. God knows and He alone will bless and reward.

Holy Week.

The shadows deepen! Our Saviour is on His way to Calvary! The Cross appears!

During this Holy Week we turn our thoughts to the closing scenes in our Lord's earthly life. His triumphant entry on Palm Sunday into the City that He loves and follows Him each day as He slowly wends His way along the Via Galila up to the Mount of Calvary.

I am sure that every Christian heart in this parish will yearn to be close to Jesus during these last holy days.

The services have been so arranged for Holy Week that every one may attend at least one service each day.

The daily Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 (from Monday to Thursday inclusive) will afford our people an opportunity to begin each day in a service of dedication.

Cannot business people arrange to be present at this Service before going to their daily occupation?

It will mean so much to all!

' Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend;
Life and health and peace possessing
Through the sinner's dying friend.
Here I kneel in wonder, viewing
Mercy poured in streams of blood;
Precious drops, for pardon suing,
Make and plead my peace with God."

Easter Communion.

Every one, of course,—every one, who considers himself a Christian and who is physically able to do so, will, of course attend Divine Service on Easter Day! It would be worse than foolish even to suggest that any Christian will remain away from His Father's House on Easter Day. Even if there were no rubric in the Prayer Book which says, "Every Parishioner shall communicate at least three times in the year, of which Easter shall be one," every Christian soul, who rejoices in the hope of the Resurrection would want to avail himself of this privilege and be with Jesus on that great Day, joining in the triumphal song "Christ is Risen from the Dead and become the first fruits of them that slept!"

Every member of the Church will devote these last solemn days of Lent in preparation for the Easter Communion.

Easter.

"Christ is risen!" Such is the shout which encircles the earth, as this morning's sun wakes up the world! Today ten thousand temples are crowded; ten thousand voices sing, "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, therefore let us keep the feast!" The Font and Altar are decorated with flowers, emblems of the Resurrection, and of our faith in the promises—Isaiah xxxli, 19, and Hosea xiv, 5. These flowers, after the solemnities of the day, are sent to the sick, and others who have not been permitted, by Providence, to visit the temple. Surely, if ever it is right to use such demonstrations of joy as the disciples did of old, when they plucked down branches of the trees, and threw their robes in the way, it is on the festival, which Prophecy itself has proclaimed to us, in the words, "This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it."

Year after year, as this glorious strain begins, we find ourselves wishing it may not be over too soon, and then, as it dies away, regretting that a year must pass ere we hear it again. Let us reflect that possibly we shall hear it, and sing it to the glory of the risen Redeemer, never again on earth.

Our Easter Offering.

Our Easter Offering on Easter Day should be a true expression of our love and loyalty to Jesus Christ. As He suffered and sacrificed and died for us, and rose again, that we through Him, might have Life Eternal, so should we present on Easter Day such an offering as will mean something in His sight—will mean a real love and devotion, a genuine spirit of self-sacrifice for Him, whom we call our Lord and Saviour.

Far back in Old Testament times, the faithful were commanded to appear before the Lord for sacrificial worship three times a year, and they were not to appear empty. One of these occasions was the "Feast of Unleavened Bread"—which corresponds to our Easter Day. "Three times in a year shall all appear before the Lord thy God in the place which He shall chose; in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles, and they shall not appear before the Lord empty. Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which He hath given thee." (Deut. 16:16.)

If this was the custom in Old Testament times how more abundantly and gladly should the Christian pour out his heart to God in thanksgiving on Easter Day.

Whilst I am very anxious that the full amount ($1000) asked for by the Vestry shall be realized this Easter, I am even more anxious that this offering shall come abundantly from all, from every man, woman and child, and that it shall be an expression of deep, true Christian devotion according as God hath blessed each one of us.

Election of Vestrymen.

An election for Vestrymen of this Parish will be held in the Church on Easter Monday, April 2nd.

The following extract is from the By-Laws of Christ Church. By-Law, Article 1, Section 8:

Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestryman one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the Secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the Southeast vestibule of the Church at least two Sundays prior to the holding of such election, and no person not so nominated shall be a candidate.

Charter of Incorporation—Article 6.

The Vestry of said Church shall consist of twelve men, to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereat. Said election shall be by ballot and shall be held on Easter Monday in each and every year between such hours and upon such notice as the by-laws of said Church may provide and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of the Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of at least two years next preceding any such election, annual subscriptions of not less than ten dollars each, or the like sum in annual rental of pew or sitting for the same period.

The vote of a plurality of the qualified electors voting at any such election shall be requisite for the election of any Vestrymen.

Altar Guild.

The Altar Guild will be present at Church on Saturday, March 23rd, to split the palms and to decorate; and also on March 30th, when we will spend the day decorating for Easter.

The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

Mar. 22-29: Misses Dean, Falkner, Weatling, Gill.

Mar. 29-Apr. 5: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Quay, N. Manser.

Apr. 5-12: Misses Chase, Alexander, Woodroffe.

Apr. 12-19: Misses Cooley, Mogridge, E. Manser, Gerhard, Wismer.

BAPTISMS

Second Sunday in month or by appointment.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

A New Service Flag.

To admit additional names of members of our Parish enlisted in the service of our country, it has been necessary to procure a new service flag. A beautiful banner, mounted upright on a pole, has been presented to the parish by a member of the Men's Bible Class.

The banner stands in the chancel near the pulpit. It is a source of pride to see fifty-one stars on the flag, representing fifty-one members of Christ Church Parish who have gone forth in the service of their country. God bless every one of them!!

Honor Roll of Enlisted Men.

The Honor Roll of enlisted men from this parish has been revised and is hung in the Tulpehocken St. vestibule of the Church. The list includes 51 names—forty-nine men and two women, who are serving as nurses in France.

At the Celebration of the Holy Communion on Sundays and on Friday afternoon at five o'clock, special prayers are said on behalf of all enlisted in the service of our country and especially for the members from this congregation.

Booklet for Holy Week.

A booklet, entitled "His Last Week" recounting the story of the Passion of our Lord in the words of the four Gospels, will be used in the Meditative Readings at the daily afternoon services in Holy Week. Persons attending these services are advised to provide themselves with copies of this little book and follow the reader, during the services, as the sacred events of each day are read.

Copies of this book will be found on the table at the West entrance of the Church. Please place the cost of the book—5 cents—in the box.

Three Hour Service on Good Friday.

The Three Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross will be conducted by the Rev. Robert B. Green, Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Norwood, Pa. All who had the privilege of attending the Three-Hour Service conducted by Mr. Green in Christ Church three years ago, will recall how helpful these Meditations were.

It is requested that persons shall be in the Church before the noon hour and all, who can, are asked to remain during the three hours of this solemn service. Persons entering or leaving the Church during the service are requested to do so during the singing of the hymns.

The offering at this service is asked for Church work among the Jews. Alms plates will be found at the doors. An excerpt from a letter from the Bishop reads:

"I would remind you of the appropriateness of asking the offerings on Good Friday for the Mission among the Jewish people. Since by the action of the last Convention this work in Philadelphia was put on the Diocesan Budget, any money given to our own committee will apply on the Parish apportionment."

Services on Easter Day

The services on Easter Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion, 6.30, 7.30 A. M.
Morning Prayer, Sermon, Holy Communion, 11.00.
Sunday School Easter Carol Service, 7.30 P. M.

Confirmation.

The Apostolic Rite of Confirmation will be administered by Bishop Rhinelander in Christ Church, Maundy Thursday evening, March 28th, at 7.45 o'clock.

It is not too late for persons to join the Confirmation Class.

The Rector will be glad to meet any who are thinking of Confirmation.

He may be seen after any service or by appointment.

It is earnestly hoped that not one communicant of Christ Church will allow himself to remain away from the Holy Communion on Easter Day, unless Providentially hindered, but will so thoroughly prepare himself during the remaining days of Lent that he may come worthily to meet his Risen Saviour, "reckoning himself to be dead in deed unto sin; but alive unto God, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Sunday School Easter Service.

The Sunday School Easter Carol Service will be held in the Church on Easter Sunday evening. The school will march into the Church from the Parish House promptly at 7.30 o'clock. The parents and friends of the scholars are cordially invited to be present at this service.

What Is Confirmation?

Confirmation follows Baptism when a person reaches the age of discretion. The laying on of hands of the Apostles (Acts viii, xix and Heb. vi) has ever been continued by the Church as 1st, the renewal of the Baptismal pledge; 2nd, Open confession of Christ; 3rd, The ordinary door to the Holy Communion; 4th, The gift of the Holy Ghost for the final perseverance. It is a rite practiced from the time of the Apostles and endorsed by the fathers of the church.

A. D. 180. Tertullian:—"After Baptism, then the Imposition of Hands."

A. D. 250. Cyprian:—"They who believed in Samaria were baptized—hands were laid on them—which is still the custom among us."

A. D. 420. St. Jerome:—"This is the custom of the Church—the Bishops Laying Hands upon them for the Invocation of the Holy Spirit."

A. D. 494. The Prayer in our Confirmation Service dates from this period. From this time on to the present there can not be any doubt concerning Confirmation or The Laying on of Hands by the Bishop being a Ceremony of the Church.

Can we safely omit that which from the first has been insisted upon?

Methodist Testimony—"I was determined not to be without it, and therefore went and received Confirmation—even since I became a Methodist Preacher."—Dr. Adam Clarke.

Baptist Testimony—"We believe that Laying on of Hands with Prayer upon Baptized believers as such is an ordinance of Christ, and ought to be substituted unto by all such persons to partake of the Lord's Supper."

Baptist Association, Sept. 25, 1742.

Congregational Testimony.—The confession of the name of Christ is, after all, very lame, till the discipline which Christ ordained be restored, and the Rite of Confirmation be recovered to its full use and solemnity."—Dr. Coleman, Boston.

Presbyterian Testimony.—"The Rite of Confirmation, thus administered to Baptized children, when arrived at competent years—shows clearly that the Primitive Church, in her purest days, exercised the authority of a Mother over her baptized children."—Committee of Gen. Assembly.

"This custom is frequently mentioned by the ancient writers. 'Such imposition, I highly approve, and wish it were now restored to its primitive use unconnected by superstition.'—John Calvin.

New Envelopes for Envelope Subscribers.

New sets of envelopes for the year beginning at Easter will be furnished to all who wish to subscribe through the Envelope System. Former Subscribers, who are now pew holders, will find their envelopes in their pews; others will find their envelopes arranged in alphabetical order, on the table near the South entrance.

Persons who have not subscribed—it is desired that all should do so—may find pledge cards in the racks in either vestibule or they will be furnished on application to the Verger. Please indicate by a mark the amount you desire to give weekly; sign names and address at bottom of card and place it on the alms basin at any service. A package of envelopes will then be sent to you. For rental of pews or for further information please apply, after any service, to Mr. Richard H. Morris or to the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, or by addressing the Warden at 328 South Third St.

"I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day," says the Apostle. That is what we should all strive to attain—to be raised for at least one day in the week above the grinding toil of our daily work; above the debasing influence of frivolous amusements; above the jangling of business or controversy; raised into the high and holy atmosphere, breathed by pure and peaceful lives, bright and beautiful thoughts, elevating and invigorating worship.—Dean Stanley.

Bishop Rhinelander to Conduct a Communicants' Service on Maundy Thursday Evening.

I want to call the attention of all Communicants of the Church to the Preparatory Service for Easter Communion, which will be conducted by Bishop Rhinelander in Christ Church on Maundy Thursday evening.

The Confirmation Service will begin promptly at 7.45 with a sermon by the Bishop.

Immediately following Confirmation will be held the Communicants' Service. All who had the privilege of attending this service, as conducted by Bishop Rhinelander in Christ Church in the past, know how very helpful and inspiring these meditations have been. The Bishop would like to have all communicants present.

I, therefore, affectionately ask that every Communicant of Christ Church attend this service on Maundy Thursday evening.

While this service is especially intended for Communicants, all persons, whether they are communicants of the Episcopal Church or not, are cordially invited.

Oh, press this thought to your innermost soul—that those whom you have “loved long since, and lost a while,” love you still, care for you still, with a warmth of affection which kindles into an intenser brilliance as they come nearer to the heart of the Eternal Father, the Source and Sun of Love. And in this love they wait for us.—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

Easter Memorial Flowers.

The flowers in the Chancel on Easter Day will all be memorials to the blessed dead. Persons in the congregation who wish to have flowers in the Chancel on Easter in memory of friends who rest in Paradise are cordially invited to send blooming plants or cut flowers to the Parish House on Saturday noon.

Names of senders are requested to be attached. Persons who wish to forward money contributions for flowers may send the same either to the Rector or to Mrs. H. R. Barenmore, Cliveden Ave. and Jefferson St. Flowers will be purchased by the Altar Guild and the memorials will be placed on the altar.

Contributions are requested to be sent as soon as possible that an early selection of flowers may be made.

Cantata. Palm Sunday Evening.

On Palm Sunday evening, March 24, the choir will sing J. H. Mauder's cantata, “Penitence, Pardon and Peace,” followed by “The Story of the Cross” by Varley Roberts.

The service will begin at 7.45 o'clock.

Easter Offering.

The offering presented by each worshipper at God's Altar on Easter Day should mean real sacrifice. “Ye shall not appear before the Lord empty: every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord, thy God which He hath given thee.”

It is the basest sacrifice to call ourselves Christians—“followers of Him who sacrificed all for us; who gave Himself for us—and then give to Him grudgingly. “Will I offer unto the Lord my God of that which cost me nothing?”

Easter is the feast of joy—of triumph over the carnal, selfish self; a rising to the unselfish, spiritual plane.

There can be no Christian life without giving! Where love is there is always unselfish giving, sacrifice! One may give without loving but one cannot love without giving! Therefore a “selfish Christian” is a contradiction in terms. A “selfish Christian” is a sham! “Whoso seeth his brother in need and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?”

It cannot! “God so loved the world that He gave,” A Christ—man is a loving man, hence a “giving man.”

On Easter Day we show forth our love to God by giving—“Here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a Easter Music.

The service in the evening will be the Church School Easter Carol Service at 7.30.

A Letter from the Accounting Warden.

To the Congregation:

The expenses of the Parish for salaries of Clergy, Choir and Sexton, fuel, lights, repairs, etc., are essential in order that each person may worship each Sunday.

If he or she decides not to come the services are had for such as do come.

It is plain therefore that each should contribute to the expenses an agreed weekly sum according as he or she is able to do.

The facts are that 252 persons, including a number of children, contribute for sittings and through envelopes $5036.04 and the remaining ones, approximately 400 who attend our church contribute only $483.83 by cash in the plate offerings, because they only contribute when they attend the service.

I am sure this is not because the latter decide others to support the church for their convenience but that they have been thoughtless in the matter.

Will not each man and woman and child in Christ Church therefore take an envelope and consistently pay a weekly sum, however small and thus be one of those who contribute weekly to the services of the church.

These envelopes will be furnished next Easter Sunday and may be had on application to the Rector, the Accounting Warden or Mr. Richard H. Morris.

Very respectfully,

J. I. Morrison,

Accounting Warden.

Gospel of the Resurrection.

The earthly life of Jesus Christ had utterly failed to establish a faith that could survive His death. He had spoken, it is true, as never man had spoken before. He had gone about doing good. He had performed many mighty works, so the records tell us. The blind had been led to see, the deaf to hear, the lepers had been cleansed, the dead had been risen, and to the poor the Gospel had been preached. He had swayed the hearts of the common people so that they could not be shaken off. They had been willing—yea, clamored—to make Him their King. Then, too, those twelve intimate friends, who had been with him from the beginning, gave themselves entirely to Him. They had no other stay upon whom to lean. “Lord, to whom shall we go, for Thou hast the words of eternal life.”

Yet all this went for nothing under the crush of the cross. The crowd who had followed Him whithersoever He went had seen Him hanged on the tree, reviled as a malefactor, powerless to save Himself under the taunt: “If Thou be the Son of God come down from the cross and we will believe.”

The friends lay hidden in despair. They had trusted; they could trust no more. Every hope was blotted out, all was gone. They lay dumb, stunned, dead. Such was the end of our Lord's earthly career. So far as the effect of that life was concerned the upper chamber where the eleven crouched was the end. There was nothing more to come of it, nothing more to be said or done. They could but go home and die.

The impulse, therefore, which constitutes Christianity is not to be found within the four points of our Lord's recorded life on earth. So far as that went, and if that were all, there would be no such thing as Christianity at all. Christianity dates itself from one event—and one event only—the Resurrection. There is no other origin for it. In that lies its creative force. It is the Gospel of the Resurrection. The cross and passion which had wiped out the meaning of the earthly career and had buried it in a darkness that could be felt, now became, through the illumination of the Resurrection, the seat and center of the glory in which all the light was focused.

We may preach Christ our Peace and our Joy only because His death has been taken up into the risen life and transmuted by its splendor, so that we may be changed from Glory to Glory in the face of Jesus Christ. The cross has power to save only as the cross of the Risen Lord.

The Resurrection, then, is Christianity. From it our religion dates itself. In it lies our whole germinal Gospel. It presented itself to the disciples as the one fact in which the universe arrived at self interpretation. It was no accidental and detached event that had come merely to relieve their sorrow, or to assure them of their Master's safe survival after death. In it the divided pieces of the puzzle of existence fell together—everything suddenly became coherent, intelligible, satisfying. Thus only in the light of the Resurrection did Calvary become a crucifix. Easter, and Easter alone, transformed the death of shame into the symbol of Divine love.

Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.—Selected.

✠ Confirmation and Communicants' Service.

The Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, will confirm in Christ Church on Maundy Thursday evening, April 9th, at eight o'clock.

His address will be especially to Communicants, perpearing them for the Easter Communion. Every communicant member of Christ Church Parish should be present at this service. It will be a privilege, which no communicant can afford to miss, to receive preparation for the Holy Communion from so spiritually minded a man as Bishop Rhinelander.

It is hoped that every communicant will avail himself of this privilege. It is hoped that not one communicant of Christ Church Parish will be absent on Maundy Thursday evening.

✠ Lord Roseberry on the Resurrection

The great statesman and diplomat, Lord Salisbury, said in regard to the Resurrection:

To me the central point is the Resurrection of Christ, which I believe. Firstly, because it is testified by men who had every opportunity of seeing and knowing, and whose veracity was tested by the most tremendous trials, both of energy and endurance, during long lives. Second, because of the marvelous effect it had upon the world. As a moral phenomenon, the spread and mastery of Christianity is without a parallel. I can no more believe that colossal moral effects can be without a cause, than I can believe that the various motions of the magnet are without a cause, though I cannot wholly explain them. To any one who believes the Resurrection of Christ, the rest presents little difficulty. No one who has belief will doubt that those who were commissioned by Him to speak—Paul, Peter, Mark, John—carried a Divine message. St. Matthew falls into the same category. St. Luke has the warrant of the generation of Christians who saw and heard the others."

"The Church believes to-day in the Resurrection of Christ because she has always believed in it. If all the documents which tell the story of the first Easter Day should disappear, the Church would still sing her Easter praises, and offer her Easter sacrifice of thanksgiving; for she is older than the oldest of her documents, and from father to son all through the centuries she has passed on the message of the first Easter morning—"The Lord is risen indeed." The Church believes in the Resurrection because she is the product of the Resurrection."

The Rector's Notes

THE RECORD'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

The Easter Communion

Four hundred and seventy-two persons received Holy Communion in Christ Church at the three Celebrations on Easter Day. This is an increase of forty-seven over the previous Easter and is a large percentage of the communicant list of the parish. Some persons were not privileged to come on account of sickness; a few were out of the city; but where were the others?

The answer to this question, no doubt, can be found in our Lord's parable, St. Mark 4:2-20.

Remember the Rector's Charity Fund.

Christ Church parishioners are asked to remember the object of the offering received on the first Sunday in the month. It is for the Rector's "Exigency Fund." This is the only fund the Rector has at his disposal for the poor and other cases of exigency.

Will not our people remember the object of this offering on the first Sunday of each month and if they are absent from that service send their offering, either to the Rector or to the Accounting Warden?

Church Slackers

There is not a person in this parish, man or woman, boy or girl, who should not or cannot assist in the support of the work of this parish by subscribing through the envelope system of giving. In these serious days when every loyal man, woman and child is realizing a personal and individual responsibility to their country, there must be no shirking, no evading of duty in defence of the country's cause. The momentous issues at stake and the serious temper of the time will brook no half-hearted loyalty. The issue is plain, positive and definite. Slackers are enemies and should be so considered.

If this be so in this serious business of warfare against an enemy ruthless to all that Americans hold dear, how profoundly true it is in this serious business in which the Church is engaged, this warfare against the evil influences which Satan is waging against the eternal interests and souls of men!

And in this warfare, also, the issue is equally plain, positive and definite. Our Lord has stated the issue: "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who gathereth not with Me scattereth abroad!"

It is high time that the "Church slackers" in this vicinity and elsewhere, who are supposed to be Christians, who make claim up on the Church and are enrolled among its members, it is high time that these half-hearted "aliens" should declare themselves true and should shoulder like true men and women their individual and personal responsibilities to the Church!

About two-thirds of the members of this parish recognize their serious and solemn obligations and bear unselfishly and heroically their duty in the support of the parish, its missionary and the philanthropic work. The others are slackers! They let others pay their bills, shoulder their responsibilities and discharge their Christian obligations! And these "slackers" are not, for the most part, among the poorer members of the parish, who, as a class, are most responsive and generous, but they are to be found more generally among the ranks of the "well-to-do" and the rich in this world's goods; of whom our Lord said, "the cares (vanities) of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches have choked the word and they have become unfruitful."

And these are they who in this and in every parish, constitute, as a rule, the noisiest people, who are first in their criticisms, who exact the most, who tell the Rector how to do "things" and are free in expressing their "opinions" as to "how the Vestry ought to run the financial end of the Church."

Evidently our Lord had this same class to deal with in His day, and any who may be interested to learn our Lord's opinion of these people may find it in St. Luke, sixth chapter, 37th to 46th verses.

It will be recalled that our Lord has there something to say about "a mote and a beam."

The Rector speaks strongly because he feels strongly and has little respect and less, for "slackers in religion" as he has for "slackers" in patriotic service at this crisis of the world war.

As our country calls for self-sacrificing, loyal men and expects them to respond, so the parish, the Church, God is calling for loyal men and women, and Christ's words in this crisis are clear, definite, decisive: "Whosoever, therefore, shall confess Me before men, him will I confess also before My Father in heaven; but whosoever shall deny Me before men, him will I also deny before My Father which is in heaven. Think not that I have come to send peace on earth; I came not to send peace (to such people) but a sword!"

Fifty Billions for War

Fifty billion dollars is the maximum sum which this country may have to spend in this war, according to some of the leaned men who have been addressing the Academy of Political and Social Science. These statements did not come from academic philosophers, but from financiers, legislators, and cool-headed business men. The sum seems large, but whatever it is, the money will be forthcoming.

When the late Henry M. Flagler proposed to extend his railway from Miami to Key West, over a few cays and the broad waters of the Atlantic, he sent out engineers to investigate the practicability of the scheme. After two years they returned, saying the work could be done, but would cost—. They got no further. Mr. Flagler absolutely refused to hear the estimated cost lest he should lose courage and not build the line. As all know, it is in operation today.

It is this same attitude which we must take toward the war. It is not a matter of cost, but of success. Even the figure named is by no means alarming. It amounts to about one-fifth of our national wealth, but it is certain that more than half of it will be paid out of current income. Already the Central Powers have expended, according to estimate, about thirty per cent. of their national wealth, and they have no way of increasing it, as they are shut off from the world.

The only thing to do is to prosecute this war to victory at any cost if we do not want to be mortgaged to Germany indefinitely. Already we have raised, or have been offered, $9,000,000,000 including the Treasury certificates outstanding and there has been no great strain on our resources. We will finish the job and pay the bill, and we will not only be the better for it, but will make the world better for it, but will make the world worth living in for our children and our grandchildren.

God Give Us Men

God give us men!
Men from every rank.
Fresh and free and frank.
Men of thought and reading.
Men of light and leading.
Men of royal breeding.
The nation's welfare speeding:
Men of faith and not of fiction.
Men of lofty aims in action:
God give us men—I say again.
Give us men!

Give us men!
Strong and stalwart ones:
Men whom highest hope inspires.
Men whom purest honor fires
Men who trample self beneath them
Men who make their country wreath them
As her noblest sons,
Worthy of their sires.
Men who never shame their mothers.
Men who never fail their brothers.
True, however false are others.
Give us men—I say again.
Give us men!

Give us men.
Men who when the tempest gathers.
Grasp the standard of their fathers.
In the thickest of the fight.
Men who strive for home and altar.
(Let the coward cringe and falter.)
God defend the right!
True as truth though lorn and lonely;
Tender as the brave are only:
Men who trod where Saints have trod.
Give us men—I say again—again—
Give us such men!

—Bishop of Exeter.

Honor Roll of Enlisted Men.

The Honor Roll of enlisted men from this parish has been revised and is hung in the Tulpehocken St. vestibule of the Church. The list includes 51 names—forty-nine men and two women, who are serving as nurses in France.

At the Celebration of the Holy Communion on Sundays and on Friday afternoon at five o'clock, special prayers are said on behalf of all enlisted in the service of our country and especially for the members from this congregation.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

Confirmation Class

On Maundy Thursday evening, March 28th, the Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, visited this parish and administered the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation to a class of twenty-one, ten males and eleven females.

After the Confirmation the Bishop conducted a most helpful "Communicants' Service" in preparation for the Easter Communion.

The following are the names of persons confirmed in Christ Church on Maundy Thursday evening.

Election of Vestrymen

On Easter Monday evening a parish meeting was held in the Parish House to elect four vestrymen and to discuss subjects of interest for the welfare of the Parish. While there was not as large an attendance of parishioners as was hoped for, the discussions and suggestions of those present were constructive and helpful to the welfare of the parish. It was clearly brought out on this evening that there should be a more general and more unselfish interest taken in the work and support of the parish. There is need of workers in every department of the parish and "slackers" in the work and support of the Church are as serious a menace to Religion as as "slack-ers" in the present patriotic cause are to the country's service.

Only a comparatively few women of the parish are actively enlisted in the great missionary work of the church. There are many "slackers."

Only a comparatively few women of the parish co-operate in the training of the young people in our Sunday School. There are many "slackers."

When special appeals are made for workers in the various departments of the parish activities only a few respond. There are many "slackers."

In the financial support of the church less than one-half the members of the parish are regular and systematic givers. There are many "slackers."

All present at this meeting seemed to realize the imperative need of everyone in the parish doing his or her share. The Church is "our Church." It does not belong to the Rector nor to the vestrymen nor to a small number of the parishioners but to all the people. Hence all should share alike in the responsibilities and privileges and do, at least, their "bit."

It is hoped that another meeting of the members of the parish may be held in the fall, when a larger number will be present. The splendid spirit at this last meeting showed a deep interest, by those present, in the welfare of the parish and frequent meetings of this character will be productive of good to the parish and an extension of its usefulness. At the close of the meeting it was announced that the following were elected vestrymen to serve for three years: J. I. Morrison, Edward Bains, U. G. Rowley and Jonas Wesling.

At the meeting held on Tuesday evening, April 2nd, the Vestry organized by selecting the following officers: Accounting Warden, J. I. Morrison; Secretary, Francis B. Falkner; Delegates to the Diocesan Convention and Germantown Convocation, Sheldon Potter, James M. Woodroffe, J. I. Morrison; Alternates to Germantown Convocation.

The Rector appointed James M. Woodroffe, Rector's Warden and appointed the following committees:

Choir Committee: Messrs. Rowley,

Woodroffe, Morris.

Property Committee: Messrs. Bains, Falkner, Middleton.

Finance Committee: Messrs. Woodroffe, Johnson, Bains.

Sunday School Committee: Messrs. Morgan, Middleton, Morris.

Committee on Lay Work: Messrs. Morris, Bains, Westling.

Every Member Canvas Committee: Messrs. Westling, Morrison, Falkner.

Missionary Committee: Messrs. Morgan, Rowley, Westling.

District Committee of Episcopal Clergy for the Third Liberty Loan Campaign

The Government has asked the Clergy and the Churches to help in the Third Liberty Loan Campaign. A definite, concrete task is before us. We must do it eagerly, actively, promptly.

The plan is this:

1. The Clergyman in charge of each Church is asked to establish an honor roll—the roll to contain the names of all members of the congregation who have subscribed to the Third Liberty Loan. NAMES, not AMOUNTS are asked for.

2. Each Clergyman will appoint a committee to see that every member of the congregation is asked to put his or her name on the Honor Roll.

The Clergy of this district have met, have undertaken the task and through this letter signed by all of them, appeal to their people to come forward promptly.

Remember—you are asked to do this by your Government as Churchmen. It is the duty of all of us to insure the success of this Campaign. It is a privilege for the Church to share in the great work. Help your Honor Roll to grow.

If you have subscribed for bonds of the Third Liberty Loan, please sign and return this letter to your Rector.

Signature, -----

Copies of the above letter may be found in the vestibule of the church. The Rector requests that it be signed and given or mailed to him.

It is hoped that every subscriber to the Third Liberty Bond will do this at once as a report of the total number of subscribers from this parish must be forwarded as soon as possible.

In accordance with the request from the Episcopal Church Committee of the Third Liberty Loan, the Rector appointed Mrs. George W. Harkins, Jr., and Mrs. Joseph Moyer to organize for canvassing among the members of Christ Church. The following ladies volunteered their services:

Mrs. Ernest Blood

Miss Georgeanna Dean

Mrs. E. D. Dier

Miss Gertrude Feist

Mrs. Rowland Jones

Mrs. W. N. Johnson

Mrs. E. F. Kimberly, Jr.

Mrs. Sidney Lomas

Miss Charlotte Morris

Mrs. J. I. Morrison

Miss Morgan

Mrs. Harry Thompson

Miss Woodroffe

The subscriptions collected by the Committee from their friends and from members of Christ Church amounts to date, April 17th, to $14,500.00. Any who have not, as yet, subscribed are asked to do so through this Committee.

Whether subscriptions are or are not made through the above Committee every one who has bought a bond is requested to sign the copy of the letter printed above, that Christ Church may report, at least, a majority of the members have come to the aid of their country by buying a Liberty Bond.

Get a copy of this letter on the tables in the vestibules of the church, sign and forward to the Rector at once.

Sunday School News

The "Boosters' Committee" was organized for the purpose of combining all the Departments, and have one big opening and closing exercise, and try and stir up a little "pep" in our school. The combining of all departments was done on schedule time, but the necessary pep and support were lacking. This was tried for two Sundays; and then the different departments separated and the committee was discharged with full pay.

We did not stop here long for at our last teachers' meeting, a new committee was appointed, "The Advisory Committee," consisting of Mr. Rowley, Miss Richards, Miss Gertrude Feist, Mr. Morris and Mr. Bains. We, therefore, see new light again and great things will be accomplished.

This committee needs the support of every scholar and teacher of our school, in order to be a success. We all wish this committee the best of success and good luck, and the accomplishment of great things.

Daughters of the King

The Local Assembly of the Daughters of the King of the Diocese will be held in Christ Church on Thursday, May sixteenth. Members of the Parish are cordially invited to attend evening service at eight o'clock.

Christ Church Club

During the absence of our leader, Mr. Gurley, the affairs and management of the club were transferred to Mr. Cotton.

I take this opportunity in stating that all memberships of 1917 have expired, and we look forward for the increase in the renewal of the memberships this season.

Letters will be sent out in the near future, and I hope that there will be an immediate and favorable reply. Senior Membership $3.00, Junior Membership $2.00.

It takes about $35 or $40 to put the grounds in first-class order, so any one wishing to become members of this club, and partake in any athletic games, chiefly tennis, please send all communications or initiation fees to Mr. Chas. J. Cotton, 58 W. Johnson St.

The evening class of the Red Cross still continues to meet Tuesday evenings at 7.30 o'clock. Judging by the slim attendance at these meetings of late we had about come to the conclusion that many of our members thought enough had been done to supply our men and Allies with all that would be needed, but we are thankful to say there are some faithful ones who fully realized the necessity of the great need, especially as the time was drawing near for more intense fighting. The condition of things today only goes to prove how necessary it was we should be prepared. We do not know how many thousand dressings made never reach their destination, which is only more reason that we should redouble our efforts. Our men are fighting battles for us "Over There"; we women must fight for them at home by making every sacrifice. We ask for only two hours' service one night a week. That seems very little time to give that we may bring relief and comfort to those who have gone gladly and willingly into that inferno to protect their country and save their women from a fate worse than death. This Parish should be proud it has an Auxiliary of the Red Cross and every member should consider it a Patriotic duty and a privilege to come and do her share of the work, and try to interest others who are not working elsewhere to come to either the day or evening classes. A pride in our church and all it stands for should be another incentive to make this Auxiliary a success. The work done by those who have come regularly and worked conscientiously has received the highest praise for neatness and the amount turned in, we having doubled our quota in every drive, and we certainly appreciate their faithfulness. We wish we could arouse all members of the Red Cross in our Parish with a feeling of loyalty to their Auxiliary that they would be willing to give some time at least once a week to the work for our men, the relief of all suffering in this great cause and the establishing of a "Righteous and Lasting Peace."

Meetings in the Parish House, every Tuesday at eight o'clock; every Wednesday, 10.30 A. M. to 5 P. M.

✠ Men's Bible Class

"What are you doing?" This question was asked one day in reference to the Bible Class and that others with perhaps the same query in mind may know something of our work I am going to blow our horn.

First and foremost, superceding all other motives, the Class is trying to be a power for good in this community by bringing men closer to God. Any Bible Class which does not have that for its paramount object has not the right to be called a Bible Class.

Naturally there are many ways in which this may be accomplished—with study of the Bible leading, Personal work among the men by visitation, letters, tokens of sympathy and means of providing pleasurable moments now and then, these all tend to increase the interest and affection of those who are working and others whom they are trying to reach. This makes up the main work of the Class, from a religious standpoint.

There are other things the Class is doing, however, and one or two of them may be mentioned. Some months ago a member of the Vestry said in one of our meetings, that if instead of the various organizations interested in the Parish House each doing its bit in its own way toward making repairs and improvements, a fund could be created under the control of the Vestry for this purpose, money could be saved and better results obtained. The Class volunteered to start this fund and support it by contributing each month ten per cent. of the collections and to add, from time to time, such other amounts as should be available.

In answer to the Accounting Warden's appeal for the Easter deficit $25.00 has been appropriated for this purpose and plans are under consideration for placing an electric light over the upper door of the McCallum Street vestibule of the Church.

Some good results have been attained in a personal way and which are not often mentioned. We have an Employment Committee and a Relief Committee and often occasions arise whereby the committees are able to give assistance in time of need and during the past year five men and one woman have been provided with situations.

The American flag in the Church is a gift of the Class as was the Service flag presented last December. It became necessary to procure a larger Service flag and the present one was donated by a member of the Class.

Thus the Class has been of some use to the Parish in spite of its many shortcomings and every man who interests himself in the work and then gets some other man interested, finds plenty of opportunity for doing good both to himself and to others.

Bibles for Enlisted Men

The Scripture Gift Mission of Philadelphia is presenting Bibles to American soldiers and sailors. In a foreword of these Bibles President Wilson has written the following, urging the troops to diligently read the Scriptures. He says:

"The Bible is the word of life. I beg that you will read it and find this out for yourselves—read, not little snatches here and there, but long passages that will really be the road to the heart of it. You will find it full of real men and women not only, but also of things you have wondered about and been troubled about all your life, as men have been always; and the more you read the more it will become plain to you what things are worth while and what are not; what things make men happy—loyalty, right dealings, speaking the truth, readiness to give everything for what they think their duty, and, most of all, the wish that they may have the real approval of the Christ, who gave everything for them—and the things that are guaranteed to make men unhappy—selfishness, cowardice, greed, and everything that is low and mean. When you have read the Bible you will know that it is the Word of God, because you will have found it the key to your own happiness and your own duty. (Signed)

WOODROW WILSON."

The following prayers are suggested to be used in these trying times of war:

O Almighty God, the supreme Governor of all things, whose power no creature is able to resist, to whom it belongeth justly to punish sinners, and to be merciful to those who truly repent; Save and deliver us, we humbly beseech thee, from the hands of our enemies. Abate their pride, assuage their malice, confound their devices that we, being armed with thy defence, may be preserved evermore from all perils, to glorify thee, who are the only giver of all victory; through the merits of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Thou who alone dost rule in the kingdoms of men and determine the events of war, guard and guide us now, we beseech Thee. Be merciful unto our sins; save us from violence, discord and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Grant unto our rulers the spirit of wisdom, that they may direct and use the power committed to their hands for the honor of our country, the deliverance of the oppressed, the good of all mankind, and the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday Reading

A clergyman who was supplying a pulpit, not his own, was entertained in the home of one of the prominent members of the church. The conditions of the home life impressed him deeply; and although he was careful not to disclose anything that could identify the family, he referred to the Sunday spent in their home as among the dreariest and least profitable in his whole experience.

The family, struggling down to breakfast Sunday morning, brought with them the gossip acquired at various places on Saturday night. Two of them had been to the theatre, one had been to a party, most of them had been out late. More than one of the household began the day with a headache.

On the breakfast table there were three Sunday newspapers. On these the different members of the family pounced, and were soon hidden behind them.

Only the father and the mother went to church; the young people were "too tired," and did not care to dress.

After the morning service, the clergyman found the newspapers well shaken out and scattered. There was hardly a chair that did not contain one or more parts of one or another of them.

After the Sunday dinner, the papers were seized again, and creased and re-creased in the weary quest for new sensations.

The home had a good library, but no member of the family opened a book that day. The library had the works of Whittier, Lowell, Longfellow, and Holmes, as well as those of Shakespeare and Tennyson, but no other member of the family read one of them much less any distinctly religious book.

The hymnal on the piano lay under a trashy song that came with one of the newspapers. The family Bible on the centre table was buried deep beneath the so-called "comic supplements."

The whole atmosphere of the home all day was commonplace, worldly, and depressing. There was nothing that lifted the thoughts of the members of the family above the wearisome round of the world and the things of the world. Business, politics, scandals, and bargains were the themes of conversation. The three secular newspapers, each with its sixty-odd pages, covered not only the seats, tables and carpets, they covered the spiritual life of the family as well. Without a question the morality of such a Sunday, what may we not say of the pity of it? Is the soul of man so mean, so sordid, that not one day in the week can be saved for an acquaintance with the better things of literature and of life, and for the higher ministrations of the Spirit?

Henry Drummond, speaking of the value of a little time spent alone with God, said: "Five minutes spent in the companionship of Christ every morning—aye, two minutes, if it is face to face and heart to heart—will change the whole day, will make every thought and feeling different, will enable you to do things for His sake that you would not have done for your own sake or for any one's sake."

An Effectual Hint

An earnest Church woman hit upon an excellent plan of dealing with Sunday evening callers. There is no excuse in that home of being "kept from church by company."

Her plan is this:—At six o'clock or earlier she puts her hat nearby, to be put on at the ringing of the door bell. Thus the callers remark, "Oh! you're going somewhere!" Easily and effectively the reply comes forth—"Yes, I'm going to church before long, and I thought I'd get ready early."

The plan works splendidly. The hint is taken. We recommend the plan to our parishioners. Be sure, however, to tell your intended guests that as they have honored you with a call, you will expect them to go to church with you.

Holy Places

Not religion only, but human nature itself demands the setting apart of sacred places, and of places appointed for special uses and services. Reverence of manner, devotion of heart and voice, sacredness of place, God commands and man demands, if the best within us is to be fed and nourished, and the noblest part of us is to survive and grow. The gifts and graces ministered by churches, erected, consecrated, used, subserve the glory of God and the good of men. They help man to discharge duty, for man's moral task in this world is summed up not in "the survival of the fittest," but in the effort to fit as many as possible to survive. And if gifts and graces center themselves in the church building as a storehouse, ready to be contributed and distributed as helps and blessings to brother men, we that are within may well join in the glad and grateful cry, "Master, it is good for us to be here."

Nationalism Versus Christianity

The real source of the war is the proposition that we owe boundless devotion to our own country, and nothing whatever to any other country but our own. Nationalism, in a degree, is a very desirable thing, but it differs from any other form of esprit du corps in that it implies or permits a suspension of the moral law. We must get people to feel that there is something higher than the loyalty to their own country—there is an obligation to the interests of all mankind. This doctrine is one of the most elementary tenets of Christianity. The doctrine of the brotherhood of man is taught by every religious denomination in the world. I should like to see a very resolute effort made by the ministers of all denominations of Christianity to enforce the doctrine not only that war is inconsistent with Christianity, but that nationalism is inconsistent with Christianity. We want to get behind the idea that the higher loyalty is to our own country, to the idea that all men are brethren, and that we owe to them a duty of inexhaustible, immeasurable love.—Lord Hugh Cecil, M. P.

The Church Open All Day.

The church is open during the day for meditation and prayer. At noon the bell is rung and all are asked to unite in prayer for our country, for our enlisted men and for the peace of the world. Persons who cannot come to the church are asked to pause for a moment at noon and offer a silent prayer, wherever they may be, on the street, in office, shop or home.

May the Spirit of the Almighty Father so dwell in the minds of men that this war shall teach the nation the necessity for universal peace; and may the Peace of God so enter into the hearts of men that they may be prepared for the cessation of all strife, and the coming of the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ our Lord; Amen!

Pastoral Message of the House of Bishops.

Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

The House of Bishops, meeting in the City of New York while the great battle which may determine the course of Christian civilization is in progress, declares the unwavering loyalty of the Church, and urges all the clergy and laity to continue to render their entire and zealous obedience to the requests of the Government.

In this war which has been forced upon us, and in which we are contending for the defense of our liberties and faith, the support of those in authority is distinctly a religious duty. We are all called to fulfil that duty to the full extent of our power, and in so doing to manifest the highest sense of consecration, whether in the army or navy, or in some of the manifold forms of work for the support and comfort of those who are in active service.

The struggle is against the foes of righteousness and truth, of liberty and mercy, in the only way open to us, and we must neither falter nor lose patience. With high courage and faith the Church must set itself to the service of the country and of the world, bringing to the support of our cause the moral and spiritual resources of our people. The present conflict in the world makes a moral issue, and moral strength will determine it.

To our soldiers and sailors, and to all who are engaged in the dangerous and difficult tasks in the nation's service, we send the assurance of our remembrance, and of our unceasing intercession for their safety in body and soul. We make an earnest plea with all our people to set their faces against those who, for gain, take advantage of the necessities of the Government and of the nation's need of food. The common good, and the support of those in authority upon whose action under God all depends, must be the great consideration with all right-minded men and women.

Wherefore, acknowledging the supreme sovereignty of Almighty God, praying that His will be done and recognizing the moral and spiritual issues which are involved in this conflict, we bid our clergy and laity everywhere to pray without ceasing for the success of our armies and those of our Allies; and we further exhort our people to dedicate their substance and consecrate all their powers of body, mind and soul to the accomplishment of that for which they pray, to the end that liberty and a righteous and enduring peace may speedily be established throughout the world, to the glory of God, and for the wellbeing of all mankind, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

War-Time Prayers.

O God, our refuge and Strength, who art long-suffering and of great mercy, and by no means clearing the guilty; Hide not thy face from our land in the fiery trial of war; Grant us true repentance of our sins; and take away the offences of our people, that with clean hands and a pure heart we may go forward in thy name. From the idolatry of Mammon; from levity and dissolute living; from the strife of classes, from injustice and contempt of law; from vain glory and confidence in our own might, and from forgetfulness of thee, Good Lord, deliver us. Save us, we beseech thee, from treason and from panic fears; and make us of one mind in steadfast fealty and cheerful sacrifice. Those in authority over us endue with courage and wisdom and thy holy fear. Strengthen and defend our protectors by sea and land; and suffer no dishonor or crime to stain our arms. Safeguard and multiply the ministries of mercy; succor the wounded, comfort the dying; restrain the spread of cruelty and hate. Make a speedy end of tyrannies in the earth, and deliver the desolate and oppressed of all nations; hasten the advent of righteous peace, and with great might establish thy kingdom, through him who died to redeem mankind, thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Almighty God, who hast made us citizens of this land, enable us to do our country service. Make us calm, unselfish and ready to give according to our means. Give us grace to bear the burdens of others, those known to us, and those unknown. Keep us from being at any time cast down by fear, and enable us to cheer and comfort those about us. Show us at all times what our duty is, and strengthen us to do it, and grant that we may with a ready will learn the lessons which thou art teaching us; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, Jesus Christ, who by thy death didst take away the sting of death, grant rest, we beseech thee, in the place of light and refreshment, to those who have died in battle, or through sickness, in this war; receive their souls into thy holy keeping, where pain and sorrow and sighing are done away, and grant unto them a merciful judgment at the last day; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Special Memorial Day Services in Christ Church.

On Memorial Day, Thursday morning, May 30th, a special service of "humiliation, prayer and intercession" will be held in Christ Church at nine thirty o'clock.

This service is in response, not only to the Proclamation of the President of the United States that this day should be so observed, but in response of every Christian heart which yearns for God in these awful times of the world's Gethsemane and turns to Him, as the only source of guidance, strength and comfort.

This war will be won by prayer! God will give the victory to the people who, in His judgment, are most worthy to receive it and can best be trusted with it and its great responsibilities. God grant that the American people may be so fitted in heart and mind. God grant that He many "forgive our sins and shortcomings as a people and purify our hearts to see and love the truth, to accept and defend all things just and right, and to purpose only those righteous acts and judgements which are in conformity with His will."

At this Memorial Day Service the names of those who have gone forth from our parish will be read from the chancel.

Prayer will be offered for our soldiers and sailors; for all doctors and nurses, for the Red Cross Society; for all chaplains and religious workers; for the President of these United States and all in authority and in positions of counsel or command; for the multitude who serve the nation by their industry; for the ministry of God's grace to all shattered homes and broken hearts whether in friendly or in hostile lands; for the sick and the dying; and the dead; for the allied nations; for the people against whom we contend that they may come to seek the true greatness of nations in righteousness and good will; for the unity of our nation; for a swift victory for justice, for the establishment of righteousness and an enduring peace among all the peoples of the earth.

Let there be a great outpouring of our people on this Memorial Day; on this day, freighted with the sacred memories of those who in former years gave their lives for our beloved country.

Upon this occasion we shall honor and remember not only the heroes of the past but also those who at this hour are fighting even greater battles in our behalf—battles in which, with God's blessings, we shall win for men and nations the world around the unchallenged exercise of those rights of justice and liberty for which our fathers fought and died won for us.

The President's Message.

"A Proclamation.

"Whereas, the Congress of the United States, on the second day of April last, passed the following resolution:

"Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring) that, it being a duty peculiarly incumbent in a time of war humbly and devoutly to acknowledge our dependence on Almighty God and to implore His aid and protection, the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, respectfully requested to recommend a day of public humiliation, prayer, and fasting, to be observed by the people of the United States with religious solemnity and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God for the safety and welfare of our cause, His blessings on our arms, and a speedy restoration of an honorable and lasting peace to the nations of the earth';

"And whereas, it has always been the reverent habit of the people of the United States to turn in humble appeal to Almighty God for His guidance in the affairs of their common life;

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim Thursday, the thirtieth day of May, a day already freighted with sacred and stimulating memories, a DAY OF PUBLIC HUMILIATION, PRAYER AND FASTING, and do exhort my fellow citizens of all faiths and creeds to assemble on that day in their places of worship, and there, as well as in their homes, to pray Almighty God that He may forgive our sins and shortcomings as a people and purify our hearts to see and love the truth, to accept and defend all things just and right, and to purpose only those righteous acts and judgments which are in conformity with His will; beseeching Him that He will give victory to our armies as they fight for freedom, wisdom to those who take counsel on our behalf in these days of dark struggle and perplexity, and steadfastness to our people to make sacrifice to the utmost support of what is just and true, bringing us at last the peace in which men's hearts can be at rest because it is founded upon mercy, justice and good will."

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void

Girl Scouts at Christ Church.

Nearly every magazine and newspaper these days has some note or picture of the work of the Girl Scouts. For the last few years there has been much interest in woman's work and along with it has come the "Girl Scouts." This is a wonderful organization, and all girls over ten years of age will be interested to know that we have recently organized a Girl Scout Troop in our Parish. The Troop is well organized and has an enthusiastic group of girls, learning to tie knots and pass the first test to become "tenderfoot scouts." We meet every Wednesday evening in the Parish House at 7.30 o'clock and will welcome all girls in the neighborhood. Come to a meeting—let us tell you of our plans for hikes and good times for this summer and fall. Mrs. Savell, director of the Girl Scouts, who gave us an interesting and helpful talk on scout laws, etc., is starting a troop at the West Side Presbyterian Church. We are running a race with her for the best troop. We can assure you of good times, besides learning and accomplishing things of value now and also for the years to come. Will you help us or allow your daughter to help us win the race?

Daughters of the King.

The Diocesan meeting of the Daughters of the King was held in Christ Church on Thursday afternoon and evening, May 16th. Supper was served in the Parish House, after the business session, at six-thirty o'clock, and a Service was held in the Church in the evening, when the sermon was preached by the Rev. Royden F. Yerkes, Professor at the Philadelphia Divinity School.

Honor Roll of Enlisted Men.

The Honor Roll of enlisted men from this parish is hung in the Tulpehocken St. vestibule of the Church. The list includes 53 names—fifty-one men and two women, who are serving as nurses in France.

At the Celebration of the Holy Communion on Sundays and on Friday afternoon at five o'clock, special prayers are said on behalf of all enlisted in the service of our country and especially for the members from this congregation. At noon, every day, the church bell is rung and prayers and intercession are made for our country, for our enlisted men and for the peace of the world.

Parish House Robbed.

Burglars gained entrance into the Parish House on Monday night, May 13. They broke open the doors of all the closets and desks, doing considerable damage, but getting nothing of value. The Parish Houses of several churches in this vicinity have been entered and robbed within the past month, presumably by the same bandits. No clue, as yet, has been found.

Robbing Parish Houses and Churches is a pretty mean and contemptible piece of business. And yet there are thousands of "Christians" who are daily robbing God! Robbing God, by dodging their Christian responsibilities. It is the prophet Malachi who says: "Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me, saith the Lord. But ye say, wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings!"

To Non-Givers.

Four years ago the "duplex envelopes system" of giving was introduced into the Parish. By this system each contributor is afforded an opportunity of giving weekly an offering toward parish work and toward the work of missions. The increase in the offering to missions has been most encouraging. Our people are awakening to the privilege of giving by a systematic, weekly offering. A large number of the people of Christ Church, however, have not as yet availed themselves of this envelope system of giving. The current expenses of the Parish amount, in round numbers, to $7,500.00 per annum. Our assessment for Missions, Convocation, Episcopal and Convention Funds amount to, in round numbers, $2,500.00, making a total of $10,000.00 a year, fixed charges. If every member of the Parish would give at least, 30 cents a week, or a little over four cents aday, the total, in addition to the amount received in pew rents, would be ample to meet all expenses and assessments of the Parish. But some cannot give that much; therefore others must give more than this amount weekly. Will not everyone, who has not as yet, subscribed a weekly offering through the envelope system, please do so at once and thus share in bearing the expenses of the Parish? We have not many "shirkers" in Christ Church. A large majority of the people are giving their share; but there are some—they are not the poor people of the parish—who are evading their plain Christian duty and are letting others pay the expenses, while they do the "talking." Let every one who attends the services of Christ Church begin now, to do his or her duty. The envelope system of giving affords every one such an opportunity. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule or may be had from the Verger. "Be merciful after thy power. If thou hast much, give plenteously; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little; for so gathereth thou thyself a good reward in the day of necessity."

Lamps at the Church Entrance.

Ornamental lamps, which will be lighted by electricity, will be erected this month at the south entrance of the Church. These lamps will be memorials to Maria Hurst, a former member of the Mothers' Meeting, who left a sum of money for this purpose.

The lamps will be installed at no expense to the church, the work being done through the generosity of Mr. Frederick Lennig, of the firm of Lennig Brothers, Electrical Contractors, Philadelphia.

The Men's Bible Class have also generously donated a hanging lamp, to be placed over the north door of the McCallum St. entrance.

Altar Guild.

The Altar Guild held a regular monthly meeting on May 13th, and at that time adjourned until Fall.

The serving committees will be on duty as follows: May 24-31: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Quay, N. Manser; June 1-7: Misses Chase, Woodroffe, Alexander; June 7-14: Misses Cooley, E. Manser, Mogridge, Gerhard, Wismer; June 14-21: Misses Dean, Falkner, Westling.

Writing Paper for the Boys at Camp Dix.

The Rector recently made a visit to Camp Dix, Wrightown, N. J., and was greatly interested in the moral and religious work that is being done at that camp, where there are from fifty to fifty-five thousand men.

From Chaplain Black, who has charge of our Church work at Camp Dix, the Rector learned that it was difficult to keep the boys in writing paper and envelopes. Many thousand sheets are used every week and the supply is soon exhausted. As this great Church work for our boys is supported wholly by voluntary contributions, the Rector announced from the chancel of Christ Church that any who desired to contribute to this patriotic cause might signify their willingness by notifying him. A most generous response has come and fourteen thousand sheets of paper and envelopes have been printed and sent to the Chaplain. This supply, however, is sufficient for only a few weeks. It is hoped that several thousand more sheets and envelopes may be furnished. If any in the congregation would like to give a donation for this cause the Rector will be pleased to receive it.

Rev. Mr. Ware's Engagement Ends.

It is with great regret to the Rector and many members in the congregation, that the Rev. Mr. Ware, who has been assisting the Rector during the past winter, will terminate his engagement at Christ Church this month.

Mr. Ware is a deacon from the diocese of Central Pennsylvania, and his Bishop has an important work for him to do in that diocese. During Mr. Ware's term of service in Christ Church, he has been most faithful in the discharge of every duty and has won for himself many friends in the Parish, who will always be deeply interested in his future welfare, and whose prayers will be that God abundantly bless him in the work of his ministry.

Mr. Ware has showed that he is a man of wise discrimination and judgment; for, since coming to this parish, he has selected for his future wife, one of the most charming young ladies of this Parish. Mr. Ware will preach his last sermon on Sunday morning, June 2.

Services on the Cathedral Site.

The second series of Sunday afternoon services on the Parkway, on the property allotted for the purposes of the Cathedral, will begin on Trinity Sunday, May 26th, 1918, at five o'clock, P. M.

The preacher that day will be the Bishop of the Diocese, and the regular choir will be augmented by other choirs.

Members of Christ Church, Germantown, are cordially invited to be present.

Philip M. Rhinelander.

This is a picture of some of the children sent by Christ Church from the slums of the city into the country last summer.

Poor Children's Outing Fund.

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on the third Sunday morning in June. This is one of the most worthy charities to which the people of Christ Church are privileged to give. For about $2.50 one poor child can be taken from the street or alley into the country for a week where it can enjoy pure, fresh air and receive good wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom, for several years past, to secure from various organizations for the poor, the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portions of the city—in small dirty courts and narrow streets and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called “homes” the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements are made for a week’s outing in the country, and in some cases for a longer time. Occasionally a poor, over-worked mother is also sent with her children.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are asked to give and what a wonderful privilege it affords to persons, who are blessed with comfortable homes and can get away for a rest and recuperation during the hot summer months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in crowded courts and narrow streets and alleys.

The following letter has just been received from Comly B. Shoemaker, Esq., President of the Bedford Street Mission, which does splendid work for the poor in one of the most miserable parts of the city.

Bedford Street Mission,

619 Kater Street, Phila.,

May 17, 1918

Rev. Charles H. Arndt,

59 W. Tulpehocken Street,
Germantown, Phila., Pa.

Dear Mr. Arndt:

Referring to the very kind attention and aid we have received in the past from the Christ Church and yourself, combined with the visits you paid to the poor and needy of our district, under the guidance, as to location, of our Miss Mary E. Boyd, who was with us as missionary and visitor for nearly twenty-five years, beg to say it is my painful duty to advise you of the fact that Miss Boyd departed this life on the 21st of November, last. It is unnecessary for me to attempt to tell you how greatly we have missed her. A more faithful, kind-hearted and generous character it would be impossible to find. But I am thankful to say we have secured the services of a lady to fill the position made vacant by the death of Miss Boyd. I think we have been highly favored. She is now visiting families of children who are applying to go to our Summer Home near Clemonton, New Jersey, about the 1st of July. She keeps a memorandum of all applying, and those who have not been down before are promptly visited.

The children at our Home are under the care of teachers who have known many of them from the time they were little tots attending our Kindergarten Schools and later on members of our Sunday Schools.

It has often happened that the newcomers state they have never been in the country, so that it is all new to them, and the delightful walks they take through the woods and around are greatly enjoyed. I have had them come to me immediately upon getting home early in September, to know if we would put their names down for the following season.

As we are rapidly approaching our day for opening, I venture to draw your attention to the work, hoping to interest you, and have you meet our present missionary, Miss Jennie L. MacLeod.

Thanking you very sincerely for the interest taken in us in the past and trusting you will continue to look into our work as time presents, I beg to remain,

Very Respectfully Your Friend,

Comly B. Shoemaker,

President Bedford St. Mission.

The Mothers' Meeting.

It was a matter of great regret that it was necessary to close the sessions of the Mothers' Meeting earlier than usual this year.

Our meetings have been very pleasant and we have accomplished our usual amount of work. The high price of materials has hampered us considerably, but nevertheless we feel that we have had a successful year.

We are thankful that we have had a certain degree of success, and look forward with pleasure to taking up the work again in October.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Men's Bible class was formed two years ago to aid the class in its work and to further work in the Parish.

The Auxiliary has held two Rummage Sales, proceeds being used to defray the balance, $19.00, on the Vacuum Cleaner bought for the Church, and a check was handed the Church warden for $25 toward the deficit of the fiscal year.

All ladies of the Church are asked to support the Auxiliary. Meetings second Modays. Names may be given Miss Alexander, Miss Richards or any member.

Trinity Tide.

On Trinity Sunday is reached the first half of the "Church" or "Christian year." "So far," says Bishop Coxe, "we have seen that the Son of God was manifested; now in the second half of the Church year, we are to learn, in action, how He 'destroyed the works of the devil.' The first half of the Church year (from Advent to Trinity Sunday) is devoted to doctrine primarily, and to duty as seen in direct relation to doctrine."

So, the second half is devoted to duty primarily, and to doctrine only as reduced to practical piety. Thus is the Church year divided between the Creed and the Decalogue, in its Christian scope and application.

In the seasons that succeed Advent (Christmas, Epiphany, Septuagesima, Lent, Easter, Ascension and Whit-Suntide) until Trinity Sunday, we perceive a sort of spiritual impulse, by which we are borne along our holy way with scarcely a sense of effort. It is because our affections become warmed, and our feelings healthfully excited, by the peculiar joys of those successive feasts and fasts. But now we have reached a season in which no such impulse is supplied; in which our spiritual joys must be purely those of faith and duty; and in which physical, as well as spiritual, efforts must be made if we would keep our souls alive and growing.

Here, then, we have a chance to try the comparative amount of feeling and of principle, regarded as constituents of our religious characters. And we may be sure that if our sense of duty is less active than it should be; if we do not now accomplish from principle what heretofore we may have cheerfully done from feeling; then it is evident that our religion is greatly defective, and is less a thing of the deep heart, than of the superficial sense or emotions.

The very first thing, then, in addressing ourselves to a life of practical piety, is to feel our natural weakness, and our need of grace; in view of the fact that the habitual keeping of the Commandments of God and not the ardour of our pious sentiments, is the criterion of real piety.

This all important principle is, in the Collect for the first Sunday after Trinity, turned into a prayer.

Like the rod of Aaron, the rod and staff of our Creed must now blossom and bear fruit in piety; so we pray for the life-giving Spirit, that we, who by nature are dead in sin, may become plants of grace, in the garden of God.

Sunday School.

New classes are being formed in the school by promotion from the Primary and Junior Departments, and it is a great satisfaction to the Rector, the Officers and older Teachers to know that several new teachers have been secured who promise to give such attention and devotion to the work that success is assured.

The Summer School will be with us in reality soon. Already we hear rumors of teachers taking their charges on long trips, country walks or visits to out-of-the-way picture galleries and museums.

Much good can be accomplished by teachers who spend some part of the week with their scholars in this way. They need never fear to find empty chairs instead of scholars when next Sunday comes.

The Germantown Branch of the Diocesan Sunday School Teachers' Association held its annual meeting at St. Luke's Church on Thursday, May 23.

The superintendents of the various schools reported in detail, ways and means used to secure new scholars and retain those of 'teen age.

Much of value to officers and teachers was presented and discussed. These meetings are always well attended and are a source of much satisfaction to those who, in these busy times, can get away for the afternoon and evening sessions.

Church Attendance in Summer

I want to say a word in regard to Church attendance during the summer months; not only to those who will remain at home during the summer, but especially to those who will go away for a while, either for a longer or a shorter period.

As you love your country, as you believe in God, as you are loyal to Christ and His Church, do not live a life of summer atheism! Do not say, what the little boy said, as he left the Church with his parents, the Sunday before going on their summer holiday, "Good bye, God, we are going away on a vacation."

I sometimes think that, if the angels look down into our empty Churches, during the summer months, and see the unused Prayer Books of so many of our people, they must shed bitter tears. Meanwhile what are these people doing? Here, during the winter, you see them in Church with a fair degree of regularity; but there, away from home, their Church and religion is never thought of. I speak not of the fearful consequences of their neglect of their religious duties, upon themselves alone,—this certainly means a lowering of their spiritual life, —but it is the awful effect of their irreligion and Church indifference upon the people of the community, where they spend their vacations, that is so disastrous. It is absolutely demoralizing to the people in the country district, if the city man and woman present, Sunday after Sunday, the spectacle of religious indifference or Sunday desecration. If we use that day for purposes which make Church going a mockery, is it likely that the young man or woman living in that community, seeing the example set by "summer visitors," is going to have a particularly high ideal of the sacred obligations of the Lord's Day? Still less, will the countryman, or the servant in the hotel or the native inhabitant, think of his spiritual obligations on this day, if he knows that the summer visitor, who so openly scorns God's House in the summer and desecrates Sunday is, in the winter, a reputable member—perhaps a Sunday School teacher or a vestryman—in a prominent city church?

It does not matter how good a man may be in his own life, his influence, through his public example, in neglecting his Church and his religious duties, is a direct contribution to the lowering of the standard of the community and this, of course, results, in time, to the eventual degradation of the nation. To whom may God, some day, lay the charge of the decadence of religion in the country? May it not be laid to the Godless example of the summer visitor? "For none of us liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself."

Let us, therefore, for these summer months, resolve, that no matter where we may be—among strangers in the country, at the shore, or among our friends, at home—we will be loyal to God in summer as well as in winter; that we will be regular in our attendance upon the worship of God and faithful in our Communion, for "the strengthening and refreshing of our souls."

And then, every day that we live, let us be true to Christ, in our walk and conversation, not for our own sakes alone, but also for the sake of others.

Therapeutic Value of Prayer

Several years ago Professor William James, the celebrated psychologist of Harvard, declared, in one of his books, that the man who prays for help to do his daily work will so compose his own mind thereby and free his thoughts from care and worry that he will actually do his work better, irrespective of any supernatural aid that may be sent in answer to his petition. The Rector quotes this statement to show how scientists, irrespective of any religious conviction, admit the great power for good there is in prayer. If this must be admitted on purely scientific grounds, how much stronger and more convincing is the Christian's belief in prayer, who bases his faith on the authority and the example of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Now another celebrated scientist, Dr. Theodore B. Hyslop, superintendent of Bethlem Royal Hospital in London, comes forward with the declaration that prayer is the best remedy for mental distress of all sorts.

He said at the recent annual meeting of the British Medical Association:

"As an alienist and one whose whole life has been concerned with the sufferings of the mind, I would state that of all hygienic measures to counteract disturbed sleep, depressed spirits, and all the miserable sequels of a distressed mind, I would undoubtedly give the first place to the simple habit of prayer....

Let there but be a habit of nightly communion, not as a mendicant or repeater of words more adapted to the tongue of a sage, but as a humble individual who submerges or asserts his individuality as an integral part of a greater whole. Such a habit does more to clean the spirit and strengthen the soul to overcome mere incidental emotionalism than any other therapeutic agent ever known to me."

Dr. Hyslop's competence to speak in the name of science is unquestionable, and what he affirms as a discovery of medical science is identical with the immemorial faith of religions, that there is a place for prayer in the very nature of things. Not only does he find this place to be foremost among restorative agents; he also affirms that it "embodies the most healthy and preservative development of our social forces."

Among the many notable utterances in which science is now evincing herself to be the handmaid of religion, these, the most recent, are as memorable as any.

St. James the Apostle

Two Saints' days occur during the months of July and August, Saint James and Saint Bartholomew. Were the story of the apostles and evangelists distinctly known and circumrelated, we may suppose, says Milner, "that it would afford materials of exquisite pleasure to every Christian mind. But there never arose in the Church any historian, like Thucydides and Livy, to illustrate the actions of saints. Heroes and statesmen have their reward here; saints, hereafter. Christ's kingdom must not appear to be of this world: and while large volumes have been filled with the exploits of warriors and the intrigues of statesmen, those men who were the divinely appointed instruments of evangelizing souls, are for the most part unknown. Even the memoirs of the Apostles and Evangelists, which the New Testament affords, are brief; their acts being no further mentioned than as they are necessary to lead men to Christ, and to illustrate Christianity; and introduced, not for the purpose of gratifying curiosity, but of improving the heart.

These remarks are occasioned by the scantiness of that light which the Scripture has shed on the life and character of St. James. He was the brother of St. John, the Son of Zebedee, and a fisherman by occupation. He is styled in ecclesiastical history, St. James the Great, in contradistinction to another of the same name, called James the Less, the son of Alphaeus, and the brother of our Lord. By his mother Mary, surnamed Salome, he is supposed to have been related to his Divine Master. St. James and St. John were called to be disciples of Christ at the same time with Andrew and Peter, the sons of Jonas; and when the Apostles were selected, they were placed in the catalogue next to the aforesaid brothers. The sons of Zebedee were also of the favored triumvirate who were admitted to be witnesses of some transactions in our Saviour's life, from which the other nine were excluded,—such as the resurrection of Jairus' daughter, the interview which took place on the Mount of Transfiguration, and the gloomy scene in Gethsemane. To them also, as to St. Peter, was a new name given on their call to the Apostolate; for our Lord surnamed them Boanerges, or the sons of thunder.

St. Bartholomew's Day

Our Church celebrates on August 24 the Festival of St. Bartholomew. It has been believed from a very early period that Bartholomew is the same person with Nathaniel.

Bartholomew is not a proper name, but signifies the son of Tholmai, just as our Lord in one place calls Peter, "Simon Bar-jona," or the son of Jona.

We are not told much about this Apostle. The account given of him by St. John is as follows: "The day after the calling of Andrew, Simon Peter, and another disciple, our Lord called Philip to 'follow him.' Philip findeth Nathaniel, and saith unto him, We have found Him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of Joseph." Nathaniel's reply is remarkable. He does not object to the mean condition of Him "Who came in great humility," but of the place of His supposed birth. "Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth?" He knew that Nazareth was a place of bad report, and, on the other hand, that Bethlehem was the place "where Christ should be born." He objects, not because our Lord's lowly estate contradicted His worldly expectations (which was the stumbling block, not only to many of the Jews, but also for a long time to several of our Lord's disciples), but because the supposed fact of the birth of Jesus at Nazareth seemed to him inconsistent with revealed Truth.

But his conduct here is the key to his whole noble character. When Philip invites him to "Come and see" for himself, he does not for "a foregone conclusion," in proud, self-sufficient prejudice, refuse. And our Lord had hardly opened His lips before he was convinced. We are not told what act of Nathaniel the all-seeing eye of the God-Man had beheld under that "fig tree." Probably it was an act of prayer; but whatever it was, Nathaniel had done it in secret, had thought it was known to that God alone to whom it had been offered. And when he heard that it was known to the Being who stood before him, he was convinced at once that that Being was "his Lord and his God."

After this we read very little of this Apostle; nothing except the mere mention of his name in the inspired Volume.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of _____ dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

Honor Roll of Enlisted Men

The Honor Roll of enlisted men from this parish is hung in the Tulpehocken St. vestibule of the Church. The list includes 56 names—fifty-four men and two women, who are serving as nurses in France.

At the Celebration of the Holy Communion on Sundays and on Friday afternoon at five o'clock, special prayers are said on behalf of all enlisted in the service of our country and especially for the members from this congregation. At noon, every day, the church bell is rung and prayers and intercession are made for our country, for our enlisted men and for the peace of the world.

Services During the Summer

The Church Services during the summer months will be at the usual hours:

Holy Communion, every Sunday at 7.30 A. M.; Morning Service and Sermon at 11.00; Shortened Form of Evening Prayer and Address, 7.45.

The week day services will be discontinued during the summer.

The Rev. William T. Twamley of Chestnut Hill, and the Rev. Dallas E. Buzby of Haddon Heights, N. J., will be in charge of the parish during the Rector's absence.

Any one in need of their services at any time will receive prompt attention if word is left at the Rectory.

Parochial Societies Adjourn

The societies of the parish have adjourned their meetings until the fall. Regular meetings will be resumed the last of September, at which time a new schedule of meetings will be published in the Chimes.

The Red Cross Society will continue to meet in the Parish House during the summer months every Wednesday and Thursday, from ten in the morning until one in the afternoon. The Evening Meeting will continue to be held every Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. At the Tuesday evening meetings men as well as women are invited.

All men and women in this community are invited to give their services to this patriotic work and will be cordially welcomed.

Poor Children's Outing Fund

The offering received for the Poor Children's Outing Fund amounts to date to $115.25. This will enable forty-six poor children to be sent into the country for a week this summer. It would be a glorious record if sufficient money were received to send one hundred children. Two dollars and a half ($2.50) will send one child. Who will raise the number? Any who have not contributed to this very worthy charity are invited to do so, and may send their contribution to the Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, Westview Ave., Germantown.

To be beautiful we must cherish every kind impulse and generous disposition, making love the ruling affection of the heart, the ordering principle and inspiring motive of life; the more kindness, the more beauty; the more love, the more loveliness.

There is but one virtue, in naming which the whole Divine character is summed up. We are told that is Love, and both S. James and S. John teach us that love is the corner stone of the Christian character and life. Love of our brother in the helpful deed and kindly word; love of God in the resolute acceptance of His orderings and following of his commandments.

The monthly issue of the Chimes will be discontinued with this number. The next number will appear in September, if subscriptions and contributions are sufficient to warrant the publication for another year. The Chimes has been issued monthly, without interruption, for eighteen consecutive years. This is an unusually long record for a parish publication, and the people of Christ Church have come to depend upon it.

Its continued publication will depend upon the financial support of the parishioners. It is hoped that in the fall a very general support will be given it by all.

Our Advertisers

It will be noted that the firms whose advertisements appear in the Chimes, are the most reputable in the community. None other accepted. Without their support the cost of publication of the Chimes could not be met. We know that many of our people consult the advertising columns of the Chimes before making their purchases.

All our people should do so and the result will be "a mutual advantage." Without exception, every firm represented in the advertising columns of the Chimes can be depended upon to give the best and most honorable service.

Additional Envelope Subscribers

There have been several names added, of late, to the list of Envelope subscribers. This is encouraging and it should continue until the list includes every man, woman and child who attends the services of the Church.

The weekly giving through the Envelope System does more than assure a stable income toward the support of the parish. It inculcates, in young and old, the habit of regular, systematic and conscientious giving. It is the Bible method: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by his min store, as God hath prospered him."

It stands for faithfulness, loyalty, conscientiousness — characteristics which mark both a true patriot and a true Churchman.

Pledge cards may be found in the vestibules of the Church. Sign a pledge card, place it on the alms plate at any service and a package of envelopes will be sent to you.

A Helpful Prayer

In visiting the sick and the afflicted the Rector receives for himself so much strength and inspiration for his work that he often wishes that many could share with him these blessings. One of the most saintly women of the Rector's acquaintance, a "shut in" for years in one of the hospitals of our city, composed for her own use the following prayers which have been a source of great help to her in her suffering and her loneliness. At the Rector's request she has copied them and sent them to him and he prints them below that others may receive from them the comfort and strength which have come, at least to one suffering and lonely heart. Here they are. May God bless them on their way!

DAILY PRAYER

"Almighty and everlasting God, help me to think with more comfort of Thy love. Fill my unhappy heart with a consoling sense of Thy mercy and goodness. Strengthen me with Thy Holy Spirit in the sad loneliness of my life. Let me not dishonor Thee in my unhappiness, but be reconciled to Thy Heavenly will. Give me a sense of Thy Blessed Presence, and enable me to find peace through Jesus, my Saviour. O Blessed Lord Jesus, let me lay all my sorrows and needs at the foot of Thy cross, and fill my heart with a loving hope that Thy goodness will provide for my dearest, in grief, bodily weakness, loneliness and bereavements. Teach me how to overcome sin, and give eternal happiness through Thy precious blood. Amen."

"Heavenly Father, help me to think with more comforting sense of Thy mercy and goodness. Strengthen me with Thy Holy Spirit in all my earthly life. Let me not dishonor Thee in unhappiness, but be reconciled to Thy will. Let me find peace and comfort through my Saviour. Enable me to lay all my sins, sorrows and needs at the foot of His cross. Fill my heart with a loving trust that they will be provided for me in the best way, to the end of my earthly life, and that comfort and strength can be sent to Thy children in every trial. May their souls be cleansed through Thy redeeming blood! Wilt Thou support us through this troubled life, till the shadows lengthen, the evening comes, the busy world is hushed and our work is done. Then, in Thy mercy, grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace with Thee forever. Amen."

Letters of Transfer

It is very important that new comers moving into the Parish should bring with them letters demissory. Note the following Canon of the Church: "A communicant moving from one parish to another, shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish, of late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

It often occurs that communicants moving into a Parish, neglect for so long a time, to comply with this Canon, drift about from place to place, or, what is worse, neglect altogether their Church duties, that finally they get into a very dangerous habit of religious indolence and indifference—which soon brings with it hardness and callowness to spiritual influences which result in spiritual death.

There are many good people, who were once earnest and faithful attendants at the services of the Church—whose lives were once "strengthened and refreshed by the Bread of Life"—who are now wanderers from the Fold, prodigals from their Father's House. They have become so, not by any wilful desire, not by disbelief or intentional denial of allegiance to their Christ and His Church; but by the insidious force of habit which almost unconsciously has wrapped itself about them fast—bound like the serpents about Laocoon and his sons.

If these words are read by any who are drifting from place to place, without a Church that they can call their Home—the Rector affectionately urges that they let themselves be known to him that he may call upon them and welcome them to this Parish as their Church Home.

A letter or a card sent to the Rector will receive prompt attention.

The summer months suggest a release from many forms of Christian duty. But to a conscientious Christian and faithful Church member regular attendance at Divine Service is as important in summer as in winter. Wherever he may be, at home or abroad, in summer or in winter, wherever and whenever the opportunity offers to worship God in His Holy Temple, the words of the true Christian heart are the words of the Psalmist, "I was glad when they said unto me, we will go into the house of the Lord."

The American Church

"It is interesting to note that the men who took the most prominent part in the political and military affairs attending the founding of our country were for the most part Episcopalians. Some of the statesmen of our Church were as follows:

George Washington, first President, leader of Revolution.

George Mason, author of Virginia Rights Bill 1776.

Thomas Jefferson, author of Declaration of Independence.

Patrick Henry, orator of the Revolution.

James Madison, Father of the U. S. Constitution.

John Marshall, interpreter of Constitution. Chief Justice.

Alexander Hamilton, great Federalist.

Richard Henry Lee, who proposed in Congress the resolution of Independence.

Peyton Randolph, President of First Congress.

Robert Livingston, who in 1764 organized opposition to Stamp Act.

C. C. Pickney, who cried "Millions for defence; but not one cent for tribute."

John Morton, whose vote committed Pennsylvania to the Revolution.

Caesar Rodney, whose vote committed Delaware to the Revolution.

Robert Morris, the financier of the Revolution.

The following Generals of the Revolution were Episcopalians:

Washington, Muhlenburg, Nelson, Howard, Smallwood, Sullivan, Cobb, Morgan, Lewis, Briarly, Ross, Cadwalader, Wayne, Sumpter, Moultrie, Gwynedd, Jones, Walton, Alexander, Hamilton, and John Laurens, commander and leader of the storming of Yorktown.

There were many more Episcopalians among the framers of the Constitution and the signers of the Declaration of Independence than members of all other religious bodies combined. This is shown as follows:

Of the framers of the Constitution of the United States:

Twenty-five were Episcopalians; five were Congregationalists; five were Presbyterians; two were Roman Catholics; one was a Quaker; one was a Methodist.

Of the fifty-six signers of the Declaration of Independence there were:

Thirty-four Episcopalians; thirteen Congregationalists; five Presbyterians; two Quakers; one Romanist; one Baptist.

The Growth of a Liturgy

By Bishop Thompson.

We have sometimes heard it objected to a liturgy, by non-liturgical Christians, that the repetition of the same prayers and praises must gradually dull the mind to their meaning and power. There is undoubtedly, to the undevout, some danger here. It is a danger, however, by no means confined to the users of a liturgy. The Word of God itself, by continual repetition, loses its meaning to the careless and irreverent. The soul is on probation in the use of all means of grace, and there is danger in all of spiritual dead-ness from familiarity. The danger should be recognized and guarded against in the use of a liturgy. Clergy and laity should both come to its solemn worship with minds and hearts attentive and prepared.

But it is not a repetition in itself that deadens the spiritual power of a liturgy, though we do acknowledge the danger. A knowledge of human nature shows that repetition is the very power of a liturgy, the secret of its hold on the heart. There is the reason why a liturgy cannot be extemporized, why an extemporized liturgy is the most barren of formalism.

A liturgy is a growth. It is the accumulation of centuries. It is the prayers of the holiest in the past. It is the praises of the saintliest of all ages. It comes down burdened with most sacred memories, sanctified with holiest and loftiest associations. These prayers have been the utterances of the greatest brains and the holiest hearts for centuries. These praises have been hallowed by the purest lips that ever spake. The petitions have gone up from dungeon cells, where Christian heroes prepared to give life for faith. These hymns have rung in triumph round blazing pile and bloody block. Divinest sorrow has breathed these misereres. Divinest joy has winged these jubilates up to God. They are, at last, the concentrated worship of the Christian ages. Every pain and every gladness, every mournful defeat, every glorious triumph, in all the cycles of the Church's story, are living yet in these words of power. They have been whispered when an infant died; they have been wailed by the lips of a smitten nation asking mercy of a chastening God. They have echoed in the laborer's cottage, his thanksgiving for humble mercies to the lowly; they have rung through the vaulted roofs of grand cathedrals, a people's shout of glory for deliverance to the great "God of Battles." They are not one man's words, one heart's utterances. They are the world's words. They are humanity's cries to heaven for ages.

Thus has our liturgy grown, Thus does it come to us. Such a liturgy can never be made. Such a liturgy only grows. The oak of centuries stands by the hand of God. It has grown to what it is by His will. Men do not make either oaks or liturgies. They may prepare and plant the ground or both.

The growth of a liturgy into the individual heart and life is just the same process. Possibly the "Morning and Evening Prayer" speaks to no two souls alike, for the spiritual history of every devout heart is contained in those words that are "common" to all. There is just why that is its excellence, which those who do not know the philosophy of man consider its fault,—its common and general character. It asks what all men want. It gives voice to humanity's common needs, and offers common thanks for common blessings. And each soul finds, under these common formulas, the precise expression of its own special necessity or special thankfulness. * * *

It is the most beautiful thing about the liturgy, this gradual unfolding of its profound and personal sense in the phases of religious life; this process by which, in a certain sense, I appropriate sidered each of them and has marked and make the general liturgy my own.

The prayers are used day by day. They seem to have all the meaning they can have. I use them devoutly. One day a near friend sails away to a distant land. The words, familiar so long, fall from the pastor's lips, "That it may please Thee to preserve all that travel by land or by water," and I am startled by the new power of those words to me.

Again and again I hear the familiar Litany. I seem so thoroughly to possess its meaning. One day I learn that God has written down a dear sister, a widow, in His book; that she and her babies are desolate. The old familiar petition, "That it may please Thee to defend and provide for the fatherless children and widows," falls on my ear in the familiar tones. Henceforth it is my own, with a profounder meaning. From a heart touched by the finger of God, the response, "We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord," comes with a depth of feeling, with a sense unknown before.

The priest stands at the altar. The sublime "Prayer for the Church Militant" falls from his lips in the people's name. I have heard it a thousand times, and I have entered into its power and spirit. I have been carried upward on its strong wings of supplication often.

A devoted father, a loving mother, dies. I have stood by the open grave and have heard the solemn words that committed that sacred dust to the earth till the morning of the resurrection. Again I hear the grand supplication at the altar side. Solemnly the well-known words fall upon the ear, "And we also bless Thy Holy Name for all Thy servants who have departed this life in thy faith and fear." The old words are new. I feel their meaning now. The prayer, at last, under God's chastening hand, is mine. The pulses of another heart shall beat time, till death, to the solemn cadences of that majestic petition which joins earth and Paradise, the crowned dead and the struggling living both in one.

So grows a liturgy into the soul. There is the secret of its power among us. That is why, to Churchmen, extempore forms seem so dead and barren. The spiritual life of every devout Churchman has crystallized around those solemn sentences. They are not words only. To him they are living things.

It is an almost impossible task to produce parish life with people who are indifferent to every enterprise which you may suggest.

He who tells one lie, becomes an awful liar, for he is forced to invent twenty more to cover up that one.

Honor Roll of Christ Church

The Honor Roll of Christ Church is being revised. At present, it includes seventy-three names—seventy men and three women, who are serving as nurses in France. Persons who know of other members of this Parish, enlisted in the service of this country, whose names are not on the list elow, will please notify the Rector. Their names will be inscribed on the Honor Roll which is in the South Vestibule of the Church, and their star will be placed on the service flag which hangs on the chancel wall.

At the Celebration of the Holy Communion on Sundays and on Friday afternoon at five o'clock, special prayers are said on behalf of all enlisted in the service of our country and especially for the members from this congregation. At noon, every day, the church bell is rung and prayers and intercession are made for our country, for our enlisted men and for the peace of the world.

Prayer for Men Serving America

By Bishop Greer.

O Almighty God, that sittest on Thy throne judging right; We commend to Thy fatherly goodness the men serving our nation at this time of peril, beseeching Thee to take into Thine own hand both the men and the cause which they uphold. Be Thou their tower and strength and give them courage in peril and danger. Make them bold through life or death to put their trust in Thee, who are the giver of all victory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Sunday Morning Service for Members of the Church Schools and All Parents

An interesting service will be held in Christ Church on the second Sunday morning in October, October 6th. The Schools of Christ Church will attend morning service in a body and a special sermon will be preached by the Rev. Frederick E. Seymour, Rector St. Philip's Church, West Philadelphia, on "Religious Instruction of the Young."

This will be an exceptional opportunity for parents and all who are interested in the education of young people. A cordial invitation is extended to all persons in this community, and especially parents, to attend this service—Sunday morning, October 6th, at eleven o'clock.

Services on All Saints' Day

The services on All Saints' Day, Friday, November 1st, will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M. Holy Communion and Sermon, 11.00 A. M. At the latter service the names of parishioners who have entered into Life Eternal since last All Saints' Day will be read from the Chancel. Prayers will be said for the departed, including the enlisted men who have died in the service of their country. The offering will be for the poor of the Parish. Persons who wish to place flowers on the altar in memory of friends in Paradise are invited to send the flowers to the Parish House on the previous day, October 31st.

After the service these flowers will be taken to the sick in the Parish.

The war has given us nothing finer than Colonel McCrea's immortal verses, now so familiar to us all; verses made still more hallowed since the author has laid down his life for his country. Who can forget the words in the final challenge of the dead:

"Take up your quarrel with the foe,
 To you from fallig hands we throw

The torch: Be yours to hold it high,
If ye break faith with us who die
Weshall not sleep though poppies blow in Flander's fields."

To us in this generation of still living Christians, the heroic and the honored dead, from Paul the Apostle, in the first Christian century, to the last Armenian martyr in the twentieth century, say: "Take up our quarrel with the foe." We dare not break faith with the Christian dead. From all corners of the earth and from the abodes of the Blessed Dead in Paradise—yes, even from the highest heaven where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God—there comes to us of this generation the call to show ourselves worthy of a crucial hour, to play the man, to do our part in the winning of the world for the Christ who was, and is to be; the Lord of all good life, the King eternal, immortal, invisible: the only wise God; unto whom be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Red Cross Workers Needed

The Branch of the Red Cross which meets in Christ Church Parish House every Tuesday evening at eight o'clock and all day, every Wednesday, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M., is in great need of Workers. The demands are so heavy that it is imperative that more workers must volunteer. Every woman in this community is urged to attend the meetings and help in the work. No woman should be a slacker! Women! Come at once and do your share! Wednesdays, 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Tuesday evening (for men and women), 8 to 10 o'clock.

Junior Brotherhood of Saint Andrew

The Rector has appointed Mr. Frederick Lenning, Director of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew. The Brotherhood will meet every two weeks during the winter and the members are planning some very interesting meetings and useful work. Any boy who wishes to become a member is invited to consult with the Director, Mr. Lenning.

The first meeting of the Altar Guild is called for Monday, October 14th, at three o'clock in the Parish House. All members are urged to be present.

The Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts of Christ Church are holding their regular meetings on Fridays from 7.30 to 9 P. M., instead of the usual Wednesday evening of last year.

Several hikes were enjoyed during the summer under the leadership of the Captain, Miss Gertrude Feist. On the last hike, a huge camp fire was built and on this supper was cooked. Later on, marshmallows were toasted and ghost stories were told around the camp fire.

We are planning many events of interest for all girls in and around our Parish. About the middle of November we are going to give a play. The proceeds of which are for the benefit of the "kiddies" of the soldiers and sailors whose fathers and mothers will not be able to give them the things children love to receive at Christmas this year such as chocolate and toys. We are hoping to have the hearty support of everyone in our Parish who is interested in children and would like to help us give the "kiddies" a little tiny bit of the good things they would otherwise miss this Christmas.

There is to be another hike in October and then our real winter work begins in earnest. We are hoping to have speakers on various subjects at different times to speak on the subjects we have been studying for the month. The last Friday in each month is our "Good Time Night" when work is discarded and each girl brings a friend to enjoy the fun.

twenty will be welcome most heartily at our meeting to join us.

Men's Bible Class

The class has been on the job all summer and in spite of the war and any other difficulties is going to stay on the job. When our leader, Mr. Ware, left the parish in June, the class voted to keep open during the summer, and while the attendance only averaged 16, those of us who "stood by" feel that our efforts were repaid.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855. requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

Owing to the fact that the class was without a teacher it was necessary to supply speakers for each Sunday. This was not an easy proposition as many men who in former years would have been glad to speak to the class, were in service. In spite of this fact we were without this privilege only one Sunday when the President of the class had to make good his failure in securing a speaker.

So much for the past. The future will take care of itself. The present demands our attention. A number of the men of our parish have not as yet taken any interest in the class. It is a double loss to them and us. They are missing the benefits we can give and we are losing the uplift they can afford by their presence, assistance and example. It is impossible to interest an "outside" man in something an "inside" man does not back up, and we have found it out many times during the past two years. Men of this neighborhood, not connected with the parish, will not accept the invitation when they see our own men staying away and so it is up to every man of Christ Church to do his best to bring the other man into the fold both by precept and example. If you are willing to "show your faith by your works" the class would have to move into the church for lack of room.

Forty men, including two teachers, from the class, are in service—most of them overseas. They left us with the pledge that we "carry on" and every letter that comes back asks "How's the Bible Class?" When they come home—as we pray every one will—they are going to look for a live church, Sunday School and Bible Class and are we going to allow these boys and men to call us slackers? Come, men, get on the job. "Keep the Home Fires Burning" that when this war is over and our soldiers come home they won't find us with our talent laid up in a napkin but able to say with just pride "Behold I have gained ten talents more."

From General Pershing to the Churches

General Pershing sends the following message to the Churches in America. It is in response to a greeting delivered to him by the Rev. Dr. McFarland, in Europe as a messenger from the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

"In the name of the American Army in France, as well as in my own name, I thank you for your kind and stimulating message.

"It is the consciousness that the soldier has behind him an undivided nation which enables him, whatever his rank may be, to face his task with courage. We Americans have the added inspiration and encouragement that flows from the example and friendship of our allies, who for four years have been fighting our battles in fighting their own. Standing by their side, we expect not only to vindicate the common cause of justice and honor and righteousness, but also to lay a solid foundation for world peace.

"We dare not claim that, as an army, we have yet achieved that high standard of manhood and conduct upon which the largest human effectiveness should be built; but the ideal of the nation and of the churches is constantly before us. With sincerity and firm purpose we set our faces toward the goal. After all, it is a common fight—yours there and ours here. What is necessary for the manhood of the soldier is necessary for the manhood of the citizen.

"The powerful resources of the nation, which have been placed ungrudgingly at the disposition of the army, are indispensable for the accomplishment of our duty. But we know that mere wealth of material resources or even of technical skill will not suffice. THE INVISIBLE AND UNCONQUERABLE FORCE LET LOOSE BY THE PRAYERS AND HOPES AND IDEALS OF CHRISTIAN AMERICA, OF WHICH YOU ARE REPRESENTATIVE, IS INCALCULABLE. IT FURNISHES THE SOUL AND MOTIVE FOR THE MILITARY BODY AND ITS OPERATIONS. IT STEADIES US TO RESIST MANFULLY THOSE TEMPTATIONS WHICH ASSAIL US IN THE EXTRAORDINARY CONDITIONS OF LIFE IN WHICH WE FIND OURSELVES.

"Your message of loyalty to us draws this reciprocal message of loyalty to you. We of the army think with gratitude and emotion of the unflagging service and wonderful trust in us of the Churches at home. May we prove ourselves worthy of it.

(Signed) JOHN J. PERSHING.
France, August 16, 1918."

Mothers' Meeting

The Mothers' Meeting will resume their session on Tuesday afternoon, October 15th, at half past two. Each member is requested to bring one new member to this first meeting. The "Mothers' Meeting" will be held every Tuesday afternoon during the winter.

The Religious Tramp

The religious tramp, is a phenomenon of a serious nature for the churches. He is not a foe to religion. He is indeed a believer, in a way, although he asserts with a pseudo-liberality, that "one church is as good as another." He travels around to the "special services" which one church after another serves up to secure a crowd. The churches often do not go behind the returns. There are crowds and there are crowds. The church tramp is a Christian who refuses to assume any responsibilities. He does not want to work regularly. Just now in many communities, the churches are actively competing for the presence of the church tramp. With concerts and secular lectures and moving pictures of doubtful religious value, they seek to bring the floaters to their places of worship. Their success is as transient as is the interest of the people who come. The cure for church tramps is a serious attitude on the part of the church. Smaller audiences may follow such an attitude, but they will be audiences yielding a more permanent harvest to religion. The serious-minded pastor may not be known just now as a crowd-getter, but he will be known in the end as a church-builder. Meanwhile, the honest doubter outside the church is not offended by the flippancy in the face of problems which to him are of life and death importance. When the church makes her appeal to truth-seekers and not to the sensation-seekers, she will be a stronger church.—The Christian Century.

Sabbath Rest

What profits it that we from labor cease,
That instruments of toil are laid away,
If in the pause, we know not how to pray,

We languish, perish, but in our release
From toil, if we, devoid of high desire,
Have spent laboriously our weekday hours,

Have felt no wings to heaven's height aspire,

No consciousness of undeveloped powers.

But, oh the Sabbath rest, to souls that yearn

For that Jerusalem of love and light,
To which their eager faces ever turn Through all achieved—for such the kindling sight

Of that fair city with its crystal stream—

The civic art of which the ages dream.

To All Members and Attendants at the Services of Christ Church

It is the desire of the Vestry of Christ Church to extend the use of the envelope system of giving to every member and attendant at the services of Christ Church. By this splendid system of Church support an opportunity is offered to every one—children of this household as well as the adults—to do what they can toward the maintenance of the Parish and the support of its work. The needs of the Parish and its extended usefulness demand that all should do what they can.

All self respecting persons will want to assist in the work to the extent of their ability. "If thou hast much, give plentifully; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little." "Let every one do according as he is disposed in his heart; not grudgingly or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver."

Less than one half the number of communicants are contributors through the envelope system. This is not just. Every one should do his or her part. If the pledges through the envelope system should be doubled all the financial needs of the Parish would be met. Will not every one, now, at the beginning of the fiscal year, sign a pledge card for any sum which each may feel disposed to give as a weekly offering. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibules or may be had from the Verger. Place this card, signed, on the alms plate at any service. The subscription is held in strict privacy and being purely voluntary, may be increased decreased or cancelled at any time upon notice to the Rector. On receipt of the signed card a package of envelopes will be sent to you. If a subscriber is absent from Church on any Sunday or for any length of time, the total amount due for the absent Sundays should be placed in the envelope at the first service he attends after his return.

By this method the Church finances do not suffer from the enforced absence of the members on account of illness or inclement weather. We feel sure that this system will appeal to all as a practical and business-like method in meeting the Parish expenses.

In signing this card, please do so conscientiously and with the assurance that you are discharging a very plain and obvious duty which, we believe, will also present itself in the light of a privilege.

Prayers for Those Beyond

"How can I cease to pray for thee? Somewhere

In God's great universe thou art to-day.
Can He not reach thee with His tender care?
Can He not hear me when I for thee pray?

What matters it to Him who holds within
The hollow of His hands all worlds, all space.
That thou are done with earthly care or sin?

Somewhere within His ken thou hast a place,
Somewhere thou livest and hast need of Him.
Somewhere thy soul sees higher heights to climb,

And somewhere still there may be valleys dim

That thou must pass to reach the hills sublime.

Then all the more because thou canst not hear
Poor human words of blessing will I pray,
O true, brave heart! God bless thee whereso'er

In God's great universe thou art to-day."

—Tennyson

"Lists of the American soldier-dead are coming in very fast now and are growing larger. The nation thrilled over those first three of its youth who died for the cause and read with tears of pride the fine eulogy pronounced by the French commander at the time of their obsequies. These three were the first; but they are not more heroes than these later ones, the names of whom come carefully listed with their next of kin, each name bringing sorrow. There is due to these names more than a hasty glance to see if there is a familiar name among them. These men are dying for us, for our safety, our Americanism, and these names should be accorded a careful reading; it is—in a way—a patriotic rite, and when the end is reached, when one has read who has fallen in battle, who died of wounds, who of disease, and who of "other causes," that heart must be careless indeed which does not follow these brave boys with a prayer.

The prejudice against prayers for the dead will vanish with this war. A Churchwoman who had lately met a heavy loss said: "I never quite approved of the idea of prayers for the dead; it seemed a superstition; but when I enter church, where I sat so long with my husband, my first prayer is for him. It could not be otherwise." And so it will be with thousands. We "don't believe" in prayers for the dead until it happens to be OUR Dead—that makes the difference. God does not need these prayers—these holy dead do not need them. But our prayers, connecting all we love best with God, are pleasing and acceptable to Him and are a link between ourselves and Him."

The Summer is Ended

Vacation days are over. We are all back again to our accustomed tasks, we trust rested in body and mind, and full of determination to make the year before us a year of excellence in service and successful in our chosen calling. Like the Apostle, forgetting the things that are behind, we press forward. There is a wonderful amount of energy stored up to be devoted to whatever is nearest our hearts.

Viewed from the standpoint of a Christian, what shall we do for Christ and the Church. The opportunities are unlimited, the possibilities in every Parish unbounded, the need urgent. The record of a year will only be limited by the consecrated efforts of the men, women and children who are interested in the progress of Christ's work. Would to God this work was near the heart of every one of us, that it might claim a due proportion of the stored up energy with which the new year of activity begins. Forgetting the things that are behind, let us press forward toward the prize of our high calling in Christ Jesus. Take your place in Church and in her organized work, and make your example and influence a power for good. Remember the definition of a Christian: "A person called of God to be a workman that needeth not to be ashamed."

Each Christian is

1. A laborer, called to work in God's vineyard—see that ye work diligently all the day.

2. A soldier, pledged to fight manfully under Christ's banner against sin, the world and the devil until life's end.

3. A steward, entrusted with gifts and talents, to be used for God, and to be accounted for.

4. A co-worker with God, to build up a spiritual kingdom of righteousness upon the earth.

5. A servant of Jesus Christ, bound in all honor to do His bidding.

6. A light, set on an hill, to guide others into the way of truth.

7. Salt; to give Christian flavor to customs and habits in the home and in society.

8. A messenger, to bear the story of the Christ to every soul, at home and abroad.

Shall the "Chimes" be Discontinued

The "Chimes" has been published continuously, without interruption, for seventeen years. It is a valuable agency in our Parish life and many would regret to see its publication discontinued. This will be necessary, however, unless sufficient funds are in hand before the first of next month to guarantee the expense of publication. Besides subscriptions, liberal contributions are solicited from persons who would like to have the publication continued. The amount required, above the income from the advertisers, is $95.00. If this amount is pledged by friends in the Parish the Chimes will appear, as usual, in November and succeeding months. Otherwise, this will be the last issue. Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to the Rector.

At Noon—A Call to Prayer

The church bell is rung every day at noon. Everyone, wherever he may be at that hour, should pause for a moment and offer a silent prayer to God on behalf of our country, its rulers, our enlisted men and for the speedy restoration of an honorable and abiding peace to the nations of the earth. The church is open all day for private prayer and devotion.

A Service of Intercession

The Rector wishes to call the attention of all members of Christ Church and others in this community to the special Service of Intercession for our country, our allies, and our enlisted men, which is held in the church every Friday afternoon at five o'clock. The Rector asks all persons, who desire special prayers to be said for their boys in service or for their friends, to give the names of those to be prayed for to him. The names of those, for whom special prayers are requested, will be mentioned severally at the altar. Parents and others who request prayers for their friends should endeavor, always, to be present at these Services of Intercession and at the Celebration of the Holy Communion when these prayers are said. In almost every letter which the Rector receives from "our boys" of Christ Church who are in the service—many of them "overseas," some of them "at the front"—grateful appreciation is expressed that they are remembered in prayer by their friends. Parents- Friends of enlisted men! Here is your opportunity! Pray! Pray, Pray! And God will answer your prayer!

"More things are wrought by prayer, Than the world dreams of. Therefore, let thy voice

Rise like a fountain for me, night and day.
For what are men better than sheep or goats,
That nourish a blind life within the brain,
If, knowing God, they lift not hands in prayer,

Both for themselves and those who call them friend?

For so, the whole round earth is every way
Bound by gold chains about the feet of God."
The Roll of Honor

The Rector is revising the Roll of Honor of men and women who are enlisted in the Service of our Country. This Roll of Honor is in the South Vestibule of the Church and the Service flag, on which appears a star for each member of our Parish in the Service, hangs on the wall at the chancel of the church. No name that should be on the Roll of Honor should be omitted. The Rector, therefore, requests members of the congregation carefully to examine the list of names on the Roll of Honor, and if any name that should be there is omitted please notify him, giving the full name and address of the enlisted person—either male or female. The Honor Roll includes at present the names of sixty-nine persons, sixty-six men and three women who are serving as nurses in France. The names on the Honor Roll is published in this issue of the Chimes. It is hoped, soon, to make it complete.

People in Germantown, Starving

There are people in close proximity to Christ Church who are starving! Some of them live in beautiful homes and are surrounded with comforts and even luxuries and they are hungry and are not fed! They have clothing and food enough and to spare, but "is not life more than meat and the body than raiment." What profiteth a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?" And these people are starving—starving their souls!

We are always trying to find some good excuse for not doing the things we ought to do; at least, we continue to persuade ourselves that the reason is a good one. There are in this community a considerable number of excellent people who are familiar with the teachings of the Christian religion, who are really Christians at heart, and yet, are putting off the time when they will definitely take their stand on the side of Christ and His Church, and manfully assume their personal duty and responsibility. They are practical men of wisdom in other spheres of life, but in their religious duties and responsibilities they display a folly and a spirit of cowardice which is shameful to right thinking and honorable men. The excuses, they offer, are terrible indictments of their manhood. Every honest well meaning, seriously minded person ought to be a member of the Church. They are honest, well meaning, seriously minded,—many of them,—and yet they are not members of the Church. What is the reason?

The central word of it is—Selfishness.

They are putting off until "tomorrow" what they ought to do "today." They mean to do it—"someday" And

"Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow
Creeps in this petty pace, from day to day,
To the last syllable of recorded time."

Oh, the awful sin of procrastination, neglect, crowding out of their lives the most important thing of all—their religion—for those things which can never satisfy! "What profiteth a man, if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?" It makes no difference how much money one may have, what social position one may gain, a man may have these in abundance and yet starve—for these can never satisfy the soul. No one, who is living a life, careless of religion, neglecting, his Church, omitting the blessings of worship, sacrament and service, starving his soul, can ever be satisfied. "Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not?" The soul yearns for something more than this world can give and will be satisfied with nothing less. And that "Something" for which the soul yearns and hungers is the BREAD OF LIFE, which the Church instituted by God to give to the hungry souls of men—THE BLESSED SACRAMENT OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST! "This is the Bread which cometh down from heaven that a man may eat thereof and not die. And the Bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world!"

You might as well try to convince a starving man that he is not hungry as to convince yourself that you can be really happy without Christ! "My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God."

The question, therefore, that squarely confronts every one who has been putting off their Christian duty, their privilege and opportunity from day to day, from month to month, from year to year, is, how long will I continue to starve my soul—this God part of me, which cries out for the Heavenly Food? Shall I not even now, this fall, this very day, decide in favor of my soul and God? I will “arise and go to my Father.” Now! I will take up my Christian duty and responsibility. Now! I will resolve, now, to return, to my Father’s House and there, in His presence, kneel, repentant of my past neglect and sin, and receive the Bread of Life, which is able to satisfy the hungry soul!

The Character of the Church

1. It is a Divine institution with a human mission.
2. It is an organism for dispensing Christianity.
3. It is the Kingdom of Heaven seeking men on earth.

The Spirit of the Church:—

In Essentials, Unity.

In Non-Essentials, Liberty.

In all things, Charity.

The Worship of the Church:—

Liturgical in form.

Devotional in spirit.

The pure gold of the prayers of the saints in all the Christian centuries offered before the throne of God.

The Holy Communion, the central act of Christian worship, expressive of every form of devotion in

Confession

Adoration

Contrition,

Thanksgiving,

Intercession,

Consecration,

Praise.

The Fundamentals of the Faith:—

Of Doctrine, The Creed.

Of Devotion, The Lord’s Prayer.

Of Obedience, The Ten Commandments.

Four Notes of the Apostolic Church

Some Valuable Suggestions

Whoever you are and whatever your condition, remember that under all circumstances your Rector is your best friend. He watches for your soul as one that must give an account.

If there is any sickness or affliction in your family, notify your Rector without delay.

Make no engagements for those week evenings when there is an appointed service. Church engagements should always stand first.

If you change your residence address, let the Rector know at once.

If you are a new-comer, promptly do three things:

1. Make the acquaintance of the Rector of the Parish, and present your “letter of transfer.”

2 Offer yourself for duty in some department of Church work.

3. Consult the Treasurer of the Parish and become a regular contributor toward the support of the Church. Don’t wait to be asked.

While we instantly shut our hearts against all that is impure and unholy, all thoughts that would tarnish, or stain, or blight, we should open them just as quickly to all thoughts that are pure, and true, and honest, and just, and lovely.—James R. Miller.

It is safe to say that nine-tenths of the strife and tumult, and so-called religious wars that have raged throughout Christendom, have been due, not so much to heresy, as to differences of opinion wherein men have a right to disagree. Would not agreement regarding facts, and liberty regarding opinions, end this useless waste of energy?

Don’t be sensitive. Nobody wants to hurt your feelings.

Don’t find fault. Criticism will kill the noblest cause.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS { 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY }
6.00 to 8.00 P. M. " " } AT HOME SATURDAY EVENINGS

Our Solemn Responsibility

The various societies of the Parish have resumed their activities and are now in the midst of their winters work.

Never have we take up our Christian work together under circumstances and conditions more sobering and more serious than at this present moment.

The whole world is "goaning and travailing in pain together." Every one is sobered in thought. Every one realizes the seriousness and the solemnity of the hour.

At such a time as this every heart aches for the untold millions who are suffering. Every soul yearns to be of some help, of some service to mankind.

When we contemplate the sublime heroism the awful sacrifices that are going on day by day on countless battle fields, in millions of Christian homes among all classes of people subordinating, as they are "individual comfort to the one great aim of national achievement, filled with self-surrender, unswerving and undoubting obedience to the inner voice, the same unshakable conviction of fighting for the best that is in them," are not our consciences pricked in self conviction for every idle moment, every selfish act and selfish thought. We are being taught to-day by the terrible sacrifice and suffering that man's dignity and freedom consist in the unconditional surrender to duty and that the aim of society is, not the largest possible gratification of the individual instinct for happiness, but the highest possible expression, in individual activity, of mankind's striving for perfection.

Societies Are Meeting

The various societies of the parish are re-assembling after the summer vacations and are entering upon the winter's work. The next issue of the "Chimes" will include brief reports of the month's work. All members of the various parochial societies should re-enlist at once and attend the meetings. New comers into the parish are cordially invited to identify themselves with the work and will be welcomed to membership into any of the societies of the parish.

Further information will be gladly given to enquirers by the officers of the societies or by the Rector.

Strangers and Occasional Attendants

The Rector is pleased to see the large number of strangers who attend the services of Christ Church. They are always welcome and the ushers are always glad to show them to seats.

It is disappointing however, to the Rector that these strangers, who come occasionally and some frequently, continue to remain "strangers." He is anxious to meet them and invite them to identify themselves with the Parish. The Parish needs the co-operation and assistance of every one, and every one needs a "Church Home." No one can afford to be an "outsider," without a Church, which he can call his own.

There are many who are going through life, "ramblers," "floaters," "homeless." This is all wrong—wrong to the Church and wrong to themselves. The Rector hopes that all in this community, who are not established in any Church will make themselves known to him at once and he will be pleased to meet them and welcome them to Christ Church as their Church Home. Do not delay any longer. Do it now!

Assistant to the Rector

The Rector is pleased to welcome to Christ Church the Rev. J. L. Ware, who will assist him in the parish work during the coming winter. Mr. Ware is a senior in the Divinity School of Philadelphia and is a son of the Rev. James P. Ware of Drifton, Pennsylvania. He was ordained to the Diaconate last spring and expects to be advanced to the Priesthood at his graduation in June. Mr. Ware's special work will be among the young men and boys and he will be glad to be of assistance to all young people, whom, he hopes, to be able to interest in the work of the parish.

The Rector will be pleased to introduce Mr. Ware personally to the members of the parish after Sunday morning or evening service.

Special Prayer for Our Enlisted Men

At the Early Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 on Sunday morning special prayers are said for our country and on behalf of the men enlisted in military service—especially for the young men who have gone forth from Christ Church parish. Also, on every Friday afternoon, Evening Prayer is said in the Church at five o'clock, with special petition and intercessions for our nation and its rulers and for men enlisted in the army and navy, for physicians and nurses in hospitals and for all who are serving in their country's cause.

Relatives and friends of "our boys" from this parish, and all who have their country's interest at heart, are invited to attend these services and join in united prayer that God may bless the men and women who are enlisted in any service of our country and especially the members of this parish, that they may be granted protection from all harm, deliverance from all temptation and if it be His will a safe return, through the merits and intercession of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Book of Prayers and Hymns for Enlisted Men

The Rector has purchased a number of Books of Special Prayers and Hymns for private use, which he will be glad to present to the friends of the enlisted men from this Parish to be given or sent to them. This little book is very compact and can easily be carried in the pocket. All applications for these books will be promptly met, if request is made to the Rector.

We are glad to note that the more reputable drug stores in Germantown have agreed to close their places of business the greater part of Sunday. It is hoped that it will not be long before all Drug Stores in Germantown will be included in this list.

To help bring this about residents of this vicinity should not make purchases at Drug Stores on Sunday, except in cases of necessity.

The Need of Workers

The various societies of the Parish are resuming their winter's work. What a splendid opportunity is afforded to every earnest man and woman in this Parish to make his or her life "tell!"

Workers are needed in every department in our Church School—among the boys, among the young men among the girls, among the poor. There are so many shirkers, some jerkers, but not enough workers. It is workers that are needed—men and women, willing and anxious to assume responsibilities for God and resolved to give their best for Him.

The Rector cordially invites all persons who desire to engage in an unselfish and devoted service, to confer with him. They will not apply in vain.

Tell the Rector

Frequently the Rector accidentally hears of cases of long-standing illness in the Parish which should have been brought immediately to his attention. As it is impossible for him to know of these cases without being told of them, the attention of the congregation is called to the rubric at the beginning of the Order for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads "When any person is sick notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the Parish."

Parishioners should also notify the Rector when they change their addresses.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens a certificate stating that he or shee is a Communicant in god standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The "Chimes" has been published for fifteen consecutive years, and like many other good things in life, it has been taken for granted and regularly accepted; but it has not, of late years, been appreciated to the extent of being adequately supported. During the past three years the cost of publication has almost doubled. The price of subscription has remained the same. The result has been that each year there has been a deficit. Last year the amount was $26.00. This deficit was borne by the Rector.

If the publication of the Chimes is to be continued during this year the cost should be met by every one subscribing and also, by generous contributions from those who are willing to give.

It is desired that every one in the Parish should have a copy of the "Chimes" each month. An extra supply is provided for strangers who worship with us and they are cordially invited to take copies from the table in the vestibules. Members of the Parish should be willing to help by subscribing or by sending donations toward the expense of publication. The discontinuance of the "Chimes" would be considered by many a grave mistake, if not a misfortune.

Therefore it is hoped that there will be a prompt and generous response in subscriptions and contributions on the part of all our parishioners.

The price of subscription will remain the same; fifty cents a year, or sixty cents if sent by mail. Contributions, above the price of subscription, will be welcomed in any amount.

Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to the Rev. J. L. Ware, care of Christ Church Parish House, Germantown.

Mr. Gurley

Frequent letters from Mr. Gurley, who is in the Military Service "somewhere in France" bring word that he is in good health. The censor is so strict that Mr. Gurley can give but little "news" of the wonderful experiences which he is having, but some day he will have some very interesting accounts to give to his friends.

In the meantime his many friends in Christ Church will be glad to hear from him that he is well, and our prayers will be for him that he may be kept from all harm and, if it be God's will, will be granted a safe return. Mr.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

.....
Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

A Reception to be Given to the Rector and Mrs. Arndt

A Reception will be given to the Rector and Mrs. Arndt in the Parish House on Thursday evening, October 25th at eight o'clock, to which all parishioners and attendants at Christ Church are cordially invited.

The occasion is the twenty fifth anniversary of the Rev. Mr. Arndt's association with the Parish, as Curate and Rector.

Mr. Arndt was called to Christ Church as the Assistant to the Rector, the Rev. John B. Falkner, D. D., after his graduation from the Philadelphia Divinity School, June 1892.

The following year he was made Associate Rector of the Parish. Upon the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Falkner, Mr. Arndt was unanimously called as Rector.

With the exception of one year spent abroad, on leave of absence, at the American Church in Nice, France, Mr. Arndt has been at Christ Church for twenty-five years.

This Reception is tendered by the Vestry as a slight token of the respect and affection in which the Rev. and Mrs. Arndt are held by the parishioners of Christ Church.

A cordial invitation is extended to all parishioners and attendants at Christ Church to this Reception to be held in the Parish House, Thursday evening, October 25th, at eight o'clock.

Church Calendar for 1918

A limited supply of Christ Church Calendars for 1918 has been ordered and may be had after November 1st. At the top of the Calendar is a picture of Christ Church, a list of services, hours, etc.

The Church Seasons appear in their appropriate "colors" and the Saints' Days and Festivals of the Church are similarly marked. On the back are selected lessons for each Sunday and Holy Day in the Church Year.

Sailors and Marines to be Entertained in Christ Church Parish House

A committee has been formed to be known as the Patriotic Committee of Christ Church, for the purpose of helping those who are giving up so much for us. Friday evening, October 26th has been set aside to entertain fifty sailors and marines. The Committee are planning to do something each month, which will of course necessitate a certain amount of expense. While it is always necessary to have a committee to arrange for these things we want every member of the Parish to consider themselves part it, and do what they can to help this work along by giving what they are able to, no matter how small.

We feel sure if they have read or heard the reports the Christian Association, St. Andrew's Brotherhood and various other Societies make they must realize the necessity of this work.

We have a number from this Parish who are away from home and friends who would appreciate the same privileges we want to give these men. We do not want to confine it to caring for them by entertaining alone; we want to reach them in other ways and also show them that good clean, healthy, amusement means. The aim of this committee is also to keep in touch with our own boys, by writing, etc., and to show them they are still with us, in memory and in our prayers. Won't every one help us carry on this good work?

Contributions for this patriotic work are solicited and may be sent to Miss Chase, 45 E. Washington Lane, or to the Rector.

Women's Bible Class

The Women's Bible Class, which meets in the Parish House every Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, has resumed its sessions. An invitation is extended to all women to attend the meetings. The class is taught by Mrs. Henry R. Baremore.

Persons in Arrears

A few subscribers through the envelope system have neglected to make up their arrears and the Accounting Warden would greatly appreciate it if all persons in arrears will enclose the amounts due as soon as possible.

A large majority have paid in full and the few in arrears will, no doubt, do the same when their attention has been called to it.

A "Mission" to be Held in Christ Church

A Mission will be held in Christ Church, beginning the second Sunday in Lent, February 24th and continuing until the Fourth Sunday in Lent, March 10th. A "Mission" is a series of religious services and instructions, organized to quicken the religious life of Christians and to arouse the interest of persons indifferent to religion. Such will be the motive and purpose of the Mission to be held in this parish. The Missioner will be the Rev. Harvey Officer, member of the Order of the Holy Cross. Father Officer preached in Christ Church on Sunday morning, September 9th and all who heard him at that service were impressed by the strong, forceful sermon and the deep spirituality of the preacher. From this sermon can be presaged the spiritual feast that is in store for those who are privileged to attend the two weeks' Mission to be held in Christ Church during Lent.

Let every member begin now to anticipate this coming Mission, to let it be known far and wide, to prepare our hearts to receive the blessings and to pray that the Holy Spirit will be with us and with all who have a part in it.

Remember the date of the Mission, February 24th to March 10th, 1918.

Red Cross Society

Two Branches of the Red Cross Society hold meetings in Christ Church Parish House. One Branch meets every Wednesday at 10.30 and continues its session until five o'clock in the afternoon. The other meets every Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The officers elected for the ensuing year are:

Miss Wurts, President

Miss Sykes, Vice President

Mrs. H. C. Thompson and Miss Woodroffe, Secretaries

Mrs. H. E. Fitzgerald, Treasurer

Miss Ella Chase is in charge of the Evening Class and Miss Helen Newland has charge of the Surgical Dressing Department.

All women in this vicinity are invited to join one of these Branches of the Red Cross.

After a short summer vacation the evening Branch of the Red Cross resumed its meetings on September 2nd. This class meets in the Parish House on Tuesday evenings and we feel that it should include every member of this Parish and Community who do not attend the morning or afternoon meetings or belong elsewhere. There is work for all, if not Surgical Dressings, sewing. The needs of our boys are great, and not only our own but those who are with us in this dreadful but just war. There are many among us who have not been called to make any sacrifice, but why should we be willing to accept the sacrifice of mothers who have not only given one boy (in many instances her only child) but several. It is our safety that is being assured by these boys and their mother's sacrifice. If we cannot send any one to bear our share in this war we should at least feel that anything we can do to help make their sufferings less in time of need is one of the greatest pleasures and privileges that could be granted us. Not to be willing to do our part as women puts us in the same class as "slackers" and we certainly, as patriotic women, are not willing to allow anyone to say we are such. As we cannot be soldiers, marines or sailors let us do our best to help those who are doing for us.

We are very proud of our evening class and the work they turn out, and are positive if those who have not taken up this great work already if they would drop in and see how interested and earnest the workers are they would joyfully give up at least one evening each week and join these faithful workers who feel it is a great privilege and not a sacrifice to do their bit.

Services on All Saints' Day

The Services on All Saints' Day, Thursday, November 1st, will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M. Holy Communion and Sermon, 11.00 A. M. At the latter service the names of parishioners who have entered into Life Eternal since last All Saints' Day will be read from the Chancel and prayers will be said at the altar. The offering will be for the poor of the Parish. Persons who wish to place flowers on the altar in memory to friends in Paradise are invited to send the flowers to the Parish House on the previous day, October 31st.

After the service these flowers will be taken to the sick in the Parish.

It is the teaching of the world of God and of our Lord and Saviour, and it has in every age been the belief of the Church, that heavenly beings are employed by God to minister to, to watch over, defend, and comfort His servants. Seen or unseen, they are about us. The soldier in the trenches, the sailor amidst the perils of the deep, the priest waging battle as a "Knight of God" with human sin and misery—all have about them the ministering spirit sent forth by the God of men and angels to aid and protect His own. May we not pray as Elisha prayed, "Lord, open the young man's eyes." and is it not conceivable that to those who are looking death in the face day by day, and to whom the unseen world is a great reality, there may be vouchsafed in answer to that prayer a consciousness of the presence of the chariots of Israel and the horsemen thereof?—Church Life.

The Religious Tramp

The religious tramp, is a phenomenon of a serious nature for the churches. He is not a foe to religion. He is indeed a believer, in a way, although he asserts with a pseudo-liberality, that "one church is as good as another." He travels around to the "special services" which one church after another serves up to secure a crowd. The churches often do not go behind the returns. There are crowds and there are crowds. The church tramp is a Christian who refuses to assume any responsibilities. He does not want to work regularly. Just now in many communities, the churches are actively competing for the presence of the church tramp. With concerts and secular lectures and moving pictures of doubtful religious value, they seek to bring the floaters to their places of worship. Their success is as transient as is the interest of the people who come. The cure for church tramps is a serious attitude on the part of the church. Smaller audiences may follow such an attitude, but they will be audiences yielding a more permanent harvest to religion. The serious-minded pastor may not be known just now as a crowd-getter, but he will be known in the end as a church-builder. Meanwhile, the honest doubter outside the church is not offended by the flippancy in the face of problems which to him are of life and death importance. When the church makes her appeal to truth-seekers and not to the sensation-seekers, she will be a stronger church.—The Christian Century.

Some additional names have been added to the list of subscribers through the Envelope System during the past month. This is encouraging and is an indication of the growing interest among the attendants at the services and a recognition of the principal that every one should be a regular, systematic, conscientious supporter of the work of the parish. The Envelope System of giving should be extended until it includes every member, child and adult, of every family in the Parish. St. Paul lays down the rule: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." I Cor. 16:2. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule.

Sunday School Monthly Church Service

On the first Sunday in the month the Sunday School assembles in the Church at 9.45. This monthly Church service familiarizes the young people with the use of the Prayer Book and impresses them with the spirit of reverence and worship. Parents of the children are invited to attend this service at 9.45 on the first Sunday of each month. Parents are cordially invited to visit the Sunday School.

A Vacuum Cleaner Needed—Who Will Give?

In the last issue of the Chimes an appeal was made for help to purchase a Vacuum Cleaner for our good sexton. We know how many and great have been the demands made upon everybody at this trying time so concluded to wait until Fall to take up the question again. We have secured an excellent Cleaner at a very moderate price, and feel sure all the members of the congregation who have attended services must notice the improvement in the appearance of the carpet and pews, and will be willing to help pay for the comfort of knowing there must be fewer of those dreadful bug-bears of modern times "Germs," in our church. Wont everybody try and give a little. No matter how small, it will be thankfully received, as it will go to make up the amount necessary to pay for the Cleaner. Contributions may be given or sent to Miss Chase, 45 East Washington Lane.

A Good Example

Dr. H., pastor of a Presbyterian church, was a next-door neighbor of the writer. On Sunday as he was going into his home after the usual Sunday morning service, he was asked in a neighborly way how he had preached that day, and what was his theme. He stated that he had preached about as usual, and that his theme was "Bequests." When asked just what he meant by preaching on "Bequests", he stated that it had been his rule for a long time to preach at least one sermon every year upon the obligation of Christian people to remember the Lord's work in their last will and testament.

This up-to-date pastor stated further that when he knew members of his church who ought to make bequests for religious causes he sought opportunity to speak to them personally upon the subject. He said furthermore that they would usually do so. Not only this, but not infrequently he wrote wills himself for those who needed such help. Christian Intelligencer.

In each issue of the "Chimes" there has appeared for the past sixteen years this notice:

"The following are forms of bequests to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

..... Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void."

It is hoped that this form has suggested to many persons in this Parish the duty and propriety of including in their last will and testament a bequest to Christ Church, Germantown. May the Holy Spirit open the hearts of our parishioners to remember their Mother Church.

"Come and See" the Men's Bible Class

These words were spoken by a man who had found something worth while. They were spoken to a man who, as we would say today, was a member of the church, who went to the services on Sunday, who gave of his means to support the church and was, to all outward appearances, living a high moral life.

The man who spoke these words had formerly been just about the same but one day there came into his life an influence which changed the whole course of it and not only his life but the lives of other men with whom he came in contact.

I have been asked to write a few words about the Men's Bible Class. This would mean something concerning the past, as a rule, and as we are just now living very much in the future, I wish to write something for the men of the Parish to think over and then, if it seems worth while, apply it to the Bible class for themselves.

Do you believe in preparedness? It took our country three years to answer that question and much time, labor and opportunity was wasted. One million, five hundred thousand young men, under thirty one years of age, have been chosen for military service by our government. The best the land could give have been taken and what preparation are we who are left making to fulfill the duties they gave up for this greater service? The industrial organizations are "speeding up" and producing, without these men, more than they did before. But what about the Church? What are we, who call ourselves Christians, doing to keep the "home fires burning?" Are we "speeding up" the work they laid down? Are we making any effort to "produce" our portion and then with our "second wind" as it were, going right ahead and doing the work of those members of the church who have answered the call of their country?

Every man who has been baptised is enlisted in the army of the King of Kings. He has promised to be His faithful soldiers and servant until his life's end and just as there is no excuse today for the registered man not hearing the call, so there is no excuse for any man in the church not living up to his obligation. It may be unconsciously that men evade this call to service but just as surely every man will be called upon to give an account of his stewardship.

Some day these men are coming back. What are they going to find? Depleted ranks and disbanded organizations or will they find that the boys have accepted the added responsibility, the older men have seen the vision and the spread of Christ's Kingdom has not only been kept at the mark attained when they left but, inspired and strengthened by their example and the larger call to service, we have pressed on to heights before unattainable.

The Bible Class, the Sunday School, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and other organizations are waiting for volunteers. Nathaniel said, "Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said, "Come and see."

How Not To Do It

Once upon a time a young man was baptized in All Saints' church, Twelfth and Fitzwater streets, Philadelphia. For many months he took a deep interest in the work of the Church, and then moved to another part of the city to be nearer his place of employment. He attached himself to another church because it was close to his home. After years of consistent Christian living, he committed a crime of which he was found guilty and for which he was condemned to several years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. While serving his "bit," the elders of his church paid him a visit; and, after telling him how scandalized they were by his fall from grace, demanded he resign his membership and sever his relations with that special communion of saints without delay. He did, and lo! the sheep became a goat.

On the other hand: an inmate of the Eastern Penitentiary, also in Philadelphia, recently said: "I had heard of the Episcopal Church, but had never cared for it till I went to prison."

What a noble work the City Mission of Philadelphia is doing among these people for Christ and His Church!

An Early Portrait of Christ

Portraits of Christ and the apostles which are believed to have been made at a time not far removed from New Testament days have been discovered on an old chalice now in American hands. The chalice can be dated with certainty in the second half of the first century A. D., says Dr. Gustavus A. Eisen, who has made a preliminary report upon it in the "American Journal of Archaeology." It was found by Arabs digging a well in Antioch on the Orontes, Syria. At the depth of many meters they came upon underground chambers which contained the treasure. It is probable that the old chalice, or communion cup, some of whose worn figures bear witness to the imprint of the kisses of early Christians, is a relic of a cathedral erected in Antioch by Constantine the Great after his removal of the capital of his empire to Constantinople.

The chalice is made in three parts. There is an inner bowl of plain silver, crudely made, with a heavy outer casting of beautiful sculptured work in which, woven in with a design of vine leaves and grapes, are the portraits of Christ and the disciples. The whole is supported on a short, slender stem and narrow foot disk turned out on a lathe from a solid block of silver. On the lower part of the bowl of the chalice is a cluster of lotus leaves. The sculptured work is Greek, that of an artist. Dr. Eisen believes, and the individuality shown in the faces makes it probable, that they were taken from life or from portraits; the wax portraits of the period were excellent. "Such individuality cannot be the result of accident," says Dr. Eisen, "and it is the first time that it has been shown in early Christian art."—The Living Church.

Teachers' Training Class

Teachers in our Sunday School and all persons who wish to qualify themselves as teachers will be glad to learn that they will have an opportunity to attend a Teachers' Training Class which will be begun on Thursday evening, November 1st, and will meet Thursday evening of each week until the middle of December.

The Class will be taught by Mrs. Louis Seymour Houghton. There are few women who are as well fitted to understand such work as Mrs. Houghton. An author of a number of books on Religious subjects, a close student of the Bible for many years, a lecturer before some of the most prominent educational institutions in the country, a woman of singular charm of personality and with unusual didactic ability.

Mrs. Houghton possesses qualifications, rarely combined in one individual, which enables her to bring the Bible to her hearers, as a Book, living, throbbing with God's message to each and every heart.

All who attend these classes will appreciate the privilege of studying the Bible under the instruction of such a teacher.

Not only the teachers in the Sunday School, but all are invited to attend this course which will begin in the Parish House on Thursday evening November 1st.

Provide your Own Prayer Books and Hymnals

Prayer Books and Hymnals are provided for strangers who attend the services of Christ Church and may be found at both entrances. Regular attendants at the services should provide themselves with their own Prayer Books. Every member of the church should possess a private set of Prayer Book and Hymnal, which should be brought to the Church and taken home after each service. Cloth covered books may be purchased at any book store for twenty-five cents and these may be left in the members pews.

Give Through the Envelope System

It is earnestly desired to extend the use of the envelope system to every attendant at the services of Christ Church. By this method everyone is given an opportunity to share in the support of the Parish and its work. Children, as well as adult members of the family, are invited to give through this system, thus inculcating in the young the Christian principle of systematic and conscientious giving. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibules of the church. Everyone is urged to take one of these cards and to sign it for any amount each may feel able to give, on one side as a weekly offering to support the missionary work of the Church and on the other side as an offering to the support of the Parish.

Place this card on the plate on Sunday or send it to the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview Ave., Gtn. A package of envelopes will then be sent to you.

By this method the Church finances do not suffer from the enforced absence of the members on account of sickness or inclement weather.

This method will appeal to every one as the most practical and business-like in meeting the expenses of a Parish.

It is the method also which will appeal to conscientious people who wish to do their share in the furtherance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

It is hoped that the system will be extended until every one in the Parish will be a contributor through the envelope system.

The pledge, being wholly voluntary may be withdrawn at any time by notifying the Rector.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECORD'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

Everywhere, Everywhere, Christmas Tonight.

Christmas in lands of the fir tree and pine,
Christmas in lands of the palm tree and vine;
Christmas where snow peaks stand solemn and white,

Christmas where corn-fields lie sunny and bright;

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!

Christmas where children are hopeful and gay.

Christmas where old men are patient and gray.

Christmas, where peace, like a dove in its flight,

Broods o'er brave men in the thick of the fight.

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!

For the Christ-child who comes is the Master of all;

No palace too great—no cottage too small.

The angels who welcome Him sing from the height,

"In the city of David a King in His might."

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!

Then let every heart keep its Christmas within Christ's pity for sorrow, Christ's hatred of sin,

Christ's care for the weakest, Christ's courage for right,

Christ's dread of the darkness, Christ's love of the light,

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!

So the stars of the midnight which compass us round,

Shall see a strange glory and hear a sweet sound,

And cry, "Look! the earth is aflame with delight,

O sons of the morning rejoice at the sight."

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight! —Phillips Brooks.

Christmas Peace.

What a wonderful Christmas this is today! Never since the angels sang, on that first Christmas morn, their hymns of peace and good will, has the message come amid more gladness and brought more joy to the hearts of men, than on this Christmas Day.

"Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace among men, in whom He is well pleased!" The whole world joins today in this heavenly chorus.

The representatives of the great nations of the earth are assembled to bring about peace. Peace? What peace? Let us fervently pray that it may not be a peace of compact, of agreement or of compromise. If so, it will be only another "scrap of paper." Let our prayers go up to Heaven that the Holy Spirit may so direct and prosper all their consultations to the advancement of God's glory, the good of His Church, the safety, honor and welfare of all people; that all things may be so ordered by their endeavor, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established for all generation.

So shall there be peace on earth; the peace of which the angels sang, the peace of righteousness, of justice, of truth; the peace of Christ, born in the hearts of men; the peace of the SAVIOUR OF THE WORLD; the peace of the eternal Prince of Peace; the peace of God!

The religious character of the Day should not be lost sight of, but should be strongly emphasized. It should be clearly borne in mind that Christmas is not a secular feast, but is distinctly a religious festival. The Day should, therefore, not be wholly given over to festivities and amusements, as harmless as these may be in themselves, but should be observed in a manner befitting its sacred associations. It should be a day of joyfulness, of holy Christian joyfulness, but not of frivolity. Well may this Day, on which the child Jesus was born, be a day peculiarly joyful to children, and the season of the happy gathering of families worshipping in the House of God, "of sending portions to those for whom nothing is prepared;" of gifts to the poor and of good-will to all men. This should be the spirit of Christmas, and the feasting, the merriment and the amusement must not be put in place of these. The religious observance of the Day must come first and be paramount in importance, or else the whole meaning of Christmas is lost. On the first Christmas morn "there was no room for Christ in the inn." Is there not danger to-day that we, too, will deny Him room? That our hearts and minds, and the hearts and minds of the children, will be crowded full of the world and there will be found no room for Christ? Let each one bear in mind the religious significance of Christmas Day, and come into God's House and bring gifts unto Him and worship Him, Emmanuel, God with us.

His coming on Christmas Day at the Altar. How are you going to keep Christmas? Is it to be simply a feast of Santa Claus, or is it to be to you the celebration of the greatest event in the history of the world, the coming into the world of the Son of God, "the brightness of the Father's glory and the express image of His person; being of one substance with the Father by Whom all things were made."

How does a devoted and dutiful child observe his parents' birthday. By being, if possible, in their presence.

Our Lord is with us today. He did not leave us when He departed from this earth. He brought heaven down to us that He might be with us always and He calls us from the altars of His Church to come and worship Him. Do not let the Christmas dinner be more important than the Christmas communion and Christmas worship. You can have your Christmas dinner in the afternoon just as well as at noon.

God demands of us personal devotion. Nothing can take the place of that.

If you keep Christmas as you should keep it, you will always have a happy, if not a merry, Christmas, and you will not hate Christmas as those who keep it only for themselves often do when the family is scattered or broken by death, for at the Lord's table you will meet with "loved ones far away," and above all you will meet your Lord whom you have learned to know and love, and Whose Incarnation has brought us the more abundant life.

The Advent call to prayer met with a very generous response throughout the parish. The daily services were well attended and an earnest and serious spirit was manifested by all who shared in these privileges.

The Rector appreciates very highly the faithful services of the women who so devotedly gave themselves to this great spiritual uplift.

It is certain that such seasons of consecrated service and prayer must work to God's glory in the furtherance of His Kingdom upon earth.

Calendar for January.

1. Feast of the Circumcision.
5. Second Sunday after Christmas.
6. Epiphany.
12. First Sunday after Epiphany.
12. Second Sunday after Epiphany.
25. Conversion of S. Paul.
26. Third Sunday after Epiphany.

The beginning of a new year is a time for looking backward, as well as forward; backward to see what our failings have been, forward with intentions of amendment in the future.

The Feast of the Circumcision. January 1, observed in the 6th century. In St. Barnard's time homilies were set forth. On this day the obedience of Jesus Christ is celebrated in fulfilling all righteousness. The revival of this feast and its publication in the English liturgy was in 1549.

The 1st of January as the first day of the year, dates from 1752, when George II. by statute caused the legal year to begin on January 1st, instead of March 25th.

The Epiphany, or the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles, Jan. 6th, was kept in the early church with the same solemnity as the Lord's Day. In the Greek church the Nativity was also celebrated on this day. Clemens Alexandrinus mentioned the feast about 200 A. D.

Conversion of St. Paul. Jan. 25th. The Collect is from the Sarum Missal, and expresses as much gratitude, and registers as much resolution as any human language can. In it we pray that we, having the wonderful conversion of the Apostle in remembrance, may show forth our thankfulness by following the holy doctrine which he taught.

Epiphany.

Epiphany follows immediately after, and is indeed an extension of the Christmas Season and continues up to Septuagesima Sunday. The festival of the Epiphany must be deemed of very high importance by the believing and thoughtful Christian. It does not merely commemorate one of the most beautiful incidents of our Lord's infant life,—the visit of the three wise men to worship "the new born King,"—it, also, asserts one of the most fundamental and vital features of Christianity; the great distinction, in fact, between Christianity and Judaism. The Jewish religion was the religion of a race. Was a merely national religion like this a full unvailing of the mind of a common Father of the human race? Was His interest and love to be confined to one people, alone? Was there to be no place in His heart for more races, who lay east and west and north and south of the favored region? Was the Son of God come to reveal the Father's love to and to save one set of people only, or was He come to manifest His love to and to save all people, everywhere? The event set forth is the festival of the Epiphany and the missionary teaching of this Epiphany season is sufficient answer to that question. The Church's mission is to all the world, to every people, to every clime. The Epiphany season is the great missionary season of the Church. Every season, of course, should be a "missionary season" but at Epiphany special emphasis is laid on this teaching; indeed, that is what the word "Epiphany" means,—"manifestation," "shining out." The star shone out and led the Gentiles to the Child of Bethlehem and they "fell down and worshipped Him." And so we pray, in the collect for missions, "O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on the face of the whole earth and didst send Thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off and to them that are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after Thee and find Thee. Bring the nations into Thy fold, and add the heathen to Thine inheritance. And we pray Thee shortly to accomplish the number of Thine elect, and to hasten Thy Kingdom, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

Honor Roll of Christ Church

The following are the names of members of this parish enlisted in the service of our country; total seventy-eight.

At the Celebration of the Holy Communion on Sundays and on Friday afternoon at five o'clock, special prayers are said on behalf of all enlisted in the service of our country and especially for the members from this congregation. At noon, every day, the church bell is rung and prayers and intercession are made for our country, for our enlisted men and for the peace of the world.

Publication of the Chimes to be Continued

On account of the increased cost of publication the Rector had thought to discontinue the publication of the Chimes for the coming year. So many persons, however, expressed their regret at this announcement that the Rector has reconsidered his decision and will continue publishing the Chimes for the coming year, hoping that he will receive the necessary funds from members of the congregation, to defray the expense of publication.

If all who are interested in the continuance of the Chimes will send the price of subscription, and as many who can, a substantial contribution, the Rector will be able to meet the expense without personal loss.

Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to Robert Carmint, 6373 Sherman St.

The following persons have sent in their subscriptions or contributions: Mrs. Baishbrown, Mrs. W. H. Brooks, Miss Dora Crowder, Miss Gertrude Crowder, Mrs. Fisher, Miss Geib, Mrs. Hearst, W. N. Johnson, Mrs. Emily A. Jones, Miss Lapp, Miss Schneider, Mrs. Mogridge, I. M. Woodroffe, Mr. Van Buskirk, Miss Kimmerling, Mrs. Gerhardt.

Services on Christmas Day

The services at Christ Church on Christmas Day will be as follows: Holy Communion, 6.30 and 7.30 A. M. Shortened Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and Sermon, 11 o'clock.

The offering on Christmas Day will be taken for the parish assessment of the Pension Fund for Aged and Disabled Clergy.

Music on Christmas Day

The special musical program on Christmas Day will be as follows:

Processional Hymn 49—"Oh Come, all ye faithful."

Venite.

Te Deum, Dykes in F.

Introit, Hymn 51.

"Hark! the herald angels sing."

Communion Service in E flat.

Retrocessional, Hymn 56.

"Christian, awake! salute the happy morn."

The music will be repeated on the following Sunday.

The Church Schools' Christmas Service

The Christmas service of the Church Schools will be held on Sunday after Christmas, December 29th, at three-thirty o'clock in the afternoon.

The schools are practicing their Christmas carols which will be sung at this service.

Members of the schools are requested to assemble in the Parish House at three o'clock and will march into the Church.

Christmas Entertainment

The Christmas Entertainment for the Upper Schools will be held in the Parish House on Friday evening, December 27, at 7.30 o'clock.

The Primary Department will hold their entertainment on Friday afternoon, December 27, at three o'clock.

Of course old Santa Claus will be on hand as usual to welcome both old and young.

The parents of the scholars are cordially invited to both of these entertainments.

New Year's Midnight Service

A Midnight service will be held in Christ Church on New Year's Eve, beginning at eleven o'clock.

The church will be open all evening for meditation, intercession and prayer.

Patriotic Committee

The Patriotic Committee has sent out to every family in the parish, which has a member in the United States service, "Enlistment Cards," requesting full and complete record of each person enlisted in the service. These cards are to be kept in the archives of the Church as a record of all the enlisted members of the parish. A few have not yet returned these cards. It is very important that this should be done at once, and any who have not returned these cards, filled out as directed, are requested to send them to the Rector.

The Committee are keeping in touch by letter with every enlisted member whose is known and a "Christmas" remembrance is sent each. There are seventy-eight names on our Parish Roll of Honor.

Christ Church Kalendar for 1919

A limited number of Kalendars for 1919, with a picture of Christ Church at the top and the Holy Days of the Church Year marked with appropriate colors, may be purchased from the Verger at thirty cents each.

These Kalendars are suitable for Christmas or New Year's gifts.

Contributions for "Christmas Greens"

Contributions are asked from members of the congregation to meet the expense of decorating the Church for Christmas.

Contributions may be given or sent to Mr. Richard H. Morris, 6604 Wayne Ave., Germantown.

Confirmation Lectures

The Bishop of the Diocese has notified the Rector that he will visit (D. V.) Christ Church on Maundy Thursday evening to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation.

The Rector will begin a course of lectures on Confirmation soon after the Christmas holidays. He will be glad to receive at once the names of persons contemplating Confirmation.

A large congregation was present on Sunday evening, Dec. 1st, when a "Victory Sing" and Patriotic Service was held in Christ Church.

The Church was handsomely decorated with American flags, and the flags of the Allies. The cross, followed by the American flag, was carried in procession, and the choir, augmented by several stringed instruments, rendered patriotic and soul stirring music. Mr. Owen J. W. Burness was at the organ, and Mr. John S. Hart, acted as precentor and led the choir and congregation in the hearty service of song. An interesting address was delivered by Mr. J. M. Shiner, a worker in the Y. M. C. A.

The regular annual election of officers was held in the Parish House on Wednesday, November 13th.

Mrs. H. C. Thompson was re-elected chairman. Mrs. E. S. Sites resigned and Mrs. R. M. Jones was elected vice-chairman. Mrs. H. E. Fitzgerald was re-elected treasurer, and C. A. Woodroffe, secretary.

The Tuesday evening meetings of the Red Cross have been discontinued as have also the Wednesday afternoon class in surgical dressings. BUT—the Red Cross room is open every Wednesday from 10.00 A. M. to 5.00 P. M. There is some very special work to be done and all members are urged to come and sew. The meetings have been very sparsely attended all fall.

Members of the surgical dressing class come and sew. C. A. W., Secy.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild resumed its regular monthly meetings on November 18th, the time of meeting having been changed to evening.

We are very glad to welcome the Misses Maud and Edith Thompson to membership in the Guild.

Miss Ruth Gerhard was appointed to take charge of the Memorial Flower list. The Guild would be pleased to have anyone, who wishes to have a memorial Sunday, give their names to Mr. Arndt.

The Guild is most grateful to the men who helped us by decorating the Church with flags, for the Thanksgiving day service. We are now planning for the Christmas decorations.

The Serving Committees for the coming month are as follows:

Dec. 13-20: Misses Chase, Alexander, Woodroffe.

Dec. 20-27: Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Gerhard.

Dec. 27-Jan. 3: Misses Dean, Falkner, M. Thompson.

A Processional Cross Presented

A beautiful brass processional cross has been presented to the Church as a "thank offering" by Mrs. Emily A. Jones. It was carried in procession, together with the American flag, for the first time on Thanksgiving Day.

A Processional Flag Needed

The Church is in need of an American flag to be carried in procession on patriotic and other special occasions. Who will give it?

The Unity of Baptism

Baptism asserts for each man that he is taken into a union with a Divine Person, and by virtue of that union is emancipated from his evil nature. But this assertion rests upon another, that there is a society for mankind which is constituted and held together in that Person and that he who enters that society is emancipated from the world—the society which is bound together in acknowledgment of the subjection to the evil, selfish tendencies of each man's nature. But, further it affirms that this unity among men rests upon a yet more awful and perfect unity, upon that which is expressed in the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.—F. D. Maurice.

Texts Suggesting Thankfulness

Isaiah 9:6; Matt. 1:21-23; S. John III:16; S. Luke, 1:33; S. Luke II:11, 14; Galatians 4:4.

It is the merry heart makes merry Christmas, and that is one thing money can not buy or sell. At the manger of Bethlehem rich and poor alike may find the joy of life, and all will be disappointed who do not seek it there. In the Word made flesh and in union with Him is our life and true merriment. Gratitude for His great gift of Himself should make our hearts merry and overflowing at Christmas.

If we really desire the best for our friends and ourselves we must bring them to Jesus our Lord, then can we indeed wish for them a merry Christmas. A Christless Christmas must of necessity be disappointing. We must live Christmas Day in the spirit of the Blessed Redeemer to have a merry Christmas. He gave Himself, what are you giving for His dear sake?

Mr. Middleton Resigns as Associate Superintendent of the Church School

Mr. O. N. Middleton, who has been connected with the Church School of the parish for more than a quarter of a century, has resigned as Associate Superintendent. His resignation was read by the Rector at the last meeting of the teachers and was accepted with great regret.

Resolutions of appreciation of Mr. Middleton's long and faithful services were passed by the teachers and officers of the school, and a picture of Hoffman's "Christ in Gethsemane," was presented to him as a slight token of their high regard and esteem.

The Rector announced the appointment of Mr. R. H. Morris as Associate Superintendent of the School.

The Superintendent, Mr. George T. Morgan, is temporarily teaching the Women's Bible Class during Colonel Potter's disability. It is hoped that Colonel Potter will soon be able to resume his duties as teacher.

The Junior Brotherhood

Attention! Men of the Parish, both younger and older! We have with us the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew again.

Mr. Arndt asked two of our fellows to go to one of the Brotherhood meetings, and they went. This is the result: when they came back they were filled with the spirit and wanted to get to work and renew the old chapter. And so, thro the combined efforts of Mr. Arndt and Mr. Leming we formed one Friday evening.

Now we are going full speed with no stop in view. We are going to help the Parish, both young and old. Already we have boys ushering in Church every Sunday night.

Belfield and Faulkner have both carried the flag, and Bland the cross, in Church.

The officers of the Chapter are David B. Arndt, vice-director, Frothingham Faulkner, treas., Robert Carmint, sec.

In the chapter are eight fellows, all striving to make the chapter a success.

At the first formal meeting held November 20, 1918, the business of getting started was taken up. The age for eligibility was decided at 14 to 18 years of age. It was agreed that at each meeting some member make a religious or some other topical address to the meeting.

David Arndt volunteered to lead the next meeting. It was at this meeting that the ushering was decided upon, and Robert Carmint was decided upon to take charge for the next four Sundays.

At the close of the meeting the special study was taken up, which is electricity taught by our director.

The next meeting was led by David Arndt, and his subject for address was co-operation. It was moved and agreed that a basketball team be made up of the Brotherhood and Bible Class. The meeting then adjourned and the special study taken up.

Now we have started something which for two years has been extinct. We are willing to work with the parish and we want the parish to help us in return. Let us be pushers together and not one in the wagon while the other pulls.

Our purpose is "to spread Christ's kingdom among boys." We have eight now. Watch us grow. Let's have a good showing for Mr. Gurley when he comes back. Put your name in now. Come to our meetings, we need you, Christ Church needs your work, and Christ needs you! Come and bring a friend and make our parish stand out from the rest.

R. Carmint, Secy.

Whilst Christ Church is essentially a "free church," in that every one is cordially welcome, and the number of pews marked "vacant" is sufficient to accommodate all strangers and occasional attendants, the Vestry desire to encourage all persons who attend the services of the church to contribute in some systematic way toward the maintenance of the church and its philanthropies. Besides the expenses of running the Parish, the church has many assessments made upon it for the support of hospitals, missions, works of charity, both within and without the Diocese, both at home and abroad. These opportunities for doing good should be shared in by the many, and not be borne by the few, and therefore, to the end that every one may enjoy the privilege of doing his or her share in supporting and extending this work for Christ and His Kingdom on earth, that this Parish is endeavoring to do, the Vestry invite every one to become a regular and systematic contributor to the support of the Parish and its work.

All are invited to rent pews or sittings, and to pledge themselves to pay weekly, through the envelope system, such amounts as they may feel able to give. Further information in regard to pews or sittings may be had by addressing the Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, 228 South 3rd St., Philadelphia; or he may be seen personally after Church service.

Men's Corporate Communion

Beginning January 19th and continuing on the third Sunday of each month thereafter, it is intended to hold a corporate communion for the men of our Parish at 7.30 A. M.

Definite arrangements have not been completed thus far but it is hoped that every male communicant will give the matter his attention and resolve both to attend and use his influence upon others.

This movement is nationwide and the spiritual results which may be attained are beyond measure if the men will support it. While it is hoped that a large number will receive communion on the above date, no concerted effort is to be made for that particular day. It is to be a gradual growth from month to month—the men present to be the means of extending the invitation to others. If we take up the task willingly and conscientiously the increase in regular communicants will be marked. Remember the date and other announcements will be made later.

Men's Bible Class

The Men's Class is fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Robert P. Shick, who has kindly consented to act as leader for the month of December. While making no prophecy for the future it is always well to remember that once a man begins a work of this kind it is often very difficult to draw him away from it if he finds that the men appreciate his efforts.

While, of course, the appreciation rests with the members of the class, yet the other men of the parish who thus far have not been associated with this branch of the Church's work, can by their co-operation at this time do much to benefit themselves, the Class and other men in our neighborhood not now attending church or connected with Bible classes. We want every man not already engaged in Sunday School or Bible Class work to help. There is plenty of labor to be done, but considering the number of men in the parish, the laborers are few.

A Christmas card has been mailed in the name of the Class to every member in service as a slight token of our remembrance. We may have some of the boys who were still in the camps when the armistice was signed, home with us by that time, and they will receive a hearty welcome.

During the winter it is hoped to have a social night on the third Sunday of each month. Every man in the congregation is cordially invited to come himself and bring some other man with him. C. H. I.

Mothers' Meeting

On account of the influenza the Mothers' Meeting did not open as early as usual. Our first meeting was on Nov. 12th. At this time we attended a moving picture show and then adjourned to the Rectory, where, through the kindness of Mrs. Rowley, we were entertained with ice cream, cake and coffee.

After this little festivity we settled down to our winter's work. Our first few meetings were devoted to finishing garments which were left over from last year. We were thus enabled to donate thirty-two garments to the Needlework Guild. We are again sewing rags for rag rugs, and we are also helping to mend the soldiers' garments, which are under the care of the Red Cross. Donations of clothing for a Rummage Sale and new rags, both cotton and woolen, will be gratefully received by the directors of the meeting. The attendance at the meetings has been excellent. One only regret is that our good friend, Mrs. Rowley, on account of ill health, has not been able to be with us as yet. We hope to welcome her back shortly. H. F. A.

A Letter From The Bishop

The following issued by the Bishop should receive a generous response. Persons who may respond to it from this parish are asked to mention that they are from Christ Church, Germantown.

To my Friends in the Diocese of Pennsylvania

As a member of our Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania I ask you to consider:

That our Diocesan Missions take care of 23 Mission Churches in the City of Philadelphia.

24 Mission Churches in Rural Districts.

40 Missionaries are supported for these Churches and their purposes.

Our Diocesan Missions minister to the French, Italians, Poles, Jews, Colored People, the Deaf and Dumb, etc. The Missionaries to all these people must be supported.

The Diocesan Convention voted for these purposes $40,800, of which thus far about $20,000 has been received from the Parishes.

Parishes and Private Individuals were appealed to for the immediate and pressing demands due to the deficit of last year $7000; they have given for this purpose $3500. The remaining deficit of $3500, and the amount of $20,000 required for the Apportionment of this year, a total of $23,500, should be made up before December 31st.

May I count upon your individual assistance, as the Treasurer of the Board of Missions informed me that his account is over-drawn?

Foreign Missions and the Domestic Missions within our Nation's boundaries have always been urged under the injunction to go into all the world and preach the Gospel, but modern conditions have brought hundreds of thousands from all the world right into our City, to be ministered to without the expense of our going to them in distant lands.

Faithfully yours,

Philip M. Rhinelanders,

Bishop of Pennsylvania.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECORD'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING
6.00 to 8.00 P. M.

Important!

The entire Diocese is called to mobilize its spiritual forces! The call comes from the Bishop and is made to every member of the Church throughout the Diocese.

Every baptized person is a member of the Church—a soldier of the Cross. And like every loyal soldier responds to his country's call, every loyal Churchman responds to the call of the Church.

"Like a mighty army Moves the Church of God."

This is the call. The Bishop of the Diocese, and through the parishes, to every member, of the Church immediately, to enlist. The Church is called upon to mobilize its spiritual forces, for instant aggressive warfare. The appalling condition exists that not more than one out of ten members of the Church is faithful in meeting and discharging his duty. A large majority of the members of the Church of God are slackers! No state could exist under this condition; no army could be effective. It would mean anarchy and self-destruction.

And this condition must not be allowed to continue in the Church, if, "like a mighty army," she is to be strong and not weak, victorious and not defeated.

And now

The Call Comes

to every member in this parish and in every parish throughout the Diocese, to stand forth, like a true soldier of the Cross, and actively enlist in the Church's service.

The Bishop calls upon every parish to begin at once to take an enrollment of its membership and to enlist the interest of every member in some department of the work of the Kingdom.

As a preliminary and preparatory step in this wide movement, every member of the Church is asked, first to "take it all to God in prayer." It is to be a spiritual movement, therefore, it must be begun, continued and ended in the spirit of prayer. I ask that every member of Christ Church Parish make this a special object of prayer. Pray, by name, for those who refuse to listen to the call of God; pray by name for those who have grown indifferent to and careless in their religious life; pray for those who are bitter and sinful, that God's Holy Spirit may soften their hearts and support them in their temptations; pray for the faithful, that they may be given strength to do their duty and to continue steadfast.

The call, therefore, is, first, to summon the prayer strength of the entire Diocese, that the movement may receive the guidance and the blessing of God.

The Active Campaign will begin on the first Sunday in Lent, March 9th, and will continue for three weeks. The first week, (March 9th to 15th), will be devoted, in each parish, to presenting to the members in the parish, the opportunities for service. There will be also special subjects for study and prayer. The hours and subjects of these meetings to be held in this parish will be announced later.

The next week, (March 16th to 22), will be devoted to a study of the work of the Diocese, with services in central points throughout the Diocese and an exhibit of charts which will vividly present diocesan work, needs and opportunities.

St. Luke's Church, Germantown, has been appointed as the place for holding meetings during this and the following week of all parishes in Germantown and Chestnut Hill.

The Concluding Week.

(March 23 to 30) will be the week of a great City-wide Missionary Mission to be conducted by the Rev. Robert E. Patton, D. D., and his associates, with addresses and conferences on the world-wide work of the Church. An every-member canvass on the last Sunday of the campaign, March 30, will have as its object the enlistment of every member for prayer, service and giving in winning the world for Christ. The pledge cards will embrace both service and giving and will contain brief questionnaires to help in determining how far the Church is entering into the life, work and homes of the people of the diocese.

It is expected that every member in this parish will be visited on that day.

May I again ask, my dear friends in Christ Church, that every member in our parish will make this coming "Campaign" a matter of very serious thought and prayer, that this "Call" may result in a deeper consecration on the part of us all and more earnest, unselfish service in the great work that God has given us to do in this parish and through the Church at large? Pray for this movement at your daily morning and evening devotions; at noon, the great bell of Christ Church will ring each day. Remember it at this hour, my friends, when your Saviour hung dying upon the Cross for you and for all mankind.

Surely, if every member of our Parish, if all Church people will pray,—pray EARNESTLY, God will send His blessing upon our work and upon all who engage in His service.

Daily Prayers to be Used for the Campaign.

May I ask that every member of Christ Church Parish will use daily the following prayers from now and throughout Lent? Cut these prayers out of the CHIMES and put them at your bedside to be used every morning and night; also, insert them in your Prayer Books to be used at service in the Church.

Lord of all power and might, who rulest in heaven and in earth, and canst turn the hearts of men after the counsel of Thine own will: we humbly pray Thee to awaken in all the members of our Parish a deep desire to maintain and set forward the work of Thy Kingdom throughout the world, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified and that all men everywhere may come to know Thee as their Father, through Jesus Christ, our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who has promised Thy presence and power to all who obey Thy command to tell the nations of Thy love, bless we pray Thee our effort to strengthen and extend the work of our Parish. To all who shall take any part in our plans give wisdom and zeal. Bind our people in a closer fellowship. If any have grown careless, help us to lead them back to Thy house that their love for Thee may be renewed. Teach us to pray, labor and give more faithfully for the extension of Thy Kingdom among men. Of Thy mercy we ask this, O Blessed Saviour of the world, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

O Eternal God, who hast committed unto me the swift and solemn trust of life, since I know not what a day may bring forth, but only that the hour for serving Thee is always present; grant that I may give myself with a ready will to make Thy way known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations. Teach me, my Father, by Thine infinite love for me and for all men, to love those whom I have not seen, but with whom I may share the good things Thou hast entrusted to me: that the coming of Thy Kingdom may be hastened, and the sorrow of the world be relieved, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessed Saviour, who at mid-day didst hang upon the Cross, stretching forth Thy loving arms in prayer and sacrifice for us; Grant that all mankind may look unto Thee and be saved. Send Thy blessing upon our Nation, and upon all the Nations of the earth, in this new era of reconstruction and peace, and endue the peoples with patience, self-control and kindness.

Prosper the work of Thy Church in all lands; and direct all in authority to walk in Thy way. Protect the soldiers and sailors everywhere; and help them to pray and to be faithful. Comfort the sick, the wounded, and the dying; and support those who minister to them. Succour the bereaved, and all who are in want. Restrain class hatred, oppression, and lawlessness. Make us, at home and abroad, to be unselfish, to bear one another's burdens, and to promote freedom, righteousness, and true religion among all men.

Finally, we beseech Thee, forgive our sins; and forgive the sins of our enemies, and turn their hearts; and grant to us, and to the whole world salvation and peace, through Thy mercies and merits, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

"Make strong our hands and give them work to do,
And patience to perform.
Give us strong faith that keeps the laborer true,
Nor bends before the storm.
So in our hearts the harvesting shall be,
The trust of those who fight across the sea."
✠

A Letter from the Bishop.

My dear Friend:

"To the angel of the Church in Philadelphia write . . . Behold, I have set before you an open door." (Rev. iii:7-8.)

I want you to take these words as a personal message from the Holy Spirit.

The door is open. Our Victory has opened it. A new world is to be built on the ruins of the old: a new world of peace and love and justice. That is what our brave boys fought and died for. It is for us to make it good. We must all do our part. You, as a member of the Church in this Diocese must do your part.

But we are not ready. Some of us have never felt that we had anything to do. Suppose in our army in France only one-third of the enlisted men had been trained and equipped and ready to obey orders! That is just the situation in the Church. We were all enlisted in Baptism. But two-thirds of us have never realized it. None of us have done our best. None of us have shown the steadfastness and sacrifice of well-trained soldiers. The great need is that we all go into training at once for the service to which Christ calls us. Each congregation is to become a camp or cantonment. Spiritual drill is just as necessary as physical drill. The Christian's Manual of Arms must be mastered by every member of Christ's army.

Very earnestly I ask you to do your part. This little pamphlet will help you. Keep it by you. Use it faithfully. Be regular and careful, especially in your prayers, that you may have your Orders for the day from your Commanding Officer. By His grace may you and all of us be helped to do His will.

Faithfully yours,

PHILIP M. RHINELANDER,
Bishop of Pennsylvania.

✠

Confirmation Class Forming.

The Rector requests all persons in the Church, who are contemplating Confirmation, to give their names to him at once.

Father Officer's Mission.

Last year Father Officer was in Christ Church and held a wonderful three weeks' mission. At that time many persons in the parish made splendid resolutions to be more earnest, more faithful, and more conscientious in their Christian duties. Some persons signed cards, pledging themselves to all of this. How MANY ARE KEEPING THESE GOOD RESOLUTIONS? How many are trying to live up to them?

How true are the words of our Lord!

"A sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold.

Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience"

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishoners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of _____ dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

Calendar for February.

2. Feast of the Purification.
9. Fifth Sunday after Epiphany.
16. Septuagesima.
23. Sexagesima.
24. St. Matthias.

Septuagesima Sunday occurs on February 16th. It tells us of the near approach of Lent and bids us to prepare for the proper observance of that sacred season. Ash Wednesday occurs on March 9th.

In the next issue of the CHIMES a list of the Lenten Services will be given in full.

Several new subscribers to the envelope system have signed pledge cards for weekly contributions.

Let the good work go on until the list of envelope subscribers shall include every attendant at the services. Pledge cards will be found in the vestibules of the Church.

Confirmation.

The Rector is desirous of receiving the names of all persons in the congregation who are thinking of Confirmation. He will soon begin a Course of Instruction on "Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church," and wishes to form the class before he begins the lectures. He asks that names will be given to him at once.

He will be glad to confer with any person on the subject after Church services or by appointment.

Subscribers to the Chimes.

Many more subscriptions and contributions are required to continue the publication of the "Chimes."

Will not all persons in the parish send contributions or subscriptions at once, either to the Rector or to Robert Carmint, 6373 Sherman St., Germantown.

Since the last issue subscriptions and contributions have been received from the following persons: J. I. Morrison, Mrs. Florence D. Bland, Mrs. James H. Ritter, Rev. A. H. Hord, Mrs. Annie Warner, Mrs. Arthur Bruce, Mrs. L. H. Dayton, Mr. Frederick Leming, Mrs. A. T. Flower.

The Church Bell Rings at Noon.

At twelve o'clock, every mid-day, the bell of Christ Church rings. It is a call to all people to spend a few minutes in prayer, for our country, for the Church and for the spread of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. Let our people remember this every day at twelve o'clock.

Roll of Honor of Christ Church

We continue to publish the full list of the names of the enlisted members of Christ Church. Some have been mustered out of the service but a majority are still "overseas." We shall continue to have prayers for them until they shall have returned "home again."

The Honor Roll is as follows:

"Unto God's Most Gracious Protection We Commit You."

The Junior Brotherhood.

"Every member campaign is the main object of the Brotherhood for March. We are going to endeavor to not only help our chapter but the church in general. Altho, as our main object is to spread Christ's Kingdom among boys, we will try to get some good, earnest fellows in the work.

The Junior Brotherhood is now going to usher in church every first and third Sunday night of the month. Look for the boys with the blue cross! Next Sunday the 19th, Falkner, Van Dusen, Courtney and Carmint will usher. On the following first Sunday of March, which is the 2nd, Arndt, Befield, Carmint and Raynor will usher.

This Sunday night, the 2nd, will be our night, after the service. The Junior Chapter will then be recognized as a chapter by the initiation in the church. We had planned for this.

Next meeting it is the endeavor of every member to bring an applicant for membership. The meeting on the 29th will be led by Clarence Van Dusen, and it will be very interesting we hope.

We earnestly desire that the Senior membership of this Church get together and help us and thus renew their deadened embers of work.

When the last "Chimes" came out we were just starting. Now we are going. See and help us grow. Any fellow over 14 years of age, and passes the approval of the members, can join.

We are going to start a basketball team to represent the Church. Come out, boys, and see your church win. The Junior Brotherhood is for the betterment of the boys of our Church socially as well as spiritually. We expect to bring forth a lot of results in the present year.

R. Carmint, Secy.

"WHAT KIND OF A CHURCH WOULD THIS CHURCH BE

IF EVERY MEMBER WERE JUST LIKE ME?"

The Work of the Church.

While the primary and supreme object of the Christian religion is to produce spiritual results, it does unquestionably produce temporal results of a most blessed and beneficent nature. Apart from its eternal and spiritual results the church of Christ is the most beneficent institution that ever existed. As a police force it does more to restrain wrong-doing and to prevent crime and violence than all the governments of the world are accomplishing or could accomplish without it. It is doing a work for the moral, physical and temporal welfare of the people that is not equalled or approached by any known agency among men.

This will be admitted by every one. And yet, how many there are who neglect to help in the support of the Church and its wonderful work for the uplift of humanity!

New Church Hymnal.

The revised hymnal, authorized by the General Convention of the Church, has just been published and will be on sale this month.

A new and commendable feature of this hymnal is that all copies are provided with the music as well as the words. This feature will encourage congregational singing.

We shall begin to use this new hymnal in this parish very soon. It is desired that all shall provide themselves with copies at once. A number of copies have been purchased by the Vestry and will be sold to members of the congregation who wish them. The regular retail price is $1.50 per copy. They may be secured for $1.25 per copy by applying to Mr. James M. Woodroffe, or Mr. Richard H. Morris.

"What kind of a Church would this Church be,

If every members were just like me?"

Men's Corporate Communion.

On Sunday, January 18, a Corporate Communion of the men of our Parish was held at 7.30 o'clock. As it was the first of what is intended to be a continued effort to draw the men of Christ Church to the Holy Communion, the attendance was not large but those who were present could not but have gone away feeling that it was good to have been there. Naturally these men are going to come on the third Sunday of February and more than that they are going to ask some other man to come and receive the benefits also. Thus month by month the attendance will increase until every man and boy will feel the joy of kneeling before God's Altar with the corporate body of the men of Christ Church at this great service of consecration.

Yet the movement does not stop with the bounds of this Parish. Throughout the land this corporate communion of men has been gradually making its influence felt for some years and so it is not a small body of men meeting together in a single parish but hundreds of similar bodies, united in one common purpose and meeting on the same day, rendering thanks to God and trying to draw other men to Him through this service.

Can any one ask what the result will be? With every man united in heart and purpose will not the uplift in the spiritual life of our Parish be beyond anything before experienced; the will to be "doers and not hearers of the word" stimulated to such a degree that the present activities will be but a memory and the missionary work in this community and elsewhere be given the impetus which will make our Parish a living force.

Theory? This service has been the means of doing all of this and more to many parishes in this and other cities. It only requires the "will to do" and it is up to the individual man to do his part. The opportunity is here. The invitation, "come for all things are now ready," has been given and if the men of Christ Church accept the Blessing is sure to follow.

Men's Bible Class.

The annual meeting of the Men's Bible Class was held on January 16 and the following officers elected for the year 1919: President, Frank Manser; First Vice President, S. N. Baxter; Second Vice President, Dr. J. C. Courtney; Secretary, Kober Sands, and Treasurer, D. F. Wilcox. With the exception of the Treasurer the entire lineup is composed of new men and we look for the increased activity which should come with this infusion of new life.

As Chairmen of the various committees the President appointed Frederick Lennig, New Members; C. J. Cotton, Absentees; C. H. Jackson, Relief; R. M. Jones, Social; C. R. Reckard, Publicity; John McGill, Class Welfare; Linwood Heald, Finance, and E. T. Brooks, Assistant Secretary.

After the business meeting a Package Party was held at which $22.20 was realized. This money is to be used to help defray the expenses of a Class Supper to be given on the evening of February 12, Lincoln's Birthday. Owing to the war no banquet was held last year and we hope to be able to arrange a very good supper at a price not to exceed $1.00 per plate.

All men of the parish are welcome to attend and tickets may be procured from any member of the Class previous to February 10.

The Class is not organized for social features only and many men who have not yet shown interest in the Sunday meetings at 9.45 a. m. would find much benefit in the course of study being conducted by Mr. Robert P. Shick on "The Early Christian Church." If you have not attended so far, make an effort to do so. We have a fine bunch of fellows and a leader who knows what he is talking about and with that combination it is worth while for any man to become a member.

What kind of a Church would this Church be if every member were just like me?

Altar Guild.

The Altar Guild held a regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, January 13th.

We were glad to have Mr. Arndt with us. He gave a short talk, explaining more fully the "Every Member Campaign Call," which is to come early in March.

The committees will serve during February as follows: : Feb. 1-7th, Mrs. Cotton, Miss Manser. Feb. 7-14th, Misses Chase, Alexander, Woodroffe. Feb. 14-21st, Misses Mogridge, Cosley, Gerhardt, E. Thompson. Feb. 21-28th, Misses Dean, Falkner, M. Thompson.

The Woman's Auxiliary.

The Woman's Auxiliary has not held any meetings this winter, but, it is hoped, although we are late in beginning, that the work of the Auxiliary will be able to enlist the active interest of every woman in the Church.

To this end we are arranging for a "Missionary Afternoon." We will have an interesting speaker who will talk to us on the necessity of missionary work of the Church. Afternoon tea will be served.

The war activities are closing down, and we hope that our church women will join with renewed enthusiasm to the work of Christ and His Church. Special notices of the meeting will be sent to the men of the parish.

Some Questions Asked and Answered on the Teachings of the Church.

What is Baptism?—Baptism is the initiatory Christian Sacrament of regeneration, by which one is incorporated into the Body of Christ, made a member of the Kingdom of grace, and given capacity to receive Sacramental benefits. The matter of Baptism is water (Acts viii, 36) applied by the Minister to the person to be baptized, with the use of the proper form of words.

The form of Baptism consists of the words, "N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

When doubt exists as to whether a person be already baptized or no, a hypothetical form is employed, "if not already baptized, I baptize thee," etc.

The proper Minister of Baptism is a Priest, although a Deacon is authorized to act in the case of infants when a Priest is not to be had, and any one may act in extremis. In the latter case, if recovery follows, the baptized person should be received publicly by a proper Minister.

Infants are to be baptized, although sponsors should be provided to secure their subsequent training in the teachings of the Church, and their due preparation to receive the other Sacraments worthily, when they come to years of discretion.

Baptism should always take place in the Church, except in case of sickness.

What is the Apostles' Creed?—The Apostles' Creed receives its names from the fact that it is derived from the teaching of the Apostles. It contains the main truths which they preached to the world, speaking only those things which they had seen and heard while they followed the Lord Jesus.

The Church has given considerable prominence to the Apostles' Creed. It is printed in the Book of Common Prayer seven times. Speaking of this Creed, Bishop Forbes writes: "From the days of St. Paul to this, these articles have been the sum and substance of Christianity. Nothing less than that is sufficient. Nothing more than that is of absolute necessity to salvation. When a child is baptized, the Church demands no more of him, or of his Sponsors than an assent to the Apostles' Creed—and when the Christian soul is going out of the world to meet its Judge, it is in the terms of the Creed that the dying man is interrogated."

What is Confirmation?—Confirmation is the Sacrament whereby those who have been made members by Baptism, of Christ's Body, wherein the Holy Ghost dwells and works, are endowed with the gift of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands, are strengthened for spiritual warfare, and are made full participators in the royal priesthood of the faithful. The matter of Confirmation is the laying of hands upon the candidate's head by the proper Minister (Acts viii, 17, 18). The form is an invocation of the Holy Ghost which accompanies the laying on of hands.

The Anglican Communion requires that children shall not be kept from Confirmation beyond the age when they are able to learn the Church Catechism; but shall be duly instructed and brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him as soon as they reach the years of discretion, i. e., of ability to distinguish practically between the state of salvation and the state of damnation. They misinterpret the Church and err dangerously who think that ability to give a full reason for the faith which is in them should be required. The preparation consists simply of a penitent spirit of obedience to the kingdom of grace, and sufficient knowledge and conviction to fulfill the practical requirements of Faith and conduct laid down in that kingdom. It is, of course, expedient that adult candidates for Confirmation should receive fuller instructions, adapted to their age and intelligence, and should fulfill the conditions of Faith and repentance which are necessary for the beneficial reception of any Sacrament by those who are of sufficient age to resist truth and grace.—Francis J. Hall, D.D.

Is the Church the Means of Grace?—Since the days of Pentecost, the day of creation of the Christian Church, the ordinary way in which God bestows grace on the souls of men is through the glorified humanity of our Lord and the working of God the Holy Ghost. The closest means of union with the glorified humanity of Christ, and of the most immediate mode of contact with God the Holy Ghost are in the mystical Body of Christ, that is, the Church, and are open to man the use of the Sacraments. Thus the Christian Church is the channel of grace. The O. T. contains many instances of the Divine use of material means. In the Incarnation what is visible and tangible was used for the purposes of Divine grace. During His Ministry our Lord deigned to employ external means of healing. It is an answer to the felt needs of man that he should receive grace in objective ways of that which can be seen and felt.

The Christian Church is a visible society, a fellowship and brotherhood of man. It is reasonable that incorporation into the society and maintenance in its life should be accomplished by sacramental rites.—Dr. Dix.

What is Apostolic Succession?—The line in which the Ministry of the Church is handed on from age to age by the laying on of hands by Bishops; the corporate lineage of the Christian Clergy. The continuity of the Church appears, not only in the unbroken succession of her Ministry from the Apostles, but also in her Apostolic institutions and Sacraments, which she has preserved in their integrity from the beginning; her Apostolic form of worship or Liturgy (Acts 1-42), which is preserved with the same fundamental outline which it had in primitive days in every true Communion the Church throughout the world.

What is Meant by the Apostolicity of the Church?—The meaning of the word "Apostolic" as applied to the Church is that the Church has mission, that it is authoritatively sent. Mission was given by our Lord to the Apostles: "As My Father hath sent Me, even so I send you." The Apostles gave it to those whom they ordained.

The Pastoral Epistles show a regularly organized method of handling on the apostolic succession (1 S. Tim. iii, 1-12; 144, 22).

The necessity of mission, including the continuity of episcopal succession from the Apostles, is part of the historical teaching of the Church. It is the common doctrine of the early writers of the Church that there are distinctly Christian gifts which are to be found where there is an episcopal ministry descended from the Apostles.

Holy Communion, Who Should Partake?—To come to the Lord's Supper is simply to come to Jesus Christ; to come to Him in the way of His appointment; to come to Him in the way arranged for us by Himself in view of His departure from the earth and Ascension to Heaven. It is this Holy and Blessed Communion with our Saviour which has been perverted and changed into a badge of distinction among brother Christians and a sign of superiority.

What are the qualifications required in him who would approach the Table of the Lord? I reply, simply those which were required to approach His Person when He dwelt in Judea; simply those which are required to approach His Person when we must give in our account at the Last Day.

Who then were fitted for His company and His personal, visible communion when He was on the earth? Regarded in themselves, none. But was their unfitness, was their unworthiness, a cause for their keeping away from Him? Why, brethren, what idea could be more monstrous? What more effectual to prevent the salvation of souls? And it is my firm conviction that this notion has been suggested and fostered by Satan himself, as a sure way of keeping men from their Saviour. It was not the world that loved him first; but He that loved the world. He came to a race sunk in trespasses and sins. He came announcing that His mission was not to the just, but to sinners. Suppose that any one of those who needed Him most, had kept away from Him through a feeling of unworthiness. What mistake could have been more fatal? Their need of His help was their strongest claim on His favorable notice. They all understood this. Everybody understood this. No one who looked at Christ one instant could fail to see it at a glance. And what was the consequence? Why, that they all flocked to Him at once. They came just as they were; in their sins, in their sickness, in their unutterable perplexities, discouragements and sorrows. The lame made shift to crawl towards Him; the blind strained their sightless balls in the direction where they knew there was light to be had for the asking; the foul leper perceived that he, the very outcast from among men and the refuse of the earth, could go to that One without fear of a repulse. Their infirmities, so far from keeping them away, were the certain passport to His Presence.

Ye who have never yet come to the Holy Communion, think rightly of that blessed ordinance. It is the Communion with Jesus Christ. To come to it is simply to come to Him. Perfection is not required in the communicant as a condition: it is by that sacrament that he is to attain perfection. Deep spirituality is not to have been previously attained; it is in that sacrament that the spiritual life is to be developed. Entire cleanness from sin is not a prerequisite; for it is to the very Saviour of sinners that the receiver draws near. But these three things only are needed of him who would commune: A hearty sorrow that he is a sinner; a firm faith that Christ can forgive his sins and cleanse from all uncleanness; a sincere wish to receive those blessings and to lead a godly, righteous and sober life. And these are the conditions on which the Holy Communion becomes indeed a savior of life. Thus saith the Church: "Ye who do truly and earnestly repent of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbors, and intend to lead a new life, following the Commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in His holy ways, draw near with faith, and take this Holy Sacrament to your comfort." This is what the Church requires Lord required of those who came to Him in communicants, because this is what the Church required of those who came to Him when He dwelt on earth: a hearty sorrow an honest intention, a firm faith. Without these none may become a communicant; without these none may be saved.—Dr. Dix.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECORD'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

The Every Member Campaign For Personal Service

To be held in Every Parish throughout the Diocese of Pennsylvania

WHAT IT IS and WHAT IT PROPOSES

To enlist Every Member of the Church for Prayer, Service and Giving, in Winning the World for CHRIST

Object.

To engage the interest and co-operation of Every Member through PRAYER, SERVICE and GIVING in fulfilling the Church's Mission; the word MISSION being used in the larger sense as meaning the work God has given us to do. This work will be considered on a threefold basis:

1. The Work of the Parish.
2. The Work of the Diocese.
3. The World-wide Work of the Church.

Reasons for Making the Campaign Now

1. Because the people of the Church have been stirred by the war to broader interests and higher ambitions, and this becomes an opportunity to unite their recently aroused service and sacrifices with a new zeal for the world program of the Church.

2. Because the future of the world depends to an unusual extent upon our making real in the lives of both men and nations the essential principles of Christianity.

A Campaign of Education

It is believed that the fact that only one-third of the members of the Church are actively interested in some branch of Church work is due to lack of information as to the nature, need, extent and blessing of such work. It is proposed, therefore, to have a Campaign of Education, extending from the First Sunday in Lent, March 9th, to March 30th. There will be

1. A Parish Week, beginning Sunday, March 9th, during which services will be held in every parish with the object of bringing to the attention of every member the different local needs for service, and the opportunities for rendering that service afforded by the various agencies of each parochial organization.

A great Parish Meeting will be in Christ Church Parish House on Wednesday Evening, of the week, March 12, when all Societies of the Parish will report. It is urged every member of the Parish be present at this Parish Meeting.

2. A Diocesan Week, beginning Sunday, March 16th. The Rev. George L. Richardson, Vicar of the Diocesan Church, Philadelphia, will speak in Christ Church on that Sunday evening.

Meetings for the members of all Germantown Churches will be held during this week in St. Luke's Parish House, (Main and Coulter Streets), on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at eight o'clock. The object of these meetings will be to discuss the various charities and institutions of the Diocese and vividly depict, with pictures and charts, the work, needs and opportunities in the Diocese. The Rev. Mr. Richardson will be the leader. Bishop Rhineland will preside on Wednesday evening.

3. A World-wide Week, beginning Sunday, March 23rd.

Meetings will be held in St. Luke's Parish House on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons at 4.15 for members of all the Church Schools in Germantown.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, meetings for adult members of all the Germantown Churches. These meetings will be in charge of the Rt. Rev. Henry J. Mikell, D.D., Bishop of Atlanta.

Thursday evening, a great Missionary Meeting for the whole Diocese will be held in the Metropolitan Opera House, Broad and Poplar Streets. The meeting will be addressed by the Rev. Robert E. Patton, D.D., and other distinguished speakers on the World Wide Mission of the Church.

4. Friday evening a reception will be given to all the Germantown Parish Committees, in St. Luke's Parish House at eight o'clock.

The Every Member Canvass

On Sunday, March 30th, it is planned to have a visitation of all the homes in the diocese, for the purpose of securing from every member a pledge of Prayer, Service and Giving for the work of the Church. A Parish Committee, consisting of representatives of all the organizations of the Parish, has been appointed by the Rector to visit the members of Christ Church. The chairman of the Committee is Mr. Richard H. Morris.

Automobiles will be secured to assist in this work. Will persons in the parish who have automobiles, kindly offer them to the Chairman of the Committee for use on that day?

When members of the Committee call at the homes of our parishioners the Rector is sure that they will receive a hearty and sympathetic welcome and a co-operation on the part of every member of the Church.

They go out in Christ's name, and in unselfish and devoted service for the extension of Christ's Kingdom on earth, and in this same spirit they will be received and welcomed by all.

Corporate Communion.

On the Sunday of the Every Member Canvas, March 30th, there will be a Corporate Communion at 7.30 A. M. for the members of the committee and all parishioners of Christ Church. At the eleven o'clock service all members of the committee will be commissioned by the Rector to go out into the Parish in Christ's name and for Christ's sake.

In the afternoon the committee will assemble in the Parish House at two o'clock sharp, to receive their lists and final instructions. They will leave the Parish House at two-thirty for their visitations. At five-thirty they will report to the Secretary at the Parish House.

The Final Service, Sunday Evening.

On Sunday evening will be held in Christ Church, the final service of the Campaign. At that time the Committee of the Parish will report to the congregation the result of their canvas.

There will be a special service of Intercession, and of Praise and Thanksgiving.

In which Class are YOU?

Prayers for the Every Member Campaign.

Lord of all power and might, who rulest in heaven and in earth, and canst turn the hearts of men after the counsel of Thine own will; we humbly pray Thee to awaken in all the members of our Parish a deep desire to maintain and set forward the work of Thy Kingdom throughout the world, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified and that all men everywhere may come to know Thee as their Father, through Jesus Christ, our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who hast promised Thy presence and power to all who obey Thy command to tell the nations of Thy love, bless we pray Thee our efforts to strengthen and extend the work of our Parish. To all who shall take any part in our plans give wisdom and zeal. Bind our people in a closer fellowship. If any have grown careless, help us to lead them back to Thy house that their love for Thee may be renewed. Teach us to pray, labor and give more faithfully for the extension of Thy Kingdom among men. Of Thy mercy we ask this, O Blessed Saviour of the world, who livest and reignest with the Father, and the Holy Ghost, ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

O Eternal God, who hast committed unto me the swift and solemn trust of life, since I know not what a day may bring forth, but only that the hour for serving Thee is always present; grant that I may give myself with a ready will to make Thy way known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations. Teach me, my Father, by Thine infinite love for me and for all men, to love those whom I have not seen, but with whom I may share the good things Thou hast entrusted to me: that the coming of Thy Kingdom may be hastened, and the sorrow of the world be relieved, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"Whosoever shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny Me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven." St. Matthew 10: 32, 33.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

Lent—A Privilege.

What can be said to stir up in your minds an appreciation of the privileges and of the spiritual helpfulness of a well-kept Lent?

The Church calls us to "come apart for a while", give serious thought to our life in its threefold relation to God, to self, to neighbor, and graciously appoints this quiet season that we may tune our minds and hearts to receive the message of God.

Our Lord withdrew Himself for forty days, gave Himself to fasting and prayer in preparation for His work. Are we, His servants, greater than our Master? Do not we need to learn, through self-discipline, how to control our bodies? Do not we need to learn how to pray "with the spirit and the understanding also?"

It is not argument that we need. We know all these things theoretically. What we want is practice, experience. Lent gives the opportunity for this.

Have you in the past tried to be obedient children of the Church? If you have, you know the blessedness of that obedience. If not, then will you not seek that happiness this Lent?

If the rules of the Church in regard to Fasts have no meaning, neither have those regarding Feasts. We gladly keep the Feasts; as willingly should we keep the Fasts.

Neither abstinence nor self-denial is an end, but a means to an end. More time for God, less time for self. More time for those who need our prayers, our help, less time for selfish pleasure. More to give for God and His Church, less for that which is only for personal gratification.

Will you not try to make this Lent of real and lasting help, first, by your personal consecration and private acts of devotion; second, by attendance at every public service possible? Then your Easter offering will be that of yourselves, your "souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy and living sacrifice," as you receive your Living, Risen and Ascended Lord in your Easter Communion. Then you will know Him as your Emmanuel, He dwelling in you and you in Him.

Some Suggestions for Lent.

1. Be present as far as possible, at every service of the Church. The benefit will be to others as well as to yourself.

2. Make your Communion more frequently and with a more definite purpose and preparation.

3. Read the Scriptures regularly and meditate upon what you read. Too many treat the Bible as a book of the past.

4. Pray until prayer becomes a habit, turning to God at all times as naturally as the flower turns to the sun.

5. Keep a strict watch over the door of your lips this Lent. If you cannot speak well of others, say nothing.

6. Deny yourself some luxury and add the cost of it to your Easter offering. The cost of self-denial should be given, not saved.

7. Refrain from entertainments and places of public amusement. "Love dissipated upon many objects concentrates itself upon none."

8. Let self examination be a daily duty. It is not a question of where you stand, but whither you are moving.

9. Be regular in your attendance to whatever guild or society you belong. Nominal membership counts for nothing save as a discouragement to others and a discredit to yourself.

10. Make your Lent positive, not merely negative. Undertake some practical work for good, and carry it through.

Paying and Giving.

We ought to make a distinction between paying and giving. Then the paying of money would go in general for our parish needs and expenses, such as the support of the clergy, the sexton and the choir, the provision of a suitable church building, and the heat and light and equipment necessary to make our church home clean and comfortable and reverent. The giving of money would be so left for charities and benevolences and missions. The paying would be done for our own spiritual health and growth, as paying to schools is done for intellectual health and growth, and to grocers and butchers for our physical health and growth. And, as no self-respecting person wants another to pay gratuitously for the schooling of his children or for the table supplies of himself and family, so each and every one in the Church or parish should have the self-respect and honest pride to want to bear his or her own share of the parish expenses. The provision for these expenses should be arranged for in a plain, business way, either by pew renting or by subscriptions carefully secured. The income so provided should be collected in a business way and put into and paid out from the parish treasury. When all this paying is provided for in a business way, then giving begins. If the paying is done cheerfully and honorably and to the full, all the offerings in church can go for charities, benevolences and missions.

This is the truth for which the Bishop of West Virginia contends. He says: "When we pay the pastor for the care of our spiritual life is it any more a giving than when we pay the doctor for the care and cure of our physical life? When we pay for the music ministering to our higher tastes in reverence any more than when we pay the painter or the sculptor ministering to higher tastes in the adornment of our homes? The plain business methods called for, the business rentals, business subscriptions, business collections and business payments, were best, all of them, kept out of the church. Giving, then, could be indeed unto the Lord. "All things come of Thee, O Lord, and of Thine own have we given unto Thee!" They would be gifts to Him and for His poor, His sick, His ignorant ones, His missionary kingdom. If this distinction could be so adopted and the real giving could be so practised, it might go far to solve the difficulty besetting our subject of missions."

You Ought To Be Confirmed.

A number of persons in the congregation, who ought to be confirmed, have not, as yet, given their names to the Rector. They ought not to put it off. They should not be "slackers." They owe a solemn allegiance to Jesus Christ and His Church. It is their duty to their family, to themselves, their Church and their God. They have been hesitating—putting it off for years. Each year it becomes more difficult to say "I will." Some day it will be "too late."

Will not every man and woman in this vicinity, who is desirous of leading a better life, who would seek "those things which are above" and would be a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, come to the Rector and talk the matter over with him. The Rector is most anxious to help any one who wants to come. Now is the time. "Whosoever will—let him come!"

The Sunday School.

A St. Valentine's party of the Sunday School was called for Friday night, February 14, 1919 at 8. This night was hoped to be a good night of fun for the Sunday School. The new members' campaign honor roll has obtained about 12 or 14 names, and with the oncoming of this Every Member Campaign, we hope to fill this roll and start another. Every Sunday-scholar on their toes, and keep a sharp lookout for new members and we think we can keep the printer busy.

Boy Scouts.

We wish to call the boys of the Parish and neighborhood to the troop which meets in our Gym. every Monday night at 7.45 o'clock. Every boy over 14 years of age is invited to visit and join this troop lead by Mr. George Bodine. Later on we hope to give more facts regarding the troop. R. C.

Subscribers to the Chimes.

Will not every one who has not subscribed to the "Chimes," please do so at once?

Fifty-five dollars more is needed to meet the expenses of publication, etc. The "Chimes" is distributed freely throughout the congregation, and all are invited to take copies, but the expense of publication must be met, and it is hoped that all will send in their subscription. Contributions are also solicited from those who feel so disposed.

Since the last issue suscriptions and contributions have been received from the following: Miss Sophia Gebhard, Mr. McGill, Mrs. Arthur Thacher, Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Sickel.

Price of subscription, fifty cents, and contributions may be sent to the Rector or to Robert Carnian, 6373 Sherman St.

Altar Guild.

The Altar Guild held a regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, February 10th.

Plans were made for the annual supper which will take place the 18th of this month.

The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

- February 21st-27th: Misses Dean, Falkner, M. Thompson.
- March 1st-7th: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Manser, E. Thompson.
- March 7th-14th: Misses Chase, Alexander, Wookloff.
- March 14th-21st: Misses Mogridge, Gerhard, Wisner.

Woman's Auxiliary.

A very interesting meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in the Parish House on Thursday, July 6th. It was gratifying to see the large number in attendance. The meeting was addressed by Miss Carmel and W. H. Jefferies, sometime medical missionary in China. Afternoon tea was served. On Thursday morning, March 27th, a meeting will be held, when reports of committees will be received and a special speaker will be present. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance at this meeting. The members of the auxiliary will sew for the City Mission during Lent. All women of the Parish are invited to unite in this work.

Chrift.

Or why Some People leave Church Before the End of the Service.
"I was glad to see you at church last Sunday," said the Rector. "Ay," replied Tommy, "and that sermon o' yours on 'Thrift' had a great effect on me, Rector." "I am very glad to hear it," replied the Rector. "And how did it effect you?" Tommy shook his head knowingly. "I recnt cut before the collection was taken!"

The Junior Brotherhood.

The Junior Brotherhood has been partially crippled in its working ranks by losing one of its very best workers, namely, Fred Beiheld, who has left for Boarding School. Although Fred did not hold any position he is the only fellow we had from Mr. Garity's Chapter.

At a building-up-meeting of the chapter held at Mr. Leung's house we had 13 members present. We have not been going more than three months now, and with a start of 5 we have now reached 13. At this meeting VanDusen led; his topic was the parables on the lost sheep and the coin. After a business meeting we had a good time for about an hour, and then went home. But every member left with the feeling that the Brotherhood had a special appeal for every one.

On Wednesday night, February the 12th, the chapter will meet Mr. Randall, who is Secretary for the Brotherhood all over the United States. We hope at this short meeting, which will be held before the Bible Class banquet, that Mr. Randall will point out for us, definitely, our future work. After this meeting we will go down to the banquet 100 per cent strong.

With fourteen good earnest fellows, the parish will begin to see some change. We hope to aid the Sunday School and help to provide a grand time for all.

Watch and help us and we will make the best Junior Chapter in the city.

R. Carmel, Secy.

Contributions to the Chimes.

So far the contributions have not been nearly adequate enough to pay for the numerous expenses of the paper. This paper connects every member of the church, Sunday School and other organizations. It is helpful and needed; why not support it?

Some may say why should I subscribe or contribute when I can get a copy each month for nothing? In answer to this, just stop and think. How does the Parish get this paper? Certainly not for nothing! Then since every member contributes to the Parish, why not pay for its paper. A subscription is 50 cents, which should be sent to Robert Carmel, 6373 Sherman Street, Germantown, Pa.

The Girl Scouts.

The Girl Scouts, Troop 119, are still an active part of the life of our Parish. We have charge of the Mothers' Meeting, were both presented with bonbon dishes by the members. This was a pleasant surprise to the ladies and was much appreciated.

We record, with sorrow, the death of one of our oldest members, Mrs. Buckley, who passed away on Wednesday, February 12th. Mrs. Buckley has been a member of the meeting for many years, and until the last year, was regular in attendance. She died at the ripe old age of ninety-nine years. She will be greatly missed.

The funeral was held in Christ Church on Saturday morning, February 15th, and she was buried in Chelton Hills Cemetery.

News from our Enlisted Members.

The Patriotic Committee of Christ Church has been keeping in touch with the members of the parish who have been in the country's service. Several letters have been sent to each one of them and they were sent remembrances from their home Church at Christmas time. The words of appreciation which have been received have been most gratifying. The Committee has done most effective service to our enlisted members—men and women—the total number from this parish being 78,—most of whom are still abroad.

Replies have been recently received from the following members: Henry Randal Barmore, Jr., Edward Case, Charles Connelly, William S. Crowder, Richard H. Gurley, Edward Kegan, Miss Olive G. Kirkland, Miss Julia M. Lincoln, Louis W. McGill, Henry S. Kitler, Stanley V. Wilcox, Norman Waldman, Lewis Thompson.

It is to be regretted that lack of space in the Chimes will not permit these letters to be published in full. All of them are most interesting and are full of appreciation of "letters from home." The following are excerpts from a few letters. One member writes: "In looking over the list of enlisted members from Christ Church, I know pretty nearly all the fellows, and I am proud of my Church. I contributed 'spicy selections.'"

Mothers' Meeting.

Twenty-two happy people sat down at the dinner given to the Mothers' Meeting on Tuesday afternoon, February 3rd. The dinner was served to the mothers by the ladies in charge. Mrs. Charles Eberle, as guest of the meeting, entertained the mothers in a most delightful way by giving several recitations. It was a great privilege to have Mrs. Eberle at the meeting. Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Naegle and Mrs. Case, members of the meeting, contributed "spicy selections."

"What kind of a Church would this Church be, If every member was just like me?"

know this that Christ Church certainly looks after her members and has treated the boys "fine." I am always glad to hear from the Church. I must honestly admit that I wasn't a very steady member of Christ Church, but after I saw how they treated me, you can just bet I will be at Christ Church as often as I can get there after I return, and I am proud to be a member of Christ Church and to have such a Rector as Mr. Arndt has been to me."

Another writes: "Mother wrote me told me of your visit to our home and it does me good to know that you are so much interested in me, and that I am remembered in the prayers at Christ Church. * * I never forget the Bible Class and the Church, as my prayers are for both. The Prayer Book you gave me the night I left, finds a place in my pocket so I can have it with me always and I try to read some part of it each day; not every day, as there were days I did not get time to wash. * * Since I come into the army I have remembered what you told me and have tried to live a good, clean, manly life. I have not been perfect and have "done many things I ought not to have done," but I am still on the job to overcome my faults. * * On Easter Sunday I walked six miles to a French Church and received communion. * * We have had services outside, in the forests, mess halls or anywhere, and I know that our prayers were heard as well there as in a great big church. We have just left Verdun and it is sad to see the great cathedral in ruins. * * Mr. Arndt, please keep the Bible Class going, as we will all be home soon and that is very dear to me. Remember me to all the men of the class. How I long to be in dear old Christ Church again!"

Another writes: "I received your Christmas remembrance. I am, of course, thinking a great deal of Philadelphia at this time, and especially of home and Christ Church. How I wish I could be there to sit with mother in our pew on Christmas morning. I shall be there in spirit on that day!"

Another writes: "Have done some traveling since I last saw you and seen something which I long to tell you. * * I shall make for Christ Church as soon as I get back. France is all right, but give me Philly!"

Here is an optimistic letter: "Just a few lines to let you know that I am often thinking of you and Christ Church, and have not forgotten either. In fact, I often think of the many pleasant evenings spent together at the Men's Bible Class, and the interest you have always taken in me. I am at present connected with the North Bombing Squadron of Naval Air Force, stationed on the outskirts of Paillac. Our camp is an example of American efficiency, the barracks sanitary, hammocks spotless, and the mess-hall a wonder; airy, roomy and clean; in fact better than I found it in the States. Have not one complaint to offer and am mighty well satisfied. Cannot hand the natives much credit; they lack the "pep" of the Americans; they all seem half asleep or dazed. Of course, I must not judge the whole country by a few people. * * Compared to the good old U. S. A., the whole country is years behind; I never realized what a wonderful country ours is, until this chance for comparison. Why! Just for the sake of living in and being a citizen of the U. S. A. is worth fighting for in itself, and I am sure proud to call myself an American. * * Closing with my deepest regards and assuring you that I will try my hardest to be worthy of yours, and with my best wishes to the men of the Christ Church Bible Class."

One of the old standbys writes: "I can't tell you how much I am enjoying life over here. I am fat and saucy, as usual, but not lazy. * * It seemed rather unusual not to be decorating good old Christ Church on Christmas Eve this year; I thought of you all and feel sure that the new blood did better than we older fellows. If I was not there in flesh, I was, at least, with you in spirit then—and on Christmas Day!"

To All Communicants.

Holy Week draws near, and I am anxious to say a few words to the Communicants in the Parish and all who have been confirmed. We surely do not wish to let this sacred season of Lent pass without an earnest effort to gain some new impulse in the way of better living. We cannot let the story of the Redeemer's sufferings and death be told again without the desire to enter more fully into the meaning, and to know that it was for us He died upon the cross.

Let me speak personally to each communicant. There are some who are earnestly striving to serve Christ as their Redeemer and Master, and who are faithful unto Him day after day, year after year. But oh! what of the "others?" There are many, far too many, who have become dead to religion and to all its blessed privileges and obligations. There are Communicants, so called, who have so far strayed away from their Church and neglected its services that they no longer feel the need of the Blessed Sacrament of the Holy Communion, which formerly was the source of so much comfort and strength to their lives. My dear friends, before you have become spiritually atrophied, I beseech you in God's name to arouse yourselves from this spiritual lethargy into which, perhaps without realizing it, you have fallen.

The blessed season of Lent is almost gone! Holy Week is here! Your Saviour, with arms outstretched upon the cross, pleads for your return! "Is it nothing to you all ye that pass by?" My friends, He comes very near to us at this time and offers us the way of drawing very near to Him. Put away everything that keeps you from Him! Hear Him! Learn the lesson of the Cross!

Prepare with the greatest care for your Easter Communion. Do not come to it as a matter of course, but only after the most serious examination of your lives and sincerest purpose and resolution of amendment. Seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit that you may know yourself, your sins and weakness, and that you may receive the grace He is always ready to bestow. Make faithful use of Holy Week and its services. Try to arrange your affairs so that you will have time to dwell in reverend meditation on the closing scenes of the Saviour's life as they bring us day by day nearer to His Cross. Put away as far as possible the thoughts of other things, and devote yourselves to the contemplation of His love, His sacrifice and to the firm resolve to know Him in the days to come.

There are others in the Congregation who are half hearted in their Christian life, who are making no progress in Christian character, and some who are absorbed with the cares and pleasures of this life. They once acknowledged Christ as their Master, and made a solemn vow to learn of Him and to do His will, but have adopted other standards and motives of conduct than His commandments. They are in Church at times, but not regularly, and rarely do they come to the Holy Communion. They allow trivial reasons to keep them away and offer excuses which in their hearts they know are lies before God. These are symptoms of a serious condition of their religious life. Are you, who read this, one of them?

Then will you not come back with your whole heart to Him Whose you are and Whom you should serve with all your powers? It is the Saviour Who died for you Who calls you. Dear friend, ~~make Holy Week the time for our return.~~ It offers a definite opportunity. It urges you with the appeals of the Redeemer's Cross. ~~I beseech you, Turn away from your life of indifference, come home again to a Saviour's love, prepare to receive the Holy Communion, that most comfortable Sacrament of the Body and blood of Christ.~~

Holy Week.

The shadows deepen! Our Saviour is on His way to Calvary!

During this Holy Week we turn our thoughts to the closing scenes in our Lord's earthly life. His triumphant entry on Palm Sunday into the City that He loves and follows Him each day as He slowly wends His way along the Via Gacia up to the Mount of Calvary.

I am sure that every Christian heart in this parish will yearn to be close to Jesus during these last holy days.

The services have been so arranged for Holy Week that every one may attend at least one service each day.

Every afternoon at 4.30 there will be the usual Meditative Readings on the Sacred Events of each day, with appropriate hymns. There will be no choir. The service will be very simple and quiet, befitting the solemn last days of our Lord's life.

The daily Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 (from Monday to Thursday inclusive) will afford our people an opportunity to begin each day in a service of dedication.

Cannot business people arrange to be present at this Service before going to their daily occupations?

It will mean so much to all!

"Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend;
Life and health and peace possessing
Through the sinner's dying friend.

Here I kneel in wonder, viewing
Mercy poured in streams of blood;
Precious drops for pardon suing,
Make and plead my peace with God."

It Is Not Too Late To Join the Confirmation Class.

The Rector will be pleased to meet any one in the congregation, who has not given his or her name to him to be confirmed. It is not too late; but soon will be!

The Rector may be seen after any service or by appointment and he will be glad to meet any one who wishes to speak to him on the subject of Confirmation. It is not yet too late!!

Easter Communion.

Every one, of course,—every one who considers himself a Christian and who is physically able to do so, will, of course, attend Divine Service on Easter Day! It would be worse than foolish even to suggest that any Christian will remain away from His Father's House on Easter Day. Even if there were no rubric in the Prayer Book which says, "Every Parishioner shall communicate at least three times in the year, of which Easter shall be one," every Christian soul, who rejoices in the hope of the Resurrection would want to avail himself of this privilege and be with Jesus on that great Day, joining in the triumphal song "Christ is Risen from the Dead and become the first fruits of them that slept!"

Every member of the Church will devote these last solemn days of Lent in preparation for the Easter Communion.

Confirmation Service.

The Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, Bishop Suffragan of the Diocese, will administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation in Christ Church on Maundy Thursday evening, April 117th. The Confirmation Service will be held at 7.45 o'clock.

Immediately after the Confirmation, the Bishop will conduct a Preparatory Service for the Easter Communion. All are cordially invited to this service.

What Is Confirmation?

Confirmation follows Baptism when a person reaches the age of discretion. The laying on of hands of the Apostles (Acts viii, xix and Heb. vi) has ever been continued by the Church as 1st, the renewal of the Baptismal pledge; 2nd, Open confession of Christ; 3rd, The ordinary door to the Holy Communion; 4th, The gift of the Holy Ghost for the final perseverance. It is a rite practiced from the time of the Apostles and endorsed by the fathers of the church.

A. D. 180. Tertullian:—"After Baptism, —then the Imposition of Hands."

A. D. 250. Cyprian:—"They who believed in Samaria were baptized—hands were laid on them—which is still the custom among us."

A. D. 420. St. Jerome:—"This is the custom of the Church—the Bishops Laying Hands upon them for the Invocation of the Holy Spirit."

A. D. 494. The Prayer in our Confirmation Service dates from this period. From this time on to the present there can not be any doubt concerning Confirmation or The Laying on of Hands by the Bishop being a Ceremony of the Church.

Can we safely omit that which from the first has been insisted upon?

Methodist Testimony—"I was determined not to be without it, and therefore went and received Confirmation—even since I became a Methodist Preacher."—Dr. Adam Clarke.

Baptism Testimony—"We believe that Laying on of Hands with Prayer upon Baptized believers as such is an ordinance of Christ, and ought to be substituted unto by all such persons to partake of the Lord's Supper."

Baptist Association, Sept. 25, 1742.

Congregational Testimony—"The confession of the name of Christ is, after all, very lame, till the discipline which Christ ordained be restored, and the Rite of Confirmation be recovered to its full use and solemnity."—Dr. Coleman, Boston.

Presbyterian Testimony—"The Rite of Confirmation, thus administered to Baptized children, when arrived at competent years—shows clearly that the Primitive Church, in her purest days, exercised the authority of a Mother over her baptized children."—Committee of Gen Assembly.

"This custom is frequently mentioned by the ancient writers. "Such imposition, I highly approve, and wish it were now restored to its primitive use unconnected by superstition."—John Calvin.

New Envelopes for Envelope Subscribers.

New sets of envelopes for the year beginning at Easter will be furnished to all who wish to subscribe through the Envelope System. Former subscribers, who are now pew holders, will find their envelopes in their pews; others will find their envelopes arranged in alphabetical order, on the table near the South entrance.

Persons who have not subscribed—it is desired that all should do so—may find pledge cards in the racks in either vestibule or they will be furnished on application to the Verger. Please indicate by a mark the amount you desire to give weekly; sign name and address at bottom of card and place it on the alms basin at any service. A package of envelopes will then be sent to you. For rental of pews or for further information please apply, after any service, to Mr. Richard H. Morris or to the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, or by addressing the Warden at 328 South Third St.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of _____ dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

The Every Member Campaign.

The "Every Member Campaign," which is still in progress throughout this Diocese, as the Chimes goes to press, has been entered into enthusiastically by the members of Christ Church. The committees of men and women have been visiting the members of the Parish during the past three weeks, with the purpose of enlisting all in a campaign of Prayer, Service and Giving. The response on the part of the people of Christ Church has been most encouraging.

At the Parish Meeting, held in the Parish House, Wednesday evening, March 12th, the gymnasium was filled to overflowing with interested parishioners who gathered to hear reports of the various societies in the Parish and to enlist in some form of parish activity.

Reports were received from the following societies:

Altar Guild reported by Mrs. H. R. Baremore.

Senior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, reported by Charles H. Jackson.

Junior Brotherhood, St. Andrew, reported by Frederick Lennig.

Daughters of the King reported by Mrs. Charles Cotton.

Girls' Friendly Society reported by Miss Dorothy Rowland.

Woman's Auxiliary reported by Mrs. J. I. Morrison.

Junior Auxiliary reported by Gertrude H. Belfield.

Choir reported by Owen J. Burness.

Choir Guild reported by Mrs. Richard P. Mogridge.

Men's Bible Class reported by Frank Mauser.

Women's Bible Class reported by Mrs. H. R. Baremore.

Boys' Scouts reported by George I. Bodine.

Mothers' Meeting reported by Mrs. Charles Henry Arndt.

The Sunday School reported by Richard H. Morris.

The Christ Church Chimes reported by Robert Carmint.

Church Periodical Club reported by Mrs. Charles Henry Arndt, for Mrs. Topliffe Johnson.

The Vestry reported by J. I. Morrison.

The report of the societies showed a need of more workers. Some of the societies are handicapped for want of leaders or officers. There is opportunity for every one who is willing to enlist in some department of Parish work, and an earnest appeal is made for all to show their willingness at once. "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few."

The final event of the Every Member Campaign will be on Sunday, March 30, when an Every Member Canvass will be made by the committees in charge, calling upon every member in the Parish, asking every member for co-operation in "Prayer, Service and Giving."

The splendid spirit which has been shown throughout the Parish in the "Every Member Campaign" has been most encouraging to the committee in charge.

When the members of the Committee call at the homes of our parishioners the Rector is sure that they will receive a hearty and sympathetic welcome and a co-operation on the part of every member of the Church.

They go out in Christ's name, and in unselfish and devoted service for the extension of Christ's Kingdom on earth, and in this same spirit they will be received and welcomed by all.

CORPORATE COMMUNION.

On the Sunday of the Every Member Canvass, March 30th, there will be a Corporate Communion at 7.30 A. M. for the members of the committee and all parishioners of Christ Church. At the eleven o'clock service all members of the committee will be commissioned by the Rector to go out into the Parish in Christ's name and for Christ's sake

THE FINAL SERVICE, SUNDAY EVENING.

On Sunday evening will be held in Christ Church, the final service of the Campaign. At that time the Committee of the Parish will report to the congregation the result of their canvas.

There will be a special service of Intercession, and of Praise and Thanksgiving.

Revision of the Parish Register.

It is very important that the Parish Register of Christ Church shall contain the names and correct addresses of all members of the Parish.

Will all persons, who have recently moved into the parish and have not yet presented their letters of transfer from their former Rector, please do so at once? And will all who have moved away from Germantown, and cannot longer attend the services of Christ Church, please secure from the Rector their letter, so that he may transfer them to the Rector of the Church where they are attending?

The canons of the Church require every Rector to report annually to the Bishop the communicant membership of his Parish.

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II, Canon 12.

MORNING PRAYER, (Shortened Form)
HOLY COMMUNION, SERMON, 11 A. M.
SUNDAY SCHOOL CAROL SERVICE, 7.30 P. M.

The Rev. Arnold Harris Hood will assist the Rector at all services on Easter Day. It is a great pleasure to the Rector to have Rev. Mr. Hood with him in the chancel of Christ Church. Mr. Hood was curate in Christ Church to the former Rector, the Rev. John B. Falkner, twenty-seven years ago. His many friends are glad to welcome him back to Christ Church, where he began his ministry and where he is still greatly beloved.

Three Hour Service on Good Friday.

The Three Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross will be conducted by the Rev. C. Sydney Goodman, Rector Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, Pa.

It is requested that persons shall be in the Church before the noon hour and all, who can, are asked to remain during the three hours of this solemn service. Persons entering or leaving the Church during the service are requested to do so during the singing of the hymns.

The offering at this service is asked for Church work among the Jews. Alms plates will be found at the doors. An excerpt from a letter from the Bishop reads:

"I would remind you of the appropriateness of asking the offerings on Good Friday for the Mission among the Jewish people. Since by the action of the last Convention this work in Philadelphia was put on the Diocesan Budget, any money given to our own committee will apply on the Parish apportionment."

Services on Easter Day.

The services on Easter Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion, 6.30, 7.30 A. M.

Morning Prayer (shortened form)

Holy Communion, 11.00 A. M.

Sunday School Carol Service, 7.30 P. M.

Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week, Holy Communion, 9.30 A. M.

It is earnestly hoped that not one communicant of Christ Church will allow himself to remain away from the Holy Communion on Easter Day, unless Providentially hindered, but will so thoroughly prepare himself during the remaining day of Lent that he may come worthily to meet his Risen Saviour, "reckoning himself to be dead indeed unto sin; but alive unto God, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Our Easter Offering.

Our Offering on Easter Day should be a true expression of our love and loyalty to Jesus Christ. As He suffered and sacrificed and died for us, and rose again, that we through Him, might have Life Eternal, so should we present on Easter Day such an offering as will mean something in His sight—will mean a real love and devotion, a genuine spirit of self-sacrifice for Him, whom we call our Lord and Saviour.

Far back in Old Testament times, the faithful were commanded to appear before the Lord for sacrificial worship three times a year, and they were not to appear empty. One of these occasions was the "Feast of Unleavened Bread"—which corresponds to our Easter Day. "Three times in a year shall all appear before the Lord thy God in the place which He shall chose; in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles, and they shall not appear before the Lord empty. Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which He hath given thee." (Deut. 16:16.)

If this was the custom in Old Testament times how more abundantly and gladly should the Christian pour out his heart to God in thanksgiving on Easter Day.

Whilst I am very anxious that the full amount asked for by the Vestry shall be realized this Easter, I am even more anxious that this offering shall come abundantly from all, from every man, woman and child, and that it shall be an expression of deep, true Christian devotion according as God hath blessed each one of us.

A Legacy to Christ Church.

By the will of the late Mrs. Ellen Craig, a faithful communicant, and a member of this parish for the past five years, who died at her home on Boyer Street, this month, a bequest of two thousand dollars was made to Christ Church.

There were no conditions to the bequest.

The Happiest Life.

"Easter Day, rightly considered, makes the religious life the happiest of all lives and insists upon our always treating it as such. For the happiest of all conditions is that in which one is the partial possessor already of a hope that promises its own completion. The child's life is so very happy because it already has enough of the real, conscious manly character in it to prophesy more for itself. And the true man never outgrows the child's joyousness, because he keeps always a future before him of what he is to be, suggested, promised, and in part realized by what he already is. The two unhappy and joyless conditions would be, one the utter absence of hope, and the other the possession of a hope that was only hope, that had no real existence in the present. So a religion that opened no eternity, or a religion that offered no beginning of eternal life until the other world was reached—either of them would be unhappy, one with despondency, the other with restlessness at the postponement of the soul's worthiest ambitions."—Phillips Brooks.

Election of Vestrymen.

The annual election of Vestrymen of this Parish will be held in the Parish House on Easter Monday, Monday, April 21st, between the hours of five and six P. M.

The terms of the following members of the Vestry expire this year: Richard H. Morris, O. N. Middleton, George T. Morgan, J. M. Woodroffe. Four Vestrymen are to be elected for a term of three years.

The following excerpt is from the By-laws of Christ Church. By-Law, Article I, Section 8. "Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestryman one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the Secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the southeast vestibule of the Church at least two Sunday prior to the holding of such election, and no person so nominated shall be a candidate."

(Charter of Incorporation, Article 6.)

"The Vestry of said Church shall consist of twelve men to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereat. Such elections shall be by ballot and shall be held on Easter Monday in each and every year, between such hours and upon such notice as the by-laws of said Church may provide; and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said Church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of this Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of at least two years next preceding any such election, annual subscriptions of not less than ten dollars each, or the like sum in annual rental of pew or sitting for the same period.

Junior Brotherhood St. Andrew.

The response of the boys of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew to the work of the Church and Parish has been wonderfully encouraging.

From a beginning of six members some three months ago we have advanced to 14 live, active members, ever ready and willing to do the work assigned to them.

The boys are engaged in the different work of the Parish; one is the Chime-master, one is connected with the work in the Sunday School, another is on the staff of the Chimes, another is the Crucifer, and all take turns ushering at the Sunday evening service on the first and third Sundays of each month.

They are now planning a series of summer recreations for the younger boys in the Sunday School, to which they invite all of the boys of the Parish.

Officers of the Junior Brotherhood are, David B. Arndt, Vice Director; Robert W. Carmint, Secretary; Frothingham B. Falkner, Treasurer.

The Special Spring event will be the big meeting to be held early in June at St. Martin's in the Field to which the Junior Brotherhood extends an invitation to all the boys in the Parish.

Frederick Lenning, Junior Director.

A Memorial Alms Basin.

An alms basin, to be used at the side altar in the chapel, has been presented by Miss Francis Cooley in memory of her father, Mr. Frank Cooley of Germantown.

Daughters of the King.

The chapter has been meeting weekly, for the past two months, following the course of Scriptural Readings and Prayers set forth in the "Every Member Campaign" booklet. The regular meetings are held on the second Monday evening of the month.

We are glad to welcome to the Order, two new members, who have been meeting with us. We extend a cordial invitation to other women in the Parish to join in the work of the Daughters of the King. The motto of the Order is "For His Sake." N. P. C.

Easter Memorial Flowers.

Following the custom of past years the flowers in the Chancel on Easter Day will be memorials to the Blessed Dead. The Altar Guild requests that all persons who desire to remember their departed friends by memorial flowers will please send their contributions in money to Mrs. Henry R. Baremore, 6439 Jefferson St., as soon as possible. The ladies of the Guild will personally attend to the election and purchase of the flowers and will see to it that each contribution is represented by an appropriate memorial. By sending contributions in money the Guild will be enabled to make a choicer and more harmonious selection. Those who prefer to contribute blooming plants or flowers are requested to send them to the Parish House on Saturday morning in time for them to be arranged in the Chancel on the same day. All persons are invited to contribute to the Easter Memorial, and any contribution, however small, will be cordially received.

Altar Guild.

The Altar Guild held its annual supper on Thursday evening, February 27th. Seventeen were present and it was greatly enjoyed by all. We were very glad to have with us Mr. and Mrs. Arndt and also Mr. Melville Gurley, who told us some of his interesting experiences while abroad.

The regular monthly meeting of the Guild was held on Monday evening, March 10th. We would again like to suggest that anyone who desires to have a memorial Sunday, and observe the day by sending flowers for the Altar, make arrangements with Mr. Arndt.

We also wonder if the members of the congregation know that the offerings in the small box at the McCallum Street door go to the Altar Guild? We would be very glad to receive contributions in this way to help us defray the expenses of the upkeep of the linens and the other Altar appointments. We are at present very badly in need of a new white Pulpit Fall and would like very much to have someone present a new one.

The Guild is very glad to welcome Mrs. R. P. Mogridge as a new member.

The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

March 28-April 4: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Manser and E. Thompson.

April 4-11: Misses Chase, Alexander and Woodroffe.

April 11-18: Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Gerhard, Mrs. Mogridge.

April 18-25: Misses Dean, Falkner and M. Thompson. G. F. D.

Contributions for the Chimes.

These people want the Chimes. Do You? Mr. Davidson, Mr. Rowley, Mr. Bains, Mrs. Wismer, Miss Orme, Miss Sophia Gebhardt, Mr. Amerling, Mrs. McGill, Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Sutcliffe, Mrs. Thacher, Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Sickel, Mrs. Laura Wolf, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Kamerly, Mr. Carpenter, Mrs. Belfield, Fred Belfield, Miss Cave, Mr. Carmint. These are just the people who subscribed since last month's issue. We have now about one-half enough money. As soon as Lent is over I want to get the rest of the sixty dollars required. Contributions and subscriptions may be sent to Robert W. Carmint, 6373 Sherman St.

The New Dramatic Club.

Most probably you will remember the fine dramatic society that was in our church before Mr. Wilcox left. We will try and renew its old spirit. As soon as Lent is over we will begin to rehearse for our first presentation. We are going to pay to keep a French War orphan and also give to the War Mission in our church. So everybody be prepared to buy and sell some of our tickets. R. C.

Athletics.

37, 16 and 20-13 were the scores of the two basketball games our team lost to St. Peter's. We hope to make a stronger team through the efforts of Mr. Walters and Mr. Gebhard. We have some very good material; Dave Arndt, Gable, Van Dusen, forwards; Thompson, center, and Kenning and McCrac, guards. After basketball season is over, we will get up a baseball team, and anyone interested can see Mr. Walters.

Mr. Walters will also coach some of the smaller boys on Thursday nights in the gym until weather permits them to work outside.

We expect to form a Recreation Club to cover everything outside of Religious meetings and activities in the Parish.

Sunday School.

The Valentine Party for the Sunday School on February 14th came off with a great success. The older members of the Sunday School gave a "Shadow Play" while a dance and a "Backward Class" were rendered by the smaller girls. Miss Constance Van Dusen rendered a very beautiful and artistic dance. After these were over the Sunday School went down stairs and played and after a few refreshments went home. C.

The Girl Scouts.

When the buds begin to appear on the trees and the first spring flowers thrust their heads above the ground, the Girl Scouts' (Troop 119) thoughts were turned towards gardens. These, of course, mean work, but work means nothing with the visions of vegetables later on as a reward! Our main difficulty, at present, is, that we have no place to make our gardens. Has someone in our Parish a vacant lot that they would be willing to allow us to use a small part of for this purpose?

The girls are working to earn money for their suits and anyone interested in us can give us work to do. If you need someone to run an errand, mind the baby or do the many little things that girls can do, call for a Girl Scout! You will be helping us to earn money for our suits or for furniture for our club room and we hope we are helping you, too! Try us! If anyone is interested will they see Mr. Arndt or Miss E. Cave in regard to it?

We regret very much that our Captain, Miss A. Fiest, is still too ill to be with us. She is sadly missed by all and the progress of the troop has suffered in consequence. We hope that she will soon be well enough to resume her duties. In the meantime, we are hoping to have a captain from headquarters to fill her place temporarily, and we will give Miss Fiest a hearty welcome when she feels strong enough to come back to us, which cannot be too soon to suit us.

Again, we extend a cordial invitation to all girls over fourteen years to join us any Friday evening at 7.45 P. M.

Men's Bible Class.

We are gradually gaining strength after our ranks were somewhat depleted when our men were called to the colors and after losing three able teachers.

We have managed to hold together and keep the class going. Last summer we averaged about thirteen men per Sunday, now we average thirty men per Sunday, but we are not satisfied. We want to double our attendance by Easter. Let each member make an earnest effort to bring a new member.

We have an able and interesting teacher in Mr. Schrick who teaches the lesson from the Bible and draws his illustrations from topic of the present day, making it doubly interesting.

I wish to appeal to every man in the Parish to come to the class on Sunday morning at 9.45 o'clock. I assure you that your time will not be lost but well spent and you will come again.

The class is working hard to make a success of the "Every Member Campaign," and are giving their aid to the Committee of the Parish.

The regular social and business meeting for March has been dispensed with, owing to it coming in Lent, and the April meeting has been set for April 23rd. A good entertainment and refreshments will be arranged for. A special invitation is extended to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Class to attend this meeting.

Now men, one grand attack and over the top for sixty or more members by Easter. If you cannot pull get behind and push. That is a good motto, "PUSH." C. R. R.

The Easter Communion

Four hundred and fifty-one persons received at the three services of the Holy Communion held in Christ Church on Easter morning. This is a large percentage of the communicant list of the parish. Some were not privileged to come on account of illness; a few were out of the city; but where were the others?

The Every Member Campaign

The Every Member Campaign, which was held throughout the Diocese during three weeks in Lent, brought forth very encouraging results in this parish.

The Committee in charge did most excellent work, and it is to be congratulated on the success. The Committee were very courteously received by the members of the parish upon whom they called and the work was a pleasure to the members of the Committee.

They were so much encouraged with the work that the Committee is to be permanently continued, to hold itself in readiness to do other or similar work in the parish, as the needs may arise.

The members of the parish may expect to hear from this Committee again in the near future.

As a result of the Every Member Campaign a number of persons signified their willingness to take part in various work in the parish. It is hoped that these persons will not forget their promise and will respond, by applying to the Rector. Over $1,000 were also asked in pledges though the Envelope System.

The Rector wishes to express his high appreciation of the splendid work done by the members of the Committee in charge. There was an immense amount of detail connected with the preparation of such a campaign, and the Committee have the gratitude of the entire Parish for the thoroughness and the faithfulness of its work.

The members of the Committee, in turn, appreciate the courtesy with which they were received, and the hearty co-operation which the members of the Parish extended to them.

It is fortunate that the Committee is to be continued, and it is to be hoped that there may be several opportunities, during the coming year, when our people's interest may be further enlisted in hearty, co-operative work of the Parish.

"Our Boys," Returning from Service

One by one, members of our Parish, who have been absent in the service of their country, are returning home. Almost every Sunday a new, and yet a very familiar, face appears in our congregation. It is a great delight to the Rector to see these "boys" back with us again. We call them "boys," because they have been so very near and dear to us through these many months of absence. We have regarded them with singular interest and solicitude. They have been in our thoughts and prayers so often these months that we have come to regard them, each of them, as our, our very own; "our boys", for whom we have a real affection and love. Our anxiety, our fears, our pride, our prayers have been very real since they went away from us.

And now that they have been spared to come back to us, and we see them again in their accustomed place in church—their old Church Home—our hearts are filled with joy and gratitude to God that He, in His goodness has answered our prayers and has brought back to us—our boys!

And may our other "boys," who are still overseas, be spared to return to us, strong and well, to come to God's Home that we, and they, may kneel together in united prayer and praise and thanksgiving.

"I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day," says the Apostle. That is what we should all strive to attain—to be raised for at least one day in the week above the grinding toil of our daily work; above the debasing influence of frivolous amusements; above the jangling of business or controversy; raised into the high and holy atmosphere, breathed by pure and peaceful lives, bright and beautiful thoughts, elevating and invigorating worship.—Dean Stanley.

The Mother of "Our Boys"

One of the chaplains of our Church, who has been serving at "the front," writes the following to a friend. It should be read by every woman in the land. The Rector commends these words to the women in our parish and especially the concluding paragraph, to impress upon their minds the wonderful opportunity that comes to women now, when "our boys" return to their homes and to their parish church. The letter reads as follows.

"One experience I always had with the living and the dying, and it was this: that the most sensitive place in a boy's heart was the place given over to his mother.

It was only a few weeks ago that a nurse stepped softly over to me and I entered within the sheets that hang around the bed and that tell the story of another life ebbing away. The eyes of the dying man searched me; he raised himself up, threw his arms around me, and pulled me down to him; and I prayed for him and with him; and as he sank back upon his bed with a sob of relief, my presence was no longer the presence of the chaplain, it was the presence of some one infinitely dearer and sweeter to him. I had been but the forerunner and herald; for he looked up to me and said, as thousands of them had said before: "Mother, Mother!" I knew that word so well—the first thought of the wounded man after his operation is his mother; the first question of the chaplain after he has asked about the battle and his pal is, "Would you take a little note to Mother?" If he is an Italian or a Frenchman, it is "Maman"; if he is an American, it is the old Anglo-Saxon "Mother". And as I came away from that dying man the boys on either side lying on their beds looked at me with wide-open eyes. And when I said to them, "Boys, it's always so, isn't it? The one we think of first is our mother. It was so when we fell out of bed at night as little boys, or fell off the fence and hurt ourselves, or cut our finger, or bumped our head. And here it is the same when we come to the great struggle." And those poor boys just turned their faces over on the pillow, their eyes just swimming in tears. Kipling never wrote a truer thing than those lines:

"If I were hanged on the highest hill,

Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!

I know whose love would follow me still,

Mother o' mine O mother o' mine!

"If I were drowned in the deepest sea,

Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!

I know whose tears would come down to me,

Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!

If I were damned of body and soul,

Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!

I know whose prayers would make me whole,

Mother o' mine, O mother o' mine!"

O mothers, sisters, sweethearts, the biggest thing you have done for the men at the front, and the biggest thing you can do for them coming home, is not all that you have done and still do in knitting socks and making bandages and ministering to their physical comfort. The biggest thing you have done, the biggest thing you can do, is to be the fine women that shall make them finer men.

A Service of Hymns of Praise and Silent Prayer to the Holy Spirit

The Rector wishes to call attention to a Special Service which will be held in Christ Church on Whit-Sunday evening, June 8th.

It will be a Service of Hymns of Praise and Silent Prayer to the Holy Spirit. The Service will open with hymns to the Holy Spirit, followed by a period of silence and meditation on certain portions of Scripture, with silent prayer. The remainder of the Service will consist of appropriate Whitsunday hymns and praise and silent prayer to the Holy Spirit. There will be no sermon nor announcements, the congregation following a program which will be distributed to those present.

The Rector feels sure that this service, especially appropriate for Whitsunday, the Feast of the Holy Spirit, will be impressive and most helpful to all who attend.

The Service will begin at 7.45 sharp and will last one hour. All are invited to this Service of Praise and Silence.

An Easter Gift

The Prayer Books and Hymnals that have been used in the chancel were presented by the Sunday School, Easter, 1907, in loving memory of our Superintendent, Walter J. Crowder. The books have outworn from use and a complete new set of books for the Chancel was presented to the Church by Mrs. Walter J. Crowder, on last Easter Day. The books bear the same inscription as the former books.

The Easter Offering

The Easter offering was very generally responded to by the members of the Parish, and there were some notable instances of great generosity. The full amount asked for by the Vestry ($1,200) was realized.

There are a number of necessary repairs that must be made about the church property, and painting that must be one on the buildings at an early date.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

Envelope Contributions

If any persons have not received their packages of envelopes for the new year they are requested to apply to or communicate with the Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview Ave.

Pledge cards may be found in the racks in the vestibules.

Annual Election of Vestrymen

At the annual election of vestrymen held Easter Monday four vestrymen were elected to serve for three years, viz.:

James M. Woodroffe, Richard H. Morris, J. I. Morrison, Frederick Leming.

At the first meeting of the Vestry on Easter Tuesday the Vestry was organized with the following officers: J. I. Morrison was re-elected Accounting Warden, and Francis B. Falkner, Secretary. The Rector re-appointed James M. Woodroffe, Rector's Warden. Sheldon Potter, James M. Woodroffe and J. I. Morrison were elected delegates to the Diocesan Convention and Germantown Convocation.

Charles Hatcher, Verger of Christ Church, has resigned to accept a position on a ranch in Nevada. Mr. Hatcher has been faithful in the discharge of his duties at Christ Church, and has proven himself a man of excellent character. At present writing, his successor has not been selected. The duties of Verger, while not onerous, are nevertheless many and exacting, and require a man of faithfulness and the best of character. It is hoped that such a man may be secured.

Financial Report of the Accounting Warden

Each year a financial report of the parish is submitted to the Bishop of the Diocese and printed in the Diocesan Journal.

The Journal has just been published and is as follows:

Duties of Wardens and Vestrymen

The Bishop of Massachusetts has addressed a letter to the Wardens and Vestrymen of his diocese. It suggests the broad lines of responsibilities and opportunity placed in the hands of the trustees and representatives of the parishioners.

"First and most important," says the Bishop, "the Wardens and Vestrymen of a Parish stand to the Parish and the community as the representative men of that Parish, the representative Churchmen in that community. In accepting an office in the Church of God, a man not only undertakes a real duty, but enters upon a position of honor. If at any time it is not so considered, that serves as a warning that we have not upheld the Church in her honorable position. Whatever, therefore, a Warden or Vestryman may do or not do officially, he is bound above all things to be a man of true and high character. In all business and social relations he is, whether he be of lowly or high station in life, honorable, pure, and worthy of respect; he is reverent and generous in word and deed; full of the spirit of charity, and altogether Christ-
"Being an official in the Episcopal Church, he is loyal to its doctrine and discipline, intelligent in its principles, and faithful to its traditions. He appreciates the value of the Church to the community, and in accepting the office binds himself to a reasonable devotion to the interests of the Parish. This means that the younger members of the Parish can fairly look to him to see what their relations to the Church should be." At the close of his letter, Bishop Lawrence expresses his strong appreciation of the quiet, faithful work that is done by the members of the Vestries of the Parishes in Massachusetts. He says: "I see men of large affairs giving their valuable time to such details of Parish administration as in their own business they would hand over to others; they realize, however, that there is something representative in their official work for the Church; it has a higher meaning and a larger influence than the figures signify. I find officers of the Church, of all social ranks, working together for the Church in the finest spirit of Christian brotherhood."

What are the Duties of Church Wardens?

"The ancient traditions are that by them 'Churches be kept in sufficient preparation, bread and wine be provided against every Communion,' 'loiterers be not suffered near the Church in time of Divine Service,' and 'disturbers of Divine Service be presented.'" These, with a few other traditions, suggest the Wardens' duties in three relations.

(1) "The Wardens have the general care of the fabric of the Church, Parish House and Rectory. It is their duty to see not only that everything is kept in decent repair, but that the whole appearance of the buildings is worthy of God's temple. It is for them and not for the Rector to see that the walls are well painted and the roof tight; that the Church lawn is well kept; that after a snow-storm the Church's side-walk be not the last one on the street to be cleaned; also that the interior of the Church be well appointed, that the carpets be whole, the walls and ceiling clean and free from weather stains, that the chancel and pews be fresh and dustless. To them belongs the arduous duty of seeing that the Church which probably has no modern means of ventilation, is well ventilated, and that the temperature of the Church and Sunday School is good. Of course the Sexton, who is also at the Rector's command, is their agent, but such matters require vigilance, and all of these, as many other details, add to the comfort and dignity of the Church's service.

(2) "The Wardens, with the Rector, prepare for the administration of the Holy Communion, and indeed for all the services of the Church. They are the body-guard of the Rector, ready to respond to any reasonable request, quick to aid him in his work, attentive to his interests. They 'receive the alms in a decent basin and reverently bring it to the Priest.' It is a dignified and representative act, that of the Wardens giving the alms of the people into the hands of the Priest. To the Wardens, as representatives of the people, a wise Rector will turn for counsel, criticism and guidance. I am convinced that neither Rector nor Wardens take sufficient advantage of the confidential relations in which they may stand to each other. I believe that, if Wardens would in all kindness sometimes speak their minds more frankly to the Rector, and the Rector would confide in his Wardens, some of his questions, difficulties and personal cares, there would be mutual advantage and a gain to the Parish.

(3) "The Wardens guard and assist the devotions of the congregation. What-ever tends toward edification—the seating of the people, the reception of strangers, the provision for Prayer Books and Hymnals—falls within the Wardens' province. I know that many of these duties have been taken, no doubt with increased efficiency, by members of St. Andrew's Brotherhood and other young men. I am old fashioned enough, however, to feel that they are doing it as the agents of the representative Parish officers; and I trust that, while the Wardens will encourage the services of young men in every way, they will not abdicate their office as the responsible curators of the Church and of the general interests of the congregation. What are the Duties of the Vestry? The Vestry as a body stands responsible for the financial condition of the Parish. The duty of raising money cannot be given over to the Rector nor the Treasurer or some active Vestryman. While one or another may take certain lines of work, the responsibility is with the whole Vestry; and no good Vestryman will hear the Treasurer report a deficit or a delay in the payment of the Rector's salary without a sense of shame and a resolution that he will try to prevent it happening again. Above all other institutions, the Church should bear a high name for financial honor. Business integrity is essential to the efficiency of a Parish. I occasionally come across a clergyman who, unpractical or careless in finances, does not pay his debts. I can say, however, that I look with admiration upon the great body of the clergy and their wives, for their economy, their good sense, their self-denial and sensitiveness to financial honor. And I know of few more cruel situations than that of a faithful clergyman who, keenly sensitive, has not been paid his salary and, therefore, cannot pay his bills because of the listlessness of the Vestry and people. The work suffers through the Rector's anxiety and thus the Parish suffers doubly in reputation and spiritual leadership. Fortunately such instances are few, but they exist; and I confidently ask every Vestryman to see to it that no such conditions find a foothold in the Parish of which he is an officer.

There is no doubt that the change from the Pew System to a Free Church or pledge or envelope system has made the collection of the Church's income far more difficult, and has also tempted Parishes to give less to missionary interests. Our Vestries have, therefore, a more difficult task before them than in other days. It is neither right nor wise to make the Rector appeal for his own salary. The officers of the Church should have such a large conception of the Church's work, such a high estimate of its usefulness to the community, and such confidence in its Divine purpose, as to create a deep and abiding enthusiasm in themselves and the people, which will bring forth fruits in large and systematic offerings.

We are well aware that, when a Church depends upon fairs, entertainments, and spasmodic efforts, it loses its dignity and influence throughout the whole community. When a Vestry develops and sustains with energy systematic and business-like methods for gathering in the income, it is surprising how steadily the amount increases; the raising of the Rector's salary becomes possible, and there is cheer and buoyancy all along the line.

There are a few other considerations that I would like to suggest.

(1) The Rector is the appointed leader of the Parish. In addition to his routine duties, he should be alert to opportunities for the development of the work of the Parish and the increase of its influence. If he has shown himself to be a man of judgment as well as enthusiasm, he has a right to accept a sympathetic consideration of his plans; and if, after full discussion, favorable action is taken, he should be able to count upon the support of the whole Vestry and through them of the Parish. In a well ordered Parish, Rector and Vestry work together as one, the Rector leading, the Vestry supporting him with full confidence and loyalty.

(2) As the Vestry represents the Parish, I wish that it were possible for the members of the Vestry to know personally a larger proportion of the people of the Parish. The Rector knows all. The Vestryman usually knows but very few. It is not his fault; he has no means of knowing them. At the same time, I am confident that, if the people of the Parish knew their officers better, and the officers, being earnest and enthusiastic men, knew the whole people, there would be vastly more unity and more momentum to the Parish life than there is today. How that may be accomplished, I leave to you. I am sure, however, that our Parishes would do a mightier work if, by mutual acquaintance and a sympathy which comes with it, there were more esprit du corps. It is that which wins the battle, whether it be on the battle fields of Europe or in the battle against godlessness in a town of Massachusetts.

The Mothers' Meeting

The Mothers' Meeting continues to hold its sessions every Tuesday. We had many orders for aprons and rugs this spring and have been kept very busy. Our meetings have seemed more natural lately for we have had the pleasure of having Mrs. Rowley with us again, after an enforced absence of some months.

The offering which is given each week has been put in "The Blue Box" for the United Offering. When the box was opened we had $7.19 for that object.

The last meeting for the year was held on May 6th, but this is not the last time of our coming together, for we are planning to have an old-fashioned picnic before the middle of June.

U. F. A.

Committee to Welcome Returning Enlisted Men.

A Welcome Committee has been organized in the Parish to receive men returning from the service of their country. A definite plan has been formed to provide for their return to their Church and civil life and to provide for their employment, if needed.

All enlisted men are requested to let the Rector know of their return as soon as possible.

F. L.

The Athletic Association

The new Athletic Association has repaired and put in good condition the grounds once more. The tennis court is now ready to be thrown open to the public and all persons fourteen years of age and over are eligible for active membership. The co-operation of the members of the Parish is urged in this new movement and we are sure everyone will help make it a success. The membership fee is $1.00 a year with 25 cts extra for "key privilege." Membership tickets may be procured from Robert Carmint, Secretary of the Association.

D. B. A.

Look!

On June 7 there will be on the Parish House Grounds a great time. Eats, rides, n' everything will be provided by the Athletic Association of Christ Church. Watch for the date! Be ready to sell tickets. Let us all make it a real night for everybody. Watch for the date!

C.

Men's Bible Class

Men! What are you doing for the Men's Bible Class? Where were you last Sunday? We all know it is nice to lie in bed, but it is better to join us. We realize that all men cannot come every Sunday morning. The man who stays away is the one we miss.

It is with much pleasure we announce that the class attendance has increased within the last month, six new members. As our men are returning from the service we will soon be back to the old standard.

On the evening of April 23d the Men's Class gave an entertainment to the ladies who helped with the banquet. It was enjoyed by all present.

Class meets every Sunday morning at 9-45. All men are welcome.

K. W. L. Sands,
Sec'y of Class.

The Sunday School

The Sunday School has made some big jump over last year in attendance. About twenty-two names are added to the list of scholars who have brought in new members. On Easter two banners were awarded to the Girls' class and Boys' class having the largest number of new scholars. The Girls' class was Miss Cronder's and the Boys' Miss Gerhardt's. Mr. Morris is expecting to start a new list soon. So Sunday School scholars get busy.

The Girl Scouts

Christ Church troop of Girl Scouts wishes to express its thanks for the splendid co-operation the Church and Sunday School gave in their benefit. It was a great success.

Also the troop, which generally should consist of the older girls, has decided to form a troop of younger girls. This troop will be the Brownies and as they grow they will become regular Scouts.

E. C.

The Junior Brotherhood

By the addition of two new members, Anthony McClosky and Horace MacIntyre, we have reached the total of 15 members.

The Chapter is still plugging ahead at its usual rate. We usher every other Sunday night, and try to keep up a good attendance at church.

The Chapters' baseball team ended up fairly well considering out late start and is going right at tennis. We hope to do a great deal more later on for the Church and Sunday School.

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

Rector's Notes Summer Services

The Services during the Summer will be at the usual hours: Holy Communion, every Sunday at 7.30 a. m. Morning Service and Sermon, 11.00. Evening Prayer, short address, at 7.45.

All the Services will be shortened form.

The summer months suggest a release from many forms of Christian duty. But to a conscientious Christian and faithful Church member regular attendance at Divine Service is as important in summer as in winter. Wherever he may be, at home or abroad, in summer or in winter, wherever and whenever the opportunity offers to worship God in His Holy Temple, the words of the true Christian heart are the words of the Psalmist, "I was glad when they said unto me, we will go into the house of the Lord."

A Missionary Campaign

A great "Drive for Missions" will be undertaken next fall, embracing the entire Church, including every diocese and jurisdiction in the land.

It will be a bold and definite movement of the "whole Church" to take hold of Missions, the great work of the Church. Every parish in every diocese will be called to declare itself in definite and unmistakable terms. Every member in every parish will be asked to step forward and show his colors. Every member in this parish will do his or her duty.

These are days of stern earnestness and reality, and the spirit of heroism and self sacrifice is the test of true worth. The Lord, through His Church, is calling to the world, "He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth!"

It is a great privilege to be living in this age when opportunity is so near and duty is so clear and the spirit of God is so manifestly moving upon the face of the deep. How fitting are Bishop Coxe's words:

"We are living, we are dwelling

In a grand and awful time,

In an age on ages telling—

To be living is sublime.

Hark! the waking up of nations,

Gog and Magog to the fray.

Hark! What soundeth? Is creation

Groaning for its latter day?

Will you play, then, will you dally

With your music and your wine?

Up! It is Jehovah's rally;

God's own arm hath need of thine.

World's are charging Heaven beholding,
Thou has but one hour to fight.

Now, the blazoned cross unfolding,
On, night onward to the night.

On! let all the soul within you,
For the truth's sake go abroad!
Strike! let every nerve and sinew
Tell on ages—tell for God!"

Co-operation

Calling upon every member in the Church to co-operate in this great Missionary Campaign, which is to take place throughout the Church next fall, the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D.D., Presiding Bishop of the American Church, issues the following call:

In the last year or two our nation has made good in willing and working together. It has won the whole world's acclaim. Is not its success a challenge to the Church and its members to will and work together? The Church is the whole body of the faithful who believe in Jesus Christ as God the Son and want to love and serve Him.

A portion of the faithful body is known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. The good thing of willing and working together may well be commended to it. In the main it has willed and worked together very well, theoretically. The unimportant break only of the Reformed Episcopal Church has happened. The Protestant Episcopal Church shaped itself into unity in 1789, side by side with the constitutional birth of the nation's unity. To no small degree the same persons wrought the two shapings. It preserved its unity through and after our sad civil war. There is an American mould and an American harmony in it quite remarkable. It has chosen and commissioned missionary bishops for eighty-four years. It has framed its great Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society to be an alter ego of the Church—to be indeed the Church itself in missionary make-up and missionary activities.

Yes, theoretically this Church has been well fashioned and adjusted unto the desirable willing and working together.

Now, it is planned to change theory to practice. No, not that either. We do not want to change. What we want to do is to add practice to theory in earnest effort of willing and working together.

May I not humbly but stoutly sound the slogan?

Gather to the colors of the Nation-Wide Campaign. Summon the men. Call the Women. Forget not the children. Discipline the recruits. Furnish the munitions and supplies. Speak to American Churchmen that they go forward.

More humbly still, invoke upon the Board of Mission and all their helpers in the Nation-Wide Campaign the guidance and grace and blessing of Almighty God.

The Son of God goes forth to war.
The American Church goes with him.

Daniel S. Tuttle, Presiding Elder.

Men's Corporate Communion

It is very inspiring to witness a large number of men, kneeling together before the altar at the Early Celebration of the Holy Communion. There is nothing more noble than a thoroughly manly Christian man! And on the third Sunday morning in May—the occasion of the regular monthly Corporate Communion for men—it was an inspiring sight to see a large attendance of the men of the Parish at the Early Celebration at half-past seven.

It is to the great credit of the young men of the Parish, who are doing all they can, by precept and example, to encourage other men to attend this Corporate Communion, on the third Sunday morning of each month. The Rector is very proud of these men and he hopes that more men in the Parish will avail themselves of this opportunity to unite with others in this most helpful and inspiring Service—the Men's Corporate Communion.

The next occasion will be on Trinity Sunday, June 15th. Let there be a large attendance of men that Sunday!

✕

Trinity Tide

On Trinity Sunday, which occurs this year on June 15, is reached the first half of the "Church" or "Christian year."

"So far," says Bishop Cox, "we have seen that the Son of God was manifested; now in the second half of the Church year, we are to learn, in action, how He 'destroyed the works of the devil.' The first half of the Church year (from Advent to Trinity Sunday) is devoted to doctrine primarily, and to duty as seen in direct relation to doctrine."

So, the second half is devoted to duty primarily, and to doctrine only as reduced to practical piety. Thus is the Church year divided between the Creed and the Decalogue, in its Christian scope and application.

In the seasons that succeed Advent (Christmas, Epiphany, Septagesima, Lent, Easter, Ascension and Whitsunday) until Trinity Sunday, we perceive a sort of spiritual impulse, by which we are borne along our holy way with scarcely a sense of effort. It is because our affections become warmed, and our feelings healthfully excited, by the peculiar joys of those successive feasts and fasts. But now we have reached a season in which no such impulse is supplied; in which our spiritual joys must be purely those of faith and duty; and in which physical, as well as spiritual, efforts must be made if we would keep our souls alive and growing.

Here, then, we have a chance to try the comparative amount of feeling and of principle, regarded as constituents of our religious characters. And we may be sure that if our sense of duty is less active than it should be; if we do not now accomplish from principle what heretofore we may have cheerfully done from feeling; then it is evident that our religion is greatly defective, and is less a thing of the deep heart, than of the superficial sense or emotions.

The very first thing, then, in addressing ourselves to a life of practical piety, is to feel our natural weakness, and our need of grace; in view of the fact that the habitual keeping of the Commandments of God and not the ardour of our pious sentiments, is the criterion of real piety.

This all important principle is, in the Collect for the first Sunday after Trinity, turned into a prayer.

Like the rod of Aaron, the rod and staff of our Creed must now blossom and bear fruit in piety; so we pray for the life-giving Spirit, that we, who by nature are dead in sin, may become plants of grace, in the garden of God.

A Service of Hymns of Praise and Silent Prayer to the Holy Spirit

The Rector wishes to call attention to a Special Service which will be held in Christ Church on Whit-Sunday evening, June 8th.

It will be a Service of Hymns of Praise and Silent Prayer to the Holy Spirit. The Service will open with hymns to the hymns to the Holy Spirit, followed by a period of silence and meditation on certain portions of Scripture, with silent prayer. The remainder of the Service will consist of appropriate Whitsunday hymns and praise and silent prayer to the Holy Spirit. There will be no sermon nor announcements, the congregation following a program which will be distributed to those present.

The Rector feels sure that this service, especially appropriate for Whitsunday, the Feast of the Holy Spirit, will be impressive and helpful to all who attend.

The Service will begin at 7.45 sharp and will last one hour. All are invited to this Service of Praise and Silence.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of _____ dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

A Welcome Home Service for Our Boys

On Sunday evening, June 29th, a Service will be held in Christ Church which every member of the Parish will want to attend. It will be a "Welcome Home Service" to the members of our Church who have returned from our Country's Service. It is hoped that by that time, a majority of our boys on our Honor Roll will have returned home.

It is expected that Elton Post, G. A. R., and the Sons of Veterans will be present at this Service.

This will be a "Welcome Home Service" to every man enlisted from our Parish.

The Rev. Edwin S. Lane, Chaplain, recently returned from France, and others will give addresses.

Every member of the Parish should attend this Service and extend a "welcome Home" to our boys. Sunday evening, June 29.

The Sunday School

The "Chimes" has had little about us for several months, nevertheless we have been busy. We were handicapped at the start last fall by the "Flu" and the loss of our Supt., Mr. Morgan—also on Nov. 3rd, we had only 171 on roll with average attendance during November of 120. To build up the school we turned the whole school into a "Recruiting Corps" with the result that on May 25 we had 244 on roll, an increase of 73, with 170 present on that date. Of the new scholars nearly 50 were brought by old scholars. Miss Crowder's class of girls brought seven and Miss Corris' class of boys brought six, both classes being awarded banners at Easter. We have 26 faithful teachers who are always present except when illness prevents.

Our Work for the Year.

A Thanksgiving party, bringing several hundred cans and packages for the poor of the Parish.

A Christmas offering which supporting three fatherless children of France for an entire year.

A Lenten offering for Missions of over $200. (It was $95 last year.)

We want the help of all parents and members of the Church to send us every child belonging to the church, and also every child in the neighborhood who does not go to any Sunday School. We will interest and hold them.

Summer School as usual beginning July 6th at 9.45 sharp, and each Sunday we hope to have one of our boys who were in our Country's Service tell us of what he saw "over there." The parents of our scholars are especially invited to come and hear what our boys saw in France, join in our short service and meet our teachers and officers.

The Following are Star Classes since April 1st and the number of times they have shown as stars. (A star class is one with teacher and every scholar present). Mrs. Schaefer (4), Miss Crowder (3), Miss Gill (3), Mr. Bains (2), Miss Huston (2), Miss Alexander (1), Miss Atkins (1), Miss Ida Booz (1), Miss Gerhard (1), Miss Woodruff (1).

Memorial Vases

A pair of brass altar vases was recently presented to Christ Church by Mrs. William H. Brooks, in memory of her daughter, Ida Marguerite Brooks. Miss Brooks was a former member of the Choir and for several years a faithful teacher in the Intermediate Department of Christ Church Sunday School.

Summer Service

The Church Service during the summer months will be shortened in form and will be at the usual hours, 7.30, 11.00 a. m., and 7.45 p. m. The Sunday School session will be continued, as usual, throughout the summer. The lesson will be taught from the desk, and short address each Sunday by one of our returned "Soldier boys."

During the Rector's vacation the Parish will be in charge of the Rev. A. Overton Tarrant, M.D., Ph.D. Dr. Tarrant will respond to any calls of sickness or need, if word be left at the Rectory.

ALL DRESSED UP TO GO TO THE COUNTRY
This is a picture of some of the children sent by Christ Church from the slums of the city into the country last summer

Poor Children's Country Week

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on Sunday morning, June 15th. It will cost about $3.00 to send a poor child to the country for one week where he can enjoy pure, fresh air and good wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom for several years past to secure from various organizations for the poor the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portion of the city—in the small, dirty courts and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called "homes" the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements made for a week's outing in the country and, in some cases for a longer period of time. Occasionally a poor, overworked mother is also sent with her children.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are privileged to give, and what a great opportunity it affords to persons who are blessed with comfortable homes and can get away for rest and recreation during the hot summer months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in the narrow and crowded streets and alleys of our city.

Persons wishing to give to this most worthy charity—if they are absent from Church on Sunday morning, June 15th, may send their contributions either to the Rector or the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview street, Germantown.

Mothers' Meeting Picnic

As the Chimes goes to press the Mothers' meeting are arranging to have an automobiles ride and picnic at Willow Grove for the members of the "Meeting," on Tuesday afternoon, June 3rd. The members of the Meeting and the ladies in charge wish to express their appreciation of the kindness of those persons who kindly loaned their automobiles for this happy occasion.

The Mothers' Meeting will adjourn until the second Tuesday in October. All busy mothers and especially those who are burdened with household cares and children are cordially invited to be present at the first meeting in the fall and to join this organization which meets every Tuesday afternoon for recreation and a social time.

The Rector gave a short talk to the mothers at each meeting on some practical duty of life.

Remember the next date—Tuesday, October 8th, at two-thirty in the Parish House.

Mothers may bring their children and they will be cared for.

The Athletic Club

The Athletic Club was organized a few months ago for the purpose of gathering the boys together and affording them some pleasant meetings together. They have had eight or ten gatherings on Thursday evenings of each week with an average attendance of twenty boys.

Parish House.
Girl Scouts.

May 9th was the first anniversary of our Girl Scout Troop 119. We had a party worthy of the name including a birthday cake with one candle on it. Miss Feist and Mrs. Arundt gave the last real party touch by being with us and we had a jolly time together.

Looking backward we want to thank all of our friends for their interest and all they have done to help us in the past year.

We are gradually growing and have five new members, nearly all of whom have joined the past month. They are Elizabeth Belfield, May Hagy, Marion Feist, Mary Green and Elsie Wells.

Each week brings one or two more and now that we have definitely decided to have a troop of younger girls it is an opportunity no girl over ten should miss. There are so many things of interest open to the girl of sixteen and so little for the "in-between girl" that it should need no urging on our part to have a big wide awake troop.

Can any Real Girl over ten calmly decide that she does not want the fun of drilling, and that she does not want to know all she can about First Aid? That she does not want to learn signaling, etc.? That she does not want to enjoy hikes and good times and good eats around the camp fire? The good Girl Scout is one who is not only on hand for the good times, but can also be found "on the job" when there is work to be done. It will be found that the really good times are enjoyed with more zest if they are hard earned!

Several of our Scouts, Jean Lukins, Helen and Margaret Robinson, have answered the call to take care of a few children on Saturday mornings and after school. Bessie Ellis, May Matthews and May Monaghan have been bringing some of the smaller children to Sunday School.

The Girl Scout organization is no sectarian and any girl may become a member of our troop even though she is not a member of our Sunday School. Meetings every Friday evening at 7.45 and any girl over ten years old is gladly welcomed.

Altar Guild

During the summer the Guild relies upon garden flowers for the altars. Several members of the congregation who have gardens have been glad to send flowers when it was convenient for them to do so—and would have given flowers frequently had there been a way to get them to the Church. If any members of the congregation have flowers suitable for the Altar, Miss Alexander has very kindly offered to call for them, if she is notified any Saturday morning during the summer months. The Guild would greatly appreciate the co-operation of the congregation in this matter. Phone or send a note to Miss Esther Alexander. She will do the rest. Phone Gtn. 1412-R. Address, 42 W. Johnson street.

Men's Bible Class

The Class is steadily going on and men of the Parish who do not come do not know what they are missing. We have an excellent teacher in Mr. Schick and his teachings are applied to present day conditions.

There are many men in the Parish both old and young who should be among our regular attendants. They do not know of the work we are doing and have done in the past and they cannot appreciate this until they have come and seen and heard what we are doing, what the Class really is.

We know those who do not come and we are coming after you. We want you and we are going to get you, so prepare for a visit from some member of the Class.

The Executive Committee now intends to liven things up. At the last meeting we decided to meet once a week instead of once a month, so that the work will not lag but be spurred on by a closer application of our energies to the work before us.

Men of the Parish we extend you a cordial invitation to meet with us every Sunday morning at 9.45 o'clock.

The next regular social meeting will be held Thursday evening, June 19, at 8 o'clock. This night will be devoted to the entertainment of the men of the Class who have been in the service and have returned. Special preparations are being made for this night and a jolly good time may be expected.

We want every member of the Class present that night.

Kindergarten

Kindergarten, First and Second Grades, held in the Christ Church Parish House, under the direction of Miss Louise Dietz, has prepared the children for the Third Grade, either for Private or Public School.

Miss Dietz is a graduate of Temple University. She has had ten years' experience in teaching and has adopted the most modern up-to-date system, giving each child individual training. School closes June 13th and opens Sept. 10th for all three classes.

Further information may be had by addressing Miss Dietz, 435 West Bringhurst street, Germantown.

Questions on "Fourteen Points"

1. Why do people expect the rites of the Church at weddings, in time of sickness and death, at funerals, etc., who are indifferent to the Church and religion at other times?

2. Why do people leave the Church immediately after Communicating at the Altar and before the Service is over, when such a procedure at the dinner table of an ordinary host would be considered impolite?

3. Why do people consider that they can enjoy the privileges of religion and "belong to a Church" without regular payment to support the Church, when they know that they would be turned out of any club, or lodge or other organization if they refused to pay their dues?

4. Why do people, who know the least about religious matters never read their Bibles, neglect Church and are generally ignorant, think that they "know it all" "air their opinions" when they would be laughed at as fools, if they talked so glibly on law, or medicine, or science, about which they never had any training or knowledge?

5. Why do people habitually come late to Church, when they know if they were to do the same at an ordinary dinner engagement they would be ruled out of decent society?

6. Why do people, who do the least to help in the work and the support of the Church, criticize the most when they do the least and give the least to make things better?

7. Why do people who are "hard of hearing" sit at the back of the Church, when they are welcome to pews further front, and then complain that they cannot hear?

8. Why do older persons manifest so much interest that children should go to Sunday School and attend to their religious duties, when they themselves are indifferent and set such poor examples?

9. Why do people find the Church "too cool to sit in," and then ride in cold trolley cars to business or social engagements?

10. Why do people find it "too warm to go to Church" and not too warm to go to hot and badly ventilated "moovies"?

11. Why is the sun hotter, and the cold colder, and rain "wetter" on Sunday than on Saturday or Monday?

12. Why do people "fit the sermon on others" and fail to take it to themselves?

13. Why do people moving into a new locality, seek out the butcher and baker and settle their children in day school, but put off from month to month connecting themselves with the Church?

14. Why do people expect the Rector to know that they are sick without notifying him and then complain because he does not call, when they notify the doctor that they are ill and do not expect him to "hear of it from others"?

Why?

The Number of Subscribers Through the Envelope System is Increasing

One of the good results of the "Every Member Campaign," recently held in this Parish, is the increased number of persons who give a weekly offering to the support of the Church and its Missions be purely those of faith and duty; and total number, at present, is three hundred and thirty subscribers. This is the largest number since the Envelope System was introduced in the Parish. The list should be increased until it includes every person, man, woman and child, in the congregation. Let this be the goal for the summer. No slackers, but a 100 per cent giving Parish before autumn! Pledge cards, with full instructions, may be had in the vestibules or from the Verger. These pledges, being purely voluntary, may be increased, decreased or withdrawn at any time, by notifying the Warden or Rector. Now let every man, woman and child help to attain our goal—a 100 per cent Parish!

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

Rector's Notes

"Thou Hast Made Summer."

So spake the Psalmist as with rapture, he gratefully beheld the works of the Creator. Since, therefore, the Glory and beauty of summertime come from Him, we are not to forget that it, as well as the other seasons, are to be used for His glory, Who made them. Summer is not a time to waste and dandle away. It is not a time when we can go away from home, and throw overboard the ordinary restraints that our position in Church and society require. If we are servants of God, the Lord's Day ought to be hallowed to Him, in the summer vacation—wherever we are—as much as at any other time. The Christian man's influence must count for good at all times and in all places. Wherever you go, then, be known as Christian. Support and maintain the Church's services. Sing in the Choir. Hold lay service, if there is no Church, and try to build a Church where there is none. And again don't forget that at home there are people, not so fortunate as you who cannot get away during all the heated term. They need the Church's ministrations as much, if not more than in the winter. Help give it to them by paying your Church offerings, and other obligations at home just as if you were there. Blessed is the servant who ever watches unto prayer and who is ever ready to do the Master's work at all times and in all places.

Summer Service

The Church Service during the summer months will be shortened in form and will be at the usual hours, 7.30, 11.00 a. m., and 7.45 p. m. The Sunday School session will be continued, as usual, throughout the summer. The lesson will be taught from the desk, and short address each Sunday by one of our returned "Soldier boys."

During the Rector's vacation the Parish will be in charge of the Rev. A. Overton Tarrant, M. D., Ph. D. Dr. Tarrant will respond to any calls of sickness or need, if word is left at the Rectory.

Obe y the Law

We need, in this country, a greater respect for the law and a demand that the law shall be obeyed.

The country has voted to try national prohibition. It will be tried. The question before every loyal citizen is—does he like the law but will he be obedient to law.

It is the bounden duty of every loyal American to discourage lawlessness in every home—especially at this critical time of our national history. Obe y the law until it is repealed, is the principle of every true patriot.

It would be well to heed the warning which Bishop Lawrence gave in his last convention address:

Timid and conservative people are shaking in their shoes at the sound of Bolshevism and lawlessness. They insist that the laws must be observed and that those who disobey or evade them are dangerous characters. Some of us who are not Bolsheviks will soon have a chance to test that out. Soon the execution of war prohibition and later of constitutional prohibition will begin. The question will then be not that of temperance, but loyalty. The point is, are we going to obey the law or not? Are we going consciously to evade the law or not? Are we going to be lawless or loyal? No man who breaks the law in order to have a drink can complain if a brick goes through his window some riotous evening. The latter act is no more criminal than the former.

Expression of Thanks to the Women's Auxiliary

The Rector is in receipt of the following letter from the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry thanking the members of the Woman's Auxiliary for their generous donation sent to the City Mission last month.

The Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission.

June 26, 1919.

Rev. Charles H. Arndt,
59 W. Tulpehocken Street,
Germantown, Pa.

Dear Friend:—

I would have acknowledged the receipt of the large boxes of boys, girls, ladies garments and other articles received from Christ Church, Germantown ere this, had it not been that I met with a slight automobile accident that put me out of the running for the time being.

That was a great donation and I can assure you it is appreciated by the City Mission. I am glad that we have the heart interests of the communicants of Christ Church. It is most encouraging to us in our work amongst the poor, the sick and the sinful. May God bless every person who gave anything towards that splendid donation.

With best wishes, I am,

Cordially yours,

H. Cresson McHenry,

General Secretary

Why Belong to the Church

(From the Parish Leaflet.)

Why should a perfectly respectable man belong to the Church, when he is just as well satisfied with himself if he remains unencumbered by such voluntary enlistment in the army of Jesus Christ?

There are obvious advantages in remaining outside of the pale.

In the first place, it leaves you free to criticize Church people in general.

The man who never does anything cannot possibly make any mistakes.

If one never sings, one is never out of tune. If one does not make any attempt to live the life of the spirit, he is as free from hypocrisy as an ox.

Then, again, the most troublesome faculty in our human anatomy is the conscience. If we stifle it or give it an anaesthetic, it leaves us free to enjoy ourselves. Moreover, there are certain onerous duties that belong to the Christian life. If we can evade these responsibilities, by denying that we have them, we are much more free to get what pleasure there is in this naughty world.

Why assume a responsibility which carries with it unpleasant duties and disagreeable consequences?

This is exactly the same course of reasoning which appealed to the young men who did not want to enlist in the war.

Why leave a perfectly good job and undertake the dangerous and unpleasant duties, when one could be a perfectly respectable American citizen without enlisting?

And yet it was the fashion to call these perfectly respectable Americans slackers and pacifists and draft-doggers. Why use such unpleasant language toward these very amiable young men who wished to mind their own business and avoid unpleasant complications

It was merely because a certain important job had to be done, and public sentiment demanded that all young men should be willing to assist in doing it.

The U.S.A. decided that a certain job had to be done, and justly decided that no one should be excused from doing his share of that job.

What is the Church? It is that institution which founded to do battle with the world, the flesh and the devil.

He called for volunteers and told them to follow Him, and He then led them through much tribulation and the blood of the Cross to the victory of the Resurrection. He calls to those who hunger and thirst after righteousness to take part in that battle and to fight manfully under His banner unto their lives' end.

For three hundred years His followers fought a terrible battle.

On the one side was all the egotistical pride and tyrannical cruelty of the Hun. Only in the Roman Empire imperial insolence was the rule and not the exception. And there was no one to raise a single word against it except the Christian Church. It was apparently a ridiculous battle. Just a few women and children and a handful of men against the trained legion and brutal mobs of the Roman Empire.

Certainly, then, the timid and the self-seeking did not enroll themselves in the ranks of the Nazarene.

There was no social distinction nor profitable association in belonging to the Christian Church, and the danger was obvious. It was no place for the pacifist or slacker. But, nevertheless, in the providence of God the Christian Church won the battle, and those who were slain in Roman arenas did not die in vain.

The Christian Church has survived its ancient enemy for fifteen centuries, and the cause for which the Martyrs died is marching on stronger than ever before.

But the real enemy of Christ is not defeated. Caesars and Kaisers may come and go, but the devil is not defeated yet.

It is perfectly true that the Huns did some atrocious deeds, but there is no deed so fiendish that it cannot be matched in the deeds done among us day by day.

The devil still goes about as a roaring lion, maltreating little children, abusing women, taking advantage of the weak.

There are over three million children in this nation who are employed in factory and field. Three million children to whom the Stars and Stripes do not guarantee the right to play and study, but under whose folds they can be exploited for profit. There are an equal number of women, who are the victims of men's greed and lust, in the sweat shops and houses of ill fame.

And what force is at work against this ancient enemy? Just one: The Church of Jesus Christ. Not always militant, but always ready to do battle when she can enlist faithful souls to fight against sin, the world and the devil.

The Church has not always been successful in her battle against evil, because she has not been able to enlist soldiers that would fight her battles. But on the other hand, the Church is the only institution that has ever won the battles against these enemies.

When the Church could command the allegiance of loyal souls, she could defy the powers of imperial Caesar and those of the prince of this world. Her power is not dead, but is still dependent upon those who will serve.

Why, then, should a man belong to the Church? And, if he belongs, why should his watchword be faithfulness?

Because God is not interested in your being merely a respectable citizen, unless you are willing to put those virtues at His service, any more than the U. S.A. is interested in the virtues unless they are at the service of your country.

The man who dodges his responsibility to Jesus Christ, by refusing to fight under His banner, must answer to God for his refusal to put his talents at God's service just as the young man who would not fight had to answer to the government for his innocuous desuetude. If this is a moral world, Almighty God expects you to take side in the battle.

But the average man does not see the relation that going to church has to this battle.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void

It is such a dull, dreary duty.

So the average soldier chafed at his confinement in the training camp.

The Church is a cantonment. Its duties are like those of the cantonment. Many a young fellow failed to see what relation marching many miles with a gun on his shoulders, and performing many senseless evolutions, had to killing Huns.

Of course it was training, because every one knew that to send untrained soldiers against the Germans would be folly.

So saying your prayers and making Communion and reading your Bible and hearing sermons are not virtues, but training. They bear the same relation to virtues that playing the scale bears to music.

It is true that the well-trained soldier may be more or less overbearing, but he is a good soldier. In the same way, not every man who goes to church is a lovable person, but whatever talents he has are co-ordinated and used for the general purpose, and the wonder is not that the Church does so little, but, considering the number of men who take their religious training seriously, the wonder is that the Church has done so much.

Every army is dependent for its existence on the number and caliber of the soldiers who enlist.

I am constantly reminded that the vast number of important men in the community are slackers, so far as the call of the Church is concerned. That so many churches have to do their work by means of women and children may affect the quality of the work done, but it is not the fault of those who do enlist.

When you compare what the Church has done for the moral and spiritual uplift of the world with what all other organizations have done, it is difficult to find any competitors.

Here again the question is one of whether Christ is your Master, and whether you are willing to follow Him in battle which He leads, in the way in which He bade you to follow Him, or whether you prefer to ignore His command and substitute something else for His body of the faithful.

Not many of our boys at the front were decorated for distinguished service, because not many of them had the opportunity to do a heroic act that could be publicly commended; but nearly every boy there would have received the cross if he had had the opportunity for nearly every boy had been so well trained that he needed only the opportunity to do the unusual deed of valor.

It is the same way in the Church. Christ taught us to consecrate the commonplace. To give the cup of cold water in His name, not for our own glory, and to do the commonplace so well that when the opportunity for doing the extraordinary deed comes, we will be found trained to do that thing.

We all alike must experience pain, sorrow, weariness, death. No one escapes these enemies to peace.

It is not what happens to us, but how we take the things that happen, which really matters. The man trained in Christ can bear all things through Christ, who strengthens him. The man who neglects the discipline of the Christian life is unprepared for the great sacrifices which he must make in order to win the battle of life.

The Church is a training camp in which to learn how to be soldiers, and I challenge those who boast that they belong to the "big church" (that is those who belong to none), to show what the "big church" has accomplished for mankind. If it is big, it is a bluff, for the burden and heat of the day in bearing the message of kindness and sympathy to the world has been done by those who received their training and inspiration in the Church of the Living God.

Jesus Christ was alone in leading the movement which united men in a great fraternity whose object was to reverence God and bind up the wounds of society. It has done this, not perfectly, but just as well as the human element in the Church would consecrate itself to the purpose for which Christ died.

The question for you my slacker friend, is not how well others have co-operated with Christ in doing this work, but how much you yourself are doing to make the ideals of Jesus Christ the working plan of human society.

You may not be able to do much; few of us are; few soldiers could individually do much to win the war, but because each did his best the war was won.

You can do your best, or you can be a slacker. It is up to each man to choose his part and to do his share.

Shall We Stand or Fall?

By the Ven. W. L. Davis.

Not long ago one of my people asked me why it was that a certain priest at the presentation of the offering raised the plate above his head.

I replied that I did not know unless it was that he wished to demonstrate to the congregation that its offering was not so heavy but what he could lift it, or that perhaps he wanted to get it up where God could see it.

I have been in attendance upon services where it took Two wardens, Two vestrymen, An acolyte, The assistant minister, The Rector, and A bishop to get the offering (?) up onto the altar, each in turn taking a pull at it, while the congregation and choir vied one with the other in singing: "All things come of Thee, O Lord," or "Holy offerings rich and rare."

That reminds me of a true story.

A number of years ago when elaborate presentations came in vogue, an elder priest of the Church was officiating in one of the then "up-to-date" churches, and at the time of the presentation of the alms the choir sang with great gusto the afore-mentioned "All things come of Thee, O Lord." During the preformance the old priest stood scowling at the plate, and as the choir finished he turned to the congregation with this remark: "Big fuss to make over forty-three cents!"

But seriously, is it not about time that we hear again that much neglected offertory sentence ". . . Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap."

And for a season—say until our missionary apportionment are paid—would it not be well, in place of standing at the presentation, that priest and people alike fall low on their knees with the petition on their lips. "God have mercy on our stingy souls"?

The Carnival

The Carnival held on the Parish grounds was financially a success. But we regret to say not an interest success. The total profits realized to date are close to $250.

After being disappointed by rain on the appointed night it was postponed until the following day. We hoped to bring it to a bigger success but on account of a shower about half way through it developed to a Childrens frolic. The small amount of interest shown by the older members who should be interested kept us from the goal tried. But battling with weather and lack of interest the affair was more successful than supposed.

✕

The Junior Brotherhood

The night of June Wednesday the eighteenth was the wind up meeting of the chapter. The work done has on all sides proved successful. We have now fifteen members grown from five.

The chapter has not only made a success for itself but it has created a new spirit that shows that our Parish is not "dead."

During the year we brought new phases of social activities such as athletics. It has also not forgotten its duties to the Church being supplying ushers and other offices that were needed to be filled.

At the meeting mentioned it was decided that the whole chapter take "a dozen to the shore." No more work could be mentioned so with three cheers for Mr. Lening and another for the Chapter we disbanded after the meeting. Mr. Lening was chosen and sanctioned by Mr. Arndt as our next seasons director.

July 1, 1919.

Rev. Charles Henry Arndt,
 Christ Church Gtn.

My dear Mr. Arndt,

Now that the Liberty Loans are closed and dried and the 700 men whose stars graced the Service Flag at Philadelphia Boy Scout Headquarters are returning we feel justified in beginning what I have repeatedly told you we would begin as soon as the time was ripe—namely an aggressive advertising campaign for Boy Scout troop 153. You were kind enough to write that troop to hold its meeting at Christ Church and for almost a year we have held our weekly meetings there every Monday night. We have purposely been very quiet about it but right here and now the racket of an advertising campaign begins and this letter is simply the opening gun.

You say that the men of the Church would like to help the troop and you want me to set forth our needs.

1. Financial Need No Dollars and No Cents.

The boys will not even permit me to pay dues despite the fact that I am their Scoutmaster. "We pay our own way" is their financial policy. They have as yet never thought of enough things to do to spend their income. Later on if we are ambitious we may send one of our members through college and that may necessitate a minstrel show or more to raise the funds. But as for the regular conduct of the troop, we are in the strongest kind of position financially.

2. We need a Troop Committee.

This committee can be composed of any number of men. A man needs no knowledge of Scouting to serve in this capacity. Each man can be assigned a specific task in direct contact with the boys and the information required can be acquired in a short time.

3. We need a Trained Nurse.

First Aid and Bandaging are essential parts of the Scout program.

4. We need a man to teach Angling.

There must be some one in the Church or in its vicinity who loves to go "a fishing." We need him to teach boys how to cast 70 feet. This can be done by casting toward a peg driven in the ground.

5. We need a man to teach Architecture so that the Scouts can win that merit badge.

6. We need a man to take the Scouts on an Astronomy hike.

7. We need an athletic to teach Athletics.

8. We need badly a man to teach Scouts all there is to know about Automobiles including Courtesy of the Road.

9. We have a man to teach Aviation. One of our Assistant Scoutmasters returns to us in the fall as an American Ace. He was trained in Aviation as a boy. When he was a Scout he won the merit badge in Aviation. He is just as good at Scouting in general as he is flying.

10. We need a Physician who will volunteer to examine every boy who comes into the troop. This examination should be rigid and exhaustive.

11. We need a man to conduct Bird Study hikes.

12. We need a man to train several boys in Bugling. One of our Scouts who was a past master at the bugle moved out of the city.

13. We need an "ordinary every day in the week" business man to train boys for the merit badge of business.

14. We need a feidman of exceptional character each of whom would be willing once a year to take the Scouts camping over one night. The trip down the Rancocas Creek or the trip to Treasure Island over several days will require the expert knowledge of our own Scoutmasters.

15. We need a man who is a good carpenter to teach the boys Carpentry.

16. We need a Chemist to teach them Chemistry.

17. We need badly a man to teach Wireless.

Next winter each day at 12.30 P. M. a wireless message will be sent from Boy Scout Headquarters covering fires, explosions catastrophies and all other requests for Boy Scout Emergency or other Service. We should "Be Prepared" to receive these messages direct so that by a system of patrols and relays we could at an instants notice have the entire troop present in uniform at the seat of trouble.

Note—At the eddystone disaster the Scouts were there before the ambulances arrived.

18. Civics. We need not a man who gets red in the face and puffs up over his breakfast coffee as he reads in the newspapers of sedition. We do need a man who will get right at the root of the matter and teach Scouts Civics. To quote "Give satisfactory evidence that he is familiar with the constitution of the United States" page 46 Boy Scout Hand Book—Requirements in Civics.

And so on we need men to teach Conservation, Cooking, Bookbinding, Woodcarving, Electricity, First Aid, Forestry, Life Saving, Machinery, Marksmanship, Mining, Music, Painting, Pathfinding, Personal Health, Photographing, Physical Development, Plumbing, Poultry Keeping, Printing, Public Health, Safety First, Scholarship, Sculpture, Signalling, Stalking, Surveying, Swimming, etc. etc.

Now if I were a man reading this letter I should run my eye over the topics mentioned and when I came to Astronomy I'd stop and think because one of my hobbies is Astronomy. Then I'd say to myself—"It would be a lot of fun to train a few Scouts for that badge and it would be still better to go to City Hall on Court of Honor night to see those boys when they received the merit badges for which I had trained them."

Then I'd quit thinking and talking to myself. I'd do something; because all the success I've had in this life has resulted from only those thoughts that I put into action. And this is what I'd do. I'd call up Germantown 1120 and I'd say to the man who answered the phone. "My name is Smith. You don't know me from a bunch of beets. Astronomy is my hobby. Scouts meet Monday night. I'll be there. I can't come every Monday but I'll teach Astronomy till some boy's mind is expanded and his imagination is carried far far out into the very home of the Comets."

The writer is merit badge examiner in Astronomy and you would be surprised to see what those Scouts know about the stars. They take to it almost as naturally as they do to signalling. All of the activities mentioned above the boys are willing and anxious to develop in their club; it is a club with a purpose. The saloon was a club without a purpose.

One of the Scout purposes was the Liberty Loans. You may not know that the troop in question sold $47,500 worth in the Fourth and $99,000 in the Victory Loan. The Scouts of Philadelphia sold $10,250,000 to over 50,000 customers. It is a lot of fun to work with a bunch of boys that tackle big things and put them across. I know the men will enjoy the time that they find for Scouting.

Now some boy may read this letter. Hello there boy! How old are you? If you are over twelve you can be a Scout. You are the fellow that I'm interested in. These men are all right but most of them are dead from the neck up. Give me a boy any day in the week when you are looking for "pep". Sure you can come to our troop. The fellows will want to give you the "once over" for a week or two and then they will hold an election. If they think you will make good they will elect you.

Social standing? Your social standing has nothing to do with it. You may be one of these guys whose aunt dresses him up when he's ten years old in a starched sailor suit with long pants and a blue ribbon round his hat. You may be worth millions and millions of dollars. That won't make us mad. What we want to know is this—can you tie eight knots and name them? Do you know the customary signs of respect due to the flag? If you don't, come any way. We'll teach you. Do you know how to be reverent in a Church? We don't care what Church your mother wants you to attend with her. We are more interested to know whether you have respect for the religious views of others. Scouting is non-sectarian. Well, you'll know more about all this when you get there and after you get to know the fellows by taking a few hikes with the bunch. Here's the dope—Monday nights—door farthest north right next to a playground—Christ Church McCallum and Tulpehocken Sts. So long, I'll meet you at McCallum and "Tulpey."

Well, Mr. Arndt, that boy is fixed up; He will be there. He will come by the dozen. The responsibility that I feel in inviting him to our door is tremendous. He comes impelled by the best that is in him. Just what draws him most is the Scout program I do not know. But I have long since been aware that the second part of the Scout Oath was inspired by a carpenter's boy who grew up and became a great leader. You and I worship Him.

Listen:—

"On my honor I will do my best—

1. To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout law;
2. To help other people at all times.
3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

Sincerely yours,

Geo. I. Bodine Jr.

Scoutmaster.

Christianity the World's Hope

(From the Convention Address of the Bishop of Sacramento).

Christianity is the one hope of a world whose old ideals have been shattered by the great war. Christianity believes that the Golden Rule applies to nations and races as truly as to individuals, and what is more, Christianity gives power through the grace of the living Christ to enable men to practice it.

We know that diplomacy will never save the world, nor military strength, nor commercial expansion, nor higher education; that the League of Nations, itself the ripest fruit of Christianity, cannot secure lasting peace unless continuously inspired by the Spirit of Christ. Nothing will suffice but the complete Christianizing of the great nations, and the extending of the forces of pure Christianity through the non-Christian world.

Christianity alone can lift the nations out of their mutual jealousies, suspicions and greed and enable them to go forward together to peaceful, prosperous world. We have a Christ so large that He requires all the races through which to reveal Himself in His fulness.

Sunday Baseball

It is interesting to note that in the letter of our English correspondent, in the Rhode Island letter and, during the week, in the news columns of the daily press, we find appearing a controversy over Sunday games. In England it is cricket; in America, naturally, it is baseball.

The Bishop of Rhode Island and the clergy who have entered the controversy there did not oppose professional baseball. The distinction is decidedly in the interest of a Christian Sunday. The opening of the baseball parks for amateur games is quite proper and right. No one attempts to prohibit Sunday golf. No one has the right, on Christian grounds, to oppose amateur games on Sunday. But professional Sunday baseball introduces rowdiness, increasing the labors of motormen and, generally speaking, dishevels our day of rest. In Rhode Island the bill for Sunday baseball, we are informed, was pressed by men financially interested in the park.

There are, it must be noted, religious organizations which are opposed to any kind of baseball on Sunday. They would, if they could do so, compel people either to attend Church on Sunday or twirl their thumbs in boredom. The Church is not concerned with the problem of whether people ought to fish, play ball or golf on Sunday. What the Church is concerned with is that people shall worship on Sunday. It is business of Christianity to make worship appeal to the consciences and hearts of the people. It is in the interest neither of morality nor religion to penalize those who wish to take innocent diversion on Sunday. We recall that it was said of old that all the people wept when they heard the law. It is not wrong to be happy and it is not religious to be bored. The laws of Sunday keeping ought not to make Christians weep when they hear them read.

Family Prayers

There is one mark of a household in which God is known and loved, which is too often wanting in our day—I mean the practice of family Prayer. Depend upon it the worth of practice of that kind can only be measured by its effects during a long period of time, and family prayers, though occupying only a few minutes, do make a great difference to any household at the end of the year. How indeed can it be otherwise when each morning, and perhaps each evening, too, all the members of the family, the old and the young, the parents and the children, meet on a footing of perfect equality before the Eternal, in Whose presence each is nothing, or less than nothing, yet to Whom each is so indefinitely dear, that He has redeemed by His blood each and all of them. How must not the bad spirits that are the enemies of pre and bright family life flee away—the spirits of envy and pride and untruthfulness and sloth, and the whole tribe of evil thoughts, and make way for His gracious presence in the hearts of old and young alike, who as He brings us one by one, nearer to the true end of our existence, so does He and He alone, make us to be “of one mind in alouse.” Here within the narrow presence of each home circle, and hereafter in that countless family of all tongues, which shall dwell with Him, nations and kindreds and people and the universal Parent of all eternity.—Canon Lidon.

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE REC. OR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

Beginning This Fall

Now that vacation days are ended I hope to see all members of Christ Church regularly in their places in the House of God. I trust that each one of us is taking up his life again this fall with higher ideals and nobler purposes. The world is calling, as it never called before, for true, unselfish consecrated men and women. The source of all truth, all unselfish, consecrated service is Christ; and the Church, instituted by Christ Himself, is the means, the channel by which and through which His life and His power is conveyed. "Without me says Christ ye can do nothing."

Let us remember this, my friend, and let each one of us, resolve this fall, to be more regular in our religious duties, more faithful in our Communion, more, unselfish and more zealous in our Christian work. I most earnestly pray—yes, let all of us most earnestly pray—that God's Holy Spirit may come with power into each life in this Parish, to arouse the indifferent, to raise the fallen, to strengthen the weak, to give patience, and courage to the faithful; that all may be filled more and more with the love of Christ, which will be manifested in prompt, unselfish, consecrated service.

There is one thing that every member can do; that every one should do; and that is to be a home missionary, to invite and to try to influence persons in your neighborhood to attend your Church. There is one member in this parish who has interested a score of persons in Christ Church and Sunday School. There are others to whom, it would seem, it has never occurred that they had the least responsibility of sharing their religion with their neighbor. What a blessing it would bring, both to themselves and to others, if they were alive to this responsibility!

Let every member of Christ Church resolve, this fall, to share with others their religious privileges. Let every member of Christ Church make the following resolution: "I resolve that, for eight months, beginning now, I will make an effort each week to bring at least, one person in my neighborhood, to Church with me"

Every member can, at least, try to do this much.

Let every one conscientiously try to do all they can this winter to bring others with them to church. By persistent effort and by prayer miracles follow!

Strangers and Occasional Attendants

The Rector is pleased to see and to welcome the strangers and occasional worshippers who attend the Services of Christ Church. He is disappointed, however, that these strangers who attend occasionally, continue to remain "strangers". He is very anxious to meet them personally and to invite them to identify themselves with the Parish.

The Parish needs the co-operation of every one and every one needs a "Church Home." No one ought to be content to remain an "outsider," without a Church which he can call his own.

There are many religious people "going through life without a home." This is a wrong—wrong to the Church and wrong to themselves. The Rector hopes that all in this community, who are not settled in any Church, will make themselves known to him at once and he will be pleased to meet them and to welcome them to Christ Church. Do not delay longer. Do it now!

A Missionary Campaign

As has been previously announced in these columns, "a nation wide campaign" will be inaugurated throughout the Church to arouse the interest of all its members in the great missionary work of the Church. Every member in every parish in the land will be asked to "show their faith by their works." It is a startling fact, revealed by a survey of the Church recently made by the Central Committee in charge of the Campaign, that less than one quarter of the million and a quarter communicants of the Church are regular contributors to the work of the Church. What a reproach this is upon our Church and upon our Christianity!

Lewis B. Franklin, who as Director of the War Loan Organization of the Treasury Department had charge of the great organization which managed the four Liberty Loan campaigns of the Great War, as well as the campaign for the Victory Loan floated following the signing of the armistice, has assumed charge, in a volunteer capacity, of the Every Member Canvass of the Nation-Wide Campaign of the Episcopal Church.

Mr. Franklin's enlistment in the Nation-wide movement to muster the full resources of the Episcopal Church for national service in the after-the-war reconstruction, adds one more notable recruit from the ranks of leading men of affairs in New York and elsewhere who have joined hands with the clergy in the promotion of a practical, efficient religion to meet the demands of the new era. It is a movement, Mr. Franklin declared yesterday, which, while not sacrificing any of the spiritual aims of the Church, seeks, by a co-ordination of effort, an economic business administration, and a recognition of the real fellowship of man emphasized by the war, to bring religion and the Church into the closest touch with the spirit of the times.

Mr. Franklin will direct the canvass of the eighty-seven dioceses of the Episcopal Church in the United States for the unique and unprecedented attempt on a given date, to have every person whose name is enrolled on the membership list of the Church personally visited and urged to a reawakened interest in Church work and the responsibilities of Christian citizenship in coping with the problem which the nation faces.

"Aren't we laymen tired of having our rectors always coming to us for money when their business is something else entirely?" he asked. "Don't rely on church attendance, a campaign sermon, or merely passing the collection plate, to get the campaign budget. You will miss the very people who need this campaign the most for after all this is not a campaign so much for money as it is a revival of the Church. Do not wait either until December to make your canvass. Much of the success of the Liberty Loan Campaigns was due to careful preliminary canvasses."

"It seems to me," he said, "that the work is similar to what was done in Washington in organizing for the Loan Campaigns. In those campaigns we made the Federal Reserve District the unit of organization; but in this campaign it is plain that the Diocese will have to be the unit. I believe in the utmost measure of home rule in connection with such work. The job of the central office is to help out in organizing the diocesan committees, advising and supplying speakers and information, but in each diocese the chosen leader ought to do the active directing in accordance with local conditions. I see no reason why enthusiasm cannot be created for this splendid movement precisely as it was for the loans. The people will always respond where the cause is good and I can see nothing that is not only good but necessary to the welfare of the whole people in a Church movement which seeks to inform the mind and awaken the conscience of the people for national betterment."

Like the scores of other prominent laymen who in this movement are sacrificing business interests to promote the success of the campaign, Mr. Franklin is earnestly in favor of a large participation by business men in the work of the Church. He said yesterday:

"I think one of the greatest mistakes made in the administration of the churches is in leaving their financial affairs in the hands of the clergy. They are called to higher duties than that of raising money, and money is the last thing they ought to be compelled to think about. It is a shame to have clergymen going about constantly with hat in hand, begging for funds. The business of the Church ought to be run by business men, and I believe if it can be arranged that in every diocese and parish of the Episcopal Church throughout the land there shall be a layman, a successful business man, entrusted with the task of managing the business and finances of the Church, the Church will prosper to a degree not hitherto attained, the needed funds will be raised in a dignified way and the odium of constant begging will be lifted from it."

The General Convention

THE GENERAL CONVENTION

The triennial Convention of the Church will assemble in Detroit on October 8th. There will be many important matters come before the Convention and all intelligent Churchmen should be well informed concerning them. The reports in the daily paper are frequently inaccurate or distorted and persons who depend upon these sources for their information concerning church matter are often seriously misled. Every Churchman should subscribe to one of the national Church papers, especially at this time of the meeting of the General Convention. The four Church national weeklies, The Churchman, The Living Church, The Southern Churchman and The Witness are making special rates at this time.

Subscriptions may be received from these papers direct; or the Rector will be pleased to order for any parishioner desiring to subscribe, at reduced rates.

✕

Shall The Chimes Be Continued?

With this number closes the nineteenth volume of the "Christ Church Chimes."

For nineteen consecutive years this parish paper has been published without interruption. We are informed that the Chimes is the only parish paper in the Diocese with such a record. It has required effort, hard, persistent effort, and, at times, some sacrifice. We believe, however, that it has "paid"—not in dollars and cents, for the amount of subscriptions has never been enough to defray the expenses, but in a broader and higher sense. The people of the parish have come to look for the Chimes and to depend upon it. It would be missed if its publication were discontinued.

All subscriptions end with this issue. Shall the Chimes now be discontinued? The answer depends upon the amount received in subscriptions and contributions. It is desired that the Chimes be read by every member of the Parish. To this end, the price of subscription has not been increased, notwithstanding the greatly increased cost of paper and printing. It is necessary, therefore, in addition to amount received from subscriptions, that we receive the generous "contribution" from persons who are willing to assist in meeting the deficiency. Will every member of the Parish please remember to renew subscription at once and those, who are disposed to do so, kindly send their contribution to Robert Carmint, Sherman Street or to the Rector?

Acknowledgement will be made to subscribers and contributors in the next issue of the Chimes,—if sufficient amount

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

is realized to warrant continuance of publication. Otherwise the money will be returned to the senders.

Subscription for the year, 50 cents. Mailed, 60 cents. Contributions—unlimited in amount! Thank you!!

Mr. Gurley's Return

Mr. Richard H. Gurley has returned from two years' service in France and has taken up his work in the Parish as lay assistant to the Rector.

He is welcomed back by his host of friends in the Parish. Mr. Gurley's continuance in his work here is contingent upon the decision of the Bishop and the Standing Committee in regard to the date of his ordination. It is hoped that a definite decision may be arrived at very soon.

Every Member--Parish Meeting
October 15th

A Parish Meeting will be held in the Parish House on Wednesday evening, October 15th at eight o'clock, when every member and attendant at Christ Church is asked to be present.

This meeting will be similar in character to the very successful Parish Meeting held last year. The object of the meeting will be, first: to present the work, plans and needs of each Society in the Parish. (A five minute talk will be given by a representative of each organization.)

Second: to discuss ways and means by which the work of the Parish may be improved and extended.

Third: to afford an opportunity for the members and attendants at Christ Church to meet together in a social gathering as members of a "Parish family," whose work and interest are one in common—the spread of the Kingdom of Christ on earth.

Every member and attendant at the Church should consider this our opportunity to show an interest in the work of the Parish by attending this meeting. Refreshments will be served and both a profitable and a pleasant evening is in store for all.

Every one, remember the date and be sure to be present, —Wednesday evening, October 15th, at eight o'clock in the Parish House.

The Church Painted

During the past summer the wood-work on the exterior of the Church has been put in good condition and repainted. The appearance of the Church is much improved.

Now—how about the interior of the Church? It needs painting badly! The Carnival given last Spring by the boys of the Athletic Association netted $250.00 for this purpose and the money is now in the Warden's hands waiting to be increased to a sufficient amount.

What person, or persons, or Parish Society will volunteer for this good work?

THE INTERIOR OF OUR CHURCH RENOVATED AND REPAINTED BY NEXT SUMMER!! This is the goal! To whom will the honor fall? The Rector will be pleased to receive the name!

Parish Societies Are Meeting

The various societies of the parish are re-assembling after the summer vacation and are entering upon the winter's work. All members should re-enlist at once and resolve to be regular and faithful in their attendance and work.

New comers into the Parish are cordially invited to identify themselves with some department of the Parish activities and will be welcomed to membership into any of the societies of the Parish.

The Rector will be glad to meet new comers into the Parish who wish to cooperate in any of the Societies of the Parish Guild.

Workers are greatly needed and there is room and a welcome for all.

Girls' Friendly Society

The "COME BACK" call to the G. F. S. Branch of Christ Church, has gone forth and we are looking forward to a big reorganization meeting on "Tuesday", (remember the good times we have had on Tuesday nights) October the seventh, at eight o'clock.

Come Girls—This is the chance for all girls, old members and new, to show an interest in one of the greatest organizations for girls in the world—the Girls Friendly Society. Mrs. Topliffe Johnson, one of the most beloved women of the Parish will be our Branch Secretary, and with her will be associated several other women. Spread the good news, all you who read this announcement. Let no body be missed! Tuesday, evening October 7th!

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts have been meeting every other Friday evening during the summer with an average attendance of about eight or ten girls. This is quite good when the hot weather and the number of families away for the summer are taken into consideration.

Mr. Philip Thuriug drilled the girls a number of times and it was a wonderful help to have real military drill. Unfortunately for us Mr. Thuriug is away at College and so cannot continue the work. Is there anyone in our Parish who would be willing to take up this work? We would be very glad to hear from anyone who would volunteer to help us.

We are planning to have another benefit at the Rialto Theater about the third week in October. May we not count on those who helped us last year and others who are also interested in Girls to make this a most successful affair? The money earned will be used for suits and to give the girls good times they could not have otherwise.

Work has already started with a vim with the beginning of our every Friday program. We are hoping to make big strides in our work and there are lots of good times in store for the winter.

This is the society for the younger girl and any girl of ten years and over will be heartily welcomed any Friday evening at 7.45.

A Personal Letter From the Accounting Warden to the Rector

May 29, 1919

My dear Mr. Arndt:—

The following is a list of members of Christ Church who turned in service cards at the Every Member Campaign, but none of these parties agreed to contribute through the envelopes, Viz:

* * * * *

The Every Member Campaign Committee therefore are not in position to call upon these people to send in pledge cards, because they have already sent them in. The question, therefore, comes up as to just how the matter of systematic support of the Parish should be taken up with these people. It seems to me that as these pledge cards have been sent to you it is a matter that you should talk to them about.

In these strenuous times every member ought to systematically support the church through envelopes; they should also give to missions. It is clear that if they are not supporting the church through the envelopes they are not giving one penny to missions, because that is the only way that the support of missions is handled in our church. The envelope contributors number about 60 per cent of our people, and these people give about $4,000.00 a year; the other 40 per cent, through the plate, give $600.00 a year. It is, therefore, clear that those who are supporting the church through the envelopes are really carrying the load of those who refuse to contribute in this systematic way, and this matter should be made so plain to these people that they would join in this systematic support of the church through the envelope plan.

Yours very truly,

J. I. MORRISON

Chairman of Sub-Committee, Every Member Campaign Committee.

The United Offering

All contributions to the Offering should be sent to the Parish Treasurer Mrs. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview ave.; so that they may be sent to Mrs. North, the Diocesan Treasurer, and by her presented at the great Presentation Service in Detroit in October.

More women in the Parish are using the little Blue Box, for their offerings than ever before, and are, in consequence getting over the idea of giving a certain sum each time. There is no set amount for the offering. It is not fifty cents, nor one dollar, nor two dollars. It is a thank offering from the women of the Church for the women in the Mission Field, and it is used for salaries, for sick benefits and for a pension fund, occasionally for some much needed building.

It is a great privilege to have a share in this offering and should never be a burden. Small sums are put in the box at regular intervals or at any convenient times, always with prayer, and thanksgiving for some blessing received.

When the collection times comes, the offering is all ready in the little Blue Box, and its contribution affects neither the pocket book, nor the bank account.

Have you a Little Blue Box? If you have not please ask for one, from the treasurer.

The Sunday School

With these real autumn days reminding us that summer is over, our thoughts run to the resumption of full activities by the Sunday School, which will be commenced on Rally Sunday, September 21st.

The Sunday School has held summer sessions every Sunday during the summer, and as we look back over the season there seems to very much to be grateful for. The attendance of scholars and teachers has been most promising and compared with recent former years has been exceptional. An especially interesting feature of these sessions has been the several talks given by some of our young men and women of their experiences in this country and abroad during the Great War.

These little homely talks, not lectures, were greatly enjoyed and thoroughly appreciated by all the members of the Sunday School who were privileged to hear them, and the thanks of the School is extended to those who thus favored us, as well as our hearty congratulations upon their happy return to their home country.

As we review the summer months now passed into history, we are impressed with the great promise for the future which the summer sessions seems to indicate.

The attendance has been good, the faithfulness of some, aye many, scholars being the outstanding feature; but more hopeful than even the attendance has been the spirit which seemed to pervade the school. This has been evidenced by the splendid record maintained of offerings by the School, for while the attendance was kept well above former years, the offerings were double, triple and almost quadruple those of former times.

With all interested in the Sunday School uniting their efforts under the magnetic and persuasive influence of our Superintendent, the coming season should be a red letter one for the School.

But we still need help. Will not those who have the opportunity let us show them how they can help us.

"Every Fellow Knows"

It takes a right exciting story to cause the right sort of boy to quiet down for a few minutes and curl up on mother's best counterpane or on any other equally forbidden spot—and read that story then. We won't promise anything about this little story but when we say its about fishing and swimming and baseball and flying and fooling with telegraph things and basketball and all kinds of games and "hikes" and cooking meals in the woods—yes—and eating 'em too—and pitching tents and everything—it looks as if most any boy would read it. Then, after he's read it—he'll want to know who's going to do all this and where he can get in on the fun. Well, before we begin our story—maybe we better say that Troop 153 of the Boy Scouts of America met in our Parish House a few nights ago and the boys of it are going to do all these things and lots more. Now, feller, if you're thinking you'd like to come in and get this fun—they want you—Whether you're an Episcopalian or a Presbyterian or a Baptist or a Buddhist or any other thing which you oughtn't to be at your age—that makes no difference. The one thing necessary is to be a red-blooded boy—that's what they want.

Maybe, after all, instead of writing our story we better let you come around and see for yourself what fun there is ahead of you—Come tomorrow night (Monday) at 7.30 to the Parish House of Christ Church.

Tell mother you'll be home soon after nine and she needn't worry 'cause this thing's going to make the best kind of a man out of you. Tell both your parents to make sure they don't let you forget the meeting time and place. Come and, honest, you'll have the best times ever. What do you say?

Do You Know?

The name and address in the Bible of the woman who watched all night beside the bodies of seven men two of them were her sons,—killed by a somewhat temperamental king—and alone and unaided kept the vultures and the wild beasts from eating them? You'd say right off there wasn't any such a character in the Bible wouldn't you? Well—that's what we said—and we were wrong—though we've read the Book until our eyes ached. All of which is to say that there's a whole lot in the Bible yet to learn and when some day soon some one of these precocious children (your own or one of your friends') says "Mister, who was—and what did he do in the Great War of 681 B. C." You'll have to say "I don't know. It isn't in my Bible." And then said p. c. will find the chapter and verse and another perfectly good hero will be cut off the child's list of Famous Men. Fortunately—there's a place and a time you can learn all these things.

The Men's Bible Class of this Church start next Sunday with a study of the Hidden Heroes of the Bible. Every Sunday, rain or shine, at 9.45 a.m. in our Parish House. And if you know of any of these Heroes whom you're found and you think we would miss in our study be sure and tell the leader so all of us can learn about him.

By the way—have you heard about our Men's Class? We're getting a good start again for the year's work and nothing would please us better than to have you come and join us. As they say so often when the fact is they don't know how to write it out in French.

R.S.V.P.

Which means, "Let's hear from you."

All men welcome—every Sunday a. m. in Parish House at 9.45 o'clock.

Let Loose in Luxemburg

Reminiscences by Richard H. Gurley
Written for the Chimes

Have you ever witnessed the rather elaborate ceremony that takes place when a young woman of the Duchy of Luxemburg decides that she has lived long enough by herself and goes out and gathers unto herself a husband whether he will or no and then invites all and sundry in to see how easy it is for any real woman to manage a man? Well, the chances are that this interesting as well as, from the viewpoint of an innocent bystander—really amusing sight has escaped your experience—so let me tell you about it.

About the 15th day of last December a certain section of our Good American army—having just spent the night in the village of Kohstol decided, as armies do, to take a country stroll of about 30 miles in the direction of Germany. Packing all the available luggage on the backs of the men so as to be sure that the mules would not wear out—they took to the road at the hour of 7 a.m. and by noon had 2 hills, 5 forests and one mountain to their credit. How I should like to dwell upon the incidents of such a march—the mountain trails—the mutinous mules—the colorful conversation of those who drive them—the rests by the roadside—the curious natives—the stragglers—but no—Romance is calling and the historian's pen must hurry on, satisfied with the mere mention of these things so familiar to the army pedestrian.

A short halt for dinner by the roadside—a few more hills, from the crests of which we see scenery such as one upon the heights of Pisgah saw—then valleys bright with the luxury of unscorched soil and free from any sign of war's accursed hand—and so we come to the village of Roodt—some 15 miles to the northeast of the city of Luxemburg—and here Romance has established her G. H. Q.

Having spread the simple soldiers gracefully and equally around among the stables and barns and haylofts and expig-stys of the village and having quartered themselves as comfortably as very limited accommodations would permit—our officers and our army now fall into second place in our story and Romance comes into her own.

The "City Hall" of the village—with the Duchy's Coat-of-arms on every window pane and the heavy oak table and chairs each beautifully carved and decorated with the Seal of Luxemburg—with the large and ornamented book shelves whereon are resting the archives of the village of Roodt from the time of Julius Caesar with the hugh oaken chests under the window seats—chests which the simple soldiers, American, are sure contain bags of gold—the village treasury—such is the room which Intelligence—in the name of the Billeting Officer—selects as the Battalion Infirmary. Herein one stormy evening the sick were gathered again planning how to die painlessly and thus never have to march again, when there came a bold knocking upon the door. Climbing over the forms of sleeping men one, braver than the rest, essayed to open it—and there upon the threshold stood—the fairest of the fair—hungrily—she scanned the scene before her—dimly illumined by one of the Burgo-meisters best candles—more angrily she turned to that which stood beside her—a mere man—and demanded with vigorous gestures many things which nobody understood—and most angrily—she turned again to some fifteen other mere men—

Americans—by this time fully aroused—and demanded in high, low and middle German, Freich and Esperanto how in somebody's name we dared to use her Town Hall for a Public Dormitory. Fifteen heavy silences greeted her—fifteen men—mere men—were dumb—then ignorance—before the untemper tempest—Then ordering her possession down the stairs—and vowing quick vengeance upon all men in general and her man in particular—the door slammed and she was gone—down the stairs and out into the night. Few but to the point were the remarks the soldiers made—"Man that was a fright! I thought I was home again!"—this from a husky young Irishman, twice decorated in one war and anticipating another. Soon—the silence of the tomb plus the noise of fifteen saws or pigs or whatever a snore sounds the most like—and then suddenly, a noise of many feet upon the stairs—the subdued but rapidly increasing Murmur of many voices—a loud and persistent hammering upon the door—a spring to (fire) arms on the part of every man inside—the door unfastened—flung rudely open—and there—is a good place to stop until the next issue of the Chimes when we shall discover how out of chaos came peace—out of confusion, order—and out of one mere man the promise to love honor and obey—principally obey—until his life's end.

Half-Hearted Christianity No Longer Adequate

Jesus Christ Must Dominate the Whole of Life.

The Rev. Robert W. Patton, D. D., national director of the Nation-Wide Campaign and Bishop Reese of Georgia spoke at a two-day conference of representatives of the Dioceses of Virginia, Southern Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, East Carolina and Asheville, which has just opened.

"The Episcopal Church stands for the recognition of the principles that nothing short of Christian government, Christian society and a Christian economic order must be developed at any cost," declared Dr. Patton. "Never in the history of civilization has there been so universal a recognition by thoughtful people that human progress must henceforth find its security in Christianity, not in a philosophy of life based upon materialism. The world war and the issues it raised cleared the atmosphere of confusion, and the alternative stands forth in all its brutal significance.

"We cannot deceive ourselves any longer by pretending that half-hearted Christianity, which does not involve great sacrifices, is adequate. Jesus Christ must dominate the whole of life or civilization based in the last analysis on a doctrine of self-interest, will assume control everywhere. Not only must there be individual Christians wholly consecrated to the Christian life, but we have arrived at the point where nothing short of Christian government, Christian society and a Christian economic order must be developed at any cost.

"The Nation-Wide Campaign stands for the recognition of these principles. In its conception it recognizes that the whole power of the Church must be mobilized as one whole if the end is to be realized. Its purpose is to inform the mind of every member of the Church in order that the whole Church may know what the problem is with all its implications, and through the knowledge thus imparted, make an equal appeal to the conscience and to the will of the Church to measure its strength against the task at whatever cost in life and treasure.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

PRAYERS FOR THE DEPARTED.

Thoughts for All Saints' Day.

Professor Foley, of the Philadelphia Divinity School, a delegate from this Diocese to the Convention of the Church, lately held in Detroit, in replying to a delegate who objected to the proposed beautiful collect for "Memorial Days," said "of course we don't believe in prayers for the dead! But we DO believe in prayers for the departed, just because they are NOT DEAD!"

The newly adopted collect is as follows:

"For Memorial Days

"O Almighty God, God of the spirits of all flesh; We give thee thanks for those who have laid down their lives for home and country; And we commend them to thy fatherly care and protection, beseeching thee that we, with them may have our portion in the life of the world to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN."

✠

The Rector is in receipt of the following letter from one of our parishioners

My dear Mr. Arndt:

I enclosed a poem sent me by a friend in Rhode Island. The author is a Presbyterian Minister of Edinburg. It seemed to me a remarkable poem, coming from a Presbyterian and I thought you might find room in the next issue of the "Chimes" for it.

Sincerely, — — —

PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD

O'er land and sea love follows with you a prayer,

Its dear ones in their trouble, grief, and care.

There is no spot,

On which it does not drop its tender dew,

Except the grave, "and there it bids adieu,"

And prayeth not.

Why should that be the only place uncheered

By prayer, which to our hearts is so endeared

And sacred grown?

Living, we sought for blessing on their head;

Why should our lips be closed when they are dead

And we alone?

Idle? Their doom is fixed? Ah who can tell?

Yet, were it so, I think no ill could Come from my prayer;

And oh, the heart, o'er burdened with its grief,

This comfort needs, and seeks therein relief
From its despair.

Shall God be wroth because we love them still,

And call upon his love to shield from ill

Our dearest, best,

And bring them home, and recompense their pain,

And cleanse their sin, (if any sin remain)

And give them rest?

Nay; I will not believe it, I will pray,
As for the living, for the dead each day.
They will not grow less meet for Heaven,
when followed by a prayer
To waft them home like summer scented air
From long ago.

Who can forbid the heart's desires to flow
Beyond the limits of the things we know?
In Heaven above
The incense that the golden censers bear,
Is the sweet perfume from the saintly prayer
Of trust and love."

in Christ
As to our friend's remark, "it seems to me a remarkable poem coming from a Presbyterian," the Rector would reply, that whilst it might seem "remarkable," yet it is, really, the most natural expression of a deeply religious soul. We pray for those we love while here on earth, and their prayers go up to heaven for us. Shall we think less of them and they of us and cease to pray, when they and we are even nearer one another than when on earth? We know not how, but love will never cease to think and pray for those dear ones who have gone before. All that we know about them is what faith accepts; and love is built on faith. The dear ones go away; they pass from our view; our hearts die down; our eyes are full of tears; and we say "they are gone." Do they yet live? It so, are they aught to us or we to them? And are we still, in any sense, as ever, one? The late Rev. Morgan Dix, Rector of Trinity Church, New York says: "The teaching is very clear and distinct. It is drawn partly from the written word of God; partly from the concurrent belief of His people; and in part it comes to us through the voice of nature, which no man can silence. God tells us—for however it comes the message is His—that the Departed live, that they are conscious, that they are happy, that they are in Christ, that they are one with us. No real separation occurs, when in the sight of man they seem to die. There is indeed a local separation, a physical and material one; but really, truly, and spiritually, we are with them and they with us. Memory and love can never fail. They remember, they love us; they think, and we are in their thoughts; they pray, and we are in their prayers. We are members of the same church, the same household, the same family. One God is father of us all; they have, as we might say, passed out of one room into another in the same building of the Lord; one and the same roof is still over us and them; they are in a better, brighter quarter of the same great Home and House of Christ, and whatever they are doing, whatever they are beholding, whatever they are enjoying, they never forget us, nor cease to count the hours of time till we be with them.

Such is briefly the teaching of God, speaking to us of this through His Holy Scriptures and the Church and our own hearts. I pray you, bear in mind the contrast between the Faith of the Church and our practice. There are few things more striking than this contrast; between the elevating and consoling truth that they are all living in God, that we are with them in Christ that the whole Church, this side of the veil and beyond it, is one and the same family; and our chill, hard indifference to and neglect of them, their names, their memories as if death were annihilation, and partings here partings for ever, and the separation between us that of hollow, hopeless, voiceless silence never to be broken.

This practical separation between us and the departed in Christ, is one of the misfortunes and calamities of the times; it would be hard to estimate what we must be losing, spiritually, every day we live, in consequence. And if any ask how it has come to pass, the answer is clear. It is the result of banishing them, as has been done, from the devotional exercises of the people of God, here on earth. If they be really so very near to us, as God says they are, that close and most precious inter-communion should be mentioned; it should have its definite expression, and be kept ever before the eyes, and in the ears, of us who remain here below. This was done in the Primitive Church in the ancient use of prayers for the departed. For thousands of years such prayers have been a part of the instituted service of the Lord's people. They were in use among the Israelites hundreds of years before Christ. They form a part of the Synagogue and Temple worship, in which the Lord and His Apostles took part when they were here. They are in every Liturgy of the ancient Christian Church, known to us at this hour. They were retained in the First Reformed Prayer Book of the Church of England, through reverence for the ancient uses of Christianity.

* The Reformers rightly protested against the Roman doctrine concerning Purgatory, with its corollaries of masses for the delivery of suffering souls, and indulgences of time to be spent in that place of woe. All those novel inventions they rightly denounced; but in abating them they went too far, and came near utterly silencing the voice of the Church on that subject. They did not quite silence it, for they left a few words in the Prayer for Christ's Church militant to remind us that the Dead in the Lord still live; Let us make it a matter of religious duty never to forget the Holy Dead, never to let go of them, to insist that they are not really gone from us, to resolve that nothing shall divide us still farther, or widen the gap which Death has made! Until it is with us a matter of principle and religious duty to be as loyal, as faithful, as true, as loving towards our beloved ones now as we were while they were with us, we shall be losing help, comfort and grace and suffering that moral decline which comes of solitude, selfishness, and isolation.

Let the memory of those who are in Christ be a purifying motive in our actions. Let their names be uttered with joy, as the names of those who live, in a truer sense than we. Let us remember that it is we who are in the shadows and the darkness, not they; let us cling to the idea of our communion with them as a powerful aid to us in our effort to lead holy lives. And let the thought of them calm our troubled souls; for soon shall we be where they are, "where storms shall cease, and surges swell no more." So pass the shadows away! So let the veil be drawn aside! So may we who, though parted for a time, are one in Christ for ever, be also made one again, in that dear and everlasting home where the righteous shine forth as the sun, in their Heavenly Father's Realm."

HAVE FUNERALS IN THE CHURCH

There is a widespread and popular custom of having funerals in private houses that is thoroughly unchurchworthy, unedifying and undevout. It is also unrubrical. The Prayer Book provides that the Burial Office may be said either in the Church or the graveyard. "The minister meeting the body at the entrance of the churchyard and going before it, either into the church or towards the grave." The office may be said partly or entirely in either. The only valid reason for not having it in the church is in the case of infectious diseases, when the Board of Health will not allow the Church to be used, and in that case it is better to say the whole office in the graveyard.

The custom of "house funerals," as they are called, originated outside the church, when it was usual to have a service upon the model of a prayer meeting with eulogies, prayers and addresses by persons present, this service lasting, sometimes, several hours.

When the Burial Service is used at "house funerals" it is often far from being a solemn service.

The friends are crowded together in the various rooms of the house, from the back kitchen to the garret. They generally sit on camp chairs, or on the stairs, and not infrequently on one another's laps.

All this does not especially contribute to solemnity or reverence. The Prayer Book directs that "the minister, meeting the body at the entrance of the church-yard and going before it, either into the church or toward the grave, shall say the Order for the Burial of the Dead."

This is dignified, solemn, impressive. The Church regards death as an occasion for reverence, for praise, for worship. She, therefore, provides that those who die in the Lord shall be brought within her sacred walls.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

All persons within this Church shall celebrate and keep the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, in hearing the Word of God read and taught, in private and public prayer, in other exercises of devotion, and in acts of charity, using all Godly and sober conversation.—Canon 20, Title 1.

CAST-OFF CLOTHING NEEDED

Winter clothing outer or under garments, and shoes are solicited from members in the Parish. All clothing sent to the Parish House will be worthily bestowed. The Sexton is in the Parish House until five o'clock every day.

THE NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN.

As it is well known to most of our members a Nation-Wide Campaign is to be inaugurated this fall. The purpose of this Campaign is to arouse the interest, the sympathy, the generosity of EVERY MEMBER of THE CHURCH, throughout the length and breadth of this land. It is to equip more fully the Church with men and means, whereby it may more efficiently perform the duty given it to do. The time is most opportune, because we are witnessing throughout the world today the utter collapse and breakdown of every human substitute for religion. History affords no such colossal examples of failure to save the world by the gospel of culture or by an appeal to international treaties, as the late war affords. The time has come for Christians everywhere, to lift up the figure of the Crucified One who said—"Behold if I be lifted up I will draw all men unto Me."

The part, therefore, that this Church of ours is destined to play in the present and future construction of society will depend largely upon the faith and the spiritual vision and consecration of its individual members.

The Nation-Wide Campaign is inaugurated to inform our members of the pressing needs and the transcendent opportunities which are at our very doors; to arouse every member of the Church to the duty of the hour "to spend and be spent" in the great Cause to which our Master is calling us; to send out a challenge to our people, every where, into every diocese, into every parish, into every home, to every member, calling them to show forth their faith by their works and by their offerings.

But the response, which is expected and hoped for from this nation-wide Campaign will not come unless men and women of the Church are converted to the conviction that it is infinitely worth while—that the Gospel of Jesus Christ, through His Church is, after all the most fundamentally important thing in the life of the individual and of the nation; not only fundamental, and vitally important, but that IT IS THE ONLY HOPE OF THE WORLD—the only bulwark against the powers of darkness—the sheet anchor of our civilization, a thing worth working for and making sacrifice for, necessary to equip and maintain and extend.

May the Spirit of God, which at the beginning moved upon the face of the deep and brought light out of darkness and order out of chaos, so move the hearts and will of the people, at this time, that the Light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ will shine out over this benighted world, that from this social chaos, which now envelopes the earth, may come a just and righteous order.

WHAT THE BISHOP SAYS ABOUT THE CAMPAIGN.

Bishop Rhinelander, in a letter addressed to the members of this Diocese, writes as follows concerning the coming Campaign:

"The campaign will have two aspects, intensive and extensive", says the Bishop.

"On the one hand it will aim to reach and lay hold of all our people. It has its ideal in part the same objective as our Every Member Campaign last spring. Every member, every one who has been baptized, every one who is in any way connected with the life of the Church, will be sought out and, if possible, brought to more active membership and service. And in each member the spiritual life is to be deepened and encouraged. Every effort will be made to build us up in prayer, in worship, in all those ways by which the Christian believer is helped to draw near to our Lord. This will be done, not only individually, but in groups. There will be classes for prayer and instruction. There will be conferences for study and counsel. This intensive work is the real foundation. Without it there can be no effective reaching out to do new work or to occupy new fields any more than a man can use his hands and fingers in hard labor unless his heart is beating strongly and his lungs full of fresh air and his whole body in good condition.

On the other hand, our effort is to be extensive, facing new opportunities which are evidently set before us and striving to the utmost of our power to reach them. We shall try to take in the whole field in this extensive effort. We shall find out what is needed in the work in China and in South America just as really and definitely as in our own Diocese and in our own community. Budgets are being prepared which will itemize the most important and most reasonable needs of the Church in every district. After these have been approved by the General Convention, they will be set before and explained to our people in detail.

We have a large programme for our own Diocese. At first glance it may seem to expect too much and to ask more than our people can give or do. As a matter of fact, however, all that we shall be asked to give and do is really well within our capacity if we have the devotion and the love.

The time is ripe. The cause is pressing. We have every reason to have confidence in our leaders. We have never yet begun to put forth our whole strength. Now is the time and the call. Let no one of us fail in answering."

THE CHIMES.

September began the new Chimes year. Where is yours? This year probably one carry us through. This means every active hundred dollars will have to be gotten to carry us through. This means every active member of the church will have to subscribe at least fifty cents. The high cost of material strikes the Chimes a blow but let's have the people stand back of us to receive it. Below are some who share it already: Mr. Baxter, Mrs. Whitby, Dr. Johnson, Mr. Woodruffe, Mr. Lening, Mr. Bains, Mrs. Top-lippe Johnson, Miss Inne, Mrs. Gerheart, Miss Fiest, Miss E. Cave, Mrs. Pinkerton, Miss E. Parker and Mrs. Ritter, Mrs. Baisbrown, Miss Shay, Mrs. and Miss Mogridge, Mrs. W. J. Crowder, Miss Kirkland, Mrs. Flower, Miss Mary Miller, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Mervin, Miss Lapp, Miss Lieler, Mrs. Lillian Armstrong.

Put your name on this Honor Roll before the next issue of the Chimes. Subscription and Contribution may be sent to Robert Carmint, 6373 Sherman street, or to the Rector.

SERVICE ON ALL SAINTS' DAY

The services on All Saints' Day will be as follows: Holy Communion 7:30; Holy Communion and Address 11:00 a. m. At the eleven o'clock service the names of person who have departed this life since last All Saints' Day, will be read from the Chancel. The flowers on the Altar will be in memory of the Blessed Dead.

Person who wish to give memorial flowers are requested to send the same to the Parish House not later than Friday noon, October 31st.

A SPECIAL BROTHERHOOD SERVICE

A special service will be held in Christ Church, under the auspices of the Junior and Senior Chapters of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, on Sunday evening, November 30th, (St. Andrew's Day) at which time reports will be given of the National Meeting of the Brotherhood, recently held in Detroit, and special speakers will be present. This Service will be of special interest to men. All are invited to be present. Further details will be announced later.

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN TO MEET IN CHRIST CHURCH

The Convocation of Germantown will meet in Christ Church on the third Tuesday in January. Service will be held in the Church at 11 o'clock and the Business Meeting will be at 2:30 in the Parish House.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church is in a most flourishing condition. We have had our third meeting this Fall, and our numbers increased at each meeting. We have a basket-ball team under the direction of Miss Dorothy Gill, and a class in basketry or basket-weaving under the direction of Miss Edna Cave—both classes teeming with interest and class spirit.

Other classes will be formed later on in the Winter.

We extend a hearty welcome to every girl in the parish, and outside, over twelve years of age, and up indefinitely, to join our ranks. The dues are only sixty cents a year, and the good times we have and the friendly relations we are forming, with our motto "Bear ye one another's burdens" always before us, makes for health of mind and body—with strength of heart and soul through the spiritual uplift we all have in such an organization.

At our last meeting held Tuesday evening, October the twenty-first, an election was held to fill the office of Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer. By unanimous vote the following named persons were elected from the girl members:

Chairman—Miss Leonora Robinson

Secretary—Miss Grace Gerhard

Treasurer—Miss Edith Johnson

The Branch Secretary is Mrs. Topliff Johnson.

The Associates are:

Mrs. Florence D. Bland

Mrs. T. Percival Robinson

Mrs. Frederick Lenning

Mrs. U. G. Rowley

MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary held the first meeting of the season in the Parish House on Thursday, October 16, at three o'clock. It was decided this year to hold an all day meeting on the third Wednesday of each month.

The meetings will begin at ten o'clock and the morning session will be devoted to sewing for the City Mission. The ladies are asked to bring their lunch and stay until the afternoon session which will begin at two o'clock. At that time the regular business meeting of the Auxiliary will be held.

At three o'clock there will be an address on missionary work by one of the missionary workers of the Diocese. All women of the congregation are earnestly urged to attend these meetings.

At our last meeting we had a most interesting address by the Rev. Elliot White, Rector of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, on his work among the Poles in this Diocese.

After this address tea was served and we all had a most enjoyable time. Our only regret is that there were not more women present to enjoy it with us.

A. F. U.

At the General Convention of the Church, recently held in Detroit, the thank offering of the women of the Church, through the Auxiliary amounted to the unprecedented sum of $463,721.16. We are informed that since then later contributions will swell this to a larger amount. The women of Christ Church Parish who had a share in this gift to the Missionary work of the Church are justly proud in the part they have taken in it. Now let every woman in the Parish enlist in this glorious cause.

MOTHER'S MEETING

The first gathering of the Mother's Meeting for the winter of 1919-1920 was held on October 21. Twenty of us went in a body to a moving picture show, which was very enjoyable, and then returned to the Rectory for ice cream and cake and a social time. Mr. Arndt and Mr. Gurley joined us, and Mr. Gurley told us many of his interesting experience abroad. The next Meeting was held on October 28. Work of the coming winter was laid out and all entered into the plans with interest and good will. We are anticipating a happy useful winter, and in order to increase our happiness and usefulness we are hoping to largely increase our membership.

We are arranging for a "Thrift Sale" to be held the middle of November. Will not the members of the congregation remember us as they are doing their fall cleaning and send us partly worn clothing and anything which they do not need but which might prove of use to other people? Packages may be sent to the Rectory or upon notification by postal or telephone (Gtu. 2142) will be called for.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

As was announced in the last issue of the Chimes, the Sunday School has resumed its regular sessions in all departments, and the promise of a very successful season is exceptionally bright.

Our appeal for help has been responded to by several persons who have volunteered either as a regular substitute teachers, but we shall have a hearty welcome for others who might want to see just how interesting the School can be made with their presence and their help.

October 30th the School will hold its Hallowe'en Party for the children, when a jolly good time, such as that season always means to the children, is expected. This is the first of the social occasions to be given for the members of the School during the Fall and Winter, and it is hoped that all the members of the School, as well as other children of the parish who may not now be connected with the School will be present. As some entertainments advertise we are featuring the fact that the party is "Free."

Toward the latter part of November the School will repeat its Real Thanks Giving Party.

We emphasize the Real Thanks Giving for at this party there is real thanks and real giving. The entertainment is to the children secondary to the giving, as on this occasion the children, as an evidence of their thanks give canned goods and package cereals for the use of the poor and needy of the parish during the winter.

This party was one of the notable events of last year, when the Rector was provided with a goodly supply of canned and other goods to dispose of as he found need for such real gifts, and the School is eager to make this year's Thanks Giving party surpass that of last year. To those who were privileged to be present when the children presented their gifts it was a real inspiration to witness the real joy which they derived from real giving.

And this is probably the keynote of the Sunday School at present. We are not so large as to attract attention by our numbers nor yet so small as not to have healthy growing facilities, but the children are doing real things in a Christian spirit, and we want others to share with us the pleasure of being a part of these real things.

Last month our appeal was for helpers, and that appeal is not out of date, but this month we want to appeal for more children to help.

Will not anyone who knows of a child who is not now connected with any Sunday School, give the name and address of the child to the Superintendent, Mr. Richard H. Morris and he will do the rest. A word, a phone call or even a postal is all that is necessary.

Can't we interest you?

The basketball Season has opened and the Bible Class and Junior Brotherhood combined will try to form two good teams. Practice is every Wednesday night and anyone who has any touch of basketball in them should come and try out for the teams. The first game will be Wed. the fifth in our Gym. Be sure to come.

Preaching is a means to an end. What end? To the use of the Sacraments in the Church. The Pentecostal sermon, the talk with the jailer and with the Eunuch—all led to baptism. And the Lord added to the Church daily. This was the result of Apostolic preaching.

Let Loose In Luxemburg.

Reminencies of Richard H. Gurley

(Written for the Chimes)

—Chapter 2—

There upon the threshold and grouped about the doorway, and on the stairway-landing was a throng of villagers—some thirty people of all ages and all talking at once. After a few tense moments of uncertainty the Americans concluded that whatever all the fuss was about, it was not war that was intended and all weapons were lowered and put out of sight. In response to a very brief and sharp inquiry from the Sergeant in charge as to just what all the mob was about anyway—a tall, heavy-set, dark haired man advanced a few steps into the room and in silken tones, asked if any of our most noble company spoke French. The inquiry was made in very good English so good in fact that it was not natural in sound to the fifteen woolly citizens from Illinois. Apparently it was culled from a prehistoric edition of an English Grammar of 1775 A. D.

So the author spoke up in his very best French—and immediately was deluged with a rain of French words, one out of every forty of which he had never heard before. However being of a romantic turn of mind the gaps in an otherwise intelligent understanding were bridged and the story in brief was something after this fashion.

A certain Marie Grossen, having reached the age of discretion and hopefulness, and finding a very marked shortage of young men within range of her activities determined that the time to act was the present. She was the chief owner and principal worker of a farm of some 20 acres just outside the village. In these anxious times some ties stronger than mere contracts for labor had to be arranged to keep the men in one spot for any length of time—and Marie Goessler was wise in her generation and wiser than most of it.

In the course of time her eyes became centered upon a certain Louis Pochelin bachelor, whose ancestry was French and whose future was gloomy. Louis had lingered too long about the village and fell, apparently without a struggle, before the persistent charms of Marie. (please notice the adjective.)

All the preliminaries being arranged, imagine the chagrin of a determined woman who having come to have the knot firmly tied, finds the place on tying quite well occupied by fifteen perfect strangers—unbidden guests who were costumed in any sort of clothes but the kind necessary for social occasions of this sort. The burgomeister, he of the silken tones, having been forced to give up his lodgings to that dear American Army had called off the civil wedding until further notice. But did Marie call it off? She did not! Did Marie flinch and cavil before "les braves soldats d'Amerique! Marie did not! Shakespeare has said. "There is a time in the affairs of men—etc" and Marie had that time labelled and all set for action—so far as the affairs of Louis were concerned. Therefore by your leave, said the Burgomeister, we will have the civil marriage here and now and tomorrow the church wedding. Well its a known fact that every man loves to go to every wedding but his own so naturally when the wedding comes to you—no objections were raised by any of the fifteen.

The oaken chests were handed out the sacred register of Roodt was opened on the table everybody signed it, (with the author's fountain pen,) first the brides father and mother then the groom's father and mother then the bride, then the groom, then all the witnesses including fifteen good men and true from Philadelphia and Hohokna, Ill. Then the Burgomeister put his chain of office around his neck—draped his shoulders with two beautiful lace towels, taken from the chest, and began the speech in German which had probably been in use since the days of the 1st burgomeister and which tied the nuptial knot in several different ways and everybody listened in silence. In the eyes of Marie for all who cared to see it, showed the proudest light of victory over every obstacle and as she turned to give Louis a careful survey every so often her whole attitude seemed to say to us. "In the rest of the world they preach of the power of women in Luxemburg, we prove it." As for Louis, gone was the conquering light from his eyes. Louis was signed, sealed and delivered—and he knew it. As the timid sand-piper caught in the snare so was Louis—a sickly smile and profuse perspiration testified to the intense joy with which Louis was participating in this epoch-making event.

Finally when the Burgomeister had said all the words he knew and everybody had said "hoch" to the bride and groom the combat was declared over—with Louis finishing a poor second. The Luxemburgers said "hoch" because they knew what it meant. The Americans said it because it sounded suspiciously like a word in American which would be a timely suggestion to the groom. Everybody else congratulated the bride and groom but we knew better. We sure felt sorry for Louis so we kept our congratulations for Marie only. Over Louis we were prepared to shed tears of deepest sympathy only Louis was no longer alive to feelings of any sort. Louis had had a relapse just after the final word of his League of Consternation he was now in that dull, fallid conatose condition of one sentenced to death. Louis had our sympathy deeply and richly expressed.

With all sorts of appreciation wet and dry for us in that we allowed him to fulfil his official and sacred rite of watch-maker the Burgomeister and his train filed slowly out of the room—down the stairs and so into the night to drink deeply and heartily so as to be in proper condition for the second act of the Tragedy of Louis Pochelin the religious ceremony of the morrow. "The tumult and the shouting lies"—the noise of triumph is over—quiet—a heavy silence again rests upon the quarters as fifteen soldiers prepare, to resume a much interrupted rest. One feeble inquiry—"Boys, how about women's suffrage when we get home. Shall we have it?" and one feeble reply—"Why ask us what a woman wants these days she gets—ask Louis?" Out went the Burgomeister's best candle and fifteen weary souls flew back to America. The Land of Promise and about seven hours rest in happiness there. Tomorrow the church wedding—and tomorrow—like all our troubles the story of it. (To Be Continued.)

Slackers

By Rt. Rev. Irving P. Johnson, D. D.

We are frequently reminded, in various ways that one can be just as good a Christian without being a Christian at all, paradoxical as that may seem.

Of course the whole question depends on what being a Christian consists in. Words have a curious way of eluding thought, and meaning something entirely different than they did, because we want them so to do.

In the same way, the word "Christian" has had a history, which, in spite of its convolutions, is interesting. When the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch it probably was regarded as an opprobrious epithet by those who bestowed it upon them, but because there was real worth in the thing so called, it became a title of which men became proud. Just as the word Yankee has passed through various shades of meaning, from that of one who drives a tight bargain to that of one who is a hero on the battlefield.

The truth of the matter is that whatever name you may give a thing, the name gets a reputation commensurate with the real value of the thing, and the word which one day represents an object of scorn may come to be a title of distinction.

Still, if we are going to have definite ideas, a word should have a definite meaning. Yet, if one wanted to start a riot in some interdenominational meeting called for the betterment of the Christian Church, let him merely introduce the question as follows: "Before we discuss the matter of bettering the Christian Church, let us define what we mean by the Christian Church." Yet isn't it rather foolish to attempt to better a thing which you can't define.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 001 P. M. to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

RECTOR'S NOTES

THE CHIMES DELAYED

This month's issue of the Chimes has been delayed, owing to a disarrangement at the office of publication.

The delay has been unavoidable and has been no fault of the publishers themselves, who have always been most obliging and courteous in their dealing with the Chimes.

It is hoped that hereafter the delay may be avoided and that the Chimes may appear at the usual monthly intervals.

NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN

By the time that this issue of the Chimes appears, the canvass in our parish, in connection with the Nation-Wide Campaign will have been completed. The Parish Committee in charge have been doing faithful work and it is hoped in the next issue of the Chimes we may be able to report that a hearty response has been made on the part of all our parishioners.

As loyal citizens of our country, we take pride in being "100 per cent. Americans," so should we all in this parish take pride in being "100 per cent. Churchmen." The call of this Advent Season is to every lukewarm, indifferent, half hearted Christian. "Now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us, therefore, cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light." May each one of us hear their call and heroically and loyally take our place in the ranks and faithfully "do our duty in that state of life unto which it shall please God to call me."

ADVENT

Advent Sunday is the beginning of the Christian year. "Thus it happens," says Bishop Coxe, "that in the Kingdom of Heaven, we live in advance of the world; we are a whole month on our way before the civil year begins. In this way our Holy Mother, the Church, teaches us to be ever on the alert, looking for and hastening unto the coming of the Day of God."

The Christian year, beginning with the Season of Advent, is so arranged as to bring before us the leading events in our Lord's life and the leading principles of Christian faith and conduct. This aim is carried out by means of special collects, Epistles and Gospel, by special Lessons, and in certain cases by special selections of psalms.

The season of Advent, so called from the Latin Adventus, a coming, is intended to prepare our minds for the celebration of the coming of our Lord, both on that first Christmas Day and also on that great last Day when we shall all appear before the judgment seat of God. It is impossible for us, as Christians, to enter into the joy of Christmas unless we realize the object for which Christ came into the world—viz: to save not merely from the guilt and consequences but from the power of sin.

Thus, the season of Advent, in its Lessons, Epistles and Gospels, strongly mingles the most joyous with the most appalling thoughts; for while it strikes the keynote of our Christmas rejoicings, it dwells on this first Advent with special reference to its bearings on that which is yet future when "He shall come again to judge both the quick and the dead."

How helpful to the soul this annual "awakening," and setting forward towards Christ's appearing and towards immortality!

Christ tells us: "Watch, therefore, for we know not when the Master of the House cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning; lest coming suddenly He find you sleeping."

The Christian year, which, as we have said, begins with Advent is divided, for practical and doctrinal purposes, into two parts. In the first or festal part of the year—that is from Advent to Trinity—the Epistles and Gospels are selected for their appropriateness to the teachings of the doctrine of the day or season; in the second, or non-festal part of the year—that is, from Trinity to Advent—they follow a certain regularity, setting forth the practical life, which should flow out of these doctrines or teachings.

By this method of the Christian year the Church brings before her people the leading events in our Lord's life and the leading principles of Christian faith and conduct. Nothing essential is lost; nothing is added. It is a well rounded teaching of the Christian faith and life.

CHRISTMAS COMMUNION

On Christmas Day every Churchman will wish to come to the House of God and there as did the wise men of old, kneel before the Saviour in love and adoration. Christmas without Christ?—no Christian man or woman will cherish the thought! The very word "Christmas" means meeting with Christ. Christmas is not a worldly holiday but a Christian festival. It is the feast when the Christ—Mass, the mass of the Incarnate Word, is kept with joy. Surely on that day we will not forget Him! Wise men ever bring gold and frankincense and myrrh to Bethlehem—offerings of their earthly substance, offerings of worship and adoration, offerings of lowly penitence and love for Him in His humiliation for our sakes. On this happy Christmas Day there will be gifts for our loved ones, offerings for our spiritual mother, the Church, and offerings of "ourselves, our souls and bodies" in the Holy Communion for the building up of ourselves more and more into the spiritual likeness of Him Who has given to us to be our Pattern and our Guide.

That every communicant may kneel before Him on the day of His Nativity and offer unto Him "their hearts deepest devotions." Holy Communion will be celebrated in this Church at 6:30, 7:30 and 11:00 o'clock. Everyone, who is physically able, will want to come to at least one of these Services. The happiest Christmas is the one that is filled with Christ and His love.

NON-CHURCH GOING HABIT

"It is all a habit!" We wonder how often one hears that expression as an excuse, or an explanation of the neglect of the Church services! This neglect is a habit, and a bad one. It grows into a systematic neglect of all that pertains to the outward expression of religious life, and its effect on the more personal, inner, life is not less sure. A certain moral complacency grows up that makes the real conscience in the matter hard to reach. Dr. Lyman Abbott, in an open letter to the "Outlook" deals with the habit—that of church-going. He says:

"I heard the other Sunday a very excellent sermon on the advantages of church-going, and asked the preacher of the sermon, for permission to give to others one paragraph in which the advantages of church-going were summed up. The paragraph was as follows:

"But I do not say without fear of successful contradiction, that the conscientious habit of going to Church always is one of the surest promoters of human happiness and courage. It broadens the mind, it cheers the soul. It lifts men's thoughts to the skies above them. It breaks the dull routine of work; it releases the captives of toil, it makes life interesting again; it awakens new powers of insight and sympathy. It changes the world's prose into poetry. For this is the conclusion of the matter: "They kept the feast with gladness. For they all rejoiced so that there was great joy in Jerusalem."

The Rector is pleased to commend most highly the members of the Altar Guild for the faithful manner in which they have discharged their manifold duties during the past year. The Chancel has been kept in excellent condition, the Communion vessels and altar linens have been well cared for, the services have been properly found and arranged the vestments are in perfect order. The Memorial Flowers, provided from Sunday to Sunday by members of the congregation have been carefully arranged and placed on the altar in memory of the departed. After the service these flowers are taken to the sick. On high Festivals, such as Christmas, Easter, Whitsunday, the duties of the altar Guild are most exacting and strenuous as the entire arrangement of the elaborate floral decorations of the chancel and altar on these occasions devolve upon the members. Few people in the congregation realize the many duties of this very useful Parish Guild. The faithful effort of the Altar Society should be appreciated by all. No parish has a more efficient and faithful Altar Guild.

This Guild raises no money by entertainment but all expenses are met through voluntary contributions. At present the Guild is in need funds to provide new linen for the altar. Contributions are solicited for this and other needful purposes and will be gratefully received, if placed in the box at the west door of the Church.

Persons in the Parish who desire to have flowers placed on the altar in memory of friends or as offering of thanksgiving on anniversaries associated with holy memories are invited to apply to the President of the Altar Guild, Mrs. Henry R. Baremore, 117 West Uptal street or to the Rector.

The Rector asks that when flowers are placed on the altar in memory of the departed, the friends providing the flowers shall prepare themselves and shall come to the Holy Communion on that day. Unless this is done the solemn holy significance of the memorial flowers is lost.

Remembrance of the dead should be a Sacramental service.

"This do in Remembrance of Me."

"According to Thy gracious word,

In meek humility,

This will I do, my dying Lord,

I will remember Thee."

THE BIBLE

"The Bible is the word of life. I beg that you will read it and find this out for yourselves—read, not little snatches here and there, but long passages that will really be the road to the heart of it. You will find it full of real men, and women not only, but also of things you have wondered about and been troubled about all your life, as men have been always; and the more you read the more it will become plain to you what things are worth while and what are not; what things make men happy—loyalty, right dealings, speaking the truth, readiness to give everything for what they think their duty, and most of all, the wish that they may have the real approval of the Christ, who gave everything for them—and the things that are guaranteed to make men unhappy—selfishness, cowardice, greed, and everything that is low and mean. When you have read the Bible you will know that it is the Word of God, because you will have found it the key to your own happiness and your own duty.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES

The Services on Christmas Day will be celebration of the Holy Communion 6:30 and 7:30 a. m. Shortened Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and Sermon at 11:00. The offering on Christmas Day will be for our Parish Assessment for the Clergy Pension Fund.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT

A letter has not yet been received from Santa Claus stating what date he will visit Christ Church Sunday Schools. It is absolutely certain, however that he will be present at Christ Church, probably some day following the last Sunday in December. As soon as it is definitely decided when he will arrive, announcement will be made to the school. The Primary Department will hold their entertainment in the afternoon and the upper schools in the evening. Santa Claus will be present at each of these occasions, and distribute presents to "good boys and girls," both old and young.

Parents and other "old folks" are invited to both of these entertainments. Watch for the date to be announced.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE

The Sunday School Christmas Carol Services will be held in the Church on Sunday afternoon, December 28th at half past three o'clock. The Schools will assemble in the Parish House at three o'clock and will march into the Church singing the Christmas processional carol and carrying their banners.

An address will be given. An invitation is extended to the parents and friends of the scholars and to all members of the congregation to attend this beautiful Carol Service. The pews in front of the transverse aisle will be reserved for the members of the Schools. The congregation will occupy the seats in the rear. The usual Church Service at 7:45 will be omitted on this Sunday.

CHRISTMAS GREENS

Contributions are solicited to pay for the purchase of "Christmas greens" to decorate the Church.

The young men of the parish do all the work of hanging the greens in the chancel and nave, as a labor of love.

The members of the Altar Guild provide for the altars and arrange all decorations within the Sanctuary.

Contributions may be given to Mr. R. H. Morris or may be sent to him at his address Payne Avenue and Hortess Street.

CAST-OFF CLOTHING NEEDED

Winter clothing outer or under garments, and shoes are solicited from members in the Parish. All clothing sent to the Parish House will be worthily bestowed. The Sexton is in the Parish House until five o'clock every day.

NEW YEAR'S EVE. MINDIGHT SERVICES

The usual New Year's Eve Service will be held in Christ Church beginning at 11 o'clock. The Church will be opened all evening for Meditation and Prayer. All are invited.

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE CHIMES

Since last issue the following persons have sent contributions or subscriptions to the Chimes: Mr. John Atlee Mrs. Arthur Thacher, Mrs. Gerhardt, Mrs. Mozier, Mrs. Longstreth, Mrs. Ghibe, Mrs. Ellen Wilcox, Mrs. Laura A. Wolfe.

Thanks! Will not the others who have not yet contributed please send their contribution at once? We need the money! Bis dat qui cito dat!

If anyone does not understand the meaning of the above, it will be translated by applying to Robert Carmint 6373 Sherman St. enclosing fifty cents or more.

CONFIRMATION CLASS FORMING

After the holidays the Rector will begin his instruction on Confirmation. The dates of the lecture will be announced. He will be pleased to receive now the names of those who are contemplating being Confirmed.

THE DAUGHTER OF THE KING

The Daughter of the King held their first meeting for the year on Nov. 24th. Only a few members were present but plans were formulate for the winters work. We hope to increase the number of our members and to do more efficient work during the coming year. Our meetings will be held on the third Monday evenings of the each month at eight o'clock in the Parish House.

H. F. A.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild has resumed its regular monthly meetings. The attendance so far at these meetings has been very good and we hope it will continue. We were very sorry to lose one of our faithful members Miss Anne C. Woodroffe, owing to her marriage on September 24th to the Rev. James Lawrence Ware.

We are very glad to welcome to membership in the Guild, Miss Elma Strein and Miss Emma Crowder.

AUXILIARY TO THE MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

At the regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Men's Bible class, held in October, there was election of new officers. The results were as follows: Miss Esther R. Alexander was re-elected president; Mrs. Rowland Jones was re-elected vice-president; Mrs. Harry C. Thompson was elected treasurer and Miss Georgianna F. Dean was elected secretary.

We would be very glad indeed to welcome and to membership who are interested in the Bible class and would care to help. It is our duty to help especially at the monthly socials of the class and in any other way we can. We hope to have a Rummage Sale at an early date and would appreciate anyone saving articles for us for this sale.

THE JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

The writer had the privilege and pleasure to accompany some thirty members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew from Philadelphia to Detroit, where was held the great National Meeting of the Brotherhood. Services were held on the train enroute. We also held services on the street corner in Buffalo and on the large steamer, the "City of Cleveland" that carried its human cargo between Buffalo and Detroit, we held morning and evening prayer, conducted by the members of the Junior Brotherhood.

The Convention was an inspiration to all who had the privilege of attending it and all were filled with the spirit to do our share in obedience to the Divine command. "Go ye unto all the world and preach the Gospel."

The Junior's of Christ Church chapter are going to help on this work through the Nation-Wide Campaign which it to be undertaken the first week in December. Our Junior Chapter meets on the first and third Wednesday evening.

Frederick Lennig, Director.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

At this critical period of the world's history the need of Missions cannot be over-estimated. The Womans' Auxiliary, the missionary society of the Church, calls to every woman to help in this great work of spreading Christ's Kingdom on earth.

If every woman of Christ Church would only become interested in this organization, what wonderful things we could accomplish. The meetings of the Auxiliary are held in the Parish House on the third Wednesday of the month.

The morning session, starting at 10 o'clock is devoted to sewing for the City Mission. Everyone is asked to bring their lunch and stay for the business meeting and missionary address which commences at two o'clock. At the last two meetings, there has been a marked increase in the attendance and in the interest shown in the work; but we are not yet satisfied and are looking forward to greater enthusiasm and co-operation to help us in this great work.

A.F.W.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Thanksgiving party of the Sunday School was the events of the month just past, and all who helped by their presence, both children and parents, to make up the large audience which attended, were well satisfied that the party was a success.

It was well worth a good price of admission to witness the unmistakable joy written upon the faces of the little ones as they came in laden with their gifts for the needy and to hear their hearty enjoyment of the entertainment.

Those who are not part of the Sunday School, or who do not attend this party, miss a real treat. There will be another such party next year and it is not too early for anyone to begin training to be part of it.

And now we look forward to the great childrens' festival, Christmas. Already our plans are maturing and it is hoped that the coming Christmas may mean more to the children and the Sunday School than any that has gone before. But we want all the children of the neighborhood, who are not already in a Sunday School to enjoy Christmas with us. Will you not help us to have them all here, by sending your own child and with him the neighbors child who is without a Sunday School. A real welcome is waiting for them and for you too, if you care to come in and see what we are doing.

Every Sunday morning at 9:45—and there is a real pleasure in being on time.

U. G. R.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Just let me tell you our Girls' Friendly Society is progressing beautifully since last you heard from us. If you should come to the Gymnasium any Tuesday evening (excepting the last Tuesday of the month from 7:30 to 8:30, you would see the most excited and hard working basket ball team you ever want to see. Miss Gill is certainly improving our talent for basketball speedily. And when very warm and very worn from basketball, we turn to our basketry work which is so very much enjoyed by every one.

Miss Case is certainly a wonder with the loveliest ideas and the nice part is that she knows so well how to carry them out.

Do you remember I said we don't play basketball on the last Tuesday of the month? Well, that's because that night is sort of an extra—special night. We had a sample of it on October 28, and, believe me, we all want some more!—and we're going to get them. On that night Mrs. Robinson taught us how to make the perfect potato salad, and then we ate it, reinforced by bread and butter and hot chocolate. Just say it wasn't good! After "supper" we had a short business meeting, and then it was time to adjourn.

We have some new plans on hand. We have decided that we are doing too much for just our own selves so we are finding ways in which to help others. We have just heard of a sale to be held at Holy Trinity Parish House on December 11th and 12th and so we have each decided to make something for this sale as well as attend it in a body.

There is also a call from 7th and Catherine streets—a settlement house which does very good work for girls. They need money very badly and of course will be very much obliged for any contributions. It is hoped that the Girls' Friendly will help this cause along.

During Lent we will also work for the City Mission box.

I must say that these several items were brought to our notice by Mrs. Robinson, who very kindly went to a meeting for us and brought a lovely report home to us. I am sure we all appreciate it very much.

So you girls, twelve years old and over, (it doesn't matter how much over) come and join us on Tuesday evenings. Don't miss the jolly good times and also the helpful times we are having.

PARENTS AND LOBSTERS

A half hour instruction on Bible Truth, taught to children in our Sunday School!

What effect will this instruction have on the minds and hearts of the young unless the impression of that truth be maintained and strengthened by parental instruction and example during the week? Is it any wonder that a tender plant droops and dies when it is seldom watered?

It is as little wonderful that the children should continue unbelieving and impenitent when they but once a week come under the influence of religious instruction. There is a fable which says that it was a source of much worry to some fish to see lobsters swimming backward instead of forward. They therefore called a meeting and decided to open a school for their instruction. This was done and a number of young lobsters came. The fish argued that if they began with the young, as they grew older they would not only learn to swim right, but would continue to do so. At first they did very well, but afterward, when they returned home, and saw their fathers and mothers swimming in the old way, they soon forgot their lessons. So may children well taught in the Sunday School, be forced backward by a bad home example.

Remember that when the blacksmith shapes a horse shoe, he does it while it is hot, for every moment's delay makes the iron less malleable. The sculptor moulding a beautiful figure in wax or clay works while the material is plastic, for it will shortly harden. And if we are to stamp the image of Christ upon a child's soul it must be done in the early, plastic and susceptible years that it may grow in wisdom and knowledge and in favor with God and man.

A NICKLE FOR THE LORD

Yesterday he wore a rose in the lapel of his coat, but when the plate was passed today he gave a nickel to the Lord. He had several bills in his pocket and sundry change, perhaps a dollar's worth but he hunted about and finding this poor little nickel, he laid it on the plate to aid in the fight against the world, the flesh and the devil. His hat was beneath the seat, and his gloves and cane were beside it, and the nickel was on the plate—a whole nickel.

On Saturday afternoon he met a friend, and together they had some refreshments. The cash register stamped seventy-five cents on the slip the boy presented to him. Peeling off a bill, he handed it to the lad, and gave him a dime when he brought back the change. A nickel for the Lord and a dime for the waiter.

And the man had his shoes polished on Saturday afternoon and handed out a dime without a murmur. He had a shave, and paid fifteen cents with equal alacrity. He took a box of candies home to his wife, and paid eighty cents for them, and the box was tied with a dainty bit of ribbon. Yes, and he also gave a nickel to the Lord.

Who is this Lord?

Who is He? Why the man worships Him, as Creator of the universe, the One who puts the stars in order, and by whose immutable decree the heavens stand. Yes he does, and he dropped a nickel in to support the cause of his Creator.

And this man knew that he was an atom in space, and he knew that the Almighty was without limitations, and knowing this, he put his hand in his pocket and picked out the nickel, and gave it to the Lord.

And the Lord, being gracious and slow to anger, and knowing our frame, did not slay the man for the meanness of his offering, but gives him this day his daily bread.

The nickel was ashamed of itself and hid beneath a quarter that was given by a poor woman who takes in washing for a living. —Selected.

TWO UNIVERSAL FACTS IN HUMAN HISTORY

Every normal human being, man, woman, or child, who has reached reflective age, is intuitively conscious of indebtedness to a higher than mortal power for the material necessities and comforts of life.

Deep down in our consciousness, we all feel that we owe to this higher power something more than can be paid in words or expressions of gratitude. We feel that we owe something definite, something tangible, something that can be weighed, measured, or counted.

All human history, going back to the most ancient clay tablet records and forward through all the intervening years up to the present hour, is uniform in its testimony, that wherever and whenever this universal consciousness of indebtedness has found expression in deeds, the proportion devoted has been the one tenth of gain in material things.

The recognition of this proportion has been just as true of people we are accustomed to regard as Heathen or Pagan as it is of Jews and Christians today.

Are not these two facts, the humanity-wide and ages-long feeling of indebtedness to a power higher than our own or any other earthly power for material blessings, and an equally universal intuition that the tenth is the proportion to be paid, immensely significant? They are hundreds, if not thousands of years older than Jewish history; they are cighteen hundred years younger than Bible history. Can you imagine that any one but God could have put these deep-seated impressions, both of indebtedness to Him and the proper portion to be paid in recognition of that indebtedness, into the heart and conscience of the entire human race?

Can we, as Christians, do less?

Ought we, as Christians to do more?

TO CRITICS OF THE CHURCH

More than three-fourths of all the social workers in America at this moment are members of Christian Churches. The ethical societies the atheistic Socialists, the lapsed Church members, are not one-fourth of the whole, by the latest statistical account. Take away the men and women whom the Church has set aflame with her ideals of brotherhood and sacrifice, and every charitable work in America would be crippled tomorrow. In any small town where Church affiliations are well known there may be a score of "undenominational" charitable boards but almost every member on each board is also a prominent church member. The van of the Church is pushing ahead eagerly toward industrial arbitration, municipal reform, temperance legislation, improved housing for the poor, the protection of women and children industrially, old age pensions and every other reform that modern America is considering. It is an undenominational van, shoulder to shoulder, representing no one church, appealing to no ecclesiastical authority. That is why its presence is taken for granted by the public and forgotten by the critic. But it spoils his argument the moment one comes to think about it.—The Outlook.

THE CHURCH OF TODAY

The strong Church of today is planning upon four vital principles; (1) praying; (2) witnessing; (3) giving; (4) praising.

A praying Church is the natural result of the lives of men who are in close communion with God. It testifies to the fact that men know the needs of their fellow-men and are confident that only God can supply these needs. In the demonstrated sufficiency of prayer, by the measured progress of the Church throughout the centuries, we know that a Church pleading before God receives the answer in priceless souls recovered.

A witnessing Church embodies the lives of those who appreciate the call to the militant service of Jesus Christ. It is in His name that the Church conquers. The hosts of the Church, with the sign of the Cross and the name of the King can possess all who belong unto Him. A Church that names not His name is a defeated Church.

A giving Church is the consummation of that sort of consecration that is genuine. The average Church, with its bills in arrears, its place of worship ill kept, the Rector insufficiently and tardily paid is but the barrier to blessings that God would bestow. A giving Church is an honest Church. Only an honest Church can have influence with the world.

A praising Church is one in which its members feel their gratitude to God, "the giver of every good and perfect gift." Its worship is one of praise and thanks—giving to God, "from whom all blessings flow."

Reader, is this what we are making our Church to be, by your praying, by your witnessing, by your giving by your praising?

"What kind of a Church would our Church be if every member were just like me?"

The Parish Leaflet.

LET LOOSE IN LUXEMBURG

But, unfortunately for us and exactly as things always happen in the army, we received orders to take the road at 6 a. m. the next morning and Louis and his troubles were quite forgotten until we had been marching three or four hours. Then it was one universal regret that we hadn't been able to wait and see Louis properly married in the local church.

Marching in Luxemburg is alright for those who love the mountains and care to frolic around and over the hills, but to this soldier, plain marching in both senses of the adjective, is by far the preferable sort. Up the hills, one has to half pult the transports so as to save the mules, and down the hills, one has to keep from under the mules feet or allow oneself to be run over by these heavy wagons going at increased speed. It's a lovely life the soldier leads on the march anyway. "give way to the right"—every time the General wants to roll by in his limousine—and as often as not "to the right" means march in the ditch by the roadside, as Luxemburg roads are for the most part narrow and if it isn't a limousine, it is some little "second lieutenant" in a side car which is even harder to endure. We march fifty minutes and rest ten, then march fifty more and rest ten more and so on from 6 a. m. to 12 mudday. An hour for dinner, if you feel well enough to think of cold bully beef and stale bread (and perhaps, gold fish in such complimentary terms and then at one o'clock resume the morning program until the major gets tired of travelling or you reach a village where there are sufficiently more stables than there are horses—and there we rest.

So we went from Rondt—a day's march to Fishback—and from there a day's march to Erfeldinger. Here we were stationed for three months and in our next account we will attempt a character study of some familiar sights in a Luxemburg village.

The Priest, the Bergomaster, the Village Midas, the Chief Gossip, the Lord of the Cafe, the "Horsey" and a view from the inside of a Luxemburg family and of their home.

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

INCREASED ATTENDANCE

It is gratifying to note the increased attendance at the Service of the Church on the first two Sundays in January. This was especially noticeable at the Celebration of the Holy Communion. It may be that some of the members of the Parish, who have grown careless and irregular in their attendance at Divine Service have made good resolutions for the coming new year. I sincerely hope that this is true and I pray that others in the parish, who have become indifferent and negligent in their Church attendance, will make a solemn resolve that, God helping them, they will be more faithful, more conscientious during this new year, in their Communion and in the discharge of every Christian duty.

THE RECTOR'S LIST

The Rector keeps a "classified list" of the members of the Parish. The first list or group is called "Faithful and Conscientious members." This includes the names of the reliable, the dependable; the members who, to the extent of their ability, are conscientious in their Church attendance and in the support of every good work. They are the Rector's inspiration and comfort. Upon them he builds his hopes and plans. They are to him what the apostles were to the Master, out of the many who followed Jesus, his real friends. In the second list are the "occasionals." They include the names of members who may be relied upon to be present at Divine Service, "occasionally," when the weather is not "too hot," or "too cold," or "too wet" or "too something else." They are all good people, with "good intentions," but they do not bear their Christian responsibilities and duties with any great seriousness. Their hearts are right, but they are lacking in strength of will. They go along the line of the least resistance. There is great hope for them and many are improving. Some of them, no doubt will be promoted to the first list of the "Faithful"—in time; but, will the prophet we cry, "How long, oh Lord, how long!"

In the third list are "Semi Occasional"—more "semi" than occasional. There is still hope for these people also, but as the apostle tells us, "the cares of this world (household cares, business and social cares) and the deceitfulness of riches (they own an automobile and prefer to take a ride on Sunday, or being able to afford it, they go away for a "good time (?) over week-ends) and the lusts of other things (sleep or loaf on Sundays; or dinner enjoyments and entertainment of friends) choke the word and they become unfaithful. "After a while," they say, "we are going to do better." Perhaps! but it is going to take some loss or some great sorrow or some special dispensation of Providence to save them from their blindness.

And then there is the fourth list. It is comprised of the "members," who call themselves such; who attend the services on the greater festivals, such as Christmas, Easter, etc. They do little or nothing toward the support of the work of the Church; they do not recognize that they owe the Church any duty or responsibility. If they belonged to a society of any kind or to a lodge, they would be turned out for not paying their "dues;" but belonging to the Church of God, the great Divine organism on earth that is fighting against the sins of the world and is trying to spread the Gospel of Love to every creature and is pleading for the loyal support and co-operation of every member, these people, in their indifference, presume upon the goodness and forbearance of God. St. Paul must have had them in mind when he wrote: "Despisest thou the riches of His goodness and forbearance and long-suffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth to repentance."

And the last class is the "Dead Wood Class." This consists of persons whose names still remain on the Parish Records, yet have become "dead" so far as their duty to the Church is concerned. They live near enough to the Church to attend the Services of the Church, if they would; but they won't. It has been suggested to them that they be transferred to some other parish and there start anew and for God's sake, do something; but they don't.

Of course the names in this class are not counted among the list of communicants. We are ready and willing—indeed most anxious to do all we can for these people. In time of need or trouble or sorrow we shall be glad to come to them and minister to them in every way possible. While they are, to all outward signs and appearance, spiritually "dead," yet, we do not forget that Christ can raise even the dead. And so we pray for them that the power of Christ may arouse them and raise them from the dead.

It can be only by the power of Christ's Holy Spirit that any of you can render service acceptable to Him. And so we work, and so we pray, in faith, day by day, that God may, in his own good time, bring the increase.

THE CHURCH TO HAVE AN ADMINISTRATIVE BODY

Among the most vital matters of importance to the Church disposed of by the General Convention of the Church, recently held in the city of Detroit, was the creation of a central body known as "Presiding Bishop and Council," to consist of members, elected by the General Convention, of which there shall be five Bishops, five Presbyters, five Laymen and eight others, representatives of the eight Provinces, one from each Province.

This Board or "Council" is to be at the head of the several specialized departments of the Church, dealing with missionary, social service and educational work, finance and publicity. The work of the whole Church is thus to be co-ordinated under the administration of the Presiding Bishop and Council. The following were selected as the Presiding Bishop and Council.

Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Thomas Frank Galor, D.D., Bishop of Tennessee.

THE COUNCIL

Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts

Bishop Lines of Newark.

Bishop Reese of Southern Ohio.

Bishop Brown of Virginia.

The Rev. Dr. Stires of New York.

The Rev. Dr. Freeman of Minnesota.

The Rev. Dr. Milton of East Carolina.

The Rev. Dr. Mann of Boston.

Mr. Samuel Mather of Ohio.

Mr. Baer of New York.

Mr. J. S. Bryan of Virginia.

Mr. Burton Mansfield of Connecticut.

Mr. F. G. Morehouse of Wisconsin.

Mr. Arthur S. Newbolt of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Harper Silbey of Western New York.

Mr. H. G. Wycoff of California.

Members of the Council Representing the Eight Provinces

First Province—Bishop Perry of Rhode Island.

Second Province—Mr. Baldwin of Long Island.

Third Province—Bishop Murray of Maryland.

Fourth Province—Bishop Reese of Georgia.

Fifth Province—Bishop Anderson of Chicago.

Sixth Province—Mr. J. H. Pershing of Colorado.

Seventh Province—Mr. Barney Phillips of Missouri.

Eighth Province—Bishop Keator of Olympia.

THE CHURCH HAS AT LAST WAKED UP

The Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Galor, D.D., who was recently elected by the General Convention, Presiding Bishop of the Council of the Church says:

"The American Episcopal Church has at last waked up to national self-consciousness. It is no longer a mere aggregation of independent dioceses composed of more or less independent parishes.

"The Church is finding herself as a responsible and aggressive personality—responsible to her Lord for the service she is rendering to the world and pledged to aggressive warfare against all His enemies.

"Every member of the Church is enlisted in this war, as the Baptismal formula declares; and dioceses and parishes are only accidents of organization.

"The Church is one body; and weakness of inefficiency or disease in any one part or member of the Body affects the health and strength of all the other parts and members. If Tennessee is poor and weak, it hinders the work in New York; and California feels the effect of the efficiency or inefficiency of Maine.

"The Church now realizes its corporate-ness, her solidarity; and the strength of the whole is the strength of the weakest spot.

No longer can we permit one diocese to languish, while other dioceses flourish. No longer shall Church extension in one region be crippled by poverty and neglect, while other fields are generously supplied with men and means. No longer shall missionaries and Church workers be compelled to leave their homes and wander around in richer dioceses, hat in hand, begging for help, like mendicants asking alms.

"We are of one Church; and as St. Paul said, 'The strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not merely please themselves.'

"Let us gladly surrender ourselves to the call of the Holy Spirit, Who is stirring the hearts and quickening the minds of Churchmen in every diocese.

"We shall all pray for God's special blessing upon the Church; and 'more things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of.' The Spirit will be poured out upon us; He will baptize us; and the whole company of the baptized will be caught up in a spiritual enthusiasm, that will burst the barriers of selfishness—diocesan selfishness, parochial selfishness, individual selfishness; and we shall see the glory of the Lord, as we pour out our gifts before Him.

"Let us praise God for the new day—for the Great Vision—and let us—each one—see to it that we do our share of work for God and get the Divine blessing."

EPIPHANY

This season of the Church's year through which we are passing, is called "Epiphany." It follows immediately after, and is indeed an extension of the Christmas Season and continues up to Septuagesima Sunday. The festival of Epiphany, must be deemed of very high importance by the believing and thoughtful Christian. It does not merely commemorate one of the most beautiful incidents of our Lord's infant life—the visit of the three wise men to worship the "new born King"—it also asserts one of the most fundamental and vital features in Christianity; the great distinctive feature between Christianity and Judaism. The Jewish religion was the religion of a race was a merely rational religion like this a full unveiling of the mind of a common Father of the whole human race? Was His interest and love to us confined to one people alone? Was there to be no place in His heart for the races that lay east and west and north and south of the favored race? Was the love of God come to reveal the Father's love to save one set of people only, or has He come to manifest His love to save all people, everywhere?

The events set forth in the festival of the Epiphany, and the missionary teaching of this Epiphany Season are sufficient to answer that question. The Church's mission is to all the world and to every people, to every clime. The Epiphany season is the great missionary season of the Church. Every season, of course should be a "missionary season," but at the Epiphany, special emphasis is laid on this teaching; indeed, that is what the word "Epiphany" means—"manifestation," "shining out." The star shone out and led the Gentiles to the child of Bethlehem and "they came to worship Him." And so we pray in the collect for Mission:

O God, who hast made of one blood, all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and didst send thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off and to them that are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after thee and find thee. Bring the nations into thy fold, and add the heathen to thine inheritance. And we pray thee shortly to accomplish the number of thine elect, and to hasten thy kingdom; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

THE NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN

During the past month, our Church, in conjunction with all Episcopal Churches throughout this entire country, took part in the Every Member Canvass.

The purpose of this effort was the carrying out of the plans formulated at the triennial convention of the Church held at Detroit, to endeavor to bring before every member of the Church the pressing need of an awakening of interest in the work of the Church both within each Parish and the work without the Parish. It is hoped that through this awakened interest every member would rally to the support of this great work, and give more fully both of service and financially than ever before that the Episcopal Church might be enabled to take the position in the great work of reconstruction which is before us, that its membership and also its past history would warrant.

The committees having this canvass in charge, report a most gratifying response on the part of the congregation. The number of those pledging regular support to the work of the church was largely increased and many who had already pledged themselves, generously increased the amounts. There are now 386 regular contributors pledged to give through the envelopes.

The financial outlook is very encouraging but much is still to be desired. The work of the church is still to be done. This can be accomplished successfully if each and every one will do his or her part. We can at least make an effort to attend at least one of the services each Sunday, and if there is no opportunity of performing any further work—this alone would encourage the rector and add to the interest of the service.

Let each and every one do his part to make our church the power it should be in the community.

E. B.

With every evidence of enthusiasm the intensive week of the Church's Nation-Wide Campaign has drawn to a close, with the membership from coast to coast uplifted, awakened and informed. Although weeks may be required to tally the full results, early reports indicate the successful culmination of this greatest effort of the Church to expand and extend all her activities through one great drive.

The Intensive Drive is over, but the great work of the Nation-Wide Campaign is yet before the Church. The Campaign has brought an awakening to the Church—its clergy, its lay workers, its inactive communicants. All have been made to see the vision of greater opportunities, deeper responsibilities, which confront Christianity today. They have been made to hear the call to service. They stand ready to carry on the new program of the Church, opened to them by the Nation-Wide Campaign.

NECESSARY PARISH HOUSE AND RECTORY REPAIRS

Repairs on the Parish House and Rectory will be necessary to be made as soon as the weather will permit. The Vestry has authorized the Property Committee to have these repairs made. The cost will be about $1,000.

NEW HYMNALS ADOPTED

At a meeting of the Vestry, held on Tuesday, January 6, "it was decided to adopt for use in Christ Church, the new Hymnal which has been recently published and formally approved and authorized" by the General Convention of the Church—The Vestry authorizes the Choir Committee to purchase 100 of these hymnals with musical score. It is hoped that members of the congregation will provide themselves with copies of these hymnals at once. The price of single copy is $1.20 an edition with words only is being published and may be procured in a few weeks. It is highly desirable, however, that as many persons who can, will provide themselves with copies with music score. The Commission on the hymnal in the report rightly puts it:

"Every other Church than the Episcopal Church places in the hands of its people the hymns with the music score. Only thus can congregational singing be sustained. The older people may not know the notes, but the younger people are being trained to sing by note. If, therefore, we hope to have a singing church, we must give the younger people in the Sunday School and in the Church every encouragement to sing.

The General Convention of 1916 "approved and authorized the New Hymnal." The General Convention of 1919 at Detroit sent this resolution to the Church:

"The House of Deputies concurring, the House of Bishops heartily commends to all parishes and missions the use of the New Hymnal with musical score, in order to take advantage of the present popular interest in singing, and to promote congregational singing throughout the whole Church."

Persons desiring copies of the New Hymnal may procure them from the Vestry of the Church.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Well, a year has gone and a new year has come for us, as well as for others. As to the past year, although not doing all we hoped to do, we have shown progress in every direction, we think. With the spirit of co-operation that exists among officer, teacher and scholar, we are bound to go forward during 1920. A brief report for last year is as follows: Number on roll in Primary, Intermediate and Main School 290; gain for year, 78. (Sixty new scholars brought in by old scholars;) Teachers lost, 8; teachers secured, (new) 11; average attendance during December (notwithstanding two stormy Sundays) 190, as against 147 the year before.

Our offerings have been for Mission	$95.00
Lenten Mite-Box Mission	225.00
To Church	315.00
To Support three Orphans in France	109.50

Total	$744.50
-------	----------

The above figures do not include men and women's Bible classes, which report as follows: 2 Women's Bible Classes, 32; Men's Bible Class, 75 members. Making a total membership for all departments of the school—397.

The Sunday School presented "Thanksgiving Gifts" to the poor of the parish, 360 packages of food.

We had our usual Christmas Church Service and entertainment for the Primary and Main Schools, old Santa Claus appearing at both the latter; also the "Girl Scouts" of the school gave us a play, "The Fairy's Daughter," which was hugely enjoyed by all. We also had more fathers and mothers with us than for many years and we hope to have still more next year.

One of our faithful teachers, Miss Edna Cave, has had to leave us January 1st, but we hope to have her return at Easter.

Our motto for the year of 1920 is "He that winneth Souls is wise." Proverb 11:30.

THE WOMEN'S BIBLE CLASS

During Colonel Potter's enforced absence for a year, on account of his eyes, many of the class have drifted away and what we want to do this year is to build it up again. Now there are certainly 30 or 40 young women in this church of ours, who while they may be too old to attend the Sunday School proper, are not too old to show their interest in the church to which they owe allegiance and one way they can do this is by helping to build up this class. Will you not come and bring a friend? Ten o'clock is not early even on Sunday morning. Mr. Potter's long experience as a student and teacher of the Bible, is a guarantee you will be interested if you make a start. Also the need of the Sunday School for future teachers should be met by this class.

M.

THE WOMEN'S AFTERNOON BIBLE CLASS

The Bible Class for women, which meets in the Parish House on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock is taught by Mr. Henry R. Baremore. The class has been following the teachings of the Church year and each Sunday take up the study of the Gospel and Epistle for the day.

All women who cannot attend the Bible Class, held in the morning, are cordially welcome to the afternoon class.

POSITION WANTED

Any one wishing a companion or helper in home for two or three days a week or in early evening, may inquire of The Parish Visitor, Christ Church Parish House.

ROOM AND BOARD WANTED

GERMANTOWN CONVOCATION TO MEET IN PARISH HOUSE

The Germantown Convocation will meet in Church on Tuesday Jan. 20th. The Morning Service will be at 11:15 o'clock. The Sermon will be preached by the Rev. Robert Johnson L. D. D. Rector Church of Saviour Philadelphia.

Luncheon will be served in the Parish House at one o'clock. Business session will be held at the same place at 2:30 P. M.

Members of this congregation are invited to attend both the Services in the Church at 11:15 A. M. and the business session in the Parish House at 2:30 P. M.

Among other business to be transacted in the afternoon will be the election of a Dean of the convocation. The Rev. Jacob LeRoy the acting Dean, has served for the past nineteen years. Under his efficient administration the missionary work of the Convocation has grown and extended and it was with great regret that the Convocation at its last meeting, accepted his resignation. Mr. LeRoy has been made Rector-Emeritus of St. Martin's in the Fields. He will make his temporary residence at Atlantic City. The best wishes of their many friends go out to Rev. and Mrs. LeRoy for many years of health and happiness.

CONFIRMATION CLASS NOW FORMING

Confirmation Classes are now forming and the Rector will begin on Sunday afternoon, February 1st a course of instruction on "Confirmation and the teachings of the Church." Their Instructions will be continued every Sunday afternoon at four o'clock and on every Friday evening at eight o'clock, until the Bishop Visitation on Maundy Thursday Evening. All persons who wish to be confirmed or are thinking of Confirmation are requested to confer with the Rector at once. He will be glad to meet them in the Church after any Service or by appointment.

ATTENTION! ALL EX-SERVICE MEN

The Service for Service Men

Sunday, February 22nd

The attention of all ex-service men of and now residing in or near this Parish is called to the special service planned for the evening of Sunday, February 22nd next in Christ Church. The purpose of the service is to indicate to the men who left this Parish to serve in the Army the fact that their services have earned for them a place in the corporate life and future of the Parish that will never be forgotten. Suggestions for some form of permanent memorial to be erected in the Church itself would be welcomed by the Rector—something in the way of a memorial tablet or memorial window upon which could be placed a fitting inscription and which would serve as a lasting tribute to the service men and add to the beauty of the Church's interior as well. "The Service Flag," with stars on it, which still hangs in the chancel, will be taken down at this Service.

Suggestions relative to the form of service on the 22nd will be welcomed from the former service men. The desire is to have them feel that this service is peculiarly theirs and every effort will be made to have one which will be helpful.

There has been a tendency on the part of the men returning from France to be restless and unsettled and especially is this noticeable in their Church life. No one excepting those who have been abroad with the Army will ever be able to understand this feeling of the returned men. But on the other hand, it is just as well for the returned man not to be unbalanced by it. He must realize that the condition of people and affairs in general as he finds them here at home are more or less those which will govern for the rest of his all-too-brief period of mortal toil and no really sane man is going to fool himself that he would willingly exchange the ways and customs of his army life in dugouts and trenches, unless he is again called to do so by his Country. And then even though there will be lots of growling and complaining the Parish House. We had the pleasure of assisting at the party which the class gave Mr. Garley on December 30th.

We expect to hold a Rummage Sale in connection with the class on Saturday January 17th and will appreciate anyone notifying any member of the class if they have any rummage and it will be called for.

G.F.D.

VESTMENT—GUILD

The choir, through The Vestment Guild take the greatest pleasure in extending thanks and appreciation to the Committee, actively represented by Mr. Banes, for the comfort that has been brought to them by the installation of a stove for the heating of the choir room.

Heretofore it has been so uncomfortable as to literally freeze up the spirits of the members of the choir. Now it is warm, genial and filled with smiles.

THE MOTHER'S MEETING ...

The annual dinner of the Mother's Meeting was held on January 6. We were fortunate in having a beautiful day, so that almost all the members were able to attend. The meeting was opened at 2:30 by Mr. Arndt who gave a talk on the lessons to be learned from the Epiphany Season. When the time came to adjourn to the dining-room the two directors were presented with beautiful cheese and cracker dishes, a highly valued gift, from the members of the Meeting. We then marched into the dining-room singing Onward Christian Soldiers, and took our places at the table. A delicious dinner was served, after which some selections were read by the members. We there, had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Van Oppenlander Eberle tell stories in her most delightful way. At five o'clock the afternoon was ended by the singing of the Doxology, and we all returned to our homes feeling that our afternoon had been a great success. A note of sadness was present with us, for we missed several familiar faces. During the past year three of our members have passed into the great beyond—Mrs. Kate Buckley, our oldest member; Mrs. Samuel Crowther, and Mrs. Charles L. Read. The personality of these women has meant much to our meeting, but while we miss their earthly presence we still feel their influence among us.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic club has been laboring under difficulties, but it hopes to be able to produce its play sometime in February before Lent. The name of the play will be "Mrs. Haywood's Help" in two acts. The admission will be fifty cents. After the play there will be dancing.

THE CHIMES

The new year and everybody rich. How about helping the Chimes a little? We need money! Some who have contributed lately are: Dr. Johnson, Miss M. M. Nixon, Mrs. Wisner, Miss Dietz.

Please send or give your contribution to Robert Carmint, 6373 Sherman street or to the Rector.

CHRIST CHURCH CALENDAR

Only a few Christ Church Calendars for 1920 are in the hands of the Berger. Any who wish to purchase one of these Calendars are advised to apply to him at once.

I want to put the following advertisement in the Chimes:

Lost—For some weeks back, one basketball team. Reward of a basketball game if returned to the Gymnasium of the Parish House any Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m.

Have saved the best until last. We decided that our Christmas should not be entirely thoughtless and selfish so we packed a basket full of goodies for a poor family. All of the necessities for a nice Christmas dinner were put in this basket—even sugar—as well as some toys which were kindly donated for the kiddies. If the family enjoyed receiving this basket as much as we enjoyed sending it to them—why they liked it a whole lot!

So here are best wishes for the success and good work of the Girl's Friendly for 1920!

JUNIOR AUXILIARY

The Junior Auxiliary at Christ Church resumed its sessions in November. The meetings are held every Friday afternoon at four o'clock in the Parish House.

The value of the Junior Auxiliary is that it trains young people and children to take their part in the missionary work of the Church. To pray and to work for missions are the objects of the Junior Department.

In November and December our branch made Christmas post card boxes filled with candy and nuts and sent them to Mr. Hatcher's Sunday School out west. The children are planning this year to make articles for a box to be sent away. First they will dress dolls for the box.

The officers of Christ Church "Junior" are:
President—Margaret Courtney.
Secretary—Catherine Wertsner.
Treasurer—Helen Mellenry.

Our members are enthusiastic workers, and have attended regularly. We extend a most cordial invitation to all girls of the Parish over 8 years of age; and we hope to see many new members at the next meeting—Friday at 4 o'clock.

CHURCH-GOING HABIT

How easy it is to get out of the habit of church attendance! If the devil can get you to believe that you are not well Sunday morning, or that it is threatening weather, or that company has come or is likely to come, or some member of the family is not well and needs your assistance, he will insist on your staying away just this once.

The next Sunday you may really be sick or have a good reason for not going to church. Then the next Sunday the devil will begin to find you an excuse, and he is not long at it. So you have missed three services. By this time you have lost some interest. Soon a year passes and you have attended church only a few times. Before another year passes you are criticizing the church and its workers.

You see the faults of other people more than the same boys with red blood in their veins will worry along over to where the Main Action is taking place.

But, meanwhile, the things which require our attention and support are the essential things in any real, virile, thinking man's life—his God, his Church, which stands for the things of God—and his neighbor.

After all is said and done, the things which endure the wear and tear of the ages, the things which the minds of men, destructively inclined, cannot destroy and to which, constructively inclined, the minds of the best men turn as a field for their efforts—these are the things to grasp and cling to firmly and unite in our efforts to support and the Church of God is one of these things. The men from France would do well to consider that

Let's begin by proving our loyalty to the Parish in doing all that we can to make the coming service one of real value.

RICHARD H. GURLEY,
33rd Division.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

The all day meetings of the Women's auxiliary are proving to be a great success. Every one seems to enjoy the morning session with its sewing for the City Mission and those who do not bring their lunch and stay for the afternoon meeting surely miss a very good time. This innovation has been voted a great success by every one.

At our last afternoon meeting we had two very interesting speakers: Mrs. North, president of the United Offering, spoke of the Women's United Thank Offering at the Triennial Conference in Detroit. Mrs. North's talk was followed by a most stirring address by Mr. Zocker, a converted Russian Jew, who spoke to us on the misfortune of Jewish Missions.

Our next meeting will be held Wednesday January twenty-first beginning at ten o'clock and every Wednesday thereafter. Be sure to bring your lunch and stay until the afternoon meeting, and hear the Missionary address. Every woman in the Parish will be cordially welcomed.

A. F. W.

THE JUNIOR AUXILIARY

The Junior Auxiliary of Christ Church Sunday School has held only four (4) meetings but, within that time we have made house boxes, out of postal cards for the needy poor, and filled them with candy cake; nuts, and in one there was a nicely dressed doll.

New members are coming into the auxiliary all the time and we are always glad to see them, because under the management of Mrs. Gerhart and Miss Ruth we hope to become a large, useful organization. The money that we have in the treasury we are going to use for some good purpose.

Katherine Wertsner, Secretary.

THE JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

Where's the Junior Brotherhood boys? Hasn't anyone seen any of them at work? Perhaps not as yet but on the night of November the thirtieth, eight of our boys were invited into the Brotherhood all full fledged Junior workers, they were: D. Arndt, C. Courtney, R. Carmint, F. Falkner, N. Johnson A. Raynor, R. Sutcliffe, and C. Van Dusen.

The service, after which followed our initiation, was on St. Andrew's night and Mr. Spencer came up and gave us a splendid talk and afterwards encouraged us on with our work. Mr. Leming gave the boys individually and Mr. Arndt received them assisted by Mr. Gurley. At the first meeting of the New Year to be held Wednesday night the 7th in the Parish the chapter will lay out its Winter plan. In 1920, therefore, Christ Church may look forward to a profitable work done by its Juniors. The Chapter wishes a Happy New Year to its Parish and to all in it.

R. Carmint, Secretary.

GIRLS FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly Society has felt the Christmas rush as well as others. We have been working feverishly to finish our trays to give them for Christmas presents. And I am sure each one felt duly repaid for the effort. Miss Cave has been a jewel in this "rush season"—so patient, and has always had time for everybody.

On December 9 there was a joint meeting of all the Germantown branches of the Girl's Friendly at St. Michael's Church. Supper was served, and every one agreed that it was a perfectly delightful supper; after which there were talks by special speakers. These were also universally enjoyed. Altogether a most enjoyable social as well as beneficial evening was spent.

We also had a good time at our last monthly social meeting. Since we had decided not to have the cooking class any more we had to think of some other refreshment. That other refreshment turned out to be ice cream which is "always delicious and nutritious."

Our December meeting was supposed to be held last Tuesday, December 30, but as that was the night of the Sunday School party we had to change our meeting to January 6th. Here's hoping we have an over crowded meeting that night.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild wishes to express its appreciation to Mr. Arndt for his commendation in the last issue of the "Chimes". We have been meeting regularly with very good attendance. We spent the afternoon of December 23rd decorating and getting everything in readiness for the Christmas Services. New Purificators are being embroidered by several members of the Guild and the Altar Linens and stoles have recently been marked. The Serving Committees for January will be as follows:

Jan. 2-9: Mrs. Colton, Misses Mauser and E. Thompson.
Jan. 9-16: Misses Chase, Alexander, Strien.
Jan. 16-23: Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Gerhard, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.
Jan. 23-30: Misses Dean, Falkner, M. Thompson, Crowder.

G. E. D.

AUXILIARY TO THE MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Auxiliary to the Men's Bible Class has been very glad to have several new members join us during the last month and we hope that others will follow, we meet the second Monday of each month at 8:30 in the church. If the devil can get a church member to look at the faults of some other member, it won't be long until he is out of the church. Be punctual to attend all the services possible. Come praying for the needs of your own soul, and not criticizing or finding fault with your neighbor. Make it the rule of your life to attend at least every Sunday. You owe that much to yourself; certainly you owe as much to your neighbor and to your God. Let us all unite to make this year the best year. May we expect you at service next Sunday?

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

A LETTER FROM THE RECTOR

Christ Church Rectory,

Lent. 1920

My Dear Friends:

Once again the call of Lent is sounding in our ears, bringing with it its message of unspeakable solemnity to every soul which will hearken. Lent succeeds Lent with a rapidity which almost startles us as the years fly by, and each one brings us nearer to the long ages of that eternity which is so very near to us,—so much nearer than we are yet able to realize.

Let us begin this Lent in the most earnest prayer to the Holy Spirit for His guidance and blessing upon what we are going to undertake. So much depends upon prayerful preparation. The great Sower will sow His seed now, as always, with the most liberal hand; but its fruitfulness will depend upon the preparation of the ground of the heart. Are we convinced that prayer is the one power which can command the graces of God, and that nothing good and lasting can be done without it? No matter if at the present moment you feel cold and lifeless, and disinclined for the necessary effort; it is prayer that will remedy this. Go to God and tell Him exactly how you feel. Put all your trust, not in yourself, but in what you know that He is able to give you. This very disinclination is often a sign that He means to do great things for you, and that He wants you to recognize that it is He Who has done it. Have you not found that the most blessed Lents in your past life have been those in which you have been most conscious of your weakness at the beginning, but about which you have prayed very earnestly? Let us begin this Lent and continue and end it in the spirit of more earnest prayer.

There is something indescribable about this season of Lent, something which cannot be explained by the mere fact of the extra services and our own penitential discipline, something which I have recognized and wondered at and rejoiced in for very many years; it is like the touch of another world upon the darkness and worldliness of our present lives. It is a wilderness, but the wilderness has blossomed like the rose. It is often a hard and wearisome way, but there are visions of the Heavenly country. What can this mean but the "unction of the Holy One," and the magnet power of the cross? There is nothing more certain than this to all who have experienced this atmosphere of Lent. God is always near us, but then He makes His nearness felt, because He sees us really trying to draw near to Him.

But this drawing nigh unto God is not merely the effect of prayer; it is also brought about by strictness of life, and the voluntary acceptance of the cross. There can be no blessing upon a Lent in which self-discipline does not hold a very foremost place. The ordinary means are fasting and works of mortification; all earnest Churchmen will want to use these means, but, for those who cannot for reasons of health practise these, there must, at least, be a real renunciation of the world, and of the luxuries of life, however harmless in themselves. It is impossible to exaggerate the spiritual effect of this voluntary treading the way of the cross. Its influence is felt at once; the scales of worldliness drop from our eyes, the heavenly vision becomes clearer, the interior life is invigorated and new possibilities of holiness open out before the soul. Can we afford to throw away one of life's great opportunities for the sake of a little self-indulgence and personal ease? Has not long experience taught us that these have never brought us real happiness or satisfaction? God is the only true end and joy of the soul. When shall we learn this, and give ourselves up without reserve to seek Him? I pray that the hearts of the men and women—and the children, too—of Christ Church will be inspired by the Holy Spirit to make this Lenten Season an occasion of real sacrifice, of unselfish devotion, of a deepening of the spiritual life of the soul. This we can do only by using the Divine Means of Grace which our Saviour has oesueathed unto us,—fasting, prayer and Sacrament.

Affectionately, your friend and Rector,
CHARLES HENRY ARNDT.

SOME SUGGESTIONS FOR LENT

1. Be present as far as possible, at every service of the Church. The benefit will be to others as well as to yourself.
2. Make your Communion more frequently and with a more definite purpose and preparation.
3. Read the Scriptures regularly and meditate upon what you read. Too many treat the Bible as a book of the past.
4. Pray until prayer becomes a habit, turning to God at all times as naturally as the flower turns to the sun.
5. Keep a strict watch over the door of your lips this Lent. If you cannot speak well of others, say nothing.
6. Deny yourself every luxury and add the cost of it to your Easter offering. The cost of self-denial should be given, not saved.
7. Refrain from entertainments and places of public amusement. "Love dissipated upon many objects concentrates itself upon none."
8. Let self-examination be a daily duty. It is not a question of where you stand, but whither you are moving.

9. Be regular in your attendance to whatever guild or society you belong. Nominal membership counts for nothing save a discouragement to others and a discredit to yourself.

10. Make your Lent positive, not merely negative. Undertake some practical work for good, and carry it through.

YOU OUGHT TO BE CONFIRMED

A number of persons in the congregation, who ought to be confirmed, have not, as yet, given their names to the Rector. They ought not to put it off. They owe a solemn allegiance to Jesus Christ and His Church. It is their duty to their family, to themselves, their Church and their God. They have been hesitating—putting it off for years. Each year it becomes more difficult to say "I will." Some day it will be "too late."

Will not every man and woman in this vicinity, who is desirous of leading a better life, who would seek "those things which are above" who would be a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, come to the Rector and talk the matter over with him? The Rector is most anxious to help any one who wants to come. Now is the time. "Whosoever will—let him come!"

HIS GIFT TO THE DEAD—AN EASTER SUGGESTION

A friend has sent to the Rector the following touching account of a gift of love to the dead. It is an example worthy of imitation. It is an appropriate Easter suggestion. The account is as follows: "An old man came to the home of a certain clergyman the other day and laid down $150.00 "to help out some needy family." Then he told this story:

"Years ago, when all of my folks were living, I couldn't afford to give presents. Things are different now, but most of my folks have gone. I went shopping, just as if my folks were alive. I picked out a shawl for an aunt of mine. She's dead and so I didn't buy it, but I put down the amount of money I would have spent. Then I went and got some things for my dead brother and for my father and mother and for a few old friends of mine. I didn't really get them, you know, but I priced the things, I thought they would like. When I added up all the money I would have spent it came to almost $150, so I added a little to it, and here it is."

THE BIBLE

"Within that awful volume lies
The mystery of mysteries!
Happiest they of human race
To whom God has granted grace
To read, to fear, to hope, to pray,
To lift the latch and force the way;
And better had they ne'er been born,
Who read to doubt, or read to scorn."
—Sir Walter Scott

The Church of the First Century had no Bible, as we have now, and was dependent upon the Ministry of the Church. But it had its organic life,—its Creed, its Sacraments, its Ministry.

These are the essentials in teaching and administering the Faith.

SUNDAY EVENING ADDRESSES ON THE BIBLE

The Rector wishes to call the attention of all persons in this community to the very exceptional opportunity and privilege that will be afforded to them to hear a special course of masterful addresses on the Bible, which will be delivered by the Rev. James Alan Montgomery, Ph.D., in Christ Church on the first five Sunday evenings in Lent. The title of the course of addresses will be "The Land, The People and The Book." This course will deal with the history of the various books of the Bible, their contents and purpose.

Dr. Montgomery is well known as one of the foremost scholars of the Bible in America and is an acknowledged authority on Old Testament subjects. He spent much time in study in the Holy Land and the East and is the author of several prominent works, among which is his noted book: "The Samaritans, their Theology, History and Literature."

The announcement of this course of addresses, to be delivered by Dr. Montgomery in Christ Church, will, no doubt be of great interest to a large number of people in Germantown who will wish to hear this noted scholar on the absorbing subject—"The Land, The People and the Book." Evening service is at 7:45 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Seats free.

ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS IN ARREARS

The Accounting Warden has given to the Rector the names of a number of subscribers to the Envelope System who are in arrears—some of them for several months. There are a few who made pledges and have not given anything through the envelopes. Some of these persons, the Rector knows, have been absent from the city, or have been ill. These persons, of course, will remit in full as soon as they are able to return to the services of the Church. There are others on the list who have overlooked this duty, possibly through forgetfulness or it may be carelessness. As all pledges are entirely voluntary, any who wish to withdraw their pledges may do so at any time, by notifying the Rector or the Warden. But, until this is done, the Warden takes it for granted that the subscriber intends to fulfill his or her pledge.

There is needed about $1,000.00 for the urgent repair to the rectory roof which must be attended to at once. It will, therefore, be a great relief to the Warden, if all who are in arrears, will kindly send to him the amount due, as soon as possible.

WHY OUGHT WE TO ATTEND SUNDAY SERVICES?

Christ founded the Church in order to perpetuate His gospel from generation to generation.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

One of the methods by which the Church perpetuates itself is by regular weekly assemblies.

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is," says the apostle.

The man who goes to Church regularly on Sunday, preaches to all men that he believes in the gospel and his responsibility thereto. The man who stays at home proclaims to the world that his public duty to Christ and the Church is not a matter of primary importance.

It is this living testimony to the gospel that makes for the effectiveness of the Church or against it.

The duty of Church going is not one of personal interest, but one of a permanent obligation, in which we do a thing whether it is interesting to us or not because we believe in the importance of doing it.

As good soldiers we do not ask what we like but rather what we ought to do for Christ and the Church."

*Subject for Sunday Evening Addresses: "The Land, the People and the Book," by the Rev. James Alan Montgomery, Ph.D., Professor at the Divinity School in Philadelphia. Confirmation Instruction, in Parish House, Friday evening, 8:00 o'clock (for adults.) Sunday afternoon (for Juniors) four o'clock.

Why not make it a Lenten object to bring one child to Holy Baptism, or so to interest some halting neighbor, some weak brother for whom Christ died, that he might take upon him the responsibilities of his Christian Life? In other words, very briefly: Find candidates for Holy Baptism and Confirmation. You will be then doing some definite work in building up the Kingdom.

MR. GURLEY'S ORDINATION

The many friends of Dr. Richard H. Gurley of our Parish will be pleased to learn that he is to be ordained Deacon on Sunday morning, February 29th. The Service will be held in the Diocesan Church of St. Mary's corner Broad and South Streets, Philadelphia. The Bishop has asked the Rector of Christ Church to preach the Ordination sermon. There will be others ordained at the same time, some to the Diaconate and others to the Priesthood. Members of the Parish are invited to attend this service, which will be at ten o'clock.

DR. MONTGOMERY'S ADDRESSES ON THE BIBLE

No one should fail to attend the course of Sunday evening addresses on the Bible, which will be given during Lent by the Rev. James Allan Montgomery, Ph.D. This course, entitled "The Land, The People and The Book" will be of intelligent interest to every one who wishes to have a clearer and better understanding of the Bible.

Service will be at 7:45 P. M. All are invited. Seats free.

One thing I do believe—more surely than the evidence of the senses, for they may be imposed upon;—more surely than those self-evident axioms upon which mathematical truth is built, for these axioms are only spun out of the human mind, and not external to it. I do believe that God is true. I do believe that whenever God makes a promise, He will assuredly fulfill it. I do believe that if you or I come under the terms of the promise, He will fulfill it to us.—Goulburn.

LENT'S THREE-FOLD APPEAL

Every duty to be performed, every responsibility to be met, every privilege to be enjoyed, requires three steps—each step the result of an appeal to man's nobler nature; a proper response to which brings success in life, while refusal to heed its voice spells failure.

The first appeal is made to your Conscience—to rouse the sense of duty—to make you take the first step and say: I ought to do it.

The second appeal is made to your Ambition—to give you confidence—to make you feel equal to the task—to make you take the second step and say: I can do it.

The third appeal is made to your Manliness—to lead you to consecrate your talents, your time, your thought, your money, to your task—to make you take the third and all-important step and resolve: I will do it.

This three-fold Appeal gives Lent its meaning—a season devoted to "making things right"—to giving your life "a new start"—to the application to your religious nature of general principles, recognized as valuable in every sphere of life. Without this appeal, Lent has no meaning.

Apply this principle to Lenten duties:

PRAYER. Did any man ever succeed in any enterprise whatever, who did not keep it in his mind and make it the burden of his expressed desires? It is the first element in success. The spiritual life is no exception. You must strengthen your desires for spiritual things, and for a nobler life by prayer. Lent makes the Appeal, and your response must be: I ought to pray, I can pray, I will pray.

FASTING. The companion of prayer—the evidence of sorrow for sin. To fast for a purpose always strengthens that purpose. If you would follow in the footsteps of your Saviour, you will say: "I ought to fast, I can fast, I will fast.

REPENTANCE. It is the tendency of everything to drift. Rules and regulations control mercantile houses, and govern homes, but it is only by "eternal vigilance" that the "standard is maintained." Your life drifts into habits that need correction. Therefore it is necessary to repent—to turn back—to make a better start. Lent bids you Repent. It is for you to say: I ought to repent, I can repent, I will repent.

SELF-EXAMINATION. "Taking stock" is a familiar phrase. It is the annual drawing of balances—the study of the condition of business—of profit and loss—the determination of methods for future success. Every person needs to take account of gains and losses to character through the contact with the world—to make a careful reckoning of present conditions, with a view to better results in the future. Lent emphasizes self-examination; and realizing its value you say I ought, I can, I will examine myself.

ALMS GIVING. Every one gives money for that which interests him and in proportion to the interest, even to the last dollar. You are interested, all Christians are deeply interested, in the progress of the Kingdom of Christ. Therefore, your response to the Lenten admonition to give must be this: I ought, I can, I will,

If the appeal were made to the conscience alone, success would be easy; for in the bottom of your heart you know you ought. Nor would success be difficult, if an appeal to ambition; for you know you can if you want to. But the third appeal—to your manhood, by which you govern, direct, control your actions—here rests the difficulty. Until you say, I will, the voice of conscience will not be heeded, the ambition of your love to excell will be stifled, and you will plead all sorts of foolish excuses for failure in your Lenten Purpose.

I OUGHT

"Herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offense toward God and toward man."

I CAN

"I can do all things through Christ that strengtheneth me."

I WILL

"My meat and drink is to do the will of Him that sent me."

I OUGHT

O LORD, we beseech Thee mercifully to receive the prayers of Thy people who call upon Thee; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I CAN

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech Thee, the spirit to think and to do all such things as are right; that we, who cannot do anything that is good without Thee, may by Thee be enabled to live according to Thy will, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I WILL

STIR UP, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the wills of Thy faithful people; that they, plentifully bring'ng forth the fruit of good works may be Thee be plentifully rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FAST

1. Spiritually:

By real sorrow for sin and an earnest struggle against it.

2. Mentally:

By abandoning light reading and taking up the study of the Bible, and reading such works as aid devotion and give you a better knowledge of the Church and of the Christian Faith.

3. Socially:

By withdrawing entirely from ordinary amusements and gaieties.

4. Bodily:

By acts of self-denial, "to keep the body under."

Remember, the Holy Communion is your spiritual food. Don't starve your soul, but feed it, that it may be strong.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

The C. P. C. of Christ Church, and in fact, all over the Diocese, has fallen back painfully since and during the war, all of which we can thoroughly understand, but now there is no reason for it not to get back to its original, old time standard—bringing back the cheer and diverting news to those who have been, for various reasons deprived of one of the great essentials of life—reading matter, both sacred and fictitious.

The longing and hungering after knowledge has gone on just the same among these poor people from whom we withdrew our contributions of books and magazines. Now the call has gone forth to get together and give of our literature and money to continue this splendid and much appreciated work.

Will you help? All who are willing to do so, please apply to Mrs. Topliff Johnson, Librarian, 51 Rex avenue, Chestnut Hill. Tel. 1620.

CONFIRMATION LECTURES

The Rector will begin a course of lectures on "Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church" on Friday evening, February 13 at eight o'clock, (for adults), and on Sunday afternoon, February 8th, at four o'clock.

These lectures will be held in the Parish House weekly on the above evenings and afternoons, until the Bishop's Visitation, Maundy Thursday evening, April 1st.

All persons, both confirmed and unconfirmed, are invited to attend these lectures.

Persons, who wish to be confirmed, are requested to give their names to the Rector at once. He will be pleased to confer with any on the subject after Sunday service, or by appointment.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary will hold its regular all-day meeting on Ash Wednesday, February 18th, beginning at ten o'clock A. M. At this meeting the Lenten work will be discussed. We feel sure that there are many women in Christ Church who will be willing to come once a week during Lent to sew for some charitable object. We have been promised a very interesting speaker for this meeting and hope for a large attendance. At our last meeting Mrs. Ansel gave us a most interesting account of her missionary work in Yang Chow, China. We wish more women had been there to hear it. The business meeting is at two o'clock and at three there will be a missionary address. We hope that many women who as yet, have not come to the Auxiliary meetings, will make it their Lenten duty to do so. We need your help and co-operation in this great work. A.F.W.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Girls! were you there the other night? Yes! Well, I'm sure you had a most beautiful time. And if you weren't there you missed it! You want to know what I am talking about? Well, I mean our party which we had on January 27th, following our business meeting. It was perfectly lovely of Mrs. Johnson to come to see us, and to bring with her Mrs. Corielle who read some perfectly screaming selections for us. She was perfectly lovely, and I do hope we didn't seem too piggish always asking for more.

And we had such a nice crowd out. We were glad to welcome quite a few guests—among whom was a Southern relative of Leonore Robinson. She delighted us immensely with her perfectly lovely musical abilities. We also had dancing to the lively strains of our victrola.

Last but not least, come the ice cream and delicious cakes—also a result of Mrs. Johnson's presence among us. Wasn't it sweet of her to do that?

And now we are ready for some work before our next party. I think it will come along pretty soon. For I heard it rumored, that we ought to have a party before Lent comes, and we start our serious work in dead earnest. Come around, girls and join us in the G. F. S.! We want all girls to share our pleasure with us. G.M.G.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild held its annual supper on Thursday January 29th in The Parish House, all but three of our members were present. We were very glad to have several guests with us. After the supper Mr. Arndt spoke to us for a few minutes and then Mr. Gurley gave us a very interesting and instructive account of his experiences abroad, explaining especially The Meuse-Argonne campaign. Altogether we spent a very enjoyable evening.

The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

February 6th-13th: Misses Chase, Alexander, Strein.

February 13th-20th: Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Gerhard, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

February 20th-27th: Misses Dean, M. Thompson, Crowder.

February 27th-March 5th: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Manser, E. Thompson.

Secretary.

AUXILIARY TO THE MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Auxiliary wishes to express its appreciation and thanks to all who contributed so generously to our Rummage Sale, held January 24th, thereby making it a success. In spite of the bad weather we cleared seventy dollars.

Our next regular meeting will be February 9th and we would be very glad to have any interested person join us at that time.

ALONE WITH GOD.

There are no times in life when blessings descend so richly upon the soul as in the quiet, meditative, hours of self-examination, when alone with God the soul learns more of duty, and finds ways to fulfil it—of privileges, and enters upon their enjoyment.

You will realize the awful character of sin, and will shun it as you would a drink of deadly poison.

You will have learned how "to keep the body under," how to break every evil habit, that has gained control over you; and will rejoice over the "conquest of self."

You will have gained a deeper insight into truth, and a better knowledge of God and your relation to Him.

Your character will be purified; your spiritual power will be increased; your Christian life will be filled with richer experiences of prayer and devotion.

Looking upon the Cross, you will realize that you have been bought "with a price," and that your talents of mind and body belong to Christ—your time, influence, money life—all are Christ's and you will more fully consecrate them to His service.

Your heart will be touched with sympathy for your Redeemer; and you will love Him with an intenser love, and give Him the allegiance of your life.

You will love the Church better than ever before—

"Her sweet communions, solemn vows,
Her hymns of prayer and praise."

Are not these results worthy of your effort this Lent?

AN ORGANIZED HISTORIC CHURCH— THE DIVINE PLAN

The religion of Christ is essentially and primarily a brotherhood, a Church. The Mohammedans venerate a Book, a Bible, the Koran. The Buddhists believe in a method. But Christians are primarily and essentially members of a family, united in Christ, in a visible kingdom, a Church; and the Christian Bible is not a fetich, to be worshipped for itself—but chiefly valuable as the charter and constitution of the Church "The Church to teach, the Bible to prove"—that is the rule of faith.

Thus Christianity is a social system, the family of God, and this corresponds with the law of nature, with the revealed method of Christ, and with the principle of the Incarnation.

(1) It is a law of nature that man is a member of a community. He realizes his individuality only by and through his relations to society. The isolated individual is not moral. It is only when he comes into relation with others—in a family, a community, a city, a nation, that he becomes a moral being. St. Paul tells (Ephes. 4:13), that the "perfect man" is to be realized, not by the individual, but by the whole Church. This is a truth most important for our time.

(2) The method of Christ in the Gospels is to create first of all a new and distinctive society in the world, to be the nucleus of His Kingdom. We can see the beginnings of its organized form, as when we read (Luke 6:13), "He called unto Him disciples, and of them He chose twelve, whom He also named Apostles." Thus Christ approved of the distinction between Clergy and Laity in the Church. So He declares the building of His Church (Matt. 16:17), and its permanence; and describes it in His parables. It was to be like a net cast into the sea, and like a field sown with tares and wheat, containing both good and bad in this world.

This Church idea is the theme of St. Paul's great Epistle to the Ephesians; the Epistles to Timothy and Titus are full of it; and the First Epistle to the Corinthians (1 Cor. 5:12), takes for granted the distinction between "those within" and "those without" the Church, just as St. Paul said (1 Cor. 12:12; Gal. 3:27) to be baptized "into Christ" is to be baptized "into the Body," i. e., the Church. The testimony of all early Christian writers is practically unanimous in favor of this conception of Christianity as primarily a Church and not as the worship of a book, or the observance of a method, or a summary of doctrine. That kind of individualism, which says that the Church exists only as a union of believers, as if it could be constituted by individuals coming together and uniting themselves into a society, does grave injustice to the New Testament. The Church originated not in the will of man, but in the will of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Church has a reality of its own independent of the individual members, for

(3) The principle of the Incarnation is that Christianity is not merely a moral standard, it is not a mere revelation of truth. It is both of these, but it is more. It is the bringing in of new life, the communication of power. "I came," He said, "that ye might have life; and that ye might have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). That is the justification of the Church, the Sacraments, the Ministry, aye, of the architecture, the music, the liturgical beauty and richness of the historical services of the Church. They all contribute to the fulness of the life in Christ.—Bishop Gailor.

UP OR DOWN?

We do not know who said it but it was well said. "People who are down on missions are usually those who are not up on missions." There is a world of truth in this simple statement which lies at the bottom of all the modern movement toward missionary education. Again and again it has been demonstrated that opposition to missions, as such, has its foundation only in ignorance. How many times have we heard of persons who had "no use for missions," yet after a trip through foreign lands, with seeing eyes and an open mind, have become enthusiastic advocates of that which they once condemned?

PAYING AND GIVING

We ought to make a distinction between paying and giving. Then the paying of money would go in general for our Parish needs and expenses, such as the support of the clergy, the sexton and the choir, the provision of a suitable church building, and the heat and light and equipment necessary to make our church home clean and comfortable and reverent. The giving of money would be so left for charities and benevolences and missions. The paying would be done for our own spiritual health and growth, as paying to schools is done for intellectual health and growth, and to grocers and butchers for our physical health and growth. And, as no self-respecting person wants another to pay gratuitously for the schooling of his children or for the table supplies of himself and family, so each and every one in the Church or Parish should have the self-respect and honest pride to want to bear his or her own share of the parish expenses. The provision for these expenses should be arranged for in a plain, business way, either by pew renting or by subscriptions carefully secured. The income so provided should be collected in a business way and put into and paid out from the parish treasury. When all this paying is provided for in a business way, then giving begins. If the paying is done cheerfully and honorably and to the full, all the offerings in church can go for charities, benevolences, and missions.

BISHOP THOMPSON ON CONFIRMATION

The Rector commends the following words of the Rt. Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, late Bishop of Mississippi, on the subject of Confirmation. They are strong words. God grant that they may touch the hearts and stir the wills of some who have been putting off, from year to year, their Christian duty of Confirmation.

"The great mass of people in Christian lands are baptized in infancy. It has been the purpose of the Christian Church, from the first, to take into her arms the children, following herein the Master's example. She learned her lesson at His blessed feet, and forbids them not, because she accepts His words, that 'of such is the kingdom of heaven.' She is a training-school to teach His love and faith, to watch over and educate and train, by precept upon precept, the children whom He has committed to her charge.

Therefore, she makes them Christians to begin with. All Christian duties, all Christian obligations are upon them by election, because by God's good pleasure and the sovereign council of His own will, they have been born into a Christian land, and so elected for Christian duty and a Christian life.

These baptized children are members of Christ's Church, in the full, unlimited meaning of the term. They are the Church's most sacred charge. Above all, she is bound to guard and watch for them. As the State guards, sacredly, the rights of its children, as it recognizes their full citizenship, and protects them most zealously by courts and judges. Just because they are helpless, although it does not yet demand all a citizen's duties, nor admit them to exercise all a citizen's privileges; so the Church guards the rights of her minor members, and brings them to full growth in the Christian life, guards them the more sacredly because they are so helpless.

Her plan is, when they have come to the years of discretion, when they know good and evil, when they have learned where they stand, and what is the issue of their choice, to gather them about her, with the dew of youth and hope yet fresh upon them, with the world on which they soon must enter lying yet untried before them; to gather them about her and ask them now once more, as once the act was done in love and faith by others for them, to renew it for themselves: to conform is grace and goodness here, at the dawning, before the toiling and the fighting begin.

It is thus that Confirmation—or the laying one of hands—becomes the central fact in his Christian history

CLOSING DAYS OF LENT

May these closing days of Lent bring every Christian heart nearer to the Cross—nearer to Christ.

May we follow so close to Him in these solemn days of His suffering, His crucifixion and His death that we "may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made comfortable unto His death."

Then, indeed will Easter be a joyous day to us, "risen with Christ"—and seeking those things which are above.

EASTER COMMUNION

Every one, of course,—every one who considers himself a Christian and who is physically able to do so, will of course, attend Divine Service on Easter Day! It would be worse than foolish even to suggest that any Christian will remain away from His Father's House on Easter Day. Even if there were no rubric in the Prayer Book which says, "Every Parishioner shall communicate at least three times in the year, of which Easter shall be one," every Christian soul, who rejoices in the hope of the Resurrection would want to avail himself of this privilege and be with Jesus on that great Day, joining in the triumphal song "Christ is Risen from the Dead and become the first fruits of them that slept!"

Every member of the Church will devote these last solemn days of Lent in preparation for the Easter Communion.

HOLY WEEK—This last week of the Lenten fast is everywhere observed with severer discipline than any other fast. Services are held more frequently and all loyal Christians give themselves to more earnest prayer and effort. Our meditation, our prayers, our Communion, will be the most earnest concern of every good Churchman. It is inconceivable that any one Christian desecrate this Holy Week with any social or frivolous affair. We watch with our Lord in His passion and follow Him in His suffering to the Cross.

GOOD FRIDAY—The most solemn, serious day of all the year, of all the ages. It is a day of strict fasting, repentance and prayer. It is the day of the Cross! This will be uppermost in the mind and heart of every Christian. "It is nothing to you, all ye that pass by?" "What! Could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation!"

EASTER EVEN—This day has been universally observed as commemorating our Lord's descent into the "place of departed spirits." It has always been the day of the Christian year for baptism. The service of vigil was kept until the dawn of the resurrection morn. Churches and houses were illuminated and the Paschal candle was lighted.

EASTER DAY—"The queen of festivals," the great day of the Christian Year, commemorating the triumph of our Lord over sin, death and hell. On this day in the Eastern Church, the Christians salute each other with the words, "He is risen" and the reply is, "He is risen, indeed!" This custom should be adopted by all Christians. Let it be so with us, "He is risen; He is risen, indeed!" This is one of the Church's "solemn days of oblation," when every Christian should draw nigh to his Saviour in the Sacrament of the Holy Communion.

OCTAVE OF EASTER—Following the custom of the Jews in prolonging their great festivals, the early Christian kept their greater festival for seven or eight days; hence the "octave of Easter." In the American Church we have collect, epistle and gospel for Monday and Tuesday of Easter Week.

ST. MARK'S DAY—Is the first Parish Day after Easter, falling this year on April 25th. St. Mark was converted by St. Peter, who speaks of him in one of his epistles on "Marcus my son." Although he forsook St. Paul when confronted by hardships and danger, afterwards proved steadfast and brave in the service of the Church and regained the confidence of St. Paul. He was with the great apostle during his first imprisonment at Rome. He became the first bishop of Alexandria and is honored as a martyr. Because of his success in winning converts he incurred the bitter hostility of the devotees of Jupiter Serapis and whilst celebrating Holy Communion on Easter Day he was dragged from the altar and through the streets of the city and beaten to death. His symbol is the lion, the ecclesiastical color for his festival is red. The beautiful church of St. Mark's Venice, commemorates this saintly bishop.

LOW SUNDAY—The first Sunday after Easter is known in the English Church as Low Sunday, probably so called in contrast with the great festival of Easter Day beginning the octave. The Eastern Church calls it "New Sunday" alluding to the renewal vows of the neophytes.

DAY OF ST. PHILLIP AND ST. JAMES—The St. James here commemorated is St. James, the Less Gal I; 19. He bore the title of "the Just," probably because of his zeal and strength of character. He was the first bishop of Jerusalem and presided over the first Council of the church. He was thrown from a pinnacle of the temple and clubbed to death.

ST. PHILLIP—it was his remark "Lord, show us the Father and it sufficeth us" that suggested our Lord's words which have brought hope and comfort to very many 'In my Father's house are many mansions' St. John, XIV. He is said to have been crucified at Hierapolis.

OUR EASTER OFFERING

Our Offering on Easter Day should be a true expression of our love and loyalty to Jesus Christ. As He suffered and sacrificed and died for us, and rose again, that we through Him, might have Life Eternal, so should we present on Easter Day such an offering as will mean something in His sight—will mean a real love and devotion, a genuine spirit of self-sacrifice for Him, whom we call our Lord and Saviour.

Far back in the Old Testament times, the faithful were commanded to appear before the Lord for sacrificial worship three times a year, and they were not to appear empty. One of these occasions was the "Feast of Unleavened Bread"—which corresponds to our Easter Day. "Three times in a year shall all appear before the Lord thy God in the place which He shall chose; in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles, and they shall not appear before the Lord empty. Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which He hath given thee" (Deut. 16:16.)

ONE TENTH was the tithe in the Old Testament times. Should not this proportion be the least that each follower of Jesus Christ will want to give? There are a number of the poorest members of the Parish who will give five dollars each, as a thank offering, on Easter Day. Will not every member of the Parish strive to make this amount ($5.00) the minimum of their Lenten sacrifice? For the forty days in Lent, this will represent only a little more than ten cents a day.

Are there any in the Parish, actuated by any real love and zeal for the Church of Christ, who will not willingly make this small Lenten sacrifice—ten cents a day? This amount should not represent the "family giving," but each individual in every family; children as well as adults should make this personal offering. Our religion is a personal, an individual responsibility. Therefore, the offering on Easter Day should represent the personal, individual gift and sacrifice of every man, woman and child. Then the gift will carry with it a personal meaning and a personal blessing.

Of course, many in the parish will want to give, and will gladly give, much more than this; for God has blessed them more abundantly with this world's goods. They will feel that an average of ten cents a day for an Easter offering would be an insult to their honor and to God. These persons will present on the altar as an Easter Offering many times more than this—some twenty-five, some fifty, some a hundred dollars and more. They are conscientious and recognize their many blessings and privileges which God has given to them; therefore, their larger responsibilities. "Every man," says the Bible, "shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God, which he hath given thee."

What real joy it is to a Christian heart to be true and just and honorable in the discharge of every duty both to God and man!

Whilst I am anxious that the full amount asked for by the vestry shall be realized, I am even more anxious that this offering shall come abundantly from all; that every man, woman and child may share in it and give conscientiously; that their offering presented on the altar on Easter Day, may be an expression of deep, true Christian sacrifice and devotion from every loyal Christian heart.

I earnestly pray that this may be the Easter gift. Then, indeed, will their joyous Easter bring to each heart a personal, Easter blessing!

EASTER

"The strife is o'er, the battle done;
The victory of life is won—
Alleluia!"

Out from the darkness into light; from the sadness of Gethsemane and Calvary into the joys of Easter; away from thoughts of suffering to hymns of victory; from the dark tragedy of Good Friday to the empty tomb—such is the great transition today in Christian thought, voiced in anthems and flowers, in carols and hymns, and emphasized in the message of joy proclaimed from Christian pulpits. The news that encircles the globe today, and visits each hamlet and village and city, and makes hearts beat the quicker for joy, is the announcement made to the disciples of old, and repeated through all the Christian centuries; "The Lord is risen indeed."

How strong a hold the fact of the Resurrection has gained upon the hearts of men! As the centuries multiply, the thought grows stronger and stronger. The world itself keeps Easter Day. Men and women are studying the fact from every point of view. Sentiment has laid hold of it. Reason has grasped the idea. The man of science finds the law of the Resurrection capable of demonstration. The Spiritual truth beneath the fact itself far outweighs the seeming physical difficulties.

And who can find words to tell of the comfort which this thought gives to those who grieve over the loss of loved ones, gone before us? Who can express in language the hope with which it cheers and inspires the heart of one called to suffering and pain.

There is power in this central fact of Christian history. There is inspiration in this keystone in the arch of Christian truth.

Let us rejoice, then, as we look this day into the empty sepulchre. Let us weave the truth and the fact into our lives. Let it give courage to the struggles, hope to the discouraged ones, comfort to the mourners—joy in every heart because Christ has brought life and immortality to light in His Gospel.

REVISION OF PARISH REGISTER

It is very important that the Parish Register of Christ Church shall contain the names and correct addresses of all members of the Parish.

Will all persons, who have recently moved into the Parish and have not yet presented their letters of transfer from their former Rector, please do so at once? And will all who have moved away from Germantown, and cannot longer attend the services of Christ Church, please secure from the Rector their letter, so that he may transfer them to the Rector of the Church where they are attending?

The canons of the Church require every Rector report annually to the Bishop the communicant membership of his Parish.

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK OF THE CROSS

O CHRIST JESUS, pour Thy grace upon us; grant us love, purity, lowliness and patience in all trouble and distress; feed us with thy heavenly Bread; make us strong by Thy suffering; make us to love Thee with all our hearts, and so truly and without all deceit or guile to glory in Thee, our only Saviour, that we may draw all our power and blessedness from Thee alone, to whom be rendered all praise and thanksgiving in Thy Church, world without end. Amen.

O MOST Holy Jesus, Good Shepherd, who didst lay down Thy life for Thy sheep, save and preserve the righteous, call home the wicked, justify the penitent, have mercy upon all true believers, and upon me a miserable sinner. Amen.

O GOD, who desirest not the death of sinners, but their repentance, most mercifully regard the weakness of our mortal nature, and strengthen us by Thy goodness; that of Thy Infinite mercy we may obtain pardon for our sins, steadfastness in Thy service, and finally enjoy the rewards promised to those who persevere unto the end; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Resurrection of Christ proclaims the victory of right over wrong; of truth over error; of life over death. Right cannot be overturned, truth cannot be crushed, life cannot be destroyed. The religion of Jesus Christ has illustrated these facts in all Christian centuries.

A LIVING CHRIST

The strongest proof of the resurrection of Christ is the existence of the Church, the observance of the Lord's Day in the place of the Jewish Sabbath, and the results of the labors of a weak band of helpless disciples, who forsook Him and fled, and then suddenly became the most heroic and enthusiastic teachers and preachers that the world has known, and no power could scope with them. All this is unaccountable without the fact of the Resurrection and the power of the Holy Spirit.

A living Christ is the truth that Easter proclaims. May this holy Eastertide so fill our hearts with hope and joy in this glorious truth that everything dead, formal and indifferent in our lives may be cast out; that we may live in Him, and His spirit animate our hearts with the same missionary impulse that moved the disciples at Jerusalem in the first days. If only a small part of the professing Christians of today could be roused up to possess something of this same spirit, and to live the Christian life in sincerity, purity and love, nothing could withstand their power and His Kingdom would soon come in righteousness.

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS

Following the custom of past years the flowers in the Chancel on Easter Day will be memorials to the Blessed Dead. The Altar Guild requests that all persons who desire to remember their departed friends by memorial flowers will please send their contributions in money to Mrs. Henry R. Baremore, 6439 Jefferson street, as soon as possible. The ladies of the Guild will personally attend to the selection and purchase of the flowers and will see to it that each contribution is represented by an appropriate memorial. By sending contributions in money the Guild will be enabled to make a choicer and more harmonious selection. Those who prefer to contribute blooming plants or flowers are requested to send them to the Parish House on Saturday morning in time for them to be arranged in the Chancel on the same day. All persons are invited to contribute to the Easter Memorial, and any contribution, however small, will be cordially received.

THREE HOUR SERVICE ON GOOD FRIDAY

The Three Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross.

It is requested that persons shall be in the Church before the noon hour and all, who can, are asked to remain during the three hours of this solemn service. Persons entering or leaving the Church during the service are requested to do so during the singing of the hymns.

The offering at this service is asked for Church work among the Jews. Alms may be placed in the basins at the doors of the Church.

Your Easter offering! Have you begun to prepare for it and to make it, as was the sacrifice at the Hebrew passover a thing to be prepared for and an oblation of great joy?

THE CRUCIFIXION TO BE SUNG PALM SUNDAY EVENING

"The Crucifixion," by John Stainer, will be sung by an augmented choir in Christ Church on Palm Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock. The soloists will be, tenor, Dr. John B. Becker; baritone, Wm. R. Wister Burns; bass, Mr. Henry L. Booth. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance on the part of the members of the parish.

MUSIC ON EASTER DAY

The music on Easter morning will include the following:

Processional Hymn—109. "Welcome Happy Morning."

"Christ our Passover" Fairland
Te Deum in C Eaton
Communion Service in B flat Steane
Office Hymn 121. "The Strife is o'er, the battle done."

Anthem—"They have taken away my Lord." John Stainer

Retrocessional Hymn 115—"The Day of Resurrection."

In the evening the Sunday Schools will sing their Easter carols.

NEW ENVELOPES FOR ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

New sets of envelopes for the year beginning at Easter, will be furnished to all, to subscribe through the Envelope System. Former subscribers, who are pew holders, will find their envelopes in their pews; others will find their envelopes arranged in alphabetical order, on the table near the South entrance.

Persons who have not subscribed—it is desired that all should do so—may find pledge cards in the racks in either vestibule or they will be furnished on application to the Verger. Please indicate by a mark the amount you desire to give weekly; sign name and address at bottom of card and place it on the alms basin at any service. A package of envelopes will then be sent to you. For rental of pews or for further information, please apply, after any service to Mr. Richard H. Morris or to the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, or by addressing the Warden at 328 South Third street.

SERVICES ON EASTER DAY

The services on Easter Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion, 6:30, 7:30 A. M.

Morning Prayer (shortened form)

Holy Communion, 11:00 A. M.

Sunday School Carol Service, 7:30 P. M.

Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week, Holy Communion, 9:30 A. M.

It is earnestly hoped that not one communicant of Christ Church will remain away from the Holy Communion on Easter Day, unless Providentially hindered. Everyone should so thoroughly prepare himself during the remaining days of Lent that he may come worthily to meet his Risen Saviour, 'reckoning himself to be dead indeed unto sin; but alive unto God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.'

CONFIRMATION SERVICE

The Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhinelander, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, will administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation in Christ Church on Maundy Thursday evening, April 17th. The Confirmation Service will be held at 7:45 o'clock.

Immediately after the Confirmation, the Bishop will conduct a Preparatory Service for the Easter Communion. All are cordially invited to this service.

WHAT IS CONFIRMATION?

Confirmation follows Baptism when a person reaches the age of discretion. The laying on of hands of the Apostles (Acts viii, xix and Heb. vi) has ever been continued by the Church as 1st, the renewal of the Baptismal pledge; 2nd, Open confession of Christ; 3rd, The ordinary door to the Holy Communion; 4th, The gift of the Holy Ghost for the final perseverance. It is a rite practiced from the time of the Apostles endorsed by the fathers of the Church

A. D. 180. Tertullian:—"After Baptism,—then the Imposition of Hands."

A. D. 250. Cyprian:—"They who believed in Samaria were baptized—hands were laid on them—which is still the custom among us."

A. D. 420. St. Jerome:—"This is the custom of the Church—the Bishops Laying Hands upon them for the Invocation of the Holy Spirit."

A. D. 494. The Prayer in our Confirmation Service dates from this period. From this time on to the present there can not be any doubt concerning Confirmation or The Laying on of Hands by the Bishop being a Ceremony of the Church.

Can we safely omit that which from the first has been insisted upon?

Methodist Testimony—"I was determined not to be without it, and therefore went and received Confirmation—even since I became a Methodist Preacher."—Dr. Adam Clarke.

Baptism Testimony—"We believe that Laying on of Hands with Prayer upon Baptized believers as such is an ordinance of Christ, and ought to be substituted unto by all such persons to partake of the Lord's Supper."

Baptist Association, eSpt. 25, 1742.

Congregational Testimony.—The confession of the name of Christ is, after all, very lame, till the discipline which Christ ordained be restored, and the Rite of Confirmation be recovered to its full use and solemnity."—Dr. Coleman, Boston.

Presbyterian Testimony—"The Rite of Confirmation, thus administered to Baptized children, when arrived at competent years—shows clearly that the Primitive Church, in her purest days, exercised the authority of a Mother over her baptized children."—Committee of Gen. Assembly.

"This custom is frequently mentioned by the ancient writers. "Such imposition, I highly approve, and wish it were now restored to its primitive use unconnected by superstition."—John Calvin.

IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO JOIN THE CONFIRMATION CLASS

The Rector will be pleased to meet any one who has not given his or her name to him to be confirmed.

The Rector may be seen after any service or by appointment by anyone who wishes to speak to him on the subject of Confirmation. It is not yet too late. It soon will be!

Easter Day is always the first Sunday after the full moon, which happens upon or next after the twenty-first day of March; and if the full moon happens upon a Sunday, Easter is the Sunday after.

A MEMORIAL PRAYER DESK TO MRS. FALKNER

The members of the afternoon Bible Class have presented to the Church, a Prayer Desk to be used in the chapel in memory of Mrs. John B. Falkner. Mrs. Falkner was a teacher of the class for many years and her faithful services to the poor of the parish is still held in sacred memory by those who came under this wonderful Christian woman's spiritual influence.

The memorial was consecrated by the Rector at a service of the class on Sunday afternoon, March 14th.

The inscription on the desk reads:

"To the Glory of God and in Loving Memory of Helen Butler Falkner. Lent 1920. Presented by the Women's Bible Class." C.H.A.

Jesus has lighted up the grave. In the resurrection from the dead Jesus has put a light in every grave, an angel in every tomb and a hope in every breast. Because that tomb is empty and Christ is risen there need be no blight without a blessing, no sorrow without a joy, no loss without a gain, no parting without a meeting. The same spirit that raised up Jesus from the dead and dark can raise up dead souls. That spirit can put a light, an angel of blessing, in every chamber of your soul. This is the true power of His resurrection. Are we risen with Christ? —N. Y. Observer.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Diocese of Pennsylvania

A letter from the Diocese Executive Committee

The Diocesan Executive Committee of the Nation-Wide Campaign has had several requests from Parishes and individuals that it would indicate some adequate basis for pledges of money which would produce sufficient to enable the entire program of advance, including Parochial, Diocesan and General work, to be carried into effect.

The Committee has been reluctant to answer this question, not only because of the difficulties in the determination of such a basis, but also because it is the purpose of this Campaign to stimulate the interest of communicants in the work of the Church, leaving the question of gifts to the individual conscience. As an evidence of this purpose, no parish apportionments have been made.

In view of the requests, however, we think it right to depart from our usual policy and to offer the following suggestion:

It may fairly be asked of every communicant that they will set apart at least one-tenth of their income for the Lord's work. It is also not unreasonable to ask that at least one-half of this amount shall be given to the Church, leaving the other half to cover donations to general charity and to undenominational or inter-denominational activities. With the best statistics we are able to secure, we believe that if every communicant will pledge at least five per cent of his annual income to the Church, all of the financial needs of the Nation-wide Campaign will be fulfilled. Of course, those who are able will give more, but we suggest the above apportionment, merely as a help to those who desire a suggestion from us.

Let us reduce life to its first principles. Which is our chief concern—the body or the soul? this world or the next? gain or godliness? gold or character? pleasure or duty? bread or God? The subject is not debatable. Life is worth just the truth and honor and faith and valor it holds for God's service and man's—nothing more

The annual election of Vestrymen of this Parish will be held in the Parish House on Easter Monday, Monday, April 5th, between the hours of five and six P. M.

The terms of the following members of the Vestry expire this year: Sheldon Potter, Mr. R. Pugh, Mr. N. Johnson, F. B. Falkner.

Four Vestrymen are to be elected for a term of three years.

The following excerpt is from the By-laws of Christ Church. By-Law, Article 1, Section 8. "Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestryman one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the Secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the southeast vestibule of the Church at least two Sundays prior to the holding of such election, and no person so nominated shall be a candidate."

(Charter of Incorporation, Article 6.)

"The Vestry of said Church shall consist of twelve men to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereat. Such elections shall be by ballot and shall be held on Easter Monday in each and every year, between such hours and upon such notice as the by-laws of said Church may provide, and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said Church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of this Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of at least two years next proceeding any such election, annual subscription of not less than ten dollars each, or the like sum in annual rental of pew or sitting for the same period.

"A vestry is a body corporate, legally entrusted with the property of a parish, and the management of all its temporal affairs. The value of an active and efficient vestry cannot be over-estimated. An idle or an incapable vestry is a burden."

BISHOP LAWRENCE.

VESTRYMEN AS GUIDES IN SPIRITUALITY.

As indicating that vestrymen need not necessarily confine their influence within a parish to purely material matters, the following circular letters recently addressed by the members of the vestry to the parishioners of St. John's Church, Knoxville, Tenn., bears witness:

"In an address recently made to the congregation of our church, the Rector incidentally called attention to the fact that the average number of persons partaking of the Holy Communion at the regular service on the first Sunday of the month is only about one-sixth of the number of the confirmed persons on the record of the parish.

"While neither as vestrymen nor individually do we wish to be considered as dictating to others their duty as Churchmen we do, in the most fraternal spirit possible invite your attention to the fact that our people are not as mindful as they should be of the privilege which is theirs, of heeding the Master's injunction: Do this in remembrance of Me.' It is the one way in which we, as Christian men and women, can show our loyalty to Christ our Saviour, manifest the faith we profess, and prove that we are not ashamed of that profession of our religion.

"We beg you to consider this matter not as a duty, but as the exercise of the spirit of true worship, as an aid to personal religious strength, as the real source of a quiet mind and a calm temper in the midst of this changing and transitory life, as the means of reviving our faith in our Lord if it has been neglected, forgotten, or denied, and as the guide into the way of truth and in righteousness of life.

"We also wish it known that as vestrymen and your chosen stewards, we most heartily commend and endorse the present plans for the support of missions, both foreign and diocesan, and every good work which is being carried on in our parish life the upbuild of Christ's Kingdom and the good of our fellow men."

The letter was signed by twelve vestrymen.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The "weather man" has been our foe during the last two months, and with the help of "The Doctors" has kept many of us away, particularly in the Primary Dept., but we still have our enthusiasm with us and we are going to work the harder from now till Summer to make up for lost time. Nevertheless the following have been "Star Classes" (every member present) twice: Miss Gill's, Miss Gray's, Mrs. Morris', Mrs. Schafer's, Miss Gerhard's, Miss Omes', Mrs.

Adamus-Gu's; also we have had as high as 48 attending a church service.

We are very sorry to have lost Mrs. Adamson, who has moved to Washington, D. C., but we are glad to have the good news that Miss Cave and Miss Alexander are coming back to us at Easter and we welcome Miss Aldrich, who has come to assist in the Primary Dept.

We have received 18 new members since January 1st and several more have promised to come as soon as good weather comes. Now officers, teachers, boys and girls "get Busy." We want that new 1920 Star Roll on the wall to touch the floor by July 1st. We have two new artists who will paint names as fast as we give them in.

We have just started to reorganize the Women's Bible class and Mrs. Wurtz has kindly taken it for the present. Let us all help to build it up.

We are now at work filling up our Lenten Mite Boxes for our Easter offering for Missions. Last year we gave $203.52. Let us make it $250 this year. Earn what we can, get our parents to help and above all, "Do without something we want," "movies," "candy," and put it in the box instead. Already one of the primary Dept. has her box full and wants another, and then on Easter Day come to our Service in Church at half past seven "Daylight Saving Time," when it will be light enough for even our youngest member. BRING your parents and let us fill the church FULL, and we will be filled with the spirit of Easter, which is JOY.

R. H. M.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary has been most fortunate in securing interesting speakers for its meetings this winter. We have heard of the Missionary work done among our foreign population the Poles, Roumanians and Jews. We have had Mrs. Ansel tell us about her work in China. Last month Miss Embler of the Church Mission of Help, spoke to us of the work done among young girls, friendless and alone in this great city. Our next speaker will be from the Philippines.

Those who have attended these meetings, have felt well repaid for the effort. The meetings are held in the Parish House every third Wednesday of the month. The morning session starts at ten o'clock and is devoted to sewing for the City Mission. At our last meeting a letter was read from Dr. Jeffry's, thanking us for the generous box sent to the Mission last Spring. We hope to send a better one this year. At two o'clock the business meeting is held and at three, there is a Missionary address. I neglected to mention the lunch which is a most enjoyable feature of the day.

A. F. W.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild is very busy looking after the Lenten Services. We expect to spend the day before Palm Sunday and the day before Easter decorating. We hope that anyone who wishes to contribute memorial flowers to be placed on the altars at Easter, will do so by sending the flowers to the Church on Saturday, April 3rd.

Several members have recently finished nine new purificators and we are making some new linen Veils. We are also putting new yokes on Mr. Arndt's surplices.

The Serving Committee for the coming months will be as follows:

March 26th—April 2: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Manser, E. Thompson.

April 2—9: Misses Chase, Alexander, Strien.

April 9—16: Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Gerhard, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

April 16—23: Misses Dean, M. Thompson, Crowder.

THE EASTER COMMUNION

Four hundred and forty-three persons received Holy Communion on Easter morning. This is a large percentage of the communicant list of the parish. Some were not privileged to be present on account of illness; a few were out of the city on that day; but where were the others?

AFTER LENT, WHAT?

For us all, let me utter this Eastertide prayer. May we this Easter-tide pass from the past tenses of our creeds to their present, no longer merely carrying spices and ointments to embalm the body of our Historic Christ and perhaps finding only an empty tomb but may we hear His voice and see His face in the living present. Let us recognize Him as with us in the daily Providence that guides our lives, with us in the daily call of duty, with us in the daily cup whether of blessing or of trial, with us in the daily admonitions and consolations of the Divine Whisper in our hearts. Let us act upon His word as a fact: "Lo, I am with you always." And we shall realize it as a truth, our Sun and our Shield, for grace and for glory even unto the end of the world. Let not our hearts be poor in the comfort and peace of His indwelling life. For he is No fable old nor mythic lore,
No dream of bards and serfs,
No dead fact stranded on the shores,
Of the oblivious years.
But warm sweet, tender ever yet

A present help is He
And faith has still its Olivet
And love its Galilee.
The healing of His Seamless robe
Is by our beds of pain.
We touch Him in life's throng and press
And we are whole again.

There is no time in the Christian Year in which the faithful need to be so jealously on their guard against sin as now. There is great danger of a re-action from the strain of a self-denying, dutiful and devout Lent. There is danger of forgetting amidst the Easter jubilation, the bitter waters and the barren sand of the desert before the soul. There is danger even of being tempted to make the duty done and service rendered in supposed abundance, compensate for new neglect and renewed worldliness. The petition in the Litany is not only, "In all time of our tribulation—Good Lord, deliver us," but it is also, and as if in an ascending scale of importance: "In all time of our prosperity." And this applies to a supposed spiritual prosperity, no less than to that which is temporal.

WHAT IS THE MATTER?

The following is from the pen of the Rt. Rev. Irving P. Johnson, D. D., Bishop Co-Adjutor of Colorado. There are people outside of Colorado to whom these words apply:

The difficulty nowadays is the fact that everybody wants to profit by the glorious history of the Christian Church, but few want to assume the definite responsibilities attached to the membership therein.

Of course the Christian religion has suffered from those who have used their Christianity as a cloak for their own meanness. So has every other institution similarly suffered.

Religious people are prone to certain sins. Naturally a man who refuses to sing will never be known as a poor singer. The man who never attempts anything doesn't make any mistakes.

That is a mighty poor reason, however, for not attempting anything. Better a poor soldier than a slacker; yet the slacker will tell you how poor the poor soldier is.

So, if one can be a soldier without being a soldier; that is, if he can get a job in which he may wear the uniform without ever hearing a gun, he is well within his rights. He escapes all danger of being called a coward. And yet the coward has made his attempt to be a soldier.

I fancy there are no non-combatants in Christ's army. Yet the man who passes as a Christian citizen, and yet never took the oath of enlistment in Christ's army, is in a position in which he fancies he gets all the benefits of Christ's life without assuming any risk of being called a hypocrite.

He is like the man who joins the National Guard in times of peace, and withdraws from service in times of war. To be a Christian, one must be willing to bear the odium of being a Christian; for the enemy makes a man uncomfortable at times with ridicule and contempt.

Better attempt to live the life of Christ and fail, than to boast of your willingness to accept Him as your Master. A Christian is at least one who has definitely enlisted in the service of Christ and serves, even though imperfectly under His banner.

And such enlistment should be on the basis which Christ established; that a man shall be baptized, thus assuming the full responsibility of such service with all of its odium as well as all of its privileges. He should also later be confirmed.

To hold off from enlistment because some soldiers are deserters and traitors is as treacherous as it would be to refuse service under the Stars and Stripes because some American soldiers are unworthy of their cause. Christianity has had its Judases and the U. S. A. its Benedict Arnold's; but neither the one nor the other is typical.

It is sometimes asked why so many men fail to attend church and do their duty as Christians. And in the majority of cases the blame is laid upon the Church. That is not where the blame belongs. The Church on earth is what by the Grace of God men make it and the man who holds off from the service of Christ because his brother is weak is not himself strong, but weaker than his weak brother.

Men evade the service of Christ because they do not want to assume the spiritual responsibility and duty which such service demands. They do not want to make the spiritual exertion which such responsibility places upon them, so they say they are as good Christians themselves, when they are not Christians at all. Neither will Christ so regard them."

"LEST WE FORGET"

Our country is passing through, at present, one of the greatest crises of its history. It is a time when the worst passions of men—anger, hatred, malice, envy, evil speaking, lying, slandering—are bursting forth in all their venomous forms and are being used by unprincipled, evil-minded politicians and charlatans, for their own selfish, nefarious ends. This is the day of America's shame before the world and at the bar of history. This evil spirit, to a more or less extent always precedes our national elections, but at this crisis in our national life, the Devil seems more active than usual and "as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour."

Every Churchman who indulges in this spirit or encourages it, every Christian who helps develop a spirit of hard partisanship, who assumes evil motives without the most convincing evidence, who does not seek peace among the evil condition of these times nor ensue it, who does not by thought and word and act, endeavor in every possible way, to thwart the evil designs of evil-minded men, is a menace to society, an enemy to his country, at a time when the country is calling for true men, true women, true patriots, is a Judas, a betrayer of the Son Righteousness and Truth and is helping to crucify again our Lord upon the Cross.

These are days, between now and November next, at which time the citizens of this country will choose their rulers, these are days when Christian men and women, when the whole Church should earnestly pray that the Holy Spirit may rule in the hearts of men and guide our people in the ways of righteousness and truth and peace! In these portentous days, let every Christian heart be filled with God's Holy Spirit and earnestly pray to the Ruler of Nations that He may give to the American people, grace seriously to lay to heart the great danger we are in by our unhappy divisions; that He may take away all hatred and prejudices and whatsoever He may hinder us from Godly union and concord; that He may be pleased to direct and prosper all our thoughts, our discussions, our efforts to the advancement of His glory, the good of His cause; the safety, honor and welfare of His people; that all things may be so ordered and settled by our endeavors, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety may be established among us for all generations.

Surely it was with Divine prescience that Washington understood the great danger our country would be called upon to meet. His words apply to us and to our time, with singular and telling force. This is his warning. Let us read his words and lay them deeply to heart. Let us read, work, learn and inwardly digest them.

"Let us," says Washington in his farewell address, "Let us take a more comprehensive view and warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the Spirit of Party, generally.

"This Spirit, unfortunately, is inseparable from our nature, having its root in the strongest passions of the human mind * * * It exists under different shapes in all Governments, more or less stifled, controlled or repressed; but, in those of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness and is truly their worst enemy. * * *

"The alternate domination of one faction over another, sharpened by the spirit of revenge, natural to party dissension, which in different ages and countries has perpetrated the most horrid enormities, is itself a frightful despotism. * * * But this leads at length to a more formal and permanent despotism.

* * * The disorders and miseries, which result, gradually incline the minds of men to seek security and repose in the absolute power of an individual; and sooner or later the chief of some prevailing faction, more able or more fortunate than his competitors, turns this disposition to the purposes of his own elevation, on the ruins of Public Liberty.

"Without looking forward to an extremity of this kind (which nevertheless, ought not to be entirely out of sight,) the common and continual mischiefs of the Spirit of Party are sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. * * *

"It serves always to distract the Public Councils, and enfeeble the Public Administration. It agitates the community with ill-founded jealousies and false alarms, kindles the animosity of one part against another, forms occasional riot and insurrection. * * * It opens the door to foreign influence and corruption, which find a facilitated access to the Government itself through the channels of party passions. Thus the policy and the will of one country are subjected to the policy and will of another.

"There is an opinion, that parties in free countries are useful checks upon the Administration of the Government, and serve to keep alive the Spirit of Liberty. * * * This, within certain limits is probably true, * * * and in Governments of a monarchical cast, Patriotism may look with indulgence, if not with favor, upon the Spirit of the Party. * * * But in those of the popular character, in Governments purely elective, it is a spirit not to be encouraged. * * * From their natural tendency, it is certain there will always be enough of that spirit for every salutary purpose, * * * and there being constant danger of excess, the effort ought to be, by force of public opinion, to mitigate and assuage it. * * * A fire not to be quenched it demands a uniform vigilance to prevent its bursting into a flame, lest, instead of warning, it should consume."

RELIGION AND THEOLOGY

Many persons confuse theology with religion. They are by no means the same. Each has its part to play in Christianity, but the roles are not identical. When religion tells us to love God, for instance, theology comes in and helps us to the conclusion that

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

- 1st. Rental of Pews.
- 2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

God is worthy of our love. Theology, with necessary limitations, shows to us the nature of God. That is, theology tells us in terms understandable to man, necessarily going not beyond the comprehension of the finite, what man has conceived God to be from the time man has had any conception of God. And "The Spirit shall lead you into all truth." of course theology is not a fix or exact science.

Theology defines; religion refines. Theology teaches; religion works. Theology is a matter of science; religion is a matter of conscience. Theology contemplates; religion loves. Theology thinks; religion acts. Theology is a matter of the mind; religion is a matter of the heart. Theology is a theoretical hypothesis; religion is a working principle. Theology erects seminaries for the study of God; religion builds churches for the worship of God. Theology is for a few; religion is for everybody. Theology differentiates; religion unifies.

It will be seen, then, that religion has its field and work and theology its realm. Both are important. Let no man despise theology. Religion is doubtless the better servant of mankind, still theology is necessary. But for theology, religion would be but a blind leader of men! Theology necessarily changes with man's conception and appreciation of God. It must progress. But it must not progress through mere philosophy or mental operation. It must not be too dogmatic in its new conclusions. Experience, spiritual perception, even religious conviction, should act as a governor to theology, else we flounder in the deep waters of mental confusion and aberration! We must not depend too much on our mental conclusions, upon cold logic, or upon bald reason. "The heart has reasons which the reason can not know!" Theology should be the hand-maiden of religion; its servant, not its master; its co-partner, not its arbitrary leader or dictator. To know God is good theology. To love God is good religion. And to know God aright is to love him!

ANNUAL ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

At the annual election of Vestrymen of Christ Church, held Easter Monday, April 5th, the following were elected for a term of three years: Colonel Sheldon Potter, Dr. William W. Johnson, William R. Pugh, James M. Woodroffe, Francis B. Falkner, Henry R. Baremore was elected to fill the unexpired term of Jonas Hertling, resigned.

At the first meeting of the Vestry, held on Easter Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected: J. L. Morrison, accounting warden; Francis B. Falkner, secretary; the Rector re-appointed James M. Woodroffe, Rector's warden. Sheldon Potter, James M. Woodroffe and Richard H. Morris were elected delegates to the Diocesan Convention.

The judges of the election were Charles H. Jackson, Charles W. Sutcliffe, Jr., and Samuel J. Gerhardt.

A LETTER FROM THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN

To the Congregation of Christ Church:

The Vestry is not in position, as the Chimes goes to press, to state the final amount of the Easter offering, but they can say that more than the sum asked for will be realized and this has been accomplished by the very generous response from the loyal members of the parish, some of whom have given amounts which have meant real sacrifice. A final report in full will be given in the next issue of the Chimes.

J. L. MORRISON,
Accounting Warden.

REPAIRS MADE TO PARISH BUILDING

Within the past month an entire new slate roof has been put on the Rectory, at a cost of over one thousand dollars. The exterior woodwork of the Church has recently been repaired and painted at an expense of over six hundred dollars. Over seventeen hundred dollars have been expended on the Parish Building within the past eight months, all of which has been paid in full.

Attention of the members of the congregation is now called to the need of repainting and decorating the interior of the Church. Everyone will agree that this is greatly needed!

About $2000.00 will be required for this purpose. Shall it be undertaken this summer? If so, the money should be forthcoming at once. Who will volunteer? The Rector will be glad to hear from anyone on this subject.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

On Maundy Thursday evening the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, D.D., visited this Parish and confirmed a class of twenty-three persons, ten females and thirteen males. After Confirmation the Bishop conducted a Preparatory service for the Easter Communion, to which most of the large congregation present remained. These "Preparatory Services," which the Bishop is so kind to give on his visitation to this Parish, are greatly appreciated by all our people. There are few men in the American Church as well qualified to conduct such a deeply spiritual service, as is our own Bishop Rhinelander and the members of Christ Church esteem it a rare privilege to be present at these annual visitations.

The names of the persons confirmed are as follows:

Harry Boorman Alloway
Robert Norton Downs Arndt
Marian Margarette Bolay
Philip Frederick Bolay
William Irving Brush
Mary Elizabeth Dapp
Hilda Gray Ellis
Harry Hershey Erisman

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

At our last meeting we had the great privilege of hearing Mr. Sibley, a missionary who has spent eight years among the Igorrot natives of Manila. It was most interesting to hear of these primitive people and to learn what the Church is doing to help them.

The Wednesday Afternoon Sewing class, held during Lent, has been discontinued, but there is still work to be done for the box, to be sent to the City Mission and we hope for a large attendance at the regular monthly meeting. Don't forget the third Wednesday of the month. Sewing in the morning and missionary meeting in the afternoon. All women in the Parish are asked to come and help.
A.L.W.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SERVICE

Attention of members of the Congregation is called to the service of Evening Prayer in the Church every Friday afternoon, at five o'clock.

This is a quiet, helpful service and should be attended by more of our people. Will not the members of our parish bear this service in mind and be more regular in their attendance? Every Friday afternoon at five o'clock.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our attendance during Lent was not as large as usual on account of the bad weather each Sunday brought forth, and when on Easter morning we saw clouds and rain, instead of sunshine, we surely felt disheartened, as we had all worked faithfully for our Easter Carol Service. But when we gathered in the Parish House at 7:15 that evening we were all surprised to find how many of us, even the "littlest" ones, had made up our minds to come, no matter how hard it was raining, and we marched into the Church, a larger army than last year, and then our spirits rose some more as we found there as many of our parents and friends as last year, if not more.

The service was inspiring, everybody sang the carols with all their might and did credit to Mr. Vernon, who kindly drilled us during Lent, and we give him our thanks. Mr. Gurley's address and his flowerpots and seeds, we will remember a long time and we do not want to forget that he told us that we always were to be the "good ground" in which Christ's seeds were to grow.

The Superintendent then gave a remembrance to the five scholars with longest record of attendance without missing a Sunday. They were:

Mrs. Elizabeth Baisbrown 5 years, 14 weeks
Gladys Lapworth 3 years, 27 weeks
Margaret Robinson 2 years, 40 weeks
Charles Buchenhorst 2 years, 32 weeks
Beatrice Spooner 1 year, 19 weeks

A remembrance was also given to the following for faithful attendance at Church service from Christmas to Easter, without missing: Helen McHenry, Hilda Spooner, Elizabeth Haas, William Blank, Margaret Courtney, Verna Rayner, Beatrice Spooner, May Matthews and Mrs. Schaefer's entire class, Helen Cowell, Virginia Raymond, Alice Robertson and Barney Robinson.

Nineteen of the Primary Department were given diplomas showing promotion to the Main School. They were Mary Atherton, Gertrude Allen, Margaret Brush, Florence Eggleston, Lillian Glazier, Doris Hance, Howard Logan, Dorothy Waldman, Frank Stryke, Edward Wilcox, William Osborne, Charles Smith, Conrad Lauer and also the following who were given a prayer book and Hymnal for almost perfect attendance for the year: Margaret Boyer, Marjorie Hagauer, Josephine Wright, Robert Allen, Alfred Rittenhouse and Carl Windmiller.

Our Lenten note box offering for Missions last year was $203.52 and as this article is being written we have already for this year over $220, with many who were away last Sunday to hear from, so it looks as if we would reach the $250 mark we set for ourselves.

One word more! Nearly every Sunday School in the city has had the "Envelope System" in use for weekly offerings, and not to be behind every other school, we are going to introduce it next Sunday in order to encourage the habit of systematic GIVING to the Lord's work and this is a seed that it is hoped will fall on "good ground." And Fathers and Mothers, will you not help by seeing that envelopes are not forgotten Sunday mornings.
R.H.M.

ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

Will all persons in the Parish who have not as yet subscribed through the envelope system, please take a pledge card which will be found in the racks in the vestibule of the Church and subscribe the amount they are willing to give weekly to the support of the work of the Church! A large majority of the attendants at the services are already registered on the books of this Parish, as regular subscribers. It is desired that every one shall be included in this list. Let this honor roll consist of 100 per cent. of the membership. All supporters, no slackers!

THE MOTHER'S MEETING

The Mother's Meeting held its sessions as usual, with a large attendance in spite of the inclement weather. During Lent we have made garments which will be given to missionary objects. We regret that the time for closing the meeting is near, but we are anticipating one more "party" before we separate for the summer.

"THE RELIGIOUS TRAMP" PROBLEM

The following article is taken from the "Literary Digest," a secular paper:

The pest of religious society, agree The American (New York) and The Christian Century (Chicago) is the "church tramp." This class of undesirables and the sensa-tionalists who have helped to create it are thus described and denounced by The Christian Century:

"The religious tramp is a phenomenon of a serious nature for the churches. He is not a foe to religion. He is, indeed, a believer in a way, although he asserts with a pseudo-liberality that 'one church is as good as another.' He travels around to the 'special services' which one church after another serves up to secure a crowd. The churches often do not go behind the returns. There are crowds and they are crowds. The church tramp is a Christian who refuses to assume any responsibilities. He does not want to work regularly. He does not want to give regularly, though he drops a chance nickel into the plate. His attitude is one of unconcern with regard to the welfare of the churches. He gets his amusement and his sociability from the churches at the minimum of expense. He asks for no more. Just now in many communities the churches are actively competing for the presence of the church tramp. With concerts and secular lectures and moving pictures of doubtful religious value, they seek to bring the floaters to their places of worship. Their success is as transient as is the interest of the people who come. The cure for church tramps is a serious attitude on the part of the church. Smaller audiences may follow such an attitude, but they will be audiences yielding a more permanent harvest to religion. The serious-minded pastor may not be known just now as a crowd-getter, but he will be known in the end as a church-builder.

"Meanwhile, the honest doubter outside the church is not offended by the flippancy in the face of problems which to him are of life-and-death importance. When the church makes her appeal to truth-seekers and not to the sensation-seekers, she will be a stronger church."

THE BIBLE CLASS AND THE BOY

"Not an accessory, but a necessity." This is the slogan of a certain business house which is using every effort to make it a reality. When we who call ourselves Christians can say this about the thing which we call religion, then it is that the social-educational political and labor questions that are causing so much unrest today will be done away. To "bear the name of Christians" is a simple matter. To live up to our "slogan" and make good in the market of the world is quite another proposition. It is there that most of us fall down when we come face to face with the stern realities of life.

The most important problem before the Church today is that of the boy. When he arrives at that period in life where he feels too big for the Sunday School and yet the future is vague and distant what is to be done with him? What preparation has been or is being made to tide him over this uncertainty? The boy cannot, as a rule, jump from the Sunday school into active church work, because the gap is too great. Those parents who regularly attend the services and bring their children with them may possibly bridge this space to a certain degree, but unfortunately those persons are in the minority.

Practically the only method to bring the boy in this state of adolescence safely through the journey as regards the church is by the Men's Bible class. When he graduates from the simpler lessons of the school and feels in himself that desire to associate with older men, then it is that the Bible Class should be there to satisfy this craving while he is struggling to break away from things past and looking with uncertainty toward those of the future.

When we stop and consider the number of boys who formerly attended Sunday School and note, here and there, only a few who remained, it is time to wake up and ask "where are they?" The only answer we can make is that given so long ago but ever real today—"while I was busy, here and there, lo, he was gone" or in more familiar terms they have 'folded their tents like the Arab and stolen away in the night.' We simply did not realize the importance of the trust given us to carry out.

Christ Church has a Men's Bible Class, under the capable leadership of the Rev. Richard H. Gurley. Unfortunately it has been looked upon by many of the men of our Parish as an "accessory" instead of a "necessity" and therefore has not been able to reach the highest degree of success. It is hoped that this mistaken idea may be eliminated and that every man interested in Christ Church will feel that he has a personal responsibility in its welfare—not for the sake of the Class but for the boys who need your help and for the men, outside the Church, whom we are able to reach but not hold, because they feel that the men do not have any interest in them.

One way in which every man can assist, including those who for good reasons are not able to attend the Sunday morning class, is by coming to the class social on the 3rd Thursday evening of each month. Here is the opportunity for all—Clergy, Vestry and others—to meet and become personally acquainted with one another; welcome the strangers; let the boys know that you are thinking about them and also encourage those who have been toiling for years to find some point of contact between the man and the Church, and so often without success. One evening a month is very little to give but what the results may be cannot be calculated. Will you do "your bit" toward making the Men's Bible Class of Christ Church "Not an accessory, but a Necessity?"

THE JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

The annual election of the chapter resulted in R. Cormint being elected vice-director; C. Courtney, secretary; F. Falkner treasurer. The Rector re-appointed Mr. Frederick Lennig, director. The meeting had the best attendance for a long time. The ushering by the fellows will be started again on Sunday the 18th.

A "social" will be given by the chapter to raise funds to send delegates to the Convention next fall to be held in St. Louis. It is desired that everyone interested will kindly give this project its fullest support. The date, however, has not been decided on or the place. Therefore, keep your eyes and ears open for the announcement and everyone try his or her best to support and encourage its success. R.C.

GIRL SCOUTS

Plans are being laid for a very active summer, with hikes, trips to the country, etc. If you are over ten years of age, think about it, ask about it, and come and join us. By studying hard you will be able to accomplish all the work required to pass the Tenderfoot test by the time summer is really here and you will be a real Girl Scout in a uniform.

To be sure the pleasure part of it is attractive, but this is not all that membership in the Scouts means. We work hard to help others and to do our duty to God and our country. This is plenty to keep you busy. Then besides we learn how to sew, how to give first aid to the injured, how to be good hostesses, how to cook and take care of invalids. The time is coming when women will be given the vote and our aim is to make the girls better women, with a desire to help their country.

Come and join. Friday evenings at 7:45 in the Parish House.

ALTAR GUILD

yltreho cipoG3klnu*ag agflHon DYaapailoan

The Altar Guild has had many duties during the past month and especially in Holy Week. We were all at Church on March 27, decorating and stripping palms and the day before Easter we took our lunch and spent the day arranging the memorial flowers on the altars; cleaning and polishing the brasses.

Mrs. Charles Cotton has given a very beautiful new white Pulpit fall, which was used for the first time on Easter Day.

The Serving Committees for the coming month will be as follows:

April 23-30: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Manser, E. Thompson. May 1-7: Misses Chase, Alexander, Strien. May 7-14: Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Gerhardt, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge. May 14-21: Misses Dean, M. Thompson, Crowder. G.F.D.

THE CATHEDRAL LEAGUE

The following is inserted in the Chimes at the request of the Secretary of the Cathedral League of this diocese:

"The first annual meeting of the Cathedral League of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, was held in the Diocesan Church of St. Mary, Broad and South streets, Thursday, March 25th. The Feast of the Annunciation, at 4 o'clock. This seemed a proper time to draw the attention of the members of this Parish to the object of the League.

It has been felt for some time that the Church in our Diocese should have a center from which greater activities might radiate and it would be in a position thus to serve greater numbers of people than can be reached through the separate parishes, for there is a very large floating population in our city, such as students, salesmen, etc., who do not identify themselves with any special parish. So the Cathedral idea took form and at present the Diocesan Church of St. Mary is doing the pioneer work which will later on be housed in a noble building more worthy of the great opportunities which lie at our door.

"A year ago Bishop Rhinelander in speaking of the Diocesan Church said: 'What I do stress is our present work. I think it is worth stressing, for it is, and will be more, and more genuine Cathedral work. The soul is far more precious than the body. The work is more important than the building. Our chief present care is to nourish the soul of the Cathedral into such a vigorous and useful life that it may be found worthy in due time for glorious embodiment.'"

The League was formed by some women nearly a year ago to get members who would contribute $5.00 yearly, which, small sum as it is individually, can grow to large amounts for the permanent endowment of the Cathedral activities now and in the future.

At this meeting held on March 25th, what the League has accomplished in the various convocations was reported and all members of this parish, men as well as women, whether already members of the League or not, are urged to identify themselves with the League."

Easter Day is a day of joy and praise. Easter Day brings to us a sense of satisfied longings. Have we solid ground for hope? Is death the end? Can we be made what we ought to be? Is there living power in Prayer, in Sacraments, in the Church? Shall we live again? Shall we meet again with those we love after the sad partings of the grave? Has love been a mere torture? A wild, wasting, baseless delusion? The answer comes: "Christ loves us." "He is the same yesterday, today and forever." Jesus Christ is risen from the dead."—Knox Little.

It seems to me a most evident fact that wherever faith in the resurrection of Christ has disappeared, the idealistic arguments for immortality have begun at once to lose their convincing power. The nerve of their life has been cut.—W. Douglas MacKenzie.

Never lose an opportunity of seeing anything beautiful . . . Welcome it in every face, every fair sky, every fair flower, and thank Him for it who is the fountain of loveliness; and drink it simply and earnestly with all your eyes. It is a charmed draught, a cup of blessing.—Charles Kingsley.

This world in which we live is a sifting world, a testing, trying, proving world—tempting that it may educate, select and better the growth of the spiritual man. Those who stand the moral test survive—those who fail, suffer destruction.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

THE ASCENSION

The great festival of the Church year fall this year in May, the Feast of the Ascension May 13th, and ten days later, the Feast of Whit-sunday. The feast of Trinity falls on the first Sunday in June.

On the fortieth day after Easter, the Feast of the Resurrection, occurs the Feast of the Ascension. Our Lord meets His chosen and leads them out beyond Bethany to the Mount of Olivet. For the last time the Master and His disciples walk along those familiar paths. He gives them final instructions concerning the things which pertain to the kingdom of God.

When He assembles them upon the mount, and overflowing with love for those whom He had chosen out of the world and for all who should believe on Him through them. He raised those precious hands in Divine blessing. Then the Son of Man and the Son of God rises by His own power up into the vault of heaven. Awe-struck, dumb with amazement, even the impulsive Peter finds no words to say. With outstretched hands in benediction upon the world that had rejected Him, a cloud receives Him out of their sight; and still they gaze entranced in heart felt worship and lofty contemplation. Then angels sent back by the Triumphant King, announce to them that He who had promised to be with them to the end of the world and had bade them wait at Jerusalem for the promised gift of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, would Himself come again in like manner, that it with clouds and the angelic hosts,

And then the disciples, no longer doubting, but full of joy, knowing Christ no more after the flesh, but after the Spirit, returned to Jerusalem with the gentle and holy Mary to wait for the coming of the Paraclete.

Shall those who profess and call themselves Christians, on such a day, the day of our Lord's exaltation, fail to render Him His due worship? When angels, fall down and worship Him, shall we be unmindful of our holy obligation and privilege to adore Him, on this great festival, which the Church appoints in commemoration of His return to His throne of Glory?

WHITSUN DAY

Ten days after the feast of the Ascension comes Whitsun-day.

In this feast of the Holy Spirit, which is the birthday of the church, the culmination of our Lord's Incarnation is attained. He ascended that the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity might come and abide in His Church, uniting its members one with another, and all to the Great Head that we might be led into all knowledge, truth and holiness forever. For ten days after the Ascension the little company of believers, with the Holy Mother, waited in that upper room, inobedience to their Lord's command, spending the hours in prayer and supplication for the Promised Comforter. "And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting." And then the cloven tongues, the supernatural utterances vouchsaled to all the amazement of the holders. St. Peter's sermon, the conviction of the hearers, the Baptism of the three thousand all followed in quick succession. "The Spirit of the Lord filleth the world and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice."

The Apostles are "endued with power from on high." What a contrast the betrayal the cowardly denial and the forsaking of our Lord present when placed side by side with the intrepid conduct of the newly inspired Apostles! From that time they went forth, endued with supernatural power, to convert the world and through them we have been brought from darkness and error into the true light.

Loving, persuasive and tender is the ministry of the Spirit.

"His that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breath of heaven,
That checks each thought, that calms each fear,
And speaks of Heaven."

Sunday next after Whitsunday occurs the feast of the Holy Trinity.

HOLY TRINITY

On Trinity Sunday culminates the doctrinal half of the Church Year. The remainder of the year from now to Advent, the Church lays chief emphasis on the practical side of life. "Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God," are the opening words of the Epistle for the First Sunday after Trinity.

Hitherto the emphasis from Advent on has been on the "fundamentals of the faith,"—the Incarnation, the Resurrection, the Ascension, the coming of the Holy Spirit. On Trinity Sunday the Church's services mount up to the throne of the Godhead. In the word "Trinity" she simply sums up what is revealed concerning God—that in substance He is one, but in Person, three.

The reception of truth must be gradual. The Church leads us step by step from Advent to Trinity Sunday. In Advent is heralded the coming of the Son of God and we are taught to prepare for Him, "to make His ways straight;" at Christmas the heavenly host proclaims from the starry firmament the "good tidings of great joy;" on Epiphany the wise men came from afar, and the Christ is manifested to the Gentiles; through Lent we enter into our Saviour's Temptation; in Gethsemane we witness the Agony; on Good Friday we follow our Saviour to the Cross and see the Son of God suffer and die for us; on the glorious Feast of Easter we see Him rise triumphant from the grave; then for forty days after the Resurrection we follow Him as He teaches His disciples "things pertaining to the Kingdom of God;" then on Holy Thursday we are with the Apostles and behold His glorious Ascension into Heaven, there to sit on the right hand of the Father; while on Whitsunday we are taught that the Comforter, even the Spirit of Truth, has come to guide us into all Truth and to dwell in the Church and in our hearts forever!

Thus does the Church prepare us, step by step, for the glorious culmination of her teaching, enabling us to grasp by faith the mystery of the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity.

COMFORT FROM THE CHIMES

The Rector is in receipt of the following letter written by a gentleman not far from the Church. The letter is so appreciative that the Rector is constrained to make it public by the permission of the writer:

Germantown, April 23.

My dear Mr. Arndt:

Though am I not a member of Christ Church Parish, being connected with another body of Christians, it is a joy to know that we are all members of Christ's Parish and that through Him we can be drawn together. I desire to express to you the great comfort and pleasure I received in listening to the Chimes as they have been played during the last weeks. Being confined to the house for over a month, the larger portion of which I was in bed, I eagerly awaited Sunday morning and evening, especially on Easter when they told that "Christ the Lord is risen today, and again one calm beautiful evening when they sounded the notes of a hymn, the words I have known being "Softly now the light of day." It is set to a tune called "Seymour," taken from a composition by "Weber"—and also the same evening "Abide with me," that hymn of so much comfort.

Possibly it will never be known what comfort the Chimes have been and how many beds of pain have been eased through their speaking a message from God.

May Christ Church continue to be the power it has been these years for the building of the Kingdom of our Blessed Lord and Master, Jesus Christ and may the Chimes continue to ring the glad news of the Saviour's Birth, Life and glorious Resurrection.

Sincerely yours,

NOTICE TO ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

It would be a great favor to the Warden and a great benefit to the church if the subscribers through the envelope system, who intend to be away during the summer, will kindly pay in advance before they leave Germantown, the amount of their subscription for the Sundays they expect to be absent. The expenses of the parish have to be met regularly and promptly during the summer months as well as during the winter, and when parishioners leave their weekly subscriptions unpaid for a length of time the Warden who depends upon these payments to meet the expenses of the parish, is compelled to borrow money from bank and pay interest thereon. Through the thoughtful consideration of many of the envelope subscribers, who paid in advance, the Warden has been saved this embarrassment and expense, and it is earnestly hoped that all who subscribe through the envelopes will do the same this summer.

A SERVICE OF SILENCE

The Rector wishes to call attention to a unique and impressive service which will be held in Christ Church on Whitsunday evening, May 23rd. It will be a Service of Silence a Service to the Holy Spirit. The Service will open with hymns to the Holy Spirit, followed by a period of silence and meditation on certain portions of Scripture, with silent prayer.

There will be no sermon or announcements, the congregation following a program which will be distributed to those present.

The Rector believes that this service of silence, especially appropriate for Whitsunday, the feast of the Holy Spirit, will be impressive and helpful to all who attend.

The service will begin promptly at 7:45 and will last one hour. An invitation is extended to all to attend this service of silence.

THERAPEUTIC VALUE OF PRAYER.

Several years ago Professor William James, the celebrated psychologist of Harvard, declared, in one of his books, that the man who prays for help to do his daily work will so compose his own mind thereby and free his thoughts from care and worry that he will actually do his work better; irrespective of any supernatural aid that may be sent in answer to his petition. The Rector quotes this statement to show how scientists, irrespective of any religious conviction, admit the great power for good there is in prayer. If this must be admitted on purely scientific grounds, how much stronger and more convincing is the Christian's belief in prayer, who bases his faith on the authority and the examination of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Now another celebrated scientist, Dr. Theodore B. Hyslop, superintendent of Bethlem Royal Hospital in London, comes forward with the declaration that prayer is the best remedy for mental distress of all sorts.

He said at the recent annual meeting of the British Medical Association:

"As an alienist and one whose whole life has been concerned with the sufferings of the mind, I would state that of all hygienic measures to counteract disturbed sleep, depressed spirits, and all the miserable sequels of a distressed mind, I would undoubtedly give the first place to the simple habit of prayer—Let there but be a habit of nightly communion, not as a mendicant or repeater of words more adapted to the tongue of a sage, but as a humble individual who submerges or asserts his individuality as an integral part of a greater whole. Such a habit does more to clean the spirit and strengthen the soul to overcome mere incidental emotionalism than any other therapeutic agent ever known to me."

Dr. Hyslop's competence to speak in the name of science is unquestionable, and what he affirms as a discovery of medical science is identical with the immemorial faith of religions, that there is a place for prayer in the very nature of things. Not only does he find this place to be foremost among restorative agents; he also affirms that it "embodies the most healthy and preservative development of our social forces."

Among the many notable utterances in which science is now evincing herself to be the handmaid of religion, these, the most recent, are as memorable as any.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

EARLY COMMUNION.

A letter from one of the Laity to Another.

Since you told me that you have never been present at an early celebration of the Holy Communion, the thought has been ever present of you and certain other dear friends whom I do not meet there.

If it were possible to set before your eyes the picture that arises before mine!—the quiet of the early preparations in a house not yet astir—the issuing into the streets, silent, except for other worshippers moving to and fro; the rare beauty of the new day, fresh from the hand of God, undefiled as yet and unspoiled by the deeds of men;—a wonderful revelation in this world of serenity and peace,—a revelation new every morning of this early pilgrimage to the house of God.

And the arrival,—the same, or rather a yet holier, calm brooding over all things; no presence save that of those who are like-minded; no intrusion of curiosity or frivolity; no pang of regret at the departure of those who turn their backs on the altar and the command "This do,"—nothing to come between the disciple and the Master. About you are those who are weary and heavy laden,—those who have climbed up hither out of a life so immersed in worldly cares or concerns that only this constant return to the mount of vision can keep in sight that which is invisible: the man of business and affairs,—the over-taxed professional worker; the woman whose daily cares and anxieties would dry up the springs of her life but for the never-failing fountain which fills and refreshes her soul.

Here, too, are those who are under the shadow of bereavement. In the first anguish of parting they have come to meet at the altar that dear soul who is nearer to-day than ever in the flesh.

Here, too, are those whose hearts overflow with joy at the great deliverance that has been granted them, or the new happiness that crowns their lives; their feet have been turned hither to join in the sacrifice of thanksgiving that can best express their gladness.

Those also are about you whose pathway is tangled, perplexed and dark; what lies before them, what course to choose, they cannot tell; they have come to inquire of the Lord,—where else should they seek light and guidance but here?

Here are those who are struggling in the net of a habit that has bound them so fast that by themselves they cannot get forth, and who seek the touch of the Divine Hand to break their bonds asunder; those who are fainting in the glow of a fierce temptation, and know that out of that furnace their souls can never come alive unless the Son of God walk with them in the midst of the fire.

And here also are those whose hearts bear the burdens of others,—the need, the sorrow or the sin of some dear one—the unbelief of some noble soul whose strength is coveted for the Masters' service,—the darkness and wretchedness and guilt of a city, a nation, a world redeemed, but not yet made perfect in holiness.

Such is the group that kneel in their sacred quiet to confess their unworthiness, emptiness, helplessness and need. To them the word of absolution and peace is spoken; for them the feast is spread and the sacrifice set forth in the Holy mysteries.

Here they find all that they seek in the Sacrament that assures them of their oneness with the Lord; here is strength for the weak, comfort for the sorrowful, light for the perplexed, shelter and peace for the storm tossed.

To those who go hence, thus refreshed and strengthened by the Body and Blood of their Divine Lord, how strange would seem the uncompromising cry: "Oh, I do not feel good enough to make those frequent communings—I shouldn't dare to go,—one cannot expect to live on this high plane."

As well might one say, "I am weak and run down, I should not take food frequently." Such an utterance is that of a soul too near spiritual starvation to have left in it any wholesome longing for the Bread of life or the Cup of Salvation.

Let it rather draw near, eat and live and gather strength and grace for every need.

"Oh taste and see that the Lord is good." So shall renewed divine for the blessed comfort of those gracious Mysteries be ours.

A LETTER FROM MR. GURLEY.

257 Harvey Street,
Germantown, Phila.

Dear Mr. Arndt:—

Owing to circumstances which will require my absence from Germantown for the greater part of the coming summer, I hereby request the termination of my contract with Christ Church as of June 1st, 1920.

I take this occasion to express to you and thru you to the Vestry and Congregation my very deep appreciation of the interest and friendship proven towards me by you all throughout the time and privilege of my service there. Wherever the Will of God shall direct my efforts in the future, these will be encouraged and strengthened by the memory of the associations and friendships of Christ Church.

With sincerest personal regard and best wishes, believe me,

Faithfully your friend,
Richard H. Gurley.

April 11th, 1920.

The Rev. Mr. Gurley will be ordained (D. V.) to the Priesthood on the third Sunday in September. It is expected that Mr. Stanley V. Wilcox, another member of our Parish will be ordained to the Diaconate on the same day. It is probable that the ordination Service will be held in Christ Church. Mr. Wilcox will continue his studies at the Philadelphia Divinity School and will be ordained to the Priesthood one year hence. Mr. Gudley expects to go to Japan soon after his ordination and devote his ministry in that important missionary field. Christ Church, their mother Parish, feels justly proud of these two young men!

THE RECTOR'S PARISH COMMITTEE.

At the call of the Rector, a meeting was held on May 10th, of representatives from each society of the parish. The following societies were represented:

ALTAR GUILD: The Misses B. L. Chase Emma Morgridge, Emma Crowder, Elma Strien and Mrs. R. P. Morgridge.

SR. BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW: Mr. Chas. H. Jackson.

JR. BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW: Messrs. Frederick Lennig, Robert Carmint, Jr., and George Bland.

CHOIR: The Misses Beatrice Spooner and Frances W. O'Brien.

SUNDAY SCHOOL: Miss Gertrude B. Feist and Mr. Edward Bains.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING: Mrs. Chas. Henry Arndt and Miss Caroline Parker.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY: Miss Georgeanna Dean, Mrs. Frederick Lennig and Mrs. Lillian J. Johnson.

MOTHERS' MEETING: Mrs. Baisbrown, Mrs. Reckard and Mrs. R. Rudolph.

VESTRY: Messrs. J. I. Morrison, Frederick Lennig and U. G. Rowley.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS: Dr. Courtney, Messrs. H. Thomas Spooner, A. W. Cupitt, J. Archer Vernon, Frederick Lennig and Charles H. Jackson.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY: Mrs. H. R. Baremore, Mrs. Frank Wells and Mrs. T. P. Robinson.

THE CLERGY: The Rev. Charles Henry Arndt and Rev. Richard H. Gurley.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY: Mrs. S. S. Gerhard. The total number present being thirty-six members.

The Girls' and Boys' Scouts were not represented owing to another meeting, but hope both will be at the next meeting.

The object of the meeting was to co-ordinate all societies of the Parish into a standing committee for SERVICE. This Committee is to be known as The Rector's Parish Committee.

The following officers were elected: Chairman, Mr. J. I. Morrison, Secretary, Miss Gertrude B. Feist and Treasurer, Mrs. Frederick Lennig.

Several objects were considered by the members present and it has been decided that a Carnival is to be held in June and a Rummage Sale next October.

The following Committee appointed: For the Carnival: Chairman, Mr. U. G. Rowley, Misses Edna Cave, Emily Dean, Beatrice Spooner, Grace Gerhard, Harriet Jacoby, Mrs. Frederick Lennig, and the Messrs. Chas. Jackson and Robert Carmint, Jr.

The Rummage Sale Committee: Dr. Courtney, Chairman; Misses Esther Alexander and Georgeanna Dean, Messrs. J. Archer Vernon and A. W. Cupitt.

The members of the congregation are asked to bear in mind the Rummage Sale during the spring cleaning, and to save all articles, especially wearing apparel;

The Rector's Parish Committee is anticipating a great deal of work in other lines in the fall.

G. B. F.

ATTENTION HOUSEWIVES! RUMMAGE SALE

At a meeting of a committee composed of the various societies of the church, held on Monday May 10, 1920. It was decided to hold a rummage sale in October, the purpose of which is to accumulate a fund which is to be used toward painting the interior of the Church.

The Committee especially requests the hearty cooperation of all the members of the parish to join in this worthy and needy cause and hunt up all the articles possible now for this sale wearing apparel of every and all kinds is especially needed. Send a postal with address on to Dr. J. C. Courtney, 6622 Germantown Ave. and goods will be called for. This should be attended to during this spring's house cleaning. Do it now!

Dr. J. C. Courtney,
Chairman

"COME ONE—COME ALL!"

What would you say if your home had not been painted for forty years? It would cause some comment from your neighbor anyway. Well that's what has happened to the interior of Christ Church. Every time you enter the door you see the walls and rafters with the same decorations that were there before many of us were born and it has caused complaint from our people and comment from our neighbors. Then, too, aside from the artistic viewpoint it has become a matter of necessity that the interior be repainted and the entire group of societies and the Sunday School have joined forces to see that it is done within one year.

Of course it will need money to accomplish the object but it is felt that every member of Christ Church will be only too glad to do something to aid in raising the necessary amount and so the first means is presented in a lawn Carnival to be held about the middle of June.

Just what form the Carnival will take has not been definitely decided as yet but very likely will consist of booths on the lawn for dancing and the various other rooms in the Parish House given over to "side shows" and what a great opportunity it affords to persons who are blessed with comfortable main etc. Refreshments will also be served and every one should find something of interest and have no reason to feel that they are giving something for nothing.

Admission to all forms of entertainment and refreshment stands will be by ticket and the charge will probably be only 10 cents for each. Owing to the high cost of living an opportunity will be given to save money by purchasing tickets in-advance when they may be secured at 6 for 50 cents. On the night (or nights) of the Carnival they will be sold at 10 cents straight so buy early.

Mr. U. G. Rowley is chairman of the Committee in charge and cakes candies fancy goods, novelties and other saleable articles are solicited. We also want you to attend the Carnival and help the Committee to realize that you have a personal interest in its success. If this is done by all our people a good start will be made toward attaining the object in view.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

It does not always storm—and storms do not always come on Sundays—which means that with the fair weather of the past few Sundays our Sunday School has had a chance to see what it could really do toward filling the School room. The result has been very promising indeed, for each Sunday sees the room nearer to being fully occupied.

Those who come to the School know this, but do our Church members and friends know what the School is doing.

We are endeavoring to so interest the members of the School that there is evidence of a desire of more and more children to come and be a part of the School—and of those who have established their membership their interest is well illustrated in the effect of the recent introduction of the envelope system of contributions in the School. This system, which every member of the Church thoroughly understands through personal experience, (or should have such experience) was adopted by consent of the members of the School and almost at the beginning the supply of envelopes was exhausted and an additional supply is being called for.

The children have taken hold quite heartily of the idea of personal responsibility and are showing real zeal in their efforts to be considered as much a regular contributor to the work of Christ's Kingdom as their elders.

These are just some of the evidences which justify our hopes in the growing power of the School, but there are other evidences and these we would want those who do not know the School to see.

To those who could be, but are not now members we say, come sit with us during session and see if we cannot make you care to come often. To those who cannot for good reasons, become members we say, help us with an occasional visit and see what we are doing.

The Summer season is now in the near future and with it will come thoughts and plans for the annual picnic and the Summer school. The plans are not all matured as yet, but from what little advance information has been let out on these matters we are predicting a summer season which will be to the liking of all the members.

We shall have room for more members. How can we get them! Won't you be willing to contribute one or more scholars by inviting, or better bringing some child who does not attend any Sunday School. This won't cost much and may be the means of giving the child a lasting pleasure.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

While the usual time for election of officers is at the January meeting it was necessary to postpone the election for 1920 until the April business meeting and upon this first opportunity we take pleasure in presenting the new officers of the Class to the people of Christ Church, with the hope that their efforts will be appreciated and all assistance possible be rendered—President, J. Archer Vernon; 1st Vice President, James Carmint, Jr; 2nd Vice President, Warren Cupitt; Secretary, Herbert Feist; Treasurer, J. Lynwood Heald. The President has approved the following chairman of various Committees: Relief, Frederick Lenning; Social, Charles J. Cotton; Publicity, Charles H. Jackson. Two chairman are yet to be appointed and will be announced later.

The retiring officers desire publicity to express their appreciation of the valuable assistance given them by the Ladies Auxiliary. On the third Thursday evening of each month the Class holds a social meeting to which all men of the parish are welcome and upon these occasions the members of the Auxiliary very kindly prepare and serve refreshments. They have also aided the Class financially through various means undertaken by them and have always most heartily cooperated with the Class whenever called upon.

One cause for regret is the fact that after June 1st, we lose our teacher and friend the Rev. Richard H. Gurley who severs his connection with our Parish preparatory to taking up work in mission fields. Mr. Gurley was largely instrumental in organizing the Men's Class and has been our leader throughout with the exception of the period of his service in the army abroad. The best wishes of all the men of the Class go with Mr. Gurley that his new work may be successful and we trust that he may look back with pleasure upon the association with the Class and the many friendships formed therein.

A SERVICE OF SILENCE

A unique and impressive service will be held in Christ Church on the evening of Whitsunday, May 23rd. It will be a Service of Silence—a service to the Holy Spirit. There will be no Sermon. The Service will begin at 7:45 sharp. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this Service of Silence. All seats free.

A STREET IN PHILADELPHIA FROM WHICH LITTLE CHILDREN WERE SENT INTO THE COUNTRY

WAITING TO BE ASKED TO GO TO THE COUNTRY.

ALL READY FOR A WEEK IN THE COUNTRY? THANK YOU!!

POOR CHILDREN'S COUNTRY WEEK

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on Sunday morning, June 20th. It will cost about $4.00 to send a poor child to the country for one week where it can enjoy pure, fresh air and good wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom for several years past to secure from various organizations for the poor the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portion of the city—in the small dirty courts and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called "homes" the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements made for a week's outing in the country and, in some cases for a longer period of time. Occasionally a poor, overworked mother is also sent with her children.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are privileged to give, such as fortune, telling, comedian, legarde-homes and can get away for rest and recreation during the hot summer months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in the narrow and crowded streets and alleys of our city.

Persons wishing to give to this most worthy charity—if they are absent from Church on Sunday morning, June 20th may send their contributions either to the Rector or the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview street Germantown.

THE JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

The chapter's chief aim lately has been to get the fellows to come to Sunday School and church. Through this effort many were brought back to Sunday School but a lot of more urging will need to be done still.

The next big meeting of all the chapter's will be June the 5th. When all will go by auto to Valley Forge and have a meeting there on the lawn. This is the most inspiring and beautiful service of the year. The men and their wives or whoever else they bring, sit on the lawn singing and praying while the sun sets beside that beautiful new chapel. An appeal to the men of the church:

PEW RENTS DUE

Why not begin now and build up a strong Senior chapter. You have a start now build on it. The Juniors want your cooperation. Anyone interested can speak to Mr. Jackson.

The semi-annual payments of pew rents are now due and checks may be sent to the Warden.

Persons who wish to rent pews or sittings in Christ Church may apply after Church Service to Mr. R. H. Morris or to the Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison in person or by address, 635 Westview avenue, Germantown.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING

IMPORTANT

Change of the Hour, Morning Service
During the months of July and August the hour of the noon-day service will be at half past ten, instead of at eleven o'clock. This change to half past ten will bring the Morning Service at a cooler part of the day. The Service will be over before twelve o'clock noon. It will also afford the scholars of the Church School the opportunity of attending the Service in the Church.

Please remember the hour of Morning Service 10:30 o'clock beginning on the first Sunday in July.

COMMUNION

The hour of the early Communion will remain the same—Holy Communion every Sunday morning at 7.30 o'clock. Shortened form of Evening Prayer, with address, every Sunday evening at 7.45.

The service during July will be in charge of the Rev. C. Sydney Goodman, Rector Emmanuel Church, Holmesburgh. In August the Rev. Theodore Stroak, Church of the Redeemer, Torresdale, will be in charge.

The Services of these clergymen will be at the disposal of the members of the Parish at any time if word is left at the Rectory.

The summer months suggest a release from any forms of Christian duty. But to a conscientious Christian and faithful Church member regular attendance at Divine Service is as important in summer as in winter. Wherever he may be, at home or abroad, in summer or in winter wherever and whenever the opportunity offers to worship God in His Holy Temple, the words of the true Christian heart are the words of the Psalmist, "I was glad when they said unto me, we will go into the house of the Lord."

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

It is very important that new comers moving into the Parish should bring with them letters demissory. Note the following Canon of the Church: "A communicant moving from one parish to another, shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish, of late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

It often occurs that communicants moving into a Parish, neglect for so long a time to comply with this Canon, drift about from place to place, or what is worse, neglect altogether their Church duties, that finally they get into a very dangerous habit of religious indolence and indifference—which soon brings with it hardness and callousness to spiritual influences which result in spiritual death.

There are many good people, who were once earnest and faithful attendants at the services of the Church—whose lives were once "strengthened and refreshed by the Bread of Life"—who are now wanderers from the Fold, prodigals from their Father's House. They have become so, not by any wilful desire not to believe or intentional denial of allegiance to their Christ and His Church; but by the insidious force of habit which almost unconsciously has wrapped itself about them fast—bound like the serpents about Laocoon and his sons.

If we love our friends, it is our happiness to be with them. Our Lord has said, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name there am I in the midst of them (St. Matt 18:20). He is awaiting Sunday by Sunday, to meet you in His House—to be with you at His altar. He looks for you! Me thanks and praise, he honoureth Me" (Ps. 50, 23). He expects it. He looks for it. But now some one may say, "All these things which you have mentioned—worship and thanksgiving and the rest—may be done at home." Yes, they may be, and they must be done at home, too. But it is necessary that God should be acknowledged publicly in Church before the world, which does not obey Him, as well as privately in our own houses. And there is a special blessing offered to public prayer—"where two or three are gathered together"—over and above the promises to private prayer.

We are bound to acknowledge this fact. We are gathered together—"over and above the promises to private prayer. But it is our duty to go to Church for another reason Our Lord has set over His Household, which is the Church Stewards (that is, His Priests), who are to give to the members of the Household their portion of meat in due season. That is to say, Christ's ministers are to teach the people Christian truth, and to convey them grace in the Christian Sacraments. If it is the duty of God's ministers to offer to His people these things, it must be equally the duty of the people to come to receive them. The Sacraments are means to salvation (St. John 6, 53). Our souls cannot live without them, just as our bodies cannot live without food. Therefore, it is our duty to come to Church to receive the Sacraments.

So, then, what we have to do is to realize that it is a duty to go to Church. It ought to be a happiness, too; but it is always a duty. It follows that we should go to Church even though we don't feel inclined, just as an honest man pays his debts when he wants the money very badly for something else. But some will say, "I work hard all the week and very late on Saturday night, and often I don't go to Church on Sunday. Do you mean to say that I shan't be saved?" Let us put it another way. No one will be saved who doesn't love God. You will allow that. But if you have only a very feeble desire to go to God's House, can you persuade yourself that your love for Him is very great?

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY
The past season was a most successful one and a year of promise for the Girls' Friendly Society. There were classes in dancing and arts and crafts Miss Edna Cave, an artist in this class proved a most efficient instructor. Many beautiful things were made which were sold at the Carnival the proceeds of which are to be used for the redecoration of the Church.
A party was given once a month which all thoroughly enjoyed. During Lent the work was confined exclusively to sewing for the mission school at Vera Cruz, North Carolina. There is a branch of the society for married members also. Come girls and women join us in the Fall—the Season begins October 11th, 1920.

MOTHERS' MEETING
The closing "Party" of the Mothers' Meeting was held on Tuesday, June 13th. The Mothers met at the Parish House and were taken for an automobile ride, visiting the Aquarium, Memorial Hall and other places of interest in Fairmount Park. The "Party" held a picnic supper on the beautiful veranda at "Strawberry Mansion." On account of approaching storm, we had to return home earlier in the evening than we expected. But we all had a beautiful time. The Mothers wish to express their thanks to Mrs. Arndt and to Mrs. Rowley, who had charge of the picnic and to Mrs. Pinkerton, Mrs. Blood, Miss Margaret Hamilton, Miss Logan Starr, and Mr. Albert Rayner for taking the Mothers out in their automobiles.
C.

POOR CHILDREN'S OUTING FUND
The usual offering for that most worthy charity—the Poor Children's Outing Fund was taken in Christ Church on Sunday June

If these words are read by any who are drifting from place to place, without a Church that they can call their Home—the Rector affectionately urges that they let themselves be known to him that he may call upon them and welcome them to this Parish as their Church Home.
A letter or a card sent to the Rector will receive prompt attention.

AMERICA—AND THE

AMERICAN CHURCH

The annual recurrence of our National Birthday on July 4th recalls to mind the interesting fact that the men who took the most prominent part in the political and military affairs attending the founding of our country were for the most part Episcopalians. Old Christ Church in this city is the shrine most sacred to patriots and Churchmen alike and for more reasons than one this Church of ours deserves the name so frequently given to it, the "American Church." The following is a noteworthy list of some of the prominent founders of our country who were members of this Church.
George Washington, first President, leader of Independence.
Thomas Jefferson, author of Virginia Rights Bill 1776.
John Marshall, interpreter of Constitution.
Chief Justice.
Alexander Hamilton, great Federalist.
Richard Henry Lee, who proposed in Congress the resolution of Independence.
Peyton Randolph, President of First Congress.
Robert Livingston, who in 1764 organized opposition to Stamp Act.
C. C. Pickney, who cried "Millions for defence; but not one cent for tribute."
John Morton, whose vote committed Pennsylvania to the Revolution.
Caesar Rodney, whose vote committed Delaware to the Revolution.
Robert Morris, the financier of the Revolution.
The following (Generals of the Revolution were Episcopalians:
Washington, Muhlenburg (Nelson, Howard

United States;
Twenty-five were Episcopalians; five were Congregationalists; five were Presbyterians; two were Roman Catholics; one was a Quaker; one was a Methodist.
Of the fifty-six signers of the Declaration of Independence there were:
Thirty-four Episcopalians; thirteen Congregationalists; five Presbyterians; two Quakers; one Romanist; one Baptist.

WHY OUGHT I TO GO TO CHURCH

When the question is put, Why ought I to go to Church? it is taken for granted that it is a duty to go to Church, or else there would be no "ought" in the matter. But some one who reads this may perhaps be not at all clear in his mind on the point. He may say, Is it a duty at all? So let us take another question first. Why do I go to Church? There are several answers.
One says, "I go to pass an hour." Well, it is clear that you don't look upon it as a duty. You think it is a matter of choice.
"I go to Church because I like it," says another. Well I am glad that you like it. But liking doesn't constitute duty. Duty is one thing, liking is another.
"I go to get some good for my soul," replies a third. Isn't this rather selfish? You only go to your Father when you want to get something out of Him.
"I go to Church because it is right." Ah! here is the idea of duty coming out for the first time. St. Paul teaches us the same thing: "Not forsaking the assembling of yourselves together, as the manner of some is" (Heb. 10, 25). Yes, it is right, certainly. But why?

By coming to Church we acknowledge our Creator. He has given us our existence. We depend upon him. He keeps us alive every moment. We belong to Him. "It is He that hath made us and not we ourselves."

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

20th. As the Chimes goes to press the amount of the offering has not been received. It is hoped that it will be a generous one, as the Rector has received from several charitable organizations, a large number of names of poor children living in the hot courts and alleys in our city, all of which, it is hoped, may be sent into the country for a week or ten days.

Persons who wish to give to this worthy charity may send their contributions to the Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, 635 Westview Ave., Germantown.

THE CARNIVAL

As the Chimes goes to press a Carnival is being held on the Parish Grounds for the benefit of the Church Decoration Fund. The Committees in charge have made elaborate preparations for this Carnival and they deserve high praise for the great success which the event promises to be. A report will be announced in the next issue of the Chimes.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild will be very glad to have contributions of flowers, during the Summer from any who have gardens.

At our last meeting held June 14th we adjourned our regular monthly meetings until October.

The Altar Guild regrets losing a good friend through the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Gurley but we wish him a great deal of success in his new work.

The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

July 2-9: Misses Mogridge, Cooley
Gerhard, Wismen, Mrs. Mogridge
July 9-16: Misses Dean, M. Thompson, Crowder.
July 16-23: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Manser,
E. Thompson.
July 23-30: Misses Chase, Alexander,
Strien, Parker

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

As a general report of progress since Easter, the attendance has been good, and the following have been, STAR Classes (Every member present Mrs. Morris' and Mr. Feists (5 times); Miss Johnson's (4 times) Miss Gill's (3 times); Mrs. Schaefer's, Miss Morris, Miss Hamilton's, Miss Sarah Booz (Twice) and Miss Richards' Miss Ruth Ger-hardt's, Miss Grace Gerhardt's and Mr. Bains' (once)).

Several new scholars have come in but we have still to fill the empty chairs in our Primary Department, which were left when the twenty scholars were promoted to the Main School at Easter time. Now a word to each one of these scholars. You promised to bring a new scholar to take your old place by September 1st. Do not forget it.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Our school has always been open during the summer for a short session but no class session, as so many teachers are away. This year it has been decided by the Rector to have the Church Service at 10:30 and have us attend this service instead of our own in the Parish House. We will all sit together and after the service the Minister will give us a short talk and then those of us who wish can leave before the sermon.

Now remember, starting Sunday, July 4th, Sunday School will be in the Church at 10:30. Everyone who is at home should come, and let us all try to bring our Mothers and Fathers with us, now one thing more. BE PUNCTUAL.

ENVELOPES

If you are going to be away part or all the summer, either fill your envelopes for the Sundays you will be away and bring them in before you go or take them with you and fill them each week and bring them the first Sunday after you return. This is a good deal easier than forgetting all about them until you return. Ask your parents if this is not so.

PICNIC

On account of many good reasons, it has been decided not to go a long way off for a picnic this year but to have it on the Parish House Lawn, Wednesday Evening, June 30th, at 7:00 o'clock, and we expect to have a lot of fun, and after it gets dark to have an OPEN AIR MOVIE, the first one in Germantown. We want everyone to be there and bring Fathers and Mothers.

The Primary Department will hold its picnic on the lawn Saturday June 26th from 3 to 5 p. m., and Miss Feist wants Mothers to come to this picnic also. The Primary Department are also invited to the picnic of the Main School June 30th.

If you have read carefully all that has been written above, you will see that this summer we want to make Fathers and Mothers a part of the Sunday School and we can't do this unless you will help.

R. H. M.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary will discontinue its meetings during the summer months. We hope to start again in September with a larger attendance and to double the work we have done for missions during the past year. The Woman's Auxiliary is the Missionary society of the Church and its work is to raise money for missions to help in Missionary work. The meetings are held once a month in the Parish House. We need more women to help us in this work.

A. F. W.

JUST ITS INTENTION

It is related on good authority that an elderly man from Western Pennsylvania, whose family were Presbyterians and whose only experience in a religious way came from attending a country church with them, was once on a visit to a brother who was a Churchman and a Warden in a certain Philadelphia Parish. Sunday morning came, and he was invited to go to church with his brother. He professed his willingness to do so if his brother would only post him as to what to do, for he had heard that "Episcopalians" were dreadfully formal. In Church they sat right together. The service began with the sentences, then the Warden whispered "kneel down." This seemed to be hard work. After the Lord's Prayer, on admonition, he "got up." Then "sit down," and so it went until after the Creed. When the "kneel down" then came it seemed too much for the visitor's patience, for as he was getting down he grunted in an undertone, "Well this does beat the Devil." "Just its intention," quietly whispered the Warden, and after this the service went on without any further comment.

THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

Seamen's Church Institute

Building to be erected at Second and Walnut streets for sailors of the merchant marine and all seafaring men of this port. Ground obtained.

The institute is not a charity—it is a civic project. It provides a self-supporting hotel, a navigation school, auditorium, bank, recreation rooms, restaurant and chapel for sailors. It gives them a home when in port.

I agree to enroll as:

.... Founder membership	$1000
.... Life membership	500
.... Guarantor (yearly)	100
.... Annual membership (yearly)	10
.... Contributor
.... Subscriber "Crows Nest"	50

Check should be sent to Seamen's Church Institute, C. S. W. PACKARD, Treasurer, 517 Chestnut st., Phila.

Hon. president, Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, D. D.; president, Alexander Van Rensselaer; secretary, Sydney P. Clark, 321 Chestnut street.

It is a privilege to bring to the attention of the readers of the Chimes a very worthy object that has been recently undertaken with vigor in the interest of Seamen.

With the marked increase in shipping that has come to Philadelphia since the war, the need for an institution to properly look after the welfare of the seamen visiting this port has become vital. For many years the conditions surrounding seamen coming to this port have been disgraceful and every influence has combined to debauch and degrade them. The effect has been demoralizing to the crews of visiting vessels.

The plans of the Seamen's Church Institute to erect at the corner of Second and Walnut a hotel and institute for the proper care of all classes of sea-faring men when they are in the port of Philadelphia should not meet only with the cordial support of those interested in the promotion of welfare work, but should have the hearty endorsement of all who are desirous of seeing the business of this port developed.

The Building Committee of the Institute consists of Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., Chairman; Mr. Thomas E. Baird, Jr., and Mr. W. P. Barba. The Honorary President of the Institute is the Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, D. D., and the President is Mr. Alexander Van Rensselaer.

The plans for the building of the Institute call for completion in three units, the first to be erected as provided for by the photograph printed in this issue, and to include accommodations for about 200 able-bodied seamen, besides rooms for 50 officers.

This building will be erected on ground secured by contribution of the charter members and the building will be largely made up of memorials, according to the enclosed plans of designating each feature of the building in some particular way. Already some parts of the building have been promised as memorials and gifts.

The total cost of the first unit of the structure, not including cost of the property, will amount to about $491,000, and building will be undertaken as soon as the necessary funds are in hand.

The other units of construction planned for adjacent property will include a large auditorium and permanent chapel and additional rooms and dormitories over each. The plans are so made that the first unit herewith shown can be erected at once and the others built in with it later.

TWO IDEAS OF THE CHURCH

There is a difference between the Episcopal Church and some other Christian bodies. The mode of worship, the methods of work, the ways of thinking and doing are different. The difference is not only great, but it is radical. It goes to the very root of matters. It is to be traced to what the idea of the Church of Christ actually is. Out of this real root difference grows all the rest.

What is the Church? Let us define it, and call one definition "The Church Idea," and the other "The Sectarian Idea."

The Church Idea.

1. It is a Divine institution with a human mission.
2. It is an organism for dispensing Christianity.
3. It is the Kingdom of Heaven seeking men on earth.

Sectarian Idea

1. It is a human institution with a divine mission.
2. It is an organization for the attainment of Christianity.
3. It is a society on earth seeking the kingdom of Heaven.

These are two entirely distinct and totally opposite conceptions of the nature and the purposes of the Church. Very naturally the idea held influences every doctrine and practice of the church and determines its government. Hence the difference.

Let us emphasize the three points in each definition. "The Church Idea" recognizes that the Church is a Divine Institution, founded by Christ Himself, organized, officered and sent forth by Him, under the influence and guidance of the Divine Spirit, to do His work. It is the visible manifestation to the world of Christ; the Church is "His Body." It claims that no other man can make a Church, because he wants to emphasize certain doctrines or practices. The Episcopal Church claims that it is far better to let men hold their "views"—to look at the great truths from which ever side they please—but be loyal to the great Body that Christ sent forth into the world. "The Church Idea" believes in Christian unity.

The "Church Idea" also claims that the Church is an organism, Christ founded His Church not on any particular ideas or "opinions" of men, but on Himself. The Church is Christ "Body" as it is called in the New Testament. It is the Incarnation extended on earth through the Sacraments to the end of time. It is an Organism with a life of its own, having the power of vitality within itself, communicated to it by its Head, preserved in it by the Holy Spirit, so that the promise remains true to-day: "The gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Inspired men wrote the Bible, and in the course of time gathered its several books together and established the "Canon of Scripture," that future generations might know what the Apostles did. It is the written story of the Gospel and its conquests in the first Christian century, as human lips told it and enforced it. The Episcopal Church, which holds "The Church Idea," honors the Bible as much as any Christian body. Its utterances settle her questions of belief and practice, but she does not say "The Bible and the Bible only," for the Church of Christ is an organism, dependent upon an order of living men; and before they had any Bible in the form of the "New Testament," they went forth and accomplished the noblest conquests over the heathen world. And every Bible might be burned, and yet the Church of Christ would live, and men would tell brother men "the faith once delivered to the saints."

The Episcopal Church also claims the Church is a Kingdom—the Kingdom of God on earth, and partaking of a Kingdom with its King, and its governors appointed by the King, and by their successors, every officer holding his authority by virtue of a delegated authority, and every act of the duly appointed officers reaching down through all time to every citizen of that Kingdom. The hands of Jesus were lifted up over the apostles, and they received their commission: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature and baptize them." The apostles laid their hands on their successors, and so until they rest on Christians to-day—practically the hands of Jesus stretching down through the ages, and pouring the water upon the head of the last baptized child, and giving the bread and the wine to the person who to-day kneels before the altar. This is Apostolic Succession. And that Kingdom should be one—united—not "divided against itself," as has been the case since men have undertaken "to make churches," to perpetuate opinions, and to teach doctrines.

This is the idea of the Church we find recorded in the Bible, as it tells us what Jesus and the apostles did. "The very first act of Christ's ministry," as an able writer puts it, "was to gather a few persons around him and form a society. We know the names and number of that society—the twelve disciples. At first they were only disciples—learners. He kept them near Him; He taught them by word and example. His parables He explained privately to them only. He trained them for their work by sending them out two and two, to preach and heal. There were evidently three ranks among these; Himself, the Head; the twelve next, and the third the seventy. Just before his Ascension Christ raised the twelve to the first rank, saying "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you."

The first act of the apostles after this was to choose one to take the place of Judas, showing thereby that the society, or organization was to be kept up. At that time the disciples in Jerusalem had increased to one hundred and twenty. Acts 1, 15. The organization was complete, but it had not received the breath of life. On the Day of Pentecost the Holy Spirit was breathed into this organism, and it became active and aggressive. This was the baptism, the new birth, of the Church.

Soon after this we find the Church choosing deacons, and the apostles ordaining them by laying on of hands. Next we read of elders, or presbyters, or priests, evidently differing in office from apostles and deacons. The apostles go forth to the cities of the world, preaching and ordaining elders in every city. Thus the living society is enlarged and has in it all the germs for continuance. It shows that Christ's first and great method for saving souls was not to write a book or propound a philosophy which might have been done by some prophet, but was to found a Church, in living connection with Himself, its Head."

Which "Idea" is the better one depends on the fact whether Christ organized a church or not.

According to the laws of nature, there must be more real vitality, a fuller, richer life in a Divine Body, than in a human society—in the Kingdom of God seeking men, than in a lot of men seeking the Kingdom of God.

Such a conception of the Church of God is grand, inspiring, helpful. It is calculated to secure the devotion and allegiance of men as something worthy of their love. It makes Churchmen who act from principle as well as from choice. It rises far above that we go to church where and when we like the minister, and work and worship when things suit us, and feel no sense of duty or obligation when other conditions exist.—Selected.

The Spirit of the Churchman is the spirit of the psalmist, "Lord I have loved the habitation of thy house and the place where thine honor dwelleth."

OUR OBLIGATIONS

The average man lives for what he can get out of life. To him the riches of the world are spread out before him, and in striving to acquire them he puts forth every energy, uses up the natural forces with which he has been endowed and recklessly dissipates the highest qualities of his manhood in the acquisition of them. To this man Christ asks, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

The Christ set the world the very opposite method of action. To Him every opportunity in which He could be of service to others was the opportunity He seized. He came to give Himself and all that He had to the service of His fellowmen. He gave so freely that He gave all; and after Him the apostles, following His example, giving all to the service in which He had enlisted them—the service of their fellowmen. In this service they were misunderstood, and like their Divine Master, were put to death by the very ones whom they were trying to save. Yet they accounted the love of Christ greater riches than all the treasures of this world, and died happy that they were accounted worthy to suffer for His sake. They died poor and misunderstood of many, yet they not only preserved the noblest qualities of manhood, but they developed them so that in their death they were spiritual princes and rich in heavenly treasure.

To the man of the world and to the man of God death comes alike; but from the one death takes all that he has, from the other death can take nothing for he has nothing that death can destroy. "The souls of the righteous are in the hands of God. In the sight of men they seem to die, but they are in everlasting life and peace."

HAVE WEDDINGS IN THE CHURCH

It is a strange misapprehension of the fitness of things which so frequently suggests to the minds of devout people that it is "lovely to have the wedding at home." There are sentimental reasons for it we know.

But these are trifling in comparison with the reasons why the marriage should be solemnized at the Church.

What is marriage? It is the union of a Christian man and a Christian woman, which St. Paul tells us is a type of the union between Christ and His Church. It is a service in which the father of the bride, with his own hand, gives his daughter to God (Who is represented by the Priest), and by the Priest she is given to the groom, who receives her from the hand of the Priest as "a gift from God." If the union does symbolize the divine union between Christ and His Church; if the bride is God's gift to the groom, what place is so fit for its solemnization as the House of God? what place so fit as the Church to receive God's gift?

Besides all this, we ask God to give His fullest blessing to the two souls who have just made their solemn and indissoluble vows each to the other. While it is true that God will give His blessing to one who seeks it earnestly, wherever he may be, if we are free to go where it may most naturally be sought, where will we be drawn so strongly as to His temple?

The Prayer Book service is designed only to be used in the Church. The third rubric at the beginning of the service reads: "At the day and time appointed for solemnization of Matrimony, the persons to be married shall come into the body of the church, or shall be ready in some proper house, with their friends and neighbors." The "proper house" would mean that in the case of struggling missions, or other places where there is no church, the "house" where the services are customarily said, would be used for the marriage. In all other places, the church is the proper place.

We commend this subject most earnestly and prayerfully to our readers. And while we fully enter into the sentimental reasons which cluster about the family hearth and which love to associate the sacred ties of life with the earthly home, we are very sure that when we consider the solemnization of Holy Matrimony and all that it means, it is much more to the mind of the Church that this be done in the House of God. We believe, too, that marriage vows taken before the altar of God will not so lightly be set aside by attempted divorces as those made elsewhere. Do you not think, too, that the argument for the sentiment of "home weddings" loses all of its weight in communities such as ours, in cities where we do not have a permanent home, but flit about from flat to flat, with no permanent abiding place. Our only real home is God's house, where He loves to have us meet with Him, and pours out upon our opening and yearning hearts His most abundant blessings.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST ANDREW

In writing an article for publication regarding the activities of this society it is very difficult to find material—not particularly because there is nothing to write about but as the entire work of the order is personal it would necessitate stating that so many men were called upon and invited to come to Church, the Holy Communion or the Bible Class. For this reason an article about our Chapter is seldom seen in the "Chimes" and quite often causes comment from those not familiar with the work of the Brotherhood.

One very important need at the present time is a few men who are willing to help in this work which is simple and only that which every man promised to do when he received the Laying on of Hands in Confirmation. It is unfortunate that so many of us forget, as it were that we are pledged to "fight against sin, the world and the Devil and to remain Christ's faithful soldier and servant until our life's end." If this were not so there would be no need for the Brotherhood of St. Andrew to "spread Christ's Kingdom among men" for every man would be doing it voluntarily but so long as it remains a fact it is necessary for organizations of this character to be formed and certain men pledged to carry on as best they can what every member of The Church of Christ should be doing.

The work in This Parish is very great—too much for the few men in This Chapter to do in any satisfactory manner and it is earnestly hoped that five men of Christ Church will heed this appeal and talk the matter over with the Rector or any member of The Chapter. The dues are practically nothing!—one dollar per year which includes a subscription to "St. Andrew's Cross" and is one of the best Church papers published in this country.

For those who feel that they cannot undertake the active work and yet desire to assist, a new avenue has been opened in the formation of an "Associate Membership." This includes no obligations other than a fee of three dollars per year of which two dollars is for a subscription to the "Cross" and one dollar to forward the work of the Brotherhood. Any men desiring to avail themselves of this privilege may receive information from the Director of The Chapter, Chas. H. Jackson.

A PRECIOUS LEGACY

Persons who have not had the advantage of the beautiful service of our Church in their earlier years often become in their later years, when this privilege is enjoyed by them, the most enthusiastic admirers of our service and the most devoted and loyal members of the Church. They are able from their experience to contrast the barrenness and emptiness of other forms with the richness and fulness of the grand historic liturgy of the Church. The following extract from the memoirs of Prof. Austin Phelps, the scholarly Congregational preacher is a case at point.

"The Liturgy of the Episcopal Church has become very precious to me. The depth of its meaning it seems to me nobody can fathom who has not experienced some sorrow. We have lost much in parting with the prayers of Old Mother Church, and what have we gained in their places? I do not feel in extemporaneous prayer the deep undertone of devotion which rings out from the old collects of the Church like the sounds of ancient bells. I longed for and prayed for, and, worst of all, waited for, some sublime and revolutionary change of heart; and when that was, as a fact of a child's experience, I have not the remotest idea. If I had been trained in the Episcopal Church, I should at the time have been confirmed and entered upon a consciously religious life and grown up into Christian living of the Episcopal type."

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M. A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY AT HOME SATURDAY EVENING
6.00 to 8.00 P. M.

BEGINNING THIS FALL.

Now that vacation days are ended I hope to see all members of Christ Church regularly in their places in the House of God. I trust that each one of us is taking up his life again this fall with higher ideals and nobler purposes. The world is calling, as it never called before, for true, unselfish consecrated men and women. The source of all truth, all unselfish, consecrated service in Christ, and the Church, instituted by Christ, is the means, the channel by which and through which His life and His power is conveyed. "Without me says Christ ye can do nothing."

Let us remember this, my friend, and let each one of us, resolve this fall, to be more regular in our religious duties, more faithful in our Communion, more unselfish and more zealous in our Christian work. Most earnestly pray—yes, let all of us most earnestly pray—that God's Holy Spirit may come with power into each life in this Parish, to arouse the indifferent, to raise the fallen, to strengthen the weak, to give patience and courage to the faithful; that all may be filled more and more with the love of Christ, which will be manifested in prompt, unselfish, consecrated service.

There is one thing that every member can do; that every one should do; and that is to be a home missionary, to invite and to try to influence persons in your neighborhood to attend your Church. There is one member in this parish who has interested a score of persons in Christ Church and Sunday School.

There are others to whom, it would seem, it has never occurred that they had the least responsibility of sharing their religion with their neighbor. What a blessing it would bring, both to themselves and to others, if they were alive to this responsibility!

Let every member of Christ Church resolve, this fall, to share with others their religious privileges. Let every member of Christ Church make the following resolution: "I resolve that, for eight months, beginning now, I will make an effort each week to bring at least, one person in my neighborhood, to Church with me."

Every member can, at least, try to do this much.

Let every one conscientiously try to do all he or she can to bring others to church. By persistent effort and by prayer miracles follow!

✠
A very dear friend of the Rectors, in announcing the beginning of the fall and winter's schedule of services in his parish, in one of the largest cities of the East, addressed his people, through his parish paper, in the following words. They are so strong and express so fully the Rector's sentiments that he has adopted these words as his own and addresses them, through the Chimes to the people of this parish, as we, Rector and people together, take up the beginning of another winter's work in our Master's service.

"Today we resume our usual work together. We have no new programme to announce, no new gospel to preach, no new sensations to spring. Nor have we anything startling to say about what we are going to do. It is better to do it than to talk about doing it. A high-sounding manifesto is often followed by a weak campaign. It is not improper, however, to recall some elementary facts. This church tries to represent certain ideas. It stands for a certain distinct type of Christianity. We are very much dissatisfied with ourselves, but we are very much satisfied with our ideal. For instance, we believe in the spiritualization of religion as distinguished from the secularization of it. Our creed neither begins nor ends with philanthropy. It simply includes that. Our business is with hopes and inspirations rather than with buns and sops. Our Alpha and Omega is God in Christ. Then again we prefer to take things quietly, not noisily. We are not easily carried away. We have no disposition to be 'up-to-date,' because for one reason there are a great many 'dates' and many of them are not worth being 'up to.' An old truth is better than a modern humbug. 'Vox populi vox Dei' is a proverb, but it is also a lie. Popularity is no sign either of divinity or sanity. We are rather old-fashioned as a church—and enjoy being so—and we welcome everyone of any creed, of any condition, of any need. We are trying to be coworkers and also coworkers with God. There is a plenty of work to be done and we invite your help, your prayer and your good will."

STRANGERS AND OCCASIONAL ATTENDANTS

The Rector is pleased to see and to welcome the strangers and occasional worshippers who attend the Services of Christ Church. He is disappointed, however, that these strangers who attend occasionally, continue to remain "strangers." He is very anxious to meet them personally and to invite them to identify themselves with the Parish.

The Parish needs the co-operation of every one and every one needs a "Church Home." No one ought to be content to remain an "outsider," without a Church which he can call his own.

There are many religious people "going through life without a home." This is a wrong—wrong to the Church and wrong to themselves. The Rector hopes that in all this community, who are not settled in any Church, will make themselves known to him at once and he will be pleased to meet them and to welcome them to Christ Church. Do not delay longer. Do it now!

THE RECTOR'S COUNCIL.

Last spring, there was organized in this Parish the Rector's Parish Council, consisting of representatives of each society of the Parish Guild. The object of this Council is to co-operate with the Rector in the management of the various activities in the Parish. It will be remembered that last June a very successful Carnival was given, which netted a substantial sum for the painting of the church. A meeting of the Council, to lay plans for the coming year is called to meet in the Parish House on Wednesday evening, October 13th at eight o'clock. It is requested that all members of the Council be present at this meeting.

A LETTER TO THE RECTOR FROM BISHOP RHINELANDER.

A letter received by the Rector from the Bishop of the Diocese, shows the interest he takes in the plan of the Rector's Council. The Bishop's letter is as follows:

Bishop's House,
251 South 22nd St.,
Philadelphia.
May 28, 1920.

Dear Mr. Arndt:

I am much interested in the last number of your Parish paper, especially in what you say of the formation of your Guild of Parish Council. I am very sure that this is the true method of Parish organization. It brings the workers in a Parish in close touch with one another and also with the Vestry. I think it is possible to work up these occasions so that a large number of people will attend and get information about what is really going on in the Parish and there is nothing which increases interest so much as knowledge. I wish you every success in your endeavor.

I shall pray earnestly for the success of your experiment.

Faithfully yours,

P. M. RHINELANDER.

SERVICES ON ALL SAINTS' DAY.

The services on All Saints' Day, Monday, November 1st, will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m. Holy Communion and Sermon 11:00 a. m. At the latter service, the names of parishioners who have entered into Life Eternal since last All Saints' Day, will be read from the Chancel and prayers will be said for the departed. The offering will be for Missions—the extension of the Kingdom of Christ upon earth.

The flowers on the altar will be in memory of those who rest in Paradise. Persons who wish to give flowers in memory of departed friends are invited to send them to the Parish House on Saturday afternoon, October 30th, so that they may be placed on the altar in time for the early service the following Monday—All Saints' Day.

After the services, these flowers will be sent to the sick in the Parish.

ALL SAINTS.

The dead in Christ are not very far from us. But this is not meant any false spiritualism, any physical nearness of sound, or sight or touch. That would be only to restore what is most imperfect, and what death was meant to end. The nearness is that of the deeper, hidden bands which bind the souls of them that love Him together, in the Lord Jesus Christ. The body is resting in the grave under the care of God's holy angels till the glory of the resurrection morning, but the soul is somewhere with Christ. He knows it, cares for it, watches it, loves it, has drawn it to Himself in a closer union, has poured fuller graces upon it, has washed it in His own blood. It is one with Him in a fuller, deeper sense than ever before. The soul, too, must be gaining in all spiritual powers; it must be growing in love, in humility, in charity, in every grace.

It is surely right to think that it remembers those it loved on earth; that it prays for them; that it is fuller of abounding grace, and worships the eternal God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, as it never worshipped here. And therefore, in proportion as one left behind grows nearer to Christ he must be growing nearer to his loved one.

Both in Christ, they must also be very near to one another in Him; He is their meeting place. The departed is on one side the veil, the living on the other—that is all. Just as when two who love one another here are parted, and hear that they can meet, they hurry as quickly as possible to the place appointed, even so will the mourner try to draw near to the one taken away, by prayer, by good works, by patience, by gentle cheerfulness, and, above all, by the faithful reception of the Holy Communion. Where-so ever Christ is, there the dead in Christ must be. Going nearer to Christ must lead one of them, and thus it seems that there must be deep and invisible bonds binding the holy living to the holy dead in Him.

They are awaiting us in Paradise. The reason of man teaches, and Holy Scriptures confirm it, that we shall know one another in that blessed land. We must believe that the dearest ties we have on earth, the things that most lead us unto God, have their fruition in heaven—not in any earthly way, but divested of all that is weak and poor and frail in them, in a transfigured glory. All our heart, and thought and feeling will indeed center in Christ, but these blessed ties will be the steps to the throne on which He sits. In loving any member in His mystical body, we shall only love Him the more who is the Head of it. Thus father and son, mother and daughter, husband and wife, one in Christ, will still be one with each other. Somehow in this world, family ties, if they bind the members of the family closely together, serve also to separate the family in that degree, from the rest of the world. In the other life, there will be all the union and none of the separation. The one family of Christ, however much all earthly bonds may find in it their blessed fulfilment, will know no separation, and yet each earthly tie on which God has set the seal of His blessing, will have its distinct place in the eternal oneness.

Thus as the mourner here on earth seeks to draw near to God, each step will bring him closer to the soul at rest with God, until at last the veil shall be lifted, and, hand in hand, in the glad company of the Redeemed, they will see the vision of God's glory, and at the Resurrection wake up after God's likeness, and "be satisfied with it."—James De-Koven.

Lord, where Thou art, our Holy Dead must be,

Unpierced as yet, the Sacramental mist;
But we are nearest them and nearest Thee
At solemn Eucharist.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

1st. Rental of Pews.

2nd. The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so, will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to support the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania two thousand dollars for the endowment of a pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of _____ dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

NOTE: The Act of April 26th, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to Religious or Charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses, otherwise the bequest is void.

O Lord, we crave for those gone Home to Thee,

For those who made the earthly home so fair;

How little we may know, how little see,
Only—that Thou art there!

Dear hands unclapsed from ours are clasping Thee;

Thou holdest us for ever in Thy Heart;
So close in One Communion—are we
In very truth, apart?

Lord, where Thou art happy Dead must be;
And if with Thee, what, then, their boundless bliss!

Till faith be sight, and hope, reality;
Love's anchorage is this!

A PRAYER—IN MEMORIAM.

O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, in whose embrace all creatures live, in whatsoever world or condition they be; I beseech Thee for him whose name and dwelling place and every need Thou knowest. Lord, vouchsafe him light and rest, peace, refreshment, joy and consolation, in paradise, in the companionship of saints, in the presence of Christ, in the ample folds of Thy great love.

Grant that his life (so troubled here) may unfold itself in Thy sight, and find a sweet employment in the spacious fields of eternity. If he hath ever been hurt or maimed by any unhappy word or deed of mine, I pray Thee of Thy great pity to heal and restore him that he may serve Thee without hindrance.

Tell him, O gracious Lord, if it may be, how much I love him, and miss him, and long to see him again; and, if there be ways in which he may come, vouchsafe him to me as a guide and guard and grant me a sense of his nearness in such degree as Thy laws permit.

If in aught I can minister to his peace, be pleased of Thy love to let this be; and mercifully keep me from every act which may deprive me of the sight of him as soon as our trial-time is over, or mar the fulness of our joy when the end of days hath come.

Pardon, O gracious Lord and Father, whatsoever is amiss in this my prayer, and let Thy will be done, for my will is blind and erring, but Thine is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PARISH MEETING.

A Parish meeting will be held in the Parish House on Wednesday evening, October 27th at eight o'clock. The object of this meeting is threefold: First, to bring together all members of the Parish to meet one another socially; secondly, to hear brief reports from the various societies of the work done and to be done; thirdly, to discuss and to suggest ways and means whereby the interests and work of the Parish may be extended. The Parish meetings held last year and the previous year were most interesting and profitable and it is expected that the meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, October 27th, will be equally enjoyable. The Rector asks that every member of the Parish and all who attend the services of the Church be present on that evening. Refreshments will be served and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Remember the date—Wednesday evening, October 27th, at eight o'clock. Let everyone be present!

I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving. To reach the port of heaven, we must sail sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it—but we must sail, and not adrift, nor lie at anchor.—O. W. Holmes.

ROUSING MEN IN LOCAL CHURCH

Here is the way one Chicago pastor went after his men:
To Our Men:

I have never thought more prayerfully over any set of sentences I have had to write than these that follow. I want them so written that God can use them to fire the hearts of men I know and love, with moral earnestness.

During the past six years I have been turned down by hundreds of men to whom I have gone to urge some definite Christian service. I heard simply thousands of excuses and have seen almost everything get in between men and the thing I pressed for. I have doubted my own leadership scores of times in the unsleeping moments of the night. I have studied on my knees my limitations in getting men in this parish to do things. Every time I have arisen with a new determination to keep right on calling these same men so long as I am pastor here!

I will not think longer of the dead and ineffective committees of the past. I will not allow one bit of discouragement to darken the hope in my soul for better things.

We have lost leaders. Strong staves have broken in my hand. Death has robbed us of many. But note, men! God has pushed more of Chicago close up to the doorways of our big well equipped church than ever before. She never had such a chance. We dare not run from personal duty. No man will. I know our men will not let slight matters hinder their serving through our church this great new field about us.

Every man is called. Don't wait on a program. You love men and know how to help them in a score of ways without being told!

A definite task is now before us. The men and Religion Forward Movement is stirring church life throughout the land. It must not go by without our getting in touch with it and sharing its blessings. Its five great fields of services are given below. It will mean nothing to us except as we tune up our local church to receive.

These committees are not appointed, they have orders, not from the pastor, but from the aroused conscience of the church and their sense of Christian obligation to our great unreached community.

Not one has been personally asked.

A general does not go down the line and ask each man to kindly fire if he possibly can!

He knows every man will do his duty.

"God, give us men!

Men who never shamed their mothers,
Men who never fail their brothers,
True, however, false are others,
Give us men! I say again:
God give us men!"

SHALL THE CHIMES BE CONTINUED?

This is the last issue of the present volume of the Chimes. With this issue all subscriptions expire. This issue closes with a small debt. If the Chimes is to be continued it will be necessary that the list of subscribers and contributing friends be greatly increased. At least $100.00 must be in hand before the end of October. Every member of the Parish should assist in defraying the expense of publication. The price of subscription remains the same as before the war, 50 cents a year. This is the one thing in the country that has not advanced—except some peoples' Church offerings.

It is hoped that some persons will send a contribution in addition to their subscriptions, so that the expense of publishing the Chimes may be fully met. Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to Mr. Robert Carmint, 6373 Sherman street, or to the Rector.

THE DISCIPLINE OF HARDSHIPS.

In April the peach orchard lends a faint pink flush to the distant hillside, and that stands for the moralities. In September the ripe fruit lends a golden blush of clustered food to the same hill. And such is the fruit of religion. Great is the importance of the root of moralities, but roots and boughs imply the ripened fruit.

The rule of life is health, prosperity and sunshine. But God hath appointed wrestling, defeat, and suffering as important members of his corps of teachers.

Ours is a universe where progress is secured in the fruits and grains through chemical reactions. Steel is iron plus fire; soil is rock plus fire, billow and ice-plow; statutes are marble plus chisel and hammer strokes; linen is flax plus the bath that racks, the club that flairs, the comb that separates, the acid that bleaches.

Manhood is birth-gift plus struggles, temptation, wrestling and refusals to go downward and determination to climb upward. The saint is a man who has been carried off the field on his shield, victorious over inbred sin and outside temptation. Men who drift are men who drown.—Newell Dwight Hillis.

THE PARISH SOCIETIES

The various societies in the Parish are resuming their meetings and taking up their work for the fall and winter. A list of the Parish Societies will be found on another page of the Chimes. All persons in the Parish are cordially invited to identify themselves with some department of the active work of the Church. The Rector will be pleased to welcome newcomers into the Parish or other who desire to engage in Church work. There is opportunity for every one in some department of the Parish Guild.

The Women's Auxiliary, the Missionary Society of the Church, will meet on Wednesday afternoon at half past two o'clock in the Parish House. Plans for the fall and winter work will be made at this meeting. A cordial invitation is extended to all women in the Parish to attend.—Mrs. Henry R. Baremore, President.

The Girls' Friendly Society have resumed their weekly meetings, every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Girls' come around to the Parish House and join us. We are planning "fine times" for the coming winter. You will enjoy being with us! The Branch Secretary is Mrs. Topliffe Johnson.

The Mothers' Meeting resumes the session on Tuesday afternoon, October 18th, at 2:30. The meetings are in charge of Mrs. Charles Henry Arndt and Mrs. U. G. Rowley.

TWO MEN FROM CHRIST CHURCH ORDAINED TO THE MINISTRY.

On Sunday morning, September 26, Christ Church had the distinction of having two of her sons ordained to the sacred ministry. Mr. Stanley V. Wilcox was ordained to the Diaconate and Rev. Richard H. Gurley was advanced to priesthood by the Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhinelander, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, in St. Mary's Diocesan Church, Philadelphia. The candidates were presented to the Bishop by their Rector, the Rev. Charles Henry Arndt.

On the following Sunday the Rev. Stanley V. Wilcox assisted the Rector at the early Communion in Christ Church and at the mid-day service the Rev. Richard H. Gurley, preached his first sermon as priest and celebrated the Holy Communion. Rev. Mr. Gurley expects to enter into mission work in Japan and the Rev. Mr. Wilcox will serve his diaconate as assistant at Old Sweden Church, Philadelphia.

Christ Church is very proud of these two young men and the prayers of their many friends in this Parish ascend to Heaven that God may abundantly bless their ministry.

Bear in mind, my friend, that your happiness or your misery is very much of your own making. You cannot create spiritual sunlight any more than you can create the morning star; but you can put your soul where Christ is shining. Keep a clear conscience. Keep a good stock of God's promises within reach. Keep a nightingale of hope in your soul that can sing away the dark hours when they do come. Keep a good, robust faith that can draw honey out of rocks and oil out of the flinty rock. Never spend a day without trying to do something good, and then keeping step with your Master, march on towards heaven, over any road, however rough, and against any head-winds that blow.—Canadian Churchman.

MR. MORRISON'S REMOVAL.

Our faithful and efficient Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, has removed, with his family to Wyncote, Pa. It is hoped that this will be only temporary and that he will soon return to Germantown. At the unanimous request of the Rector and Vestry, Mr. Morrison has agreed to continue to serve as Warden, at least until after Easter. This will be gratifying to the members of the congregation, all of whom deeply appreciate his faithful and his untiring efforts in the arduous duties and responsibilities of Accounting Warden.

RUMMAGE SALE.

A Rummage sale for the benefit of the painting and Parish Building Repair Fund will be held the latter part of October. The committee in charge solicit from all members of the Parish, articles of any kind—furniture, clothing, or anything that has accumulated in your house and is not needed. Please drop a postal card to any member of the committee, specifying what articles you will contribute to the sale and they will be called for. The following are the names of the Committee in charge: Dr. J. Clarence Courtney, chairman, Frederick Lennig, Miss Esther Alexander.

Look around your house or office for articles that have been cast aside and notify the committee at once. Let every one in the Parish co-operate and make some donation to this Rummage sale.

CHIMES MISSING.

A request has been received from the Historical Society for a complete file of the Christ Church Chimes. In referring to our file it is found that the following issues of the Chimes are missing: October 1918, November 1918, and March 1919. If any one has the missing issues of these dates and will send them to the Rector, the favor will be appreciated.

There is no joy in work or worship unless we do it heartily, continuously and faithfully. If you find no joy in service it is because you are not faithful in season and out of season.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE CHIMES

Now is the time to send in your subscriptions and contribution to the Chimes. Do it now. Whether or not the publication of the Chimes is to be continued depends upon the amount received from the parishioners. Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to Mr. Robert Carmant, 6373 Sherman street, or to the Rector.

"THE RELIGIOUS TRAMP" PROBLEM

The following article is taken from the "Literary Digest."

The pest of religious society, agree The American (New York) and The Christian Century (Chicago,) is the 'church tramp.' This class of undesirables and the sensationalists who have helped to create it are thus described and denounced by The Christian Century:

"The religious tramp is a phenomenon of a serious nature. He is, indeed, a believer in a way, although he asserts with a pseudo-liberality that 'one church is as good as another.' He travels around to the 'special services' which one church after another serves up to secure a crowd. The churches often do not go behind the returns. There are crowds and they are crowds. The church tramp is a Christian who refuses to assume any responsibilities. He does not want to work regularly. He does not want to give regularly, though he drops a chance nickel into the plate. His attitude is one of unconcern with regard to the welfare of the churches. He gets his amusement and his sociability from the churches at the minimum of expense. He asks for no more. Just now in many communities the churches are actively competing for the presence of the church tramp. With concerts and secular lectures and moving pictures of doubtful religious value, they seek to bring the floaters to their places of worship. Their success is as transient as is the interest of the people who come. The cure for church tramps is a serious attitude on the part of the church. Smaller audiences may follow such an attitude, but they will be audiences yielding a more permanent harvest to religion. The serious-minded pastor may not be known just now as a crowd-getter, but he will be known in the end as a church builder.

"Meanwhile, the honest doubter outside the church is not offended by the flippancy in the face of problems which to him are of life-and-death importance. When the church makes her appeal to truth-seekers and not to the sensation-seekers, she will be a stronger church."

Any ultimate delight in life must be rooted in something deeper than self-centered pleasure; it must love persons and seek ends for their own sake; and find its joy not in the satisfaction of man as he is, but in the development of that which his thought and love enable him to become.—William De Witt Hyde.

FREE PRIVILEGES AT THE Y. M. C. A.

We have a friend who stands ready to give any deserving boy a membership in the Y. M. C. A. if he cannot afford to pay for it himself. Do you know anybody between twelve and fifteen years of age whom you would like to recommend? The same privilege will be accorded any working boy for a course in the night school.

PARISH HOUSE AND INTERIOR OF CHURCH REPAINTED.

The exterior of the Parish House and the interior of the church have been repainted during the past summer. The woodwork on the Parish House exterior has also been repainted and put in good repair. The appearance of the interior of the church has been greatly improved by the beautiful color scheme on the wall. It is hoped that the chancel will be re-decorated in the near future and also that the present color of the pews will be "toned down" to harmonize with the wall and the choir stalls in the chancel. Can this not be done during the next summer?

ARREARS IN ENVELOPES.

Will all persons who are in arrears in their envelope offering, owing to absence from the city or other causes, please enclose the amount due in the envelope of present date and place same on the plate, as soon as possible? Credit will then be given on the books of the Parish.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

For our Summer Session this year, we followed a new plan, and instead of the usual School in the Parish House, we attended church, making ourselves familiar with the morning service and had a 5 minute sermon of our own. We think the plan was a success as we averaged 75 present, which was more than the year before and we hope to repeat it next year.

Although this is only October 1st, most of our scholars have made up the arrears of their envelopes due to Summer absence. We hope the few who have not done so will read this and that they will make good within the next two weeks so we can start right for the years work.

A word as to our plans, we are losing 3 or 4 teachers due to getting married, moving away or illness, but we hope by next week to have their places filled. We wish Miss Emily Dean all happiness through her married life and welcome Miss Mayette, who has so kindly offered to take over her work.

On Sunday, October 10th, we are going to have a special service in the church and to have as many parents as well as Church members present as possible. Our first missionary work this fall is to prepare for our Thanksgiving party; we gave Mr. Amos last year over 400 cans and packages of food for the poor and this year he says he will need much more; so let us make it 600 and the way to do it is to begin now to get ready for it.

We will have some more to say about our plans in the next issue of The Chimes.

R. H. M.

IS IT WOMEN'S DUTY TO VOTE?

The question will be raised in the minds of many women who have been either opposed or indifferent to suffrage, whether this Amendment makes it their duty to vote. It is said that duties never conflict. That is true only because when duties do seem to conflict one must choose which has the superior claim, then the other ceases to be a duty. Generally speaking, duties of the home take precedence over duties of the church or of the State. Madame Guyon made a mistake when she left her children in order to devote herself to "religion." It is never a duty to vote unintelligently. If any man finds it impossible to fulfill his duties to his home and to his children and take the necessary time to acquaint himself with the issues in the election and to make his vote an expression of his intelligent will, it is better for him to neglect the ballot-box than his home. Such a case will be rare, but the principle holds true; and this is equally true of woman. No woman need to condemn herself if she finds that home duties make the fulfillment of her political task impracticable for her. But in so far as it is possible, every woman should take up the task which this amendment lays upon her, acquaint herself with the pending issues, and vote in accordance with her best judgment.—The Outlook.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON PRAYER.

The Rector calls the attention of members of the parish to the Service of Evening Prayer, which is said in the church on Friday afternoons at five o'clock. More of our people should avail themselves of this quiet, simple weekly service. It is most helpful to those who attend and it is hoped its helpfulness may be extended to a greater number than at present attend. Persons who wish special prayers or intercession for themselves or for friends, may send their requests anonymously if so desired—to the Rector and they will be remembered at this Service.

Every Friday afternoon at five o'clock.

A CREED.

"Patient with others, but strict with myself,
Loving to give, and refusing all pelf;
Doing the right though it brings me no fame;
Honoring Christ, because signed with His name;
Helping the downcast, and cheering the sad;
Living our creed till it makes the world glad;

Fond of our work, of our friends, of our land;
Walking by faith, daily led by God's hand;
This is the pathway the saints all have trod,
This is the life hid with Christ's life in God."

The Kingdom of God is more than a Kingdom. It is more than a society. It is a LIVING ORGANISM — a body — a living, growing, thinking, feeling, working body. The man inside is a member of that body, and partakes of its force, its blood, its life.

WHERE CHARACTER IS FORMED.

Moody said, "Character is what you are in the dark." The foundation of all good character is laid in prayerful meditation in the closet. The closet is the power house where the storage battery of character is charged. Habits of nature are formed in a persevering struggle through temptation. "Our greatest glory consists not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall." The hour of temptation is the critical hour in a man's life, to test the metal he is made of. A man is either stronger or weaker after he has been tempted. If he has met and conquered the temptation he is a stronger man, and will more easily defeat the next temptation. If he has met and been defeated by his temptation, he is a weaker man and more susceptible.

Publication of the "Chimes"

Owing to change of publishers, the issuance of the CHIMES has been delayed this month. It is hoped that hereafter the CHIMES will be published regularly on the third Sunday in the month. All parish societies must have their copy in hand at least one week before date of publication. This number of the CHIMES does not contain the usual monthly reports of the Parish Guilds, on account of the uncertainty of the date of publication. Other matters of importance are also omitted. The next issue of the CHIMES will have some important announcements.

With this issue begins the twenty-first volume of the CHIMES. In other words, the CHIMES has been published continuously, without any omission, for twenty successive years. This is a long and honorable record. Only they who have had experience in such work realize the amount of labor and patience required. It is purely a labor of love. The price of subscription, fifty cents a year, has remained the same, notwithstanding the cost of publication has been tripled. The CHIMES, therefore, depends not only upon the subscriptions but also upon the generous contributions of the members of the congregation. New subscriptions and contributions will be welcomed with this number.

Without the generous support of the advertisers the expense of publication of the CHIMES could not be met. The firms whose advertisements appear in the CHIMES have been selected as representing the best and most reliable in their respective lines of business in Germantown. The ecclesiastical year commences on Advent Sunday, which is always the nearest Sunday to St. Andrew's Day (November 30th). Hence, the latter is sometimes at the beginning, sometimes at the end of the ecclesiastical year. The first part—from Advent to Trinity—is devoted to a commemoration of the various events in the early life of our Saviour, which formed part of His great work, viz.: His Incarnation Manifestation to the Gentiles, Fasting and Temptation, Crucifixion, Resurrection and Ascension; the Descent of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost and the Revelation of the great mystery of Trinity.

The second part of the year—from Trinity onward—is appropriated to a consideration of our practical duties as members of Christ, founded on those doctrines in which we have previously been instructed. Hence, we have a complete cycle of Christian teaching for the year, independent of the instruction received from the pulpit. The advantages thus secured are obvious. The congregation is not left entirely dependent on the teaching of the preacher and yet the latter has suggested to him subjects of discourse to which he may return year after year without fear of exhausting them.

Advent is a season of self-examination and earnest prayer. Whilst we commemorate the first coming of our Blessed Lord and meditate on His second, we are thus prepared for the right enjoyment of the approaching festival of the Nativity. The Collects, Epistles and Gospels are appointed with a view to this. The Collects may be said to form a series. In them Christ is alluded to as coming (1) in Person, (2) in His Word, (3) by His ministers and (4) by His Spirit. The Epistles are explanatory of the Collects. The Gospels are (1) a parable, so to speak, of Christ's coming to judge, (2) a description of that coming, (3) our Lord's testimony to John the Baptist as the herald of His first coming, (4) John's testimony concerning himself.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY—This is one of the most ancient of the festivals commemorative of the Apostles. It may fall either at the beginning or the end of the ecclesiastical year, but generally it is the former.

There is a certain propriety in St. Andrew being commemorated first of all the Apostles, he having been one of the first to follow Christ. See John i, 40. Hence his ancient name of Protocletos (First Called). He is remarkable, too, as having been the first of the Apostles who did missionary work; he brought his own brother Simon to Christ. This fact also may have had something to do with the place given to him in the calendar; certainly it seems to have governed the choice of the Epistle, which contains St. Paul's great missionary argument, ver. 11-16. The Gospel is the account of his formal call. He was crucified by order of Aegeas, Pro-Consul of Achaia, after having been terribly scourged. The cross on which he was bound (not nailed) is generally affirmed to have been in the shape of the letter X.

The Festival of St. Thomas, which occurs on the 21st of this month, is of very ancient date. The Collect has the leading idea drawn from a Homily of St. Gregory, when he says: "That by this doubting of St. Thomas we are more confirmed in our belief than by the faith of the other Apostles." It is recorded by Eusebius that after the day of Pentecost and the gift of tongues, the Apostles were scattered abroad, and that St. Thomas was sent to the Parthians, Medes, Persians and Chaldeans, founding churches among them till he penetrated into India. The Christians of St. Thomas, a remarkable religious community, still bear witness to his labors in that distant land; they are settled along the Malabar coast of the Indian peninsula. To the north also there seem to be relics of the Christian faith preached by St. Thomas mixed with the strange religion of Thibet. St. Thomas was martyred at a place called Taprobane. Having been at first assailed with stones, he was at last killed by the thrust of a spear, thus offering a comparison to the words of our Lord to him: "Reach hither thy hand and thrust it into my side." It was not granted to St. Thomas to have his courageous aspirations fulfilled to die with Christ, but to die for His cause. It is related that the Portuguese found an ancient inscription in Meliapore, purporting that St. Thomas had been pierced with a lance at the foot of a cross, which he had erected in that city, and that in 1523 A. D. his body was found there and transported to Goa. It would appear that St. Thomas traveled farther than any of the Apostles, and preached to various nations of different languages, showing that as his incredulity was great, so was his faith great in proportion. When painted alone or with the other Apostles, his attribute is always a builder's rule or square, and for this reason he is called the patron of architects and builders.

Behold! Thy King Cometh

It seems very natural to us to ask why the account of Christ's entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday should be read as the Gospel for Advent Sunday. At first sight it looks very like a displacement of the Gospel history, for on Advent Sunday we are thinking of the two extreme points, if we may so term them, of the relationship which the Lord Jesus bears to us, the one of His coming to take our nature upon Him nineteen centuries ago, and the other when He shall come to judge us hereafter; when we suddenly find ourselves in the very midst of His earthly life, at nothing less than its crisis, when He has wrought his greatest recorded miracle, and is consciously on His way to die. What, then, we feel inclined to ask, is the connection between this entry into Jerusalem and Christ's advent, whether on the occasion of His taking our nature upon Himself, or His still future advent, in the clouds of heaven, as Judge of the quick and dead? Might it not have been better, we may ask, as is the case in some of the churches of Christendom, to have chosen the Gospel for today from some passage in which our Lord describes His second coming, such, for instance, as the Gospel for Sunday next? This is what some of us may think, but these old liturgical arrangements were made by people who knew very well what they were about. They have been continued to our day, because they have been found, by the experience of some thirteen or fourteen centuries, to have a deep lesson for the human soul.

This Gospel is chosen because it brings before us two great truths; not only that of the first coming of our Divine Saviour into the world but of His coming to the judgment. Passages of Scripture describing either of these momentous events would be obviously appropriate, but to do justice to the solemn time upon which we now enter we require to keep these two truths clearly before the eye of the soul.

Christmas Giving and Buying

It not infrequently happens that the spirit of the world seizes upon Christian festivals and perverts them from their original purposes and to some extent makes them evils rather than the un-mixed blessings they were intended to be. Holy days have too often become mere holidays and anything but holy to many of those observing them. Christmas has suffered especially through the exaggerated development of the originally harmless custom of exchanging gifts at that season, which has now reached the point where the custom has become a burden to many, giving pleasure neither to the giver nor the recipient, and, because of the tendency of the great majority of shoppers to put off their purchases until the last day or hours, Christmas has become for the shopkeepers and their employees the most dreaded season of the year. It is certainly lamentable that the observance of the anniversary of the coming of God's Son to earth, as a pledge of God's good will to men, should bring anything but peace and joy to any of His children; and as the Episcopal Church in this country has had more influence than any other religious body in preserving the festival of Christmas and bringing about its general observance (not any of the denominations, a generation ago, held religious services on Christmas—some do not today), the Church should take the lead in all proper efforts to make Christmas a religious festival, a happy time for all and a hard time for none. Two movements deserve the support of Church people—that represented by the Society for Preventing Useless Giving at Christmas and the "shop early" movement. The latter movement accomplished a great deal last Christmas in lightening the labors of thousands of salespeople, and should accomplish even more this year not only in the great cities but in the smaller towns as well. To endeavor to bear one another's burdens is to fulfill the law of Christ.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note.—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

to their knees. And then he dwelt upon the power of worship:

"Worship of the mysterious and yet simple God is the greatest and most vital activity of human life, coloring and invigorating and giving point to all other activities. Worship is languishing with us, in part, I think, because we have tried to make our services attractive to men, instead of attractive to God, and partly because we try to give to men, by preaching, a knowledge of God that can best come through worship in sacrament and prayer. I am assured by those who have a right to speak that our churches are frequented more than formerly by people who know the meaning and value of worship.

For more than two years I have been going in and out of the churches in France. Those churches are places of worship through which a ceaseless stream of worshippers flow—the brave poilu, in his war-stained and faded blue uniform, the little children, the sad-faced widow and the aged peasant. They go to meet God. There may be no service to join in, no preacher to listen to, but they know God is in His holy temple always, and they are well content to talk to Him and be talked to by Him.

"Two years ago last Sunday I went to the little village of Neuilly-sur-Suize in the afternoon. There was the sound of singing in the little sixteenth century church on the hill, which I often visited. The cure was away at the war, but all the villagers were there singing vespers. They were gathered to pay homage in worship to the ever-present God.

A TOUCHING ILLUSTRATION

"A colonial chaplain tells of an incident from his experience in the Amiens Cathedral. 'Presently,' he says, 'my eyes caught sight of two figures a dozen yards away to the right—a little before me, but not so much that I could not see their faces. They were sitting perfectly still, hand in hand, and one could read their story plainly enough. She was a young woman of the poorer class, but well dressed, and he was a soldier in the uniform of the French line, and, what was more, his whole kit was there, significantly, too. I have no doubt whatever that they had slipped into the Cathedral on the way to the station.

"As I watched, she said something, and knelt forward on the prie-Dieu before her. He stood up, as the French soldier does. Then she began to pray for him to hear, and I could catch a murmur. His eyes were fixed on the altar, and never wavered from first to last, but she hid hers in her hands after a little. Also her voice rose with the passion of her prayer, and soon one knew that she was weeping. At last, she prayed loudly enough for me to catch the words, in French, of course, but I could understand that well-known prayer, and marvel at the simplicity of her so slight change in it.

"Soul of Christ, sanctify him;

Body of Christ, save him . . ."

So she went on, until:

"Within Thy wounds hide him,"

she cried, and could say no more for sobs.

"And while I saw dimly and waited for I knew not what, when the man's voice broke calmly and steadily in, without even a hint of passion or of fear:

"In the hour of my death, call me
And bid me come to Thee,
That with Thy saints I may praise Thee
For ever and ever. Amen."

"And then, like the victor that he was, there, in God's house, and all unashamed before His High Majesty, he lifted the woman to her feet and turned her face to his, and kissed her long upon the lips.

"Oh, my God, how fine a thing can human nature be! It was no disgrace for You to share it. It has that in it which can look across the worst that earth can do, and gather up its dearest into its arms, and go forward—to You."

"May God teach us how to worship, that others, too, may worship Him in spirit and in truth."

The Value of Parish Work to the Worker

There is a very great value in parish work to the worker. One who stands on the outside and has not "part nor lot" in the activities of the parish—is merely named on the register as "belonging to the parish"—cannot realize that a very real value to the individual exists.

The word "work" to the uninitiated all too often means something arduous, something to be avoided; but when one considers that work and happiness are inseparable, it is strange more do not find their work and their happiness. Each individual member of a parish bears a responsibility for a certain part of the Church's work, and has a talent intended for use. A great deal depends upon the use made of opportunities.

Activity creates interest. As there can be no activity without mind and body, so there can be no interest without heart. As soon as this factor enters, it all ceases to be work in the popular meaning of the term, and great good comes to the worker—in happiness derived, the feeling of being necessary to the great whole, the sense of power and dependableness; all of which will be found to work out in this wise—that the more one does the greater the desire grows to do something more.

Then comes a deepening and broadening of character—a worker must look upon the world differently. Coming into close relation with fellow-workers gives a wider outlook. Too many to mention are the elements for the strengthening and upbuilding of character which enter in this contact. They extend soul-deep.

It has been said: "What we pray for we work for," and as truly it can be said, what we work for we pray for; and what we work and pray for we stand for; here is a test of our loyalty and a deepening of our spiritual life.

Parish work done with any right motive must have its value; but many times is that value increased if there is a deep, underlying sense for WHOM it is all done, a belief in the Church and the fundamental principles for which the Church stands. Then, with the growth in character and influence, there will be also a splendid growth in true Churchmanship; ideals will be higher, and there will come the "Vision."

A COURSE OF ADVENT SERMONS "The State of the Dead"

The Rector will deliver a course of four sermons on the Sunday evenings in Advent on the subject, "The State of the Dead." The course will begin on Sunday evening, November 28th. The subjects treated in the course will be as follows:

Sunday, November 28th—"Where Does the Soul Go After Death?"

Sunday, December 5th—"Is There Another Chance After Death?"

Sunday, December 12th—"Does the Bible Teach Eternal Punishment?"

Sunday, December 19th—"Where is Heaven?"

There will be special Advent music. The service will begin at 7.45.

Kalendar for December

December 5—Second Sunday in Advent.
December 12—Third Sunday in Advent.
December 19—Fourth Sunday in Advent.
December 21—St. Thomas.
December 25—CHRISTMAS.
December 26—St. Stephen.
December 27—St. John Evangelist.
December 28—Holy Innocents.

Confirmation Lectures

In January the Rector will begin a course of lectures on Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church. All who are contemplating Confirmation are requested to give their names to the Rector at once. If any have not yet come to a decision and wish to confer with the Rector on the subject he may be seen after any service in Church or by appointment at the Rectory. It is important that the names of those who are to be confirmed be enrolled as soon as possible. The dates of the meetings of the class will be announced in the next issue of the CHIMES.

Church Kalendars for 1921

A limited quantity of the usual Church Kalendars will be on sale with the venger on the first week in December. These Kalendars should be in every home in the parish. At the top of the Kalendar is a cut of Christ Church, a list of the services, etc. The holy days of the Church year are marked by their appropriate colors. The proper lessons for Sundays and holy days, together with the proper psalms, will be found on the back of the Kalendars. They are appropriate for Christmas and New Year's gifts. Price, 35 cents each.

Contributions for Christmas Greens

The members of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew will decorate the Church for Christmas. The Altar Society, assisted by the St. Christopher Guild, will be responsible for the altars. Members of the congregation are asked to contribute for the expenses of the Christmas decorations. Contributions may be given or sent to Mr. Richard H. Morris, 6604 Wayne avenue.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary, the missionary society of the Church, is now holding its regular meetings on the third Thursday of each month. Every woman in the congregation is given this opportunity to help in carrying out Christ's work on earth.

We need your help. If you like to sew, come to the morning session, which starts at half-past 10, and help sew for some charitable object. We bring our lunches with us, and the lunch hour is a very sociable and enjoyable part of the day's program.

At 2 o'clock comes the business meeting, when we hear reports from the mission fields and try to devise some way to raise money to help these devoted workers. This has been most discouraging, as we have received help from comparatively few women in the congregation. At our last meeting it was decided to ask every one to lay aside a certain sum every week and bring it to the Auxiliary meeting on the third Thursday of the month. Envelopes are to be provided, and we earnestly hope that we will meet with a hearty response. No matter how small your offering, it will help in spreading Christ's kingdom on earth. Every woman in the parish is urged to attend these monthly meetings. We guarantee that it will be a most interesting and uplifting experience.

Illustrated Talk on the "Near East"

For many years the people of America have been interested in the conditions existing in that portion of the world known as the "Near East." This interest has been deeply intensified by the World War, and "Bundle Day," just a few weeks ago, doubtless gave many of us an opportunity to develop that interest into personal service.

At the request of the Men's Bible Class, Charles E. Beury, Esq., will give a talk on the "Near East," in the Parish House, on Friday evening, December 10th, at 8 o'clock, illustrated with colored lantern slides.

Mr. Beury has made two trips to this territory in connection with the American Red Cross Relief Commission—one in 1917 and the other in 1919—and thus is able to give information and description from personal experience. During his stay in these countries Mr. Beury took a number of photographs, from which lantern slides have been made, and he has kindly consented to give the people of Christ Church an opportunity of seeing these views and to hear something of his experiences.

The Men's Class cordially invites the men and women of our Parish to be present at this interesting and instructive lecture, for which no admission will be charged, and trusts that appreciation of Mr. Beury's kindness will be expressed by the large attendance—Friday, December 10th.

The Sunday School

With the near approach of those seasons which especially appeal to our Sunday School, Thanksgiving and Christmas, the school is looking forward to making this year one of greater accomplishment than heretofore.

Since the resumption of the regular sessions, after the interesting services in the Church during the summer, the attendance has been gradually rising to our old standard, but there are still some who have not yet returned to their Sunday School home, and just at this time when home reunions are uppermost in the thoughts of so many, would it not be both pleasurable and profitable to have a genuine reunion of all those who are or have been connected with the school?

The invitation is extended to all our former scholars, and especially to those who have recently forgotten either the time or place, to come see what kind of a school is now being held in the Parish House at 9.45 each Sunday morning.

The welcome is already prepared, and it has been made so broad as to cover not only scholars but older folks as well, even if the latter only come as a matter of interest.

By the time this is read the Thanksgiving party will be a matter of history for the school, but we hope it will be a continuing remembrance of the school throughout the winter by the generous gifts which the members are to bring for the needy of the Parish.

Christmas is not so far off, and already plans are being made for the Christmas services and the festivals, and before long the melodies of Christmas carols will be sounding through the school as the scholars commence practicing for their part in the services.

During this fall, and, we hope, continuing throughout the winter, a very helpful feature has been added to our regular course. This is the brief review of the important points of the lesson and drilling in familiarity with the Bible, conducted each Sunday morning by the Rector, and the ready and hearty responses by the scholars are ample evidence of their appreciation of this method and character of instruction.

Our present appeal is for teachers, and to any who have the opportunity the Superintendent can readily show how interesting the work may be made.

There is also ample room in the school for your boy or your girl.

Whichever it is, is he or she there on Sunday morning?

Will you help us by helping him or her to be there next Sunday morning at 9.45 sharp?

U. G. R.

Religious training lasts—forever. Physical training and mental training last only for a time. The one trains the soul, the other flesh and blood—perishing materials. Which deserves the greatest attention? Christ said, "Seek first the Kingdom of God"—seek it for your child as well as yourself.

Altar Guild

The duties of the Altar Guild remain the same throughout the year, but we have resumed our regular monthly business meetings on the second Monday of each month. We regret the absence of our president, Mrs. Baremore, due to illness, but hope soon to have her with us again. The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

December 3-10—Misses Manser, E. Thompson, Mrs. Cotton.

December 10-17—Misses Chase, Alexander, Strien, Parker.

December 17-24—Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

December 24-31—Misses Dean, M. Thompson, Crowder.

Girls' Friendly Society

On Tuesday night, November 2nd, the Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church gave an entertainment under the title of "The Friendly Frolic," for the small amount of 25 cents a ticket. We had an audience which filled the Church School room, each one having come with the same old feeling of martyrdom—that of resignation of sitting through a poky entertainment. Agreeable surprises are always delightful, and we certainly gave that patient audience the surprise of its life.

The programme was opened by a violin solo by Mr. Boltright, a master, indeed, of his instrument, followed by a monologue by Mrs. Coryell, in which she was assisted by our eminent physician-vestryman, Dr. William N. Johnson. Mrs. Coryell kept the audience in peals of laughter, and received a rousing encore.

Other than these two able assistants, the rest of the programme was efficiently rendered by the members of our branch. Two soloists, a recitation, interpretative dancing and a final chorus, accompanied by dancing. The pianist-accompanist was also one of our famous branch.

After the close of the performance the audience was invited to the gymnasium, where music was furnished for dancing by two of our young men from the Church School.

We were all overwhelmed with congratulations at the enjoyable evening we had given, even to the extent of asking us to repeat it, that those who were unfortunate enough to miss it might have a chance to enjoy such a worthwhile affair.

The members of the Girls' Friendly Society wish through the CHIMES to express their heartfelt thanks for the expressions of praise at their maiden efforts, and you may hear from us again.

Men's Bible Class

At the annual election of officers of the Men's Bible Class, held on Thursday evening, November 18th, the following were elected:

President, Fred Lennig; first vice-president, Dr. C. Courtney; second vice-president, James Carmint, Jr.; treasurer, Frank Wilcox; secretary, Robert Feist.

After the election the evening was spent in a social way, and refreshments were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of this class.

Happiness eludes every searcher for it, but comes quickly and abundantly to the one who seeks to bestow it upon someone else. The searcher for happiness may get wealth, and power, and fame, but none of these advantage will avail anything in getting happiness. Even from friends it cannot be obtained, for happiness comes from what is given out rather than from what is gathered in. Loving, unselfish service, the persistent, enthusiastic effort day by day to bring sweetness, light, comfort and goodness into the lives of others, will surely bring happiness into the life of any man, woman or child. No sorrow of heart, no doubt of the future, no restlessness or aimlessness of the present, no loneliness or bitterness of soul, but will yield and be resolved into joy and peace and purpose as soon as the days are filled with labors of love—as soon as the eagerness to get happiness is replaced by an eagerness to give it to others.

Christ's Practice of Prayer

1. To our Lord PRAYER was more important than teaching and healing, for "great multitudes came together to hear and be healed," but He withdrew Himself into the desert and prayed. Lu. 5:15, 16.

2. To our Lord PRAYER was more important than rest, for "in the morning a great while before day He rose up and went out and departed into a desert place and there prayed." Mark 1:35.

3. To our Lord PRAYER was more important than sleep, for "He went out into the mountain to pray and He continued all night in prayer to God." Lu. 6:12.

4. To our Lord PRAYER was more important than the working of miracles, for instead of working a miracle to deliver Peter He said, "I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not." Lu. 22:32.

5. To our Lord PRAYER was more important in securing workers than either money or machinery, for

He said, "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He send forth laborers into His harvest." Matt. 9:38.

6. To our Lord PRAYER was more important to be taught than preaching, for He taught men to pray, but we have no record that He ever taught them to preach. Matt. 6:5-15.

7. To our Lord PRAYER is more important than all other ministries, for "He ever liveth to make intercession for us." Heb. 7:25.

The earthly ministry of our Lord was begun in prayer (Luke 3:21), continued in prayer and ended in prayer (Luke 23:34).

The heavenly ministry of our Lord was begun in prayer (John 14:16, "I will"), and is now continued in prayer (Heb. 7:25).

The lack of prayer is the secret of the Christian's lack of strength, of courage, of inspiration. The lack of prayer is the secret of the failure of the members of the church to measure up to their Christian responsibilities. The lack of prayer is the secret of the falling away into indifference, into worldliness, into sin, of many who formerly led upright Christian lives and rendered faithful Christian service.

Private prayer, alone, in one's room, at one's bedside.

Public prayer, with one's fellow-men, with God's people, in God's House. Private and public prayer, both of these are necessary for the soul's growth, for the soul's unselfish service to God and man. "When thou prayest enter into thy closet," said our Lord. He also said: "My house (temple) shall be called of all nations the House of Prayer."

And the apostle reminds us, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is." It is this "forsaking" of prayer, either of private or public or both, that is the cause of the low ebb of our Christian life; that is the cause of our heartless Christian service. Let us bring back into our lives Christ's practice of prayer.

We Belong to a Church, Not a Parish

We are accustomed to hear the word "Church" applied to a local congregation. We use it loosely ourselves in the same way. But with us, speaking accurately, the Church is our entire communion. The local organization is simply a parish, an outpost, a garrison. A garrison in an outpost does not think of itself as the army. A ship is not the navy. A local postoffice is not the postoffice department. The visit of the Bishop reminds us that we belong to a Church, not to a parish; that we are part of the army, not simply a garrison; that we are enlisted in the navy, not in a ship. The Bishop is the outward and visible sign that we belong to a great, historic, age-long, world-wide institution, which has outposts everywhere, and that we have all its resources back of us and its power within us. Confirmation is not administered by the rector of the parish, who represents only the local congregation. It is administered by the Bishop, who represents the entire Church. We are admitted, therefore, into the communion not of the local congregation or parish. The Bishop's act accomplishes something far wider than that. We are taken into the communion and fellowship of the entire Church throughout the world, including every parish, mission, outpost or garrison under the Church's jurisdiction. That is why we are Churchmen, not Congregationalists. That is why it is that our imagination is stirred and our enthusiasm is kindled by the world-wide institution more than by the local organization. For while we are registered in and attached to a given parish, our citizenship is in the all-including Church.

Epiphany

Epiphany is twelve days after Christmas. In olden times it was often called "twelfth night."

The story of the Epiphany, telling us of the coming of the Magi, who were supposed to be kings, from the Far Eastern country, is the description of the ultimate triumph of the Gospel of the Incarnation, when the nations of men will come with their richest treasures to lay them at the feet of the Christ Child.

In the old Liturgies the Epiphany is called the Feast of Lights.

There is still a ceremony of the Eastern Church, in which all the worshippers come to Church on this day with waxen tapers. The priest first lights his taper from the candles that are burning on the Altar. He then transmits the holy flame to the people, who pass it on from worshipper to worshipper, until the whole edifice is ablaze with the symbolic radiance.

Christ is the Light of the World. But He shines not merely as a great independent luminary above all men's eyes, but in the thousands of lesser lights which are continually kindling in others the flame of devotion to Him.

Three Holy Days after Christmas

Three days following Christmas are dedicated to three sacred events: First, on December 26th, is commemorated The Martyrdom of St. Stephen. This day has been commemorated since the fourth century. In the Greek Church the Festival is a day later than it is in ours. In addition to the reasons given above for its position in the Calendar, it has been said that "Christ was born on earth in order that Stephen might be born in heaven." Thus this, the anniversary of his martyrdom, is also, in a higher sense, the anniversary of his birth.

On December 27th occurs The Feast of St. John the Evangelist. Then we remember the fisherman John, the son of Zebedee and Salome, the brother of James, the partner in the earthly business of Simon and Andrew; and we see what grace made him. We remember how he was called and obeyed the call; how he abode with Christ after the tenth hour on that memorable day; how he became a fisher of men; how he was styled a son of thunder; how he was admitted to be the beloved disciple; how he leaned on that bosom;

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title 11: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

.....
Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

how he stood by the cross; how he made it is his business to house the Virgin-mother; how he grew and expanded and was perfected, waxed riper, and more and more reflected the image of his Master, received and diffused light; how he suffered for the truth; had heaven opened to him at Patmos, and tarried to such an old age that men thought he would live on till Christ came, all the time doing his Lord's work, ordering the Church after his Lord's mind, teaching, reclaiming, ruling, refuting error, declaring the truth by word and writing to the end.

On December 28th is celebrated the Martyrdom of the Innocents, which was anciently commemorated at the Epiphany; the date of its first observance as a separate festival is not known. The Innocents have always been regarded by the Church as martyrs, they having, though unwittingly, shed their blood for Christ. (See St. Matt. 2:16-17.)

The Star

Once upon a time Almighty God placed in the heavens a new and wonderful star and—mystery beyond all other mysteries—revealed it only unto kings.

Nobody saw that star except the kings; but they set out to follow whither it would lead, and it led them straight to the manger in which lay the new-born Child, who came to reign over them in love.

Now comes again the time of the Star and the time of the Child.

There is no path to peace but the path through which the Star will lead.

The nations tried another path; and it led away from peace.

Who Can Answer These Questions?

Not everyone who considers himself a "good Churchman" is thoroughly acquainted with the contents of the Prayer Book. No one who has not thoroughly studied the Prayer Book and knows something, at least, of its history, can be considered a "good Churchman."

As an incentive to the study of the contents of the Prayer Book the following list of questions has been arranged. The answer of every question in the list may be found in the Prayer Book. How many scholars in the Church School, how many persons in the Parish, are able to answer them all?

The Rector will present a copy of the new (revised) Church Hymnal to any member of the Church School and a subscriber to the CHIMES, who will write out in full the correct answers to the following questions, stating, if possible, the page in the Prayer Book where the answer may be found.

All papers must be sent to the Rector before the first Sunday in January. Here are the questions:

From what date has the American Prayer Book been used?

Was the whole present book set forth for use at the same time?

What part of the book was added last?

What Psalms are said on the 31st day of the month?

When is the Venite not to be said in Morning Prayer?

Where is it indicated that the people should not join in saying a Psalm?

What other name is given to the Sixth Sunday in Lent?

When is Holy Thursday?

How is Easter found each year?

How do you find the "Golden Number" or "Prime"?

If the President or Governor should fail to appoint Thanksgiving Day what would the Church observe?

What Feast has three tithes?

What Collect, Epistle and Gospel are ordinarily said on a week day?

What Sunday Collect may be used for only three days?

Which Collects are addressed to our Lord?

What days have two Collects, Epistles and Gospels?

When must the Nicene Creed be said?

When must the Creed be said in interrogative form?

Is there anything in the Communion Office to indicate that the people should stay until the end of the service?

If the Bishop is present in the Chancel at the Communion, what part of the service must he take?

Where may the Communion Table be placed if not in the Chancel?

In what service is the word "Altar" used?

When does the sermon come before the Communion Office?

Where is the Holy Communion called the "Eucharist?"

Who is directed to control the music?

Why should a Bishop be able to sing?

Where is given permission to sing an anthem?

To what person in the Trinity are most of the petitions addressed?

Where are the prayers appointed to be said by single persons who cannot meet with others?

What prayers are directed to be said by either a man or a woman?

What prayer is named for a Saint?

How many forms of Absolution are given? Of Blessings?

What methods of Baptism are allowed?

How soon are parents told to bring their children to Baptism?

If a sick child, baptized at home, should live, what ought to be done?

How are adults told to prepare themselves for Baptism?

If a child should not know his Catechism, what should the parents do?

How is the Priest to know if any one is sick?

Where is it said that "from the Apostles' time there have been three orders of ministry—Bishops, Priests and Deacons?"

How long must a Deacon remain in office?

How is a Bishop to be addressed in Divine Service?

When does a Minister enter upon a service without being completely vested?

Where is the Lord's Prayer directed to be said by the Minister alone?

At what services only is it directed that there shall be a sermon?

What Rubric directs how a woman should be dressed?

When is the Te Deum allowed as a special act of thanksgiving?

Upon what three occasions may a member of the congregation interrupt the service?

Where do you find directions that the officiant pause, so that the people may make secret prayer?

In what service is it required to have the keys of the church?

In what prayer is reference made to the Apostolic Succession?

How far does the American Church intend to depart from the Church of England?

What Holy Days have no special evening service?

Services on Christmas Day

The services on Christmas Day will be Holy Communion, 6.30, 7.30 A. M.; Shortened Morning Prayer, Holy Communion, Sermon, 11.00 A. M. An at-all service will be Clergy Pension Fund. The annual assessment of Christ Church for this worthy object is $315.00. A special envelope for the Pension Fund will be found in the package of envelopes. Persons who may be absent from services on Christmas Day are asked to give their offering at a subsequent service.

"While we have time, let us do good unto all men; and especially unto them that are of the household of faith." Gal. 6:10.

Christmas Music

The music on Christmas Day will include the following:

Processional Hymn 56—"Christian, awake! Salute the happy morn."

Venite—Savage.

Te Deum in F.—Tours.

Kyrie Eleison—Steane.

Gloria Tibi—Steane.

Hymn 51—"Hark, the herald angels sing!"

Hymn.

Gloria in Excelsis—Steane.

Retrocessional 49—"Oh, come, all ye faithful."

Church School's Christmas Service

The Christmas service of the Church Schools will be held in the Church on Sunday afternoon, December 26th, at 3.30. In addition to the singing of the Christmas Carols, a "Pageant" will be given in the Church, entitled "Advance the Line."

This "Pageant" or "Religious Drama" will be an impressive and reverent presentation of vital Christian teachings. Those who take part in the "Pageant" will represent "the Verger," "the Messenger," "Soul of the Parish, and three Angels," "The Spirit of Love and Light," "The Spirit of Love and Faith," "The Spirit of Love and Obedience."

Christmas Greens

Persons who wish to contribute to the Christmas decorations of the Church are asked to give or send their contributions to Richard H. Morris, 6460 Wayne Avenue.

Midnight Service in Christ Church

The usual midnight service will be held in Christ Church on New Year's Eve, beginning at eleven o'clock. The Church will be open all evening for private devotion.

On New Year's Day—"Feast of the Circumcision"—there will be celebration of the Holy Communion at 9.30 A. M.

Confirmation Class Forming

All persons who desire to join the Confirmation Class are requested to give their names to the Rector. Classes are now forming and instructions on Confirmation will soon be given by the Rector. Any who wish to confer with the Rector on the subject of Confirmation may do so after any service or by appointment.

The Women's Auxiliary

The next meeting of the Women's Auxiliary will be held on Thursday, December 16th. These are "all-day meetings," from 10.30 A. M. to 4 P. M. The members bring their lunch with them to the Parish House. The mornings are devoted to sewing for missions. At two o'clock reports are read from the delegates and general business is transacted. At three o'clock some missionary or other speaker generally addresses the meeting.

It is hoped that more women in the Parish will attend these meetings. The January meeting will be held Thursday, January 20th, the third Thursday of every month. Come for all or any part of the day.

Men's Bible Class Has Found Itself!

Due to the combined efforts of the new Officers and several untiring Committeemen the Class is once again on a firm foundation and taking an active part in the welfare of the Parish.

President Frederick Lennig certainly is a hustler and, with Treasurer Frank Wilcox, make a pair that can't be beaten—results show this as the Class is growing every week. Last Sunday we had forty-three members present and this week expect to go above the fifty mark.

Not only is the attendance growing but the various functions which the Class is going to hold show that it is not asleep.

First of all, there is the Illustrated Lecture on the "Near East," by Charles E. Beury, Esq., Friday evening, December 10th. No admission will be charged and everyone is welcomed to attend.

On Thursday, December 16th, the Class will give a Christmas Party. According to Mr. Cotton this will be the best ever held. So, men, don't miss it—everyone will receive a present.

On Sunday, December 19th, we are going to visit our former teacher, the Reverend Richard Gurley, at Radnor, Pa., at which place we will have dinner after attending the Church services. Automobiles will be ready at 2.30 P. M. to take us over. Mr. Gurley will be glad to see all who care to go.

Several other functions are being considered and discussed, full details of which will be given in the next issue.

All men welcomed to our Class! Meets Sunday mornings, 9.45.

HERBERT A. FEIST,
Secretary.

Girls' Friendly Society

We have been having such wonderful meetings of the Friendly on Tuesday nights this year that we feel as if we are very important. The girls all come and all have good times, too.

After our huge success in the "Friendly Frolic" we decided to try another stunt. That stunt was the benefit which was held at the Germantown Theatre during the week of November 29th. We really did very well with this benefit.

And, now, like many others just at present, we are looking ahead toward Christmas. And in preparation for that great event we are "compiling" several pairs of stockings filled with toys and goodies which are to be sent to the Philadelphia Hospital. Besides this we always fill a basket for a poor family, so we have some work ahead of us. Also I have heard rumors of a Christmas party for the Friendly. So, any girls on the outside, come on and get in and help us work and have a good time.

Cast

Spirits—Misses Johnson, Spooner and Hagy

Soul of the Parish—Mr. Baxter and

Messenger—Rev. Mr. Goodman (whom we all know from last summer)

We want every member present and also bring our parents and friends, so the Church will be full to the doors.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS In the Parish House

Primary Department, Tuesday afternoon, December 28th, 3.00 o'clock.

Main School, Tuesday evening, December 28th, 7.45 o'clock.

The Sunday School wishes a very Happy Christmas to our parents and to members of our Church, and will you not show your interest in our school by joining with us in our service and entertainments.

R. H. M.

The Mothers' Christmas Dinner

The Christmas dinner of the Mothers' Meeting will be held the forepart of January. The date will be announced later and the usual good time can be promised to all the members.

The Mothers' Meeting is held every Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the Parish House.

A Men's Supper

A supper for the men of the Parish will be held the middle of January. Prominent speakers will be present and all men of the Parish and their men friends are invited to be present. The date of this dinner will be announced later.

Subscribers and Contributors to THE CHIMES

Since the last issue the following persons have sent their subscriptions or contributions to THE CHIMES. The letter "s" denotes subscription; the letter "c" denotes contribution:

c Mrs. A. T. Flower, c John Davidson, c J. I. Morrison, s Mrs. Charles Wismer, s Miss Seiler, s Mrs. C. E. Fischer, c Mrs. Anna Warner, s Mrs. Henrietta Straub, c C. F. Lackman, c Miss Rebecca Geib, c Mrs. Benjamin Miller.

We are looking for more subscriptions and contributions before the next issue of THE CHIMES.

The Rev. Richard Wallace Hogue, formerly rector of the Church of the Ascension, Baltimore, and at present Executive Secretary of "The Church League of Industrial Democracy," will preach in Christ Church, Sunday morning, December 26th. Mr. Hogue will assist the Rector in the services on Christmas Day.

The Sunday School

Our Thanksgiving party has come and gone and every one said it was a big success, and mothers had to stay very late to take our little ones home.

Mr. Arndt says we gave about 550 cans or packages of food, or over one and one-half times as many as we gave last year.

After depositing our gifts we had a Song Fest and the next Sunday our singing in school was better than for a long time. Let us keep it up. We wound up with an hour's play, led by Mr. Cotton, to whom the success of the entire evening is largely due.

Our Advent work is to support for one more year our three orphans in France. Let us put aside something each week and bring it in on the Sunday morning after Christmas and ask fathers and mothers to help.

Epiphany

The next great festival after Christmas is the Epiphany, celebrated at the opening of the natural year. It stood for the manifestation of light to the world, when Christ, after His baptism, began to teach and to preach. From the Eastern Church, where it originated, it was carried to the West in the early part of the fourth century. As first observed in the East, it had a two-fold character; it commemorated in a subordinate way the birth of Christ, while it placed the chief stress upon that impressive moment of His Baptism when Christ began His mission as the light of the world, by the proclamation of the truth; so that His birth and the preceding years of His life were but a preparation for the fulfillment of the incarnation, as also His manifestation was addressed to the reason and conscience. But when the Feast of the Epiphany was carried into the West, its interpretation was so changed that it almost lost its identity with the festival as it was kept in the East. In the Western interpretation, the manifestation of Christ is no longer presented as the natural consciousness of His mission, for which baptism was the inauguration; but the visit of the kings to the infant Christ is substituted as the real Epiphany or manifestation, when nature also appears as in sympathy with the new revelation, and a star in the heavens discloses a Saviour to the world. The idea of revelation as light which was the favorite conception of the Eastern Church becomes in the West a physical light, and the manifestation of Christ is in and through the miracle.—A. V. G. ALLEN.

The Epiphany Star

Oh, be sure all the universe tells of Christ and leads to Christ. Rightly those ancient Magians deemed, in believing that God was worshipped truly in that august temple. The stars preach the mind of Christ. Not as of old, when a mystic star guided their feet to Bethlehem, but now, to the mind of the astronomer, they tell of eternal order and harmony; they speak of changeless law, where no caprice reigns. You may calculate the star's return; and to the day and hour and minute it will be there. This is the fidelity of God. These mute masses obey the law impressed upon them by their Creator's hand unconsciously; and that law is the law of their own nature. To understand the laws of our nature, and consciously and reverently to obey them, that is the mind of Christ, the sublimest spirit of the Gospel.—ROBERTSON.

The festival of the Epiphany was originally viewed in the Eastern Church as a commemoration of our Saviour's manifestation to the world in a wide sense; including, that is, His Nativity, or His manifestation in the flesh, together with the manifestation of the Trinity at His Baptism.

In the Western Church, on the other hand, the Nativity always appears to have been celebrated as a separate festival; and in their commemoration of the Epiphany it is the manifestation to the Magi that is mostly dwelt upon.

RECTOR

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M.A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A.M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P.M. " AT HOME, SATURDAY EVENING

Publication of the "Chimes"

Owing to change of publishers, the issuance of the CHIMES has been delayed this month. It is hoped that hereafter the CHIMES will be published regularly on the third Sunday in the month. All parish societies must have their copy in hand at least one week before date of publication. This number of the CHIMES does not contain the usual monthly reports of the Parish Guilds, on account of the uncertainty of the date of publication. Other matters of importance are also omitted. The next issue of the CHIMES will have some important announcements.

With this issue begins the twenty-first volume of the CHIMES. In other words, the CHIMES has been published continuously, without any omission, for twenty successive years. This is a long and honorable record. Only they who have had experience in such work realize the amount of labor and patience required. It is purely a labor of love. The price of subscription, fifty cents a year, has remained the same, notwithstanding the cost of publication has been tripled. The CHIMES, therefore, depends not only upon the subscriptions but also upon the generous contributions of the members of the congregation. New subscriptions and contributions will be welcomed with this number.

Without the generous support of the advertisers the expense of publication of the CHIMES could not be met. The firms whose advertisements appear in the CHIMES have been selected as representing the best and most reliable in their respective lines of business in Germantown. Readers of the CHIMES are asked to look over the list of advertisers and to patronize these firms whenever possible.

The ecclesiastical year commences on Advent Sunday, which is always the nearest Sunday to St. Andrew's Day (November 30th). Hence, the latter is sometimes at the beginning, sometimes at the end of the ecclesiastical year. The first part—from Advent to Trinity—is devoted to a commemoration of the various events in the early life of our Saviour, which formed part of His great work, viz.: His Incarnation Manifestation to the Gentiles, Fasting and Temptation, Crucifixion, Resurrection and Ascension; the Descent of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost and the Revelation of the great mystery of Trinity.

The second part of the year—from Trinity onward—is appropriated to a consideration of our practical duties as members of Christ, founded on those doctrines in which we have previously been instructed. Hence, we have a complete cycle of Christian teaching for the year, independent of the instruction received from the pulpit. The advantages thus secured are obvious. The congregation is not left entirely dependent on the teaching of the preacher and yet the latter has suggested to him subjects of discourse to which he may return year after year without fear of exhausting them.

Advent is a season of self-examination and earnest prayer. Whilst we commemorate the first coming of our Blessed Lord and meditate on His second, we are thus prepared for the right enjoyment of the approaching festival of the Nativity. The Collects, Epistles and Gospels are appointed with a view to this. The Collects may be said to form a series. In them Christ is alluded to as coming (1) in Person, (2) in His Word, (3) by His ministers and (4) by His Spirit. The Epistles are explanatory of the Collects. The Gospels are (1) a parable, so to speak, of Christ's coming to judge, (2) a description of that coming, (3) our Lord's testimony to John the Baptist as the herald of His first coming, (4) John's testimony concerning himself.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY—This is one of the most ancient of the festivals commemorative of the Apostles. It may fall either at the beginning or the end of the ecclesiastical year, but generally it is the former.

There is a certain propriety in St. Andrew being commemorated first of all the Apostles, he having been one of the first to follow Christ. See John i, 40. Hence his ancient name of Protocletos (First Called). He is remarkable, too, as having been the first of the Apostles who did missionary work; he brought his own brother Simon to Christ. This fact also may have had something to do with the place given to him in the calendar; certainly it seems to have governed the choice of the Epistle, which contains St. Paul's great missionary argument, ver. 11-16. The Gospel is the account of his formal call. He was crucified by order of Aegeas, Pro-Consul of Achaia, after having been terribly scourged. The cross on which he was bound (not nailed) is generally affirmed to have been in the shape of the letter X.

The Festival of St. Thomas, which occurs on the 21st of this month, is of very ancient date. The Collect has the leading idea drawn from a Homily of St. Gregory, when he says: "That by this doubting of St. Thomas we are more confirmed in our belief than by the faith of the other Apostles." It is recorded by Eusebius that after the day of Pentecost and the gift of tongues, the Apostles were scattered abroad, and that St. Thomas was sent to the Parthians, Medes, Persians and Chaldeans, founding churches among them till he penetrated into India. The Christians of St. Thomas, a remarkable religious community, still bear witness to his labors in that distant land; they are settled along the Malabar coast of the Indian peninsula. To the north also there seem to be relics of the Christian faith preached by St. Thomas mixed with the strange religion of Thibet. St. Thomas was martyred at a place called Taprobane. Having been at first assailed with stones, he was at last killed by the thrust of a spear, thus offering a comparison to the words of our Lord to him: "Reach hither thy hand and thrust it into my side." It was not granted to St. Thomas to have his courageous aspirations fulfilled to die with Christ, but to die for His cause. It is related that the Portuguese found an ancient inscription in Meliapore, purporting that St. Thomas had been pierced with a lance at the foot of a cross, which he had erected in that city, and that in 1523 A. D. his body was found there and transported to Goa. It would appear that St. Thomas traveled farther than any of the Apostles, and preached to various nations of different languages, showing that as his incredulity was great, so was his faith great in proportion. When painted alone or with the other Apostles, his attribute is always a builder's rule or square, and for this reason he is called the patron of architects and builders.

Behold! Thy King Cometh

It seems very natural to us to ask why the account of Christ's entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday should be read as the Gospel for Advent Sunday. At first sight it looks very like a displacement of the Gospel history, for on Advent Sunday we are thinking of the two extreme points, if we may so term them, of the relationship which the Lord Jesus bears to us, the one of His coming to take our nature upon Him nineteen centuries ago, and the other when He shall come to judge us hereafter; when we suddenly find ourselves in the very midst of His earthly life, at nothing less than its crisis, when He has wrought his greatest recorded miracle, and is consciously on His way to die. What, then, we feel inclined to ask, is the connection between this entry into Jerusalem and Christ's advent, whether on the occasion of His taking our nature upon Himself, or His still future advent, in the clouds of heaven, as Judge of the quick and dead? Might it not have been better, we may ask, as is the case in some of the churches of Christendom, to have chosen the Gospel for today from some passage in which our Lord describes His second coming, such, for instance, as the Gospel for Sunday next? This is what some of us may think, but these old liturgical arrangements were made by people who knew very well what they were about. They have been continued to our day, because they have been found, by the experience of some thirteen or fourteen centuries, to have a deep lesson for the human soul.

This Gospel is chosen because it brings before us two great truths; not only that of the first coming of our Divine Saviour into the world but of His coming to the judgment. Passages of Scripture describing either of these momentous events would be obviously appropriate, but to do justice to the solemn time upon which we now enter we require to keep these two truths clearly before the eye of the soul.

Christmas Giving and Buying

It not infrequently happens that the spirit of the world seizes upon Christian festivals and perverts them from their original purposes and to some extent makes them evils rather than the un-mixed blessings they were intended to be. Holy days have too often become mere holidays and anything but holy to many of those observing them. Christmas has suffered especially through the exaggerated development of the originally harmless custom of exchanging gifts at that season, which has now reached the point where the custom has become a burden to many, giving pleasure neither to the giver nor the recipient, and, because of the tendency of the great majority of shoppers to put off their purchases until the last day or hours, Christmas has become for the shopkeepers and their employees the most dreaded season of the year. It is certainly lamentable that the observance of the anniversary of the coming of God's Son to earth, as a pledge of God's good will to men, should bring anything but peace and joy to any of His children; and as the Episcopal Church in this country has had more influence than any other religious body in preserving the festival of Christmas and bringing about its general observance (not any of the denominations, a generation ago, held religious services on Christmas—some do not today), the Church should take the lead in all proper efforts to make Christmas a religious festival, a happy time for all and a hard time for none. Two movements deserve the support of Church people—that represented by the Society for Preventing Useless Giving at Christmas and the "shop early" movement. The latter movement accomplished a great deal last Christmas in lightening the labors of thousands of salespeople, and should accomplish even more this year not only in the great cities but in the smaller towns as well. To endeavor to bear one another's burdens is to fulfill the law of Christ.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

to their knees. And then he dwelt upon the power of worship:

"Worship of the mysterious and yet simple God is the greatest and most vital activity of human life, coloring and invigorating and giving point to all other activities. Worship is languishing with us, in part, I think, because we have tried to make our services attractive to men, instead of attractive to God, and partly because we try to give to men, by preaching, a knowledge of God that can best come through worship in sacrament and prayer. I am assured by those who have a right to speak that our churches are frequented more than formerly by people who know the meaning and value of worship.

For more than two years I have been going in and out of the churches in France. Those churches are places of worship through which a ceaseless stream of worshippers flow—the brave poilu, in his war-stained and faded blue uniform, the little children, the sad-faced widow and the aged peasant. They go to meet God. There may be no service to join in, no preacher to listen to, but they know God is in His holy temple always, and they are well content to talk to Him and be talked to by Him.

"Two years ago last Sunday I went to the little village of Neuilly-sur-Suize in the afternoon. There was the sound of singing in the little sixteenth century church on the hill, which I often visited. The cure was away at the war, but all the villagers were there singing vespers. They were gathered to pay homage in worship to the ever-present God.

A TOUCHING ILLUSTRATION

"A colonial chaplain tells of an incident from his experience in the Amiens Cathedral. 'Presently,' he says, 'my eyes caught sight of two figures a dozen yards away to the right—a little before me, but not so much that I could not see their faces. They were sitting perfectly still, hand in hand, and one could read their story plainly enough. She was a young woman of the poorer class, but well dressed, and he was a soldier in the uniform of the French line, and, what was more, his whole kit was there, significantly, too. I have no doubt whatever that they had slipped into the Cathedral on the way to the station.

"As I watched, she said something, and knelt forward on the prie-Dieu before her. He stood up, as the French soldier does. Then she began to pray for him to hear, and I could catch a murmur. His eyes were fixed on the altar, and never wavered from first to last, but she hid hers in her hands after a little. Also her voice rose with the passion of her prayer, and soon one knew that she was weeping. At last, she prayed loudly enough for me to catch the words, in French, of course, but I could understand that well-known prayer, and marvel at the simplicity of her so slight change in it.

"Soul of Christ, sanctify him;

Body of Christ, save him . . ."

So she went on, until:

"Within Thy wounds hide him,"

she cried, and could say no more for sobs.

"And while I saw dimly and waited for I knew not what, when the man's voice broke calmly and steadily in, without even a hint of passion or of fear:

"In the hour of my death, call me
And bid me come to Thee,
That with Thy saints I may praise Thee
For ever and ever. Amen."

"And then, like the victor that he was, there, in God's house, and all unashamed before His High Majesty, he lifted the woman to her feet and turned her face to his, and kissed her long upon the lips.

"Oh, my God, how fine a thing can human nature be! It was no disgrace for You to share it. It has that in it which can look across the worst that earth can do, and gather up its dearest into its arms, and go forward—to You."

"May God teach us how to worship, that others, too, may worship Him in spirit and in truth."

The Value of Parish Work to the Worker

There is a very great value in parish work to the worker. One who stands on the outside and has not "part nor lot" in the activities of the parish—is merely named on the register as "belonging to the parish"—cannot realize that a very real value to the individual exists.

The word "work" to the uninitiated all too often means something arduous, something to be avoided; but when one considers that work and happiness are inseparable, it is strange more do not find their work and their happiness. Each individual member of a parish bears a responsibility for a certain part of the Church's work, and has a talent intended for use. A great deal depends upon the use made of opportunities.

Activity creates interest. As there can be no activity without mind and body, so there can be no interest without heart. As soon as this factor enters, it all ceases to be work in the popular meaning of the term, and great good comes to the worker—in happiness derived, the feeling of being necessary to the great whole, the sense of power and dependableness; all of which will be found to work out in this wise—that the more one does the greater the desire grows to do something more.

Then comes a deepening and broadening of character—a worker must look upon the world differently. Coming into close relation with fellow-workers gives a wider outlook. Too many to mention are the elements for the strengthening and upbuilding of character which enter in this contact. They extend soul-deep.

It has been said: "What we pray for we work for," and as truly it can be said, what we work for we pray for; and what we work and pray for we stand for; here is a test of our loyalty and a deepening of our spiritual life.

Parish work done with any right motive must have its value; but many times is that value increased if there is a deep, underlying sense for WHOM it is all done, a belief in the Church and the fundamental principles for which the Church stands. Then, with the growth in character and influence, there will be also a splendid growth in true Churchmanship; ideals will be higher, and there will come the "Vision."

A COURSE OF ADVENT SERMONS "The State of the Dead"

The Rector will deliver a course of four sermons on the Sunday evenings in Advent on the subject, "The State of the Dead." The course will begin on Sunday evening, November 28th. The subjects treated in the course will be as follows:

Sunday, November 28th—"Where Does the Soul Go After Death?"

Sunday, December 5th—"Is There Another Chance After Death?"

Sunday, December 12th—"Does the Bible Teach Eternal Punishment?"

Sunday, December 19th—"Where is Heaven?"

There will be special Advent music. The service will begin at 7.45.

Kalendar for December

December 5—Second Sunday in Advent.
December 12—Third Sunday in Advent.
December 19—Fourth Sunday in Advent.
December 21—St. Thomas.
December 25—CHRISTMAS.
December 26—St. Stephen.
December 27—St. John Evangelist.
December 28—Holy Innocents.

Confirmation Lectures

In January the Rector will begin a course of lectures on Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church. All who are contemplating Confirmation are requested to give their names to the Rector at once. If any have not yet come to a decision and wish to confer with the Rector on the subject he may be seen after any service in Church or by appointment at the Rectory. It is important that the names of those who are to be confirmed be enrolled as soon as possible. The dates of the meetings of the class will be announced in the next issue of the CHIMES.

Church Kalendars for 1921

A limited quantity of the usual Church Kalendars will be on sale with the venger on the first week in December. These Kalendars should be in every home in the parish. At the top of the Kalendar is a cut of Christ Church, a list of the services, etc. The holy days of the Church year are marked by their appropriate colors. The proper lessons for Sundays and holy days, together with the proper psalms, will be found on the back of the Kalendars. They are appropriate for Christmas and New Year's gifts. Price, 35 cents each.

Contributions for Christmas Greens

The members of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew will decorate the Church for Christmas. The Altar Society, assisted by the St. Christopher Guild, will be responsible for the altars. Members of the congregation are asked to contribute for the expenses of the Christmas decorations. Contributions may be given or sent to Mr. Richard H. Morris, 6604 Wayne avenue.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary, the missionary society of the Church, is now holding its regular meetings on the third Thursday of each month. Every woman in the congregation is given this opportunity to help in carrying out Christ's work on earth.

We need your help. If you like to sew, come to the morning session, which starts at half-past 10, and help sew for some charitable object. We bring our lunches with us, and the lunch hour is a very sociable and enjoyable part of the day's program.

At 2 o'clock comes the business meeting, when we hear reports from the mission fields and try to devise some way to raise money to help these devoted workers. This has been most discouraging, as we have received help from comparatively few women in the congregation. At our last meeting it was decided to ask every one to lay aside a certain sum every week and bring it to the Auxiliary meeting on the third Thursday of the month. Envelopes are to be provided, and we earnestly hope that we will meet with a hearty response. No matter how small your offering, it will help in spreading Christ's kingdom on earth. Every woman in the parish is urged to attend these monthly meetings. We guarantee that it will be a most interesting and uplifting experience.

Illustrated Talk on the "Near East"

For many years the people of America have been interested in the conditions existing in that portion of the world known as the "Near East." This interest has been deeply intensified by the World War, and "Bundle Day," just a few weeks ago, doubtless gave many of us an opportunity to develop that interest into personal service.

At the request of the Men's Bible Class, Charles E. Beury, Esq., will give a talk on the "Near East," in the Parish House, on Friday evening, December 10th, at 8 o'clock, illustrated with colored lantern slides.

Mr. Beury has made two trips to this territory in connection with the American Red Cross Relief Commission—one in 1917 and the other in 1919—and thus is able to give information and description from personal experience. During his stay in these countries Mr. Beury took a number of photographs, from which lantern slides have been made, and he has kindly consented to give the people of Christ Church an opportunity of seeing these views and to hear something of his experiences.

The Men's Class cordially invites the men and women of our Parish to be present at this interesting and instructive lecture, for which no admission will be charged, and trusts that appreciation of Mr. Beury's kindness will be expressed by the large attendance—Friday, December 10th.

The Sunday School

With the near approach of those seasons which especially appeal to our Sunday School, Thanksgiving and Christmas, the school is looking forward to making this year one of greater accomplishment than heretofore.

Since the resumption of the regular sessions, after the interesting services in the Church during the summer, the attendance has been gradually rising to our old standard, but there are still some who have not yet returned to their Sunday School home, and just at this time when home reunions are uppermost in the thoughts of so many, would it not be both pleasurable and profitable to have a genuine reunion of all those who are or have been connected with the school?

The invitation is extended to all our former scholars, and especially to those who have recently forgotten either the time or place, to come see what kind of a school is now being held in the Parish House at 9.45 each Sunday morning.

The welcome is already prepared, and it has been made so broad as to cover not only scholars but older folks as well, even if the latter only come as a matter of interest.

By the time this is read the Thanksgiving party will be a matter of history for the school, but we hope it will be a continuing remembrance of the school throughout the winter by the generous gifts which the members are to bring for the needy of the Parish.

Christmas is not so far off, and already plans are being made for the Christmas services and the festivals, and before long the melodies of Christmas carols will be sounding through the school as the scholars commence practicing for their part in the services.

During this fall, and, we hope, continuing throughout the winter, a very helpful feature has been added to our regular course. This is the brief review of the important points of the lesson and drilling in familiarity with the Bible, conducted each Sunday morning by the Rector, and the ready and hearty responses by the scholars are ample evidence of their appreciation of this method and character of instruction.

Our present appeal is for teachers, and to any who have the opportunity the Superintendent can readily show how interesting the work may be made.

There is also ample room in the school for your boy or your girl.

Whichever it is, is he or she there on Sunday morning?

Will you help us by helping him or her to be there next Sunday morning at 9.45 sharp?

U. G. R.

Religious training lasts—forever. Physical training and mental training last only for a time. The one trains the soul, the other flesh and blood—perishing materials. Which deserves the greatest attention? Christ said, "Seek first the Kingdom of God"—seek it for your child as well as yourself.

Altar Guild

The duties of the Altar Guild remain the same throughout the year, but we have resumed our regular monthly business meetings on the second Monday of each month. We regret the absence of our president, Mrs. Baremore, due to illness, but hope soon to have her with us again. The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

December 3-10—Misses Manser, E. Thompson, Mrs. Cotton.

December 10-17—Misses Chase, Alexander, Strien, Parker.

December 17-24—Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

December 24-31—Misses Dean, M. Thompson, Crowder.

Girls' Friendly Society

On Tuesday night, November 2nd, the Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church gave an entertainment under the title of "The Friendly Frolic," for the small amount of 25 cents a ticket. We had an audience which filled the Church School room, each one having come with the same old feeling of martyrdom—that of resignation of sitting through a poky entertainment. Agreeable surprises are always delightful, and we certainly gave that patient audience the surprise of its life.

The programme was opened by a violin solo by Mr. Boltright, a master, indeed, of his instrument, followed by a monologue by Mrs. Coryell, in which she was assisted by our eminent physician-vestryman, Dr. William N. Johnson. Mrs. Coryell kept the audience in peals of laughter, and received a rousing encore.

Other than these two able assistants, the rest of the programme was efficiently rendered by the members of our branch. Two soloists, a recitation, interpretative dancing and a final chorus, accompanied by dancing. The pianist-accompanist was also one of our famous branch.

After the close of the performance the audience was invited to the gymnasium, where music was furnished for dancing by two of our young men from the Church School.

We were all overwhelmed with congratulations at the enjoyable evening we had given, even to the extent of asking us to repeat it, that those who were unfortunate enough to miss it might have a chance to enjoy such a worthwhile affair.

The members of the Girls' Friendly Society wish through the CHIMES to express their heartfelt thanks for the expressions of praise at their maiden efforts, and you may hear from us again.

Men's Bible Class

At the annual election of officers of the Men's Bible Class, held on Thursday evening, November 18th, the following were elected:

President, Fred Lennig; first vice-president, Dr. C. Courtney; second vice-president, James Carmint, Jr.; treasurer, Frank Wilcox; secretary, Robert Feist.

After the election the evening was spent in a social way, and refreshments were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of this class.

RECTOR

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M.A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY AT HOME, SATURDAY EVENING
6.00 to 8.00 P. M. "

Love—the Spirit of Christmas

What else should be in our thoughts at this most holy time, than the love of Christ? Of all the news that could be brought to us what so good as this, that unto us is born, as at this time, "a Saviour which is Christ the Lord?" God's love toward man, man's love toward God—this is the Christmas message. Love, Love, Love! "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son." "If God so loved us, we ought to love one another."

At this Christmas season, this season of "Love," the apostle's command must be literally obeyed or else the spirit of Christmas cannot enter into our hearts:

"Let all bitterness and wrath and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice; and be ye kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God, for Christ's sake, hath forgiven you."

If this is the spirit, the "spirit of Jesus," that shall possess our hearts this Christmas time, then indeed it will be to all who possesseth it a happy, a truly happy Christmas Day.

Christmas Communion

On Christmas Day every Churchman will wish to come to the House of God and there, as did the wise men of old, kneel before the Saviour in love and adoration. Christmas without Christ?—no Christian man or woman will cherish the thought! The very word "Christmas" means meeting with Christ. Christmas is not a wordly holiday but a Christian festival. It is the feast when the Christ—Mass, the mass of the Incarnate Word, is kept with joy. Surely on that day we will not forget Him! The wise men brought gold and frankincense and myrrh to Bethlehem—offering of their earthly substance, offerings of worship and adoration; offerings of lowly penitence and love for Him in His humiliation for our sakes. On this happy Christmas Day there will be gifts for our loved ones, offerings for our spiritual mother, the Church, and offerings of "ourselves, our souls and bodies" in the Holy Communion for the building up of ourselves more and more into the spiritual likeness of Him Who came to us on Christmas Day to be our Saviour and our King.

That every communicant may have an opportunity of coming to the Holy Communion on Christmas Day, there will be, as usual, three celebrations on that day, 6.30, 7.30, 11.00 A. M. Every communicant, who is physically able, will want to come to, at least, one service on Christmas Day. There can be no Christmas without Christ. The happiest Christmas is the one that is filled with Christ and His love!

Happiness eludes every searcher for it, but comes quickly and abundantly to the one who seeks to bestow it upon someone else. The searcher for happiness may get wealth, and power, and fame, but none of these advantage will avail anything in getting happiness. Even from friends it cannot be obtained, for happiness comes from what is given out rather than from what is gathered in. Loving, unselfish service, the persistent, enthusiastic effort day by day to bring sweetness, light, comfort and goodness into the lives of others, will surely bring happiness into the life of any man, woman or child. No sorrow of heart, no doubt of the future, no restlessness or aimlessness of the present, no loneliness or bitterness of soul, but will yield and be resolved into joy and peace and purpose as soon as the days are filled with labors of love—as soon as the eagerness to get happiness is replaced by an eagerness to give it to others.

Christ's Practice of Prayer

1. To our Lord PRAYER was more important than teaching and healing, for "great multitudes came together to hear and be healed," but He withdrew Himself into the desert and prayed. Lu. 5:15, 16.

2. To our Lord PRAYER was more important than rest, for "in the morning a great while before day He rose up and went out and departed into a desert place and there prayed." Mark 1:35.

3. To our Lord PRAYER was more important than sleep, for "He went out into the mountain to pray and He continued all night in prayer to God." Lu. 6:12.

4. To our Lord PRAYER was more important than the working of miracles, for instead of working a miracle to deliver Peter He said, "I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not." Lu. 22:32.

5. To our Lord PRAYER was more important in securing workers than either money or machinery, for

He said, "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He send forth laborers into His harvest." Matt. 9:38.

6. To our Lord PRAYER was more important to be taught than preaching, for He taught men to pray, but we have no record that He ever taught them to preach. Matt. 6:5-15.

7. To our Lord PRAYER is more important than all other ministries, for "He ever liveth to make intercession for us." Heb. 7:25.

The earthly ministry of our Lord was begun in prayer (Luke 3:21), continued in prayer and ended in prayer (Luke 23:34).

The heavenly ministry of our Lord was begun in prayer (John 14:16, "I will"), and is now continued in prayer (Heb. 7:25).

The lack of prayer is the secret of the Christian's lack of strength, of courage, of inspiration. The lack of prayer is the secret of the failure of the members of the church to measure up to their Christian responsibilities. The lack of prayer is the secret of the falling away into indifference, into worldliness, into sin, of many who formerly led upright Christian lives and rendered faithful Christian service.

Private prayer, alone, in one's room, at one's bedside.

Public prayer, with one's fellow-men, with God's people, in God's House. Private and public prayer, both of these are necessary for the soul's growth, for the soul's unselfish service to God and man. "When thou prayest enter into thy closet," said our Lord. He also said: "My house (temple) shall be called of all nations the House of Prayer."

And the apostle reminds us, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is." It is this "forsaking" of prayer, either of private or public or both, that is the cause of the low ebb of our Christian life; that is the cause of our heartless Christian service. Let us bring back into our lives Christ's practice of prayer.

We Belong to a Church, Not a Parish

We are accustomed to hear the word "Church" applied to a local congregation. We use it loosely ourselves in the same way. But with us, speaking accurately, the Church is our entire communion. The local organization is simply a parish, an outpost, a garrison. A garrison in an outpost does not think of itself as the army. A ship is not the navy. A local postoffice is not the postoffice department. The visit of the Bishop reminds us that we belong to a Church, not to a parish; that we are part of the army, not simply a garrison; that we are enlisted in the navy, not in a ship. The Bishop is the outward and visible sign that we belong to a great, historic, age-long, world-wide institution, which has outposts everywhere, and that we have all its resources back of us and its power within us. Confirmation is not administered by the rector of the parish, who represents only the local congregation. It is administered by the Bishop, who represents the entire Church. We are admitted, therefore, into the communion not of the local congregation or parish. The Bishop's act accomplishes something far wider than that. We are taken into the communion and fellowship of the entire Church throughout the world, including every parish, mission, outpost or garrison under the Church's jurisdiction. That is why we are Churchmen, not Congregationalists. That is why it is that our imagination is stirred and our enthusiasm is kindled by the world-wide institution more than by the local organization. For while we are registered in and attached to a given parish, our citizenship is in the all-including Church.

Epiphany

Epiphany is twelve days after Christmas. In olden times it was often called "twelfth night."

The story of the Epiphany, telling us of the coming of the Magi, who were supposed to be kings, from the Far Eastern country, is the description of the ultimate triumph of the Gospel of the Incarnation, when the nations of men will come with their richest treasures to lay them at the feet of the Christ Child.

In the old Liturgies the Epiphany is called the Feast of Lights.

There is still a ceremony of the Eastern Church, in which all the worshippers come to Church on this day with waxen tapers. The priest first lights his taper from the candles that are burning on the Altar. He then transmits the holy flame to the people, who pass it on from worshipper to worshipper, until the whole edifice is ablaze with the symbolic radiance.

Christ is the Light of the World. But He shines not merely as a great independent luminary above all men's eyes, but in the thousands of lesser lights which are continually kindling in others the flame of devotion to Him.

Three Holy Days after Christmas

Three days following Christmas are dedicated to three sacred events: First, on December 26th, is commemorated The Martyrdom of St. Stephen. This day has been commemorated since the fourth century. In the Greek Church the Festival is a day later than it is in ours. In addition to the reasons given above for its position in the Calendar, it has been said that "Christ was born on earth in order that Stephen might be born in heaven." Thus this, the anniversary of his martyrdom, is also, in a higher sense, the anniversary of his birth.

On December 27th occurs The Feast of St. John the Evangelist. Then we remember the fisherman John, the son of Zebedee and Salome, the brother of James, the partner in the earthly business of Simon and Andrew; and we see what grace made him. We remember how he was called and obeyed the call; how he abode with Christ after the tenth hour on that memorable day; how he became a fisher of men; how he was styled a son of thunder; how he was admitted to be the beloved disciple; how he leaned on that bosom;

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title 11: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

.....
Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

how he stood by the cross; how he made it is his business to house the Virgin-mother; how he grew and expanded and was perfected, waxed riper, and more and more reflected the image of his Master, received and diffused light; how he suffered for the truth; had heaven opened to him at Patmos, and tarried to such an old age that men thought he would live on till Christ came, all the time doing his Lord's work, ordering the Church after his Lord's mind, teaching, reclaiming, ruling, refuting error, declaring the truth by word and writing to the end.

On December 28th is celebrated the Martyrdom of the Innocents, which was anciently commemorated at the Epiphany; the date of its first observance as a separate festival is not known. The Innocents have always been regarded by the Church as martyrs, they having, though unwittingly, shed their blood for Christ. (See St. Matt. 2:16-17.)

The Star

Once upon a time Almighty God placed in the heavens a new and wonderful star and—mystery beyond all other mysteries—revealed it only unto kings.

Nobody saw that star except the kings; but they set out to follow whither it would lead, and it led them straight to the manger in which lay the new-born Child, who came to reign over them in love.

Now comes again the time of the Star and the time of the Child.

There is no path to peace but the path through which the Star will lead.

The nations tried another path; and it led away from peace.

Who Can Answer These Questions?

Not everyone who considers himself a "good Churchman" is thoroughly acquainted with the contents of the Prayer Book. No one who has not thoroughly studied the Prayer Book and knows something, at least, of its history, can be considered a "good Churchman."

As an incentive to the study of the contents of the Prayer Book the following list of questions has been arranged. The answer of every question in the list may be found in the Prayer Book. How many scholars in the Church School, how many persons in the Parish, are able to answer them all?

The Rector will present a copy of the new (revised) Church Hymnal to any member of the Church School and a subscriber to the CHIMES, who will write out in full the correct answers to the following questions, stating, if possible, the page in the Prayer Book where the answer may be found.

All papers must be sent to the Rector before the first Sunday in January. Here are the questions:

From what date has the American Prayer Book been used?

Was the whole present book set forth for use at the same time?

What part of the book was added last?

What Psalms are said on the 31st day of the month?

When is the Venite not to be said in Morning Prayer?

Where is it indicated that the people should not join in saying a Psalm?

What other name is given to the Sixth Sunday in Lent?

When is Holy Thursday?

How is Easter found each year?

How do you find the "Golden Number" or "Prime"?

If the President or Governor should fail to appoint Thanksgiving Day what would the Church observe?

What Feast has three tithes?

What Collect, Epistle and Gospel are ordinarily said on a week day?

What Sunday Collect may be used for only three days?

Which Collects are addressed to our Lord?

What days have two Collects, Epistles and Gospels?

When must the Nicene Creed be said?

When must the Creed be said in interrogative form?

Is there anything in the Communion Office to indicate that the people should stay until the end of the service?

If the Bishop is present in the Chancel at the Communion, what part of the service must he take?

Where may the Communion Table be placed if not in the Chancel?

In what service is the word "Altar" used?

When does the sermon come before the Communion Office?

Where is the Holy Communion called the "Eucharist?"

Who is directed to control the music?

Why should a Bishop be able to sing?

Where is given permission to sing an anthem?

To what person in the Trinity are most of the petitions addressed?

Where are the prayers appointed to be said by single persons who cannot meet with others?

What prayers are directed to be said by either a man or a woman?

What prayer is named for a Saint?

How many forms of Absolution are given? Of Blessings?

What methods of Baptism are allowed?

How soon are parents told to bring their children to Baptism?

If a sick child, baptized at home, should live, what ought to be done?

How are adults told to prepare themselves for Baptism?

If a child should not know his Catechism, what should the parents do?

How is the Priest to know if any one is sick?

Where is it said that "from the Apostles' time there have been three orders of ministry—Bishops, Priests and Deacons?"

How long must a Deacon remain in office?

How is a Bishop to be addressed in Divine Service?

When does a Minister enter upon a service without being completely vested?

Where is the Lord's Prayer directed to be said by the Minister alone?

At what services only is it directed that there shall be a sermon?

What Rubric directs how a woman should be dressed?

When is the Te Deum allowed as a special act of thanksgiving?

Upon what three occasions may a member of the congregation interrupt the service?

Where do you find directions that the officiant pause, so that the people may make secret prayer?

In what service is it required to have the keys of the church?

In what prayer is reference made to the Apostolic Succession?

How far does the American Church intend to depart from the Church of England?

What Holy Days have no special evening service?

Services on Christmas Day

The services on Christmas Day will be Holy Communion, 6.30, 7.30 A. M.; Shortened Morning Prayer, Holy Communion, Sermon, 11.00 A. M. An at-all service will be Clergy Pension Fund. The annual assessment of Christ Church for this worthy object is $315.00. A special envelope for the Pension Fund will be found in the package of envelopes. Persons who may be absent from services on Christmas Day are asked to give their offering at a subsequent service.

"While we have time, let us do good unto all men; and especially unto them that are of the household of faith." Gal. 6:10.

Christmas Music

The music on Christmas Day will include the following:

Processional Hymn 56—"Christian, awake! Salute the happy morn."

Venite—Savage.

Te Deum in F.—Tours.

Kyrie Eleison—Steane.

Gloria Tibi—Steane.

Hymn 51—"Hark, the herald angels sing!"

Offertory Anthem—"It came upon the midnight clear"—Sullivan.

Sursum Corda—Camidge.

Ter Sanctus—Steane.

Hymn.

Gloria in Excelsis—Steane.

Retrocessional 49—"Oh, come, all ye faithful."

Church School's Christmas Service

The Christmas service of the Church Schools will be held in the Church on Sunday afternoon, December 26th, at 3.30. In addition to the singing of the Christmas Carols, a "Pageant" will be given in the Church, entitled "Advance the Line."

This "Pageant" or "Religious Drama" will be an impressive and reverent presentation of vital Christian teachings. Those who take part in the "Pageant" will represent "the Verger," "the Messenger," "Soul of the Parish, and three Angels," "The Spirit of Love and Light," "The Spirit of Love and Faith," "The Spirit of Love and Obedience."

Christmas Greens

Persons who wish to contribute to the Christmas decorations of the Church are asked to give or send their contributions to Richard H. Morris, 6460 Wayne Avenue.

Midnight Service in Christ Church

The usual midnight service will be held in Christ Church on New Year's Eve, beginning at eleven o'clock. The Church will be open all evening for private devotion.

On New Year's Day—"Feast of the Circumcision"—there will be celebration of the Holy Communion at 9.30 A. M.

Confirmation Class Forming

All persons who desire to join the Confirmation Class are requested to give their names to the Rector. Classes are now forming and instructions on Confirmation will soon be given by the Rector. Any who wish to confer with the Rector on the subject of Confirmation may do so after any service or by appointment.

The Women's Auxiliary

The next meeting of the Women's Auxiliary will be held on Thursday, December 16th. These are "all-day meetings," from 10.30 A. M. to 4 P. M. The members bring their lunch with them to the Parish House. The mornings are devoted to sewing for missions. At two o'clock reports are read from the delegates and general business is transacted. At three o'clock some missionary or other speaker generally addresses the meeting.

It is hoped that more women in the Parish will attend these meetings. The January meeting will be held Thursday, January 20th, the third Thursday of every month. Come for all or any part of the day.

Men's Bible Class Has Found Itself!

Due to the combined efforts of the new Officers and several untiring Committeemen the Class is once again on a firm foundation and taking an active part in the welfare of the Parish.

President Frederick Lennig certainly is a hustler and, with Treasurer Frank Wilcox, make a pair that can't be beaten—results show this as the Class is growing every week. Last Sunday we had forty-three members present and this week expect to go above the fifty mark.

Not only is the attendance growing but the various functions which the Class is going to hold show that it is not asleep.

First of all, there is the Illustrated Lecture on the "Near East," by Charles E. Beury, Esq., Friday evening, December 10th. No admission will be charged and everyone is welcomed to attend.

On Thursday, December 16th, the Class will give a Christmas Party. According to Mr. Cotton this will be the best ever held. So, men, don't miss it—everyone will receive a present.

On Sunday, December 19th, we are going to visit our former teacher, the Reverend Richard Gurley, at Radnor, Pa., at which place we will have dinner after attending the Church services. Automobiles will be ready at 2.30 P. M. to take us over. Mr. Gurley will be glad to see all who care to go.

Several other functions are being considered and discussed, full details of which will be given in the next issue.

All men welcomed to our Class! Meets Sunday mornings, 9.45.

HERBERT A. FEIST,
Secretary.

Girls' Friendly Society

We have been having such wonderful meetings of the Friendly on Tuesday nights this year that we feel as if we are very important. The girls all come and all have good times, too.

After our huge success in the "Friendly Frolic" we decided to try another stunt. That stunt was the benefit which was held at the Germantown Theatre during the week of November 29th. We really did very well with this benefit.

And, now, like many others just at present, we are looking ahead toward Christmas. And in preparation for that great event we are "compiling" several pairs of stockings filled with toys and goodies which are to be sent to the Philadelphia Hospital. Besides this we always fill a basket for a poor family, so we have some work ahead of us. Also I have heard rumors of a Christmas party for the Friendly. So, any girls on the outside, come on and get in and help us work and have a good time.

Cast

Spirits—Misses Johnson, Spooner and Hagy

Soul of the Parish—Mr. Baxter and

Messenger—Rev. Mr. Goodman (whom we all know from last summer)

We want every member present and also bring our parents and friends, so the Church will be full to the doors.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS In the Parish House

Primary Department, Tuesday afternoon, December 28th, 3.00 o'clock.

Main School, Tuesday evening, December 28th, 7.45 o'clock.

The Sunday School wishes a very Happy Christmas to our parents and to members of our Church, and will you not show your interest in our school by joining with us in our service and entertainments.

R. H. M.

The Mothers' Christmas Dinner

The Christmas dinner of the Mothers' Meeting will be held the forepart of January. The date will be announced later and the usual good time can be promised to all the members.

The Mothers' Meeting is held every Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the Parish House.

A Men's Supper

A supper for the men of the Parish will be held the middle of January. Prominent speakers will be present and all men of the Parish and their men friends are invited to be present. The date of this dinner will be announced later.

Subscribers and Contributors to THE CHIMES

Since the last issue the following persons have sent their subscriptions or contributions to THE CHIMES. The letter "s" denotes subscription; the letter "c" denotes contribution:

c Mrs. A. T. Flower, c John Davidson, c J. I. Morrison, s Mrs. Charles Wismer, s Miss Seiler, s Mrs. C. E. Fischer, c Mrs. Anna Warner, s Mrs. Henrietta Straub, c C. F. Lackman, c Miss Rebecca Geib, c Mrs. Benjamin Miller.

We are looking for more subscriptions and contributions before the next issue of THE CHIMES.

The Rev. Richard Wallace Hogue, formerly rector of the Church of the Ascension, Baltimore, and at present Executive Secretary of "The Church League of Industrial Democracy," will preach in Christ Church, Sunday morning, December 26th. Mr. Hogue will assist the Rector in the services on Christmas Day.

The Sunday School

Our Thanksgiving party has come and gone and every one said it was a big success, and mothers had to stay very late to take our little ones home.

Mr. Arndt says we gave about 550 cans or packages of food, or over one and one-half times as many as we gave last year.

After depositing our gifts we had a Song Fest and the next Sunday our singing in school was better than for a long time. Let us keep it up. We wound up with an hour's play, led by Mr. Cotton, to whom the success of the entire evening is largely due.

Our Advent work is to support for one more year our three orphans in France. Let us put aside something each week and bring it in on the Sunday morning after Christmas and ask fathers and mothers to help.

Epiphany

The next great festival after Christmas is the Epiphany, celebrated at the opening of the natural year. It stood for the manifestation of light to the world, when Christ, after His baptism, began to teach and to preach. From the Eastern Church, where it originated, it was carried to the West in the early part of the fourth century. As first observed in the East, it had a two-fold character; it commemorated in a subordinate way the birth of Christ, while it placed the chief stress upon that impressive moment of His Baptism when Christ began His mission as the light of the world, by the proclamation of the truth; so that His birth and the preceding years of His life were but a preparation for the fulfillment of the incarnation, as also His manifestation was addressed to the reason and conscience. But when the Feast of the Epiphany was carried into the West, its interpretation was so changed that it almost lost its identity with the festival as it was kept in the East. In the Western interpretation, the manifestation of Christ is no longer presented as the natural consciousness of His mission, for which baptism was the inauguration; but the visit of the kings to the infant Christ is substituted as the real Epiphany or manifestation, when nature also appears as in sympathy with the new revelation, and a star in the heavens discloses a Saviour to the world. The idea of revelation as light which was the favorite conception of the Eastern Church becomes in the West a physical light, and the manifestation of Christ is in and through the miracle.—A. V. G. ALLEN.

The Epiphany Star

Oh, be sure all the universe tells of Christ and leads to Christ. Rightly those ancient Magians deemed, in believing that God was worshipped truly in that august temple. The stars preach the mind of Christ. Not as of old, when a mystic star guided their feet to Bethlehem, but now, to the mind of the astronomer, they tell of eternal order and harmony; they speak of changeless law, where no caprice reigns. You may calculate the star's return; and to the day and hour and minute it will be there. This is the fidelity of God. These mute masses obey the law impressed upon them by their Creator's hand unconsciously; and that law is the law of their own nature. To understand the laws of our nature, and consciously and reverently to obey them, that is the mind of Christ, the sublimest spirit of the Gospel.—ROBERTSON.

The festival of the Epiphany was originally viewed in the Eastern Church as a commemoration of our Saviour's manifestation to the world in a wide sense; including, that is, His Nativity, or His manifestation in the flesh, together with the manifestation of the Trinity at His Baptism.

In the Western Church, on the other hand, the Nativity always appears to have been celebrated as a separate festival; and in their commemoration of the Epiphany it is the manifestation to the Magi that is mostly dwelt upon.

RECTOR

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M.A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A.M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P.M. AT HOME, SATURDAY EVENING

"Members" and "Communicants"

An annual report of the parishes in the Diocese is required by Canon to be sent to the Bishop of the Diocese at the beginning of each year. This report must give the financial condition of the Parish, including receipts and expenditures for all purposes within the Parish, and for all assessments and missionary or other charitable purposes, both within and without the Diocese.

The Rector must also report the number of public services held during the past year, the number of public and private Communions, persons baptized, confirmed and buried, and other official acts of his; he must include in this report the number of Communicants on the roll of the Parish. It is on this subject of "Communicants" that I wish to say a few words to members of this Parish and to others who worship here.

By the term "Communicant" is meant a person who communes. A person who habitually neglects to come to the Holy Communion—"unless let or hindered by sickness or other serious cause"—is not a Communicant of the Church. It goes without saying that a Rector's report must be honest, and no Rector, without violating the truth, can include among his number of "Communicants," which he reports annually to the Diocesan, the names of persons who, not being "let or hindered by sickness or other serious cause," habitually neglects to come to the Holy Communion. He has no alternative other than to omit the names of all nominal Communicants from his list of "Communicants."

A person formerly a Communicant, who has since fallen away and has become faithless, may still be considered a "member" of the Parish; like a member of the human body, for example, an arm or a leg, that has become atrophied or partially dead from paralysis, may still be considered a "member" of the body, although it may be a useless or worse than useless member, even an encumbrance. There are some such "members," I suppose, in every Parish. The difference between a "member" and a "communicant" is a vital one. A person may be a "member" of the Church, having a connection with it like a dead or dying branch may be connected with the tree, yet be no longer in touch with, no longer in vital communion with the life-giving source of the tree. Our Lord speaks very plainly: "As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch and is WITH-ERED."

There is as vast, as vital a difference between a nominal "member" of the Church and a faithful "Communicant" as there is between the dying and the living. The one tends to death; the other to the more abundant life. This is our Lord's own teaching. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day."

"Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter." It is three-fold. In revising the Communicant list of Christ Church Parish and endeavoring to make it an "honest" report, it is important, first, that it shall include the name of every person in the parish who may honestly be considered a "Communicant."

There are a number of persons living in this vicinity, nominal members of some distant Parish, but seldom if ever attending the services of their distant Parish Church, who ought to be transferred and become Communicants of Christ Church Parish or some other neighboring Parish. The Canon of the Church is explicit and makes this duty clear:

"A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

Delay in doing this has often resulted in persons becoming indifferent to their Church attendance and finally lost to the Church.

Second. Members of this Parish, who have permanently moved away from Germantown and cannot regularly attend the services of Christ Church, ought to apply to me for letters of transfer to the Parish Church whose services they can regularly attend. I shall be exceedingly sorry to lose them; to sever the sacred pastoral relationship which has existed between Rector and people, in some cases for many years; but personal feelings must be subordinated to the greater principle of the good of the Church and the eternal interest of the soul.

Third. I earnestly urge those persons who at present can be classified only as "members," who, through any cause whatsoever, have fallen away and become no longer faithful "Communicants"—I earnestly urge them to begin anew this year, with the resolve and with the determination to return to their Church—its sacred duties, its solemn responsibilities, its blessed privileges—and become again regular and faithful "Communicants."

Septuagesima

Before the next monthly issue of the CHIMES shall have appeared, Septuagesima Sunday will have come and gone. This Sunday comes three weeks before Ash Wednesday, which this year occurs on February 9th. In the Septuagesima season the Church enters the penumbra, as it were, of her Lenten eclipse and all her services are shadowed with the sombre hue of her approaching season of fasting and prayer. The name of this Sunday (Septuagesima) implies that it is seventy days to the Feast of the Resurrection; next Sunday will be Sexagesima, in round numbers, sixty days; then Quinquagesima Sunday, fifty days; and then comes Lent, or forty days to the great Feast of Easter.

Thus, we have turned our backs upon dear old Christmas and the group of holy days that cluster around it, and setting our faces toward the more sober, but still more glorious, light of Easter, we begin to number the days of preparation, which, if duly observed, will fit us to keep the Paschal as the Apostle commands, "not with the old leaven, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

Now, is the way in which the Church counts these days to be regarded as teaching nothing? It is the way of the world to reckon advancing time by addition; but the Church now gives us seventy days, and gently hints to us how life is passing as she bids us daily to subtract one, that so "we may number our days and apply our hearts unto wisdom."

In these seventy days, we thus see a striking emblem of our three-score years and ten, the completed Christian life, which passes through shadows and tears and trials to the Resurrection. While we persevere through Lent, growing more and more desirous of the sunrise of Easter and rejoicing to find the appointed days diminish as that Day draws near, we learn, also, to pass the few and evil days of our sojourning in this world, feeling every day that we have one day less to live, keeping the Great Day always in view and singing with the psalmist, "When I wake up in Thy likeness, I shall be satisfied."

Confirmation Classes

Confirmation classes are now being formed. All persons contemplating Confirmation are requested to give their names to the Rector at once. The meetings of the class for minors will be held on every Sunday afternoon at 4:30 in the Parish House, beginning Sunday, January 23rd. On Wednesday evenings in Lent a course of addresses on the "Fundamentals of the Christian Faith" will be delivered in the Church, beginning on Ash Wednesday evening, February 9th. These addresses are intended especially for adults who are looking forward to Confirmation, and for all who wish to be informed on the essentials of the Faith, as held and taught by that branch of Catholic Church known as the "Protestant Episcopal Church."

The Rector will be pleased to confer with any person who wishes to see him in regard to Confirmation. He may be seen after any service or by appointment. He will be pleased to recommend or to loan his books on this or other religious subjects to persons applying to him.

Confirmation

Confirmation—the word itself tells its place in each Christian life. It ratifies and confirms the vows already taken in Baptism. Deliberately, once more, the profession is made. Deliberately, once more, the enlisted soldier of Christ repeats, before the highest officers in the Church, the oath he has already sworn, or that was taken in his name in his infancy by loved ones who would make the tender life develop as the life of a "child of God." Now, he pledges himself to stand by the promises made, to be true to them in evil report and good, and so confirms them to his own soul and conscience before God and man.

Confirmation "is a land-mark in the Christian life, a solemn hour, to which memory turns to the latest day; a new and conscious enlistment; a revival of all the old faiths and pledges; the coming to the full stature of a Christian man or woman; the coming of age in Christ's Kingdom; the band which binds youth, in the midst of its temptations, to the altar of God, that it may stand bound in manhood and in age."

Not only does man confirm, but God confirms His grace to that soul. In the appointed way one seeks the appointed blessing; and, coming sincerely, he finds it. "The spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godliness and holy fear"—all the manifold gifts of full Christian manhood await him as he bows to receive them, assured by this sign and seal—"the laying on of hands."

Confirmation is doubly worthy of the name it bears. Man confirms and God confirms. Man confirms his baptismal vows, his penitence and faith, his trust and promises. God confirms his mercy and love, and the pledge of his unfailing word to guard and succor and strengthen that soul with the indwelling of His eternal Spirit.

Who would not seek this two-fold confirmation—the fixing of human resolution and determination, and the reception of "God's help" in keeping them—the daily growth in Christian grace by the presence and guidance of the promised Spirit in our hearts—the blessing at the chancel rail confirming the blessing at the font.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

.....
Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note.—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

Mr. Henry R. Baremore's Death

At a special meeting of the Vestry held after the funeral of Mr. Henry R. Baremore in Christ Church, December 15th, 1920, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

"A deplorable accident on Saturday night, December 11th, 1920, resulted in the death of our friend and fellow-vestryman, Mr. Henry R. Baremore.

While this overwhelming catastrophe tests our Christian faith, yet we bow our heads and believe that it was permitted by Almighty God in his infinite wisdom and that it is not granted us in our finite minds to inquire why.

We, as a vestry, intimately connected with Mr. Baremore, and as personal friends, unite in offering our most sincere sympathy and love to his wife and family at this time of their sad bereavement and irreparable loss.

He was known everywhere for his delightful personality and kindly nature, and especially in this Parish for the interest he always manifested, and for his unfailing industry and tact in advancing its interests.

Resolved, that copies of this resolution be spread on the minutes of the Vestry, sent to the family of our deceased member, and to the Church News of the Diocese of Pennsylvania."

F. B. FALKNER,

Secretary.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild has been busy during the past month. We spent the morning of December 23rd getting everything in readiness for the services on Christmas day.

Miss Emma Mogridge has been appointed to take charge of the memorial flower list since the resignation of Miss Ruth Gerhard, due to her absence from the city.

We hope to have our annual supper some time the latter part of this month.

The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

Jan. 21-Jan. 28: Misses Dean, Crowder, M. Thompson.

Jan. 28-Feb. 4: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Manser, E. Thompson.

Feb. 4-Feb. 11: Misses Chase, Alexander, Strien, Parker.

Feb. 11-Feb. 18: Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

The Sunday School

Christmas has come and gone and everyone seemed to think it was one of the "Happiest Christmases" the school ever had.

Our church service on Sunday afternoon had a very large attendance, not only of the scholars and men's and women's Bible classes, but also of the parents and friends. The pageant "Advance the Line" was a great success, and we thank most heartily those who took part, especially the Rev. Mr. Goodman, who came over from Holmesburg to act as a messenger. Also Mrs. Price of Mt. Airy, who came to drill those who took part. Also Mrs. Topliff Johnson and her aides, who arranged the pageant. We hope to have another pageant during the year.

Christmas Entertainments.

Our entertainments took place on Tuesday after Christmas and were also a huge success. In the afternoon 75 scholars from the Primary Department sang and played games until long after dark, but as nearly one-half of the scholars brought their mothers, all reached home safely with their arms loaded with dolls, toys and candy.

In the evening the upstairs room was filled to the doors with the scholars of the main school and their parents. The play "Queen Christmas" was given by some of the younger boys and girls, and ask anybody who was there how it went. Mr. Douglass, the ventriloquist, who followed, could not give his feature until he told us how much he enjoyed the play. Our thanks go to everyone who took part, and also to Miss Gill, Miss Cave and Mrs. Christ, who worked hard to arrange it.

Our Christmas offering was $109.50, just what we needed to support the three French orphans that we have adopted for next year.

Attendance.

Our attendance has been very good during the last two months. The following have been star classes, with every member present: Miss Cave's, Miss Crowder's, Mrs. Schaefer's, Miss Richard's, Miss Sarah Booz's and Miss Johnson's. Also Miss Gill's and Miss Gerhard's twice.

Our school is growing, quite a number of new scholars having come in, and we hope to increase still more this year.

Motto.

Our motto for 1921 is "Each officer, teacher and scholar to give at least one hour a week to some work for the good of the school," which means either to hunt up a new scholar, to visit those who have been absent, or to earn money for some of our mission work. Just think, if we all do this, it means about 240 hours a week, or the work of five people working eight hours a day, six days a week. Just think what that will accomplish if we keep it up, and remember, the motto says at least this, and we do not want to stop there.

Envelopes.

Last Easter we started an envelope system for the first time, each one making a pledge for a certain amount they are willing to give each Sunday, whether present or absent, in order to gain the habit of systematic giving to church work, and in looking over the envelope record the last of the year, it shows that it has been a great success, the most of the school having no gaps whatever opposite their names. The Primary Department is especially good, showing that they ask mothers for their envelopes before they start from home each Sunday.

There are some, however, who have some envelopes at home for last year's Sundays that have not been filled, and we hope they will, if possible, bring them in before the end of January, and will not the parents help us in this matter by asking their children each Sunday morning, "Have you your envelopes?"

The Sunday School wishes the rector and every member of the Church a very happy New Year.

R. H. M.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The Auxiliary is starting the New Year with a more determined effort to help in the missionary work of the Church. We have heard calls for help from China, Japan, the Philippines, the Indians and our own City Missions. We must raise money, and we are going to ask every woman in the congregation to come to our assistance.

The morning sessions, so far, have been fairly well attended, but there is still much sewing to be done for the City Mission. More workers are needed. The all-day meetings are held on the third Thursday of the month. Sewing at ten-thirty. Missionary reports and business meeting at two o'clock.

A. F. W.

The Girls' Friendly Society

Once again you hear from the Girls' Friendly. It is most certainly a very prosperous organization. It seems to me that we take in new members every meeting night. We started the New Year right with a party. Now we've had lots of parties, but this was the "partiest party" we have ever had. Some of the boys of the Church—and others—were invited, and we had a fine orchestra, which two things combined insure a good time. Also we served refreshments, which added much to our happiness. And we had such a crowd out! It certainly was gratifying to those who planned the party to see it such a huge success.

And now we are planning some new work for the coming new year. But I can assure you that whatever it is to be, it will be just wonderful. And if you don't believe me, you had better drop around Christ Church Parish House on Tuesday evenings and find out what great things we "Friendly Girls" are doing.

Mothers' Meeting

On Tuesday, January the fourth, the annual dinner of the Mothers' Meeting was held in the Parish House. We were fortunate in having a beautiful day, so the attendance was larger than usual. Thirty guests sat down at the tables. The tables were set in the gymnasium and looked very pretty with their centrepieces of flowers. The favors to hold the salted nuts were very appropriate to the Epiphany season. They were made in the shape of a star. The afternoon opened with a short religious service, after which we adjourned to the dinner table. A delicious dinner was served, followed by piano solos by Miss Beatrice Spooner, recitations and readings by the member of the meeting. We spent a most pleasant afternoon, and our thanks are due to Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Pinkerton, Mrs. Eckersley and Mrs. Rowley for their kindness in helping to make the occasion such a success. We regretted very much that Mrs. Rowley could not be with us, but we felt her presence in the lovely gifts which she sent. Through the kindness of the members, Mrs. Rowley and Mrs. Arndt were the recipients of two beautiful vases, which were received with the greatest appreciation.

H. F. A.

Men's Bible Class

The Bible Class has regained its position. They are very much alive.

On December 16th, 1920, we held our Christmas party and it was a "howling" success. I guess you are wondering why "howling," but it was. Mr. Cotton presented everyone with a small present and it had to be opened so that all could enjoy the gift; naturally a "howl" followed, assisted by the noise from Ed. Moore's orchestra, which was there in full force.

We have entered a team in the Germantown Church Bowling League and are doing as good as can be expected. The players are out of practice, but will soon get going and show the other teams that we have to be considered.

A banquet will be given on January 27th, and it is expected that a large turnout will avail themselves of enjoying a "good meal" and "sociable evening." All members of the Parish are cordially invited to this banquet. Tickets are $1.50 a plate and may be purchased from any member of the class.

NOW, MEN, get busy and sell these tickets, so that this banquet will be the best ever held at the Parish House.

H. A. F.

Junior Auxiliary

The Junior Auxiliary resumed its meetings this fall and has been working busily ever since. Beside money sent to the City Mission and the Expense Fund, we sent to the Indians quite a Christmas box, consisting mostly of toys and books.

Although we have not as many members as we should like, those we have are faithful.

Our present officers are: Margaret Courtney, president; Annette Wells, treasurer; Helen McHenry, secretary, and although she doesn't call herself an officer, Mrs. Gerhard, our adviser and leader.

Our meetings are on Thursday afternoons from four till five o'clock. All young people are invited to join us.

THE SECRETARY.

Order of St. Christopher

The Order of St. Christopher took its name from an early Christian martyr of the third century, who, having committed many crimes, and served the devil, as was believed, in the superstition of those early ages, decided, as a penance for his deeds, to devote his life to carry pilgrims over rivers where no bridges existed. The legend is, that Christ as a little child came to him one day and asked to be carried over a stream. When, in the middle, the weight becoming heavier every moment, they almost sank, but succeeded in gaining the opposite shore. "Marvel not," the Child said, "for with me thou hast borne the sins of all the world."

The objects of this society, as instituted in Christ Church, are to provide a Crucifer for every Sunday in the year—to perform any acts at the Altar, which the Rector may direct, and to promote Christian fellowship and good feeling among the young men of the Parish.

In January the Crucifer in the morning will be N. Johnson, Jr., and in the evening, R. Hogue.

At the meeting held on January 3, the following members were appointed to serve as Crucifers mornings in January: William N. Johnson, Jr.; evenings in January, Richard W. Hogue, Jr.; mornings in February, Guy Wells; evenings in February, Richard M. Fielding; W. N. J. Jr.

A Parish Dinner

A parish dinner—which will be really a banquet—will be given under the auspices of the Men's Bible Class, on Thursday evening in the Parish House. A very interesting program has been arranged, and prominent speakers will be present. Remember the date—Thursday evening, January 27th, seven o'clock, in the Parish House.

Girls' Scouts

Troop 119, Girl Scouts, holds regular meetings in the Parish House at 7:45 o'clock on Friday evenings.

During the fall several hikes were taken, which were greatly enjoyed by every Scout who attended.

The day before Christmas the Scouts trimmed a birds' Christmas tree, which we are sure the birds enjoyed on Christmas morning.

On Tuesday during Christmas week the Scouts gave a party to which they invited their boy friends. The evening was spent playing progressive games and dancing, everyone declaring they enjoyed the evening very much. Girls are invited to join us.

M. R. R.

Constant Giving

The following is from the "Witness."

"It would be quite impossible for any one of us to determine for another just what was the fair and just measure of his or her obligations, or the exact amount either of service or money they should give through the channels of their Parish Church. We do not in any sense assume to submit any such judgment. On the other hand, we do believe that it is just and fair to say, that one of the primary obligations that rests upon us is to maintain those interests represented in and through our Church and its extensive enterprises.

"There are two or three things we plead for:

"First, the reasonable recognition of our common responsibility. This means the recognition by every one, old and young alike, related to this Parish, of those fair claims which it lays upon them. No excuses or personal conceits, or prejudices can relieve us of this responsibility. The larger the Church the more extensive its interests; and the more efficient its equipment, the greater its responsibilities, obligations and expenses. We do not believe that these things should be made the topics of discussion (except very infrequently) in connection with our Sunday services. Any such discussion has a tendency to divert the worshipper from the consideration of the larger claims of his spiritual life. The place for considering our responsibility and for equitably meeting it is in the home. It is here that we discuss all other responsibilities and obligations, especially those related to the maintenance of the objects that challenge and engage our interest. To sit down seriously and to give proper consideration to the claims of our Parish Church and all its allied interests should certainly be one of the things for household and family discussion.

"Our second point is, that in giving to the Church's maintenance and agencies, we should be utterly consistent. By consistent we mean that our gifts should not be disproportionate when compared with our other gifts, no matter for what purpose they are given. Again, by consistent we mean consecutive, unbroken and unfailing giving. The Church that is business-like in its administration prepares its budgets, both for its own housekeeping and for the maintenance of its charities and other agencies, with just as much care and precision as any secular enterprise or business corporation. If this budget is to be met (and surely the Church should be the leader in consistency along these lines) it must have consistent givers.

"Our third point is, that giving, in our conception of it, is not a thing apart from our expressed religious habit, nor indeed is it extraneous to worship itself. In the conception of it as our Church sets it forth it has its significant place in our prayer-book in the ante-communion office. In other words, those who devised our policy conceived of giving as being analogous in some sense to the great sacrifice to which the Holy Communion witnesses. Hence, it is, in its highest conception, a religious act. There is not a man, woman or child in this Parish, who, if we could sit down and talk with them concerning all these things, but would readily accede to the fairness and justice of the three points we are here making."

A Reminder

When purchasing, don't forget our friends the Advertisers.

Give Through the Envelope System

It is earnestly desired to extend the use of the envelope system to every attendant at the services of Christ Church. By this method everyone is given an opportunity to share in the support of the Parish and its work. Children, as well as adult members of the family, are invited to give through this system, thus inculcating in the young the Christian principle of systematic and conscientious giving. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibules of the Church. Everyone is urged to take one of these cards and to sign it for any amount each may feel able to give, on one side as a weekly offering to support the missionary work of the Church and on the other side as an offering to the support of the Parish.

Place this card on the plate on Sunday or send it to the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, Wyncote, Pa. A package of envelopes will then be sent to you.

By this method the Church finances do not suffer from the enforced absence of the members on account of sickness or inclement weather.

This method will appeal to every one as the most practical and business-like in meeting the expenses of a Parish.

It is also the Scriptural method: "Upon the first day of this week let every one of you lay by in store as God hath prospered him."

It is the method which will appeal to conscientious people who wish to do their share in the furtherance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

It is hoped that the system will be extended until every one in the Parish will be a contributor through the envelope system.

The pledge, being wholly voluntary, may be reduced, increased or withdrawn at any time by notifying the Rector.

RECTOR

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M.A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. " AT HOME, SATURDAY EVENING

A Letter from the Rector

Christ Church Rectory,
Lent, 1921.

My Dear Friends:

Once again the call of Lent is sounding in our ears, bringing with it its message of unspeakable solemnity to every soul which will hearken. Lent succeeds Lent with a rapidity which almost startles us as the years fly by, and each one brings us nearer to the long ages of that eternity which is so very near to us—so much nearer than we are yet able to realize.

Let us begin this Lent with most earnest prayer to the Holy Spirit for His guidance and blessing upon what we are about to undertake. So much depends upon prayerful preparation. The great Sower will sow His seed now, as always, with the most liberal hand; but its fruitfulness will depend upon the preparation of the ground of the heart. Are we convinced that prayer is the one power which can command the graces of God, and that nothing good and lasting can be done without it? No matter if at the present moment you feel cold and lifeless, and disinclined for the necessary effort; it is prayer that will remedy this. Go to God and tell Him exactly how you feel. Put all your trust, not in yourself, but in what you know He is able to give. This very disinclination is often a sign that He means to do great things for you, and that He wants you to recognize that it is He Who has done it. Have you not found that the most blessed Lents in your past life have been those in which you have been most conscious of your weakness at the beginning, and about which you have prayed very earnestly? Let us, then, begin this Lent, continue and end it in the spirit of earnest, prayer—more earnest prayer.

There is something indescribable about this season of Lent, something which cannot be explained by the mere fact of the extra services and our own penitential discipline, something which I have recognized and wondered at and rejoiced in for very many years; it is like the touch of another world upon the darkness and worldliness of our present lives. It is a wilderness, but the wilderness has blossomed like the rose. It is often a hard and wearisome way, but there are visions of the heavenly country. What can this mean but the "unction of the Holy One," and the magnet power of the cross? There is nothing more certain than this to all who have experienced this atmosphere of Lent. God is always near us, but then He makes His nearness felt, because He sees us really trying to draw near to Him.

But this drawing nigh unto God is not merely the effect of prayer; it is also brought about by strictness of life, and the voluntary acceptance of the cross. There can be no blessing upon a Lent in which self-discipline does not hold a very foremost place. The ordinary means are fasting and works of mortification; all earnest Churchmen will want to use these means, but for those who cannot for reasons of health practice these, there must, at least, be a real renunciation of the world, and of the luxuries of life, however harmless in themselves. It is impossible to exaggerate the spiritual effect of this voluntary treading the way of the cross. Its influence is felt at once; the scales of worldliness drop from our eyes, the heavenly vision becomes clearer, the interior life is invigorated and new possibilities of holiness open out before the soul. Can we afford to throw away one of life's great opportunities for the sake of a little self-indulgence and personal ease? Has not long experience taught us that these have never brought us real happiness or satisfaction? God is the only true end and joy of the soul. When shall we learn this, and give ourselves up without reserve to seek Him? I pray that the hearts of the men and women—and the children, too—of Christ Church will be inspired by the Holy Spirit to make this Lenten season an occasion of real sacrifice, of unselfish devotion—a spiritual feast for the soul.

This we can do only by using the divine means of grace which our Saviour has bequeathed unto us—fasting, prayer and sacrament.

Faithfully yours,

CHARLES HENRY ARNDT.

The Lenten Services

The schedule of special Lenten services will be found on another page of this issue of the CHIMES. The hours of the services have been arranged, as far as possible, to meet every class of people within the Parish. The early Celebration of the Holy Communion on Ash Wednesday has been appointed at half-past 7 o'clock, that business people and others may attend before going to their work and thus avail themselves on Ash Wednesday of a proper beginning of the season of Lent. The afternoon services are put at an hour to meet the largest number of parishioners who remain in Germantown during the day. The Wednesday night services are especially intended for persons who are not able to attend during the day. Persons who are thinking of being confirmed should attend these services.

It is earnestly hoped that every one in the Parish will select certain services which they will endeavor faithfully to attend and will not allow anything—except a most serious cause—to interfere with the conscientious discharge of a solemn duty.

Be Confirmed

The Bishop will visit this Parish (D. V.) on Maundy Thursday evening, March 24th, to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The Rector affectionately urges all persons who have not been confirmed to give their names to him at once. He will be happy to talk to any one on the subject after any service or by special appointment. Let no one delay. If you have doubts, come frankly to your Rector and talk them over with him. If you are troubled in mind or conscience, come to him and tell him your troubles. He will help you.

The Prayer Book, in the Communion Office, so states it: "If any of you cannot quiet his own conscience, but requireth further comfort or counsel, let him come to me, or to some other Minister of God's Word and open his grief; that he may receive such godly counsel and advice as may tend to the quieting of his conscience and the removing of all scruple and doubtfulness."

The Rector is most anxious to help any one who may be in doubt or trouble, and will gladly do all within his power for any one who comes to him.

Special Lenten Preachers

By reference to another column it will be seen that the people of Christ Church are to have the privilege of hearing five special preachers on Sunday evenings in Lent. Each speaker has a special message to give to the people of this Parish. Every member should come to hear it.

I specially ask the people of Christ Church to make it one of their Lenten duties to attend the Sunday evening services. We should show these clergymen, who take the time and trouble to come to speak to us, that the members of Christ Church are not an ungrateful but are an appreciative people. Let this be the Lenten resolve: "I will, God willing, attend every Sunday evening service during Lent!"

Begin Lent aright! On Ash Wednesday there will be a Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 A. M. Before going to your duties of the day—your business, your school, your household duties—"come apart for a while with God"; begin this Lenten season aright by dedication of yourself, your soul and body, to God and by receiving the Blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ! Begin aright!

The Week-Day Lenten Services

The services on week days during Lent will be held in the side chapel, with the exception of the Wednesday night service, which will be, as usual, in the nave of the church.

Attendants at the afternoon services are requested to sit together in the south transept, instead of being scattered throughout the main body of the church. This will add to the heartiness of the singing and interest in the service.

Persons who are willing to assist in the singing at the Lenten services are requested to give their names to the Rector. There are a number of persons in the Parish who might render this much as their Lenten offering. The Rector will gladly welcome them and will appreciate their services.

Why not make it a Lenten object to bring at least one child to Holy Baptism or some "backslider" back again to his church duties and privileges, or to lead some hesitating friend to Christ and to Confirmation?

Make some specific, definite object your duty during this Lent. Let it not be a "negative Lent," but a positive Lent; something definitely undertaken and done; something unselfish, something constructive to the bringing in of the Kingdom of God and His Christ!

Some people are habitually late to church service. The habit should be overcome. To enter the service late is disconcerting to others and seriously interrupts the service. It is a form of selfishness, on the part of those who practice it. One should be in church long before the service begins, to prepare one's mind and spirit to receive the precious things that there are given. No one who rushes to church or comes in late can be so prepared.

The Prayer Book is given by the church to be used by the worshippers. It should be opened and the eyes of each worshipper should be riveted upon it. During the singing of the canticles, instead of looking about the congregation or at the choir, follow the words in your Prayer Book. However familiar you may be with the service, follow, with your book before you, every sentence, every collect, Gospel, Epistle, as the minister reads it. It is called the "Book of Common Prayer," and so it is intended to be—common between minister and people; every service in it to be entered into by minister and people together; and this purpose cannot be carried out if the people do not follow the minister as he reads the service.

Keep your Prayer Book open and your eyes on the service as it is read by the minister!

And this leads to the further suggestion that every one should own and carry with him his own Prayer Book and Hymnal. Additional books may be kept

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title 11: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note.—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

in the pews, but every worshipper should bring with him to church and take home with him his own personal Prayer Book and Hymnal. Your Prayer Book will come to mean something, then, by its long and faithful usage and its sacred associations. Our "mother's Prayer Book," our "father's Prayer Book" will, some day, be as "holy" as their Bible.

Bring your own Prayer Books and Hymnals to church with you and take them home with you when you go!

The Prayer Books and Hymnals at the doors of the church are intended for strangers, not for the regular attendants at the services.

Easter Offering

Let every one begin now to lay aside each day a certain, definite sum to be placed on the plate on Easter Day. Let this offering represent some real sacrifice. The minimum Easter offering for every adult communicant of the church should be $5.00. Every child should give at least one dollar. Every man and woman in the Parish should give at least five dollars as a thank-offering on Easter Day. Five dollars, for forty days in Lent, means less than thirteen cents (13 cents) a day. One dollar, for forty days, means for each child two and one-half (2½) cents a day. No one so poor who cannot lay aside at least that small amount. If need be, let us sacrifice street car fares, or give up something which you can do without and put aside the cost for your Easter offering. There is no child that cannot save or earn in some way that much, two and one-half cents, a day. "Where there is a will there is a way." Let every one will to do at least that much for an Easter offering. Of course, there are many who can and will give on Easter Day very much more than these amounts. There should not be any coin—unless it be gold coin—on the plate on Easter.

This, then, should be the goal fixed by every adult: "Five dollars ($5.00) at least for my Easter offering!" The goal for every child should be: "One dollar ($1.00) at least for my Easter offering!" Of course, many persons in the Parish can and will want to give very much more.

Certainly, nothing less can represent any real Christian giving.

The Rector wishes to call special attention to two important notices, which appear in another column of the CHIMES.

The first is:

An Inter-Parochial Class—to study the "Needs and Activities of the Church." This class will be held at St. Luke's Parish House on Monday evenings in Lent, beginning on Monday evening, February 7th, at 8 o'clock.

The important feature of this class is that it is intended for men and women. All the parishes in Germantown and Chestnut Hill will be represented. I am very anxious that a large number of men and women from Christ Church shall attend. The class will be led by the Educational Secretary of the Diocese. Will not the men and women of this Parish set aside Monday evenings in Lent and avail themselves of the privilege of attending this Class?

The second notice of importance is:

An Afternoon Mission Study Class to be held in Christ Church.

This class is especially intended for women who cannot attend a meeting in the evening. The interesting subject to be studied will be the "Survey," arranged by the Nation-Wide Campaign Committee. The leader will be Mrs. Samuel Porcher, of Chestnut Hill. The course of study will be of intense interest to all women. Remember the date! Beginning Friday afternoon at 3.30 and continuing every Friday afternoon in Lent at the same hour.

Consult the List of Services

On another page will be found in full the list of special services for the Forty Days of Lent. Consult this list carefully. Select certain services from this list and make a firm resolution that, God willing, you will be regular and faithful in your attendance. Be in earnest! Let nothing but God's will swerve you from your determination!

Special Preachers—Sunday Evenings

The special preachers on Sunday evenings in Lent will have an important message for you. Do not fail to attend every Sunday Evening Service during Lent! List of speakers will be found on another page.

Confirmation Instruction

Instructions on Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church are being delivered in the Church every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock for adults and every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock for minors in the Parish House.

All persons, confirmed and not confirmed, are cordially invited to these instructions.

The Rector will be pleased to meet after any service or by special appointment any one who wishes to confer with him on the subject of Confirmation. He requests that all who are contemplating Confirmation should give their names to him at once.

A Mission Study Class for Men and Women

An Inter-Parochial Class to study the "Needs and Activities of the Church" will be held on seven successive Monday evenings, beginning February 7th, at 8 o'clock, in St. Luke's Parish House, Germantown avenue and Coulter street. The leader of the class will be Mrs. H. A. Pilsbry, Educational Secretary of the Diocese. This class is open to both men and women, and it is hoped that many will avail themselves of this exceptional opportunity.

Names of those interested may be sent to Miss C. Ethel Upjohn, St. Luke's Rectory, Germantown.

Afternoon Mission Study Class to be Held in Christ Church

A mission study class for the women of this Parish will be held in Christ Church Parish House every Friday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, beginning Friday, February 4th. Mrs. Samuel Porcher, of Chestnut Hill, has kindly consented to act as leader. Here is a chance for every woman in the Parish to avail herself of the opportunity of spending an interesting and profitable hour in the study of missions. All women in this vicinity—whether they are members of this Parish or not—are cordially invited to attend. Remember the date—beginning Friday, February 4th, and continuing every Friday in Lent at 3.30 o'clock.

Up or Down?

We do not know who said it, but it was well said: "People who are down on missions are usually those who are not up on missions." There is a world of truth in this simple statement which lies at the bottom of all the modern movement toward missionary education. Again and again it has been demonstrated that opposition to missions, as such, has its foundation only in ignorance. How many times have we heard of persons who had "no use for missions," yet after a trip through foreign lands, with seeing eyes and an open mind, have become enthusiastic advocates of that which they once condemned?

The Sunday School

In the last issue of the CHIMES a report was made of our activities up to January 1st, so in this issue we will only say a few words as to the future. First, let us repeat our motto:

Each officer, teacher and scholar to give at least one hour a week to some work for the good of the school.

Let us all get this into our minds and then not forget it is there, but bring it out and use it by hunting up a new scholar or going to see an old scholar of your class who has been absent, or by earning some money especially for our mission work.

You know that no organization grows or improves unless every one connected with it works for its interests, and we can all spare one hour a week for our school and still do everything else that we are doing now. Fathers and mothers can help by asking their sons and daughters each week about that hour's work.

Ash Wednesday is nearly here, and the Lenten mite boxes are ready to be given out on February 6th. Last year our Easter offering from the mite boxes for missions was one-third more than the year before. This year we want to make it one-half more than last year, and the only way we can do this is by systematically putting in something each day, instead of waiting until Easter morning, when we may find our pockets empty.

Keep the mite box on your bureau and drop in a coin each night before going to bed, and we can easily attain the amount that we have set.

We wish to welcome Miss Margaret Hoague, who has just come to us as a teacher in the Primary Department.

R. H. M.

The Men's Bible Class Dinner

The Men's Bible Class dinner given in the Parish House on January 27th was a great success. One hundred and twenty strong sat down to a sumptuous repast, which was interspersed with speeches "right off the bat," most of the speakers being members of the class. Much credit is due to the committee in charge for the management of this successful entertainment.

All men in this community are invited to join this Men's Bible Class. We meet in the Parish House every Sunday morning at 9.45 and between times for social times.

Come and join us!

The Woman's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary held their monthly meeting on January 27th. The morning session was, as usual, devoted to sewing; the business meeting was called at 2 o'clock. At this meeting it was decided to issue a letter to the women of the Parish, urging them to help in the work of the Auxiliary. Plans were discussed as to the best way for our church to accede to the request of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary to give a certain percentage of the money needed for the expense of packing and forwarding the missionary boxes. We will have a sale of jellies and similar articles for this purpose. Notice of this sale will be given later. Mrs. H. A. Cannon, the United Thank-offering Treasurer of Christ Church, asked that we should do our share towards bearing the overhead expenses of the United Thank-offering Treasurer of the Diocese. We will be very glad to do this. After Easter it is planned to have an apron, cake and candy sale, the proceeds of which will go towards the work of the Auxiliary. During Lent we will hold our meetings weekly on Fridays at 11 A. M., beginning February 11. (Please note change of day.) Will not each woman set apart that day and come and help with the sewing? Under a new arrangement each Parish is apportioned a certain amount of sewing. Can we not all work so that we will be able to accomplish much more than is asked of us? After luncheon the sewing will continue until 3.30, when we will adjourn to a mission study class. Mrs. Samuel Porcher, of St. Martin's Parish, has kindly consented to act as our leader. The topic for this year is the "Survey," arranged by the Nation-Wide Campaign Committee. The study of the "Survey" will give us all an intelligent understanding of the work and the needs of our mission fields. It is hoped that a large number of women will avail themselves of the privilege of joining this class. Those who wish to join are asked to send their names to the secretary, Mrs. Frank Wells, 244 West Hortter street.

A. F. W.

Girls' Friendly Society

Enthusiasm shown by the members of the Girls' Friendly in their different work has been remarkable. They are setting the pace for the other Parish societies. Since January 1st we have enrolled six new members.

The arts and craft class is turning out some ingenious and beautiful work. These articles will be disposed of at a sale in the spring. Keep this in mind, as this is a rare opportunity to secure these beautiful gifts.

During Lent the Girls' Friendly is going to do something and for somebody else, which is the real essence of this society. They will sew for charity.

The meetings are every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the Parish House. All live girls wanted! Come spend an evening with us and you will be sure to become a member.

E. D. S.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild will be very busy during Lent arranging for the daily services. At the regular monthly business meeting held January 10th it was decided to postpone the annual supper until some time later on in the spring.

The Serving Committees for the coming month are as follows:

Feb. 4th to 11th—Misses Chase, Alexander, Strien, Parker.

Feb. 11th to 18th—Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

Feb. 18th to 25th—Misses Dean, M. Thompson, Crowder.

Feb. 25th to March 4th—Misses Manser, E. Thompson, Mrs. Cotton.

Resist Beginnings

You cannot curb the power of the river; choke its source. You cannot arrest the fury of the conflagration; put out the spark. It is almost impossible to check hatreds that have been allowed free course; never let them begin. An animosity will sometimes spring up before one knows it; make its life a brief one. Animosity grows into ill will and malignity and rancor, and these are far more hurtful to ourselves than to those against whom they are directed. Subdue them by the spirit of Christ, without which we are none of His.—Selected.

Envelope Subscribers in Arrears

The Accounting Warden has given to the Rector the names of a number of subscribers to the envelope system who are in arrears—some of them for several months. There are a few who made pledges and have not given anything through the envelopes. Some of these persons, the Rector knows, have been absent from the city, or have been ill. These persons, of course, will remit in full as soon as they are able to return to the services of the church. There are others on the list who have overlooked this duty, possibly through forgetfulness or it may be carelessness. As all pledges are entirely voluntary, any who wish to withdraw their pledges may do so at any time, by notifying the Rector or the Warden. But, until this is done, the Warden takes it for granted that the subscriber intends to fulfill his or her pledge.

There is needed about $1,000.00 for the urgent repair to the rectory roof, which must be attended to at once. It will, therefore, be a great relief to the Warden, if all who are in arrears will kindly send to him the amount due, as soon as possible.

Some Suggestions for Lent

1. Be present as far as possible at every service of the church. The benefit will be to others as well as to yourself.

2. Make your Communion more frequently and with a more definite purpose and preparation.

3. Read the Scriptures regularly and meditate upon what you read. Too many treat the Bible as a book of the past.

4. Pray until prayer becomes a habit, turning to God at all times as naturally as the flower turns to the sun.

5. Keep a strict watch over the door of your lips this Lent. If you cannot speak well of others, say nothing.

6. Deny yourself every luxury and add the cost of it to your Easter offering. The cost of self-denial should be given, not saved.

7. Refrain from entertainments and places of public amusement. "Love dissipated upon many objects concentrates itself upon none."

8. Let self-examination be a daily duty. It is not a question of where you stand, but whither you are moving.

9. Be regular in your attendance to whatever guild or society you belong. Nominal membership counts for nothing save a discouragement to others and a discredit to yourself.

10. Make your Lent positive, not merely negative. Undertake some practical work for good, and carry it through.

RECTOR

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M.A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A.M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P.M. " AT HOME, SATURDAY EVENING

"Is it nothing to you,  all ye that pass by?"

O Lord Jesus, keep me ever near Thy side in these closing days of Thy fasting, of Thy Passion and of Thy Death!

O Lord Jesus, give me of Thy Holy Spirit, that following Thee to the Cross, I may learn of Thee how to live, how to suffer and how to die!

O Lord Jesus, bring back again to Thy fold those who have strayed away (especially) and make them truly Thine!

And those who know not Thee—O Lord Jesus, give me a deep sense of my duty to them, that by my sacrifice, by my life, by my all, I may be an instrument in Thy hand of spreading Thy Kingdom upon earth, Thy peace and goodwill among men! Amen! Amen!

✠
"Is It Nothing to You All Ye That Pass by?"

The Forty Days are drawing to a close. The Lenten shadows deepen and, beneath the Paschal moon, we now enter into the mystery of the awful Passion of our Lord.

With bowed head we contemplate the Cross, rising out of the sacred hill of Calvary, and on the Cross we behold, crowned with thorns, the Immaculate Lamb of God, "who taketh away the sins of the world."

"Indeed," says a devout writer, "one scarcely ventures to write upon so sacred a subject. Christ's members should strive silently to realize it for themselves, following our Blessed Lord in thought and prayer through the scenes of His suffering and death."

Let each one of us, during this Holy Week which now draws near, this "Week of Stillness"—let each one of us leave behind all distracting thoughts, all thoughts of the world, with its petty, trifling schemes, its vanities, and contemplate in awe and reverence the closing scenes of our Lord's earthly life, from the triumphal entrance on Palm Sunday into the city He so dearly loved, until, weary and exhausted, He slowly wended His way along the via Dolorosa, passing through the gates of the city which rejected Him, up to the Mount of Calvary.

At the daily celebration of the Holy Communion during Holy Week, the Church appoints, in her Prayer Book, that each of the four Evangelists shall be heard in his narrative of the Passion and provides an appropriate Epistle and Gospel for each day.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated in Christ Church every morning at half after seven o'clock, from Palm Sunday morning until Maundy Thursday, inclusive; also on Wednesday morning at 9.30 o'clock.

Let every one who would seek to follow our Saviour during these closing hours of His Passion—every business man before going to his business, every woman before entering upon her household duties, every boy and girl before going to school—come apart for one short half hour at the beginning of each day of this Holy Week and before God's altar meditate upon the Passion of our Lord and draw near in communion with Him.

"Daily Meditations" will be held during Holy Week on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at 4.45 o'clock.

Good Friday

The daily Meditations in Holy Week will culminate on Good Friday in the Three-Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross. The service will begin at 12 o'clock noon. This three-hour vigil will be preceded by a service at half-past ten o'clock, consisting of the Penitential office, Pro-Anaphora and address.

"Before the Cross, whose cruel wood
Uphears the dying Son of God,
Today my only thought shall be:
He died thereon for love of me!"

Where else would one, who realizes the meaning of this great and awful day that commemorates the Redeemer's sufferings, want to spend these sacred hours save in the House of God, and how else, save in Meditation and in Prayer? Devout minds have found in these precious hours beside the Cross a deeper and a fuller realization of the wonderful love of God to us and the awful sinfulness of our nature. Let every seriously minded person in the Parish keep the day in solemn fasting, in humiliation and in prayer!

Easter Communion

As these solemn days of Lent draw slowly to their close, every soul that has followed our Lord during these forty days, in His fastings, in His temptations, in His sufferings and at the Cross, will be preparing and will be yearning to be with Him on the happy Resurrection morn in the joy of the Easter Communion.

Easter is the "Queen of Festivals," and throughout the Christian ages has been the "Day of Days," when the faithful have solemnized the Resurrection of our Lord by coming to the Holy Communion. Our "Holy Communion" then becomes our "Holy Eucharist," that is, as the term implies our "holy thanksgiving." In the words of the prayer of Consecration, in the Communion office, "having in remembrance His blessed Passion and precious Death, His Mighty Resurrection and glorious Ascension," we render unto God our most hearty thanks for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the same. If, then, we have spent this Lent in a faithful following of our Lord we may truly share, at the Holy Eucharist, on Easter Day, the joys of His Resurrection. On this Resurrection morn, we may "lift up our hearts" and be in the very presence of our risen Lord and unite together with all God's saints in "one holy communion and fellowship in the mystical body of His Son, Christ our Lord," and "with angels and archangels and with all the company of Heaven" join in the beatific praise, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty." This is the communion of the saints. This is the beatific vision St. John saw "when, in the spirit on the Lord's Day, Heaven was opened to him"; and this is the beatific vision vouchsafed to all God's Saints who draw near unto Him in spirit on this great Day of the Lord—The Day of His Resurrection from the Dead.

Easter Communion

Everyone, of course—everyone who considers himself a Christian and who is physically able to come to God's House, will, of course, attend Divine Service on Easter Day! It would be worse than foolish to suggest that any Christian will remain away on Easter Day! Even if there were no rubric in the Prayer Book which says, "Every parishioner shall communicate at least three times in the year, of which Easter shall be one," every Christian who rejoices in the hope of the Resurrection would want to avail himself of this privilege and be with the risen Jesus on that great Day.

Every member of the Church will devote himself during these last solemn days of Lent in preparation for the Easter Communion.

Our Easter Offering

Our offering, on Easter Day, should be an expression of our love and our loyalty to Jesus Christ. It should represent sacrifice! An Easter offering, in any other spirit, is a mere mockery, a mere travesty, a mere imitation of real religion.

Whilst I am interested in and hope that the full amount asked by the Vestry from the congregation may be, as it should be, fully realized, I am not primarily interested in the amount. I am more interested that there shall be, in every member of our parish, the true spirit of Christian giving; that each gift may be the expression of true devotion to Christ and His Church. And no gift can be called "a religious offering" that does not represent this spirit—the spirit of love and sacrifice!

There should be no small coin on the plate on Easter Day, unless the giver be very poor. In that case the offering may be more worthy and acceptable to God than the offerings of the rich.

But my observation and experience, during a long ministry, has convinced me that the small coin in the offering is not given, as a rule, by the poor. It is given by the careless, by the flippant, by the worldling. And such giving, I repeat, represents, in no sense, Christian giving; it is not a religious "offering," because it is devoid of the very essence of Christian giving—it is wanting in the spirit of love and devotion and consecration to Christ.

The Church regards the giving of money at the services in no sense "a collection." The word "collection," in reference to giving in Church, should never be used. It is an offering, an offering to God, and as such is an essential part of worship; and the rubric in the Prayer Book emphasizes this and directs that the "devotions of the people shall be brought to the priest, who shall humbly present it (to God) and place it upon the Holy Table."

David of old said, "I will not offer unto the Lord my God of that which cost me nothing." And surely if David realized the meaning and the significance of an "offering unto the Lord," no follower of Jesus Christ can be truly said to have part in the solemn and serious worship of God, who lightly "offers unto the Lord that which costs him nothing."

Christian giving is an act of joy, because it is prompted by the spirit of love. And how much love is there in the man, how much joy can come to any person—unless he is very poor—who puts on the plate a nickel or a dime or a quarter on Easter Morning? "Freely have ye received, freely give."

Easter Greetings!

A Happy Easter, full of grace and peace and joy! Out of the shadows of Good Friday the Easter light shines clear. May it, indeed, so shine into every soul in this Parish, brightening every life with radiant hope. The shadows are interpreted by the light. Looking back from Easter morn into the darkness of the preceding days, we see that darkness was the precursor of the dawn. The glad news that encircles the earth today and

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

.....
Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

visits each hamlet and village and city and makes hearts beat quicker for joy is the announcement made to the disciples of old and repeated through all the Christian centuries: "The Lord is Risen Today!" What a difference it would make if we could always see clearly in the light of Easter Day the meaning of the dark days, the failuries, the tragedies of life! God grant that at this Easter-tide we may have some measure of that transforming vision! Let us thank God for the Easter revelation of the Risen Lord, whereby we know that all darkness, whether of pain, or disappointment, or sorrow, or death itself, is, to those who live in Christ, but the herald of new light and joy. Let us rejoice, then, this day as we look into the sepulchre, "He is not here, He has risen!" Let us weave this truth and this fact into our lives! Let it give courage to the strugglers, hope to the discouraged ones, comfort to the mourners—joy to every heart; for Christ has brought life and immortality to light! "I am the Resurrection, and the Life, whoso believeth in me, though He were dead, yet shall he live, and whoso so liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

Easter Memorial Flowers

Following the custom of past years the flowers in the chancel on Easter Day will be memorials to the Blessed Dead. The Altar Guild requests that all persons who desire to remember their departed friends by memorial flowers will please send their contributions as soon as possible, either to the Rector or to Miss Elizabeth L. Chase, 152 E. Washington Lane. The members of the Guild will personally select the flowers and will see that each contribution is represented by an appropriate memorial. Persons who desire to make their own selections of blooming plants or flowers are requested to have them at the Parish House on Friday or early on Saturday morning, so that they may be arranged in the chancel before the Saturday afternoon service.

All are invited to send contributions to the Easter Memorial, either in money or flowers, and any contribution, however small, will be gratefully received.

It is earnestly hoped that not one communicant of Christ Church will remain away from the Holy Communion on Easter Day, unless Providentially hindered. Everyone should so thoroughly prepare himself during the remaining days of Lent that he may come worthily to meet his Risen Saviour, "reckoning himself to be dead indeed unto sin; but alive unto God, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Three-Hour Service on Good Friday

The Three-Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross will be conducted by the Rev. W. Northey Jones, Rector of St. Peter's Church, Perth Amboy.

Every one who possibly can do so should attend this wonderfully helpful service.

It is requested that persons shall be in the Church before the noon hour and all, who can, are asked to remain during the three hours of this solemn service. Persons entering or leaving the Church during the service are requested to do so during the singing of the hymns.

Confirmation Service

The Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D.D., will administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation in Christ Church on Maundy Thursday evening, March 24th. The Confirmation Service will be held at 7.45 o'clock.

What is Confirmation?

Confirmation follows Baptism when a person reaches the age of discretion. The laying on of hands of the Apostles (Acts viii, xix and Heb. vi) has ever been continued by the Church as 1st, the renewal of the Baptismal pledge; 2nd, Open confession of Christ; 3rd, The ordinary door to the Holy Communion; 4th, The gift of the Holy Ghost for the final perseverance. It is a rite practiced from the time of the Apostles endorsed by the fathers of the Church.

A. D. 180. Tertullian:—"After Baptism—then the Imposition of Hands"

A. D. 250. Cyprian:—"They who believed in Samaria were baptized—hands were laid on them—which is still the custom among us."

A. D. 420. St. Jerome:—"This is the custom of the Church—the Bishops Laying Hands upon them for the Invocation of the Holy Spirit."

A. D. 494. The Prayer in our Confirmation Service dates from this period. From this time on to the present there cannot be any doubt concerning Confirmation or The Laying on of Hands by the Bishop being a Ceremony of the Church.

Can we safely omit that which from the first has been insisted upon?

Methodist Testimony—"I was determined not to be without it, and therefore went and received Confirmation—even since I became a Methodist Preacher."—Dr. Adam Clarke.

Baptism Testimony—"We believe that Laying on of Hands with Prayer upon Baptized believers as such is an ordinance of Christ, and ought to be substituted unto by all such persons to partake of the Lord's Supper."

Baptist Association, Sept. 25, 1742.

Congregational Testimony—"The confession of the name of Christ is, after all, very lame, till the discipline which Christ ordained be restored, and the Rite of Confirmation be recovered to its full use and solemnity."—Dr. Coleman, Boston.

Presbyterian Testimony—"The Rite of Confirmation, thus administered to Baptized children, when arrived at competent years, shows clearly that the Primitive Church, in her purest days, exercised the authority of a Mother over her baptized children."—Committee of Gen. Assembly.

"This custom is frequently mentioned by the ancient writers. 'Such imposition I highly approve, and wish it were now restored to its primitive use unconnected by superstition.'—John Calvin.

New Envelopes for Envelope Subscribers

New sets of envelopes for the year beginning at Easter will be furnished to all, to subscribe through the Envelope

System. Former subscribers, who are pew holders, will find their envelopes in their pews; others will find their envelopes arranged in alphabetical order on the table near the South entrance.

Persons who have not subscribed—it is desired that all should do so—may find pledge cards in the racks in either vestibule or they will be furnished on application to the Verger. Please indicate by a mark the amount you desire to give weekly; sign name and address at bottom of card and place it on the alms basin at any service. A package of envelopes will then be sent to you. For rental of pews or for further information, please apply, after any service, to Mr. Richard H. Morris or to the Accounting Warden, Mr. J. I. Morrison, or by addressing the Warden at 328 South Third street.

The Church School

OUR MOTTO

Each Officer, Teacher and Scholar to Give at Least One Hour a Week to Some Work for the Good of the School.

General Grant said he proposed to fight it out if it took all summer, and we want to keep our motto before us until we get it thoroughly fixed in our minds, to follow out in winter and summer just what our motto says.

Our report for the two months since January 1st shows a good attendance record, notwithstanding the last two Sundays when weather conditions were bad. The following have been Star Classes, with every member present once: Misses Gerhardt's, Crowder's, Hamilton's, Ida Booz', Mrs. Christ, Mrs. Schaefer, Mr. Parker's, and Miss Cave's class twice. We have secured one new teacher and fourteen new scholars and our offerings for the nine Sundays have been $140.00.

On February 20th we had a very interesting talk by a Missionary, just returned from China, and the Men's Bible Class visited us for the purpose of hearing the talk and joining in our closing service. We enjoyed having them very much and hope they will come soon again.

Our Birthday Fund is growing rapidly. There seem to be a great many birthdays at this time of year, and for the benefit of those who do not know about it, will say that each one of us on our birthday puts in one penny for each year of his or her age. Last Sunday we had a surprise. We found one of our members was 200 years old, as we received a two-dollar bill.

We have installed a question box in which every member is invited to put a slip of paper with constructive suggestions. We have already received one or two good ideas.

The Mite Boxes for our Lenten offerings for missions have been given to every scholar with the suggestion to place them on the bureau and put some coin in each night before going to bed, so that when Easter comes we will find our offering is larger than ever before. Last year we gave about $230, and we hope to have over $250 this year, and we have no objection whatever to fathers and mothers helping us out.

Additional Mite Boxes will be provided when the first one is filled up.

Our Easter services will be held at 7.30 Easter evening in the Church, and we hope that the Rev. Mr. Hogue will speak to us. He will come to us, not as a stranger, but almost as a member of the school, as we already have three of his family as our faithful members.

Christ Church Sunday School wishes our parents and friends and all members of the Church

A Very Happy Eastertide.

✠ Election of Vestrymen

The Annual Election of Vestrymen of this Parish will be held in the Parish House on Easter Monday, March 28th, between the hour of 5 and 6 P. M.

The terms of the following members of the Vestry expire this year: J. I. Morrison, Edward Bains and U. G. Rowley. The vacancy caused by the death of Henry R. Baremore is also to be filled.

The following excerpt is from the By-Laws of Christ Church. By-Law, Article I, Section 8. "Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestryman one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the Secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the south-east vestibule of the Church at least two Sundays prior to the holding of such election, and no person so nominated shall be a candidate."

(Charter of Incorporation, Article 6.)

"The Vestry of said Church shall consist of twelve men to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereat. Such elections shall be by ballot and shall be held on Easter Monday in each and every year, between such hours and upon such notice as the by-laws of said Church may provide, and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said Church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of this Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of at least two years next preceding any such election, annual subscription of not less than ten dollars each, or the like sum in annual rental of pew or sitting for the same period."

Vestrymen as Guides in Spirituality

As indicating that vestrymen need not necessarily confine their influence within a parish to purely material matters, the following circular letter recently addressed by the members of the vestry to the parishioners of St. John's Church, Knoxville, Tenn., bears witness:

"In an address recently made to the congregation of our church, the Rector incidentally called attention to the fact that the average number of persons partaking of the Holy Communion at the regular service on the first Sunday of the month is only about one-sixth of the number of the confirmed persons on the record of the parish.

"While neither as vestrymen nor individually do we wish to be considered as dictating to others their duty as churchmen we do, in the most fraternal spirit possible, invite your attention to the fact that our people are not as mindful as they should be of the privilege which is theirs, of heeding the Master's injunction: 'Do this in remembrance of Me.' It is the one way in which we, as Christian men and women, can show our loyalty to Christ our Saviour, manifest the faith we profess, and prove that we are not ashamed of that profession of our religion.

"We beg you to consider this matter not as a duty, but as the exercise of the spirit of true worship, as an aid to personal religious strength, as the real source of a quiet mind and a calm temper in the midst of this changing and transitory life, as the means of reviving our faith in our Lord if it has been neglected, forgotten, or denied, and as the guide into the way of truth and in righteousness of life.

"We also wish to know that as vestrymen and your chosen stewards, we most heartily commend and endorse the present plans for the support of missions, both foreign and diocesan, and every good work which is being carried on in our parish life for the upbuild of Christ's Kingdom and the good of our fellow-men."

The letter was signed by twelve vestrymen.

The Women's Auxiliary

The Lenten season seems to have given a fresh impetus to the work of the Women's Missionary Society. The sewing classes, held every Friday from 11 o'clock in the morning until 3 in the afternoon, have been well attended. The work apportioned to our parish by the Diocesan Supply Bureau is well under way. Those wishing to stay for the entire day bring their lunch, and the noon hour of rest and refreshment is a very pleasant diversion in the day's work.

At a quarter past three the Mission Study Class is held. We feel that we have been most fortunate in securing Mrs. Porcher to lead us in these classes. She has made them most interesting and instructive.

The regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary has been changed from the third Thursday to the third Friday of the month. At these meetings we plan ways of raising money for missionary work! We have sent out envelopes to many women of the congregation, asking them to lay aside a certain sum each week for this purpose. We are glad to say that sixty women have responded and offered to give a definite amount each week. We hope to receive replies from the other women.

We are going to hold a sale of aprons and other useful articles on Friday, April 8th. There will also be a luncheon served on that day, to which all women are invited.

We have great expectations, but we will need everyone's help and cooperation to realize them. We make an earnest plea to every woman member of Christ Church to help us. A. F. W.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild will be at the church Saturday morning, March 19th, to split palms and decorate for Palm Sunday. We will also spend the day at the church Saturday, March 26th, decorating for Easter. The flowers in the Chancel on Easter are in memory of the departed. Members of the congregation who wish to send memorial flowers are asked to have them at the Parish House on Saturday morning, March 26th. Anyone preferring to send money contributions for the flowers may send the same, as soon as possible, either to the Rector or to Miss Elizabeth Chase, 152 East Washington Lane, and the flowers will be purchased by the Altar Guild.

We were very glad to have Mr. Arndt with us at our last meeting held February 14th. He gave us a very helpful talk.

The sewing committees for the coming month are as follows:

March 18th to 25th, Misses Dean, M. Thompson, Crowder.

March 25th to 31st, Misses Manser, E. Thompson, Mrs. Cotton.

April 1st to 8th, Misses Chase, Alexander, Strien, Parker.

April 8th to 15th, Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge. G.D.

RECTOR

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, M.A.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY 6.00 to 8.00 P. M. " AT HOME, SATURDAY EVENING

The Easter Communion

Four hundred and eighty-nine persons received Holy Communion in Christ Church on Easter Day. This is the largest number on record. It represents about eighty per cent of the Communicant list of the Parish. This is a splendid showing and is evidence of a general realization of the spiritual privileges which should be enjoyed by all. It is hoped that it also has an intensive meaning—a deepening of the spiritual life of the Parish.

Of the twenty per cent of Communicants who were absent on Easter Day, the Rector believes that he can account for about seven per cent, who were sick or too feeble to attend Church; about three per cent, who were out of town; about five per cent, who come under the caption "arrested spiritual development," in other words, "worldly" or careless; and the remaining five per cent of those absent come under the head of "dead wood"—those who seem to have become dead to every spiritual appeal and influence. May the Holy Spirit touch their hearts and bring them again to life and light!

Our thoughts and our prayers were for those who were sick or too feeble to be present in Church on Easter Day. We paused and remembered many, by name, as we prayed in the Communion Service, "We most humbly beseech Thee, of Thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succor all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness or any other adversity." And, as the memorial flowers which filled the chancel and covered the altar brought to mind the memories of the blessed dead, our thoughts went out to them in our prayers: "We also bless Thy holy name for all Thy servants departed this life in Thy faith and fear; beseeching Thee to give us grace so to follow their good example, that with them we may be partakers of Thy heavenly kingdom."

What a blessed privilege it was—this Easter Communion with our Risen Lord! And each Sunday is an Easter Day—it is the Lord's Day. What a perpetual spiritual feast our Sundays would be if we but remembered this! God grant that we all may make them so! Amen!

A Request to Every Communicant

The Rector repeats his request to all persons in this Parish who attend the service of the Holy Communion. The request is this: After receiving at the Holy Communion, return to your seats and remain to the end of the service, until after the benediction.

Unless ill or physically unable to remain, PLEASE do not leave the Church until the service is over! Can I put the request more kindly? If so, I want to do it, and shall be glad to be told how. But I must insist that this request be complied with by all. Everyone will realize the propriety and the reasonableness of this request. It is most distasteful to the Rector to have to repeat it. He hopes that he will not be compelled to do so.

A Gratifying Response

A year ago the Rector asked a number of persons in the Parish if they would be willing to contribute on the first Sunday of each month, through a special envelope sent out by the Rector, a definite amount toward the Rector's "Exigency Fund," which is devoted to the poor of the Parish and other cases of need which the Rector is called upon to meet. Through the generous response from certain persons the Rector's Exigency Fund was greatly increased. These monthly pledges have now terminated, and it is hoped that they will be renewed by the former givers, and that others also will remember the object of this offering on the first Sunday morning of each month and be led to become regular monthly contributors to the Rector's "Exigency Fund."

The Easter Offering

The Rector wishes to express his gratification and appreciation of the generous response that the members of the congregation made on Easter Day to the appeal of the Vestry. The Vestry asked for $1198.00 as an Easter offering. The amount received was $1390.00, about $200.00 more than was asked for. This excess will be expended on some needed repairs to the Church property.

A generous recognition of the part which the Churches play in raising funds for our great benevolences was recently made in an editorial in one of our New York dailies, because more than $3,000,000 had been raised by the Churches for the China fund. The general secretary of the Near East Relief, Charles V. Vickrey, writing to the editor of the Post, said:

I have before me the auditors' report of the receipts and disbursements of Near East Relief. It shows that since the outbreak of the war the American people have contributed to Armenian, Syrian and other relief in the Near East more than $45,000,000. I am rather intimately acquainted with the source of these contributions and know that the money has come for the most part either direct from Churches or from people whose ideals of stewardship and humanitarian service came from early Sunday School and Church training.

The Churches, directly or indirectly, carry the burdens of the world's charity funds. They have always done so. Church people not only willingly support churches for the occasional use of people who do not support them but make a convenience of them, but they also give to the hundred and one missionary and benevolent causes for which pleas are made from the chancel. There are some very cheap, shoddy people, who spend their incomes on themselves, who make slighting remarks sometimes about church people. Well, what sort of a world would this be if church people followed the example of some of these critics on the outside?

The Ascension

Three great Feasts of the Church Year follow immediately after Easter—the feast of the Ascension, Whitsunday and Trinity. The Feast of the Ascension occurs forty days after Easter. During these forty days after our Lord's Resurrection, He intimately associated with His Apostles, "whom He had chosen," to whom He gave commandments, "speaking unto them of the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God." He instructed them concerning His Church, which He came to found upon Earth. "Ye shall receive power, after Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, and in Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

The fortieth day after His Resurrection has arrived. He assembles His Apostles upon the Mount of Olivet. Even those closest in thought and sympathy with Him could have had but faint realization that He was going away, in order that the Comforter might come to illuminate their dull understanding, and lead them into all truth. "It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go away I will send Him unto you." Until the Holy Spirit should come more fully, they were unable to comprehend spiritual mysteries. Overflowing with love for His disciples and for all who should believe on Him through them, He raised those pierced hands in Divine blessing. Then the Son of Man and the Son of God rises by His own power into Heaven.

Awe-struck, dumb with amazement, even the impulsive Peter finds no words to say. They silently gaze upon the fast-receding form and see His loving face and His pierced hands outstretched in benediction upon the world that had rejected Him. "A cloud receives Him out of their sight;" and still they gaze entranced in heart-felt worship and lofty contemplation. Then angels, sent back by the Triumphant King, announce to them that He who had promised to be with them to the end of the world and had bade them wait at Jerusalem "until they should be endued with power from on high," would Himself come again to judge both the quick and the dead.

And then the disciples, no longer doubting, but full of joy, knowing Christ, no more after the flesh, but after the Spirit, returned to Jerusalem to wait for the descent of the Paraclet (Holy Spirit).

We learn from the Psalms the glorious words of welcome which rang through the courts of Heaven, as the triumphal substance of our Lord and His angelic host swept through the starry firmament.

"Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

"Who is the King of glory; it is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

"Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

"Who is the King of glory; even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory."

"Sing praises to God, sing praises unto our King; God reigneth over the heathen; God sitteth upon the throne of His holiness."

One special thought is voiced in our meditation upon the Ascension. It is the solemn truth that as He went, so will He return. That day is not revealed, yet many devout hearts seem already to hear the gathering together of the angelic hosts, the reading of the roll-call of the great army of heaven, the preparations for the sound of the last trumpet, and they believe that not very far distant is the time when the sign of the Son of Man will appear.

Whitsunday

The Promise is fulfilled! the Comforter is come!

"When the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."

The Apostles, before so weak, so timid, so full of fear are now made bold and intrepid and strong, "are endued with power from on high" and go out fearlessly in His power and His might to preach the Gospel to the ends of the world, to suffer and to die for their risen and ascended Lord. The coming of the Holy Ghost was the seal from the Most High, which certified all the whole Gospel to be from God.

In this blessed feast of Whitsunday, the feast of the Holy Spirit, which is the birthday of the Church, the culmination of our Lord's Incarnation is attained. He ascended that the Spirit of love, of truth, the spirit of God might abide with His Church forever, uniting its members one with another and all to the great Heart of Jesus, that through the guidance of the Holy Spirit we might be led unto all knowledge, truth and holiness, that all

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

who call upon His Holy Name, might be made strong, like the Apostles, willing to sacrifice and to suffer and to die for the Lord Jesus. The Holy Spirit has come to abide in His Church forever. He is present in the Sacraments, at Baptism, at Confirmation, at the Holy Communion. In studying the Epistles we are told that by His influence love is shed abroad in our hearts; through Him we abound in hope, and are full of joy and peace. We learn that we are sealed with this Spirit of Promise, even unto the day of redemption. Only by His aid can we pray aright, through His grace we have communion with the departed saints. It is the Spirit who imparts to us the Christ Life, for it is by His power that we receive Jesus Christ in the Sacrament of His Body and Blood. All this is summed up in the Preface to the Trisagion, appointed to be said on Whitsunday at the Holy Communion, "whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error, into the clear light and true knowledge of Thee, and of Thy Son Jesus Christ."

The Holy Spirit must not be thought of as merely a force, or love, proceeding from God. The Holy Spirit is God, abiding in the world. He dwells within each pure and contrite heart, and our bodies are His temples.

"And His the gentle voice we hear,

Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each thought, that calms
each fear,

And speaks of heaven."

Loving, persuasive and tender is the ministry of the Spirit, yet in stern and awful warning stands the most terrible threat that can be found in holy Writ, for him who rejects His voice, and the threat falls from the tender lips of our Saviour: "Whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come."

Trinity Sunday

The doctrinal half of the Church Year culminates at Trinity Sunday. This first half lays stress on doctrine; from now on until Advent Season the emphasis is upon life—the practical outcome of Christian doctrine, Christian living. First comes faith; hence from Advent to Trinity the emphasis is placed upon doctrine. Then comes works; hence the teachings set forth each Sunday from now on to the end of the Church's year, relates to Christian life. "Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God" are the words that are found in the Epistle appointed to be read on the first Sunday after Trinity.

The reception of truth must be gradual. Hence the Church leads us step by step from Advent to Trinity Sunday. In Advent is heralded the miraculous Birth of the wondrous child; at Christmas the heavenly host proclaims from the starry firmament "the good tidings of great joy"; on Epiphany Jesus is manifested to the Gentile world; through Lent we enter into our Saviour's Temptations; in Gethsemane we witness His agony; on Good Friday we see our Saviour die for us, and are forced to cry with the centurion, "Truly this was the Son of God." On the glorious feast of Easter we see Him rise triumphant over death; then on Holy Thursday we behold His glorious Ascension into Heaven there to sit at the right hand of the Father; while on Whitsunday we are taught that the Comforter, even the Spirit of Truth, has come to dwell in His Church and in our hearts forever.

Thus does the Church prepare us for the culmination of her teaching, enabling us to grasp by faith the mystery of the doctrine of the Trinity.

Along the Church's central space
The sacred weeks with unfelt pace,
Have borne us on from grace to grace.

The Trinity in Unity is the highest mystery that is revealed to us.

Can we learn anything in regard to this mystery by analogy? Each individual consists of soul, body and spirit, but one man. Our mental nature possesses intellect, affections and will. In nature there are three great divisions,

Earth's triple frame, land, air and sea
Upraise their canticle to Thee.

The tree with its root, trunk and branches; the oneness under three forms, water, ice and steam; the three notes blending into a perfect chord; the three dimensions that make a solid body, length breadth and thickness; the three kingdoms that make up our planet, the vegetable, animal and mineral; the division of time into past, present and future. These and many more analogies come as suggestions of the great truth of Trinity in Unity.

But argument and reason are of little weight before the powerful and convincing knowledge which comes through faith. Now, our finite minds cannot understand the infinite. Now, we walk by faith and not by sight. "We know in whom we believe." "Now, we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face; now, I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known."

All Should Subscribe Through the Envelopes

Will all persons in the Parish who have not as yet subscribed through the envelope system please take a pledge card which will be found in the racks in the vestibule of the Church and subscribe the amount they are willing to give weekly to the support of the work of the Church? A large majority of the attendants at the services of the Church are already registered on the books of the Parish, as regular contributors. It is desired that every one shall be included in this honor roll. Let there be no shirkers. Let every member of every family in the Parish have his or her personal envelopes. Religion responsibility is a personal responsibility. Let the honor roll of systematic contributors consist during the coming year of 100 per cent of the membership of the Parish! All supporters, no slackers!

The Religious Tramp Problem

The following article is taken from a secular paper, the "Literary Digest":

"The pest of religious society is the 'Church Tramp.' This class of undesirables and the sensationalists who have helped to create it are thus described by the Christian Century:

"The religious tramp is a phenomenon of a serious nature for the churches. He is not a foe of religion. He is, indeed, a believer, in a way, although he asserts with a pseudo-liberality that 'one church is as good as another.' He travels around in the 'special services' which one church after another serves up to secure a crowd. The churches often do not go behind the returns. There are crowds and they are crowds. The church tramp is a Christian who refuses to assume any responsibilities. He does not want to work regularly. He does not want to give regularly, though he drops a chance nickel into the plate. His attitude is one of unconcern with regard to the welfare of the churches. He gets his amusement and his sociability from the churches at the minimum of expense. He asks for no more. Just now in many communities the churches are actively competing for the presence of the church tramp. With concerts and secular lectures and moving pictures of doubtful religious value, they seek to bring the floaters to their places of worship. Their success is as transient as is the interest of the people who come. The cure for church tramps is a serious attitude on the part of the church. Smaller audiences may follow such an attitude, but they will be audiences yielding a more permanent harvest to religion. The serious-minded pastor may not be known just now as a crowd-getter, but he will be known in the end as a church-builder.

"Meanwhile, the honest doubter outside the church is not offended by the flippancy in the face of problems which to him are of life-and-death importance. When the church makes her appeal to truth-seekers and not to the sensation-seekers, she will be a stronger church."

Election of Vestrymen

At the annual election of Vestrymen of Christ Church, held on Easter Monday, the following persons were elected vestrymen to serve for the term of three years: J. I. Morrison, Edward Bains, U. G. Rowley and Ernest Blood. The Judges of Election were William S. Crowder, George C. Foust, U. G. Rowley. At the first meeting of the Vestry the Rector appointed Mr. James M. Woodroffe Rector's Warden. Mr. J. I. Morrison was elected Accounting Warden, and Mr. Francis B. Falkner, Secretary. Messrs. Woodroffe, Potter and Morris were elected delegates to the Diocesan Convention and Germantown Convocation.

Services on Ascension Day

The services on Ascension Day (Holy Thursday) will be Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M.; Holy Communion and Sermon at 11 A. M. In the evening the congregation of Christ Church are invited to a united service at the Church of the Epiphany, Carpenter Street and Lincoln Drive, at eight o'clock. The music will be furnished by the combined choirs of the Church of the Epiphany and Christ Church, and the special preacher will be the Rev. Samuel Booth. The members of Christ Church are asked to attend this united service at the Church of the Epiphany on Ascension Day evening, May 5th.

Confirmation

On Maundy Thursday evening the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D. D., visited this Parish and administered the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The class included the following persons: Mary Dazell Atherton, Katherine Elizabeth Armstrong, Ann Ingram Courtney, Thomas Fisher Duling, (Mrs.) Ella Gomeringer, Jessie Minerva Hance, Elizabeth Haas, Mary Huntington Hogue, Arthur Kuhfuss, Dorella Gruller Lukens, May Matthews, Raymond Krueshas Madden, Elma Rhoads Pinkerton, (Mrs.) Mabel Smith, Mary Elizabeth Smith, Ruth Margaret Robinson, Marjorie Mary Wismer, Elizabeth Arden Wertsner, Helen Wertsner, Anne Beasley Wertsner, Katherine Wertsner.

The Church Periodical Club

In every family in Christ Church there should be at least one contributor to the Church Periodical Club.

It is so easy to mail magazines, etc., away after they have been read that we feel that there would be many more contributors if all realized now highly the receipt of such reading matter is appreciated.

A member of our congregation recently arranged to send a magazine to a lady in a small town in South Dakota, whose name was given to him by Mrs. Topliffe Johnson, Secretary of the Club. He wrote to her, telling her that he had sent the magazines, and, thinking that she would be interested, sent her also a CHRIST CHURCH KALENDAR and a copy of the CHIMES.

The letter that he received in acknowledgment illustrates so forcibly the value of the work in which the Church Periodical Club is engaged that we are giving it below in full.

"My Dear Mr. ———

"I feel very apologetic for my delay in acknowledging all your kindnesses to us—in our lonely Missionary Post—first, the Kalendar is a joy and helps us so much in or teaching—we are still on the frontier—and doing real primitive work—as far as the church is concerned—and have some very funny and, of course, also some very pathetic experiences.

"I have delayed writing until I could tell you something about the American Magazine—we appreciate that—for our nurses have no recreation or diversion nor have we had reading matter, until I made a plea to the Periodical Club, so both nurses and patients will enjoy the American. We do much reading to our patients.

"You seem interested in my capacity here. I came to South Dakota as the Bishop's general missionary. First I was out on the Reservation as community worker among the Indians—then when this emergency came he sent me here, trying to link up the Indian work with the mission and encouraging the Indians to bring their sick here, so I am not a patient, but very much a jack of all trades—nurse, general manager, secretary, etc., etc., and oh, it is all so fascinatingly interesting.

"Thank you for the CHRIST CHURCH CHIMES. It is good to know what real work is being done with the service in all its beauty. I was in Philadelphia two years at the Deaconess House—so I often think of the privileges and joys of the church there. We have a joy, too, here in the crudities and humility of spirit and the keen appreciation of Christianity.

"But—bells are ringing—I thank you again for all your interest and kindness to us. We realize it is the interest of such friends as you who make our work possible. Your interest and prayers are our support.

"Most cordially,
_____"

If you are not already a contributor to the Club consult our Local Secretary, Mrs. Topliffe Johnson, who will be glad to give you particulars and to welcome your aid. Surely every one in the Parish has some magazine which they will be willing to send where it will be highly appreciated. Do it now!

The Sunday School

Our Easter service was one of the most successful we have held. The attendance of both scholars and members of the Church was very large. The singing was good and the address of the Rev.

Mr. Hogue had a real message for all of us.

The Superintendent gave diplomas to the following primary scholars, who were promoted to the main school:

Elizabeth Bose, Frank Cake, Helen Dove, Anna Johnson, Richard Smith, Anna Bell Bradley, Elizabeth Cupitt, Clara Hillard, Wm. Lapworth, Eugene Unruh, Mabel Briggs, Margaret Dillon, Helen Jackson, Helen Logan, Beatrice Unruh.

He also presented a remembrance from the School to those with a record of continuous attendance. We can only mention those who have been present over 100 Sundays without missing:

Mrs. Baisbrown	322	Sundays
Margaret Robinson . . .	191	"
Katherine Wertsner . .	130	"
Hilda Ellis	119	"
Marg. Courtney	112	"
Annie Wertsner	201	"
Chas. Buchenhorst . . .	182	"
Beatrice Spooner	121	"
Elizabeth Haas	118	"
Helen McHenry	104	"

Our Lenten Offering for Missions, which was presented at the Easter service, was over $260.

We have now completed our first year of the weekly envelope system. The total amount given during the year was $865, and what is more important, we "made good" on our pledges 94%, only about $50 being unpaid.

On Easter we had 248 on the roll (exclusive of the Bible Classes), an increase of 14 scholars since January 1st. For the last three Sundays we have had over 200 present, or over 80% of the roll. In addition to this, the Men's and Women's Bible Classes have averaged 54 persons present. On March 27th we had 208 present, exclusive of Bible Classes, the largest number in several years, and there were six "Star" classes:

Miss Gerhard's, Mr. Parkers', Mr. Feist's, Miss Richards', Mrs. Christ's and Miss Gray's.

We are very glad to say that Miss Dorothy Gill has returned to the School as a teacher and has taken charge of the fifteen scholars that have been promoted from the Primary Department and will give them a special course of instruction.

Our special work for the next two months is an offering to be taken next Sunday, April 24th, for the College Settlement House, to help "give a day in the country" for the poor children in closely built-up parts of the city.

We are also going to take upon ourselves the work of brightening up the Main School and Primary Department rooms, by giving them a coat of paint this summer and other improvements that we need. One class is going to give a cake sale. Another class is arranging for an interesting lecture.

As the plan is only a week old, we have not had time to hear from the rest of the classes as to what they are going to do.

Anyway, we are all going to "get busy" on this. Maybe some parents will want to help us in this badly needed improvement. "We are willing!"

Our plans for this summer are not completed yet but hope to announce them next month.

The Daughters of the King

The Daughters of the King have held monthly meetings during the winter. Part of the evening has been spent in reporting visits made and arranging future work. The balance of the evening has been given to Bible Study. The Local Assembly of the Order will hold its annual meeting at this Church on Wednesday, May 25. We are arranging for an afternoon session, at which time there will be interested speakers; at 6.30 a supper will be served, and at 7.30 there will be a service in the Church. Bishop Rhinelander will preach at this service. Invitations to these meetings will be sent to the other parishes in the diocese, in the hope that we may have a large attendance, not only of our own people, but of many others whom we hope to interest in the work.

H. F. A.

The Mothers' Meeting

During the past year the attendance at the Mothers' Meeting has been unusually large. This has meant not only an increase in our pleasant times, but it has meant an increase in the amount of work accomplished. We have been able to fill many orders for aprons, towels and rugs. We have finished a large patch-work quilt, which will be sent to a missionary. We have helped in the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, and we have also assisted in the making of aprons for the apron sale, and in serving the luncheon at the sale. Our contribution to the United Thank Offering was $14.22. Mrs. F. O. Pinkerton and Mrs. Francis B. Falkner have alternated with Mrs. Rowley in being present at the meetings and assisting with the work. We are very much pleased to add the names of Mrs. Pinkerton and Mrs. Falkner to the list of Directors. The meeting will soon be closed, but we expect to hold our annual picnic during the first week of June. We feel that the winter has been a profitable and successful one, and we are looking forward with great pleasure to reopening in the fall.

A Message to Men, from a Member of the Men's Bible Class

THE SEVEN-THIRTY CLUB

Here is something worth while. A matter in which it is hoped every man and boy who is a communicant of our Church will become interested.

The only meetings of this Club are held on the third Sunday morning of each month at 7.30 in the church and the only object is to encourage the attendance of men and boys at the Holy Communion.

It is, perhaps, not generally known that a large number of the male communicants are lax in their attendance at this, the main service of our Church. Many allow months to pass and some even years without coming to the source from which all spiritual life flows. This is not right. Perpetual motion is still, and very likely will continue to be, unknown, and without recharging, every battery will become "dead." This applies to spiritual energy as well as physical.

The only way this apathy can be overcome is by those who are now coming to the Holy Communion at stated periods becoming more regular and by example and invitation helping the man who is irregular or not attending at all to become regular.

If this principle is faithfully carried out the result will be manifold. Those who may not feel the need of this movement will, by joining in the effort, find a greater personal benefit accruing from their participation and also by helping the "other fellow" fulfill one of the obligations taken at Baptism. It also enables this "other fellow" to enjoy the blessings which he has been neglecting and thereby makes him stronger and better fitted to stand up against the forces of evil he is called upon to face daily.

The Parish also will profit, as no man who faithfully and regularly comes to this power house for recharging can fail to pass on some of the energy received and by engaging in the various activities provided will increase the productive value of the organization. This naturally will have its effect outside of our Parish, and so the little seed, planted in some heart at one of these services, may become a great tree, spreading out its branches, thus affording opportunity for others to secure comfort and help.

What the result of this effort upon our Rector will be is hardly necessary of enumeration and will be left to him to declare when the object has become productive. It is, however, up to every man to decide now that he will support this movement, and it is hoped that all who know the spiritual good which comes from the Holy Communion will, unless unavoidably detained, be present on May 15 at 7.30 A. M.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The reports given at the April meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary were most encouraging. During the past winter this has been more given towards missions, through this channel than for many years. The response to the suggestions of giving small sums weekly through an envelope system has been most gratifying. About seventy women have pledged from five to twenty-five cents a week—totaling over four hundred dollars yearly. The Apron Sale and Luncheon, given on April 8, were most successful. The amount cleared was over one hundred and thirty dollars, which will be devoted to missions. We are very much pleased with our financial success, for it means that we shall be able to respond to the many appeals which come to us as an Auxiliary, but we are particularly pleased with the interest which has been created in the work. We feel that this is only a beginning of larger things, and we are looking forward to next winter with the hope and assurance of our work increasing in the personal interest of all the women in the Parish.

There will be one more meeting of the Auxiliary (May the 20), at which time there will be an election of officers for the ensuing year, and a full report of the work will be given.

Girls' Friendly Society

The Girls' Friendly Society is as active as ever. We have been having crowded meetings ever Tuesday night. We have now finished our Lenten sewing and are working on some very interesting things. One of these is stenciling designs on oil-cloth sets. Can you imagine anything more fascinating than that?

Also, we try to do little good deeds along our way. Last Tuesday night we took our "talent" to the Home of Rest at Wayne and Haines Streets and tried to bring a little bit of sunshine into the lives of the aged ladies there. If you saw our entertainment last fall you know what we mean by our "talent." On this special evening it consisted of eighteen very lively girls who sang and danced and played and recited. The ladies seemed to enjoy the entertainment very much, and I feel safe in saying that they didn't enjoy it more than we did. We certainly hope to do something like that very soon again.

And now we have something new up our sleeves. No, I won't tell you what it is yet, because I want you to keep guessing. Be on the lookout for the next G. F. S. in the CHIMES' notice and maybe you'll hear something more then.

The Day's Work of the Average Minister

The following article appears in the last issue of the "Parish Helper," the very excellent monthly publication of the Parish of St. Luke and the Epiphany. The Rector, the Rev. Dr. D. M. Steele, prefaces the article by stating that he had clipped it from another parish paper. Modified in minor details, the article is descriptive of a minister's work in the "average" parish.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY

In these days we hear much about the eight-hour day, of Saturday half-holiday, of early closing of stores during the summer months, of innumerable national and other holidays in the interest of the alleged down-trodden laboring man and that imaginary tired business man. But do we hear any such wide-spread movement in the interest of the ministers of our churches? Has it occurred to anyone to ask what the average minister's hours of labor are?

Nearly everyone else rests on Sunday; but Sunday, their day of rest, is the minister's hardest work day. Two sermons, or one sermon and a supposedly easier address are the usual stint for the average minister on Sunday; i. e., an hour of speaking and three or four hours of conducting of services. You may not realize the physical and nervous strain that this involves; but it is there, nevertheless. And ministers feel it, many of them, at the conclusion of their twelve or fourteen-hour day, to the point of exhaustion.

WHICH IS REST DAY?

Sunday, I have said, is the minister's hardest work day. Have you ever paused to consider which day in the week is the minister's rest day? There is a sort of fable that he takes Monday off. Does he? He does not. Is there any day in the week, any hour of the day or night for that matter, when, if you were in distress and sent for the minister, he would not come? Has anyone ever heard the minister say: "I have worked my eight hours—or nine or even twelve or twenty hours—today, and therefore if I come I'll have to charge time and a half for overtime. If I don't I'll get in bad with the Union?"

It seems like unwonted levity to ask such a question. But it might be asked in dead seriousness. Because we know, when we pause to think, that the minister has no rest day. His working time is all the time. He must always hold himself subject, both night and day, Sunday and weekday, to the call of the lowliest as well as the wealthiest member of his flock. He is, he must be, the impartial servant of all. "Six days shalt thou labor and do all that thou hast to do" is a good commandment, but it is a poor injunction. It is good for him to preach, but it is hard, it is impossible, for him to practice.

WORK IS CONTINUOUS

But worse than this constant treadmill is the constant strain on his emotions. He can never lock up his desk at the end of his day and go home and forget it. He has it always on his mind. He has, or ought to have, his work always on his heart. Business men and working men, when their day's work is done, leave their business cares and responsibilities behind them as they enter the doors of their homes. But can the minister do this?

Perhaps you think the minister is not in great demand because you have never needed him. But that proves nothing for the other hundred or five hundred or thousand members of his church. Rare are the homes, writes an average minister, to one of the religious papers, in which I have not stood bowed with grief; few are they, young or old, with whom I have not sat in counsel over sorrows, problems, pains and joys. The minister cannot advertise such things, and of twenty calls paid, the church, as a body, may not know even of one.

TIME-CONSUMING CALLS

And have you ever thought of what the "calls" of the average minister mean in the expenditure of merest time and energy? Take a church of three hundred families. More probably there are six hundred addresses. The average minister tries to call on each—I don't say he does, that he has either the time or the energy—but his ideal is to call on each member of each family at least once a year. Six hundred calls a year, lasting, say, half an hour each, three hundred hours of calling, how many full days of eight hours each would be spent in talking with his parishioners only once, each, every year, and that supposing he found them at home. But he does not, sometimes not once in a half dozen times. Therefore, how many times more must you multiply this? And if to this you add the time expended in going to and from the homes of his parishioners an average of half a mile each way, maybe a mile for the round trip, so to speak, he must walk six hundred miles, an average of two miles a day and then, like as not, walk it over again. Why, the postman has nothing on him. Expressed in days of eight hours, he must spend, every year, twenty-five entire days in merely walking the streets to see his parishioners.

CONSIDER HIS SERMON

Again, consider his sermons: One hundred and four on Sundays, fifty-two week-day or night addresses, one hundred and fifty-six in all, averaging half an hour each. Seventy-eight hours—nearly ten solid days of eight hours each—in the actual work of preaching! Of course, you may say this is harder to listen to. But that is not quite the point. You do not have to hear them all. He has to speak them all.

And now, how long does it take the average minister to prepare his sermon? A previous speaker has quoted the Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon as saying that eight hours a day for six days in the week is barely time enough in which to prepare one good sermon. And when two good sermons are demanded, Dr. Sheldon adds, the requirement passes the bounds of the possible. Nevertheless, we know that the average minister has to do so many impossible things that I shall assume that three discourses are prepared with care each week, and not only one, as Dr. Sheldon computes.

THE LABOR OF WRITING

The average sermon requiring thirty minutes to deliver has approximately five thousand words. Three such things a week would require fifteen thousand words. The average minister's ideal is to write each sermon out on paper before delivering it. Now listen. Merely to transcribe fifteen thousand words, simply to copy them out of a book—without thinking, without preparation, without reference to the logical development of ideas or the niceties of style—would require, at twenty words to the minute, which is faster than the average man can write longhand, seven hundred and fifty minutes—twelve and a half hours—over one and a half days out of each week for the purely mechanical, unintelligent, manual laborious part of preparing three sermons.

Seventy-eight days out of every year with pencil or pen; seven hundred and eighty thousand words a year; the equivalent of twelve fair-sized novels or other books, an average of one a month, think of it? And then ask yourself if it is possible. And then consider that this is the ideal of the average minister; what he tries to do, what he would actually do if, as Dr. Sheldon says, he were super-human! Do you wonder that he does not get it all done well?

TIME FOR PREPARATION

But don't forget! This only refers to the mechanics of sermon-making. It ignores entirely the study and research and reflection necessary to the preparation of any sermon which can hope to benefit an average congregation. Allow only one day's preparation for each sermon, and three days of the week are gone in preparation, and one and a half in writing them, four and a half days, including Sunday, for all his other duties. And this is, of course, impossible. It would be impossible even if those "other" duties were light. But that is only the point where the time-consuming part of his work really begins.

THE MINISTER'S TIME-CARD

I have more than exhausted the time allotted to me, but I cannot conclude without giving you a fairly accurate estimate of how many days in the year, of eight hours each, the average minister works. I have assumed that his church has three hundred families; for a smaller or a larger field you can mentally divide or multiply my figures relating to calls and to many things else.

156 Sermons, study and reflection	156 days
156 Sermons, writing (780,000 words)	78 "
52 Sundays	52 "
3 Hours a week given to Church finances.....	20 "
1 Hour a week given to Church music and other programs	6 "
3 Hours a week average for funerals, weddings and christenings	18 "
1,200 Half-hour parochial calls or at least in attempt to make calls.....	75 "
6 Half - hour emergency and distress calls a week	20 "
600 Miles, walking to pay calls	25 "
6 Hours a week, conferences with church officers and committees...	36 "
1 Hour a week attending Church and Sunday School organizations...	6 "
1 Hour a week preparation for Bible School.....	6 "
1 Hour a week, denominational conferences....	6 "
1 Hour a day given to civic and community work.	40 "
? Hours a day for unclassified work	? "

Total number of days to the year

Plus

It will thus be seen that the average minister, on a minimum computation of the time required in which to perform his great variety of duties, must work two hundred and eighteen days overtime, figuring eight hours to the day if he is to indulge any hope of performing those duties acceptably and well. He must work five hundred and eighty-three eight-hour days in all—or to get the work done in three hundred and sixty-five days he would have to work eighteen hours a day and never take any hours to eat, or given an hour to each meal, he would have to spend twenty-four hours a day and never sleep, and that every day in the week, and then Sunday.

Then some dear good lady calls him on the telephone and invites: "If you haven't anything else to do, won't you come up to lunch?" Some vacuous person asks him: "What do you do for exercise?" Somebody else complains: "You never drop in for my afternoons at home. I am in every Wednesday." My dear madam! I am glad you are. I envy you. Exercise? I don't just feel the need of any—that is, any more than I have. Anything better to do? There could be nothing better than to lunch with you; but I seldom lunch any where. I hardly even breakfast.

I cannot expect you to believe all this. As I check it up myself, it strained even my own credulity. But it is true of the average minister, at least of those who are physically, nervously and mentally able to bear the strain. Some may give less time to some of the objects I have enumerated, and more to others. But if on the average they give, in the aggregate, less time than I have specified, to all the objects named, their period of service with one church is likely to be even less than the average that now prevails.

Do you think that the average congregation begins to appreciate the time and labor involved in fulfilling the duties of the average minister? Do you, even now? I am sure you do not; for the things I have mentioned are only conventional things. They are activities that people think of as consuming his time. I have not even mentioned those that constitute more than one-half—the major half—of his actual labors. For this outline envisions the work of that almost extinct minister whose place of resort is a "study." That place is almost nonexistent. In all city churches, certainly, it is an "office" instead. And that is another story. It is such a story that all the figures above would have to be doubled.

The Rector's Notes

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE HOURS 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. DAILY
6.00 to 8.00 P. M. " AT HOME, SATURDAY EVENING

Worship in Summer

Let us not forget, in these beautiful summer Sundays, when all nature bids us come out and enjoy the beauty of "God's out of doors,"—let us not forget the "beauty of worship" and abandon the House of God, and "His Fellowship" and the "Breaking of Bread" and Prayer.

"The beauties of nature" will be more beautiful to him who first "worships the Lord in the beauty of holiness."

No Sunday is complete without attendance in the House of God. "O come, let us worship and fall down and kneel before the Lord our Maker!"

Poor Children Outing Fund

It is again my privilege and pleasure to call attention of the people of Christ Church to our annual offering to the Poor Children's Outing Fund, which will be taken on Sunday morning, June 19.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are privileged to give. What a great opportunity it affords to persons who are blessed with comfortable homes and can get away for rest and recreation during the hot summer months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in the narrow and crowded streets and alleys of our city.

It will cost about $3.00 for transportation and board to send a poor child to the country for one week where it can enjoy pure, fresh air and good wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom for several years past to secure from various organizations for the poor the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portion of the city—in the small, dirty courts and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called "homes" the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements made for a week's outing in the country and, in some cases for a longer period of time. Occasionally a poor, overworked mother is also sent with her children.

Persons wishing to give to this most worthy charity—if they are absent from Church on Sunday morning, June 19, may send their contributions either to the Rector or the Accounting Warden.

Waiting to be asked to go to the country

The Rev. Stanley V. Wilcox's Ordination

On Trinity Sunday morning, May 22, the Rector of this Parish had the honor to present to the Bishop of the Diocese the Rev. Stanley Victor Wilcox, to be ordained to the Priesthood of the Church. The Ordination took place at the Pro Cathedral, Philadelphia.

Mr. Wilcox has been a member of this Parish since boyhood and later was a teacher in the Sunday School, and of the Men's Bible Class. For several years Mr. Wilcox was engaged in business in Philadelphia. He gave up his business in 1915 to give his time to study, preparatory to entering the Philadelphia Divinity School. While a student in the Divinity School in 1917 he heeded his country's call for volunteers and enlisted in Co. E 103 Engineers—(The Keystone Division)—which was afterwards known as the celebrated "Iron Division." He sailed for France in May, 1918, and saw active service in the Campagne, Marne, Aisne, Marn Oise, Aisne, Meuse, Argonne-Defensive Sector. He was made Corporal and, for his bravery on the firing line, was advanced to Sergeant. He returned home in May, 1919, and immediately entered again on his course of studies for Holy Orders, attending the Summer School at Middletown, Connecticut. In the fall he returned to the Philadelphia Divinity School and was ordained Deacon, September 26, 1920. He graduated from the Philadelphia Divinity School, May 26, 1921.

During his course of studies at the Theological Seminary, Mr. Wilcox has been assisting the Rev. Dr. Stockman at Old Swedes' Church, and also at the Seamen's Mission, Philadelphia.

The Rector of Christ Church shares in the pride which all the members of the Parish take in such a man of Mr. Wilcox's sterling character and worth. Our best wishes go with him and our prayers are for him, that God will bless him in a long ministry of self-sacrificing, consecrated service.

It was with great sorrow that the friends of the Rev. H. G. G. Vincent in Christ Church learned of his tragic death by being run over by an automobile, while on his way to visit a sick parishioner in the Germantown Hospital. Members of the parish will recall the inspiring sermon which Mr. Vincent preached in Christ Church on the first Sunday evening in Lent. It was a true Gospel message and was preached with deep religious fervor.

The Rev. Mr. Vincent was a sincere and fearless preacher, a truly consecrated servant of God. He was highly respected by every one who knew him.

It was a great privilege for the people of Christ Church Parish to contribute toward a fund, as a slight token of their respect and esteem.

Shall Pew Rent System in Christ Church be Abolished?

The question of abolishing the pew renting system in Christ Church is under advisement and consideration by the Vestry. There appears to be a very general desire to discontinue the old system, but the pew rents cannot be abolished and an adequate revenue be secured, unless everyone who now rents a pew or sitting will agree to continue to give the amount of their pew rent, in addition to the amount which they are already giving through the envelope system.

For this concession by the present renters of pews, all others in the parish should be willing to do their share, in bringing about the change of system, by increasing their weekly offering through the envelopes. If everyone in the Parish will show a disposition to be generous and willing to give more than they are now giving, the pew rent system can be abolished without serious financial loss to the Parish. The answer, therefore, to the question, "Shall the pew renting system in Christ Church be given up?" rests with the members of the congregation.

The Rector believes that, if the new system is introduced in this Church, the members of the congregation will rise to the occasion and will meet it with a substantial and generous response.

Envelope Subscribers

The number who subscribe through the envelope system now amounts to 280. It is greatly to be desired that the number of subscribers shall be extended until it reaches every attendant at the services of Christ Church. The expenses of the Church go on whether the members are present or not and every person will wish to do his or her share. Parents should inculcate in their children the habit of unselfish giving by systematic and regular method. This should be done in the interest of the child's own future happiness as well as for the interest of the Church. A selfish person can never be happy. Remember the words of the Lord Jesus Christ how he said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive"—Acts 20:35. Every member of every family in the Parish should have his or her individual envelopes and should give regularly and conscientiously to the work of the Church. "Upon the first day of the week let everyone of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." 1 Cor. XVI:2.

Pledge cards will be found in the racks in the vestibule or may be had by applying to the Verger. Please sign these pledge cards and place them in the Alms Basin at any service. A package of envelopes will then be sent to your address.

The Sunday School

It looks as if we had reached our high water mark for the year in attendance (208 on the Sunday after Easter), as notwithstanding the clear, warm Sundays we only are having about 170 present. I hope several who have been away will read this and "wake up" early enough next Sunday morning to come.

Picnics

The Primary Department will hold their picnic on the Parish lawn Saturday afternoon, June 25th, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The committee arranging the picnic for the Main School are working hard, and the announcement of their plans will be made soon.

Our school will continue during the summer as usual, and we shall probably follow last year's arrangement and attend church service instead of in the school room.

Our school rooms need painting very badly, also some other things, done to make them bright and cheerful, also we want some maps, etc., to help our work.

We decided to have the work done this summer if possible, and went to work. A friend started us off with $25 as a nest egg. Miss Gray's class on May 14 gave a cake and candy sale which netted over $20.

Two classes are going to join and give a Japanese tea party the latter part of May, of which notice will be given later. Other classes are also making plans; also Mr. Rowley's class is going to give a dance May 27th.

I wonder if some fathers and mothers who read this will not send us a little help. We can only do as much as our fund allows us to, and there are many, many things we need very much.

R. H. M.

Dispensers of Good Cheer

The Parish Committee, at a meeting held May 16, 1921, decided that the time had come when our Parish House should be improved in furnishings and appearance. With that end in view they have set out to accomplish that pleasurable task, without ever taxing anyone and at the same time giving everyone in the parish an opportunity to help.

The young folks are very enthusiastic about this project, and all they need is assistance and co-operation by those interested.

It is proposed to give on Thursday evening, June 16, three short, spicy plays, entitled, "Trying Them Out," "Hartville Shakespeare Club," and "A Perplexing Situation," the latter given by the Kliveden Klasic Klub, and all for the price of fifty cents. After the play a sale of strawberries, ice cream and cake is planned, followed by a dance for those who care to avail themselves of it.

The committee in charge: Chairman, Dr. J. C. Courtney; Mr. Fredric Lennig, business manager; Mrs. Toplif Johnson, arrangement manager; Miss Edna Cave,

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note.—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

The New (Revised) Hymnal

It is known to most persons that a new hymnal has been compiled and has been authorized by the General Convention of the Church. This revised hymnal retains many of the old familiar hymns and many new hymns have been added.

The demand for the new hymnal has been so great that a third edition is announced.

An effort is being made by the Publishers of the new hymnal, "to make the Episcopal Church a singing Church through the use of a Musical Hymnal by the Congregation. Persons are, therefore, urged to purchase the addition, which contains the notes—the music score."

There is also an edition with the words only. Purchased in lots of one hundred the price of the "Musical Hymnal" is $1.00, retail price $1.20. The price of the small edition, words only, is 50 cents.

The matter of the adoption and purchase of the New Hymnal for use in this parish was considered at a meeting of the Vestry and was put in the hands of a Committee. The Committee are considering purchasing the new hymnals in lots of one hundred and giving members of the Congregation the opportunity of buying copies at the wholesale rate.

The matter will be taken up in the fall. It is suggested that persons who wish to purchase copies of the New Hymnal may give their names to Mr. R. H. Morris, Chairman of the Committee.

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scout Troop of Christ Church are planning for delightful times this summer. All scouts look forward to this season because it means hikes, picnics and camp.

During the past months each patrol had a turn to prepare a supper for the troop. After the supper the patrol gave the troop delightful entertainments.

On May 7, All-American Day, we joined with the other organizations in the parade on Broad street.

Some evening in June the troop is going on a moonlight hike. Well, I must not tell you about this, but if any girl wants to attend this hike, she better come around this Friday evening at 7.45 o'clock, and I am sure you will want to join Troop 119.

Mothers' Meeting

The last regular meeting was held on May 3. The work during the past winter has been most successful, the attendance has been greatly enlarged and much work has been accomplished. We are arranging to hold our annual picnic on Tuesday, June 7. The members of the meeting are asked to meet at the Parish House on that day promptly at 2 o'clock.

The Sunday School

As the summer season approaches the Sunday School is looking forward expectantly to several events, each of which is in itself important enough to create a lively interest among the members of the school.

The first is the Sunday School annual picnic, or outing, and while this event has not yet been moulded into its final shape, there is little doubt but that whatever shape it assumes it will prove a worth while affair to all who participate. The date has not yet been determined upon, but the school can look forward to something good being planned for it.

The next event, equally as enjoyable, more lasting and vastly more profitable, is the Summer School held in the church.

If the talks to the school anywhere nearly approach those of last summer, then those who attend these delightful services in the church each Sunday morning, will be fortunate, indeed, while those who stay away, or are unavoidably kept from coming, will surely miss one of the delightful features of our school plan.

The third event is the preparation the school is making for "putting its house in order," which means the renovation of the Sunday School room, if possible, by the time the regular autumn sessions are resumed.

The Sunday School rooms, as most people know, are in need of renovation, and the Sunday School has undertaken to see if it can do this much for its own comfort, after having done so much for others.

Several classes have already laid plans for sales, entertainments, and various functions, in an endeavor to raise the funds necessary to make the Sunday School rooms appear as they should, and we would ask the co-operation of the parish with these efforts of the scholars.

We are still appealing for more scholars, any age, male or female, and there must surely be the friends or relations of our people, some, probably members, who are only waiting an urgent invitation to make themselves a part of the school.

Won't you do the urging for us, at least, as far as the Sunday School door?

We will do the rest.

Daughters of the King

The Annual Diocesan meeting of the Daughters of the King was held in our Church and Parish House, on Wednesday afternoon and evening, May 25. The afternoon session was devoted to business of the Order. A very interesting address to the Daughters was given by Miss Jane Welte, of Epiphany Church, Sherwood. Supper was served in the Parish House to delegates and guests at six o'clock. In the evening, a large congregation was present in the Church to hear an inspiring address to women by the Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhinelander D. D., Bishop of the Diocese.

The Order of the Daughters of the King has branches in every diocese of the Country. Its work among women corresponds to that of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew among men. All women of the Church are eligible for election to membership.

Christ Church chapter of the Order meets on the third Monday of each month and invites all women to the meetings.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild will hold its final business meeting, June 13, before we adjourn for the summer. Although we do not hold regular business meetings during the summer our duties remain the same.

We would greatly appreciate it if those having flowers in their gardens, that might be used on the Altars, would send them to the Church any Saturday before noon; or else communicate with any member of the Guild and we will try to arrange to call for them.

The serving Committees for the coming month are as follows:

June 3 to 10 — Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Wisner, Mrs. Mogridge.

June 10 to 17 — Misses Dean, M. Thompson, Crowder.

June 17 to 24 — Misses Manser, E. Thompson, Mrs. Cotton.

June 24 to 30 — Misses Chase, Strein, Parker, Alexander.

Woman's Auxiliary

The last meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary for the year 1920-1921 was held in the Parish House on May 20. There was a large attendance and an interesting afternoon was spent in hearing reports and discussing work for the coming year. The report of the treasurer showed a greatly increased interest in the work of the Missionary Society, and we are sure that we all feel a sense of gratitude that we are now able to do our share towards the work which is being done by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. T. Percival Robinson; vice-president, Mrs. Charles Henry Arndt; secretary, Mrs. Frank Wells; treasurer, A. F. W.

The financial report for the past year is submitted below:

Girls' Friendly Society

To follow up the last article in THE CHIMES, as to something that the G. F. S. had up its sleeve, and that would keep you guessing. By the time this article is published you will know all about it, and we sincerely hope that you will not only know, but that you will have helped us to realize part of our dream of fitting up a "Christ Church" room in the Holiday House, at Cape May. We are conspicuous by absence in this respect, and are anxious to be in the foreground with our sister parishes, for G. F. S. means to forge ahead, never lag behind.

Presuming that you do not know what the Holiday House is, let me tell you that it is a charming place by the sea at Cape May Point, N. J., open from June to September, accommodating about 70 girls at a time, at the nominal price of $5.50 a week. This merely covers the running expenses. Other items, such as taxes, insurance, etc., must be met by annual subscriptions and gifts.

There you will find a merry, happy family all summer long. The early weeks of June are set aside for the married branch helpers (G. F. S. girls who have married), and their children—and candidates. So, you see, we cover many conditions, and help many a girl to a vacation that without the Holiday House would not be able to leave the hot city.

Someone said: "What do you want with money?"

Here is one big splendid reason—and we will tell you more next time.

A Big Bazaar in the Fall

A big bazaar will be given next fall by the members of all the parish societies. It's going to be a big event. Every one is asked to prepare for it. How? Let every woman in the parish begin now and work all summer to make some fancy or useful articles to be placed on sale at this bazaar. Every woman can make something between now and the fall. Something will be expected from every woman. And the men, too, are planning to have special features for "men only." You will be let into the secret later. All men will be expected to co-operate.

The date will be the fore part of November. The make-up of the committee in charge is sufficient guarantee for the success of the occasion: Mr. W. G.

Rowley, Mrs. Frederick Lennig, Mrs. Topliffe Johnson, Mrs. T. P. Robinson, Mrs. Charles Heyer.

The members of Christ Church Sunday School presented a gold cross to the Rev. Shanley V. Wilcox on the occasion of his ordination to the priesthood of the Church, on Trinity Sunday morning, May 22. Mr. Wilcox was formerly a scholar and later a teacher in the school.

The good wishes and prayers of every member of the school are for Mr. Wilcox in the great work of the ministry to which he has been called.

The Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club gave a very successful entertainment, consisting of two short plays, in the Parish House on Thursday evening, April 16th. The first number was entitled "Bargain Day at Bloomstein's." The characters were:

Mr. Isaac Bloomstein...Thos. Spooner
Steve Stone.....Frank Evans
Nellie Bangs.....Beatrice Spooner
Maud Bangs.....Elma Strein
Birdie O'Neill.....Meryle Field
Sam Randolph.....Clarence Courtney
Lairy Bascom.....Clarence Van Dusen
Mrs. Keen.....Edna Naegle
Willie Keen.....Robert Carmint
Miss Hunter.....Hilda Spooner
Miss Sharp.....Helen Foulkrode
Miss Stout.....Margaret Robinson
Mrs. Trotter.....Helen Wertsner
Mrs. Murphy.....Emma Modridge

Thomas Spooner starred as the Jewish proprietor and Meryl Fields as the shop girl.

The "talent" of the other play, consisted of "Tom Carter," by J. Gabel; "Enid," by Elizabeth Taylor and "Robert Ferris," by Robert Carmint. The net proceeds were $60.00, which will be given toward the purchase of new chairs for the Parish House. The Club is indebted to Mr. Dingle for hauling the chairs without expense to the Club. The play would not have been the success it was had it not been for the efficient coaching by Dr. Courtney and Mr. Samuel Baxter.

The Club expects to give another play in the third week in June. If you missed the last one, you must not miss the next. It is going to be "great."

Remember! "Good Cheer's" Coming

The entertainment and "Good Cheer" mentioned in another column of this issue of THE CHIMES must be remembered by everyone of the parish. Every member of every society in the parish is interested. The proceeds are going toward the "Parish House Furnishing Fund."

Everybody is going to be there!

Where?

At the "Good Cheer time."

Why?

Because everybody needs it!

What?

"Good Cheer!"

Where can I get it?

At Christ Church Parish House!

When?

Thursday evening, June 16!

I'll be there!

Cheer up!

So will I!

Ah! ah! I feel it now!

What?

Good Cheer!

We'll all be there—won't we?

You bet! Because we all want Good Cheer, and we ARE GOING TO GET IT! Thursday, June 16, at Christ Church Parish House.

Brotherhood Camp for Boys

The Rector is in receipt of the following letter relating to a camp for boys of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew:

Church House,

Phila., Pa., May 20, 1921.

Rev. C. H. Arndt,

Christ Church,

Germantown, Pa.

Dear Mr. Arndt:

We are convinced of the need of more efficiently directed work among boys. Because of this, and because we believe we have discovered a plan which will eventually lead to overcoming the handicap under which the Church is working for lack of trained leaders for her boy-work, I am taking the liberty of addressing you on this important matter.

That which, I believe, will be the solution of our boy-work problem is the Vacation Camp Conference Plan. Briefly, it consists of taking the key boy or boys from a number of parishes and dioceses, and for a period of two weeks giving them a practical training course in leadership, grounding them in the principles underlying the organizations with which the Church is working with boys.

Camp Bonsall is the camp most accessible to your diocese. The room and board for the period is $15.00 and the registration $2.00 extra.

From the experience of the boys who attended the camps last year, I am sure there is not a parish which will not be benefited by being represented at this year's camps. Of course, the most good will accrue to the parish making the most careful selection of its delegate.

Trusting that you will seize this splendid opportunity to strengthen the boy-work in the parish and diocese, and will send in the signed application of your delegate at the earliest possible moment, I am

Sincerely yours,

CHAS. CAIN.

For further particulars in regard to this camp apply to Mr. Frederick Lennig, Director of the Christ Church Chapter of the Junior Brotherhood.

Free Pew System in Christ Church

The Rector calls the attention of all attendants at the services of Christ Church to the letter from Mr. James M. Woodroffe, Rector's Warden, found in another column of this issue of the CHIMES, announcing the adoption of the free pew system in this Parish. This is considered, by some, a radical, if not a bold change in the policy which has been in vogue in Christ Church since the beginning, and a risk to the financial support of the Parish. The Vestry recognizes such to be the case, but since the change meets almost unanimous approval of the present renters of pews and sittings, it is made in good faith and confidence that the people of Christ Church will generously respond to the urgent need of making up the amount of revenue, formerly received in pew rents, by an extension of the method of weekly giving through the envelope system, until every attendant will be enrolled on the books of the Parish as a regular contributing member.

It is now, under the new system of free pews, more urgent than ever before that every one in the Parish should recognize his or her personal responsibility and that each should subscribe a definite sum, so that there may be a definite income to the church to meet the definite and fixed needs and expense of the Parish.

The Rector is in hearty accord with the Vestry in their adoption of the new system of Church support which, he believes, to be more in line with the changed conditions of society, in closer harmony with the genius of American democracy and in nearer accord with the principles and spirit of Christianity.

It remains to be seen whether the attendants at the services of Christ Church will promptly and generously respond to the larger privileges which the new system extends to them and the greater responsibility it places on each individual member.

The Rector believes that the members of Christ Church and all who attend the services will rise to the new opportunity and the new responsibility and will respond to their new privileges in a substantial and generous measure!

Persons who have been accustomed to sit in certain definite places in the Church should continue to do so. The "family unit" should be preserved and members of the family should, if possible, sit together. This will be perfectly feasible, under the new system, provided, persons arrive at the Church on time. If the new system will tend to bring people to Church before the service begins and will reduce the number of those who habitually come late, it will have accomplished great things. We hope that this may be so.

Strangers and new comers in this vicinity, if hitherto they have had any hesitancy in sitting in other people's pews, will no longer have this as a cause for not feeling welcome to the worship of Christ Church.

All pews are now free and unassigned in Christ Church. Persons may feel perfectly free and welcome to sit anywhere. The invitation is to every one. "Whosoever will, let him come."

It is hoped that new comers in this vicinity of Germantown will avail themselves of this cordial invitation and will let their names and addresses be known to the Rector, that he may meet them and welcome them to the Church.

Summer Services

The services in Christ Church, as noted elsewhere in the CHIMES, will be at the usual hours, 7.30, 11.00 A. M. and 7.45 P. M. The noonday and evening services will be shortened in form. A special feature of the noonday service will be a short talk to young people, immediately before the sermon, after which they may leave, if they so desire.

During the Rector's vacation the services will be divided between the Rev. C. Sydney Goodman, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, and the Rev. Augustus W. Shick, Rector of Grace Church, Haddonfield, N. J.

If the clergy are needed during the summer for baptisms, weddings, funerals or in case of sickness, word may be left at the rectory and all calls will receive prompt attention. The Rector expects to return by the first of September.

Danger

A danger comes to all of us in summer time. The danger is to become careless or indifferent about our religious observances, and especially about our Church attendance. Of course, no one who regulates his life on Christian principle will neglect his religious life in summer any more than he will in winter; but, unfortunately, all of us do not regulate our religious life on principle. Too many act according to our whims or our fancy or convenience, and, therefore, when warm weather comes we find it very easy to offer excuses for absentsing ourselves from Divine Service. The state of the weather, the distance from Church and other excuses are easily found as sufficient reasons for absent, and the conscience is lulled to sleep.

What a fearful danger befalls the man or woman when such excuses are allowed to keep them away from regular attendance at the House of God!

How unspeakably sad it is to see church men and women give way to these temptations, and to find them on Sundays, at the time when they should be at worship, on the golf links, or on an automobile trip, or abandoning, for some other trivial reason, the altar of God!

Golf, automobiles and other outdoor recreation are good and wholesome and refreshment for both the body and the mind. But no sane man or woman will say that these things, good as they are, are or can be substitutes for worship. They can and do refresh the mind and body. But man is more than mind and body. He has a soul which craves and needs refreshment; and these recreations which give refreshment to the mind and body are not sufficient to nourish the soul; and "what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?"

Let us then my friends beware, lest in resting our minds and bodies, during these summer months, we starve our souls. We must not, we cannot, afford in summer to lay aside our worship. The weary mind and the weary body need rest and refreshment and should have them. The soul, too, needs and must have refreshment and for it there can be only one source from which it can receive nourishment and strength.

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is," says the Apostle. And our blessed Lord, who knew the needs of all men has said: "Come unto Me, all ye who are weary and heavy laden and I will refresh you." "Verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, ye have no life in you!"

A Parable

Once upon a time in a beautiful suburb of a large city there lived two men. Both were employed downtown, one receiving a salary which permitted many comforts and luxuries; whilst the salary of the other permitted only, by strict economy the necessities of life.

Both were good moral men, attending the services of the Church and contributing to its support; one giving what he could easily spare, and the other giving conscientiously a tenth of his income.

And it came to pass, in the course of time, that each was granted a vacation by his employer, and immediately the young man with the larger salary collected together a great number of time tables and gave much thought as to where he should go to have "a good time." He finally decided upon an extended trip which would enable him to visit many places of interest, which he had long wished to see.

And after a time, when he had spent all his money, he returned to his home. He had had a "good time;" or, at least, he thought that he had had; but he began to be in want and he went to his church, in his need for money, and asked for help to pay his bills. Of course, he did not make the request in so many words, but he reduced his subscription to the church, and those on the inside understood.

The young man, with the smaller income, didn't waste much thought over where he should spend his vacation. He simply packed his bag and went into the country a little way. But even that unpretentious trip took all the money he had, and when he returned, it never occurred to him to ask the church for help. He had been brought up by God-fearing parents, who had set him the example, and had a very old fashioned notion that, at least, a tenth of his income belonged to God, which accounts for his thoughtlessness in regard to making use of the expediency of applying to the church for help. He recalled to mind words which sounded something like this:— he must have read them in his boyhood, in Bible, he could not quite recall where. "Will a man rob God? Yet, ye have robbed me. But ye say, wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings Ye are cursed with a curse; for ye have robbed me, saith the Lord!"

Of course it took this young man a long time to get any money ahead again, but meanwhile he had something bestowed upon him, which was above money, which money could not buy—and that was self-respect and the respect of all who knew him.

Memorials in Christ Church

Within the past few years the homes of a number of our parishioners have been visited by the Angel of Death and dear ones, who have been the inspiration of our lives, have been called to their Heavenly Home. How fitting it would be for friends to erect in this House of God suitable memorials to these saintly lives. Within these sacred walls they began their communion with Him; at this holy altar they first entered into that Heaven, where they now are in that fuller and completer joy. Here, they were baptized in the name of the Father, the Son and Holy Ghost. Here, they were received into full communion of the Church and had the "laying on of hands." Here they kneeled before the altar of God and received the Body and Blood of Jesus—food of their souls. Here, perhaps, they were united in the bonds of Holy Matrimony. Within these walls have been read over many saints of God, the last sad rites of the Burial of the Dead, and hence, from this church they have been borne, their bodies to be committed to the earth and their souls to the care of God, "looking for the general Resurrection in the last day and the life of the world to come." What more appropriate place can there be to erect a monument to the memory of the Sainted Dead, than in this House of God, "the Gate of Heaven!" I am sure that there are some, whose names and whose memories and whose examples should have some visible form within the walls of

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note.—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

Christ Church. I should be glad to talk the matter over with any who may desire to act on this suggestion.

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead.
He is just away!

With a cheery smile
And a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there,
And you—oh you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return
Think of him, faring on, as dear
In the love of There, as the love of Here.
Think of him still as the same, I say,
He is not dead—he is just away.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

Need of a Vacation

The following is an excerpt from an address made by a prominent layman of this Diocese:

"I believe that the highest good, both to the church and the minister, is conserved by the annual vacation. It is conceded that it is needed by teachers in schools and colleges. It is, at least, equally needed by ministers. The preparation of two sermons a week for the same congregation of live and overwrought people, who are abreast the thought of the day and challenge the best there is in their clergyman, both of heart and head; the multifarious details of the numerous organizations of the twentieth century church; the financial problems and responsibilities to be met; and, above all, the nervous exhaustion that falls to the lot of the man who loves his people and is devoted to their interests, as he shares their troubles, anxieties sorrows and griefs, can be appreciated only by those who have passed through the experience. A prince of the American pulpit once said to me that he consumed more nervous energy in one visit to a sick and suffering parishioner, or officiating at the funeral of one of his flock than in the preaching of two sermons. He is by no means alone in this experience. I am personally acquainted with ministers, some in obscure charges and others in large metropolitan churches, who frequently approach their vacations almost in a state of collapse; and were it not for this period of relaxation would become nervous wrecks."

The Work of the Holy Ghost

Let us not flatter ourselves by thinking we are in any true and living sense Christians and God's children, if we have not the Spirit of Christ, if we are not led by the Holy Ghost. Remember, if we would be saved, we must have the Holy Spirit for our Sanctifier, as well as Jesus Christ for our Redeemer. And we cannot have one without the other. God does not half save us. Either we are altogether saved or not at all. And if we are altogether saved, then, assuredly, the Holy Ghost changes and renews our hearts, just as truly as the Blood of Jesus Christ washes away our sins. We have no benefit in the Cross unless we are crucifying our sins. We cannot be justified without being sanctified.

Oh, let us pray more constantly and more earnestly for that greatest of all gifts, the gift of the Holy Spirit, that we too may be filled with the Holy Ghost; and let us pray with faith in God's sure promise, for Jesus said, "If ye, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him?"—Selected.

A Letter from the Rector's Warden

The Vestry have been for some time considering the advisability of abolishing all pew rents in Christ Church, and at their meeting on March 30th, a resolution was passed stating:

"That this Vestry favors the abolition of pew rents, provided the pew holders agree to contribute through the envelope system the same amount that they are now paying as pew rent, in addition to their present envelope subscriptions."

A committee was appointed to address a letter to pew holders and ascertain whether this plan met with their approval or not. The letter was issued in regular form and sent to each pew holder. Replies were received from 75% of them, and a large majority of those heard from were in favor of the abolition of the system, with the promise that they would contribute either through the envelopes or by remittances at stated periods an additional sum which would be equivalent to the annual pew rent.

Quite a number of those who failed to reply have been approached on the subject and they have approved the change, with the assurance that the church would not suffer any loss. At this writing there are only nine members who have not been seen on this subject and they will be interviewed at the earliest possible moment.

On the strength of the replies received the committee made their report at the last meeting and the plan of free sittings in Christ Church was adopted by the Vestry. It is therefore in order to remind those who replied affirmatively to the letter issued by the committee that their payment for pew rent expired at the end of the church fiscal year, May 31st, and the Accounting Warden would appreciate their remitting on the new basis, either through the envelopes or otherwise.

James M. Woodroffe,
Rector's Warden.

Mr. Bains Chosen Accounting Warden

At the last stated meeting of the Vestry of Christ Church, held Tuesday, June 7th, Mr. Edward Bains was elected Accounting Warden to succeed Mr. J. I. Morrison, who has removed from Germantown. Mr. Bains has served on the Vestry for the past seven years and has been one of its most faithful members. He is, at present, in California, but expects to return to Germantown the latter part of June, when he will assume the duties of Accounting Warden. In the meantime Mr. J. M. Woodroffe is acting in his place.

At the same meeting of the Vestry the following resolutions were passed relative to Mr. Morrison's resignation:

"BE IT RESOLVED that the Vestry

of Christ Church, in stated meeting assembled, having with deep regret accepted the resignation of Mr. J. I. Morrison from the offices of Accounting Warden and of Vestryman of this Parish, do direct that the following Minute be entered of our appreciation of the services of our late Warden and fellow Vestryman.

"He brought to his office not only the high skill of a trained accountant, but an intelligent conception of the character and scope of the work of the Parish and its financial capacity for the prosecution and extension of that work.

"His firm faith and contagious enthusiasm enlisted the earnest co-operation not only of his fellow Vestrymen, but of the members of the Congregation, and impressed upon them the privilege and duty of the maintenance of Public Worship and the spread of the Gospel of the Kingdom; while with ripe experience and strong common sense he bridled enthusiasm and sentiment, making them aids to accomplishment and conserving the energies of the Parish for practical and purposeful work. Through efficient management, he leaves the Parish practically free of debt, and with the means to continue in the work of its high mission.

"The hearty desire and prayer of this Vestry go with Mr. Morrison for his continued happiness and usefulness as a co-laborer in the establishment of the Kingdom of Heaven in the hearts of men"

Death of Mrs. Emily A. Jones

On May 30th, Mrs. Emily Amanda Jones passed into eternal life at the age of eighty years. She was the widow of Alexander H. Jones, one time vestryman of this parish. Mrs. Jones was a member of Christ Church for over fifty years and, until her late, long illness, was a faithful attendant at the services. She was always deeply interested in all that pertained to the welfare of the Parish and she often expressed herself that it was her greatest regret that, in her latter years she was deprived of the privilege of attendance at the services of Christ Church. On Thanksgiving Day, three years ago, she presented to the Church the handsome brass processional cross, as "a thanksgiving offering for mercies received." She is survived by an only son, Charles.

J. I. MORRISON
Accounting Warden.

On Sunday morning, June 12th, Caroline Kent Worthington, granddaughter of Charles Spencer, was baptized in Christ Church. Mr. Spencer will be remembered by the older persons of the Parish, as at one time Accounting Warden of Christ Church and for many years an interested and generous member.

The font in which the grandchild was baptized was given by Mr. Spencer in the name of his son, Lindsay Coleman Spencer, at the time of the rebuilding of the Church. June 12th, the date on which the Baptism was administered, was the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Mr. Spencer. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Kent reside in West Chester, New York City.

Baptisms

"In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

May 8—William Robert Garvin.
May 8—John Minto Gibson.
May 22—Madeleine Sherbourne Potter.
June 12—Caroline Kent Worthington.

Marriages

"Those whom God hath joined together let no man put assunder."

June 1—Clarence Bodey Davies, Sarah Ashton Booz.
June 15—John Peterson Clark, Emma Elizabeth Meyers.

Deaths

"Looking for the General Resurrection in the last day and the life of the world to come, through our Lord, Jesus Christ."

May 30—Emily Amanda Weiss Jones.

Mothers' Meeting

Greatly to our regret, we were obliged to postpone the picnic which we had planned for June the 7th. We trust, however, that it is only a deferred pleasure, and that we will be able to carry out our plans in the fall.

H. F. A.

The Sunday School Picnics

The Primary Department will hold their Picnic on Saturday afternoon, June 25th, at 3 o'clock. The main school will hold their Picnic at Bodensine's Grove, Fort Washington, on Monday, June 27th. Automobile busses will leave Parish House at 9.30 A. M. sharp. Everybody bring their lunch with them.

Our fund for repainting the school rooms is growing; we now have about $75 and more to come.

We are sorry to lose Howard N. Fiest as a teacher. He has been commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps and has sailed for Haiti, West Indies. We welcome Prof. George C. Foust of Girard College who has come to us as a new teacher.

On Sunday, June 18th, each teacher and scholar is to be given a "Talent" for use during the summer so that it may grow into other "Talents" which will be brought to a "Social" in the Parish House the latter part of September and put into the fund for beautifying the school rooms.

I want every scholar to read in the New Testament what was done in the older days with "Talents" and I think they will have no difficulty in deciding what they ought to do with the "Talent" in the best interests of the school.

The Bazaar

As a rallying point for all who have the interests of the parish in mind, and who desire to see the season of 1921-1922 marked by a really progressive step toward putting the equipment in the shape that it should be, THE BAZAAR makes its appeal for thought and action during the summer which is now upon us.

The Parish Committee, which represents all the various societies of the parish has arranged to conduct THE BAZAAR for a period of one afternoon and evening about the middle of November next.

The object for which THE BAZAAR is to be held is one which should commend itself to everyone in anyway connected with the church, being the general renovation of the Parish House, and to those who make use of the Parish House, and that means all of us, no special argument need be advanced as to why the interior of the Parish House should be made both inviting and comfortable.

THE BAZAAR will offer for sale Fancy Goods, Art Goods, Dolls, Toys, Candy, Cakes, Groceries, Canned Goods, and a multitude of other things which everybody either needs or desires. There will also be numerous attractions for the amusement of patrons of all ages.

The particular appeal at this time is that everyone in the Parish commence thinking BAZAAR, and as the long summer days offer opportunity for doing something to pass away the time, will each one occupy that time in making something to be contributed to THE BAZAAR.

It may be asked how much the Committee plans to raise by THE BAZAAR.

The Committee has fixed upon this figure, $1——.

It is for each one in the Parish to determine by the extent of his or her interest how many ciphers are to be added after the figure one.

Will you be a part of THE BAZAAR?
U. G. R.

Generosity

It is very often the case that generosity toward the church and charitable objects is not shown in the greatest degree by those who have the largest incomes. One of the happiest persons we have ever known was one who had a very small income and yet gave most generously to the dear Master, "Who," he said, "had given him so many blessings."

On the other hand we have known a person whose income was very much larger yet was always complaining of the demands made upon him and when he did give, gave so grudgingly that he received no happiness from giving and therefore, no blessing. At the same time this person was wont to say, "If only I were rich, I would give so much."

It is our opinion that they who are not faithful in a little will not be faithful in much.

The Bible tells us, "Be merciful after thy power. If thou hast much, give plenteously; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little; for so gathereth thou thyself—a good reward in the day of necessity."—Selected.

Poor Children's Outing Fund

After the CHIMES goes to press the offering will be taken in Christ Church for the benefit of the "Poor Children's Outing Fund." This is one of the most worthy and appealing charities to which we can give. It goes toward providing the poor children in the courts and alleys of our city a week's outing in the country.

Three dollars will provide for one child. It is hoped that a large amount will be received at the offering to be taken in the church on Sunday, June 19. If any persons wish to give, who were not present in church on that Sunday, they may send their contribution to the Rector.

Everybody Work—including Father!

Everybody is going to work for the Fair to be given next fall; everybody, including father. This is too busy a world and too needy a one, to have any use for laggards. Get busy is the slogan. Bees won't tolerate drones; they cast them out from the hive. "No drones needed," wouldn't be a bad sign to post over every church door. We have a few drones left, but fortunately the species is rapidly becoming extinct.

Everybody is going to work for the Parish Fair to be held next fall. Everybody—including father, including even the drones, are going to work. This summer is a good time to begin. The old ladies can knit and the young ladies can crochet and embroider and make a lot of attractive things for the boys to buy, and the boys, including father, well, they are going to "save up" and buy all the pretty things that the girls make. It's going to be a great Fair, boys. She will be there! Everybody is going to begin now to prepare for the Fair. Read all about it more fully in another article in this month's CHIMES. Read about it and then begin to prepare. Prepare for the Fair!

The Prayer Book an Aid to Worship

"One great object of our Prayer Book has been to keep continually before men the duty of worshipping God. It is very sad to find how the idea of worship has dropped entirely out of the minds of many. They go to hear the singing, or to listen to the preaching, or to gaze upon some novel exhibition. They have forgotten the great duty and privilege of rendering homage unto the Lord by work and act.

Our Prayer Book keeps ever before us the thought of worship. With such a book in their hands, high and low, rich and poor, have an equal part in the worship of God. They listen to the same exhortations and lessons, they utter the same confessions and prayers, recite the same belief and acknowledge the same mercy and loving kindness.

Everyone who comes to a service is treated as a worshipper. His religious experiences may be different from those of others. He may not be able to rejoice in the same full hope of salvation, but he is treated as one who, if he confesses his sins and believes in the promises of God in Christ, shall receive pardon. He is regarded as the possessor of a religious nature that can be instructed and helped and as having needs that can be satisfied when he draws near to God.

Note with what profound reverence he is taught by the Prayer Book to approach God. Mark the spirit and language of the prayers and praises. There is no familiar chatting with Deity, as if He were ignorant; but everything is solemn, humble, reverential, as it respects man, and ennobling and glorifying as it respects God.

Rev. W. George Shinn.

When a man can willingly forgo even the outward services of religion and stay away from the house of God and let the seasons of devotion and communion pass without a thought of regret, his faith and love must be at a low ebb, if, indeed, they have not altogether dried up and withered away. A living plant seeks water; a living soul longs for the refreshment of the sanctuary.—Van Dyke.

VOLUME XXI

Germantown, October 1921

No. 9

A New Volume

With this issue the twenty-first volume of THE CHIMES ends. This means that THE CHIMES has been published for twenty-one successive years without interruption. The amount received from subscriptions has not been sufficient to meet the expense of publication. With this issue all subscriptions expire, and it is earnestly hoped that every member of the Parish will send the price of subscription—fifty cents a year to Mr. Robert W. Carmint, 6373
Sherman street, or to the Rector. Contributions toward meeting the arrears will also be gratefully received.

The publication of the Chimes will be continued if the amount received from subscriptions and contributions warrant it. Otherwise the publication will be discontinued.

Beginning This Fall

Now that vacation days are ended, I hope to see all members of Christ Church regularly in their places in the House of God. I trust that each one of us is taking up his life again this fall with higher ideals and nobler purposes. The world is calling, as it never called before, for true, unselfish, consecrated men and women. The source of all truth, all unselfish, consecrated service is Christ, and the Church instituted by Christ, is the means, the channel by which and through which His life and His power are conveyed.
"Without Me," says Christ, "ye can do nothing."

Let us remember this, my friends, and let each one of us resolve this fall to be more regular in our religious duties, more faithful in our Communions, more unselfish and more zealous in our Christian work. I most earnestly pray—yes, let all of us most earnestly pray—that God's Holy Spirit may come with power into each life in this Parish, to arouse the indifferent, to raise the fallen, to strengthen the weak, to give patience and courage to the faithful, that all may be filled more and more with the love of Christ, which will be manifested in prompt, unselfish, consecrated service.

There is one thing that every member can do—that everyone should do—and that is to be a home missionary, to invite and to try to influence persons in your neighborhood to attend your Church. There is one member in this Parish who has interested a score of persons in Christ Church and Sunday School. There are others to whom, it would seem, it has never occurred that they had the least responsibility of sharing their religion with their neighbor. What a blessing it would bring, both to themselves and to others, if they were alive to this responsibility!

Let every member of Christ Church resolve this fall to share with others their religious privileges. Let every member of Christ Church make the following resolution: "I resolve that, for eight months, beginning now, I will make an effort each week to bring at least one person in my neighborhood to Church with me."

Every member can, at least, try to do this much.

Let everyone conscientiously try to do all he or she can to bring others to Church. By persistent effort and by prayer miracles follow!

Important Notice

The Bishop of the Diocese has called upon the clergy and laity to co-operate with him in arranging a series of Missionary Conferences, to be held in every parish of the Diocese during the month of October.

These Conferences are for the "purpose of imparting to the congregation definite and graphic information on the 'whole work of the whole

Church." The object "is essentially educational, to inform the mind and to awaken the conscience."

These Conferences will be addressed by leaders especially prepared to speak on the various aspects of the Church's work in the Diocese and in the wider field of missions, in our own and other lands.

This is an undertaking which will commend itself to every loyal member of the Church. I feel sure that every member of Christ Church will wish to co-operate in making these Conferences a success in this Parish. The Plan.

It has been arranged with the Executive Secretary of the Diocese that the Conference in this Parish will be held on Wednesday afternoon, October 26, at 4.30; Thursday afternoon, October 27th, at 4.30, and Friday evening at 8 o'clock. All Conferences to be held in the Parish House.

The speaker assigned to us is Charles L. McKeehan, Esq., who will give a series of full and concise addresses on the great missionary work and needs of the Church. The meetings will be informal, and opportunity will be given for discussion and the asking of questions.

The Rector urgently asks that every member of the Parish will set aside these dates and attend these meetings. Everyone will be benefited by attendance, and your presence will be an encouragement and a benefit to others.

Please remember the dates: Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, October 26th and 27th, at 4.30 o'clock, and Friday evening, October 28th, at 8 o'clock.

The series of Conferences will lead up to a service held in the Church on Sunday morning, November 6th, in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of the Church's Foreign and Domestic Missionary Society.

On the first Sunday morning in the month, at the midday celebration of the Holy Communion, the usual sermon by the Rector will be dispensed with, and in its place he will give a short meditation on some thoughts contained in the Epistle or Gospel for the day.

These meditations will be devotional in character, and intended to be preparatory to the Holy Communion which will follow.

We pray that these talks and meditations on the first Sunday in the month may be spiritually helpful to all.

A Letter from the Presiding Bishop

The Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, D.D.,
Germantown, Pa.

Reverend and Dear Sir:

No doubt you have already reminded your congregation that one hundred years ago this coming November our Church established its national missionary organization.

The Presiding Bishop and Council ask all the people of the Church to share in commemorating this great event, preferably during the week, October 30 to November 6.

The enclosed folder outlines the general plans suggested for the centennial. Some of them may not be practicable in every parish. Whatever else may have to be set aside, we would ask you to retain the Communion service and the centennial sermon or address.

Will you indicate on the enclosed card what you and your people will plan to do?

With God's blessing upon your leadership, we believe that the centennial will be a memorable experience in the spiritual life of your parish.

Call upon us for any help we can give you.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS F. GAILOR,

President of the Council.

JOHN W. WOOD,

Secretary Department of Missions.

The World Conference at Washington

Next month there will be gathered in the city of Washington the most important meeting of the representatives of the nations of the world that has ever been held.

What is done or left undone at that meeting will vitally affect all peoples of the earth, and the consequences will be felt by our children's children.

The Rector most cordially commends to the people of Christ Church the words of a correspondent in the Living Church:

An Appeal to the Christians of America

"Every loyal American citizen must be cognizant of the great responsibility resting upon his country in connection with the proposed Washington Conference called by his President. Each citizen, too, will recognize the awful burden resting upon the shoulders of the appointed delegates, by whom it is hoped future wars will be prevented and the day of disarmament and world peace ushered in. The ideal is tremendous, and, because it is so, anything like failure to achieve will mean a commensurate calamity.

"I should like to appeal to all Christians who will read this. Being such, they believe in prayer. They believe that, since it links the inadequate mind of man with the Divine Mind which created and orders the universe, it is the greatest agency for good placed in our possession. Since, then, it is a greater factor than even the discussions of statesmen, a responsibility rests upon the Christians of America quite as heavy as that to be borne by the Conference delegates. If American Christians leave the intricate problems to be solved by the minds of these delegates alone, we must expect a result human in its characteristics. If American Christians will see that they have a signal duty to perform in enlisting the guidance and blessing of God upon the Conference, they, since they are Christians, must expect a result in which can be seen the unmistakable direction of the Prince of Peace. President Harding's solemn words over the bodies of returned soldier dead, 'It must not be again,' are something more than a sentimental exclamation; they are a challenge to those who have it within their power to prevent future wars. Not least among these are the Christians of America, some of whom will read this appeal."

Free Pew System in Christ Church

The following is reprinted from the June issue of THE CHIMES. It is repeated in this issue with the hope that they who may not have received the June CHIMES may read it in this issue:

"The Rector calls the attention of all attendants at the services of Christ Church to the announcement made by the Vestry of the adoption of the Free Pew System in Christ Church.

"This is considered by some a radical, if not a bold, change in the policy which has been in vogue in Christ Church since the beginning, and a risk to the financial support of the Parish. The Vestry recognizes such to be the case, but since the change meets almost unanimous approval of the present renters of pews and sittings, it is made in good faith and confidence that the people of Christ Church will generously respond to the urgent need of making up the amount of revenue, formerly received in pew rents, by an extension of the method of weekly giving through the envelope system, until every attendant will be enrolled on the books of the Parish as a regular contributing member.

"It is now, under the new system of free pews, more urgent than ever before that everyone in the Parish should recognize his or her personal responsibility and that each should subscribe a definite sum, so that there may be a definite income to the Church to meet the definite and fixed needs and expense of the Parish.

"The Rector is in hearty accord with the Vestry in their adoption of the new system of Church support, which, he

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The Church has two sources from which regular income is derived.

First—Rental of Pews.

Second—The Envelope System.

All who are able are urgently requested to rent pews or sittings.

Those who are not able to do so will be cordially welcomed to seats in the Church and are invited to pledge themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

All should contribute in one of these ways to the support of the work of the Church.

The following are forms of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, two thousand dollars for the endowment of pew in said Church, to be called the

Memorial Pew.

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note.—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

believes, to be more in line with the changed conditions of society, in closer harmony with the genius of American democracy and in nearer accord with the principles and spirit of Christianity.

"It remains to be seen whether the attendants at the services of Christ Church will promptly and generously respond to the larger privileges which the new system extends to them and the greater responsibility it places on each individual member.

"The Rector believes that the members of Christ Church and all who attend the services will rise to the new opportunity and the new responsibility and will respond to their new privileges in a substantial and generous measure!

"Persons who have been accustomed to sit in certain definite places in the Church should continue to do so. The 'family unit' should be preserved and members of the family should, if possible, sit together. This will be perfectly feasible, under the new system, provided persons arrive at the Church on time. If the new system will tend to bring people to Church before the service begins and will reduce the number of those who habitually come late, it will have accomplished great things. We hope that this may be so.

✓ "Strangers and newcomers in this vicinity, if hitherto they have had any hesitancy in sitting in other people's pews, will no longer have this as a cause for not feeling welcome to the worship of Christ Church.

"All pews are now free and unassigned in Christ Church. Persons may feel perfectly free and welcome to sit anywhere. The invitation is to everyone. 'Whosoever will, let him come.'

"It is hoped that newcomers in this vicinity of Germantown will avail themselves of this cordial invitation and will let their names and addresses be known to the Rector, that he may meet them and welcome them to the Church."

Envelope Subscribers

The number who subscribe through the envelope system now amounts to 280. It is greatly to be desired that the number of subscribers shall be extended until it reaches every attendant at the services of Christ Church. The expenses of the Church go on whether the members are present or not, and every person will wish to do his or her share. Parents should inculcate in their children the habit of unselfish giving by systematic and regular methods. This should be done in the interest of the child's own future happiness as well as for the interest of the Church. A selfish person can never be happy. Remember the words of the Lord Jesus Christ, how He said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."—Act. 20: 35. Every member of every family in the Parish should have his or her individual envelopes and should give regularly and conscientiously to the work of the Church. "Upon the first day of the week let everyone of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him."—I Cor. 16: 2.

Pledge cards will be found in the racks in the vestibule or may be had by applying to the Verger. Please sign these pledge cards and place them in the alms basin at any service. A package of envelopes will then be sent to your address.

A Letter of Thanks to the People of Christ Church

City Mission, Philadelphia, Pa.,
July 15th, 1921.

The Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa.

My Dear Brother:

Just a line to acknowledge your fine letter of June 30th and to thank you for your usual generous remembrance of the City Mission summer outing work for women and children. What a splendid thing it would be if every Church in the Diocese would follow your practical example of real Christian help for the poor of the Church as well as of the city. May your vacation be one of the finest you ever had in your life. The consciousness of what you have done for those who are constrained to remain in the hot city courts of Philadelphia ought to increase your happiness a hundredfold, and you deserve it all.

Sincerely yours,

H. CRESSON McHENRY.

Letters similar to the above have been received from the "Children's Country Week Association," "the Bedford Street Mission," and from many individuals whom the people of our Parish have helped, by their generous contributions, during the past summer.

The Bazaar

Summer has gone, and it is hoped that the appeal which was made in the spring has resulted in our people having gathered together a goodly number of articles to be contributed for sale at The Bazaar.

It may bear repeating that The Bazaar is for our—or, better, your—benefit, as its object is to help provide a fund for the general renovation of the Parish property. This should meet with a ready response from everyone, and if every member of the Parish will resolve to be present at some time on the day of The Bazaar, not only will The Bazaar be a success from the standpoint of raising funds, but it will also prove to be a real reunion for the inauguration of the fall and winter work of the Church.

The Bazaar will be held on one afternoon and evening during the latter half of November, and the day will probably be Thursday, so that when it is stated that among the plans are the serving of a supper, this feature should reassure those who might want to spend both afternoon and evening at The Bazaar. The supper will also bring the answer to those to whom the Thursday evening meal is a question.

The committee has launched The Bazaar, but its success depends upon the interest of everyone in the Parish.

Will you not begin to gather together your donations to the cause?

There are wanted useful articles, fancy articles, toys, dolls, books, candy, cakes, canned goods (either single cans or cases), package food articles, framed pictures, potted plants, toilet articles, school supplies or any other articles which may be offered for sale.

There will be a committee appointed to solicit and receive donations, but those who care to contribute may present their donations to any of the Parish societies.

Everybody should be a part of The Bazaar.

Do your share and you will be gratified by the results.

Don't wish you had, but be glad you did.

U. G. R.

From the Accounting Warden

It is hoped that the action of the Vestry in terminating the renting of pews in Christ Church will be supported by all the former pewholders. It is now asked of them that they will give as a contribution either through the envelopes weekly or, if they would prefer, to send to the Accounting Warden a check monthly, quarterly or semi-annually for the amount formerly contributed as pew rent. If this is done it will greatly assist in making this movement the great success which is hoped for it.

EDWARD BAINS,
Accounting Warden.

Girls' Friendly Society

The first meeting this fall will be held on Tuesday, October 4th. Great plans are being made for the fall and winter meetings of the G. F. S., which, at present, cannot be announced.

By the next issue of THE CHIMES we will have lots of things to tell you.

G. M. G.

The Sunday School

Our School resumed its regular sessions on September 18th with 150 present, an unusually good attendance for the first Sunday. During the summer, instead of the usual sessions in the Parish House, we attended services in the Church and had an average of 60 to 75 present.

Our program for this year will be announced later and will start with a "Social Evening" on Friday, October 14th, when we will bring in the results of the "Talent" which over 100 scholars received in June, and which was to be put to work during the summer. We hope to have reports as to how the "Talents" grew, which will be very interesting.

We hope that by all working together this year to build up the School by increasing the number of both scholars and teachers, to improve our teaching and to do some definite missionary work.

We will hold our "Thanksgiving Party" as usual, and let us begin now to accumulate cans of soup and vegetables, as Mr. Arndt expects to have many more hungry people to look after this winter than last year, as so many cannot find work to do or are only working part of the time. Last year we brought in over 600 cans or packages of food. Let us make it over 1,000 this year.

We have lost two or three teachers due to moving away or illness, and we want two additional teachers. Will not some men or women of our Parish who read this come and call on us, and we think if they see us at work they will be more than willing to work?

A Germantown Convocational Event

The Christ Church delegates to the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of Germantown ask the interest and co-operation of all the women of the Parish in a concerted effort to raise funds to help in carrying on most important mission work within the Convocation. Please let me say here just a word of explanation. The Germantown Convocation is comprised of forty-two churches, in Bucks County and in some parts of Philadelphia County. Many of these smaller churches are greatly in need of help and it is to this end that the women of the different parishes unite in an effort to render aid to these struggling missions in the outlying districts of Philadelphia. We feel that we need to get together, so that we can extend the hand of fellowship and sympathy in a more understanding way. On Tuesday, October 11th, there is to be a luncheon followed by a sale of aprons, cake and candy. It is to be held at St. Luke's Parish House, Main and Coulter streets, as that location is the most accessible to the many different churches. All we need for great success is enthusiasm throughout the Convocation.

Please keep the day free and give us your support.

Aprons of all kinds wanted. Send the same to Mrs. T. W. Jopson, 314 High street, Germantown, by October 8th.

Cake and candy to be sent to the Parish House on day of sale. Tickets for the luncheon may be had from Mrs. Topliffe Johnson, 190 Maplewood avenue.

Woman's Auxiliary

(Woman's Missionary Society)

The first meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held at the Parish House on Friday, September 16th, fourteen members being present. The meeting was a business one, to discuss plans for the coming year's work. We decided to change the day of our meetings from the third Friday to the third Thursday in each month, as the latter seemed to suit the majority of the members much better than Friday.

The schedule of our meetings this winter will be as follows: The sewing will commence at 10.30 A. M. At 1 P. M. a luncheon will be served by a committee of three ladies, previously appointed. A charge of 25 cents will be made for the luncheon. It is requested that each member who expects to be present for luncheon will kindly advise, in advance, Mrs. William N. Johnson, chairman of the next committee, so that we may know how many to provide for. We feel confident that these simple luncheons will help to unite the women of our Parish in a closer bond of understanding fellowship. In the afternoon, at 2.30, we will have the business meeting, with reports from the delegates on the five different branches of the missionary work. At times we shall hope to have special speakers to address us.

The Woman's Auxiliary is one of the most vital organizations of our Church, in that it gives to women the opportunity to further Christ's kingdom both at home and abroad. Should we not feel this a personal call as members of our Parish branch? Is it too much to give one day a month of our time and of our means as we are able? Some of us have heard this voice calling to us from the mission field, but we want to beg others to join us in this tremendous work. We should deem it a real privilege to take our share in this mission work. We want every woman in our Parish to become either an active member or at least a contributing member. At present we have 76 of the latter, which means that we are able to do more than we have ever done before. We are, however, looking forward to accomplishing still bigger things. "Now is the appointed time." This fall we are commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the Woman's Auxiliary. Let each and every woman in our Parish rally to the support of our Auxiliary, for "a new day has dawned," and we must go forward so as to achieve greater results.

Men Who Are Discouraged, Remember This

When Abraham Lincoln was a young man he ran for the Legislature in Illinois, and was badly swamped.

He next entered business, failed, and spent seventeen years of his life paying up the debts of a worthless partner.

He was in love with a beautiful young woman, to whom he was engaged—then she died.

Later he married a woman who was a constant burden to him.

Entering politics again, he ran for Congress, and again was badly defeated.

He then tried to get an appointment to the United States Land Office, but failed.

He became a candidate for the United States Senate and was badly defeated.

In 1856 he became a candidate for the Vice-Presidency, and was once more defeated.

In 1858 he was defeated by Douglas.

One failure after another—bad failures—great setbacks. In the face of all this he eventually became one of the greatest men of America, whose memory is honored and loved throughout the world.

When you contemplate the effect of a series of setbacks like this, doesn't it make you feel kind of small to become discouraged, just because you think you are having a hard time in life?—Selected.

The Daughters of the King

The Daughters of the King begin their meetings on Monday, October 17, at 8 P. M., at the Rectory, where work will be laid out for the coming season.

Women's Bible Class

The Women's Bible Class will hold its first meeting on Sunday, October 9, at 3 P. M. Will not each member feel it a personal responsibility to enlarge the class by bringing a new member with her?

Mothers' Meeting

The sessions of the Mothers' Meeting will begin on Tuesday, October 11, at 2.30. The plans for the winter's work are not fully matured, but we hope to make the meetings pleasant and profitable.

Men's Bible Class

September, 1921, was the sixth anniversary of the inauguration of the Men's Bible Class in our Parish, and the fact that during these years the class has met continuously is worthy of mention. Through the past summer the average attendance at our informal sessions has been eighteen, and with the return of the vacationists and cooler weather a decided increase has already been noted.

The class has a most competent leader in Robert P. Shick, Esq., who has been very faithful in his effort to apply the Bible teachings to the everyday affairs of life. The only regret is that a number of men connected with Christ Church have not availed themselves of the opportunity to participate in these discussions, and by their interest and effort assist in making the class an influence for good in this community.

Recognition should be made at this time of the regularity with which Mr. J. W. O. Burness has presided at the piano. During the entire six years he has only been absent two Sundays—a record no other man in the class can equal. "Music hath charms," some one has said, but when a bunch of men get together on Sunday morning and try to sing, music becomes a necessity.

Our President, Frederick Lennig, is back on the job after a summer by the sea, and, being a worker, the coming winter promises big results. If you, Mr. Reader, are now a class member, see that you do your part by attendance and missionary work among your friends and neighbors. If not a member, we will be glad to welcome you any Sunday morning at 9.45 o'clock, and you won't regret the effort.

C. H. J.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild will resume its regular monthly business meetings on October 10th, when plans for the coming season will be discussed.

Serving committees for October are as follows:

Oct. 1st to 7th—Misses Dean, Crowder, M. Thompson.

Oct. 7th to 14th—Misses Mauser, E. Thompson, Mrs. Cotton.

Oct. 14th to 21st—Misses Chase, Strein, Praker.

Oct. 21st to 28th—Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

Remember Our Friends, The Advertisers

Boy Scouts to the Front

"Mentally awake" is a part of the Boy Scout oath, and that part of it describes our Troop to a T. Never in the history of Troop 153 has the organization been in such flourishing condition. At the Review Board of the Court of Honor, Scouts Deen, Donaldson and Gallagher took examinations as first class Scouts. They had to know how to swim. They had to send and receive messages by signal. They were asked all manner of questions: "Did the American flag ever have more than thirteen stripes?" "What is a compound fracture, and how do you treat it if there is no doctor within a hundred miles?" "What is fainting and what do you do?"

After answering questions they produced their maps and the accounts of fourteen-mile hikes. And, to cap the climax, they were drilled to find out whether they were honestly living up to the Scout oath and law.

Yes, that Troop is awake. The boys unanimously decided that you don't get anywhere unless you work, and from the youngest boy to the Scoutmaster, especially Assistant S. M. Gallagher, they are working, and they are most decidedly getting somewhere.

Listen to this: Our Scouts are making road signs reading "Philadelphia, 1926," and they propose to put them on highways everywhere. Scout Bockius, formerly of our Troop, will put one in Idaho. Scout Parker will put one in San Francisco. The Atlantic City Council will put one down there. If the whole United States does not know the centennial by 1926 it will not be the fault of Christ Church and its Boy Scout Troop—the Troop that took the woe out of slow in Philadelphia, and turning the world upside down made 1926 look like 9261. Our motto is "Be Prepared."

Mr. Man, send your son to a dancing class, if you care to make a sissy of him. But, if you intend to make of him a red-blooded man with a democratic interest in the world and its affairs send him to Troop 153. Meets Monday nights. We will look for you!

The Chimes

With this issue begins a new volume of the CHIMES, volume XXII. At the request of the publishers there has been a slight change in the form of the paper.

May we repeat here that subscriptions and contributions are solicited from the members of the congregation to defray the expense of publication?

An Appeal to Christian Citizens!

On Armistice Day the people of this nation were called by the President of the United States to pour out their prayers to God on behalf of the peace of the world and that the hearts and minds of those assembled in Conference in the city of Washington may be directed by His Holy Spirit in the way of righteousness and peace.

The Conference will be in session, probably for several weeks. The prayers of Christian people must continue through all these coming weeks, to go up to the Throne of Grace on behalf of those assembled in this solemn conclave and in behalf of the nations of the world. Prayer links the inadequate mind of man with the Divine mind which created and orders the universe. It is the greatest agency for good placed in our possession. Since, then, it is a greater factor than even the discussions of statesmen, a responsibility rests upon the Christians of America, upon the Christians of the world, quite as heavy as that borne by the Conference delegates. If American Christians leave the intricate problems to be solved by the minds of these delegates alone, we must expect a result that is human in its characteristics, and therefore, futile. If American Christians will realize that they have a sacred duty to perform in enlisting the guidance and blessing of God upon the Conference, they, since they are Christians, must expect a result in which can be seen the unmistakable direction of the Prince of Peace.

"It must not be again"—said President Harding over the graves of our martyred dead. It need not be again, if Christian people of the world will rise in their might, in the might of their prayers to God and declare "by the Grace of God it shall not be again."

This day then is the Christian's day—his challenge and his opportunity, to be a true apostle of the Prince of Peace. The challenge is plain:

"Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith, whereby ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; and for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak."

The Rector recommends that the following prayers shall be said daily during the Armistice Conference.

Prayer for Disarmament

By the Rt. Rev. Charles Fiske,
D.D. Bishop Coadjutor of Central
New York

O Lord God of the nations, Who through Thy prophets of old has foretold a day when the armaments of war shall be beaten into the instruments of peace; hasten, we beseech Thee, the fulfilment of this Thy most sure promise. Guide especially by Thy Holy Spirit those who are to meet in conference for the promotion of good will among all peoples. Give to men of every nation the spirit of peace, without which the counsels of rulers and leaders can avail nothing, and so move upon their hearts that they may earnestly desire and steadfastly labor for that day of peace for which we plan and pray. Give to us all a ready will to love and serve Thee, such as may speedily bring the world out of its present confusion into the order and peace of Thy Kingdom. All of which we ask in the Name and through the merits of Him Who came to be the Prince of Peace, Thy Son, our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

For International Fellowship

O God, Who hast appointed a day when the kingdoms of this world shall become the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, quicken our loyalty to Thee that we may now and always choose Thy will as our will, Thy way as our way, Thy peace as our peace. So lock our fortunes to Thy purpose in these days of perplexity and suffering that we may be satisfied with nothing less than a world at unity with itself, and, in abiding fellowship, win for mankind that freedom and mutual trust which will enable all nations to bring their glory and honor into Thy Kingdom, through Him Who came to set men free, Jesus our King. Amen.

Please Note!

The question has been asked the Rector whether the worshipper at the Holy Communion should stand or kneel at the Gloria in Excelsis. The rubric is very plain; "then shall be said or sung, all standing, Gloria in Excelsis." Therefore, it is not rubrical to kneel at that time.

Another question is asked: "Should the Communicant take the cup with his hand in receiving?" The chalice or cup should be guided to the lips by both hands of the Communicant, but should not be taken out of the hands of the priest. The rubric (page 237) states that it shall be delivered "into their hands." It is very awkward at times for the priest to administer the cup to persons who refuse to guide it to their lips with their hands—both hands.

"Is it proper to leave the Church before the end of the Communion Service?" It is not proper, it is very improper, except in cases of necessity, which are rare.

"May a Communicant of another parish come to the Holy Communion in a strange parish?" Most certainly, yes! If the person comes in the spirit which the Prayer Book, in the Communion Service, prescribes. If, however, a person has changed his residence from one parish to another it is his duty to procure a letter from the Rector of his former parish, transferring him to the Rector of the parish Church which he attends.

A Corporate Communion of Confirmed Men and Boys

For many years past it has been the commendable custom of the members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew throughout the country to mark the first Sunday in Advent, the Sunday nearest to St. Andrew Day, by a Corporate Communion of all members of the order and to invite other confirmed men and boys to unite with them in this sacred service.

Sunday, November 27th, the first Sunday in Advent, is the beginning of the new Church Year. It is a most fitting time for a Corporate Communion of men and boys of the Church, providing an opportunity for them to offer their united prayers to God for His blessing upon themselves, upon all men everywhere, and upon the work of the Church in the year ahead. I hope that there will be present a large attendance of the men and boys of the Parish at this Service on Sunday, November 27th. St. Andrew's Day, the following Wednesday (the 30th), suggests we follow the example of that blessed Apostle, and bring another with us.

Some Reasons for a Cathedral

At the Service in the Memorial Church of the Advocate, Philadelphia, held on the Feast of St. Simon and St. Jude, to mark the tenth anniversary of the Convocation of Bishop Rhinelander and Bishop Suffragan Garland of this diocese, the Rev. Dr. Alexander Mann, Rector of Trinity Church, Boston, the Church of which Bishop Philips Brooks was formerly Rector, gave a strong address on the "Relation of the Cathedral to the Parish Church." In the course of his address he gave some reasons for the existence of a Cathedral.

Dr. Mann said in part:

"In the present divided state of the Church the Cathedral cannot stand as it once did for the unity of Christendom. But we need Cathedrals in our great cities to stand for certain great ideals.

"The Cathedral shows the place spiritual interests ought to hold in a great city. Our houses of worship must not be dwarfed by great temples of art or commerce.

"Again the Cathedral stands for the place reverence holds in religion. The sorest lack in popular American Christianity today is the want of a sense of awe and worship.

"To lose the sense of reverence is to lose the foundation upon which all religion is built.

"The Cathedral stands for the impersonal side of religion.

"Just as men feel free to enter our public libraries or museums because they are citizens, so there should be centers of worship where they could come and go with a sense of freedom.

"The Cathedral is for us the symbol of the unity of the diocese. Upon a congregational foundation we have our episcopal Episcopate. It is our bond of union."

Coming to his main theme Dr. Mann emphasized the importance of conserving the strength of the parishes. He said, "The parish is the household of faith, the family, the fundamental unit of Church life. The parish is the source and spring of spiritual strength and worth of the diocese. Any bishop who would undertake to build up a Cathedral through the disintegration of parishes would destroy the diocese at its root.

"The Cathedral should in no sense be a rival of parishes. So far from being a disintegrating force among the parishes it should be the culmination, crown, and fruition of all the loyalty, sacrifice, and service of the parishes of the diocese."

Interest in the "Prayer Book Questions"

A list of "Questions on the Prayer Book" was recently published in the Christ Church CHIMES as an incentive to the scholars in our Church School to the study of the Prayer Book. Several scholars of Christ Church School submitted their answers to the Rector, one scholar answering perfectly all but three of the questions asked, and note of it was made in the CHIMES.

The list of "questions" has been copied in a national publication the Royal Cross, the official organ of the "Order of the Daughters of the King" and duly credited to the CHIMES. This excellent magazine is evidently read, far and wide, by Church people, for the Rector has recently received letters from many sections of the country, submitting answers to the questions and asking for fuller information concerning them. One letter from Chicago reads: "I have gotten several persons interested in finding the answers to the questions and all are quite agreed on some of them. I volunteered to write to ask if you have a written or a printed copy of the correct answers, and if so, would you be kind enough to let me have one?" A letter from St. Louis reads: "I think the questions are splendid for anyone not familiar with the treasures of our beloved Book of Common Prayer, and also for those making a study of the book and I am anxious that others should have the benefit of them."

A "shut in" from the Diocese of Florida asks that the correct answers be published. One "Daughter of the King" from Lafayette, Indiana, has sent a complete answer to all the questions.

In view of the general interest which this list of Questions seems to have aroused in many quarters and in response to the requests made for their correct answers, the Rector is pleased to publish in this issue of the Chimes, the original list inserting, in parenthesis, after each question, the number of the page in the Prayer Book, where the answers may be found.

The following is the list of questions, with Prayer Book prayer page appended.

- 1—From what date has the American Prayer Book been used? (Page IV.)
- 2—Was the whole present book set forth for use at the same time? (509.)

New Church Calendars for 1922

The usual Christ Church Calendars will be issued for 1922 and may be purchased from the vergers after December 1st. They will have the proper lessons to be read in Church on Sundays and the Holy Days of the Church year marked with their proper colors. There should be a Christ Church Calendar in every home in the Parish. They make an appropriate gift for Christmas.

Electric Lights in the Rectory

Through the generosity of a member of the congregation, electric lights have been recently installed in Christ Church Rectory. A vote of thanks was extended by the vestry, to the generous donor.

A New Organ Needed in Christ Church

One of the greatest needs of our Parish is a new organ by the Church. The present organ has been in use in the Church for almost seventy years. It was formerly in the old Church building, which was destroyed in 1878. It is antiquated and wholly inadequate to the present day needs. Who will give an organ? Who is willing to start the "New Organ Fund?" The Rector will be pleased to hear from any who may be interested.

Memorial Alms Plates

Four memorial alms plates, to take the place of the smaller ones, which have been used in Christ Church for many years past, were consecrated by the Rector on All Saints' Day. They are the gift of Mrs. Eckersley in memory of her husband, Mr. James H. Eckersley, who died January 10, 1921.

A very successful men's dinner was given in the Parish House on October 26th, about one hundred men being present. Addresses on "The Mission of the Church" were made by Mr. W. P. Barba, Mr. G. B. Shelby and Charles L. McKeehan, Esq. The Rector acted as toastmaster and an interesting general discussion followed the addresses.

The dinner was prepared and served by a Parish Committee, of which Mr. James Carmint was chairman. How the Committee was able to serve such a sumptuous dinner for the small price asked was, and still remains, a mystery to all who were present. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Carmint and his Committee, and to the ladies who served at the dinner.

New Vestrymen Elected

At the last meeting of the Vestry, held in October two new members were elected to the Vestry, Dr. Thomas H. Carmichael to fill the place of Mr. Henry R. Baremore, deceased and Charles W. Sutcliffe, Jr., to fill the place of Mr. J. I. Morrison (resigned). Both Dr. Carmichael and Mr. Sutcliffe have been members of the parish for many years.

As the CHIMES goes to press a Bazaar and Supper is being held in the Parish House by the members of the various Guilds of the Parish. The object is to raise money for the renovation of the interior of the Parish Buildings. A report of the Bazaar and Supper will be given in the next issue of the CHIMES.

Woman's Auxiliary

The work of the Woman's Auxiliary is progressing favorably. The October meeting was an especially interesting one as we had the Rev. Mr. Ramsam, of St. John's School, Cape Mount, Liberia, to talk to us. The mental picture he gave us of his work and surroundings was a very vivid one. Surely the task of the missionary is a hard one—a task which commands the interest and support of each and every one of us. We were glad to be able to help Mr. Ramsam by giving him an "Underwood" typewriter, for use in the school. The "luncheon hour" was a most restful and enjoyable one, 18 members being present. I wish that many other women of our Parish would join us at these meetings. We shall have special speakers to address us from time to time. The next meeting will be held on November 10th. The schedule of the meetings has been changed somewhat in order to accomplish more sewing: we will have the business meeting at 11 o'clock followed by luncheon at 12.30, sewing to begin at 1.30.

Last year, we only made about 35 garments, this year we are planning to make a much larger number. If all the women of our Parish will set aside a few hours, for this work once a month, we shall succeed.

The Church School

As announced in the October number of the CHIMES, the feature for November will be the Thanksgiving Party, which event has grown to be considered one of the real charitable works undertaken by the School.

The date of the party has not yet been definitely determined upon, but will be announced shortly, and we would suggest to anyone who has not seen how much joy the children can derive from their giving to a most worthy cause, that they come to the party. The admission is free, although donations of canned goods or packages of food stuff are acceptable.

We can assure you that the witnessing of how much pleasure can be obtained from helping your neighbors will more than repay for the effort of the visit.

We are anxious that the party this year be better than any which have preceded it, and we feel that the best way to help to this end, is to have all members of the school present at the Sunday morning sessions.

What a tremendous influence it would be if the Superintendent could be greeted, if only on one Sunday, with 100% attendance.

This can be done if you will be there.

When we stay away we are so apt to think that our absence will make little difference, but to those who attend, what awful vacant spaces those absentees make.

Will not each one realize that he or she is just the person needed to encourage the others?

The school feels that it is fortunate in being able to welcome several new teachers, among whom are the Misses Maud Thompson, Edith Thompson, Dorothy Manser and Edna Naegle, as well as the return of Mr. Howard Feist.

We again repeat our old appeal to the parents and friends of children of the Parish.

Will you not help the school by—Sending your children?

Seeing that they leave home in time to be at the school by 9.45 A. M.?

Giving the Superintendent the name and address of any child not attending any school? It is your school. Will you support it in the way indicated?

The Mothers' Meeting

The work of the Mothers' Meeting thus far has been largely devoted to the making of articles for the Bazaar held on November 17. The meetings have been largely attended and Tuesday afternoons have come to mean a pleasant as well as a profitable time. The Rector usually joins us the latter part of the afternoon and holds a religious service, after which tea and cakes are served, and on the first Tuesday of each month, ice-cream and cake are provided for us. The endeavor is to be made to have a speaker on the first Tuesday of each month who will bring to us something in which the women of today are vitally interested.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild resumed its regular monthly business meetings on Monday evening, October 10th. At that time Mr. Arndt appointed Miss Bessie Chase as chairman to take the place of Mrs. H. R. Baremore, who has moved from the city.

Members of the Guild arranged the altars for the services on All Saints' Day, at which time a great many memorial flowers were sent. We are now making preparations for the Thanksgiving Day service. We have recently purchased new book markers for all the small altar books.

The serving Committees for the coming month are as follows:

November 18 to November 25—
Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

November 25 to December 2—
Misses Dean, Crowder.

December 2 to December 9—
Misses Manser, E. Thompson, M. Thompson, Mrs. Cattory.

December 9 to December 16—
Misses Chase, Strein.

The Daughters of the King

The Daughters of the King held their meeting of the season at the Rectory on October 17. Lists of names were given the different members of people to be visited in reference to the Missionary Conferences. One of the members has volunteered to distribute the flowers from the Altar on Monday mornings. It was decided to have two meetings a month, taking up a systematic study of the Bible as a whole. The Rector is depending upon the chapter to assist him during the winter by calling upon new members of the Parish, and those who are ill. The 82nd Diocesan Local Assembly of the Order was held on November 10, at St. Matthew's Church. The Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of that Parish met on the same evening, and after the business meetings of the two organizations were held, they met in one room to hear an interesting address by Mr. Franklin H. Spencer, Executive Secretary of the Brotherhood. The meeting together of these two organizations whose work is so similar proved to be most helpful.

Boys' Scouts

OPEN LETTER TO THE PARISH
Dear Friends:

Time was, when he who carried arms and could swing the heaviest club, was the aristocrat of the Middle Ages. Time was, when he who amassed the largest fortune, wore a top hat and carried a gold cane was the aristocrat of the nineteenth century.

Times have changed—at the close of the first quarter of the twentieth century, thanks to the persistent influence upon mankind of Him who gave Himself, the time has arrived, when he, and he alone, who renders service, is recognized as the true aristocrat.

The Church has undergone a similar change. The old prayer, "God bless me and my wife, my son John and his wife—we four and no more," is out of fashion. The modern Church does not multiply itself by means of an inquisition. The Church has become Christlike. It stands in the community and sends forth upon the four winds from its belfry music that breathes into the neighborhood the spirit of service.

As a man who was invited to come into Christ Church from the outside—and yet in entire sympathy with the Parish—allow me to pay this tribute to Christ Church. Christ Church is modern. It is Christlike. I can prove it.

As the Scoutmaster of the Boy Scout Troop that meets here every Monday evening, I can see the altruistic work of the Parish. This troop is not a selfish Parish troop invented "to hold our boys." It is a community troop which shelters scouts of every creed. Almost everybody is welcome. A boy once told me that he was not a scout because "scouting is too much like work." That boy is not welcome. We don't want him. We have none like him, they dropped out long ago. The boy on the other hand who is willing to work, who finds himself in a higher rank of scouting at the end of the year because he has worked, the boy who has a clear cut conception of community service—that boy sticks. We want more like him and we are getting them. This fall we have averaged to add one new boy at each meeting.

Now, Christ Church through its Boy Scouts Troop is rendering a service to boys but the regret on my part as Scoutmaster is that we are not rendering a service to more boys who are members of Christ Church. This is due solely to a lack of publicity. If the people knew what our troop does they would send their boys.

Come around next Monday night and bring your boy. We have visitors every time we meet. It is quite customary. Ladies are most welcome. You will find out what it is that makes scouting the most popular thing in a boy's life. I know that is a big statement but I know what I am talking about. My son is a scout. Scouting is as popular with boys as Christmas Day. Try an experiment with your boy. See what kind of stuff he is made of. If he hates scouting he is very likely a grafter who grafts on you for one. If he likes scouting it will be because he has an inherent desire for progress and to serve and to be reverent and he finds in scouting an outlet, an opening through which to express the highest that is in him.

Finally that our troop appreciates what Christ Church is doing for us and for the community through its Boy Scout Troop goes without saying.

Cordially yours,

GEO. I. BODINE, JR.
Scoutmaster, Troop 153.

The services on Thanksgiving Day will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M. Special Thanksgiving Service and address, 11.00 A. M. The offering, as usual, on Thanksgiving Day will be for the Episcopal Hospital.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the rector or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

Christmas Peace

WHAT a wonderful Christmas this is to-day! Never since the angels sang, on that first Christmas morn, their hymns of peace and good will, has the message come amid more gladness and brought more hope and joy to the hearts of men, than on this Christmas Day.

"Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace among men, in whom He is well pleased!" The whole world joins today in this heavenly chorus.

The representatives of the great nations of the earth are assembled to bring about peace. Peace? What peace? Let us fervently pray that it may not be a peace of compact, of agreement or of compromise. If so, it will be only another "scrap of paper." Let us pray that men's hearts may be changed, may be "born again;" that the sin within, the sin of pride and jealousy, and selfishness and hate—may be wiped out; that "good will," that is God's will, may be men's will, everywhere; that the nations of the world may disarm and come together in trust and co-operation, not because it is economically and politically wise and expedient, but because the Spirit of Christ has been admitted to their counsels and has taken possession of the hearts of men, and they have been turned to God.

So shall there be peace on earth; the peace of which the angels sang, the peace of righteousness, of justice, of truth, of love, the peace of Christ, born in the hearts of men; the peace of the SAVIOUR OF THE WORLD; the peace of the eternal Prince of Peace; the peace of God!

The religious character of the Christmas Day should not be lost sight of, but should be strongly emphasized. It should be clearly borne in mind that Christmas is not a secular feast, but is distinctly a religious festival. The Day should, therefore, not be wholly given over to festivities and amusements, as harmless, as these may be, but should be observed in a manner befitting its sacred associations. Christmas should be a day of joyfulness, of holy Christian joyfulness, but not of frivolity. Well may this Day, on which the child Jesus was born, be a day peculiarly joyful to children, and the season of the happy gathering of families worshipping together in the House of God, "of sending portions to those for whom nothing is prepared;" of gifts to the poor and of good-will to all men. This should be the spirit of Christmas, and the feasting, the merriment and the amusement must not be put in place of these. The religious observance of the Day must come first and be paramount in importance, or else the whole meaning of Christmas is lost. On the first Christmas morn "there was no room for Christ in the inn." Is there not danger today that we, too, will deny Him room? Is there not danger that our hearts and minds and the hearts and minds of the children, will be crowded full of the world and there will be found no room for Christ? Let each one bear in mind the religious significance of Christmas Day, and come into God's House and bring gifts unto Him and worship Him, Emmanuel, God with us.

His coming on Christmas Day at the Altar. How are you going to keep Christmas? Is it to be simply a feast of Santa Claus, or is it to be to you the celebration of the greatest event in the history of the world, the coming into the world of the Son of God, "the brightness of the Father's glory and the express image of His person; being of one substance with the Father by Whom all things were made."

How does a devoted and dutiful child observe his parents' birthday. By being, if possible, in their presence.

Our Lord is with us today. He did not leave us when He departed from this earth. He brought heaven down to us that He might be with us always and He calls from the altars of His Church to us to come and worship Him. Do not let the Christmas dinner be more important than the Christmas communion and Christmas worship. You can have your Christmas dinner in the afternoon just as well as at noon.

God demands of us personal devotion. Nothing can take the place of that.

If you keep Christmas as you should keep it, you will always have a happy, if not a merry, Christmas. You will not hate Christmas as those who keep it only for themselves often do. If the members of the home be scattered, or if the family ties be broken by death, at the Lord's table we may meet with "loved ones far away," and with our Lord, "with whom the souls of the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, and in joy and felicity."

"Lord, where Thou art our holy Dead must be,
Unpierced, as yet, the Sacramental mist;
But we are nearest them and nearest Thee
At solemn Eucharist.

"O Lord, we crave for those gone Home to Thee,

For those who made the earthly home so fair;
How little we may know, how little see,
Only—Thou art there.

"Dear hands unclasped from ours are clasping Thee;
Thou holdest us forever in Thy heart;
So close the One Communion—are we
In very truth apart?

"Lord, where Thou art our happy Dead must be;
And if with Thee, what, then, their boundless bliss!
Till Faith be right, and Hope reality,
Love's anchorage is this."

There will be a Celebration of the Holy Communion on Christmas Day, at 6.30, 7.30, 11.00 A. M.

Epiphany

Twelve days after Christmas occurs the Feast of the Epiphany; it is indeed an extension of the Christmas Season and continues up to Septuagesima Sunday. The festival of the Epiphany must be deemed of very high importance by the believing and thoughtful Christian. It does not merely commemorate one of the most beautiful incidents of our Lord's infant life,—the visit of the three wise men to worship "the new born King,"—it, also, asserts one of the fundamental and vital features of Christianity; the great distinction, in fact, between Christianity and Judaism. The Jewish religion was the religion of a race. Was the Son of God come to reveal the Father's love to and to save one set of people only, or was He come to manifest His love to and to save all people, everywhere? The teaching of this Epiphany season is sufficient answer to that question. The Church's mission is to all the world, to every people, of every clime. The Epiphany season is the great missionary season of the Church.

Every season, of course, should be a "missionary season" but at Epiphany special emphasis is laid on this teaching; indeed, that is what the word "Epiphany" means,—"manifestation," "shining out." The star shone out and led the Gentiles to the Child of Bethlehem and they "fell down and worshipped Him." And so we pray, in the collect for missions, "O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on the face of the whole earth and didst send Thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off and to them that are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after Thee and find Thee. Bring the nations into Thy fold, and add the heathen to Thine inheritance. And we pray Thee shortly to accomplish the number of Thine elect, and to hasten Thy Kingdom, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Non-Church Going Habit

"It is all a habit!" We wonder how often one hears that expression as an excuse, or an explanation of the neglect of the Church services! This neglect is a habit, and a bad one. It grows into a systematic neglect of all that pertains to the outward expression of religious life, and its effect on the more personal, inner, life is not less sure. A certain moral complacency grows up that makes the real conscience in the matter hard to reach. Dr. Lyman Abbott, in an open letter to the Outlook deals with the habit—that of church-going. He says:

"I heard the other Sunday a very excellent sermon on the advantages of church-going, and asked the preacher of the sermon, for permission to give to others one paragraph in which the advantages of church-going were summed up. The paragraph was as follows:

"But I do not say without fear of successful contradiction, that the conscientious habit of going to Church always is one of the surest promoters of human happiness and courage. It broadens the mind, it cheers the soul. It lifts men's thoughts to the skies above them. It breaks the dull routine of work; it releases the captives of toil; it makes life interesting again; it awakens new powers of insight and sympathy. It changes the world's prose into poetry. For this is the conclusion of the matter: 'They kept the feast with gladness. For they all rejoiced so that there was great joy in Jerusalem.'"

Hope in America

America is the hope of the world in this crisis. The people of Europe look to her to exercise her leadership unselfishly. To the old nations a reduction in armament is a vital necessity. If the Conference on Disarmament will not give to the world what is expected by the nations, there will be a general burial of ideals, of constructive effort, and of confidence, and the peoples will sink back into deep hopelessness. The way will be prepared for the destructive forces of anarchy and Bolshevism. Still, hope prevails, and the people of Europe believe that the Conference will achieve definite results in reducing armaments in restoring international goodwill and faith."—Pastor Adolph Keller, secretary of the Swiss Federation of Churches.

Apropos of our prayers and intercessions for peace, the Rector quotes below an excerpt from Bishop Rhinelander's address, delivered on Armistice Day, as reported in the Diocesan News. It goes to the very heart of the whole matter and puts the question of peace on the one and only strong and enduring foundation: "Peace," says the Bishop, "comes out of good will—that is, out of the wills really set on good.

"Good will alone and always can make peace. Therefore, there is in the world at any time, just as much peace, no more, no less, as there is good will in men and women. Those men assembling in Washington in conference on the Limitation of Armaments, have a much simpler and more serious thing to do than we may realize: not merely to discuss external ways and means, rules and regulations, for national security in spite of fewer battleships and smaller armies: but to report how much good will they left behind them in the nations which they represent: to estimate the amount of raw material available from which is to come the finished product, remembering that product is always limited by raw materials. And, in reality, it is not those men who compose the Conference which is assembling, but we, the rank and file of all the nations. Nor is it in Washington that we are in conference assembled, but in the Presence Chamber of the Prince of Peace, which also is His Judgment Hall.

"God alone, through His Son, our Lord, can make us to be peacemakers. For He only can make our wills good and keep them so. The path of peace is the old, well-marked and well-worn way (though trodden by the few, not by the many) which leads to God through penitence, confession, forgiveness, and renewal in the grace of Jesus Christ. The only effectual method of disarmament is, not the laying down of our arms, but the giving up of our sins. And as to prayer, these two minutes of silent intercession which in loyalty to our President and to our faith as Christians we are met to spend together here, may indeed be memorable for the world, but only as they are decisive for ourselves. Prayer is our strongest energy for good, but it is strong only if it is utterly sincere: if we pray as we are resolved to live: if we shall live as we have prayed.

"Let our prayers for the world's peace come out of hearts and minds and wills seeking the peace of God. They will be effective even to the tearing down of strongholds and the building up of His Kingdom just in proportion as we ourselves are set on good will and are prepared to do His will, which alone is our peace."

A Christmas Within the Reach of All

Written by a member of
Christ Church

A few days ago I heard a woman designate the coming season as "the Christmas nuisance," and my heart ached for her. I wondered whether she was a woman without sincere affection for her friends and relatives, or if she had been misled by the many erroneous ideas of Christmas now in existence. So many have an idea of one great rush, a drain upon the not too full pocket-book, an accumulation of useless ornaments, to be topped by a heavy dinner that overloads the digestion so that one is stupid and heavy for the whole day.

And I heard others speak of the Christmas sadness, and the vacant chair at the family reunion, and I wondered if they considered the true nature of Christmas joy.

Had there been no Christmas, had not the all-loving Father sent His only begotten Son into the world that the world through Him might be saved, and to give us the assurance of a greater and more blessed reunion did we not know that instead of passing out into the unknown our loved ones at death simply passed up the stairway to a higher room—then, indeed, any anniversary would be a sad one, and the idea of celebration a ghastly farce.

But to those of us who realize the full meaning of Christ's birth, the sorrow we feel is a sweet one, and though we mourn our own loneliness, our darkness is pierced by a ray of glorious light.

But perhaps what tries us most at this time is the financial strain. We love to give to our friends and relatives, and we cannot do what we would. Many are the fathers and mothers at this time who cannot pass a toy store without an aching heart, because they cannot give more to their little ones.

The stores are tempting just now, and are unfortunately the ruin of many families. So many things are just a few cents more than we can afford that we get them regardless. It is not the diamonds, and silks, and pianos, and objects of luxury that ruin so many families. We consider these as beyond our reach and do not sigh for them, but it is the things just within our reach, or just above, that have caused more financial distress than any other factor at this time and which bring no pleasure nor profit, but plenty of unhappiness.

But there is one gift which is within the reach of every one of us—a gift that our friends and relatives would appreciate more than any other—and that is the gift of a better self. Some of the most generous people I have ever known make themselves such public and private nuisances that we would far rather never see one of their gifts than be obliged to have their friendship.

A few anecdotes will illustrate my meaning:

A woman while traveling in Italy with her husband was caught in a severe earthquake and escaped with difficulty.

When her friends condoled with her and asked her whether it was not a terrible experience, she replied:

"Terrible experience? No; I really rather enjoyed it, because it was the only thing that happened on our whole trip for which I was not to blame."

Now, if her husband had dropped his grouch on Christmas and had given her a husband who was not fault-finding, it would have been no strain upon his pocketbook and would have enabled her to enjoy other things beside earthquakes.

Another especially cantankerous old lady who was charming to outsiders and though generous to her own in a way, had a temper that made her a desperation to every one obliged to live with her, said one day to a long-suffering companion:

"You see, I love you so that I treat you like one of my family."

"Yes," replied her companion wearily, "and I think I bear it very well."

Another woman said to me once: "I never appreciated the saying, 'absence makes the heart grow fonder,' until I married my husband. Now I find that when he is away I can really feel fond of him."

* * * *

So I might go on citing examples without number. The scolding tongues, the impatient word, the selfish spirit, the lack of appreciation might all be put aside, and for them could be substituted the gentle rebuke (if necessary), patience with weakness in others, a kindly spirit toward others and the word of deserved praise. This is a gift within the reach of all. It costs no money and brings in large returns.

To Critics of the Church

More than three-fourths of all the social workers in America at this moment are members of Christian Churches. The ethical societies, the atheistic Socialists, the lapsed Church members, are not one-fourth of the whole, by the latest statistical account. Take away the men and women whom the Church has set aflame with her ideals of brotherhood and sacrifice, and every charitable work in America would be crippled tomorrow. In any small town where Church affiliations are well known there may be a score of "undenominational" charitable boards but almost every member on each board is also a prominent church member. The van of the Church is pushing ahead eagerly toward industrial arbitration, municipal reform, temperance legislation, improved housing for the poor, the protection of women and children industrially, old age pensions and every other reform that modern America is considering. It is an undenominational van, shoulder to shoulder, representing no one church, appealing to no ecclesiastical authority. That is why its presence is taken for granted by the public and forgotten by the critic. But it spoils his argument the moment one comes to think about it.—The Outlook.

Questions

"Is it reverent to stand in the chancel waiting one's turn to approach the altar?" No, it is not reverent. If there is no room at the rail, either kneel down on the chancel floor, or retire to the front seats in the nave and kneel, awaiting your turn.

"Why does not our parish furnish more Prayer Books and Hymnals for the Congregation?" Because these Prayer Books and Hymnals at the doors of the Church are not intended to be used regularly by the members of the parish. They are intended particularly for strangers. Every member of the parish should own a Prayer Book and Hymnal and should bring them to Church and take them home every Sunday.

"Is it proper to leave the Church before the end of the Communion Service?" It is not proper, it is very improper, except in cases of necessity, which are rare.

"How should one receive the wafer at the Holy Communion?" In the palm of the hand, with the hands crossed. Never take the wafer in your fingers. Remove gloves from both hands before coming to the rail.

"How often should we come to the Holy Communion?" As often as we are able. Why? Because (1) It is an act of obedience to Christ's command. (2) It is a safeguard against sin and temptation. (3) It is a pledge of God's love and goodness toward us. In the Apostolic days the Christian probably came at least every Lord's Day. (See Acts XX:7.)

Music on Christmas Day

Processional—Christians, Awake! Salute the Happy Morn.

Venite—Smart.

Introit—Te Deum, Federlein.

Offertory Hymn—It Came upon the Midnight Clear.

Communion Service—Woodward in E Flat

Ascription—Monk.

Retrocessional—Hark! the Herald Angels Sing!

Service on Christmas Day

The Service on Christmas Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion—6.30, 7.30. Shortened Morning Prayer, Sermon and Holy Communion, 11.00 A. M.

Church School Christmas Carol Service—3.30 o'clock in the afternoon

No service on Sunday night, December 25th.

The Church School Christmas entertainment will be held on Holy Innocents Day, Wednesday, 28th, in the Parish House. The Primary School's entertainment will be in the afternoon at 3.30 o'clock; the Main School and Bible Classes in the evening, at 7.45.

Word has been received that Santa Claus will be present at both of these sessions.

On each of the Holy Days after Christmas, St. Stephen's Day, St. John, Evangelist, and Holy Innocents, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9.30 A. M.

Church Calendars for 1922

A few Christ Church calendars for 1922 are left and may be had from the Verger. This calendar should be in every home in the parish.

No Midnight Service on New Year's Eve

New Year's Eve occurs this year on Saturday. It would be expecting too much of the choir to be present until after midnight on that day, and to be on duty at the usual Sunday morning services on the following day. The usual midnight service on New Year's Eve will, therefore, be omitted this year.

The Church will be open, however, all evening until after midnight for private prayers and devotions. Printed forms of prayers and intercessions will be found in the pews on that evening and persons who come to the Church are asked to include them with their private prayers. The Church bell will be tolled as usual at midnight and the chimes will be rung to welcome in the New Year.

Christmas Greens

Contributions are solicited from members of the congregation for the "Christmas Greens" in the Church. Contributions may be given or sent to Mr. Richard H. Morris, 6604 Wayne Avenue, Germantown.

Subscriptions for the Chimes

Contributions and subscriptions for the publication of the CHIMES have been received from the following persons: Mr. John Davidson, Mrs. H. R. Baremore, Mrs. Jane Graeff, Mrs. Baisbrown, Mrs. Benjamin Fisher, Mrs. Thomas Merwin, Mrs. Henrietta Straub, Mrs. L. H. Davis, Miss Greib, Miss Hearst, Mr. Charles C. Jones, Mr. Samuel Baxter, Mrs. A. T. Flower.

Where are the others? Please send contributions at once to Mr. Robert Carmint, 6373 Sherman Street, or to the Rector.

Confirmation Class Forming

The Rector will begin instructions on Confirmation the second week in January; the dates of the meetings will be announced later. Persons who contemplate being Confirmed or who wish to talk to the Rector on the subject are requested to give their names to him at once. The Bishop of the Diocese will visit this parish on Maundy Thursday evening.

For the Unity of God's People

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace; Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord: that as there is but one Body and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Church School

Our Thanks-GIVING Party was a great success. Mr. Cotton had arranged a good program and the offering of cans and packages of foodstuffs was greater than last year. The counting of them has not been as yet completed.

The attendance at school has been very good all the fall. The following have been "Star Classes" more than once: Four times—Miss Cave's and Miss Johnson's. Three times—Mrs. Clifton's and Mr. Falkner's. Twice—Miss Gerhard's and Mr. Parker's. Eight other classes have been "Star" once. Some of us are kept away because of illness or absence from home, but we must all remember that it is not fair to our teacher and the rest of the class to be absent if it is possible for us to be present.

Remember Our Friends, The Advertisers

Our Christmas Carol Service will be in the Church at 3.30 Christmas afternoon and we want not only every scholar there but every parent as well. It will be a short service and over before dark. We hope to have our old friend the Rev. Mr. Ware give us a talk. There will be no session of the Sunday School Christmas morning.

The Primary Department's Christmas Party will be held on Wednesday afternoon, December 28th, at 3 o'clock, and every scholar should bring his or her mother.

The Main School's Party will be held Wednesday night, December 28th, at 7.45, and we want our parents with us, each one of them. A good program has been arranged by a committee with Mr. Cotton as chairman and I know it will be enjoyed by all.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The next meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held at the Parish House, on Thursday, December 15th, beginning at 11 A. M. It is hoped that we shall have a large attendance for our quota of sewing has been doubled this year, so that it will be necessary for us to apply ourselves diligently and faithfully to our task, in order to accomplish it.

May I enumerate a few of the things the "Christ Church" Woman's Auxiliary has done this fall. We have contributed $10.00 apiece to each of the five branches of the Missionary Society.

$10.00 to St. Gabriel's Mission (on the Roosevelt Boulevard) have made a generous contribution towards the "Roofing Fund" for St. Barnabas Mission, besides other gifts to worthy objects, and, last but not least, we have given an "Underwood" typewriter to the Rev. Mr. W. H. Ramsaur, who is in charge of St. John's School for boys, at Cape Mount, Liberia. The following letter received some weeks ago, speaks for itself:

China Grove, North Carolina,
Nov. 11, 1921.

Dear Mrs. Robinson:

That little group with which I met that day in Christ Church Parish House was the finest I have seen since coming home, for according to their size they have done better than any others. Yes, the check for my expenses came quite promptly, and now comes your letter saying that you are ready to ship the typewriter. How perfectly splendid! And my wife begged me so hard that day not to go, for she thought I was not sufficiently recovered, but I am delighted to have had the pleasure of coming to know folks like the Christ Church Auxiliary.

Such a great help the typewriter will be! Please ship it to me at 281 Fourth Avenue, New York City, care of Mr. W. R. Wilcox, and give my kindest regards to all those who helped to make this possible. Do not forget us in your private and corporate prayers.

Very sincerely,
WILLIAM HOPE RAMSAUR.

(Mr. Ramsaur is home on furlough, but expects to sail shortly for Liberia.)

Every woman in our parish is a member of the Woman's Auxiliary and we need the interest and support of each and every one of you in order to accomplish greater things for Christ and His Kingdom.

The Bazaar

The Bazaar, which was held in the Parish House, during the afternoon and evening of November 17, 1921, has now passed from the prospective to the retrospective stage, and therefore any comment thereon should come from those who patronized it, rather than from the committee in charge.

The committee, however, desires to express its grateful appreciation and thanks to all those who contributed in any way, by service, by donations or by patronage, to making the Bazaar what it was.

The members of the parish will no doubt be interested to know that the financial results of the Bazaar to the present, are:

From the supper.....	$116.00
Sale of groceries, etc.....	72.52
Fancy goods	101.65
Useful goods	54.97
Dolls and toys.....	53.13
Cakes	34.12
Candy	32.94
White elephant	26.20
Refreshment	11.95
Games	11.00
	$514.48
Less general expenses.....	28.92
Net proceeds	$485.56

The net returns will be turned over to the Accounting Warden, to be placed in the fund for the renovation of the parish property, and some part of such work will, we understand, be undertaken in the near future.

As the committee makes this closing report of the Bazaar, it wishes to say to all who helped:

"Aren't you glad you did?"

THE COMMITTEE.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the rector or the usher. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

The Free Pew System in Christ Church and its Meaning

Most, if not all, of the readers of the CHIMES, thoroughly appreciate the recent action of the Vestry of Christ Church in declaring all pews in this Church free and unassigned. The advantages of a free pew Church are apparent to all. But it is necessary to say a word about the corresponding duties which these advantages entail. A duty, greater than ever, rests upon every man, woman and child to recognize his or her personal responsibility to share in the support of the work which this parish is called upon to do.

Indeed, this reliance upon the co-operation of all and upon the conscientious response of every member of the parish, this faith and belief that every one will conscientiously measure up to his or her personal responsibility, is one of the advantages of this free pew system. It is, to be sure, a venture. It is a venture of faith—faith in human nature—faith in the attendants and in every member of the parish. It may be that there will be some persons in whom this faith will be misplaced, but we do not believe that there will be many. For the few who may fail, let us not lose faith in the many. Most people are honest. The great majority may be trusted. If it were not for this faith in men, all business, all human endeavor would fail, for in the last analysis, all life is built upon faith. This is a principle upon which all Christian civilization is based.

As a matter of principle, we all acknowledge the duty of giving; of "not entering into the Courts of the Lord with empty hands;" of making and offering of our substance as a sign and token that we are desirous of making the still more important oblation of ourselves.

Everyone, also, admits the general principles, which should govern all giving, that is acceptable to God. They are plainly set forth in His Holy Word. First: Giving must be free. "Freely have ye received, freely give." (St. Matt. 10: 8.) Second: It must be proportionate. "Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God, which he hath given thee." (Deut. 16: 16.) Third: It must be cheerful. "Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver." (2 Cor. 9: 6-7.) Fourth: It must be systematic and regular, for so the apostle commanded his converts: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." (1 Cor. 16: 2.) Fifth: Our giving must not be for ourselves alone, for the needs of our own parish only. It must extend to the needs of the whole world. We must give to the missionary work at home and abroad. We must preach the Gospel everywhere. "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

We cannot all go as missionaries, but we all can and must "go," by giving of our means, with which God has blessed us; and by giving our money to enable others to go in our stead. Our giving, therefore, must be to extend this Kingdom of God throughout all the world. Sixth: It must be offered in hearty sympathy, charity and love. "Though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing." (1 Cor. 13: 3.)

It is clear that the regular weekly offertory, through the system called "The Envelope System," supplies the very best way in which we may carry out all these precepts of Christ and His Apostles. There is no other method so comprehensive, there is no other method so fair, so regular, so unostentatious, so self adjusting. And it has the special advantage of being the method which the great Apostle recommended and prescribed. As your Rector, I urge the serious and conscientious consideration of this important matter upon every member of this parish. I am not at all concerned with the matter of financial results. We must leave results with God. I am, however, concerned, and deeply concerned, with Christian principles and duties. And, on the basis of Christian principle and duty, I urge that every member of this Parish, every boy and girl, as well as every adult, who has not, as yet, assumed his or her personal responsibility in this matter, will do so at once, so that the work that God has given us to do, may be generously supported, not by the few, but by the many, that all the members of Christ Church may be sharers together in the responsibilities and in the blessed privileges and joys of Christian service.

We Belong to a Church, Not a Parish

We are accustomed to hear the word "Church" applied to a local congregation. We use it loosely ourselves in the same way. But with us, speaking accurately, the Church is our entire communion. The local organization is simply a parish, an outpost, a garrison. A garrison in an outpost does not think of itself as the army. A ship is not the navy. A local postoffice is not the postoffice department. The Bishop is soon to visit this parish for the purpose of administering the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. This annual visit of the Bishop brings to our mind an outstanding fact, which some of us are apt to forget. The visit of the Bishop reminds us that we belong to a Church, not to a parish; that we are part of an army, not simply a garrison; that we are enlisted in the navy, not in a ship. The Bishop is the outward and visible sign that we belong to a great, historic, age-long, world-wide institution, which has outposts everywhere, and that we have all its resources back of us and its power within us. Confirmation is not administered by the rector of the parish, who represents only the local congregation. It is administered by the Bishop, who represents the entire Church. We are admitted, therefore, into the communion not of the local congregation or parish. The Bishop's act accomplishes something far wider than that. We are taken into the communion and fellowship of the entire Church throughout the world, including every parish, mission, outpost or garrison under the Church's jurisdiction. That is why we are Churchmen, not Congregationalists. That is why it is that our imagination is stirred and our enthusiasm is kindled by the world-wide institution more than by the local organization. For while we are registered in and attached to a given parish, our citizenship is in the all-including Church.

The Rector Asks for Help

The Bishop of the Diocese has appointed Maundy Thursday evening—the evening before Good Friday—for Confirmation in this parish. I appeal to all members of Christ Church to co-operate with me in bringing this very important subject of Confirmation to the attention of the young people who have arrived at the age of discretion and to all adults, who have not been confirmed. A child in the most impressionable and susceptible years of life ought to be brought under the spiritual influence of the Church and be confirmed.

Every adult who wants to make the most of life, in the truest and highest and best sense of that term, ought to be identified with the Christian Church, both for the help and strength he will receive, and for the good he can do to others.

There are some in our congregation whose life is one of practical religion and devoted churchmanship, with these two exceptions—they hold back from performing the duties of Confirmation and Holy Communion. My friends, by this neglect you deprive yourselves of the blessing attached to the performance of duty, of the grace conveyed through these particular channels.

It may be, too, your refusal causes others to stand aloof. Have you not a duty to perform, both to yourselves and to others?

Will not every one, who has not, as yet, been confirmed, seriously consider this very important subject at this time? Will not every member of Christ Church co-operate with the rector in bringing the duty and the privilege of confirmation to the attention of others?

What Does Confirmation Mean?

The Rector commends the following words of the Rt. Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, late Bishop of Mississippi, on the subject of Confirmation. They are strong words. God grant that they may touch the hearts and stir the wills of some who have been putting off, from year to year, their Christian duty of Confirmation.

"The great mass of people in Christian lands are baptized in infancy. It has been the purpose of the Christian Church, from the first, to take into her arms the children, following herein the Master's example. She learned her lesson at His blessed feet, and forbids them not, because she accepts His words, that "of such is the kingdom of Heaven." She is a training school to teach His love and faith, to watch over and educate and train, by precept upon precept, the children whom He has committed to her charge.

Therefore, she makes them Christians to begin with. All Christian duties, all Christian obligations are upon them by election, because by God's good pleasure and the sovereign council of His own will, they have been born into a Christian land, and so elected for Christian duty and a Christian life.

These baptized children are members of Christ's Church, in the full, unlimited meaning of the term. They are the Church's most sacred charge. Above all, she is bound to guard and watch for them, as the State guards, sacredly, the rights of its children, as it recognizes their full citizenship, and protects them most zealously by courts and judges. Just because they are helpless, although it does not demand all a citizen's duties, nor admit them to exercise all a citizen's privileges; so the Church guards the rights of her minor members, and brings them to full growth in the Christian life, guards them the more sacredly because they are so helpless.

Her plan is, when they have come to the years of discretion, when they know good and evil, when they have learned where they stand, and what is the issue of their choice, to gather them about her, with the dew of youth and hope yet fresh upon them, with the world on which they soon must enter lying yet untried before them; to gather them about her and ask them now once more, as once the act was done in love and faith by others for them, to renew it for themselves: to conform is grace and goodness here, at the dawning, before the toiling and the fighting begin.

It is thus that Confirmation—or the laying on of hands—becomes the central fact in his Christian history.

Confirmation Class for Adults will hold its first meeting in the Parish House, on Wednesday evening, February 15th, and will continue its meetings every Wednesday evening, until the Bishop's visitation.

The Class for Minors will meet on Sunday afternoons, at four o'clock, beginning Sunday, February 19th. Persons who are not able to attend the instructions on the above days may receive literature from the Rector on the subject of Confirmation and the teachings of the Church, and may be prepared at home. Persons who are contemplating Confirmation are requested to give their names to the Rector as soon as possible.

A Note from the Accounting-Warden

It is with much gratification that the Accounting Warden can report the last payment will be made on account of the mortgage on the Parish House early in February. The Church Property will then be free from all indebtedness. This has been accomplished by the systematic use by the envelope contributors of the blue envelopes, thereby making a monthly offering to this end.

Now that the final payment of the mortgage is accomplished, we should endeavor to make several most necessary improvements to the Church Property to bring it up to a thoroughly modern standard. The most imperative need is for a modern heating plant. In extreme weather it is impossible to heat the church to the temperature it should be for the comfort and welfare of the worshippers. The present system is also most extravagant in the use of fuel, which is a large item in our running expenses of to-day.

It has been suggested by members of the congregation that the blue envelope be retained and the income from that source be used to create a fund to be used for such extraordinary repairs and improvements to the Church Property.

It is therefore hoped that the members of the congregation will continue to give liberally towards this fund, as heretofore, through the blue envelopes, although the original purpose for which the envelopes were introduced has been accomplished.

EDWARD BAINS,
Accounting Warden.

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild has been busy during the past month. We spent the morning of December 24th at Church decorating the altar and arranging for Christmas.

At our regular monthly business meeting, held January 9th, it was decided to have the annual Guild supper some time early in February.

The serving committees for the coming month are as follows:

Jan. 25 to 27—Misses Dean, Crowder.

Jan 27 to Feb. 3—Misses Manser, M. Thompson, E. Thompson.

Feb. 3 to 10—Misses Chase, Strien, Parker.

Feb. 10 to 17—Misses Mogridge, Cooley, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

Thanks to the Woman's Auxiliary

Germantown, Philadelphia,
January 6, 1922.

My dear Dr. Arndt:

Will you please express to the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church the grateful and hearty thanks of the people, and especially the children, of St. Ambrose's Mission, for the Christmas stockings so kindly sent them?

I know that if your people could have been present at our Christmas festival, to see for themselves, the happiness and joy which those gifts brought, they would have felt amply repaid.

Adding my own hearty thanks, I am.

Very sincerely yours,
FREDERICK B. HALSEY.

"When we ask you to be a Christian, we do not ask you chiefly to give up something, or believe something, or profess something, but the great demand is that you shall be something, and do something, to show what you are and make yourself be it more completely."

An Appeal to Women

The Woman's Auxiliary sends out an urgent plea for help in the sewing department. The Diocesan Supply Bureau has sent us our allotment of garments to be made for missionary purposes, but unless we have more helpers we cannot possibly finish them.

The meetings are held in the Parish House on the third Thursday of the month. The missionary meeting is held in the morning at 11 o'clock. At 12 30 a luncheon is served, for which everyone is taxed twenty-five cents. The sewing session starts at 1.30. Those who cannot come to morning meeting are earnestly urged to come in the afternoon and help with the sewing. We must do our share in the Diocesan work, but we need more help.

Our appeal for financial aid met with such great success that we feel sure this appeal will not go unheeded.

Women who for any reason cannot attend the meetings in the Parish House and are willing to help in the sewing at their homes are asked to offer their services by writing to the Secretary, Mrs. Frank Wells, 244 West Hottter street. Telephone Germantown 1884 J.

Girls' Friendly Society

The Girls' Friendly have been working so hard ever since we started this fall that we have hardly had time to breathe. We started by working for the bazaar, which was a great success, and then Christmas came and we worked for Christmas dinners for the poor and the collecting of toys for poor families. We also filled twelve stockings for the children of the Philadelphia Hospital. And now our plans are somewhat unsettled. Our main idea is to raise some money to meet our pledges. We are talking about plays and players and other nice things, so be prepared to come around to Christ Church Parish House and spend an enjoyable evening very soon. We will let you know the date. More girls in the Parish are invited to join us in the G. F. S. We meet every Tuesday evening.

The Church School

Christmas this year falling on Sunday made the attendance at our carol service smaller than usual, but those who were present enjoyed a bright, hearty service, with a good talk from Rev. Mr. Hogue.

Our entertainments were well attended, about 60 primary scholars, with many mothers in the afternoon, and at night the Main School and their friends filled the room. The play and dance by some of the younger scholars was fine, and our thanks are given to Miss Gill and Miss Cave, who arranged it. Through the kindness of Mr. Lennig, we had a moving picture. Santa Claus made a hit and for the first time brought presents for the officers and teachers. Mr. Cotton, as usual, arranged the program.

Before looking forward, let us look back a little and see what we have done the past year, especially in "GIVING".

We have 30 officers and teachers and 205 scholars or a total of 235 in the Main and Primary Schools; Women's Bible Class, 19; Men's Bible Class, 65, making a grand total of 319. During 1922 we want to go forward in numbers, quality of teaching, giving, work along various lines and in all things a Church School is intended to do. This will only be possible if officers, teachers, scholars and parents will all help.

Order of St. Christopher

The Christmas decorations in the Church were put up by the Order of St. Christopher on the evenings of December 19th and 20th.

On the 19th Mr. Morris and his son, Mr. Henry Morris, assisted in the work, and on the 20th Mr. Lennig supervised the work. Mr. P. F. Bolay, the Verger, helped the members both evenings and was of the greatest assistance.

The members who came out and did their part were Norton Johnson, Robert Arndt, Richard Fielding, Richard Hogue, Karl Mosteller, Guy Wells, Frank Wells, Geo. Bland, Richard Sutcliffe.

From various comments passed on Christmas Day, the work seems to have been done satisfactorily.

On Tuesday evening, the 20th, after all the work had been completed, the members were given refreshments and entertainment by Dr. and Mrs. Arndt at the Rectory.

The Crucifers for February are: Mornings, Richard W. Hogue; evenings, Robert D. Arndt.

Men's Bible Class

At the annual meeting of the Men's Bible Class, held December 15th, 1921, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: President, James Carmint, Jr.; vice-president, Samuel Baxter; secretary, Robert W. Carmint; treasurer, Clarence Courtney, Jr. Chairmen of Committees: Music, Frank Mauser; Entertainment, Charles Cotton; Attendance, Edmund Tyler; Sick, Charles Jackson, Athletic, Louis Whitby. All men of the parish are cordially invited to attend the class Sunday mornings at 9.45. Mr. Robert P. Shick, teacher.

Secretary.

Our Boy Scout Troop

"Everlastingly sticking at it brings success." Well, that's why you are hearing again from Troop 153, Boy Scouts of America—our Troop in our Church. A little girl was asked for a definition of "home." "Home is where the work's done." That's why Christ Church seems so much like home to our Troop. It is where we work.

And if we say it often enough the boys of our Church will all be around to work with us.

We want more Christ Church boys.

We want more Christ Church boys.

Once again:

We want more Christ Church boys.

We meet in the Parish House Monday nights. Sure, you're welcome. You don't have to do anything or know anything except the English language, and if you don't know that or you can't do anything, we'll teach you.

Do you like first aid? We've got it.

Can you swim? We'll teach you how.

Wireless? We are equipped.

Astronomy? We eat that stuff, etc., etc., etc.

If you don't believe that we are awake, ask Dr. Arndt. He knows. He is on our Troop Committee. Better still, come round next Monday night and see for yourself.

Please Pay Up

Contributions to THE CHIMES are slow coming in. Start the New Year right and send your money to Robert Carmint (or the Rector), 6373 Sherman street. The following members of the Church are on the honor roll for 1922, other than those who were listed in the last issue of THE CHIMES:

Miss Caroline Parker, Mr. Sutcliffe, Mr. Baxter, Mr. Bains, Mr.

Lennig, Mrs. Gerhard, Miss Nixon, Mrs. Charles Wismer, Miss Lapp, Mrs. T. P. Robinson, Mrs. Sickel, Mr. R. H. Morris.

I am hoping to see more subscriptions coming soon.

ROBERT CARMINT,
Financial Editor.

The Mothers' Meeting

On Tuesday, January 10, the Mother's Meeting were given their annual dinner. It was a beautiful day, and most of the members were able to be present. We gathered, as usual, in our regular meeting room and a short service was held, after which a Christmas story was read. Then two by two we marched into the gymnasium to the tune of "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

Thirty-one people sat down to two tables prettily decorated with Christmas trimmings. After a delicious dinner, different members of the meeting entertained us with humorous readings and stories. Miss Margaret Bickley gave us two remarkably well-rendered selections in negro dialect, and Miss Margaret Robinson entertained us with her graceful dancing.

The members of the meeting presented the Directresses, Mrs. Rowley and Mrs. Arndt, with two beautiful cut-glass dishes, which were received with the greatest appreciation.

Much to our regret, Mrs. Pinkerton, who has been so faithful in assisting at the meetings, was unable to be with us during the afternoon, and was very much missed. The ladies who assisted in arranging and serving the dinner were Mrs. Rowley, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Brush, Mrs. Topliff Johnson, Mrs. Lennig, Mrs. Falkner and Mrs.

Arndt. We are greatly indebted to these ladies for their kind assistance. The meeting was closed with the Doxology and prayer by the Rector.

A Nickel for the Lord

Yesterday he wore a rose in the lapel of his coat, but when the plate was passed today he gave a nickel to the Lord. He had several bills in his pocket, and sundry change, perhaps a dollar's worth; but he hunted about and, finding this poor little nickel, he laid it on the plate to aid in the fight against the world, the flesh and the devil. His hat was beneath the seat, and his gloves and his cane were beside it, and the nickel was on the plate—a whole nickel.

On Saturday afternoon he met a friend, and together they had some refreshments. The cash register stamped two dollars and sixty cents on the slip the boy presented to him. Peeling off a bill he handed it to the lad, and gave him twenty-five cents when he brought back the change. Twenty-five cents for the waiter and a nickel for the Lord!

And the man had his shoes polished on Saturday afternoon and handed out a dime without a murmur. He had a shave, and paid fifteen cents with equal alacrity. He took a box of candy home to his girl, for which he paid two dollars, and the box was tied with a dainty bit of ribbon. Yes, and he also gave a nickel to the Lord!

Who is this Lord?

Who is He? Why, the man worships Him as Creator of the Universe, the One who puts the stars in order, and by whose immutable decree the heavens stand. From Him the man has received ten thousand blessings! And he gives a nickel to the Lord! And this man knew that "God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son." And he knew, too, that Jesus Christ suffered and laid down His life for him, that he might know the Truth and might, through Him, have life everlasting. And knowing this, he put his hand in his pocket and picked out the smallest coin, and he gave a nickel to the Lord!

And the Lord, being gracious and slow to anger, and knowing his selfishness, did not slay the man for the meanness of his offering, but gives him this day his daily bread.

The nickel was ashamed of itself and hid beneath a quarter that was given by a poor woman who takes in washing for a living.—Selected

Lectures on the Bible

Philadelphia, Pa.,

December 31, 1921.

To the Rectors in our Diocese:

The undersigned, a Committee especially appointed for the purpose by the Diocesan Department of Religious Education, announce on behalf of the Department a new undertaking.

There are, it is believed, not a few people who would welcome an opportunity to study the facts and truths of Christianity in the light of present-day scholarship, under competent guidance. With the view of meeting this need, the Department has undertaken to establish study classes. The classes will be held at the Church House, 202 South 19th street, on Thursday evenings, at 8 30, beginning February 2, 1922. The subject will be "How We Got Our Bible." Professor Yerkes, of the Divinity School, will conduct the class. There will be no fee or charge, and all who may care to attend will be welcome. But as the seating capacity is limited, admission will be by ticket only; the tickets to be distributed in order, as applications are received.

It is our hope that this course may be the first of many, and that in due order the subjects dealt with may be not only Biblical, but may also include the Prayer Book, Church History, Christian Doctrine, etc.; in each case the instructor will be a recognized expert in his field, who will deal with his subject constructively in the light of modern scholarship and with a view to present needs and perplexities.

REYNOLDS D. BROWN,

GEORGE G. BARTLETT,

Committee.

P. S.—Dr. Yerkes' lectures will be fully illustrated.

Applications for tickets should be addressed to R. D. Brown, Church House, 202 S 19th street, Philadelphia.

When the blacksmith shapes a horseshoe, he does it while it is hot, for every moment's delay makes the iron less malleable. The sculptor moulding a beautiful figure in wax or clay works while the material is plastic, for it will shortly harden. And if we are to stamp the image of Christ upon a child's soul it must be done in the early, plastic and susceptible years that it may grow in wisdom and knowledge and in favor with God and man.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the rector or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

The Lenten Services

The schedule of special Lenten Services will be found on another page of this issue of the CHIMES. The hours of the services have been arranged to meet, as far as possible, the convenience of every class of people within the Parish. The early Celebration of the Holy Communion on Ash Wednesday has been appointed at half past seven o'clock, that business people and others may attend before going to their daily duties, and thus avail themselves of a proper beginning of this Holy Season. The afternoon services are put at an hour when people, who remain in Germantown during the day, may conveniently attend.

It will be noticed from the schedule, that evening prayer will not be held every afternoon, as in previous years. Evening prayer will be said on three afternoons, each week. This change is made with the hope that the fewer afternoon services will be more largely attended.

The mid-week service, usually held on Wednesday evenings, has been changed this year to Friday evenings, on which evenings a most interesting and instructive course of illustrative lectures on the "Earthly Life of Jesus Christ" will be given in the Parish House by the Rev. Llewellyn N. Caley, D.D.

On Wednesday evening during Lent, the Rector will hold "Instructions on Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church." These instructions will be in the Church and are primarily intended for adults who are contemplating confirmation.

An Appeal from the Rector

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 1st. I am sure that the people of Christ Church want to make this Lent a very serious, a very helpful season. It is full of opportunity, it is full of precious privileges to those who will use it aright. It is an opportunity for every serious-minded person to withdraw, for a time, from the lighter, the less serious things in life and to devote himself exclusively to the things that are the most worth while, to the serious, the real, the eternal principles of life. "Forty days with the Master!" What a blessed privilege comes to us in Lent to get a right perspective of living; to gain a wider, a higher vision of life, to come into closer communion with God.

That this Lent may mean all that it should mean, may I not ask you, my dear friends, to be very earnest, very serious, very faithful in the observance? Let me tell you how.

1. By abstaining from all wordly amusements and entertainments, that your thoughts may be given to the more serious and solemn lessons of life.

2. By reading, at the beginning and at the end of each day, some portion of God's Word. Read, during Lent, the shorter Epistles of St. Paul. I have had placed in the vestibules of our Church a pamphlet entitled, "Bible Readings and Prayers." These are for gratuitous distribution among our people. Take a copy home with you.

3. By spending a few moments, each morning and evening, alone with God, in meditation and prayer. Do this in your home. Come also to the Church for a quiet hour of meditation and prayer. The Church is open all day.

4. By regular attendance at the week day Lenten Services in the Church. Consult the Lenten list and resolve to attend certain services, regularly and faithfully.

5. By careful and conscientious preparation for the Holy Communion, and by frequent attendance at the sacrament of the altar, where we are bound together in the love and fellowship of Jesus Christ and with all the loved ones, here and absent.

6. By being more considerate, more patient, more forgiving, more loving to others; and by doing acts of kindness to every one you can.

I am sure that if you are faithful in these things during this Lent, a wonderful blessing will come into your life, a blessing of strength and peace and joy—such as the world cannot give.

May I not look for you at the week-day services and, at least, one service every Sunday during this Lent? I shall prayerfully hope that this earnest appeal will not fall on cold and hardened hearts.

May God bless each one of you, my dear friends, and may He send His Holy Spirit into our hearts and arouse us all, Rector and people alike, to a greater zeal, a truer devotion, a deeper consecration to Jesus Christ and His Church.

Affectionately your friend and Rector,

Charles Henry Arndt

Two Rare Opportunities for Christ Church People

Two unusual and rare opportunities are in store for the people of Christ Church during this coming Lent. Not only members of the Parish, but all within vicinity are invited to share in these opportunities. Everybody should take advantage of both of them. The first is:

The Course of Illustrated Lectures on "the Earthly Life of Jesus Christ," to be given by the Rev. Llewellyn Caley, D.D., on Friday evenings during Lent at eight o'clock. Rev. Dr. Caley needs no introduction to the Church people of this Parish and of this Diocese. He is well known as one of the Editors of The American Church Sunday School Magazine and one of the foremost religious educators of the country. He is also known, far and wide, as a lecturer on religious and church subjects, without a superior and with few equals. His set of lantern slides which will be shown in these lectures, illustrating the life of our Lord, is undoubtedly the finest in America. This interesting course will consist of the following lectures:

Friday March 3rd—"The Incarnation of Jesus Christ."

Friday, March 10th—"The Private Life of Jesus Christ."

Friday, March 17th—"The Public Ministry of Jesus Christ." (Periods 1 and 2.)

Friday, March 24th—"The Public Ministry of Jesus Christ." (Period 3.)

Friday, March 31st—"The Farewell Discourse and Trial of Jesus Christ."

Friday, April 7th—"The Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ."

As the subjects of these lectures are in historical sequence, every one should endeavor to attend them all.

The lectures will be given in the Parish House. There will be no charge of admission. The lectures will be free; but persons who desire to do so may give a silver offering; it is to help cover the expense of the lectures. A cordial invitation is extended to every one in this community to attend these lectures.

The second rare opportunity which is afforded to the people of Christ Church will be: A Course of Addresses on the "Relation of Judaism to Christianity," given by a Jewish Convert.

These addresses will be given in Christ Church, on Sunday evenings during Lent, by the distinguished scholar and lecturer, Mr. Mark John Levy. Mr. Levy, while not a clergyman of the Church, is specially licensed by the Bishop to speak in our Churches. He is a native of London, England, a son of the priestly tribe of Israel, and was baptized in Philadelphia, 1887, and confirmed the same year by the late Bishop Whipple, at St. Mark's Minneapolis. Under the Rt. Rev. William Andrew Leonard and the late Dr. Flemming James, Mr. Levy took a course in theology at Bexley Hall, Gambier, 1888-89, and since then has devoted his time to lecturing and itinerant missionary work among Jews and Gentiles in the United States, Great Britain and Canada. He was instrumental in securing the adoption of an important resolution on Jewish national and social freedom in the Gospel, by the General Convention, and was a member of the General Convention Committee on Jewish Work. He was chosen a delegate to the American Jewish Congress and the Paris Peace Conference by the Hebrew Christian Alliance of America, the Society he now represents and "is a recognized scholar, lecturer, writer and poet." States a correspondent, in a letter to the Rector: "Mr. Levy's knowledge of Jewish history and sacramental custom should make the series of addresses, which he is to give to your Church, deeply interesting to Christians of every name and give additional light on the prophetic side of truth."

This interesting and illuminating course of addresses will include the following subjects:

Sunday, March 5th—"Why I accepted Jesus Christ as Israel's true Messiah."

Sunday, March 12th—"The Immemorial Blood Covenant."

Sunday, March 19th—"Christ, the Coming King of Glory."

Sunday, March 26th—"Israel and the Nations at Armageddon."

Sunday, April 2nd—"Palm Sunday in Ancient Jewish History."

Sunday, April 9th—"The Easter Season and the Jewish Passover."

All Seats in Christ Church are free and unassigned at every service. Everybody is welcome.

Confirmation Instruction

Instruction on Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church are being delivered in the Church every Wednesday evening at eight o'clock for adults and every Sunday afternoon at four o'clock for minors in the Parish House.

All persons, confirmed and not confirmed, are cordially invited to these Instructions.

The Rector will be pleased to meet after any service or by special appointment any one who wishes to confer with him on the subject of Confirmation. He requests that all who are contemplating Confirmation should give their names to him at once.

Some Suggestions for Lent

Begin Lent aright! On Ash Wednesday there will be a Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 A. M. Before going to your duties of the day—your business, your school, your household duties—"come apart for a while with God;" begin this Lenten season aright by dedication of yourself, your soul and body, to God and by receiving the Blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ! Begin aright!

Attendants at the Lenten Services are requested to sit forward in the Church. This will add to the heartiness of the singing and interest in the service.

Persons who are willing to assist in the singing at the Lenten services are requested to give their names to the Rector. There are a number of persons in the Parish who might render this much as their Lenten offering. The Rector will gladly welcome them and will appreciate their services.

Why not make it a Lenten object to bring at least one child to Holy Baptism or some "backslider" back again to his church duties and privileges, or to lead some hesitating friend to Christ and to Confirmation?

Make some specific, definite object your duty during this Lent. Let it not be a "negative Lent," but a positive Lent; something definitely undertaken and done; something unselfish, something constructive to the bringing in of the Kingdom of God and His Christ!

Some people are habitually late to church service. The habit should be overcome. To enter the service late is disconcerting to others and seriously interrupts the service. It is a form of selfishness, on the part of those who practice it. One should be in Church long before the service begins, to prepare one's mind and spirit to receive the precious things that there are given. No one who rushes to Church or comes in late can be so prepared.

The Prayer Book is given by the Church to be used by the worshippers. It should be opened and the eyes of each worshipper should be riveted upon it. During the singing of the canticles, instead of looking about the congregation or at the choir, follow the words in your Prayer Book. However familiar you may be with the service, follow with your book before you, every sentence, every collect, Gospel, Epistle, as the minister reads it. It is called the "Book of Common Prayer," and so it is intended to be—common between minister and people; every service in it to be entered into by minister and people together; and this purpose cannot be carried out if the people do not follow the minister as he reads the service.

Keep your Prayer Book open and your eyes on the service as it is read by the minister!

And this leads to the further suggestion that every one should own and carry with him his own Prayer Book and Hymnal.

Mrs. Anita L. Eyster, of St. Philip's Church, Philadelphia, has been asked by the Vestry of Christ Church to assist the Rector as Parish Visitor and to take charge of the Secretarial work of the Parish. Mrs. Eyster has accepted the position until spring. She is at present revising the Parish list of members with a view of making a complete and correct Parish Register. It is highly desirable that all new comers in the Parish should get their letters of transfers from their former Rectors so that their names may be properly recorded in the new Register of Christ Church.

The following persons have been transferred to the Rector of this Parish during the past three months:

(Mrs.) Nellie N. Goddard from the Church of the Good Shepherd, Wilimington, Delaware; Frank Henry Golding from St. Paul's Church, Canton, Ohio; (Mrs.) Anna Dell Golding from St. Paul's Church, Canton, Ohio; Charles Paget Golding from St. Paul's Church, Canton, Ohio; (Mrs.) Elizabeth Breeding from St. David's, Manayunk, Philadelphia; Dorothy Winpenny Breeding from St. David's, Manayunk, Philadelphia; Jennie G. Winpenny Breeding from St. David's, Manayunk, Philadelphia; Dorothy Collyer Krewson from St. Peter's Church, Weldon, Pa.; Gertrude A. Lovejoy from Grace Church, Mt. Airy; Gertrude L. Moffett from the House of Prayer, Branchtown, Phila.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

Be Confirmed

The Bishop will visit this Parish (D.V.) on Maundy Thursday evening, April 13th, to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The Rector affectionately urges all persons who have not been confirmed to give their names to him at once. He will be happy to talk to any one on the subject after any service or by special appointment. Let no one delay. If you have doubts, come frankly to your Rector and talk them over with him. If you are troubled in mind or conscience, come to him and tell him your troubles. He will help you.

The Prayer Book, in the Communion Office, so states it: "If any of you cannot quiet his own conscience, but requireth further comfort or counsel, let him come to me, or to some other Minister of God's Word and open his grief; that he may receive such godly counsel and advice as may tend to the quieting of his conscience and the removing of all scruple and doubtfulness."

The Rector is most anxious to help any one who may be in doubt or trouble and will gladly do all within his power for any one who comes to him.

A Word to Parents

Will not parents and others, who are interested in the welfare of the young, call the attention of all children eligible for Confirmation to the Instructions given by the Rector in the Parish House on Sunday afternoons at four o'clock?

Parents and adult friends of the young are cordially invited to come with the children to these Instructions.

Let no parent or sponsor neglect his duty this Lent to the children whom God has given him to bring up in His fear and love.

At the Baptism of your children this solemn obligation was placed upon you:

"Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose."

Are you doing your duty?

The Reason for Confirmation

Confirmation follows Baptism when a person reaches the age of discretion. The laying on of hands of the Apostles (Acts VIII, XIX, and Heb. VI), has ever been continued by the Church as: 1st, The renewal of the baptismal pledge; 2nd, Open confession of Christ; 3rd, The ordinary door to the Holy Communion; 4th, The gift of the Holy Ghost for the final perseverance. It is a rite practiced from the time of the Apostles and endorsed by the Fathers of the Church.

A. D. 180. Tertullian—"After Baptism, then the Imposition of Hands."

A. D. 250. Cyprian—"They who believed in Samaria were baptized—hands were laid on them—which is still the custom among us."

A. D. 420. St. Jerome—"This is the custom of the Church—the Bishops Laying Hands upon them for the Invocation of the Holy Spirit."

A. D. 494. The prayer in our Confirmation Service dates from this period. From this time on to the present there cannot be any doubt concerning Confirmation or The Laying on of Hands by the Bishop being a ceremony of the Church.

Can we safely omit that which from the first has been insisted upon?

Methodist Testimony—"I was determined not to be without it, and, therefore, went and received Confirmation—even since I became a Methodist Preacher."—Dr. Adam Clarke.

Baptist Testimony—"We believe that Laying on of Hands with Prayer upon Baptized believers as such is an ordinance of Christ, and ought to be substituted unto by all such persons to partake of the Lord's Supper."

Baptist Association, September 25th, 1742.

Congregational Testimony—"The confession of the name of Christ is, after all, very lame, till the discipline which Christ ordained be restored, and the Rite of Confirmation be recovered to its full use and solemnity."

Dr. Coleman, Boston.

Presbyterian Testimony—"The Rite of Confirmation, thus administered to Baptized children, when arrived at competent years—shows clearly that the Primitive Church, in her purest days, exercised the authority of a mother over her Baptized children."

Committee of General Assembly.

"This custom is frequently mentioned by the ancient writers. Such imposition I highly approve. I wish it were now restored to its primitive use unconnected by superstition."

John Calvin.

From the Accounting Warden

Everyone connected with Christ Church should contribute regularly through the envelope system. Only by each one pledging for a regular amount to be paid weekly can the Vestry be able to intelligently plan the work of the Parish, knowing that the amount necessary will be in hand when needed. Only about one half of our members are such regular contributors. Will not those who have not pledged themselves in this matter obtain pledge cards from the Rector or Accounting Warden that the work of the Parish may be properly supported by each and every member? It should be a matter of personal pride with each member of the Parish to feel that he or she was contributing to the support of a work of such inestimable value not only to our congregation, but to the Diocese and to the world wide mission which our Church has taken upon herself and for the support of which she can only look to the members of the Church as a whole.

E. Bains, Accounting Warden

The Woman's Auxiliary

During Lent we shall meet in the Parish House to sew every Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. It is most earnestly requested that as many of the women of our Parish as possible set apart these Thursday afternoons in Lent to sew for Missions. We have a large amount of sewing that must be done and without the co-operation and help of many women in our Parish we will fail in our endeavor. Will some of you who read this notice, not come to our assistance for it is as much your work as it is that of the "faithful few"?

L. W. R.

A Lenten Mission Study for Girls and Boys

All girls in the Parish between the ages of nine and fifteen are invited to attend the Mission Study Classes held Tuesday afternoons during Lent at 4 o'clock in the Parish House, starting Tuesday, March seventh.

The course this year will be "Tales of the Great South Seas" and the leader will be Miss Edith Johnson. Come on, girls and boys, and let's all help make these classes a success!

Some Suggestions for Lent

Be present as far as possible at every service of the Church. The benefit will be to others as well as to yourself.

Make your Communion more frequently and with a more definite purpose and preparation.

Read the Scriptures regularly and meditate upon what you read.

Too many treat the Bible as a book of the past.

Pray until prayer becomes a habit, turning to God at all times as naturally as the flower turns to the sun.

Keep a strict watch over the door of your lips this Lent. If you cannot speak well of others, say nothing.

Deny yourself every luxury and add the cost of it to your Easter offering. The cost of self-denial should be given, not saved.

Refrain from entertainments and places of public amusement. "Love dissipated upon many objects concentrates itself upon none."

Let self-examination be a daily duty. It is not a question of where you stand, but whither you are moving.

Be regular in your attendance to whatever guild or society you belong. Nominal membership counts for nothing save a discouragement to others and a discredit to yourself.

Make your Lent positive, not merely negative. Undertake some practical work for good, and carry it through.

Parish House Interior Repainted

The interior walls and woodwork of the Parish House are being repainted from the proceeds of the Bazaar given last fall. It is expected that the work will be finished before Lent begins. The color of the walls is buff and the woodwork is all in dark oak. The Church School rooms never looked more bright and cheerful and the entire interior of the Parish House presents a very attractive appearance. The Committee in charge is to be congratulated on the very satisfactory results.

The Church School

The record attendance for the last month was on the "blizzard" Sunday when the Superintendent went to the Parish House expecting to have a service all by himself and found 46 present including two of the youngest scholars in the Primary Department, a boy and a girl. We had a hearty service and a talk from Mr. Arndt instead of the lesson.

By the time this is in print, our rooms will be newly painted and decorated, and we have just had a gift toward furnishing maps and, etc., for the walls. The next thing we want is modern chairs instead of the old and obsolete forms we have been using for so many years.

OUR LENTEN WORK

As usual our work during Lent will be "Filling our missionary Mite Boxes." Last year our offering was $253. The year before $238. Let us take $300 for our goal this year and the only way we can do this is the old way of keeping our mite box where we can see it and put something (no matter how small) in it each day. Just see how easy this will do it. We have about 250 members, then there are 46 days from Ash Wednesday till Easter. Now I want each scholar to use his arithmetic and see how near to $300 we would get if each one put in his mite box only three cents a day and surely most of us can put in more than that.

Again let us keep Lent this year by doing some missionary work as well as giving; that is by hunting up and bringing a new scholar. There is no use in fixing up our school room without showing how we enjoy it by bringing others. We have lost many members since September and we have not filled all their places as yet. Then we want to attend Church with our teachers each Sunday till Easter. The girls have made a good start, but where are the boys?

R. H. M.

Envelope Subscribers in Arrears

The Accounting Warden has given to the Rector the names of a number of subscribers to the envelope system who are in arrears—some of them for several months. There are a few who made pledges and have not given anything through the envelopes. Some of these persons, the Rector knows, have been absent from the city, or have been ill. These persons, of course, will remit in full as soon as they are able to return to the services of the Church. There are others on the list who have overlooked this duty, possibly through forgetfulness or it may be carelessness. As all pledges are entirely voluntary, any who wish to withdraw their pledges may do so at any time, by notifying the Rector or the Warden. But, until this is done, the Warden takes it for granted that the subscriber intends to fulfill his or her pledge.

"Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites"

At least eleven large racial groups are represented in a brief report from the Division of Work for Foreign-Born Americans, (printed in The Living Church for January 7), an unelaborated statement of work done with or among Hungarians, Greeks, Russians, Armenians, Poles, Swedes, Mexicans, Chinese in New York, Italians in six dioceses, Welsh in the Mid-West and on the Pacific Coast and Assyrians.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the rector or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

Closing Days of Lent

May these closing days of Lent bring every Christian heart nearer to the Cross—near to Christ!

May we remain so close to Him, in these solemn days of His fasting, His suffering, His crucifixion, His death, that we "may know Him and the power of His Resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto His death."

As Holy Week draws near, the shadows deepen! Our Saviour is on His way to Calvary! The Cross appears! We turn our thoughts to the closing scenes in our Lord's earthly life; His triumphant entry on Palm Sunday into the city that He loves and we follow Him each day, as He slowly wends His way along the Via Dolorosa up to the Mount of Calvary.

I am sure that every Christian heart in this parish will yearn to be close to Jesus during these last holy days. Services are held more frequently and every Christian will give himself to more earnest prayer and effort. Our meditations, our prayers, our Communion will be our chiefest aim and motive. It is inconceivable that any Christian—man or woman, will desecrate this Holy Week with any social or frivolous affair. Our thoughts are on the most serious, the most solemn things in life. We watch, in loving sympathy, with our Lord in His Passion and follow Him, in deep devotion, to the Cross!

"Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend;
Life and health and peace possessing
Through the sinner's dying friend.

"Here I kneel in wonder, viewing
Mercy poured in streams of blood;
Precious drops, for pardon suing,
Make and plead my peace with God."

Three-Hour Service on Good Friday

The Three-Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross will be conducted by the Rev. Frank Williamson, Jr., of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia. It will be a privilege for the people of Christ Church to attend these Meditations as given by Father Williamson.

It is requested that persons be in the Church before the noon hour and all, who can, are asked to remain during the three hours of this solemn service. Persons entering or leaving the Church during the service are requested to do so during the singing of the hymns.

The offering, at the Three-Hour Service, is asked for Church work among the Jews. Alms plates will be found at the doors. A letter from the Bishop reads:

"I would remind you of the appropriateness of asking the offerings on Good Friday for the Mission among the Jewish people. Since by the action of the last Convention this work in Philadelphia was put on the Diocesan Budget, any money given to our own committee will apply on the Parish apportionment."

The offering from the people of Christ Church for this worthy object should be especially large this year, in recognition of the great privilege which the people of this Parish have enjoyed this Lent in listening to the very able addresses on the "Relation of Judaism to Christianity," as given by the learned Jewish convert, Mr. Mark John Levy.

Easter

"The strife is o'er, the battle done;
The victory of life is won—
Alleluia!"

Out from the darkness into light; from the sadness of Gethsemane and Calvary into the joys of Easter; away from thoughts of suffering to hymns of victory; from the dark tragedy of Good Friday to the empty tomb—such is the great transition today in Christian thought, voiced in anthems and flowers in carols and hymns, and emphasized in the message of joy proclaimed from Christian pulpits. The news that encircles the globe on Easter morn and visits each city and village and home, and makes hearts beat the quicker for the joy, is the "good news" made to the disciples of old, and repeated through all the Christian centuries: "The Lord is risen indeed."

How strong a hold the fact of the Resurrection has gained upon the hearts of men! As the centuries multiply, the thought grows stronger and stronger. The world itself keeps Easter Day. Men and women are studying the fact from every point of view. Sentiment has laid hold of it. Reason has grasped the idea. The man of science finds the law of the Resurrection capable of demonstration. The spiritual truth beneath the fact itself far outweighs the seeming physical difficulties.

And who can find words to tell of the comfort which this thought gives to those who grieve over the loss of loved ones, gone before us? Who can express in language the hope with which it cheers and inspires the heart of one called to suffering and pain?

There is power in this central fact of Christian history. There is inspiration in this keystone in the arch of Christian truth.

Let us rejoice, then, as we look day into the empty sepulchre. Let us weave the truth and the fact into our lives. Let it give courage to the struggles, hope to the discouraged ones, comfort to the mourners—joy in every heart because Christ—the Risen Christ—has brought life and immortality to light.

Our Easter Offering

Our offering on Easter Day should be a true expression of our love and loyalty to Jesus Christ. As He suffered and sacrificed and died for us, and rose again, that we through Him might have life eternal, so should we present on Easter Day such an offering as will mean something in His sight—will mean a real love and devotion, a genuine spirit of self-sacrifice for Him Whom we call our Lord and Saviour.

Far back in the Old Testament times the faithful were commanded to appear before the Lord for sacrificial worship three times a year, and they were not to appear empty. One of these occasions was the "Feast of Unleavened Bread"—which corresponds to our Easter Day. "Three times in a year shall all appear before the Lord thy God in the place which He shall choose; in the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the Feast of Tabernacles, and they shall not appear before the Lord empty. Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which He hath given thee." (Deut. 16: 16.)

setting forth the financial needs of the Parish at this Easter. The letter states that $1,300 is required to pay all outstanding bills and to provide for repairs to the Church property.

Whilst I am anxious that the full amount asked for by the Vestry shall be realized, I am even more anxious that this offering shall come abundantly from all; that every man, woman and child may share in it and give conscientiously; that the offering presented on the altar on Easter Day may be an expression of deep, true Christian sacrifice and devotion from every loyal Christian heart.

I earnestly pray that this may be the Easter gift. Then, indeed, will this joyous Easter bring to each heart a personal Easter blessing!

A Word to Unconfirmed Manhood in This Community

There is a large number of men in this, as I presume there is in every community, whose attitude toward the Church is difficult to understand. They believe in its teachings, are willing to support it, want their children brought up in it and are often enthusiastic in its praise, yet have never been confirmed and seem to hold back from becoming communicants of the Church.

There are three excuses that seem to stand in the way of their confirmation:

First—There are those that fear they are not good enough to become communicants of the Church. There are two ways of looking at this excuse. Confirmation is not intended for those who "are good enough," but for those who recognize their weakness and sinfulness and desire to become better. Of course, there are those who love their sins so well that they do not want to become better. To these Jesus Christ has no message. "Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled." There is no blessing upon those who hunger for wickedness and thirst for iniquity.

But there are men in this community, while they think they are "not good enough," who would like to be better, who would like to have the strength to live up to their ideal of what a Christian should be. To such Jesus Christ calls to come unto Him, and to become a member of His Body—the Church. No human being, who has high ideals, can live up to them unaided and alone. The best way we may do is to grow towards them and the best way to grow towards them is by using the means of grace, such as Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Communion, which God gives us through His Church. "My Grace is sufficient for thee," but only when men seek His Grace. "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." You are a sinner? Are you weak? Well, then, Christ calls you. Are you willing to answer that call? If so, then, show the stuff that is in you, and act like men! If so, then, let your best manhood assert itself, "put on the armor of Jesus Christ" and resolve to fight manfully under His banner unto your life's end. His Grace will sustain you in the fight. "Quit yourself like men," says the apostle. There is no defeat unless you refuse to serve or unless you give up the fight.

Second—There are men in this community who hold back because they lack the moral courage to take the step. It does take a good deal of moral courage for a man to come out and announce his principles publicly. But in politics, when great moral evils are at stake, a man who lacks moral courage to declare his principles and does not dare to vote as his conscience dictates is considered a coward.

The State makes this test of her loyal citizens, and Christ makes His disciples stand this same test. We would glory in holding up the flag of our country even if we stood alone and our life was forfeited by our courage. That's the stuff true men are made of.

Men! Let the same courageous manhood assert itself in raising the standard of the Cross, remembering that if you, through cowardice, deny Christ before men He will deny you before your Father which is in heaven.

Third—There are men in this community who intend to take this step "some day," but find it convenient to make an excuse why they should not do it now.

In the United States Army there is an age limit after which men cannot enlist. Why not? Because, if the United States Army cannot have the services of a man when he is young and vigorous they do not want his services when he is old and feeble.

We do not say that Christ will not accept us at any age. His love is too great to reject His children at any age, but any man's self-respect ought to be such that he should be ashamed to say to Jesus Christ: "Yes, Lord, when I have given the best years of my life in serving myself; when I have spent my best vigor and manhood in the service of the world; when I am broken in health and am nearing my end, then I will enter Thy service.

Not now, Lord! not now in the strength of my manhood, when I could be of much valuable service to Thee! Not now, but after awhile." Will any man, who is a real man, offer such an excuse to God?

Men, in this community, who have not yet declared your allegiance to Jesus Christ! Stand up like men and bear a man's testimony to the fact that Jesus Christ is your Lord and Master, and although you may be unworthy followers of Him, yet you will endeavor by His help and guidance, to be His faithful soldier and servant unto your life's end.

Your Rector needs the support of men, if his work is going to be effective in building up the character of the young and bringing into the Church the strength and vigor for its moral influence. The Church needs the strong manhood of the land and the strong manhood of the land needs the Church. The Lord Jesus Christ calls for men, and today all over this world the bravest and the strongest and the best manhood in the world is more and more responding to that call and more and more the prophecy of our Lord is gradually being fulfilled "If I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me." Men! Men, who have not yet come out and declared yourselves for Christ! Now is the time. Consult your Rector about the most important of all matters. Men! Do it now—like MEN!

Bishop Rhinelander to Conduct a Communicants' Service on Maundy Thursday Evening

I want to call the attention of all communicants of the Church to the Preparatory Service for Easter

Communion; which will be conducted by Bishop Rhinelander in Christ Church on Maundy Thursday Evening.

The Confirmation service will begin promptly at 7.45, with a sermon by the Bishop.

Immediately following the Confirmation will be held the Communicants' Service. All who have previously had the privilege of attending this Easter Preparatory Service, as conducted by Bishop Rhinelander, in Christ Church, know how very helpful and inspiring these meditations have been. The Bishop would like to have all communicants present at this service.

I, therefore, affectionately urge that every communicant of Christ Church attend this Easter Preparatory Service on Maundy Thursday evening.

Whilst this service is especially intended for communicants, all persons, whether they are communicants of the Episcopal Church or not, are cordially invited.

Oh, press this thought to your innermost soul—that those you have “loved long since and lost awhile,” love you still, with a warmth of affection which kindles brilliance, as they come nearer to the heart of the Eternal Father, the Source and Sun of Love. And in this love they wait for us—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

In the Silence

Who would himself and God would know,

Into the silence let him go,
And lifting off pall after pall,
Reach to the inmost depth of all.
How small in that uplifted hour,
Temptation's lure and passion's power!

How weak the foe that made him fall!

How strong the soul to conquer all!
A mighty wind of nobler will Sends through his soul its quickening thrill;

No more a creature of the clod
He knows himself a child of God.

—James Martineau.

Easter Memorial Flowers

The flowers in the chancel on Easter Day will all be memorials of the blessed dead. Persons in the congregation who wish to have flowers in the chancel on Easter Day in memory of friends who rest in Paradise are cordially invited to send blooming plants or cut flowers to the Parish House on Saturday preceding Easter, not later than noon.

Names of senders of flowers, together with the names of those in whose memory the flowers are sent, are requested to accompany the gifts.

Persons who wish to forward money contributions for flowers may send the same either to the Rector or to Miss Chase, President of the Altar Guild, 148 East Washington lane. Flowers will be purchased by the Altar Guild and the memorials placed on the altar. Contributions of money are requested to be sent as soon as possible that an early selection of flowers may be made.

The plants and flowers are sent to the sick after Easter.

Services on Easter Day

The services on Easter Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion, 6.30, 7.30 A. M.

Morning Prayer, Sermon, Holy Communion, 11.00 A. M.

Church School Easter Carol Service, 7.30 P. M.

Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week, Holy Communion, 9.30 A. M.

Envelope Subscribers

The new term of the envelope subscriptions begins at Easter time. The list of subscribers through the envelope system has increased over last year, but there still are a number of people in the Parish who are not subscribers. Every attendant of Christ Church should give regularly and systematically to the support of the work of the Parish. All pews in Christ Church are now free and unassigned. The revenue for the support of the work of the Parish, is, therefore, dependent upon the offerings received through the envelope system. Every one should be willing to do his or her share—even if the weekly amount is small. It is the willing co-operation on the part of every one that is wanted and needed.

So, let every person in the parish, every member of every family, child and adult, be a subscriber and do his or her part. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule or may be had from the Verger. Please mark on the card the amount you are willing to give, weekly or monthly, sign your name and address and place it on the alms basin at any service or send it to the Rector.

A package of envelopes will then be sent to you for your offerings.

It is hoped that now at this Lenten season every one will make a resolve to be a regular subscriber.

Subscriptions should be made both to missions and to the Parish support

The Mission Study Class under the care of Miss Edith Johnson is developing much interest in the girls of the Junior Auxiliary with the stories of missionary lands. This work will be continued and expanded after Easter with Miss Johnson in charge of the younger group, and Mrs. Eyster working with the older girls. Christ Church School has already made a fine showing in the Church School Service League, as reported in the current issue of the Church Notes, and it is hoped the week day activities may grow into a very important part of the Church School.

The Spring Missionary Service of the Germantown and Chestnut Hill Branches of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in St. Peter's Church, Germantown, Tuesday, March 28th, 1922, at 10 30 A. M. There will be Holy Communion and an address by the Right Rev. James Wise, D. D., Bishop of Kansas. The services will be in the interest of the united thank offering. The Communion alms will be added to that offering.

Election of Vestrymen

An election for Vestrymen of this Parish will be held in the Church on Easter Monday, April 17th.

The following extract is from the By-Laws of Christ Church. By-Law, Article 1, Section 8:

Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestryman one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the Secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the Southeast vestibule of the Church at least two Sundays prior to the holding of such election, and no person not so nominated shall be a candidate

Charter of Incorporation— Article 6

The Vestry of said Church shall consist of twelve men, to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereat. Said election shall be by ballot and shall be held on Easter Monday in each and every year between such hours and upon such notice as the by-laws of said Church may provide and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of the Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of at least two years next preceding any such election, annual subscriptions of not less than ten dollars each.

The vote of a plurality of the qualified electors voting at any such election shall be requisite for the election of any Vestrymen.

Easter Day is a day of joy and praise. Easter Day brings to us a sense of satisfied longings. Have we solid ground for hope? Is death the end? Can we be made what we ought to be? Is there living power in Prayer, in Sacraments, in the Church? Shall we live again? Shall we meet again with those we love after the sad partings of the grave? Has love been a mere torture? A wild, wasting, baseless delusion? The answer comes: "Christ loves us." "He is the same yesterday, today and forever." "Jesus Christ is risen from the dead."—Knox Little.

It seems to me a most evident fact that wherever faith in the resurrection of Christ has disappeared, the idealistic arguments for immortality have begun at once to lose their convincing power. The nerve of their life has been cut.—W. Douglas MacKenzie.

The Church School

By the time this article is read by the members of the Church School, Easter will be less than one month ahead, so naturally the plans of the School all point to that day.

It is the expectation that the coming Easter will be marked by the School doing greater things than ever before.

First, there is the Lenten offering, which is aimed to reach the $300 00 mark, and if each one will keep in mind during the remaining month the little mite box and see how often it can be made to receive your thought of others, Easter will see an offering of which the whole School may be proud.

Then there is the special music for the Easter services, and we are looking forward with pleasure to having assist us again Mr. R. F. Boggs, the leader who was so helpful at Christmas. Before this is in print the carols will have been selected and the School will have commenced practicing.

Of course, those who have been attending faithfully the sessions of the School know how much more attractive our School rooms are, but to those others, the absentees, who are thought of so often and whose presence means so much to the success of the School, we want to say, Come and see.

We have so often made the appeal, yet it is always new, for those children of the Church and the neighborhood who are not attending any Sunday School. Surely there must be enough of such children, who, if they would only visit us, would really fill up the empty seats which wait so patiently for occupants.

Will not each member of the School and parents and friends in the Church, during the remaining days of Lent, help us to get these non-attendants to come to the School?

The School opens its sessions every Sunday morning at 9.45 A. M. sharp.

An unusually interesting Easter carol service will be held in the Church on Easter Day at 7.30. The Rev. Norman Van P. Levis, Rector of the Church of the Incarnation, Philadelphia, will give the address.

The Easter Music

The music in Christ Church on Easter Day, rendered by an augmented Choir, assisted by violins, cello and trumpets, will include the following:

Processional—"Jesus Christ is Risen Today."

"Christ Our Passover"...Fairlamb
Te Deum in B flat.....Standford
Anthem—"Break Forth Into Joy," Barnby

Hymn—"The Day of Resurrection, Earth Tell it Out Abroad."

Communion Service....Tours in C Retrocessional—"The Strife is O'er, the Victory Won"

In the evening on Easter Day the Church Schools will sing their Easter carols in the Church at 7.30.

Girls' Friendly Society

The Girls' Friendly is in its same "peppy" condition, always full of life and ready to do something. They have just started in on their Lenten sewing, which this year is for the Sandy Ridge Mission, way down in Virginia, just where it touches West Virginia, among the mountain whites, a most primitive lot of people and far away from any other settlement; so isolated that they do everything for themselves. For instance, when some one dies in the cabins, some of the men get to work and make the casket, others dig the grave, some go for the preacher, the women make the shroud and cook the meals for the people in affliction.

We are also practicing for a couple of little plays to be given Easter week. The exact date is not yet fixed, and Mr. Clifton is giving us his undivided time and interest in the coaching. We need money to carry on our work in the G. F. S. So we hope you will all keep us in mind immediately after Easter.

We had the great excitement of having one of our members married a short time ago, and just before the wedding we all met at Mrs. Lening's and gave the prospective bride the surprise of her life in a "shower." Our hostess gave us a lovely party afterward and we all went home almost as happy as the bride-to-be.

Parents and Lobsters

There is a fable which says that it was a source of much grief and vertriment to some fish to see the lobsters swimming backward, as is the custom of lobsters, instead of forward. They, therefore, called a meeting and decided to open a school for their instruction. This was done and it was gratifying to see a number of lobsters come. The fish argued that if they began with the young lobsters, as they grew older they would not only learn to swim right, but would continue to do so. At first, the young lobsters did very well; but, afterward, when they returned home and saw their fathers and mothers swimming in the old way, they soon forgot their lessons, and began to go backward again. Such was the power of example.

Many children, who come to our Church School, being taught better things, go home and see their parents living in the same old way, and they are forced backward by the bad home example.

A half-hour's instruction on Bible Truths, taught in our Church School! What effect will this instruction have on the hearts and minds of the young unless the impression of that truth be maintained and strengthened by parental instruction and example? Do the scholars in our Church School go home and find their parents indifferent to their Church duties, going backward in their Christian life? Do they go home and find lobsters there? If so, is it any wonder that so many young people are indifferent to the Church and all religious teaching? Whose fault is it?

How many parents who read these lines are lobsters? ARE YOU A LOBSTER? Think it over!

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the rector or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

Our Easter Day

Another Easter has come and gone! And what a happy Easter it has been! Everything seemed to contribute to make it an ideal Easter Day. The dark Clouds, which overcast the sky all Good Friday intensified the sadness and the gloom of that awful day. A very large congregation was present in Church to watch and pray, to meditate on the "Last Seven Words" which our blessed Lord spoke, as He hung dying upon the Cross. We can never forget the solemn meaning of those "Last Seven Words" as they were interpreted to us by Father Williamson.

All day Saturday the sky continued overcast with clouds. And, then, on Easter morning! the clouds had rolled away and the sun shone forth in all its glorious splendor—more bright, more glorious, it seemed, than ever before.

"Morn's roseate hues have decked the sky;

The Lord has risen with victory;
Let earth be glad, and raise the cry,
Alleluia!

The Prince of Life with death has striven,

To cleanse the earth His blood has given,

Has sent the veil, and opened heaven.

Alleluia!

At the two early celebrations of the Holy Communion more persons than on any previous Easter came to the altar to meet their risen Lord. Four hundred and thirty-nine received Communion on Easter Day.

The sanctuary was filled with palms and blooming plants and both altars—the high and the chapel—were covered with lilies and cut flowers—all gifts from friends in memory of their blessed dead.

At the Midday service, an augmented choir, assisted by string instruments and trumpet, under the direction of Owen J. W. Burness, rendered the music in a most beautiful and devotional manner.

In the evening the Church Schools marched into the Church carrying banners and potted flowers, which were deposited in the chancel—all the flowers in the chancel and on the altar to be sent on the following day to the sick in their homes and in hospitals.

The singing of the Easter carols by the scholars of the School and especially by the little children of the Primary Department was unusually hearty. An illustrated address was given by our "old" friend, the Rev. Nathaniel B. Groton, Rector of St. Thomas Church, Whitemarsh and was listened to with rapt attention, both by the young people and by the parents and friends of the scholars, who occupied the rear pews of the Church.

"Rewards of merit" to the scholars, who had earned them, and diplomas to those who had graduated from the Primary Department, were given by the superintendent, Mr. Richard H. Morris.

The contents of the "mite boxes," of the scholars, which represented their savings and earnings during Lent, were received and presented upon the altar. This offering which is given to missions, amounted to $275.00.

With this service, ended a very happy and a joyous Easter Day.

After Easter—What?

During the great forty days of Lent the hearts and minds of Christian people have been much with their Saviour, and we have all felt, to a greater or a less degree, the preciousness of His presence. The influence of that companionship with Jesus, during those forty days, has been very real. And, then, on Easter Day! with what glad and happy hearts we greeted our Risen Lord, as we met Him again on that early morn. Surely we have seen the Lord!

But after Easter—what? Is there not danger, now, that we fall from our high estate and descend again to the lower level and follow along the path of our unspiritual and earthly self? Is there not danger that the vision of our greater and higher self, which has been revealed to us through our forty days' companionship with Jesus and our presence with Him on that happy Easter morn—is there not danger, now, that this exalted experience on the mountain top be forgotten and this vision, which we have had of heaven, be obscured by the mist and clouds of the valley, into which we are called to do our daily work and duty? It need not be; but there is danger that it will be so, unless we keep constantly before our eyes the mountain peaks which rise above the valley and "in heart and mind thither ascend and with Him continually dwell."

We have been with Christ during these past forty days, and in His Resurrection we have risen with Him to higher and holier ideals. "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God."

May these after Easter days find us ever faithful and true in the pursuit of "those things which are above," and may God give us grace that "we may steadfastly walk in the way that leadeth to eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Parishioners We All Know

There are a great many Easter Day churchmen. Most of them are men; but the ranks are now being swelled by women also. Easter morning, if the weather permits, these churchmen put on their bright and shining faces and best clothes and proceed to the family pew, or, if they are not pewholders, take their position in the queue. The Easter churchmen, because there are so many of them, largely determine the atmosphere of the service, in our Churches Easter morning. In comparison with real parishioners they are noticeably detached; they wear an expectant air; they look receptive, as men not knowing what they are likely to get, for they are not familiar enough with worship and the Christian religion to know what one ought to be receptively expectant of when one goes to Church.

Just what one ought to get out of the Church on Easter Day is what the Easter Christian has not quite made up his mind about. Yet, in one sense, the Easter churchman is making a tremendous demand on the chancel. He is really asking to be convinced, by attending one service a year, that his soul is immortal and that the Christ of the Churches is a living Lord. That is much to ask from one service of an hour and forty minutes—mostly music; but the Rector knows that he is asking it, and his asking it presents to every Easter preacher a sore homiletic problem: Shall he preach to the Easter Christian or to the faithful? It is easy to preach to the faithful, for they anticipate and supplement his message. They have made it their living truth throughout the year. For forty days, with different degrees of faithfulness, they have been preparing their souls for the great day. Like the disciples of old, they run to meet their Lord. They do not sit with vacant minds and hearts asking Him to come to them. They want Him. They go forth to meet Him as a friend. They know Him when they see Him.

Of all the people in Church on Easter morning, the most pitiful are the Easter Christians. The Rector, as he looks down from the chancel and reads the great words of hope or speaks his message from the pulpit, observes many types of parishioners. He sees the moist eyes of those whose sorrows he has known and entered into. He reads their hearts' longing, and he knows, too, the strength that is supporting them. He feels no doubt what he should say to them. He sees the doubters, too, who have tried to believe and have been in their places Sunday after Sunday seeking the truth. He knows their perplexities; he tries to have a message for them. But the Easter Christians, the men and women with the Christian past but no present, are pathetic people, most of them, because at the age of forty, fifty, or sixty, they don't even yet know whether one's religious life ought to have forth. They have form in their business, their profession, their sport, their social life, but in their religious life they have no habit, no conventions, no accepted routine. They are drifting, occasionally seeking something—they don't know precisely what. Their eyes grow moist at funerals, for the Easter Christian is likely to be very sentimental about death, and they weep surreptitiously over "Crossing the Bar," and "Lead, Kindly Light." They think of that as religious emotion. But they go out from the service to bury their questionings and misty hopes in golf, business and perhaps in light dissipation; they never face the problem of problems. And when Easter Day comes round, once a year, as a last remnant of a form they once acknowledged, they don their high hats and new gloves and start in search of a family pew. And sometimes, when they are smoking their after-dinner cigar, they remark: "What a poor argument that was the Rector put up this morning. Is it possible to make a churchmen in twenty minutes? It is, with the help of God!—but! can God help such people?"

The Churchman.

Ascension Day

The next great feast after Easter is the Feast of the Ascension.

On the fortieth day after Easter, our Lord meets His chosen and leads them out beyond Bethany to the Mount of Olivet. For the last time the Master and His disciples walk along those familiar paths. He gives them final instructions concerning "the things which pertain to the kingdom of God."

When He assembles them upon the mount, and overflowing with love for those whom He had chosen out of the world and for all who should believe on Him through them. He raised those precious hands in Divine blessing. Then the Son of Man and the Son of God rises by His own power up into the vault of heaven. Awe-struck, dumb with amazement, even the impulsive Peter finds no words to say. With outstretched hands in benediction upon the world that had rejected Him, a cloud receives Him out of their sight; and still they gaze entranced in heart felt worship and lofty contemplation. Then angels sent back by the Triumphant King, announce to them that He who had promised to be with them to the end of the world and had bade them wait at Jerusalem for the promised gift of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, would Himself come again in like manner, that it with clouds and the angelic hosts.

And then the disciples, no longer doubting, but full of joy, knowing Christ no more after the flesh, but after the Spirit, returned to Jerusalem with the gentle and holy Mary to wait for the coming of the Paraclete.

Whitsun Day

Ten days after the feast of the Ascension comes the Feast of Pentecost, commonly called Whitsunday.

In this feast of the Holy Spirit, which is the birthday of the Church, the culmination of our Lord's Incarnation is attained. He ascended that the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity might come and abide in His Church, uniting its members one with another, and all to the Great Head that we might be led into all knowledge, truth and holiness forever. For ten days after the Ascension the little company of believers, with the Holy Mother, waited in that upper room, in obedience to their Lord's command, spending the hours in prayer and supplication for the Promised Comforter. "And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting." And then the cloven tongues, the supernatural utterances vouchsafed to all the amazement of the holders. St. Peter's sermon, the conviction of the hearers, the Baptism of the three thousand all followed in quick succession. "The Spirit of the Lord filleth the world and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice."

The Apostles are "endued with power from on high." What a contrast the betrayal the cowardly denial and the forsaking of our Lord present when placed side by side with the intrepid conduct of the newly inspired Apostles! From that time they went forth, endued with supernatural power, to convert the world and through them we have been brought from darkness and error into the true light.

Loving, persuasive and tender is the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

"His that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breadth of heaven,
That checks each thought, that calms each fear,
And speaks of Heaven."

Sunday next after Whitsunday occurs the feast of the Holy Trinity.

Holy Trinity

On Trinity Sunday culminates the doctrinal half of the Church Year. The remainder of the year from now to Advent, the Church lays chief emphasis on the practical side of life. "Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God," are the opening words of the Epistle for the First Sunday after Trinity.

Hitherto the emphasis from Advent on has been on the "fundamentals of the faith"—the Incarnation, the Resurrection, the Ascension, the coming of the Holy Spirit. On Trinity Sunday the Church's services mount up to the throne of Godhead. In the word "Trinity" she simply sums up what is revealed concerning God—that in substance He is one, but in Person, three.

The reception of truth must be gradual. The Church leads us step by step from Advent to Trinity Sunday. In Advent is heralded the coming of the Son of God and we are taught to prepare for Him, "to make His ways straight;" at Christmas the heavenly host proclaims from the starry firmament the "good tidings of great joy;" on Epiphany the wise men came from afar, and the Christ is manifested to the Gentiles; through Lent we enter into our Saviour's Temptation; in Gethsemane we witness the Agony; on Good Friday we follow our Saviour to the Cross and see the Son of God suffer and die for us; on the glorious Feast of Easter we see Him rise triumphant from the grave; then for forty days after the Resurrection we follow Him as He teaches His disciples "things pertaining to the Kingdom of God;" then on Holy Thursday we are with the Apostles and behold His glorious Ascension into Heaven, there to sit on the right hand of the Father; while on Whitsunday we are taught that the Comforter, even the Spirit of Truth, has come to guide us into all Truth and to dwell in the Church and in our hearts forever!

Thus does the Church prepare us, step by step, for the glorious culmination of her teaching, enabling us to grasp by faith the mystery of the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity.

Seventieth Anniversary of Christ Church Parish

This year, 1922, marks the Seventieth Anniversary of the founding of Christ Church Parish. During these years Christ Church has been singularly blessed. In recognition of these blessings and with gratitude to God for all His mercies, during these past years, this Seventieth Anniversary will be fittingly observed during the coming fall.

Definite plans have not yet been formulated. The Rector will be glad to receive suggestions from anyone. Fuller information and plans will be published in next month's issue of the CHIMES.

An Appeal from the Finance Committee

The Finance Committee of the Vestry has issued a letter to the members of the congregation asking the co-operation of every member in the Parish in the extension of the envelope system of giving. Since the pews in Christ Church have all been declared free and unassigned the support of the Parish and its many philanthropies depend upon every one giving a stated and regular sum. Most parishes in the diocese have, what is called an "Every Member Canvass" once every year, when each member is asked to repledge a definite amount which he or she is willing to give for the ensuing year. The Vestry have thought that the wisest policy, at present, to pursue in this Parish is to solicit pledges by issuing a general appeal to all members. It is believed that the members of the Parish, recognizing how important it is that the Parish should be supported by all—by each and every member—will respond to the Vestry's appeal, as set forth in this general letter. It is hoped that every one—each member of every family—will sign an individual card, that the list of contributing members may include every man, woman and child in the Parish.

By this method everyone will feel a personal responsibility and share the joy which comes from personal, individual co-operation in the furtherance of the Kingdom of God, both at home and in the missionary fields of the Church.

"Every-Member Canvass—Why Annually"

The Presiding Bishop and Council of the Church, in urging upon the parishes of the Church throughout the country, the importance of an Annual "Every Member Canvass," has set forth the following reasons for such a canvass. BECAUSE.

1. Some will have grown in grace.

2. Some will have increased their knowledge of the Church's programme, and so will have developed new interest.

3. The income of some will have increased.

4. Some may have suffered loss of income; opportunity should be given them to reduce pledges if necessary, without embarrassment.

5. Some will have been added by Confirmation or transfer; these should be enrolled as contributors.

6. Experience proves that without an Annual renewal a large percentage of contributors is lost. Even when people simply renew pledges made "until revoked," it is helpful in keeping their pledges "alive."

7. Courtesy dictates that Every Member should be visited, lest feelings be hurt by distinctions between canvassed and uncanvassed.

8. Those who have made pledges for a definite period longer than one year are entitled to the recognition of a visit and of up-to-date information on the progress of the Church's work.

9. It is the best method known for keeping the entire membership enlisted.

10. It promotes fellowship.

11. It is of great educational value to the canvasser.

12. The perfect canvass has not yet been held.

13. God blesses the earth with seedtime and harvest annually.

From the Accounting Warden

The Accounting Warden regrets that he is unable to report the receipt of the full amount of $1300, to cover the deficit in the Church finances for the fiscal year ending May 31st, 1922. The amount received was a very liberal one, amounting to $1,144.88 to date. As additional offerings are still coming in it is hoped that the full amount will still be realized by the end of the month, so that we will enter the new year knowing that all the Church expenses of the past year have been met from the receipts of that period. If any of the members of the congregation have not already contributed, it is hoped that they will still send in their contributions.

EDWARD BAINS,
Accounting Warden.

Holy Thursday—Ascension Day

A celebration of the Holy Communion, with an address, will be held on Ascension Day, Thursday morning, May 25th, at nine-thirty o'clock. The offering will be given for missions.

Poor Children's Outing Fund

It is not too early to announce that the usual offering for Poor Children's Country Week will be taken in our Church on the third Sunday morning in June. This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are privileged to give.

All lovers of children, and especially poor children living in the congested courts and alleys of our city, will want to help, to the extent of their ability, in sending these children into the country for a week or more of fresh air and sunshine.

Should you be absent from Church on Sunday morning, June 18th, please send your contribution to the Accounting Warden, Mr. Edward Bains, 104 Harvey St., or to the Rector.

There is a beautiful receipt which he who has received an injury, or thinks he has, would, for his own sake, do well to follow—"excuse half and forgive the rest."

The Women's Auxiliary

The last meeting of the Women's Auxiliary will be held on the third Thursday, May 18th. The Auxiliary will then adjourn to meet again on the third Thursday in September, the 21st.

As the CHIMES goes to press, a meeting is being held of the Parish Committee, composed of representatives from every Society in the Parish, to consider plans for the appropriate observance of the Seventieth Anniversary of the institution of Christ Church Parish.

It has been suggested that the observance of this anniversary be held in the fall. Further announcement will appear in the June number of the CHIMES.

The Church School

The most important event of the last month was our Easter Carol Service on Easter evening. Many have said that it was a beautiful service and well attended by parents and friends as well as our scholars. The Rev. Mr. Groton gave us a good talk on "Mite makes might boxes," and where they go throughout the world.

We then presented our "mite boxes" the total being over $275.00 which was $25.00 more than last year. I must mention that one boy had in his mite box $15.00, which amount he not only earned himself during Lent, but gave $5.00 also to his sister. Let us all keep his example before us next year and I know we will double this year's offering.

The following were promoted from the Primary Department to the main school: Corinne Bose, Jane Courtney, Ruth Fitch, Florence Osborne, Alberta Wright, Pauline D. Long, Leonard Mensing, Thomas Pritchard, Edward White, Samuel Baxter, Jr., John Courtney, Wm. Davidson, Vaughn Hagy, Robt. Klink, Graham Klink, Pierson Smith, John Stull, Philip Taylor.

These 18 boys and girls will leave a great big vacancy in the Primary Department and I want each one of the 18 to try and bring a new scholar to Miss Feist to take their place.

A "remembrance" was given to the following scholars who had a continuous attendance at Sunday School for more than one year:

For more than 7 years, Mrs. Elizabeth Baisbrown; more than 4 years, Chas. Buchenhorst, Annie Wertsner; more than 3 years, Elizabeth Haas, Alice Robertson, Margaret Courtney, Helen McHenry; more than 2 years, Helen Robinson, Nancy Courtney, Betty Melchor, Helen Wertsner, Margaret Robinson, William Blank, Mary Keenan, Martha McHenry, Marion Feist, Katharine Wertsner, Bertram Malaby; more than 1 year, Anna Bell Bradley, Marjorie Stryke, Richard Hogue, William Philler, Wm. N. Johnson, Jr., Clifton Malaby, James Osborne, Jeanette Gilfillian, Alberta Gomerlinger, Richard Sutcliffe, Fred Hocker.

Primary Department for faithful attendance: Ruth Fitch, Thomas Pritchard, Alberta Wright, Samuel Baxter, Jr., Elizabeth McGukin.

A "remembrance" was also given to 22 scholars who attended Church service without missing from Christmas to Easter.

The "Star Class" record for the year is Miss Johnson's 14 times, Miss Gerhard's 13 times, Miss Cave's 10 times, Mrs. Schaefer's 10 times.

A star class means that the teacher and all scholars are present. Lack of space prevents giving other interesting events.

The real work of the School is to prepare our scholars for membership in the Church and we can take pride, I think, in the fact that in the class that Rev. Mr. Arndt presented to Bishop Rowe for Confirmation on April 13th were 17 scholars from our School, the largest number for many years.

The next issue of THE CHIMES will contain our plans for the summer.

Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church

By the time this article comes to you the G. F. S. will have thrown themselves upon you censure or praise. We hope devoutly for the latter, for our effort was solely to please, and thereby enrich our exchequer in order that we may do our share of G. F. S. work; such as our part of the support of the Holiday House at Cape May; our Lodge in Philadelphia; the support of an Igorrote girl in the Philippines; our extension work—which is the sending of workers to towns and villages where there are no G. F. S. centres, to establish them—our social service work; our Lenten work; and last, but not least, of our desires is to fix up our G. F. S. room so that it will be an attractive spot towards which our girls will turn with joy every Tuesday night. We have a wonderful group of girls and associates and they deserve all the beauty and grace we can surround them with.

Come and visit us. We are indeed a very happy crowd and would give you a very warm welcome.

The Mothers' Meeting

The Mothers' Meeting has met weekly during the winter, with largely attended sessions. There has been much accomplished so that the afternoons have been profitable as well as pleasant. A large number of garments has been made for the Needle Work Guild, and the contents of the missionary box for the United Thank Offering amounted to $9.84. We number on our roll thirty-five members and our usual attendance has been over twenty. In April one of our members, Mrs. Christian Lackman was taken from us. Always patient and cheerful she met the trial of failing health with true Christian fortitude. We shall miss her presence and example.

We shall soon close for the season on Tuesday, May 16th, and are anticipating an entertainment on that date. Mrs. Rowley, Mrs. Pinkerton and Mrs. Falkner have added greatly to the success of the meetings by their interest and work.

The Woman's Bible Class

The Woman's Bible Class meets on Sunday afternoon with an attendance of from fourteen to fifteen members. Our membership totals twenty. This year we have followed the life and teachings of Christ, as set forth in the American Church Sunday School lessons. The course has been very interesting and we all regret that the time for closing is near at hand. We hope to begin our sessions again on the first Sunday in October.

Killed by Giving

Bishop Whipple, in a letter written just before his death, said: "I close by repeating a story which dear Bishop Clarkson loved to tell. A devout colored preacher whose heart was aglow with missionary zeal, gave the notice to his congregation that in the evening an offering would be taken up for missions, and asked for liberal gifts. He had in his congregation one well-to-do man who was very selfish, and who said to him before the service: 'Yer gwine to kill dis church ef yer goes on saying, Give, Give! No church can stan' it! Yer gwine ter kill it.' After the sermon the minister said to the people, 'Before the service tonight Brother Jones told me I was gwine to kill dis yere church if I keep a asking yer to give; but, my brethren, churches do'sn't die that way. Ef dere's anybody knows of a church dat's died 'cause it's been giving too much to der Lord, I'll be very much obliged ef my brother will tell me whar dat church is, fur I'se gwine to visit it, an' I'll clim up on de walls of dat church under te light of the moon, and cry, Blessed are de dead dat die in de Lord."

John Wesley—A Loyal Churchman

John Wesley, whom the Methodists to-day regard as their founder, and whose memory is revered by the whole Christian world, was one of the most Godly men of his time, was a true and loyal member of the Episcopal Church—the Church of England—until his death. He did a great work in his day for the spiritual revival of the Church, and he did it loyally and bravely. He stirred the hearts of the masses. He adapted the truth of the Gospel and the system of the Church to meet their conditions and needs, and amid such conditions he refused to allow his followers to separate from the Church. He withstood the tendency to form a separate organization and, until his death, denounced his followers who wanted to leave the Church, and said, "If you leave the Church, you leave me." It is interesting today, when the subject of Church unity is so generally engaging the minds of Christian people, to read the words of this saintly man, to whom the Methodists owe so much. It can scarcely be doubted what his advice would be, if he were living today.

In order to feel the force of the following quotations from Mr.

Wesley's works, it will be necessary to bear in mind that he was born in the year of 1703 and that he died A. D. 1791, at the extreme old age of 88 years. The extracts from his writings cover the latter half of his life, the first being passed over because it is nowhere claimed that he was anything except a Churchman during the earlier part of his career.

1746: "I dare not renounce Communion with the Church of England. As a minister I teach her doctrines; I use her offices; I conform to her Rubrics; I suffer reproach for my attachment to her. As a private member, I hold her doctrines; I join in her offices, in prayer, in hearing, in communicating." Vol. VIII, p. 444.

1747: "We continually exhort all who attend on our preaching, to attend the offices of the Church. And they do pay a more regular attendance than they ever did before." Vol. VIII, p. 488.

1755. "We began reading together 'A Gentleman's Reasons for His Dissent from the Church of England.' It is an elaborate and lively tract, and contains the strength of the cause; but it did not yield us one proof that it is lawful for us, much less our duty to separate from it." Vol. II, p. 328.

1758: In this year Mr. Wesley wrote his "Reasons Against a Separation from the Church of England;" and in writing in 1778 he says: "These reasons were never yet answered and I believe they never will." The Rev. Charles Wesley says of this tract: "I think myself bound in duty to add my testimony to my brother's. His twelve reasons against our ever separating from the Church of England are mine also. I subscribe to them with all my heart. My affection for the Church is as strong as ever; and I clearly see my calling, which is to live and die in her Communion. This, therefore, I am determined to do, the Lord being my helper." Vol. XIII, p. 199.

1759: "I received much comfort at the old Church in the morning, and at St. Thomas' in the afternoon. It was as if both the sermons were made for me. I pity those who can find no good in Church. But how should they, if prejudice come between them? An effectual bar to the Grace of God." Vol. II, p. 478. "I had appointed to preach at seven in the evening at Bradford, but when I came, I found Mr. Hart was to preach at six, so I delayed till the Church service was ended, that there might not appear on my part, at least, even the shadow of opposition between us." Vol. II, p. 516.

1761: "We had a long stage from hence to Swadale, where I found an earnest, loving, simple people, whom I likewise exhorted not to leave the Church though they had not the best of ministers." Vol. III, p. 61.

1763: "I then related what I had done since I came to Norwich first, and what I would do for the time to come, particularly that I would immediately put a stop to preaching in the time of Church service." Vol. III, p. 152.

1766: "I see clearer and clearer none will keep to us unless they keep to the Church. Whoever separates from the Church separates from the Methodists." Vol. III, p. 260.

1767: "I rode to Yarmouth and found the Society, after the example of Mr. W——p, had entirely left the Church. I judged it needful to speak largely upon that head. They stood reprov'd, and resolved, one and all, to go to it again." Vol. III, p. 272.

1768: "I advise all, over whom I have any influence, steadily to keep to the Church." Vol. III, p. 337.

1772: "I attended the Church of England service in the morning, and that of Kirk in the afternoon. Truly, 'no man having drank old wine, straitway desireth new.' How dull and dry the latter appeared to me, who had been accustomed to the former." Vol. III, p. 463.

1775: "Understanding that nearly all the Methodists, by the advice of Mr. ———, had left the Church, I earnestly exhorted them to return to it." Vol. IV, p. 64.

1777: "They, the Methodists, have read the writings of the most eminent pleaders for separation, both in the last and present century. They have spent several days in General Conference upon this very question, 'Is it expedient, supposing, not granting, that it is lawful, to separate from the Established Church?' But still they could see no sufficient cause to depart from their first resolution. So that their fixed purpose is, let the Clergy or Laity use them well or ill, by the grace of God, to endure all things, to hold on their even course." Vol. VIII, p. 428.

1778: "The original Methodists were all of the Church of England and the more awakened they were the more zealously they adhered to it in every point, both of doctrine and discipline. Hence we inserted in the very first Rules of our Society, 'They that leave the Church leave us.' And this we did, not as a point of prudence, but as a point of conscience." Vol. XIII, p. 134.

"I believe one reason why God is pleased to continue my life so long is to confirm them in their present purpose not to separate from the Church." Vol. VII, p. 278. "I dare not separate from the Church; I believe it would be a sin to do so; I have been true to my profession from 1730 to this day." Vol. VII, p. 279.

1785: "Finding that a report had been spread abroad that I was just going to leave the Church, to satisfy those who were grieved concerning it, I openly declared in the evening that I had no more thought of separating from the Church than I had forty years ago." Vol. IV, p. 320.

1786: "Whenever there is any Church service, I do not approve of any appointment the same hour, because I love the Church of England and would assist, not oppose it, all I can." Vol. XIII, p. 55. (This is taken from a letter to the Rev. Freeman Garreston, of the Methodist Society in America, and clearly shows that in no instance did he suffer anything to be done to oppose the Church of England, whether in the States or at home.")

1787: "I went over to Deptford, but it seemed I was got into a den of lions. Most of the leading men of the Society were mad for separating from the Church. I endeavored to reason with them, but in vain; they had neither sense nor good manners left. At length, after meeting the whole Society, I told them, 'If you are resolved, you may have your service in Church hours, but remember from that time you will see my face no more.' This struck deep; and from that time I have heard no more of separating from the Church." Vol. IV, p. 357. "Few of them, those who separated, assigned the unholiness of either the Clergy or Laity as the cause of their separation. And if any did so, it did not appear that they themselves were a jot better than those they separated from." Vol. XIII, p. 183.

1788: "This is the peculiar glory of the people called Methodists. In spite of all manner of temptations, they will not separate from the Church. What many so earnestly covet, they abhor. They will not be a distinct body." Vol. VIII, p. 233.

1789: "Unless I see more reasons for it than I ever yet saw, I will never leave the Church of England, as by law established, while the breath of God is in my nostrils." Vol. XIII, p. 238. In this year, two before his death, Mr. Wesley wrote "Seven more reasons against separating from the Church."

1790: "I have been uniform, both in doctrine and discipline, for above these fifty years, and it is a little late for me to turn into a new path, now I am gray-headed." Vol. XII, p. 439.

"The Methodists in general are members of the Church of England. They hold all her doctrines, attend her services and partake of her sacraments." Vol. XIII, p. 119.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church; "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the rector or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

THIS YEAR, 1922, MARKS THE SEVENTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF THIS PARISH. READ ANNOUNCEMENTS, IN THIS MONTH'S "CHIMES," OF THE COMING CELEBRATION IN NOVEMBER!

The Rector is taking the month of September as a part of his vacation and expects to attend the Conventions to be held in Seattle and in Portland, Oregon. He will return (D. V.) the last week in September.

Three Important Conventions

Three notable and very important Conventions, in which every Churchman will be deeply interested, will be held during this month of September. The first, in time, will be the Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which will be held in the city of Seattle, August 30th to September 3rd, inclusive. The purpose of this Convention is purely spiritual. Representatives of the strong and virile young manhood of the Church will meet together for no purpose other than to discuss ways and means toward the deepening of the religious life among the manhood of our Church, and especially "for the furtherance of the Kingdom of God among young men by prayer and service." The Convention will be presided over by Mr. Edward H. Bonsall, of this city of Philadelphia. We are glad to report that three members of Christ Church, Germantown, will be present at this Convention.

The Daughters of the King, an Order of the Church, whose object and mission among women are identical to those of the Brotherhood among men, will hold its Convention in the city of Portland, Oregon, during the following week.

Representatives of the Order from the various dioceses of the country, will be present. The National Treasurer of the Order, who is a member of this Parish, will be one of the delegates from the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The General Convention of the American Church will assemble in the city of Portland on Wednesday, September 6th, and will probably continue in session for several weeks. This is the great legislative body representing the whole Episcopal Church. It meets every three years. Deputies or representatives from every Diocese and Missionary District in this country and in foreign parts will be present. Matters of far-reaching import to the Church and its mission will be discussed and acted upon at this Convention. Action will also be taken on the subject of the revision of parts of the Prayer Book, which was laid over from the last Convention held three years ago.

The Women's Auxiliary will also hold its meeting at the same time and place. The triennial "Thank-Offering" for Missions will be presented from the women of the Church.

Every member of the Church should be deeply interested and concerned in the proceedings and outcome of these Conventions. Every member should keep himself well informed on the subjects which will come before the Convention and should make it a special object of earnest, fervent prayer, that the representatives of the Church, in council assembled, may be saved from all error, ignorance, pride and prejudice, and God's Holy Spirit may "direct, sanctify and govern" them in all their doings to the glory of His holy name and to the extension upon earth of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ, the only Saviour and Redeemer of mankind.

Prayers to be Used for the Meeting of the General Convention

(Taken from the Prayer Book)

Almighty and everlasting God, who by thy Holy Spirit didst preside in the Council of the blessed Apostles, and hast promised, through thy Son Jesus Christ, to be with thy Church to the end of the world; We beseech thee to be with the Council of thy Church assembled in thy Name and Presence. Save them from all error, ignorance, pride, and prejudice; and of thy great mercy vouchsafe, we beseech thee, so to direct, sanctify, and govern them in their work, by the mighty power of the Holy Ghost, that the comfortable Gospel of Christ may be truly preached, truly received, and truly followed, in all places, to the breaking down the kingdom of sin, Satan, and death; till at length the whole of thy dispersed sheep, being gathered into one fold, shall become partakers of everlasting life; through the merits and death of Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Amen.

For the Unity of God's People

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace; Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that as there is but one Body and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Missions

O God, who has made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the whole earth, and didst send thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are afar off and to them that are nigh; Grant that all men everywhere may seek after thee and find thee. Bring the nations into thy fold, and add the heathen to thine inheritance. And we pray thee shortly to accomplish the number of thine elect, and to hasten thy kingdom; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer is Indispensable

The supreme importance of the prayer life of a parish can hardly be over-emphasized. Prayer is one of the things in which the early Church "continued." That is, prayer was an essential factor in its everyday existence. We have seldom seen the privilege and duty of prayer, as an expression of parish life, so persuasively set forth as in the following from the Southern Churchman:

A prosperous church is a church which prays. It is written, "My house shall be called a house of prayer." We must never lose faith in prayer. We must never abandon prayer. We must never lose the spirit of prayer. A church can get on for a considerable time without singing, and can go on indefinitely with indifferent singing. A church may do well with poor preaching, and even without preaching of any kind. But a church without prayer is no church at all. We might as well expect a man to live without breathing as to expect a church to live without praying. Pray for the minister. Pray for the sick and afflicted. Pray for the children. Pray for the lost. Pray for the community. Pray for one another. Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He may send forth laborers into His harvest. Pray without ceasing. Pray everywhere. Let the church be characterized by prayer, filled with the atmosphere of prayer, and crowded with the trophies of prayer.

Upon his return from his trip in the West, the Rector hopes to give a brief account, at one of the services in the Church, of the Conventions which he expects to attend at Seattle and Portland.

In the meantime Church people should keep themselves well informed on the proceedings of the Convention by subscribing to and reading one of the general Church papers The Living Church, 1801 Fond du Lac Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, is making a special Convention subscription offer of $1.00 for three months' subscription or $2.00 for seven months. The Churchman, published at 2 West Forty-seventh Street, New York City, The Southern Churchman, are also offering a special six months' subscription for $2.00. Full reports of the proceedings of the General Convention and editorial comment on matters coming before the Convention, with special articles dealing with the questions of the Prayer Book Revision, will be given by each of these papers. Every churchman, who would have an intelligent understanding of the questions coming before the Church, should read one, or both, of these national Church papers. Do not rely upon the accounts of the Convention published in the secular papers. Subscribe for one of the national Church papers and get the truth!

The Seventieth Anniversary of Christ Church

This year, 1922, marks the Seventieth Anniversary of Christ Church Parish. As announced in another column of THE CHIMES, the occasion will be fittingly observed in November. There will be a week of special meetings and services, and everyone who is at present a member of the Parish or who has been, in the past, connected in any way with Christ Church, is invited to co-operate in making this Seventieth Anniversary Celebration a success. Suggestions as to the character and form which the celebration should take will be gladly received from anyone.

It is hoped to be able to announce in the next issue of THE CHIMES the program of the meetings and services to be held.

In the meantime, let every one anticipate the coming observance of the anniversary and be ready and willing to contribute in every way possible to its success.

Casuals

When is a soldier not a soldier?
When he is a casual.

He may wear the uniform and look the part, but he doesn't count. For the time being he is detached from his organization and is, so to speak, floating about in space. He doesn't have to rise at reveille or turn in at taps. He is a free lance. The soldier on regular duty may envy him his freedom. But no true soldier wants to be a casual long. He wants to serve his country, and he knows that he can't do so as a casual.

During the war, certain French cities were cluttered with uniformed Americans who seemed to belong to no particular regiment. They were casuals. For one reason or another they had been detached from their former unit, and not yet connected up with another. Some were just in transit. Some had been invalided back from the front and were being shunted from hospital to hospital. Some were on leave.

In any case there was always something pathetic about a casual. For the time being he was a "nobody," from a military standpoint. Before he could function again as an American soldier he must be connected up somewhere. Many ex-service men can bear witness to the fact that no soldiers are more severely tempted than casuals. I have known good soldiers to go A. W. O. L. and encounter dangers and hardships to get back and be reinstated in their regiments. They were homesick and lonely and felt they weren't proving anything as casuals.

When is a Churchman not a Churchman?

When he is a casual.

There are an amazing number of them about in our cities and towns. They may have been duly confirmed and served well in some former parish. But for some reason they have become detached. Perhaps they are in transit and feel for the time being a delightful sense of freedom. But no good Churchman will want to be casual long. He wants to serve the Church and he knows that so long as he is a casual he doesn't count.

How can a man who has been sealed by the cross at baptism and pledged to "continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end" elect to remain a casual? Only a slacker would deliberately make such a choice.

But modern conditions seem conducive to a steady increase in the number of casuals. The population shifts rapidly. People move away from the dear associations of the "home Church" and find themselves strangers in a strange community. They shrink from making new affiliations. Unless they receive a cordial welcome they are in danger of becoming chronic casuals.

No class of people are more tempted to lapse into indifference and unbelief. They are under no discipline. They feel no sense of responsibility. Both for their own good and for the sake of the Church every effort should be made to connect them promptly with some parish.—T. S. C.

When the Third Assembly of the League of Nations meets in Geneva on September 3 the inaugural sermon at the cathedral in that city will be preached by the Archbishop of Canterbury, who has accepted the invitation of the cathedral authorities. Such an opportunity for the Primate of the Church of England has in it elements that stir the imagination and heighten optimism. He will on this occasion address the representatives of over fifty nations, speaking, at the invitation of a church of a foreign country, in the name of the Christian Church throughout the world. The spirit of fellowship that glows on the pages of the Gospel has been lamentably remote from the councils of the nations. In these times of disillusionment an invitation such as that received by the Archbishop of Canterbury is not lacking in significance.

During the month of July the services at Christ Church were in charge of the Rev. Philip S. Irwin, of the City Mission. The Rector returned the first of August and was on duty until the last of the month, when he left to attend the Brotherhood of St. Andrew Convention to be held in Seattle, Washington, and the General Convention to be held in Portland, Oregon. He expects to return to Germantown the last of September.

During the Rector's absence in September, the services at Christ Church will be in charge of the Rev. George Warrington Lamb, M.

D. It will be of interest to the members of Christ Church to know that the Rev. Dr. Lamb is a son of the Rev. James H. Lamb, D.D., who was a scholar in our Sunday School and a communicant of this parish during the time of the first rector of Christ Church, the Rev. Dr. Atkins. Dr. Lamb will be ready to respond to all calls for his services, during the Rector's absence, if word is left at the rectory.

The Seventieth Anniversary and the Thank Offering

This year marks the Seventieth Anniversary of Christ Church, Germantown, and it seems most fitting that the passing of this mile stone, the proverbial three score and ten, should be so observed as to show in some concrete form the appreciation by the present members of the inheritance which has been handed down from the founders.

The founders builded wisely and well in their day, and how generously their successors followed their example in the day of disaster, when the Church building was destroyed in 1870, is evidenced by the present beautiful Church we now possess.

It is thought that everyone in anyway connected with or interested in Christ Church today is thankful for the inheritance they now enjoy, and, therefore, it has been proposed that a part of the Anniversary celebration be a Thank Offering, in which each person connected with or interested in the Church will no doubt desire to have a share.

To meet the wishes of our people to have a share in the Thank Offering, it is the intention to issue shares of seventy cents (70 cents) each, each person subscribing for as many shares, from one share upwards, as they are able or feel interested.

Before the Thank Offering is presented at the Anniversary service each subscriber will receive an appropriate certificate bearing the name of the subscriber and the number of shares he or she has in the offering.

These certificates will be well worth preserving as a memento of the Anniversary, or may be framed as a reminder of our inheritance.

There will be a committee of solicitors who will receive subscriptions for the shares, and when our people stop and think quietly and realize how much the founders and rebuilders of Christ Church have done for us, and which we today enjoy, we are sure everyone will want to have a share in the Thank Offering.

And surely most of us will want to have a big share in such an undertaking.

U. G. R.

What can be more timely for all Americans today than this message from Lincoln?

"Let every American, every lover of liberty, every well-wisher to his posterity, swear by the blood of the Revolution never to violate in the least particular the laws of the country, and never to tolerate their violation by others."

"Let Reverence for the Laws be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap; let it be taught in the schools, in seminaries, and in colleges; let it be written in primers, spelling books, and almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpit, proclaimed in the legislative halls, and enforced in the courts of justice.

Poor Children's Outing Fund

It is with grateful appreciation of the generosity of the members of Christ Church that the Rector acknowledges the receipt of $239.24 for the Poor Children's Summer Outing Fund, of which the following letters, among others, will show how greatly the generosity of our people have been appreciated by those who received it:

The Children's Country Week Association,

August 1st 1922.

Dr. Charles Henry Arndt,
59 West Tulpehocken Street,
Germantown, Philadelphia.

My dear Dr. Arndt:

We acknowledge receipt of the gift to the work of The Children's Country Week Association from Christ Episcopal Church, of Germantown, and want to add just a line to assure you how grateful we are for your interest and support. Your contribution has made it possible for these little children to have a week's outing at one of our homes, where they have had the benefit, not only of fresh air and good food, but have enjoyed hiking, swimming and all the pleasures of camp life under the direction of trained counsellors whose sole duty it is to plan for the amusement of our little guests.

Should you wish to become acquainted with our work, we invite you to visit our homes which are open during the summer months, and you can then witness the happiness of these children.

Sincerely yours,

Laura Baker Miller Blithe,
Mrs. W. L. Blithe,
President.

The Bedford Street Mission,
619 Kater Street, Philadelphia.

August 10, 1922.

Rev. Charles Henry Arndt,
59 W. Tulpehocken St.,
Germantown, Philadelphia.

Dear Mr. Arndt:

On behalf of the Bedford Street Mission, I want to express our appreciation of the interest you and your congregation have so long taken in our work and to specially thank you for your recent liberal contribution to our Summer work at Clementon.

Our Home there is open this year for both boys and girls and so far 110 boys and 170 girls have been there for one or more weeks enjoying a respite from the heat and dirt of the alleys and courts near our Mission.

The water supply for our own bathing pond has been diverted from our property, but our little ones are enjoying the use of a neighbor's lake very frequently.

Down on Kater Street, too, we are furnishing opportunity to many of our neighbors each day for the baths that they cannot get in their homes.

The Kindergarten children come each morning for play during the summer and their regular school will start again in the fall. A small Sewing School and Boys' Club are also part of our winter's schedule.

I know our Superintendent always appreciates the calls you make at the mission and we can assure all that the personal touch and interest as shown by visits either to our Mission or the Home at Clementon are real help as much as the financial aid with which so many friends of the "Little Folks" have favored us in the past.

We only hope we as managers may continue to merit their support.

On their behalf, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Edward L. Richie,
President.

The Protestant Episcopal City Mission,

August 9, 1922.

Rev. Charles H. Arndt, D.D.,
59 W. Tulpehocken Street,
Germantown, Phila., Pa.

Dear Dr. Arndt:

We have received your notification that the splendid sum of $100 is being sent from Christ Church, Germantown, as a special gift for the summer work of the City Mission, particularly among children. A fine gift for this purpose has been given regularly from your Parish for some years, but this is the largest yet and seems to go along with the fact that this kind of work is being more and more stressed as the years go by. The City Mission has sent many women and children to seashore and country homes and maintains the Lucas Cottage at Chestnut Hill for tubercular boys all through the year. Milk and ice have been served in generous quantities this summer; and the Flower Missions have supplied us weekly with flowers to be distributed in the hospitals.

Please thank your Parish, from those in immediate responsibility for the work of the City Mission. The whole Diocese has done splendidly this summer and made our burden comparatively light. With best wishes, I am,

Gratefully yours,

Wm. H. Jefferys,
Superintendent.

Woman's Auxiliary

The first meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held on Friday, September 22nd, at 2.30 P. M. As this is an important meeting it is urgently requested that as many members as possible be present, to discuss plans for the winter's work.

It is with the deepest regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Arthur Thatcher, on August 8th, Mrs. Thatcher was for very many years a devoted and faithful member of the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church—of her we can truly say:

"Blessed are the pure in heart."

It is asked that any one who has not already sent in her United Thank Offering, kindly do so, at once, to our Parish Treasurer, Mrs. H. O. Cannon. The offering will be presented on September 7th, at Trinity Church, Portland, Oregon, at the Triennial Corporate Communion of the Woman's Auxiliary.

May the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church press forward this Autumn with re-newed zeal, determined that by Prayer, deepest interest and unselfish devotion in sharing in this tremendous missionary work, we may be able to accomplish greater results than ever before.

Christ Church Tennis Club

The Christ Church Tennis Club has been unusually active and prosperous during the past summer. The club membership is fifty-three active members, with prospects of more members. The two tennis courts have been in constant use the greater part of the season.

The tennis tournament is now in progress. The name of the winner will be announced in the next issue of the CHIMES.

It is proposed to hold a social gathering of the club in the gymnasium of the Parish House, at some date this fall, at which time a silver "loving cup" will be presented to the winner.

A full financial report of the club will be made by the treasurer and will be published in the next issue of the CHIMES.

The Lady in Kyoto

Do you remember how enthusiastic you were about that little Japanese story of Frances Little's, "The Lady of the Decoration"? There is something just as good, if not more so, from Miss Ambler, of Kyoto, in The Southern Churchman for April 1. Get it for its own sake (Richmond, Va., 10 cents), and for future reference put it in the Japan section of your missionary file. The Spirit of Missions for January, 1921, had an article by Miss Ambler with several pictures.

The Quarter at Church

"I am 25 cents. I'm too small to buy a quart of oil; I'm too small to buy one-half pound of candy; I'm too small to buy a ticket to a good movie show; I'm even too small to buy a box of undetectable rouge; but most people think I'm 'some money' when I come to church."—The Christian Register.

The sins of a repentant soul are removed by God as far as the east is from the west—as far as the worst is from the best.

CARRY ON!

By Robert W. Service

There are some who drift out in the deserts of doubt,
And some who in brutishness wal-low;
There are others, I know, who in piety go,
Because of a Heaven to follow.
But to labor with zest, and to give of your best,
For the sweetness and joy of the giving;
To help folks along with a hand and a song—
Why there's the real sunshine of living.

And so in the strife of the battle of life
It's easy to fight when you're winning;
It's easy to slave and starve and be brave
When the dawn of success is beginning.
But the man who can meet despair and defeat
With a cheer, there's the man of God's choosing;
The man who can fight to Heaven's own height
Is the man who can fight when he's losing.

Carry on! Carry on!
Fight the good fight and true;
Believe in your mission, greet life
with a cheer;
There's big work to do and that's why you are here.
Carry on! Carry on!
Let the world be the better for you;
And at last when you die, let this be your cry:
Carry on, my soul! Carry on!

Through Clouded Glasses

"O Mother," cried a little lad excitedly as he peered at the sun through a bit of smoked glass, "how big and round and wonderful it is!
Isn't it funny? It's been shining upon me every day and yet I've never really seen it before."

How like the sun is the love of Good for his children! It shines upon us every day, and yet many of us never see it. Not until we are called to view it through the clouded eyes of trouble or sorrow do we realize how big and full and beautiful it is. Though it has illumined our every pathway of doubt and perplexity many of us forget that we are living in its light. The teardimmed eye is the eye that sees the Father's love most quickly, and the grief-filled heart is the readiest to respond to its touch.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church; "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the rector or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

THIS YEAR, 1922, MARKS THE SEVENTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF THIS PARISH. READ ANNOUNCEMENTS, IN THIS MONTH'S "CHIMES," OF THE COMING CELEBRATION, NOVEMBER 19 TO NOVEMBER 26.

Our Cover

The pictures, which appear on the cover of this issue of the CHIMES, are from an old wood-cut, showing the original church building, as it appeared before its destruction by a violent wind storm in 1878.

THE SEVENTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF CHRIST CHURCH

The Seventieth Anniversary of the founding of Christ Church Parish will be observed during the week beginning Sunday, November 19.

This Anniversary will be an occasion for thanksgiving to Almighty God, the Giver of all good gifts, for the mercies and blessings that He has vouchsafed to this parish during the past three score years and ten. We have much to be thankful for, both as a parish and as individuals. We, who worship today in Christ Church, are enjoying the fruits of others' sowing. It is the result of the labors and sacrifices of others that the foundations of this parish were laid. It is the result of the labors and sacrifices of others that this beautiful Church was built. We, who today worship within these walls, have entered into an inheritance, rich in the memory of saintly lives, which have loved and labored and sacrificed that we, their followers, might "carry on" the work of God. "Other men labored and ye are entered into their labors."

Let us, my friends, thank God, on this Seventieth Anniversary, for the noble examples of faithfulness, of generosity, of consecration that have been handed down to us as a precious legacy from the past.

May the example of the many faithful men and women of this parish who have been called to a higher service inspire us to carry on willingly and cheerfully the work so will begun and carried on by them. As they were faithful "laborers together with God," may we count it our chiefest duty and privilege to give our earnest prayers, our unceasing labors and our liberal gifts to the Church of Christ in which our loving Father has placed us.

Faithfully yours,
Charles Henry Arndt.

Re-Consecration Sunday November 26

The end and object of celebrating the Seventieth Anniversary of Christ Church parish should not be, simply, to mark the completion of three score years and ten in its history. This celebration should have a deeper meaning and a more far-reaching significance than that.

This occasion should mean, to every member of the parish, a re-consecration of self, of soul and body, to a more complete personal surrender to the service of Jesus Christ and His Church. To the older members of the parish, not many years are left to work in His vineyard; even to the youngest, "the time is short." Let each one of us realize that "life is real and life is earnest." Let each of us realize the preciousness of time and the rapid passing of opportunity, which God gives to every one. Let each of us, on this occasion of our Anniversary, solemnly consecrate himself anew to God and pledge himself to a more faithful, self-sacrificing service to Jesus Christ.

I am, therefore, appointing Sunday morning, November 26th, as a Re-Consecration Sunday for all members of this parish. I ask every member of Christ Church, solemnly to set aside that day, as a Day of Personal Re-Consecration and on that day to be present at the Celebration of the Holy Communion. I earnestly appeal to every indifferent member, who has allowed himself or herself, for whatsoever cause it may be, to stray away from the Church and to neglect the life-giving sacraments,—I earnestly appeal to every indifferent member of this parish to "recall to mind the solemn promise and vow you once made before God's altar, and I ask that on this Anniversary Sunday, this Sunday of Re-Consecration, you renew again your "solemn vow and promise," with earnest prayers to God that you may be more conscientious, more deeply consecrated in the faithful discharge of your Christian duty.

And those in the parish who have been ever loyal and true—and there are not a few—the Vestrymen, the workers in the parish Guild, the members of the Church School, the faithful attendants at the services of the Church, I ask you all to present yourselves before the altar on Sunday morning, November 26th, asking God to help you and to give you strength to do the work, which He has given you to do, to direct and guide you in all your endeavors and to keep you faithful, even unto the end.

A Prayer for the Parish

O Almighty and merciful God, who doth govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of thy servants and grant unto our Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful (especially) visit and relieve the sick (especially) turn and soften the wicked (especially) arouse this careless and indifferent (especially) recover the fallen (especially) restore the penitent (especially) remove all hindrances to the advancement to Thy truth; and bring all to be of one heart and mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church, to the honor and glory of Thy Blessed Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Letter from a Member of the Anniversary Committee

This year marks the Seventieth Anniversary of Christ Church, Germantown, and it seems most fitting that the passing of this mile stone, the proverbial three score and ten, should be so observed as to show in some concrete form the appreciation by the present members of the inheritance which has been handed down from the founders.

The founders builded wisely and well in their day, and how generously their successors followed their example in the day of disaster, when the Church building was destroyed in 1878, is evidenced by the present beautiful Church we now possess.

It is thought that everyone in anyway connected with or interested in Christ Church today is thankful for the inheritance they now enjoy, and, therefore, it has been proposed that a part of the Anniversary celebration be a Thank Offering, in which each person connected with, or interested in, the Church will no doubt desire to have a share.

To meet the wishes of our people to have a share in the Thank Offering, it is the intention to issue shares of seventy cents (70 cents) each, each person subscribing for as many shares, from one share upwards, as he is able or feel interested. This offering will constitute to a "Music Fund" to be devoted to the improvement of the music of the Church. We are wondering if it will be large enough to install a much needed new organ in Christ Church.

Before the Thank Offering is presented at the Anniversary service each subscriber will receive an appropriate certificate bearing the name of the subscriber and the number of shares he or she has in the offering.

These certificates will be well worth preserving as a memento of the Anniversary, or may be framed as a reminder of our inheritance.

There will be a committee of solicitors who will receive subscriptions for the shares, and when our people stop and think quietly and realize how much the founders and rebuilders of Christ Church have done for us, and which we today enjoy, we are sure everyone will want to have a share in the Thank Offering.

And surely most of us will want to have a big share in such an undertaking.

All Saints' Day, November 1st

"Of all anniversaries that come and go in circling course of the Christian year, there is none, perhaps, which comes so close to human hearts and yearning as that known and loved as "All Saints' Day."

Many festivals there are, which, like greater planets, shine resplendent in the heavens revolving more closely about the sun of Righteousness, reflecting and shedding abroad His glory. Such are the feasts of our Lord's Nativity. The resurrection, His ascension and the coming of the Holy Ghost. These glorious festivals must, indeed, command ever our homage and the world's observance. But this "Quiet Day" of the Church's Cycle, weaving the softened halo of autumn's mystic beauty, steals so peacefully into the sanctuary of the heart and fills it with an influence all its own.

For while, upon this day of hallowed memories we should and do recall the saints of all ages—"the glorious company of the Apostles, the goodly fellowship of the prophets, the noble army of Martyrs," enriching the church throughout all the world—yet who does not know that swiftly the vista shortens, the cycle narrows and full soon the heart is gathering about this day only its own dear absent ones, gazing, with fond and yearning on faces "we have loved long since and lost awhile."

Silently the mist-veiled gates of Paradise swing wide open today, and lo! we see them throng about us—those loved ones, dear; as they come, distance and time dispelled by sweet memory's wand. Each dear saint wears again a form endeared clothed in that immortal garb woven by each soul in its earthly journey, its own enduring loving personality.

"Angels and living saints and dead,
But one commission make;
All join in Christ, their vital head
And of His love partake"

How Long Shall I Give?

"Go break to the needy sweet charity's bread;
For giving is living," the angel said.
"And must I be giving again and again?"
My peevish and pitiless answer ran.
"Oh no," said the angel, piercing me through,
"Just give till the Master stops giving to you."

Service on All Saints' Day

The services on All Saint's Day will be as follows: Holy Communion 7.30; Holy Communion and Address 11.00 a. m. At the eleven o'clock service the names of person who have departed this life since last All Saints' Day, will be read from the Chancel. The flowers on the Altar will be in memory of the Blessed Dead. After the services the flowers will be sent to the sick.

Person who wish to give memorial flowers for "All Saints' Day" are requested to send the same to the Parish House not later than Tuesday noon, October 31st.

Subjects for special Intercessions

Monday—On behalf of the parish: the Rector, the members of the Vestry, members of the parish societies, all other members of Christ Church.

Tuesday—On behalf of the Church Schools: the officers, the teachers, the scholars; for the fathers and mothers of the children of the parish; for all schools, colleges and institutions of learning.

Wednesday—On behalf of all confirmed and all "who profess and call themselves Christians;" for the faithful; for those who have become indifferent; for the weak, the erring; for those who have fallen away from Christ and His Church.

Thursday—On behalf of the sick; the sorrowing, those in tribulation, in need, in trouble; the lonely, the friendless, for those who are bearing heavy burdens.

Friday—On behalf of missions; for the Women's Auxiliary; for the missions and missionaries of the Church, at home and abroad; for social workers, and for all who are enlisted in the work of extending the Kingdom of God.

Saturday—On behalf of the Church; for unity, peace and concord among the nations; for unity among Christians; for the spirit of Christ among all men, that "they may be led into the way of truth and hold the faith in the unity of spirit, in the bond of peace and in righteousness of life."

Sunday, November 26th—Re-Consecration Sunday—Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M. Special prayers for all "who are living in Christ," both here and beyond the veil—all God's Saints whom He has knit together in One Communion and Fellowship, in the Mystical Body of His Son Christ our Lord."

Holy Communion and Sermon—Presentation of Thank Offering, 11.00 A. M.

Sermon by the Rev. Louis C. Washburn, D. D., Rector of Old Christ Church, Philadelphia.

Parish Guild Service—To be attended by members of all Societies of the Parish Guild, 7.45 P. M.

Address by the Honorable George Wharton Pepper, LL.D.

The week-day meetings to be held in the parish house during Anniversary Week will be as follows:

Men's Dinner—Tuesday evening, November 21st, at seven o'clock.

Toast-master — Col. Sheldon Potter. Speakers—The Honorable Roland S. Morris, late United States Ambassador to Japan; Reynolds D. Brown, Executive Secretary of the Diocese and others.

Parish Re-Union — for every member and attendant in Christ Church Parish—Friday evening, November 24th, from 8-10 o'clock.

Honorable George Wharton Pepper to Make an Address in Christ Church

On Sunday evening, November 19th, a service for members of all societies of the Parish Guild will be held in Christ Church at 7.45. The special speaker on that occasion will be the Honorable George Wharton Pepper, LL.D., United States Senator from Pennsylvania. The front pews of the Church will be reserved for the members of the Parish Guild, who are requested to sit together in a body. The remaining pews in the Church will be free to the public. Mr. Pepper will have a message of vital importance to every Christian man and woman. All are invited to attend this service.

Services on Thanksgiving Day

The services in Christ Church on Thanksgiving Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M.

Morning service and sermon, 11.00 A. M.

The offering on Thanksgiving Day will be, as usual, for the Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia.

The Anniversary Parish Reunion

A parish re-union will be held in the parish house on Friday evening, November 24th, from eight to ten o'clock. This re-union will be an occasion for every member of the parish, and for all who attend Christ Church, to meet together as members of one church family on the Seventieth Anniversary of our "Mother Parish." Every loyal, loving child would commemorate with respect, the seventieth birthday of an earthly parent. Surely, with, at least, equal respect and joy we should commemorate the birthday of our spiritual mother—the parish. Not only all present members of the parish are invited to this re-union, but all who were formerly members of this parish, or who have been in the past, in any way connected with this Church, are cordially invited to the re-union. There will be music and light refreshments will be served. No formal invitations have been issued. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. Owen J. N. Burness, are preparing special music for the services on the Sundays of "Anniversary Week." An increased appropriation for the music of the Church was made by the Vestry at the last meeting.

Mr. Burness has engaged several new "voices" and the congregation may expect superior music during the coming winter.

The furnaces in this Church have been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, at a considerable expense, and the Church is guaranteed by the contractor to be comfortably heated in the coldest weather.

There will, therefore, be no good cause for anyone being absent from Church on account of the cold weather, during the coming winter.

A New Organ Needed in Christ Church

One of the greatest needs of our parish is a new organ. The present organ, an unusually sweet toned instrument and well adapted for its day, is antiquated and wholly inadequate to the present. It has been in use in the Church for seventy years. It was formerly in the old Church building, which was destroyed in 1878. We need a new organ very badly. Who will give an organ? It would be a most fitting memorial at this time. Who is willing to start a "New Organ Fund"?

The Rector will be pleased to hear from any who may be interested.

The Church School

Our school opened its regular sessions on September 24th, with 161 present or 12 more than on Rally Day of last year. We have not at hand the number present at the Men's Bible Class and the Women's Class.

We regret that eight of our teachers have had to give up their work on account of illness, moving away or "getting married" during the summer, as did Miss Dorothy Manser and also Mr. Howard Feist, and we wish them a long and happy married life.

We welcome, as new teachers, Mrs. Breeding, Miss Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. Clausen; also Mrs. Wm. N. Johnson, who is helping us out temporarily.

We have added 20 new scholars since the school opened, among whom are two grandchildren of our former superintendent, Mr. George T. Morgan.

Over one half of our scholars have made up their arrears in the envelope offering due to being absent in the summer, but there are many that still have some envelopes to fill—we hope parents will help to have them all in by November 1st.

We will celebrate "The Seventieth Anniversary of Christ Church" by holding our special service in the Church on Sunday afternoon, November 19th, at 3.30. We will, at that time, present our anniversary offering and also bring our usual thanksgiving offering of can goods—vegetables and boxes of cereals for the poor and needy families in our community. Last year we gave about 700 cans and packages of food. Let us try and make it 800 this year. Begin and save up for them now and if we each bring in only four cans we will have the 800 easily. We want the parents of every scholar at this service also. Remember the date, Sunday afternoon, November 19th, at 3.30 o'clock.

The Pledge!

Boston, Mass.—In the weekly calendar of the Church of the Advent last week a parody written by the Rector, the Rev. William Harmon van Allen, S. T. D., D.D. Here is a poem that is timely for any church calendar:

NEXT SUNDAY IS PLEDGE DAY

"To pledge or not to pledge—that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in a man to gather
The Church's blessings free, and leave the others
To foot the bills and spread the gospel tidings
Or to take pen, to sign a pledge that's duplex
And share the cost. To write—to sign—to pledge—
To pledge—perchance to pay! Ay, there's the rub;
For in six months I may have lowered salary.
Stocks may have sunk, or bad investments swat me,
And then, besides, the increased cost of living
Must give me pause; then, too, there's the respect
I owe myself to run a costly motor;
The dues of clubs, the children off at college!

Why not content myself with casual giving
On pleasant Sundays when I journey churchward
And not commit myself to certain moneys?

WHY NOT? BECAUSE I DO NOT PROPOSE TO BE A SLACKER!"

The Woman's Auxiliary

At the first monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary which met in the parish house on September 29th, it was decided to change our schedule of meetings somewhat from that of last year, viz.—that the regular monthly business meeting will be held the 3rd Thursday in every month at 2.30 P. M. We shall hope to have speakers from the mission fields to talk to us from time to time during the year.

On the 4th Thursday we shall meet in the afternoon beginning at 12.30 to sew for missions. Last year owing to the renewed interest and help on the part of a number of the women of our parish, we were able to accomplish considerably more sewing than the previous year, but it is hoped that the work accomplished the ensuing year will greatly exceed even that of last year. This can only be done by the earnest and sincere co-operation of the women of Christ Church. Will you not bear these dates in mind and help us to make this a "banner year" for our branch of the Woman's Auxiliary?

Girls' Friendly Society

The opening meeting was held October 3rd and presented a picture good to look at. The program for the winter was laid out under the direction of the various committees appointed to take charge—as follows:

Officers—Chairman, Miss Edna Naegle; Treasurer, Miss Edith Johnson; Secretary, Miss Grace Gerhard.

Chairman, Committee on Devotions—Miss Georgiana Dean.

Chairman, Committee on Membership—Miss Alma Hagy.

Chairman, Committee on Entertainment—Miss Beatrice Sponer.

Chairman, Committee on Finance—Miss Sarah Clifton.

Miss Edith Johnson has arranged a basket ball team of which she is the captain.

The great work on hand now is the decorating and refurnishing the Girls' Friendly room under the able direction of Miss Edna Cave.

The girls have for a long time been planning ways and means for making a comfortable, cozy place for our meetings. The work is now begun and we hope to have many numbers added to our group this winter and we extend a hearty welcome to all girls over fourteen years of age to join our busy throng. Mrs. Mealy has become one of our associate members. We are soon to have our Neighborhood Conference and this year it will be held at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill.

The Mothers' Meeting

On October 10 our meetings were opened by attending a moving picture, and then repairing to an ice cream parlor. Our first meeting usually takes the form of some entertainment and then we settle down to work. We are working now to complete our donations to the Needle-Work Guild, but we are also ready to fill orders for aprons, towels and rugs. Orders for these articles will be gratefully received. It is planned to have a rummage sale the middle of November, the proceeds of which will be used for the Anniversary Fund. Will the members of the congregation remember us when they are clearing out their closets and send us everything for which they have no further use?

A Letter from the City Mission

The following letter is from the City Mission:

Phila., October 6th, 1922.

Rev. C. H. Arndt, D.D.,
Christ Church, Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts., Germantown, Pa.

My dear Dr. Arndt:

Will you kindly make the following announcement to your parishioners or publish this letter in your Parish paper:

Dear Friend—Clothes are needed, old or new, for the poor men, women and children of every district in Philadelphia. Please remember us when you are in your storeroom this fall.

Hopefully yours,

God Is Love

He rideth upon the storm,
In the thunder His voice is heard;
Then by a still, small voice
Cometh His gracious word.

As the loving Father of all,
He looketh from heaven above,
His "gentleness maketh us great,"
We know that "God is Love."

The Cult of The Adult

From the Council Address of the Rt. Rev. Chas. H. Brent, D.D.

We are calling this year "Children's Year." There has grown up in our Communion, without our conscious recognition, the Cult of the Adult. It has crippled us already, and unless it is abandoned, it will kill us. Disproportionate attention has been given to grown-ups, and the children have been granted a meagre second place. Few little ones even get the idea into their heads that the great services of the Church belong to them as much as to their seniors. The hasty Church school hour, with its brief and often slovenly service, is the crumb of religion which is all too often their portion. They should be taught that there is no separation in the mystical Body of Christ between young and old, and that however desirable it may be to have special services for the young, these are in no wise substitutes for the Liturgy of the Church, but a preparation for their intelligent appreciation of it.

Sunday by Sunday as I go from parish to parish it is seldom that I can recognize a family pew, seldom that I see a little head nestling to its mother's side. If we complain that our young folk find the golf course or the automobile more congenial on a summer morning than the church, it is in some measure due to the fact that the duty of worship has not been emphasized for the child and the meaning of its beauty and power has never been taught.

Even supposing the Cult of the Adult were in itself good, we have developed it badly. Let us unite in crushing it. Let us secure the co-operation of parents to restore in public worship the family group. Let the clergy work hard to make the service intelligible to the people, wings wherewith to carry worship upward to God, inspiration by which to become better followers of Christ.

Tomorrow

In the Land of Tomorrow, near the entrance-gate, two newly arrived spirits met, and looked each other in the face. One of them was a strong and beautiful spirit, with shining garments, and a face full of clear light; but the other was little and pinched and gray, and she trembled and cowered as she went.

"What ails you," asked the first spirit, "that you cower thus?"

"I am afraid!" answered the second. "It is all so strange here: I have no home, no friends and I am alone and frightened."

"That is strange!" said the strong spirit. "I never felt so at home before. Everything is friendly to my eyes; the very trees are as if I had known them always."

"Let me hold your hand!" said the frightened one. "You seem so strong, and tread so freely, I shall perhaps not be so afraid if I am with you. I was a great lady on the earth. I lived in a fine house, and had servants to run and ride for me, and jewels and rich dresses, and everything that heart could desire; yet I had to leave them all in haste, and come alone to this strange place. It is very terrible! Was it so with you?"

"Nay," said the other; "I came willingly."

The frightened spirit clung to the other, and peered in her face.

"Tell me!" she cried. "Did we ever meet on the earth? Your face is not only friendly, it is familiar. It is as if I had seen you often, yet none of the noble ladies I knew had such strength and grace. Who were you, beautiful angel?"

"I was your washerwoman!" said the other.—From the Golden Windows.

Do you know how to tell Real Ice Cream?

Many kinds of so-called ice cream are made today, either for the purpose of underselling others or in order to make an increased profit.

These grades are easily recognized by melting them down. Some will show a watery substance while others will be sticky, stringy.

Melt a good pure ice cream and you will have a rich creamy substance. That is REAL ICE CREAM—the kind we make. It is wholesome, recommended by physicians. The taste is most delicious.

Pure ice cream is more than a luxury, it is a food.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the Rector or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

THE SUCCESSFUL ANNIVERSARY

The services held during the week of November 19th to 26th, in commemoration of the Seventieth Anniversary of the founding of Christ Church Parish, were, in every respect, a great success. The attendance at all the services was very large. At the concluding service on Sunday evening, November 26th, the Church was crowded to the fullest capacity. The music, specially selected and prepared under the direction of the Choirmaster, Mr. Owen J. W. Burness, was beautifully rendered, and reflected great credit on the choir.

The thank-offering, including a special gift, amounted to over $2300.00.

The Rector wishes to express his grateful appreciation for the splendid co-operation of all parishioners who contributed in any way, to the success of the celebration.

The Rector and people of Christ Church are especially grateful to our guests on this occasion: The Rt. Rev. Lucien Lee Kinsolving, D. D., the Rev. Louis C. Washburn, D. D., the Rev. Norman Van P. Levis, D. D., Reynolds D. Brown, Esq., Mr. G. Frank Shelby, the Honorable Roland S. Morris and the Honorable George Wharton Pepper.

Looking back upon the eight days of the celebration of this anniversary, reviewing its methods of preparation, extending, as they did over many weeks, recalling the quiet services of special prayer, the daily Celebrations of the Holy Communion, which were attended by the faithful few, during Anniversary Week, it is not, at all, difficult to discover the source and cause of the hearty response on the part of our people, the large congregations at the services, the generous thank-offering that was presented on the altar and the uplifting, spiritual atmosphere which pervaded all the services.

The source and cause of the success of this Anniversary Celebration was prayer. The whole movement was begun, continued and ended in the spirit of prayer; and God has blessed, as He will always bless, the efforts of His people, who undertake any good cause in His name, for His sake, in His spirit and power.

The people of this Parish should thank God that He has heard their prayers and blessed their efforts.

And let each one pray that God's Holy Spirit may enter the heart of every member of this Parish and give us all a deeper consecration and a more complete personal surrender to the service of Christ and His Church.

CHRISTMAS

The religious character of Christmas should not be lost sight of, but should be strongly emphasized. It should be clearly borne in mind that Christmas is not a secular feast, but is distinctly a religious festival. The Day should, therefore, not be wholly given over to festivities and amusements, as harmless as these may be in themselves, but should be observed in a manner befitting its sacred associations. It should be a day of joyfulness, of holy Christian joyfulness, but not of frivolity. Well may this Day, on which the child Jesus was born, be a day peculiarly joyful to children, and the season of the happy gathering of families with father, mother and children worshipping together in the House of God, "of sending portions to those for whom nothing is prepared;" of gifts to the poor and of good-will to all men. This should be the spirit of Christmas, and the feasting, the merriment and the amusement must not be put in place of these. In other words, the religious observance of the Day must come first and be paramount in importance, or else the whole meaning of Christmas is lost. On the first Christmas morn "there was no room for Christ in the inn." Is there not danger today that we, too, will deny Him room; that our hearts and minds, and the hearts and minds of the children will be crowded full of the pleasures and occupations of the world and there will be found no room for Christ? Let each one, therefore, bear in mind the religious significance of Christmas Day and come into God's House and kneel before Him, and worship Him, Emmanuel, God with us.

LOVE—THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

What else should be in our thoughts at this most holy time, than the love of Christ? Of all the news that could be brought to us what so good as this, that unto us is born, as at this time, "a Saviour which is Christ the Lord?" God's love toward man, man's love toward God—this is the Christmas message, Love, Love, Love! "God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten Son." "If God so loved us, we ought to love one another."

At this Christmas season, this season of "Love," the apostle's command must be literally obeyed or else the spirit of Christmas cannot enter into our hearts:

"Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice; and be ye kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God, for Christ's sake, hath forgiven you."

If this is the spirit, the "spirit of Jesus," that shall possess our hearts this Christmas time, then indeed it will be to all who possesseth it a happy, a truly happy Christmas Day.

CHRISTMAS COMMUNION

On Christmas Day every Churchman will wish to come to the House of God and there, as did the wise men of old, kneel before the Saviour in love and adoration. Christmas without Christ?—no Christian man or woman will cherish the thought! The very word "Christmas" means with Christ. Christmas is not a worldly holiday but a Christian festival. It is the feast when the Christ—Mass, the mass of the Incarnate Word, is kept with joy. Surely on that day we will not forget Him! The wise men brought gold and frankincense and myrrh to Bethlehem—offering of their earthly substance, offerings of lowly penitence and love for Him in His humiliation for our sakes. On this happy Christmas Day there will be gifts for our loved ones; offerings for our spiritual mother, the Church; and offerings also of "ourselves, our souls and bodies" in the Holy Communion for the building up of ourselves more and more into the spiritual likeness of Him Who came to us on Christmas Day to be our Saviour and our King.

A GIFT TO THE POOR

In commemoration of the seventieth anniversary of the founding of Christ Church a gift of $700.00 was presented to the parish by the family of the late John and Jane Davidson. This sum is to be invested by the Vestry of the Church, income of which is to be used for the relief of the poor of the parish.

This is a thoughtful and beautiful act, on the part of grateful children, inspired by the memory of Christian parents, who, during their lifetime, set examples to their families of self sacrificing service and generous acts of charity to the poor and needy.

Surely, in such a gift is fulfilled the meaning of the apostle's words: "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord; for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

FLOWERS ON THE ALTAR

The Flowers that are placed on the altar from Sunday to Sunday are in memory of some dear one who has been called to Paradise. The Sunday nearest to the day of birth, or the day of death, is generally selected. Persons in the congregation who wish to place flowers on the altar in memory of a departed friend may apply to the Rector and he will be pleased to arrange with them for a definite "Memorial Sunday."

After the service the flowers are taken to the sick.

A great blessing comes to both the Church and those sick and shut-in, through the distribution of the flowers from the altar after the services. Nothing touches the hearts of those afflicted so much as to have some flowers that have been blessed with service on the altar. "And he gathers the prayers as he stands And they turn into flowers in his hands, Into garlands of purple and red, And beneath the great arch of the portal, Midst the streets of the City Immortal, Is wafted the fragrance they shed."

"Longfellow's Sandalphon."

NEW PUBLISHER

FOR THE CHIMES

The publication of THE CHIMES has been changed. During the coming year THE CHIMES will be published by the Germantown Guide, an old, well-known and reliable establishment. Under the new publisher our readers may expect a neat and carefully published paper.

In this connection the announcement is made that the business management of THE CHIMES will be in charge of Mr. Frederick Lennig. Subscriptions to THE CHIMES begin with this number. The subscription price is fifty cents; sent by mail sixty cents. THE CHIMES should receive the support of every member of the Parish. Subscriptions and contributions may be sent to Mr. Frederick Lennig at his business address, 827 Spring Garden Street; telephone number, "Market 4042." Subscribe now! "Bis dat qui cito dat!"

Attention of our readers is called to the firms who advertise in THE CHIMES. They are a selected list and represent the best firms in their respective lines of business. The readers of THE CHIMES are recommended to patronize these firms and thus confer a mutual benefit. When you make your purchases, say to these firms, "We saw it in THE CHIMES."

A MEMORIAL PAINTING

IN CHRIST CHURCH

On Christmas Eve, before the Midnight Celebration of the Holy Communion, an oil painting, copy of Hoffman's celebrated picture, "Come unto Me," will be unveiled and consecrated by the Rector. The painting is a memorial to Mrs. Helen Butler Falkner, wife of Rev. John B. Falkner, D. D., late Rector of Christ Church, and is a gift of her children. The painting is by an Italian artist, of Philadelphia, Giovanni Scarinci, who has done much ecclesiastical painting in this city and in New York.

SERVICES ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Services on Christmas Day will be as follows: Holy Communion 6.30, 7.30 a. m. Shortened Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and sermon at 11.00 o'clock.

The offering at all services on Christmas Day will be for our apportionment for the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund.

CONFIRMATION CLASS FORMING

Instruction on Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church will be begun by the Rector after the holidays. Persons who are thinking of Confirmation are requested to give their names to the Rector. He may be seen in the Church after any service, or by appointment at the Rectory.

HOLY COMMUNION, AT MIDNIGHT, CHRISTMAS EVE

On Sunday evening, December 24th, the usual Evening Prayer at 7.45 will be omitted and there will be a Midnight Celebration of the Holy Communion on that evening, Christmas Eve, beginning at 11.15 o'clock.

The Church will be open all evening for meditation and private devotion.

CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE

CHRISTMAS EVE

The Christmas Carol Service of the Church Schools will be held in the Church on Sunday afternoon, December 24th, at 3.30. The Schools will assemble in the Parish House at three o'clock and will march into the Church, carrying their banners and singing the processional Christmas carol.

The address to the School will be given by Mr. Arthur B. Vossler, lay reader in Christ Church and teacher of the Men's Bible Class. Mr. Vossler was formerly Educational Director of the Northern Province of Peru. He is now studying for Holy Orders under the direction of the faculty of the Divinity School in Philadelphia and expects to be ordained to the diaconate in the Spring.

CHURCH SCHOOLS CHRISTMAS

The Primary Department of the Church School will hold their Christmas tree entertainment in the Parish House on Holy Innocents Day, December 28th, at half past three o'clock.

The Upper School and Bible Classes will hold their Christmas Entertainment in the school room on the evening of the same day, at eight o'clock. Word has been received from headquarters that Santa Claus will surely be present at both entertainments.

A LETTER FROM THE ANNIVERSARY COMMITTEE

The committee appointed for directing the Thank-offering and the distribution of the shares wish to express their sincere appreciation for the loyal support they received.

The wish of the Committee was that the offering should be entirely a free-will expression of thankfulness, on the part of the members of the parish, for the blessings which they have received from Christ Church and their willingness to pass on these blessings to others. It was not desired that the offering should be, in any way, the result of a "drive," or have a resemblance of one.

The result has been most gratifying. The amount subscribed now runs over $1600, with an additional $725.00 for a special thank-offering, making a total of almost $2400.

Substituting service for dollars and cents, it was, indeed, a wonderful, spontaneous response on the part of about 250 people.

Gratefully yours,

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. has been invited to form a basketball team to join the League which is composed of eight teams, playing every other Friday night in the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium.

Margaret Courtney is the captain of the Christ Church team and they play their first game against Calvary G. F. S. on Friday, December 8th.

The Christmas basket will be filled and stockings made ready to gladden some little hearts. This is the season when the G. F. S. finds abundant opportunity to carry out the teachings of its motto: "Bear ye one another's burdens."

The girls gave their services during Anniversary Week, first as waitresses at the men's dinner, and second to assist the hostesses at the Parish Reunion. They turned out in goodly numbers at the Sunday night service and are working now on a Movie Benefit to raise money to carry on their work. This is a live crowd of girls—with expansion in their minds and a readiness to render service whenever possible.

A LETTER FROM THE
ACCOUNTING WARDEN

The Accounting Warden has been frequently asked as to the method of meeting the obligations of the Church in the different assessments to the work of the Diocese outside of our own immediate Parish. We are asked to send for this work for the year 1922—$3300. To date there has been received and sent about $2200. The only way the members of the Parish can contribute towards this amount is by using the right-hand side of the duplex envelope. None of the offering in the left-hand side is used for this purpose, as the offerings placed therein are for Parish purposes only. It is therefore earnestly asked that a more general use of the missionary side of the envelope be made that the amount asked for from our Parish may be obtained, so that we can contribute our share in the great work of the Church in extending within our Diocese the message of the Gospel to those less fortunate than ourselves. As has been so often stated during the anniversary which we have just celebrated, we are enjoying the heritage left to us by the earnest and consecrated members of Christ Church in times past. Cannot we hope to leave a like heritage to others by our generous gifts towards the extension of the Church's work in the mission field, both at home and abroad?

There is another assessment other than the missionary assessment, made on each Church in the Diocese for the Episcopal and Convention Fund. This assessment on our Parish for the year 1922 is $533.52. This amount must be paid each year. Otherwise we lose our standing as a Parish in the Diocese and are deprived of representation in the Diocesan Convention. The amount of this assessment is paid directly from the income of the Parish for general expenses and is distinct and separate from the amount asked for Diocesan missions.

EDWARD BAINS,
Accounting Warden.

DO YOUR SHARE IN THE SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH

There are recorded on the books of Christ Church three hundred and ten names of persons who subscribe through the envelope system. Most of these are faithful in keeping up their payments. This is a little less than one-half the number of communicants in the Parish. The other half give little or nothing to the support of the Church and its missions. This is unjust—unjust to the Church, unjust to those who are trying to do their duty, unjust to those who do not share in the responsibility and privilege of helping!

Now that the pews and sittings in Christ Church are all free and unassigned and the support of the Church and its philanthropies are dependent upon the voluntary offering of the worshippers, every one, surely, should recognize his or her personal responsibility and duty to share in this work and to give regularly, systematically and conscientiously as God has blessed each. There can be no better time to measure up to our Christian duty and privilege and to begin to do our full share in the way of Christian giving than now, at this Season of Advent. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibules or be procured from the Verger. Let each member of every family fill out an individual card, subscribing something for parish support and something for missions. Place the card on the a'ins plate at any service and a package of envelopes will be sent to the name and address on the card.

These pledges being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or withdrawn at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is clipped from one of our exchanges. "Do you think that this Church fills a vital need in our community? If so, ought you not to help support it?"

"We all of us have our little excuses for not pledging. 'We will give regularly when we go to church, but not a regular pledge.' Yet we give regularly and systematically to our country in taxes, to our social organizations and to our own family for their needs. Do not these excuses place a light value on what the Church means to us; the Church perhaps which christened, confirmed or married us, which gives Christian education to our children, and to which we may look in our last hour for its final care and blessing?"

"Can we stand aside and regard all these inestimable privileges simply as free social obligations, and yet enjoy all the blessings which the Church gives to us and our community?"

"Our aim is to have everyone pledging—not some giving all, but all giving something."

MR. FALKNER RESIGNS FROM THE VESTRY

Owing to his removal from the city, Mr. Francis B. Falkner, a life-long member of the parish, has resigned from the Vestry. His resignation was accepted with great regret and the following resolutions were offered and passed at the last meeting of the Vestry.

WHEREAS, at the meeting of the Vestry of Christ Church, on Tuesday evening, October 10th, 1922, Mr. Francis B. Falkner handed in his resignation as a member of the Vestry and, consequent'y, as Secretary of that body, to take effect November first next, and

WHEREAS Mr. Falkner has been a member of Christ Church Parish for forty-eight years, during which time he has been a member of the Vestry for twenty-two years and Secretary of that body for nineteen years, therefore be it

Resolved that the Vestry of this Church place on record their appreciation of Mr. Falkner and their deep regret at the severance of the ties which have bound him to us for so many years. As a boy in the Sunday School and, subsequently, as a teacher in that organization, he was one of the faithful, regular in his attendance and devoted to the work. As a member of the Parish he was always to be found in his place in the Church and was a notable example as a devout worshipper at most of the services. As a member of the Vestry he showed the same regularity in his attendance, quiet in his manner and impartial in his views, his counsel was always valued in the deliberations. As a Secretary he was invaluable. He was an authority on the By-Laws and Constitution of the Church, his minutes were clear and concise and represented the proceedings in all their details fully.

Courteous and friendly in his manner, he takes with him the good will and affection of all his associates and his absence will be sincerely regretted by all.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

May I send this little notice for the December issue of THE CHIMES to remind the women of our Church that the business meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary is held the third Thursday in each month at 2 p. m., and that the "Sewing for Missions," the fourth Thursday, beginning at 2.30 p. m. We shall be glad to welcome anyone at either of these meetings, who is not now actively engaged in the work of the Auxiliary. It is our earnest desire to broaden and increase our Parish branch of this missionary work, and it can only be done by the united interest and loyal support on the part of every woman of our Church.

Two weeks ago, a woman in our Parish came to me and asked to be informed about the Auxiliary work; she said she knew nothing of it, whatsoever. After an hour's talk she willingly consented to do some sewing for missions at her own home—as she is unable to attend our monthly meetings on account of business). She said that she wanted to be identified with some special thing in the Church. The interest and enthusiasm which this person is now showing in our Auxiliary since that talk is most encouraging to us. I only wish that many other women of our Parish would hear the "Call for Service" also and help us in this wonderful work.

Our Apron, Cake and Candy Sale, held on December 2nd, at the Parish House, netted us about $60.00. I would like to add a word of gratitude and thanks to the women of our Auxiliary who made this sale the success that it was.

L. M. ROBINSON.

MOTHERS' MEETINGS

The meetings on Tuesday afternoons are well attended and much work is being done. We are busy with our usual work of making aprons, towels and rag rugs, orders for which may be given to any members of the Meeting and will be much appreciated.

Our yearly contribution to the Needle Work Guild consisted of thirty-eight articles—rompers, baby dresses, baby wrappers, children's petticoats, etc. To this was added a money contribution from a friend.

Mrs. James H. Eckersley and Mrs. Charles A. Thompson have very kindly consented to help in the work, so that with their assistance, and with the continued interest of Mrs. F. O. Pinkerton, we are looking forward to a winter of usefulness and pleasure. H. F. A.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild resumed its regular monthly business meetings on Monday evening, October 9th. We have been very busy during the past month arranging for All Saints, Anniversary and Thanksgiving Day Services. At the next meeting plans will be made for Christmas. We will meet at the Church on Saturday morning, December 23rd, at ten o'clock, to decorate.

The Serving Committees will be on duty as follows:

December 29th to January 5th: Misses Manser, E. Thompson, M. Thompson.

January 5th to January 12th: Misses Chase, Strein.

January 12th to January 19th: Misses Mogridge, Wismer, Cooley, Mrs. Mogridge.

January 19th to January 26th: Misses Dean, Crowder.

GEORGEANNA F. DEARN.

CHURCH CALENDAR FOR 1923

Persons who wish to purchase one or more Christ Church Calendars, showing a picture of the Church, the selected lessons for the year and the colors for the Church seasons, may apply to the Verger. They make an appropriate Christmas remembrance. A Church Calendar should be in every home in the Parish.

ANNIVERSARY CERTIFICATES

The Committee is issuing certificates, a very pretty souvenir of the Seventieth Anniversary to persons who subscribed for shares on that occasion. It is impossible for the Committee to reach everybody and those who subscribed and wish a certificate are requested to apply to Mr. Frederick Lennig, 316 High Street, Germantown.

BAPTISMS

"In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

October 8—Jane Elizabeth Barthell.
October 15—Marian Mauser.
October 29—Mortimer Crane Love.
November 12—Isabel Margaret Kernaghan.
November 12—Edward Anderson Siefken.
December 10—Jeanne Eleanor Ewing.

MARRIAGES

"Those whom God hath joined together, let no man put asunder."

September 30—Howard Needham Feist and Jessie Minerva Hance.
October 21—Edmund Milton Hallowell and Deretta Sands.
October 24—Thomas Whyte, Jr., and Ezme Brownlow.
October 24—Frank Hilands McDonald and Mildred Leigh Brownlow.
November 4—Thomas MacKellar Armstrong and Frieda Clara Miller.

BURIALS

"Looking for the General Resurrection in the last day and the life of the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ."

November 1—Amos G. Moore.
November 20—Emma Louisa Vandegrift.
December 12—William Isaac Burkhart.

On Sunday evening, December 31st, the last day of the year, the Church service will be held at the usual hour, 7.45 o'clock.
The usual Midnight Service on New Year's Eve will be omitted this year.

The Church will be open, however, all evening until after midnight.

Persons are invited to come to the Church on that evening for private prayers and devotions.

BOY SCOUTS PLANT TREES

After their annual banquet held in the Parish House, November 10th, Christ Church Troop of the Boy Scouts planted two sugar maple trees in front of the Parish House on McCallum Street. This is a very commendable act on the part of the Boy Scouts and the example should be followed by other societies in the parish.

MUSIC ON CHRISTMAS DAY

The music in Christ Church on Christmas Day will be as follows:

Processional, "Oh Come, All Ye Faithful"; Venite, Monk; Glorias, Savage; Te Deum in B flat, John E. West; Introit
Hymn, "It Came upon the Midnight Clear"; Com. Ser. in E flat, Scott-Hunter; Anthem, "Behold I Bring You Good Tidings," Goss; Recessional, "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."

CHRISTMAS GREENS

Contributions for Christmas Greens to decorate the church are solicited and may be sent to Richard H. Morris.

The work of decorating the Church for Christmas will be in charge of the young men of the St. Christopher's Guild.

Christmas occurs on Monday this year.
It will be necessary, therefore, to decorate the Church before the fourth Sunday in Advent.

INSPIRATION OF AN
EVERY MEMBER CAMPAIGN

There is something inspiring in the thought that on last Sunday afternoon, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Canadian border to the Gulf, a whole army of Churchmen went out to call on other Churchmen in order to enlist their sympathy and their support for the Church, locally and nationally.

Those who were invited to assist in making the calls may rightly feel that they are recognized as of the aristocracy of the Church; those called to a position of leadership and bound to recognize the force of Noblesse oblige. Their work was one of signal honor. They were the representatives, the mouthpieces of the Church.

And the public meetings that have been held in so many cities in the same interest help to mould the Church together and assist all phases of Church work.

Altogether apart from the pledges of money and of time that were made, the systematic visitation of substantially the whole membership of the Church in a single afternoon is a magnificent thing to attempt and a splendid thing to accomplish even measurably. Alas for the spiritual poverty of those congregations that were unwilling to join in the general response to the call made upon them by the national Church!—The Living Church.

Do you know how to tell Real Ice Cream?

Many kinds of so-called ice cream are made today, either for the purpose of underselling others or in order to make an increased profit. These grades are easily recognized by melting them down. Some will show a watery substance while others will be sticky, stringy. Melt a good pure ice cream and you will have a rich creamy substance. That is REAL ICE CREAM—the kind we make. It is wholesome, recommended by physicians. The taste is most delicious. Pure ice cream is more than a luxury, it is a food.

A LETTER FROM THE RECTOR

Christ Church Rectory,
Lent 1923.

My Dear Friends:

Once again the call of Lent is sounding in our ears, bringing with it its message of unspeakable solemnity to every soul which will hearken. Lent succeeds Lent with a rapidity which almost startles us as the years fly by, and each one brings us nearer to the long ages of that eternity which is so very near to us,—so much nearer that we are yet able to realize.

Let us begin this Lent in the most earnest prayer to the Holy Spirit for His guidance and blessing upon what we are going to undertake. So much depends upon prayerful preparation. The great Sower will sow His seed now, as always, with the most liberal hand; but its fruitfulness will depend upon the preparation of the ground of the heart. Are we convinced that prayer is the one power which can command the graces of God, and that nothing good and lasting can be done without it? No matter if at the present moment you feel cold and lifeless, and disinclined for the necessary effort; it is prayer that will remedy this. Go to God and tell Him exactly how you feel. Put all your trust, not in yourself, but in what you know that He is able to give you. This very disinclination is often a sign that He means to do great things for you, and that He wants you to recognize that it is He Who has done it. Have you not found that the most blessed Lents in your past life have been those in which you have been most conscious of your weakness at the beginning, but about which you have prayed very earnestly? Let us begin this Lent and continue and end it in the spirit of more earnest prayer.

There is something indescribable about this season of Lent, something which cannot be explained by the mere fact of the extra services and our own penitential discipline, something which I have recognized and wondered at and rejoiced in for very many years; it is like the touch of another world upon the darkness and worldliness of our present lives. It is a wilderness, but the wilderness has blossomed like the rose. It is often a hard and wearisome way, but there are visions of the Heavenly country. What can this mean but the "unction of the Holy One," and the magnet power of the cross? There is nothing more certain than this to all who have experienced this atmosphere of Lent. God is always near us, but then He makes His nearness felt, because He sees us really trying to draw near to Him.

But this drawing nigh unto God is not merely the effect of prayer; it is also brought about by strictness of life, and the voluntary acceptance of the cross. There can be no blessing upon a Lent in which self-discipline does not hold a very foremost place. The ordinary means are fasting and works of mortification; all earnest Churchmen will want to use these means, but, for those who cannot for reasons of health practise these, there must, at least, be a real renunciation of the world, and of the luxuries of life, however harmless in themselves. It is impossible to exaggerate the spiritual effect of this voluntary treading the way of the cross. Its influence is felt at once; the scales of worldliness drop from our eyes, the heavenly vision becomes clearer, the interior life is invigorated and new possibilities of holiness open out before the soul. Can we afford to throw away one of life's great opportunities for the sake of a little self-indulgence and personal ease? Has not long experience taught us that these have never brought us real happiness or satisfaction? God is the only true end and joy of the soul. When shall we learn this, and give ourselves up without reserve to seek Him? I pray that the hearts of the men and women—and the children, too—of Christ Church will be inspired by the Holy Spirit to make this Lenten Season an occasion of real sacrifice, of unselfish devotion, of a deepening of the spiritual life of the soul. This we can do only by using the Divine Means of Grace which our Saviour has bequeathed unto us,—fasting, prayer and Sacrament.

Affectionately, your friend and Rector,
CHARLES HENRY ARNDT.

THE EVERY MEMBER CANVASS WHAT IS IT?

While the Chimes is going to press, an "Every Member Canvass," or as one of our members prefers to speak of it, an Every Member "Call" is being made throughout this parish. A similar canvass or "call" is being made, practically in every parish, in every diocese in the land. What does this canvass mean? What is its purpose? This canvass, which is being held throughout the length and breadth of the land is "a call," it is "a challenge" to every member of the Church to do his or her Christian duty. That is all. It is "a call" to every member, as distinct and as clear as the Master's call was to Andrew and Peter. This canvass or "call" is the outward and visible part of a spiritual movement.

This fact may be questioned by some, because the apparent object of the canvass is to raise money. Even though the money is to be used for the propagation of the Gospel and other high purposes, it would be more frank, some think, to simply state the needs and the amount of money required to meet them.

The object of the canvass is not to raise money, but rather to raise the level of the regular giving of the members of the Church. A campaign for a fund has no permanent effect and involves no permanent change of heart. Temporary larger giving is likely only to do harm. It would be permanent only as it is the expression of more widespread and deeper interest and devotion. And such a change of heart in every member of the Church is distinctly a spiritual matter, and this is the primary aim.

There were some who argued that the canvass ought to be strictly spiritual and that no mention should be made of money at all. But the stirring of conscience and heart is almost surely injurious rather than beneficial unless an outlet be afforded for the concrete expression of the awakened spirit of sacrifice.

Now, then, if this canvass is, primarily a spiritual movement, dependent for success upon a spiritual change in the Church, its chief reliance must be, not in organization and methods, however essential these are in a campaign, but in faith and prayer.

If this is God's work, if the awakening of the Church to a fuller sense of its duty and privilege in prosecuting the Church's mission is what God desires, then the most powerful and essential factor in the problem is prayer.

Prayer, Christian prayer, is not merely asking for something. It is a power put into our hands through which we can enlist divine power for the furtherance of purposes in accord with God's will.

If all the members of the Church were to offer sincere prayers, publicly and privately, that God would give them the mind that was in Christ Jesus, a complete conception of their duty, a genuine missionary spirit, disposition to offer themselves literally as a living sacrifice, who could doubt the quick coming of a spiritual revolution in the Church? Who could doubt there would be an offering of men and means in such abundance as to make possible the rapid winning of the world to Christ and the right solving of all the problems of human darkness and misery.

There must be faith in God, faith in His promises, faith in the presence and help of Jesus Christ, Who promised to be with His Church unto the end of the world, faith in the guidance and inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

If we had this simple faith, we would put aside our doubts and fears and enter cheerfully and bravely upon any high adventure to which the Church calls us. We would refuse to attach weight to considerations which make us fear that projects are impossible merely because they seem improbable from the standpoint of former experience.

Can it be that we are timid because we have not learned to put faith in anything higher than ourselves and human methods?

Why not take God at His word? Why not believe that God can wake up the indifferent, that God can convert the unfaithful, that God can make us appreciate the joy of making sacrifices for Him?

If we will only pray hard enough and work hard enough, success is not only probable, it is absolutely certain. This is not merely theory, it has been proved hundreds of times.

Only a praying Church can accomplish anything and to a church whose members are praying members nothing is impossible.

Not everyone can take an active part in the work, but everyone can pray.

Let every one, every one who is a member of this Parish, every one who considers himself to be a follower of the Master, let every one do his or her full duty—pray, labor and give, then God will bring the blessing.

"Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which He had given thee."

Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. Let us pray:

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who hast promised Thy presence and power to all who obey Thy command to tell the nations of Thy love, bless we pray Thee our effort to strengthen and extend the work of our Parish. To all who shall take any part in our plans give wisdom and zeal. Bind our people in a closer fellowship. If any have grown careless, help us to lead them back to Thy house that their love for Thee may be renewed. Teach us to pray, labor and give more faithfully for the extension of Thy Kingdom among men. Of Thy mercy we ask this, O Blessed Saviour of the World, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

O Almighty and Eternal God; We humbly pray Thee for Thy holy Church throughout all the world; that we and all its members being inspired with living faith and love, may earnestly strive to promote the honor due to Thy dear Son, and the gathering of wanderers into His fold. Give us grace to fulfil in our lives what we profess with our lips. Deliver us from false doctrine and slackness of living; and grant that, persevering unto the end, we may obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Thou Great Searcher of all hearts, show Thy strength in my weakness, confirm me in my good purpose, and bind it with cords unto Thine Altar.

Give me strength to do what Thou requirest, and then require of me what Thou pleasest. Amen.

CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTION

The Rector is organizing the annual Confirmation Class. Instruction on Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church begin on Sunday afternoon, February 4th, at four o'clock (for minors) and on Ash Wednesday evening, February 14th, at eight o'clock (for adults).

The classes will be held in the Parish House, and all, both confirmed and unconfirmed, are invited to attend.

THE REV. DR. CALEY'S LECTURES

Every one who had the privilege of attending the course of lectures given in this Parish last Lent by the Rev. Llewellyn N. Caley, D. D., will be glad to learn that he has consented to give another course of illustrated lectures this Lent in our Parish House. The subject of these illustrated lectures as announced in another column of this issue of the "Chimes," will be "The Story of the Church."

The lectures will be given every Friday Evening in Lent (Good Friday excepted) beginning, Friday February 16. Shortened form of Evening Prayer will be held in the Parish House Chapel, beginning promptly at 7.45. The lecture, which will be given in the Gymnasium, will follow immediately after this service, which all are invited to attend.

"KNOW YOUR OWN DIOCESE!"

Every one should know about the great missionary work that is being done by our Church in this city and in this diocese of Pennsylvania. Clergymen, who are in charge of the various institutions in this city,—viz. the "Seamen's Mission," the "Farm School for Boys," "Work Among the Pioneers," "Work Among the Foreign Born," "Work Among the Jews," have agreed to come to Christ Church Sunday evenings in Lent and tell our people of their experience in these important departments of the Church's missionary work in this diocese. No one should miss this opportunity. Everyone should Know Your Own Diocese. For further details see page 5 of this issue.

A LETTER FROM THE WARDEN

The accounting warden is glad to report that, owing to the generous response to the appeal of the Rector at Christmas time, Christ Church for the first time in its history joins those churches in the Diocese who have fully met their missionary apportionment for 1922. The amount asked was $3301.97. The amount remitted was $3,417.12.

Sunday Evenings in Lent. Addresses by Special Speakers.

A course of unusually interesting and instructive addresses will be given in Christ Church, on Sunday evenings in Lent on the general subject, "the Missionary Work that is being done in this diocese of Pennsylvania," which includes the city of Philadelphia and near lying districts. Our Church is doing a great missionary work in this diocese, which a large majority of church people know nothing about. The work is so great and comprehensive in its scope that it is impossible to include it all within the Sunday evenings in Lent. The Rector has selected five departments of this great work and has invited the clergy, who have charge of these departments of diocesan work to come and tell us something of what is being done in their respective fields. This course will be of unusual interest to every member of the Church and will afford every one an opportunity to learn something of the great work the Church is doing in the city of Philadelphia and vicinity. The course will begin on the first Sunday evening in Lent, February 18th. Attend the entire course. Resolve, this Lent, to begin to Know Your Own Diocese.

Sunday, February 18th, "Church Work Stockman, Chaplain Seamen's Mission. Among Seamen," the Rev. Percy R.

Sunday, February 25th "Church Work Among Boys," the Rev. Charles W. Shreiner. In charge "Church Farm School for Boys."

Sunday, March 4th, "Church Work Among the Prisoners." Rev. Alfred M. Smith. City Mission Staff.

Sunday, March 11th, "Church Work Among the Foreign Born." The Rev. Elliot White, Archdeacon of Work Among the Foreign Born.

Sunday, March 18th, "Church Work Among the Jews." Rev. J. L. Zacher, Rector Jewish Christian Synagogue, Philadelphia.

The above apportionment has however been largely increased for the year 1923. To maintain only the present work of the church, we are asked to send $4,900. If the full forward program of the Church as decided upon at the convention held in Portland, Ore., last September is to be fully carried out, $3,200 more would be required, or $8,100 in all. While this amount seems large, the best efforts of the Parish should be exerted that the work of the Church should be supported. As the results of the past year were realized by offerings from only about 25% of the registered members of the Parish, how much greater results could be attained if each and every member's contributions may be furnished.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The next regular business monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the Parish House on Thursday, February 15, at 2 o'clock.

During Lent, as is customary, we will sew for Missions every Thursday afternoon, beginning at 12.30. The reason for beginning at this hour is to make it possible for everyone interested to come for at least part of the afternoon if they cannot give the full time.

We earnestly trust that many of the women of our Parish will take an especial interest in this work during this Lenten Season in order that we may be able to succeed in accomplishing our "quota" of sewing. At present we are very much in arrears with the work.

Perhaps there are some persons in Christ Church who would be willing to knit a sweater to send to the mission fields, if so, will you kindly give your name to the writer so that wool and instructions may be furnished you.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

With the advent of 1923 the Men's Bible Class started off with a new line of officers consisting of Herbert A. Feist, President; Robert Carmint, Vice President; John M. Boynton, Secretary; Gerald R. Morse, Treasurer and James Carmint, Jr. Frederick Lennig, Dr. J. C. Courtney and Charles H. Jackson, members of the Executive Committee. It is too early to make any detailed statement as to the plans for the year but with the next issue of the "Chimes" more definite information will be at hand.

One item of interest may be mentioned, namely, that Mr. Lennig has been appointed chairman of the Attendance Committee and when he gets on the trail of some man who is not a member of the Class, or who is not regular in attendance, the defendant needs a very strong alibi before he goes free.

Without boasting and with due respect for the responsibility incurred, it may be said that few, if any, classes in our city have a Leader equal to the man who is Sunday by Sunday bringing home some valuable lesson to the men of our Class, Mr. Arthur B. Vossler, who is also Lay Reader in Christ Church and preparing for the Ministry, is a teacher by profession and spent several years in South America reorganizing the public school system of Peru.

A very interesting and instructive course of study was begun on Advent Sunday when the "Collects of the Church Year," were taken up. Since then the Collect for each Sunday has been discussed by Mr. Vossler in a masterly manner and with much benefit to the men who have been fortunate enough to be present. With the season of Lent upon us many men in our Parish could make the Men's Class an opportunity for closer study of the lessons the Church would have us learn and it is hoped that many will avail themselves of the privilege.

The Class meets in the Parish House every Sunday morning at 9.45 and a cordial invitation is extended to all men in this community to identify themselves with it.

A MISSION FAIR

The Church School will hold a Fair and Entertainment on Friday, February 9th from 4 until 10 P. M., in the Parish House.

There will be booths for cake and candy, ice cream and other eats, also there will be a fancy work booth, so you can buy your presents for next Christmas, a fish pond and a Fortune teller. At 7.30 a baby Parade and show by the Primary Department. At 8 o'clock a Japanese dance; 9 o'clock a Minstrel Show; 9.30 a dance for all in the gymnasium.

The receipts are to help the School's fund for Mission Work.

We invite and want every parent and friend of the school to come.

Remember the date; Friday, February 9th from 4 until 10 P. M.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

A report of the School for 1922 was made to the vestry and also to the school on the first Sunday of January, so that parents of each scholar may see what we have done, its report follows:

Offerings;

Missions (1st Sunday in month)	$171.09
($6.00 more than 1921 and twice that of 1919)
General Fund given to Church ($27.00 more than 1921 and twice that of 1919).	603.70
Lenten Mite Boxes (1921 was $253.74).	275.00 school by coming regularly. This has been done at the request of both teachers and scholars, who take pride in having a "Star Class," that is every member present.

The record of "Star Classes for the year is;

No. 1 Miss Johnson's class 14 times

No. 2. Mr. Parker's class 14 times

No. 3. Mrs. Johnson's class 9 times

Many other classes were "Star" several times.

Our Christmas Entertainment was better than ever before because nearly every member took part; each class providing some feature of entertainment. Six Judges were appointed and a prize was awarded to the boys class and to the girls class who did best. Mr. Clausen's class of boys and Mrs. Clausen's class of girls walked off with the prizes, but the Judges gave "Honorable Mention" to each class. We are going to repeat this kind of an entertainment again and several classes have given notice already that "next time the prize is ours." For 1923 we are going to all work together so that the school "Day by day in every way will be growing better and better."

VESTRY MEETING

At the regular meeting of the vestry held on January 7th, the following minute was adopted, "That the Secretary be instructed to prepare a report of the actions taken at each meeting and the same to be printed in the Christ Church Chimes."

The Finance Committee reported that the accounts of the warden up to June 22nd 1922 had been audited and found correct.

The chairman of the Missionary committee reported plans were unnecessary for a campaign before Lent.

The Property Committee reported that the improved heating system in the church was very satisfactory.

Voted:—That hereafter the fiscal year of the church (now from June 1st to June 1st) be changed to correspond with the Calendar year.

Voted—That inasmuch as announcements had been made that the Christmas offering would be for both the "Clergy Pension Fund," and for our "Missionary Appointment," that one half of the offering be given to each object.

Voted:—To appropriate a sum not to exceed $200 to provide chairs for the Sunday School room.

Voted:—To adopt the following Budget for 1923:

Estimated Receipts
From Envelopes	$5,000.00
From Plate offerings	700.00

THE MOTHER'S MEETING

The Christmas dinner was given for the Mothers' Meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 9.

Before proceeding to the gymnasium, which had been converted into a dining room, we assembled in our regular meeting room where we sung a few hymns, and where the directresses were presented by the members with beautiful scarfs, which were greatly appreciated by the recipients.

A line of march was formed and we entered the dining room singing, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

A delicious dinner was served by the ladies, after which poems and selections were read by different members of the meeting. And then we had a "trick man," who performed most interesting feats of converting money out of thin air and many other incomprehensible tricks.

Mr. Arndt made a few remarks in which he called attention to our loss, through death, of two of our members, Mrs. Frederick Carter and Mrs. Henrietta Straub. Mrs. Carter on account of ill health had not been able to be with us very regularly for the past year or two, but it was very seldom that Mrs. Straub was not with us, and we shall miss her greatly.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. of Christ Church is nearing the end of its work laid out last fall and are now making their plans for their Lenten work which this year will be for Deaconess Lucy Nelson Carter's work at St. Mary's Mission (Indian) at Nixon, Nevada.

These fore-going months we have worked and played, we have earned money to fit up our room in the Parish House, to do our part toward the Social Service work we have found to do in our midst and we will end our pleasures with a Valentine Dance, Tuesday, February the 13th in the Parish House.

Six new members joined our happy little band January 23rd. Nine members will receive membership pins at the initiation service Sunday, January 28th. A senior membership branch will be started with four members of five years standing. A movement is on foot to form a candidate's class for girls under the age of 14, the age required for admission to the Girls' Friendly Society.

This is "a consummation devoutly to be wished for." There should be an organization of these younger girls to stand as a feeder for the G. F. S. as its members grow into a Senior Branch. The Basketball Team is doing good work and should be called "The Good Sports Team," for they are all new at it and yet they forge ahead never flinching, no matter how experienced a team they are put up against.

They have a wonderful inspiration in their trainer, Mrs. Schock, who is in for high standards and good honest work—looking to each defeat as a great experience toward better work for the next game.

LONG DISTANT RADIO RECEIVING

The Men's Bible Class of Christ Church are planning to have Mr. Roy Baker, of Station WNAT give a practical talk on Long Distance Radio Receiving.

The talk will be illustrated by black-board sketches and parts. All men and boys are invited. The talk will be given on 15th of March. Those desiring to attend this very interesting talk will please send their name to Mr. Herbert Feist, 326 Walnut St., so that provision can be made for your accommodation.

A WORD TO PARENTS

Will not parents and others, who are interested in the welfare of the young, call the attention of all children eligible for Confirmation to the Instructions given by the Rector in the Parish House on Sunday afternoons at four o'clock?

Parents and adult friends of the young are cordially invited to come with the children to these Instructions.

Let no parent or sponsor neglect his duty this Lent to the children whom God has given him to bring up in His fear and love.

At the Baptism of your children this solemn obligation was placed upon you;

"Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose."

Are you doing your duty?

Do you know how to tell Real Ice Cream?

Many kinds of so-called ice cream are made today, either for the purpose of underselling others or in order to make an increased profit. These grades are easily recognized by melting them down. Some will show a watery substance while others will be sticky, stringy. Melt a good pure ice cream and you will have a rich creamy substance. That is REAL ICE CREAM—the kind we make. It is wholesome, recommended by physicians. The taste is most delicious. Pure ice cream is more than a luxury, it is a food.

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, Rev Charles Henry Arndt, D. D.

The Rector's Notes

The Rector's Office Hours 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. Daily
6.00-7.00 p. m., Daily At Home Saturday Evenings

O LORD! HEAR MY PRAYER!

O Lord Jesus, keep me ever near Thy side in these closing days of Thy fasting, of Thy Passion and of Thy Death!

O Lord Jesus, give me of Thy Holy Spirit, that, following Thee to the Cross, I may learn of Thee how to live, how to suffer and how to die!

O Lord Jesus, bring back again to Thy fold those who have strayed away (especially.....) and make them truly Thine!

And those who know not Thee—O Lord Jesus, give me a deep sense of my duty to them, that by my sacrifice, by my life, by my A.L. I may be an instrument in Thy hand of spreading Thy Kingdom upon earth, Thy peace and goodwill among men! Amen! Amen!

"IS IT NOTHING TO YOU, ALL YE THAT PASS BY?"

The Forty Days are drawing to a close. The Lenten shadows deepen and we now enter Holy Week—into the mystery of the awful Passion of our Lord.

With bowed head we contemplate the Cross, rising out of the sacred hill of Calvary, and on the Cross we behold, crowned with thorns, the Immaculate Lamb of God, "who taketh away the sins of the world."

"Indeed," says a devout writer, "one scarcely ventures to write upon so sacred a subject. Christ's members should strive silently to realize it for themselves, following our Blessed Lord in thought and prayer through the scenes of His suffering and death."

Let each one of us, during this Holy Week which now draws near, this "Week of Stillness"—let each one of us leave behind all distracting thoughts, all thoughts of the world, with its petty, trifling schemes, its vanities, and let us contemplate in wonder, awe and reverence the closing scenes of our Lord's earthly life, from the triumphal entrance on Palm Sunday into the city He so dearly loved, until, weary and exhausted, He slowly wended His way along the "via Dolorosa," passing through the gates of the city which rejected Him, up the Mount of Calvary, to the Cross.

At the daily Celebration of the Holy Communion during Holy Week, the Church appoints, in her Prayer Book, that each of the four Evangelists shall be heard in his narrative of the Passion and provides an appropriate Epistle and Gospel for each day.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated in Christ Church every morning fr Palm Sunday morning until Maundy Thursday, inclusive. The Service will be at half past nine o'clock.

"Daily Meditations" will be held during Holy Week on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at 4.45 o'clock.

GOOD FRIDAY

The Daily Meditations in Holy Week will culminate on Good Friday in the Three Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross. The service will begin at 12 o'clock noon. This three-hour vigil will be preceded by a service at half-past ten o'clock, consisting of the Penitential office, Pro-Anaphora and address.

Where else would one, who realizes the meaning of this great and awful day that commemorates the Redeemer's sufferings for the sins of the world—where else would one want to spend these sacred hours save in the House of God, and how else, save in Meditation, in Intercession and in Prayer? Devout minds have found in these precious hours beside the Cross a deeper and a fuller realization of the wonderful love of God to us and the awful sinfulness of our nature. Let every seriously minded person in the Parish keep the day in solemn fasting in humiliation and in prayer!

"Before the Cross, whose cruel wood Upbears the dying Son of God, Today my only thought shall be: He died thereon for love of me!"

EASTER COMMUNION

As these solemn days of Lent draw slowly to their close, every soul that has followed our Lord during these forty days, in His fastings, in His temptations in His sufferings and at the Cross, will be preparing and will be yearning to be with Him on the happy Resurrection morn in the joy of the Easter Communion.

Easter is the "Queen of Festivals," and throughout the Christian ages has been the "Day of Days," when the faithful have solemnized the Resurrection of our Lord by coming to the Holy Communion. Our "Holy Communion" then becomes our "Holy Eucharist," that is, as the term implies, our "holy thanksgiving." In the words of the prayer of Consecration, in the Communion office, "having in remembrance His blessed Passion and precious Death His 'Mighty Resurrection' and glorious Ascension," we render unto God our most hearty thanks for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the same." If then, we have spent this Lent in a faithful following of our Lord we may truly share, at the Holy Eucharist, on Easter Day, the joys of His Resurrection. On this Resurrection morn, we may "lift up our hearts" and be in the very presence of our risen Lord and unite together with all God's saints in "one holy communion and fellowship in the mystical body of His Son Christ our Lord," and "with angels and archangels and with all the company of Heaven" join in the beatific praise, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty." This is the communion of the saints. This is the beatific vision St. John saw "when in the spirit on the Lord's Day, Heaven was opened to him"; and this is the beatific vision vouchsafed to all God's Saints who draw near unto Him in spirit on this great Day of the Lord—The Day of His Resurrection from the Dead.

EASTER GREETINGS!

A Happy Easter, full of grace and peace and joy to every Christian heart! Out of the shadows of Good Friday the Easter light shines clear. May it, indeed, so shine into every soul in this Parish, brightening every life with radiant hope.

The shadows are interpreted by the light. Looking back from the brightness of Easter morn into the darkness of the preceding days, we see that that darkness was the precursor of the dawn.

What a difference it would make in every life if we would see more clearly in the light of Easter Day the meaning of the dark days, our failures, the tragedies of life! God grant that on this Easter Day we may have some measure of that transforming vision! Let us thank God for the Easter revelation of the Risen Lord, whereby we know that all darkness, whether of pain, or disappointment, or sorrow, or death itself, is to those who trust and live in Christ, but the herald of new light and hope and joy. Let us rejoice, then, as we look into the future. "He is not here, He is risen!" Let us weave this truth, this blessed truth, into our lives! Let it give courage and hope to the discouraged ones, comfort to the mourners—joy to every heart; for Christ has brought life and immortality to light! "I am the Resurrection, and the Life. Whoso believeth in me, though He were dead, yet shall he live, and whoso so liveth and believeth in me shall never die."

OUR EASTER OFFERING

Our offering, on Easter Day, should be an expression of our love and our loyalty to Jesus Christ. It should represent sacrifice! An Easter offering, in any other spirit, is "a mere mockery," a mere travesty, of the Easter Spirit.

Whilst I am interested in and hope that the full amount asked by the Vestry from the congregation may be, as it should be, fully realized, I am not primarily interested in the amount. I am more interested that there shall be, in every member of our parish, the true spirit of Christian giving; that each gift may be the expression of true devotion to Christ and His Church. And no gift can be called "a religious offering" that does not represent this spirit—the spirit of the love and sacrifice!

There should be no small coin on the plate on Easter Day, unless the giver be very poor. In that case the offering may be more worthy and acceptable to God than the offerings of the rich.

But my observation and experience during a long ministry, has convinced me that the small coin in the offering is not given, as a rule, by the poor. It is given by the careless, by the flippant, by the worldling. And such giving, I repeat, represents, in no sense, Christian giving; it is not a religious "offering," because it is devoid of the very essence of Christian giving—it is wanting in the spirit of love and devotion and consecration to Christ.

The Church regards the giving of money at the services in no sense "a collection." The word "collection," in reference to giving in Church, should never be used. It is an offering, an offering to God, and as such is an essential part of worship; and the rubric in the Prayer Book emphasizes this and directs that the "devotions of the people shall be brought to the priest, who shall humbly present it (to God) and place it upon the Holy Table."

David of old said, "I will not offer unto the Lord my God of that which cost me nothing." And surely if David realized the meaning and the significance of an "offering unto the Lord," no follower of Jesus Christ can be said to have any real part in the solemn and serious worship of God, who lightly "offers unto the Lord that which costs him nothing."

Christian giving is an act of joy, because it is prompted by the spirit of love. And how much love is there in the person, how much joy can come to any person—who puts on the plate on Easter Morning, "that which costs him nothing?" "Freely have ye received, freely give."

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS

Following the custom of past years the flowers in the chancel on Easter Day will be memorials to the Blessed Dead. The Altar Guild requests that all persons who desire to remember their departed friends by memorial flowers will please send their contributions as soon as possible, either to the Rector or to Miss Elizabeth L. Chase, 152 E. Washington Lane. The members of the Guild will personally select the flowers and will see that each contribution is represented by an appropriate memorial. Persons who desire to make their own selections of blooming plants or flowers are requested to have them at the Parish House on Friday or early on Saturday morning, so that they may be arranged in the chancel before the Saturday afternoon service.

These flowers are sent to the sick in their homes or in hospitals after the Easter services.

All are invited to send contributions to the Easter Memorial, either in money or flowers, and any contribution, however small will be gratefully received.

CONFIRMATION SERVICE

The Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D. D., will administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation in Christ Church on Maundy Thursday evening, March 29th. The Confirmation Service will be held at 7.45 o'clock.

CANTATA "THE CROSS OF CHRIST" To Be Sung in Christ Church Palm Sunday Evening

On Palm Sunday Evening, March 25th. The choir will sing the Lenten Cantata, "The Cross of Christ," by Thomas Adams, Assisted by Miss May R. Lane, soprano; H. C. Eismann, tenor; John W. Whitworth, baritone; Henry L. Booth. Mr. Booth is Bass Soloist of St. Martin's in the Fields. The other soloists are members of the Choir of Christ Church, Germantown.

THREE-HOUR SERVICE ON GOOD FRIDAY

The Three-Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross will be conducted by the Rev. Samuel B. Booth.

Every one who possibly can do so should attend this wonderfully helpful service.

It is requested that persons be in the Church before the noon hour and all, who can, are asked to remain during the entire three hours of this solemn service. Persons entering or leaving the Church during the service are requested to do so during the singing of the hymns.

AN EASTER PAGEANT

Entitled, "How the Light Came"

A very interesting and instructive pageant will be presented by members of the Church School on Easter Sunday evening in the church.

The pageant opens by depicting the call of the various nations for that phase of the Church's work which has been so much emphasized in the Sunday School during the past few months—i. e. Missions.

It portrays, too, in a most interesting manner, the story of the Apostles, gathered together in the upper room at Jerusalem, just after the Resurrection.

These two parts of the pageant are woven together so as to reveal the full meaning of missions, with the culmination of the children's presentation of their Lenten mite box offering.

Not only the parents of the Sunday School scholars, but everyone will feel the appeal of the story of the pageant.

Among those taking part in the pageant, will be Sarah Clifton, as Mother Church; and Martha McHenry, Mary Johnston, Susan Hardin, Alberta Wright, Margaret Robinson, Helen Jackson, Edward Wilcox, James Carmint, Alfred Ritterhouse, Samuel Baxter and others, as pilgrims from the various countries. Robert Arndt, Norton Johnson, Richard Hegue, Richard Sutcliffe, Karl Mostellar, Albert Rayner, Allen Fernier, Charles Bushenhourst will impersonate the A. M. M. C.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

The Annual Election of Vestrymen of this Parish will be held in the Parish House on Easter Monday, April 2nd between the hours of 5 and 6 P. M.

The terms of the following members of the Vestry expire this year:

Edwin Potter, William R. Pugh, William N. Johnson.

The following excerpt is from the By-Laws of Christ Church. By-law, Article 1, Section 8. "Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestryman one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the Secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the southeast vestibule of the Church at least two Sundays prior to the holding of such election, and no person not so nominated shall be a candidate."

(Charter of Incorporation, Article 6.)

"The Vestry of said Church shall consist of twelve men to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereof. Such election shall be by ballot and shall be held on Easter Monday in each and every year, between such hours and upon such notice as the by-laws of said Church may provide, and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said Church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of this Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of at least two years next preceding any such election, annual subscription of not less than ten dollars each, or the like sum in annual rental of pew or sitting for the same period."

Music by Dr. Lower.

CHURCH SCHOOL NOTES

(1.) Our "Mission Fair" was held on Feb. 11th and was a great success. There was ice cream from Alaska, fancy work from Japan and China, novelties from Porto Rico, cabbage patch, fish pond, etc., all of which were sold out. Then there was an imported "Fortune Teller," who had a long line of "Patients" waiting all the evening.

Then upstairs we had a "Minstrel Show" and a "Baby Parade" (by the Primary Dept.) both of which played to crowded houses. We cleared $229.18 which is the nest egg of our Lenten Mite box Mission Fund.

(2) Speaking of Missions, every member of our church who reads this and who is going to buy some candy to eat after Lent is over (as of course no one would eat candy in Lent) should buy the same from any of our scholars. We have 80 salesmen (boys and girls) each with a list of about 20 kinds to suit your taste and prices to suit your pocket-book. All candy delivered to your house on Saturday before Easter; to be paid for on delivery. If you want a salesman to call, write or phone to R. H. Morris, 6604 Wayne Avenue. (Gtn 0640).

Our commissions go into our Lenten Mission mite boxes.

(3.) Our attendance for January and February averaged 30 more each Sunday than last year and our offerings averaged $3.47 more.

We have added 14 new scholars since January 1st and we need some teachers badly. Is there not some who read this that will offer their services.

(4.) Our Easter Service will be held in the church at 7.30 P. M. There will be presented a Pageant which will be most interesting to all because each one taking part in it will be a scholar of our School. Again we cordially invite all parents and friends of the School to attend this service. R.H.M.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the Parish House on Thursday, March 15th at 2 o'clock.

It is very gratifying to report that we are getting along nicely with the "Sewing," owing to the help rendered us by quite a number of the ladies of our Parish, who have come to our assistance. We have, however, just ordered two (2) "layettes" from the Supply Bureau, as we are confident we shall be able to accomplish that much more work, in addition to our quota of regular sewing. At present there are nine sweaters being knitted for the mission fields by ladies in our church.

The Mission Study Class, held every Wednesday at 3.30 P. M. during Lent, and conducted by Mrs. Crawford, of St. Thomas', Whitmarsh, is delightfully interesting and instructive. About twenty women attend this class weekly.

AN ADDRESS BY MRS. MILDRED SCOTT OLMSTEAD

Mrs. Mildred Scott Olmstead, Executive Secretary of the Women's International Peace Organization, will give an address in Christ Church Parish House on Wednesday afternoon, March 21st, at four o'clock. Her subject will be, "International Peace from a Woman's Viewpoint."

Mrs. Olmstead has been in both France and Germany and is familiar with the people of those countries and the present critical conditions.

All are invited to hear Mrs. Olmstead in the Parish House on Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock.

THE EVERY MEMBER CANVASS, A SUCCESS

A Letter From The Committee
To the MEMBERS OF CHRIST CHURCH, GERMANTOWN.

The results of the "EVERY MEMBER CAMPAIGN" were so encouraging that it was thought best to send you this progress report, although pledges are still coming in.

Before the Campaign took place there were,

280 weekly envelope pledges for church expenses, amounting to	$4,916.60
210 weekly envelopes for Missions amounting to	2,012.40

The Campaign results are,
69 new pledges for church expense, amounting to 612.30
101 increased their pledges for church expense, amounting to 525.20

Total add'l. for Church expense	$1,137.50
55 new pledges for Missions, amounting to	369.30
98 increased their pledges for Missions, amounting to, . . .	826.80

Total add'l. for Missions	$1,196.10
Therefore, the total pledges through the weekly envelope system now are,
349 pledges for Church expense, amtg. to, (an increase of 23%)	$6,054.10
265 pledges for Missions, amtg. to (an increase of 60%) . .	3,208.50

It is very interesting to note that although the "Campaign" was almost solely for an increase of our offering for the general work of the Church, outside the parish, yet our members took advantage of the opportunity to increase their present pledge for the work of Christ Church within the parish and in addition, many members, who were not contributing at all through the envelope system, decided to do so.

The Visiting Committees were not able to visit every family in the parish on one afternoon; therefore several members have not received pledge cards; others were not at home when the Committee called. Some members also have not responded at all.

The aim of this "Campaign" was, "That every person who considers himself or herself a member of Christ Church should be asked to pledge a contribution regularly some amount (no matter how small) to both the work of Christ Church Parish and also, to the larger work of the entire church, usually called "Missions."

If, therefore, you have not as yet pledged, will you send your card to Mr. Edward Bains, Accounting Warden, 104 Harvey Street, Germantown.

We want to make our Church "A 100% PARISH" in that every one realizes their obligation of membership by doing his or her part toward the support of our work.

The Committee wish to thank our members for their cooperation by having their cards ready when our calls were made.

THE COMMITTEE OF THE "EVERY MEMBER CANVASS"

THE CHURCH'S "PROGRAM"

"The Episcopal Church throughout the country has awakened to a new interest in her divine mission and her members have responded to her call during the past three years in greater works and larger offerings than ever before.

The regular giving for the general work of the Church has been lifted to a higher plane and it is inconceivable that the members of the Church can sink back into the former indifference and to the former low plane of giving. On the contrary it is confidently believed that the Church will press forward to greater things and that there will be a more loyal and generous support by all her members.

It was in this belief that what is called "The Church's Program" for the next three years, when the General Convention of the Church will again meet, was prepared. This "Program" is a full and detailed statement of all the work and projects which will be carried out to the extent made possible by the offerings of the members of the Church, including all existing work, its expansion and new projects.

More than a year was spent in the careful preparation at the Church's national headquarters, in consultation with bishops and missionaries and lay workers from all parts of the world.

Both Houses of the General Convention held last fall in Portland, Oregon, unanimously adopted the "Program." It is therefore, the official program of the Church by action of the legislative and governing body of the Church.

As such every loyal Churchman will adopt it as his or her own.

What is this Program? Let us consider it
For 1923 the Program covers work and projects amounting to $6,000,000; for 1924, $7,000,000; for 1925 $8,000,000.

It was presented to the Convention in the form of a book consisting of two parts, The Budget and The Priorities. The Budget covers all existing work. The Priorities includes all that will be done in addition, as the means are provided.

There is no essential difference between The Budget and The Priorities. The work and projects in both are of the same character. The only real difference lies in the fact that appropriations have been made for all that is included in the Budget. Appropriations for the objects in The Priorities will be made as rapidly as the offerings of the Church will justify.

Appropriations were made for the whole amount of the Budget, which is $4,000,000 for the first year, because it was believed that the Church would not think of retreating.

This Program does not include all the needs and opportunities which confront the Church. It would be easily possible to present a program several times as large. This Program is merely a definite, carefully digested statement of a part of what the Church ought to do. It represents a minimum, not a maximum of duty.

Whole Program to Be Allotted

The General Convention directed that the whole Program be allotted to the dioceses and districts on a sliding scale on the basis of local current expenses, indicating the portion thereof for which appropriations have already been made.

These diocesan quotas are not assessments, but are moral obligations and the canon requires the taking of the necessary steps to raise the whole quota.

What is expected of every diocese and district and every parish and mission is an honest effort to raise at least the full quota for the whole Program. Disloyalty will not consist in a failure to reach this minimum requirement; it will consist in the failure to make a sincere and energetic effort to do so.

Those who desire to examine or study the Program are referred to three books, copies of which can be purchased at the Church House, 202 South 19th Street.

1. The General Church Program, containing The Budget and The Priorities in complete detail. Price, 50 cents.

2. The Program Presented, an explanation of the Program and of the principles upon which it is based. It is intended primarily as a text book for parish group meetings, but is suitable for general reading. Price, 25 cents.

3. The Story of the Program, a book dealing in a more complete way with the Program, giving a full narrative of the work to which the Church stands committed. It is designed for general reading and for the use of leaders and speakers. Price, one dollar.

GIRL'S FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Did you hear all about the Valentine Dance which the Girl's Friendly held? No, it wasn't given on Valentine Day—that being Ash Wednesday—but it was on Valentine's Eve. It was quite a success both financially and socially and if you weren't there you missed a lot.

During Lent the Girls' Friendly Society are trying to carry out the spirit of the season by refraining from the more worldly occupations and bucking down to real work. If you should happen into the Parish House on a Tuesday evening you would see the girls working industriously on garments which are to be sent to an Indian mission in Nevada. Now the making of these garments is real work, because very explicit directions come with each one and these directions must be carried out to the eighth of the inch.

But these girls don't mind work a bit. If you want proof of this just stop in the Girls' Friendly room at any time and see what they have done there.

EASTER COMMUNION

Everyone, of course—everyone who considers himself a Christian and who is physically able to come to God's House, will, of course, attend Divine Service on Easter Day! It would be worse than foolish to suggest that any Christian will remain away on Easter Day! Even if there were no rubric in the Prayer Book of the Church of England (this church is far from intending to depart from the Church of England in the essential point of doctrine, discipline, or worship) which says, "Every parishioner shall communicate at least three times in the year, of which Easter shall be one," every Christian who rejoices in the hope of the Resurrection would want to avail himself of this privilege and be with the risen Jesus on that great Day.

Every member of the Church will devote himself during these last solemn days of Lent in preparation for the Easter Communion.

Do you know how to tell Real Ice Cream?

Many kinds of so-called ice cream are made today, either for the purpose of underselling others or in order to make an increased profit. These grades are easily recognized by melting them down. Some will show a watery substance while others will be sticky, stringy. Melt a good pure ice cream and you will have a rich creamy substance. That is REAL ICE CREAM—the kind we make. It is wholesome, recommended by physicians. The taste is most delicious. Pure ice cream is more than a luxury, it is a food.

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, Rev Charles Henry Arndt, D. D.

The Rector's Notes

The Rector's Office Hours 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. Daily
6.00-7.00 p. m., Daily At Home Saturday Evenings

The Easter Communion

On Easter Day there were four hundred and ninety-seven persons received at the Holy Communion.

This number represents about eighty per cent of the communicant list of the Parish. It is a good record and is evidence of a general realization of the spiritual privileges which should be appreciated and enjoyed by all.

It is hoped that it has also an intensive meaning—a deepening of the spiritual life of the Parish.

The offering at the morning services amounted to $969.90.

The additional amount received at the evening service is included in the Church School offering reported in another column of the Chimes.

Of the twenty per cent of Communicants who were absent on Easter Day, the Rector believes that he can account for about seven per cent, who were sick or too feeble to attend Church; about three per cent, who were out of town, about five per cent, who come under the caption "arrested spiritual development," in other words, "worldly" or careless; and the remaining five per cent of those absent come under the head of "dead wood"—those who seem to have become dead to every spiritual appeal and influence. May the Holy Spirit touch their hearts and bring them again to life and light!

Our thoughts and our prayers were for those who were sick or too feeble to be present in Church on Easter Day. We paused and remembered many, by name, as we prayed in the Communion Service.

"We most humbly beseech Thee, of Thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succor all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness or any other adversity." And, as the memorial flowers which filled the chancel and covered the altar brought to mind the memories of the blessed dead, our thoughts went out to them in our prayers; "We also bless Thy holy name for all Thy servants departed this life in Thy faith and fear; beseeching Thee to give us grace so to follow their good example, that with them we may be partakers of Thy heavenly kingdom."

What a blessed privilege it was—this Easter Communion with our Risen Lord! And each Sunday is an Easter Day—it is the Lord's Day. What a perpetual spiritual feast our Sundays would be if we but remembered this! God grant that we all may make them so! Amen!

Paying and Giving

We ought to make a distinction between paying and giving. Then the paying of money would go in general for our Parish needs and expenses, such as the support of the clergy, the sexton and the choir, the care and repair of the property, and the heat and light and equipment necessary to make our church home clean and comfortable. The giving of money would be so left for charities and benevolences and missions. The paying would be done for our own spiritual health and growth, as paying to schools is done for the intellectual health and growth, and to grocers and butchers for our physical health and growth. And, as no self-respecting person wants another to pay gratuitously for the schooling of his children or for the table supplies of himself and family, so each and every one in the Church or Parish should have the self respect and honest pride to want to bear his or her own share of the parish expenses. The provision for these expenses should be arranged for in a plain, business way, by subscriptions carefully secured. The income so provided should be collected in a business way and put into and paid out from the parish treasury. When all this paying is provided for in a business way, then giving begins. If the paying is done cheerfully and honorably and to the full, all the offerings in church can go for charities, benevolences, and missions.

Change in Time of Service

The time of all services and meetings in this Parish has been set ahead one hour, in conformity with the Daylight Saving schedule, generally adopted throughout the city of Philadelphia. This change will go into effect in this Parish on Sunday, May 6th.

Vestrymen Elected

At the annual election of Vestrymen held on Easter Monday the following members were re-elected Vestrymen of Christ Church to serve for the term of three years: Sheldon Potter, William N. Johnson, William R. Pugh. John F. Davidson was the new member elected to the Vestry, in place of Francis B. Falkner, who has removed from Germantown.

Mr. Davidson has been a communicant member of the Parish for forty years, having been confirmed in this Church by Bishop Stevens in 1883.

The Judges of Election were James Carmint, Jr., H. A. Cannon, William S. Crowder.

New Envelopes for Envelope Subscribers

New sets of envelopes for the year beginning at Easter will be furnished to all, to subscribe through the Envelope System.

Persons who have not subscribed—it is desired that all should do so—may find pledge cards in the racks in either vestibule or they will be furnished on application to the Verger. Please indicate by a mark the amount you desire to give weekly; sign name and address at bottom of card and place it on the alms basin at any service. A package of envelopes will then be sent to you. For further information, please apply, after any service, to Mr. Edward Bains, 10' Harvey Street, the Accounting Warden.

Vestry Meeting

The following is the report of the regular stated meeting of the Vestry which was held on April 3rd in the Parish House. Mr. J. M. Woodroffe was appointed Rector's Warden; Mr. Edward Bains was elected Accounting Warden; Richard H. Morris was elected Secretary.

The following delegates to Diocesan Convention and Convocation of Germantown were elected: Messrs. Sheldon Potter, J. M. Woodroffe and R. H. Morris; Alternates to Convocation, Messrs U. G. Rowley, Edward Bains and Dr. W. N. Johnson.

The Rector appointed the following committeemen:

Finance—W. N. Johnson, U. G. Rowley, J. M. Woodroffe.

Property—Fred. Lennig, U. G. Rowley, O. N. Middleton.

Choir—T. H. Carmichael, C. W. Sutcliffe, R. H. Morris.

Sunday School—R. H. Morris, Edward Bains, John F. Davidson.

Every Member—Fred Lennig, O. N. Middleton, C. W. Sutcliffe.

Voted—That Property Committee and Acting Warden be authorized to have repairs made to Church and Parish House, roofs and Church steeple; also to wall and curbing on Tulpehocken Street.

Voted—That arrangements for the care of Church and Parish House be left in the hands of the Wardens.

Voted—That a total amount of $350 be appropriated to purchase chairs for Sunday School room.

Voted—That the appropriation for the Sunday School for the ensuing year be at the rate of $60 per month.

The various committees made reports which were received and ordered filed. The Accounting Warden reported Easter offering (to this date) was $910.48.

R. H. MORRIS, Secretary.

Diocesan Convention

The one hundred and thirty-ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will meet in Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Market Streets, on Tuesday, May 1st.

The lay deputies from this Parish are Col. Sheldon Potter, James M. Woodroffe and Richard H. Morris.

Confirmation

On Maundy Thursday evening, March 29th, the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D. D., visited this Parish and confirmed a class of twenty-two persons, 12 females and 10 males. Two persons were not able to be confirmed on account of illness. The following are the names of those confirmed:

John Henry Abrams.
John Aull.
Emily Jordan Benerman.
Howard Leicester Benerman, Jr.
Charles Smith Buckenhorst.
William Henry Clausen, Jr.

Altar Guild

Members of the Altar Guild were very busy with the extra services during Lent. We were all on duty March 24th, when we split palms and decorated for Palm Sunday. The next Saturday, the decorating and arranging of the memorial flowers for Easter necessitated our being at church the greater part of the day,—so we took our lunch and ate it over in the Parish House. We were assisted on both days by several members of St. Christopher's Guild.

Two very beautiful linen veils, one edged with point lace and the other embroidered, have been given in memory of Miss Ellen W. Chase.

Mrs. Avery has also given a new fair linen for the chapel altar, which has been very exquisitely embroidered by Mrs. Cotton.

Our supply of fair linens is getting low, as some that we have had for a long while are wearing out. If there is anyone that would like to give new ones, we would be very glad to hear from them.

F. D.

The Sunday School

To give in full the record of the past month would take more space than is allotted to us, so we will have to leave out some things that we would like to say.

First of all our Lenten offering for missions amounts to over seven hundred and fifty dollars, which is the largest we have given for fifteen years, and probably more than we have ever given. Nearly three times as much as last year (which was $275).

Question: How did we do it?

Answer: By everyone doing their share.

This is the way it was done:

The Mission Fair (in February)	$229.18
Sales of Easter Candy	61.00
Mite Boxes, Main School	255.97
Mite Boxes, Primary Department	59.05
Lenten Offering, Womens Bible Class	10.00
Lenten Offering, Men's Bible Class	75.00
Offering at Our Easter Service	60.35

Total $750.55

This offering was presented on Sunday afternoon, April 29, at Holy Trinity Church and we saw that our offering got well started on its way to the Mission fields all over our country and part of it also to the other side of the world.

Secondly—Our Easter Carol Service was the best we ever had, and we also had more than three times as many parents and friends there as we have had for years. This is one of the reasons it was such a success. Come again next Christmas. We have another treat in store for you. Another reason, it was the "best ever" was the Pageant given by the scholars. It was entitled "The Light of the World" and it held everyone's breathless attention from the moment it commenced when the church was darkened (waiting for the light to come) until at the end when "Mother Church" asked for help to spread Christ's Kingdom throughout the world, and a little child from the Primary Department brought up their mite box offering saying, "Take and use this," followed by a scholar from each of the classes with their "mites."

Thirdly—The record of faithful attendance was read at the Easter Service and it is a long one.

Mrs. Elizabeth Baishbrown with 8 years and 14 Sundays heads the list; next comes Anne Weitsner with 5 years and 48 Sundays, and Charles Buchenhorst with 5 years and 26 Sundays.

There were three scholars who have attended between 4 and 5 years: Elizabeth Haas, Miss Margaret Courtney, Helen McHenry.

There were six between 3 and 4 years: Bertram Malaby, Marion Feist, Mary Keenan, Betty Melchor, Nancy Courtney and Martha McHenry.

There were ten between 2 and 3 years: John Hannon, Howard Logan, James Osborne, Josephine Wright, Robert Arndt, Clifton Malaby, Hilda Ellis, Helen Wertsner, Margaret Robinson and Anna Bradley.

There were fifteen between 1 and 2 years: Margaret Boyer, Anna Johnson, Robert Hance, Thomas Carter, Jean Gillman, Helen Robinson, Helen Jackson, Marg. Wismer, Albert Rayner, Miss Gertrude Feist, Clarence Goddard, Allen Fernier, Doris Hance, Alberta Wright, William Pritchard and Mrs. Christ.

In the Primary Department for faithful attendance were Ruth Carmint, Beatrice Johnson, Ellen Ferguson, John Pritchard, William Stryke, George Johnson, William Frech, Jr., and Herbert Wismer.

Not a single class is unrepresented in the above and the total "age" of all scholars who have attended at least a year without missing would be 95 years and 32 Sundays. Then there were 35 scholars who attended church during Lent without missing a single Sunday.

Fourthly and lastly—Your Superintendent wishes to state that for the year ending on Easter Day only about $25 was unpaid in our weekly envelopes or in other words we have made good for 97% of our pledges—a wonderful record.

We started the year with the idea of keeping busy all the time and we are going to stick at it the rest of the year. Without making any especial effort we have gained 25 new members since January 1st but cannot take many more until we have some new teachers. Will not someone who reads this offer their services as teachers? We will gladly welcome you and we know you will enjoy the work.

Miss Sara Clifton, Miss Helen McHenry and Mrs. Howard Feist have been appointed teachers in the Primary Department. R. H. M.

Missionary to Preach in Christ Church

The Rev. Arthur M. Sherman, of Wuchang, Diocese of Hankow, China, will tell of his work in that important missionary field of the Church, on Sunday morning, May 13th. It has been proposed that Christ Church Parish shall select and be responsible for the support of this mission in China, as our particular missionary work for the coming year. Mr. Sherman will tell our people of the needs and opportunities of his work at Wuchang, on Sunday morning, May 13th.

The Daughters of the King

On May 15, the annual meeting of the Local Assembly of The Daughters of the King will be held in Christ Church. There will be an afternoon business session at which time addresses will be given by Mrs. S. Naudain Duer and the Rev. Clarence H. Reese, of St. Matthew's Church. The evening session will be at 7.30. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Thomas S. Cline, of Grace Church, Mount Airy.

A cordial invitation is extended to the members of this congregation to attend the meetings.

Offering for the Poor

Children's Outing Fund

It is not too early to remind the members of Christ Church of the annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund, which will be taken on the third Sunday in June. This worthy charity has appealed more and more strongly to our people and each year a larger number of children has been sent by our parish from the courts and alleys of this city for a week's outing in the country. Let no one forget this offering on Sunday morning, June 17th.

300—45; Remains 255

This is not a problem in higher mathematics but in plain arithmetic. Out of 300 possible subscribers to your church paper "Christ Church Chimes" I have received subscriptions from FORTY-FIVE—THESE forty-five people have made it possible to supply the other 255 with the Chimes. The answer is—

Send now, today, 50 cents for your subscription to me or to the Rectory.

Wear and Tear on the Church Property

The Property Committee of the Vestry are taking in hand important repairs to the Church property and, by authority of the Vestry, are expending considerable money this spring on this urgent need. They desire that you should be acquainted with the condition of the Church property and realize the importance of keeping in proper repair the buildings. Everyone is personally concerned in this work and will be interested to learn the present needs and what the Property Committee have been called upon to do. The committee report that it has been necessary to make extensive repairs to the Church tower, putting on new slate, replacing old sheet metal work with copper and removing the remains of the weather vane. The main Church roof and slate work on the Parish House are being repaired and the tin work on the rectory is being put in good condition. Contract has been let for repairs to the stone wall around the Church. The clapper in the largest bell in the chimes decided to leave the bell, fell and was fractured. It was temporarily repaired just in time for Easter.

The new work that we wish to bring to your attention is the repairs to the chimes, repairs to the stone work on the tower, general repairs and renovation of the Rectory to make it habitable and protect it from the elements.

Mr. Samuel N. Baxter, who is arboriculturist of the City of Philadelphia and of Fairmount Park and a member of this Parish, has kindly submitted a planting plan of shrubbery about the Church which would add greatly to the appearance of the property. On account of lack of funds we have been unable to do this work for you.

We would like to hear from anyone interested in this "planting," who may have some plan to finance this work.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK LENNIG

Large Increase in Number of Givers

In response to the Every Member Campaign held in this Parish last March there has been an increase of 23 per cent in the weekly pledges for expenses for 1923 and an increase of 60 per cent in pledges for Missions. Each year during the past five years there has been an increase in the number of Envelope Subscribers and the amount pledged to both parish expenses and for Missions. This indicates an encouraging condition and healthy growth of the Parish. There is a wide spread and growing consciousness on the part of the members of the Parish of a personal and individual responsibility of every member,—of every man, woman and child to help in the support of the Parish and the work of the Church at large. The pews in this Church are free. Therefore, the support of the Parish is dependent upon the weekly offerings of the members. In addition to the money needed for the current expenses of the Parish, Christ Church is asked by the Council to give $8,140.00 annually for the support of the Church's Mission. This amount is to be realized by our members giving weekly in the missionary side (the right-hand side) of the envelope.

Therefore, the obligation to meet our needs, both parochial and extra parochial, depends upon each individual member of the Parish doing his or her full share.

Our people are gradually, but surprisingly to a realization of their personal responsibility and a sense of honor and privilege is leavening the whole lump. It will not be long, we believe, before every man, woman and child in Christ Church Parish will be included on the books of the Parish, among the number of faithful and conscientious givers. God speed the day!

Pledge cards may be found in the vestibules of the Church. The cards may be signed and placed on the almsplate at any service and a package of envelopes will be sent to you.

The pledge, being purely voluntary may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time, by notifying the Rector.

The Girls' Friendly Society

The Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church is about closing its season of 1922-23, and it is with much satisfaction that we look back upon our accomplishments. Our Basket Ball Team under the leadership of Mrs. Shock has become a real live feature of our Friendly—made out of perfectly green material with but few exceptions. They have taken their part in the League beside playing games with outside teams and not without some laurels.

We have had two most successful dances from which we realized enough to furnish our room in the Parish House and carry us through the year. Sent a large box of toys and stockings to the children at the Philadelphia General Hospital at Christmas time and sent Christmas dinners to poor families. These last two efforts came from voluntary contributions of the members. We have added to our membership and hope to have a membership drive in the fall.

We have done our part in the sewing and on Thursday all went to Trinity Parish House to see the work of all the G. F. S. in the Diocese displayed and then to our annual service at Holy Trinity Church which was a wonderfully inspiring sight.

It is with much regret that we will be obliged to lose our faithful and much beloved Treasurer, Edith B. Johnson who has served us for four years and endeared herself to each one. We wish her all the joy and happiness that can be showered upon her and with great pleasure enroll her as one of our "Married Branch Helpers."

The girls and some of the associates spent a very pleasant evening with the ladies at the "House of Rest" during the past month.

With all the pleasures of the past year we are all keen to get closer together and cooperate more and more in our relations with each other, being helpful to all whenever we can, by word and deed, being ever mindful of our motto:

"Bear ye one another's burdens"

A garden party will be held at Mannheim on June 2nd under the auspices of the G. F. S. of Germantown to raise money to send a G. F. S. delegate to the Summer School at Bryn Mawr.

Woman's Auxiliary

On April nineteenth the Woman's Auxiliary held a most inspiring meeting. The prime object of the meeting was to discuss ways and means of raising money to help pay the parish quota for missions. Our first venture will be a rummage sale to be held on the sixteenth of May in the Parish House. We hope everyone will cooperate with us in this undertaking and send their cast-off clothing to the Parish House before the sixteenth of May. The work of the Sewing Guild was exhibited at this meeting and the chairman, Mrs. Vossler, and her assistants are to be congratulated on the number of garments turned out and the excellent workmanship displayed.

The knitted garments also made a fine showing. Altogether we feel proud of our work done during the past winter. At the close of the meeting tea was served and a social hour was enjoyed by everyone. A. F. W.

Boy Scouts Wide Awake

Some of us have been keeping posted on that band of boys who meet Monday night, make enough noise to raise the roof during recess and are as silent as death when they stand at attention.

Yes, the Boy Scouts are organized to play and to work. Our Troop just carried off the honors to the tune of 81 merit badges at the Court of Honor at the Germantown High School. This leads all Troops of Germantown and Chestnut Hill which is "going some," when you consider that 30% of all the boys of Scout age in Germantown and Chestnut Hill are Boy Scouts.

Our Troop has become what they call a standard type—that is, on each meeting night new Scoutmasters visit us, coming from all over the city. They are required to do so by the examining board who accept or reject men as Scoutmasters.

The new men come to learn how to run a Boy Scout Troop and what they see when they arrive is a meeting conducted almost entirely by the boys themselves. The Scoutmaster has become a sort of a clerk of the course.

And the Hikes! Rancocas Canoe Trip for First Class Scouts only—those who are expert swimmers.

And the Wilderness Hike right out into the wildest kind of country. The Scouts ran the whole party themselves last year with the Scoutmaster ready and willing to suggest improvements but unable to improve on what the Scouts suggested.

How a mother can keep her boy out of the Scouts is beyond me. I am the father of three boys. The influence of the Boy Scouts of America is one of the most splendid influences that has ever come into their lives. Even the little fellow catches the spirit of it from his brothers.

GEORGE I. BODINE, JR.
Scoutmaster.

Sons' and Dads' Dinner

On Monday evening, May 7th, a dinner will be given in the Parish House by the boys of Christ Church School to their dads. Every boy in the Parish is invited to attend this dinner and bring with him his dad, or his big brother or some other good pal. The "boys," big and little, old and young, are going to sit down to a dandy dinner, served in dandy style, at 6.45 sharp. The dinner is going to be a feature, provided under "special arrangement"—for only twenty-five cents. Think of it—a real, big dinner of four courses, ending up with ice cream and cake for twenty-five (25) cents. You will be told how it's done when you get there. There will be good music, hearty singing, spicy speeches and a real time. Every boy and his dad are invited! Every real dad should be proud to come on that night and be "one of the boys." Here's a chance for the grouchy, moss-covered, moth-eaten old dads in the parish to come from under cover, and for one night, at least, be a real pal with your boy. It will make you and "the other boys" all feel good. "Backward, turn backward, O Time, in thy flight."

Make me a boy again; just for tonight!" Tickets for the dinner—tout compris—may be purchased from any boy in the Church School. Twenty-five cents, for the whole show—dinner, entertainment and all! No extras. Remember the date! Sons' and Dads' Dinner in the Parish House, Monday evening, May 7th, 6.45 sharp.

The Boys' Club

A club for the boys of Christ Church was organized four weeks ago by Messrs. William Clausen and John Arndt. Boys from twelve to sixteen who belong to the Sunday School can join. The club is composed of two teams and there are about nine or ten boys on each team. Clarence Goddard, Charles Buckingham, Robert Hance, William Blank, Walter Hilliard, John Abrams, William Osborne and a few new members belong to the Blue Team; Bradford Hull, James Rayner, Paul Snell, Albert and Clifton Fernier, John Hannan, Thomas Hodge and a few more new members belong to the Green Team. Each team will have a team to suit the season. At present each team has a baseball team. The club holds its meetings on Friday evenings. Any boy wishing to join, come around on Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock and you'll see the good times we have. All boys between twelve and sixteen are eligible.

JOHN HANNAN.

Tennis

Are you going to play tennis this year? If you are here is a chance to get in with a good live bunch. The Tennis Club of Christ Church offers you the privilege of two good courts for the season for two dollars. Members of Christ Church and their friends are eligible. Membership cards may be secured from members of the club.

If you already know the game the tournaments will interest you; if you have never played before there will be plenty of players who will be willing to teach you. There are also several social features which should interest everyone.

Think it over and join now; the membership will be limited.

Application for membership may be made to James Carmint, 6373 Sherman Street, Germantown. L. L. W.

Services on Ascension Day

The services on Holy Thursday, or Ascension Day, will be Holy Communion, 7.30 a. m. Holy Communion and address, 11.00 a. m.

The offering at both services will be for the missionary work of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Rectors to Exchange Pulpits With Missionaries

The Department of Missions of the Diocese has asked the Rectors of some of the parishes to exchange pulpits with the missionaries of the Diocese. "The benefit of this exchange," the letter reads, "will be four-fold."

"1. Some thirty-five of our parishes will hear about one of our Diocesan Missions from the Missionary in charge, or the Dean of a Convocation; and thus our people will be inspired to take a deeper interest in the missionary work of the Diocese.

"2. Our Missionaries will be encouraged by having the opportunity of telling of their work and needs in some of our larger parishes.

"3. Our Mission congregations will be encouraged by having some of our better-known Rectors conduct their services and preach to them.

"4. The Rectors who visit the Missions will gain a direct knowledge of one Mission a year, and thus be able to speak from experience concerning it.

"If the observance of this Exchange Sunday is continued, as we trust it will be, there being a different exchange year by year, our clergy and people will by degrees gain a more intimate and intelligent knowledge of Diocesan Missions, and thus be stirred up to take an ever deepening interest in this most important aspect of our Diocesan activities."

The Rector is in full sympathy with the object of this movement and has arranged to exchange pulpits with the Rev. A. J. Arkin, Missionary in Charge of St. George's Mission, Richmond, Philadelphia, on Sunday morning, May 27th.

St. George's Mission was formerly included in the Missions under the supervision of the Germantown Convocation but is now under the Convocation of North Philadelphia. Mr. Arkin has done and is doing a great constructive work in that growing manufacturing section of Philadelphia and he will have an interesting report to give to the people of this Parish on Sunday morning, May 27th.

Do you know how to tell Real Ice Cream?

Many kinds of so-called ice cream are made today, either for the purpose of underselling others or in order to make an increased profit. These grades are easily recognized by melting them down. Some will show a watery substance while others will be sticky, stringy. Melt a good pure ice cream and you will have a rich creamy substance. That is REAL ICE CREAM—the kind we make. It is wholesome, recommended by physicians. The taste is most delicious. Pure ice cream is more than a luxury, it is a food.

The Rector's Notes

The Rector's Office Hours 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. Daily
6.00 to 7.00 P. M. Daily At Home Saturday Evenings

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Change of the Hour for the Morning Service

During the months of July and August, and continuing until Sunday, September 16, inclusive, the hour of the Sunday mid-day service will be at half past ten (daylight saving time) instead of at eleven o'clock. This change of hour to half past ten will bring the mid-day service at a cooler part of the day. The service will be over before noon.

It will also afford the scholars of the Church School the opportunity of attending the service in the Church.

Please remember the hour of the mid-day Sunday service—10.30 Daylight Saving Time, beginning Sunday, July 1st, and continuing to Sunday, September 16th (inclusive).

The hour of the other services will remain the same—Holy Communion, every Sunday at 7.30, shortened form of Evening Prayer, with address, every Sunday evening at 7.45 o'clock.

The services during July will be in charge of the Rev. C. Sydney Goodman, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Holmsburg, Philadelphia. During August the Rev. George Woodward Lamb, Rector of the Church of the Advent, Hatboro, Pa., will be in charge.

The services of these clergymen will be at the disposal of the members of the Parish at any time, if word is left at the Rectory.

SUMMER VACATION

The time is here when many are looking forward to the summer vacation. "Where to spend it?" is to many minds the paramount question. But really the most important question is not, where to spend it, but how to spend it. The object of a vacation is, or should be, recreation, that is, re-creation. A vacation should be a rest to mind and body and soul, with this definite end in view, that one may return better fitted to do life's work, with renewed vigor, nobler purposes and higher ideals.

"Rest is not quitting this busy career, Rest is the fitting oneself to his sphere."

There is a danger that a protracted vacation may foster habits of idleness and looseness of conduct and may lower the high standard of living. The relinquishment of the responsibility, and the duties of home, of business and of the church, and, often, the abandonment of religious duties, such as private prayer, church attendance and Holy Communion, tend to demoralization and make it difficult for one to resume life's work and to take up again in the Fall life's more serious duties and responsibilities. Summer is not a time to waste or dawdle away. It is not a time when we may go away from home and throw overboard the ordinary restraint that our position in church and society requires. If our religion is more than skin deep we will carry our religion wherever we go. If we are Church people from principle and not from policy we will attend the services of the Church and hallow the name of God on the Lord's Day in summer as well as in winter. Looseness of manners and morals at some summer resorts are notorious. A Christian will not put on and take off the cloak of righteousness at his convenience. His influence must be for good at all times and in all places. When, therefore, we go to the country, to the shore, to the mountains, or wherever we go, we should let ourselves be known as Christians and Churchmen, not so much by our words as by our consistent and exemplary character. We should attend and support the Church services. We should assist, if we are able and are needed, in the choir. Give the Rector some words of encouragement. He may need it and will appreciate it, and let our encouragement take on some tangible form. In a word, let our vacation be a re-creation in body, mind and soul, and let all that we do on our vacations contribute to our highest and holiest edification.

*"And thus our life from public haunt Finds tongues in trees, books in the running brooks,
Sermons in stones and good in everything."*

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

It often occurs that communicants moving into a Parish, neglect for so long a time, to comply with this Canon, drift about from place to place, or, what is worse, neglect altogether their Church duties, and finally they get into a very dangerous habit of religious indolence and indifference—which soon brings with it hardness and callousness to spiritual influences which result in spiritual death.

There are many good people, who were once earnest and faithful attendants at the services of the Church—whose lives were once "strengthened and refreshed by the Bread of Life"—who are now wanderers from the Fold, prodigals from their Father's House. They have become so, not by any wilful desire, not by disbelief or intentional denial of allegiance to their Christ and His Church; but by the insidious force of habit which almost unconsciously has wrapped itself about them fast—bound like the serpents about Laocoon and his sons.

If these words are read by any who are drifting from place to place, without a Church that they can call their Home—the Rector affectionately urges that they let themselves be known to him that he may call upon them and welcome them to this Parish as their Church Home.

A letter or a card sent to the Rector will receive prompt attention.

POOR CHILDREN'S COUNTRY WEEK

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on Sunday morning, June 17th. It will cost $4.00 to send a poor child to the country for one week where it can enjoy pure, fresh air and good wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom for several years past to secure from various organizations for the poor the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portion of the city—in the small, dirty courts and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called "homes" the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements made for a week's outing in the country and, in some cases for a longer period of time. Occasionally a poor, overworked mother is also sent with her children.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are privileged to give, and what a great opportunity it affords to persons who are blessed with comfortable homes and can get away for rest and recreation during the hot summer months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in the narrow and crowded streets and alleys of our city.

Persons wishing to give to this most worthy charity—if they are absent from Church on Sunday morning, June 17th, may send their contributions either to the Rector or the Accounting Warden Edward Bains, 104 Harvey Street, Germantown.

A HELPFUL PRAYER

In visiting the sick and the afflicted the Rector receives for himself so much strength and inspiration for his work that he often wishes that others could share with him these blessings. One of the

ALL DRESSED UP TO GO TO THE COUNTRY
Some of the children who were sent from the slums of the city into the country, last summer most saintly women of the Rector's acquaintance, a "shut-in" for years in one of the hospitals of our city, composed for her own use the following prayers which have been a source of great help to her in her suffering and her loneliness. At the Rector's request she has copied them and sent them to him and he prints them below that others may receive from them the comfort and strength which have come, at least, to one suffering and lonely heart. Here they are. May God bless others, who may use them!

DAILY PRAYER

"Almighty and everlasting God, help me to think with more comfort of Thy love. Fill my unhappy heart with a consoling sense of Thy mercy and goodness. Strengthen me with Thy Holy Spirit in the sad loneliness of my life. Let me not dishonor Thee in my unhappiness, but be reconciled to Thy Heavenly will. Give me a sense of Thy Blessed Presence, and enable me to find peace through Jesus, my Saviour. O Blessed Lord Jesus, let me lay all my sorrows and needs at the foot of Thy cross, and fill my heart with a loving hope that Thy goodness may provide for my desires, in grief, bodily weakness, loneliness and bereavements. Teach me how to overcome sin, and give eternal happiness through Thy precious blood. Amen."

"Heavenly Father, help me to think with more comforting sense of Thy mercy and goodness. Strengthen me with Thy Holy Spirit in all my earthly life. Let me not dishonor Thee in unhappiness, but be reconciled to Thy will. Let me find peace and comfort through my Saviour. Enable me to lay all my sins, sorrows and needs at the foot of His cross. Fill my heart with a loving trust that they will be provided for me in the best way, to the end of my earthly life, and that comfort and strength can be sent to Thy children in every trial. May their souls be cleansed through Thy redeeming blood! Wilt Thou "support us through this troubled life, till the shadows lengthen, the evening comes, the busy world is hushed and our work is done. Then, in Thy mercy, grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace with Thee forever. Amen."

NOTICE TO ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

It would be a great favor to the Warden and a great benefit to the church if the subscribers through the envelope system, who intend to be away during the summer, will kindly pay in advance before they leave Germantown, the amount of their subscription for the Sundays they expect to be absent. The expenses of the parish have to be met regularly and promptly during the summer months as well as during the winter, and when parishioners leave their weekly subscriptions unpaid for a length of time the Warden who depends upon these payments to meet the expenses of the parish, is compelled to borrow money from bank and pay interest thereon.

ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

The number who subscribe through the envelope system now amounts to 312. It is greatly to be desired that the number of subscribers shall be extended until it reaches every attendant at the services of Christ Church. The expenses of the Church go on whether the members are present or not and every person will wish to do his or her share. Parents should inculcate in their children the habit of unselfish giving by systematic and regular method. This should be done in the interest of the child's own future happiness as well as for the interest of the Church. A selfish person can never be happy. Remember the words of the Lord Jesus Christ how he said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive"—Acts 20:35. Every member of every family in the Parish should have his or her individual envelopes and should give regularly and conscientiously to the work of the Church. "Upon the first day of the week let everyone of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him." I Cor. XVI:2.

Pledge cards will be found in the racks in the vestibule or may be had by applying to the Verger. Please sign these pledge cards and place them in the Alms Basin at any service. A package of envelopes will then be sent to your address.

No issue of the CHIMES will be published during the summer months.

Meetings of all Parish Societies have adjourned until autumn. The dates of fall meetings will be published in the September issue of the CHIMES.

The members of the Church School will attend the service in the Church on Sunday mornings at half past ten o'clock, Daylight Saving Time.

A short address will be given each Sunday, to young people, after which the scholars of the Church School who wish to do so, may leave the Church, during the singing of the hymn. The usual sermon will follow.

Both the mid-day and the evening service will be shortened form, with hearty, congregational singing.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Our Picnic this year will be on Wednesday, June 27th. We are going to visit Valley Forge and will leave the Parish House at 1 o'clock (Daylight Saving Time) in auto buses and coming back will arrive home between 8 and 8.30. Mothers of the younger scholars are cordially invited.

The Primary Department will hold their Picnic on the Parish House lawn on Saturday, June 23rd, from 3 to 5 P. M.

During July and August the regular sessions of the School will be omitted and we will attend the church service instead as we did last year. Those attending church and bringing their envelopes will be marked "present." Church service during the summer is at 10.30 o'clock, day light saving time. R. H. M.

MR. VOSSLER ORDAINED TO THE DIACONATE

Mr. Arthur B. Vossler, a member of this Parish, was ordained to the Diaconate on Trinity Sunday by the Rt. Rev. P. M. Rhinelander, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese. During the past eighteen months Mr. Vossler has been serving as lay reader in Christ Church and teacher of the Men's Bible Class. A trained teacher by profession and with long experience, he has rendered most efficient service to the Men's Bible Class, which has been highly appreciated by all its members.

His assistance to the Rector in the services of the Church has been most acceptable. He is an unusually good reader and his rendering of the service is impressive and reverent.

The Rev. Mr. Vossler will preach in Christ Church his first sermon, as Deacon, on Sunday evening, June 27th.

The Bishop has not as yet assigned Mr. Vossler to a definite field of work. In the meantime, it is hoped that Mr. Vossler will be able to remain at Christ Church.

CHURCHMEN'S PART IN THE WAR OF THE REVOLUTION

(A Thought for Independence Day)

"It is interesting to note that the men who took the most prominent part in the political and military affairs attending the founding of our country were for the most part Episcopalians. Some of the statesmen of our Church were as follows:

George Washington, first President, leader of Revolution.

George Mason, author of Virginia Rights Bill 1776.

Thomas Jefferson, author of Declaration of Independence.

Patrick Henry, orator of the Revolution.

James Madison, Father of the U. S. Constitution.

John Marshall, interpreter of Constitution, Chief Justice.

Alexander Hamilton, great Federalist.

Richard Henry Lee, who proposed in Congress the resolution of Independence.

Peyton Rando'ph, President of First Congress.

Robert Livingston, who in 1764 organized opposition to Stamp Act.

C. C. Pickney, who cried "Millions for defence; but not one cent for tribute."

John Morton, whose vote committed Pennsylvania to the Revolution.

Caesar Rodney, whose vote committed Delaware to the Revolution.

Robert Morris, the financier of the Revolution.

The following Generals of the Revolution were Episcopalians:

Washington, Muhlenberg, Nelson, Howard, Smallwood, Sullivan, Cobb, Morgan, Lewis, Briarly, Ross, Cadwalader, Wayne, Sumpter, Moultrie, Gwynedd, Jones, Walton, Alexander, Hamilton, and John Laurens, commander and leader of the storming of Yorktown.

There were many more Episcopalians among the framers of the Constitution and the signers of the Declaration of Independence than members of all other religious bodies combined. This is shown as follows:

Of the framers of the Constitution of the United States:

Twenty-five were Episcopalians; five were Congregationalists; five were Presbyterians; two were Roman Catholics; one was a Quaker; one was a Methodist.

Of the fifty-six signers of the Declaration of Independence there were:

Thirty-four Episcopalians; thirteen Congregationalists; five Presbyterians; two Quakers; one Romanist; one Baptist.

THE SUNDAYS AFTER TRINITY SUNDAY

All the series of Sundays before or after the great feasts of the Church are of real moment in the lives of church people—except the Sundays after Trinity.

Why is it that these are so neglected, if not as days of worship still as days of special significance in the Christian year? Special reasons are apparent. These Sundays, most of them, fall during the summer months. They begin, in fact, at a time of year when people are tired, when the "slack" season is at hand. And so they are as little noticed as some other important things during that season. Many people are away from their own parish churches throughout part or all of the summer; even when they faithfully attend church they do no parish work, and—more to the point than that—they are away from their own rectors and the sense of continuity is somewhat lost. From Stir Up Sunday to Trinity Sunday they have been led along the path of the Christian year, led by a leader with a plan: the rector. Summer comes, and they must go on by themselves.

Why do they not? We think the main reason is that they do not quite know how. It is always with hesitation that we suggest to rectors something more to do! But we do believe that they could do an immense service to their parishioners by indicating to them ways in which to make better use of the summer Sundays—the Sundays after Trinity. Books are the first aid that come to mind: there are not many, but there are a few good books of instructions on the Sundays of the Christian year. One of these, faithfully used, would help a family greatly to grasp the meaning of the summer Sundays. Bishop Whitehead's, for instance: and, of course, always, The Christian Year. People, lived a more rounded-out church year in the days when everyone had a copy of The Christian Year, and read it regularly, Sunday by Sunday—and meditated upon the reading. There are other good books. And there is always the Prayer Book. If people only read the Collect, Epistle and Gospel for each of the Sundays after Trinity and thought about them, much would be gained. But the thought is necessary. After all, that is the whole secret of using to the full the Sundays after Trinity, or any other Sundays: thought. Too little has been given. Why not more during the season now beginning?

—The Churchman.

THE GROWTH OF A LITURGY

By Bishop Thompson

We have sometimes heard it objected to a liturgy, by non-liturgical Christians, that the repetition of the same prayers and praises must gradually dull the mind to their meaning and power. There is undoubtedly, to the undevout, some danger here. It is a danger, however, by no means confined to the users of a liturgy. The Word of God itself, by continual repetition, loses its meaning to the careless and irreverent. The soul is on probation in the use of all means of grace, and there is danger in all of spiritual deadness from familiarity. The danger should be recognized and guarded against in the use of a liturgy. Clergy and laity should both come to its solemn worship with minds and hearts attentive and prepared.

But it is not a repetition in itself that deadens the spiritual power of a liturgy, though we do acknowledge the danger. A knowledge of human nature shows that repetition is the very power of a liturgy, the secret of its hold on the heart. There is the reason why a liturgy cannot be extemporized, why an extemporized liturgy is the most barren of formalism.

A liturgy is a growth. It is the accumulation of centuries. It is the prayers of the holiest in the past. It is the praises of the saintliest of all ages. It comes down burdened with most sacred memories, sanctified with holiest and loftiest associations. These prayers have been the utterances of the greatest brains and the holiest hearts for centuries. These praises have been hallowed by the purest lips that ever spake. The petitions have gone up from dungeon cells, where Christian heroes prepared to give life for faith. These hymns have rung in triumph round blazing pile and bloody block. Divinest sorrow has breathed these misereres. Divinest joy has winged these jubilates up to God. They are, at last, the concentrated worship of the Christian ages. Every pain and every gladness, every mournful defeat, every glorious triumph, in all the cycles of the Church's story, are living yet in these words of power. They have been whispered when an infant died; they have been wailed by the lips of a smitten nation asking mercy of a chastening God. They have echoed in the laborer's cottage, his thanksgiving for humble mercies to the lowly; they have rung through the vaulted roofs of grand cathedrals, a people's shout of glory for deliverance to the great "God of Battles." They are not one man's words, one heart's utterances. They are the world's words. They are humanity's cries to heaven for ages.

Thus has our liturgy grown. Thus does it come to us. Such a liturgy can never be made. Such a liturgy only grows. The oak of centuries stands by the hand of God. It has grown to what it is by His will. Men do not make either oaks or liturgies. They may prepare and plant the ground or both.

The growth of a liturgy into the individual heart and life is just the same process. Possibly the "Morning and Evening Prayer" speaks to no two souls alike, for the spiritual history of every devout heart is contained in those words that are "common" to all. There is just why that is its excellence, which those who do not know the philosophy of man consider its fault,—its common and general character. It asks what all men want. It gives voice to humanity's common needs, and offers common thanks for common blessings. And each soul finds, under these common formulas, the precise expression of its own special necessity or special thankfulness. * * *

It is the most beautiful thing about the liturgy, this gradual unfolding of its profound and personal sense in the phases of religious life; this process by which, in a certain sense, I appropriate each of them and make the general liturgy my own.

The prayers are used day by day. They seem to have all the meaning they can have. I use them devoutly. One day a near friend sails away to a distant land. The words, familiar so long, fall from the pastor's lips, "That it may please Thee to preserve all that travel by land or by water," and I am startled by the new power of those words to me.

Again and again I hear the familiar Litany. I seem so thoroughly to possess its meaning. One day I learn that God has written down a dear sister, a widow, in His book; that she and her babies are desolate. The old familiar petition, "That it may please Thee to defend and provide for the fatherless children and widows," falls on my ear in the familiar tones. Henceforth it is my own, with a profounder meaning. From a heart touched by the finger of God the response, "We beseech Thee to hear us, good Lord," comes with a depth of feeling, with a sense unknown before.

The priest stands at the altar. The sublime "Prayer for the Church Militant" falls from his lips in the people's name. I have heard it a thousand times, and I have entered into its power and spirit. I have been carried upward on its strong wings of supplication often.

A devoted father, a loving mother, dies. I have stood by the open grave and have heard the solemn words that committed that sacred dust to the earth till the morning of the resurrection. Again I hear the grand supplication at the altar side. Solemnly the well-known words fall upon the ear, "And we also bless Thy Holy Name for all Thy servants who have departed this life in thy faith and fear." The old words are new. I feel their meaning now. The prayer, at last, under God's chastening hand, is mine. The pulses of another heart shall beat time, till death, to the solemn cadences of that majestic petition which joins earth and Paradise, the crowned dead and the struggling living both in one.

So grows a liturgy into the soul. There is the secret of its power among us. That is why, to Churchmen, extempore forms seem so dead and barren. The spiritual life of every devout Churchman has crystallized around those solemn sentences. They are not words only. To him they are living things.

Do you know how to tell Real Ice Cream?

Many kinds of so-called ice cream are made today, either for the purpose of underselling others or in order to make an increased profit. These grades are easily recognized by melting them down. Some will show a watery substance while others will be sticky, stringy. Melt a good pure ice cream and you will have a rich creamy substance. That is REAL ICE CREAM—the kind we make. It is wholesome, recommended by physicians. The taste is most delicious. Pure ice cream is more than a luxury, it is a food.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the Rector or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

VACATIONS ARE OVER

Vacations are over! The activities of the parish, which were suspended for the summer, are now resumed. Another year with all its wonderful opportunities opens up before us. It beckons us onward. What a privilege it is to accept the opportunities which God offers us to be of service to Him and to our fellowmen—to say, "Lord, here am I, use me!"

Vacations are over! Yes, but there is always a danger in vacation; a danger that vacations may foster habits of idleness and make it difficult for one promptly and fully to take up again in the fall, life's more serious problems and duties and responsibilities. It ought not to be so. The object of a vacation is, or should be, recreation, that is re-creation. A vacation should be a rest to mind and body and soul with this definite end in view—that one may return better fitted for life's work, with renewed vigor, nobler purposes and higher ideals. If this has not been the result of our vacation, then we have been unworthy of it and our vacation has been to us more harm than good.

Vacations are over! Our duty now and our privilege is to take our place immediately in the ranks of Christian service. There should be no delay, no procrastination. The call is plain. As soon as each returns from his vacation he should present himself before the altar in the House of God and offer unto God praise and thanksgiving and himself—his soul and body—as "a reasonable, holy and living sacrifice."

I have missed from Church this fall many persons, whom I had hoped to see before now in their accustomed place of worship. I hope that very soon every member of Christ Church will be in his or her accustomed place in Church.

It cannot be that any devout soul, any true follower of Jesus Christ, will delay taking up his or her Christian duty and privilege.

Jesus call us; by Thy mercies,
Saviour make us hear Thy call;
Give our hearts to Thine obedience,
Serve and love Thee most of all.

STRANGERS AND OCCASIONAL ATTENDANTS

The Rector is pleased to see and to welcome the strangers and occasional worshippers who attend the Services of Christ Church. He is disappointed, however, that these strangers who attend occasionally, continue to remain "strangers." He is very anxious to meet them personally and to invite them to identify themselves with the Parish.

The Parish needs the co-operation of every one and every one needs a "Church Home." No one ought to be content to remain an "outsider," without a Church which he can call his own.

There are many religious people going through life without a "home." This is all wrong—wrong to the Church and wrong to themselves. The Rector hopes that persons in this community, who are not settled in any Church, will make themselves known to him at once and he will be pleased to meet them and to welcome them to Christ Church. Do not delay longer. Do it now!

CHRIST CHURCH CHIMES

"THE RELIGIOUS TRAMP" PROBLEM

"The religious tramp is a phenomenon of a serious nature. He is, indeed, a believer in a way, although he asserts with a pseudo-liberality that 'one church is as good as another.' He travels around to the 'special services' which one church after another serves up to secure a crowd. The churches often do not go behind the returns. There are crowds and they are crowds. The church tramp is a Christian who refuses to assume any responsibilities. He does not want to work regularly. He does not want to give regularly, though he drops a chance nickel into the plate. His attitude is one of unconcern with regard to the welfare of the churches. He gets his amusement and his sociability from the churches at the minimum of expense. He asks for no more. Just now in many communities the churches are actively competing for the presence of the church tramp. With concerts and secular lectures and moving pictures of doubtful religious value, they seek to bring the floaters to their places of worship. Their success is as transient as is the interest of the people who come. The cure for church tramps is a serious attitude on the part of the church. Smaller congregations may follow such an attitude, but they will be congregations yielding a more permanent harvest to religion. The serious-minded pastor may not be known just now as a crowd-getter, but he will be known in the end as a church builder. Meanwhile, the honest doubter outside the church is not offended by the flippancy in the face of problems which to him are of life-and-death importance. When the church makes her appeal to truth-seekers and not to the sensation-seekers, she will be a stronger church."

EVENING PRAYER

EVERY FRIDAY AFTERNOON

—O—

I wish to call attention to the members of Christ Church to the Service of Evening Prayer which is held in the Church on Friday afternoons at five o'clock.

In former years few churches could be found that did not have a service on a week-day, an opportunity for people to gather together for an hour of prayer. The Wednesday evening "prayer meeting" was all but universal. We have lost much in giving up that devout practice and "the religious life" of church people, "between Sundays," has suffered, in consequence. We surely need to have our souls fed and nourished on week-days, as well as on Sundays. Our lives will be the better and happier for it.

The Holy Days, which frequently occur on week-days, afford us an opportunity to kneel at the altar and receive the Blessed Sacrament to "the strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the Body and Blood of Christ." These "Saint Days" or "Holy Days" are, indeed, oases in the routine of our daily lives.

Friday is the weekly recurrence of the great Day of Atonement. It has always been observed by the Church as a special day of "fasting and prayer." Have not many churchmen today forgotten this most helpful and inspiring practice and cut themselves off from a great source of spiritual blessing?

"What! Could ye not watch with me one hour?" said our Lord to His sleeping Apostles on the night when He stood facing the agonies of that first Good Friday.

What! Can we not, my good people of Christ Church, come apart from our daily tasks, on Friday, the weekly memorial of our Lord's Passion, and spend one hour—no, one-half hour—in meditation and prayer and converse with Him?

I pray that Christian people in this vicinity—church people and others—will bear in mind this weekly service of prayer and special intercessions, which are held in Christ Church on Friday afternoons. It should appeal to every Christian soul.

"Com' ye apart and rest awhile."

CHANGE OF HOUR OF CHURCH SERVICE

From the first Sunday in July to Sunday, September 16th, the mid-day Sunday service has been at 10.30 o'clock, Daylight Saving Time. Beginning Sunday, September 23rd, the mid-day Sunday Church Service will be at 11.00 o'clock, Daylight Saving Time. The Church School will begin its regular winter sessions in the Parish House on that Sunday at 9.45 A. M. Standard Time will be substituted for Daylight Saving Time on Sunday, September 30th.

CHRIST CHURCH SCHOOL

Christ Church School resumed the regular sessions on Sunday morning, September 23rd, at 9.45 o'clock. There was a large attendance of scholars present and a majority of the teachers, but several were "conspicuous for their absence." It is hoped that every scholar and every teacher will be present before the first Sunday in October. We are going to have a live, interesting School this winter and we need every scholar and teacher we can get. There is a wonderful opportunity for genuine Christian service in Christ Church School and we cordially welcome every child and every young man and woman in this vicinity to our School, which meets in the Parish House every Sunday morning at 9.45.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Men's Bible Class reopened for the fall and winter Bible study on September 9th. There was a good attendance but there is still room for many more men who may be interested in the work which is being carried on. At present the topics being considered are the Collects and this work will be continued through the church year, that is until Advent in November. After that it is planned to take up for the winter a series of subjects on the History of the Church in the First Centuries and down through the Middle Ages.

The members of the class are making a special effort to get everybody who can arrange to come to these sessions as they feel assured that all who can attend will benefit greatly by a better understanding of our Church and its teachings.

A. B. V.

The various Societies of the Parish are convening for their fall and winter's work. Every member of the Parish should be identified with some parish organization and actively co-operate in the work. A list of the Parish Organizations appears in this issue of the Chimes.

These various societies afford opportunity to every person, every boy and girl, every man and woman to engage in some form of Church work. The Rector will be glad to talk to any one who wishes to become identified with Church work. He may be seen after any service or by appointment at the Rectory.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

"Vacation Time" is over and again we must turn our thoughts to the duties of The Woman's Auxiliary. At the April meeting a motion was made and seconded to raise $500.00 (five hundred dollars) before January 1st, 1924, to pay on the "Missionary Quota" of our Church. Consequently we have a busy season ahead of us and shall need the helping hand and support of every woman in our Parish, all of whom are in reality, members of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Notices will be sent out from time to time, as our plans develop, as to the ways and means of raising the stated amount, and we shall hope to hear from you in a very real way. We have just given, as "our mite," $100.00 from our Treasury, towards St. Luke's "barracks" hospital, in Tokio, Japan, which has to be rebuilt at once, in the great emergency there.

The Auxiliary meetings will continue this year as follows:

The business meeting will be held in the Parish House on the third Thursday of each month, at 2 P. M., promptly.

The sewing for missions, on the fourth Thursday at 2 P. M.

We are greatly in need of several new delegates for the different committees: are there not some women in our Parish who will volunteer for this work? It is all most interesting and inspiring and surely every woman in Christ Church wants to have a share in doing this work for the Master.

"Inasmuch as ye do it unto the least of these, ye do it unto me."

L. M. R.

BAPTIZED

"In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost."

September 16—Augusta Elizabeth Lipincott.

MARRIED

"Those Whom God hath joined together, let no man put asunder."

September 15—William Bernard Kinnan, Dorothy Mary Weisner.

September 19—Lewis Hugh Ganse, Jennie Mair Dalsen.

MEMORIAL ALTAR FLOWERS

The Altar Society have charge of placing on the Altar the flowers given by members of the Parish in memory of their departed friends. This beautiful custom of remembering at the altar the dear ones who rest in Paradise has been observed in this Parish for many years and any in the parish who wish to have the names of their friends on this "Memorial List" are invited to consult with the Rector and he will be pleased to assign them a Sunday nearest to the anniversary of the marriage, or birth, or death of their "Blessed Dead." After the Sunday service the flowers are sent to the sick in the Parish or to Hospitals.

That the congregation may know, each Sunday, in whose memory the flowers are, a list of the names departed will be published from month to month in the "Chimes."

On the "days of remembrance" it will be sweet to come to God's House and in His presence recall the loving memory of dear ones whom we have "loved long since and lost awhile"; to kneel before the altar and to feel their nearness and unite with them and all God's Saints in one common worship—"knit together in one Communion and Fellowship in the Mystical Body of Christ our Lord."

Persons who wish to have a Sunday for "memorial flowers" may apply to any member of the Altar Guild or to the Rector. Cards, bearing the names of those in whose memory the flowers are given, should always accompany the flowers.

NOTICE! RUMMAGE SALE!

A Rummage Sale for the benefit of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the Parish House, in November (date to be decided upon later).

Please, ladies and gentlemen of the Parish, save all of your cast-off possessions, of any kind or description, for us and send the same to the Parish House as soon as possible. If you can not deliver them to us, we shall be glad to "send our truck" to call for them!

Kindly notify the writer.—Mrs. L. M. Robinson, 48 E. Washington Lane, Germantown. Phone, Gtn. 7756.

TROOP NO. 153, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

No doubt a lot of people in Christ Church are ignorant of the fact that Troop No. 153, Boy Scouts, meets in their Parish House every Monday night at 7.45. Those of you who want to see a bunch of real, up-to-date boys, drop in some Monday night and look us over. This past summer, we took a two weeks' trip to the Catskill Mountains. That is a real place for real campers. During our stay there, we saw a wildcat and killed five porcupines. We had a dandy time, too. If you want to find out more about the Wilderness Hike and the good time that we had on it, ask any fellow that went.

EDW. F. RAGLAND.

SEPTEMBER 11, 1923.

TO THE CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA:

Since the notice that was sent you on the 8th instant, important developments have occurred in connection with the situation in Japan. Word has been received from the National Council, as follows:

"Our estimate, based on Bishop McKim's Cable indicates $500,000 NEEDED IMMEDIATELY."

This $500,000 includes the Emergency Hospital asked for by Dr. Teusler, and estimated to cost $100,000; it also includes furnishing our own missionaries with clothing, furniture and temporary homes, and finally aiding the new Christian Church of Japan in taking care of its clergy; their salaries and necessities of life at the present time.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of our Diocesan Council held today, it was unanimously decided to adopt an emergency budget for Japanese relief of at least $50,000—this being estimated as the fair share in this Diocese of the $500,000 asked for by the National Council; it was further decided that as this $50,000 is almost exactly ten per cent of the Budgets of our Parishes, each Parish should be asked to raise ten per cent of its Missionary Budget for this special need. The share of your Parish thus estimated is $513.05.

It is desired, that in view of the pressing needs, returns from each Parish shall be made not later than the first week in October. The first $10,000 received will be applied toward the pledge of that amount for Dr. Teusler's hospital.

We ask our people to remember that this is an emergency Budget, and is in addition to the regular Quota for Diocesan and Missionary work, which we are hoping will be met in full by the end of the year. Also it seems only fair to add that the $500,000 fund referred to in this notice is simply for emergency relief; it will not help to rebuild and restore the property which the Church has lost as a result of the earthquake. In all probability the National Council will make plans for such restoration, and our people will be asked to contribute generously for this purpose at some later date.

The above program has been communicated to Bishop Rhinelander and has his full approval.

Faithfully yours,
THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

An offering was taken in our Church for this worthy cause on Sunday, September 16th. As the "Chimes" goes to press, the amount received is not known. Many of our people, however, had not returned to their homes at the time this offering was taken and were, therefore, deprived of the opportunity of giving at that time. Any who were not present on that Sunday may send their checks to the Accounting Warden, Mr. Edward Bains, 104 Harvey Street. The need is urgent. Please send contribution, if possible, before October 1st.

POOR CHILDREN'S OUTING FUND

The amount received from the members of Christ Church for the Poor Children's Outing Fund was $162.20. This was divided among the "Children's Country Week Association," the "Union Settlement House," the "Bedford Street Mission" and the "Episcopal City Mission," organizations which are doing social work among the poor of our city.

During June the Rector visited many so-called "homes" of families, the names of which had been given to him by two of the above organizations, and selected the children who were considered the most worthy and needy of help.

The following letters, received by the Rector, will show how highly the contributions of Christ Church people were appreciated by the organizations through which these poor children were sent into the country or to the seashore for a week or ten days:

REV. CHAS. HENRY ARNDT, D. D.,
59 W. Tulpehocken Street,
Germantown, Phila., Pa.

DEAR SIR:

We thank you for your letter enclosing annual contribution from the Christ Episcopal Church of Germantown.

Our whole Organization very much appreciates the active and substantial interest which you have been taking in our work, and sincerely hope that we may warrant the continuation of it. * * * *

We enclose herewith our receipt for your contribution, and hope that you will call at the Mission whenever you have an opportunity, for such personal interest which you have been giving to our work is a great encouragement to our Workers.

Very sincerely,
BEDFORD STREET MISSION

REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, D. D.,
Orr's Island, Maine.
MY DEAR DR. ARNDT:

We have received information from the Diocese of the generous gift for the Children's Summer Fund from Christ Church and from the Sunday School for the same purpose, making $70.00 in all for the use of the City Mission in its summer work.

I want to take this opportunity of expressing to you our heartfelt appreciation for this generous remembrance from Christ Church and the Sunday School and I hope you will express these sentiments to each and every member of your parish, as it is the kind of work that does more good than can be expressed in figures. It may mean the saving of a life of a mother and child and it is bound to mean better health and strength to meet the hard problems of life which face all those who will receive the benefit of this gift.

May God bless each and every one of the givers and may their summer be even more satisfactory and beneficial to them because of their generous remembrance of God's poor.

With best wishes, I am

Most cordially yours,
H. CRESSON MCHENRY,
General Secretary.

REV. CHAS. HENRY ARNDT, D. D.,
Germantown, Pa.

DEAR DR. ARNDT:

Thank you so much for your kind contribution toward sending our poor little children to the country. It has been an untold blessing to them.

I should like to tell you about several of the families benefited. One, a poor widow with six delicate children whom she is struggling to support. Poor half-starved little things! It would have rejoined your heart to have seen them on their return. They looked like different children.

Another was a family of eleven who live in a little three-room house. Ten were sent out. They were so happy they thought it was Heaven.

Again thanking you and praying God to richly bless you for your kindness to these His little ones, I am

Gratefully yours,
ANNIE M. MILLER, Supt.

WE BELONG TO A CHURCH, NOT A PARISH

We are accustomed to hear the word "Church" applied to a local congregation. We use it ourselves in the same way. But with us, speaking accurately, the Church is our entire communion. The local organization is simply a parish, an outpost, a garrison. A garrison in an outpost does not think of itself as the army. A ship is not the navy. A local post office is not the postoffice department. The visit of the Bishop reminds us that we belong to a Church, not to a parish; that we are part of the army, not simply a garrison; that we are enlisted in the navy, not in a ship. The Bishop is the outward and visible sign that we belong to a great, historic, age-long, world-wide institution, which has outposts everywhere, and that we have all its resources back of us and its power within us. Confirmation is not administered by the rector of the parish, who represents only the local congregation. It is administered by the Bishop, who represents the entire Church. We are admitted, therefore, into the communion not of the local congregation or parish. The Bishop's act accomplishes something far wider than that. We are taken into the communion and fellowship of the entire Church throughout the world, including every parish, mission, outpost or garrison under the Church's jurisdiction. That is why we are Churchmen, not Congregationalists. That is why it is that our imagination is stirred and our enthusiasm is kindled by the world-wide institution more than by the local organization. For while we are registered in and attached to a given parish, our citizenship is in the all-including Church.

A PRECIOUS LEGACY

Persons who have not had the advantage of the beautiful service of our Church in their earlier years often become in their later years, when this privilege is enjoyed by them, the most enthusiastic admirers of our service and the most devoted and loyal members of the Church. They are able from their experience to contrast the barrenness and emptiness of other forms with the richness and fulness of the grand historic liturgy of the Church. The following extract from the memoirs of Prof. Austin Phelps, the scholarly Congregational preacher, shows how an "outsider" regards the services of the Church:

"The Liturgy of the Episcopal Church has become very precious to me. The depth of its meaning it seems to me nobody can fathom who has not experienced some sorrow. We have lost much in parting with the prayers of Old Mother Church, and what have we gained in their places? I do not feel in extemporaneous prayer the deep undertone of devotion which rings out from the old collects of the Church like the sounds of ancient bells. I longed for and prayed for, and, worst of all, waited for, some sublime and revolutionary change of heart; and when that was, as a fact of a child's experience, I have not the remotest idea. If I had been trained in the Episcopal Church, I should at the time have been confirmed and entered upon a consciously religious life and grown up into Christian living of the Episcopal type."

ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

Subscriptions through the envelope system, who have been away during the summer, are very generally paying the amounts that they have omitted giving during their absence. It is very gratifying to the Warden to receive these arrears as he depends upon them to meet his financial obligations.

It is hoped that all subscribers who may be in arrears will kindly make them up at their earliest convenience.

AN ANNUAL MEMBER CANVASS

The annual "Every Member Canvass" that is being held in all the parishes throughout the country has not been held in Christ Church Parish for two years. There is a need that such a canvass be held, and the Vestry will inaugurate an "Every Member Canvass" early in the year.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS. WHY ANNUALLY?

Because:

1. Some will have grown in grace.
2. Some will have increased their knowledge of the Church's programme, and so will have developed new interest.
3. The income of some will have increased.
4. Some may have suffered loss of income; opportunity should be given them to reduce pledges if necessary, without embarrassment.
5. Some will have been added by Confirmation or transfer; these should be enrolled as contributors.
6. Experience proves that without an annual renewal a large percentage of contributors is lost. Even when people simply renew pledges made "until revoked," it is helpful in keeping their pledges "alive."
7. Courtesy dictates that Every Member should be visited, lest feelings be hurt by distinctions between canvassed and nuncanvassed.
8. Those who have made pledges for a definite period longer than one year are entitled to the recognition of a visit and of up-to-date information on the progress of the Church's work.
9. It is the best method known for keeping the entire membership enlisted.
10. It promotes fellowship.
11. It is of great educational value to the canvasser.
12. The perfect canvass has not yet been held.
13. God blesses the earth with seed-time and harvest annually.

FAMILY SUNDAY

A Special Message to Parents and to Young People

MY DEAR FRIENDS:

There is a matter of great importance which has weighed heavily on my heart for a long time, and I feel sure it must weigh heavily on the hearts of many Rectors. It is the decadence in these days of what was formerly known as the "family pew."

Not so many years ago Church-going by the whole family was an established habit. The family pew was an institution, just as much as the family table.

To many of us older men and women one of the most hallowed memories of our childhood days, is that of father and mother and the children of the household attending Divine service together and all sitting together in the family pew on the "Lord's Day." Often, two and three generations could be seen seated together in God's house, for His worship and praise.

The family, as a unit, attended the Services of the Church. No other engagements were made. Nothing was allowed to interfere. Inclement weather, even, did not cause the family pew to remain vacant, nor did trifling illness.

This beautiful custom is one of the old things that deserves to survive. The change in living conditions does not provide a valid alibi.

A wise suggestion has been made by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew to aid in the restoration of this beautiful and helpful custom. It is to have a Family Sunday, when every family in the parish shall attend Divine Service, as a unit, coming together and sitting together in the Church. This appeals to me very strongly and I feel certain that it will also meet with the hearty endorsement of every parent in our parish. We all realize the seriousness of the present day influences which are tending to disintegrate the family life and family worship. It is, therefore, the duty of every conscientious parent and of every seriously minded boy and girl to exert every effort and to employ every means to guard the "home" from the insidious influences which today are fast tending toward its destruction and ruin.

Something must be done, and it must be done at once. I am asking, therefore, every parent and every boy and girl in the parish to co-operate with me in making a beginning. I want to make Sunday, December 23rd, a Family Sunday in this parish.

I urge that Every Family in the Parish shall be present, AS A UNIT, at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday morning, December 23rd. This will be the Fourth Sunday in Advent, the Sunday next be-

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church: "A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the Rector or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

..... dollars for the purpose of the Endowment Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise the bequest is void.

fore Christmas Day.

It will be an opportune time, a time when the scattered members of the household will be turning their ways homeward, to be together on Christmas Day in the "family home."

Let us make it, also, an occasion when all members of the family will meet together in their "Church home"—father, mother and children, two generations and perhaps, three generations, coming together, sitting together, and kneeling together in united praise and prayer and worship.

Will it not be an inspiring sight? Will not such a scene bring back to the older members blessed memories of days long gone by, when they, too, worshiped side by side with loving parents in the "family pew?" Will it not help to impress our children, in this restless, ruthless age, when so many influences are striving to break up the family unity,—will not such a scene and such an experience, now so rare and uncommon, help to impress our children with the sanctity of the "family life" and the beauty and holiness of the "sweet hour of prayer."

And should there be some member of the family "absent" from the family pew on that "Family Sunday," will not our thoughts and prayers go out to them and be with them and they be with us, as we kneel and pray, "Our Father"

On that "Family Sunday," as parents and children kneel together before God's altar in united prayer and praise and worship, surely, the limitations of time and space shall fade away, and we will look up and through and beyond the gates of Paradise into that higher and fuller life above and feel the holy influence of those "absent ones" flowing back into our lives, and "see those angel faces smile, which we have loved long since and lost awhile."

One family, we dwell in Him,

One Church, above, beneath;

Though now divided by the stream.

The narrow stream of death."

It will be the power of this truth that will lay hold upon the hearts of old and young alike, as they, united in one family, meet together in God's house on "Family Sunday" and join in common prayer and praise and worship to Him Who is the Father of the living and the dead.

THE SEASON OF ADVENT

—o—

The First Sunday in Advent (December 2nd) ushers in the annually recurring Season of Advent. Four weeks before Christmas, we are called upon to prepare for the coming of our Lord. "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."

The First Sunday in Advent is the beginning of the Church or the Christian New Year.

"Thus it happens," says Bishop Cox, "that in the Kingdom of Heaven, we live in advance of the world; we are a whole month on our way before the civil year begins. In this way our Holy Mother, the Church, teaches us to be ever on the alert, looking for and hastening unto the coming of the Day of God."

The Christian year, beginning with the Season of Advent, is so arranged as to bring before us the leading events in our Lord's life and the leading principles of Christian faith and conduct. This aim is carried out by means of special Collects, Epistles and Gospel, by special Lessons, and in certain cases by special selections of psalms.

The season of Advent, so called from the Latin Adventus, a coming, is intended to prepare our minds for the celebration of the coming of our Lord, both on that first Christmas Day and also on that great last Day when we shall all appear before the judgment seat of God. It is impossible for us, as Christians, to enter into the joy of Christmas unless we realize the object for which Christ came into the world—viz: to save not merely from the guilt and consequences but from the power of sin.

Thus, the season of Advent, in its Lessons, Epistles and Gospels, strongly mingles the most joyous with the most appalling thoughts; for while it strikes the keynote of our Christmas rejoicings, it dwells on this first Advent with special reference to its bearings on that which is yet future when "He shall come again to judge both the quick and the dead."

How helpful to the soul this annual "awakening," and setting forward towards Christ's appearing and towards immortality!

Christ tells us: "Watch, therefore, for we know not when the Master of the House cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock crowing, or in the morning; lest coming suddenly He find you sleeping."

The Christian year, which, as we have said, begins with Advent, is divided, for practical and doctrinal purposes, into two parts. In the first or festal part of the year—that is from Advent to Trinity—the Epistles and Gospels are selected for their appropriateness to the teachings of the doctrine of the day or season; in the second, or non-festal part of the year—that is, from Trinity to Advent—they follow a certain regularity, setting forth the practical life, which should flow out of these doctrines or teachings.

By this method of the Christian year the Church brings before her people the leading events in our Lord's life and the leading principles of Christian faith and conduct. Nothing essential is lost; nothing is added. It is a well rounded teaching of the Christian faith and life.

CHRISTMAS COMMUNION

On Christmas Day every Churchman will wish to come to the House of God and there as did the wise men of old, kneel before the Saviour in love and adoration. Christmas without Christ?—no Christian man or woman will cherish the thought! The very word "Christmas" means meeting with Christ. Christmas is not a worldly holiday but a Christian festival. It is the feast when the Christ—Mass, the mass of the Incarnate Word, is kept with joy. Surely on that day we will not forget Him! Wise men ever bring gold and frankincense and myrrh to Bethelhem—offerings of their earthly substance, offerings of worship and adoration, offerings of lowly penitence and love for Him in His humiliation for our sakes. On this happy Christmas Day there will be gifts for our loved ones, offerings for our spiritual mother, the Church, and the offerings of "ourselves, our souls and bodies" in the Holy Communion for the building up of ourselves more and more into the spiritual likeness of Him Who has given to us to be our Pattern and our Guide.

That every communicant may kneel before Him on the day of His Nativity and offer unto Him "their hearts deepest devotions." Holy Communion will be celebrated in this Church at 6.30, 7.30 and 11.00 o'clock. Everyone, who is physically able, will want to come to at least one of these Services. The happiest Christmas is the one that is filled with Christ and His love.

A NEW CHURCH CALENDAR FOR 1924 WITH BIBLE READINGS

In place of the usual "Christ Church Calendar," that has been provided in this parish for several years past, the Rector has adopted this year a "Calendar with Bible Readings" together with a Manual of Family Prayers, which has been gotten out by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. The purpose of this new Calendar and Manual of Prayers is to encourage the custom of family prayer and to provide a means by which family prayer may be readily and regularly conducted in every household.

No argument is necessary to support the statement that every Christian household should aim to have family devotions.

This new Church Calendar indicates a short Bible selection to be read each day, privately or in family prayer. These readings are arranged appropriate to the Church seasons. The "Manual of Prayer," accompanying the Calendar is a book of forty-four pages, containing "a very simple and flexible plan of Family Prayer to be used with the series of Bible readings set forth on the Church Calendar."

The prayers themselves are brief, personal and helpful. Even the inexperienced can, with comparative ease, begin the custom of Family Prayer. A trial will convince the most skeptical of the naturalness and simplicity of the plan.

The Church Calendar is in clear, bold type. The Rector has had printed at the top of the page the title of Christ Church, Germantown, together with the list of the Church services.

The Calendar is provided with a cord, so that it can be hung on the wall. The Manual of Prayer is, of course, separate and is intended to accompany the Calendar. They will not be sold separately.

By special arrangement with the publishers both the Calendar and Manual may be purchased for fifty cents. They may be purchased from the Verger.

Every home in the parish should be provided with this Calendar and Manual.

In every home there should be a daily reading of the Bible, together with daily prayer.

Buy several sets and send them to friends, thus encouraging and extending the custom of daily Bible reading and prayer.

The Calendar should be purchased at once, as it begins with the Season of Advent, the beginning of the Church year.

The Calendar and Manual make appropriate gifts for Christmas and New Year.

SPECIAL SERVICE FOR MEN

On the Second Sunday Evening of Each Month

The following letter to the men of the parish has been issued by the Men's Bible Class through its President:

DEAR FRIENDS:

The need of a service of particular interest to men, has been felt for some time and at the request of the Rector, the Men's Bible Class has undertaken to supply this need during the fall and winter.

Upon the second Sunday evening of each month a special service will be held and speakers both clerical and lay, have been invited to make addresses which will appeal to the men especially.

In order that these services may be successful the support of the men of our Parish is needed, not only by attending themselves but by asking other men to come with them.

Please reserve the Sunday Evening of each month for this service and with the co-operation of every man make this series of services not only successful, numerically, but helpful to our Church, our Parish and ourselves.

Sincerely,

HERBERT A. FEIST,

President, Men's Bible Class.

The following clergymen have been invited by the Rector to speak at the Men's Special Service on the first Sunday evening of each month.

These speakers will have a strong, virile message to give to the men of the Church. Let every man in the Parish come and bring with him a friend. Women are invited and it is hoped will endeavor to interest the men to attend these services on the second Sunday evening of this month.

MR. BOLAY RESIGNS AS VERGER

Mr. Philip Bolay, who has served as Verger at Christ Church for the past number of years, handed his resignation to the Vestry at their last meeting held in October. Mr. Bolay feels that he is no longer able to attend to the duties of his position, owing to his advanced age. He has given the Church faithful service and it is regretted by all that he is no longer able to remain with us, as sexton. He will, however, remain in the parish and, with his wife, will continue his faithful attendance at the services.

At a meeting of the Vestry resolutions of appreciation of his faithful services were passed, and a gift of money was presented to him from members of the Vestry.

Mr. Robert H. Wass has been appointed Verger. Mr. Wass is a consulting engineer. He began his duties on November 1st.

A LETTER FROM THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN

The subscribers to the envelope system will notice that the envelopes given to them last Easter will expire December 30th next. New envelopes will be ready for distribution at that time and the fiscal year of the church will hereafter be from January 1st to December 31st in order to conform with the church year now adopted by the diocese. This will save the accounting warden much unnecessary work in making the different reports requested by the Diocese.

Should any members of the Parish who are not at present subscribing through the envelopes desire to do so, if they will give or send their names to either the Rector or the accounting warden, they will be supplied with envelopes for the coming year.

The accounting warden would urge that any one delinquent in their payments for the present year will endeavor to make up all back payments so that the new year will commence with no unpaid pledges to carry forward and that the Church may end its year out of debt which is a condition to be desired by every member who has the good of our Church at heart.

EDWARD BAINS,
Accounting Warden.

REV. MR. VOSSLER TO BE ORDAINED TO THE PRIESTHOOD

The Rev. A. B. Vossler, who has been serving in Christ Church as Deacon during the past two years, will be ordained to the Priesthood on St. Thomas' Day, Friday, December 21. The ordination will be held in St. James' Church, 22nd and Walnut Streets, at 10.30 o'clock.

The many friends, whom Mr. Vossler has made in this parish since he has been in Christ Church, heartily congratulate him on his ordination to the sacred ministry. He will have the earnest prayers of the congregation that "Almighty God, the Giver of all good gifts will give him grace and so replenish him with the truth of His doctrine and endue him with purity of life, that he may faithfully serve before God, to the glory of His great name, and the benefit of the Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

We opened our regular school on September 23rd with 166 present. We will miss some teachers who have had to give up their work and we welcome Mrs. Hallock, Miss Pinkerton, Miss Drayton and Mr. Carl Mostellar as teachers for this year.

The attendance has been unusually good this fall and has been gradually increasing. On November 4th it was 212, which was the highest in over 5 years. For the eight Sundays since "Rally Day" Mr. Clausen has had a "Star" class seven times, the next being Mr. Mostellar's with four times.

Our Summer work for the Seamen's Mission will be presented next week and a report of the amount made later.

"Thanksgiving"

Our Thanksgiving offering of cans of food, that is, vegetables, soups, etc., is to be brought to the Sunday School on Sunday morning, December 2nd. DO NOT FORGET THE DATE. Dr. Arndt says that he gave away last winter the 500 packages that we brought in last year. If every teacher and scholar brought in only 3 cans we would have nearly 800. We can surely do this.

For our Advent work it is proposed that we sell Christmas Candy and add it to our mite box fund for missions next Easter. We made over $60 this way last spring and we ought to double as everyone eats twice as much candy at Christmas as they do at Easter. Every member of the church who reads this should "wait and buy your candy from us."

Christmas Entertainment

This will be held on Holy Innocents' Day, Friday, December 28th. It will consist of a short Christmas play, given by the members of the Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church, followed by "a special feature of fun," by outside talent.

Of course, Santa Claus will be present and will have a "Christmas remembrance" for all the "good" boys and girls of the school. Parents and friends of the scholars are cordially invited to this entertainment.

Christmas Carol Service will be held in the Church on Sunday afternoon after Christmas, December 30th, at 3.30 and a Pageant will be given by members of the school. A description of this Pageant appears below. Every parent and friend of the school who saw the Pageant we gave last Easter, we know will want to see this one.

A CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

To be given in Christ Church

A pageant entitled "The Nativity" will be presented by members of the Sunday School at their annual Christmas Carol Service in the Church on Sunday evening, December 30th.

"The Nativity" is composed entirely of selections from the Bible, arranged in dramatic form on the plan of a mystery play, picturing the incidents of the Gospel story of the Nativity and accompanied by Christmas carols. The pageant has a three-fold appeal—the Bible words, accompanied by music, and with the actual scenes of the Nativity story.

There are four scenes—the first is the Temple scene when the Angel Gabriel brings his message of joy to Zacharias and Elizabeth; the second is the Annunciation scene; the third shows the Shepherds in the field when the Angel appears unto them and tells them that they will find the young babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger; and the last scene is the Nativity scene with the coming of the three Wise Men and the presentation of their gifts. As they are leaving, the Angel appears to Joseph, telling him to flee with Mary and the Babe into Egypt.

The pageant will appeal to everyone and will make the Christmas story more real and more spiritual to all of us, and especially to those who are taking part in it on December 30th. M. M. C.

A CHRISTMAS PLAY

By the G. F. S.

The Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church will give a short sketch as part of the Christmas entertainment for the Sunday School on Friday evening, December 28, in the Parish House. The sketch will be entitled "Christmas at Skeeter Corner." This is a humorous little play representing a school of fifty years ago and its preparation for its Christmas entertainment.

The principal character—The Teacher—will be taken by Miss Edna Nagele, the present Chairman of the G. F. S. Silas, a tall, gawky boy, will be presented by Miss Alma Hagey. The other characters will be taken by the Misses Robinson, Courtney, Clifton, Van Dusen, Hagey, Church, with the rest of the members representing the school.

The Candidate Class of the G. F. S. is a rousing active lot of girls from six to fourteen years. This is the feeder for the Girls' Friendly Society, and from its number and activity we need not fear for the future of this organization. Mrs. Eleanor Christ is the Associate who has it in charge, with the assistance of Helen and Martha McHenry and Sarah Drayton.

MRS. TOPLIFFE JOHNSON,
Branch Secretary.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Our work is well under way for the winter and the interest that is shown, by not only those of the "faithful few" but by a number of new members, gives us reason to believe that we shall have a most successful year. The proceeds from the recent Rummage Sale amounted to $130.00. (We expect to hold another, later on during the winter). The Cake and Apron Sales held in November, will bring us in about $100.00, so that with the $70.00 in hand, derived from the Rummage Sale last spring we shall have about $300.00 to pay on our "pledge" for the quota. We are planning other ways and means of raising the other $200.00 of which you will hear later. The cakes given for our Saturday Sales have been delicious and we could have disposed of a good many more. We shall probably have two more of these Cake Sales in December, on Saturday, December 1st, and Saturday December 15th.

Please remember that each and every woman who is a communicant of Christ Church is in reality a member of the Woman's Auxiliary (the Woman's Missionary Society), and that this work is your work just as much as it is that of the active members of the Auxiliary. Only by the concerted efforts of all the women of our Parish can we accomplish the bigger things which are awaiting us.

MEMORIAL FLOWERS

FOR DECEMBER

The flowers which are placed on the altar on Sundays are gifts from friends and relatives in memory of the departed. The Sunday nearest the anniversary of their death or their birthday, or wedding anniversary is selected and the departed are remembered in our prayers at the altar on that day.

After the service the flowers are taken to the sick in the parish. Persons who wish to contribute flowers for the altar are asked to consult the Rector in regard to the date of their "memorial Sunday."

Names of persons contributing flowers during December are:

First Sunday in Advent, Mrs. Ellen Wilcox, Mr. Gebhardt.

Second Sunday in Advent, Mr. Rayner, Mr. George Warr.

Third Sunday in Advent, Mrs. Ruth Bjornsgaard, Mrs. Andrew Lindsay.

Fourth Sunday in Advent, Mrs. H. C. Thompsons, The Misses MacNaughton, Mrs. O. C. Lippincott.

Sunday after Christmas, Miss Stickney.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. resumed its regular meetings on October 2nd, and at the first large meeting we planned our winter's program with even greater enthusiasm than before.

The following officers were elected: Chairman, Miss Edna Naegle; Vice-Chairman, Miss Hilda Ellis; Treasurer, Miss Helen Wertsner; Secretary, Miss Sara Clifton.

Chairman, Committee of Membership, Miss Helen Robinson.

Chairman, Committee of Entertainment, Miss Grace Gerhard.

The basket ball season will open again under the capable direction of Mrs. Iris Shock.

Among our many plans are to form classes for various activities during the winter, the leaders of which have not been chosen. A stringed orchestra is also being formed by the members.

Since the work has now begun we hope to add many new members to our happy throng and we extend a hearty welcome to all girls over fourteen years of age.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Men's Bible Class has just finished the study of The Collects with the end of the Church Year, and beginning with Advent take up the lessons outlined in the Church Calendar, published by The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, for the coming season. The study of these Scripture lessons should prove of great value and interest to all men, and it is sincerely hoped that many will avail themselves of the privilege of attending these discussions of Christian belief and practice not only for their own edification but also for the incentive it will prove to better living and the increased knowledge it will give of the Holy Writ.

The lessons cover a wide range of reading—The Law of the Prophets, and the Gospels. While the topics themselves are taken mostly from the Epistles of the New Testament.

All men are cordially invited to these sessions of the Bible Class, which are held in the Parish House, on Sunday mornings at 10 o'clock. A. B. V.

A NEW ORGAN

About the time that this issue of the CHIMES goes to press, a musical entertainment will be given in the auditorium of the Woman's Club of Germantown for the benefit of the fund for installing a new organ in Christ Church.

The organ has been called the "King of Instruments" and its majestic tones are a recognized necessity in the effective rendering of Christian worship.

The only exception to this is in the Greek Catholic Church where vocal music is unaccompanied but in the reorganization which that church is at present undergoing it is possible that the organ will be utilized.

Some sects which were projected along crude, primitive ideas of worship have, in the evolution of a single century, adopted the organ and are thus enabled to avail themselves of some of the gems of majestic worship.

The organ has been always a sine qua non to the proper rendering of Anglican worship and in cathedral and chapel alike it adds to the effectiveness of our glorious liturgy.

Organs, like other things, occasionally wear out and that in Christ Church is no exception. It is about as old as the church and its decrepitude has, at last, made its replacement imperative.

Even now some of its pipes retain their sweetness and may be incorporated in a new instrument.

It is a satisfaction to know (and it may be also a compliment to our organist) that our organ has outlived at least three others in Germantown churches which while only half its age have had to be replaced by new instruments.

Now that we are forced to place a new organ in Christ Church let every member do his part to make it a speedy realization so that our music may in all respects be worthy of this old mother church.

OFFERING FOR THE SUFFERERS IN JAPAN

Mr. Edward Bains, our Accounting Warden, reports the offerings which he has received to date for the sufferers from the earthquake in Japan amount to date to $440.06. This includes the offering from the Men's Bible Class, $40.00 and 100.00, each, from the Women's Auxiliary and from a "personal Friend."

If there are others, who wish to give to this cause, will they please place their contribution on the alms plate at any service, or send it to the Accounting Warden, 104 Harvey Street.

We note in the Evening Bulletin of November 21st an account of a church in Des Moines, Iowa, that has posted on its service board before the church building the following notice:

"A hearse is a poor vehicle to come to Church in! Why wait?"

We solemnly and affectionately submit these words to some persons in this vicinity: "A hearse is a poor vehicle to come to Church in. Why Wait?"

THE NEED OF RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

During the past summer, I have had the privilege of reading an article, entitled the "Need of Religious Education," written by the Rev. W. E. Patterson, Rector of St. Saviour's Church, Bar Harbor, Maine, and published in the "North East," the diocesan paper. It had been my intention to write on the same subject for the October number of the "Christ Church Chimes," but as Mr. Patterson, in his published article, has expressed my own thoughts on this important subject so fully and so much more clearly and strongly than I could hope to do, I have ventured to publish his article in this issue of the "Chimes," heartily endorsing it and commending it to every member of this parish, and especially to parents and others who have the interest of young people at heart.

Mr. Patterson says: "In a country that is actuated by Christian principles and influenced by Christian ideas it is essential that the citizens should have a grounding, at least, in the first principles of the Christian religion. We claim to be a Christian nation and we cannot keep the claim long if we allow a few more generations to pass, who are ignorant of what the Christian religion is."

To many minds the Christian religion seems to be a hazy, nebulous, indistinct sort of an emotion that prompts to benevolence and kind deeds but of not much force or account when manly qualities are called into action. We perhaps are not consciously aware though we may be mentally of the amount of ignorance prevalent on the subject of the Christian religion. It was painfully brought to our attention during the war when the young men concentrated in the training camps were asked to state their religious views. Much has been written on the subject and we know that it was the despair of the chaplains and a real anxiety to Christian people. The majority of the young men were filled with high ideals and the spirit of service and sacrifice and yet were really ignorant of the great power of God's Spirit by which these ideals are brought to their consummation. Christian ideals are innate in the large majority of the people of this country being inherited from the religious fervor of their sturdy ancestors. To say and think that these will continue to actuate our people while we allow the knowledge and spirit that sustains them to pass away is a fallacy. As well might we expect a noble building to stand when the foundations are taken from under it. We turn to our schools and universities and we find that the ignorance of the Bible and the Christian religion are no less appalling. You may have read in the Literary Digest of April 21, the results of an examination on the Bible in the University of South Dakota. Eight quotations from the Bible were asked of 139 students and only eight and a half per cent passed an average of seventy-five, the average of the whole body being less than forty per cent. Seven per cent could not name a book of the old Testament and eight and a half per cent were not able to mention a single book of the New Testament. What is true of this university is no less true of others. The rising generation knows less of the Bible and the Christian faith than the generation before and that was little enough, God knows.

Placing the Responsibility

The young people are not to blame. The desire for righteousness and service is as strong in this generation as any and in some ways stronger. They are the victims of circumstances and of the stupidity of preceding generations. They are what we have made them and carry out in their actions and conduct the ideas that we have given them a little less covertly than we did. And we criticise. Why not try to remedy instead of accusing and criticising?

Let us look at some of the causes for this state of things. There has been a great advance in the material comforts of life and what were called luxuries yesterday are necessities today. We have emphasized the value of these material things and allowed the spiritual to fade into the background and be forgotten. Our industrial development has changed the outlook and social conditions of our people. Developments of pleasures and entertainments, the automobile, the movies, the radio has changed the whole outlook and environment of the rising generation from that of the past and has made it more intense and difficult. If with this environment we allow those things which alone can interpret it for higher purposes and make it subservient to the best interest of the human race, to be cast out of our consideration then we are a doomed people and deserve to be doomed. Decay has already begun.

City life with its call to our young people, with its gaieties, with its rush and hustle has occupied the mind to the exclusion of the things of the spirit. We are living in an industrial and commercial age when things are measured not for their intrinsic worth but by how much they can minister to the physical comforts and pleasures of the individual.

The great value-idea of our generation has been and is "Success" and success is measured by the amount of money a man has made or the heights of ambition he has attained rather than the service he has rendered to mankind. We have put first things last and are surprised that our children lightly hold and even discredit the things of the spirit. We do not follow our Lord's plain command "Seek ye first the kingdom of God" but we labor hard for the things of the world and the flesh and have little strength or inclination left to labor for the things of the kingdom. Ambition for success from the worldly point of view has been our curse. It creeps into the Church and paralyzes its work. We can see it in the ministry. To be a country parson is as high and important a position as that of the city parson and yet how many of us are looking for the time when we shall be called to city parishes and think ourselves successful when the call comes. We may get our heart's desire at times but God sends leanness withal into our souls. There is no greater opportunity than the work of the country parson. It is not remunerative and it is difficult. Not many privileges of culture are given. Sacrifice and self-denial abound and the chances for service to mankind and duty to God are many.

Home Influence

The change in the home atmosphere is the most vital. It has been influenced more by the new environment than anything else. Few are the homes now that rear the altar of family prayer. The intensiveness of modern life keeps us so busy with the making of a living that we are forgetting how to live. With the change in the home and the ease with which it may be broken up has gone parental responsibility, and the children are allowed to grow up without a knowledge of prayer and of their duty to God and man. Individual private prayer is not taught to the child and the chances are he will grow up without even knowing the Lord's prayer or any other, and as for using prayer that is something that is felt to be weak and quite superfluous. As for the Ten Commandments they might as well belong to the code of Hammurabi or Solon for all the knowledge that a majority have of them. Evidently there is something wrong with the system in which character is being trained.

With causes of these sorts operating we need not be surprised at the effects. There has resulted a lack of reverence. There seems to be little respect for God or man. There is a loud assertion of one's rights but little made of one's duties. There is an indifference to the conventions of life and sometimes a ridiculing of the most important. We see it in the lack of restraint that exists today among boys and girls. Some of the conventions of the past in this respect were perhaps harmful and wrong but have we not gone too far in the opposite direction?

There is less of prudery and more outspokenness which is to be commended. There may be a good reason, and I believe there is, to inform the growing boy and girl of the functions of the body and the care that should be taken of them. With this teaching however there should go the teaching of moral restraint to control the passions and appetites and the spiritual knowledge that our bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost.

In the half decade preceding 1920 we are told by the Kent Sunday School Association that crime increased thirty-eight per cent. This is not due entirely to the conditions during war times. I heard it said by a prominent educator that there had been nearly that same decrease in Sunday School attendance of pupils about this age. He asked "Is there a connection between the two?" I have not been able to verify this statement but the fact that it can be said with a show of truth gives us something to consider. If crime has increased as stated more startling is the statement "That the age at which the criminal habit becomes fixed has dropped swiftly from thirty-one to twenty-one years. The age of first offence which usually somewhere between the fifteenth and seventeenth year, appears now with sadly increasing frequency, earlier and earlier in the ages of children."

The Sunday School

The Sunday School has done and is doing a great work but is it powerful enough to cope with the present forces that make for evil? Judge Fawcett of New York City said: "In the five years I have been sitting on the bench I have had two thousand seven hundred boys before me for sentence and not one of them was an attendant at Sunday School. The investigations of Judge John R. Newcomer of the Municipal Court of Chicago are still more startling: "I have often said publicly and privately that in eight and one-half years in the prosecuting attorney's office as one of the trial lawyers in court, eleven months out of the year, and that in sixteen years upon the bench, much of the time in the criminal court, and that during such time I have prosecuted and have heard as presiding judge more than one hundred thousand cases and that in that time and in that number, I have never prosecuted nor heard as many as ten cases against boys or girls who have been brought up and constantly kept in Protestant Sunday Schools up until the time of their majority. While I have prosecuted and have heard very many cases against boys who have attended Sunday School, practically all of them were boys that have been lost from Sunday School through one of their many leaks either during their teen age or directly thereafter." This same ground is covered by the convincing statement of Judge Hoyt of the Children's Court, New York City: "Most important of all is the question of its (the child's) religious training and its moral guidance. The opportunity must be given every child to learn of religious truths and to worship God. The form of the religion does not concern the authorities; that is a matter to be decided by its parents, its family and its ecclesiastical advisors; but it should be strengthened and confirmed in its chosen faith and encouraged to follow its precepts. If our experience in the Children's Court has proven one thing, it is—that religion is essential in the training of children and that no lasting good can be achieved when their spiritual development is neglected."

A NATIVE ARMENIAN TO SPEAK IN CHRIST CHURCH

On Sunday morning, January 13, Rev. M. P. Krikorian, a native Armenian, will speak in Christ Church on conditions and needs of the suffering people of the Near East.

Mr. Krikorian is an Armenian missionary, son of one of the bravest martyrs of his unhappy country, and a survivor of the massacres that claimed the lives of seventy-five of his relatives.

The story of his life and heart-gripping experiences; his flight into Egypt and ultimate journey to America, where he was enabled to finally satisfy his longings for religious training, is a narrative that is easily more vivid than fiction.

Through the generosity of an Armenian woman in Harrisburg, Pa., Mr. Krikorian was supplied with sufficient funds to leave Alexandria and come to New York.

In 1918 he became associated with the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, and traveled all through the Northwest telling audiences there the ancient, romantic, and terribly tragic story of his country and its people.

"As the son of a martyr, I, who have shared the bitter cup to the brim, am obliged to suffer anew with each narration of the excruciating circumstances surrounding my father's death," Mr. Krikorian said, "I must describe the loss of seventy-five of my immediate relatives who perished during the bloody reign that was inaugurated in 1915. The question I meet everywhere is: 'How did you personally escape?' And my story is the answer."

Mr. Krikorian is preparing to return to Armenia where he will act as an evangelist and missionary among his own people, and work for the conversion of the Mohammedan Turks who are responsible for his suffering and the death of his loved ones.

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, D. D.

The Rector's Notes

The Rector's Office Hours 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. Daily
6.00 to 7.00 P. M. Daily At Home Saturday Evenings

BISHOP SUFFRAGAN ELECTED BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE

The Rector is highly gratified at the election of Bishop Suffragan Thomas J. Garland to be Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. It is an evidence and testimony of the high regard and confidence in which he is held by the members of the Church in this diocese. He received 141 votes of the clergy, only 106 being needed to elect him. The laity, also, emphasized their decided choice of Bishop Garland by a vote of 83, as against 45 votes for the next nearest in number.

One hundred and thirty-five parishes of the diocese were represented at the Convention. It is estimated that the communicants of the parishes whose rectors voted for Bishop Garland number about 50,000 out of 68,000 communicants in the diocese.

This overwhelming majority in their preference of Bishop Garland is evidence, if evidence were needed of the affection and loyalty that gather around him. It should hearten the good Bishop and give him courage for the great work that is before him.

The duties of a Bishop are exacting and onerous, and the responsibilities of the great office are grave and solemn. Well may the Apostle ask: "Who is sufficient for these things?" No one—unless sustained by the grace of God. And He has pronounced it. "My grace is sufficient for thee."

Bishop Garland is a sincere man, a conscientious man, a Godly man, and the message of the people of this great diocese to its new Bishop is, and their prayer is: "God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work!"

CONFIRMATION CLASSES FORMING

The Rector requests that all persons who are thinking of Confirmation, both minors and adults, will give their names to him. Confirmation Classes are forming and the Rector will begin a course of instructions on "Confirmation and the Teachings of the Church" on Sunday afternoon February 17th at four o'clock in the Parish House, for minors, and on Wednesday evening, March 7th at eight o'clock, for adults.

The series of instruction will continue to be held every Sunday afternoon and Wednesday evening thereafter until the Bishop's visitation on Maundy Thursday evening.

The Rector will be pleased to meet anyone who may wish to confer with him on the subject of Confirmation. He can be seen in Church after any service or by appointment.

WHAT IS MEANT BY "BUDGETS AND PRIORITIES"

The "Story of the Program" is a book issued by the Presiding Bishop and Council of the Church which tells what the Church is doing in different parts of the world. It is a most interesting and illuminating book, full of pictures and valuable information. You can buy it from the Rector for one dollar, and it is worth many times its cost. It tells, in detail, about the work of the Church, what it is doing, what are its needs and its opportunities. In this interesting book we read about "budgets and priorities." The Rector has been asked to explain what is meant and what is included in these terms. It is very important that every member of the parish should have this information, and I want to state it clearly and as briefly as I can and bring it down in application to Christ Church parish.

The General Convention a year ago adopted a definite "Program" for three years, (1923, 1924, 1925), that is, until the meeting of the next Convention.

This program sets forth the needs of the Church under two heads—first the "budget," which includes the actual and urgent needs of the Church for meeting the cost of continuing and maintaining the present existing work; second, the "priorities," which consist of the needs and opportunities for advance work of the Church.

The amount needed for the coming year from the whole Church—for the budget (that is, to meet the present outstanding obligations of the Church) is $4,200,000; for the priorities (advance work) $2,800,000, total amounted need for the year $7,000,000.

The proportion of these amounts assigned to this diocese of Pennsylvania is, for the general budget, or maintenance, $316,920; for the priorities, $239,080; total, $556,000.

This, then, is Pennsylvania's quota toward the work of the General Church. In addition to this amount for the work of the General Church, the diocese of Pennsylvania asks for an amount for the expenses of the Diocese and its missionary work. Diocesan budget calls for $206,976.72; priorities (estimated) $100,000; making a total, for diocesan budget and priorities, of $306,976.72.

The grand total asked from the Church in this diocese is therefore $862,976.72.

The quota for 1924 for Christ Church Parish, for the "budget" of the general Church and the Diocese is $4,000.00 and $2,600.00 for the "priorities," or the advance work of the general Church and the Diocese, or a total of $6,600.

Unless we pay the first amount, that is the "budget," the Church is compelled to run into debt, having already contracted for this expenditure. If we pay only the "budget" and do not meet the "priorities," the work of the Church will be at a standstill, with no advance or extension.

As a part of our parish quota of the budget, members of Christ Church School and the Woman's Auxiliary of our parish are making an effort during this year to pay the maintenance expense of the work of St. Saviour's Mission in China and mission work among the Arapaho Indians in Wyoming.

The balance of our quota must, of course, come from members of the parish who give in the missionary side, that is, the right-hand side, of the duplex envelopes.

With these facts in mind, it is earnestly hoped that every person in this parish, every man and woman, boy and girl, will feel it his or her personal responsibility and privilege to take a pledge card, which may be found in the vestibules of the Church, and sign it with an intelligent understanding of the great need and opportunities which the Church, in Christ's name, is calling upon her children to meet with a generous heart, freely and cheerfully giving, according to our ability.

"If thou hast much, give plenteously; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little;

"Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver."

SUBSCRIBE TO THE CHIMES

About one half the amount of money necessary for the publication of the Chimes for the coming year has been received to date, from subscriptions and contributions.

Every member in the parish should help in defraying the expense of the Chimes. Subscriptions and contributions are solicited to be sent to Mr. Frederick Lennig, 316 High St., Germantown.

OFFERING FOR THE ARMENIANS

At Sunday morning service, January 13th, Mr. M. P. Krikorian, a native Armenian, gave a graphic account of the great suffering and needs of the people of his land. An offering was received at this service, which amounted, in money and pledges, to a little over $500.00.

The amount received from members of the parish to date from "Sacrifice Week" to be given toward the $100,000 diocesan deficit of Missions is $361.00. Any who have not sent in their offerings are asked to do so at once.

A few Church Calendars for 1924 are in the hands of the vergers. These calendars provide a course of short daily Bible readings, extending throughout the year. A Manual of Prayers for private and family use, accompanies the Calendar and both may be purchased from the Verger for fifty cents.

ASH WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5

Lent comes late this year, Ash Wednesday being March 5th. Septuagesima Sunday, which begins the season of preparation for Lent, occurs on February 17th. The next issue of Chimes will publish the schedule of special Lenten services. It is now the time to anticipate the Lenten season and to make preparation for a strict and conscientious observance.

NEW FISCAL YEAR

Be Sure to Get Your Envelopes

Several persons in the congregation have neglected to take their packages of envelopes for the new fiscal year which begins on January 1st. If any person has failed to receive his or her envelopes application should be made at once to the Accounting Warden or to the Rector. Since the abolishment of pew rents in Christ Church, the support of the Church and its missionary work is dependent upon the weekly offering received through the envelopes. Every member of the parish, every member of every family, should have a package of envelopes and share in the responsibility and the privilege of contributing to the support of the Church and its philanthropies.

Pledge cards will be found in the vestibule. Designate the amount you are willing to give each week, sign the card and place it on the alms plate at any service. Envelopes will then be sent to you. This pledge being purely voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time, by notifying the Rector.

THE VESTRY

At recent meetings of the Vestry the following actions were taken:
 Meeting held December 4th, 1923:

Voted—That it is the opinion of the Vestry that a new organ is needed in Christ Church and that steps be taken immediately toward that end and the Rector appoint a committee to devise ways and means of procuring said organ.

Voted. To authorize the Property Committee to place on sale the lot 100x100 feet, at corner of Washington Lane and McCallum Street.

Voted—That a campaign be organized at once to solicit subscriptions to a $20,000 fund for a new organ and that pledges be secured covering a period of two years and that the Easter offering over and above the amount necessary to meet the current deficit be devoted to the Organ Fund.

The following were elected as delegates to the Special Diocesan Convention to be held January 22nd: Messrs. Potter, Woodroffe and Morris.

A letter from C. W. Sutcliffe, Jr., tendering his resignation as Vestryman was read and on motion accepted.

Voted—To accept the offer of $10,500 made through the Chelton Trust Company for the Washington Lane property, subject to such building restrictions as the Property Committee decides.

SALE OF PORTION OF BACK LOT OF CHURCH PROPERTY

By resolution of the Vestry the portion of the property of the Church with a frontage both on Washington Lane and McCallum Street of 100 feet, has been offered for sale and a purchaser obtained, the purchase price being $10,500. A frontage of 56 feet on McCallum Street has been reserved from sale to prevent encroachments. The lot sold will be improved with a desirable class of dwelling house.

The use of the lot (once fitted up for recreational purposes) has, through lack of supervision, become the cause of complaint by residents of the neighborhood. It was acquired at a time when many of the Congregation came from a distance and stabled their teams in the sheds which then occupied it. The need for such convenience having passed, the lot is not useful unless for some possible future extension, not in contemplation. It is difficult to foresee a future need of so much ground for Church purposes.

The lot is assessed as of the value of $4,000 and we are paying $106.40 per annum in taxes.

The regular sources of income are insufficient to balance our annual budget by about $1200, necessitating the special offerings for the making up of the deficit. The fund derived from the sale of the back lot, invested, would produce an income of $600 per annum.

For these reasons the Vestry deemed it wise to sell a portion of the property, reserving sufficient for any conceivable future extension of parochial buildings.

S. P.

TO THE MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF CHRIST CHURCH, GERMANTOWN

When it was decided to create the parish of which we are members, the founders, more than seventy years ago, provided by their generosity the land, the buildings and the furnishings, including the church organ, which constituted the church property.

When by disaster the original church building was destroyed fifty years ago, the members of that time likewise generously provided the church building which we today use and enjoy.

Again, when the original organ through long usage had become worn out, the members of that time, about thirty years ago, provided the rebuilt organ which is still serving the congregation.

All of these things the present members have inherited, and the time has now arrived when an opportunity presents itself for this congregation and the friends of the parish to emulate in a degree the deeds of their predecessors.

Another crisis has been reached in the life of the organ of the Church.

The Vestry has had an expert make a very thorough survey of the condition of the organ, and it has been concluded that a New Organ is needed.

The Vestry has also authorized a committee to conduct a campaign to obtain subscriptions to a fund to meet the expense of installing in the church an organ which will be worthy of both the church and the present congregation.

It is hoped and believed that everyone in any way interested in Christ Church will consider this not so much an appeal as an opportunity to show forth the same spirit of generosity toward the church as was exhibited by the former members of the parish.

The suggestion is made to everyone that they give this matter most careful consideration, and prepare themselves to contribute to this memorial of the present congregation as generously as their blessings in material things will permit.

Do not wait until the actual appeal for subscriptions is made, but begin now to so consider this an opportunity to do in part what others have so handsomely done for us, that when the first offering for this purpose is presented, which is planned to be on Easter Day—1924—you may fully enjoy that gratification which comes with the success of a worthy undertaking.

The committee is open to receive subscriptions at any time, or they may be forwarded, properly designated, to the Accounting Warden, although none will be solicited as payable before Easter.

That the members may more conveniently have as large a part in this memorial to themselves as they may desire, subscriptions will be received payable over a term of not more than two years, and may be made payable monthly, quarterly or annually.

Each member should subscribe, not that which he or she wants to give, but that which he or she is able to give to their church.

If we believe and feel that Christ Church is our Church, and if all will give in unison and harmony, success will crown our efforts in the undertaking.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The report of the Secretary shows that we have 263 members which is 23 more than a year ago. During the year we lost 32 members and gained 55 new ones. Our envelope offerings were $868.48, a gain of $93.69 over the previous year.

Our missionary offerings for work outside the Parish were over $1000, which was about $500 more than in 1922.

Our Christmas festivals were enjoyed by everybody. At our entertainment on December 28th the play given by the "Girls' Friendly" was very good and then as usual "Santa Claus" paid us his visit.

The Primary Department had "Punch and Judy" as well as old "Santa" come to see them.

The church was well filled at our Carol Service on the Sunday after Christmas, at which time a pageant entitled "The Nativity" was given by some of the members of the school. Everyone who saw it has spoken of how beautiful it was and how reverently the scene of our Lord's birth was portrayed by those who took part. Many expressed the hope that a Pageant would be always given at our Christmas and Easter Carol services.

We take up our work for 1924 with faith that we will show progress in the year that is before us.

To the mothers of our scholars we again would ask help on your part in solving the problem of "Punctuality" which is a serious one as we only have one hour and ten minutes for our work.

There have been four Sundays since January first and with an average of over 200 present each Sunday, there have not been over 70 in the school when 9.45, the time for starting, arrived. More than TWO-THIRDS of the School has been late. Also several have come in over 20 minutes late and have been marked absent as the roll has been taken up. Your Superintendent has tried in every way he could to improve this condition and finally appeals to the parents to help as it is a vital matter if we are to make Christ Church Sunday School worth while.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

The Mothers' Meeting had their Christmas dinner in the Parish House on Tuesday, January 8th. Twenty-five mothers, old and young, sat down to a sumptuous feast. After dinner, Mrs. Leach, one of the mothers "who never grow old," entertained the meeting with interesting "selections." A professional "artist" in legerdemain afforded much amusement to all.

Mrs. Arndt and Mrs. Rowley, directresses of the Mothers' Meeting were assisted by Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Eckenley, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Higginbotham, and Mrs. Heyer.

The Mothers presented Mrs. Arndt and Mrs. Rowley each with a set of sideboard doilies, embroidered by one of the members of the meeting. These gifts were highly appreciated.

The weekly meeting of the Mothers' Association is held on Tuesday afternoons in the Parish House at 2.30 o'clock.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The past year's work of the Woman's Auxiliary has been most satisfactory. We have to our credit one hundred dollars sent to Japan at the time of the earthquake, five hundred dollars raised to help pay the parish apportionment, one hundred and five dollars given to various missionary activities and eighty-seven garments for the Supply Bureau made by the Sewing Guild.

We are now making our plans for our work during the coming year. Our first effort will be a motion picture benefit to be held some time in February. We are going to raise another five hundred dollars for the parish apportionment. To do this we will have to hold numerous cake sales and we will need lots of help.

A large rummage sale will be held in the fall. Please save us everything you are going to give or throw away.

We are sorry that we have not a large attendance at our monthly meetings; but are most thankful for the financial support given us by our many envelope subscribers.

Come to our meetings and help us. The missionary meetings are held the third Thursday of each month at two P. M. in the Parish House.

The Sewing Guild meets on the fourth Thursday at two P. M.

DR. RUMNEY'S PHOTOGRAPH

Complying with the request of the Rector, Miss Rumney, daughter of the late Rev. Theodore Sill Rumney, D. D., has had framed and presented to Christ Church a photograph, an excellent likeness of her father, who was Rector of this Parish from 1870-73.

The photograph will hang in the sacristy of Christ Church, along with the photographs of the other Rectors of the Parish, the Rev. A. B. Atkins and the Rev. John B. Falkner, D. D.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Since the last issue of the "Chimes" was published the G. F. S. has been very busy. Our Christmas basket was a huge success and everybody contributed to it with the true Christmas spirit. Then came our little sketch, "Christmas at Skeeter's Corner"—this was given on the night of the Sunday School entertainment. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves immensely.

Our work for the next few months has not been definitely planned. We are hoping to give a little party to the Italian girls who live in some of the congested parts of Germantown.

Our Lenten work this year will consist of knitting sweaters, mufflers and caps for the needy ones.

Quite a few of the girls are looking forward to the initiation service which will be held very shortly in church.

More members are needed! Come and join us any Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

CHRIST CHURCH Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, D. D.

The Rector's Notes

The Rector's Office Hours 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. Daily
6.00 to 7.00 P. M. Daily At Home Saturday Evenings

The pews in this Church are all free and unassigned. The support of the Church and its missionary work and its charities are all dependent upon the free will offering of those who worship here.

Every member should be a regular contributor through the weekly "Envelope System of Giving." Pledge cards will be found in the vestibules of the Church or may be had from the Verger. These cards should be signed with name, address, etc. (as indicated on the cards), and placed on the alms plate at any service. Packages of envelopes will then be furnished.

These pledges, being entirely voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled, at any time by notifying the Rector.

CHURCH SERVICE FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

The service on Thursday afternoons in Lent will be especially adapted to young people. The Rector will give a series of talks to boys and girls.

A Junior Lenten choir composed of boys and girls will lead the singing. Young people who wish to join this Lenten choir are invited to attend the rehearsals held in the Parish House on Thursday afternoons at 4.15. The service in the Church is at 4.45.

3

A LETTER FROM THE RECTOR

CHRIST CHURCH RECTORY

ASH WEDNESDAY, 1924

MY DEAR FRIENDS:

In another column of the Chimes will be found a schedule of services during Lent.

It is needless for me to say how deeply concerned I am that the people of Christ Church shall consistently and conscientiously observe this blessed season, and appropriate the privileges and blessings which it offers to every one who will keep it in spirit and in form.

While it is rightly called a season of fasting—a season when we deny ourselves many things which are accustomed to occupy much of our thoughts, our time and our resources, it is also and primarily a season of Feasting—a season when we may feast our minds, our hearts and souls on the best and the highest and most enduring and worthwhile things in life, namely, an unselfish service for God and our fellow men.

Our Church does not belittle this quiet season of Lent by attempting to prescribe definite restriction nor to dictate details of individual conduct. It would rather trust its children and appeal to the conscience, as to the proper observance of the season by each individual. It raises the whole question to the high plane of spiritual privilege and principle. Its appeal is expressed in the words of the collect: "O Lord, give us grace to use such abstinence, that our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey Thy godly motions in righteousness and true holiness." "Create and make in us, O God, new and contrite hearts!"

This, my friends, should be our prayer during Lent, "New and contrite hearts"; and our every endeavor should be "that our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey God's will and walk in His way in righteousness and true holiness."

Our Lent will be a fast and a feast—a fast from all things which would draw us away from the things of the Spirit, and a feast upon the things which nourish and enrich the soul.

Then as we meet at the altar of the Risen Lord on Easter morn we may sing with glad hearts the triumphant song, the psalm of victory: "Christ is risen from the dead; therefore, let us keep the feast; Not with old leaven, neither the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

Faithfully yours,

CHARLES HENRY ARNDT.

LITERATURE FOR LENT READING

In the interest of increasing a more general reading of religious and Church literature throughout the Parish, and thus to create a larger number of interested and well informed Churchmen, I have had placed in the vestibules of the Church a booklet, kindly furnished by the Moorehouse Publishing Co., of Milwaukee, giving a list of a few books especially suitable for Lenten reading.

On looking over this booklet, I believe that every one in the Parish will find, at least two or three books that will contribute to a constructive Lent and be helpful in their religious life. I should suggest that a selection of books from this list, be made at once, and an order be sent to the publishers as soon as possible, in order that the Lenten season may be "begun, continued and ended" in a profitable course of religious and Church readings.

The price of these booklets is very low, and, is within the reach of any who many really desire to read them.

To persons who wish to follow a more thorough or extended course of religious and Church reading than the literature included in the above list provides, I shall be pleased to suggest other books which may be helpful to them or to loan them such books as I may have in my own private library.

I am quite sure that, if members of the Parish will resolve to spend a part of each day during this Lent in following a systematic course of religious and Church readings, in addition to their faithful, daily reading of the Bible, this season will be to them full both of pleasure and spiritual profit, and will bring a rich and a lasting blessing.

In this connection I wish to mention the need of every family in the Parish to subscribe for one of the general Church papers. It is surprising to find so few Church people who take a Church paper. Almost every one subscribes for a secular paper and, in addition, weekly and monthly magazines comes regularly to the home. These are considered among the necessities of life by almost every person of average intelligence. But of Church papers, how few are seen! And yet, to be intelligently informed on religious and Church events which are happening throughout the world, every person should take at least, one of the general Church papers. To depend wholly upon the secular press for "religious news," is, as a rule, to be misinformed and misled. Not to be deeply interested in the great religious questions which are engaging men's thoughts today not to be intelligently familiar with the momentous religious movements which are taking place throughout the world, is to disregard the most important and vital interests of life.

The interest of the members of the Church would be greatly stimulated and their understanding enlightened if they were regularly in touch with the news and thoughts of the Church as reported and discussed through the channels of the responsible Church journals.

In my judgment, the "Living Church," published by the Moorehouse Publishing Company, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, is the most dignified, the most ably edited, and, from its view point, of Churchmanship, with which I personally often find myself at variance, is generally the most fair of our national Church papers. Its editorials, however, deal as a rule, with subjects that are perhaps of more interest to the technical Churchman than to the rank and file of the Church. Yet, in every parish there ought to be, and I believe there is, a considerable number of educated Churchmen to whom such a paper as the "Living Church" strongly appeals.

THE WITNESS

The Rector has subscribed for fifty copies a week of the "Witness," a Church paper which will be found of general interest to members of the Church.

These copies will be placed in the vestibules of the Church each week during Lent for free distribution and members of the congregation are invited to take copies. It is hoped, however, that this little paper will be found so informing and interesting to many in the Congregation that, rather than discontinue receiving it, they will be prompted to enter their names for a year's subscription.

Among the articles of special interest which will be published each week during Lent and which should be read by all, are as follows:

The Household of Faith—Dr. Percy Silver, Bishop Fiske, Bishop Freeman, Dr. George Craig Stewart, Bishop Rhinelander, Bishop Matthews and Bishop Guerry.

Where it all Happened—By Rev. Frank E. Wilson, S. T. D.

A series of studies on the Holy Lands, with a map to guide you in each issue. Ideal material for your study groups. Not dull geography, but the most fascinating pictures of the scenes of the great Biblical events.

The Modern Plan of Salvation—By Rev. G. A. Studdert-Kennedy.

An article by this great English clergyman, who has been jamming auditoriums throughout the country.

Present Day Social and Spiritual Unrest—By Dr. Sherwood Eddy.

Written after a trip through twenty-two countries in Europe and Asia.

Articles By the Editors—Each week: Bishop Johnson, Dr. Atwater,

The Observer, Dr. Keller, A. Manby Lloyd, Gordon Reese, Alfred Newbery.

Take a copy of the "Witness" home with you each week, read it thoroughly and then become a regular subscriber.

The price of subscription is $2:00 a year for 52 copies. Subscriptions may be sent to the publishers or if more convenient, may be given to the Verger of Christ Church, Mr. Robert H. Wass, who will see that they are forward.

A COURSE OF LECTURES ON THE BIBLE SUNDAY EVENINGS IN LENT

An unusually interesting course of lectures on the Bible will be given in Christ Church on Sunday evenings during Lent, by the Rev. Royden Keith Yerkes, Ph.D., S. T. D.

Dr. Yerkes is a member of the faculty at the Divinity School of the Episcopal Church in Philadelphia and is one of the best scholars of Biblical learning in the country.

This course of lectures on the Bible will be a rare opportunity for the people of Germantown to hear a very able treatment of the subject, in the light of modern scholarship.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

All seats are free and unassigned at all services in Christ Church. Every one is welcome. A summary of these lectures on the Bible will be found in another column of this issue of THE CHIMES. The course will begin Sunday evening, March 9th.

THE REV. MR. VOSSLER ACCEPTS A CALL

It is with great regret that the Rector announces the resignation of the Rev. Arthur B. Vossler, who has been assisting the Rector at Christ Church for the past two years. He has accepted a call to become Rector of St. Michael's Church, Birdsboro, Pa., in the diocese of Bethlehem.

Mr. Vossler has made many friends in the Parish, who will feel his loss and miss him greatly. During his association with this parish, he has been faithful in the discharge of every duty.

Before Mr. Vossler studied for the Holy Orders, he had an experience of several years as a teacher and executive of schools, in this country and in South America, which peculiarly fitted him for efficient work in his future ministry. His valuable service as a member of the Educational Corps of the American Army in France, during the late war, received special recognition.

Mr. Vossler is "a man among men," in the best sense,—virile, strong, frank, sympathetic and sincerely honest in everything that he says and does.

Such a man will always be successful wherever he may be or whatever he may do.

The prayers of the people of Christ Church go up to the Throne of Grace that the Holy Spirit will direct him and guide him in all his ways and that the blessing of God will rest upon his ministry.

CONFIRMATION

The Apostolic Rite of Confirmation will be administered in Christ Church on Maunday Thursday, April 17th. Instruction on Confirmation is being given for minors in the Parish House on Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, and will continue every Sunday through Lent. All young people in the Parish who have not been Confirmed are urged to give their names to the Rector at once, and are requested to attend these Instructions.

The Rector, also, invites adult persons in the Parish, who have not received Confirmation to consult with him and he will be pleased to give them literature on the subject and to make appointments with them for personal instructions.

On Wednesday evenings in Lent the Rector will give a course of addresses on "SEVEN ESSENTIALS TO A CHRISTIAN LIFE." These Wednesday evening services will be held in the Church at 8 o'clock, and a cordial invitation is extended to all persons in this community to attend.

SUMMARY OF FIVE LECTURES ON THE BIBLE

by the Rev. R. K. Yerkes, Ph.D., S. T. D.

which will be given in Christ Church, Germantown, Sunday evenings in Lent, beginning Sunday, March 9th.

1. The Bible as Literature. I. Its Content.—The Bible is the library (as its name indicates) of practically all the literature of the ancient Hebrews and the early Christians. The wide variety and the literary quality of these books have given them first place in the world's literature.

2. The Bible as Literature. II. Its universal appeal.—In spite of the narrow geographical limits within which the Bible was written, its literary appeal is to all people in a way in which no other literature has appealed. This is because of its admirable treatment of the eternal themes of the human mind and heart.

3. The Bible as a Book of Religion. I. Its appreciation of God.—The Bible records a gradually increasing appreciation of God by a people who commenced at a depth to which we cannot sink and who rose to heights to which no man has ever reached.

4. The Bible as a Book of Religion. II. Its portrait of man.—In picturing the religious development of a people, Israel, the Bible portrays the latent possibilities of every man and woman. The soul of a man is but the miniature of the soul of a nation.

5. On Reading the Bible. This matchless piece of religious literature should be read as any other piece of literature, in such a way that its literary and religious qualities will be appreciated. If one gives the Bible an opportunity, it will "find him."

THE BIBLE

"Within that volume lies the mysteries of mysteries!

Happiest they of human race, to whom
God has granted grace,

To read, to fear, to hope, to pray; to lift
the catch and force the way;

And better had they ne'er been born, who read to doubt, or read to scorn."

—Sir Walter Scott.

The Church of the first century had no Bible, as we have it now, and was dependent upon the Ministry of the Church.

But it had its organic life—its Creeds, its Sacraments, its Ministry.

These are the essentials in teaching and administering the Faith.

DR. CALEY'S ILLUSTRATED LECTURES ON CHURCH HISTORY

The people of this parish and vicinity, will be pleased to learn that the Rev. Llewellyn N. Caley, D. D., will continue this Lent, his course of lectures, which he has been giving in our Parish House for the past two years. The subject to be considered this year will be the "Story of the Church of England," and will be a completion of the course given last Lent. All who were privileged to hear Dr. Caley's lectures during the past two years will be glad again this year to avail themselves of this opportunity.

The lectures will be given in the Parish House on Friday evenings in Lent, beginning Friday, March 7th, at 8 o'clock. The subjects of the course of six lectures and the dates will be as follows:

March 7th—"The Founding of the Church in England.

March 14th "The Anglican Church and Rome"

March 21st—"The English Reformation"

March 28th—"The Struggle with Puritanism"

April 4th—"The Church of England in the American Colonies"

April 11th—"The Episcopal Church in the United States"

These lectures will be illustrated by stereopticon views. There will be no charge for admission. A silver offering will be received at the doors from those who wish to give.

A CORDIAL INVITATION IS EXTENDED TO ALL TO ATTEND THESE LECTURES. Every Friday evening in Lent (except Good Friday) in the Parish House, at 8 o'clock.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING ON SUNDAY EVENINGS

On Sunday evenings during Lent a series of "Young People's Half-Hour Meetings" will be held in the Parish House, beginning promptly at seven o'clock. The subject for consideration at these meetings will be "The Progress of the Kingdom," a series of talks on the Missionary Work of the Church in various parts of the world. These meetings and "talks" will be conducted by young men and women in the Parish and will be of special interest to all young people. All are invited to attend. Beginning Sunday evening, March 9th, at seven o'clock sharp.

A card program of subjects, and names of leaders of the meetings will be distributed at that time.

THE ORGAN DRIVE

"Drives" are fashionable. Sometimes they are to provide means for meeting pressing needs and frequently—as in the case of colleges—they are to provide facilities for more extended work in the future.

Our organ drive combines both of these requisites, for the need for a new instrument is pressing and just as our present organ was provided for us by a generation that has passed and gone so it is now our turn to make provision for the future.

There has been considerable organ building lately in neighboring churches and we hope to profit by their experience so that we may have an instrument that meets the requirements of Christ Church without any collection of extra pipes which are seldom or never used in the rendition of sacred music. In other words we aim at the greatest economy that is constituent with thoroughly satisfactory results.

Estimates for such an organ have already been submitted and with the necessary changes in the chancel incident to its installation, will require about twenty thousand dollars.

This is a large sum of money but it is confidently expected that our people will rise to the occasion so that the old worn-out instrument may be replaced by one capable of rendering the soul-inspiring music of former years when our old organ was in its prime.

The Drive will soon take place. Every member of Christ Church will have the privilege of taking part in this great work. Payments may be made at regular periods extending over two years and it is hoped that generous responses will enable us to begin the work of installation at the earliest possible moment.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly of Christ Church had hoped to present a musical comedy before Easter. The author of which is one of our members and of whom we are naturally very proud, but due to the unusual inclement weather to which we have been treated Tuesday nights—our night of meeting—the production will not be presented until April 29th. Lenten works has been planned—entertainment of some little Italian children sewing for All Saints Mission School for Girls, Bontoc, Philippine Island, and, knitting wash clothes for general missions.

The general organization of G. F. S. in the diocese of Pennsylvania is doing its part to help the general work of the Woman's auxiliary taking over entirely the sewing for the House of the Good Shepherd and some for the Home for Consumptives.

The candidate class under Mrs. Christ's leadership is a credit to the Parish. She is now giving them a course in nursing, using dolls for demonstration, which brings it very close to the attention and interest of these little girls.

There are quite a number of Probationers ready for admission to full membership in the G. F. S., and this service will be held in the near future.

A NOTE FROM THE WARDEN

The accounting warden has forwarded to the treasurer of the Diocese as the result of the offering during Sacrifice Week $154.16. There have also been sent through individuals and societies in the parish, $262.00, making the result of "Sacrifice Week," $416.16. This makes a total offering for 1923 to the missionary work of the church without the Parish of $4203.52. Of this amount, the Sunday School contributed $815.51 which shows the great interest of the school in this important branch of church work. The Women's Auxiliary also contributed a special offering of $500 towards making up this total. As the total offering for 1922 from all sources was $3123.71, a very large increase was made this year, not only over the previous year but over the amount contributed in any previous year. This is most encouraging as it shows a growing interest in the missionary work of the Church. For 1924, our apportionment is $4000. If every member will do his or her part by contributing to missions through the weekly envelope system, it should not be difficult to realize this amount as it is less than the total offerings of the past year.

EDWARD BAINS,
Accounting Warden.

BE SURE TO GET YOUR ENVELOPES

Several persons in the congregation have neglected to take their packages of envelopes for the new fiscal year which begins on January 1st. If any person has failed to receive his or her envelopes application should be made at once to the Accounting Warden or to the Rector. Since the abolishment of pew rents in Christ Church, the support of the Church and its missionary work is dependent upon the weekly offering received through the envelopes. Every member of the parish. EVERY MEMBER OF EVERY FAMILY, should have a package of envelopes and share in the responsibility and the privilege of contributing to the support of the Church and its philanthropies.

Pledge cards will be found in the vestibule. Designate the amount you are willing to give each week.

Sign the card and place it on the alms plate at any service. Envelopes will then be sent to you. This pledge being purely voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time, by notifying the Rector.

A LETTER FROM THE REV.
MR. VOSSLER

In leaving Christ Church, Germantown, to accept the call as Rector of St. Michael's, Birdsboro, Pa., I wish to say to my fellow members and friends that it has been a great help and inspiration to me in my work and study with Dr. Arndt to have been located in this Parish.

I want to thank our beloved Rector especially for his kindly solicitation and helpful suggestions, that have guided me over many an obstacle and difficulty as lay-reader and candidate for the sacred ministry.

I want to thank the Vestry, the Bible Class and Congregation and friends in the Church, with whom I have been associated for their constant encouragement and kindly interest.

It is my earnest prayer that each and every member of Christ Church Congregation may be blessed with happiness and contentment, and that success may attend all their efforts in the upbuilding of Christ Church in this community.

In saying good-bye Mrs. Vossler joins me in extending a cordial invitation to each of you to visit the Rectory of St. Michael's, Birdsboro, if ever an opportunity presents itself for you to come that way.

A. B. VOSSLER.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our Lenten Motto

See St. Matt. 28 : 19. St. Mark 16 : 15. St. Luke 24 : 46-47.

Taking the words from the above texts for our Lenten motto, our work during this Lent will be for 'Missions,' as usual, and our aim is to go ahead of our record of last year, which was $750.55. The only way this can be accomplished is by every member of the school doing his or her share and already plans are being per-fectured by the different classes for their work.

Now $750 looks very large, but when divided by the number of members of the school, it is only $3.00 apiece, and as there are 40 days in Lent it means only 7 cents a day, (or one street car ride), so you see it is not as large an amount as it looks.

Here are some suggestions how to do it:

First: Let us take One Thousand Dollars as our goal and keep our eyes on that amount and think we can do it.

Second: Give up something every week; movies, candy, and lots of little things we do not need, but spend our money for.

Third: Do something to earn some money for the mission fund—every member of the school can earn something, even the smallest ones in the Primary Dept can run errands for Father or Mother, and if you tell them what you are going to do with what you earn, maybe they will give you more.

Fourth: Put the money you save or earn in your Mite Box each day. Do not wait till the week before Easter to think about it. The Spirit of Lent is to give up unnecessary things and do worth while things every day.

If we follow this plan we will be surprised at the amount we will reach. Last year one small boy earned $15.00 selling Easter eggs only. Do you know if we had all done as well as he did, and most of us could if we had had as much missionary spirit in our hearts as he had, we would have given just five times as much as we did or over $3700.

Now to the Parents of our scholars; if you will come to church at the morning service during Lent, you will see our School attending service regularly, each class with its teacher; an harvest of the Future Church.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

After the regular, monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary on Thursday, February 20th, Miss Ormsby spoke to us about "The Church's Mission to the Jews." Her message was most convincing in helping us to realize that we should make a supreme effort. Now, to Christ-ianize the Jews—we should not think of them as "the dirty Jew" but as an honored nation, for was not a Jewish maiden chosen to be the Mother of Our Lord? There are multitudes of Jews everywhere and they are wonderful people—one authority says, "Christianize the Jew, and you win the world for Christ."

During Lent we are to sew for missions every Thursday at 2 P. M. in the Parish House. We are anxious to finish up our quota of sewing, by Easter. You can make the garments in your own home if you had rather do so.

We are always desirous of obtaining new contributing members. Are there not some women in our Parish who will contribute a small amount, weekly, to the Woman's Auxiliary, even though it be only 5 cents? (This is less than a trolley fare.) If so, please send your name to Mrs. Topliff Johnson, Treas., 190 Maplewood Ave., and envelopes will be mailed to you.

We anticipate making some calls upon some of the ladies in our Parish, also, during Lent. We would like to see every woman of Christ Church, vitally interested in missions.

Please kindly remember to save your "Rummage" for us.

I cannot close this article without alluding to our great loss in losing Mrs. Vossler—as a member of our Auxiliary. She has worked with us for two years in a most conscientious, efficient and faithful manner, never wavering for a minute, in discharging her duties. A woman of the highest Christian integrity—her influence will be felt among us long after she has taken up her new life in the Rectory at Birdsboro, Pa.

"A woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised."

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

It was with a distinct feeling of regret and loss that the members of the Men's Bible Class bade good-bye to the Rev. Arthur B. Vossler, as their teacher, on February 24th. To Mr. Vossler, personally, it was only an revoir because the friendships which have grown up between him and the members, are too deep to permit the few miles that separate them to make the parting permanent.

During the two years that Mr. Vossler taught the Class he endeared himself to all by his quiet, unassuming manner; his faithful and untiring effort to present the principles of Christian living to the men; his charitable position toward those who did not hold the same fundamentals that make up the groundwork of Christianity.

The Class, as a whole and as individuals, wish Mr. Vossler God-speed in the larger work he has undertaken as rector of St. Michael's, Birdsboro, Pa., and pray that God may bless him, and that "the faith, once delivered to the saints," may never falter in his keeping but by his efforts, may be seen and felt in the lives of others until at last he is permitted to hear those words of commendation, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Now, as in all phases of this life, we must turn from the sadness of parting to the more joyous words of welcome. The Class must go on regardless of those who, for various reasons, cannot be with it in person and it is with a deep sense of appreciation that we announce that, beginning March 2nd, Col. Sheldon Potter will become our teacher, for the time being at least. For many years Col. Potter was a faithful and valued worker in Christ Church Sunday School, both as a teacher and superintendent and the Class is indeed fortunate in securing his services.

We heartily welcome Col. Potter as our teacher and to those men of the parish who do not attend the Class, at 9.45 every Sunday morning, in the Parish House, we extend a cordial invitation to be present. There are many men in this community who do not go to church regularly—and some not at all—and the Class offers an opportunity for every man not only to benefit himself spiritually but to enlarge his field of labor by bringing "the other man" nearer to Christ through His Church.

Please accept this as a personal invitation to become a member of the Men's Bible Class. It may need a little effort on your part but the value received will more than compensate for any outlay you may make.

CONFIRMATION OR THE LAYING ON OF HANDS

It is announced elsewhere in this issue of the Chimes that classes in Confirmation are now being formed and instruction will soon be begun on the subject. "Confirmation" or "the Laying of the Hands" are synonymous terms in the Church. What do these terms mean?

We learn from the Acts of the Apostles that in the early days of the Church, after converts had been baptized, the Apostles used to lay their hands upon them for the further outpouring of the Holy Ghost. It was so in the case of those Samaritans to whom the Acts viii, v. 14 refers. We are told that "when the Apostles, who were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the Word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John, who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost (for as yet He was fallen upon none of them; only they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus). Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost." It was so also in the case of certain believers at Ephesus, of whom St. Paul asked whether they had received the Holy Ghost when they believed, meaning thereby to inquire whether, after they were baptized, they had received the Laying on of Hands. Their answer showed that they had not received Christian Baptism at all, but had been baptized only with the baptism of John, that is, of John the Baptist, the forerunner of our Lord. Whereupon, by St. Paul's direction, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and then he laid his hands on them; and "the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues and prophesied."

The holy rite of "Laying on of Hands" has been continued in the Church from the beginning.

The service is called in our Prayer Book "Confirmation, or Laying on of Hands upon those who are Baptized."

The special blessing, then, which we are taught to connect with Confirmation is spiritual strength. If by Baptism we are taken into Christ, and are made to be "in the Lord," by Confirmation we are made to be strong in the Lord." This is the teaching of Holy Scripture, and of the primitive Church, as Hooker says in those familiar words, "The Fathers everywhere impute to Confirmation that gift of grace of the Holy Spirit, not which makes us first Christian men, but, when we are made such, assisteth us in all virtue, and armeth us against temptation and sin."

GLADNESS AND HOPE

As President Coolidge was leaving the Washington correspondents after a short conference recently, he turned and said: "As the personal staff of the government you will, I hope, put a word of gladness and hope into what you write this evening."

The President's suggestion could well be heeded, not only in newspaper news and editorials but in many business communications as well as personal correspondence.

There is altogether too much formality about our business and social relationships. There are times, of course, when a rubber stamp is necessary and sufficient. There are times when "Yours truly" fills the bill, but there are other times when a word of hope and gladness would not be out of place, but thoroughly appreciated.

"Why not say, 'Sincerely yours,' or even 'Heartily yours,' at times? Why not say, 'With all good wishes,' 'Wishing you well in your good endeavors.' Why confine 'Merry Xmas' and 'Happy New Year' to one week only of the fifty-two?"

Surely it would not be unseemly for one business man to wish another well even at the end of a more or less formal letter. Add the "word of gladness and hope" in any form you will. Show an interest in your correspondent's business and progress. Wish him luck and make it cordial and hearty.

Especially in letters to the young can we be glad and hopeful of good results in their school or college work or their business or professional beginnings.

Perhaps the employer cannot bid a hearty "good morning" or "good night" to every employee, but he can to many and it leaves a good taste after a tired day.

Letters of condolence and sympathy as well as of congratulation are always appreciated. Take the trouble to send the kind message. Look on the bright side; be optimistic. Instill gladness and hope whenever possible. There are times when a word of encouragement is invaluable.

If there is a doubt give your neighbor or friend the benefit. It may be the turning point at some critical time. Gladness and hope is a good business proposition and President Coolidge did a mighty good job when he urged the newspaper correspondents to "put a word of gladness and hope in what you write this evening." We can all take the advice to ourselves with profit and pleasure.

A PERSONAL PRAYER FOR THE DEPARTED:

In Memoriam

O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, in whose embrace all creatures live, in whatsoever world or condition they be; I beseech Thee for him whose name and dwelling-place and every need Thou knowest. Lord, vouchsafe him light and rest, peace and refreshment, joy and consolation, in paradise, in the companionship of saints in the presence of Christ, in the ample folds of Thy great love.

Grant that his life (so troubled here) may unfold itself in Thy sight, and find a sweet employment in the spacious fields of eternity. If he hath ever been hurt or maimed by any unhappy word or deed of mine, I pray Thee of Thy great pity to heal and restore him that he may serve Thee without hindrance.

Tell him, O gracious Lord, if it may be, how much I love him and miss him, and long to see him again; and, if there be ways in which he may come, vouchsafe him to me as a guide and guard, and grant me a sense of his nearness in such degree as Thy laws permit.

If in aught I can minister to his peace, be pleased of Thy love to let this be; and mercifully keep me from every act which may deprive me of the sight of him as soon as our trial-time is over, or mar the fulness of our joy when the end of the days hath come.

Pardon, O gracious Lord and Father, whatsoever is amiss in this my prayer, and let Thy will be done, for my will is blind and erring, but Thine is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think: through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

A LETTER FROM THE ORGAN COMMITTEE

To The Members and Friends of Christ Church, Germantown.

When it was decided to create the parish of which we are members, the founders, more than seventy years ago, provided by their generosity the land, the buildings and the furnishings, including the church organ, which constituted the church property.

When by disaster the original church building was destroyed fifty years ago, the members of that time likewise generously provided the church building which we today use and enjoy.

Again, when the original organ through long usage had become worn out, the members of that time, about thirty years ago, provided the rebuilt organ which is still serving the congregation.

All of these things the present members have inherited, and the time has now arrived when an opportunity presents itself for this congregation and the friends of the parish to emulate in a degree the deeds of their predecessors.

Another crisis has been reached in the life of the organ of the Church.

The Vestry has had an expert make a very thorough survey of the condition of the organ, and it has been concluded that a New Organ is needed.

The Vestry has also authorized a committee to conduct a campaign to obtain subscriptions to a fund to meet the expense of installing in the church an organ which will be worthy of both the church and the present congregation.

It is hoped and believed that everyone in any way interested in Christ Church will consider this not so much an appeal as an opportunity to show forth the same spirit of generosity toward the church as was exhibited by the former members of the parish.

The suggestion is made to everyone that they give this matter most careful consideration, and prepare themselves to contribute to this memorial of the present congregation as generously as their blessings in material things will permit.

Do not wait until the actual appeal for subscriptions is made, but begin now to so consider this an opportunity to do in part what others have so handsomely done for us, that when the first offering for this purpose is presented, which is planned to be on Easter Day—1924—you may fully enjoy that gratification which comes with the success of a worthy undertaking.

The committee is open to receive subscriptions at any time, or they may be forwarded, properly designated, to the Accounting Warden, although none will be solicited as payable before Easter.

That the members may more conveniently have as large a part in this memorial to themselves as they may desire, subscriptions will be received payable over a term of years, and may be made payable monthly, quarterly or annually.

Each member should subscribe, not that which he or she wants to give, but that which he or she is able to give to their church.

If we believe and feel that Christ Church is our Church, and if all will give in unison and harmony, success will crown our efforts in the undertaking.

Germantown, June-July, 1924

No. 5

CHRIST CHURCH Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, D. D.

The Rector's Notes

The Rector's Office Hours 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. Daily
6.00 to 7.00 P. M. Daily At Home Saturday Evenings

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Change of Hour for Sunday Morning Service

Following the precedent of last year, the hour of the Sunday morning service during the months of July and August and continuing until Sunday, September 13th (inclusive) will be at half past ten, instead of eleven o'clock. This change of hour will go into effect on the first Sunday in July, the 6th.

This change of hour to half past ten will bring the mid-day service to a cooler part of the day. It will also afford the scholars of the Church School the opportunity of attending the Church service. During the summer months of last year there was a large attendance on the part of the members at the Church service. A short talk will be given to the young people, preceding the sermon. The entire service will be over before noon.

The hour of the other Sunday services will remain the same—Holy Communion, every Sunday at 7.30 A. M. Shortened Form of Evening Prayer with address, 7.45 P. M.

Please remember the hour of the Mid-day Sunday Service—10.30, Daylight Saving Time, beginning Sunday morning July 6th and continuing to Sunday, September 13th (inclusive).

The Rev. C. Sydney Goodman, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, will be in charge of the services at Christ Church, during July and the Rev. George Mair, Rector St. Stephen's Church, Bridesburg, during August.

The services of these clergymen will be at the disposal of the members of the Parish at any time, if word is left at the Rectory.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE IN SUMMER

I want to say a word in regard to Church attendance during the summer months; not only to those who will remain at home during the summer, but also to those who will go away for a while, either for a longer or a shorter period.

Some one has said, "If the angels look down into our empty Churches, during the summer months, and see the unused Prayer Books of so many church people, they must shed bitter tears." Meanwhile what are these people doing? Here, during the winter, you see them in Church with a fair degree of regularity; but there, away from home, their Church and religion is never thought of. I speak not of the fearful consequences of their neglect of their religious duties, upon themselves alone,—this certainly means a lowering of their spiritual life,—but of the awful effect of their irreligion and Church indifference upon the people of the community, where they spend their vacations. It is demoralizing to the people in the country district, if the city man and woman present, Sunday after Sunday, the spectacle of religious indifference or Sunday desecration. If we use that day for purposes which make Church going a mockery, is it likely that the young man or woman living in that community, seeing the example set by "summer visitors," is going to have a particularly high ideal of the sacred obligations of the Lord's Day? Still less, will the countryman, or the servant in the hotel or the native inhabitant, think of his spiritual obligations on this day, if he knows that the summer visitor, who so openly scorns God's House in the summer and desecrates Sunday, is, in the winter, a reputable member—perhaps a Sunday School teacher or a vestryman—in a city church?

It does not matter how good a man may be in his private life, his influence, through his public example in neglecting his Church and his religious duties, is a direct contribution to the lowering of the standard of the community, and this, of course, results, in time, in the eventual degradation of the nation. To whom may God, some day, lay the charge of the decadence of religion in the country? May it not be laid to the Godless example of the summer visitor? "For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself."

My friends, let us, therefore, for these summer months, resolve that, no matter where we may be—among strangers in the country, at the shore, or among our friends, at home—we will be loyal to God in summer as well as in winter; that we will be regular in our attendance upon the worship of God and faithful in our Communion, for "the strengthening and refreshing of our own souls and for the influence that our example will have upon others."

RULES FOR HOLY COMMUNION

1. "When you come forward to receive Holy Communion be careful not to crowd other people. Try also to let members of families kneel side by side. It often means much to them. Remember that consideration for others is no where so fitting as at the Lord's table."

2. "In approaching the rail, go to the right or to left, to allow persons behind you to kneel at the center of the rail."

3. "If the rail is full, kneel down on the chancel floor until your turn comes. If it is difficult for you to kneel in the chancel, return to the front pew in the Church and kneel. Do not remain standing in the Chancel while the Elements are being administered."

4. "Receive the Elements into ungloved hands. The rubric directs that they are to be received into the hands of the people. It is well to place the palm of one hand on top of the other and receive the bread from the hand of the Priest in the upper hand."

5. "Be sure to take the Cup or Chalice into your hands. Grasp it firmly and guide it to your lips. The hats of women who kneel often make it impossible for the celebrant to see their faces. Drink from the Chalice without turning it."

6. "Pray while you are kneeling at the rail. Strive fully to realize what the service means. Pray especially for greater love of God and for others. Be sure too, to offer a prayer of thanksgiving at this time."

7. When you return to your seat, kneel and continue your prayer and thanksgiving. At no time, allow your eyes to wander about the congregation or gaze at others. You should learn to use your Prayer Book for devotional reading and prayer.

8. Never leave the Church until after the Benediction unless absolutely compelled to do so. It would be excessively rude to get up from the table and leave the house of a friend, before the meal was finished, except for serious cause. Will you show less respect at the Lord's Table?

9. "When you return to your seat continue your prayers and thanksgivings. You should learn to use your Prayer Book to this end."

10. "Never leave the Church till the Benediction has been pronounced, unless absolutely compelled to do so. You would not leave the house of a friend before the meal was finished except for serious cause. The Lord's Supper is far more important."

11. "Every Christian should come to the Holy Communion regularly,—at least once a month, and also on Christmas Day, Easter Day and Whitsunday. These days have long been recognized in the Church as great 'days of obligation'."

12. Finally, or rather, first and most important of all, heed carefully and conscientiously and prayerfully the work of Exhortation in the Prayer Book:

"It is our duty to render most humble and hearty thanks to Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for that he hath given his Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, not only to die for us, but also to be our spiritual food and sustenance in that holy Sacrament. Which being so divine and comfortable a thing to them who receive it worthily, and so dangerous to those who will presume to receive it unworthily."

"The way and means to come thereto is: First, to examine your lives and conversations by the rule of God's commandments; and whereinsoever ye shall perceive yourselves to have offended, either by will, word, or deed, there to repent you of your sins, and to confess yourselves to Almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life. And if ye shall perceive your offences to be such as are not only against God, but also against your neighbors; then ye shall reconcile yourselves unto them; being ready to make restitution and satisfaction, according to the uttermost of your powers, for all injuries and wrongs done by you to any other; and being likewise ready to forgive others who have offended you, as ye would have forgiveness of your offences at God's hand."

DIOCESAN CONVENTION UPHOLDS ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW

At the meeting of the Convention of the Diocese on May 6, 1924, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, Many are claiming the right to disobey and to encourage others to disobey the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and the laws enacted in its support; and,

Whereas, Such action is subversive of all law, is a great danger to all government, is particularly menacing to the younger generation, and is morally indefensible;

Therefore be it Resolved by this 140th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, that,

(1) It is the clear duty of every member of the Church to observe these laws, whether approving them or not, and to support the effort of all those in authority who are responsible for their enforcement; and that,

(2) The Mayor of Philadelphia and the Director of Public Safety and all other public officials within the Diocese of Pennsylvania who are endeavoring to enforce and support these laws be commended for their effort;

And be it further Resolved that,

(a) Copies of these resolutions be printed and sent to our parochial clergy in numbers sufficient for distribution among their several congregations; and, the clergy be requested to read the same at a morning and evening service, and to preach on the subject; and that,

(b) The Executive Council be and hereby is instructed to take such steps as it may think helpful towards carrying out the purpose of these resolutions, and to report at the next Convention.

THOMAS J. GARLAND,
President of the Convention.

The above action taken by the Diocesan Convention is, in the judgment of the Rector, highly commendable and heroic. It puts the Church in this diocese unequivocally and square-footed on the side of law and order and righteousness, as opposed to the present day spirit of anarchy and crime. It commends the efforts of the public officials who are performing their sworn duty in an endeavor to enforce and support the law.

There were many good citizens who were opposed to the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment. That was their inalienable right. But now that the Amendment has been lawfully passed and made a part of the Constitution of the United States, no good citizen has a right to oppose its enforcement or to encourage others in a violation of the law.

The Amendment is here and, in our judgment, it is here to stay. Whether we like it or not, as long as it is here it should be enforced. We cannot pick and choose which laws we will obey and which we will disobey. To do this is to strike at the basic principle of Democratic government. Every law-abiding citizen, every patriot will aid in the enforcement of the law and will have respect to law and government.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided it is the law of the land to take intoxicating liquor out of the category of commercial commodities and to prevent their use for beverage purposes; hence enforcement means securing the spirit of the statute as well as the letter. He who takes offense at the enforcement of law is not truly a lover of law and order. He is at heart an anarchist and, therefore, an enemy to all law and order.

By a large majority, the framers of the Constitution of the United States were Churchmen. It is, therefore, consistent that this Church, which lays claim to be called the "American Church," should be the Church which upholds the American Constitution and demands from its members obedience of the law of the land.

The action taken by the last Convention of this diocese in passing the foregoing preamble and resolutions is in the spirit of the fathers whose loyalty to the Church embraced loyalty to their country and respect to the powers that be.

OUR NEW ORGAN

From a financial point of view, Christ Church is now engaged in its largest enterprise since the rebuilding of the church.

The support of every member—man, woman and child, is necessary for its complete success. Everyone should be concerned in the effort to provide suitable facilities for good music in our church.

Our present organ has done effective work for several generations of worshippers, but it is now worn out. It still contains a few pipes so sweet in tone that after re-voicing they will be incorporated into the new instrument.

As the past provided for us, so we in our time must secure an instrument suitable for present and future needs.

The organ has undergone many improvements, and while we feel that nothing is too good for Christ Church, your Vestry has been guided along practical, conservative lines so that our new instrument will contain all proper requirements for the modern rendition of church music, without the expense involved in fancy pipes which are seldom or never used.

It is proposed to tear down our present organ during August so as to be ready for the placing of the new instrument during the fall in time for our Christmas music.

This will require some changes in the chancel and probably its re-decoration,—the expense of which is legitimately a part of the installation of the organ.

To furnish the means for all of the above, your Vestry would appeal to every member of Christ Church who has not already subscribed to the Organ Fund to do so at once. Payments may be made monthly or quarterly or in two annual payments as we have two years in which to complete our payments. It is, however, desirable to have every member pledged at the beginning so that the Vestry may be in position to make payments as they are due.

One dollar a month for two years from those who have not yet subscribed would furnish a sufficient amount to meet all payments.

Some can give more and some less, but let all have a part in the great work of placing a suitable organ in Christ Church.

Pledge forms and moneys should be sent to Edward Bains, Stenton above Wyoming avenue, Germantown.

T. H. C.

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE NEW ORGAN

Up to the time the Chimes goes to press, there has been received from paid up subscriptions and pledges for the new organ the amount of $14,015.00.

This, together with the amount received at the seventieth anniversary, makes a total of $15,165.00 in hand and subscribed.

Only 76 persons have thus far responded, as follows:

Subscriptions, $5.00 to $50.00, inclusive, from 44 persons.

Subscriptions, $50.00 to $100.00, inclusive, from 19 persons.

Subscriptions, $100.00 to $500.00, inclusive, from 7 persons.

Subscriptions, $500.00, from 1 person.

Subscriptions, $1,000.00, each, from 4 persons.

Subscription $5,000.00 from one person.

Twenty thousand dollars will be required to cover cost of the organ, installation and necessary alterations. Trusting to the interest and generosity of those who have not, as yet, responded to the appeal, the Vestry has awarded the contract for the new organ to the Hall Organ Company of West Haven, Connecticut. It will take about six months to build and install the organ and it is hoped that by December 1st the congregation of Christ Church will be led in worship by one of the best organs in the city. As the benefit of this valuable addition to Christ Church will be shared in by all who worship here, it is earnestly hoped that the full list of subscribers, which will appear in the next issue of the Chimes, will include 100 per cent. of the membership of the parish. Subscriptions of any amount, payment to extend over a period of two years, if so desired, will be welcomed by the Committee.

Grateful acknowledgement is made to the following persons, whose subscriptions have been received up to the time the Chimes goes to press:

Mrs. Charles Henry Arndt, John Falkner Arndt, David Butler Arndt, Robert N. D. Arndt, Mr. Charles Ard.

G. F. S. CHRIST CHURCH

The Girl's Friendly of Christ Church, Germantown, held its last meeting for the season last Tuesday evening, June 9th.

This month has witnessed two successful efforts on the part of the organization.

The first was our play—"Twas Ever Thus," given in the Parish House on the evening of June 5th. The proceeds of the play will help finance the Friendly in its work next season. We have had much praise for the effort expended on the play—it being pronounced a great success, and many requests have been made for its repetition, for which we thank our patrons. We would also like to take this occasion to express our appreciation to our co-worker and member, Beatrice Spooner, to whom is due not only the honor of being the author of the musical comedy, but also the coach and stage manager, and to her indomitable energy is due the success.

We also took our part in the annual Diocesan G. F. S. Lawn Party, held on the grounds of the Germantown Cricket Club, Saturday, June 7th. The day was glorious, the attendance large, hence a very satisfactory outcome. The proceeds from this affair go first, to a Scholarship at the Bryn Mawr Summer School, and second to a Scholarship in the White Williams Foundation. Each Scholarship is granted by vote to a G. F. S. member. The funds remaining will be devoted to other Diocesan purposes in which the G. F. S. find occasion to assist.

We will open our meetings the first Tuesday in October, and hope to be able to record many new members and associates.

We have good times, do good work, and all who join us will receive a hearty welcome.

"We are off for the country! Thank you so much!"

POOR CHILDREN'S COUNTRY WEEK

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on Sunday morning, June 29th. It will cost $4.00 to send a poor child to the country for one week where it can enjoy pure, fresh air and good wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom for several years past to secure from various organizations for the poor the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portion of the city—in the small, dirty courts and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called "homes" the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements made for a week's outing in the country and, in some cases for a longer period of time. Occasionally a poor, overworked mother is also sent with her children.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are privileged to give; and what a great opportunity it affords to persons who are blessed with comfortable homes and can get away for rest and recreation during the hot summer months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in the narrow and crowded streets and alleys of our city.

The amount received last year from the members of Christ Church for the Poor Children's Outing Fund was $162.20. This was divided among the "Children's Country Week Association," the "Union Settlement House," the "Bedford Street Mission" and the "Episcopal City Mission," organizations which are doing social work among the poor of our city. The following letters, received by the Rector, will show how highly the contributions of Christ Church people were appreciated by the organizations through which these poor children were sent into the country or to the seashore for a week or ten days:

August 2nd, 1923.

Rev. Chas. Henry Arndt, D. D.,
59 W. Tulpehocken Street,
Germantown, Phila., Pa.

Dear Sir:

We thank you for your letter enclosing annual contribution from the Christ Episcopal Church of Germantown.

Our whole Organization very much appreciates the active and substantial interest which you have been taking in our work, and sincerely hope that we may warrant the continuation of it. . . .

We enclose herewith our receipt for your contribution, and hope that you will call at the Mission whenever you have an opportunity, for such personal interest which you have been giving to our work is a great encouragement to our Workers.

Very sincerely,
BEDFORD STREET MISSION,
Wm. T. Lewellyn, Sec. & Treas.

August 11, 1923.

Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, D. D.,
Orr's Island, Maine.
My dear Dr. Arndt:

We have received information from the Diocese of the generous gift for the Children's Summer Fund from Christ Church and from the Sunday School for the same purpose, making $70.00 in all for the use of the City Mission in its summer work.

I want to take this opportunity of expressing to you our heartfelt appreciation for this generous remembrance from Christ Church and the Sunday School and I hope you will express these sentiments to each and every member of your parish, as it is the kind of work that does more good than can be expressed in figures. It may mean the saving of a life of a mother and child and it is bound to mean better health and strength to meet the hard problems of life which face all those who will receive the benefit of this gift.

May God bless each and every one of the givers and may their summer be even more satisfactory and beneficial to them because of their generous remembrance of God's poor.

With best wishes, I am

Most cordially yours,

H. Cresson McHenry,
General Secretary.

Children's Country Week Association
August 1st, 1923.

My dear Dr. Arndt:

We acknowledge receipt of the gift to the work of the Children's Country Week Association from Christ Episcopal Church, Germantown, and want to add just a line to assure you how grateful we are for your interest and effort. Your contribution has made it possible for these little children to have a week's outing at one of our homes, where they have had the benefit, not only of fresh air and good food, but have enjoyed hiking, swimming and all pleasures of camp life under direction of trained Counsellors whose sole duty it is to plan for the amusement of our little guests.

Should you wish to become acquainted with our work, we invite you to visit our homes which are open during the summer months and you can then witness the happiness of these children.

Sincerely yours,
Laura Baker Miller Blithe
(Mrs. N. L. Blithe),
President.

Grace Union Settlement House
1032 Federal St., Phila.
Rev. Chas. Henry Arndt, D. D.
Germantown, Pa.
Dear Dr. Arndt:

Thank you so much for your kind contribution toward sending our poor little children to the country. It has been an untold blessing to them.

I should like to tell you about several of the families benefitted. One, a poor widow with six delicate children whom she is struggling to support. Poor half-starved little things! It would have rejoiced your heart to have seen them on their return. They looked like different children.

Another was a family of eleven who live in a little three-room house. Ten were sent out. They were so happy they thought it was Heaven.

Again thanking you and praying God to richly bless you for your kindness to these His little ones, I am

Gratefully yours,
Annie M. Miller, Supt.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The first half of the work of the Woman's Auxiliary for the year is over. Much has been attempted, something accomplished and many big things still remain to be done. Our last meeting was held in the Parish House on May 15th; the reports from our delegates, given that day, were particularly fine and instructive and we adjourned for the summer, with the conviction that the

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Easter Carol Service

Easter Evening found the Church well filled with scholars, their parents and friends, and many people said the singing was better than in past years, although most of the carols were new to us.

A remembrance was given to each member of the School who had been present for at least a year without missing. The record is as follows:

9 YEARS
Mrs. Baishbrown
BETWEEN 5 and 6 YEARS
Elizabeth Haas
BETWEEN 4 and 5 YEARS
Martha McHenry	Nancy Courtney
Marion Feist	Mary Keenan
BETWEEN 3 and 4 YEARS
John Hannan	Josephine Wright
Howard Logan	Mary Johnson
Anna B. Bradley
BETWEEN 2 and 3 YEARS
Margaret Boyer	Helen Jackson
Robert Hance	Doris Hance
Marjorie Wismer	Graham Klink
Jein Gilfallan	Robert Klink
James Carmint	Frank Stryke
Allen Fermier	Alberta Wright
BETWEEN 1 and 2 YEARS
Thos. Hodge	Marjorie Stryke
Anna Johnson	Olara Hilliard
Dorothy Ballantyne	Jane Courtney
Alfred Rittenhouse	Edward Wilcox
Florence Osborne	Chas. Holcomb

If the attendance of the above scholars is added together, it would amount to one scholar attending the school for over ninety-three years without missing.

The following were promoted from the Primary Department to the Main School:

Herbert Wismer	John Patterson
Walter Field	John Pritchard
George Foust, Jr.	William Stryke
William Frech	Jein Fitch
George Johnson	Beatrice Johnson
Robert Heiler	Louise McIlhenny
Wilbur Long	Charlotte Metz

Caroline Dove

Commendation was given to 24 scholars who attended the morning Church service every Sunday during Lent.

Easter Offering

Our Easter Mite Box Offering for missions this year again "went over the top" and amounted to $833.89, which is $82 more than last year and $558 more than the year before. Next year we may get into the "Thousand Dollar Class," who knows? We can if we keep "Missions" in our mind all the year and each week lay something aside for it.

Our amount was realized this year only because most of the scholars entered in-

"time is ripe" when it is necessary for each and every woman in our Parish to become vitally interested in this missionary work, if we are to accomplish the things we have planned to do in 1924.

As you know, we are trying to raise by our special efforts this year, the sum of $500.00 (five hundred) to be given to two objects, which will count on our Parish Quota. It was voted at the May meeting to send $250.00 of this anticipated amount to Christ School for Girls, at Arden, North Carolina, and the other half, to our work in China (the object to be decided upon in the autumn). China will be the subject of the Mission Study Classes next winter.

At the present time we have $70.00 in hand, of our $500.00 special.

On Tuesday evening, June 24th at 8 o'clock, we have arranged to give a "Musical" at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Wurts, 267 East Johnson Street, with a Silver Offering which will be applied to the above named special.

Every member of the Parish is most cordially invited to this "Musical" and their friends also. The "talent," who are giving their services for this affair, is very fine.

Will you, men and women, of Christ Church co-operate with us in enlisting the interest of others in this "Musical," so as to make it a success?

A delightful evening is promised to all those who will attend.

Please kindly remember to save your "Rummage" for us, for our sale in the Fall.

The meetings of our fortnightly Mission Study Group are still held, in private homes and are enjoyed by all those who attend. We would gladly welcome others to these meetings as they are free to all women of our Parish.

I cannot close this article without saying a few words of commendation and thanks to our faithful active members who have so willingly and untiringly discharged their duties during the past Winter and Spring. Remember that prayer is the foundation of our success.

We shall hope to welcome new workers to our Auxiliary in the Autumn for your "Opportunity is at hand." "Behold, I stand at the door and knock." "And let us not be weary in well doing for in due season we shall reap if we faint not."

L. M. R.

to the spirit of mission work not only with their minds but with their hands and feet, individually earning money and, as classes, giving a play, fair, cake and candy sales and helping in other ways. The space allotted to this article is too small to describe in detail what was done. The total amount given by all the Sunday Schools of this Diocese was over $70,000.

Picnic

This year we are going to try a new arrangement. Instead of having a Picnic for all at one time, each class is going when and where it pleases, possibly 2 or 3 classes going together.

The Primary School will hold its Picnic on the Parish House grounds on Saturday, June 28th from 3 to 5 o'clock to which parents of the scholars are invited.

Summer School

As usual during July and August and part of September instead of our regular sessions the school will attend the church service at 10.30, at which service there will be a short talk to the School by the clergyman in charge. We are all glad to know that the Rev. Mr. Goodman will again be with us during the Rector's absence in the month of July. The Rev. George Mair will have charge during August. This will be the first time that Mr. Mair has been with us.

Confirmation

Fifteen members of the class that the Rector presented to the Bishop on Thursday before Easter came direct from the Sunday School, making a total of over 70 in the last four years that have entered the Church from our school. R. H. M.

ANNUAL ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

On Easter Monday, April 21st, was held the annual election of Vestrymen of Christ Church, to serve for three years. These annual elections are in this parish, as they are in most parishes, mere matters of form, although the election is always announced and the names of nominees are duly posted before the day of election. The judges of election were Charles A. Jackson, James Carmint, Jr., and William S. Crowder. The Vestrymen elected were Dr. Thomas H. Carmichael, Edward Bains, U. G. Rowley and William H. Clausen, the latter to succeed Charles W. Sutcliffe, resigned.

At the first meeting of the Vestry, held on Easter Tuesday, the Rector re-appointed James M. Woodroffe, Rector's Warden and Edward Bains was re-elected Accounting Warden. Richard H. Morris was appointed Secretary, pro tem.

The following were elected: Delegates to the Diocesan Convention—Col. Sheldon Potter, James M. Woodroffe, Richard H. Morris. Alternates, Dr. Johnson, Messrs. Bains, Rowley. Choir Committee—Dr. Carmichael, Messrs. Bains, Morris. Sunday School Committee—Messrs. Morris, Rowley, Bains. Finance Committee—Dr. Johnson, Messrs. Woodroffe, Rowley. Property Committee—Messrs. Lennig, Middleton, Rowley. Every Member Cans—Messrs. Clausen, Middleton, Lennig.

HERE'S AN OPPORTUNITY FOR HELPFUL SERVICE

Mrs. Henry Cox, Chairman of the Knitting Committee of the Diocesan Supply Bureau, begs the different parishes to do as much knitting as possible during the summer so we may have warm garments to give out to our own church organizations in the Diocese as soon as cold weather comes. Wool may be purchased at practically wholesale prices from the Diocesan Supply Bureau. During the summer season nearly all our church women, it is hoped, may find opportunity to give a little helpful service in this work.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild will be very glad to have members of the congregation supply flowers from their gardens during the summer months. The following committee will be on duty and if notified will arrange to call for the flowers if it is not convenient to send them to the church.

July 6th—The Misses Dean, Crowder and McHenry.

July 13th—Mrs. Mogridge and Miss Stryke.

July 20th—Miss Wismer.

July 27th—Mrs. Mogridge and Miss Wismer.

August 3d—Miss Wismer.

August 10th—The Misses Gerhard, Stryke, Higgenbotham and Wismer.

August 17th—The Misses Chase K. Wertsner and Smith.

August 24th—Mrs. Mogridge and Miss Wismer.

August 31st—The Misses Dean, Crowder and McHenry.

As a prelude to the play given by the G. F. S. on June 9th, in the Parish House, Miss Eleanor Pinkerton's Sunday School Class gave a very attractive sketch, entitled, "Snow White and Rose Red." It was enthusiastically received by the large audience present and reflected great credit on the members of the class. The proceeds of the evening were shared by the G. F. S. and were added to the class Lenten offering to Missions.

No issue of the Chimes will be published during the summer months. The next issue will be in September, when announcements of the meetings and winter programs of the Parish Societies will be made.

All Societies have adjourned until autumn. During the summer months the members of the Church School will attend the service in the Church on Sunday mornings at half past ten o'clock, daylight saving time. A short address will be given each Sunday to young people, after which the scholars of the School who wish to do so, may leave the Church during the singing of the hymn. The usual sermon will follow.

Both the mid-day and the evening service will be shortened form, with hearty congregational singing.

HAVE WEDDINGS IN THE CHURCH

It is a strange misapprehension of the fitness of things which so frequently suggests to the minds of devout people that it is "lovely to have the wedding at home." There are sentimental reasons for it we know. But these are trifling in comparison with the reasons why the marriage should be solemnized at the Church.

What is marriage? It is the union of a Christian man and a Christian woman, which St. Paul tells us is a type of the union between Christ and His Church. It is a service in which the father of the bride, with his own hand, gives his daughter to God (Who is represented by the Priest), and by the Priest she is given to the groom, who receives her from the hand of the Priest as "a gift from God." If the union does symbolize the divine union between Christ and His Church; if the bride is God's gift to the groom, what place is so fit for its solemnization as the Church to receive God's gift?

Besides all this, we ask God to give His fullest blessing to the two souls who have just made their solemn and indissoluble vows each to the other. While it is true that God will give His blessing to one who seeks it earnestly, wherever he may be, if we are free to go where it may most naturally be sought, where will we be drawn so strongly as to His temple?

The Prayer Book service is designed only to be used in the Church. The third rubric at the beginning of the service reads: "At the day and time appointed for solemnization of Matrimony, the persons to be married shall come into the body of the church, or shall be ready in some proper house, with their friends and neighbors." The "proper house" would mean that in the case of struggling missions, or other places where there is no church, the "house" where the services are customarily said, would be used for the marriage. In all other places, the church is the proper place.

We commend this subject most earnestly and prayerfully to our readers. And while we fully enter into the sentimental reasons which cluster about the family hearth and which love to associate the sacred ties of life with the earthly home, we are very sure that when we consider the solemnization of Holy Matrimony and all that it means, it is much more to the mind of the Church that this be done in the House of God. We believe, too, that marriage vows taken before the altar of God will not so lightly be set aside by attempted divorces as those made elsewhere. Do you think, too, that the argument for the statement of "home weddings" loses all of its weight in communities such as ours, in cities where we do not have a permanent home, but flit about from flat to flat, with no permanent abiding place. Our only real home is God's house, where He loves to have us meet with Him, and pours out upon our opening and yearning hearts His most abundant blessings.

ARE THE MAJORITY OF PEOPLE HONEST?

How many of the people, whom you pass on the streets, are absolutely honest? "Four out of five!" answers Solomon Ulmer. He recently demonstrated this by an odd experiment.

Ulmer, head of a mortgage company in Cleveland, is raising money for a new tuberculosis sanitarium in Los Angeles. He picked 1000 names at random from his local city directory. To each of these he mailed this letter, with a $1 bill enclosed:

"You can keep this dollar if you want to, but we hope you won't. We hope you'll send it and another one to me as your subscription to the fund. We believe everyone is really kind and generous. We are investing $1000 to prove that belief. Have we made a good investment? What is your answer?"

Out of the 1000 who received a letter and $1 bill, 600 returned the dollar with at least one more, 200 sent the dollar back alone, and 200 kept the dollar.

The 200, of course, are not dishonest as the law views such things. They were told they could keep the dollar if they preferred. But an appeal was made to them in a good cause and they were put on their honor to repay.

At any rate, at least four out of five are absolutely honest, and three out of five are generous as well as honest.

Cases like this give us renewed confidence in our fellowmen at large—especially the strangers whose elbows brush ours on the street.

As you follow the daily news and read of hold-ups, confidence games, swindles and burglary, maybe you occasionally get the notion that the world reeks with dishonesty.

Not so. The dishonest cases are the exceptions. That's why they are news—a record of the unusual. Honesty is so common and general, that cases of it are not news.

Let us have faith in our fellows, and inspire that faith in others!

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, D. D.

The Rector's Notes

The Rector's Office Hours 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. Daily
6.00 to 7.00 P. M. Daily At Home Saturday Evenings

VACATIONS ARE ENDED

Now that vacation days are ended, I hope to see the members of Christ Church regularly in their places in the House of God.

There is always a danger in summer vacations; a danger that they may foster habits of idleness and make it difficult for one promptly and fully to take up again in the fall, life's more serious problems and duties and responsibilities. This ought not to be. The object of a vacation is, or should be, recreation, that is re-creation. A vacation should be a rest to mind, body and soul, with this definite end in view—that one may return better fitted for life's work, with renewed vigor, nobler purposes, and higher ideals.

If this has not been the result of our vacation, then our time has been wasted and our vacation has been to us more harm than good.

Our duty now and our privilege is to take our place immediately in the ranks of Christian Service.

There should be no delay, no procrastination. Life is too serious; duties are too pressing; the time is too short.

The world is calling for true unselfish, consecrated men and women.

Our duty is plain. The question is: Shall we be faithless or true?

As soon as each returns from his vacation, he should present himself before the altar in the House of God, and offer unto God praise and thanksgiving, and himself—"his soul and body to be a reasonable, holy and living sacrifice."

I most earnestly pray—yes, let every one of us most earnestly pray—that God's Holy Spirit may come with power into each life in this parish, to arouse the indifferent, to raise the fallen, to give patience and courage to the faithful, that all may be filled more and more with the love of Christ, which will manifest itself in unselfish, consecrated service.

STRANGERS AND OCCASIONAL ATTENDANTS

The Rector is pleased to see and to welcome the strangers and occasional worshippers who attend the Services of Christ Church. He is disappointed, however, that these strangers who attend occasionally, continue to remain "strangers." He is very anxious to meet them personally and to invite them to identify themselves with the Parish.

The Parish needs the co-operation of every one, and every one needs a "Church Home." No one ought to be content to remain an "outsider," without a Church which he can call his own.

There are many good people going through life without a "Church Home." This is all wrong—wrong to the Church and wrong to themselves. The Rector hopes that persons in this community, who are not settled in any Church, will make themselves known to him at once and he will be pleased to meet them and to welcome them to Christ Church. Do not delay longer. Do it now!

WHY WAIT?

"I wish that he could have seen you before he died." That is what someone said to the Rector the other day. It is a strange idea in the minds of some, that the clergy should never be called until the sick person is very sick or perhaps almost at the point of death. It would be much more satisfactory for all concerned if the information could come whenever the person is sick enough to send for a doctor. We wish to remind the people of the parish that the clergy are just as close to them as the telephone, and that they are always glad to come when called, but that up to the present time no invention has been discovered which enables them to know when people are sick without being told or called.—St. Stephen's Parish News.

DIOCESE PREPARES FOR EVERY-MEMBER CANVASS

Call for Concerted Action in All Parishes

The following is taken from the Diocesan paper, "The Church News":

"Plans are rapidly maturing for a concerted and co-operative movement by all Parishes in the Diocese to give special emphasis and support to the Annual Every-Member Canvass in the Diocese this year.

"Following action by the Executive Council of the Diocese at its last meeting, Bishop Garland appointed a special committee for the Diocese on Nation-Wide Campaign. This committee has had several meetings and has outlined a program, which is meeting with strong support in virtually every direction.

"It is proposed holding the Annual Every-Member Canvass throughout the Diocese on Sunday, December 7th. In preparation for the Canvass a three days' Diocesan Institute is to be held in St. James' Church, Twenty-second and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia with morning, afternoon and night sessions on each day. Three sessions each day have been planned so that opportunity may be given everybody to attend one or more of the sessions. The dates tentatively fixed for the Institute are October 20th, 21st and 22nd. These dates fall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

"Announcement is to be made of the speakers who will address the Institute. They will include representatives of the General Church from national headquarters and from our own Diocese and Parishes. At all sessions the Church's Mission will be presented. Information of what the Church is doing and what the Church is hoping to accomplish also will be presented. Emphasis will be laid on methods by which Parishes have helped and can strengthen and push forward the work of the Church at home and in the mission field.

"The importance and value of the Institute are being stressed by the Diocesan committee. The committee is aiming to have all the churches of the Diocese represented at the Institute sessions by men and women who will carry back to their own churches the information received at the Institute. By this means it is hoped to stimulate interest in the Every-Member Canvass among our church people throughout the Diocese."

An Every-Member Canvass has not been held in Christ Church Parish for several years. In all probability Christ Church will "fall in line" with the other Parishes of the Diocese and have an Every-Member Canvass at the same time.

AN INTERESTING SERIES OF "INFORMATIVE MISSIONARY SERVICES"

The Rector has arranged to hold an "Informative Missionary Service" on the second Sunday morning of each month, during the coming winter.

The object the Rector has in mind is to give the members and attendants of Christ Church first-hand information on the subject of the Church's work in the different parts of the Missionary field, by speakers who are best acquainted with the condition and needs.

Through the help and courtesy of the Field Department of the National Council in New York, the Rector has been enabled to arrange a schedule of speakers for the second Sunday of each month, beginning the second Sunday in October (October 12th), and continuing to the second Sunday in May, inclusive.

The Rector believes that the people of Christ Church will highly appreciate these Monthly Missionary Services, at which time an opportunity will be afforded to hear some of the best informed men, both clerical and lay, speak on the great work that the Church is doing throughout the world.

This series of monthly addresses will embrace a wide range of missionary information and the people of Christ Church who attend all the services in the series will have a very full, intelligent and comprehensive understanding of the progress of the Kingdom of Christ is making on earth.

The Rector urges all the people in the Parish to avail themselves of this rare opportunity, which will be presented to them on the second Sunday morning of each month.

The names of the speakers and their subjects to the first of the year will be as follows:

Second Sunday in October (12th), William C. Sturgis, Esq., Secretary Religious Education. Subject, "Japanese Reconstruction."

Second Sunday in November (9th), the Rev. Franklin J. Clark. Subject, "The Program of the Church."

Second Sunday in December (14th), the Rev. R. W. Patton. "What is the Church Doing Among the Negroes in the South?"

Second Sunday in January (11), Alfred Newberry, Esq. "What is the Church Doing in China?"

Remember the date: "INFORMATIVE MISSION SERVICE," SECOND SUNDAY MORNING EVERY MONTH!"

A SERVICE OF INTERCESSORY PRAYER FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

I wish to call attention to the members of Christ Church and others living in this vicinity to the Service of Evening Prayer which is held in Christ Church on Friday afternoons at 5 o'clock.

At this service special intercessory prayer is made on behalf of persons in physical, mental or spiritual need.

Persons who wish special intercessions on their behalf or on behalf of friends are asked to notify the Rector. He may be seen in the Sacristy of the Church half hour before this service on Friday afternoons.

ALL SAINTS' DAY

The services on All Saints' Day—November 1st—will be Holy Communion, 7.30 and 11.00 A. M. At the latter service there will be an address by the Rector and the names of those who have entered into life eternal during the past year will be read from the chancel and prayer will be said in behalf of the blessed dead. Flowers on the altar on that day will be "in memory," given by those who desire to send them. After the service they will be sent to the sick in the Parish.

The dead in Christ are not very far from us. By this is not meant any false spiritualism, any physical nearness or sound, or sight or touch. That would be only to restore what is most imperfect, and what death was meant to end.

The nearness is that of the deeper, hidden bands which bind the souls of them that love Him together, in the Lord Jesus Christ. The body is resting in the grave under the care of God's holy angels till the glory of the resurrection morning, but the soul is with Christ. He knows it, cares for it, watches it, loves it, has drawn it to Himself in a closer union, has poured fuller graces upon it, has washed it in His own blood. It is one with Him in a fuller, deeper sense than ever before. The soul, too, must be gaining in all spiritual powers; it must be growing in love, in humility, in charity, in every grace.

It is surely right to think that it remembers those it loved on earth; that it prays for them; that it is fuller of abounding grace, and worships the eternal God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, as it never worshipped here. And, therefore, in proportion as one left behind grows nearer to Christ he must be growing nearer to his loved one.

Both in Christ, they must also be very near to one another in Him; He is their meeting place. The departed is on one side the veil, the living on the other—that is all. Just as when two who love one another here are parted, and hear that they can meet, they hurry as quickly as possible to the place appointed, even so will the mourner try to draw near to the one taken away, by prayer, by good works, by patience, by gentle cheerfulness, and, above all, to "the trysting place of the soul," the Holy Communion. Wheresoever Christ is, there the dead in Christ must be. Thus it is that there must be deep and inviolable bonds binding the holy living to the holy dead in Him.

They are awaiting us in Paradise. The reason of man teaches, and Holy Scriptures confirm it, that we shall know one another in that blessed land. We must believe that the dearest ties we have on earth, the things that most lead us unto God, have their fruition in heaven—not in any earthly way, but divested of all that is weak and poor and frail in them, in a transfigured glory. All our heart, and thought and feeling will indeed center in Christ, but these blessed ties will be the steps to the throne on which He sits. In loving any member in His mystical body, we shall only love Him the more who is the Head of it. Thus father and son, mother and daughter, husband and wife, friend with friend, one in Christ, will still be one with each other. Somehow in this world, family ties, if they bind the members of the family closely together, serve also to separate the family in that degree, from the rest of the world. In the other life, there will be all the union and none of the separation. The one family of Christ, however much all earthly bonds may find in it then blessed fulfillment, will know no separation, and yet each earthly tie on which God has set the seal of His blessing, will have its distinct place in the eternal oneness.

Thus as the mourner here on earth seeks to draw near to God, each step will bring him closer to the soul at rest with God, until at last the veil shall be lifted, and, hand in hand, in the glad company of the Redeemed, they will see the vision of God's glory, and at the Resurrection wake up after God's likeness.

James De Koven.

Lord, where Thou are our Holy Dead must be,

Unpierced, as yet, the Sacramental mist;

But we are nearest them and nearest Thee

At solemn Eucharist.

O Lord, we crave for those gone Home to Thee,

For those who made the earthly home so fair;

How little we may know, how little see,
Only—that thou art there.

Dear hands unclasped from ours are clasping Thee;

Thou holdest us for ever in Thy Heart;

So close the One Communion—are we In very truth, apart?

Lord, where Thou art our happy Dead must be;

And if with Thee, what then their boundless bliss!

Till faith be sight; and Hope, reality;
Love's Anchorage is this.

DO WE BELIEVE IN PRAYER?

Somebody asked us if we believe in prayer. They might ask if we believe in breathing. A Christian without prayer would be worse than a bird without wings. Prayer! Thank God for prayer, for the hundreds of promises which encourage prayer, the answers to prayers recorded in the Bible and for the experiences of the saints of God, which prove that God answers prayer. The first thing we remember in our life is prayer. In the earliest childhood prayer in child-like faith was enjoyed, and through the many years of a Christian life prayer has been the refuge and the delight. To cultivate a constant spirit and attitude of prayer ought to be the aim of every child of God. As we move about, work or rest, the heart may be in His presence.

And we believe in the prayer of intercession. Praying one for another and for all the Saints is a blessed privilege. It is one of the joys of our Christian life, to pray for our beloved ones by name and we are conscious that many of God's people mention us before the throne of Grace.

And may we pray for our beloved ones who are with Jesus in Paradise? Certainly! It is comforting to learn that at the last General Convention of our Church, provision was made, in the new revision of our Prayer Book, for prayers for the departed. We all, who have lost loved ones for whom we prayed whilst they were with us on earth, cannot cease our prayers for them, now that they are no longer with us in the flesh. They are still close to us when we are in Communion with Jesus. Why should we not pray for them? Our hearts cannot help going out to them and for them in prayer. And they!—surely they, who loved us here, and prayed for us, love us still and are praying for us now, that they are in the fuller presence of Jesus.

How beautifully Tennyson puts into words this universal yearning of the human heart:

How can I cease to pray for thee? Somewhere

In God's great universe thou art today.
Can He not reach thee with His tender care?

Can He not hear me when for thee I pray?

What matters it to Him who holds within
The hollow of His hand all worlds, all space.

That thou art done with earthly pain and sin?

Somewhere within His ken thou hast a place.

Somewhere thou livest, and hast need of Him;

Somewhere thy soul sees higher heights to climb;

And somewhere still, there may be valleys dim

That thou must pass, to reach the hills sublime.

Then all the more because thou canst not hear

Poor human words of blessing, will I pray—

O true, brave heart! God bless thee!
wheresoe'er

In His great universe thou art today!

OUR NEW ORGAN

The Organ Committee is glad to report to the members and friends of Christ Church that our efforts are being crowned with success and that we expect to have the new instrument in place and ready for use on March 1st, 1925.

In order that this may be done, it will be necessary to remove the present organ soon after Christmas, so that for a short period we shall be without organ music.

Our old organ will end its career of usefulness by rendering once again the joyous music of Christmastide.

To accommodate the larger instrument, some changes have to be made in the chancel. A large opening has to be made in the wall which is now covered by ornamental pipes, and the console is to be placed on the opposite side of the chancel from the organ in order that the organist may be in closer touch with the choir.

While we may say that success has crowned our efforts, we have not fully met our financial responsibilities. There remains about two thousand dollars to be obtained from our members and friends in order to meet the necessary expenses. There are many in our congregation who have not yet subscribed and when it is remembered that subscriptions made now have eighteen months for payment, there should be no one connected with Christ Church who is not a subscriber to the fund.

Five dollars every three months for the remaining eighteen months, or six payments in all, from those who have not already subscribed, would furnish sufficient funds to meet all demands.

Is it not worth while to make some sacrifice for the sake of those who may worship in Christ Church during the years to come, just as our forbears sacrificed to place the present organ which has led our services and aided our devotions down to the present time?

It is confidently expected that we shall have one of the very best organs of its size in the City of Philadelphia. It is being made by the Hall Organ Company, of West Haven, Conn.

THE JAPANESE RECONSTRUCTION FUND

Following a recent meeting at the "Church House," 19th and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, at which Dr. Wood, of the National Council of New York, spoke, and also Dr. Teusler, head of St. Luke's International Hospital, Tokyo, plans were presented for carrying out the original ideas, relative to the "Japanese Reconstruction Fund." This "Fund," as the readers of "The Chimes" probably know, was to have been raised last May, but owing to a "drive" for the Divinity School at that time, the "Japanese Reconstruction Fund" plans were deferred until this Autumn. The following copy of a leaflet, which is being distributed throughout the Diocese, is self-explanatory of the ways and means of raising this offering.

GOLD, SILVER AND JEWEL OFFERING

Proceeds for Rebuilding Girls' Schools and Kindergartens in Japan
"Imitation is sincerest flattery."

Our plan is not original. Last winter many may have seen how the women of the Lutheran Church provided for rebuilding their girls' schools in Japan which were destroyed by the earthquake or fire by collecting gold, silver and jewelry, securing about $200,000 as a result of their efforts.

Our loss exceeds theirs. Therefore, the greater our opportunity. Have we faith and courage equal to our task? Help us to answer—"yes!"

To rebuild St. Margaret's School will require $315,000; $500 will provide what is known as a "unit" for one girl. Who will build one unit?

To rebuild eight kindergartens will cost $20,000; $2500 will be required for each kindergarten providing for fifty children.

To mould the children is to mould the nation. Don't you want to build a kindergarten?

The plan to be followed in this Diocese briefly is this:

Each Parish will be asked to have some one appointed to collect all gold, silver and jewelry. Sunday, October 12th, the offerings to be presented in each Parish and then sent to the Central Committee, when, after being valued, credit will be given each Parish.

Do you ask what you can give?

Spoons, forks, any pieces of silver or old plate, gold spectacles, broken pins, stickpins, pens, pencils, cuff buttons, necklaces, rings and broken bits as well as offerings which mean real sacrifice. Nothing is too small and no gift can be too great to show our love.

This is but one part of the plan in this Diocese for raising our share of the amount needed for Japan's Reconstruction Fund.

There is no one but has something to give and can share in this effort.

"We must share if we would keep God's great gifts from above. Ceasing to give we cease to have. Such is God's law of Love."

Dr. Teusler said:

"This is a crucial point in the history of the Church. The Church, one year ago, raised over $500,000 for the Emergency Fund, just after the earthquake. What we did last year, was to put back on its feet the equipment of our Church. Now, it is absolutely necessary to put the frame work back. Japan is ready to become a Christian Nation, if we can continue to demonstrate to them, that our intentions to them are true and vital, that in the face of disaster from earthquake and international misunderstanding, we mean to fulfill our endeavors, to show them that it is Our Religion which counts."

Dr. Wood said:

"The Japanese Reconstruction Fund is the most vital thing that confronts the Church today."

To those who read this article, will you not think seriously of it and contribute accordingly to the extent of your ability?

A box will be placed in each vestibule of the Church; please kindly place your offering in either of them on October 5th or the 12th, after Morning or Evening Service.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

At a recent meeting of the "Mission Study Group" it was decided to change the day of the business meeting this year from the third Thursday, to the first Monday in each month, hence—on Monday, October 6, at 2 P. M., the first meeting of the Auxiliary will be held in the Parish House.

We all hope to have a full attendance at that time, as it is only necessary to lay plans for our Master's work. We are greatly in need of several new delegates for the different Committees, and it is important also, to secure an Executive Secretary to take charge of the Missionary Sewing in our Parish, this winter—one with a knowledge of sewing, who can instruct others. We trust that someone will volunteer to help us, as this work for the extension of Christ's Kingdom must go on. The Auxiliary is desirous of doing a bigger work this year than ever before, and we greatly need the prayers, the co-operation and the loyal support of each and every woman in our Parish.

To date, we have in hand, $114.00 toward our "Special Fund" of $500.00. So that we shall need to raise by our own efforts, in various ways, $386.00 by January 1st, 1925.

We are planning to give a "Rummage Sale" in November, so please remember to save us your "rummage" and send the same, if possible, to the Parish House by November 1st, or notify the writer and we will collect the same.

"The Mission Study Group" will meet in the private houses of its members twice a month, and we shall be glad to welcome any woman in the Parish to these meetings.

L. M. Robinson.

Telephone, Gtn. 7756.

MEN'S DINNER

There is a rumor afloat that a men's big dinner, with prominent speakers present, will be given in the Parish House at a near date. Definite plans have not yet been made, but there is prospects that there will be an announcement soon. Men of the parish—be prepared, when the news comes to be in attendance.—Look and listen!

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

September 21st was "Rally Sunday," when we started our regular sessions with 170 present, several more than last year. September 28th was "Consecration Day," when officers, teachers and older scholars attended the early service in the church. These had breakfast together in the Parish House, with a short business meeting afterward, at which time work for the coming year was discussed.

There have been several changes since

June. Miss Gertrude Feist, who for several years has been Superintendent of the Primary Department, resigned, owing to moving her residence to Glenside Christ Church, and the School owes Miss Feist a great debt for her able and faithful service, and everyone is very sorry to see her leave.

Miss Dorothy Gill, who has been the teacher of Class No. 1, of the Main School, will take charge of the Primary Department.

The following teachers also were unable to take up their work this year: Miss Crowder and Mr. Hallock, of the Main School, and Miss Elizabeth Wertsuer and Miss Drayton, of the Primary Department.

We are glad to welcome as new teachers Miss Laura Bell, Mrs. Aulenbach and Mr. Whitby.

In the next issue of "The Chimes" we hope to give our plans for the year's work.

Quite a number of our old scholars have not returned as yet, and we would ask the parents of such scholars to see that their children return next Sunday so they will get the benefit of the entire year's lessons.

R. H. M.

A NEW VERGER

Robert H. Todd has been appointed Verger of Christ Church. He is a much younger man than the former Vergers of this Church, but it is believed he is fully able to perform the exacting duties of Verger, as he has formerly had experience in that line. His father has served in similar service in West Philadelphia for many years.

A PARISH WORKER

We are glad to welcome to the Parish Miss Laura E. Bell, who has recently been engaged as parish worker. Miss Bell has had wide experience in Philadelphia as a social worker and she comes to the Parish well fitted for the duties which she is to perform.

She is the daughter of a highly respected retired clergyman of the Diocese, the Rev. Thomas Bell, who has also moved into the Parish and to whom the Rector and people of Christ Church extend a most cordial welcome.

We hope to have the Rev. Dr. Bell in the chancel of Christ Church, whenever he feels able to be present.

CHURCH SCHOOL

SERVICE LEAGUE

The highest aim in religious education is the developing in each individual of Christ's spirit, the spirit of universal love, expressing itself in service to others.

Realizing that every girl and boy in our Church Schools should have an opportunity to express in week-day activities the lessons taught on Sunday, the Church School Service League has been organized that through guidance and united effort in action, the greatest benefit may be obtained.

The Church School Service League is under the direction of the Commission on the Church School Service League of the Department of Religious Education of the Presiding Bishop and Council.

Each diocese has its own organization of the League, under the Diocesan Department of Religious Education, and every parish should have its own Church School Service League.

Christ Church is planning to have such an organization very soon.

With so large and interested a Church School to furnish members, we should soon have a flourishing League. Earnest, faithful group leaders will be needed.

Think the matter over and see if you can not arrange yourself to be a leader of a group of boys or girls, big or little.

Any persons willing to assist in this inspiring work please write or telephone Miss Bell, 6112 Baynton St. Telephone Gtn. 7303.

DIOCESAN BIBLE CLASS

Every Friday morning during the winter there will be a Diocesan Bible Class under the leadership of the Educational Secretary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Pilsbury.

The first meeting of the class will be held at the Church House, 202 South 19th street, November 6th, at 11 o'clock.

The subject, "Christ and His Church." This will be a helpful as well as a very interesting course, and it is hoped that some of those in Christ Church Parish who have morning hours at their disposal may avail themselves of the opportunity and privilege of attending. Further particulars may be obtained from Miss Bell, 6112 Baynton St. Telephone Gtn. 7303.

MISSION STUDY CLASS

A Normal Mission Study Class will be conducted by Mrs. Pilsbury on Monday mornings at 10.30 at the Church House, 202 South 19th street, Philadelphia.

The course begins November 3rd and continues for 6 weeks.

The subject of Mission Study for the season is "China."

The object of this class is to prepare leaders who will later, during Advent or Lent, conduct Mission Study Classes in their own parishes.

Any one in Christ Church Parish desiring further information in regard to this class please communicate with Mrs. Percival Robinson, 148 East Washington Lane.

CHURCH NORMAL SCHOOL

Training for Church School Teachers

A ten weeks' course in Teachers Training will be given at the Church House, 202 South 19th street, Philadelphia, on Thursday evenings, beginning October 9th.

There will be four one-hour periods each evening at 5, 6:40, 7:40 and 8:40 o'clock.

Teachers may enroll for one or more periods.

The enrollment fee for the entire course is one dollar.

For those who desire it, supper will be served at 6 o'clock. Price 50 cents.

It is earnestly hoped that a number of the teachers in the Church School of Christ Church Parish will take this course, which will be most helpful to them in the difficult work to which they are so earnestly devoting themselves.

This course offers an opportunity to those who wish to give of their time to this most important work of the Church but who feel that they have not had sufficient preparation for it.

Full particulars as to the subjects included in the course and the hours at which they are given may be had by communicating with Miss Bell, 6112 Baynton St. Telephone Gtn. 7303.

MOTHERS' MEETING

The opening of the Mothers' Meeting has been unavoidably delayed this fall.

The first meeting will be held in the Parish House on Tuesday afternoon, October 7th, at half past two.

It will be good news to the members to learn that the meeting will be in charge, during the coming winter, of Mrs. J. I. Morrison. She will be assisted by Mrs. U. G. Rowley, Mrs. James H. Eckersley, Mrs. Charles Tompson and Mrs. Alonzo Smith.

Program for the winter's work will be laid out at the first meeting. The "Mothers" meet every Tuesday afternoon and new members will be cordially welcomed.

ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

Subscribers through the envelope system, who have been away during the summer, are very generally paying the amounts that they have omitted giving during their absence. It is very gratifying to the Warden to receive these arrears, as he depends upon them to meet his financial obligations.

It is hoped that all subscribers who may be in arrears will kindly make them up at their earliest convenience.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. has been planning great things for the coming season. On Tuesday evening, October 7th, there will be a "get-together" meeting for the girls and their mothers. A most tempting supper followed by a varied program that night, will mark the opening of the G. F. S.

Other plans are being formed for this winter which we will tell you about in the next issue of the "Chimes."

Do come and join our happy throng any Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

MEMORIAL ALTAR FLOWERS

The Altar Society has charge of placing on the Altar the flowers given by members of the Parish in memory of their departed friends. This beautiful custom of remembering at the altar the dear ones who rest in Paradise has been observed in this Parish for many years, and any in the Parish who wish to have the names of their friends on this "Memorial List" are invited to consult with the Rector and he will be pleased to assign to them a Sunday nearest to the anniversary of the marriage, or birth, or death of their "Blessed Dead." After the Sunday service the flowers are sent to the sick in the Parish or to Hospitals.

On the "days of remembrance" it will be comforting to come to God's House and in His presence recall the loving memory of dear ones whom we have "loved long since and lost awhile"; to kneel before the altar and to feel their nearness and unite with them and all God's saints in one common worship—"knit together in one Communion and Fellowship in the Mystical Body of Christ our Lord."

Persons who wish to have a Sunday for "memorial flowers" may apply to any member of the Altar Guild or to the Rector. Cards, bearing the names of those in whose memory the flowers are given, should always accompany the flowers.

BOY SCOUTS

Presidential campaigns come and go but like the Constitution the Boy Scouts are continuously on the job, rain or shine.

The best thing you can say about our troop, which meets Monday nights in Christ Church Parish House, is this: each Monday night finds us a better troop than we were the week before. Our uniforms look better; our Scoutmaster's Staff has learned something new of real value. We are better numerically. Our discipline is better. And we think we have more friends.

Some Monday night on your way to the bridge, or the theatre, or the indignation meeting, or the poker game, or some other function where they just gab and gab and hand out a dish of ice cream—some Monday on the way, stop in for a minute and see a red-blooded Scout Troop in action. You will then know why the composite opinion of Scoutmasters is that the coming generation of boys is an improvement on the fathers of the same.

Of course, we are aware that the past generation of boys is the generation of men that provides us a place to meet, heat, light, etc. They are rendering their service thereby. And we are grateful. We used to say we wished more boys could enjoy the privileges, but we can't say that today, for the troop is now so large we can scarcely take care of it. Men call us on the phone begging us to accept their sons as new members. Old members that drop out come back.

There seems to be some charm about Troop 153 that appeals to boys. Perhaps it is because the Troop is an organization and not a one-man Troop. Everybody takes part. Temporarily one of the Scoutmasters leaves. He started with us as a twelve-year-old. He is now at college in New England. The boys gave him a send-off with a beautiful silver cup, to show their appreciation of his good work. In four years he will be back. In the meantime the organization goes right on functioning. We have been training our boys to fall into vacancies as they occur.

You must live for several years with a Scout Troop if you would know why it succeeds. It is the indirect result of good influences that tells in the lives of those who associate with Troop 153. Even the men seem to improve from their contact with a gang of boys that means business.

A PRAYER

Let me be a little kinder;
Let me be a little blinder
To the faults of those about me;
Let me praise a little more.
Let me be when I am weary,
Just a little bit more cheery.
Let me serve a little better
Those that I am striving for.
Let me be a little braver
When temptation bid me waver.
Let me strive a little harder
To be all that I should be.
Let me be a little meeker
With a brother who is weaker.
Let me think more of my neighbor,
And a little less of me.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE CHIMES

All subscriptions to the Christ Church Chimes have expired. Subscriptions and contributions toward the expense of the Chimes are solicited from all attendants at Christ Church.

Subscription price, fifty cents. Contribution of larger amount will be appreciated.

INVESTMENTS

As you travel in the train or car it is interesting to find how many men are reading the stock market quotations. They are interested in their investments. It is perfectly natural that they should be. People are made that way. If you contribute regularly to the work of the Church, you will naturally be interested in your investment; you will be glad to see the work prosper, grow, increase. You will rightly feel that you have a share in it. We are glad to recommend it as the best paying investment that we know of. It pays good dividends always. I have yet to see anyone who regretted making an investment in the work of the Church. If you are not already pledging, we hope you will see the wisdom of making this profitable investment this year.

RECTORY PAINTED

During the summer the Vestry has had the exterior of the rectory painted and the woodwork put in repair. The next need is the repainting of the interior.

OFFERINGS OR COLLECTIONS

There is a difference, you know. The difference does not lie in the amount given. It doesn't lie even in the number of givers. It does lie in the spirit in which the gift is made.

When the hat is passed and one feels ashamed not to put something in. That is a collection. Unfortunately, many people put something in the almsbasin for the same reason, because they are ashamed to have it pass by.

But an offering is entirely different. An offering springs from the desire to give; it is something done graciously, gladly. The "widow's mite" was an offering.

Honestly, don't you feel that you want to give God something for all He has given you? Catch the spirit of the offering, and you will never be content with a mere collection.

Selected.

AMOUNT RECEIVED FOR MISSION FROM CHRIST CHURCH

The Rector is in receipt of the following letter, which will be of interest to the members of Christ Church who contribute to support of Missions. If every member were to contribute as should be the case, the amount realized would be much larger.

July 25th, 1924.

"Dr. Charles H. Arndt,

"59 W. Tulpehocken St.,

"Germantown, Phila., Pa.

"Rev. and Dear Sir:

"We have made a comparison of the contributions received from your Parish applying to the Maintenance Budget for General Missions and the Diocese for the first six months of the previous year. The books at the Church House show that your Church has contributed $2,143.77 the past six months of this year, as contrasted to $2,281.40 for the same period last year, applying to Maintenance.

ance. As there were certain items credited to the Parish in the Maintenance Budget last year which do not apply to Maintenance this year, this represents a substantial increase.

"The Committee takes this occasion to express appreciation for these good results in your Parish and to emphasize the necessity of having your Parish meet the expectation of $4,000.00 applying to the Maintenance Budget before December 31st of this year. The Episcopal Hospital offering will apply to this. In this connection, your attention is called to the resolution of the Convention last May: 'The Convention calls upon every Parish and Mission to do its utmost to exceed the indicated expectations for its extra parochial givings to apply on the Maintenance of the Diocesan and General Church Budget for 1924.'

"With sincere appreciation, I am

"Yours very truly,

"PERCY R. STOCKMAN.

"For the Quota Committee."

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Men's Bible Class meets in the Parish House every Sunday morning at a quarter to ten o'clock. Colonel Sheldon Potter, the teacher of the class, has mapped out a course of lessons which will be intensely interesting to all men.

A cordial invitation is extended to every man in this vicinity to join this Class.

Come, men! Now's the time. Join the Class and you'll get something really worth while!

Remember the place; also the time!

The Evening Service will be omitted on this Sunday.

CHRISTMAS

In our observance of Christmas we should not lose sight of the religious character of the day. It should be clearly borne in mind that Christmas is not a secular feast, but is distinctively a religious festival. The Day should, therefore, not be wholly given over to festivities and amusements, as harmless as these may be in themselves, but should be observed in a manner befitting its sacred associations. It should be a day of joyfulness, of holy Christian joyfulness, but not of frivolity. Well may this Day, on which the child Jesus was born, be a day peculiarly joyful to children, and the season of the happy gathering of families with father, mother and children worshipping together in the House of God, "of sending portions to those for whom nothing is prepared"; of gifts to the poor and of good-will to all men. This should be the spirit of Christmas, and the feasting, the merriment and the amusement must not be put in place of these. In other words, the religious observance of the Day must come first and be paramount in importance, or else the whole meaning of Christmas is lost. On the first Christmas morn "there was no room for Christ in the inn." Is there not danger today that we, too, will deny Him room; that our hearts and minds, and the hearts and minds of the children will be crowded full of the pleasures and occupations of the world and there will be found no room for Christ? Let each one, therefore, bear in mind the religious significance of Christmas Day and come to God's House and kneel before Him, and worship Him, Emmanuel, God with us.

A LETTER FROM THE RECTOR

FAMILY SUNDAY

Christ Church Rectory

My dear Friends:

There is a matter of great importance which has weighed heavily on my heart for a long time, and I feel sure it must weigh heavily on the hearts of many Rectors.

3

Not so many years ago Church-going by the whole family was an established habit. The family pew was an institution, just as much as the family table.

To many of us older men and women, one of the most hallowed memories of our childhood days, is that of father and mother and the children of the household attending Divine service together and all sitting together in the family pew on the "Lord's Day." Often, two and three generations could be seen seated together in God's house, for His worship and praise.

The family, as a unit, attended the Services of the Church. No other engagements were made. Nothing was allowed to interfere. Inclement weather, even, did not cause the family pew to remain vacant, nor did trifling illness.

This beautiful custom is one of the old things that deserves to survive. The change in living conditions does not provide a valid alibi.

A wise suggestion has been made by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew to aid in the restoration of this beautiful and helpful custom. It is to have a Family Sunday, when every family in the parish shall attend Divine Service, as a unit, coming together and sitting together in the Church. This appeals to me very strongly and I feel certain that it will also meet with the hearty endorsement of every parent in our parish. We all realize the seriousness of the present-day influences which are tending to disintegrate the family life and family worship. It is, therefore, the duty of every conscientious parent and of every seriously-minded boy and girl to exert every effort and to employ every means to guard the "home" from the insidious influences which today are fast tending toward its destruction and ruin.

Something must be done, and it must be done at once. I am asking, therefore, every parent and every boy and girl in the parish to co-operate with me in making a beginning. I want to make Sunday, December 21st, a Family Sunday in this parish.

I urge that Every Family in the Parish be present, as a Unit, at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday morning, December 21st. This will be the Fourth Sunday in Advent, the Sunday next before Christmas Day.

It will be an opportune time, a time when the scattered members of the household will be turning their ways homeward, to be together on Christmas Day in the "family home."

Let us make it, also, an occasion when all members of the family will meet together in their "Church home"—father, mother and children, two generations and perhaps, three generations, coming together, sitting together, and kneeling together in united praise and prayer and worship.

Will it not be an inspiring sight? Will not such a scene bring back to the older members blessed memories of days long gone by, when they, too, worshiped side by side with loving parents in the "family pew?" Will it not help to impress our children, in this restless, ruthless age, when so many influences are striving to break up the family unity,—will not such a scene and such an experience, now so rare and uncommon, help to impress our children with the sanctity of the "family life" and the beauty and holiness of the "sweet hour of prayer?"

And should there be some member of the family "absent" from the family pew on that "Family Sunday," will not our thoughts and prayers go out to them and be with them and they will be with us, as we kneel and pray, "Our Father."

On that "Family Sunday," as parents and children kneel together before God's altar in united prayer and praise and worship, surely, the limitations of time and space will fade away, and we will look up to and through and beyond the gates of Paradise into that higher and fuller life above and feel the holy influence of those "absent ones" flowing back into our lives, and "see those angel faces smile, which we have loved long since, and lost awhile."

One family we dwell in Him,

One Church above, beneath;

Though now divided by the stream,

The narrow stream of death."

It will be the power of this truth that will lay hold upon the hearts of old and young alike, as they, united in one family, meet together in God's house on "Family Sunday" and join in common prayer and praise and worship to Him Who is the Father of the living and the dead.

I affectionately urge every member of every family in the parish to be present on "Family Sunday" morning, December 21. Faithfully yours,

CHARLES HENRY ARNDT.

CHRISTMAS COMMUNION

On Christmas Day every Churchman will want to come to the House of God and there, as did the wise men of old, kneel before the Saviour in love and adoration. Christmas without Christ!—no Christian man or woman will cherish the thought! The very word "Christmas" means with Christ. Christmas is not a worldly holiday but a Christian festival. It is the feast when the Christ—Mass, the mass of the Incarnate Word, is kept with joy. Surely on that day we will not forget Him! The wise men brought gold and frankincense and myrrh to Bethlehem—offering of their earthly substance, offerings of lowly penitence and love for Him in His humiliation for our sakes. On this happy Christmas Day there will be gifts for our loved ones; offerings for our spiritual mother, the Church; and offerings also of "ourselves our souls and bodies" in the Holy Communion for the building up of ourselves more and more into the spiritual likeness of Him Who came to us on Christmas Day to be our Saviour and our King.

INFORMATIVE MISSIONARY SERVICE, DECEMBER 14th

The third in the series of "Informative Missionary Services," which are being held in Christ Church on the second Sunday morning of each month during the winter and spring, will be held on Sunday morning, December 14th. The special speaker will be the Rev. Charles Newton Lathrop, of New York City, Executive Secretary of the Department of Christian Social Service of the National Council and late Dean of All Saints Cathedral, Milwaukee.

Dean Lathrop is one of the best authorities on Social Questions and Conditions of today and is an eloquent and forceful speaker.

No one should fail to hear him, Sunday morning, December 14th.

In this connection, the Rector wishes to repeat here what he has already announced as to the purpose of these special "Informative Missionary Services," which have been arranged to be held on the second Sunday morning of each month, during the coming winter.

The object which the Rector had in mind, when he arranged this unusually interesting series of services and engaged the able speakers to address us, was to give the members and attendants of Christ Church first-hand information on the subject of the Church's work in the various parts of the missionary field, by speakers who are best acquainted with the conditions and needs.

The Rector is convinced that the people of Christ Church will highly appreciate and value this rare opportunity which is afforded them on the second Sunday in each month, to hear men, both clerical and lay, speak on the great work that the Church is doing throughout the world.

The series of monthly addresses will embrace a wide range of missionary information, and the people who attend all the services in the series will have a full, intelligent and comprehensive understanding of the program of the Kingdom of Christ in making on Earth.

The Rector is convinced that the people ought to avail themselves of this rare opportunity which is presented to them on the second Sunday of each month.

The following is the list of speakers for January, February and March:

Second Sunday in January (11th)—Alfred Newberry, Esq., of New York. Subject, "Christian Missions in China."

Second Sunday in February (8th)—The Rev. A. B. Parson, Assistant Foreign Secretary of the Department of Missions. Subject, "Missions in the Philippines."

Second Sunday in March (8th)—Mr. Edward Sargent, Secretary of Religious Department of Religious Education. Subject, "Religious Education."

VESTRY MEETING

A stated meeting of the Vestry will be held on Tuesday evening, January 6. Every member will be expected to be present.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR CHRISTMAS GREENS

Persons who wish to contribute to the expense of purchasing holly and laurel for the decoration of the Church for the Christmas season are requested to give or send their contributions to Richard H. Morris.

The work of decorating is done by the young men of the Parish, as a labor of love.

CHURCH OPEN ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

The Church will be open all evening until after midnight on New Year's Eve, for private prayer and devotions. There will be no service in the Church on that evening.

At midnight, however, the Rector will be in the Church, and will say the Litany, together with special prayers and intercessions appropriate for the passing of the old and the coming in of the New Year.

CHURCH CALENDAR FOR 1925

Church Calendars for 1925, marked with the colors of the Church seasons and Scriptural lessons for the Sundays throughout the year, are in the hands of the Verger, and may be purchased from him at forty cents each. These Calendars are suitable for Christmas and New Year's gifts.

THE FISCAL YEAR OF THE PARISH ENDS DECEMBER 31

The fiscal year of the Parish ends the last day of the year. There are a few members of the Parish who are in arrears in their envelope subscriptions for the past year. Will they not, please, put the total amount of their arrears in an envelope, and place it in the alms basin before January 1st, in order that the Accounting Warden may balance his accounts. Packages of new envelopes for the year 1925 will be ready for distribution the last week of December.

Since the abolition of pew rents and the adoption of the system of free and unassigned pews in Christ Church, it is incumbent upon every member and attendant at the services of this Church to become a regular contributor to the support and work of the Church, through this envelope system. Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule or may be had from the Verger.

These cards should be made out and signed, and placed in the alms basin at any service, or sent to the Accounting Warden, Mr. Edward Bains, Stenton Avenue above Wyoming, Germantown.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The attendance this Fall has been about the same as last year, an average of between 170 and 180 at each session. Some classes have been very good as to their record of attendance. The "Star" classes (every member present) have been Mrs. Aulenbach's and Mr. Clausen's, each seven times; Mrs. Schaefer's and Mr. Whitby's, six times; Mrs. Hallock's and Miss Dedier's, four times; Mrs. Clausen's, three times.

The Primary Department

Miss Gertrude Feist, who has had charge for several years, resigned, owing to her removal from Germantown, and we shall miss her faithful attendance and work very much.

Miss Dorothy Gill has taken Miss Feist's place, and with the help of her teachers will carry on the work.

Advent Work

We have already sent a Christmas box to some children belonging to the Sunday School, who are down in the State of Texas. Our main work, however, for Advent is to take care, during the winter, of two or three families in our neighborhood who are in great need because of illness or other reasons. Each of these families have children. We also intend giving each family a Christmas basket, so that the children will have, we hope, the same kind of a Christmas that we have. Each scholar has been given an envelope with the hope that every day something will be placed therein, and these are to be returned to the school on the Sunday before Christmas.

Christmas

Our carol service will be held in the Church on the Sunday after Christmas, December 28th, at 3:30 P. M. It will be a short, interesting service, and it is hoped that all the parents will be present.

Christmas Entertainments

The Primary Department will meet in the Parish House on Monday after Christmas, December 29th, at 3:30 P. M.

The Main School will meet on Monday evening, December 29th, at 7:30 P. M. Each class in the school is to take some part in the entertainment, and no class is going to know what the other proposes to do. Therefore many surprises will be in store for us.

The officers, teachers and scholars of our school wish a very Merry Christmas to the parents and friends.

R. H. M.

SPEAKER ON NEAR EAST

On Sunday morning, January 25th, the attendants at Christ Church will have an opportunity of learning about the condition and needs of its people of the "Near East," by one who is especially qualified to speak on that subject. The address will be given by the well-known Philadelphian and Churchman, Charles E. Beury, Esq. Mr. Beury has made three trips to the Near East, the most recent one during the past summer, visiting all important relief stations of that unfortunate region. He will give an account of the conditions there, which he has learned from first-hand knowledge and experience.

OUR ORGAN

In a few weeks the work of dismantling our old organ will take place and that preparatory to the installation of the new instrument will begin. The passing of the old organ is like parting with an old friend. So frequently have we, as well as former generations heard its tones that we are accustomed to them, and though in these later years they have become so enfeebled that we felt its days were numbered, we part with it regretfully. We hope to have a few of its finer pipes built into the new organ and thus in a measure preserve its continuity.

In the interval between its demolition and the use of our new organ, the small house organ will be used and our service will be less ornate, but we hope no less hearty on that account.

We expect to have the new organ ready for use on Easter Day. Meanwhile, we would appeal for the last two thousand dollars necessary to complete our payments. Shall we not have this as Christmas gifts to Christ Church—gifts that will be lasting in character, as they will furnish the great organ that will lead sacred song for many years to come?

As an integral part of God's House, the organ must be consecrated, but this can not be done until it is paid for.

This is an additional reason for urging the necessity of these final contributions.

There are many who have not yet subscribed and some may feel like making additions to the amounts already pledged.

Twelve months remain in which subscriptions may be paid, so that any amount pledged may be divided into easy payments.

Please send pledges to the Rector or to Mr. Edward Baius, Stenton Avenue above Wyoming, Germantown.

T. H. C.

It is expected to remove the old organ from the Church the early part of January in order to allow the necessary alterations to be made in the chancel before the installation of the new organ. To secure better sound effect, an opening will be cut in the wall of the organ chamber facing the congregation. The new organ, which is being built by the Hall Organ Company, of West Haven, Conn., is nearing its completion, but cannot be installed until the alterations in the Church are finished.

During the time of alterations and installation of the new organ the choir, unvested, will be seated in the nave of the Church and the small organ will be used. A precentor will lead in the music and the canticles will be sung in unison to simple settings, so that all the Congregation may join in the singing.

It is requested that every one should take part in the service.

It is expected that there will be unusually hearty congregational singing.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

As a result of the Christmas sale we are contributing the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) to the fund for the new organ.

All articles not sold at the fair will be placed on sale at an early date, at greatly reduced prices. Those who could not come to the sale will still have a chance to buy some of the very attractive things displayed at that time.

A. M. M.

AN OPPORTUNITY

The ten weeks' course in Teacher Training, which is nearing its close at the Church House, 19th and Walnut Sts., has proved so helpful and such large numbers have expressed the wish for further instruction that the Educational Department of the Diocese has decided to continue the work of the Teacher Training Course.

A second semester will begin on Thursday, January 8th, and continue for ten weeks, on Thursdays. The hours will probably be the same as at present, i. e.:

1st period, 5 to 6 o'clock.

Supper (fifty cents), 6 to 6:40.

2nd period, 6:40 to 7:40.

3rd period, 7:40 to 8:40.

Lecture, 8:40 to 9:40.

There will be several classes in session during each period, and a large variety of subjects will be offered, among these: "The Prayer Book," "Old Testament," "New Testament," "Training the Devotional Life of the Child," "Church Doctrine," and in addition to these, "The Psychology of the Child," and "Materials and Methods for the Primary Grades and Grammar Grades."

Each of these subjects is presented by a person especially fitted to deal with the subject, and able to make it not only helpful but intensely interesting to the members of the Class.

These Classes are open not only to Sunday School teachers and those preparing to teach, but to parents as well.

It is hoped that a large number of the Church School teachers of Christ Church Parish will arrange to take one or more of the courses offered.

Further information may be obtained from Miss Bell, 6112 Baynton St. Telephone Ger. 7303.

"THE CHIMES"

With this issue begins the twenty-fifth "number" of the Chimes, which means that the "Christ Church Chimes" has been issued consecutively for twenty-five years, without omission of a single number. Although the cost of publication is, at present, over three times what it was at the beginning, the price of subscription has remained the same, 50 cents a year. This, of course, has been at a financial loss, which has been made up each year by special contributions.

The Chimes is a welcome visitor to the homes of the parish and is appreciated, especially by the "shut-ins" and others who, through necessity, are not able to attend, regularly, the services of the Church.

Will not every member of the parish co-operate in the expense of publication and send their subscription or contribution at once to Frederick Lennig, 316 High Street, Germantown, or to the Rector? Thank you!

THE CHURCH SCHOOL SERVICE LEAGUE

The Church School Service League has been busily at work this Fall.

The members of the Church School Service League (the C. S. S. L. being the School in action) gave $70.00 for the rebuilding of the Churches, schools hospitals and other buildings of the Church of Japan, destroyed by the earthquake of September, 1923.

They also gave $17.35 to be used for the preparation of Christmas boxes to be sent to two Missions in the South. With this money and the splendid help of the Girls' Friendly Society (both senior and junior branches) and the members of the C. S. S. L. in the making of gifts, and some additional gifts given by the Girls' Friendly Society, and members of the C. S. S. L., two very nice boxes were prepared.

A box containing 25 gifts (a useful and a "joyful" gift for each of 12 girls and a gift for their teacher) was sent to St. Phillips' Industrial School, San Antonio, Texas.

Another box containing 78 gifts, for 38 boys and girls and two teachers, was sent to Epiphany Mission, Summerville, South Carolina.

These boxes were valued at $9.00 and $18.00 respectively.

The Sunday after Thanksgiving the pupils of the Church School brought gifts of canned goods to be used at the discretion of the Rector for the relief of cases of need in the Parish.

The special Advent Offering of the School will be used for the preparation of Christmas baskets for families whom the Rector knows would otherwise have a Christmas lacking in "Good Cheer."

The C. S. S. L. and Girls' Friendly meets each Friday afternoon at 3:45 in the Parish House.

Thirty girls are enrolled in these groups, and we shall be glad to welcome others who may wish to come.

CONFIRMATION CLASS FORMING

The Bishop of the Diocese will visit this Parish during Lent to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The Rector invites all persons who are contemplating Confirmation, to give their names to him as soon as possible. He will be glad to confer with them on the subject, after Church service or by appointment.

A BOYS' CLUB FORMED

At a meeting held December 4, 1924, a Boys' Club was arranged for boys aged 15 to 19. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. Keuben Streeper; Secretary, Mr. William Blank. We are going to start a basketball team; so come around next Thursday evening and join us.

William Blank,
Secretary.

WATCH THIS GROW!

A meeting was held Thursday, December 4th, in the Parish House, for the purpose of forming a Men's Club. There were not many men present, but judging from the interest shown, the Club should soon be a live organization, and fill a long-felt need. The purpose of the Club is to promote fellowship among the men and older boys of the Parish; to increase the attendance at the Men's Bible Class, and to interest them in the work of the Church. The business meeting will be held on the first Thursday of each month, and social meeting on the other Thursday evenings. We plan to purchase, if possible, a shuffle board, repair the pool table, form a bowling team, and a basketball team for the boys. The officers of the Club are Lewis J. Aulenbach, President; John Boynton, Vice President, and A. R. Melville, Secretary and Treasurer.

We want all the men of the Church as members, either active or associate.

The dues are $1.00 per year for active and $2.00 per year for associate members.

Every man in the Parish make a point to be present at the next meeting, January 8th, 1925, when the plans for the coming year will be announced.

A. R. Melville,
Secretary.

THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

The chapter of the Daughters of the King is planning this year to have their work consist largely of visiting the sick and new-comers in the Parish. Distribution of the flowers from the altar will be attended to by one of the members, and Christmas boxes will be sent to members of the Parish who are in hospitals and sanatoriums.

The national organization of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and The Daughters of the King have united in issuing a "Manual of Prayer." This is a very helpful publication for either family or private devotions. The sale of these in this Parish is in the hands of our Chapter, and may be procured at the rectory or from the members of the Chapter. The price is twenty-five cents.

With the consent of the Rector, the "Churchman's Kalendar of Daily Bible Readings" has been sent to each family in the Parish. The arrangement of these readings is made under the auspices of the National Council. Used in conjunction with the "Manual of Prayer" they provide a systematic and helpful plan for reading and prayer. We take pleasure in commending them to the use of the members of the Parish.

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. of Christ Church, Germantown, will have one of the happiest Christmas days when it completes all its plans for making merry the day for others. The bright, attractive room in the Parish House was filled with brighter faces and busy fingers were making pretty boxes to be filled with candy and fruit and carried during Christmas week to some settlement house, where we will make merry with the little ones gathered there. Stockings are to be filled for the children at the Philadelphia Hospital. The G. F. S. of the Diocese makes itself responsible for the Christmas in the children's ward, each Parish doing its part. We have a wonderful gift from one of our admiring friends to help along with our Christmas basket (this year we can say baskets). This will keep us busy until after Christmas, then we are to carry out some plans to raise our quota toward the building of a National Centre in Washington, commemorating the 50th year of the G. F. S. in America.

We are looking forward to a prosperous New Year, and prosperity with us means numbers, interest and loyalty; so, girls of the Parish or your friends, if you do not know what G. F. S. means, come to the Parish House some Tuesday night and you will be enlightened.

In closing, may we say that the G. F. S. will be glad to take orders for FUDGE—and it will be good FUDGE—at 50 cents a pound—note the price. The PURPOSE is to help complete our quota for the NATIONAL CENTRE in 1926.

ALTAR GUILD

At the meeting of the Altar Guild, held in October, Miss Emma A. Crowder was elected Treasurer, to take the place of Mrs. Herbert Pullinger, who was formerly Frances Cooley.

Arrangements for the Christmas decorations will be made at the December meeting.

The committees on duty for the coming month are as follows:

Dec. 12th-19th: Misses Mogridge, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

Dec. 19th-26th: Misses Dean, Crower, McHenry.

Dec. 26th-Jan. 2nd: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Gerhard, Higginbotham, Stryke, E. Thompson, M. Thompson.

Jan. 2nd-9th: Misses Chase, Wertsner, Smith.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER

New-comers, who have moved into the Parish, are requested to procure from their former Rector their letters of transfer to Christ Church and to present them to the Rector as soon as possible. Note the following canon of the Church: "A communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a Communicant in good standing."

Title II: Canon 12.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

We might say "Mothers and daughters meeting," as so many daughters come to the meetings. Added to this unusual feature, we have with us frequently Mrs. Neagle's grandson and Mrs. Cook's great-grandson. It is not every Parish organization that can attract the second and third generation; but just think of having the fourth at our meetings.

Beside our old members, we are glad to welcome as new ones, Mrs. Adkin and daughter, also Mrs. Baynton.

We are expecting great things from our Christmas Bazaar, and are quite confident that a fine sum will be added to the organ fund as the result of our efforts.

Such interest, enthusiasm and hard work will surely make it a great success.

FLOWERS ON THE ALTAR

The flowers that are placed on the altar from Sunday to Sunday are in memory of some dear one who has been called to Paradise. The Sunday nearest to the day of birth, or the day of death, is generally selected. Persons in the congregation who wish to place flowers on the altar in memory of a departed friend may apply to the Rector and he will be pleased to arrange with them for a definite "Memorial Sunday."

After the service the flowers are taken to the sick.

"And he gathers the prayers as he stands
And they turn into flowers in his hands,
Into garlands of purple and red,
And beneath the great arch of the portal,
'Midst the streets of the City Immortal,
Is wafted the fragrance they shed."

Longfellow's "Sandalphon."

WE BELONG TO A CHURCH, NOT A PARISH

We are accustomed to hear the word "Church" applied to a local congregation. We use it loosely ourselves in the same way. But with us, speaking accurately, the Church is our entire communion. The local organization is simply a Parish, an outpost, a garrison. A garrison in an outpost does not think of itself as the army. A ship is not the navy. A local postoffice is not the postoffice department. The visit of the Bishop reminds us that we belong to a part of the army, not simply a garrison; that we are enlisted in the navy, not in a ship. The Bishop is the outward and visible sign that we belong to a great, historic, age-long, world-wide institution, which has outposts everywhere, and that we have all its resources back of us and its power within us. Confirmation is not administered by the Rector of the Parish, who represents only the local congregation. It is administered by the Bishop, who represents the entire Church. We are admitted, therefore, into the communion not of the local congregation or Parish. The Bishop's act accomplishes something far wider than that. We are taken into the communion and fellowship of the entire Church throughout the world, including every Parish, mission, outpost or garrison under the Church's jurisdiction. That is why we are Churchmen, not congregationalists. That is why it is that our imagination is stirred and our enthusiasm is kindled by the world-wide institution more than by the local organization. For while we are registered in and attached to a given Parish, our citizenship is in the all-including Church.

SOME CONSIDERATIONS AFFECTING OUR GIVING TO THE CHURCH

The following is set forth by the National Council:

"We are called upon to give to many objects in the course of the year. Sometimes the many appeals mislead us into thinking that we are giving much more than we really are. It would be worth while to add up all our gifts and compare the total with various items of our expenditure.

The wise man makes a budget. This makes it easier to devote a definite portion of his income to Church and charity.

Selecting Objects

When selecting the objects to which this definite portion of our income will be given we should make sure, as loyal Churchmen, that the Church will receive an adequate share. It is very easy unconsciously to discriminate against the Church. Perhaps we do not realize how extensive and multifarious is the work which the Church is trying to do in our name. It is not one hospital to which we are asked to give through the Church but to scores, not one school but hundreds, not one worker but thousands.

We are not likely to overlook the parish, in the support of which we are glad to do our full share. But the Church is much more than the parish. There is the diocese and there is the national Church. We are members of both and are responsible for the work of both. This work is just as dependent upon our support as the parish is.

Investigation

Have we fully informed ourselves as to the nature and value of the work done in the diocese or of the work at home and abroad done in the name of the whole Church? If we do not have time to investigate for ourselves, would it not be reasonable to trust the judgment of those we have chosen as leaders of the Church?

Quotas are Minimums

Each parish has a quota fixed by the diocese. This quota includes both diocesan and general work. What effect does this quota have on our giving? Do we look upon it as a maximum or a minimum? Do we realize that the parish is asked to give at least the amount of the quota? How shall the diocese and general Church secure sufficient support for their budgets if these quotas are not regarded as minimums?

Quotas and Large Givers

Perhaps we are able to give to the Church a larger sum than the amount we believe to be our wise and fair share of the parish quota. A conscientious man is willing to give according to his means. He will not let the quota prevent him from doing his best.

In determining the total amount he will give to the Church he will ask not only, "What is my share of my parish quota?" but also, "What is my share of the amount needed by the diocese?" and "What is my share of the $4,400,000 needed for the budget of the whole Church and of the $3,600,000 needed for advance work?" Having fixed the largest amount he can justifiably give through his parish, he will give additional sums directly to the diocese and the general Church.

NOTES ON THE CHURCH SEASONS

Three Holy Days after Christmas

Three days following Christmas are dedicated to three sacred events: First, on December 26th, is commemorated The Martyrdom of St. Stephen. This day has been commemorated since the fourth century. In the Greek Church the Festival is a day later than it is in ours. In addition to the reasons given above for its position in the Calendar, it has been said that "Christ was born on earth in order that Stephen might be born in heaven." Thus this, the anniversary of his martyrdom, is also, in a higher sense, the anniversary of his birth.

On December 27th occurs The Feast of St. John the Evangelist. Then we remember the fisherman John, the son of Zebedee and Salome, the brother of James, the partner in the earthly business of Simon and Andrew; and we see what grace made him.

On December 28th is celebrated the Martyrdom of the Innocents, which was anciently commemorated at the Epiphany; the date of its first observance as a separate festival is not known. The Innocents have always been regarded by the Church as martyrs, they having, though unwittingly, shed their blood for Christ. See St. Matt. 2:16-17).

"Epiphany" follows immediately after the Christmas and is, indeed, an extension of the Christmas Season and continues up to Septuagesima Sunday. The festival of Epiphany, must be deemed of very high importance by the believing and thoughtful Christian. It does not merely commemorate one of the most beautiful incidents of our Lord's infant life—the visit of the three wise men to worship the "new born King"—it also asserts one of the most fundamental and vital features in Christianity; the great distinctive feature between Christianity and Judaism. Was His interest and love to us confined to one people alone? Was the love of God come to reveal the Father's love to save one set of people only, or has He come to manifest His love to save all people, everywhere?

The events set forth in the festival of the Epiphany, and the missionary teaching of this Epiphany Season are sufficient to answer that question. The Church's mission is to all the world and to every people, to every clime. The Epiphany season is the great missionary season of the Church. Every season, of course, should be a "missionary season," but at the Epiphany, special emphasis is laid on this teaching; indeed, that is what the word "Epiphany" means—"manifestation," "shining out."

THE EVERY-MEMBER CANVASS

held on Sunday afternoon, December 7th, was most successful, both in the spirit in which the visits were made and received, and in the response to the needs of the Mission and of the Parish. Over four hundred people in the Parish were visited. It is regretted that some members of the Parish were omitted, but it was found impossible to visit all in the few hours allotted. It is estimated that there will be a considerable increase over last year, both in the number of contributions through the envelope system and also in the amount of subscriptions. The objective is to have 100 per cent. of the membership of the Parish contributing members—every member of every family.

The Committee wishes to express its appreciation of the hearty co-operation of the members of the Church, by whom the calls were made:

Mrs. Gerhard, Halleck, Christ, Clausen, Wella, Norris, Yopliffe, Johnson, Schaeffer, McIver, Alonzo, Smith, Robinson, Baisbrown and Aulenbach; the Misses Gerhard, Armstrong, Ferguson, Katharine Wertsner, Helen Mc Henry, Crowder, Dean and O'Brien; the Messers Crowder, Middleton, Morris, Frech, Clausen, Boynton, Carmint, Feist, Streeper, Blood, Lehman, Bains, Rowley, Lennig, S. D. Parker, Jackson, Baxter, Frank Wilcox, Schaeffer, Aulenbach and Lukens.

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

CLERGY:

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, D. D.

The Rector's Notes

The Rector's Office Hours 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. Daily
6.00 to 7.00 P. M. Daily At Home Saturday Evenings

Christ Church Rectory,
Septuagesima, 1925,

My Dear Friends:

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 25. I am sure that the people of Christ Church want to make this Lent a very serious, a very helpful season. It is full of opportunity, it is full of precious privileges to those who will use it aright. It is an opportunity for every seriously minded person to withdraw, for a time, from the lighter, the less serious things in life and to devote himself exclusively to the things that are most worth while; to the serious, the real, the eternal principles of life. "Forty days with the Master!" What a blessed privilege comes to us in Lent to get a right perspective of living; to gain a wider, a higher vision of life, to come into closer communion with God.

That this Lent may mean all that it should mean, may I not ask you, my dear friends, to be very earnest, very serious, very faithful in the observance? Let me tell you how.

1. By abstaining from all worldly amusements and entertainments, that your thoughts may be given to the more serious and solemn lessons of life, and to observe the rule of fasting.

2. By reading, at the beginning and at the end of each day, some portion of God's Word. Read, during Lent, the shorter Epistles of St. Paul. I have had placed in the vestibules of our Church a pamphlet entitled, "Bible Readings and Prayers." These are for gratuitous distribution among our people. Take a copy home with you.

3. By reading, at least one good book, not a novel, on some religious subject, or on Church history. I have had placed in the vestibule a bookcase, in which may be found a number of books suitable for Lenten reading. These books may be borrowed by applying to the Secretary, Miss Bell.

4. By spending a few moments, each morning and evening, alone with God, in meditation and prayer. Do this in your home. Come also to the Church for a quiet hour of meditation and prayer. The Church is open all day.

5. By regular attendance at the week-day Lenten Services in the Church. Consult the Lenten list and resolve to attend certain services, regularly and faithfully.

6. By careful and conscientious preparation for Holy Communion, and by frequent attendance at the Sacrament of the altar, where we are bound together in the love and fellowship of Jesus Christ and with all the loved ones here and absent.

7. By being more considerate, more patient, more forgiving, more loving to others; and by doing acts of kindness to every one you can.

I am sure that if you are faithful in these things during this Lent, a wonderful blessing will come into your life, a blessing of strength and peace and joy—such as the world cannot give.

May I not look for you—I am addressing each one of you personally—may I not look for you at the Lenten week-day services, and, at least, twice every Sunday?

I have learned to expect great things from the people of Christ Church, and I have confidence in the deepening religious and spiritual life of the members of our Parish, during this coming Lent.

May God bless each one of you, my dear friends, and may He send His Holy Spirit into our hearts and arouse us all, Rector and people alike, to a greater zeal, a truer devotion, a deeper consecration to Jesus Christ and His Church.

Affectionately your friend and Rector,

Charles Henry Arndt.

SPECIAL SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE

I want to call attention to every member of our Parish to the unusually interesting and instructive course of "Talks on the Bible" which is being given in Christ Church on Sunday evenings by the Rev. Addison A. Ewing, Rector of Gloria Dei Church, Philadelphia.

It is my plan to make these Sunday evening services less formal than the other services of the day and to have these "Talks on the Bible" very personal and practical in character.

We are very fortunate in having a speaker at these Sunday evening services who is preeminently able to give both a scholarly and spiritual interpretation of the parts of the Bible chosen for his course of talks.

Mr. Ewing does not speak from the pulpit, but comes "down among the people" and speaks in the aisle.

The large Congregations which are present at these Sunday evening services are evidence of the appreciation of the helpfulness of the teaching which they receive.

A question box is at the door of this Church in which persons are invited to place any question they want to ask.

These Special Sunday Evening Services ad "Personal Talks on the Bible" will continue Sunday evenings in Lent.

A cordial invitation is extended to all persons who may not be attendants at any other Church to share with the members of Christ Church in the privilege of this series of "Talks on the Bible."

A printed prospectus or motive of the course is distributed to members of the Congregation.

BOOKS IN THE VESTIBULE

The Rector has had placed in the Tul-pehocken street vestibule of the Church a bookcase, in which will be found a number of books on religious and Church subjects.

The object of placing these books in the vestibule is to afford to all, who wish to use them, an opportunity of access to some of the best authorities on religious and kindred subjects, in which everyone, especially Churchmen, should be well informed.

These books will be loaned, without charge, to anyone who desires to read them.

The books may be kept for two weeks, after which time, they must be returned, with the privilege, however, of renewal for one week, if so desired.

No person may receive more than one book at a time.

Among this collection of books may be found a wide range of subjects, relating to religion and the teachings of the Church. There are a number especially suitable for Lenten reading. A list of the books is posted in the vestibule.

All attendants at the services of Christ Church are welcome to make free use of these books; the only conditions are that they be used carefully and returned within the time specified.

They are placed in the vestibule of the Church that the Congregation may have more ready access to them.

The books will be in charge of Miss Laura Bell, who will be glad to loan them to any who may apply.

Miss Bell may be seen after any service.

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE ORGAN FUND

Will all persons who have made subscriptions to the new organ please send payment on their subscriptions promptly as they are due, to Mr. Edward Bains?

Payments must be made by the wardens to the builders of the organ as the work of construction progresses, and he will be able to meet these payments if all subscribers will kindly remit to him promptly.

It is expected to begin installation of the new organ within a few weeks, and we are promised that the work will be finished by Easter.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS PLAY

The Parish House chaplain auditorium was full to overflowing on Friday evening, January 30th, on the occasion of presentation of "Pollyanna," under the auspices of the Men's Bible Class.

It was a great success in every respect. Persons who had tickets to sell are requested to make settlement, as soon as possible, with Mrs. James Carmint, Jr., 6373 Sherman Street.

THE LENTEN SERVICES

The schedule of special Lenten services will be found on another page of this issue of the "Chimes." The hours of the services have been arranged to meet, as far as possible, the convenience of every class of people within the Parish. The early Celebration of the Holy Communion on Ash Wednesday has been appointed at half past seven o'clock, that business people and others may attend before going to their daily duties, and thus avail themselves of a proper beginning of this Holy Season. The afternoon services are put at an hour when people, who remain in Germantown during the day, may conveniently attend.

It will be noticed from the schedule, that evening prayer will not be held every afternoon, as in previous years. Evening prayer will be said on three afternoons, each week. This change is made with the hope that the fewer afternoon services will be more largely attended.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Classes for instruction in Confirmation are being formed and will meet in the Parish House every Sunday afternoon at four o'clock for minors and on Friday evenings at eight o'clock for adults. All persons who are not baptized or confirmed are requested to give their names to the Rector as soon as possible.

The Rector will be pleased to meet any person who wishes to consult with him on the subject, after Church service or by appointment. The Bishop will visit this Parish Maundy Thursday evening, April 9th.

ALTERATIONS IN THE CHANCEL

Alterations in the chancel, preparatory to the installation of the new organ, which will be installed in Christ Church during Lent, are about completed. The disfigurement of the walk of the chancel, caused by the alterations, will make it necessary to redecorate the entire chancel. It is hoped that this may be done at an early date.

A WORD TO PARENTS

Will not parents and others, who are interested in the welfare of the young

Ten Talks on the Bible, Sunday Evenings in February and March, by the Rev. Addison A. Ewing, Rector of Gloria Dei Church, Philadelphia.
No One Should Fail to Attend!

call the attention of all children eligible for Confirmation to the instructions given by the Rector in the Parish House on Sunday afternoons at four o'clock?

Parents and adult friends of the young are cordially invited to come with the children to these instructions.

Let no parent or sponsor neglect his duty this Lent to the children whom God has given him to bring up in His fear and love.

At the Baptism of your children this solemn obligation was placed upon you:

"Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose."

Are you doing your duty?

CHURCH SERVICE FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

The service on Thursday afternoons in Lent will be especially adapted to young people. The Rector will give a series of talks to boys and girls.

A Junior Lenten choir, composed of boys and girls, will lead the singing. Young people who wish to join this Lenten choir are invited to attend the rehearsals held in the Parish House on Thursday afternoons at 4.15. The service in the Church is at 4.45.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Regular sessions are held every Sunday morning at 9.45 o'clock in the Parish House. Colonel Sheldon Potter is giving an interesting series of talks on the history of the Books of the Bible, and the hour is interspersed with inspiring hymns. All men of Christ Church and men in the neighborhood are cordially invited to attend. The Class Social Night is held on the third Thursday of each month, at which time the same invitation is extended.

FORTY-FIVE MINUTE YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING

A meeting for young men and women will be held in the Parish House on Sunday evenings in Lent, beginning promptly at 6.45 o'clock. The first fifteen minutes will be spent in singing hymns, after which there will be a half-hour religious meeting, conducted by young men. The subject for discussion will be "Characters of the New Testament." The course will include the following:

First Sunday in Lent—Subject: "St. John, the Evangelist"—Leader, Richard G. Sutcliffe.

Ten Talks on the Bible, Sunday Evenings in February and March, by the Rev. Addison A. Ewing, Rector of Gloria Dei Church, Philadelphia.
No One Should Fail to Attend!

Second Sunday in Lent—Subject: "Mary of Bethany"—Leader, Frank F. Wells.

Third Sunday in Lent—Subject: "Simon Peter"—Leader, Karl L. Mos-teller.

Fourth Sunday in Lent—Subject: "Mary Magdalene"—Leader, Guy F. Wells.

Fifth Sunday in Lent—Subject: "St. Thomas"—Leader, Arthur T. Hallock.

Sixth Sunday in Lent—Subject: "Christ and the Rich Young Ruler."—Leader, Lewis S. Whitby.

An invitation is extended to all young men and women to attend these meetings and take part in the discussions.

George C. Bland will have charge of the music and preside at the piano.

OUR NEW ORGAN

We are now looking forward with keen anticipation to the installation of our new organ.

The old instrument has been removed and the chancel and organ space are ready for the reception of the pipes and console.

The following informal description of the organ was prepared at the office of the Hall Organ Company for the "Chimes."

"Description of new pipe organ for Christ Church, Germantown,
Philadelphia, Pa."

"Christ Episcopal Church is now having built a new organ of the very latest type by The Hall Organ Company, of New Haven, Conn., which will enable the Organist to produce, with ease, the most artistic musical results.

"The instrument will contain all of the essential tone colors and also the beautiful shadings that will produce a perfectly balanced service of worship.

"The console, or keyboard, will be detached from the organ and placed on the opposite side of the Chancel, connected to the organ by an electric cable made up of hundreds of wires that will control all of the stops and pipes of the organ by means of magnets operated by eight volts of electric current.

There are over three thousand pipes in the organ, varying in length from 16 ft. to $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch, made up of tin, lead, zinc, wood and brass. These varying materials and sizes are essential to produce the many tonal effects needed for church and orchestral requirements. In this organ will be found every tone color of a large orchestra, in addition to those peculiar to a pipe organ only.

"The organ will be one of the largest and finest in Germantown, and contains numerous mechanical accessories, such as couplers, balanced pedals, and adjustable combinations, which appear only in the latest type of the 'king of instruments.'

"The wind for the organ is supplied by an electric fan blower which insures an ample and perfectly steady supply of wind at all times, the flow of wind being controlled automatically.

"The specifications of the organ were designed in conjunction with your Organist, Mr. Burness, and the results will undoubtedly show careful thought and study on the part of an expert."

Of course, much remains to be done, for the changes in the Chancel will require its re-decoration, an expense that must be charged to the organ fund, as it was made necessary in order to accommodate the new instrument.

Our original estimate of $20,000, therefore, will just about meet all our obligations. This amount has not yet been realized. May we not hear at once from all who have not yet subscribed? Every member of Christ Church will want to participate in this great work of providing suitable music for the years to come.

Pledge Cards may be obtained and subscriptions sent to the Accounting Warden, Mr. Edward Baines, Stenton above Wyoming Avenue, Germantown.

AN ENCOURAGING LETTER FROM THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN

Christ Church again during 1924 was on the honor roll of the Churches of the Ten Talks on the Bible, Sunday Evenings in February and March, by the Rev. Addison A. Ewing, Rector of Gloria Dei Church, Philadelphia.

No One Should Fail to Attend!

Diocese which met their missionary apportionments in full. Our apportionment of $4,000 was not only raised, but exceeded by over $600. This amount was made possible by the generous Easter Offering of the Sunday School and Bible Class of $840.00, and also the annual offering of the Women's Auxiliary of $500.

Christ Church is thus taking an active and increasing part in the work of the Church beyond the Parish. It is hoped that every member will contribute to this cause, that Christ Church may continue to do its part in carrying the Gospel to those not as fortunately situated as ourselves.

The increase in the amount of the offerings for this cause from year to year, as well as the interest shown in other worthy causes which are brought before us with appeals for assistance which are not included in the Missionary apportionment, cannot but be a great encouragement to our Rector in his work as well as most gratifying to every member who desires to see Christ Church take a prominent part in the missionary work of the diocese.

Edward Bains,
Accounting Warden.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The last meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church Parish was the annual meeting at which officers for the following year were elected and annual reports from the secretary and treasurer were read.

The treasurer's report showed that $1012.72 was raised during the past year. This amount includes a special fund of $500 pledged by the Auxiliary toward the Parish Missionary apportionment.

This was raised by various activities—rummage sales, motion picture benefits, etc.

The dues given through the envelopes amounted to $197.49. We received $200 from the estate of Miss Sally Johnson.

$250 of the special fund was sent to a school for mountaineer children in North Carolina.

A like amount was sent to the Chapel of the Resurrection, Wuchang, China.

The remainder of the amount was given to many other Missions.

So much for our past activities. Now, for this year's work, we must raise another $500.

Our first venture will be a series of cake sales to be held in the Parish House on the last Saturday morning of every month from ten until one o'clock.

We hope that the women of the Parish will take an active interest in these sales and will either send us a cake to sell or come and buy one.

Also, we are earnestly praying that more women will come to our meetings this year. They are held on the first Monday of the month in the Parish House, at two o'clock. During Lent, the Auxiliary will meet for sewing every Monday afternoon, at two o'clock.

Every woman is cordially welcome.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild observed its annual Corporate Communion on February 10th, the Sunday nearest the date of our organization.

We will hold our next business meeting on February 23rd, at which time arrangements will be made to take care of the services during the approaching Lent.

The Serving Committees for the coming month are as follows:

Feb. 13-20: Dean, Crowder, McHenry.
Feb. 20-27: Cotton, Higginbotham, Stryke.
Feb. 27-March 6: Chase, Wertsner, Smith.
March 6-13: Mogridge, Wisner, Mogridge.

Church announces "A Washington Party," on Friday evening, February 20th, at 8 p. m., in the Parish House. Tickets only 35 cents—can be obtained from any member.

Your returns for money invested will be great!

Purpose—To raise the quota for our Branch to go toward the erection of a National Centre at Washington, D. C., to commemorate in 1926 the Fiftieth Anniversary of the birth of the G. F. S. in America.

This memorial will be a hotel built with the money subscribed by the G. F. S. in the United States—open to its members at any time, and where friends will always be found ready to give advice or direction and extend a warm welcome.

We want to be represented in this memorial by our G. F. S.—So, come out and bring your friends to help us do our share and have a good time.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

Our annual Christmas dinner, on Tuesday, January 13th, was a great success.

We do not wish to make our readers hungry by telling of the good things to eat; but we just must tell them that the turkeys were delicious.

After the food was disposed of, we were entertained by the songs by Miss Mogridge, Mrs. Mogridge at the piano.

We were greatly pleased by the range and sweetness of her voice. Another feature of the afternoon's entertainment was a sleigh-of-hand performance, followed by music on some bells, with piano accompaniment. The expense of this part of the programme was provided by Dr. Arndt, and was greatly enjoyed.

The ladies in charge were pleasantly surprised by the gift of some beautiful towels presented by the Mothers and embroidered by one of their number. Mrs. Arndt was a sharer in this pleasant surprise.

Every seat at both tables was filled.

We are sure that the dinner was a red-letter day on the Mothers' Meeting Calendar.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

A few words as to the record of the School for the year 1924 may be of interest to our friends.

Our average attendance of 185 was a little better than the year before.

Our offerings for 1924 were:
For Church support.....$ 651.91
" Missions (1st Sunday each month) 175.74
For Missions (Lenten Mite Boxes) 833.89
" Children's Country Week. 60.00
" Japan Reconstruction.....70.95
" Christmas Boxes..... 15.00
" Rector's Relief Fund (Advent Offering) 156.25

Total.....$1,963.74

This amount is $320 more than we gave in 1923.

We might add that the Church supports the School, a budget for the same being submitted to the Vestry each year by the officers of the School.

The School in turn gives its weekly offerings to the Church, except that of the first Sunday of each month, which goes to our Missionary Fund.

Lent is nearly here, and the work of our School, as usual, will be for Missions by means of our "Mite Boxes," which are to be filled in two ways.

First—Doing some work especially for The Mite Box Fund.

Second—By Self Denial; giving up some pleasures we wanted to enjoy and putting the amount we would save in the "Mite Box" day by day during the forty days of Lent.

Now, last year, the School gave 833.89 cents in our Lenten Offering. This is a high mark to pass, but if we do not beat this it will be the first time we have gone backward in six years. Now we have to have a MARK to aim at, so let us this year, take ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS and see how nearly we hit it.

Let us see what this amount means. It means, if every one helps, an average of just TEN CENTS A DAY for each day in Lent (not including Sundays). Now, some of us, especially the little ones, can not, I know, come up to the average required, but some can do more than the average.

What is very sure is that if every member of the School takes a "Mite Box," and if every one earnestly tries to do his or her best in the two ways mentioned, we can easily "Go Over the Top."

Why was our Advent Offering of $156.25 over four times as much as in any previous year? Answer—Because 202 members of the School took part.

Just read the following table of our Lenten offerings for the last few years and see how we have been climbing UP each year. Let us GO ON "UP" not down.

1916	$	159.00
1917		200.00
1918		117.00
1919		203.52
1921		253.74
1922		275.00
1923		750.55
1924		833.89
1925	"GOAL".....	1,000.00

R. H. M.

The following little poem was recently given to the Rector. It is so helpful and inspiring that he wishes to share it with the readers of the "Chimes."

ONE DAY AT A TIME

One day at a time, with its failures and fears,
With its hurts and mistakes, with its weakness and tears,
With its portion of pain and its burden of care:
One day at a time we must meet and must bear.

One day at a time—but the day is so long—
And the heart is not brave and the soul is not strong.
Oh Thou pitiful Christ, be thou near all the way;
Give courage and patience and strength for the day.
Swift cometh His answer, so clear and so sweet:
"Yea, I will be with thee, thy troubles to meet;
I will not forget thee, nor fail thee, nor grieve;
I will not forsake thee; I never will leave."

One day at a time, and the day is His day:
He hath numbered its hours, though they haste or delay.
His grace is sufficient, we walk not alone;
As the day, so the strength that He giveth His own.

Lent.

To the Residents in the Vicinity of Christ Church:
Dear Friends:

A series of ten informal "Talks on the Bible" are being given in Christ Episcopal Church, corner Tulpehocken and McCallum Streets, by the noted Biblical scholar, Rev. Addison A. Ewing, Rector of Gloria Dei (Old Swedes) Church, Philadelphia.

As these talks are unusually interesting and instructive, I am inviting persons in this community who may not be attendants at any other church, to share with us in the privilege of this service of talks on the Bible.

An opportunity is given at these informal services to present any questions you may wish to ask.

The service will begin promptly at 7.45 o'clock and will last one hour. Seats at all services in Christ Church are free and unassigned.

Faithfully yours,
Charles Henry Arndt.

EASTER COMMUNION

As these solemn days of Lent draw to a close, every soul that has followed our Lord during these past forty days, in His fastings, in His temptations, in His suffering and at the Cross, will be prepared and will yearn to be with Him on the Day of His Resurrection in the joy of Easter Communion.

Easter is the "Queen of the Festivals" and throughout the Christian ages has been the "Day of Days," when the faithful have solemnized the Resurrection of our Lord by coming to the Holy Communion.

Our "Holy Communion" then becomes our "Holy Eucharist," that is, as the term implies, our "holy thanksgiving."

If, then, we have spent this Lent in a faithful following of our Lord, we may truly share at the Holy Eucharist on Easter morning, the joy of His Resurrection. On this Resurrection morn, we may "lift up our hearts" and be in the very presence of our Risen Lord and with all God's saints in "one Communion and fellowship in the mystical body of His Son, Christ our Lord" and with the "angels and archangels and with all the company of Heaven," join in the beatific praise. "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty"

This is the Communion of the saints.
 This is the beatific vision St. John saw,
 "when in the spirit on the Lord's Day, Heaven was opened"; and this is the beatific vision vouchsafed to all God's saints who draw near unto Him in spirit and in truth on this Great Day of the Lord—the Day of His Resurrection from the Dead.

"If any man will come after Me, let him take up his Cross and follow Me."

The "Forty Days" are now drawing to a close. The Lenten shadows deepen and we now enter Holy Week—into the mystery of the Passion of our Blessed Lord.

There rises before our eyes the Cross; and on the Cross—behold, crowned with thorns, the Immaculate Son of God, "who taketh away the sins of the world!"

"Is it nothing to you all ye that pass by?"

Yes, dear Lord, it is "something to me"—something very real and painful to me. For it is I, who have helped nailed Thee to the cruel Cross. It is I, who, by my indifference, my faithlessness, my selfishness have driven the nails into Thy quivering hands and feet. It is I, who by my sin have pierced Thy heart and plaited the crown of thorns upon Thy brow. Lord, it is I! It is I! O, Lord, have mercy O, Lord, forgive! O, Lord, strengthen me, make me more faithful, more loving, more true! O, Lord, hear my prayer and let my cry come unto Thee!

Lord Jesus—when we stand afar,
And gaze upon Thy Holy Cross,
In love of Thee, and scorn of self,
Oh, may we count the world as loss!

When we behold Thy bleeding wounds,
And the rough way that Thou hast
trod,

Make us to hate the load of sin
That lay so heavy on our God.

O, Holy Lord, uplifted high,
With outstretched arms, in mortal woe,

Embracing in Thy wondrous love
The sinful world that lies below;

Give us an ever-living faith
To gaze beyond the things we see:
And in the mystery of Thy death
Draw us and all men unto Thee.

Let each one of us during this Holy Week, which now draws near, let each one of us leave behind all distracting thoughts, all thoughts of the world, with its petty, trifling schemes and vanities, and let us contemplate in wonder, awe and love, the closing scene of our Lord's earthly life. Let us follow Him day by day from His triumphal entrance on Palm Sunday into the city, He so dearly loved, until, weary and exhausted, He slowly goes His way along the "Via Dolorosa," passing through the gates of the city, which rejected Him, up to the Mount of Calvary, to the Cross.

At the daily Celebrations of the Holy Communion during Holy Week, the Church appoints in her Prayer Book, that each of the four Evangelists shall be heard in his narrative of the Passion and provides an appropriate Epistle and Gospel for each day.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated, accordingly, in Christ Church, every week day morning in Holy Week, until Maundy Thursday, inclusive. The service will be at half-past nine o'clock.

In the afternoons of Monday, Tuesday,

Wednesday and Thursday at 4.45 there will be service and short "Meditation" on the Sacred Events of each day.

On Maundy Thursday evening the Rt. Rev. Thomas Campbell Darst, D. D., Bishop of North Carolina, will visit this Parish and administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The service will be at 7.45 o'clock.

GOOD FRIDAY

The Daily Meditations in Holy Week will culminate on Good Friday with the Three Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross. The Meditation will be conducted by the Rev. Vincent F. Pottle, of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia. The service will begin at 12 o'clock noon.

This three-hour vigil will be preceded by a service at half-past ten o'clock, consisting of the Penitential Office, Pro-Anaphora and Address.

Where else would one, who realizes the meaning of this great and awful day that commemorates the Redeemer's suffering for the sins of the world—where else would one want to spend these sacred hours save in the House of God, and how else, save in Meditation, in Intercession and in Prayer?

Devout minds have found in these precious hours beside the Cross a deeper and a fuller realization of the wonderful love of God to us and the awful sinfulness of our nature. Let every seriously minded person in the Parish keep the day in solemn fasting, in humiliation and in prayer!

"Behold the Cross, whose cruel wood
Upbears the dying Son of God,
Today my only thought shall be:
He died thereon for love of me!"

CONFIRMATION

The Rt. Rev. Thomas Campbell Darst, D. D., Bishop of North Carolina, will visit this Parish on Maundy Thursday evening (April 9th) to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. It is not yet "too late" for persons who are moved by the Holy Spirit of God to confess Jesus Christ, to be confirmed. Some day, it may be "too late." The Rector will be glad to talk with any one on this subject, after any service or by appointment. "Now is the accepted time, now is the day of Salvation!"

SERVICES ON EASTER DAY

The Services on Easter Day will be as follows:

The Rector will be assisted in the Services on Easter Day by the Rev. William H. Cavanagh.

EASTER GREETINGS

A Happy Easter, full of grace, and peace and joy to every Christian heart! Out of the darkness of Good Friday the Easter Light shines clear. May it, indeed, so shine into every soul in this Parish, brightening every life with hope and joy.

The shadows are interpreted by the light. Looking back, from the brightness of Eastern morn into the darkness of the preceding days, we see the darkness was the precursor of the dawn.

What a difference it would make in every life, were we to see more clearly through the light of the Easter Day the meaning of the dark days of our life,—our failures, our temptations, our trials, the tragedies of our life!

God grant that on this Easter Day the members of our Parish may have some measure of that transforming vision! Let us thank God for the Easter revelation of the Risen Lord, whereby we know that all darkness, whether of pain, or disappointment, or sorrow, or death itself, are, to those who trust and live in the spirit of Christ, the heralds of new life and hope and joy.

We may rejoice, then, even when we look into the grave: for we know that "He is not here. He is risen!"

Let us weave this blessed Easter truth into our lives! Let it give courage and hope to discouraged ones, comfort to the meekness—joy to every soul; for Christ has brought life and immortality to light! "I am the Resurrection and the Life," said the Lord; "he that believeth in Me, though he be dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die."

AN ORCHESTRA TO LEAD THE CHOIR IN EASTER MUSIC

The music on Easter Day at Christ Church promises to be unusually fine.

Disappointed in our expectation of having our new organ for the great Festival, the Committee determined to substitute for it orchestral music, and has secured an orchestra under the leadership of Mr. Alden H. Bruton, consisting of two violins, viola, cello, bass viol, flute, piano and organ (the latter being the small organ played by Mr. Burness).

The augmented Choir, under the leadership of Mr. Owen Burness, and assisted by the orchestra, will render:

Stainer's Communion Service in F.
The Prelude to the service will be "In a Monastery Garden" (Ketelby).

The Offertory (also by the Orchestra) will be "Pastorale" (Trinkhaus).

The Postlude will be:

The March, from Tannhauser (Wagner).

With this programme we confidently expect to more than atone for the absence of our great organ.

It is suggested that the congregation be seated a few minutes before 11 o'clock, so as to hear the beautiful strains of the Prelude.

The Processional Hymn will be: "Welcome, Happy Morning!"

"Christ, Our Passover".....Chapple.

"Glorias"Walters.

Introit, "Te Deum," E Flat, Federlein.

"Gloria in Excelsis," in G...Gilchrist.

Office Hymn....."The Day of Resurrection."

Recessional"Jesus Christ is Risen Today!" T. H. C.

OUR EASTER OFFERING

Our offering, on Easter Day, should be an expression of our love and loyalty to Jesus Christ. It should represent sacrifice. An Easter offering, in any other spirit, is "a mere mockery," a travesty of the Easter Spirit.

Whilst I am deeply interested and sincerely hope that the full amount asked by the Vestry from the Congregation may be, as it should be, fully realized. I am not primarily interested in the amount. I am more interested that there shall be in every member of our Parish, the true spirit of Christian giving; that each gift may be an expression of true devotion to Christ and His Church. And no gift can rightly be called a "religious offering" that does not represent this spirit—the spirit of love and sacrifice!

There should be no small coin on the plate on Easter Day, unless the giver is very poor. In that case the offering may be more worthy and more acceptable to God than the larger offering of the rich.

But my observation and experience during a long ministry has convinced me that the small coin in the offering is not given, as a rule, by the poorer members of the Parish. It is given by the careless, by the flippant, by the worldly, who have money to spend on themselves and for their own selfish ends, but economize in their gifts to God. And such giving, I repeat, is in no sense, worthy to be called a religious "offering," because it is devoid of the very essence of Christian giving—it is wanting in the spirit of sacrifice; it does not represent the spirit of love and devotion and consecration to Christ. C. H. A.

The Church regards the giving of money at the services, in no sense, as a "collection." The term "collection," in reference to giving of money at the service of worship should never be used. It is an offering, an offering to God, and, as such, is an essential part of worship; and the rubric in the Prayer Book emphasizes this and directs that "the devotions of the people shall be reverently brought to the priest, who shall humbly present it (to God) and place it upon the Holy Table."

David of old said: "I will not offer unto the Lord my God of that which cost me nothing." And, surely, if David realized the meaning and the significance of an "offering unto the Lord," no one who calls himself a Christian and a follower of Jesus Christ can be said to have any real part in the solemn and serious worship of God, who lightly "offers unto the Lord that which costs him nothing."

Christian giving is an act of joy, because it is prompted by the spirit of love. And how much love is there in the person, how much Christian joy can come to anyone—who puts on the plate on Easter morning an insignificant amount, "that which costs him nothing."

"Freely have ye received, freely give." C. H. A.

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS

The flowers in the chancel on Easter Day will all be memorials of the blessed dead. Persons in the congregation who wish to have flowers in the chancel on Easter Day in memory of friends who rest in Paradise are cordially invited to send blooming plants or cut flowers to the Parish House on Saturday preceding Easter, not later than noon.

Names of senders of flowers, together with the names of those in whose memory the flowers are sent, are requested to accompany the gifts.

Persons who wish to forward money contributions for flowers may send the same either to the Rector or to Miss Chase, President of the Altar Guild, 152 East Washington Lane. Flowers will be purchased by the Altar Guild and the memorials placed on the altar. Contributions of money are requested to be sent as soon as possible than an early selection of flowers may be made.

The plants and flowers are sent to the sick after Easter.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

An election of Vestrymen of this Parish to be held in the Church on Easter Monday, April 13th, between the hours of 5 and 6 P. M. Four Vestrymen are to be elected this year. The terms of three Vestrymen expire.

The following extract is from the By-Laws of Christ Church. By-Law, Article 1, Section 8:

"Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestrymen one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the southeast vestibule of the Church at least two Sundays prior to the holding of such election and no person not so nominated shall be a candidate."

The Charter of Incorporation, Article 6, reads: "The Vestry of Christ Church shall consist of twelve men to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereat. Said election shall be by ballot and shall be held on Easter Monday in each and every year between such hours and upon such notice as the by-laws of said Church may provide; and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said Church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of the Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of, at least, two years next preceding any such election, annual subscriptions of not less than ten dollars each."

The vote of a plurality of the qualified electors voting at any such election shall be requisite for the election of any Vestryman."

CONSIDER THE BLUE ENVELOPE

The material part of your Church is represented by a very valuable plot of ground and buildings, that run into many thousands of dollars.

In fact, most of us have never given it the thought, that these properties require considerable attention and repairs to keep this Sacred legacy and investment intact.

Something like $3,600.00 should be spent on just repairs today, and then without any advance work, the buildings would only be brought up to fair condition.

Formerly, the amount allowed for this work was insufficient to keep pace with depreciation.

The Vestry very wisely and generously appropriated for this year $1,200.00 for repairs, and, with your help, your Property Committee hopes to be able to catch up with many of the delinquent and urgent repairs.

The items of repairs are numerous,

among which are:

Church roofing, which is estimated to cost$3,000.00

Repair of the Church cushions to cost..... 750.00.

Exterior painting of buildings 900.00

New joists over boiler in Parish House 200.00 and many other items large and small.

The Church vestibules and entrances from the street should be electrically lighted, and your grounds about the Church should be made more sightly.

A contract for pointing the stonework of the exterior of the Church was let, and the work is now well under way.

Won't every contributor, through the envelopes, please "Consider the Blue Envelope?" You will be helping in a good work.

Property Committee,

U. G. Rowley,

O. N. Middleton,

Frederick Lennig (Chairman).

CHURCH SCHOOL

With the Lenten Season here, the scholars are all earnestly working to fill their Mite Boxes and by Self-Denial, they expect to go over the top with our Goal of $1000 for the Mission Fund.

We are very glad to welcome the return of Miss Phylliss Morgan, and our Teachers' Staff is greatly improved by this addition.

At our Christmas Entertainment, Mr. Clausen was presented with a beautiful Mouth Organ. Showing his appreciation of this gift, he has organized our Orchestra in his Class, and we expect to hear some sweet music from them in the near future.

Now that Spring is here, our School is all filled with the fresh Spring Spirit of good cheer, happiness and bright prospects.

We notice a marked increase in attendance, and after receiving the Good Message and thorough instruction from our faithful teachers every one goes away smiling, and full of love and happiness, looking forward to the next Sunday Morning at 9.45, and we welcome you to come along with them. C. J. C.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Lenten Offering of the Sunday School will receive a large contribution from the Class. The proceeds of the "Pollyanna" performance are considerably over one hundred dollars, and in addition, the members have each taken a Mite Box, to be returned at Easter with each man's personal offering.

Colonel Potter is giving an interesting course of lessons on the history of the "Books of the Bible," at the regular services on Sunday mornings. The large attendance shows how well the lessons are appreciated. All men of the Parish and neighborhood are cordially invited to attend on Sunday mornings at 9.45 o'clock.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. of Christ Church, having just completed its 1924 payment toward the National Centre Memorial on the Fiftieth Anniversary, in 1926, of the G. F. S. in America, it is now planning some Travel Talks for each alternate Tuesday in Lent.

We had a most interesting evening afforded us through the kindness of Miss Dorothy Jenkins, of Grace Church, Mount Airy, who gave us some of her experiences last winter and spring on her trips around the world. There was a large turnout and a most enjoyable and instructive evening was spent.

Dr. Arndt has promised to take us with him "On His Bicycle Trip Through England and Ireland." Others will followed—speaker and tour to be announced.

All Lenten sewing has been distributed and must be ready for exhibition on April 23. The work that is being stressed, the most is to raise the money for another worker to help Mr. and Mrs. Collier, who have established a Christmas Centre, so to remedy some of the evils in China regarding child labor.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

For many years past, the women of the Church have presented, at the General Convention of the Church, held every three years, an offering, known as a "United Thank Offering," as an expression of the gratitude of women for blessings which they have received.

The amount presented by the women at the last General Convention, held in Portland, Ore., amounted to $681,145.09; ten per cent. of which was appropriated to provide pension for women missionaries, $10,000 for buildings and the residue for women workers in the Missionary fields.

The Rector of every Parish is requested to appoint a Treasurer or Custodian whose duty it is to supply mite boxes to every woman in the Parish, with the request that a Thank Offering shall be placed in the box from time to time (daily, if possible), and a prayer be said on behalf of the missionaries of the Church.

These boxes are to be turned in to the Parish Treasurer every six months. A large number of women in Christ Church Parish have been sharing in this "United Thank Offering" for many years past, and the amount contributed by them has been generous. But there are a great many women who have not been contributors to this offering, due, no doubt, in many cases to a lack of understanding of its object.

The Rector has appointed Mrs. Charles Heyer, 75 West Johnson Street, as Parish Treasurer of the Thank Offering, and she will be pleased to give information to any woman in the Parish who wishes to share in this offering. Mite boxes may be obtained from Mrs. Heyer.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

This is an SOS call to our friends. We are sadly in need of pieces of cloth for rugs. There is a never ceasing demand for them, but it is almost impossible to supply the necessary material. So, please, look through your bureaus, trunks, your closets and send any pieces of suitable cloth to the Mothers' Meeting for rugs.

We also have for sale tea towels, gingham or fancy aprons, shoe bags, laundry bags and all kinds of towels for the bathroom.

During Lent we are sewing for the Needle Work Guild, and we are expecting a very creditable showing of work for that organization.

A. M. M.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Only two more months before we adjourn for the summer. Before the first of the year we must raise $500 toward our quota for Missions. How are we going to do it?

We need new ideas, and we need also more women to come to our Monthly Meetings to help us push this undertaking through.

Our cake sales held in the Parish House on the last Saturday of each Month have added something to our fund, but we are still far short of our goal.

The meetings this winter have shown an increase in attendance; but we need more help in this very important work.

We meet the first Monday of the month at two o'clock, in the Parish House.

All women in the Parish are invited.

THE MISSIONARY QUOTO OF CHRIST CHURCH

The following letter addressed to the Rector's submitted to the members of Christ Church Parish for their consideration and reply.

Diocese of Pennsylvania,
Church House,
Philadelphia,
February 25, 1925.

The Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, D. D.,
Germantown, Phila., Pa.

Dear Dr. Arndt:

The "Expectations" relating to contributions from the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese applying to the Maintenance Budget of the work of the Diocese and General Church for 1924, as reported to the last annual Convention, totalled $408,550.00. When our books closed for the year, the Parishes and Missions had paid $390,984.25 of this amount. The sincere effort made to reach the "Expectation" figure was most encouraging, and the interest was widespread. $73,292.65 of Divisible Funds was received in December, 1924, as compared with $44,559.45 in December, 1923, to apply to this figure.

A necessary increase of approximately 10 per cent. has been apportioned among the Parishes and Missions for 1925. Your people are asked, if possible, to contribute $4,500.00, as their share of $450,000, the total amount apportioned, on the basis of $215,000, for the General Church.

We desire to report the "Expectations" relating to this total sum, to the annual Convention in May. Will you kindly assist the Finance Department by indicating your willingness to undertake to raise from your people the amount requested, or giving the nearest amount to that figure which you can reasonably expect to raise, understanding that any less amount means a serious handicap to the Diocese and the General Church.

Faithfully yours,

Thomas J. Garland,
Chairman.

Thomas S. Gates,
Treasurer.

W. P. Barba,
Assistant Treasurer.

Reynolds D. Brown,
Executive Secretary.

The Hall Organ Company, of West Haven, Conn., builders of our new organ, regretting their inability to furnish the instrument in time for the Easter-Day services, have generously offered to pay for the orchestral music which will be used in its stead.

This action on their part, which is purely voluntary—as the delay was caused by labor troubles over which they had no control—is highly appreciated by the members of Christ Church, and is an additional indication that their business is conducted upon a higher plane than mere conformity to legal technicalities.

VESTRYMEN AS GUIDES IN SPIRITUALITY

As indicating that vestrymen need not necessarily confine their influence within a Parish to purely material matters, the following circular letter recently addressed by the members of the vestry to the parishioners of St. John's Church, Knoxville, Tenn., bears witness:

"In an address recently made to the Congregation of our Church, the Rector incidentally called attention to the fact that the average number of persons partaking of the Holy Communion at the regular service on the first Sunday of the month is only about one-sixth of the number of the confirmed persons on the record of the Parish.

"While neither as Vestrymen or individually do we wish to be considered as dictating to others their duty as Churchmen we do, in the most fraternal spirit possible, invite your attention to the fact that our people are not as mindful as they should be of the privilege which is theirs, of heeding the Master's injunction: 'Do this in remembrance of Me.' It is the one way in which we, as Christian men and women, can show our loyalty to Christ our Saviour, manifest the faith we profess, and prove that we are not ashamed of that profession of our religion.

"We beg you to consider this matter not as a duty, but as the exercise of the spirit of true worship, as an aid to personal religious strength, as the real source of a quiet mind and a calm temper in the midst of this changing and transitory life, as the means of reviving our faith in our Lord if it has been neglected, forgotten, or denied, and as the guide into the way of truth and in righteousness of life.

"We also wish to know that as Vestrymen and your chosen Stewards, we most heartily commend and endorse the present plans for the support of Missions, both Foreign and Diocesan, and every good work which is being carried on in our Parish life for the upbuild of Christ's Kingdom and the good of our fellowmen."

The letter was signed by twelve Vestrymen.

HIS GIFT TO THE DEAD—AN EASTER SUGGESTION

A friend has sent to the Rector the following touching account of a gift of love to the dead. It is an example worthy of imitation. It is an appropriate Easter suggestion. The account is as follows: "An old man came to the home of a certain clergyman the other day and laid down $150.00 'to help out some needy family.' Then he told this story:

"Years ago, when all of my folks were living, I couldn't afford to give presents. Things are different now, but most of my folks have gone. I went shopping, just as if my folks were alive. I picked out a shawl for an aunt of mine. She's dead, and so I didn't buy it, but I put down the amount of money I would have spent. Then I went and got some things for my dead brother and for my father and mother and for a few old friends of mine. I didn't really get them, you know, but I priced the things. I thought they would like. When I added up all the money I would have spent it came to almost $150, so I added a little to it, and here it is."

Has anyone heard of a finer, more beautiful way of showing a man's love for his dead? The things he had wanted to do it was too late to do now. He might, it is true, have spent money on stone to make more artificial and melancholy and quiet hillside where "his folks" rest. He found a better way to spend his affection to remember in fancy those he could no longer reach, and then to see that his loving memory of them went to make others happier. He made his love for his dead a power to gladden the living. He laid tribute on grief and made it a blessing. It is not a sad story. But is an experience which will bring comfort to any sad life—the comfort which comes to the sad and sorrowful in remembering the dead by a gift of love to the living. It is an example worthy of imitation at this Easter Season.

THE EVENTS

In the Last Work of Our Saviour's Life

Just as naturally as affection prompts me to keep in mind and follow hour by hour some dear one on a journey, so I follow day by day the events of those days of gathering gloom about "the Man of sorrows," as He draws nearer and nearer to Calvary. Upon its varied scenes I concentrate my thought and affection, and when at last, in the twilight of Good Friday, I kneel at the foot of that Cross whereon our Saviour died, gazing in wonder and amazement upon that awful tragedy, I am ready, with a heart melted to tenderness, to offer and present to our dear Redeemer my own life—soul and body—"to be a reasonable, holy and living sacrifice" to Him and His service."

THE REV. M. EWING'S BIBLE COURSE

The series of "Ten Talks on the Bible," which the Rev. M. Ewing, Rector of Gloria Dei Church, has been giving in Christ Church on Sunday evenings, has been concluded.

The large congregations which have been in attendance testify the appreciation of this highly instructive course of study. It is hoped that we may have the privilege of having Mr. Ewing with us again at Christ Church.

The Rector is in receipt of the following letter of appreciation, written by one of the Vestrymen of Christ Church, which, by permission of the writer of the letter, the Rector is glad to print.

March 25, 1925.

Rev. Dr. Charles Henry Arndt, D. D.,
59 W. Tulpehocken Street,

Philadelphia, Penna.

My dear Rector:

Let me express to you the great pleasure and profit I have had in attendance upon the course of study in the New Testament given by the Rev. Addison A.
Ewing on Sunday evenings. It has been a remarkably clear and concise history of the growth of the Apostolic Church and of the dangers which beset it. Three things have greatly impressed me.

First: The quickening of men, long the pupils of Jesus, with minds stored with his words and acts, yet without apprehension of their meaning until the day of Pentecost. Then the wonderful awakening of the spiritual meaning which before were incomprehensible. I believe there is inspiration today which quickens the spiritually dead into lives of service.

Second: The consideration of the Epistle of St. Paul to Philemon more than any other seems to me to present the human side of the great Apostle of the Gentiles. Standing before Agrippa or braving the hostility of the Jewish hierarchy, he compels admiration of his courage; but I am convinced that it was his knowledge of humanity and his love for his fellows that made productive his defense of the right, and offense against wrongs, withstanding even Peter to his face. His knowledge of human beings and the way they look at things and his sympathy for them made his words to them, written or spoken, convincing and effective.

The third point which especially appealed to me was the battle waged by St. Paul for a Church catholic; his aggressive warfare against Judaizing the Church of Christ; his triumph over the results of four centuries of study of the law and its perversion, which had enslaved the spirits of men.

I wish that all of our congregation could have heard these talks. They have been helpful not only in the subject matter of each, but, by the relationship of the one to the other, they offered a suggestion of that orderly study of God's word from which alone can be derived the vision of its wonderful purpose. I wish you would convey to Mr. Ewing the expression of my appreciation and my thanks.

With kind regards, I am,
Sheldon Potter.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Change of Hour for Sunday Morning Service

Following the precedent of last year, the hour of the Sunday morning service during the months of July and August and continuing until Sunday, September 20th (inclusive) will be at half past ten, instead of eleven o'clock. This change of hour will go into effect on the first Sunday in July, the 5th.

This change of hour to half past ten will bring the mid-day service to a cooler part of the day. It will also afford the scholars of the Church School the opportunity of attending the Church service. During the summer months of last year there was a large attendance on the part of the members at the Church service. A short talk will be given to the young people, preceding the sermon. The entire service will be over before noon.

The hour of the other Sunday services will remain the same—Holy Communion, every Sunday at 7.30 A. M. Shortened Form of Evening Prayer with address, 7.45 P. M.

Please remember the hour of the Mid-day Sunday Service—10.30, Daylight Saving Time, beginning Sunday morning, July 5th and continuing to Sunday, September 20th (inclusive).

The services on Week Days will be omitted during the summer months, until St. Matthew's Day, September 21st, when there will be Celebration of the Holy Communion at 9.30 A. M.

DANGER

A danger comes to all of us in summer time. The danger is to become careless or indifferent about our religious observances, and especially about our Church attendance. Of course, no one who regulates his life on Christian principle will neglect his religious life in summer any more than he will in winter, but, unfortunately, all of us do not regulate our religious life on principle. Too many act according to our whims or our fancy or convenience, and, therefore, when warm weather comes we find it very easy to offer excuses for absentsing ourselves from Divine Service. The state of the weather, the distance from Church and other excuses are easily found as sufficient reasons for absence, and the conscience is lulled to sleep.

What a fearful danger befalls the man or woman when such excuses are allowed to keep them away from regular attendance at the House of God! How unspeakably sad it is to see church-men and women give way to these temptations, and to find them on Sundays, at the time they should be at worship, on the golf links, or on an automobile trip, or abandoning for some other trivial reason, the altar of God!

Golf, automobiles and other outdoor recreations are good and wholesome, and refreshment for both body and mind. But no sane man or woman will say that these things, good as they are, are or can be substitutes for worship. They can and do refresh the mind and body. But man is more than mind and body. He has a soul which craves and needs refreshment; and these recreations which give refreshment to mind and body are not sufficient to nourish the soul; and what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?"

Let us then, my friends, beware, lest in resting our minds and bodies, during these summer months, we starve our souls. We must not, cannot, afford in summer to lay aside our worship. The weary mind and the weary body need rest and refreshment and should have them. The soul, too, needs and must have refreshment, and for it there can be only one source from which it can receive nourishment and strength. "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is," says the Apostle. And our blessed Lord, Who knew the needs of all men has said: "Come unto Me, all ye who are weary and heavy laden and I will refresh you," "Verily, verily, I say unto you except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, ye have no life in you!"

OUR NEW ORGAN IN USE

On Whitsunday, May 31st, our new organ was used for the first time in Divine Service.

All who were present at the Choral Celebration of the Holy Communion on that day can testify to the beauty and inspiration of that wonderful service, as rendered and interpreted by this great instrument. It is no exaggeration to say that it is one of the finest instruments in the city. The people of Christ Church and of this community will appreciate this valuable adjunct in the reverent rendering of the Divine Service.

Great credit is due to all those who have made this gift to Christ Church possible. Many of the contributions have been given as "memorials to the blessed dead." In due time a bronze tablet will be cast with the names of all those in whose memory gifts have been given and will be placed on the east wall of the Church. The cost of the organ and installation is almost paid for. Only is needed to meet the full amount required.

The organ cannot be consecrated until it is paid for in full. Can we not meet this comparatively small balance before next fall? We can if everyone will do his or her part. Those who have not given will want to share with others in handing down to posterity a worthy gift. Some who have already given may wish to increase their contributions.

When, in the fall, shall we have a joyous service of consecration and thanksgiving?

Shall it not be on ALL SAINTS' DAY, NOVEMBER 1ST?

Pledge cards may be found in the vestibule of the Church and each one can help answer that question! The Rector or any member of the Organ Committee of the vestry, of which Dr. Thomas H. Carmichael is Chairman, will be pleased to hear from persons interested.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE ORGAN

The new organ was built by the Hall Organ Company, of West Haven, Conn., and represents the latest developments in the organ building art.

It is an instrument of three manuals and pedals, each keyboard being tilted at a different angle, to meet the natural position of the arms and wrists of the performer—an unique feature—which allows great ease of manipulation.

Each of the four divisions contains not only ample foundation, or "diapason" tone, but all the essential tone colors for proper balance and orchestral effects.

Particular attention is drawn to the characteristic "strings" and flutes, throughout the entire instrument.

And the reeds play a prominent part in the ensemble and variety of combinations. In addition to the usual corneopoean, oboe, clarinet and vox humana, are the 16 and 8 ft. tubas in the great organ, and the 16 and 8 ft. trombone and tromba in the swell and pedal organs, which produce a wonderful grandeur and climax to the full organ.

In the swell organ, the combination of the viol celeste and Unda Maris produces the symphonic effect, so seldom attained in the pipe organ.

The chimes and harp—instruments only recently perfected for the pipe organ—appeal to the critical ear because of their delicacy and character.

Mechanically, the organ contains all the most recent accessories for the convenience of the organist. Every movement in the instrument is controlled electrically, which insures prompt response and perfect repetition.

The console, placed on the opposite side of the chancel from the organ, is connected to it by an electric cable containing hundreds of wires, leading to every pipe and part of the organ, in as intricate a manner as the nerves of the body.

In the console the stops are controlled by ivory knobs, arranged in convenient rows, upon oblique cheeks, facing the organist at a natural angle.

And these knobs can be manipulated not only individually by hand, but also in groups, as desired by the organist, by means of adjustable combination pistons, placed below each row of keys, so that the performer, by a simple touch of the thumb or finger, may throw off or on any group of stops he may select.

Then, too, are the crescendo and sforzando pedals, with which the organist can, with his foot, control the power of the entire instrument, from the softest effect to full organ.

In the console there is a total of sixty-seven stops, including couplers.

There are about three thousand pipes in the organ, varying in length from 16ft. to $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch, made up of tin, lead, zinc, wood and brass. These varying materials and sizes are essential to produce the many tonal effects needed for church and orchestral requirements. In this organ will be found every tone color of a large orchestra, in addition to those peculiar to a pipe organ only. There is also a set of chimes, consisting of twenty-five bells and a harp of forty-nine notes.

The organ is one of the finest in Philadelphia, and contains numerous mechanical accessories, such as couplers, balanced pedals and adjustable combinations, which appear only in the latest type of the "king of instruments."

The wind for the organ is supplied by an electric fan blower which insures an ample and perfectly steady supply of wind at all times, the flow of wind being controlled automatically.

The specifications of the organ were designed in conjunction with the organist of Christ Church, Owen J. W. Burness, and the results undoubtedly show careful thought and study on the part of an expert.

ORGAN RECITAL BY MR. RALPH KINDER

The formal opening of our new organ will take place on Thursday Evening, June 11th at 8 o'clock in an Organ Recital by Mr. Ralph Kinder, Organist of Holy Trinity Church, assisted by Miss Dorothy Pierce, Vocalist.

Mr. Ralph Kinder is one of Philadelphia's most distinguished organists and a musical treat will be afforded as he brings out the various qualities and possibilities of our new instrument.

A silver offering will be taken to defray expenses.

A LEGACY FOR CHRIST CHURCH

By the will of the late Miss Sarah A. King, Christ Church has been left a legacy of $500.00. The vestry at the meeting held on Easter Tuesday voted that this legacy be added to the Endowment Fund of the Parish.

Miss King was one of the oldest members of Christ Church, having been confirmed under the first Rector of the Parish, the Rev. A. B. Atkins. Until she was confined to her home by illness and the weakness of old age, she was regular in her attendance at the services and generous in the support of the work of the Parish. She was 82 years of age at her death.

The Rev. C. Sydney Goodman, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, who had charge of the service at Christ Church last year, during the month of July, will be in charge again this year during the same month.

The Rev. Philip Sidney Irwin, Chaplain of the Church Home at Chestnut Hill will be in charge during the month of August. The services of these clergymen will be at the disposal of the members of the Parish at any time, if word is left with the sexton at the Parish House, or they may be reached by telephone. Rev. Mr. Goodman's telephone number is "Holmesburg 1428 J." The number of Mr. Irwin is "Wyoming 6948 R."

The next issue of the "Chimes" will be in September. All Parish Societies will be expected to announce their plans for the fall and winter's work in that issue.

—Two handsome Prayer Books for use at the Altar were presented to Christ Church on Easter Day in memory of Philip E. and Emily Washburn Richards. The books were the gifts of their daughters.

"THANK YOU, SO MUCH! WE ARE OFF FOR THE COUNTRY!"

POOR CHILDREN'S COUNTRY WEEK

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on Sunday morning, June 21st. It will cost $8.00 to send a poor child to the country for one week where it can enjoy pure, fresh air and good wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom for several years past to secure from various organizations for the poor the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portion of the city—in the small, dirty courts and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called "homes" the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements made for a week's outing in the country and, in some cases for a longer period of time. Occasionally a poor, overworked mother is also sent with her children.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are privileged to give; and what a great opportunity it affords to persons who are blessed with comfortable homes and can get away for rest and recreation during the hot summer months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in the narrow and crowded streets and alleys of our city.

The amount received last year from the members of Christ Church for the Poor Children's Outing Fund was $205.00. This was divided among the "Children's Country Week Association," the "Union Settlement House," the "Bedford Street Mission" and the "Episcopal City Mission," organizations which are doing social work among the poor of our city.

The following letters, received by the Rector, will show how highly the contributions of Christ Church people were appreciated by the organizations through which these poor children were sent last summer into the country or to the seashore for a week or ten days:

Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal Mission.
May 28th, 1925.

My dear Dr. Arndt:

For several summers past the good friends of Christ Church, Germantown, have filled little lives with sunshine and happiness and little bodies with health and strength by sending a generous contribution to the Outing Fund of the City Mission. Their gifts helped make it possible to send little folks to the shore and country.

Last year you sent us $90.00.

We wonder if we dare to expect a like contribution this year. If we are sure, then we can begin making our arrangements for our guests. We always like to let them know ahead of time, because they have almost as much fun anticipating the outing as they do when the day actually arrives for them to leave the hot dusty city behind them.

I am looking forward as eagerly for your reply as are my little friends.

Please don't disappoint us; we are really and truly anxious to have our Christ Church friends say "yes."

With the hope that every one of you will have a pleasant vacation, I am as always

Faithfully yours,

H. Cresson McHenry.

GRACE UNION SETTLEMENT HOUSE
1032 Federal St., Phila.
July 19, 1924.

Rev. Dr. Chas. H. Arndt,
Germantown, Pa.,

Dear Dr. Arndt:

Your favor enclosing check from Christ Church for the purpose of sending some of our poor children to the country is received. I thank you most sincerely for it. Only those who work all through the year with this class of people know what an outing such as you help us to provide for them really means.

Today a poor mother came to my office to see me. She had scarcely entered before she began weeping bitterly. Upon speaking with her I discovered that her husband had been out of work for a long time and they were practically starving. I was able to relieve her present distress so far as food, clothing and shoes were concerned.

Your check had just come in that morning. I felt it was God sent. So I set to work at once and have arranged to send this poor woman and her two children to the country for at least a week. I know that the fresh air and the good food they will get there will build them up greatly. The woman is a good Christian and worthy of anything we can do for her.

Another dear little girl who has just lost her mother, was taken to the country by her aunt. She had never seen the green fields and when she stepped from the car and saw nature's beautiful green carpet before her, she rushed from the Aunt, caught the grass in her hands, squeezed it and patted it and pressed her little feet upon it. It was some time before they could get her away. We who have always enjoyed the beauties of nature can scarcely understand that the child would go into such raptures over the little blades of grass.

In a little back alley in a ramshackle old house lives a dear good woman and her two little daughters. She has suffered much but is always thanking God for her many blessings. I fear many would fail to see them if they were in her place. When I told her that she and her little girls could go to the country for ten days she said: "Oh thank God! I am so glad!"

I should like to tell you of others but I do not feel I should take more of your valuable time. I wanted you to know how much we appreciate your gift and what a blessing it is to others.

Sincerely yours,
ANNIE M. MILLER,
Superintendent.

THE CHILDREN'S COUNTRY WEEK ASSO.
Wesley, Bldg., 1701 Arch St., Phila.
May 28, 1925.

Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, D. D.
Christ Church Rectory,
Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.,
Philadelphia.

My dear Dr. Arndt:

The Children's Country Week Association wishes to extend to Christ Episcopal Church of Germantown cordial thanks for their generous contribution of Forty Dollars ($40.00) during the past summer. This contribution provided a happy week for five little children out in the country where green fields, cool, fresh breezes and wholesome food helped to build up their little bodies. If you could have seen the difference in them on their return, you would have been amply repaid for any sacrifice that had been made to raise the amount. The deeper good which was accomplished in presenting to them the vision of a better life, only the eye of faith can see, and the reward for that will not come in this life. Many stories we hear assure us of the lasting benefits that have been received.

As you no doubt know, the full amount of your contribution is applied directly to the child's vacation. An invested fund provided sufficient interest to take care of all our overhead expenses, so that we are proud to be able to say truthfully that 100% of all contributions received each summer goes directly to the child.

Hoping that you will encourage us by continuing your interest, and expressing our appreciation for your kindness in past years, I remain

Cordially yours,

Laura Baker Miller Blithe
(Mrs. Wesley Leshar Blithe)
President.

THE BEDFORD STREET MISSION
619 Kater Street, Philadelphia

May 27, 1925.

The Rev. Chas. H. Arndt,
59 W. Tulpehocken Street,
Gtn., Phila., Penna.

Dear Sir:-

I wish to take this opportunity to express to you and through you to your Congregation, our deep appreciation of the interest you have shown in our work among the needy in the neighborhood of our Mission, and of the great help your contributions of various kinds have been to us.

Through the generosity of our many friends, we have been enabled to increase, somewhat, our City work, during the past year, but we still have opportunity to do much more if we had more funds.

We are now planning to open our Country Home between Clementon and Berlin, New Jersey, for the months of July and August, to furnish a much needed vacation in the country to such children of our Mission as would otherwise not have any similar opportunities.

We trust that as we press on in our work of relieving distress, and helping to make better citizens of the children of our City's poor, we may continue to merit your prayers, as well as the material assistance which, through God's blessings, you may be able to extend to us.

Faithfully yours,
WM. T. LLEWELLYN,
Secretary and Treasurer.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our Easter Carol service was one of the most successful we have had. The singing was unusually good and we had a very interesting talk by Rev. Charles E. Spalding. A remembrance was given to the following scholars for faithful attendance:

10 year class—Mrs. Baisbrown.

6 year class—Elizabeth Haas.

5 year class—Martha McHenry, Nancy Courtney and Mary Keenan.

4 year class—Josephine Wright, John Hanan, Howard Logan, Anna Bradley, Mary Johnson and James Osborne.

3 year class—Margaret Boyer, Allen Fermier, Jas. Carmint, Jr., Marjorie Wismer, Jean Gilfillan, Helen Jackson, Graham Kink, Frank Stryke, Alberta Wright and Robert Klink.

2 year class—May James, Thomas Hodge, Anna Johnson, Harry Fermier, Florence Osborne and Marjorie Stryke.

1 year class—Ruth Fitch, George Johnson, Gerard Meusing, Clarence Fay, Beatrice Johnson, Elizabeth Bose, Helen Logan, Jane Courtney, Corrine Bose, John Courtney and Jean Fitch.

It is interesting that the unbroken record of these scholars adds up to 127 years and 11 Sundays, a wonderful record. Last year's record was 95 years and 32 Sundays.

The following scholars were promoted from the Primary Dept. to the Main School:

Ruth Carmint, Harriet Fitch, Katherine Greenwood, Jean Hayhurst, Ann Hindemeyer, Alice Kelley, Margaret Lehman, Jane Pratt, Louis Bloom, Robt. McHenry, Sherman Rambo, Richard Seitz.

Our Easter offering for Missions was $965.00 and is the largest our school has ever given, $132 more than last year and nearly reached our goal of $1,000. It was only possible by every one doing something, that is by working or making some sacrifice during Lent. The total of our mite boxes was $629.26 of which the Primary Department gave over $73.00.

The Men's Bible Class $150.00 and the balance from the Main School and from the offering at our Easter Carol Service. Then the School gave a Fair in Easter Week which brought up the total to $965.00.

About fifty of our school went to the Annual Presentation Service in Holy Trinity Church on May 10th and took our offering with them.

June 28th will be the last session of the School in the Parish House and on July 5th we will attend church service the same as in past years at 10.30. The Rev. Mr. Goodman will again be here for the month of July and I know we will all be glad to see him again. The Rev. Mr. Irwin will be the supply during August. Both of these clergymen are very "happy" in addressing young people, and we are sure that the scholars will be greatly interested in their short addresses at the morning services.

Rainy Day will be the third Sunday in September which is the 20th. Let us bear this in mind and all come back to school at 9.45 on that day, ready for another year's work.

Your Superintendent wishes you all a happy summer.

R. H. M.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The first part of our work for the year is over. We have succeeded in finishing up the allotment of sewing and some knitting has been accomplished for our missionary work. Our monthly meetings have been fairly well attended and the reports from our delegates have been unusually interesting.

The income derived from the cake sales held on the last Saturday in each month has started us well on the way towards our anticipated goal of $500. We have on hand nearly $100. These cake sales will continue through the summer. We are planning a motion picture benefit in the near future. In the Autumn we expect to hold a rummage sale. May we beg the people of Christ Church to save for us any cast-off articles, as we cannot have a rummage sale without the rummage. I would like to express my appreciation for the help many women of the Parish have given us in the past and hope they will continue to be with us when we start our winter's work.

L. M. R.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL SERVICE LEAGUE

The Church School Service League, composed of children of the Church School, has held weekly meetings for work on Fridays, the average attendance 14, enrollment 30.

Before Christmas boxes of Christmas gifts were prepared for St. Phillip's Normal and Industrial School, San Antonio, Texas, and Epiphany Mission, Summer-ville, S. C.

During January and February scrap-books were made for hospitals in the city.

Throughout the Lenten season in addition to attending the Children's Service on Thursday afternoons, the members of the Church School Service League took the Course on China prepared for use throughout the Church.

The last meeting of the season will be held on Friday, June 5th at 4 o'clock. All girls who have attended the meetings are asked to be present.

We are already planning our work for next year.

The first work in the fall will be the preparing of Christmas gifts, one "joyful" and one "useful" for twenty-four children in China and thirty-six children in the missions in our own country.

In addition we have pledged $2.00, which we have in our treasury, to Japan.

It is hoped that we may have a much larger number taking an active part in the work of the Church School Service League next year.

L. B.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The interesting series of Bible lessons given every Sunday morning, has terminated, as Colonel Potter will be absent until the autumn.

The usual class meetings will continue, however, until the end of June, and special teachers will be with us each week. During July and August we will join the Sunday School in its services in the Church, and all members are cordially invited to continue their attendance.

Due announcement will be made of the opening date of the class in the fall. Needless to say, we hope to have Colonel Potter with us again next season.

R. J. L.

WOMEN'S UNITED THANK OFFERING

The Presentation service of the United Thank Offering was held Thursday, April 23rd, at 10:30 A. M. in Old Christ Church, Phila. The day and setting for the service were ideal, and there was not an empty pew in the church. I am sorry there were not more representatives from our own parish present (2). Your treasurer was most happy to be one of these present and also to be able to place on the plate an offering of $81.44 from the women of Christ Church, Germantown, which was a splendid offering, but only from 29 women which is a very small percentage. Included in the $81.44 was $12.97 from the Mother's Meeting, which was a very fine offering. As the goal for the triennial, Oct. 1st, at New Orleans, is $100,000 to be given by the State of Pennsylvania as a memorial to the late Mrs. George C. Thomas, please keep your blue boxes in a prominent place and be sure to count your blessings. If every woman gives something, be it small or large, we can do much better in October.

E. L. H.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

As Tuesday, May the twenty-sixth, was the last meeting before dispersing for the summer we should like to remind our friends, who have so kindly helped us in many ways, of some things which have been accomplished during the past winter.

Our contribution to the Organ Fund of one hundred dollars as the result of the Bazaar in November was the largest single achievement. From gifts of pieces of cloth from our friends we have been able to have woven and have sold about twenty rag rugs. Tea towels and aprons are always for sale, shoe bags and laundry bags, wash clothes and towels help to keep our treasury in a satisfactory financial state. We are contributing members of the Needle Work Guild and are planning for a large contribution of garments and of money for the Autumn.

At the last meeting it was proposed that we have a day's outing at Willow Grove in the Summer, the date to be decided upon later, notices of which will be mailed to all members in due time.

As a last word we wish to express our great appreciation of the interest and as-istance given us by Dr. Arndt's weekly talks, and the assistance given by Mrs. Rowley, Mrs. Eckersly and Mrs. Alonzo Smith.

A. M. M.

ALTAR GUILD

The committees on duty during the summer months will be as follows:

June 5th to 12th: Misses Dean, Crowder, McHenry.

June 12th to 19th: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Stryke, Higginbotham.

June 19th to 26th: Misses Chase, Smith, Wertsner.

June 26th to July 3rd: Misses Mogridge, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

July 3rd to 10th: Misses Dean, Crowder, McHenry.

July 10th to 17th: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Stryke, Higginbotham.

July 17th to 24th: Misses Chase, Smith, Wertsner.

July 24th to 31st: Misses Mogridge, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

August 1st to 7th: Misses Dean, Crowder, McHenry.

August 7th to 14th: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Stryke, Higginbotham.

August 14th to 21st: Misses Chase, Smith, Wertsner.

August 21st to 28th: Misses Mogridge, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

It will be greatly appreciated if any members of the Parish, who have gardens will send flowers for the Altars.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The following is a resumé of the activities of the Branch for the year 1924 and 1925.

May 4th, 1924—A Membership service was held in the Church when 14 girls were received into full membership and presented with the G. F. S. Pin.

May 29th—A play written by one of our members—"Twas Ever Thus" was given in the Parish House—proceeds to finance our Treasury.

June 4th—A Diocesan Garden Party was held at the Germantown Cricket Grounds. Our Branch in connection with St. Luke's took charge of the sandwich table. The returns from the Garden Party were divided between a Bryn Mawr Scholarship—which is given to one of the members of the Diocese, chosen by vote—and the White Williams Foundation. Branch disbanded for the summer after this party.

October 7th—Season opened with a Mother and Daughter Banquet—about 50 Mothers and Daughters sat down at the table.

October 28th—A dance was given by the Branch.

November 10th—Neighborhood Conference at St. Luke's—Supper, Recreation and Service—Offering for Bontoc Scholarship. This Branch was represented by 17 members and associates, their offering was $3.10.

December—Christmas stocking filled with toys, candy and fruit for the Children of the Philadelphia General Synod—value $8.50 Christmas basket with food and toys carried by the members to a family of seven—Value $13.40.

December 29th—Party for the children of the Haines Street Settlement House, gift for each child.

February 20th, 1925—A Skit given in the Parish House by our "Branch" to raise our quota for 1924—$37.50 for the National Memorial Centre at Washington to commemorate the 50th anniversary in 1928 of the Girl's Friendly Society in America.

April 14th, 1925—Easter baskets taken to our family of seven by the girls.

April 17th—Easter present taken to our new Baby member. Our Lenten work amounting to $18.75 was for Southern Mountaineers.

April 23rd—Annual Meeting at Holy Trinity Church—exhibition of Lenten work in the Parish House—six of our Branch present. Flowers were sent to our sick members as well as those in distress.

June 6th—The Garden Party will be given at the Germantown Cricket Club. To be divided between National Centre fund and the White Williams Foundation.

The Neighborhood Conference next fall will be held at Christ Church November 10th, our Branch being the Hostesses.

During the winter we had several travel talks by friends in the Parish and neighboring Parishes as well as one by our Rector which we all enjoyed very much. We are looking forward to a big year beginning October 6th with great hopes for an enlarged membership, more Associates more Parochial interest, and more general intelligence as to what is meant by THE GIRL'S FRIENDLY SOCIETY.

OUR BOY SCOUT TROOP

Have you stood recently on Belmont Plateau where the fields of Fairmount Park fade away in the Schuylkill below and the distant sky line beyond is saw-toothed with big buildings? If you have, you will agree that Philadelphia is growing by leaps and bounds. Not only has it become difficult to cross Chestnut at 15th but it has also become well nigh impossible to cross Main at Cheltenham Avenue.

Like the slow irresistible onward push of some great glaciers this town is moving upward and outward—and to those of us who live in Germantown there is evidence on every side that the growth is not missing us by a jug full.

To care for this growth not many new churches will be erected. The old churches will prosper as population crowds in towards the open doors.

For example take our Boy Scout Troop. Of course, it is a good troop—one boy comes three miles, others come over five miles to attend it—the dominating factor, however, in its growth is the same commercial and population increase that has become so marked in Philadelphia. New boys grow up or move into our neighborhood and the world wide reputation of Scouting coupled with the natural boy urge to join the best "gang" that he can find brings dozens of these boys to Troop 153. The Troop is full of and fairly bursting with numerical prosperity. Nevertheless we shall be delighted to become acquainted with new boys of the better sort or of the poorer sort; that makes little difference to us, for given time our Troop can soon make any boy into the better sort. We can point to many a case of vast improvement. The call of the wild the hunger for Scout instruction and the desire in every boy's breast to keep himself "morally straight"—if these influences are given fair play they will do wonders. The "rough neck" from the gutter and the mamby pamby sissy fresh from Mother's apron string soon find a democratic level in a Scout troop and it does them both good.

Incidentally, Scouting helps men who enter its "Aristocracy of Merit." Why not join our Scout Fathers' Association! It is doing things for the Troop; Mr. A. S. Hull, Chairman. Consult him for assignment to duty.

So much for the present from Troop 153. Meets in Christ Church Parish House every Monday night. The Troop that progresses. Gratefully enjoying the patronage of Christ Church.

SHALL WE STAND OF FALL?

BY THE REV. W. L. DAVIS

Not long ago one of my people asked me why it was that a certain priest at the presentation of the offering raised the plate above his head. I replied that I did not know, unless it was that he wished to demonstrate to the congregation that its offering was not so heavy but what he could lift it or that, perhaps, he wanted to get it up where God could see it.

I have been in attendance upon services where it took two wardens, two vestrymen and an acolyte, the assistant minister, the Rector and a Bishop to get the offering (?) up onto the altar, while the congregation and the choir vied with one another in singing: "All things come of Thee, O Lord," or "Holy Offerings, rich and rare."

That reminds me of a true story. A number of years ago, when elaborate "presentations" came in vogue, an elderly priest of the Church was officiating in one of the then "up to date" churches, and at the time of the presentation of the alms the choir sang, with great gusto, the aforementioned "All things come of Thee, O Lord."

During the performance the old priest scowling at the plate, and as the choir finished he turned to the congregation with the remark, "Big fuss to make over forty-three cents!"

But seriously, is it not about time that we hear again that much needed offertory sentence: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap."

And for a season—say, until our every parish debt is paid and until our missionary apportionment is met in full—would presentation of our offering, that priest and people alike fall on our knees, with the petition on our lips, "God have mercy on our stingy souls?"

A NEW QUARTER-LAY

The following "classic" has been handed to the "Chimes" for publication. It is dedicated by the author to the reader.

A Quarter is a small amount;
On week-days I'm of small account;
On week-days I can't buy a steak,
Nor at the baker's get a cake;
Can't buy my way into a show,
Nor riding in a taxi go,
In short, on week-days I'm neglected;
By no one, then, am I respected.

On Sundays though, oh bliss! Oh joy!
I am the swellest thing, my boy!
In Church, as I come down the aisle,
I never can repress a smile;
For then I have the highest seat
In the Upper Room where Christians meet:
Where one expects the Saint and Martyr,
Lo, there am I, the lowly Quarter.

THE SUMMER CONFERENCES

That the summer conferences for the training of Church workers met a long felt need has been shown from their very beginning.

The laity, both men and women, old and young are availing themselves in greater numbers every year of the opportunity these conferences afford of "training for leadership."

The first conference was held at Cambridge, Mass., some fifteen years ago. There are now about twenty such conferences held each summer in various parts of the country.

We in Pennsylvania are fortunate in being within a comparatively short distance of several of these conferences.

The Conference for Church Work at Wellesley, Mass., will be this summer from June 22 to July 2.

The Summer School for Church Workers at Princeton, N. J., July 6th to July 17.

The Summer School for Church workers at Geneva, N. Y., July 6th to 17th.

It is hoped that several members of Christ Church Parish may attend these conferences.

Any persons desiring information in regard to the conferences may apply to Miss Bell, 6112 Baynton St., Telephone Ger. 7303.

NOTICE TO ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

It would be a great favor to the Warden and a great benefit to the church if the subscribers through the envelope system, who intend to be away during the summer, will kindly pay in advance before they leave Germantown, the amount of their subscription for the Sundays they expect to be absent. The expenses of the parish have to be met regularly and promptly during the summer months as well as during the winter, and when parishioners leave their weekly subscriptions unpaid for a length of time the Warden who depends upon these payments to meet the expenses of the parish, is compelled to borrow money from the bank and pay interest thereon.

THE COMMISSION ON TEACHER TRAINING

announces the opening of the Fall Term of the Church Normal School on Thursday, October 8th, 1925, in the Church House.

Three groups of classes will be held at 5.15, 6.45 and 7.45 P. M., offering courses helpful to all teachers of American Church Sunday School Lessons and Christian Nurture Series.

Supper will be served at 6.10 P. M. A "popular lecture" course will be given at 8.45 P. M.

Please reserve TEN Thursdays, commencing October 8th.

Have our School well represented. Enroll yourself. Bring others. Cost: One Dollar for each course of ten lessons. Supper fifty cents.

Detailed Prospectus will be issued in September.

For the Commission,
FREDERICK E. SEYMOUR, Chairman.

THE CONVENTION AND CHURCH PAPERS

As the "Chimes" goes to the press the forty-eighth Triennial Convention of the Church is being held in the City of New Orleans. It is impossible, at this writing, to give our readers an adequate account of what has been and is being done at this important gathering of the representatives, both clerical and lay, of the Church.

I have suggested to the members of our Congregation that they subscribe to one of the general Church papers the "Living Church," the "Churchman," or the "Witness," for the period, at least, of the session of the General Convention. It is most important that the members of the Church should have a full and intelligent understanding of the affairs pertaining to the Church, and this cannot be had by reading the daily papers, which are often distorted and misleading in their reports. Bacon, in one of his essays has said, "Reading maketh a full man, conversation a ready man and writing an exact man." Many are very "ready" to talk about things religious and ecclesiastical, but few there are who speak from a full possession of facts or an exact understanding of conditions.

Without the reading of, at least, one of the above mentioned general Church papers, and in addition thereto, of that wonderful Church periodical, "The Spirit of Missions," no member can intelligently understand the conditions and problems of the Church or discuss or "talk" about them.

It is encouraging to learn that there is an increasing number of persons in the Parish who are subscribing to and are regularly reading a general Church paper.

"A friend" has subscribed and paid for a number of copies of the "Witness" for a period of two months, extending over and beyond the time of the meeting of the General Convention.

The "Witness" is published weekly and copies of the paper may be found in the vestibule of the Church each Sunday for gratuitous distribution.

A NEW VOLUME

With this issue of the "Chimes" ends the twenty-fifth volume or consecutive year of its publication. This is a long life for a Parish paper. The members of the Parish have come to take its regular appearance a matter of course. We fear that many do not realize the amount of labor and expense it entails. However, if its publication were to be discontinued it would be very generally and greatly regretted. Its continued publication depends upon the financial help of the members of the Congregation.

All previous subscriptions expire with this number. Will not the members of the Parish send at once their subscriptions and contributions to Mr. Frederick Lennig, 316 High Street, Germantown!

BEGINNING THIS FALL

Now that vacation days are ended, I hope to see all members of Christ Church regularly in their places in the House of God. I trust that each one of us is taking up his life's work again this fall with higher ideals and nobler purposes. The world is calling, as it never called before, for true, unselfish, consecrated men and women. The source of all truth, all unselfish, consecrated service is Christ, and the Church instituted by Christ, is the means the channel by which and through which His life and His power are conveyed. "Without Me," says Christ, "ye can do nothing."

Let us remember this, my friends, and let each one of us resolve this fall to be more regular in our religious duties, more faithful in our Communion, more unselfish and more zealous in our Christian work. I most earnestly pray—yes, let all of us most earnestly pray—that God's Holy Spirit may come with power into each life in this Parish, to arouse the indifferent, to strengthen the weak, to give patience and courage to the faithful that all may be filled more and more with the love of Christ and with the joy of service.

There is one thing that every member can do—that everyone should do—and that is to be a home missionary, to invite and try to influence persons in your neighborhood to attend your Church. There is one member in this Parish who has interested a score of persons in Christ Church and Sunday School. There are others to whom, perhaps, has never occurred the thought that they had the least responsibility of sharing their religion with their neighbor. What a blessing it would bring, both to themselves and to others, if they were alive to this responsibility!

Let every member of Christ Church, therefore, resolve this fall to share with others their religious privileges. Let every member of Christ Church make the following resolution: "I resolve that beginning now, I will make an effort each week to bring at least one person in my neighborhood to Church with me."

Every member can, at least, try to do this much.

By persistent effort and by prayer miracles follow!

ALL SAINTS' DAY

The services on All Saints' Day—November 1st—will be Holy Communion, 7.30 and 11.00 A. M. At the latter service there will be a sermon by the Rector and the names of those who have entered into life eternal during the past year will be read from the chancel and prayer will be said in behalf of the blessed dead. Flowers on the Altar on that day will be "in memory," given by those who desire to send them. After the service they will be sent to the sick in the Parish.

The dead in Christ are not far from us. By this is not meant any false spiritualism, any physical nearness or sound, or sight or touch. That would be only to restore what is most imperfect, and what death was meant to end.

The nearness is that of the deeper, hidden bands which bind the souls of them that love Him together in the Lord Jesus Christ. The body is resting in the grave, but the soul is with Christ. He has drawn it to Himself in a closer union, has poured fuller graces upon it, has washed it in His own blood. It is one with Him in a fuller, deeper sense than ever before. The soul, too, must be gaining in all spiritual powers; it must be growing in love, in humility, in every spiritual grace.

It is surely right to think that it remembers those it loved on earth; that it prays for them; that it is fuller of abounding grace, and worships the eternal God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, as it never worshipped here. And, therefore, in proportion as one on earth grows nearer to Christ he must be growing nearer to his loved ones, who are with Christ in Paradise.

They who are in Christ are also very near to one another in Him; He is their meeting place. The departed is on one side the veil, the living on the other—that is all. Just as when two who love one another here are parted, and hear that they can meet, they hurry as quickly as possible to the place appointed, even so will the mourner try to draw near to the one taken away, by prayer, by good works, by patience, by gentle cheerfulness, and, above all, to “the trysting place of the soul,” the Holy Communion. Whosoever Christ is, there the dead in Christ must be. Thus it is that there must be deep and invisible bonds binding the holy living to the holy dead in Him.

Dr. James DeKoven tells us in his book, entitled, “Inheritance of the Saints,” they are not “dead.” They are living and are awaiting us in Paradise. The reason of man teaches, and Holy Scriptures confirm it, that we shall know one another in that blessed land. We must believe that the dearest ties we have on earth, the things that most lead us unto God, have their fruition in Heaven—not in an earthly way, but divested of all that is weak and poor and frail in them, in a transfigured glory. All our heart and thought and feeling will indeed center in Christ, but these blessed ties will be the steps to the throne on which He sits. In loving any member in His mystical body, we shall only love Him the more who is the Head of it. Thus father and son, mother and daughter, husband and wife, friend with friend, one in Christ, will still be one with each other. Somehow in this world family ties, if they bind the members of the family closely together, serve also to separate the family in that degree, from the rest of the world. In the other life, there will be all the union and none of the separation. The one family of Christ, however much all earthly bonds may find in it their blessed fulfillment, will know no separation, and yet each earthly tie on which God has set the seal of His blessing, will have its distinct place in the eternal oneness.

Thus as we here on earth, seek to draw near to God each step will bring us closer to the soul at rest with God, until at last the veil shall be lifted, and we shall be together with them, one in Christ, even as Christ is one with the Father.

Lord, where Thou art our Holy Dead must be.

Unpierced, as yet, the Sacramental mist;

But we are nearest them and nearest Thee

At solemn Eucharist.

O Lord, we crave for those gone Home to Thee.

For those who made the earthly home so fair;

How little we may know, how little see, Only—that Thou art there.

Dear hands unclasped from ours are clasping Thee;

Thou holdest us for ever in Thy Heart;

So close the One Communion—are we In very truth, apart?

Lord, where Thou art our happy Dead must be;

And if with Thee, what then their boundless bliss!

Till faith be sight; and Hope, reality; Love's Anchorage is this.

MEMORIAL ALTAR FLOWERS

The Altar Society has charge of placing on the Altar the flowers given by members of the Parish in memory of their departed friends. This beautiful custom of remembering at the Altar the dear ones who rest in Paradise has been observed in this Parish for many years, and any in the Parish who wish to have the names of their friends on this “Memorial List” are invited to consult with the Rector, and he will be pleased to assign to them a Sunday nearest to the anniversary of the marriage, or birth, or death of their “Blessed Dead.” After the Sunday Service the flowers are sent to the sick in the Parish or to Hospitals.

On the “days of remembrance” it will be comforting to come to God's House and in His presence recall the loving memory of dear ones whom we have “loved long since and lost awhile”; to kneel before the Altar and to feel their nearness and unite with them and all

God's saints in one common worship—“knit together in one Communion and Fellowship in the Mystical Body of Christ our Lord.”

Persons who wish to have a Sunday for “memorial flowers” may apply to any member of the Altar Guild or to the Rector. Cards, bearing the names of those in whose memory the flowers are given, should always accompany the flowers.

A SERVICE OF INTERCESSORY PRAYER FRIDAY AFTERNOONS

I wish to call attention to the members of Christ Church and others living in this vicinity to the Service of Evening Prayer which is held in Christ Church on Friday afternoons at 5 o'clock.

At this service special intercessory prayer is made on behalf of persons in physical, mental or spiritual need.

Persons who wish special intercessions on their behalf or on behalf of friends are asked to notify the Rector. He may be seen in the Sacristy of the Church half hour before this service on Friday afternoons.

DO WE BELIEVE IN PRAYER

Somebody asked us if we believe in prayer. They might ask if we believe in breathing. A Christian without prayer would be worse than a bird without wings. Prayer! Thank God for prayer for the hundreds of promises which encourage prayer, the answers to prayers recorded in the Bible and for the experiences of the saints of God, which prove that God answers prayer. The first thing we remember in our life is prayer. In the earliest childhood prayer in child-like faith was enjoyed, and through the many years of a Christian life prayer has been the refuge and the delight. To cultivate a constant spirit and attitude of prayer ought to be the aim of every child of God. As we move about, work or rest the heart may be in His presence.

And we believe in the prayer of intercession. Praying one for another and for all the Saints is a blessed privilege. It is one of the joys of our Christian life, to pray for our beloved ones by name and we are conscious that many of God's people mention us before the throne of Grace.

And may we pray for our beloved ones who are with Jesus in Paradise? Certainly! It is comforting to learn that at the last General Convention of our Church, provision was made, in the new revision of our Prayer Book, for prayers for the departed. We all, who have lost loved ones for whom we prayed whilst they were with us on earth, cannot cease our prayers for them, now that they are no longer with us in the flesh. They are still close to us when we are in Communion with Jesus. Why should we not pray for them? Our hearts cannot help going out to them and for them in prayer. And they!—surely they, who loved us here, and prayed for us love us still and are praying for us now, that they are in the fuller presence of Jesus.

Tennyson beautifully expresses this thought:

“How can I cease to pray for thee? Somewhere

In God's great universe thou art today. Can He not reach thee with His tender care? Can He not hear me when for thee I pray? What matters it to Him who holds within

The hollow of His hand all worlds, all space.

That thou art done with earthly pain and sin?

Somewhere within His ken thou hast a place.

Somewhere thou livest, and hast need of Him;

Somewhere thy soul sees higher heights to climb;

And somewhere still, there may be valleys dim

That thou must pass, to reach the hills sublime.

Then all the more because thou canst not hear

Poor human words of blessing will I pray—O true, brave heart! God bless thee! where-so'er

In His great universe thou art today!”

CONSECRATION OF OUR NEW ORGAN

While we are endeavoring through a series of recitals to have the public appreciate the worth of our new organ, we must not lose sight of the fact that we desire at the earliest possible date to have it formally consecrated.

Before this can take place, it must be entirely paid for. In addition to all the payments that have been made and all the pledges that are yet to be paid, there will be about nine hundred dollars that must be raised. This is a very small amount compared with the entire cost of the organ. There are many in the Congregation who have not yet subscribed to the Organ Fund and there are some who might be willing to increase the subscriptions which they have previously made, so that this comparatively small balance may be realized. Shall we not have a quick response so that our organ may be considered from an ecclesiastical point of view as without blemish—an integral part of God's House?

T. H. C.

MONTHLY ORGAN RECITALS FIRST SUNDAY EVENING EACH MONTH

The next organ recital on the new Hall organ of Christ Church will be given on Sunday evening, November 1st (All Saints' Day), at 7.45 o'clock.

An exceptionally fine programme will be presented.

Frank Haenle, formerly organist of St. Mary's Church, New York City, will be the organist.

Mr. Haenle is well known in Philadelphia musical circles and has been heard at the organs of many of our Churches.

He will be assisted by his sister, Florence Haenle, Violinist.

Miss Haenle is the Concertmaster of the Woman's Symphony Orchestra and is one of our most distinguished Violinists.

The Vocalist will be Elizabeth Brower, Contralto, of Christ Church Choir.

The programme will be of such a character as to commend itself to all music lovers.

Seats are free and all are invited.

PROGRAM FOR THE NOVEMBER ORGAN RECITAL

The program for the second in the series of monthly organ recitals to be given on our new organ each month will be as follows: Sunday evening, November 1st (All Saints' Day) at 7.45.

Frank Haenle, Organist—formerly organist of St. Mary's Church, New York City.

Florence Haenle, Violinist—concert master Woman's Symphony Orchestra.

Elizabeth Brower, Vocalist—contralto in Christ Church Choir.

1. Sonata Felix Borowki
 - a. Allegro in non Troppo
 - b. Andante
 - c. Allegro Confuoco

2. Prelude to "The Deluge"

C. Saint Saens

Florence Haenle

3. "O Rest in the Lord".... Mendelssohn

Elizabeth Brower

4. Meditation Ralph Kinder

5. Allegretto W. Wolstenholme

6. Romanza in C Minor

H. Alex. Matthews

7. Abide with Me S. Liddell

Elizabeth Brower

8. Scherzoso in D Minor

R. Huntingdon Woodman

In addition to the above musical program, familiar hymns, appropriate to All Saints' Day, will be sung by the congregation.

A cordial invitation is extended to all persons in this vicinity.

Pews in Christ Church, at all services are free and unassigned.

CHOIR NOTES

Since the last issue of THE CHIMES there have been two new additions to the Choir: Miss Rosine Sundelius, soprano soloist, and Mrs. Rosemaire Lott, who comes from Trinity Memorial Church, Ambler. We extend to both of them a cordial welcome.

On October 12th, Miss Gertrude Brownlee, a member of our Choir, was united in Holy Matrimony by our Rector to Mr. Lloyd F. Ford. The members of the choir wish her a very happy and prosperous married life.

The Choir Master will be pleased to receive applicants for the Choir, either male or female, and will give them a hearing for membership in the Choir.

—Owen J. W. Burness, Choirmaster.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our School opened on September 20th, which was "Rally Day." After a brief session we marched into Church for a Special Service, which was very inspiring.

We have lost several teachers, who were unable to take up their work this fall. Among them Miss Thompson, Mrs. Aulenbach, Mrs. Clausen, Miss Bell and Miss Dedier also Miss Gerhard, who asked to be placed on the "Supply List," as she was going to be often absent.

We regret very much they cannot be with us this year.

We are glad to welcome as new teachers Miss Gertrude Feist, Miss Jacoby, Miss Morgan, Mr. Melville, Miss Seitz and Miss Irwin.

Our attendance is not as large as for corresponding Sundays last year, but it is hoped that after a personal visit by the teacher each scholar who has not as yet attended will return to our fold.

The Winter's work has not yet been laid out, owing to the many changes in the teachers, but we hope in the next issue of the "Chimes" to be able to state our program.

The attendance at Church by the School during the Summer months was very good, more than last year.

Most of the School have made up their envelope subscription due to absences in Summer, and we hope to be nearly 100 per cent. by November 1st. R. H. M.

NOTICE

Last Spring, several members of the Church made a yearly subscription through Sunday School scholars to "The Spirit of Missions." The money was received, but the list of names was accidentally destroyed. Will those who subscribed kindly send their names and addresses to the Rector or to the undersigned, so that the magazine may be sent them?

Richard H. Morris,
6604 Wayne Ave.

CLOTHING FOR THE POOR

Worn clothing, outer or under garments, is solicited from members of the Parish for worthy persons in need. The clothing may be sent to the Parish House in care of the sexton, and will be gratefully received.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary has a very busy winter ahead of it. We must raise $380 before the first of January toward our quota for Missions. As a means to this end a motion picture benefit is in progress.

On the 12th of November we are going to have a Rummage Sale.

Will every one please save us anything for which they have no further use and send it to the Parish House before the 12th of November? If you cannot bring it yourself kindly notify Mrs. Frank Wells, 244 W. Hortter St., (Phone, Ger. 8884) and it will be called for.

The sewing section of the Auxiliary will continue to hold its meetings on the third Monday of each month. We are in great need of someone to take charge of this most important work. Isn't there someone who will volunteer to undertake it? If so, get in touch with our President, Mrs. T. P. Robinson, 148 E. Washington Lane.

We are sending out an urgent plea for more women to come to our meetings and help us in this great work. The meetings are held in the Parish House on the first Monday of each month at two o'clock. A. F. W.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY PARLOR

For a long while the Woman's Auxiliary of the Parish has very much felt the need of a "Woman's Auxiliary Room," or parlor where all our meetings could be held. In the past we have had to utilize any room which at the time was available. This has not been at all satisfactory. Consequently, we have decided to try to furnish the room nearest the Church as a "Parlor."

Such a room would be of great advantage not only to the Woman's Auxiliary, but to the entire Parish, particularly at times of Special Meetings and Receptions.

The furnishing of the room and repairing the floor will cost approximately three hundred dollars ($300.00).

At the present time we have less than $5.00 toward this object. We are having a desk and a small sofa repaired, and three members of the Auxiliary have given pieces of suitable furniture. Of course, all of this must harmonize in color. We are greatly in need of a walnut bookcase with glass doors and a large center table. We would like to have this room completed by January 1st, 1926 and immediate co-operation on your part is essential in order to carry out our plans. Contributions of money may be given to the Rector or to the writer. Even small amounts will be much appreciated.

Mrs. L. M. Robinson,
President, Woman's Auxiliary.
Phone, Gtn. 7756.

ST. CHRISTOPHER'S GUILD

The St. Christopher's Guild held their regular Fall meeting at the Rectory. New members were taken in and plans and a program were laid out for the coming year.

During the month of October Arthur Hallock is Crucifer for the morning services and Bradford Hull for the evenings. For November, John Byers will take the morning services and Granville Klink the evening services. The new members who were taken into the Guild this year are: Bradford Hull, John Byers, Granville Klink and James Maloney.

The next meeting of the Guild will be on Monday evening, October 26th.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild is somewhat handicapped due to the necessary resignation of several of its members. If there are any in the Parish who would be interested in joining and feel that they could give the necessary time, we wish they would consult with Dr. Arndt.

We are always grateful for the contribution of flowers for the altars, or of money to purchase them.

The following committees will be on duty during the coming month:

October 30th to November 6th: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Stryke, Higginbotham.

November 6th to 13th: Misses Chase, Wertsner.

November 13th to 20th: Misses Mogridge, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

November 20th to 27th: Misses Dean, Crowder, McHenry.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

The United Thank Offering sent to Mrs. Hollingsworth, the diocesan treasurer, from Christ Church, during the past year, to be presented at the Triennial Convention, at New Orleans, amounted to $160.00. The names of those contributing through the year are:

Mrs. Henry S. Abel
Mrs. Charles Henry Arndt
Mrs. Bruce
Mrs. Ernest Blood
Miss L. E. Bell
Mrs. Edward Bains
Mrs. Walter Crowder
Mrs. T. H. Carmichael
Mrs. H. A. Cannon
Mrs. J. Harry Clifton
Miss E. Demuth
Mrs. A. Flower
Mrs. Samuel L. Gerhard
Miss Grace Gerhard
Mrs. Hallock
Mrs. Charles Heyer
Mrs. William N. Johnson
Mrs. Topliff Johnson
Miss Elizabeth M. Keule
Mrs. J. I. Morrison
Mrs. H. Cresson McHenry
Mrs. Florence Merwin
Mrs. Randolph
Mrs. W. G. Rowley
Mrs. Reese
Mrs. Alfred C. Sands
Mrs. Alonzo Smith
Miss Stickney
Mrs. C. W. Sutcliffe

Mrs. T. B. Robinson
Mrs. Frank Wells
Mrs. J. M. Woodroffe
Mrs. Ellen Wilcox
Miss L. Wilson
Mrs. George S. Wertsner

Besides the mothers' meeting, whose names are not in the list, as they contribute collectively. As the offering is again collected and presented in the spring, we hope to have many more contributors. It is an unusual opportunity to assist in an unusual work in an unusual way. If you haven't a blue box, please ask the Parish Thank Offering Treasurer for one. E. L. H.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

Twenty-five young people came out on Sunday for our get-together meeting! This was indeed an encouraging number. Those who did not come missed an interesting time. Rev. Nathaniel Groton, the councillor for the Young People in this diocese spoke to us. Then Mr. Dallas from Jenkintown Y. P. F. told us how they conduct their meetings, and gave us some interesting suggestions.

Sunday, October 28th, is our organization meeting. All the young people in the Sunday School, and their friends over fifteen are urged to come out and help us elect our officers.

—Helen McHenry.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

On October 4th, 1925, nineteen members of the Men's Bible Class took their second annual visitation to Birdsboro, Penna. to visit Rev. A. B. Vossler, our former teacher. Although the day was rainy we had a very pleasant trip and enjoyed a box lunch, with coffee and ice cream served in the Parish House.

On Friday evening, October 30th, we are giving "An Olde Tyme Hallowe'en Party," to which all are invited to have a good time. Dr. Courtney is chairman of this Committee, so we know it is going to be a success.

Basketball teams are being organized to represent Christ Church in the newly formed league of Germantown, Mt. Airy and Chestnut Hill Churches.

An invitation is extended to all men of the Parish and their friends to become members of the Men's Bible Class, as we believe they will profit by the exceptionally strong and able presentation of lessons our teacher, Colonel Sheldon Potter, always gives us.

Last Sunday we had the pleasure of having Dr. Arndt conduct our Class. Our new officers have started a campaign for new members, and we hope in the near future to have a much larger weekly attendance than we have had in the past.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

The first meeting of the season was a little earlier than usual. October 6th, but almost everyone was present and glad to greet old friends and to welcome the newer members of our group.

The greatest change to be seen was in our youngest members. Those who were infants last year walking about and investigating all the interesting objects in the room. It is wonderful what a change a few months make when one's age is counted in months, not years.

Mothers with young children are cordially welcome to our meetings, as we think they are the ones most benefited by a pleasant afternoon among congenial friends.

We are glad to have with us this year again Mrs. Rowley and Mrs. Smith, and are hoping to have Mrs. Eckerly also.

We are not quite ready to announce our plans for the Winter, but we are sure that our meetings will be both pleasant and profitable. A. M. M.

MISS BELL'S RESIGNATION

We regret to report that Miss Bell, our Parish Worker, will not be with us next year. She has resigned to accept a position as teacher at the Institute for the Deaf in Trenton, N. J. During her term of service in Christ Church she made hosts of friends, who will greatly miss her. All join in a sincere wish and prayer that she may be successful and happy in her new work.

The following is a copy of Miss Bell's letter of resignation to the Rector:

June 1, 1925.

Germanstown.

Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, D. D.,
59 West Tulpehocken Street
Germanstown Pa.

My dear Dr. Arndt:

It is with a feeling of deep regret that I tender you my resignation as Parish Worker of Christ Church Germanstown, to take effect September 1st, 1925.

My relations with yourself and with the parishioners generally have been so pleasant that it is hard for me to take this step, and I have been brought to do so only by the stern necessity of accepting a position which will enable me to meet certain obligations which I could not meet were I to remain.

With deep appreciation of the hearty co-operation which has been given me in every undertaking during my stay in the Parish, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Laura E. Bell.

G. F. S.

Christ Church,
Germanstown.

The Girls' Friendly of Christ Church of Germanstown opened its season of 1925 and 1926 with a banquet for the mothers and daughters of its membership. The big old Gym looked very festive as 42 mothers and their daughters sat down to candle lighted, autumn-leaved decorated tables.

We had a most delicious repast which was prepared by the associates and members of the Branch—with some very generous contributions by two of our very good friends in the Parish. Mrs. Sheldon Potter and Mrs. Eckersley had the responsibility of the kitchen and the tables were served by five girls of Miss Grace Gerhard's Sunday School Class.

Permit us to here record our thanks and deep appreciation to these good people for this wonderful service. Miss Edna Naegele presided. The President made her usual speech of welcome, inviting the mothers to visit us at our meetings any Tuesday night. Dr. Arndt, who by the way is our president ex-officio, was with us through the dinner and made some very telling remarks on the relationship of mothers and daughters.

The Associates gave a very amusing stunt—"The Three Blind Mice"—and the committee on entertainment broke the ice, if there was any, by gathering mothers and daughters into games.

Our Program for the winter is lined up ready for the approval of the Committee. We hope to have several forums, some travel talks, social service work and a drive for membership. Also something must be done to raise money for our efforts—the treasury is dry and empty.

The Neighborhood Conference will be held in Christ Church November 24th. This means to entertain all the G. F. S. organizations in the Convocation of Germanstown.

Remember us in your prayers—send us new members as well as Associates and Honorary Associates.

BOY SCOUTS

Philadelphia certainly is a big city—people with small vision thought that by this time labor would be all upset and real estate skyrocketing because of the Sesqui-Centennial—that would be true if Philadelphia were as small as Dayton, Tennessee.

Events large and small go on right under our noses without causing a ripple. How many people in Christ Church know that a Boy Scout Troop meets in the Parish House Monday nights, and that it is as prosperous as a three-million-dollar share per day Stock Exchange? The Troop opened up this fall with the largest attendance ever. The fall hikes were a howling success. As for the Father's Association, well, words can't describe it. It is practical, enthusiastic, active. In brief it works. These men join the hikes, help out with their cars on long distance work, run the Fathers' and Sons' Banquet and make themselves useful in general. Like the tires on an automobile, we could do without them but things would not run as smoothly.

Join our Troop. We are full, so don't come too fast. Our mailing list has over one hundred and fifty names on it already. Some of these have graduated into college or the like.

So you see, while we used to be just a Troop we have become a Troop with a long tradition. It is pleasant to be associated with something that is pre-eminently successful. The Rector and many friends of the Parish have added materially to our success. We are most grateful.

ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

Subscribers through the envelope system, who have been away during the summer, are very generally paying the amounts that they have omitted giving during their absence. It is very gratifying to the Warden to receive these arrears, as he depends upon them to meet his financial obligations.

It is hoped that all subscribers who may be in arrears will kindly make them up at their earliest convenience.

SERVICES ON THANKSGIVING DAY

The Services on Thanksgiving Day, November 26th, will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7.30 A. M.; Morning Prayer with Special Service of "Prayer and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the fruits of the earth, and all other blessings for His merciful Providence" (Prayer Book, page 319) will be held at 11 o'clock.

The offering at both services will be for the Episcopal Hospital.

The following has been sent to the "Chimes," with a request that it be published:

A CREED FOR MOTHERS

I believe in little children as the most precious gift of Heaven to earth.

I believe they have immortal souls created in the image of God.

I believe that in every child there are infinite possibilities for good or evil, and that the kind of influences with which we surround their early childhood largely determines their future character.

I believe in play as the child's normal effort to understand himself through free self-expression.

I believe, too, in work suitable to childhood, and that the joy in doing such work should come to the child largely from the doing of it WELL.

I believe in wisely directing, rather than stifling activity.

I believe in inspiring the child to choose the good, the true, and the beautiful, and to contribute to the happiness of others by word and deed and gift.

I believe that in all these things my example counts for more than my precept.

I believe in cultivating the intellect and the will, but I believe, too, in soul culture, and that out of this cultivation comes the more abundant life, bringing forth the fruits of the Spirit—kindness, gentleness, joy, peace, truth, hope, faith, love, reverence for God, respect for age, consideration for each other and thoughtfulness for all God's lowly creatures.

I believe that the calling of motherhood is the holiest and should be the happiest of all earth's tasks.

I believe that the Christ who was once Himself a child, born of a human mother, is the one never-failing source of help for perplexed, discouraged or wearied motherhood.

Since to this work, Father, Thou hast called me, help me to give to it all that Thou hast given me of insight and wisdom and strength and love and gentleness and patience and forgiveness.

A CREED

"I will be true, for there are those who trust me;
I will be pure, for there are those who care;
I will be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I will be brave, for there is much to dare;
I will be friend to all the poor and friendless;
I will be giving and forget the gift;
I will be humble, for I know my weakness;
I will look up, and laugh, and love, and lift."

OUR GREATEST ASSETS

By the Bishop of Kentucky

What are our assets? We look upon them as property, possessions, something through which we can liquidate our obligations. There is danger of limiting our definition to a commercial conception of this term. Viewed truly and intelligently, our greatest assets are our children, through whom we are to discharge our obligations to posterity. If we fail in meeting what we owe to our children, in keeping our obligations to them, then our assets become our liabilities.

Child welfare is one of the great social and spiritual awakenings of the age, and so important a matter as this should arouse our deepest interest. We owe to the child every safeguard, every opportunity to complete its life, and every advantage to attain moral and spiritual growth which lie within our power to provide. The protection of the child against disease, preventable vice, preventable social and industrial injustice by personal attention to hygiene, sanitation, better environment and interest in child labor, are small outlays on our part, considering the benefit to be derived by the child itself. If we are going to make a man out of the child, let us begin by giving it a good start in health, in physique, and in prospect.

We aim at something higher, however, than success in health and bone and muscle. These might make a healthy animal, but we go further and cultivate them as the foundations upon which to build the man. We should strive to provide for our children the best opportunity for an education, the best public schools, vocational or trade schools and, as ninety per cent. of our children leave school at fourteen years of age, we should seek to establish continuation schools. Our modern education is a failure unless it trains a child to meet life and fit that child for greater social and industrial efficiency.

Having attained this, we have only begun. We need to take this, and all that follows, more seriously. From this starting point let us go forward another step, and that is to assure to our children a moral education and equipment to meet the battle of life. We surround our children with many things needful, lavish time, thought and expenditure upon them for intellectual development and then leave them to grow up exposed to the lurking dangers to which they are daily exposed. The child is given the advantage of our schools and too often left to gain, unaided, its experiences of life. No false modesty should keep us from the solemn duty of teaching a child, our child, the great lessons of purity, the sacredness of the body, the dangers which threaten the untutored beginner of life. In our hesitation, our culpable silence, the very things which we dread most become, all too soon, known to the child. Sometimes in innocence of the evil, and often in ignorance of the dangers, our children are left to work out, not their own salvation, but their ruin.

CHRIST CHURCH

Tulpehocken and McCallum Sts.

Rector, REV. CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, D. D.

The Rector's Notes

The Rector's Office Hours 8.00 to 9.00 A. M. Daily
6.00 to 7.00 P. M. Daily At Home Saturday Evenings

HOLY COMMUNION AT MIDNIGHT ON CHRISTMAS EVE

A Celebration of the Holy Communion will be held on Christmas Eve, December 24th. The Service will be preceded by the singing of Christmas Carols at 11.15. The Communion Service will begin promptly at 11.30.

SERVICES ON CHRISTMAS DAY

The Services on Christmas Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion, 6.30 and 7.30 A. M.
Holy Communion, preceded by shortened Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11.00 A. M.

The Offering at all Services on Christmas Day will be for our Parish Quota for the Clergy Pension Fund (formerly called the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund).

The Rector will be assisted on Christmas Day by the Rev. William H. Cavanaugh.

CHRISTMAS

In our observance of Christmas we should not lose sight of the religious character of the day. It should be clearly borne in mind that Christmas is not a secular feast, but is distinctively a religious festival. The Day should, therefore, not be wholly given over to festivities and amusements, as harmless as these may be in themselves but should be observed in a manner befitting its sacred associations. It should be a day of joyfulness, of holy Christmas joyfulness, but not of frivolity. Well may this Day, on which the child Jesus was born, be a day peculiarly joyful to children, and the season of the happy gathering of families with father, mother and children worshipping together in the House of God "of sending portions to those for whom nothing is prepared"; of gifts to the poor and of good-will to all men. This should be the spirit of Christmas, and the feasting, the merriment and the amusement must not be put in place of these. In other words, the religious observance of the Day must come first and be paramount in importance, or else the whole meaning of Christmas is lost. On the first Christmas morn "there was no room for Christ in the inn." Is there not danger today that we, too, will deny Him room; that our hearts and minds and the hearts and minds of the children will be crowded full of the pleasures and occupations of the world and there will be found no room for Christ? Let each one, therefore, bear in mind the religious significance of Christmas Day and come to God's House and kneel before Him, and worship Him, Emmanuel, God with us.

LOVE—THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

The word that is above every other word at Christmas is the word—Love! It is the center and the circumference of Christmas. Of all the good news that could be brought to the world, what news so good as this? "Behold I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the City of David—a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord!"

God's love to man, man's love to God, man's love to one another—this is the Christmas message: Love, Love, Love!

"God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son." "If God so loved us, we ought also, to love one another."

3

At this Christmas season, this season of Love the Apostle's command must be literally obeyed, or the true spirit of Christmas cannot enter into our hearts. "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice; and be ye kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God, for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

If this be the spirit, "the Spirit of Jesus," that shall possess our hearts this Christmas-tide, then, it will be, indeed, a very happy a truly happy Christmas!

CHRISTMAS MUSIC

The music on Christmas Day at the Mid-Day Services will be as follows:

Processional Hymn 72—"O Come All Ye Faithful" Venita
"Venite" Goodson
"Glorias" Goodson
"Te Deum," b flat Striner
"Communion Service in F" Tours
Office Hymn 80—"Angels from the Realm of Glory."

Anthem—"It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," with Soprano Solo—"Obligato" Sullivan
Recessional Hymn 73—"Hark, the Herald Angels Sing."

The Church School Christmas Carol Service will be held in the Church on Sunday afternoon (Sunday after Christmas), December 27th, at three thirty o'clock.

The usual Evening Service will be omitted on this Sunday.

TO THE MEMBERS OF CHRIST CHURCH

My dear People:

At this time, when the Parish enters upon a new fiscal year, it is due to the members to know the condition of the financial affairs of the Church. The Finance Committee of the Vestry has, therefore, addressed a letter to the parishioners which appears in another column of this issue of the "Chimes." It should be read by everyone.

It is probably known to all that the change in policy from the renting of pews to a Church with all sittings and pews free has placed the responsibility for financial support of the Church and its work upon everyone who claims membership therein. The entire income, excepting that from legacies is derived from pledged or free-will offerings.

Everyone should realize that the Church, while nominally in the care of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, is only in their care as Trustees for the members and the Church is the medium through which the Kingdom of God is extended upon earth.

For the coming year the expenses for maintaining the Parish property and continuing the services and the work of the Parish are estimated at $13,000.00, and for the work of the Church in spreading Christ's Gospel among all people as assigned to the Parish by the Executive Council, $4,600.00, a total of $17,600.00. Last year our quota or "expectation" for Missionary work assigned to us was $4,500.00.

I am justly proud to say that, notwithstanding the extraordinary expense incurred during the past year by the installation of our new organ in Christ Episcopal Church (toward which the total received to date in cash and pledges amounts to over $19,000.00) this has not been at the sacrifice of our gifts to Missions. On the other hand, we have given to Missions during the past year more than was ever given in one year in the history of the Parish—a little more than the quota assigned to us. Not that everyone has done his or her full share—and in this I am saddened and disappointed; but a large number have risen to their personal responsibility and given generously. For this I am justly proud and profoundly thankful! I am confident that by these generous givers remaining faithful to their trust and by an increased number of "the others," who this year will surely be impressed with a sense of personal responsibility and privilege to share in the work of the Church joining the ranks of the loyal supporters, this coming year is full of promise.

We hear and will heed the command given by Jehovah to His chosen people: "Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward!"

We will go forward—God helping us!
Everyone in Christ Church will do his duty!

Faithfully yours,
Charles Henry Arnold.

Pledge cards may be found in the racks in the vestibule of the Church. It is hoped that every member of every family in the Parish will take one of these cards. Check up the amount on each side of the card that each person can afford to give, sign name and address and place the card in the alms plate at any service, or send it to the Rector or Accounting Warden. A package of envelopes for weekly offerings will then be sent to you. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector or Warden. We want to aim to make Christ Church this year a 100 per cent. giving Parish! It can be done!

The financial needs of the Parish will be fully met and the Church's Missions, not only to far-off lands, but to our own diocese and city, will be fulfilled if everyone will follow the apostle's command: "Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver."

LETTER FROM THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

The fiscal year of the Parish ends on December 31st. At that time all subscriptions through the envelopes should be paid in full, and subscriptions should be renewed for the coming year.

The Finance Committee of the Vestry addresses the following letter to all members of Christ Church:

December 4, 1925.

Dear Fellow Parishioners:

We are all interested in our parish and wish to aid in its support, but, perhaps, are not sufficiently informed of the cost of maintaining the Church property and carrying on its work.

We have about 600 communicants, of which about 300 only have subscribed to the support of the Parish, and not all of these have contributed the amount subscribed. These 300 subscribers have given $5200, during the eleven completed months during the current year. The plate collections which represent the contributions of the remaining 300, as well as of some who are subscribers and others who are visitors, amounted in the same period to $700.

It would appear that our deficit for the current year will be about $1700. Is it not possible that the 300 members who do not subscribe and those who, having subscribed, have not paid their subscription can contribute the balance of the money necessary to meet the requirements of our budget by subscription to the envelope collection for the coming year?

We ask your co-operation.

Faithfully yours

William N. Johnson

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR CHRISTMAS GREENS

Persons who wish to contribute toward the expense of purchasing holly and laurel for the decoration of this Church for the Christmas season are asked to give or send their contributions to Mr. William Clausen Jr., 502 West Mt. Airy Ave. or to the Rector.

The work of decorating is done by the young men of the Parish, as a labor of love.

CHURCH OPEN ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

There will be no midnight service this year in the Church on New Year's Eve, but the Church will be open all evening until midnight for private prayer and devotions.

At midnight the Rector will be in the Church and will say with any who may be present the Litany, together with special prayers and intercessions appropriate for the passing of the old and the coming in of the New Year.

CHURCH CALENDAR FOR 1926

The Church Calendars issued each year are now ready for 1926, and may be purchased from the Verger at fifty cents each. The Church's seasons and Holy Days are marked with their appropriate colors and the Scriptural Lessons for the Sundays throughout the year.

These Calendars are suitable for Christmas and New Year gifts, and should be in every family.

NEXT MONTHLY ORGAN RECITAL SUNDAY EVENING, JANUARY 3rd

The Fourth Organ Recital on the new Hall Organ will be given in Christ Church on Sunday evening, January 3rd 1926, at 7.45 o'clock.

On this occasion the Organist will be Mr. Harry S. Banks, Jr., Organist of Girard College and the Vocalist will be Mr. Frederick A. Heuer, Bass.

These Recitals have been steadily increasing in interest and popularity, as evidenced by the large number in attendance.

The Programme on January 3rd promises to be of unusual interest.

A shortened form of Evening Prayer is said, several hymns are sung and the Recital takes the place of the sermon. The whole service lasts but little over one hour.

Come and bring your friends.

CHURCH SCHOOL CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE

The Christmas Carol Service of the Church Schools will be held in the Church on Sunday after Christmas, December 27th, at half-past three o'clock.

The Christmas Entertainments for the Schools will be held on Tuesday December 29th. Santa Claus will visit the Primary Department Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, and asks that all his little children be present promptly at that hour, as he is so busy he will not be able to stay long, and does not want to miss any little child of Christ Church School.

The Upper Schools will hold their Entertainment on the evening of the same day at 8 o'clock—sharp.

Parents of the young people are invited to this Church Service on Sunday afternoon and to the Entertainment.

A NEW VERGER

Robert Todd verger of Christ Church, has moved to the city and has resigned his position in Christ Church. Arthur Powers has been appointed in his place and has taken up his duties.

CONFIRMATION CLASS FORMING

The Bishop of the Diocese has notified the Rector that he has appointed Maundy Thursday evening for the Bishop's annual visitation to the Parish to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation.

The Rector invites all persons who are contemplating Confirmation to give their names to him as soon as possible.

A course of instruction on Confirmation and the teachings of the Church will be begun early in the year.

TO THE MEN OF OUR PARISH AND THIS VICINITY

It is reasonable to believe that a large number of men of Christ Church and this vicinity are not aware that we have a wonderful Men's Bible Class and that a rare opportunity is given to them to hear Colonel Sheldon Potter teach the Class every Sunday morning at a quarter to ten o'clock in the gymnasium in the Parish House.

Every man, old and young—we all keep young in this Class—who reads this article, is invited to connect himself with this Bible Class. I would be glad if he would give or send me his name. You will be assured a cordial welcome at the Class. Every Sunday morning at 9.45.

Frederick Lennig, President,
364 High Street.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

During the swiftly passing weeks we have been busily preparing for our Christmas Sale. We disposed of enough aprons, rugs, towels and other useful articles to hand over a tidy little sum for the furnishing of the Women's Room in the Parish House.

We were recently favored by an afternoon of music by the kindness of Mrs. Mogridge and Miss Mogridge. It was greatly enjoyed, and we wish we might be favored by some of our other talented friends in the Parish.

The next event on our calendar is the Annual Dinner as early in the New Year as possible. Postals announcing the date will be sent to all the Mothers, and we are sure to have a fine time.

A. M. M.

A NEW PARISH WORKER

Miss Alice M. Preston has been engaged as Parish Worker at Christ Church, and entered upon her duties November 1st.

Miss Preston is a member of St. John's Parish, Athol, Massachusetts. Miss Preston took a course of study in the Deaconess' House, in Philadelphia, and for several years has been engaged in work among the Missions, under the Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Davis, Bishop of Western Massachusetts.

We extend to Miss Preston a very cordial welcome to Christ Church.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

Within the past month we have made rapid strides forward in the Young People's Fellowship of Christ Church, and can now boast of at least thirty-five active members.

On November 16th we attended a Convention of the organization held at St. Paul's Memorial Church, South Philadelphia. This Convention was a great success. Bishop Garland and several well-known Clergymen throughout the city were present. Our Fellowship was very well represented, sending a delegation of eleven members, and we were formally admitted to the Young People's Fellowship Guild of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

On Sunday evening, November 28th a Fellowship Service for Young People was held in our Church. The service was taken charge of by the Fellowship. Richard Sutcliffe, one of our members, was lay reader, and two members took up the offering.

Rev. Stanley Wilcox, Rector of St. Paul's Memorial Church, Philadelphia, a former member of our Church School was the selected preacher on the occasion, and preached a practical and inspiring sermon.

We are now permanently organized and everyone between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five is invited to attend our meetings and join our Fellowship. Our meetings are both interesting and helpful, and all young people are cordially invited to come around and see what we are doing.

Don't forget the time, 6.45 every Sunday evening in the Parish House.

James L. Malony,
Secretary.

THE CHURCHMAN'S KALENDAR

During the past week the Daughters of the King of our Parish have sent to each family in Christ Church a copy of "The Churchman's Kalendar." This Kalendar arranges for short daily Bible readings with notes. From Advent to Trinity they are based on the Gospel for the week, and during Trinity season they "form a course on the gradual revelation of the character of God as found in the Hebrew literature of the Old Testament, and the complete and perfect revelation of God in Christ as given in the New Testament.

The readings and notes are compiled by Bishops and Clergy noted for their knowledge of the Bible and their deep spirituality. They have given us an opportunity for the reading of the Bible by a most helpful and inspiring method

It is hoped that the members of our Congregation will use these readings systematically. If this is done we feel sure that at the end of the year, you will be well repaid, in a better knowledge of the Bible—the "Book of Books," and in the help which you will receive by the daily reading of the Word of God. If any family in the Parish has not received a copy of this very helpful course of Bible Reading, the Rector will be pleased to supply a copy, if application is made to him.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

The Chapter held its first meeting since the summer on November 16. At this time new officers were chosen for the coming year, as follows:

President, Miss Emma A. Crowder.
Vice President, Mrs. Samuel L. Gerhard.

Secretary, Mrs. Richard G. McIver.
Treasurer, Mrs. Arthur T. Hallock.

At the next meeting (December 21st) it is hoped to make plans to revive the activities of this branch of Parish life in its work of prayer and service. New members will be most welcome, that the organization may widen its usefulness and thus deepen the spiritual life among our Church women.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY OF CHRIST CHURCH

The Girls' Friendly Society held its regular weekly meeting Thursday evening, November 12th, at 8 o'clock.

The night for meeting has been changed from Tuesday to Thursday, owing to the fact that a number of our members are taking courses in higher education which happened to fall on the night of our meeting, so we changed, and have been glad ever since, as all these girls have brightened our meetings and helped our plans.

On Tuesday November 24th, the Neighborhood Conference of the Friendly Society, which means a representative from each Parish in Germantown and the outlying Districts, met at Christ Church. Supper was served from 5.30 to 7, after which there was a recreation hour until 8, which consisted of folk dancing by a member of the Calvary Candidate Branch and Story Telling. From 8 to 9 was the conference, which was opened by Dr. Arndt with prayer and a few words of welcome to the Brauches. Miss Maul, the Diocesan President, told of her experience at the World's Conference of the Girls' Friendly in London, with a service in Westminster Abbey, where every Girls' Friendly Society in the world was represented, many in their native costumes. Miss Paul, the Diocesan Treasurer, called the roll, which numbered present 183 representatives from 9 Parishes. The remainder of the evening was turned over to Mr. Valeria Parke, from New York, who told us the "Story of Life," in such telling, simple, beautiful and idealistic words, that the vision of everyone in the room was lifted to the highest point of desire and realization.

On December 3rd we had an evening with the contemporary poets, with a good turnout of members, even though we had what we call regular "friendly weather."

December 10th will be our Business Meeting, after which we will have an evening of song, led by our musical members Grace Gerhart, with the baton, and Beatrice Spooner, at the piano.

December 17th—The Charm School will open with the Charm of Dress.

December 21st there will be an extra meeting to fill stockings for the children in the wards of the Municipal Hospital, and also to collect the money for a Christmas dinner for a family in which we have been interested for some time. It is also the intention to visit the Germantown Community Center and give the children a party during Christmas week.

Saturday afternoon sight-seeing tours are being planned, visiting different places of interest in the city.

Some of the athletes in our group are busy forming a Basketball Team, with practice every Wednesday evening. An invitation has been extended to any of the Sunday School girls to come out and join us. Come out, girls and show us some "peppy" work, and we may soon be a champion team, who can tell?

These plans look well on paper, but they will be failures if the girls do not give us their support; so reserve every Thursday evening for G. F. S. and bring your friends.

Respectfully submitted.

ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild will hold its regular business meeting on December 14th, when arrangements will be made for the Christmas decorations.

We find that we are badly in need of several new stoles, especially a purple one and a white one, and would appreciate any contribution to help us defray the expenses of these.

We are very glad to welcome Miss Phyllis Morgan to our number. The Serving Committees for the coming month are as follows:

Dec. 18th to 25th: Misses Dean, Crowder, McHenry.

" 25th to 31st: Mrs. Cotton, Misses Stryke, Morgan.

Jan. 1st to 8th: Misses Chase Wertsner.

Jan. 8th to 15th: Misses Mogridge, Wismer, Mrs. Mogridge.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them
to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church:
"A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a Com-municant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly
through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the Rector
or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church
Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church,
Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment
Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise
the bequest is void.

Christ Church Rectory,
Septuagesima, 1926.

My dear Friends:

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 17th. I am sure that the people of Christ Church want to make this Lent a very serious, a very helpful season. It is full of opportunity, it is full of precious privileges to those who will use it aright. It is an opportunity for every seriously minded person to withdraw, for a time, from the lighter, the less serious things of life and to devote himself exclusively to the things that are most worth while; to the serious, the real, the eternal principles of life. "Forty days with the Master!" What a blessed privilege to get a right perspective of living; to gain a wider, a higher vision of life, to come into closer communion with God!

That this Lent may mean all that it should mean, may I not ask you, my dear friends, to be very earnest, very serious, very faithful in the observance? Let me tell you how.

1. By abstaining from worldly amusements and entertainments, that your thoughts may be given to the more serious and solemn lessons of life. Observe the rule of fasting and abstinence.

2. By reading, at the beginning and at the end of each day, some portion of God's Word. Read, during Lent, the shorter Epistles of St. Paul. I have had placed in the vestibules of our Church a pamphlet entitled, "Bible Readings and Prayers." These are for gratuitous distribution among our people. Take a copy home with you. There has also been sent to every family in the Parish a course of "Daily Bible Readings." I shall be glad to furnish a copy to any who have not received one.

3. By reading, at least one good book, not a novel, on some religious subject, or on Church History. I have had placed in the vestibule a bookcase, in which may be found a number of books suitable for Lenten reading. These books may be borrowed by applying to the Secretary, Miss Preston, after any service.

4. By spending a few moments, each morning and evening, alone with God, in meditation and prayer. Do this in your home. Come also to Church for a quiet hour of meditation and prayer. The Church is open all day from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m.

5. By regular attendance at the week-day Lenten Services in the Church. Consult the Lenten list and resolve to attend certain services, regularly and faithfully.

6. By careful and conscientious preparation for Holy Communion, and by frequent attendance at the Sacrament of the altar, where we are bound together in the love and fellowship of Jesus Christ and with all the loved ones here and absent.

7. By being more considerate, more patient, more forgiving, more loving to others; and by doing acts of kindness to every one you can.

I am sure that if you are faithful in these things during this Lent, a wonderful blessing will come into your life, a blessing of strength and peace and joy—such as the world cannot give.

May I not look for you—I am addressing each one of you personally—may I not look for you at the Lenten week-day services, and, at least, twice every Sunday?

I have learned to expect great things from the people of Christ Church, and I have confidence in the deepening religious and spiritual life of the members of our Parish, during the coming Lent.

May God bless each one of you, my dear friends, and may He send His Holy Spirit into our hearts and arouse us all, Rector and people alike, to a greater zeal, a truer devotion, a deeper consecration to Jesus Christ and His Church.

Affectionately your friend and Rector,

Charles Henry Arndt.

SPECIAL PREACHERS SUNDAY EVENINGS—THE YOUNGER RECTORS

Within the past few years there have been many changes in the personnel of the rectors of the parishes in Germantown and Chestnut Hill. The rectors of the twelve parishes in this vicinity, with two exceptions, have been called to their parishes within the past seven or eight years.

The former rectors of most of these parishes served for a long term of years:—notably, Dr. Harris of St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, and Dr. Upjohn, of St. Luke's, Germantown, each of whose rectorship was forty years, and Dr. Perry, present Rector Emeritus of Calvary Church, forty-two years.

The rectors, who have been recently called to the parishes in Germantown and Chestnut Hill, are representative of the best type of the younger clergy in the Church. They are all earnest, deeply consecrated young men. That the people of Christ Church may have an opportunity of hearing these clergymen, I have invited them as special speakers on the Sunday evenings in Lent.

I hope that the members of Christ Church will conscientiously set aside Sunday evenings in Lent to attend these services. It will be the first time that these clergymen will have preached in Christ Church and our members should attend and give them a cordial welcome.

The list of special speakers is as follows:

First Sunday in Lent:—The Rev. Malcolm E. Peabody, Rector St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill.

Second Sunday in Lent:—The Rev. Wood Stewart, Rector St. Martins-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill.

Third Sunday in Lent:—The Rev. William Y. Edwards, Rector Church of the Good Shepherd, Germantown.

Fourth Sunday in Lent:—The Rev. Allen R. Van Meter, Rector Calvary Church, Germantown.

Fifth Sunday in Lent:—The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, Rector Church of the Epiphany, Pelham.

Sixth Sunday in Lent:—The Rev. Wallace E. Conkling, Rector St. Luke's Church, Germantown.

A REQUEST TO EVERY COMMUNICANT

The Rector repeats his request to all persons in this Parish who attend the service of the Holy Communion. The request is this: After receiving at the Holy Communion, return to your seats and remain to the end of the service, until after the benediction.

Unless ill or physically unable to remain, PLEASE do not leave the Church until the service is over! Can I put the request more kindly? If so, I want to do it, and shall be glad to be told how. But I must insist that this request be complied with by all. Everyone will realize the propriety and the reasonableness of this request. It is most distasteful to the Rector to have to repeat it. He hopes that he will not be compelled to do so.

BOOKS IN THE VESTIBULE

The Rector has had placed in the Tulpehocken street vestibule of the Church a bookcase, in which will be found a number of books on religious and Church subjects.

The object of placing these books in the vestibule is to afford to all, who wish to use them, an opportunity of access to some of the best authorities on religious and kindred subjects, in which everyone, especially Churchmen, should be well informed.

These books will be loaned, without charge, to anyone who desires to read them.

The books may be kept for two weeks, after which time, they must be returned, with the privilege, however, of renewal for one week, if so desired.

No person may receive more than one book at a time.

Among this collection of books may be found a wide range of subjects, relating to religion and the teachings of the Church. There are a number especially suitable for Lenten reading. A list of the books is posted in the vestibule.

All attendants at the services of Christ Church are welcome to make free use of these books; the only conditions are that they be used carefully and returned within the time specified.

They are placed in the vestibule of the Church that the Congregation may have more ready access to them.

The books will be in charge of Miss Preston, who will be glad to loan them to any who may apply.

Miss Preston may be seen after any service.

On the third Sunday morning in Lent the special preacher will be the Rev. George C. Foley, S. T. D., of the Episcopal Divinity School in Philadelphia.

Dr. Foley is one of the most scholarly men in the American Church and it will be a privilege to have him with us as preacher in Christ Church.

SPECIAL WEDNESDAY NIGHT ADDRESSES

The subject for the Wednesday night addresses to be given by the Rector during Lent will be an "Outline of the History of the Church," from the time of the Apostles to the Reformation. The series will include an account of the "Founding of the Apostolic Church," "The Teaching of the Early Church," "The Rise of the Roman Catholic Church," "The Papacy," "The Renaissance," "Steps Leading to the Reformation," "The Reformation," "The Results of the Reformation."

An invitation is extended to all persons in this community to attend this course of lectures, on Wednesday evenings in Lent.

Begin Lent aright! On Ash Wednesday there will be a Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 A. M. Before going to your duties of the day—your business, your school, your household duties—"come apart for awhile with God"; begin this Lenten season aright by dedication of yourself, your soul and body, to God and by receiving the Blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ! Begin aright!

THE WEEK-DAY LENTEN SERVICES

The services on week days during Lent will be held in the side chapel, with the exception of the Wednesday night service, which will be, as usual, in the nave of the church.

Attendants at the afternoon services are requested to sit together in the south transept, instead of being scattered throughout the main body of the church. This will add to the heartiness of the singing and interest in the service.

Persons who are willing to assist in the singing at the Lenten services are requested to give their names to the Rector. There are a number of persons in the Parish who might render this much as their Lenten offering. The Rector will gladly welcome them and will appreciate their services.

Why not make it a Lenten object to bring at least one child to Holy Baptism or some "backslider" back again to his church duties and privileges, or to lead some hesitating friend to Christ and to Confirmation?

Make some specific, definite object your duty during this Lent. Let it not be a "negative Lent," but a positive Lent; something definitely undertaken and done; something unselfish, something constructive to the bringing in of the Kingdom of God and His Christ!

Some people are habitually late to church service. The habit should be overcome. To enter the service late is disconcerting to others and seriously interrupts the service. It is a form of selfishness, on the part of those who practice it. One should be in church long before the service begins, to prepare one's mind and spirit to receive the precious things that there are given. No one who rushes to church or comes in late can be so prepared.

The Prayer Book is given by the church to be used by the worshippers. It should be opened and the eyes of each worshipper should be riveted upon it. During the singing of the canticles, instead of looking about the congregation or at the choir, follow the words in your Prayer Book. However familiar you may be with the service, follow, with your book before you, every sentence, every collect, Gospel, Epistle, as the minister reads it. It is called the "Book of Common Prayer," and so it is intended to be—common between minister and people; every service in it to be entered into by minister and people together; and this purpose cannot be carried out if the people do not follow the minister as he reads the service.

Keep your Prayer Book open and your eyes on the service as it is read by the minister!

And this leads to the further suggestion that every one should own and carry with him his own Prayer Book and Hymnal. Additional books may be kept in the pews, but every worshipper should bring with him to church and take home with him his own personal Prayer Book and Hymnal. Your Prayer Book will come to mean something, then, by its long and faithful usage and its sacred associations.

Bring your own Prayer Books and Hymnals to church with you and take them home with you when you go!

The Prayer Books and Hymnals at the doors of the church are primarily intended for strangers.

SERVICES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Special attention of parents and young people in the parish is called to the service every Thursday afternoon in Lent, which will be adapted to young people, with a special address by the Pastor.

Teachers of the Church School, with the scholars, should endeavor to attend these services. Parents are invited to accompany their children. It is hoped that the boys and girls of the Parish will set aside Thursday afternoons in Lent to attend this service. Come and bring your young friends with you.

CONSULT WITH THE RECTOR

The Bishop will visit this Parish (D.V.) on Maundy Thursday evening, April 1st, to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The Rector affectionately urges all persons who have not been confirmed to give their names to him at once. He will be pleased to talk to any one on the subject after any service or by special appointment. Let no one delay. If you have doubts, come frankly to your Rector and talk them over with him. One goes to his lawyer when in doubt in regard to the law, or to his physician for medical advice. If you are troubled in mind or conscience, go to your Rector and tell him your troubles. He will help you.

The Prayer Book, in the Communion Office, so states it: "If any of you cannot quiet his own conscience, but requireth further comfort or counsel, let him come to me, or to some other Minister of God's Word and open his grief; that he may receive such godly counsel and advice as may tend to the quieting of his conscience and the removing of all scruple and doubtfulness."

The Rector is most anxious to help any one who may be in doubt or trouble and will gladly do all within his power for any one who comes to him.

A WORD TO PARENTS

Will not parents and others, who are interested in the welfare of the young, call the attention of all children eligible for Confirmation to the Instructions given in the Parish House on Sunday afternoons at four o'clock?

Parents and adult friends of the young are cordially invited to come with them.

Let no parent or sponsor neglect his duty this Lent to the children whom God has given him to bring up in His fear and love.

At the Baptism of your children this solemn obligation was placed upon you:

"Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose."

Are you doing your duty?

CONFIRMATION OR THE "LAYING ON OF HANDS"—WHAT IS IT?

It is announced elsewhere in this issue of THE CHIMES that classes in Confirmation are being formed and instructions on the subject have been begun. "Confirmation" or "the Laying of the Hands" are synonymous terms in the Church. What do these terms mean?

We learn from the Acts of the Apostles that in the early days of the Church, after converts had been baptized, the Apostles used to lay their hands upon them for the further outpouring of the Holy Ghost. It was so in the case of those Samaritans to whom the Acts viii, v. 14 refers. We are told that "when the Apostles, who were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the Word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John, who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost (for as yet He was fallen upon none of them; only they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus). Then laid they their hands upon them, and they received the Holy Ghost." It was so also in the case of certain believers at Ephesus, of whom St. Paul asked whether they had received the Holy Ghost when they believed, meaning thereby to inquire whether, after they were baptized, they had received the Laying on of Hands. Their answer showed that they had not received Christian Baptism at all, but had been baptized only with the baptism of John, that is, of John the Baptist, the forerunner of our Lord. Whereupon, by St. Paul's direction, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and then he laid his hands on them; and "the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues and prophesied."

The holy rite of "Laying on of Hands" has been continued in the Church from the beginning.

The service is called in our Prayer Book "Confirmation, or Laying on of Hands upon those who are Baptized."

The special blessing, then, which we are taught to connect with Confirmation is spiritual strength. If by Baptism we are taken into Christ, and are made to be "in the Lord," by Confirmation we are made to be strong in the Lord." This is the teaching of Holy Scripture, and of the primitive Church.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

Our annual Christmas dinner on Tuesday, January the twelfth was quite equal to our anticipations. The weather was ideal, the attendance was fine, two long tables being filled. Only two members were not with us, Mrs. Dahl and Mrs. Cook, who were kept at home by illness. We missed them, especially as they are among those who have been with us the longest.

The chicken, carved by Mrs. Potter in her usual skillful way, the cranberry sauce, vegetables, buttered rolls, pickles, salted nuts, ice cream, cake and coffee were delicious.

After the tables were cleared Dr. Arndt in behalf of the Mothers, presented to Mrs. Rowley and Mrs. Morrison, beautiful bridge sets, embroidered by one of the members. Then followed several songs by Miss Mogridge, accompanied by Mrs. Mogridge.

This delightful feature was followed by a very amusing ventriloquist.

Thus closed an afternoon long to be remembered by the Mothers' Meeting.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our Carol Service in the church was well attended although it was a very cold, windy day. We were glad to again have the Rev. Mr. Goodman come and speak to us. At the service we gave the Rector over $125 for the relief of families where there are children, in our neighborhood, that are in need, and we also gave four Christmas dinner baskets, our total offering amount being $158.49.

Our Christmas entertainment consisted of a stunt by each class, and was enjoyed because nearly all the school took part and our room was full to the doors with parents and friends. The judges awarded First Prize of $5 to Miss Dietz's Class and Second Prize of $3 to Mr. Melville's Class, and both classes immediately gave the money to our Advent relief fund.

Our attendance has been about the same as last year. The Star Classes (every member present) since Rally Sunday have been Mr. Whitby's eight times, Miss Jordan's and Mr. Melville's seven times, Mr. Clausen's six times, Miss Irwin's, Mrs. Christ's and Miss Armstrong's each three times.

We were very sorry to lose Miss Robinson as a teacher, and we are glad to welcome the return of Miss Sara Gray.

For our Lenten Mission Work we have the goal of last year to aim at, which was the largest offering for many years and as Lent is very early this year we will soon start to work.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held on the first Monday of January.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Robinson, President; Mrs. Topliffe Johnson, Treasurer; Mrs. Wells, Secretary.

The work accomplished during the past year has been satisfactory. By various activities we raised five hundred dollars to help pay the parish apportionment to the National Council. The envelope subscriptions and legacy from Miss Sarah Johnson enabled us to add three hundred dollars to our fund.

We hope the ensuing year will be still more fruitful.

We want more active members. Our aim for 1926 is to increase our membership.

We need workers to help us in our sewing and many other enterprises which could be more successfully carried out with more women to help us.

The business meetings are held on the first Monday of the month at two o'clock in the Parish House.

The sewing meetings are held on the third Monday of the month at two o'clock in the Parish House.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY OF CHRIST CHURCH

The G. F. S. has been very busy the last few months. All the girls have agreed that we are having very interesting meetings and the number of girls that come certainly is encouraging, although we would like to see more of our old members who have strayed from our midst. If they would only come to one meeting they would surely not want to miss another.

January 7th, being our literary evening, one of our members, Georgiana Dean, gave us a most thrilling description of her flight from London to Paris. Just imagine being up in a plane for over three hours and being almost deafened by the noise of the propellor and the engine! Miss Dean had an album full of pictures of the various places which she visited. All the girls of the G. F. S. want to go abroad now.

The second Thursday of the month, January 14th, was devoted to business and song. Quite a good combination, don't you think? We have been practicing for our entertainment which is going to be held Thursday evening, February 11th. You know the Friendly entertainments are always said to be successes. There is going to be a dance after this one with music supplied by a peppy orchestra. Don't miss a good time!

Plans for our dance were discussed at our meeting on January 21st and every girl is doing all she can to make it a big success.

After buying a ticket for the dance your pocketbook will not be flat, either.

BOY SCOUTS

When Calvin Coolidge speaks of American prosperity he must have had in mind our Scout Troop. Our Troop is getting to be a "hum-dinger." Our cornucopia fairly bulges. That Fathers' and Sons' banquet taxed the room to capacity.

Do you happen to know that in 1926, when the good old U. S. A. celebrates its birthday, our Christ Church Troop will be ten years old? Give us a hundred and fifty years of co-operation, high ideals and hard work, and we'll show you a record, too, that will be a knock-out. Washington started something that was to be permanent. So did we. Christ Church has lasted over seventy-five years. Why? Well, because it rendered a service to the community for one thing. And if it continues to house philanthropic enterprises such as the Scouts it will still be doing business at the old stand in 2026.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves
with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them
to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when
they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church:
"A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a Com-municant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free
and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly
through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the Rector
or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary,
may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church
Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church,
Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment
Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise
the bequest is void.

"And when they had bound Him, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate, the Governor."

HOLY WEEK

The "Forty Days" are now drawing to a close. The Lenten shadows deepen and we now enter Holy Week—into the mystery of the Passion of our Blessed Lord.

There rises before our eyes the Cross; and on the Cross—behold, crowned with thorns, the Immaculate Son of God, "who taketh away the sins of the world!"

"Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?"

Yes, dear Lord, it is "something to me"—something very real and painful to me. For I know that it is I, who have helped nail Thee to the cruel Cross. I know that it is I, who by my indifference, my faithlessness, my selfishness have driven the nails into Thy quivering hands and feet. I know that it is I, who, by my sin have pierced Thy heart and plaited the crown of thorns upon Thy brow. Lord, it is I! It is I! O, Lord, have mercy! O, Lord, forgive! O, Lord, strengthen me, make me more faithful, more loving, more true! O, Lord, hear my prayer and let my cry come unto Thee!

Lord Jesus, when we stand afar,
And gaze upon Thy Holy Cross,
In love of Thee, and scorn of self,
Oh, may we count the world as loss!
When we behold thy bleeding wounds,
And the rough way that Thou hast trod,
Make us hate the load of sin
That lay so heavy on our God.

O, Holy Lord, uplifted high,
With outstretched arms, in mortal woe,
Embracing in Thy wondrous love
The sinful world that lies below;
Give us an ever-living faith
To gaze beyond the things we see;
And in the mystery of Thy death
Draw us and all men unto Thee.

Let each one of us during this Holy Week, which now draws near, let each one of us leave behind all distracting thoughts, all thoughts of the world, with its petty, trifling schemes and vanities, and let us contemplate in wonder, awe and love, the closing scene of our Lord's earthly life. Let us follow Him day by day from His triumphal entrance on Palm Sunday into the city, He so dearly loved, until, weary and exhausted, He slowly goes His way along the "Via Dolorosa," passing through the gates of the city, which rejected Him, up to the Mount of Calvary, to the Cross.

At the daily Celebrations of the Holy Communion during Holy Week, the Church appoints in her Prayer Book, that each of the four Evangelists shall be heard in his narrative of the Passion and provides an appropriate Epistle and Gospel for each day.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated, accordingly, in Christ Church, every week day morning in Holy Week, until Maundy Thursday, inclusive. The service will be at half-past nine o'clock.

In the afternoons of Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 4.45 there will be service and short "Meditation" on the Sacred Events of each day.

On Maundy Thursday evening the Rt. Rev. Arthur W. Moulton, D. D., Bishop of Utah, will visit this Parish and administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The service will be at 8.00 o'clock.

GOOD FRIDAY

The Daily Meditations in Holy Week will culminate on Good Friday with the Three Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross. The Meditation will be conducted by the Rev. Alfred M. Smith, of St. Clement's Church, Philadelphia. The service will begin at 12 o'clock noon.

This three-hour vigil will be preceded by a service at half-past ten o'clock, consisting of the Penitential Office, Pro-Anaphora and Address by the Rector.

Where else would one, who realizes the meaning of this great and awful day that commemorates the Redeemer's suffering for the sins of the world —where else would one want to spend these sacred hours save in the House of God, and how else, save in Meditation, in Intercession and in Prayer?

Devout minds have found in these precious hours beside the Cross a deeper and a fuller realization of the wonderful love of God to us, the awful sinfulness of our nature and the power of Redemption from sin through the sufferings of the Son of God.

Let every seriously minded person in the Parish keep the day in solemn fasting, in humiliation and in prayer!

"Before the Cross, whose cruel wood
Upbears the dying Son of God,
Today my only thought shall be:
He died thereon for love of me!"

EASTER COMMUNION

As these solemn days of Lent draw to a close, every soul that has followed our Lord during these past forty days, in His fastings, in His temptations, in His suffering and at the Cross, will be prepared and will yearn to be with Him on the Day of His Resurrection in the joy of Easter Communion.

Easter is the "Queen of the Festivals" and throughout the Christian ages has been the "Day of Days," when the faithful have solemnized the Resurrection of our Lord by coming to the Holy Communion.

Our "Holy Communion" then becomes our "Holy Eucharist," that is, as the term implies, our "holy thanksgiving."

If, then, we have spent this Lent in a faithful following of our Lord, we may truly share at the Holy Eucharist on Easter morning, the joy of His Resurrection. On this Resurrection morn, we may "lift up our hearts" and be in the very presence of our Risen Lord and with all God's saints in "one Communion and fellowship in the mystical body of His Son, Christ our Lord" and with the "angels and archangels and with all the company of Heaven," join in the beatific praise, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty."

This is the Communion of the saints. This is the beatific vision St. John saw, "when in the spirit on the Lord's Day, Heaven was opened"; and this is the beatific vision vouchsafed to all God's saints who draw near unto Him in spirit and in truth on this Great Day of the Lord—the Day of His Resurrection from the Dead.

SERVICES ON EASTER DAY

The Services on Easter Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion..... 6.30, 7.30 A. M.
Shortened Morning Prayer,
Holy Communion, Sermon. 11.00 A. M.

The Easter Carol Service of the Church School will be held in the evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Choir Notes:

We regret to note that the solo tenor, Mr. Frederick Bartle, has had to resign from the Choir on account of failing health. The Music Committee has secured in his place Mr. Paul T. Ross, of St. Paul's Church, Overbrook.

Mr. Ross will begin his service at Christ Church on Easter Sunday.

Miss Martha B. Mellenry and Miss Louise M. Wilfong have become members of the Choir from the Church School.
O. J. W. B.

EASTER GREETINGS

The Rector wishes a Happy Easter, full of grace, and peace and joy to every Christian heart! Out of the darkness of Good Friday the Easter Light shines clear. May it, indeed, so shine into every soul in this Parish, brightening every life with hope and joy.

The shadows are interpreted by the light. Looking back, from the brightness of Easter morn into the darkness of the preceding days, we see the darkness was the precursor of the dawn.

What a difference it would make in every life, were we to see more clearly through the light of the Easter Day the meaning of the dark days of our life,—our failures, our temptations, our trials, the tragedies of our life!

God grant that on this Easter Day the members of our Parish may have some measure of that transforming vision! Let us thank God for the Easter revelation of the Risen Lord, whereby we know that all darkness, whether of pain, or disappointment, or sorrow, or death itself, are, to those who trust and live in the spirit of Christ, the heralds of new life and hope and joy.

We may rejoice, then, even when we look into the grave: for we know that "He is not here, He is risen!"

Let us weave this blessed Easter truth into our lives! Let it give courage and hope to discouraged ones, comfort to the mourners—joy to every soul; for Christ has brought life and immortality to light! "I am the Resurrection and the Life," said the Lord; "he that believeth in Me, though he be dead, yet shall be live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die."

OUR EASTER OFFERING

Our offering, on Easter Day, should be an expression of our love and loyalty to Jesus Christ. It should represent sacrifice. An Easter offering in any other spirit, is "a mere mockery," a travesty of the Easter Spirit.

Whilst I am deeply interested and sincerely hope that the full amount asked by the Vestry from the Congregation may be, as it should be, fully realized, I am not primarily interested in the amount. I am more interested that there shall be in every member of our Parish, the true spirit of Christian giving; that each gift may be an expression of true devotion to Christ and His Church. And, surely, no gift can rightly be called a "religious offering" that does not represent this spirit—the spirit of love and sacrifice!

There should be no small coin on the plate on Easter Day, unless the giver is very poor. In that case the offering may be more worthy and more acceptable to God than the larger offering of the rich.

But my observation and experience during a long ministry has convinced me that the small coin in the offering is not given, as a rule, by the poorer members of the Parish. It is given by the careless, by the flippant, by the worldly, who have money to spend on themselves and for their own selfish ends, but economize in their gifts to God. And such giving, I repeat, is in no sense, worthy to be called a religious "offering," because it is devoid of the very essence of Christian giving—it is wanting in the spirit of sacrifice; it does not represent the spirit of love and devotion and consecration to Christ.

The Church regards the giving of money at the services, in no sense, as a "collection." The term "collection," in reference to giving of money at the service of worship should never be used. It is an "offering," an offering to God, and, as such, is an essential part of the worship. The rubric in the Prayer Book emphasizes this and directs that "the devotions of the people shall be reverently brought to the priest, who shall humbly present it

(to God) and place it upon the Holy Table."

David of old said "I will not offer unto the Lord my God of that which cost me nothing." And, surely, if David realized the meaning and the significance of an "offering unto the Lord," no one who calls himself a Christian and a follower of Jesus Christ can be said to have any real part in the solemn and serious worship of God, who lightly "offers unto the Lord that which costs him nothing."

Christian giving is an act of joy, because it is prompted by the spirit of love. And how much love is there in the person, how much Christian joy can come to anyone—who puts on the plate on Easter morning an insignificant amount, "that which costs him nothing?"

Freely have ye received, freely give."
C. H. A.

CONFIRMATION

The Rt. Rev. Arthur W. Moulton, D. D., Bishop of Utah, will visit this Parish on Maundy Thursday evening (April 1st) to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. It is not yet "too late" for persons who are moved by the Holy Spirit of God to confess Jesus Christ, and be confirmed. Some day, it may be "too late." The Rector will be glad to talk with any one on this subject, after any service or by appointment. "Now is the accepted time, now is the day of Salvation!"

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS

The flowers in the chancel on Easter Day will all be memorials of the blessed dead. Persons in the congregation who wish to have flowers in the chancel on Easter Day in memory of friends who rest in Paradise are cordially invited to send blooming plants or cut flowers to the Parish House on Saturday preceding Easter, not later than noon.

Names of senders of flowers, together with the names of those in whose memory the flowers are sent, are requested to accompany the gifts.

Persons who wish to forward money, contributions for flowers, may send the same either to the Rector or to Miss Chase, President of the Altar Guild, 152 East Washington Lane. Flowers will be purchased by the Altar Guild and the memorials placed on the altar. Contributions of money are requested to be sent as soon as possible that an early selection of flowers may be made.

The plants and flowers are taken to the sick after Easter.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

An election of Vestrymen of this Parish is to be held in the Parish House on Easter Monday, April 5th, between the hours of 5 and 6 P. M. Four Vestrymen are to be elected this year. The terms of four Vestrymen expire this Easter, viz., Messrs. Potter, Pugh, Johnson, Davidson.

The following extract is from the By-Laws of Christ Church. By-Law, Article 1, Section 8:

"Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestrymen one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the southeast vestibule of the Church at least two Sundays prior to the holding of such election and no person not so nominated shall be a candidate."

The Charter of Incorporation, Article 6, reads: "The Vestry of Christ Church shall consist of twelve men to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereat. Said election shall be by ballot and shall be held on Easter Monday in each and every year between such hours and upon such notice as the by-laws of said Church may provide; and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said Church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of the Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of, at least, two years next preceding any such election, annual subscriptions of not less than ten dollars each."

The vote of a plurality of the qualified electors voting at any such election shall be requisite for the election of any Vestryman."

EASTER CAROL SERVICE

The Easter Carol Service of the Church School will be held in the Church on Easter evening at 7.30 o'clock. The offering for Missions, which the members of the School have been gathering in their mite boxes during Lent, will be presented at that service. The Rev. Charles E. Spalding, rector of the Church of the Advent, Kennett Square, will address the School. Adult members of the Parish, and especially parents and friends of the scholars of the School, are cordially invited to be present at this service.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

It is gratifying to record that the work of the "Woman's Auxiliary" is progressing satisfactorily. Our meetings have been fairly well attended, especially the last business meeting on March 1st and the sewing meeting on March 7th, when we had the pleasure of having with us several new members.

The reports of our delegates have been particularly interesting. From the "Buffet Supper" and the "Diocesan Lecture Benefit" held on January 29th we realized over $170.00. This will be utilized in helping to furnish a Woman's Parlor in the Parish House.

We are planning to have a "Missionary Tea" in April (the date will be announced later) and we trust that the women of Christ Church will co-operate with us in making this affair truly a success. We appeal most urgently to the people of our Parish to give us any "Rummage" which they might have from time to time for our Annual Sale—we will gladly collect the same, if you will kindly notify the writer.

Mrs. James Eckersley, Chairman of the Sewing department of our Auxiliary, has managed the work in a most capable manner, so that our Sewing for the early part of the year will soon be completed.

We have been calling on some of the "newcomers" in the Parish lately and plan to visit a good many others in the immediate future.

Could we but gain the interest and co-operation of all the women of Christ Church, in our missionary endeavors, at this time, surely 1926 would prove a banner year for our branch of the "Auxiliary."

"Christ hath no hands but our hands, To do His work today"—

"He is counting on you—
He has need of your life
In the thick of the strife:
For that weak one may fall
If you fail at His call.
He is counting on you,
If you fail Him—
What then?"

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The Young People's Fellowship has been very busy during the past month. On Monday evening, February 15th, a Valentine Party for members of the Fellowship and their friends was held in the Parish House, and proved a big success.

We are now in the Lenten Season, and wish to invite all members of the Church Sunday School who are over fifteen years of age, and who are not already members of The Young People's Fellowship, to come around to one of the meetings, and join our organization. Special subjects of particular interest during Lent are being discussed, and so far have developed into very helpful and interesting topics. New members are being added to the roll every week, and we are working for more.

Don't forget the time, 6.45 every Sunday evening in the Parish House.

An interesting and a social time is guaranteed to all who attend.

A NEW FURNACE IN THE RECTORY

The fore part of March the furnace in the rectory suddenly ended its long and useful career by refusing to render further service.

It chose a time to retire from service, very inconvenient and inopportune for the Rector and his family—the season of Lent and the thermometer half way between zero and the freezing point.

The furnace was completely worn out and it was necessary for the vestry to have installed at once a new furnace, the cost of the new furnace was over $700.00.

The Property Committee was most faithful in their attention and oversight of the work and credit is also due to Mr. Harry Keenan and his efficient workmen for the promptness and skill with which the work was accomplished.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

We wish to inform our friends, those who are housekeepers, that we have just received a new supply of crash for towels for the kitchen. We also have been working on aprons, plain gingham and cretonne trimmed. We have for sale wash cloths and turkish towels with crocheted edges. A new lot of bright, pretty rag rugs is also awaiting purchasers.

Please look over your stock of these useful household articles and give the Mothers' Meeting an order for your new supply.

JUNIOR DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

At the request of Dr. Arndt and on invitation of Mrs. John S. Wurts, six girls—members of Christ Church— assembled Friday, February 19th, at the home of Mrs. Wurts at No. 267 East Johnson Street to form a junior order of The Daughters of the King. Dr. Arndt met with them and addressed them, instructing as to the meaning, obligations and privileges of being indeed a Daughter of the King. It is the purpose of these girls meeting twice each month to enter upon definite study of prayer, worship and service as found in the Bible, that they may be fitted for thoughtful service for Christ and His church. All girls who desire to deepen the spiritual life and to bring this blessing to others are invited to join with them.

The officers of the Order will be chosen at the next meeting.

ST. CHRISTOPHER GUILD

At the last meeting of the St. Christopher Guild held in the Rectory, the following Crucifers were appointed.

March

Morning service: Granville Klink.

Evening service: George Bland.

April

Morning service: Richard Sutcliffe.

Evening service: James Malony.

May

Morning service: John Byers.

Evening service: Arthur Hallock.

The next meeting will be held on March 15th.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY OF CHRIST CHURCH

The G. F. S. has held its regular weekly meeting every Thursday night at eight o'clock. Miss Brown has been coming up from South Philadelphia every week during Lent to have a Mission Study Class. The topic of discussion in the class has been Latin America and Miss Brown makes it very interesting by telling little stories which are illustrations of certain things. Names of missionaries were given to the girls at the first meeting and each girl is supposed to pray every night for her missionary. The girls have made a splendid showing at these meetings and I'm sure they all appreciate Miss Brown's interesting and instructive course and her effort in coming so far to be with us each week.

CHANGE OF HOUR FOR SUNDAY MORNING SERVICE

Beginning the last Sunday in June, the Fourth Sunday after Trinity, June 27, and continuing until the third Sunday in September, the Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity, September 19th (inclusive) the hour of the mid-day Sunday Service will be at half past ten, instead of eleven o'clock.

This change of hour to half past ten will bring the mid-day service to a cooler part of the day. It will also afford the members of the Church School the opportunity of attending the church service. During the summer months of last year there was a large attendance at the church service on the part of the members of the School. A short talk will be given to the young people, preceding the sermon. The entire service will be over before noon.

The hour of the other Sunday services will remain the same, viz: Holy Communion, Every Sunday at 7.30 A. M. Evening Prayer with short address, 7.45 o'clock.

Please remember the hour of the Mid-day Service—10.30 Daylight Saving time, beginning Sunday morning, June 27th and continuing to Sunday, September 19th inclusive.

The week-day services will be omitted during the summer months until St. Matthew's Day, September 21st, when there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9.30 A. M.

The Rector is glad to announce that the Rev. C. Sydney Goodman, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, who has had charge of the services at Christ Church during July for several years past will have charge again this year during the same month. Mr. Goodman has a rare talent for addressing young people and his short talks to the members of the Church School, preceding the usual sermon, are enjoyed by young and old alike. His sermons, also, are full of Gospel truth and always spiritually helpful.

The Rector is equally fortunate in securing for the month of August the services of the Rev. William W. Steel, formerly rector of St. Mary's Church, West Philadelphia, and later, Archdeacon of Cuba.

The services of these clergymen will be at the disposal of the members of the Parish at any time, if word is left with the sexton at the Parish House, telephone Victor 9650.

DANGER

A danger comes to all of us in summer time. The danger is to become careless or indifferent about our religious observances and especially about our Church attendance. Of course, no one who regulates his life on Christian principle will neglect his religious life in summer any more than he will in winter, but, unfortunately, all of us do not regulate our religious life on principle. Too many act according to our whims or our fancy or convenience, and, therefore, when warm weather comes we find it very easy to offer excuses for absentsing ourselves from Divine Service. The state of the weather, the distance from Church and other excuses are easily found as sufficient reasons for absence, and the conscience is lulled to sleep.

What a fearful danger befalls the man or woman when such excuses are allowed to keep them away from regular attendance at the House of God! How unspeakably sad it is to see church-men and women give way to these temptations, and to find them on Sundays, at the time they should be at worship, on the golf links, or on an automobile trip, or abandoning for some other trivial reason, the altar of God!

Golf, automobiles and other outdoor recreations are good and wholesome, and refreshment for both body and mind. But no sane man or woman will say that these things, good as they are, are or can be substitutes for worship. They can and do refresh the mind and body. But man is more than mind and body. He has a soul which craves and needs refreshment; and these recreations which give refreshment to mind and body are not sufficient to nourish the soul: and what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?"

Let us then, my friends, beware, lest in resting our minds and bodies, during these summer months, we starve our souls. We must not, cannot afford in summer to lay aside our worship. The weary mind and the weary body need rest and refreshment and should have them. The soul, too, needs and must have refreshment, and for it there can be only one source from which it can receive nourishment and strength, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is," says the Apostle. And our blessed Lord, Who knew the needs of all men has said: "Come unto Me, all ye who are weary and heavy laden and I will refresh you," "Verily, verily, I say unto you except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, ye have no life in you!"

POOR CHILDREN'S COUNTRY WEEK

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on Sunday morning, June 20th. It will cost $8.00 to send a poor child to the country for one week where it can enjoy pure, fresh air and good wholesome food. It has been the Rector's custom for several years past to secure from various organizations for the poor the names of the most needy and worthy families living in the congested portion of the city—in the small dirty courts and alleys. By personal visits to these so-called "homes" the sickly and most needy children are selected and arrangements made for a week's outing in the country and, in some cases for a longer period of time. Occasionally a poor, overworked mother is also sent with her children.

This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are privileged to give; and what a great opportunity it affords to persons who are blessed with comfortable homes and can get away for rest and recreation during the hot summer months, to remember the less fortunate and more needy who live in the narrow and crowded streets and alleys of our city.

The amount received last year from the members of Christ Church for the Poor Children's Outing Fund was $205.00. This was divided among the "Children's Country Week Association," the "Union Settlement House," the "Bedford Street Mission" and the "Episcopal City Mission," organizations which are doing social work among the poor of our city.

ACCOUNTING WARDEN'S REPORT

The Accounting Warden regrets that he cannot report the Easter offering to have reached the amount necessary to extinguish the deficit as reported by the Lenten letter of the Vestry to the Congregation. The offering was, however, a liberal one and the largest for several years, amounting to $1232.46.

That the members of Christ Church may better realize the amount necessary to be raised to meet the running expenses of our Parish and the necessity of each and every one doing their part that the work may continue, it has been thought advisable to place before the congregation a financial statement showing the income and expenditures of the Parish for the past calendar year of 1925 that it may be seen just how the income has been expended.

Plate Offerings	932.05
Special Offerings in lieu of pew rent	742.59

Legacies and Investments ...	4,065.57
Interest on Deposit	9.15
Repair Fund (Blue Envelopes)	538.79
Sunday School Offering	627.40
Deficit for Current Year	848.66

$15,126.55

EXPENDITURES

Salaries	$6,663.92

Repairs to Property	1,248.98
Miscellaneous Expenses	1,737.46
Clergy Pension Fund	315.00
Interest on Loans	61.87
Sunday School	720.00
Episcopal Convention and Sustentation Funds	524.81

$15,126.55

The above deficit as shown would not have been a serious matter, but for the fact that there was carried forward a similar deficit from 1924, making a total deficit on December 31, 1925, of approximately $1600. Since this date, owing to the extraordinary expenses incidental to the repairs to the heating plants in both the Parish House and also the Rectory, this deficit has increased till it became necessary to ask an offering of $2000 at Easter. As the amount of the Easter offering was $1232.46, there remains still a deficit which is most advisable to meet as quickly as possible. If any were not able to make their offering at Easter and would still send it to either the Rector or the Accounting Warden, it will be most gratefully received.

It is very gratifying to report that the 1925 quota asked for the missionary work of the Church was met in full. The amount for which we were asked was $4500, and our total offerings for the purpose were as follows,—Church Missionary Offerings, $2,626.18 Sunday School Missionary

Offerings	1,254.58
Women's Auxiliary Missionary Offerings	500.00
Miscellaneous	226.85
	$4,607.61

There are still many of our members who are not regular contributors through the envelope system. If all would contribute regularly in this manner, a deficit would be a thing of the past and each and every member of our Parish would have the satisfaction of knowing that he or she was taking part in the support of the work of our parish. Should anyone desire envelopes, if they will give their name to the rector or the accounting warden, such envelopes will be gladly furnished.

Edward Bains,
Accounting Warden.

NOTICE TO ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

It would be a great favor to the Warden and a great benefit to the church if the subscribers through the envelope system, who intend to be away during the summer will kindly pay in advance before they leave Germantown, the amount of their subscription for the Sundays they expect to be absent. The expenses of the parish have to be met regularly and promptly during the summer months as well as during the winter, and when parishioners leave their weekly subscriptions unpaid for a length of time the Warden who depends upon these payments to meet the expenses of the parish, is compelled to borrow money from the bank and pay interest thereon.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

The presentation service of the "Women's United Thank Offering" was held in St. James' Church, 22nd and Walnut Sts., April 29th at 10.30 A. M. Bishop Garland was the celebrant at the Communion service and the sermon was preached by the Rev. Benjamin Bird, rector of St. Asaph's Church, Bala. It was a most inspiring service. I wish every woman from Christ Church could have been present. Our semi-annual offering presented at this service from the women of Christ Church was $105.58, which was much larger than last year. We would like to increase the number of contributors from our Parish. Please ask for a blue box, so that every woman may have a share in the Thank Offering.

—Mrs. Charles Heyer,
Parish Treasurer of U. T. O., 75 West Johnson St.

ARE Y-O-U MISSING SOMETHING?

Colonel Sheldon Potter is giving a series of talks on the Bible every Sunday morning, quarter to ten o'clock in the Parish House. All the men of the Parish, young and old, are invited to hear these highly instructive and interesting talks.

Frederick Lennig,
President Men's Bible Class.

MAKE YOUR OWN ESTIMATE

It is said that depreciation of properties amount about 2% per year.

In other words to keep up the Church properties and prevent them from decay would cost $2000.00 a year.

These buildings have been handed to us for our use, preservation and care. It is a sacred duty.

The offering in your blue envelope goes towards the preservation and continuation of your Church properties.

Frederick Lennig,
Chairman Property Committee.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

Pleasant chats with friends, an inspiring and helpful talk from Miss Preston, a short service with a hymn, followed by ice cream, cake and coffee, a reminder of the work for the Needle Work Guild during the vacation, good-byes and best wishes for the summer, and the Mothers' Meeting was closed for the season of 1925 and 1926.

The meetings have been very pleasant, the attendance fine, much work done and we are hoping for all the old members and many new ones to be with us next October.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly rounded up their Mission Study Class the week before Good Friday, with a successful six weeks' study, under Miss Bertha Brown. There has been an expressed desire to have another next Lent.

The effort of this organization for the Spring months is to make some money to carry on their activities, both parochial and diocesan. This effort has opened with a Movie Benefit at the Germantown Theatre beginning the week of the 24th of May.

Every member of the G. F. S. in the Diocese of Pennsylvania is busy preparing for the Annual Garden Party to be held at the Germantown Cricket Club on Saturday, May 22nd, from 4 to 8 p. m. There will be quite an elaborate program, including track meet, supper, tables of home made cake and candy, soft drinks, flowers, and many other things too numerous to mention.

The AIM is $1000.

The PURPOSE is the completion of the National Centre at Washington, to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the founding of the G. F. S. A. in America.

In the meantime we are doing some social service work, and will try to keep together this summer by every now and then having a picnic or a trip somewhere, a good movie, especially out door things.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our Easter Carol Service was well attended, in fact better than usual by both scholars and their parents. The singing was hearty and we all enjoyed the talk of the Rev. Mr. Spaulding.

Our Easter offering for missions was $801.72 which is the second largest for many years and was accomplished by individual effort as we had no fair or class sales as last year, so we can feel well satisfied with the result of our work this year.

The presentation of the offering of all the church schools of the Diocese was made at Holy Trinity Church on May 9th and about 30 of our School went and joined the procession which completely encircled Rittenhouse Square. We were near the end of the line so were unable to get into the Church, so about 350 from various Schools attended an overflow meeting in the parish house and we had Bishop Hulse of Cuba and the other speakers of the Church Meeting came in and talked to us. It was announced that the schools which could not get into the Church this year could have reserved seats next year. There must have been nearly 2000 members of the schools present at both meetings. When the amount given by the various schools was read by Dr. Caley it was found that Christ Church school stood number 24 in the list of over 200 schools.

To go back to our Easter Service. The superintendent reported that 35 scholars had attended a year or more without missing. They were:

One Year Class

Robert McIlhenny, John Courtney, Corinne Bose, Jean Fitch, Charles Ard, Ruth Carmint, Gertrude Ard, Harriet Fitch, Mrs. C. B. Christ.

Two Year Class

William Stryke, Clarence Foy, Jane Courtney, George Johnston, Beatrice Johnson, Ruth Fitch.

Three Year Class

Florence Osborne, Marjorie Stryke.

Four Year Class

Alberta Wright, Jeanette Gilfillan, Robert Klink, Marjorie Wismer, Graham Klink, Allen Fermier, Helen Jackson, Margaret Boyer.

Five Year Class

Anna Bradley, Howard Logan, Mary Johnson, Josephine Wright, James Osborne.

Six Year Class

Mary Keenan, Martha McHenry, Nancy Courtenay.

Seven Year Class

Elizabeth Hass.

Eleven Year Class

Mrs. Elizabeth Baishbrown.
The total of these 35 members is 135 years and 11 Sundays or an average of nearly 4 years each.

The girls had a total of 98 years. The boys had a total of 37 years. Miss Morgan's class number 12 took first place with four scholars and a total of 20 years and 27 Sundays.

This record of regular attendance has been shown to several superintendents who asked for it to use as an example in their own schools.

Promotions

The following were promoted from the Primary Department to the Main School:

John Rickard, James McLaren, Donald Pritchard, Dorothy Christ, Marjorie Wright, Dorothy Smith, Mary Briggs, Mary Armstrong, William Armstrong, Adele Lunn.

During the past year the leaders of the "Star Class" list (every member present) were

Mr. Whitby's class, 13 times.

Miss Jordan's and Mr. Melville's Class, each 8 times.

During the year our offerings were:
Easter (1925) Mission Fund...$ 965.00
Children's Country Week 90.50
Advent for poor of neighborhood 158.49
Envelopes 1st Sunday each month 178.09

Total for Missionary Work...$1,392.08
For church support (envelopes) 627.57

Total offerings for year$2,019.65

The school sessions close for the year on June 20th. Please note the date which is one week earlier than usual.

During the Summer beginning June 27th we will attend the Church Service at 10.30 as we have for the last few years. Dr. Arndt states that Rev. Mr. Goodman will be here for the month of July, which we are glad to hear. Rev. William M. Steel, formerly Archdeacon of Cuba, will be in charge during August. Rally Sunday will be Sunday, September 19th.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The outstanding event of last month's activities of the Woman's Auxiliary was a "Missionary Tea" held in the Parish House.

Two speakers, Mr. Forster of St. John's College, Shanghai, China, and Rev. William W. Steel, formerly Archdeacon of Cuba, had been secured for the occasion. Their talks were most interesting and made us feel that we must do our utmost to help them in their work. To this end we have decided to hold rummage sales every spring and fall.

We hope everyone will bear this in mind and save us anything for which they have no further use.

During July and August the meetings will be discontinued. The next meeting will be Monday, June 7th at 2 o'clock in the Parish House.

We send out an urgent plea to all the women of the Parish to come to our meetings and help us in this most necessary and uplifting work.

THE JUNIOR GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY of Christ Church met at our Parish House Thursday afternoons during the Lenten season. Twenty-seven girls were registered. Our program consisted of a short service, missionary stories were told, maps decorated and useful articles made.

Miss Dietz, Miss Preston and Mrs. Hallock gave their time in assisting the girls, and Miss Morgan also helped.

The children who registered were:

Jane Pratt, Louise McElhinney, Juliette Grisard, Phyllis Wiseman, Harriet Fitch, Anna Bradley, Margaret Dillion, Anna Boyd, Eleanor Walker, Gurney Thomas, Jean Hayhurst, Doris McCoy, Charlotte Graham, Margaret Connor, Ruth Mooney, Virginia Dillion, Virginia Randal, Jean Levy, Alice Taylor, Beatrice Graham, Dorothea Brown, Marjorie Mooney, Alice Stiver, Edith Good, Alice Roberts, June Right and Mildred Ierhard.

The officers were as follows: Juliette Grisard, President; Jane Pratt, Secretary; Louise McElhinney, Treasurer.

Saturday, May the eighth, the annual Service for Candidates of the Girls' Friendly Society was held at St. Michael's Church. About four hundred were present. It was an inspiring service. The Rev. Philip Steinmetz, formerly a member of our Sunday School and at present Rector of St. Paul's Church, Elkins Park, delivered an interesting address. He wanted us children to remember a word of four letters, G-R-O-W and emphasize each letter by comparing it with some object or thing—G for ground, R for roots, O for obedience, and W for work.

Prizes for posters, sewing and knitting and compositions were awarded, after which ice cream was served.

THE JUNIOR ORDER OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

have been meeting regularly on the evenings of the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

The Chapter has been organized; the officers having been appointed by Dr. Arndt; President, Helen McHenry; Secretary, Marjorie Stryke; Treasurer, Betty Maloney. These officers will serve for one year. The members are earnestly pursuing some practical studies of the Bible, that they may enter more fully into the privileges of Christian living. Good fellowship abounds. Real endeavor has prevailed and already the group feels that it is having "life more abundantly."

On Easter Even the members of the Order presented the Rector with a white embroidered stole which was received with deep appreciation by the Rector.

After the service on Sunday evening, May 16th, an admission service of the Order was held in the Church. The Rector received the following persons as members:

Senior Member—Mrs. Dorothy W. Wurts. Junior Members—Jeannette Gilfillian, Betty Maloney, Helen McHenry, Martha McHenry, Marjorie Stryke, Rose Taylor, Annette Wells, Lulu Wilfong.

BOY SCOUTS

Nothing succeeds like success. One successful boy in a family tends to lift the whole group.

You can say anything you please about Troop 153, you can't deny that it is a success. Boys come without being asked—they improve as they attend from week to week and now that the Troop enjoys a ten year history with pride it is possible to point out successful young men who testify that Scouting helped to place them where they are today.

Those of us who manage the Troop know well that we should and indeed we do share our pride with Christ Church which has provided the background of the enterprise.

Let us not dwell in the past. The Troop Patrols have just been rearranged—the equipment department also, and we are off to a start that will carry us through the summer. A canoe trip is planned. The Fathers' Association is working up an Outing for the Scouts as usual—and oh, Boy! happy is he who belongs.

But—and it is a big but—you get nowhere in 153 without hard work. It is not one of those organizations which you join, pay your dues, enjoy social prestige if you have the funds and die unsung.

In 153 even the position of the chair you sit upon indicates the work you do. Such is Scouting—an aristocracy of merit.

In the days of the Spelling Bee men learned how to spell or dropped to the foot of the class. Scouting is a spelling bee raised to the 'nth power covering most everything from carpentry to astronomy. To stand still in the Troop is to drop back because the rest of the Scouts are advancing. Perhaps it is this ebb and flow of personalities that makes the work so fascinating to boys and men alike.

Troop 153 meets in Christ Church Parish House Monday Evenings at 7.30 o'clock.

FAMILY SUNDAY

Sunday Before Christmas, December 19th

We are to have again this year in Christ Church a "Family Sunday." Last year it was an inspiring sight to see so many families sitting together and worshipping together in Christ Church on Family Sunday. I am very anxious that there shall be even a larger number of families present this year, and I am asking all the parents in the Parish to gather together their children, both old and young, big and little, from near and far and be with them in Christ Church on Family Sunday. And I am asking the young people of the Parish, if their fathers or mothers (more often the fathers) have become indifferent to Church attendance and have strayed away from public worship, to lovingly ask your parents if they will not, please, come with you and worship with you in Christ Church on "Family Sunday." Your parents love you and will always endeavor to grant every reasonable request. Even the hardest-hearted father has been known to be turned by the example of a little child! And no parent in the Parish will be able to resist such a request from their child. "A little child shall lead them." And so, with parents and children co-operating, each with the other, we shall have a wonderful "Family Sunday" in Christ Church,—a Sunday which will linger long in the memory of both old and young.

That the Sunday next before Christmas may be a memorable Sunday I have sent out to the families of the Parish the following pastoral letter:

Christ Church Rectory, December 15th, 1926.

To the Parents and Young People of Every Household in Christ Church, Germantown.

My dear Friends:

Not so many years ago, Church-going by the whole family was an established habit. The family pew was an institution, just as much as the family table.

To many of us older men and women, one of the most hallowed memories of our childhood days, is that of father and mother and the children of the household attending Divine service together and all sitting together in the family pew on the "Lord's Day." Often, two and three generations could be seen seated together in God's house, for His worship and praise.

The family, as a unit, attended the Services of the Church. No other engagements were made. Nothing was allowed to interfere. Inclement weather did not cause the family pew to remain vacant, nor did trifling illness.

This beautiful custom is one of the old things that deserves to survive. The change in living conditions does not provide a valid alibi.

We all realize the seriousness of the present-day influences which tend to disintegrate the family life and family worship. It is, therefore, the duty of every conscientious parent and of every seriously-minded boy and girl to exert every effort and to use every means to guard the "home" from the insidious influences which today are fast tending toward its destruction and ruin.

I, therefore, urge that Every Family in the Parish be present, as a Unit, at the eleven o'clock service next Sunday morning, December 19th. This will be the Fourth Sunday in Advent, the Sunday next before Christmas Day.

It will be an opportune time, a time when the scattered members of the household will be turning their ways homeward, to be together on Christmas Day in the "family home."

Let us make it, also, an occasion when all members of the family will meet together in their "Church home"—father, mother and children, two generations and perhaps, three generations, coming together, sitting together, and kneeling together in united prayer and worship.

Will it not be an inspiring sight? Will not such a scene bring back to the older members blessed memories of days long gone by, when they, too, worshipped side by side with loving parents in the "family pew?" Will it not help to impress our children, in this restless, ruthless age, when so many influences are striving to break up the family unity,—will not such a scene and such an experience, now so rare, help to impress our children with the sanctity of the "family life" and the beauty and holiness of the "sweet hour of prayer?"

I affectionately urge every member of every family in the Parish to be present in Church next Sunday morning, December 19th, and sit together, and pray together, and worship together.

And should there be some member of the family "absent" from the family pew on that "Family Sunday," will not our thoughts and prayers go out to them and be with them and they with us, as we kneel and pray, "Our Father?"

On that Sunday, as parents and children kneel together before God's altar in united prayer and praise and worship, surely, the limitations of time and space will fade away, and we will look up to and through and beyond the gates of Paradise into that higher and fuller life above and feel the holy influence of those "absentones" flowing back into our lives, and "see those angel faces smile, which we have loved long since, and lost awhile."

"One family, we dwell in Him,
One Church above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death."

It will be the power of this truth that will lay hold upon the hearts of old and young alike, as we, united in one family, meet together in God's house on "Family Sunday" and join in common prayer and praise and worship to Him Who is the Father of the living and the dead.

Faithfully your friend and Rector,
CHARLES HENRY ARNDT.

CAROL SERVICE AND HOLY COMMUNION AT MIDNIGHT ON CHRISTMAS EVE

A Celebration of the Holy Communion will be held on Christmas Eve, December 24th. The Service will be preceded by the singing of Christmas Carols at 11.00. The Communion Service will begin promptly at 11.30.

SERVICES ON CHRISTMAS DAY

The Services on Christmas Day will be as follows:

Holy Communion, 6.30 and 7.30 A. M.

Holy Communion, preceded by shortened Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11.00 A. M.

The Offering at all Services on Christmas Day will be for our Parish Quota for the Clergy Pension Fund (formerly called the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund).

The Rector will be assisted on Christmas Day by the Rev. William H. Cavanagh and the Rev. Thomas Bell. The many friends of Rev. Mr. Bell are glad to welcome him back to Christ Church Parish.

CHRISTMAS

In our observance of Christmas we should not lose sight of the religious character of the day. It should be clearly borne in mind that Christmas is not a secular feast, but is distinctively a religious festival. The Day should, therefore, not be wholly given over to festivities and amusements, as harmless as these may be in themselves but should be observed in a manner befitting its sacred associations. It should be a day of joyfulness, of holy Christian joyfulness, but not of frivolity. Well may this Day, on which the child Jesus was born, be a day peculiarly joyful to children, and the season of the happy gathering of families with father, mother and children worshipping together in the House of God; "of sending portions to those for whom nothing is prepared"; of gifts to the poor and of good-will to all men. This should be the spirit of Christmas, and the feasting, the merriment and the amusement must not be put in place of this. In other words, the religious observance of the Day must come first in importance. It should be a day of worship or else the whole meaning of Christmas is lost. On the first Christmas morn "there was no room for Christ in the inn." Is there not danger today that we, too, will deny Him room; that our hearts and minds and the hearts and minds of the children will be crowded full of the pleasures and occupations of the world and there will be found "no room for Christ?" Let each one, therefore, bear in mind the religious significance of Christmas Day and come to God's House and kneel before Him; "come and worship, worship Christ the new born King."

THE CHURCH SCHOOL CHRISTMAS SERVICE

The annual Christmas Service of Christ Church School will be held on the first Sunday after Christmas at 3.30 P. M. This year the day of the Service is the day after Christmas and also the feast of St. Stephen—a very appropriate time for the service. The children of the School will assemble in their rooms in the Parish House at 3 P. M. From there they will march into the Church promptly at 3.30.

The address will be given by the Rev. Stanley V. Wilcox, Rector of St. Paul's Church, South Philadelphia, a former scholar in Christ Church School.

Rehearsal of the Christmas Carols has begun under the direction of the new Choirmaster, Mr. Thomas.

The parents and friends and families of the members of the Church School, and all members of the Parish are urged to be present at this service.

E. M. H.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

With the approach of Christmas we again look forward with pleasure to our annual Church School Christmas entertainment, which will be held on Wednesday, December 29th in the Parish House. The Primary Department will have its entertainment at 3 P. M. and a happy time is promised to the little folks. The entertainment of the Senior Department will be at 7.30 P. M. The members of the Young People's Fellowship have volunteered to take charge of the entertainment of the Senior Department and they are planning attractive festivities. Santa Claus has promised to be present on both occasions. We hope that the Parish will be well represented at both entertainments. Come, you older folks, especially if you have children in the Church School, and enjoy the fun with us younger folks.

E. M. H.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR CHRISTMAS GREENS

Persons who wish to contribute to the expense of purchasing holly and laurel for the decoration of the Church for the Christmas season are requested to give or send their contributions to Mr. Richard H. Morris, 6604 Wayne Avenue.

The work of decorating is done by the young men of the Parish, as a labor of love.

LETTER FROM THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN

The Accounting Warden submits the following statement showing receipts and expenditures for the first eleven months of the present year and also comparison figures for the preceding year.

	$14,123.91
Income as above	13,336.90
Deficit for 11 mos. 1926	$787.01

It will be seen by the foregoing that although our receipts have been slightly increased owing largely to the large amounts received from the Johnson Legacy and also from the income of the money invested from the sale of the Washington Lane property, unless every effort is made, there will again be a deficit for the current year. This is not a healthy condition and it is hoped that the Christmas offering will be a liberal one that the obligations of the Church may be settled.

There are also some of the subscribers to the envelopes who are back in their payments and they are earnestly requested to make every effort to pay up these obligations before the end of the year.

The envelopes for 1927 will be ready for distribution on the last Sunday in December and it is hoped that as many as can will increase their present subscriptions if by only a small amount that the income from this source will be increased sufficiently to enable the Church to pay all of its obligations promptly. Any who are not subscribing through the envelope system will be furnished with envelopes for 1927 if they will give or send their names and pledges to the Accounting Warden.

Edward Bains,
Accounting Warden.

LIST OF PERSONS WHO HAVE FAILED TO USE THEIR ENVELOPES

A number of persons in the Parish, who received packages of envelopes a year ago, have failed to use their envelopes and the records of the Parish do not show that they have given anything to the Church throughout the entire year. The list is published below.

After receiving envelopes from the Church it would seem reasonable to expect that persons should use them or, at least, notify the Rector or the Accounting Warden of their desire to discontinue them. The pews in Christ Church are all free and unassigned and, therefore, the support of the work of the Church and its philanthropies is dependent upon the free will offering of those who consider themselves members or who attend the service. A very large majority of the members contribute regularly and conscientiously through the Envelope System, but there are others who do not seem to recognize their personal responsibility and fail to realize the importance of systematic and regular giving. Will the holders of the following numbers in the envelope system, who, according to the Parish records have failed to use their envelopes during the past year, please respond or signify their desire to discontinue them? It is highly desirable that the books of the Accounting Warden shall not have on them as contributors the names of persons who have no interest or desire to give.

The list according to the records, is as follows: Numbers 6, 20, 22, 27, 33, 41, 49, 51, 52, 57, 59, 62, 64, 68, 71, 72, 76, 79, 80, 99, 106, 110, 136, 158, 167, 178, 185, 196, 200, 201, 221, 222, 235, 239, 249, 250, 251, 261, 262, 274, 281, 287, 292, 293, 294, 296, 297, 309, 318, 332, 335, 342, 378, 382, 383, 385.

VESTRY MEETING

A stated meeting of the Vestry will be held on Tuesday evening, January 6. Every member will be expected to be present.

CHURCH OPEN ON NEW YEAR'S EVE

There will be no service in the Church on New Year's Eve. The Church, however, will be open all evening until after midnight on New Year's Eve, for private prayer and devotions.

At midnight the Rector will be in the Church, and will say, with those who may be present, the Litany, together with special prayers and intercessions appropriate for the passing of the old and the coming in of the New Year. There will be the usual Celebration of the Holy Communion on January 1st (the feast of the Circumcision) at 9.30 a. m.

CHURCH CALENDAR FOR 1927

Church Calendars for 1927 marked with the colors of the Church seasons and Scriptural lessons for the Sundays throughout the year, are in the hands of the Verger, and may be purchased from him at forty cents each. These Calendars are suitable for Christmas and New Year's gifts.

JUNIOR DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

The Junior Order of the Daughters of the King invite you all to help them supply some of the immediate needs of a young mother with tubercular trouble, who can be restored to health if she has prompt and sufficient medical attention. For this purpose the Rev. H. Cresson McHenry of the City Mission and father of our president, will generously give of his time on Friday evening, December seventeenth, when he will present in Christ Church Parish House "The Other Wise Man" by Van Dyke in an illustrated lecture. Mr. McHenry will make it well worth your while to attend:—the pictures are exceptional and the story splendidly presented. Do come, support our efforts. You will also be able to buy all those Christmas gifts you haven't had time to make,—all that we offer are useful. Come, share our enthusiasm; you'll enjoy the evening. D. W. W.

CONFIRMATION

It is time for all persons in the Parish who have not been confirmed to begin to think seriously on the subject. Immediately after the Christmas holidays the Rector will begin to form the Class in Confirmation. The Bishop will visit this Parish on Maundy Thursday to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. All persons who are contemplating being confirmed or wish information on the subject are invited to confer with the Rector.

REVISED SERVICE OF THE HOLY COMMUNION

The revised office of the Holy Communion, as authorized by the General Convention of the Church, is now used in this Parish. The changes are minor, consisting principally in transposition of parts of the Office. The prayer known as the "Prayer of humble access" is placed after the prayer of Consecration, instead of, as formerly, before it. An optional use of a shortened form of the ten commandments is permitted. A response is provided to be used after the Gospel for the day. The Lord's Prayer is transposed to a place after the prayer of Consecration.

All the changes, although minor in character, are an improvement in the Service.

TO THE MEMBERS OF CHRIST CHURCH

My dear People:

At this time, when the Parish enters upon a new fiscal year, it is due to the members to know the condition of the financial affairs of the Church. The Accounting Warden has, therefore, made out a report and addressed a letter to the parishioners which appears in another column of this issue of the "Chimes." It should be read by everyone.

It is probably known to all that the change in policy from the renting of pews to a Church with all sittings and pews free has placed the responsibility for financial support of the Church and its work upon everyone who claims membership therein. The entire income, excepting that from legacies, is derived from pledges or free-will offerings.

Everyone should realize that the Church, while nominally in the care of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, is only in their care as Trustees for the members and the Church is the medium through which the Kingdom of God is extended upon earth.

For the coming year the expenses for maintaining the Parish property and continuing the services and the work of the Parish are estimated at $14,000.00, and for the work of the Church in spreading Christ's Gospel and doing Christ's works of mercy in this diocese, in the missionary districts of our country and throughout the world, as assigned to the Parish by the Executive Council, $4,600.00, a total of $18,600.00.

I am justly proud to say that, notwithstanding the extraordinary expense incurred during the past year and a half by the installation of our new organ in Christ Episcopal Church, the payment of pledges amounting to over $20,000.00 has not been made at the sacrifice of our gifts to Missions. On the other hand, we have given to Missions during the past two years more than was ever given in the same period of time in the history of the Parish—a little more than the quota assigned to us. Not that everyone has done his or her full share—and in this I am saddened and disappointed; but a large number have risen to their personal responsibility and given generously. For this I am justly proud and profoundly thankful! I am confident that by these generous givers remaining faithful to their trust and by an increased number of "the others," who this year will surely be impressed with a sense of personal responsibility and privilege to share in the work of the Church joining the ranks of the loyal supporters, this coming year is full of promise.

We hear and will heed the command given by Jehovah to His chosen people: "Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward!"

We will go forward—God helping us! Everyone in Christ Church will do his or her Christian duty!

Faithfully yours,
Charles Henry Arndt.

Pledge cards may be found in the racks in the vestibule of the Church. It is hoped that every member of every family in the Parish will take one of these cards. Check up the amount on each side of the card that each person can afford to give, sign name and address and place the card in the alms plate at any service, or send it to the Rector or Accounting Warden. A package of envelopes for weekly offerings will then be sent to you. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector or Warden. We want to aim to make Christ Church this year a 100 per cent. giving Parish! It can be done!

The financial needs of the Parish will be fully met and the Church's Missions, not only to far-off lands, but to our own diocese and city, will be fulfilled if everyone will follow the apostle's command: "Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver."

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. has been very busy for the past two months. We have had so much to do and think about that there has not been one idle moment.

Our first great success was the "Mother and Daughter Banquet," which was held on Tuesday evening, October 19th. If you do not believe that it was successful just ask anyone who was present at this wonderful feast and I'm sure they'll tell you about the fine time they had. After eating we were entertained with some vocal selections by our talented member, Miss Grace Gerhard. Everyone then joined in the games and after that there was dancing. And a good time was had by all!

The Provincial Council was held in Wilmington on November 19th, 20th and 21st. Mrs. Johnson and Miss Nancy Courtney attended this meeting and were very much enthused over the good time shown them by the residents of Wilmington.

The Neighborhood Conference was held in Chestnut Hill on November 15th at St. Paul's Church. There was a large representation from our Friendly and every girl had a good time.

Tuesday evening, November 30th, was our social night and we had a little party with tea, cakes and salted peanuts as refreshments.

We are now very busy thinking about Christmas. Every year we fill stockings for the boys and girls in the hospitals and we always set aside one Tuesday night for doing this.

Be sure to come and help us with this work. We shall be glad to welcome new members to the "Friendly."

E. H.

THE DIOCESAN CAMPAIGN

As the "Christ Church Chimes" goes to press the Diocesan Campaign to raise $3,500,000 for the institutions and missions of the diocese is still in progress. We cannot, therefore, give, at this time, the final report of the Campaign.

The members of Christ Church Parish are keenly interested in the very worthy object of this Campaign, and whilst it has been impossible for the Parish Committee appointed by the Rector, to make a general canvass of the Parish, the response by those whom the Committee have been able to visit has been both hearty and generous. Up to the date of going to press, and with four days before the Campaign closes, the amount of subscriptions from the members of Christ Church totals $9,780.00. There are several persons in the Parish who have not yet responded and will, undoubtedly do so, and it is expected that the total will amount to over $10,000.00. This is a most commendable record, and the Parish Committee wish to express their hearty appreciation of the cordial spirit with which the members of the Parish welcomed them and the generous response which they received.

A final report will be made in the next issue of the "Chimes."

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The end of the year finds the Woman's Auxiliary still working and looking forward to more work and bigger results in the year to come. We are glad to report that the members of the Auxiliary, by great effort during the past year have been able to reach the goal, which they set for themselves, $500 to help pay the missionary quota of the Parish. The Parish Supper which was given on December 2nd was a great success in every way and increased our fund to over $500.

Our "sewing meetings" are held on the third Monday in the month. We are making garments to be sent to the mission field and we greatly need more members to help in the work. The regular business meetings are held on the first Monday of the month.

The Christmas Store

MANY a heart will be made glad Christmas by the thoughtfulness of a friend in sending a small token in remembrance. The gift does not need to be an expensive one. To the contrary, some small trinket to carry your message of thought is all that is necessary. Here you will find hundreds of suitable little gifts, at a very small cost.

ANNIVERSARY YEAR

This year, 1927, marks the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of the founding of Christ Church Parish. The Anniversary will be fittingly observed later in the year. In the meantime, every member of the Parish should endeavor to do his or her part in making the Anniversary Year the banner year in the history of the Parish. Let this be

OUR AIM 1927

Every Member a Regular Worshipper.
Every Worshipper a Faithful Worker.
Every Worker a Generous Giver.
Every Giver a Spiritual Force!

The above "Aim for 1927" should be the ideal unto which every member of Christ Church should strive to attain. Every member—not only a regular "attendant" at the services but a regular WORSHIPPER; Every worshipper—not only a "Worker" but a FAITHFUL Worker in some department of the Parish activities; Every worker—not only a GIVER of their time, their thoughts and their means but a GENEROUS giver; Every giver—not only a "force" but a SPIRITUAL force, that means radiating the Spirit of Christ out among men.

Let this, then, be our motto, our ideal and our aim for this anniversary year:

*Every member a regular Worshipper;
Every worshipper a faithful Worker;
Every worker a generous Giver; Every giver a Spiritual Force!*

THE FISCAL YEAR BEGINS

At this time when the Parish is entering upon a new fiscal year it is important that every member of the Parish and everyone who worships in Christ Church should assume his or her personal responsibility, which should be regarded in the light of a privilege, in the support of the work of the Church and its philanthropies.

It is probably known to all that the change in policy from the renting of pews to a Church with all sittings and pews free, has placed the responsibility for financial support of the Church and its work upon everyone who claims membership therein.

Everyone should realize that the Church, while nominally in the care of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, is only in their care as Trustees for the members, and the Church is the medium through which the Kingdom of God is extended upon earth.

For the coming year the expenses for maintaining the Parish property and continuing the services and the work of the Parish are estimated at $14,000.00 and for the work of the Church in spreading Christ's Gospel and doing Christ's works of mercy in this diocese, in the missionary districts of our country and throughout the world, as assigned to the Parish by the Executive Council, $4,600.00, a total of $18,600.00.

Pledge cards may be found in the racks in the vestibule of the Church. It is hoped that every member of every family in the Parish will take one of these cards. Check up the amount on each side of the card that each person can afford to give, sign name and address and place the card in the alms plate at any service, or send it to the Rector or Accounting Warden. A package of envelopes for weekly offerings will then be sent to you. The pledge, being voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector or Warden. We want to aim to make Christ Church this year a 100 per cent. giving Parish! It can be done!

It is desired by the Rector and Vestry of the Parish that everyone who considers himself or herself a member of Christ Church shall be included in the list whose names appear on the books of the Parish as regular contributors through the envelope system. Remember our "Aim for 1927": "Every member a regular Worshipper! Every worshipper a faithful Worker! Every worker a generous Giver! Every giver a Spiritual Force!"

THE BISHOP'S CRUSADE NOT ENDED

A series of services, under what is nationally known as the "Bishops' Crusade," because inspired and guided by the Bishops of the Church, was held the middle of January at St. Luke's Church, Germantown. All the parishes in Germantown and Chestnut Hill took part in these services and each night, for one week, St. Luke's Church was filled to capacity with congregations composed of the membership of these parishes. The missionaries were the Rev. George Davidson, D. D., of Los Angeles, California, and the Rev. Hiram R. Bennett, of Williamsport, Pa.

A large number of the members of Christ Church were faithful and regular attendants.

However inspiring and helpful these services were, especially to those who attended them regularly, we cannot think of this Crusade as a mere movement, sporadic and ephemeral, but rather an act of re-dedication to the service of Christ and the Church and a more complete surrender of our wills to His will. And as such, the Crusade is not ended. It has just begun. It must be continued and its effect must be shown in the deepening of the spiritual life of the members of this and other parishes and a fuller consecration of each life to an unselfish, sacrificial service.

The Crusade brought to many a conviction of personal need in our religious and our Church life. And our conviction must be translated into action; impulse must be crystallized into habit. The impressions made by the messages delivered at these mission services must not be permitted to evaporate in emotion or remain mere good intentions. The sincerity of our convictions and the depth of our emotions will have an opportunity of being tested during this coming Lent, by the extent of our sacrifices and the degree of our faithfulness in following our Lord on His way to the Cross.

ASH WEDNESDAY AND LENT

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, which falls this year on March 2nd. Septuagesima Sunday falls on February 13th. On that Sunday the Church begins to look forward to the coming Easter, seventy days hence. The Septuagesima season, three Sundays before Ash Wednesday, is a time when we should begin to prepare for the proper observance of Lent.

The next number of the Chimes will be issued on Quinquagesima Sunday—the Sunday next before Ash Wednesday. The program of services during Lent will be published in next issue.

PARENTS AND SPONSORS

Parents and sponsors should bear in mind their solemn and sacred duty to bring their children, "who have arrived at the years of discretion," to Confirmation. Instructions on Confirmation are being given to minors on Sunday afternoons at four o'clock in the Parish House, and will continue at the same time until the Bishop's visitation.

Parents and sponsors, are you doing your Christian duty?

Will adults who are thinking of Confirmation give their names to the Rector at once. He will be pleased to have an interview with them and provide them with literature on the subject.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

Instructions on Confirmation are being given for minors in the Parish House on Sunday afternoons at four o'clock. Class for adults will meet on Friday evenings in the Parish House, beginning Friday, February 18th.

Persons in the Parish who are thinking of being confirmed are requested to give their names to the Rector.

EVENING PRAYER

Every Friday Afternoon

I wish to call attention to the members of Christ Church to the Service of Evening Prayer which is held in the Church on Friday afternoons at five o'clock.

In former years few churches could be found that did not have a service on a week-day, an opportunity for people to gather together for an hour of prayer. The Wednesday evening "prayer meeting" was all but universal. We have lost much in giving up that devout practice and "the religious life" of church people, "between Sundays," has suffered, in consequence. We surely need to have our souls fed and nourished on week-days as well as on Sundays. Our lives will be the better and happier for it.

The Holy Days, which frequently occur on week-days, afford us an opportunity to kneel at the altar and receive the Blessed Sacrament to "the strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the Body and Blood of Christ." These "Saint Days" or "Holy Days" are, indeed, oases in the routine of our daily lives.

Friday is the weekly recurrence of the great Day of Atonement. It has always been observed by the Church as a special day of "fasting and prayer." Have not many churchmen today forgotten this most helpful and inspiring practice and cut themselves off from a great source of spiritual blessing?

"What! Could ye not watch with me one hour?" said our Lord to His sleeping Apostles on the night when He stood facing the agonies of that first Good Friday.

What! Can we not, my good people of Christ Church, come apart from our daily tasks, on Friday, the weekly memorial of our Lord's Passion, and spend one hour—no, only one-half hour—in meditation and prayer and converse with Him?

I pray that Christian people in this vicinity—church people and others—will bear in mind this weekly service of prayer and special intercessions, which are held in Christ Church on Friday afternoons. It should appeal to every Christian soul.

"Come ye apart and rest awhile."

Persons who wish special prayers to be said on behalf of the sick, or those in sorrow, or trouble, or in special need of any kind, may send their request to the Rector.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Our Church School Christmas entertainments this year were very fine and well attended. A splendid group of parents and friends were present as well as a large percentage of the pupils. Of course Santa Claus was there with his cheer and presents.

The Young People's Fellowship presented a one-act play and a Christmas pageant, portraying the events connected with the Nativity, under direction of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Clausen.

A check for $125 was sent recently to the Rev. Dr. Sherman, of Boone University, Wuchang, China, to assist in the splendid work which is being carried on in this war-worn country. This sum represented a portion of the mission offering of the Church School. The work of our Church in Wuchang is a monument to the zeal and sacrifice of our missionaries.

The School is now looking forward to Lent and its continued work for our missions. The work in Wuchang and that in Alaska will be the objects of our efforts this year. These are two of the most worthy causes in the whole mission field and should receive our heartiest support and co-operation. E. M. H.

NEW VERGER

Charles Hatcher, who has been serving temporarily as Verger of Christ Church, has been succeeded by John Hurst, who began his duties the last week in January. Mr. Hurst was a member of Christ Church in his early childhood.

VESTRYMAN ELECTED

At the last meeting of the Vestry, held Tuesday evening, January 4th, Mr. T. Homer Atherton was unanimously elected to fill the unexpired term of Mr. William R. Pugh, resigned.

"I think all clergy ought to have a little business training," the newspapers quote Bishop Murray as saying, "but I don't think it is half as important as that all business men should have religious training."

G. F. S. OF CHRIST CHURCH

The G. F. S. of Christ Church is just recovering from its Christmas activities, having filled stockings for the children in the wards of the Philadelphia Hospital, filled a substantial Christmas basket for a family of seven, two adults and five children under twelve, carrying with the basket clothes supplied by the Lovers of Children and the Needlework Guild, and our personal contribution,—stockings filled with Christmas goodies and toys.

The first Tuesday in January we held our meeting at the home of our President, changing a meeting into a Christmas party, thus, with the announcement of the engagements of two of our members, the evening was made very thrilling.

Tuesday, the eleventh, was the first organized meeting of the New Year, and we celebrated it by voting to send our quota to the National Center in Washington to help complete our memorial for the 50th anniversary of our existence in America. This 50th year will be celebrated with a great conference in Boston, in November, to which we hope to send two delegates.

Tuesday, the 18th, we took our meeting to the Bishops' Crusade service at St. Luke's Church and found it most inspiring and the question box most instructive.

Our plans for the rest of the month of January are not completed, but our chief effort is to make plans for raising money for carrying on our work.

We would welcome new members, and if you once come we feel you will always come. Old members who are kept away from meetings for various work and reasons, try to arrange to come as often as possible. We need your help in many ways, and more, we MISS YOU.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

(Woman's Missionary Society)

A Year's Resumé of the Work of the Woman's Auxiliary, Christ Church, Germantown.

It might be of interest to the women of the Parish to know how the Woman's Auxiliary of the Parish carries on its work for the missions of the Church, and where the money goes that some of the women contribute towards this work.

We have a system of envelopes which affords us an approximate return of $250. These envelopes are circulated among the women of the Parish, representing the twelve months of the year, asking for a contribution of from five cents upward each week. From these small contributions and the interest of $200 a year from the estate of Miss Sally W. Johnson, two offerings from the church—Ascension Day and All Saints' Day—have enabled the Auxiliary to send her delegates to the committee meetings at the Church House, with from $5 to $10 a month, to pay for the supplies from the Supply Bureau for the missionary sewing, the contribution to the Germantown Convocation, the contribution to the budget of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, with a small balance for things that may come up for consideration as well as sundry expenses.

We have made a mental reservation for several years to raise $500 for special work. This has been accomplished by Rummage Sales, Suppers, Missionary Teas, Luncheons, affairs in private houses. This past year we went over the top and when called upon to help out with the deficit in the Church's Missionary quota we were able to give an additional $50.

The $500 was distributed among the five committees as follows: Colored Committee for work in St. Augustine's School Raleigh, N. C., $100; Diocesan Committee towards the Funds for the Episcopal Hospital, $100; Domestic Committee, Dr. and Mrs. Burke's work in Fort Yukon, Alaska, $100. Foreign Committee, Bishop Kingsloving's work in Brazil $50; Mahan School for Boys in China, $50; Indians' Hope Committee, Salaries in the Indian Field, $100.

All these things have been accomplished by a few women in the Parish. Think what could be done by the many!

Why not take twelve envelopes and help the work of the Woman's Auxiliary of your Parish, placing in them five cents or more each week and help this good work along?

Envelopes can be had from the Treasurer, Mrs. Topliff Johnson, 190 Maplewood Avenue, Germantown.

L. J. J.

The foregoing report has just been received by the writer and is being sent to "The Chimes" for publication. May I add that the total amount given by the Woman's Auxiliary in Christ Church Parish during 1926 for Missions, which counted on the "quota" was $798.00.

It gives me pleasure to announce that "The Missionary Room" in the Parish House is being furnished in a most satisfactory way and we anticipate holding all our future meetings there. The schedule is as follows:

First Monday in every month, Business meeting at 2 P. M.

Second Monday in every month, Study Group meeting, 2 P. M.

Third Monday in every month, Sewing meeting, 2 P. M.

Fourth Monday in every month, Study Group Meeting, 2 P. M.

A number of interested friends have contributed suitable articles towards "The Missionary Room." We are most grateful and extend to them our sincere thanks, particularly to Messrs. Morrison, Rowley Lennig and Woodroffe for their most generous contributions of laying a hardwood floor and installing very beautiful electric fixtures.

We are planning to give a "Tea" in the very near future at which we hope to have a large attendance. Every woman in the Parish will be most cordially welcomed.

As we take up our work for the ensuing year it is with grateful hearts for the success which has been ours in the past and an earnest expectation for bigger things in 1927. With the interest and support of more women in the Parish we shall succeed. Remember that Christ is holding out this work to us, and we must not fail Him. L. M. ROBINSON.

NOT GOOD IF DETACHED

"Not good if detached." This saying is found on the coupons of railroad tickets. The value of the coupon is determined by its relationship to the whole ticket. "Not good if detached" is equally true of Church members as well as railroad tickets. Detached from active relationship with the Church the individual loses touch with its work, and is in grave danger of losing the consciousness of Christ's presence and of losing all interest in Christian service and falling into doubts and decay. If you are a "detached" member won't you become "re-attached" and join us in our work and worship?

ARE YOUR ENVELOPES OFFERED ON THE ALTAR OR JUST SENT IN

There is a difference—a very real difference—in these two methods. The one makes your giving an offering to God; the other a mere commercial transaction. We believe that everyone who possibly can should make a point to put their envelopes in the Alms-basin themselves.

HAVE FUNERALS IN THE CHURCH

There is a widespread and popular custom of having funerals in private houses that is thoroughly unchurchworthy, unedifying and undevout. It is also uncanonical. The Prayer Book provides that the Burial Office may be said either in the Church or the graveyard. "The minister meeting the body at the entrance of the churchyard and going before it, either into the church or towards the grave." The office may be said partly or entirely in either. The only valid reason for not having it in the church is in the case of infectious diseases, when the Board of Health will not allow the Church to be used, and in that case it is better to say the whole office in the graveyard.

The custom of "house funerals," as they are called, originated outside the Church, when it was usual to have a service upon the model of a prayer meeting with eulogies, prayers and addresses by persons present, this service lasting, sometimes, several hours.

When the Burial Service is used at "house funerals" it is often far from being a solemn service.

The friends are crowded together in the various rooms of the house, from the back kitchen to the garret. They generally sit on camp chairs, sometimes on the stairs, and we have known them to sit on one another's laps.

All this does not especially contribute to solemnity or reverence. The Prayer Book directs that "the minister, meeting the body at the entrance of the churchyard and going before it either into the church or toward the grave, shall say the Order for the Burial of the Dead.

This is dignified, solemn, impressive. The Church regards death as an occasion for reverence, for praise, for worship. She, therefore, provides that those who die in the Lord shall be brought within her sacred walls.

1. Because the offertory is just as much a part of the Church worship as the prayers and hymns.

2. Because the Alms-basin is the proper channel through which your offering should pass and be placed upon the altar.

It may be easier sometimes to give the envelopes to someone else but there is always the chance that they may be forgotten or mislaid or perhaps given to the Rector or the vestrymen at some other time, so are never offered on the Altar. Sometimes they have been so delayed that a statement has been sent out in the meantime without due credit being given. We hope therefore that everyone will try to be more careful in the future to put their own envelopes in the Alms-basin.

—St. Stephen's Messenger.

BUILDING FOR ETERNITY

The following poem was written by a member of the Parish and is printed by request of friends in the Parish, which request is gladly granted. "It was written in memory of mother."

As I rush, and just keep longing

For the things the world can give,

With no thought of the hereafter,

Or the life that I should live,

Do I realize the tinsled toys,

And power, pride, and gold

In the Lamb's great book will never count

When I that page unfold.

No, I've wandered on like all the rest,

Satisfying every whim.

And I filled my life with earthly things,

Which are as dross to Him,

Until the vision of a mother.

Who had trod the path before.

Came to tell me of the real things

On that bright celestial shore.

And she led me gently, safely.

Out of darkness into light

Where the face of her dear Master

Shone with glory, wondrous bright.

Kneeling there, I prayed most humbly,

Heavenly Father, help me see

That the things which seem so lowly

Build for us Eternity.

A CLERGYMAN'S LETTER TO THE MEN OF HIS PARISH

The following letter, addressed by a clergyman in a western city to the men of his Parish, has been sent to the Rector. It is a forceful letter and expresses the sentiments of many clergymen. It reads as follows:

"To our men: I have never thought more prayerfully over any set of sentences I have had to write than these that follow. I want them so written that God can use them to fire the hearts of men I know and love.

During the past six years I have been turned down by hundreds of men to whom I have gone to urge some definite Christian service. I have heard thousands of excuses and have seen almost everything get in between men and the thing I pressed for.

I have doubted my own leadership scores of times in the unsleeping moments of the night. I have studied on my knees my limitations in getting men in this parish to do things. Every time I have arisen with a new determination to keep right on calling these same men so long as I am Rector here!

I will not think longer of the dead and ineffective committees of the past. I will not allow one bit of discouragement to darken the hope in my soul for better things. I am praying for better things; I am hoping for better things; I am expecting better things.

We have lost leaders. Strong staves have broken in my hand. Death has robbed us of many. But note, men! God has pushed more of this city close up to the doorways of our big well equipped church than ever before. She never had such a chance. We dare not run from personal duty. No man will. I know our men will not let slight matters hinder their serving through our church this great new field about us.

Every man is called. Don't wait on a program. You love men and know how to help them in a score of ways without being told!

A definite task is now before us. The "Bishops' Crusade" is stirring church life throughout the land. It must not go by without our getting in touch with it and sharing its blessings. Its five great fields of services are given below. It will mean nothing to us except as we tune up our local church to receive.

These committees are not appointed, they have orders, not from the Rector, but from the aroused conscience of the church and their sense of Christian obligation to our great unreached community.

Not one has been personally asked.

A general does not go down the line and ask each man to kindly fire if he possibly can! He says "Fire!" and they fire!

And every man will do his duty.

Christian men! Men of the Church! Men of the Army of the Living God! Will you do less?

God, give us men!

THE DIME

I am a dime.

I am not on speaking terms with the butcher.

I cannot be exchanged for an ice-cream soda.

I am not large enough to buy a gallon of gasoline.

I am not big enough to buy a half pound of candy.

I am too small to get into the movies.

BUT—when I go to Church I am considered SOME MONEY. Adapted.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves
with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them
to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when
they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church:
"A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a Com-municant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free
and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly
through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the Rector
or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary,
may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church
Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church,
Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment
Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise
the bequest is void.

A PERSONAL LETTER FROM THE RECTOR

Christ Church Rectory,
Septuagesima, 1927.

My dear Friends:

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 2nd. I am sure that the people of Christ Church want to make this Lent a very serious, a very helpful season. It is full of opportunity, it is full of precious privileges to those who will use it aright. It is an opportunity for every seriously minded person to withdraw, for a time, from the lighter, the less serious things of life and to devote himself exclusively to the things that are most worth while; to the serious, the real, the eternal principles of life. "Forty days with the Master!" What a blessed privilege to get a right perspective of living; to gain a wider, a higher vision of life, to come into closer communion with God!

That this Lent may mean all that it should mean, may I ask you, my dear friends, to be very earnest, very serious, very faithful in the observance? Let me tell you how.

1. By abstaining from worldly amusements and entertainments; by observing the rule of fasting and abstinence that you thoughts may be given to the more serious and solemn lessons of life.

2. By reading, at the beginning and at the end of each day, some portion of God's Word. Read, during Lent, the shorter Epistles of St. Paul. I have had placed in the vestibules of our Church a pamphlet entitled, "Bible Readings and Prayers." These are for gratuitous distribution among our people. Take a copy home with you. There has also been sent to every family in the Parish a course of "Daily Bible Readings." I shall be glad to furnish a copy to any who have not received one.

3. By reading, at least one good book, not a novel, on some religious subject, or on Church History. I have had placed in the vestibule a bookcase, in which may be found a number of books suitable for Lenten reading. These books may be borrowed by applying to Mr. Honoman, after any service.

4. By spending a few moments, each morning and evening, alone with God, in meditation and prayer. Do this in your home. Come also to Church for a quiet hour of meditation and prayer. The Church is open all day from 7 a. m. to 5 p. m.

5. By regular attendance at the week-day Lenten Services in the Church. Consult the Lenten list and resolve to attend certain services, regularly and faithfully.

6. By careful and conscientious preparation for Holy Communion, and by frequent attendance at the Sacrament of the altar, where we are bound together in the love and fellowship of Jesus Christ and with all the loved ones here and absent.

7. By being more considerate, more patient, more forgiving, more loving to others; and by doing acts of kindness to every one you can.

I am sure that if you are faithful in these things during this Lent, a wonderful blessing will come into your life, a blessing of strength and peace and joy—such as the world cannot give.

May I not look for YOU—I am addressing each one of you personally—may I not look for YOU at the Lenten week-day services, and, at least, twice every Sunday?

I have learned to expect great things from the people of Christ Church, and I have confidence in the deepening religious and spiritual life of the members of our Parish, during the coming Lent.

May God bless each one of you, my dear friends, and may He send His Holy Spirit into our hearts; and arouse us all, Rector and people alike, to a greater zeal, a truer devotion, a deeper consecration to Jesus Christ and His Church.

Affectionately your friend and Rector,
Charles Henry Arndt.

CHURCH SERVICES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS ON THURSDAYS

Special attention of parents and young people in the parish is called to the service every Thursday afternoon in Lent, which will be adapted to young people, with a special address by the Rector.

Teachers of the Church School, with the scholars, should endeavor to attend these services. Parents are invited to accompany their children. It is hoped that the boys and girls of the Parish will set aside Thursday afternoons in Lent to attend this service. Come and bring your young friends with you.

BISHOP ROWE, OF ALASKA, TO BE AT CHRIST CHURCH

The Rt. Rev. Peter Trimble Rowe, D. D., Bishop of Alaska, will preach in Christ Church, Sunday morning, April 3rd. Bishop Rowe is one of the outstanding Missionary Bishops of the Church and the great work which he has done and is doing in Alaska is well known to all Churchmen. The members of Christ Church are fortunate in having Bishop Rowe address them and he will receive a very cordial welcome.

CONSULT WITH THE RECTOR ABOUT CONFIRMATION

The Bishop will visit this Parish (D.V.) on Maundy Thursday evening, April 14th, to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The Rector urges all persons who have not been confirmed to give their names to him at once. He will be pleased to talk to any one on the subject after any service or by special appointment. Let no one delay. If you have doubts, come frankly to your Rector and talk them over with him. One goes to his lawyer when in doubt in regard to the law, or to his physician for medical advice. If you are troubled in mind or conscience, go to your Rector and tell him your troubles. He will help you.

The Prayer Book in the Communion Office, so states it "If any of you cannot quiet his own conscience, but requireth further comfort or counsel, let him come to me, or to some other Minister of God's Word and open his grief; that he may receive such godly counsel and advice as may tend to the quieting of his conscience and the removing of all scruple and doubtfulness"

The Rector is most anxious to help any one who may be in doubt or trouble of any kind and will gladly do all within his power for any one who comes to him.

SUNDAY EVENING LECTURES ON THE EPISTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

An unusually interesting and instructive course of lectures on the Epistle to the Ephesians will be given in Christ Church on Sunday evenings in Lent by the Rev. Royden Keith Yerkes, Ph.D., S. T. D.

Dr. Yerkes is a member of the faculty of the Divinity School of the Episcopal Church in Philadelphia and is one of the best scholars of Biblical learning in the country. This course of lectures will be a rare opportunity for the people of Germantown to hear a very able treatment of the chosen subject in the light of modern scholarship. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend. All seats are free and unassigned at all services in Christ Church. Every one is welcome.

Dr. Yerkes, in outlining his course of lectures on the Epistle to the Ephesians, which he will give in Christ Church, writes as follows:

"St. Paul's Epistles in the New Testament are not theological treatises or philosophical discussions. Their true character has been somewhat obscured by the rather cumbersome translation of their titles as 'epistles.'"

As a matter of fact, they are letters, written by an enthusiastic Jewish rabbi who, after active opposition to Christianity, became its most active advocate and missionary. From the beginning to the end of his ministry he was marked by a passionate zeal and an indomitable spirit which raised him above many physical handicaps and made him one of the best known of men.

St. Paul was instrumental in establishing many new churches and congregations. He himself had never been a disciple of Jesus during the life of the Master, but he became his best interpreter.

His letters all breathe with the concrete application of the principles of the Christ-life to the problems of men and women of the day. Some of the details of these problems have changed, but, in the last analysis, human problems have been pretty much the same since men were.

The particular theme of the Ephesians is the instrumentality of the Church in bringing men into union with God, in relating Christians to Christ and thus making the Christian life the practical means of bringing one's life to its fullest possibilities. On Sunday evenings in Lent the letter will be read, section by section, that we may catch for ourselves the enthusiastic and burning message of the greatest of Christian leaders."

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Classes for instruction in Confirmation are being held in the Parish House every Sunday afternoon at four o'clock for minors and on Friday evenings at eight o'clock for adults. All persons who are not baptized or confirmed are requested to give their names to the Rector as soon as possible.

The Rector will be pleased to meet any person who wishes to consult with him on the subject, after Church service or by appointment. The Bishop will visit this Parish Maundy Thursday evening, April 14th.

Begin Lent aright! On Ash Wednesday there will be a Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 A. M. Before going to your duties of the day—your business, your school, your household duties—"come apart for awhile with God"; begin this Lenten season aright by dedication of yourself, your soul and body, to God and by receiving the Blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ! Begin aright!

Persons who are willing to assist in the singing at the Lenten services are requested to give their names to the Rector. There are a number of persons in the Parish who might render this much as their Lenten offering. The Rector will gladly welcome them and will appreciate their services.

Why not make it a Lenten object to bring at least one child to Holy Baptism or some "backslider" back again to his church duties and privileges, or to lead some hesitating friend to Christ and to Confirmation?

Make some specific, definite object your duty during this Lent. Let it not be a "negative Lent," but a positive Lent; something definitely undertaken and done; something unselfish, something constructive to the bringing in of the Kingdom of God and His Christ!

Some people are habitually late to church service. The habit should be overcome. To enter the service late is disconcerting to others and seriously interrupts the service. It is a form of selfishness, on the part of those who practice it. One should be in church long before the service begins, to prepare one's mind and spirit to receive the precious things that there are given. No one who rushes to church or comes in late can be so prepared.

The Prayer Book is given by the church to be used by the worshippers. It should be opened and the eyes of each worshipper should be riveted upon it. During the singing of the canticles, instead of looking about the congregation or at the choir, follow the words in your prayer book. However familiar you may be with the service, follow, with your book before you, every sentence, every collect, Gospel, Epistle, as the minister reads it. It is called the "Book of Common Prayer," and so it is intended to be—common between minister and people; every service in it to be entered into by minister and people together; and this purpose cannot be carried out if the people do not follow the minister as he reads the service.

Keep your Prayer Book open and your eyes on the service as it is read by the minister!

And this leads to the further suggestion that everyone should own and carry with him his own Prayer Book and Hymnal. Additional books may be kept in the pews, but every worshipper should bring with him to church and take home with him his own personal Prayer Book and Hymnal. Your Prayer Book will come to mean something, then, by its long and faithful usage and its sacred associations.

Bring your own Prayer Books and Hymnals to church with you and take them home with you when you go!

The Prayer Books and Hymnals at the doors of the church are primarily intended for strangers.

BOOKS IN THE VESTIBULE

The Rector has had placed in the Tulpenocken Street vestibule of the Church a bookcase, in which will be found a number of books on religious and Church subjects.

The object of placing these books in the vestibule is to afford to all, who wish to use them, an opportunity of access to some of the best authorities on religious and kindred subjects, in which everyone, especially Churchmen, should be well informed.

These books will be loaned, without charge, to anyone who desires to read them.

The books may be kept for two weeks, after which time, they must be returned, with the privilege, however, of renewal for one week, if so desired.

No person may receive more than one book at a time.

Among this collection of books may be found a wide range of subjects, relating to religion and the teachings of the Church. There are a number especially suitable for Lenten reading. A list of the books is posted in the vestibule.

All attendants at the service of Christ Church are welcome to make free use of these books: the only conditions are that they be used carefully and returned within the time specified.

They are placed in the vestibule of the Church that the Congregation may have more ready access to them.

The books will be in charge of Mr.

Honaman, who will be glad to loan them to any one who may apply.

Mr. Honaman may be seen after any service.

A WORD TO PARENTS

Will not parents and others, who are interested in the welfare of the young, call the attention of all children eligible for Confirmation to the Instructions given in the Parish House on Sunday afternoons at four o'clock?

Parents and adult friends of the young are cordially invited to come with them.

Let no parent or sponsor neglect his duty this Lent to the children whom God has given him to bring up in His tear and love.

At the Baptism of your children this solemn obligation was placed upon you:

"Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose."

Are you doing your duty?

A REQUEST TO EVERY COMMUNICANT

The Rector repeats his request to all persons in this Parish who attend the service of the Holy Communion. The request is this: After receiving at the Holy Communion, return to your seats and remain to the end of the service, until after the benediction.

Unless ill or physically unable to remain, PLEASE do not leave the Church until the service is over! Can I put the request more kindly? If so, I want to do it, and shall be glad to be told how. But I must insist that this request be complied with by all. Everyone will realize the propriety and reasonableness of this request. It is most distasteful to the Rector to have to repeat it. He hopes that he will not be compelled to do so.

THE CHOIR

The music for Lent and Easter will be in keeping with this time of the Church Calendar. The choir will sing anthems of a quiet mood and the words taken from the Lenten lessons of the Scriptures. On Palm Sunday evening, April 10, the choir will sing Stainer's "Crucifixion." Easter Day, Gounod's St. Cecilia Service will be rendered.

Choir rehearsals are faithfully attended every Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Any one who would like to participate in this branch of service will be welcomed. Just speak to the Rector or Choirmaster.

The organ preludes will also reflect the spirit of Lent. The object of the organ prelude is to prepare for the mood of the Service to follow and the numbers are selected with this in mind. The Organist willingly will play any favorite selections, provided they are suitable for Church and will fit into the proper spirit of the Service for the day.

H. Gordon Thomas, Choirmaster.

A MISSION STUDY CLASS

During Lent there will be a Mission Study Class, under the auspices of the Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church, every Tuesday evening at 8 P. M. in the Parish House. The subject of mission study this year is "The Rural Work of the Church," about which we know little.

A hearty invitation is extended to all girls, young women and older women in the Parish to unite with the Girls' Friendly Society to make this Mission Study Class a spiritual and intellectual benefit to our Church people. This mission lies at our back doors; let us awake to its presence. The first Study will be on Tuesday evening, March 8th. L. J. J.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

There are some very striking facts about our Church School which should be of interest to every member of our Parish. The School has been growing steadily in numbers and the attendance is something of which we all may be justly proud. Here are some interesting figures:

January 16—Officers present, 4; Scholars and Teachers present, 98; Total, 102; Weather, very bad.

January 23—Officers, 5; Scholars and Teachers, 176; Total, 181; Weather, fair.

January 30—Officers, 5; Scholars and Teachers, 127; Total, 132; Weather, rain.

February 6—Officers, 5; Scholars and Teachers, 173; Total, 178; Weather, fair.

February 13—Officers, 5; Scholars and Teachers, 178; Total, 183; Weather, cloudy.

Perfect Classes

January 16—none.

January 23—Miss Gray, Mrs. Christ, Miss Armstrong.

January 30—Miss O'Brien.

February 6—Mrs. Christ, Miss Stryke, Mr. Malony.

February 13—Mrs. Christ, Miss O'Brien, Miss Breeding, Mr. Melville, Miss Gray.

Thus the average attendance for the five Sundays was 155.2; for the last four it was 168.5, and for the three best 180.7. These figures do not include the Men's Bible Class, which is now an integral part of the Church School, because the records have previously not been available. On February 13 there were 19 men present, making a total for the entire school of 199.

We may well be proud of this record, but we must continue our work—not rest on our laurels.

With the approach of Lent, we are making plans for our Lenten devotion and work. The mite boxes will be distributed on Quinquagesima Sunday, February 27. The offering this year will be divided between our Church's work in Alaska and that in Wuchang, China, two of the neediest fields of our mission field. We want to give those outside the Church School an opportunity to share in this work; hence all young people, those in the School and those who do not attend, are urged to procure mite boxes; also the parents of children who are too young to attend the School are welcome to receive mite boxes. This is a splendid opportunity which all should seize.

Some of the classes in the School are planning to have sales of some sort in order to increase, by work and sacrifice, the amount of the offering.

Children of the Church School are going to make a special effort to attend the Services of the Church during Lent, and they are urged to sit in a body with their teachers or with their parents; and teachers are urged to take their scholars to the Sunday morning Services.

This Lent can be made a season of great inspiration and progress if we will all co-operate. "Prayer and co-operation" is the motto of the Church School. Let us keep the motto before us and never fail to use it as our guide.

A splendid and helpful teachers' meeting was held in the Parish House on Sunday, January 30. A supper was served to the teachers by the Young People's Fellowship. Over twenty teachers were present at the meeting, and various problems of the School and plans for Lent were discussed.

What are the members of the congregation doing to help the Church School? Are you praying for it? Are you sending your children regularly and promptly? Are you inviting children who do not attend any School? Have you visited the School?

Remember, it is your Church School, and cannot succeed unless you are helping it.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary has recently sent out post cards with the dates of the four meetings to be held during February printed thereon; it is hoped that the cards will have been retained, so that those who received them can refer to the times of our meetings.

Lent will begin March 2nd and during those six weeks we earnestly desire that our "allotment" of sewing will be completed so that the finished work can be turned into the "Supply Bureau" immediately after Easter.

Perhaps there are a number of women in the Parish who might prefer to take one or more garments to make at home? If so, will you kindly consult the writer.

Please remember to save your "cast-off belongings" for our Rummage Sale in April. We are comfortably settled in our newly "furnished room" and we are most grateful to a good number of the people of Christ Church for various and suitable gifts. In the name of "The Woman's Auxiliary" I wish to express to them, through "The Chimes" our sincere appreciation and thanks.

L. M. Robinson.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

During Mrs. Rowley's illness, we have been so fortunate as to have with us at various times, Mrs. Mervin, Mrs. Eckersley and Mrs. Heyer. Thanks are due these ladies for their kind interest and assistance. We hope Mrs. Rowley will be with us again very soon.

At the present time we are busily sewing carpet rags for rugs, making plain and fancy aprons and crocheting fancy edges on towels and wash cloths. These and other useful articles for the household are for sale.

Any one in the parish who has scraps of dark material, will greatly oblige us by sending them to us for our rugs as we have a shortage of dark rags for our rugs.

New members are assured of a hearty welcome and a pleasant afternoon. Our meetings are from 2 to 4.30 every Tuesday afternoon.

A. M. M.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The Young People's Fellowship, in addition to being a social organization, tries to be of use to our Parish. The last effort was the serving of supper to the Church School teachers at their last meeting. Our next will be in the raising of money for our Lenten offering. All young people in the Parish are invited to join the "Fellowship." Come and help us. We need your ideas and your co-operation.

During the Lenten season the Young People's Fellowship will give a series of interesting stereopticon lectures. The slides are beautiful and the talks entertaining and instructive. The Young People are sure that no one would care to miss this opportunity so they extend a cordial welcome to all the members of the Sunday School and Church to come and meet with them Sunday evenings in Lent in the Parish House at 6.45.

The topics of the lectures are—

Sunday Evening, March 6th: "Social Results of Missions."

Sunday, March 13th: "Work Among the Southern Mountaineers."

Sunday, March 20th: "The Far East."

Sunday, March 27th: "The Alaska Mission."

Sunday, April 3rd: "Ten Thousand Miles on a Dog Sled."

Sunday, April 10th: "Missions in China."

NAMES OF ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

or Regular Givers to the Support of the Church.

All pews and sittings in Christ Church are free. The support of the work of the Church depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the congregation. There are at present 280 regular subscribers. This is less than half the communicant list of the Parish. These figures should be changed at once. Every member of the Parish should be a regular contributor. It is hoped that every one, who is not a contributor through the envelope system, will take a pledge card, which may be found in the vestibule, fill it out and place it on the alms plate at any service. Envelopes will then be sent to you. The pledge may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

This year, 1927, is the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of the founding of Christ Church Parish. Let every one co-operate in making it a "Banner Year."

This is "Our Aim for 1927":

"We can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth us."

"Every Member a Regular Worshiper;
Every Worshiper a Faithful Worker;
Every Worker a Generous Giver;
Every Giver a Spiritual Force."

SHALL WE STAND OR FALL?

BY THE REV. W. L. DAVIS

Not long ago one of my people asked me why it was that a certain priest at the presentation of the offering raised the plate above his head. I replied that I did not know, unless it was that he wished to demonstrate to the congregation that its offering was not so heavy but what he could lift it or that, perhaps, he wanted to get it up where God could see it.

I have been attendant upon services where it took two wardens, two vestrymen and an acolyte, the assistant minister, the Rector and a Bishop to get the offering (?) up onto the altar, while the congregation and the choir vied with one another in singing: "All things come of Thee, O Lord," or "Holy Offerings, rich and rare."

That reminds me of a true story. A number of years ago, when elaborate "presentations" came in vogue, an elderly priest of the Church was officiating in one of the then "up-to-date" churches, and at the time of the presentation of the alms the choir sang, with great gusto, the aforementioned "All things come of Thee, O Lord."

During the performance the old priest scowled at the plate and as the choir finished he turned to the congregation with the remark, "Big fuss to make over forty-three cents!"

A railroad company advertised for 300 wooden sleepers. By mail next day they received a reply from a clergyman offering the whole of his congregation on reasonable terms.

THERE ARE FEW ESTABLISHMENTS IN THIS CITY OFFERING MERCHANDISE OF QUALITY AND INDIVIDUALITY AS REASONABLY PRICED.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves
with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them
to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when
they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church:
"A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a Com-municant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free
and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly
through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the Rector
or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary,
may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church
Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church,
Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment
Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise
the bequest is void.

"Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?"

The "Forty Days" are now drawing to a close. The Lenten shadows deepen and we now enter Holy Week—into the mystery of the Passion of our Blessed Lord.

There rises before our eyes the Cross; and on the Cross—behold, crowned with thorns, the Immaculate Son of God, "who taketh away the sins of the world!"

"Is it nothing to you all ye that pass by?"

HOLY WEEK

Let each one of us during this Holy Week, which now draws near, let each one of us leave behind all distracting thoughts, all thoughts of the world, with its petty, trifling schemes and vanities, and let us contemplate in wonder, awe and love, the closing scene of our Lord's earthly life. Let us follow Him day by day from His triumphal entrance on Palm Sunday into the city He so dearly loved, until, weary and exhausted, He slowly goes His way along the "Via Dolorosa," passing through the gates of the city, which rejected Him, up to the Mount of Calvary, to the Cross.

At the daily Celebrations of the Holy Communion during Holy Week, the Church appoints in her Prayer Book, that each of the four Evangelists shall be heard in his narrative of the Passion and provides an appropriate Epistle and Gospel for each day.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated, accordingly, in Christ Church, every week day morning in Holy Week, until Maundy Thursday, inclusive. The service will be at half-past nine o'clock.

In the afternoons of Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 4.45 there will be service and short "Meditation" on the Sacred events of each day.

On Maundy Thursday evening the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D. D., Bishop of Pennsylvania, will visit this Parish and administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The service will be at 7.45 o'clock.

GOOD FRIDAY

The Daily Meditations in Holy Week will culminate on Good Friday with the Three Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross. The Meditation will be conducted by the Rev. Vincent F. Pottle, of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia. The service will begin at 12 o'clock noon.

This three-hour vigil will be preceded by a service at half-past ten o'clock, consisting of the Penitential Office, Pro-Anaphora and Address.

Where else would one, who realizes the meaning of this great and awful day that commemorates the Redeemer's suffering for the sins of the world—where else would one want to spend these sacred hours save in the House of God, and how else, save in Meditation, in Intercession and in Prayer?

Devout minds have found in these precious hours beside the Cross a deeper and a fuller realization of the wonderful love of God to us and the awful sinfulness of our nature. Let every seriously minded person in the Parish keep the day in solemn fasting, in humiliation and in prayer!

"Before the Cross, whose cruel wood
Upbears the dying Son of God,
Today my only thought shall be:
He died thereon for love of me!"

CANTATA, "THE CRUCIFIXION," ON PALM SUNDAY EVENING

On April 10th, Palm Sunday Evening, the choir will sing Stainer's Crucifixion. This presents the final events in the life of our Lord during Holy week. There are some emotions which can only be expressed through music and Stainer has caught these in his music. The Crucifixion has a message for you and in what better way could you enter Holy Week than by getting in tune with God through this message? The choir is working hard to make this rendition worthy of its message. Will you not do your part by coming yourself and bringing your friends? The soloists will be Mr. Frederick R. Davis, Bass, and Mr. Paul T. Ross, Tenor. Don't forget the date. The Palm Sunday evening of April 10th. There will be a message for YOU. Come and hear it.

SERVICES ON EASTER DAY

The Services on Easter day will be as follows:

Holy Communion.....6.30, 7.30 A. M.
Holy Communion, Sermon.11.00 A. M.
Church School's Easter

Carol Service 7.30 P. M.
Address by Louis Barcroft Runk, Esq.

Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week
Holy Communion..... 9.30 A. M.

The Rector will be assisted in the Services on Easter Day by the Rev. William H. Cavanagh.

EASTER COMMUNION

As these solemn days of Lent draw to a close, every soul that has followed our Lord during these past forty days, in His fastings, in His temptations, in His suffering and at the Cross, will be prepared and will yearn to be with Him on the Day of His Resurrection in the joy of Easter Communion.

Easter is the "Queen of the Festivals" and throughout the Christian ages has been the "Day of Days," when the faithful have solemnized the Resurrection of our Lord by coming to the Holy Communion.

Our "Holy Communion" then becomes our "Holy Eucharist," that is, as the term implies, our "holy thanksgiving."

If, then, we have spent this Lent in a faithful following of our Lord, we may truly share at the Holy Eucharist on Easter morning, the joy of His Resurrection. On this Resurrection morn, we may "lift up our hearts" and be in the very presence of our Risen Lord and with all God's saints in "one Communion and fellowship in the mystical body of His Son, Christ our Lord" and with the "angels and archangels and with all the company of Heaven," join in the beatific praise. "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts."

This is the Communion of the saints. This is the beatific vision St. John saw, "when in the spirit on the Lord's Day, Heaven was opened"; and this is the beatific vision vouchsafed to all God's saints who draw near unto Him in spirit and in truth on this Great Day of the Lord—the Day of His Resurrection from the Dead.

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS

The flowers in the chancel on Easter Day will all be memorials of the blessed dead. Persons in the congregation who wish to have flowers in the chancel on Easter Day in memory of friends who rest in Paradise are cordially invited to send blooming plants or cut flowers to the Parish House on Saturday preceding Easter, not later than noon.

Names of senders of flowers, together with the names of those in whose memory the flowers are sent, are requested to accompany the gifts.

Persons who wish to forward money contributions for flowers may send the same either to the Rector or to Miss Chase, President of the Altar Guild, 152 East Washington Lane. Flowers will be purchased by the Altar Guild and the memorials placed on the altar. Contributions of money are requested to be sent as soon as possible that an early selection of flowers may be made.

The plants and flowers are sent to the sick after Easter.

PROGRAM OF MUSIC FOR EASTER SUNDAY MORNING

Organ Prelude: Third Choral, Cesar-Franck.

Processional: "Welcome, Happy Morning."

Service: St. Cecilia, Charles Gounod.

Office Hymn: "Jesus Christ is Risen Today."

Offertory: "I know that my Redeemer liveth."

Recessional. "The Strife is O'er, the Battle Done."

Postlude: Fantasia in G Minor, Bach.

Soloists: Rosine J. Sundelius, Soprano; Jessie M. Crichton, Contralto; Paul T. Ross, Tenor; Frederick R. Davis, Bass.

The Easter Carol Service of the Church School will be held in the evening at 7.30 o'clock.

CONFIRMATION

The Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D. D., will visit this Parish on Maundy Thursday evening (April 14th) to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. It is not yet "too late" for persons who are moved by the Holy Spirit of God to confess Jesus Christ, to be confirmed. Some day, it may be "too late." The Rector will be glad to talk with anyone on this subject, after any service, or by appointment.

EASTER GREETINGS

The Rector wishes a Happy Easter, full of grace, and peace and joy to every Christian heart! Out of the darkness of Good Friday the Easter Light shines clear. May it, indeed, so shine into every soul in this Parish, brightening every life with hope and joy.

The shadows are interpreted by the light. Looking back, from the brightness of Easter morn into the darkness of the preceding days, we see the darkness was the precursor of the dawn.

What a difference it would make in every life, were we to see more clearly through the light of the Easter Day the meaning of the dark days of our life,—our failures, our temptations, our trials, the tragedies of our life!

God grant that on this Easter Day the members of our Parish may have some measure of that transforming vision! Let us thank God for the Easter revelation of the Risen Lord, whereby we know that all darkness, whether of pain, or disappointment, or sorrow, or death itself, is, to those who trust and live in the spirit of Christ, the herald of new life and hope and joy.

We may rejoice, then, even when we look into the grave: for we know that "He is not here, He is risen!"

Let us weave this blessed Easter truth into our lives! Let it give courage and hope to discouraged ones, comfort to the mourners—joy to every soul; for Christ has brought life and immortality to light! "I am the Resurrection and the Life," said the Lord; "he that believeth in Me, though he be dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die."

OUR EASTER OFFERING

Our offering on Easter Day should be a true expression of our love and loyalty to Jesus Christ. As he suffered and sacrificed and died for us, and rose again, that we through Him might have life eternal, so should we present on Easter Day such an offering as will mean something in His sight—will mean a real love and devotion, a genuine spirit of self-sacrifice for Him Whom we call our Lord and Saviour.

There should be no small coin on the plate on Easter Day, unless the giver is very poor. In that case the offering may be more worthy and more acceptable to God than the larger offering of the rich.

But my observation and experience during a long ministry has convinced me that the small coin in the offering is not given, as a rule, by the poorer members of the Parish. It is given by the careless, by the flippant, by the worldling, who have money to spend on themselves and for their own selfish ends, but economize in their gifts to God. And such giving, I repeat, is in no sense, worthy to be called a religious "offering," because it is devoid of the very essence of Christian giving—it is wanting in the spirit of sacrifice; it does not represent the spirit of love and devotion and consecration to Christ.

The Church regards the giving of money at the services, in no sense, as a "collection." The term "collection," in reference to giving of money at the service of worship should never be used. It is an offering, an offering to God, and, as such, is an essential part of worship; and the Rubric in the Prayer Book emphasizes this and directs that "the devotions of the people shall be reverently brought to the priest, who shall humbly present it (to God) and place it upon the Holy Table."

David of old said: "I will not offer unto the Lord my God of that which cost me nothing." And, surely, if David realized the meaning and the significance of an "offering unto the Lord," no one who calls himself a Christian and a follower of Jesus Christ can be said to have any real part in the solemn and serious worship of God, who lightly "offers unto the Lord that which costs him nothing."

Christian giving is an act of joy, because it is prompted by the spirit of love. And how much love is there in the person, how much Christian joy can come to anyone—who puts on the plate on Easter morning an insignificant amount, "that which costs him nothing."

"Freely have ye received, freely give."

This deficit had been reduced on March 1st, 1927, to $1531.11. It is hoped that this sum will be realized by the offering on Easter Day that the balance of this indebtedness can be paid in full. This would be especially desirable at this time as there are several very necessary renewals and repairs which the Vestry do not feel are advisable to be undertaken while this indebtedness exists.

The members of the Congregation are therefore urged to give as they are able, that the indebtedness now existing may be paid.

Christ Church is your Church. May we ask that you think of it as such on Easter Day when we gather to worship on this most important day of the Church year, and that your offering will be as liberal as you are able.

Respectfully submitted,
The Vestry of Christ Church,
Germantown.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

An election of Vestrymen of this Parish is to be held in the Parish House on Easter Monday, April 18th, between the hours of 5 and 6 P. M. Four Vestrymen are to be elected this year. The Vestrymen whose terms expire are Messrs. Bains, Carmichael, Clausen and Rowley.

The following extract is from the By-Laws of Christ Church. By-Law, Article 1, Section 8:

"Any qualified elector of this Parish may nominate for the office of Vestrymen one or more duly qualified persons to be voted for at the next succeeding annual election. All such nominations must be made in writing and delivered to the secretary at least ten days prior to such election, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post the names of all such nominees in the southeast vestibule of the Church at least two Sundays prior to the holding of such election and no person not so nominated shall be a candidate."

The Charter of Incorporation, Article 6, reads: "The Vestry of Christ Church shall consist of twelve men to be chosen by election from those duly qualified to vote thereat; and those only shall be entitled to vote thereat who are communicant members of said Church, of lawful age, and who, as shown by the books of the Church, shall have paid respectively for its support and maintenance for the period of, at least, two years next preceding any such election, annual subscriptions of not less than ten dollars.

The vote of a plurality of the qualified elector voting at any such election, shall be requisite for the election of any Vestryman.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

"Learn to live and live to learn" is one of the fundamental principles man must follow if he hopes to attain success. In secular matters most of us are willing to do so but when the spiritual side is considered there is, generally speaking, a reaction to this idea and most of those who consider themselves "members of the Church" do very little toward learning to live or living to learn.

Why this condition exists is not the object of this article. It is simply to bring before the men of this Parish and community, the fact that the Men's Bible Class, which meets every Sunday morning at 9.45 under the leadership of Col. Sheldon Potter, offers an opportunity whereby this difficulty may be overcome. A hearty invitation is extended to all men to attend the Class.

Col. Potter has been giving a course of talks on "The Revelation of God to Man" which has been extremely instructive and interesting. Any man wishing to "learn" will make no mistake in availing himself of the privilege of this course of studies.

Following the usual custom the Class will make a liberal contribution to the Sunday School Lenten Offering for Missions and it is hoped that in spite of the changes made necessary by the resignation of Mr. Morris as Superintendent, the School will not fall behind the fine record of the past two years.

One matter in which the Class has the right to take pride is the fact that fifty per cent of its members attend the services of our church. In comparing this record with those of other classes in this vicinity, we find the proportion much higher than most of them and this is very gratifying. Drives for large class attendance are not made but we have a body of men who are consistently present and when called upon for service are just as promptly on the job. They are learning to live and living to learn and if, Brother reader, you feel the desire to do likewise pay the Class a visit. We know you will come again.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

In the last issue of the "Chimes," some interesting figures about the Church School attendance were published. Our attendance had been growing steadily, and, we are thankful to say, it has been growing since that time. Let me call your attention to some more facts.

Attendance—February 27: Officers, 6; Bible Class, 20; Senior Department, 117; Primary Department, 49; Total, 192. Weather: Good.

March 6: Officers, 6; Bible Class, 19; Senior Department, 127; Primary Department, 56; Total, 208. Weather: Rain.

March 13: Officers, 5; Bible Class, 16; Senior Department, 139; Primary Department, 56; Total, 216. Weather: Fair.

March 20: Officers, 6; Bible Class, 12; Senior Department, 131; Primary Department, 51; Total, 200. Weather: Cloudy.

Star Classes for the four Sundays: Miss O'Brien, 4 times; Mrs. Christ, 3 times; Miss Dietz, 2 times; Miss Armstrong, 2 times; Mrs. Armstrong, 2 times; Miss Breeding, 3 times; Mr. Melville, 2 times; Mr. Malony, 2 times; Mrs. Shaeffer, 1 time; Major Smith, 1 time; Miss Gray, 1 time; Miss Stryke, 1 time; Miss Winpenny, 1 time.

Primary: Miss Robinson, 2 times; Miss Courtney, 1 time.

The average attendance for the four Sundays has been 204. This is excellent. Let us continue our splendid work. Parents! Much of the success or failure of the School depends upon you. Do not fail in your part.

We are now working on our Lenten offering, looking forward to Easter, and the joy which our offering shall bring to those for whom it is given. Our offering this year will be divided between our Church work in Alaska and that in Wuebang, China.

We are all acquainted with the need and sorrow of our Chinese mission which is in great need of our help.

The scholars are selling copies of the "Spirit of Missions," as well as taking orders for subscriptions to it. Do you know about this interesting and inspiring magazine of our Church? Read it and see for yourself. A part of the cost of the magazine will go into the child's mite box.

Remember our school in your prayers, and come to visit us!

E. M. H.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY (The Woman's Missionary Society)

During the past month our meetings have been held every Monday afternoon in the "Auxiliary Room." At the Business Meeting, on the first Monday of the month, Mrs. Pancoast spoke to us about the Bishops' Crusade, its inception and the work that is still to be done.

The third Monday is the Sewing Meeting. Our quota of garments for the Supply Bureau is well on its way to completion.

Two Mondays are devoted to readings and discussions of Missionary subjects. We feel that women who have not attended these meetings are missing a very pleasant and profitable time, and we shall be pleased to have them join us.

So far we have done nothing toward raising our usual $500 toward our Mission quota, but on the 28th and 29th of April we are going to have a Rummage Sale. Please remember this and save us anything for which you have no further use.

G. F. S.

The Girls' Friendly "Mission Study Class" has been very successful. This is the second year we have had the class and all the girls have thoroughly enjoyed it.

Our leader this year is Mrs. Van Harlinger and our topic has to do with churches in the rural districts. Many of our members who never come to our regular meetings have been coming to the "Mission Study Class" and we have had an average of about twenty-five girls at each meeting.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The members of Christ Church will be pleased to learn that John W. Wood, L. L. D., Executive Secretary of the Department of Missions of the National Council of the Church, will speak in Christ Church on Whitsun-day morning, June 5th, at the eleven o'clock service. Dr. Wood is, perhaps, the best informed person in the Church on the subject of Missions. He visits every missionary field of the Church throughout the world and from personal experience and knowledge understands the condition of the wide-flung missionary work. No one should miss the opportunity of hearing Dr. Wood in Christ Church on Whitsun-day morning, June 5.

NOTICE !!

"A Garden Party and Country Fair" at "Wyck"—the residence of Mr. Caspar N. Haines, Germantown avenue and Walnut Lane, Thursday, June 9th, 1927, from 3 till 8 o'clock. Given by the Convocation of Germantown for St. Barnabas Mission, Germantown.

Supper, 5-7.30, including admission, $1.00.

In case of rain the Fair and Supper will be held in Christ Church Parish House, Tulpehocken and McCallum Streets.

The number of supper tickets to the "Wyck Fete" will be limited to 750, hence it is urgent that you obtain your ticket as soon as possible if you wish to attend. Tickets for the same may be procured from the writer.

Contributions of cake, candy, fancy articles, flowers, plants or articles for "The White Elephant" table are solicited from the members of Christ Church for the Fair.

THE EASTER OFFERING

The offering received on Easter Day amounted to $1560.98, which was a little more than the amount asked for by the Vestry.

EASTER COMMUNIONS

At the Easter services on Easter Day 546 persons received the Holy Communion. This is the largest Easter Communion of which there is any record in this Parish.

REPORT OF THE JUDGES FOR ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

Philadelphia, Pa.,

April 18, 1927.

We, the undersigned, having been appointed Judges of the Election for Vestrymen at Christ Church, Germantown, hereby certify that an Election was duly held this day in the Parish House, corner of Tulpehocken and McCallum streets, Germantown, at five o'clock, and the following gentlemen were elected to serve for three years: Mr. Edward Bains, Dr. T. H. Carmichael, Mr. U. G. Rowley, Mr. W. H. Clausen, Jr., and Dr. Walter H. Andrus to serve for one year.

Judges of Election—Robert J. Lehman, William S. Crowder, James Carmint, Jr.

CHANGE OF HOUR FOR SUNDAY MORNING SERVICES

On the last Sunday in June, the Second Sunday after Trinity, June 26th, the hour of the mid-day Service will be at half past ten, instead of eleven o'clock, and will continue at the same hour up to and including the thirteenth Sunday after Trinity, September 11th.

This change of hour to half past ten, daylight saving time, brings the mid-day service to a cooler part of the day. It also affords the members of the Church School the opportunity of attending the Church Service.

During the past three years there has been a large attendance on the part of the members of the School and it is hoped that this will continue during the coming summer months. A short talk will be given, as usual, to the young people, preceding the sermon. The entire service will be over before noon.

The hours of the other Sunday Services will remain the same, viz. Holy Communion, every Sunday, at 7.30 A. M. Evening prayer with short address, 7.45.

The average attendance at the Sunday Evening Services last summer was unusually large. This was due to the good music by the choir and the interesting addresses by the clergy in charge.

The Rector is glad to announce that the same clergy will be in charge during the coming summer. The Rev. C. Sydney Goodman, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, will have charge of the services during July and the Rev. William W. Steel, formerly rector of St. Mary's Church, West Philadelphia and later Archdeacon of Cuba, during the month of August.

The services of these clergymen will be at the disposal of the members of the Parish at any time, if word is left with the Verger, Mr. John Hurst, at the Parish House, phone Victor 9650 or by phone to his house, 6321 Baynton. Phone Victor 6448.

Please remember the hour of the mid-day Service—10.30 A. M. Daylight Saving Time, beginning Sunday morning, June 26th and continuing until September 11th, inclusive.

The week day services will be omitted during the summer months until St. Matthew's Day, September 21st, when there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9.30 A. M.

SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PARISH

This year, 1927, marks the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of Christ Church Parish. The anniversary will be appropriately celebrated in the fall by special meetings and services. It will be an occasion for praise and thanksgiving for all of God's mercies and blessings vouchsafed to this Parish during the past seventy-five years. Further announcements will be given in the next issue of the Chimes.

A LETTER FROM THE BOY SCOUTS

The following has been received by the Rector from the Assistant Scoutmaster of the scout troop of this Parish, with request that it be published in the Chimes.

May 19th, 1927

Dear Dr. Arndt:

On behalf of Troop 153 Boy Scouts of America, of your parish, I wish to thank you for the use of the Parish House. We certainly appreciate the kindness of yourself and congregation in this and many other ways.

We have a Red Star Troop that is awarded a special honor each year by the Philadelphia Scout Council for troops passing a very rigid inspection, covering all scout activities. We would like you to extend an invitation to the younger boys in the church to drop in and see us in action. Our roll is not complete at the present time.

Thanking you again, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Assistant Scoutmaster,

Elwood P. MacWhorter.

POOR CHILDREN'S OUTING FUND

The annual offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund will be taken in Christ Church on Sunday morning, June 19th. This annual offering has become an established custom in Christ Church and always meets with a generous response on the part of the members of Christ Church. This is one of the most worthy charities to which our people are privileged to give. It affords an opportunity to persons who are blessed with comfortable homes and to those who can get away for rest and recreation during the hot summer months, to remember the little children in the less fortunate and more needy families, who live in the narrow and crowded streets and alleys of our city, by sending them to the country for one week or more, where they can enjoy pure, fresh air and good wholesome food.

Please remember the date of this offering for the Poor Children's Outing Fund, Sunday morning, June 19th. If you are not present in Church on that Sunday please send your offering to the Accounting Warden, Mr. Edward Bains, 1018 Westview avenue, Germantown.

A LETTER FROM THE ACCOUNT- ING WARDEN

The accounting warden is glad to report that the total of the Easter offering amounted to $1560.98, thus more than realizing the amount asked by the vestry which was $1531.11. This offering made it possible to repay the loans made by the Chelton Trust Company which had been necessary to make in order that the bills contracted for the proper upkeep and maintenance of the church could be promptly met.

A committee of the vestry have been giving careful consideration to the ways and means of increasing the revenues of the parish. It is rather surprising that on going over the communicant list of those from whom the support of the church would come to find so many giving little or nothing towards its support. There are over 600 members of the parish but of this number but 285 regularly contribute through the envelopes. The offerings of this proportion for church maintenance for 1926 were $6104.47. In addition, these contributors gave to the missionary apportionment in the other side of envelopes $2519.96. It can be readily seen what a large proportion of the expense of the parish is borne by this small proportion of the members when the remaining portion contributed less than $940.71, the total of all the plate offerings for the year, some of which also came from those contributing through the envelopes. If each member would realize their responsibility towards the support of the church, this large discrepancy would certainly not exist, and the finances of the church be placed on a much firmer basis. Envelopes will gladly be furnished those not now subscribing through this system on application to the accounting warden. These pledges it is understood can be changed or cancelled at any time on due notice being given to the accounting warden.

The response to the appeal made to the congregation by Major Smith for the flood sufferers was most gratifying. $177.45 was sent to the Red Cross from the special offering taken on the 8th inst. including the amounts later received and $94.68 was sent from the Sunday School.

Edward Bains,
Accounting Warden.

THE MORNING SERVICE

On Sunday, June 26th, the summer session of the Church School will begin. The School will not meet in the Parish House, but the members will attend the Service in the Church, beginning at 10.30 A. M.

Preceding the sermon, a short address will be given to the members of the School, after which, during the singing of a hymn, the younger children may be excused. Parents are invited to be present with their children at this morning service. This will be a splendid opportunity for all parents in this community to accompany their children to this short service and to teach them in the ways of the Church. The short address to young people will be both interesting and instructive.

The usual sermon to adults will follow the short address. The entire service will be brief, and will be helpful to all who attend.

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE CHIMES SOLICITED

A large number of persons in the Parish do not subscribe toward the expense of the publication of the Chimes. While it is desired that every family in the Parish shall have a copy each month of the Chimes and that every member shall read it, it is hoped that all will realize that the publication of the Chimes depends upon the contributions and subscriptions received. It appears that a great many take the Chimes "as a matter of course," and do not think of their duty to help pay for the expense. Will not all members in the Parish co-operate in the expense of the publication of the Chimes and send their contribution or subscriptions to Mr. Frederick Lennig, 316 High Street, Germantown?

Subscription price, 75 cents. Amount of contributions—unlimited.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

The Church School Easter service was held as usual in the Church on Easter evening. The service was well attended both by the scholars and by their friends and members of the Congregation. The Lenten offering for missions was presented and prizes were awarded for perfect attendance at Church School. Forty-seven pupils and teachers received awards in recognition of faithful and constant attendance at the sessions of the school. This is a noble record and cannot help but inspire all of us with its influence of loyalty and devotion.

Those who received awards were as follows:

One year—Elizabeth Bose, John Courtney, Thomas Pritchard, William Coyle, Elizabeth Stiver, Alfred Rittenhouse, Edward Wilcox, Sherman Rambo, Caroline Dove, Clara Hilliard, Miss Louise Dietz.

Two years—Gertrude Ard, Helen Logan, Jean Fitch, Louise McIlhenny, Helen Wertsner, Katherine Wertsner, Harriet Fitch, Ruth Carmint, Robert McIlhenny, Helen Robinson, Charles Ard, Mrs. Eleanor Christ.

Three years—Jane Courtney, George Johnson, William Stryke, Beatrice Johnson, Ruth Fitch.

Four years—Miss Marjorie Stryke.

Five years—Marjorie Wismer, Margaret Boyer, Jeanette Gilfillan, Graham Klink, Robert Klink.

Six years—Anna Bradley, Helen Jackson, Howard Logan, James Osborne, Ann Wertsner, May Johnston.

Seven years—Martha McHenry, Nancy Courtney, Mary Keenan.

Eight years—Elizabeth Haas.

Fifteen years—Mrs. Raisbrown.

The Lenten offering amounts to $707.40, with approximately fifty dollars outstanding. This total is somewhat smaller than last year, but the same spirit of loyalty and sacrifice was shown by the school. The fair which was held on April 22 added sixty-two dollars to the total but the remainder was raised by the individual efforts of the scholars and teachers. The primary department deserves especial commendation for its splendid offering of ninety-seven dollars.

On Sunday, June 5, at the Academy of Music, the national Presentation Service of the Lenten Offering will be held. Christ Church School will be present, and we hope that all the scholars and teachers will be present Sunday, June 5th.

A teachers' meeting was held in the Parish House on Tuesday, May 17. Various problems of the school were discussed and plans for next year were outlined. The school will begin its summer sessions on the fourth Sunday in June (June 26th) and commence its winter schedule on the third Sunday in September (Sept. 18). During the summer, the school will, as usual, be held in connection with the morning service in the Church. Fifteen teachers and officers were present at the meeting.

The present year has been a very successful one for the school. The attendance has grown, the morale of the school has been raised, the teachers have been regular, efficient, and devoted, and every one has helped to produce a united school with a high purpose.

Shall not next year be still greater than this? It all depends on each one of us. Come to the opening meeting of the school; come promptly; bring others who don't attend Church Schools. And always remember, our motto is "Prayer and Cooperation." Are you praying for our school? Are you cooperating?

On Saturday, June 4, the Primary Department will have a party in the Parish House at 3 P. M. The parents and friends of the scholars are cordially invited to attend.

E. M. H.

THE MISSIONARY QUOTA

The Missionary Quota that Christ Church Parish is expected to give annually is $4600. This Parish is credited in the Diocesan report as having again exceeded its quota.

Too much praise cannot be given to the members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Parish for the large share which they have had in raising that amount.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

On Maundy Thursday evening, April 14th, the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, visited this Parish and confirmed a class of thirty-eight persons. Five members of the Class were from Grace Church, Mt. Airy, and were presented by the Rector, the Rev. Charles E. Eder. Thirty-three persons were from Christ Church, thirteen girls, nine boys, four women and seven men. The names of the members who were confirmed from this Parish are as follows:

Katherine Stockton Andrus.

Rebecca Barton Baker, Samuel Newman Baxter, Jr., William Ashton Booz, Corinne Lillian Bose, John Mitchell Boyton, Jr., Mabel Charlotte Briggs.

George Walter Coyle, Elizabeth Everett Cummings.

Harriet Hathaway Fitch, Jean Isabelle Fitch, George Comly Foust, Jr., William Wahl Frech.

Ann Haines, Frances Ella Hocker, Helen Cummings Jackson, George Henry Johnston, Jr., Helen Elizabeth Johnston, Henry Rodney Jordan.

Marjorie Ruth Kittson.

Max Mulready Bell Levy.

Harold Dart Ovington.

George Melvin Parsley.

Helen Elmira Rambo, James Alfred Rittenhouse.

Phillip Fitch Snyder, Mary Elizabeth Stiver.

Henry Hamilton Warner, Rex Raymond White, Anita Catheryn Wilfong, Nancy Stoughton Winter, Walter Herbert Wismer, Jr., Elizabeth Chase Woodroffe.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The girls of the G. F. S. of our Parish are all on tip toe over the events to take place in May, thus closing our season for the summer months.

On Saturday, May 21st the Diocesan Garden Party of the G. F. S. will take place at the Germantown Cricket Club from 3 to 8. All kinds of sports, all kinds of things for sale, and all kinds of things to eat. Objects—Washington National Centre—the Memorial to mark the 50th anniversary of our existence—The White Williams Foundation—and the Boston Conference of the G. F. S. in the whole U. S.—special attention given to this year's Conference in honor of the 50th Anniversary.

On May 31st the Christ Church Branch of the G. F. S. will give an unusual entertainment in the Parish House to revive its almost depleted Treasury. This will be an Orthophonic demonstration through the courtesy of the Wilson Office of Germantown. Then Mrs. Florence Conrad Griscom will give an illustrated talk on "Birds" accompanied by slides that she has taken on her own place at Roslyn where she spends her life making homes for birds and safeguarding them. At the end of the evening the Orthophonic will provide the music for a dance.

On Sunday, June 5th, there will be a Candle Light Service under the auspices of the G. F. S. of our Parish. This will be held in the church at 7.45. We are hoping the congregation will be present to witness this very beautiful and impressive service which is the outward symbol of the object of the Girl's Friendly Society throughout the world, to unite for the glory of God and the fellowship of man—to bear one another's burdens, thus fulfilling the law of Christ. All are invited to this interesting service.

L. J. J.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The next business meeting will be held in "The Auxiliary Room" in the Parish House, June 6th at 2 P. M. at which time we shall hope to have a speaker with us.

At the May meeting, we decided to issue "Self Denial Coin Cards," in June, among the women of our Parish, to be used during the summer; the same to be returned at the first business meeting in October. From the Coin Cards we hope to realize an "Offering" to go towards our yearly $500.00 Special for Missions. We trust that this plan will appeal to the women of Christ Church. From the recent "Rummage Sale" we derived the sum of $163.25. We are most grateful to the many persons in our Parish who aided so materially, by contributing Rummage. We anticipate giving another such sale in the autumn.

During May we have had the pleasure of having with us two speakers, Miss Dean, of the Italian Mission in our Diocese and the Rev. Mr. Baldwin, of Dupree, South Dakota, who told us of his missionary activities in that far-off state.

Among the many "hopes" of the Auxiliary, is this one that is cherished—that in the very near future every woman in Christ Church may become vitally interested in Missionary Work.

We are, all of us, stewards in our Lord's service, whether we accept our responsibility or not.

L. M. R.

BROTHERHOOD CAMP FOR BOYS

"Camp Bonsall," for Episcopalian boys in this part of the country, will operate this year on the following schedule: Leadership Training Conference for older boys, June 28—July 9; Younger Boys' period, July 11th—July 23; Boys' Clubs or other Parish organizations, July 25th—August 6. Camp Bonsall is located on Big Elk Creek, near Kelton, Chester county, Pennsylvania, fifty miles from Philadelphia. The Leadership Training Conference is open to all Church boys from 15 to 21 years of age. The Younger Boys' Period is open to all Church boys 12-15 years of age.

The Rector will be pleased to furnish further information to parents or to any boy in the Parish.

A SERMON FOR SUMMER

(Published by request)

Jotham did that which was right in the sight of the Lord; howbeit he entered not into the temple of the Lord. And the people did yet corruptly. II Chron. 27:2.

Why is it that a man may live a good, upright life for many years and then do some one foolish or wretched thing, and that one thing will set the world against him and counteract all the good of his life? That was the way it was with King Jotham. He was a good man and a good king. "He did that which was right in the sight of the Lord,—Howbeit, he entered not into the temple of the Lord."

Like a great many other good people, Jotham was not addicted to the church going habit; did not, perhaps, feel the need of it. He was the King and therefore felt that he could do just as he pleased; do his duty just as well without any such ritual as the temple service supplied. And what was the result? What was the effect? The text tells us. "The people did corruptly." That was the result. It is always pretty sure to be the result. Jotham's example, as king, was ruinous to the morals of the nation. Spiritual apathy on his part became moral degradation in its wider issues. Jotham, as an individual, may have felt himself justified in dispensing with public worship of God; Nevertheless, the result of his example is recorded. Other men, perhaps weaker than he, more exposed to the grosser temptations of life, temperamentally men of less self control, followed his example; kept away from God's house and there was the inevitable, wide spread result—moral corruption, national ruin. "And the people did corruptly."

I want to say something on this question of Church Going today. Personally, I am not a pessimist on this subject. I am sure that more thoughtful, intellectual men are going to church today than there were ten years ago. I believe, on the other hand, and I regret to say it, that proportionally more women are neglecting church attendance than formerly. That is especially so among women of leisure, the so-called society women, who go along the line of least resistance, and for whom Sunday is often crowded with social engagements. In the aggregate, of course, there are more women in our churches than men; perhaps that is the reason, as some one has said, that there are less women in our jails and penitentiaries than men. But according to a recent thorough survey, it is reported, there is an average upward grade in this matter of church attendance. There is a gradual reaction from the great religious indifference of a few years ago.

But there is another side to this question and it would be folly to deny it. There are multitudes of men and women who, like Jotham are living decent, respectable lives who never cross the threshold of a church. Many of these good people give generously to philanthropic enterprises and charitable objects. They are public spirited, but, so far as religious duty is concerned, they stand apart from the church of God, utterly indifferent. It is to this class of people that our text this morning has a special lesson. Let us suppose that King Jotham felt himself justified in staying away from the temple service. He may not have been in accord with the way things were run at the synagogue or the temple. He may not have liked the Rabbi or the Priest. He may not have liked the singing. He may not have liked this or that, or some other thing. Therefore, he would stay at home.

So he may have reasoned with himself. But, meanwhile, in ways unseen, by influences of which he never knew, Jotham's example, we read, brought wide spread ruin throughout the nation. "The people did corruptly." The example of one influential person becomes contagious. Jotham forgot, as we sometimes forget, that the influence of one bad habit on our associates, on our children, on our employees, is sufficient to offset the influence of many good habits. The people were more ready to follow Jotham's faults than his virtues. It is not our consistency in many things that men judge us by, but our inconsistencies in one thing. A man may be a good husband, a kind father, a generous friend; and yet, if the world can detect in that man's life one glaring inconsistency—as for example, that he is not square in his money transactions —then, you may be sure, that by an unerring instinct the world will judge that man, not by what he sometimes is, but what he sometimes is not; not by the many good things that he does, but by the one or two glaring, bad things in his life. Shakespeare has said, "The evil that men do live after them; the good is oft interred with their bones." Is that not true? You may say that it is an uncharitable judgment, that it is unfair, unjust. "Jotham did right in the sight of the Lord—howbeit he entered not into the temple of the Lord." It is this, "Howbeit," in a man's biography that in nine cases out of ten turns the scale of his influence. "Jotham did that which was right in the sight of the Lord; howbeit, he entered not into the temple of the Lord."

So it is with the matter of church attendance. If all the people were to follow the example of some very good, respectable persons who never attend church, where would this city be? Where would this country be, if every Christian church were closed today? What would be the result on the moral and spiritual condition of this or any other community? When some benevolent work is to be done, some hospital to be erected, some charity to be ministered, who, as a rule, are the people sought to help? It is the people of the Christian Churches. There is no doubt about that, and is there any man who, if he could, would assume the responsibility of tearing down the churches of this land? Immediately a deterioration of morals would ensue. And yet, that is what every man or woman who does not attend and help to support the church is, in a measure, doing. A tremendous slump in ideal would follow, and, all over the land in the places of destroyed houses of worship, would spring up innumerable places of nameless degradation. There can be no doubt about that. And I say that every man and woman who habitually refuses to attend God's house from the very fact, that he or she is a moral, respectable person, is helping along, unconsciously, it may be, to the limit of his or her ability, this degradation of life for the entire community. It does not matter how good a man may be in his own private life—Jotham's character was unimpeachable—or how correct his personal life may be—Jotham's life was exemplary—his influence, like that of Jotham's neglect in refusing to enter the house of God, is a direct contribution to the lowering of the standard of the community and the eventual degradation of the nation. "Jotham did that which was right in the sight of the Lord; howbeit, he entered not into the temple of the Lord, and the people did corruptly."

Today I want to plead especially with you, my friends, who in a short time may have left the city for a summer outing. As you love your country, as you love your fellowmen, as you love your children, or those who look to you for example, as you believe in God, as you are loyal to Christ, do not live the life of summer atheism, do not leave behind you your religious and church responsibilities. Do not say like the little girl said as she went away for the summer, "Good-bye, God, we are going off on a vacation." I sometimes think that, if the angels look down into some of our empty churches in mid-summer, and see the empty pews and deserted altar, there must be many a tear shed in the kingdom of heaven.

Meanwhile what are Mr. so and so and Mrs. families doing? In the winter months you will see them in church with a fair degree of regularity but away from home, church and their religious duties are never thought of. And what is the result? I will not speak of the immense evil results upon themselves and upon their own families, but what is the awful effect of their religious and church indifference upon the community where they spend their summer. It is absolutely demoralizing to the people in the country districts if the city man or woman presents Sunday after Sunday, the spectacle of Sunday desecration. If they use that day for purposes which make church going a mockery, is it likely that the young man or woman living in that community, witnessing the example set by the men and women from the city, is going to have a particularly high ideal of church people or of the obligations of the Lord's day. Still less will the countryman, the servant in the hotel, where you may be staying, think of his spiritual obligations, if he knows that a city man or woman, who so openly scorns God's house in the summer and desecrates Sunday, is, in the winter, a reputable member, perhaps a vestryman or a Sunday School teacher, at home? To whom will God some day lay the responsibility of the decadence of religion in the country places? May it not be laid to the Godless example of summer visitors? So far from being a blessing, the advent of the summer boarder is often a curse to many a quiet, country village.

Do you realize, my friends, the tremendous neutralizing power such glaring inconsistencies in our life has upon others? One glaring inconsistency in a person's life is like the sleeve of a careless school boy at his copy books; he smears and blots with his arm what he writes fair with his hand. It is the smeared page that is most conspicuous at which the world looks and by which it judges us, and not the care and pain with which we may originally have tried to reproduce in our lives the precepts of the Gospel.

Jotham was a good man, "howbeit, he entered not into the temple of the Lord," and, therefore—Jotham's wife, and Jotham's children and Jotham's family—his friends, his employees, his associates—and therefore, "the people did corruptly."

So, this morning, I plead for a more consistent, sincere type of spiritual living. Let us resolve that, for the coming summer months, no matter where we may be, in the country, or in the mountains, or at the shore, or here at home, we will remain loyal to God, faithful in our prayers, faithful in our church attendance, faithful in our worship at the Holy Communion.

And more than that, every day that we live, the whole year round, let us seek to be true to Him, in our walk and conversation, not for our own selves only, but, also, for the sake of others. Let the prayer of the saintly George Herbert be our prayer:

"Teach me, my God and King,
In all things Thee to see,
And what I do in everything,
To do it as to Thee."

THE SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF CHRIST CHURCH

The Seventy-Fifth anniversary of the founding of Christ Church Parish will be observed during the week beginning Sunday, October 30th.

This Anniversary will be an occasion for thanksgiving to Almighty God, the Giver of all good gifts, for the mercies and blessings that He has vouchsafed to this parish during the past seventy-five years. We have much to be thankful for, both as a parish and as individuals. We, who worship today in Christ Church, are enjoying the fruits of others' sowing. It is the result of the labors and sacrifices of others that the foundations of this parish were laid. It is the result of the labors and sacrifices of others that this beautiful Church was built. We, who today worship within these walls, have entered into an inheritance, rich in memory of saintly persons, who have loved and labored and sacrificed that we, their followers, might "carry on" the work of God. "Other men labored and ye are entered into their labors."

Let us, my friends, thank God, on this Seventy-Fifth Anniversary, for the noble examples of faithfulness, of generosity, of consecration that have been handed down to us as a precious legacy from the past.

May the example of the many faithful men and women of this parish who have been called to a higher service inspire us to carry on willingly and cheerfully the work so well begun and carried on by them. As they were faithful "laborers together with God," may we count it our chiefest duty and privilege to give our earnest prayers, our unceasing labors and our liberal gifts to the Church of Christ in which our Heavenly Father has placed us.

Faithfully yours,

Charles Henry Arndt.

RECONSECRATION SUNDAY
NOVEMBER 6th

In the above program of services it will be noted that Sunday, November 6th, has been set aside as "Re-consecration Sunday."

The end and object of celebrating the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of Christ Church parish should not be, simply, to mark the completion of seventy-five years in its history. This celebration should have a deeper meaning and a more far-reaching significance than that.

This occasion should mean, to every member of the parish, a re-consecration of self, of soul and body, to a more complete personal surrender to the service of Jesus Christ and his Church. To the older members of the parish, not many years are left to work in His vineyard; even to the youngest, "the time is short." Let each one of us realize that "life is real and life is earnest." Let each of us realize the preciousness of time and the rapid passing of opportunity, which God gives to every one. Let each of us, on this occasion of our Anniversary, solemnly consecrate himself anew to God and pledge himself to a more faithful, self-sacrificing service to Jesus Christ. And, to the younger and to the new members of the parish, this Anniversary should be an occasion of an awakening of the conscience to a full realization of their personal responsibility to "carry on" the great work of the Church, which the faithful men and women who have gone before have handed over to you, "a people of inheritance as ye are this day." "Ye have reaped that whereon ye bestowed no labor. Other men labored and ye are entered into their labor."

I am, therefore, appointing Sunday morning, November 6th, as a Re-Consecration Sunday for all members of this parish. I ask every member of Christ Church, solemnly set aside that day, as a Day of Personal Re-Consecration and on that day be present at the celebration of the Holy Communion. I earnestly appeal to every indifferent member, who has allowed himself, for whatsoever cause it may be, to stray away from the Church and to neglect the life-giving Sacraments,—I earnestly appeal to every indifferent member of this parish to "recall to mind the solemn promise and vow you once made before God's altar," and I ask that on this Anniversary Sunday, this Sunday of Re-Consecration, you renew your "solemn vow and promise," with earnest prayers to God that you may be more conscientious, more deeply consecrated in the faithful discharge of your Christian duty.

And those in our parish who have been ever loyal and true—and there are not a few—the vestrymen, the workers in the parish Guild, the members of the Church School, the faithful attendants at the services of the church, I ask you all to present yourselves at the altar on Sunday morning, November 6th, asking God to help you and to give you strength to do the work which He has given you to do, to direct and guide you in all your endeavors and keep you faithful, even unto the end.

Faithfully your friend and Rector,
Charles Henry Arndt.

A PARISH REUNION AND RECEPTION

A parish re-union and reception will be held in the parish house on Friday evening, November 4th, from eight to ten o'clock. This re-union will be an occasion for every member of the parish, and for all who attend Christ Church, to meet together as members of one church family on the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of our "Mother Parish." Every loyal, loving child would commemorate with respect, the seventy-fifth birthday of an earthly parent. Surely, with, at least, equal respect and love and joy we should commemorate the birthday of our spiritual mother—the parish. Not only all present members of the parish are invited to this re-union, but also, all who were formerly members of this parish, or have been, in any way connected with the Church, will be welcome. It is expected that Bishop Garland, the Bishop of the Diocese, will be present.

There will be music and light refreshments served.

It is hoped that every member of the parish will be present.

MUSIC FOR ANNIVERSARY

The Choir, under the direction of Gordon Thomas, choirmaster, is preparing special music for the services on the Sundays of "Anniversary Week," beginning Sunday, October 30th, and ending Sunday, November 6th. Saturday, November 5th

For the unity of the Church; for peace and concord among the nations; for the spread of Christ's Kingdom upon Earth.

COLONEL SHELDON POTTER IMPROVING

The many friends of Col. Sheldon Potter, senior vestryman of Christ Church, will be pleased to learn that he is steadily recovering from the serious illness, with which he has been confined to the Germantown Hospital for the past two months. The prayers of the members of Christ Church will not cease to be said on behalf of Col. Potter that he may be restored to health and strength and be spared to continue his useful life in this community and in this Church, where he has been a faithful vestryman for forty-two years.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

The first thing on the winter's program for the Mothers' Meeting will be the collection of our contributions for the Needle Work Guild. Our share has always been a creditable one and we hope to make an even better showing this year than heretofore.

Afterward we expect to have our usual Autumn sale of rugs, towels, aprons and other household articles.

All old members and new ones will be most cordially welcome to our first meeting on Tuesday, October the eleventh.

A. M. M.

THE ANNIVERSARY OFFERING A THANK-OFFERING

At a meeting of the Vestry held Tuesday, October 4th, it was decided to ask the members of Christ Church to make the offering on "Anniversary Sunday," November 6th, a Thank-Offering—"an offering to preserve the inheritance of the Church."

In the words of one of the Committee: "It is thought that every one in any way connected with or included in Christ Church today is thankful for the inheritance he or she now enjoys."

"The founders built wisely and well in their day and how generously their successors followed their example in the day of disaster, when the Church building was destroyed in 1878, is evidenced by the present beautiful Church in which we now worship."

It is, surely, our duty "to preserve the inheritance of the Church" to keep in repair and in good condition the Church buildings which have been handed down to us.

This requires, each year, a large outlay of money, which must be realized at any sacrifice; for delays in repairs sometimes are dangerous and "a stitch in time saves nine."

One of the objects of this "Thanksgiving Offering," which is asked from the members of the parish on Anniversary Sunday, November 6th, will be to make it possible to attend to some present very necessary repairs to the Church property and also to provide a fund from which to draw from time to time, that repairs needed in the future may not be delayed.

"An Offering to Preserve the Inheritance of the Church"—Surely, this object will strongly appeal to every member of the parish who has entered this "inheritance," which the founders and their successors, by their labors and sacrifices, have handed down to us.

"Freely have ye received; freely give."

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Christ Church School opened for the year 1927-28 with a splendid attendance of both pupils and teachers on September 18th. There was a Corporate Communion at 7.30 followed by breakfast in the Parish House, and the regular session of the school was held at 9.45. This was "Consecration Day" for the School—the day when all consecrated their lives afresh to the work of Christ in our Parish. Thanks for the successful breakfast are due to the Misses Armstrong, Stryke and Breeding.

We deeply regret the loss of several faithful teachers this year, Mrs. Morris, whose place will be filled by Mrs. Wurts, Mrs. Armstrong, whose place will be filled by Miss Clifton, Mrs. Schaeffer, who will be succeeded by Miss Irwin, and Mrs. Christ, whose place will be filled by Mr. Hamilton Warner. Our prayers and best wishes go with our faithful friends.

A meeting of the teachers and officers was held on Thursday, September 29th. Plans for the year were discussed and various suggestions were offered. The following committees were appointed.

Executive Committee: Miss Dietz, Miss Gray, Miss Courtney, Mr. Maloney, Mr. Melville, Chairman.

Christmas Committee: Miss Clifton, Miss Stryke, Mr. Clausen, Chairman.

Thanksgiving Committee: Mr. Maloney.

The program for the School's participation in the seventy-fifth anniversary of Christ Church was outlined. The teachers agreed to visit all their scholars before the anniversary, so, if you have children in the school, be ready to give a hearty welcome to their teacher. Plans were also suggested for a membership campaign.

On September 25th every teacher was present in the School—a splendid record.

On October 2nd two boys received pins for seven years perfect attendance. They were James Osborne and Howard Logan.

Miss Annette Wells has taken a class in the primary department.

Our Church School has had a splendid start for the year and there is every reason to expect improvement and progress. Are you helping with your prayers and cooperation? All young people in this community will be welcomed to our School.

A SERVICE OF INTERCESSORY PRAYER FRIDAY AFTERNOONS

I wish to call attention to the members of Christ Church and others living in this vicinity to the Service of Evening Prayer which is held in Christ Church on Friday afternoons at 5 o'clock.

At this service special intercessory prayer is made on behalf of persons in physical, mental, or spiritual need.

Persons who wish special intercessions on their behalf or on behalf of friends are asked to notify the Rector. He may be seen in the Sacristy of the Church half hour before this service on Friday afternoons.

MEMORIAL ALTAR FLOWERS

The Altar Society has charge of placing on the Altar the flowers given by members of the Parish in memory of their departed friends. This beautiful custom of remembering at the Altar the dear ones who rest in Paradise has been observed in this Parish for many years, and any in the Parish who wish to have the names of their friends on this "Memorial List" are invited to consult with the Rector, and he will be pleased to assign to them a Sunday nearest to the anniversary of the marriage, or birth, or death of their "Blessed Dead." After the Sunday Service the flowers are sent to the sick in the parish or to hospitals.

On the "days of remembrance" it will be comforting to come to God's House and in His presence recall the loving memory of dear ones whom we have "loved long since and lost awhile"; to kneel before the Altar and to feel their nearness and unite with them and all God's saints in one common worship—"knit together in one Communion and Fellowship in the Mystical Body of Christ our Lord."

Persons who wish to have a Sunday for "memorial flowers" may apply to any member of the Altar Guild or to the Rector. Cards bearing the names of those in whose memory the flowers are given, should always accompany the flowers.

ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

Subscribers through the envelope system, who have been away during the summer, are very generally paying the amounts that they have omitted giving during their absence. It is very gratifying to the Warden to receive these arrears, as he depends upon them to meet his financial obligations.

It is hoped that all subscribers who may be in arrears will kindly make them up at their earliest convenience.

RUMMAGE SALE!

On the 10th and 11th of November the Woman's Auxiliary will hold a Rummage Sale in the Parish House. Will you please send us anything for which you have no further use on or before November 9th? If you cannot send the things, notify Mrs. Frank Wells, 244 West Horter St., (Phone Ger. 8884) and they will be called for.

THE BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts, Troop 153, have resumed their weekly meetings in the Parish House on Monday evenings at 7.30 o'clock. Our troop at Christ Church is a "Red Star Troop," which has been awarded special honor for passing very rigid examinations covering all scout activities. An invitation to all younger boys in the Parish is extended by the Scoutmaster to visit the troop on Monday evenings in the Parish House.

The roll is not quite full at the present time and an opportunity to join this troop is open to the right kind of young fellows. Come around next Monday night!

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The Young People's Fellowship is beginning its third year and it bids fair to be more popular than ever.

Plans are being made for our winter's work. If there are any young people interested in dramatics it might be well for them to join the Fellowship before Christmas.

Also—if there are any young people interested in athletics, they might come around to a meeting and listen to our plans, or help us form better ones.

Just to remind you of our meeting nights—every Sunday night at seven o'clock, and second Thursday in the month at eight o'clock. All young people are invited.

Come, bring your friends, and let's make the Fellowship bigger and stronger than it ever has been!—H. M.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

Since 1889, the women of the Church have given three million dollars to the United Thank offering. This money is spent for the support of trained women workers in the Church's work. The work in the past has been good; the need at present is greater than ever and it is my hope to have every woman member of our Parish a contributor to the United Thank Offering. If there is anyone who would like to have one of the little "Blue Boxes" in which to put her offering, I will be glad to see that she gets it.

The semi-annual offering is due Wednesday, October 26th. Will those having contributions kindly let me have them by Friday, October 21st?

Mrs. John A. Siemons,
228 W. Johnson Street,
United Thank Offering Treasurer.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary is looking forward to an interesting and profitable winter. At the October Meeting the work for the ensuing year was definitely mapped out.

The first Monday of each month will be the business meeting. The second Monday will be the sewing meeting. At this time garments allotted to the Auxiliary by the Supply Bureau are made. These garments are sent eventually to the mission fields.

On the third Monday of the month the Mission Study Group will meet. Each meeting will be devoted to the study of a different country. It has also been decided to serve luncheon in connection with these meetings.

The Auxiliary regrets exceedingly that Mrs. Charles Heyer will not be with us this winter. Mrs. Heyer has served both as Educational Secretary and United Thank Offering Treasurer for several years. Her faithful and efficient services will be sadly missed.

SERVICES ON ALL SAINTS' DAY

The services on All Saints' Day—November 1st—will be Holy Communion, 7.30 and 11.00 A. M. At the latter service there will be an address by the Rector and the names of those who have entered into life eternal during the past year will be read from the chancel and prayer will be said in behalf of the blessed dead. Flowers on the altar on that day will be "in memory," given by those who desire to send them. After the service they will be sent to the sick in the Parish.

The dead in Christ are not very far from us. By this is not meant any false spiritualism, any physical nearness or sound, or sight or touch. That would be only to restore what is most imperfect, and what death was meant to end.

The nearness is that of the deeper, hidden bands which bind the souls of them that love Him together, in the Lord Jesus Christ. The body is resting in the grave under the care of God's holy angels till the glory of the resurrection morning, but the soul is with Christ. He knows it, cares for it, watches it, loves it, has drawn it to Himself in a closer union, has poured fuller graces upon it, has washed it in His own blood. It is one with Him in a fuller, deeper sense than ever before. The soul, too, must be gaining in all spiritual powers; it must be growing in love, in humility, in charity, in every grace.

It is surely right to think that it remembers those it loved on earth; that it prays for them; that it is fuller of abounding grace, and worships the eternal God, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, as it never worshipped here. And, therefore, in proportion as one left behind grows nearer to Christ he must be growing nearer to his loved one.

Both in Christ, they must also be very near to one another in Him; He is their meeting place. The departed one is on one side of the veil, the living on the other—that is all. Just as when two who love one another here are parted, and hear that they can meet, they hurry as quickly as possible to the place appointed, even so will the mourner try to draw near to the one taken away, by prayer, by good works, by patience, by gentle cheerfulness, and, above all, to "the trysting place of the soul," the Holy Communion. Wheresoever Christ is, there the dead in Christ must be. Thus it is that there must be deep and invisible bonds binding the holy living to the holy dead in Him.

They are awaiting us in Paradise. The reason of man teaches, and Holy Scriptures confirm it, that we shall know one another in that blessed land. We must believe that the dearest ties we have on earth, the things that most lead us unto God, have their fruition in heaven—not in any earthly way, but divested of all that is weak and poor and frail in them, in a transfigured glory. All our heart, and thought and feeling will indeed center in Christ, but these blessed ties will be the steps to the throne on which He sits. In loving any member in His mystical body, we shall only love Him the more who is the Head of it. Thus father and son, mother and daughter, husband and wife, friend with friend, one in Christ will still be one with each other. Somehow in this world, family ties, if they bind the members of the family closely together, serve also to separate the family in that degree, from the rest of the world. In the other life, there will be all the union and none of the separation. The one family of Christ, however much all earthly bonds may find in it then blessed fulfillment, will know no separation, and yet each earthly tie on which God has set the seal of His blessing, will have its distinct place in the eternal oneness.

Thus as the mourner here on earth seeks to draw near to God, each step will bring him closer to the soul at rest with God, until at last the veil shall be lifted, and, hand in hand, the glad company of the Redeemed, they will see the vision of God's glory, and at the Resurrection wake up after God's likeness.

James De Koven.

Lord, where Thou art our Holy Dead must be,
Unpierced, as yet, the Sacramental mist;
But we are nearest them and nearest Thee
At solemn Eucharist.
O Lord, we crave for those gone Home to Thee,
For those who made the earthly home so fair;
How little we may know, how little see,
Only that Thou art there.
Dear hands unclasped from ours are clasping Thee;
Thou holdest us for ever in Thy Heart;
So close the One Communion—are we In very truth, apart?
Lord, where Thou art our happy Dead must be;
And if with Thee, what then their boundless bliss!
Till faith be sight; and Hope reality;
Love's Anchorage is this.

STRANGERS AND OCCASIONAL ATTENDANTS

The Rector is pleased to see and to welcome the strangers and occasional worshippers who attend the services at Christ Church. He is very anxious to meet them and to welcome them to identify themselves more fully with Christ Church. No one ought to be content to remain an "outsider," without a Church which he can call his own. Every one needs the Church and the Church needs every one.

The Rector hopes that persons in this community, who are not settled in any Church, will make themselves known to him at once, giving him their names and addresses, and he will be pleased to call upon them and to welcome them to this "Church Home." Do not delay longer. Do it now.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves
with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them
to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when
they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church:
"A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a Com-municant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free
and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly
through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the Rector
or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary,
may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church
Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church,
Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment
Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise
the bequest is void.

The pews in this Church are all free and unassigned. The support of the Church and its missionary work and its charities is dependent upon the free will offering of those who worship here.

Every member should be a regular contributor through the weekly "Envelope System of Giving." Pledge cards will be found in the vestibules of the Church or may be had from the Verger. These cards should be signed with name and address, etc. (as indicated on the cards), and placed on the alms plate at any service. Packages of envelopes will then be furnished.

These pledges, being entirely voluntary, may be increased, decreased or cancelled, at any time by notifying the Rector.

A LETTER FROM THE RECTOR

MY DEAR FRIENDS:

In another column of the Chimes will be found a schedule of services during Lent.

It is needless for me to say how deeply concerned I am that the people of Christ Church shall consistently and conscientiously observe this blessed season, and appropriate the privileges and blessings which it offers to every one who will keep it in spirit and in truth.

While it is rightly called a season of fasting—a season when we deny ourselves many things which are accustomed to occupy much of our thoughts, our time and our resources, it is also and primarily a season of Feasting—a season when we may feast our minds, our hearts and our souls on the best and the highest and most enduring and worthwhile things in life, namely, an unselfish service for God and our fellow men.

Our Church does not belittle this holy season of Lent by attempting to prescribe definite restriction nor to dictate details of individual conduct. It would rather trust its children and appeal to their conscience, as to the proper observance of the season by each individual. It raises the whole question to the high plane of spiritual privilege and principle. Its appeal is expressed in the words of the collect: "O Lord, give us grace to use such abstinence, that our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey Thy godly motions in righteousness and true holiness." "Create and make in us, O God, new and contrite hearts!"

This, my friends, should be our prayer during Lent, "New and contrite hearts"; and our every endeavor should be "that our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey God's will and walk in His way in righteousness and true holiness."

Our Lent will then be both a fast and a feast—a fast from all things which would draw us away from the things of the Spirit, and a feast upon the things which nourish and enrich the soul.

Then as we meet at the altar of the Risen Lord on Easter morn we may sing with glad hearts the triumphant song, the psalm of victory: "Christ is risen from the dead; therefore, let us keep the feast; Not with old leaven, neither the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Faithfully your friend and Rector,

CHARLES HENRY ARNDT.

The Finance Committee of the Vestry has been making an effort to extend the use of the envelope system with a hope that every member of Christ Church Parish would realize his or her responsibility in the support of the work of the Parish and would subscribe regularly that it would be possible to anticipate the funds available for the support of the Church. The response to the appeal addressed to every member by circular letter met with an encouraging response but there are many still who do not avail themselves of this easy method of giving systematically. The accounting warden would be glad to receive pledges from those who have not already sent them and furnish envelopes for this purpose on receipt of such pledges.

EDWARD BAINS,
Accounting Warden.

SPECIAL SERVICES SUNDAY
EVENINGS IN LENT

An interesting series of services will be held in Christ Church on Sunday evenings in Lent. The service on each Sunday evening will be under the auspices of one or more of the Societies of the Parish Guild and the clergy will be assisted in the service of each evening by some member or members of the Societies. A special preacher will speak at each service.

The schedule, as arranged to the time of going to press, is as follows:

February 26th, First Sunday in Lent—In charge of the Church School and Men's Bible Class. Preacher: The Rev. Howard W. Gernand, Rector of the House of Paryer, Branchtown, Philadelphia.

March 4th, Second Sunday in Lent—In charge of the Girls' Friendly Society, Daughters of the King and Altar Guild. Preacher: The Rev. William B. Beach, D. D., Rector, Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown, Pa.

March 11th, Third Sunday in Lent—In charge of the Woman's Auxiliary and Mothers' Meeting. Preacher: The Rt. Rev. Walter H. Overs, D. D., former Bishop of Liberia.

March 18th, Fourth Sunday in Lent—In charge of the Young People's Fellowship, Boy Scouts and St. Christopher Guild. Preacher: The Rev. John Hart, Jr., Ph. D., ("Jack Hart"), Chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania.

March 25th, Fifth Sunday in Lent—In charge of the Vestry. Preacher: The Rev. John Mockridge, D. D., Rector St. James' Church, Philadelphia.

April 1st, Sunday next before Easter—In charge of the Church Choir. Cantata: "Olivet to Calvary," by John Maunder.

LANTERN SLIDE LECTURES

The Young People's Fellowship will give a series of Half-Hour Lantern Slide Lectures in the Parish House on Sunday evening during Lent, beginning at seven o'clock sharp. The series will consist of the following:

Sunday Evening, February 26: Church Work Among the Philippinos.

Sunday Evening, March 4th: Church

Work in Africa.

Sunday Evening, March 11th: Church Work Among the Indians.

Sunday Evening, March 18th: Church Work in China.

Sunday Evening, March 25th: Church Work in Latin-America.

Sunday Evening, April 1st: Church Work in Liberia.

All members of the Parish are cordially invited to attend this interesting series, on Sunday evenings, in the Parish House beginning at seven o'clock, sharp.

THE PARISH EXCEEDS ITS QUOTA FOR MISSIONS

For several years past Christ Church has slightly exceeded the quota ($4,600) which has been assigned to it for missions.

Report from the Diocesan headquarters credits our parish with having received, to date, $4,729.00. In addition to this amount, $260.00 has been given to "specials," which are not credited to the quota.

The Rector wishes to express his gratification to the members of the Parish in the increased interest which is being shown in the great work of the Church—the Church's mission.

It is hoped that this interest will increase and extend, until it includes every member of the Parish giving to missions, by contributing systematically through the envelopes.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
(Missionary Society)

Monday, January second the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held. The report from the secretary showed that there had been an average attendance of nineteen members during the past year, four speakers who have told of their various activities in the mission fields both at home and abroad and that under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary a mission study class for young women was held once a week during the Lenten season.

PROGRAM FOR THIS YEAR

This year we will continue our work as usual. The first Monday of the month is the business meeting. We are anxious to have a much larger attendance at these meetings. Every baptized woman of the parish is a member of the Woman's Auxiliary and should take an interest in the missionary work of the Church.

The second Monday is devoted to the sewing of garments for workers in the missionary fields. We are sadly in need of workers in this department.

On the third Monday of the month is held the Mission Study class. These meetings are preceded by a luncheon and they are most enjoyable affairs. All the women in the parish are cordially invited to attend these luncheons. The cost is only thirty-five cents per person.

During April we will hold a rummage sale. Please bear this in mind and save us anything for which you have no further use.

A. M. W.

TREASURER'S ANNUAL REPORT

The year 1927 opened with a balance of $23.63 in the Special Fund of the treasury of the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church, Germantown. This was soon wiped out as it was necessary to add to our contribution of $500 to the parish quota a sum of $50. This $500 was raised by the efforts of the Auxiliary over and above the regular financing of the Auxiliary, by the holding of two rummage sales which netted some $400, Self-Denial Cards and a large bridge party given by Mrs. William N. Johnson at her home, allowing the Treasury to close with a small balance to commence this year's work. This $500 was applied on the parish quota through the following missions: $100 to the Colored Work at St. Augustine's School, N. C.; $100 to the Episcopal Hospital through the Diocesan Work; $100 to the Foreign work in Hankow, China; $100 to the Domestic work being done in Anvik, Alaska, for the Mission of Christ Church; $100 to the salaries for the Indian workers in the field, through the Indian's Hope Committee.

Our regular work is carried on through the medium of envelopes, monthly offerings being made by some of the members of the Parish, the amount being entirely voluntary and in no instance a large amount; two offerings in the church All Saints' Day and Ascension Day—are set aside for the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, and a bequest from the estate of Miss Sallie Johnson which nets a quarterly income of $50.

Through these channels we are able to send a delegate to each of the Diocesan Committees—five in number—Colored, Diocesan, Foreign, Domestic and Indian's Hope—each month with $10 to put to any call that may seem most urgent to the delegate—and with the explicit request that it applies to the quota. Two specials were given, one of $10 to the Kuling School in Japan by an individual member; $5 from the Domestic Committee towards an auto. We can all remember not so many years ago when the delegates went to these meetings quite reluctantly, for they usually went empty handed, but since this envelope system has been in operation they quite look forward to the meetings, and the committees look forward with equal joy to the $50 a month that comes from Christ Church Auxiliary.

If we could only impress upon more women in the parish of the far-reaching good that their 5, 10 and 25 cents a month would accomplish in sending the gospel to all corners of the world, and that we each had a part in making the large part that was to bring the glad tidings to all people—we are sure there would not be a woman in the Parish who would not clamor for a little yellow envelope from the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church.

This fund also buys the materials for our yearly sewing through the Supply Bureau, the wool also; we meet our parochial obligations in helping to carry the overhead expenses of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese; we make our Corporate Gift to the Diocese, and many other things too numerous to mention. But think what we could do if every woman would contribute to the Woman's Auxiliary of this parish and even better come to our meetings the first Monday in the month, and to our Mission Reviews the third Monday in each month.

Envelopes can be had by application to Mrs. Topliff Johnson, 5605 Greene Street, or from the President, Mrs. T. P. Robinson, 148 East Washington Lane.

MISSION STUDY CLASS

The Girls' Friendly Society of Christ Church, Germantown, are happy to announce that there will be a Mission Study Class held in the Parish House under the auspices of the Friendly in their room, every Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, beginning Tuesday, February 28th. The subject this year is "The Church Awake" and the leader will be Miss Bertha Brown from All Saints' Church, Philadelphia.

A hearty invitation is extended to all girls, young women and older women in the parish to unite with the Girls' Friendly Society to make this Mission Study Class a spiritual and intellectual benefit to our church people.

L. J. JOHNSON, Branch President

THE LENTEN SERVICES

The schedule of special Lenten services will be found on another page of this issue of the "Chimes." The hours of the services have been arranged to meet as far as possible, the convenience of every class of people within the parish. The early celebration of the Holy Communion on Ash Wednesday has been appointed at half past seven o'clock, that business people and others may attend before going to their daily duties, and thus avail themselves of a proper beginning of this Holy Season. The afternoon services are put at an hour, 4.45 o'clock, when people, who remain in Germantown during the day, may conveniently attend.

It is hoped that others, also, will arrange to attend at least one afternoon service a week.

THE CHOIR

The music for Lent will be chosen with the Lenten spirit in mind. The organ numbers will be largely taken from that greatest and most religious composer, J. S. Bach. The choir will sing anthems of a quiet mood and the words taken from the Lenten lessons of the Scripture.

The organ preludes will also reflect the spirit of Lent. The object of the organ prelude is to prepare for the mood of the Service to follow and the numbers are selected with this in mind. The organist willingly will play any favorite selections, provided they are suitable for Church and will fit into the proper spirit of the Service for the day.

This year the choir will sing J. H. Maunders' Cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," on Palm Sunday evening. This is especially appropriate for the beginning of Holy Week. It begins with the Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem of our Lord, takes us through the events of Holy Week, concluding on Calvary.

On Easter Sunday morning the musical setting of the Holy Communion by Ch. Gounod, dedicated to St. Cecelia will be rendered.

Choir rehearsals are faithfully attended every Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Any one who would like to participate in this branch of service will be welcomed. Just speak to the Rector or Choirmaster. We take pleasure in introducing our soprano soloist, Miss Jane M. Birkhead.

H. GORDON THOMAS, Choirmaster.

NOTICE TO PARENTS AND CHILDREN IN THE PARISH

It is the desire of the National Council of our Church that every young person in the Church may have an opportunity to share in the "United Lenten Offering" this year. If you are not a member of the Church School, you still have the privilege of a mite box. Or if you have any children who are too young to attend the Church School, you may act for them by having a mite box for them. Here is a chance for every child in the parish—even the youngest—to share in the Children's Lenten Offering for Missions. Mite boxes may be secured from the Rector or from Mr. Honaman.

E. M. H.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

The annual Church School Christmas Carol Service was held on January 1. There was a splendid attendance, both of scholars and parents and friends of the scholars. In addition to the singing of some beautiful carols, an excellent address was given to the school by the Rev. Charles E. Spalding. He brought to us the message of the spiritual meaning of Christmas in our lives.

On January 4 the Church School entertainment was held. The Young People's Fellowship presented a splendid play, and Santa Claus came to add Christmas cheer. The entertainment of the Primary Department was held on February 28. To Mr. Clausen belongs the credit for the success of the entertainment, since he coached the Young People's Fellowship play and arranged the evening's program.

Lent is approaching, and that brings to us again a splendid opportunity to share in the privilege of aiding the great missionary work of Christ Church. Again we shall have a chance for sacrifice and contribution. The Lenten mite boxes will be distributed on the Sunday before Lent. We sincerely hope that the parents of the children of the school will take an active interest in our Lenten offering. See that your children have their mite boxes! See that they use them properly! See that Lent and giving mean something real to them.

There will be several organized efforts on the part of the Church School to increase the Lenten Offering. Announcement as to these will be made from time to time.

Attention of the teachers and scholars of the School is especially called to the Half Hour Service for Young People, held in the Church Thursday afternoons, during Lent at 4.45. A short address will be given to young people. Parents are invited to bring their children and teachers of the School to attend with their scholars. Let there be a large attendance of young people every Thursday afternoon during Lent at 4.45.

E. M. H.

BIBLE CLASS

The Men's Bible Class has shown no decided progress, but the usual rate of attendance has been maintained. This is not discouraging, however, for the growth within church organizations among adults is as a rule a slow one.

The teacher appreciates the constant attendance of a certain number who can always be found in their places on Sunday mornings and he sincerely hopes that others can so release themselves from the god Morpheus or from whatever other god of their own making it may be, that they will seek for a seat on Sunday mornings at 9.45.

The men and teacher miss from their ranks their secretary, Mr. John Baynton. He was one who was ever ready to help, always faithful and loyal.

Mr. Thomas Meryweather, 43 Montana Street, has been appointed to the position of secretary.

The first of the Sunday evening Lenten services is to be under the auspices of the Church School teachers and Bible Class. The special preacher is to be announced later. It is hoped that the service will be well attended by all men.

A cordial welcome is extended to every man in Christ Church Parish to meet with us at 10.00 o'clock. Come and bring a friend.

The following resolution was passed by the Class on the death of our loyal and faithful member:

WHEREAS John Baynton, a member and secretary of this Class, has passed from our company to the more blessed fellowship of Paradise, and

WHEREAS, by his untiring efforts and kindly manner he was endeared to us all, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Men's Bible Class take this means of expressing our sorrow in our great loss and our happiness in having come in contact with such a Godly man.

R. W. E.

CHURCH SERVICES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS ON THURSDAYS

Special attention of parents and young people in the parish is called to the service every Thursday afternoon in Lent, which will be adapted to young people, with a special address by the Rector.

Teachers of the Church School, with the scholars, should endeavor to attend these services. Parents are invited to accompany their children. It is hoped that the boys and girls of the Parish will set aside Thursday afternoons in Lent to attend this service. Come and bring your young friends with you.

CONSULT WITH THE RECTOR ABOUT CONFIRMATION

The Bishop will visit this Parish (D. V.) on Maundy Thursday evening, April 5th, to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The Rector urges all persons who have not been confirmed to give their names to him at once. He will be pleased to talk to any one on the subject after any service or by special appointment. Let no one delay. If you have doubts, come frankly to your Rector and talk them over with him. One goes to his lawyer when in doubt in regard to the law, or to his physician for medical advice. If you are troubled in mind or conscience, go to your Rector and tell him your troubles. He will help you.

The Prayer Book in the Communion Office, so states it, "If any of you can not quiet his own conscience, but requireth further comfort or counsel, let him come to me, or to some other Minister of God's Word and open his grief; that he may receive such godly counsel and advice as may tend to the quieting of his conscience and the removing of all scruple and doubtfulness."

The Rector is most anxious to help anyone who may be in doubt or trouble of any kind and will gladly do all within his power for any one who comes to him.

A WORD TO PARENTS

Will not parents and others, who are interested in the welfare of the young, call the attention of all children eligible for Confirmation to the Instructions given in the Parish House on Sunday afternoons at four o'clock?

Parents and adult friends of the young are cordially invited to come with them.

Let no parent or sponsor neglect his duty this Lent to the children whom God has given him to bring up in His fear and love.

At the Baptism of your children this solemn obligation was placed upon you.

"Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose." Are you doing your duty?

A REQUEST TO EVERY COMMUNICANT

The Rector repeats his request to all persons in this Parish who attend the service of the Holy Communion. The request is this: After receiving at the Holy Communion, return to your seats and remain to the end of the service, until after the benediction.

Unless ill or physically unable to remain, PLEASE do not leave the Church until the service is over! Can I put the request more kindly? If so, I want to do it, and shall be glad to be told how. But I must insist that this request be complied with by all. Everyone will realize the propriety and reasonableness of this request.

LITERATURE FOR LENTEN READING

In the interest of increasing a more general reading of religious and Church literature throughout the Parish, and thus to create a larger number of interested and well informed Churchmen, I have had placed in the vestibules of the Church a booklet, kindly furnished by the Moorehouse Publishing Co., of Milwaukee, giving a list of a few books especially suitable for Lenten reading.

On looking over this booklet, I believe that every one in the Parish will find at least two or three books that will contribute to a constructive Lent and be helpful in their religious life. I should suggest that a selection of books from this list be made at once, and an order be sent to the publishers as soon as possible, in order that the Lenten season may be "begun, continued and ended" in a profitable course of religious and Church readings.

The price of these booklets is very low, and is within the reach of any, who may really desire to read them.

To persons who wish to follow a more thorough or extended course of religious and Church reading than the literature included in the above list provides, I shall be pleased to suggest other books which may be helpful to them or to loan them such books as I may have in my own private library.

I am quite sure that if members of the Parish will resolve to spend a part of each day during this Lent in following a systematic course of religious and Church readings, in addition to their faithful, daily reading of the Bible, this season will be full both of pleasure and spiritual profit and will bring a rich and a lasting blessing.

BOOKS IN THE VESTIBULE

The Rector has also placed in the Tulpehocken Street vestibule of the Church a bookcase, in which will be found a number of books on religious and Church subjects.

The object of placing these books in the vestibule is to afford to all, who wish to use them, an opportunity of access to some of the best authorities on religious and kindred subjects, in which everyone, especially Churchmen, should be well informed.

These books will be loaned, without charge, to anyone who desires to read them.

The books may be kept for two weeks, after which time, they must be returned, with the privilege, however, of renewal for one week, if so desired.

No person may receive more than one book at a time.

Among this collection of books may be found a wide range of subjects, relating to religion and the teachings of the Church. There are a number especially suitable for Lenten reading. A list of the books is posted in the vestibule.

All attendants at the service of Christ Church are welcome to make free use of these books; the only conditions are that they be used carefully and returned within the time specified.

They are placed in the vestibule of the Church that the Congregation may have more ready access to them.

The books will be in charge of Mr. Honaman and Mr. Eastman, who will be glad to loan them to anyone who may apply.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

A jolly crowd, members of the Mothers' Meeting, assembled in the Parish House on Tuesday afternoon, January 10. The occasion was the Annual Christmas Dinner and Entertainment. A sumptuous turkey dinner, with a whole lot of "extras" was served by the ladies in charge. During the dinner the members were entertained by selections on the violin by Master Ralph McWilliams, accompanied on the piano by his grandmother, Mrs. Bolay. After the dinner the guests were entertained by a comedian from the city.

Before adjournment, Mrs. Reckerd, in behalf of the members of the Meeting, presented Mrs. J. I. Morrison and Mrs. U. G. Rowley with tokens of the appreciation and affection of the members.

The "Mothers' Meeting" is held in the Parish House every Tuesday afternoon from 2.30 to 4.15. All busy mothers—young and old—are invited to attend these meetings and share in the pleasure they give.

We are glad to welcome Mrs. J. Frederick Thomas, who has joined the committee of ladies in charge of the meetings.

Begin Lent aright! On Ash Wednesday there will be a Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 A. M. Before going to your duties of the day—your business, your school, your household duties—"come apart for awhile with God," begin this Lenten season aright by dedication of yourself, your soul and body, to God and by receiving the Blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ. Begin aright!

Persons who are willing to assist in the singing at the Lenten services are requested to give their names to the Rector. There are a number of persons in the Parish who might render this much as their Lenten offering. The Rector will gladly welcome them and will appreciate their services.

Make it a Lenten object to bring at least one child to Holy Baptism or some "backslider" back again to his church duties and privileges, or to lead some hesitating friend to Christ and to Confirmation.

Some people are habitually late to church service. The habit should be overcome. To enter the service late is disconcerting to others and seriously interrupts the service. It is a form of selfishness, on the part of those who practice it. One should be in church long before the service begins, to prepare one's mind and spirit to receive the precious things that there are given. No one who rushes to church or comes in late can be so prepared.

Make some specific, definite object your duty during this Lent. Let it not be a "negative Lent," but a positive Lent; something definitely undertaken and done; something unselfish, something constructive to the bringing in of the Kingdom of God and His Christ!

The Prayer Book is given by the church to be used by the worshippers. It should be opened and the eyes of each worshipper should be riveted upon it. During the singing of the canticles, instead of looking about the congregation or at the choir, follow the words in your prayer book. However familiar you may be with the service, follow, with your book before you, every sentence, every collect, Gospel, Epistle, as the minister reads it. It is called the "Book of Common Prayer," and so it is intended to be—common between minister and people; every service in it to be entered into by minister and people together; and this purpose cannot be carried out if the people do not follow the minister as he reads the service.

Keep your Prayer Book open and your eyes on the service as it is read by the minister!

And this leads to the further suggestion that everyone should own and carry with him his own Prayer Book and Hymnal. Every worshipper should bring with him to church and take home with him his own personal Prayer Book and Hymnal. Your Prayer Book will then come to be hallowed by its long and faithful usage and its sacred associations.

Bring your own Prayer Books and Hymnals to church with you and take them home with you when you go!

The Prayer Books and Hymnals at the doors of the church are primarily intended for strangers.

NOT WHAT BUT WHOM

"Not what, but WHOM, I do believe,
For Christ is more than all the creeds,
And His full life of gentle deeds
Shall all the creeds outlive.
Not what I do believe, but WHOM!
Who walks beside me in the gloom?
Who shares the burdens wearisome?
Who all the dim way doth illumine.
And bids me look beyond the tomb
The larger life to live?—
Not what I do believe, but WHOM!

"God always speaks to sincere men in Church. Every time they come into his sanctuary God reveals himself to them; it becomes to them the Garden of the Lord, and they go forth once more to the tasks of life with the radiant vision of God in their souls, and the fragrant perfume of His presence in their characters."

WHY WAIT?

"I wish he could have seen you before he died." That was what someone said to the Rector the other day. It is a strange idea in the minds of some, that the clergy should never be called until the sick person is very sick or perhaps almost at the point of death. It would be much more satisfactory for all concerned if the information could come whenever the person is sick enough to call a doctor. We wish to remind the people of the parish that the clergy are just as close to them as the telephone, and that they are always glad to come when called, but up to the present time no invention has been discovered which enables them to know when people are sick without being told or called.—St. Stephen's Parish Notes.

THE STORY OF A PATCH-WORK QUILT

Some years ago the members of the Mothers' Meeting made a patch-work quilt. It was large; it was warm; it was very pretty. But the question was just what was best to do with it. After much consultation, it was decided to send it as a Missionary offering to an Indian Catechist.

We were some time in securing the name of a Catechist, but finally through a missionary who was much interested in work among the Indians, we were given the name of Chief Yellow Calf of St. Michael's Mission, at Ethete, Wyoming. Accordingly the quilt was sent but there was no letter received to tell us whether our precious piece of work had reached its destination. On making inquiries, we found that the quilt had been received safely. Following are the letters received a short time ago from Chief Yellow Calf and from a worker at the Mission:

St. Michael's Mission,

Ethete, Wyo.

Dear Mrs. Arndt:

I got that quilt what you had sent, and after I got it I give a letter to the merchant here at Mission to send it to you. I was glad and say thank-you in that letter. I think he didn't send it to you, and now as I heard from you asked me that quilt I am sorry I didn't let you know I was so glad, and I said thank-you for send me that quilt. I still lived around here at Mission. Last year I was in the boys' building, but I am stayed here by Indians its alright for me to go to other places at Arapaho camps, and now I am going to sent the necklace, for a good time that Thanksgiving Day is coming. We all glad that Thanksgiving and Xmas is coming near. I am very glad that you don't forget me, and now answer this letter. This is all, will say good-bye.

From Yellow Calf.

Reply soon.

St. Michael's Mission,

Wind River Reservation,

Ethete, Wyoming.

Mrs. Helen Falkner Arndt,
Christ Church Rectory,
Germantown, Phila.

My dear Mrs. Arndt:

Mrs. Cooper has forwarded your inquiry about the comforter which was sent to Chief Yellow Calf last spring to us here at the Mission. I have seen the Chief and questioned him about the comforter, and he seemed quite distressed that you had never had any response about it. He seemed very appreciative of the gift, and told me in the sign language how he had used it. He also told me that someone here had promised to write for him, but thinks probably the letter was never sent. I gave him your address, and he promised to have his daughter, who has been in our school here, write and express his thanks. He is a very eloquent old man and if you could hear and understand him, or rather I should say, see and understand his sign language, you would have no doubt but that he has enjoyed many a refreshing sleep under the comforter. Also, that he is very thankful for the gift.

I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

O. H.

These letters show how great was the appreciation of this Indian Chief, who, to the best of his ability, is leading his brothers toward the Light.

Chief Yellow Calf's letter was accompanied by an unique bead necklace made by the Indians and sent to the members of the Meeting who had attended to the correspondence, but as there were so many women who helped to make the quilt, it is a little difficult to decide as to whom the necklace really belongs.

Notice

Persons who desire to connect themselves
with the Parish are requested to hand their names and addresses to the Rector. He will be pleased to call on them and to welcome them
to the Parish.

Parishioners should notify the Rector when
they change their address.

Note the following Canon of the Church:
"A Communicant moving from one Parish to another shall procure from the Rector (if any) of the Parish of his late residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a Com-municant in good standing." Title II: Canon 12.

The pews and sittings in the Church are free
and unassigned. The support of the work depends upon the voluntary offering of the members of the Congregation. All are cordially welcomed and are invited to contribute regularly by pledging themselves to pay weekly
through the Envelope System such sums as they may be able to afford.

Pledge cards may be had from the Rector
or the ushers. The pledge, being voluntary,
may be increased, decreased or cancelled at any time by notifying the Rector.

The following is the form of bequest to be used in willing money to the Church:

I give and bequeath to the Rector, Church
Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church,
Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, the sum of

.....
dollars for the purpose of the Endowment
Fund of said Church.

Note—The Act of April 26, 1855, requires that a will containing a bequest to religious or charitable purposes must be executed at least one month before decease, and be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Otherwise
the bequest is void.

"Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?"

The "Forty Days" are now drawing to a close. The Lenten shadows deepen and we now enter Holy Week—into the mystery of the Passion of our Blessed Lord.

There rises before our eyes the Cross; and on the Cross—behold, crowned with thorns, the Immaculate Son of God, "who taketh away the sins of the world!"

"Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?"

HOLY WEEK

Let each one of us during this Holy Week, which now draws near, let each one of us leave behind all distracting thoughts, all thoughts of the world, with its petty, trifling schemes and vanities, and let us contemplate in wonder, awe and love, the closing scene of our Lord's earthly life. Let us follow Him day by day from His triumphal entrance on Palm Sunday into the city He so dearly loved, until, weary and exhausted, He slowly goes His way along the "Via Dolorosa," passing through the gates of the city, which rejected Him, up to the Mount of Calvary, to the Cross.

At the daily Celebrations of the Holy Communion during Holy Week, the Church appoints in her Prayer Book, that each of the four Evangelists shall be heard in his narrative of the Passion and provides an appropriate Epistle and Gospel for each day.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated, accordingly, in Christ Church, every week day morning in Holy Week, until Maundy Thursday, inclusive. The service will be at half-past nine o'clock.

In the afternoons of Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 4.45 there will be service and short "Meditation" on the Sacred events of each day.

On Maundy Thursday evening the Rt. Rev. Julius Walter Atwood, D. D., former Bishop of Arizona, will visit this Parish and administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. The service will be at 7.45 o'clock.

GOOD FRIDAY

The Daily Meditations in Holy Week will culminate on Good Friday with the Three Hour Meditation on the Seven Words from the Cross. The Meditation will be conducted by the Rev. Alfred M. Smith, of St. Clement's Church, Philadelphia. The service will begin at 12 o'clock noon.

This three-hour vigil will be preceded by a service at half-past ten o'clock, consisting of the Penitential Office, Pro-Anaphora and Address.

Where else would one, who realizes the meaning of this great and awful day that commemorates the Redeemer's suffering for the sins of the world—where else would one want to spend these sacred hours save in the House of God, and how else, save in Meditation, in Intercession and in Prayer?

Devout minds have found in these precious hours beside the Cross a deeper and a fuller realization of the wonderful love of God to us and the awful sinfulness of our nature. Let every seriously minded person in the Parish keep the day in solemn fasting, in humiliation and in prayer!

"Before the Cross, whose cruel wood
Uphears the dying Son of God,
Today my only thought shall be:
He died thereon for love of me!"

SERVICES ON EASTER DAY

The Services on Easter day will be as follows:

Church School's Easter

Carol Service 7.30 P. M.
Address by

Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week
Holy Communion 9.30 A. M.

The Rector will be assisted in the Services on Easter Day by the Rev. William W. Steel.

EASTER COMMUNION

As these solemn days of Lent draw to a close, every soul that has followed our Lord during these past forty days, in His fastings, in His temptations, in His suffering and at the Cross, will be prepared and will yearn to be with Him on the Day of His Resurrection in the joy of Easter Communion.

Easter is the "Queen of the Festivals" and throughout the Christian ages has been the "Day of Days," when the faithful have solemnized the Resurrection of our Lord by coming to the Holy Communion.

Our "Holy Communion" then becomes our "Holy Eucharist," that is as the term implies, our "holy thanksgiving."

If, then, we have spent this Lent in a faithful following of our Lord, we may truly share at the Holy Eucharist on Easter morning, the joy of His Resurrection. On this Resurrection morn, we may "lift up our hearts" and be in the very presence of our Risen Lord and with all God's saints in "one Communion and fellowship in the mystical body of His Son, Christ our Lord" and with the "angels and arch-angels and with all the company of Heaven," join in the beatific praise, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts."

This is the Communion of the saints. This is the beatific vision St. John saw "when in the spirit of the Lord's Day, Heaven was opened"; and this is the beatific vision vouchsafed to all God's saints who draw near unto Him in spirit and in truth on this Great Day of the Lord—the Day of His Resurrection from the Dead.

EASTER GREETINGS

The Rector wishes a happy Easter, full of grace, and peace and joy to every Christian heart! Out of the darkness of Good Friday the Easter light shines clear. May it, indeed, so shine into every soul in this Parish, brightening every life with hope and joy.

The shadows are interpreted by the light. Looking back, from the brightness of Easter morn into the darkness of the preceding days, we see the darkness was the precursor of the dawn.

What a difference it would make in every life, were we to see more clearly through the light of the Easter Day the meaning of the dark days of our life,—our failures, our temptations, our trials, the tragedies of our life!

God grant that on this Easter Day the members of our Parish may have some measure of that transforming vision! Let us thank God for the Easter revelation of the Risen Lord, whereby we know that all darkness, whether of pain, or disappointment, or sorrow, or death itself, is, to those who trust and live in the spirit of Christ, the herald of new life and hope and joy.

We may rejoice, then, even when we look into the grave: for we know that "He is not here, He is risen!"

Let us weave this blessed Easter truth into our lives! Let it give courage and hope to discouraged ones, comfort to the mourners—joy to every soul; for Christ has brought life and immortality to light! "I am the Resurrection and the Life," said the Lord; "he that believeth in Me, though he be dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die."

CHOIR NOTES

The Choir is working faithfully on the Easter music. This last month we lost the services of Mr. Ross, our Tenor Soloist who has ably filled the position for several years. He goes to a church in Roxborough where we wish him the best of success. We have been fortunate in securing Mr. Alfred H. Gonzalos to take his place. Mr. Gonzalos has had much experience in Episcopal Choirs and is himself an Episcopalian.

The music for Easter Day will be Gounod's St. Cecilia Communion Service, which contains the famous Sanctus. But please note that, with the exception of the Creed, the entire Service is used, including the Benedictus, Agnus Dei and the Gloria in Excelsis. This is the only Service of the year at which this beautiful Service is sung. The climax of the entire Easter Service is the Gloria in Excelsis which of course comes at the end. To make this a part of your own praise to God you must remain through the entire Service.

Just a few notes on the music:

St. Cecilia was a Roman lady of noble birth who suffered martyrdom in Rome about 229. She has long been looked upon as the tutelary saint of music. In Paris it was the custom to have a solemn mass on St. Cecilia's Day in the Church of St. Eustache for the benefit of the "Society of Artist Musicians." A new mass was always written for the occasion by some eminent musician. Gounod wrote his for the year 1855, which is the only one that has lived through the years.

On the Easter and Palm Sunday musical programs are two famous organ numbers by the greatest German Church composer, J. S. Bach. These have been selected because they suggest the most joyous praise to God. The Soprano solo, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," from Handel's "Messiah" expresses the main thought of the Easter. The two numbers by Cesar-Franck and the mass by Gounod represent the best of the French School. The two Franck numbers are joyous but there is an undercurrent of sadness to remind us of the terrible price the Master paid. Cesar-Franck was organist of St. Clotilde for thirty-two years. Stainer represents the English School. We here have the best Church composers of Germany, France and England all combining in an American Service to celebrate and render praise to One Lord and Master.

A LETTER FROM THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa.,
March 21, 1928.

To the Members of
Christ Church,
Germantown

As has been the custom in past years, the season of Easter brings to us on that day an opportunity to present our offering toward the support of the Church of which we are members, of an amount sufficient to maintain and continue the work of the Parish during the current year.

The Finance Committee of the Vestry has had submitted to it by the Accounting Warden the condition of the finances of the Church as of March 1, 1928, and from such condition it appears that in order to meet the anticipated necessary expenses for the current year, there should be an offering at Easter of not less than $1200.

Therefore, the Finance Committee would respectfully commend the matter to the careful consideration and conscientious and generous action of each member, to the end that the amount required—$1200—may be realized and that your work, as represented by your Church, may go forward throughout the year.

May we ask that each one keep this matter in mind, so that the Easter offering this year may represent the interest and effort, not only of a few, but of all the members of the Church.

FINANCE COMMITTEE,

Wm. N. Johnson, Chairman
T. H. Atherton
U. G. Rowley
Edward Bains, Accounting Warden.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

An election of Vestrymen of this Parish is to be held in the Parish House on Easter Monday, April 9th, between the hours of 5 and 6 P. M. Four Vestrymen are to be elected this year. The Vestrymen whose terms expire are Messrs. Lennig, Woodroffe, Morris and Atherton.

OUR EASTER OFFERING

Our offering on Easter Day should be a true expression of our love and loyalty to Jesus Christ. As He suffered and sacrificed and died for us, and rose again, that we through Him might have life eternal, so should we present on Easter Day such an offering as will mean something in His sight—will mean a real love and devotion, a genuine spirit of self-sacrifice for Him Whom we call our Lord and Saviour.

There should be no small coin on the plate on Easter Day, unless the giver is very poor. In that case the offering may be more worthy and more acceptable to God than the larger offering of the rich.

But my observation and experience during a long ministry has convinced me that the small coin in the offering is not given, as a rule, by the poorer members of the Parish. It is given by the careless, by the flippant, by the worldling, who have money to spend on themselves and for their own selfish ends, but economize in their gifts to God. And such giving, I repeat, is in no sense, worthy to be called a religious "offering," because it is devoid of the very essence of Christian giving—it is wanting in the spirit of sacrifice; it does not represent the spirit of love and devotion and consecration to Christ.

The Church regards the giving of money at the services, in no sense, as a "collection." The term "collection," in reference to giving of money at the service of worship should never be used. It is an offering, an offering to God, and, as such, is an essential part of worship; and the Rubric in the Prayer Book emphasizes this and directs that "the devotions of the people shall be reverently brought to the priest, who shall humbly present it (to God) and place it upon the Holy Table."

Christian giving is an act of joy, because it is prompted by the spirit of love. And how much love is there in the person, how much Christian joy can come to anyone—who puts on the plate on Easter morning an insignificant amount, "that which costs him nothing."

"Freely have ye received, freely give."

CONFIRMATION

The Rt. Rev. Julius Walter Atwood, D. D., former Bishop of Arizona, will visit this Parish on Maundy Thursday evening (April 5th) to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. It is not yet "too late" for persons who are moved by the Holy Spirit of God to confess Jesus Christ, to be confirmed. Some day it may be "too late." The Rector will be glad to talk with anyone on this subject, after any service, or by appointment.

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS

The flowers in the chancel on Easter

Day will all be memorials of the blessed dead. Persons in the congregation who wish to have flowers in the chancel on Easter Day in memory of friends who rest in Paradise are cordially invited to send blooming plants or cut flowers to the Parish House on Saturday preceding Easter, not later than noon.

Names of senders of flowers, together with the names of those in whose memory the flowers are sent, are requested to accompany the gifts.

Persons who wish to forward money contributions for flowers may send the same either to the Rector or to Miss Chase, President of the Altar Guild, 152 East Washington Lane. Flowers will be purchased by the Altar Guild and the memorials placed on the altar. Contributions of money are requested to be sent as soon as possible that an early selection of flowers may be made.

The plants and flowers are sent to the sick after Easter.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

Christ Church School is busily engaged in its Lenten work. The whole school is striving to make this year's Lenten offering a genuine example of devotion and sacrifice. Each scholar has a mite box and all are using them to the best advantage.

On March 17 a united effort was made to increase our Lenten offering; a moving picture show was held in the Parish House. The pictures were a travel picture of the Hawaiian Islands and an appropriate comedy. About fifty dollars was realized from this effort. The school extends its thanks to those of the Parish who helped to make the entertainment successful.

On the first Sunday in Lent a Corporate Communion of the Church School was held at the early celebration of the Holy Communion. About fifty teachers and scholars were present. Following the Service a breakfast was held in the Parish House, prepared by Miss Clifton and Miss Naegle, two of the Church School teachers.

The Sunday evening service on the first Sunday in Lent was under the auspices of the Church School. The preacher was the Rev. Mr. Gernand, of Branchtown, Philadelphia.

The school is preparing for the regular Easter Carol Service which will be held on Easter Sunday Evening at 7.15, in the Church. The address will be given by Leon C. Palmer, B. D., General Secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the United States. Thirteen scholars will be graduated from the Primary to the Senior department, and about fifty will receive awards for perfect attendance.

The Superintendent is gratified to have six young people of the Parish take mite boxes, in addition to the children of the Church School.

We hope that many friends and relatives of the scholars will attend the Carol Service on Easter evening.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. of Christ Church, has had one of the most inspiring Lenten Seasons in its history.

Miss Bertha Brown, of South Phila., has carried us through five Tuesday nights with the "Church at Work" as our text book.

We have come to know our beautiful Prayer Book more personally: what it should mean to our private lives, as well as to our Church lives. We have reviewed and refreshed our minds and hearts with the meaning and spiritual awakening of our souls to the Sacraments—through our baptism to our privilege in the Holy Communion.

To struggle against being "Gospel Hardened," in other words to be familiar only in a mechanical way, but come into Church with our minds cleared as far as possible from all worldly things and partake of the spiritual feast there provided for us.

We cannot thank Miss Brown enough for all she has brought us and we deeply appreciate the effort she has made to come from one end of the city to the other these Tuesday nights to give us her message.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

"Everything a Christian person does for Christ which makes the world more nearly His, has its missionary aspect. Every Christian is a Missionary." What is the Woman's Auxiliary? "An Auxiliary to the National Council in all its departments," hence "it is an organization to be helpful to the whole work of the whole Church."

The above excerpts are taken from a recent article in the Spirit of Missions, and I am forwarding them to the readers of "The Chimes," so that they may help many in our Parish to realize the relation of our work to the great task of the whole Church. We always need the intelligent interest of every member of Christ Church in our endeavors, so that we may be co-workers together for still bigger things.

Thanks due to our Supply Secretary and the group of sewers, our allotment of sewing is nearly completed. At the monthly business meetings we have an average attendance of twenty (20) members, and at the monthly luncheons, usually between 20 and 30 are present; we are anxious to have more women in the Parish with us on these enjoyable occasions.

On April 19th and 20th we are planning to hold a "Rummage Sale" in the Parish House and we most earnestly solicit your help by contributions of articles of any description. We can not have a Sale without the Rummage! Please notify Mrs. Frank Wells, 244 West Hottter St., Phone Ger. 8884, by April 16th if Rummage is to be called for, as we shall have to engage a truck for collection in advance. We shall need many helpers for the sale on the above named dates and also on April 18th to arrange and mark the goods. Surely no enterprise is too tremendous or too humble for helpful women to work and pray for, provided it is for the Extension of Christ's Kingdom.
